Introduction

"Humor is the key to a long-lasting life."—jkl

Toward the end of 1997 I embarked upon a journey to compile as many jokes as I could. I decided to name the book "Internet Jokes" due to the origin of most of the jokes. If you have access to the web or e-mail I'm sure you too have received many jokes at one time or another. I was receiving so many jokes via e-mail that I decided to categorize each joke and put them in a book.

The jokes that follow are not all "G" rated folks. Then again they are all not "R" rated jokes either. If you are easily offended, this book may not be for you. Mostly everything in this book (99%) came to me via e-mail. You will find many interesting pieces of information, (whether reliable or not is yet to be known), amusing tidbits and a wealth of laughter. I gave credit to the originator of the contents whenever feasible. I tried to be as tasteful as humanely possible and not include any jokes that would be too offensive or were in poor taste. I certainly hope you enjoy reading this book as much as I enjoyed compiling it for your reading delight. jkl

Occupations

A mother and her small daughter were in New York City. The mother was trying to hail a cab, when her daughter noticed several wildly dressed women who were loitering on a nearby street corner. The mother finally hailed her cab and they both climbed in, at which point the daughter asks her mother, "Mommy, what are all those ladies waiting for by that corner?"

"Those ladies are waiting for their husbands to come home from work," replied the mother.

The cabby, upon hearing this exchange, turns to the mother and says, "Ah, C'mon lady! Tell your daughter the truth! For crying out loud, they're hookers!"

The mother became quite annoyed with the cabby for being so blunt. A brief period of silence followed, and the daughter then asked, "Mommy, do those ladies have any children?"

"Of course dear. Where do you think cabbies come from?"

Recently a teacher, a garbage collector, and a lawyer wound up together at the Pearly Gates. St. Peter informed them that in order to get into Heaven, they would each have to answer one question.

St. Peter addressed the teacher and asked, "What was the name of the ship that crashed into the iceberg? They just made a movie about it." The teacher answered quickly, "That would be the Titanic." St. Peter let him through the gate.

St. Peter turned to the garbage man and, figuring Heaven didn't REALLY need all the odors that this guy would bring with him, decided to make the question a little harder: "How many people died on the ship?" Fortunately for him, the trash man had just seen the movie and answered, "about 1,500." "That's right! You may enter."

St. Peter then turned to the lawyer. "Name them."

This guy is flying in a hot air balloon and realizes he is lost. He reduces height and spots a man down below. He lowers the balloon further and shouts:

"Excuse me, can you tell me where I am?"

The man below says: "Yes, you're in a hot air balloon, hovering 30 feet above this field."

"You must work in Information Technology", says the balloonist. "I do" replies the man. "How did you know?"

"Well," says the balloonist, "everything you have told me is technically correct, but it's of absolutely no use to anyone!"

The man below says, "You must be a manager!" "I am," replies the balloonist, "but how did you know?"

"Well," says the man, "you don't know where you are, or where you're going, but you expect me to be able to help. And, you're in exactly the same position you were in before we met, but now it's my fault!"

Q: How do you embarrass an archaeologist?
A: Give him a tampon and ask him which period it came from

Two doctors were in a hospital hallway one day complaining about Nurse Jenny. "She's incredibly dumb. She does everything absolutely backwards." said one doctor. "Just last week, I told her to give a patient 2 milligrams of percocet every 10 hours. She gave him 10 milligrams every 2 hours. He nearly died on us!" The second doctor said, "That's nothing. Earlier this week, I told her to give a patient an enema every 24 hours. She tried to give him 24 enemas in one hour! The guy nearly exploded!" Suddenly, they hear this blood-curdling scream from down the hall. "Oh my God!" said the first doctor, "I just realized I told Nurse Jenny to prick Mr. Smith's boil!"

On their way to a justice of the peace to get married, a couple has a fatal car accident. The couple is sitting outside heaven's gate waiting on St. Peter to do the paperwork so they can enter. While waiting, they wonder if they could possibly get married in Heaven. St. Peter finally showed up, and they asked him. St. Peter says, "I don't know, this is the first time anyone has ever asked. Let me go find out", and he leaves. The couple sit for a couple of months and begin to wonder if they really should get married in Heaven, what with the eternal aspect of it all. "What if it doesn't work out, they wonder. "Are we stuck together forever?" St. Peter returns after yet another month, looking somewhat be-draggled. "Yes," he informs the couple, "you can get married in Heaven." "Great," says the couple. "But what if things don't work out? Could we also get a divorce in Heaven?" St. Peter, red-faced, slams his clipboard onto the ground. "What's wrong?" exclaims the frightened couple. "Geez!" St. Peter exclaims, "It took me three months to find a priest up here! Do you have any idea how long it's going to take for me to find a lawyer?"

At a medical convention, a male doctor and a female doctor start eyeing each other. The male doctor asks her to dinner and she accepts. As they sit down at the restaurant, she excuses herself to go and wash her hands.

After dinner, one thing leads to another and they end up in her hotel bedroom. Just as things get hot, the female doctor interrupts and says she has to go and wash her hands. Once she comes back they go for it.

After the sex session, she gets up and says she is going to wash her hands. As she comes back the male doctor says, "I bet you are a surgeon." She confirms and asks how he knew. "Easy, you're always washing your hands." She then says, "I bet you're an anesthesiologist." Male doctor: "Wow, how did you guess?" Female doctor: "I didn't feel a thing."

Our story begins at the Olympics, specifically the wrestling event. It is narrowed down to the Russian or the American for the gold medal. Before the final match, the American wrestler's trainer comes to him and says, "Now don't forget all the research we've done on this Russian. He's never lost a match because of this "pretzel" hold he has. Whatever you do, don't let him get you in this hold! If he does, you're finished!" The wrestler nods in agreement.

Now, to the match: The American and the Russian circle each other several times looking for an opening. All of a sudden the Russian lunges forward, grabbing the American and wrapping him up in the dreaded pretzel hold. A sigh of disappointment goes up from the crowd, and the trainer buries his face in his hands for he knows all is lost. He can't watch the ending. Suddenly there's a scream, a cheer from the crowd, and the trainer raises his eye just in time to see the Russian flying up in the air. The Russian's back hits the mat with a thud, and the American weakly collapses on top of him, getting the pin and winning the match. The trainer is astounded! When he finally gets the American wrestler alone, he asks, "How did you ever get out of that hold? No one has ever done it before!" The wrestler answers, "Well, I was ready to give up when he got me in that hold, but at the last moment, I opened my eyes and saw this pair of balls right in front of my face. I thought I had nothing to lose, so with my last ounce of strength I stretched out my neck and bit those babies just as hard as I could. "You'd be amazed how strong you get when you bite your own balls!"

Two guys are driving through Alabama when they get pulled over by a state trooper. The trooper walks up, taps on the window with his night-stick, the driver rolls down the window, and the trooper smacks him in the head with the stick. The driver says, "Why'd you do that? The trooper says, "You're in Alabama, son. When I pull you over, you'll have your license ready." Driver says, "I'm sorry, officer, I'm not from around here." The trooper runs a check on the guy's license, and he's clean. He gives the guy his license back and walks around to the passenger side and taps on the window. The passenger rolls his window down, and the trooper smacks him with the nightstick. The passenger says, "What'd you do that for?" The cop says- "Just making your wishes come true." The passenger says, "Huh?" The cop says, "I know that two miles down the road you're gonna turn to this guy driving and say, I wish that SOB would've tried that shit with me."

Ladies night out

The other day, my friends and I went to this "Ladies Night Club". One of the girls wanted to impress us, so she pulls out a $10 bill. The "dancer" came over to us, and my friend licked the $10 and put it on his butt.

Not to be outdone, my other friend pulls out a $50 bill. She calls the guy back over, licks the $50 bill and puts it on his other butt cheek.

Now the attention is focused on me. What could I do to top that? I got out my wallet, got my ATM card, swiped it down the crack of his ass, grabbed the 60 bucks, and went home.

Bears Fan

A sports reporter for the Sun-Times is walking through Grant Park when he notices two boys playing football. Out of nowhere, a pit bull attacks one of the boys and begins mauling him. The other boy, having no choice, finds a large branch and clubs the dog over the head with it, killing the dog. The shocked reporter rushes over to the two boys, and after finding out they were all right, offers to write a story about the heroic little boy. Since the reporter was a sports reporter, he decided to give his headline a sports slant:

"Young Chicago Bears Fan Saves Friend From Vicious Animal" The little boy looks at the headline and says, "Sorry mister, but I'm not a Bears fan."

The reporter stops writing and says, "Oh, well since you were playing football and we're in Chicago, I just assumed you were a Bears fan". So the reporter begins a new headline: "Little Minnesota Vikings Fan Fends Off Mad Dog Attack" The little boy looks at the headline and shakes his head. "I'm not a Vikings fan either, mister" says the boy. The reporter erases his headline again and says, "Gee, I thought every kid in the Midwest was either a Bears or Vikings fan. To save time, why don't you just tell me what team you do root for." The little boy smiles and says, "I'm a Green Bay Packers fan." The reporter nods and begins his final headline: Little Cheese-head Bastard Murders Beloved Family Pet"

Why I Fired My Secretary

Two weeks ago, was my forty-fifth birthday, and I wasn't feeling too hot that morning anyway. I went into breakfast, knowing my wife would be pleasant and say Happy Birthday and probably have a present for me. She didn't even say Good Morning, let alone any Happy Birthday. I said, well, that's wives for you. The children will remember. The children came into breakfast and didn't say a word. When I started to the office I was feeling pretty low and despondent.

As I walked into my office, my secretary, Janet said, "Good Morning, boss, Happy Birthday." And I felt a little better; someone had remembered. I worked until noon. About noon Janet knocked on my door and said, "You know it's such a beautiful day outside and it's your birthday, let's go to lunch, just you and me." I said, "By George, that's the greatest thing I've heard all day, let's go."

We went to lunch. We didn't go where we normally go; we went out into the country to a little private place. We had two martinis and enjoyed lunch tremendously. On the way back to the office, she said, "You know, it's such a beautiful day. We don't need to go back to the office. Do we?" I said, "No, I guess not." she said, "Let's go to my apartment." After arriving at her apartment, we had another martini and smoked a cigarette and she said, "Boss, if you don't mind, I think I'll go into the bedroom and slip into something more comfortable." "Sure," I excitedly replied. As she came out of the bedroom I noticed she was carrying a cake followed by my wife and children. All were singing Happy Birthday. And there I sat on the couch…with nothing but my socks on. That's why I fired my secretary.

This bloke walks into the poshest restaurant in town. "Where's the Goddamn, mother fucking Manager you cock sucking arse wipe?" he politely inquires to one of the waiters. The waiter is naturally taken aback and replies, "Excuse me sir but could you please refrain from using that sort of language in here, I will get the manager as soon as I can".

The manager comes over and the bloke asks, "Are you the chicken fucking, manager of this bastard joint?" "Yes sir, I am," replies the manager, "but I would prefer it if you could refrain from speaking such profanities in this, a private restaurant". "Fuck off" replies the bloke "and where's the fucking piano?" "Pardon?" says the manager.

"Fucking deaf as well, are we? You little piece of snivelling shit, show us your pissing piano" "Ahh!" replies the manager, "you've come about the pianist job" and shows the bloke to the piano.

"Can you play any blues?" "Of course I can," and the bloke proceeds to play the most inspiring and beautiful sounding honky tonk blues that the manager has ever heard. "That's superb. What's it called?" "I want to fuck your missus on the sofa but the springs keep hurting me knob," replies the bloke. The manager is a bit disturbed and asks if the bloke knows any jazz. The bloke proceeds, playing the most melancholy jazz solo the manager has ever heard. "Magnificent!" cries the manager, "What's it called?" "I wanted a wank over the washin' machine but me balls got caught in the soap drawer". The manager is a tad embarrassed and asks if he knows any romantic ballads, the bloke then plays the most heartbreaking melody. "And what's this called?" asks the manager. "As I fuck you under the stars with the moonlight shining off your hairy ring-piece," replies the bloke.

The manager is highly upset by the bloke's language but offers him the job on condition that he doesn't introduce any of his songs or talk to any of the customers. This arrangement works well for a couple of months. One night, sitting opposite him is the most gorgeous blonde he has ever laid his eyes on. She's wearing an almost see through dress. Her tits are almost falling out he top of her black lace bra, and the skimpy little 'G' string she's wearing is riding up the crack of her beautiful bottom. She is sitting there with her legs slightly open sucking suggestively on asparagus shoots and the butter is dripping down her chin (get the picture!). It's too much for the bloke and he runs off to the bogs to wrestle with his bald headed chimp (not my description I hasten to add). He's pulling away furiously when he hears the manager's voice "Where's that bastard pianist?" He just has time to shoot his bolt and in a fluster he runs back to the piano having not bothered to adjust himself properly, sits down and starts playing some more tunes. The blonde steps up and walks over to the piano, leans over and whispers in his ear, "Do you know your knob and bollocks are hanging out your trousers and dripping jissum on your shoes?" The bloke replies "Know it? I fucking wrote it!"

Two men are drinking in a bar at the top of the Empire State Building. One turns to the other and says: "Last week I discovered that if you jump from the top of this building by the time you fall to the 10th floor the winds around the building are so intense that they carry you around the building and back into the window." The bartender just shakes his head in disapproval while wiping the bar.

The 2nd Man says: "What are you a nut? There is no way in heck that could happen." 1st Man: "No it's true let me prove it to you." So he gets up from the bar, jumps over the balcony, and careens to the street below. When he passes the 10th floor, the high wind whips him around the building and back into the 10th floor window and he takes the elevator back up to the bar. The 2nd Man tells him: "I saw that with my own eyes. It must have been a one time fluke." 1st Man: "No, I'll prove it again" and again he jumps and hurtles toward the street where the 10th floor wind gently carries him around the building and into the window. Once upstairs he urges his fellow drinker to try it.

2nd Man: "Well what the heck, it works, I'll try it." So he jumps over the balcony, plunges downward. Passes the 11th, 10th, 9th, 8th floors and hits the sidewalk with a 'splat.'

Back upstairs the Bartender turns to the other drinker: "You know, Superman, you're a real jerk when you're drunk."

Salespeople and the People Who Hate Us

A door-to-door vacuum salesman goes to the first house in his new territory. He knocks and a real mean, tough looking lady opens the door. Before she has a chance to say anything, he runs inside and dumps cow patties all over the carpet. He says, "Lady, if this vacuum cleaner don't do wonders cleaning up that horse manure, I'll eat every chunk of it." She turns to him with a smirk and says, "You want ketchup on that?" the Salesman says," why do you ask?" She says "We just moved in and we haven't got the electricity turned on yet."

More Stupid Criminals

Three convicts were on the way to prison. They were each allowed to take one item with them to help them occupy their time while incarcerated.

On the bus, one turned to another and said, "So, what did you bring?" The second convict pulled out a box of paints and stated that he intended to paint anything he could. He wanted to become the "Grandma Moses of Jail". Then he asked the first, "What did you bring?" The first convict pulled out a deck of cards and grinned and said, "I brought cards. I can play poker, solitaire and gin, and any number of games." The third convict was sitting quietly aside, grinning to himself. The other two took notice and asked, "Why are you so smug? What did you bring?" The guy pulled out a box of tampons and smiled. He said- "I brought these." The other two were puzzled and asked—"Why did you bring those?"

He grinned and pointed to the box and said—"Well according to the box, with these I can go horseback riding, swimming, roller-skating…

Lawyer Bashing 101

A man died and was taken to his place of eternal torment by the devil. As he passed sulfurous pits and shrieking sinners, he saw a man he recognized as a lawyer snuggling up to a beautiful woman. "That's unfair!" he cried. "I have to roast for all eternity, and that lawyer gets to spend it with a beautiful woman." "Shut up," barked the devil, jabbing him with his pitchfork. "Who are you to question that woman's punishment?"

A minister and a lawyer were chatting at a party: "What do you do if you make a mistake on a case, asked the minister? "Try to fix it if it's big; ignore it if it's insignificant," replied the lawyer. "What do you do, asks the lawyer?"

The minister replied "Oh, more or less the same. Let me give you an example. The other day I meant to say 'the devil is the father of liars,' but instead I said: "the devil is the father of lawyers," so I let it go."

A stingy old lawyer who had been diagnosed with a terminal illness was determined to prove wrong the saying, "You can't take it with you." After much thought and consideration, the old ambulance chaser finally figured out how to take at least some of his money with him when he died. He instructed his wife to go to the bank and withdraw enough money to fill two pillowcases. He then directed her to take the bags of money to the attic and leave them directly above his bed. When he passed away, he would reach out and grab the bags on his way toward heaven. Several weeks after the funeral, the deceased lawyer's wife went to clean the attic. While cleaning she came upon the two forgotten pillowcases stuffed with cash. "Oh, that darned old fool," she exclaimed. "I knew he should have had me put the money in the basement."

Having passed on, the lawyer found himself with the devil in a room filled with clocks. Each clock turned at a different speed and was labeled with the name of a different occupation. After examining all the clocks, the lawyer turned to the devil and said, "I have two questions. First, why does each clock move at a different speed?" "They turn at the rate at which that occupation sins on earth," replied the devil. "What's your second question?" "Well," said the lawyer. "I can't seem to find my occupation. Where is the lawyers' clock?"

Puzzled, the devil scanned the room. "Oh, yes!" he finally exclaimed. "We keep that clock in the workshop and use it for a fan."

The devil visited a young lawyer's office and made him an offer. I can arrange some things for you," the devil said. "I'll increase your income five-fold. Your partners will love you; your clients will respect you; you'll have four months of vacation each year and live to be a hundred. All I require in return is that your wife's soul, your children's souls and their children's souls must rot in hell for eternity."

The lawyer thought for a moment and said, "What's the catch?"

Q: What do you get when you cross a lawyer with a demon from hell?

A: Another lawyer.

What do you call four bullfighters in quicksand?

Quatro sinko.

Accountant Applicant

Fresh out of business school, the young man answered a want ad for an accountant.

He was being interviewed by a very nervous man who ran a small business that he had started himself.

"I need someone with an accounting degree," the man said. "But mainly, I'm looking for someone to do my worrying for me." Excuse me?" The accountant said. "I worry about a lot of things," the man said. "But I don't want to have to worry about money. Your job will be to take all the money worries off my back." "I see," the accountant said. "And how much does the job pay?" "I'll start you at eighty-thousand." "Eighty-thousand dollars!" the accountant exclaimed. "How can such a small business afford a sum like that?" "That," the owner said, "is your first worry."

Being Out-ranked

I once was on a plane where I was served by an obviously homosexual male flight attendant. At one point, he bounced over to where I was sitting and announced "The Captain has asked me to announce that he will be landing the big scary plane shortly, so if you could just put up your trays that would be great."

I did as he had instructed but the woman sitting next to me did not. A few moments later, our flight attendant came back and said to her: "Ma'am, perhaps you couldn't hear me over the big scary engine, but I asked you to please put up your tray so that the captain can land the plane."
She still wouldn't comply. Now he was getting angry and asked her again to put up the tray.

She then calmly turned to him and said: "In my country, I am called a Princess. I take orders from no one."

The flight attendant replied: "Oh yeah?

Well in my country, I'm called a queen and I outrank you, bitch so put up the tray!"

A very rich lawyer is approached by the United Way. The man from the United Way is concerned that the lawyer made over $1,000,000.00 last year but didn't donate even a cent to a charity. "First of all", says the lawyer, "my mother is sick and dying in the hospital, and it's not covered by healthcare. Second, I had five kids through three divorced marriages. Third, my sister's husband suddenly died and she has no one to support her four children…" "I'm terribly sorry", says the United Way man, "I feel bad about asking for money."

The Lawyer responds, "Yeah, well if I'm not giving them any money, why should I give you any?"

Chicago Cubs outfielder Andre Dawson on being a role model:

"I want all the kids to do what I do, to look up to me. I want all the kids to copulate me."

New Orleans Saint RB George Rogers when asked about the upcoming season: "I want to rush for 1,000 or 1,500 yards, whichever comes first."

Upon hearing Joe Jacoby of the 'Skins say- "I'd run over my own mother to win the Super Bowl," Matt Millen of the Raiders said, "to win, I'd run over Joe's mom too."

Football commentator and former player Joe Theismann 1996: "Nobody in football should be called a genius. A genius is a guy like Norman Einstein."

Senior basketball player at the U. of Pittsburgh: "I'm going to graduate on time, no matter how long it takes."
Bill Peterson, a Florida State football coach: "You guys line up alphabetically by height." and "You guys pair up in groups of three, then line up in a circle."
Clemson recruit Ray Forsythe, who was ineligible as a freshman because of academic requirements: "I play football. I'm not trying to be a professor. The tests don't seem to make sense to me, measuring your brain on stuff I haven't been through in school."
Boxing promoter Dan Duva on Mike Tyson hooking up again with promoter Don King: "Why would anyone expect him to come out smarter? He went to prison for three years, not Princeton."
Stu Grimson, Chicago Blackhawks left wing, explaining why he keeps a color photo of himself above his locker: "That's so when I forget how to spell my name, I can still find my fing clothes."
Shaquille O'Neal on whether he had visited the Parthenon during his visit to Greece: "I can't really remember the names of the clubs that we went to."
Shaquille O'Neal, on his lack of championships: "I've won at every level, except college and pro."
Lou Duva, veteran boxing trainer, on the Spartan training regime of heavyweight Andrew Golota: "He's a guy who gets up at six o'clock in the morning regardless of what time it is."
Pat Williams, Orlando Magic general manager, on his team's 7-27 record: "We can't win at home. We can't win on the road. As general manager, I just can't figure out where else to play." (1992)

Chuck Nevitt, North Carolina State basketball player, explaining to Coach Jim Valvano why he appeared nervous at practice: "My sister's expecting a baby, and I don't know if I'm going to be an uncle or an aunt."

Tommy Lasorda , Dodger manager, when asked what terms Mexican-born pitching sensation Fernando Valenzuela might settle for in his upcoming contract negotiations: "He wants Texas back." (1981)

Darrell Royal, Texas football coach, asked if the abnormal number of Longhorn injuries that season resulted from poor physical conditioning: "One player was lost because he broke his nose. How do you go about getting a nose in condition for football?" (1966)

Mike McCormack, coach of the hapless Baltimore Colts after the team's co-captain, offensive guard Robert Pratt, pulled a hamstring running onto the field for the coin toss against St. Louis: "I'm Going to send the injured reserve players out for the toss next time." (1981)

Steve Spurrier, Florida football coach, telling Gator fans that a fire at Auburn's football dorm had destroyed 20 books: "But the real tragedy was that 15 hadn't been colored yet."

(1991) Jim Finks, New Orleans Saints G.M., when asked after a loss what he thought of the refs: "I'm not allowed to comment on lousy officiating."

(1996) Frank Layden, Utah Jazz president, on a former player: "I told him, 'Son, what is it with you. Is it ignorance or apathy?' He said,'Coach, I don't know and I don't care.'"

(1991) Torrin Polk, U-Houston Rcv'r, on his coach, John Jenkins: "He treats us like men—lets us wear earrings."

(1991) Shelby Metcalf, basketball coach at Texas A&M, recounting what he told a player who received four F's and one D: "Son, looks to me like you're spending too much time on one subject.

Oiler coach Bum Phillips: When asked by Bob Costas why he takes his wife on all the road trips, Phillips responded, "Because she is too damn ugly to kiss good-bye."

The Lost Dr. Seuss Book

I love my Job

I love my Job, I love the Pay!
I love it more and more each day.
I love my Boss; he's the best!
I love his boss and all the rest.

I love my Office and its location -
I hate to have to take vacation.
I love my furniture, drab and gray, and the paper that piles up every day!

I love my chair in my padded Cell!
There's nothing else I love so well.
I love to work among my Peers -
I love their leers and jeers and sneers.

I love my Computer and all its Software;
I hug it often though it doesn't care…

I love each Program and every File,
I try to understand once in a while!

I'm happy to be here, I am I am;
I'm the happiest Slave of my uncle Sam.
I love this Work: I love these Chores.
I love the Meetings with deadly Bores.

I love my Job—I'll say it again -
I even love these friendly Men -
These men who've come to visit today
In lovely white coats to take me away!

For a couple years I've been blaming it on lack of sleep and too much pressure from my job, but now I found out the real reason: I'm tired because I'm overworked.

The population of this country is 237 million. 104 million are retired. That leaves 133 million to do the work. There are 85 million in school, which leaves 48 million to do the work. Of this there are 29 million employed by the federal government, leaving 19 million to do the work. 2.8 Million are in the Armed Forces, which leaves 16.2 million to do the work. Take from the total the 14,800,000 people who work for State and City Governments. That leaves 1.4 million to do the work. At any given time there are 188,000 people in hospitals, leaving 1,212,000 to do the work. Now, there are 1,211,998 people in prisons. That leaves just two people to do the work. You and me, so quit reading jokes and get back to WORK!

A doctor, a lawyer, a little boy and a priest were out for a Sunday afternoon flight on a small private plane. Suddenly, the plane developed engine problems. In spite of the best efforts of the pilot, the plane started to go down. Finally the pilot grabbed a parachute, yelled to the passengers that they had better jump, and bailed out. Unfortunately there were only three parachutes remaining. The doctor grabbed one and said "I'm a doctor, I save lives, so I must live," and jumped out. The lawyer then said, "I'm the smartest man in the world, and I deserve to live." He grabbed a parachute and jumped. The priest looked at the little boy and said, "My son, I've lived a long and full life. You are young and have your whole life ahead of you. Take the last parachute and live in peace". The little boy handed the parachute back to the priest and said "Not to worry, Father. The smartest man in the world just took off with my backpack

The Perfect Worker

Bob Smith, my assistant programmer, can always be found hard at work in his cubicle. Bob works independently, without wasting company time talking to colleagues. Bob never thinks twice about assisting fellow employees, and he always finishes given assignments on time. Often he takes extended measures to complete his work, sometimes skipping coffee breaks. Bob is a dedicated individual who has absolutely no vanity in spite of his high accomplishments and profound knowledge in his field. I firmly believe that Bob can be classed as a high-caliber employee, the type which cannot be dispensed with. Consequently, I duly recommend that Bob be promoted to executive management, and a proposal will be executed as soon as possible.

The Paradox of our Age

We have taller buildings, but shorter tempers; wider freeways, but narrower viewpoints; we spend more, but have less; we buy more, but enjoy it less.

We have bigger houses and smaller families; more conveniences, but less time; we have more degrees, but less common sense; more knowledge, but less judgement; more experts, but more problems; more medicine, but less wellness.

We spend too recklessly, laugh too little, drive too fast, get too angry too quickly, stay up too late, get up too tired, read too seldom, watch TV too much, and pray too seldom.

We have multiplied our possessions, but reduced our values.

We talk too much, love too seldom, and lie too often.

We've learned how to make a living, but not a life; we've added years to life, not life to years.

We've been all the way to the moon and back, but have trouble crossing the street to meet the new neighbor.

We've conquered outer space, but not inner space, we've done larger things, but not better things; we've cleaned up the air, but polluted the soul; we've split the atom, but not our prejudice; we write more, but learn less; plan more, but accomplish less.

We've learned to rush, but not to wait; we have higher incomes, but lower morals; more food, but less appeasement; more acquaintances, but fewer friends; more effort, but less success.

We build more computers to hold more information, to produce more copies than ever, but have less communication; we've become long on quantity, but short on quality.

These are the times of fast food and slow digestion; tall men and short character; steep profits and shallow relationships.
These are the times of world peace, but domestic warfare; more leisure, and less fun; more kinds of food, but less nutrition.
These are the days of two incomes, but more divorce; of fancier houses, but broken homes.
These are days of quick trips, disposable diapers, throwaway morality, one-night stands, overweight bodies, and pills that do everything from cheer, to quiet, to kill.
It is a time when there is much in the show window and nothing in the stockroom.

Next time you think you're having a bad day read this-

1. The average cost of rehabilitating a seal after the Exxon Valdez oil spill in Alaska was $80,000. At a special ceremony, two of the most expensively saved animals were released back into the wild amid cheers and applause from onlookers. A minute later they were both eaten by a killer whale.

2. A psychology student in New York rented out her spare room to a carpenter in order to nag him constantly and study his reactions. After weeks of needling, he snapped and beat her repeatedly with an axe leaving her mentally retarded.

3. In 1992, Frank Perkins of Los Angeles made an attempt on the world flagpole-sitting record. Suffering from the flu he came down eight hours short of the 400 day record, his sponsor had gone bust, his girlfriend had left him and his phone and electricity had been cut off.

4. A woman came home to find her husband in the kitchen, shaking frantically with what looked like a wire running from his waist towards the electric kettle. Intending to jolt him away from the deadly current she whacked him with a handy plank of wood by the back door, breaking his arm in two places. Till that moment he had been happily listening to his walk-man.

5. Two animal rights protesters were protesting at the cruelty of sending pigs to a slaughterhouse in Bonn. Suddenly the pigs, all two thousand of them, escaped through a broken fence and stampeded. Thus, trampling the two hapless protesters to death.

And the capper...

6. Iraqi terrorist, Khay Rahnajet, didn't pay enough postage on a letter bomb. It came back with "return to sender" stamped on it. Forgetting it was the bomb; he opened it and was blown to bits.

Here's hoping your day is better than any of these!

Add the total number of points.

OVER 60 POINTS:

Others see you as someone they should "handle with care." You are seen as vain, self-centered, and extremely dominant. Others may admire you and wish they could be more like you, but they don't always trust you and hesitate to become too deeply involved with you.

FROM 51 TO 60 POINTS:

Your friends see you as an exciting, highly volatile, rather impulsive personality. You are a natural leader, quick to make decisions (though not always the right ones). They see you as bold and venturesome, someone who will try anything once; someone who takes a chance and enjoys an adventure. They enjoy being in your company because of the excitement you radiate.

FROM 41 TO 50 POINTS:

Others see you as fresh, lively, charming, amusing, practical, and always interesting; someone who is constantly the center of attention, but sufficiently well-balanced not to let it go to your head. They see you also as kind, considerate, and understanding.

Someone who will cheer them up and help them out.

FROM 31 TO 40 POINTS:

Other people see you as sensible, cautious, careful, and practical. They see you as clever, gifted, or talented, but modest. Not a person who makes friends too quickly or too easily, but someone who is extremely loyal to the friends you do make and who expects the same loyalty in return. Those who really get to know you realize that it takes a lot to shake your trust in your friends, but, equally, that it takes you a long time to get over it if that trust is broken.

FROM 21 TO 30 POINTS:

Your friends see you as painstaking and fussy. They see you as very, very cautious and extremely careful, a slow and steady plodder. It would really surprise them if you ever did something impulsively or on the spur of the moment. They expect you to examine everything carefully from every side and then, usually decide against it. They think this reaction on your part is caused partly by your careful nature and partly by laziness.

UNDER 21 POINTS:

People think you are shy, nervous, and indecisive, someone who needs to be looked after, who always wants someone else to make the decisions and who doesn't want to get involved with anyone or anything. They see you as a worrier, who sees problems that don't exist. Some people think you're boring. Only the people who know you well know that you aren't.

It is hard to believe that after my many years of schooling (secondary and post) the following facts about the Statue of Liberty were never taught. Hundreds of thousands if not millions of people including myself have visited the Statue of Liberty over the years yet I'm unable to find one person who knows the true history behind the Statue. It's amazing that so much important Black history (such as this) is hidden from us (Black and White). What makes this even worse is the fact that the current twist on history perpetuates and promotes white supremacy at the expense of Black Pride. During my visit to France I saw the original Statue of Liberty. However there was a difference, the statue in France is Black. The Statue of Liberty was originally a Black woman, but, as memory serves, it was because the model was Black. In a book called "The Journey of The Songhai People". Dr. Jim Haskins, a member of the National Education Advisory Committee of Liberty-Ellis Island; and professor of English at the University of Florida, and prolific Black author, points out that what stimulated the original idea for that 151 foot statue in the harbor. He says that what stimulated the idea for the creation of the statue initially was the part that Black soldiers played in the ending of Black African Bondage in the United States.

It was created in the mind of the French historian Edourd de Laboulaye, chairman of the French Anti-Slavery Society. He, along with sculptor Frederic Auguste Bartholdi, proposed to the French government that the people of France present to the people of the United States through the American Abolitionist Society the gift of a Statue of Liberty. This was done in recognition of the fact that Black soldiers won the Civil War in the United States. It was widely known then that it was Black soldiers who played the pivotal role in winning the war, and this gift would be a tribute to their prowess. Suzanne Nakasian, director of the Statue of Liberty, Ellis Island Foundations' National Ethnic Campaign said that Black Americans' direct connection to Lady Liberty is unknown to the majority of Americans, BLACK or WHITE.

When the statue was presented to the U.S. Minister to France in 1884, it is said that he remonstrated that the dominant view of the broken shackles would be offensive to a U.S. South, because since the statue was a reminder of Blacks winning their freedom. It was a reminder to a beaten South of who caused their defeat, their despised former captives. Documents of Proof:

- You may go and see the original model of the Statue of Liberty, with the broken chains at her feet and in her left hand. Go to the Museum of the City of N.Y, Fifth Avenue and 103rd Street or write to Peter Simmons and he can send you some documentation.

- Check with the N.Y Times magazine, part II, May 18, 1986. Read the article by Laboulaye.

- The dark original face of the Statue of Liberty can be seen in the N.Y Post, June 17, 1986, also the Post states the reason for the broken chains at her feet.

- Finally, you may check with the French Mission or the French Embassy at the U.N or in Washington, D.C. and ask for some original French material on the Statue of Liberty, including the Bartholdi original model. You can call in September (202) 944-6060 or 6400.

Take out a sheet of paper and number it from 1-6. Then answer the following honestly. Do NOT read ahead, it will ruin it!

Questions first-

1. You are walking to your boy/girlfriend's house. There are two roads to get there. One is a straight path to take you there quickly, but is very plain and boring. The other is significantly longer but is full of wonderful sights and interesting things. Which one do you take to get to your significant other's house, short or long?

2. On the way you see 2 rose bushes. One is full of red roses, the other full of white. You decide to pick 20 roses for your boy/girlfriend, of any color combination. What number of white and red do you pick? (you can pick all of one or any combo of the two)

3. You finally get to their house. A family member answers the door. You can have them get your boy/girlfriend or go get them yourself. Which do you do?

4. You go up to your boy/girlfriend's room, but nobody is there. You decide to leave the roses. Do you leave them by the windowsill or on the bed?

5. Later, it's time for bed. You and your boy/girlfriend go to sleep in separate rooms. In the morning when its time to wake up you go in their room and check on them. When you arrive, are they awake or asleep?

6. Now it's time to go back home. Do you take the short, plain road or the longer, more interesting road?

NOW THE ANSWERS

1. The road represents your attitude towards falling in love. If you take the short road, you fall in love quickly and easily. If you take the long road, you take your time and do not fall in love as easily.
2. The number of red roses represents how much you give in a relationship, while the number of white represents what you expect in return. For example, if you chose 18 red and 2 white, you give 90% and expect 10% in return.
3. This question represents your attitude towards handling relationship problems. If you asked the family member to get your significant other, then you like to avoid problems and hope that they will solve themselves. If you went to get them yourself, then you are a more direct person and like to work out problems immediately.
4. The placement of roses determines how much you like to see your boy/girlfriend. Placing them on the bed means you like to see them a lot, while placing them on the windowsill means that you are alright with not seeing them as much.
5. This is representative of your attitude towards their personality. If you find them asleep, you love your boy/girlfriend the way they are. If you find them awake, you expect them to change for you.
6. The road to home tells how long you stay in love with someone. If you chose the short road, you fall out of love easily. If you chose the longer one, you will tend to stay in love for a long time.

Did the results ring true? Interesting huh?

A secretary called in looking for a hotel in Los Angeles. She gave me various names off a list, none of which I could find. I finally had her fax me the list. To my surprise, it was a list of hotels in New Orleans, Louisiana. She thought the LA stood for Los Angeles, and that New Orleans was a suburb of LA. Worst of all, when I called her back, she was not even embarrassed.

A man called, furious about a Florida package we did. I asked what was wrong with the vacation in Orlando. He said he was expecting an ocean-view room. I tried to explain that was not possible, since Orlando is in the middle of the state. He replied, "Don't lie to me. I looked on the map and Florida is a very thin state."

I got a call from a man who asked, "Is it possible to see England from Canada?" I said, "No." He said "but they look so close on the map."

A nice lady just called. She needed to know how it was possible that her flight from Detroit left at 8:20am and got into Chicago at 8:33am. I tried to explain that Michigan was an hour ahead of Illinois, but she could not understand the concept of time zones. Finally I told her the plane went very fast, she bought that.

A woman called and asked, "do airlines put your physical description on your bag so they know whose luggage belongs to who?" I said, "No, why do you ask?" She replied, "Well, when I checked in with the airline, they put a tag on my luggage that said FAT, and I'm overweight, is there any connection?" After putting her on hold for a minute while I "looked into it" (I was actually laughing) I came back and explained the city code for Fresno is FAT, and that the airline was just putting a destination tag on her luggage.

I just got off the phone with a man who asked, "How do I know which plane to get on?"

I asked him what exactly he meant. He replied, "I was told my flight number is 823, but none of these damn planes have numbers on them."

A woman called and said, "I need to fly to Pepsi-cola on one of those computer planes." I asked if she meant to fly to Pensacola on a commuter plane. She said, "Yea, whatever."

A businessman called and had a question about the documents he needed in order to fly to China. After a lengthy discussion about passports, I reminded him he needed a visa. "Oh no I don't, I've been to China many times and never had to have one of those." I double checked, and sure enough, his stay required a visa. When I told him this he said, "Look, I've been to China 4 times and every time they have accepted my American Express."

A woman called to make reservations. "I want to go from Chicago to Hippopotamus,

New York" The agent was at a loss for words. Finally, the agent: "Are you sure that's the name of the town?" "Yes, what flights do you have?" replied the customer. After some searching, the agent came back with, "I'm sorry, ma'am, I've looked up every airport code in the country and can't find a Hippopotamus anywhere." The customer retorted, "Oh don't be silly, everyone knows where it is. Check your map!" The agent scoured a map of the state of New York and finally offered, "You don't mean Buffalo, do you?" "That's it! I knew it was a big animal!"

What Happened to the Signers?

The Fourth of July is more than a day for fireworks and cookouts. It was on that day, in 1776, that the 13 American colonies declared their independence from Great Britain. Thomas Jefferson drafted the Declaration of Independence, one of the greatest documents in the long struggle of mankind for freedom from oppressive government.

The Declaration contained these words that made it far more than just another political document:

"We hold these truths to be self-evident: That all men are created equal; that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights; that among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. That, to secure these rights, governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed; that, whenever any form of government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the right of the people to alter or to abolish it, and to institute a new government, laying its foundation on such principles, and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their safety and happiness."

The ideas in the Declaration were not new. Indeed, they had been expressed by British thinkers such as John Locke, and similar sentiments had been used in Britain to justify rebellion against King James II in 1688. But Jefferson's words struck a chord across America, and across the world; they still reverberate today.

Fifty-six American leaders in the Continental Congress stepped forward to sign the final document, at enormous personal risk.

Tragically, many Americans today have no idea of the great sacrifices that were made by the Founders to win our freedom.

Last year we shared with Liberator Online readers the amazing, little-known story of what happened to these men. That story touched and inspired a lot of people. It was reprinted in several publications, and many people shared it with friends and family. I'm pleased to bring it to you again. There are several versions of the story, but this one is our favorite. Though we searched diligently, we could not find the author's name.

Five signers were captured by the British and brutally tortured as traitors. Nine fought in the War for Independence and died from wounds or from hardships they suffered. Two lost their sons in the Continental Army. Another two had sons captured. At least a dozen of the fifty-six had their homes pillaged and burned.

What kind of men were they? Twenty-five were lawyers or jurists. Eleven were merchants. Nine were farmers or large plantation owners. One was a teacher, one a musician, and one a printer. These were men of means and education, yet they signed the Declaration of Independence, knowing full well that the penalty could be death if they were captured.

In the face of the advancing British Army, the Continental Congress fled from Philadelphia to Baltimore on December 12, 1776. It was an especially anxious time for John Hancock, the President, as his wife had just given birth to a baby girl. Due to the complications stemming from the trip to Baltimore, the child lived only a few months.

William Ellery's signing at the risk of his fortune proved only too realistic. In December 1776, during three days of British occupation of Newport, Rhode Island, Ellery's house was burned, and all his property destroyed.

Richard Stockton, a New Jersey State Supreme Court Justice, had rushed back to his estate near Princeton after signing the Declaration of Independence to find that his wife and children were living like refugees with friends. A Tory sympathizer who also revealed Stockton's own whereabouts had betrayed them. British troops pulled him from his bed one night, beat him and threw him in jail where he almost starved to death. When he was finally released, he went home to find his estate had been looted, his possessions burned, and his horses stolen. Judge Stockton had been so badly treated in prison that his health was ruined and he died before the war's end. His surviving family had to live the remainder of their lives off charity.

Carter Braxton was a wealthy planter and trader. One by one the British navy captured his ships. He loaned a large sum of money to the American cause; it was never paid back. He was forced to sell his plantations and mortgage his other properties to pay his debts.

Thomas McKean was so hounded by the British that he had to move his family almost constantly. He served in the Continental Congress without pay, and kept his family in hiding.

Vandals or soldiers or both looted the properties of Clymer, Hall, Harrison, Hopkinson and Livingston. Seventeen lost everything they owned.

Thomas Heyward Jr., Edward Rutledge and Arthur Middleton, all of South Carolina, were captured by the British during the Charleston Campaign in 1780. They were kept in dungeons at the St. Augustine Prison until exchanged a year later.

At the Battle of Yorktown, Thomas Nelson, Jr. noted that the British General Cornwallis had taken over the family home for his headquarters. Nelson urged General George Washington to open fire on his own home. This was done, and the home was destroyed. Nelson later died bankrupt.

Francis Lewis also had his home and properties destroyed. The British jailed his wife for two months, and that and other hardships from the war so affected her health that she died only two years later.

"Honest John" Hart, a New Jersey farmer, was driven from his wife's bedside when she was near death. Their thirteen children fled for their lives. For over a year he eluded capture by hiding in nearby forests. He never knew where his bed would be the next night and often slept in caves. When he finally returned home, he found that his wife had died, his children disappeared, and his farm and stock were completely destroyed. Hart himself died in 1779 without ever seeing any of his family again.

Such were the stories and sacrifices typical of those who risked everything to sign the Declaration of Independence. These men were not wild-eyed, rabble-rousing ruffians. They were soft-spoken men of means and education. They had security, but they valued liberty more. Standing tall, straight, and unwavering, they pledged:

"For the support of this declaration, with a firm reliance on the protection of the Divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other, our lives, our fortunes, and our sacred honor."

What an incredible story! I wonder how many of us would be willing to give so much to the cause of liberty? Let's all remember these heroes and the price they paid as we celebrate this Fourth of July.

10. This useful tool commonly found in the range of 6 inches long. The functioning of which is enjoyed by members of both sexes, is usually found hung, dangling loosely, ready for instant action. It boasts of a clump of little hairy things at one end and a small hole at the other. In use, it is quickly inserted, almost always willingly, some-times slowly sometime quickly, into a warm, fleshy, moist opening where it is thrust in and drawn out again and again many times in succession, often quickly and accompanied by squirming bodily movements. Anyone found listening in will most surely recognize the rhythmic, pulsing sound, resulting from the well lubricated movements. When finally withdrawn, it leaves behind a juicy, frothy sticky white substance, some of which will need cleaning from the outer surfaces of the opening and some from its long glistening shaft. After everything is done and the flowing and cleansing liquids have ceased emanating, it is returned to its freely hanging state of rest, ready for yet another bit of action, hopefully reaching its bristling climax twice or three times a day, but often much less. What is it?

ANSWERS: (I could imagine your replies, shame, shame, shame!), jkl

Before you read on…choose your favorite marshmallow bit from Lucky Charms from the list below…

Pink hearts

Yellow moons

Orange stars

Green clovers

Blue diamonds

Purple horseshoes

Those icky oat bits

OK. Have you got one in mind? Now you can read on. And don't change it! Amazing new study shows that your favorite Lucky Charms marshmallow bit shape determines what you're like in bed! Yes, it's true…just take this simple test to determine your true bedroom personality:

GREEN CLOVERS: If your favorite Lucky Charms marshmallow shape is the green clover, you're a happy-go-lucky type in bed. You don't take anything too seriously in the bedroom or elsewhere and always manage to have a good time, even if you have someone else with you. You don't have any patience with depressed people and tend to sit on them until they cheer up.

BLUE DIAMONDS: If your favorite marshmallow shape is the blue diamond, your thoughts in bed are mostly about what you'll get later. "If he really enjoys this, will he buy me that mink coat?" is probably what's going through your mind. People who like blue diamonds have a notebook of preprinted fill-in-the-blank palimony suit forms and are the people most likely to file their nails while making love.

ORANGE STARS: If your favorite shape is the orange star, you expect to be the center of attention in bed. You expect your partner to spend most of his time pleasing you and when you do something for him, you expect enthusiastic moaning if not applause. People who like orange stars often have mirrors over their beds, not because watching what is being done does turn them on, but because they want to be able to watch themselves having a good time. They often moan out their own names while making love.

PINK HEARTS: If you like pink hearts, you're the romantic type. You like your partner to whisper romantic phrases into your ear and, if he's too distracted to form coherent phrases, you'll settle for romantic syllables. People who like pink hearts read most of the romance novels published and are turned on by people wearing armor.

PURPLE HORSESHOES: If purple horseshoes are your thing, your tastes are modern, uninhibited, and somewhat warped. You like variety in the bedroom, especially when you can include handcuffs, chains, swing sets, and chocolate pudding. Be careful when going out on a picnic with anyone who likes purple horseshoes—she's/he's likely to pin you down with croquet hoops when you're not looking and who knows what could happen next?

YELLOW MOONS: If you're the yellow moon type, you're more interested in satisfying your partner's needs than your own. You prefer to lie back and wait for your partner to jump on you and express her/his needs verbally or non-verbally. People who like yellow moons usually own several pairs of handcuffs and other instruments of kinky sex just in case someone should ever want to tie them up and ravish them. Keep your eyes open for anyone who eats all the purple horseshoes out of their cereal as soon as they open the box.

Those little oat bits that aren't marshmallows at all: If you prefer the little oat bits, you probably don't like sex anyway and don't need to read this article. People who prefer the oat bits usually become accountants, librarians who work at the reference desk, or government employees. These people like to chow down on a big bowl brimming with oat bits before a tough day of protesting suggestive lyrics in rock music. People who like oat bits have more time to spend writing letters to the editor than any other type.

This is a little game that has a pretty funny/creepy outcome. Don't read ahead, just do it in order, it takes about 3 minutes. It was weird!

First, Get a blank piece of paper and pen. P.S. When you are asked to choose names, make sure it's people you ACTUALLY KNOW, and go with your first instincts! Scroll down one line at a time—don't read ahead or you'll ruin the fun!

1.) First, write the numbers 1 through 11 in a column.

2.) Then, beside numbers 1 and 2, write any two numbers you want.

3.) Beside 3 and 7, write down the names of members of your preferred sex gender.

4.) Write anyone's name (like friends or family...) in the 4th, 5th and 6th spots.

5.) Write down four song titles in 8, 9, 10 and 11.

6.) Finally, make a wish.

And here is the key for that game.

1.) You must tell (the number in space 2) people about this game in (the number in space 1) days in order to make your wish come true.

2.) The person in space 3 is the one that you love.

3.) The person in 7 is one you like but can't work out.

4.) You care most about the person you put in 4.

5.) The person you name in number 5 is the one who knows you very well.

6.) The person you name in 6 is your lucky star

7.) The song in 8 is the song that matches with the person in 3

8.) The title in 9 is the song for the person in 7.

9.) The tenth space is the song that tells you most about your mind.

10.) And 11 is the song telling how you feel about life!

Here's a little part of US history that makes you wonder Coincidence?

Abraham Lincoln was elected to Congress in 1846.
John F. Kennedy was elected to Congress in 1946.
Abraham Lincoln was elected President in 1860.
John F. Kennedy was elected President in 1960.
The names Lincoln and Kennedy each contain seven letters.
Both were particularly concerned with civil rights.
Both wives lost their husbands while living in the White House.
Both Presidents were shot on a Friday.
Both were shot in the head.
Lincoln's secretary was named Kennedy.
Kennedy's secretary was named Lincoln.

Both were assassinated by Southerners.
Both were succeeded by Southerners.
Both successors were named Johnson.
Andrew Johnson, who succeeded Lincoln, was born in 1808.
Lyndon Johnson, who succeeded Kennedy, was born in 1908.
John Wilkes Booth was born in 1839.
Lee Harvey Oswald was born in 1939.
Both assassins were known by their three names.
Both names are comprised of fifteen letters
Booth ran from the theater and was caught in a warehouse.
Oswald ran from a warehouse and was caught in a theater.
Booth and Oswald were assassinated before their trials.
And here's the kicker,
A week before Lincoln was shot he was in Monroe, Maryland.
A week before Kennedy was shot he was in Marilyn Monroe.

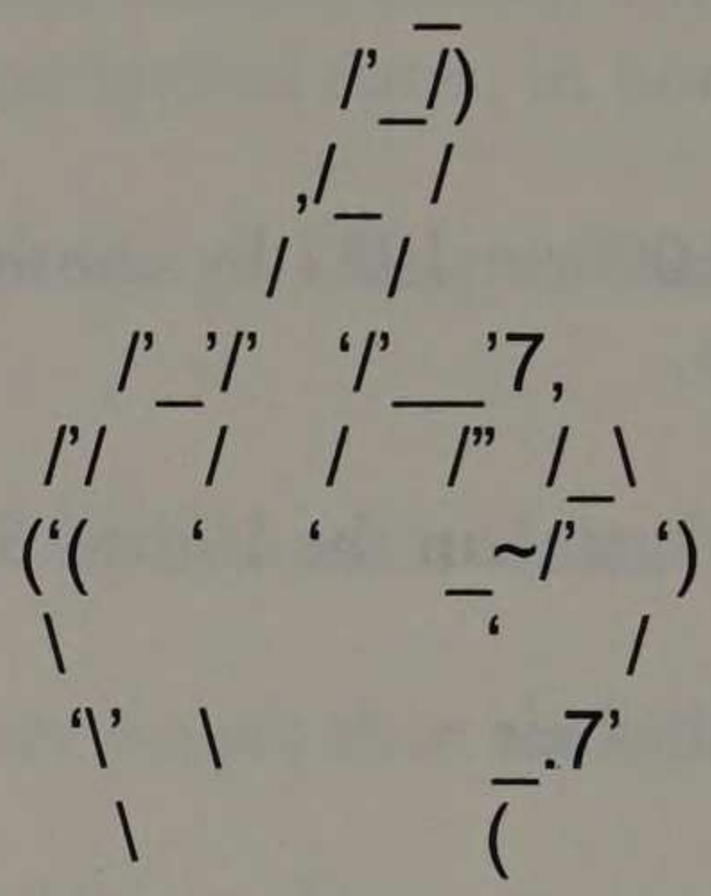
History of Giving the Finger



Before the Battle of Agincourt in 1415, the French, anticipating victory over the English, proposed to cut off the middle finger of all captured English soldiers. Without the middle finger it would be impossible to draw the renowned English longbow and therefore be incapable of fighting in the future. This famous weapon was made of the native English Yew tree, and the act of drawing the longbow was known as "plucking the yew" (or "pluck yew"). Much to the bewilderment of the French, the English won a major upset and began mocking the French by waving their middle fingers at the defeated French, saying, "See, we can still pluck yew! PLUCK YEW!" Since 'pluck yew' is rather difficult to say, the difficult consonant cluster at the beginning has gradually changed to a labiodental fricative 'F', and thus the words often used in conjunction with the one-finger-salute are mistakenly thought to have something to do with an intimate encounter. It is also because of the pheasant feathers on the arrows used with the long-bow that the symbolic gesture is known as "giving the bird".

Fleming

His name was Fleming, and he was a poor Scottish farmer. One day, while trying to eke out a living for his family, he heard a cry for help coming from a nearby bog. He dropped his tools and ran to the bog. There, mired to his waist in black muck, was a terrified boy, screaming and struggling to free himself. Farmer Fleming saved the lad from what could have been a slow and terrifying death. The next day, a fancy carriage pulled up to the Scotsman's sparse surroundings. An elegantly dressed nobleman stepped out and introduced himself as the father of the boy Farmer Fleming had saved. "I want to repay you," said the nobleman. "You saved my son's life." "No, I can't accept payment for what I did," the Scottish farmer replied, waving off the offer. At that moment, the farmer's own son came to the door of the family hovel. "Is that your son?" the nobleman asked. "Yes," the farmer replied proudly. "I'll make you a deal. Let me take him and give him a good education. If the lad is anything like his father, he'll grow to a man you can be proud of." And that he did. In time, Farmer Fleming's son graduated from St. Mary's Hospital Medical School in London, and went on to become known throughout the world as the noted Sir Alexander Fleming, the discoverer of Penicillin. Years afterward, the nobleman's son was stricken with pneumonia. What saved him? Penicillin The name of the nobleman? Lord Randolph Churchill, his sons name? Sir Winston Churchill. Someone once said what goes around comes around.

A herd of buffalo can move only as fast as the slowest buffalo, and when the herd is hunted, it is the slowest and weakest ones at the back that are killed first. This natural selection is good for the herd as a whole, because the general speed and health of the whole group keeps improving by the regular attrition of the weakest members. In much the same way, the human brain can only operate as fast as the slowest brain cells. Excessive intake of alcohol, as we all know, kills brain cells, but naturally it attacks the slowest and weakest brain cells first. In this way, regular consumption of beer eliminates the weaker brain cells, making the brain a faster and more efficient machine. And, THAT is why you always feel smarter after a few beers.

Those Krazy Animals

A lady goes to her priest one day and tells him, "Father, I have a problem. I have two female parrots, but they only know how to say one thing."

"What do they say?" the priest inquired.

They say, "Hi, we're prostitutes. Do you want to have some fun?"

"That's obscene!" the priest exclaimed, then he thought for a moment. "You know," he said, "I may have a solution to your problem. I have two male talking parrots that I have taught to pray and read the bible. Bring your two parrots over to my house, and we'll put them in the cage with Francis and Job. My parrots can teach your parrots to praise and worship, and your parrots are sure to stop saying that phrase in no time."

"Thank you," the woman responded, "this may very well be the solution."

The next day, she brought her female parrots to the priest's house. As he ushered her in, she saw that his two male parrots were inside their cage, holding rosary beads and praying. Impressed, she walked over and placed her parrots in with them. After a few minutes, the female parrots cried out in unison: "Hi, we're prostitutes. Do you want to have some fun?"

There was stunned silence. Finally, one male parrot looked over at the other male parrot and exclaimed, "Put the fucking beads away, Francis, our prayers have been answered!"

A bunch of Indians capture a cowboy and bring him back to their camp to meet the chief. The chief says to the cowboy, "You going to die. But we sorry for you, so give you one wish a day for three days. On sundown of third day, you die. What is first wish?"

The cowboy says, "I want to see my horse." The Indians get his horse. The cowboy grabs the horse's ear and whispers something, then slaps the horse on the ass. The horse takes off. Two hours later, the horse comes back with a naked blonde. She jumps off the horse and goes into the teepee with the cowboy. The Indians look at each other, figuring, "Typical white man—can only think of one thing."

The second day, the chief says, "What your wish today?" The cowboy says, "I want to see my horse again." The Indians bring him his horse. The cowboy leans over to the horse and whispers something in the horse's ear then slaps it on the ass. Two hours later, the horse comes back with a naked redhead. She gets off and goes in the teepee with the cowboy. The Indians shake their heads, figuring, "Typical white man—going to die tomorrow and can only think of one thing." The last day comes, and the chief says, "This your last wish, white man. What you want?" The cowboy says, "I want to see my horse again." The Indians bring him his horse. The cowboy grabs the horse by both ears, twists them hard and yells, "Read my lips! POSSE, damn it! P-O-S-S-E!"

Years ago while lying in my hammock and drinking JD from the bottle I noticed my dog dragging something under the fence. Upon inspection, to my dismay, I realized it was my neighbors' 10 year old daughter's rabbit. For years I had watch her come home from school and head straight out to its cage, free it and play with it in the yard. I knew today would be no different and fearing for our dog, I had to think fast. The rabbit was quite dirty, as if it had put up quite a struggle, so I washed it off with the hose, combed it with the Dog brush and blew it dry with the leaf blower. Upon finishing it's grooming I jumped the fence and replaced back in it's cage hoping it's death would be written off as "natural causes". Back to the hammock and JD. Within the hour the neighbors Volvo pulled in and out popped the little girl, as usual she headed straight for the cage. Only this time she stopped about six feet away and screamed: "DADDY!" Her father panic-stricken stood looking at the cage. Being the good neighbor that I am I rushed to fence and asked if there was anything I could do. Her father less than calmly blurted, "What kind of sick individual would dig up a little girl's dead rabbit and put it back in it's cage?"

A farmer wanted to have his hens serviced, so he went to the market looking for a rooster. He was hoping he could get a special rooster- one that could service all of his many hens. He told this to the market vendor, the vendor replied: "I have just the rooster for you. Randy here is the horniest rooster you will ever see!" So the farmer took Randy back to the farm. Before setting him loose in the hen house though, he gave Randy a little pep talk. "Randy," he said, "I'm counting on you to do your stuff". Without uttering a word, Randy strutted into the hen house. Randy was as fast as he was furious, mounting each hen like a thunderbolt. There was much squawking and many feathers flying, until Randy had finished having his way with each hen. Randy didn't stop at the hen house, though. He went into the barn and mounted all the horses, one by one, and still at the same frantic pace. Then he went to the pig house, where he did the same. The farmer, watching all of this with disbelief, cried out, "Stop, Randy, you'll kill yourself". Randy continued on, seeking out each farm animal in the same manner. The next morning, the farmer looked out his window and saw Randy lying on his lawn. His legs were up in the air, his eyes rolled back, and his tongue hanging out. A buzzard was already circling above Randy. The farmer walked up to Randy saying, "Oh you poor thing, look what you did, you've gone and killed yourself. I warned you, little buddy".

"Shut the hell up, you idiot," Randy whispered, "That buzzard's getting closer."

"I didn't ask for any details," the lawyer interrupted, "just answer the question. Did you not say at the scene of the accident, 'I'm fine!"

Farmer Joe said, "Well, I had just got Bessie into the trailer and I was driving down the road..."

The lawyer interrupted again and said, "Judge, I am trying to establish the fact that, at the scene of the accident, this man told the highway patrolman on the scene that he was fine. Now several weeks after the accident he is trying to sue my client. I believe he is a fraud. Please tell him to simply answer the question."

By this time the judge was fairly interested in Farmer Joe's answer and said to the lawyer, "I'd like to hear what he has to say."

Joe thanked the Judge and proceeded, "Well, as I was saying, I had just loaded Bessie into the trailer and was driving her down the highway when this huge semi-truck and trailer ran the stop sign and smacked my truck right in the side. I was thrown into one ditch and Bessie was thrown into the other. I was hurting real bad and didn't want to move. However, I could hear ol' Bessie moaning and groaning. I knew she was in terrible shape just by her groans. Shortly after the accident a highway patrolman came on the scene. He could hear Bessie moaning and groaning so he went over to her.

After he looked at her, he took out his gun and shot her between the eyes. Then the Patrolman came across the road with his gun in his hand and looked at me." He said, "Your mule was in such bad shape I had to shoot her. How are you feeling?"

There was a fly buzzing around the barn, when he happened on a pile of fresh cow manure. Due to the fact that it had been hours since his last meal, he flew down and began to eat. He ate and ate and ate. Finally, he decided he had eaten enough and tried to fly away, but he had eaten too much, and could not get off the ground. As he looked around wondering what to do, he spotted a pitchfork leaning up against the wall. He climbed to the top of the handle and jumped off, thinking that once he got airborne, he would be able to take flight. David received a parrot for his birthday. This parrot was an adult with a bad attitude and terrible vocabulary. Every other word was an expletive.

Those that weren't expletives were, to say the least, rude. David tried hard to change the bird's attitude. He was constantly saying polite words and playing soft music. He did anything he could think of, nothing worked. When he yelled at the bird, the bird got worse. If he shook the bird, the bird got madder and ruder. Finally in a moment of desperation, David put the parrot in the freezer. For a few moments he heard the bird squawking, kicking and screaming and then suddenly, there was quiet. David was frightened that he might have actually hurt the bird and quickly opened the freezer door. The parrot calmly stepped out onto David's extended arm and said: "I'm sorry that I might have offended you with my language and actions, so I ask for your forgiveness. I will endeavor to correct my behavior." David was astounded at the bird's change in attitude and was about to ask what had changed him when the parrot continued: "May I ask what the chicken did?"

When you see Geese heading south for the winter flying along in a "V" formation you might consider what science has discovered:

As each bird flaps its wings, it creates uplift for the bird immediately following. By flying in "V" formation the whole flock adds at least 71% greater flying range than if each bird flew on its own. People who share a common direction and sense of community can get where they are going more quickly and easily because they are traveling on the thrust of one another. When a goose falls out of formation it suddenly feels the drag and resistance of having to go it alone and quickly gets back into formation to take advantage of the lifting power of the bird in front. If we have as much sense as a goose we will stay in formation with those who are headed the same way we are. When the head goose gets tired it rotates back in the wing and another goose flies point. Geese honk from behind to encourage those up front to keep up their speed. Finally, and this is important, when a goose gets sick, or is wounded by gunshots, and falls from the formation, two other geese fall out with that goose and follow it down to lend help and protection. They stay with the fallen goose until it is able to fly or until it dies; and only then do they launch out on their own or with another formation to catch up with their group.

If we have the sense of a goose we will stand by each other similarly.

Frank was excited about his new rifle. So, he went bear hunting. He spotted a small brown bear and shot it. There was then a tap on his shoulder, and he turned round to see a big black bear. The black bear said: "You've got two choices. I either maul you to death or we have sex." Frank decided to bend over. Even though he felt sore for two weeks, Frank soon recovered and vowed revenge. He headed out on another trip where he found the black bear and shot it. There was another tap on his shoulder. This time a huge grizzly bear stood right next to him. The grizzly said: "That was a huge mistake, Frank. You've got two choices. Either I maul you to death or we'll have rough sex." Again, Frank thought it was better to comply. Although he survived, it would take several months before Frank finally recovered. Outraged he headed back to the woods, managed to track down the grizzly and shot it. He felt sweet revenge, but then there was a tap on his shoulder. He turned around to find a giant polar bear standing there. The polar bear said "Admit it, Frank, you don't come here for the hunting, do you?"

One day, shortly before Christmas, a man was shopping for a gift for his children, and went into a pet store. The owner showed the man the usual array of pets, puppies, kittens, hamsters, etc., but the man said he was looking for something a little more unique. The owner said, "I might have what you are looking for!" He took the man into the back room where a bedraggled looking parrot sat on a perch. "This is Chet. He is a perfect Christmas pet, because he sings Christmas songs." The owner took a Bic lighter out of his pocket, lit it, and held it under Chet's right wing just far enough away to keep from singing the parrot's feathers. Immediately Chet began to sing, "Jingle bells, jingle bells, jingle all the way." Then the owner held the lighter under Chet's left wing, and the squawky sound of "Silent night. Holy night" poured out of Chet's beak. The man bought the parrot on the spot, and took him home. His children were gone when he got home, so he decided to check out Chet's talent for himself, just to make sure he hadn't been tricked. He lit a match, held it under Chet's right wing, and sure enough the bird began singing Jingle bells just like before. Moving the match under Chet's left wing produced the same results as in the pet store. "Silent Night." Being of a curious nature, the man held a match between Chet's legs to see what would happen. Immediately the parrot began to sing, "Chet's nuts roasting on an open fire."

There was an old man, a boy and a donkey. They were going to town and it was decided that the boy should ride. As they went along they passed some people who thought that it was a shame for the boy to ride and the old man to walk. The old man and boy decided that maybe the critics were right so they changed positions.

Later, they passed some more people who thought that it was a real shame for that man to make such a small boy walk. The two decided that maybe they both should walk. Soon they passed some more people who thought that it was stupid to walk when they had a donkey to ride. The man and the boy decided maybe that the critics were right, so they decided that they both should ride.

They soon passed other people who thought that it was a shame to put such a load on a poor little animal. The old man and the boy decided that maybe the critics were right so they decided to carry the donkey.

As they crossed a bridge they lost their grip on the animal and he fell into the river and drowned.

The moral of the story- If you try to please everyone, you will eventually lose your ass.

The Old Horse and the Chicken

A horse and a chicken are playing in a meadow. The horse falls into a mud hole and is sinking. He calls to the chicken to go and get the farmer to help pull him to safety. The chicken runs to the farm, but the farmer can't be found. So he drives the farmer's BMW back to the mud hole and ties some rope around the bumper. He then throws the other end of the rope to the horse, and drives the car forward, saving him from sinking. A few days later, the chicken and the horse were playing in the meadow again. This time, it's the chicken that falls into the mud hole. The chicken yells to the horse to go get some help from the farmer. The horse says, "I think I can stand over the hole!" He stands over the hole, stretches out, and says, "Grab my thingie! Then pull yourself up to safety!" The chicken does just that, and is rescued.

The moral of the story: If you are hung like a horse, you don't need a BMW to pick up chicks!

A Blonde in a Hail Storm

A blonde was driving back from the mall when there was a terrible hailstorm. Huge hailstones the size of golf balls pelted her car leaving it full of dents. She drove to the body shop and asked what she should do. The body man explained what needed to be done and that it would cost at least $4,000 to repair. She said that it was too much and if there was some other way to fix it. The body man decided to have a little fun and said, "Well you could blow into the tail pipe real hard and they might pop back out." She decided to give it a try before spending that much money. She drove home and was in the garage with her lips wrapped around the exhaust pipe when her blonde neighbor came over to visit. "What are you doing?" she shrieked, thinking the worst and thankful that she may have just prevented her friend from committing suicide. "I'm blowing into the tailpipe real hard to pop all these dents out of my car," explained the first blonde.

"Well silly, it's not going to work," replied her neighbor. "Why not?" "Because you've got to roll up the windows first silly! "

A man is eating in a fancy restaurant and there is a gorgeous blonde eating at the next table. He has been checking her out all night, but lacks the nerve to go talk to her. Suddenly she sneezes and her glass eye comes flying out of her socket towards the man. He reflexively grabs and snatches it out of the air. "Oh my God, I am SO sorry," the woman says, as she pops her eye back in place. "Let me buy you dinner to make it up to you." They enjoy a wonderful dinner together and afterwards the woman invites him to the theater followed by drinks.

After paying for everything, she asks him if he would like to come to breakfast the next morning. When he arrives the next morning, she has cooked a gourmet meal with all the trimmings. The guy is amazed! "You know, you are the perfect woman. Are you this nice to every guy you meet?" "No, she replies, "You just happened to catch my eye."

A blonde is visiting Washington, DC. It is her first time to the city, so she wants to see the Capitol building. Unfortunately, she can't find it, so she asks a police officer for directions. "Excuse me, officer, the blonde says, how do I get to the Capitol building?" The officer says, "Wait here at this bus stop for the number 54 bus. It'll take you right there." The blonde thanks the officer and he drives off. Three hours later the police officer comes back to the same area, and, sure enough, the blonde is still waiting at the same bus stop. The officer gets out of his car and says, "Excuse me, but to get to the Capitol building, I said to wait here for the number 54 bus. That was three hours ago. Why are you still waiting?" The blonde says, "Don't worry, officer, it won't be long now. The 45th bus just went by!"

Horseback Riding

A blonde who has never ridden before and has never had lessons decides that she is going to go horseback riding. She mounts the horse unassisted and immediately the horse starts to gallop at a nice steady pace. The blonde, however, is bouncing from side-to-side. She tries to grab the horses' mane, but she can't get a secure hold. Then she leans forward and throws her arms around the horses' neck, to no avail. The horse gallops on oblivious to its rider's plight. The blonde starts to slip from the saddle and his holding on to the side of the horse. Finally, she decides to throw herself free. Unfortunately, her foot gets caught in the stirrup and as the horse gallops on, her head is banging up and down on the ground. Just as she's about to lose consciousness, her quarter ran out.

Julie, the blonde, was getting pretty desperate for money. She decided to go to the nicer, richer neighborhoods around town and look for odd jobs as a handy woman. The first house she came to, a man answered the door and told Julie, "Yeah, I have a job for you. "How would you like to paint the porch?" "Sure that sounds great!" said Julie. "Well, how much do you want me to pay you?" asked the man. "Is fifty bucks all right?" Julie asked. "Yeah, great. "You'll find the paint and ladders you'll need in the garage." The man went back into his house to his wife who had been listening. "Fifty bucks! Does she know the porch goes all the way around the house?" asked the wife. "Well, she must, she was standing right on it!" her husband replied. About 45 minutes later, Julie knocked on the door. "I'm all finished," she told the surprised homeowner. The man was amazed. "You painted the whole porch?" "Yeah," Julie replied, "I even had some paint left, so I put on two coats!" The man reached into his wallet to pay Julie.

"Oh, and by the way," said Julie, "That's not a Porch, it's a Ferrari."

A lady gets a job as a sales assistant in a sex shop. The manager shows her around the store showing her where everything is and how much everything costs. A little while later the manager says that she has some errands to run and whether the new girl felt confident enough to mind the store when she was gone. "Oh I think so" replied the girl and with that the manager left. A few minutes later a Redhead walked in and asked the girl "How much for the black vibrator?" "The black vibrator is twenty-five dollars" replied the sales girl The Redhead said that was a fair price, paid her money and left. Shortly, a brunette walked in an inquired about the price of the white vibrator. "The white vibrator is twenty dollars" she replied The brunette stated that that was a fair price, paid her money and left. Soon after, a Blonde walked in and inquired about the cost of the blue vibrator. "The blue vibrator?" the sales girl said with a confused look on her face. "Oh, that one there" she said. "Well the blue vibrator is fifty dollars" she replied "That's a fair price" the Blonde said, paid her money and left. An hour later the manager returned and asked the new girl how she went on her own. "Well" she replied "First this Redhead came in and bought the black vibrator for twenty-five bucks. Then this brunette came in and bought the white vibrator for twenty bucks, then this Blonde came in and bought my Thermos for fifty bucks."

A man is stranded on a deserted island, all alone for ten years. One day a gorgeous blonde woman wearing a wet suit and scuba suit arrives at the island. She comes up to the chap and she says, "How long has it been since you had a cigarette?" "Ten years!" he answers. She reaches over, unzips the waterproof pocket on her left sleeve and pulls out a pack of fresh cigarettes. He takes one, lights it, takes a long drag and says, "Man, oh man! Is that good!" Then she asks, "How long has it been since you had a whisky? He replies, "Ten years!" She reaches over, unzips her waterproof pocket on the right, pulls out a bottle of malt whisky and gives it to him. He takes a long swallow and says, "Wow, that is fantastic!" Then she starts unzipping this long zipper that runs down the front of her wet suit and she says to him,

"And how long has it been since you had some real fun?" And the man replies, "My God! Don't tell me you've got golf clubs in there!"

A Blonde was down on her luck. In order to raise some money, she decided to kidnap a kid and hold him for ransom. She went to the playground, grabbed a kid, took him behind a tree, and told him, "I've kidnapped you." She then wrote a note saying, "I've kidnapped your kid. Tomorrow morning put $10,000 in a paper bag and put it under the pecan tree next to the slide on the north side of the playground. Signed, A Blonde."

The blonde then pinned the note to the kid's shirt and sent him home to show it to his Parents. The next morning the blonde checked, and sure enough, a paper bag was sitting beneath the pecan tree. The blonde opened the bag and found the $10,000 with a note that said, "How could you do this to a fellow Blonde?"

Three women escaped from prison. One was a redhead, one a brunette, and one a blonde. They ran for miles until they came upon an old barn where they decided to hide in the hayloft and rest. When they climbed up, they found three large gunnysacks and decided to climb into them for camouflage. About an hour later the sheriff and his deputy came into the barn. The sheriff told his deputy to go up and check out the hayloft. When he got up there the sheriff asked him what he saw and the deputy yelled back, "Just three gunnysacks." The sheriff told him to find out what was in them, so the deputy kicked the first sack, which had the redhead in it. She went, "Bow-wow," so the deputy told the sheriff there was a dog in it. Then he kicked the sack with the brunette in it. She went, "Meow," so the deputy told the sheriff there was a cat in it. Then he kicked the one with the blonde in it, and there was no sound at all. So he kicked it again, and finally the blonde said, "Potatoes".

It was a hot and humid July afternoon, when I decided to visit my girlfriend, Susie. Susie may be blonde and beautiful, but sometimes she is, shall we say, lacking in other areas. Well Susie had decided her kitchen needed repainting, and instead of hiring a professional, decided to do it herself. I thought she might appreciate a break and brought over some cold beer and some sandwiches. When I arrived, I found Susie working hard painting the kitchen walls. But instead of wearing old clothes, she was wearing her fur coat and her ski parka. I asked her why she was dressed that way on such a hot day. She brought me the paint bucket and told me to read the instructions. I did. It said, "For best results, put on two coats."

One day while jogging a middle-aged man noticed a tennis ball lying by the side of the walk. Being fairly new and in good condition, he picked the ball up, put it in his pocket and proceeded on his way. Waiting at the cross street for the light to change, he noticed a beautiful blond standing next to him smiling. "What do you have in your pocket?" "Tennis ball", the man said smiling back. "Wow," said the blond looking upset. "That must hurt. I once had tennis elbow and the pain was unbearable!"

A blonde wanted to go ice fishing. She'd seen many books on the subject and finally, after getting all the necessary "tools" together, she made for the nearest frozen body of water. After positioning her comfy footstool, she started to make a circular cut in the ice. Suddenly—-from the sky—-a voice boomed, "THERE ARE NO FISH UNDER THE ICE!" Startled, the blonde moved further down the ice, poured a Thermos of Cappuccino and began to cut yet another hole. Again, from the heavens, the voice bellowed, "THERE ARE NO FISH UNDER THE ICE!" The Blonde, now quite worried, moved way down to the opposite end of the ice, set up her stool, and tried again to cut her hole. The voice came once more. "THERE ARE NO FISH UNDER THE ICE!" She stopped, looked skyward, and said, "Is that you, Lord?" The voice replied, "No, this is the Manager of the Ice Rink!"

In a crowded city at a crowded bus stop, a beautiful blonde woman was waiting for the bus. She was decked out in a tight leather mini skirt with matching tight leather boots and jacket. As the bus rolled up and it became her turn to get on, she became aware that her skirt was too tight to allow her leg to come up to the height of the first step on the bus. Slightly embarrassed and with a quick smile to the bus driver she reached behind her and unzipped her skirt a little thinking that this would give her enough slack to raise her leg. Again she tried to make the step onto the bus only to discover she still couldn't! So, a little more embarrassed she once again reached behind her and unzipped her skirt a little more and for a second time attempted the step and once again, much to her chagrin she could not raise her leg because of the tight skirt. So, with a coy little smile to the driver she again unzipped the offending skirt to give a little more slack and again was unable to make the step. About this time the big Texan that was behind her in the line picked her up easily from the waist and placed her lightly on the step of the bus. Well, she went ballistic and turned on the would-be hero screeching at him "How dare you touch my body!! I don't even know who you are!" At this the Texan drawled "Well ma'am normally I would agree with you but after you unzipped my fly three times, I kinda figured that we was friends."

A blonde goes to a restaurant, buys a coffee and sits down to drink it. She looks on the side of her cup and finds a peel-off prize. She pull off the tab and yells, "I WON! I WON! I WON a motor home; I WON a motor home!" The waitress runs over and says, "That's impossible. The biggest prize given away was a mini van!" The blonde replies, "No. I WON A motor home, I WON a motor home!" By this time the manager makes his way over to the table and says, "You couldn't possibly have won a motor home because we didn't have that as a prize!" Again the blonde says, "No, no mistake, I WON a motor home, I WON a motor home!" The blonde hands the prize ticket to the manager and he reads, "WIN A BAGEL."

There were three women waiting to be executed. A redhead a brunette, and a blonde. It was an old-fashioned execution. Of course, these women didn't want to die, so they needed a plan. The redhead said, "I have an idea…follow my lead." So, when it was time for the redhead's execution, the man put on her blindfold and made her line up against the wall. "Do you have any last words?" he asked. "No," she replied. "Ok then…we're set. Ready….aim…." "TORNADO!" she yelled out, pointing. The gunmen all turned around, and she escaped! The brunette and blonde saw this. So, when it was time for the brunette's execution, the man put on her blindfold and made her line up against the wall. "Do you have any last words?" he asked. "No." she replied. "Ok then…we're set. Ready….aim…." "FLOOD!" the brunette yelled out, pointing. The gunmen all turned around and she escaped too! Now, the blonde understood this. So, when it was time for the blonde's execution, the man put on her blindfold and made her line up against a wall. "Do you have any last words?" he asked. "No," she replied. "Ok then...we're set. Ready....aim...." "FIRE!" said the blonde.

little later she came out of her house and again went to the mailbox and again opened it, then slammed it shut again. Angrily, back into the house she went. As the man was getting ready to edge the lawn, here she came out again, marched to the mailbox, opened it and then slammed it closed harder than ever.

Puzzled by her actions the man asked her, "Is something wrong?" To which she replied, "There certainly is! My stupid computer keeps giving me a message saying, "YOU'VE GOT MAIL!"

Dumb Blondes

A guy is having a drink in a very dark bar. He leans over to the big woman next to him and says: "Do you wanna hear a funny blonde joke?" The big woman replies: "Well, before you tell me that joke, you should know something. I'm blond, six feet tall, 210 pounds, and I'm a professional boxer and bodybuilder. Also, the blonde woman sitting next to me is 6'2", weighs 220 pounds, and she is an ex-professional wrestler. And next to her is a blonde, who is 6'5", weighs 250 pounds, and she's a current professional kick-boxer. Now, do you still want to tell that blond joke?" Why is it hard for women to find men who are sensitive, caring and good looking?

Because those men already have boyfriends!

Barbara Walters did a story on gender roles in Kuwait several years before the Gulf War, and she noted then that women customarily walked about 10 feet behind their husbands. She returned to Kuwait recently and observed that the men now walked several yards behind their wives. Ms Walters approached one of the women for an explanation. "This is marvelous social progress," she said. "What enabled women here to achieve this reversal of roles?" The Kuwaiti woman replied, "Land mines."

The Top 13 Reasons You're Having Trouble Finding a Job

13. You list "smoking weed" as a hobby on the job application.

12. Instead of shaking hands, you ask them to "pull your finger."

11. All your answers are whispered into your ear by your sock puppet, "Socky."

10. You're not willing to risk being downsized since you're not so sure it really doesn't refer to your penis.

9. In your zealousness to pad, you claim 10 years of Java and15 years of HTML.

8. After your interview tantrums, so-called "Equal Opportunity Employers" don't seem to be buying your "Tourette's Syndrome" excuse.

7. "Slashed co-workers with a broken coffee mug" doesn't look as impressive on your resume as you thought it would.

6. Even though Yanni sells all those records, there's no job market for "masters of the pan flute."

5. Small-minded employers find "alien abductions" unacceptable explanation for gaps in work history.

4. Too much time during your interview spent discussing your jihad, not enough on how you would perform as the new personnel counselor.

3. You show up at each interview wearing an aluminum foil suit "just in case of enemy attack."

2. Apparently, the high-priced-gigolo-to-Daycare-worker transition is one of the tougher ones.

and the number 1 Reason You're Having Trouble Finding a Job-

1. Still busy looking for the real killers!

A woman with very hairy armpits sat at the very end of the bar. She raised her arm waving at the bartender and said, "Bartender, I want a drink". The drunk at the other end of the bar looked at the bartender and said, "Give the little ballerina a drink". The bartender gave the woman a drink. A while later the woman raised her arm again and waving at the bartender said, "Bartender, I want a drink". The drunk at the other end of the bar looked at the bartender and said, "Give the little ballerina a drink". The bartender gave the woman a drink. For the third time the woman raised her arm waving at the bartender and said "Bartender, I want a drink". Again, the drunk at the other end said- "Give the little ballerina a drink". The bartender asked the drunk if he knew the woman. "No", he replied. "Then how do you know she's a ballerina?" asked the bartender. The drunk replied, "Any woman who can raise her leg that far has got to be a ballerina".

A couple of women were playing golf one sunny Saturday morning. The first of the twosome teed off and watched in horror as her ball headed directly toward a foursome of men playing the next hole. Indeed, the ball hit one of the men, and he immediately clasped his hands together at his crotch, fell to the ground and proceeded to roll around in evident agony.

The woman rushed down to the man and immediately began to apologize. She said, "Please allow me to help. I'm a physical therapist and I know I could relieve your pain if you'd allow." "Ummph, oooh, nnooo, I'll be all right…I'll be fine in a few minutes," he replied breathlessly as he remained in the fetal position still clasping his hands together at his crotch. But she persisted, and he finally allowed her to help him. She gently took his hands away and laid them to the side, she loosened his pants, and she put her hands inside. She began to massage him. She then asked him, "How does that feel?"

To which he replied, "It feels great, but my thumb still hurts like hell."

A supermarket had a sale on boneless chicken breasts, and a woman I know intended to stock up. At the store, however, she was disappointed to find only a few skimpy prepackaged portions of the poultry, so she complained to the butcher. "Don't worry," he said. "I'll pack some more trays and have them ready for you by the time you finish shopping."

Several aisles later, my friend heard the butcher's voice boom over the public-address system: "Will the lady who wanted bigger breasts please meet me at the back of the store."

Definitely

A nursery school teacher says to her class, "Who can use the word definitely' in a sentence?" First little girl says, "The sky is definitely blue." The teacher says, "Sorry Amy, but the sky can be gray, or orange depending on the weather." Second, a little boy says, "Trees are definitely green." "Sorry, but in the autumn many trees are brown or gold," said the teacher. Little Johnny, from the back of the class, stands up and asks, "Does a fart have lumps?" The teacher looks horrified and says..."Johnny! That's disgusting. Of course not!" "OK...then I have DEFINITELY shit my pants!"

Three older ladies were discussing the problems of getting older. One said, "Sometimes I catch myself with a jar of mayonnaise in my hand, in front of the refrigerator, and can't remember whether I need to put it away, or start making a sandwich."

The second lady chimed in, "Yes, sometimes I find myself standing on the stairs and can't remember whether I was on my way up or on my way down."

The third one responded, "Well, I'm glad I don't have that problem; knock on wood," (knocking on table with her fist) she then stood up and said, "That must be the door, I'll get it!"

Stress Management

Picture yourself near a stream. Birds are singing in the crisp, cool mountain air. Nothing can bother you here. No one knows this secret place. You are in total seclusion from that place called the world. The soothing sound of a gentle waterfall fills the air with a cascade of serenity. The water is clear. You can easily make out the face of the person whose head you're holding under the water. There now, feeling better? Now GET to WORK!

Whoops!

A psychotherapist was having a roaring business since he started from scratch. So much so that he could now afford to have a proper shop banner advertising his wares. So he told a kid to paint a sign for him and put it above his shop entrance.

But, instead of his business building up, it began to slacken. He had especially noticed the ladies shying away from his shop after reading the signage. So he decided to check it out himself. Then he understood why.

The boy found a small wooden board so he had split the word into the three words:

Psycho-
therapist.

Mothers are Practical

A young man, in the course of his college life, came to terms with his homosexuality and decided to "come out of the closet." His plan was to tell his mother first; so on his next home visit, he went to the kitchen, where his mother was busying herself stirring stew with a wooden spoon. Rather nervously, he explained to her that he had realized he was gay. Without looking up from her stew, his mother said, "You mean, homosexual?"

"Well…yes." Still without looking up: "Does that mean you suck men's penises?" Caught off guard, the young man eventually managed to stammer an embarrassed affirmative; whereupon his mother turned to him and, brandishing the wooden spoon threateningly under his nose, snapped: "Don't you EVER complain about my cooking again!"

Red Tees at Morning, Golfers Take Warning

A fellow has a week off and decides to play a round of golf every day. First thing Monday morning, he sets off on his first round and soon catches up to the person in front. He sees that this is a woman and, as he catches up to her on a par 3, that, in fact, she's very attractive. He's interested and suggests that they play the rest of the round together. She agrees and a very close match ensues. She turns out also to be a very talented golfer and she wins their little competition on the last hole.

He congratulates her in the car park then offers to give her a lift when he sees she doesn't have a car. All in all it's been a highly enjoyable morning. On the way to her place, she thanks him for the morning's company and competition and says she hasn't enjoyed herself so much on the course for a long time. "In fact," she says, "I'd like you to pull over so I can show you how much I appreciated everything." He pulls over, they kiss and she shows him her appreciation.

The next morning he spies her at the first tee and suggests they play together again. He's actually quite competitive and slightly peeved that she beat him the previous day. Again they have a magnificent day, enjoying each other's company and playing a tight, competitive round of golf. Again she pips him at the last, again he drives her home and again she shows her appreciation.

This goes on all week, with her beating him narrowly every day. This is a sore point for his male ego. Nevertheless, in the car home from their Friday afternoon round, he tells her that he has had such a fine week that he has a surprise planned: dinner for two at a fancy candle-lit restaurant followed by a night of passion in the penthouse apartment of a posh hotel.

Surprisingly, she bursts into tears and says she can't agree to this. He can't work out what the fuss is about but eventually she admits the reason.

"You see," she tearfully sobs, "I'm a transvestite."

He is aghast. He swerves violently off the road, pulls the car to a screeching halt and curses madly, overcome with emotion. "I'm sorry," she repeats.

"You bastard," he screams, red in the face, "You cheating bastard. You've been playing off the red tees all week!"

Jingle Bells, Jingle Bells

Two men were boasting to each other about their old army days. "Why, my outfit was so well drilled," declared one, "that when they presented arms all you could hear was slap, slap, click." "Very good," conceded the other, "but when my company presented arms you'd just hear slap, slap, jingle." "What was the jingle?" asked the first. "Oh," replied the other matter-of-factly, "just our medals."

Cockpit Comments

Radar: CRX 500, are you on a course to SUL?

Pilot: More or less

Radar: So proceed a little bit more to SUL

Tower: N2234, are you a Cessna?

Pilot: No, I'm a male Hispanic.

Pilot: …request heading 110 to "avoid"

Radar: To avoid what?

Pilot: To avoid delay

Pilot: Radar, this is Cessna 4675

Radar: Cessna 4675, go ahead

Pilot: Radar, I don't seem to be making much progress here. How is my ground speed?

Radar: Well, all depends. If you are a hang glider, you are doing very well.

Captain: (after landing a bit rough) Ladies and Gentlemen, it's happy hour. You just received two landings for the price of one.

Smart Asses!

Two guys in chemistry at Carleton U were doing well, going into the finals with an "A" average. They were so confident that the weekend before finals they agreed to go to Toronto and party with some friends.

They had a great time but, due to hangovers, they overslept on Sunday and didn't make it back to Ottawa until late Monday morning. They found their professor, explained that they had been studying all weekend and had planned to return in time, but had a flat tire on the 401, didn't have a spare, couldn't get help for a long time, and were late getting back to campus.

The professor thought this over and agreed that they could write the final on the following day. The two guys were elated and very proud of their story. They studied that night and, when they went in the next day, the professor placed them in separate rooms. The first question was something simple about molarity and solutions, worth 5 points. But their optimism was crushed when they saw they second question: WHICH TIRE? (worth 95 points)

All In A Days Work

A man was being interviewed for a job. "Were you in the service?" ask the interviewer.

"Yes, I was a marine," responded the applicant. "Did you see any active duty?" "I was in Vietnam for 2 years and I have a partial disability." "May I ask what happened?" "Well, I had a grenade go off between my legs and I lost both testicles." "You're hired. You can start Monday at 10 am." "When does everyone else start? I don't want any preferential treatment because of my disability." "Everyone else starts at 7 am but I might as well be honest with you. Nothing gets done between 7 and 10. We just sit around scratching our balls trying to decide what to do first."

Put your toddler's clothes on backwards and send him off to pre-school as if nothing was wrong.

Thumb through "National Geographic" and draw underwear on the natives.

Go shopping. Buy everything. Sweat in them. Return them the next day.

Drive to work in reverse.

Start a nasty rumor and see if you recognize it when it gets back to you.

Bill your doctor for the time you spent in his waiting room.

Get a box of condoms. Wait in line at the check-out counter and ask the cashier where the fitting rooms are.

Speeding

Sitting on the side of the highway waiting to catch speeding drivers, a State Police Officer sees a car puttering along at 22 MPH. He thinks to himself, "This driver is just as dangerous as a speeder!" So he turns on his lights and pulls the driver over.

Approaching the car, he notices that there are five old ladies-two in the front seat and three in the back wide-eyed and white as ghosts. The driver, obviously confused, says to him, "Officer, I don't understand, I was doing exactly the speed limit! What seems to be the problem?" "Ma'am," the officer replies, "you weren't speeding, but you should know that driving slower than the speed limit can also be a danger to other drivers."

"Slower than the speed limit? No sir, I was doing the speed limit exactly…Twenty- two miles an hour!" the old woman says a bit proudly. The State Police officer, trying to contain a chuckle explains to her that "22" was the route number, not the speed limit.

A bit embarrassed, the woman grinned and thanked the officer for pointing out her error.

"But before I let you go, Ma'am, I have to ask...Is everyone in this car OK? These women seem awfully shaken and they haven't muttered a single peep this whole time," the officer asks. "Oh, they'll be all right in a minute officer. We just got off Route 119."

Close Shave

A man enters a barbershop for a shave. While the barber is foaming him up, he mentions the problems he has getting a close shave around the cheeks. "I have just the thing," says the barber taking a small wooden ball from a nearby drawer. "Just place this between your cheek and gum." The client places the ball in his mouth and the barber proceeds with the closest shave the man has ever experienced. After a few strokes the client asks in garbled speech. "And what if I swallow it?" "No problem," says the barber. "Just bring it back tomorrow like everyone else does."

Special High Intensity Training

Attention:

In order to assure the highest levels of quality work and productivity from employees, it will be our policy to keep all employees well trained through our program of SPECIAL HIGH INTENSITY TRAINING (S.H.I.T.). We are trying to give employees more S.H.I.T. than anyone else. If you feel that you do not receive your share of S.H.I.T. on the job, please see your manager. You will be immediately placed at the top of the S.H.I.T. list, and our managers are especially skilled at seeing that you get all the

S.H.I.T. you can handle. Employees who don't take their S.H.I.T. will be placed in DEPARTMENTAL EMPLOYEE EVALUATION PROGRAMS (D.E.E.P.S.H.I.T.).

Those who fail to take D.E.E.P.S.H.I.T. seriously will have to go to EMPLOYEE ATTITUDE TRAINING (E.A.T.S.H.I.T.). Since our managers took S.H.I.T. before they were promoted, they don't have to do S.H.I.T. anymore, and are full of S.H.I.T. already. If you are full of S.H.I.T., you may be interested in job training others. We can add your name to our BASIC UNDERSTANDING LECTURE LIST (B.U.L.L.S.H.I.T.). Those who are full of B.U.L.L.S.H.I.T. will get the S.H.I.T. jobs, and can apply for promotion to DIRECTOR OF INTENSITY PROGRAMMING (D.I.P.S.H.I.T.). If you have further questions, please direct them to our HEAD OF TRAINING, SPECIAL HIGH INTENSITY TRAINING (H.O.T.S.H.I.T.).

Thank you,

BOSS IN GENERAL
SPECIAL HIGH INTENSITY TRAINING
(B.I.G.S.H.I.T.)

I suggest that the IMG form an adjunct Human Engineering and Development

Staff (S.H.I.T.H.E.A.D.S.) to guarantee universal implementation of this S.H.I.T. program. Any Volunteers?

(From a Japanese man in Toronto:) He-ro! This is Sato. If you leave message, I call you soon. If you leave sexy message, I call sooner!

Hello, this is Sally's microwave. Her answering machine just eloped with her tape deck, so I'm stuck with taking her calls. Say, if you want anything cooked while you leave your message, just hold it up to the phone.

My owners do not need siding, windows, or a hot tub, and their carpets are clean. They give to charity through their offices and do not need their picture taken. If you're still with me, leave your name and number and they will get back to you.

This is not an answering machine—this is a telepathic thought-recording device. After the tone, think about your names, your reason for calling and a number where I reach you, and I'll think about returning your call.

Hi. I am probably home I'm just avoiding someone I don't like. Leave me a message, and if I don't call you back, it's you.

Hi, this is George. I'm sorry I can't answer the phone right now. Leave a message, and then wait by your phone until I call you back.

If you are a burglar, then we're probably at home cleaning our weapons right now and can't come to the phone. Otherwise, we probably aren't home and it's safe to leave us a message.

Please leave a message. However, you have the right to remain silent. Everything you say will be recorded and will be used by us.

Hello, you've reached Jim and Sonya. We can't pick up the phone right now, because we're doing something we really enjoy. Sonya likes doing it up and down, and I like doing it left and right…real slowly. So leave a message, and when we're done brushing our teeth, we'll get back to you.

After having their 10th child, an Arkansas couple decided that was enough! So the husband went to his doctor and told him that he and his wife didn't want to have any more children.

"There's a procedure called a vasectomy that will fix the problem," advised his doctor. "On your way home stop at a fireworks stand, buy a cherry bomb, put it in a tin can, hold the can up to your ear and count to 10." The Arky said to the doctor, "I may not be the smartest man, but I can't see how putting a cherry bomb in a can next to my ear is going to help me." So the couple drove to Missouri to get a second opinion. The St. Louis doctor was just about to explain the conventional procedure for a vasectomy when he learned that his new patient was from Arkansas. "Go home, get a cherry bomb, place it in a tin can, hold it next to your ear and count to 10." Figuring that both doctors couldn't be wrong, the man went home lit a cherry bomb and put it in a tin can. He held the can up to his ear and began to count,"1, 2, 3, 4, 5…" at which point he paused, placed the can between his legs and resumed counting on his other hand.

One day a florist goes to a barber for a haircut. After the cut he goes to pay the barber and the barber replies: "I am sorry, I cannot accept money from you; I am doing community service." The florist is happy and leaves the shop. The next morning when the barber goes to open his shop, there is a thank you card and a dozen roses waiting at his door. A cop goes for a haircut and he also goes to pay the barber and the barber replies: "I am Sorry, I cannot accept money from you; I am doing community service'. The cop is happy and leaves the shop. The next morning when the barber goes to open his shop, there is a thank you card and a dozen donuts waiting at his door. A black man goes for a haircut and he also goes to pay the barber and the barber replies: 'I am sorry, I cannot accept money from you; I am doing community service'. The guy is, of course, very happy and leaves the shop. The next morning when the barber goes to open his shop he finds a dozen brothers waiting in line for a free haircut!

An old Italian woman is riding the elevator in a very lavish New York City Office Building. A young and beautiful woman gets into the elevator and smelling like expensive perfume turns to the old Italian woman and says arrogantly, "Giorgio—Beverly Hills, $100 an ounce! "The next floor another young and beautiful woman gets on the elevator and also very arrogantly turns to the old Italian woman and says Chanel No. 5, $150 an ounce! "About three floors later, the old Italian woman reaches her floor and is about to get off the elevator. Before she leaves she turns and looks both beautiful women in the eye. She bends over and farts and says "Broccoli—49 cents a pound."

Jedi Mind Trick

This little Jedi mind trick is kinda freaky, till you think about it a little while. Then it's even more weird. Just follow the instructions below: DON'T scroll down too fast-do it slowly and follow the instructions below exactly, do the math in your head as fast as you can. It may help to say the answers aloud quietly. FOLLOW these instructions one at a time and as QUICKLY as you can!

What is-

4+4?

8+8?

16+16?

Quick! Pick a number between 12 and 5. Got it? Now scroll down

The number you picked was 7, right? Isn't that weird?

Check out the following exercise, guaranteed to freak you out. There's no trick or surprise. Follow these instructions, and answer the questions one at a time and as quickly as you can! Again, as quickly as you can but don't advance until you've done each of them...really.

What is-

Now repeat saying the number 6 to yourself as fast as you can for15 seconds. Then scroll down.

QUICK! THINK OF A VEGETABLE!

You're thinking of a carrot right? If not, you're among the 2% of the population whose minds are warped enough to think of something else. 98% of people will answer with carrot when given this exercise. Freaky, huh?

Here is another one. DON'T CHEAT BY SCROLLING DOWN FIRST! It only takes 30 seconds. Work this out as you read. Don't read the bottom until you've worked it out!

1. First of all, pick the number of days a week that you would like to eat out.
2. Multiply this number by 2.
3. Add 5.
4. Multiply it by 50.
5. If you have already had your birthday this year add 1748. If you haven't, add 1747.
6. Last step: Subtract the four-digit year that you were born.

You should now have a three digit number:

The first digit of this was your original number (i.e. how many times you want to go out each week).

The second two digits are your age!

Other parts of the Unwritten Code of the Urinals

While taking care of business, stare at the imaginary "Pee Spot" directly in front of you. Do not let your eyes wonder about.

NO Talking, unless it's a good friend…but even then, keep it terse and unemotional. This ain't no clubhouse.

I don't think I need to tell you, absolutely NO touching of anyone other than yourself. A touch of another's elbow is of the highest offense.

NO singing, period

Glances are for purposes of acknowledgment only…"Yeah, I see you there. I will not look again".

An Irishman's been drinking at a pub all night. The bartender finally says that the bar is closing. So the Irishman stands up to leave and falls flat on his face. He tries to stand one more time, same result. He figures he'll crawl outside and get some fresh air and maybe that will sober him up. Once outside he stands up and falls flat on his face. So he decides to crawl the 4 blocks to his home and when he arrives at the door he stands up and falls flat on his face. He crawls through the door into his bedroom. When he reaches his bed he tries one more time to stand up. This time he manages to pull himself upright but he quickly falls right into bed and is sound asleep as soon as his head hits the pillow. He awakens the next morning to his wife standing over him shouting at him. "So, you've been out drinking again!" "What makes you say that?" He asks as he puts on an innocent look. "The pub called, you left your wheelchair there again."

A guy is walking past a big wooden fence at the insane asylum and he hears all the residents inside chanting, "Thirteen! Thirteen! Thirteen!" Quite curious about this, he finds a hole in the fence, and looks in. Someone inside pokes him in the eye. Then everyone inside the asylum starts chanting, "Fourteen! Fourteen! Fourteen!"

Occasionally, airline attendants make an effort to make the "in-flight safety lecture" a bit more entertaining. Here are some real examples that have been heard or reported:

"There may be 50 ways to leave your lover, but there are only 4 ways out of this plane"
"Your seat cushions can be used for floatation, and in the event of an emergency water landing, please take them with our compliments."
"We do feature a smoking section on this flight; if you must smoke, contact a member of the flight crew and we will escort you to the wing of the airplane.
"Smoking in the lavatories is prohibited. Any person caught smoking in the lavatories will be asked to leave the plane immediately."
Pilot—"Folks, we have reached our cruising altitude now, so I am going to switch the seat belt sign off. Feel free to move about as you wish, but please stay inside the plane till we land...it's a bit cold outside, and if you walk on the wings it affects the flight pattern."
And, after landing: "Thank you for flying Delta Business Express. We hope you enjoyed giving us the business as much as we enjoyed taking you for a ride."

Once on a Southwest flight, the pilot said, "We've reached our cruising altitude now, and I'm turning off the seat belt sign. I'm switching to auto-pilot so I can come back there and visit with all of you for the rest of the flight."

As the plane landed and was coming to a stop at Washington National, a lone voice comes over the loudspeaker: "Whoa, big fella, WHOA!"

"Should the cabin lose pressure, oxygen masks will drop from the overhead area. Please place the bag over your own mouth and nose before assisting children or adults acting like children."

"As you exit the plane, please make sure to sure to gather all of your belongings. Anything left behind will be distributed evenly among the flight attendants. Please do not leave children or spouses." "Last one off the plane must clean it."

And from the pilot during his welcome message: "We are pleased to have some of the best flight attendants in the industry…Unfortunately none of them are on this flight!"

An airline pilot wrote that on this particular flight he had hammered his ship into the runway really hard. The airline had a policy that required the first officer to stand at the door while the passengers exited, give a smile, and a "Thanks for flying XYZ airline." He said that in light of his bad landing, he had a hard time looking the passengers in the eye, thinking that someone would have a smart comment. Finally everyone had gotten off except for this little old lady walking with a cane. She said, "Sonny, mind if I ask you a question?" "Why no Ma'am," said the pilot, "what is it?" The little old lady said, "Did we land or were we shot down?"

Overheard on an American Airlines flight into Amarillo, Texas, on a particularly windy and bumpy day. During the final approach the captain was really having to fight it. After an extremely hard landing, the Flight Attendant came on the PA and announced, "Ladies and Gentlemen, welcome to Amarillo. Please remain in your seats with your seatbelts fastened while the Captain taxis what's left of our airplane to the gate!"

Another flight Attendant's comment on a less than perfect landing: "We ask you to please remain seated as Captain Kangaroo bounces us to the terminal."

After a particularly rough landing during thunderstorms in Memphis, a flight attendant on a Northwest flight announced: "Please take care when opening the overhead compartments because, after a landing like that, sure as hell everything has shifted."

From a Southwest Airlines employee—"Welcome aboard Southwest Flight XXX to YYY. To operate your seatbelt, insert the metal tab into the buckle, and pull tight. It works just like every other seatbelt, and if you don't know how to operate one, you probably shouldn't be out in public unsupervised. In the event of a sudden loss of cabin pressure, oxygen masks will descend from the ceiling. Stop screaming, grab the mask, and pull it over your face. If you have a small child traveling with you, secure your mask before assisting with theirs. If you are traveling with two small children, decide now which one you love more.

Weather at our destination is 50 degrees with some broken clouds, but they'll try to have them fixed before we arrive. Thank you, and remember, nobody loves you, or your money, more than Southwest Airlines."

Two men were adrift in a lifeboat following a dramatic escape from a burning freight vessel. While rummaging through the boat's provisions, one of the men stumbled across an old lamp. Secretly hoping that a genie would appear, he rubbed the lamp vigorously. To the amazement of the castaways, one did come forth. This particular genie, however, stated that she could only deliver one wish, not the standard three. Without giving much thought to the matter the man blurted out, "Make the entire ocean into beer!"

Immediately the Genie clapped her hands with a deafening crash, and the entire sea turned into the finest brew ever sampled by mortals. Simultaneously, the Genie vanished to her freedom. Only the gentle lapping of beer on the hull broke the stillness as the two men considered their circumstances. The other man looked disgustedly at the one whose wish had been granted. After a long, tension-filled moment, he spoke: "Nice going! Now we're going to have to pee in the boat.

TEN THINGS THAT PISS ME OFF

1. People who point at their wrist while asking for the time, I know where my watch is buddy, where the fuck is yours? Do I point at my crotch when I ask where the bathroom is?

2. The Pillsbury doughboy is way too happy considering he has no dick.

3. People who are willing to get off their ass to search the entire room for the TV remote because they refuse to walk to the TV and change the channel manually.

4. When people say: "Oh you just want to have your cake and eat it too". Fuck off. What good is a goddamn cake you can't eat? What, should I eat someone else's cake instead?

5. When people say "It's always in the last place you look". Of course it is. Why the fuck would you keep looking after you've found it? Do people do this? Who and where are they?

6. When people say, while watching a movie "Did you see that?" No dick-nose, I paid $7.50 to come to the theatre and stare at frikken ceiling up there. What did you come here for?

7. The radio ad "Hi, I'm Jeff Healey from the Jeff Healey Band. Don't drink and drive. I don't". Well, I hope you don't drive sober either Mr. Healey. You're blind for God's sake!

8. People who ask: "Can I ask you a question?" Didn't really give me a choice, did ya there buddy?

9. When something is "new and improved", which is it? If it's new, then there has never been anything before it. If it's an improvement, then there must have been something before it.

10. When a cop pulls you over and then asks if you know how fast you were going? You should know asshole you fucking pulled me over.

Look Out Below

A man was sitting on a plane reading a book. A few minutes later he ran up to the pilot and said, "Help! Help! I dropped my favorite book out of the plane! Can you please stop it?"

"No, no, I am not stopping this plane for a book.", the pilot replied.

Later another man ran up to the pilot and asked, "Can please land the plane? I dropped my lucky baseball."

"No, I will not land the plane for a baseball!"

A third man had dropped a grenade out of the plane. He quick ran up the pilot and started yelling, "Stop, stop, I lost my gren-"

"Alright, Alright!" he interrupts. "I will land the plane." When the pilot got out he saw two little boys crying. He asked them what was the matter, they replied something fell out of the sky and landed on them. One was a book and the other a baseball. A third boy came along and was laughing. The pilot asked, "What are you laughing about?"

"I farted and my house blew up!"

Job Interview

Reaching the end of a job interview, the Human Resources Person asked a young Engineer fresh out of MIT, "And what starting salary were you looking for?" The Engineer replied, "In the neighborhood of $125,000 a year, depending on the benefits package." The interviewer said, "Well, what would you say to a package of 5-weeks vacation, 14 paid holidays, full medical and dental, company matching retirement fund to 50% of salary, and a company car leased every 2 years—say, a red Corvette?"

The Engineer sat up straight and said, "Wow! Are you kidding?" And the interviewer replied, "Yeah, but you started it."

A man was walking along a California beach and stumbled across an old lamp. He picked it up and rubbed it and out popped a genie. The genie said "OK, OK. You released me from the lamp, blah blah blah. This is the fourth time this month and I'm getting a little sick of these wishes so you can forget it three. You only get one wish!" The man sat and thought about it for a while and said, "I've always wanted to go to Hawaii but I'm scared to fly and I get very seasick. Could you build me a bridge to Hawaii so I can drive over there to visit?" The genie laughed and said, "That's impossible. Think of the logistics of that! How would the supports ever reach the bottom of the Pacific? Think of how much concrete...how much steel no, think of another wish." The man said OK and tried to think of a really good wish. Finally, he said, "I've been married and divorced four times. My wives always said that I don't care and that I'm insensitive. I wish that I could understand women. Know how they feel inside and what they're thinking when they give me the silent treatment and know why they're crying. Know what they really want when they say 'nothing', know how to make them truly happy" The genie said, "You want that bridge two lanes or four?"

Smarter than you think

There was a little boy named Johnny who used to hang out at the local corner market. The owner didn't know what Johnny's problem was, but the boys would constantly tease him. They would always comment that he was two bricks shy of a load, or two pickles short of a barrel. To prove it, sometimes they would offer Johnny his choice between a nickel (5¢) and a dime (10¢). Johnny would always take the nickel then say he chose it because it was "bigger". One day after John grabbed the nickel, the store owner took him aside and said "Johnny, those boys are making fun of you. They think you don't know the dime is worth more than the nickel. Are you grabbing the nickel because it's bigger, or what?" Slowly, Johnny turned toward the storeowner and a big grin appeared on his face. At that point Johnny said, "Well, if I took the dime, they'd stop doing it, and so far I have saved $20!"

Fun things to do on an elevator

1. Grimace painfully while smacking your forehead and muttering "Shut up, darnit, all of you just shut up!"

2. Whistle the first seven notes of "It's a Small World" incessantly.

3. Crack open your briefcase or purse, and while peering inside ask: "Got enough air in there?"

4. Offer name tags to everyone getting on the elevator, then wear yours upside down.

5. Stand silent and motionless in the corner, facing the wall, without getting off.

6. When arriving at your floor, grunt and strain to yank the doors open then act embarrassed when they open by themselves.

7. Greet everyone getting on the elevator with a warm handshake and ask them to call you Admiral.

8. On the highest floor, hold the door open and demand that it stay open until you hear the penny you dropped down the shaft go "plink" at the bottom.

9. When at least 8 people have boarded, moan from the back: "oh, not now, darn motion sickness!"

10. Meow occasionally.

11. Bet the other passengers you can fit a quarter in your nose.

12. Frown and mutter, "gotta go, gotta go" then sigh and say "oops!"

13. Show other passengers a wound and ask if it looks infected.

14. Holler "Chutes away!" whenever the elevator descends.

15. Walk on with a cooler that says "human head" on the side.

16. Stare at another passenger for a while, then announce "You're one of THEM" and move to the far corner of the elevator.

17. Burp, and then say "mmmm....tasty"

18. Wear a puppet on your hand and talk to other passengers "through" it.

19. When the elevator is silent, look around and ask: "Is that your beeper?"

20. Say "Ding!" at each floor.

21. Say, "I wonder what all these do" and push the red buttons.

22. Listen to the elevator walls with a stethoscope.

23. Draw a little square on the floor with chalk and announce to the other passengers that this is your "personal space."

24. Take a bite of a sandwich and ask another passenger: "Wanna see wha in mah mouf?"

25. Announce in a demonic voice: "I must find a more suitable host body"

26. Make explosion noises when anyone presses a button.

27. Wear "X-ray Specs" and leer suggestively at other passengers.

We hold the following to be true and self-evident

1. Bill Gates will not give you $1,000 for reading his mail

2. Disney is not giving $5,000 to 5,000 people

3. Emails that take you to a web site and then you have to click on ridiculous dialogue boxes 25 times to get out of them are a pain in the ass

4. AOL is never going to drop instant messages, this would be like your bank getting rid of ATM cards

5. If you are the 10th forwarded recipient of an email joke, chances are everyone you are sending it to has seen it

6. No one donates money to cancer victims because you read an email, how would they know?

7. AOL will never cancel chat rooms, see number 4

8. If it sounds too good to be true...it is!

9. Never ever download ANYTHING from a person you do not know, unless you do not need your hard drive or CMOS settings...it takes less time to turn your computer on and turn a garden hose on it, and the sparks and burning smell are really kewl.

10. If you do not have virus protection go to Keyword: VIRUS read about how virus's really work and you can get free virus protection there

11. If a web site offers something at a great price, has no phone number, and only a PO Box or only online ordering, please send your money to me instead, I will at least thank you for your money. They will simply disappear.

12. If you must buy from one of the above types of vendors, at least use a credit card. You will have a 10% chance of getting your money back when you realize you have been ripped off, and it will be enjoyable fighting with your credit card company when they refuse to refund you when they find out the vendor is gone.

13. If you get mail from someone that ends with @aol.com, 99.9999% of the time it did not come from an AOL member

14. If the subject of an e-mail is: Sorry I missed you in chat, hey you did not answer my mail, why did you sign off, and you have never heard of the person, chances are it is a link to a porno web site

Crash Course on Etiquette/ for Rednecks
(Puns Are Intentional)

On Driving:

When approaching a four-way stop, the vehicle with the largest tires always has the right of way.

Never tow another car using pantyhose and duct tape. Most consider it unsafe, if not downright stupid.

When sending your wife down the road with a gas can, it is impolite to ask her to bring back beer.

Never relieve yourself from a moving vehicle, especially while driving.

On Personal Hygiene:

It is best to partake in some form of personal hygiene.

Unlike clothes and shoes, a toothbrush should never be a hand-me-down item.

While ears need to be cleaned regularly, this is a job that should be done in private using one's OWN keys.

The same goes with biting and picking one's toenails. And never should one partake in this personal endeavor at the dinner table.

While Entertaining in Your Home:

Do not allow the dog to eat at the table no matter how good his manners are.

On Dating:

If you go fishing, always offer to bait your date's hook, especially on the first date.

Be aggressive yet polite. Let her know you are interested: "I've been wanting to go out with you since I read that stuff on the men's bathroom wall two years ago."

If a girl's name does not appear regularly on a bathroom wall, water tower, or an overpass, odds are good that the date will end in frustration.

On Attending the Theatre:

For the best enjoyment for all, crying babies should be taken to the lobby and picked up immediately after the movie has ended.

Refrain from talking to characters on the screen. Tests have proven they can't hear you.

On Wedding Attendance:

Livestock is usually a poor choice for a wedding gift.
If you are so honored to be the groom, it is best to refrain from bringing a date.

When dancing, never remove undergarments, no matter how hot it is. It's just too hard to explain…

Etiquette for All Occasions:

Never take alcohol to a job interview, and especially don't offer it to the interviewer.

It's considered tacky to take a cooler or bottle to church.

Always try to identify people in your yard before shooting them.

Even if you're certain that you are included in the will, it's considered tacky to drive the U-Haul van in the funeral procession.

The San Francisco Zoo has an elephant named Calle who has a chronic illness requiring medication. The zoo people couldn't get Calle to take her dose orally, so a Cal pharmacist developed a suppository for her. The 10-inch-long four-pound, cocoa-butter bullets are crafted by the good folks at Guittard Chocolates in Burlingame. Administering the daily medication takes five zoo workers, including one person to distract Calle with treats and one person who wears a full-arm glove.

DO YOU KNOW WHAT ALL THIS MEANS?

It means that five people have jobs worse than yours! Now stop bitching and get back to work!

Surgery

Four surgeons were taking a coffee break and were discussing their work. The first said, "I think accountants are the easiest to operate on. You open them up and everything inside is numbered." The second said, "I think librarians are the easiest to operate on. You open them up and everything inside is in alphabetical order." The third said, "I like to operate on electricians. You open them up and everything inside is color-coded. The fourth one said, "I like to operate on lawyers. They're heartless, spineless, gutless, and their heads and their ass are interchangeable."

The Genie

An Arab has spent many days crossing the desert without finding a source of water. It gets so bad that his camel dies of thirst. He's crawling through the sands, certain that he has breathed his last, when all of a sudden he sees a shiny object sticking out of the sand several yards ahead of him. He crawls to the object, pulls is out of the sand, and discovers that he has a Manischevitz wine bottle. It appears that there may be a drop or two in the bottle, so he unscrews the top and out pops a genie. But this is no ordinary genie. This genie appears to be a Chasidic rabbi, complete with black kapota coat, black hat, side curls, etc.

"Well, kid," says the genie. "You know how it works. You have three wishes." "I'm not going to trust you," says the Arab. "I'm not going to trust a Jewish genie!" "What do you have to lose? It looks like you're a goner anyway!" The Arab thinks about this for a minute, and decides that the genie is right. "Okay, I wish I were in a lush oasis with plentiful food and drink." POOF The Arab finds himself in the most beautiful oasis he has ever seen. He is surrounded with jugs of wine and platters of delicacies. "Okay, kid, what's your second wish." "My second wish is that I were rich beyond my wildest dreams." POOF The Arab finds himself surrounded by treasure chests filled with rare gold coins and precious gems. "Okay, kid, you have just one more wish. Better make it a good one!" After thinking for a few minutes, the Arab says: "I wish I were white and surrounded by beautiful women." POOF The Arab is turned into a Tampon.

The moral: Do business with a Jewish genie and there's going to be a string attached to it, ☺

Top 12 things not to say to a cop

1. I can't reach my license unless you hold my beer. (OK in Texas)
2. Sorry, Officer, I didn't realize my radar detector wasn't plugged in.

Little mistakes

A minister and lawyer were chatting at a party:

"What do you do if you make a mistake on a case?" the minister asked. "Try to fix it if it's big; ignore it if it's insignificant," replied the lawyer. "What do you do?" The minister replied "Oh, more or less the same. Let me give you an example. The other day I meant to say 'the devil is the father of liars,' but I said instead 'the devil is the father of lawyers,' so I let it go."

One day Ken complained to his friend my elbow really hurts, I guess I should see a doctor. His friend offered, "don't do that! There's a computer at the drug store that can diagnose anything, quicker and cheaper than a doctor. Put in a sample of your urine and the computer will diagnose your problem and tell what you can do about it. It only cost 10.00 Ken figured he had nothing to lose, so he filled a jar with urine sample and went to the drug store. Finding the computer, he pored in the sample and deposited the $10.00. The computer started making some noises and various lights started flashing. After a brief pause, out popped a small slip of paper on which was printed:

"You have tennis elbow. Soak your arm in warm water. Avoid heavy labor. It will be better in 2 weeks. Later that evening while thinking how amazing this new technology was and how it would change medical science forever, he began to wonder if this machine could be fooled. He decided to give it a try. He mixed together some tap water, a stool sample from his dog, urine samples from his wife and daughter, and to top it off, he masturbated in the concoction. He went back to the drug store, located the machine, poured in the sample and deposited the $10.00. The machine again made the usual noise and printed out the following analysis:

YOUR TAP WATER IS TOO HARD, GET A WATER SOFTENER, YOUR DOG HAS WORMS, GIVE HIM VITAMINS, YOU DAUGHTER

IS USING COCAINE, PUT HER IN A REHAB CLINIC, YOUR WIFE IS PREGNANT- TWIN GIRLS. THEY AREN'T YOURS, GET A LAWYER, AND IF YOU DON'T STOP JERKING OFF YOUR TENNIS ELBOW WILL NEVER GET BETTER!

Affirmations for Personal Growth

1. As I let go of my feelings of guilt, I am in touch with my inner sociopath.
2. I have the power to channel my imagination into ever-soaring levels of suspicion and paranoia.
3. I assume full responsibility for my actions, except the ones that are someone else's fault.
4. I no longer need to punish, deceive, or compromise myself, unless I want to stay employed.
5. In some cultures, what I do would be considered normal.
6. Having control over myself is almost as good as having control over others.
7. My intuition nearly makes up for my lack of self-judgment.

8. I honor my personality flaws for without them I would have no personality at all.
9. I am grateful that I am not as judgmental as all those censorious, self-righteous people around me.
10. I need not suffer in silence while I can still moan whimper, and complain.
11. As I learn the innermost secrets of people around me, they reward me in many ways to keep me quiet.
12. When someone hurts me, I know that forgiveness is cheaper than a lawsuit, but not nearly as gratifying.
13. The first step is to say nice things about myself. The second, to do nice things for myself. The third, to find someone to buy me nice things.
14. As I learn to trust the universe, I no longer need to carry a gun.
15. All of me is beautiful, even the ugly, stupid, and disgusting parts.
16. I am at one with my duality.
17. Blessed are the flexible, for they can tie themselves into knots.
18. Only a lack of imagination saves me from immobilizing myself with imaginary fears.
19. I will strive to live each day as if it were my 50th birthday.
20. I honor and express all facets of my being, regardless of state and local laws.
21. Today I will gladly share my experience and advice, for there are no sweeter words than "I told you so!"
22. False hope is better than no hope at all.
23. A good scapegoat is almost as good as a solution.
24. Who can I blame for my problems? Just give me a minute, I'll find someone.
25. Why should I waste my time reliving the past when I can spend it worrying about the future?

26. The complete lack of evidence is the surest sign that the conspiracy is working.
27. I am learning that criticism is not nearly as effective as sabotage.
28. Becoming aware of my character defects leads me naturally to the next step of blaming my parents.
29. To have a successful relationship I must learn to make it look like I'm giving as much as I'm getting.
30. I am willing to make the mistakes if someone else is willing to learn from them.
31. Before I criticize a man, I walk a mile in his shoes. That way, if he gets angry, he's a mile away and barefoot.

Stick it out

A teacher notices that a little boy at the back of the class is squirming around, scratching his crotch, and not paying attention. She goes back to find out what's up. He's quite embarrassed and whispers that he had just recently been circumcised and he's quite itchy. The teacher has him go down to the principal's office, to phone his mom, and ask her what he should do about it. He does this and returns to the class, sits down in his seat and suddenly there's a general commotion at the back of the room.

Back down she goes, only to find him sitting at his desk with his man, boyhood hanging out, "I thought I told you to call your mom," she says. "I did," he says. "And she told me that if I could stick it out till noon, she'd come and pick me up from school.

Two guys decide they can make money operating a bungee jumping concession in Mexico. They pool their money, buy a tower and an elastic cord, and then travel to Mexico and start setting up in a town square. As they're working, a crowd starts to gather. Finally, they're done, and the first guy jumps to test it out. He bounces after the cord stretches, but when he comes back up, the second guy notices that he has a few cuts and scratches. The second guy isn't able catch him and the first guy falls again. He bounces and comes back up again. This time, he's bruised and bleeding. But once again, the second guy can't grab him. The first guy falls again and bounces back up. This time, he's got a couple of broken bones, and he's almost unconscious. Luckily, this time the second guy catches him. The second guy says, "What happened? Was the cord too long?" The first guy says, "No, the cord was fine…but what the hell is a piñata?

For decades, two heroic statues, one male and one female, faced each other in a city park.... One day, an angel came down from Heaven. "You've been such exemplary statues," he announced to them, "that I'm going to give you a special gift. I'm going to bring you to life for thirty minutes, in which you can do anything you want." And with a clap of his hands, the angel brought the statues to life. The two approached each other a bit shyly, but soon dashed for the bushes, from which shortly emerged a good deal of giggling, laughter, and shaking of branches. Fifteen minutes later, the two statues emerged from the bushes with wide grins on their faces. "You still have fifteen more minutes," said the angel, winking knowingly. Grinning even more widely, the female statue turned to the male statue and said, "Great! Only this time you hold the pigeon down and I'll shit on its head."

Three guys—an American, a German, and a Japanese are out playing golf. All of a sudden, a telephone is heard ringing. The American puts his hand up to his head with the thumb and pinky extended and says, "Hello?" After he finished, the others ask what he was doing. He says, "It's the latest technology. I have a little microphone implanted in my pinky and a speaker implanted in my thumb. It's a cellular phone." A moment later, another ring is heard and the German simply begins speaking. When it's over, the others ask about it. He replies, "It's the latest technology. I have a little microphone implanted in my lower lip and a speaker implanted in my ear canal." They're impressed. Later still, the Japanese guy disappears, only to be found in the bushes with his pants down squatting. They ask what's going on. He replies, "I'm waiting for a FAX."

They have finally been released! For those not familiar with the Darwin Award—It's an annual honor given to the person who provided the universal human gene pool the biggest service by getting killed in the most extraordinarily stupid way. As always, competition this year has been keen again. Some candidates appear to have trained their whole lives for this event!

Darwin award candidates

1. In September in Detroit, a 41-year-old man got stuck and drowned in two feet of water after squeezing head-first through an 18-inch-wide sewer grate retrieve his car keys.

2. In October, a 49-year-old San Francisco stockbroker, who "totally zoned when he ran," according to his wife, accidentally jogged off a 200-foot-high cliff on his daily run.

3. Buxton, NC: A man died on a beach when an 8-foot-deep hole he had dug into the sand caved in as he sat inside it. Beachgoers said Daniel Jones, 21, dug the hole for fun, or protection from the wind, and had been sitting in a beach chair at the bottom Thursday afternoon when it collapsed, burying him beneath 5 feet of sand. People on the beach, on the outer banks, used their hands and shovels, trying to claw their way to Jones, a resident of Woodbridge, VA, but could not reach him. It took rescue workers using heavy equipment almost an hour to free him while about 200 people looked on. Jones was pronounced dead at a hospital.

4. In February, Santiago Alvarado, 24, was killed in Lompoc, CA, as he fell face-first through the ceiling of a bicycle shop he was burglarizing. Death was caused when the long flashlight he had placed in his mouth (to keep his hands free) rammed into the base of his skull as he hit the floor.

5. According to police in Dahlonega, GA, ROTC cadet Nick Berrena, 20, was stabbed to death in January by fellow cadet Jeffrey Hoffman, 23, who was trying to prove that a knife could not penetrate the flakvest Berrena was wearing.

6. Sylvester Briddell, JR , 26, was killed in February in Selbyville, Del, as he won a bet with friends who said he would not put a revolver loaded with four bullets into his mouth and pull the trigger.

7. In February, according to police in Windsor, Ontario, Daniel Kolta, 27, and Randy Taylor, 33, died in a head-on collision, thus earning a tie in the game of chicken they were playing with their snowmobiles.

8. In September, a 7-year-old boy fell off a 100-foot-high bluff near Ozark, Ark, after he lost his grip swinging on a cross that marked the spot where another person had fallen to his death in 1990.

Darwin award honorable mentions

1. In Guthrie, Okla , in October, Jason Heck tried to kill a millipede with a shot from his 22-caliber rifle, but the bullet ricocheted off a rock near the hole and hit pal Antonio Martinez in the head, fracturing his skull.

2. In Elyria, Ohio, in October, Martyn Eskins, attempting to clean out cobwebs in his basement, declined to use a broom in favor of a propane torch and caused a fire that burned the first and second floors of his house.

3. Paul Stiller, 47, was hospitalized in Andover Township, NJ, in September, and his wife Bonnie was also injured, by a quarter-stick of dynamite that blew up in their car. While driving around at 2 AM, the bored couple lit the dynamite and tried to toss it out the window to see what would happen, but they apparently failed to notice that the window was closed.

4. Taking "Amateur Night" Too Far: In Betulia, Colombia, an annual festival in November includes five days of amateur bullfighting. This year, no bull was killed, but dozens of matadors were injured, including one gored in the head and one Bobbittized. Said one participant, "It's just one bull against [a town of] a thousand Morons."

AND THE WINNER:

PADERBORN, GERMANY—Overzealous zookeeper Friedrich Riesfeldt fed his constipated elephant Stefan 22 doses of animal laxative and more than a bushel of berries, figs and prunes before the plugged-up pachyderm finally let it out and suffocated the keeper under 200 pounds of poop! Investigators say ill-fated Friedrich, 46, was attempting to give the ailing elephant an olive-oil enema when the relieved beast unloaded on him like a dump truck full of mud. "The sheer force of the elephant's unexpected defecation knocked Mr. Riesfeldt to the ground, where he struck his head on a rock and lay unconscious as the elephant continued to evacuate his bowels on top of him," said flabbergasted Paderborn police detective Erik Dern. "With no one there to help him, he lay under all that dung for at least an hour before a watchman came along, and during that time he suffocated. It seems to be just one of those freak accidents.

A young guy out on the town with his mates spies the girl of his dreams across the dance floor. Having admired her from afar he plucks up the courage to talk to her. Everything goes better than expected and she agrees to accompany him on a date the following Saturday evening.

Saturday night arrives and the man arrives at her house laden with flowers and chocolates. To his amazement she answers the door in nothing but a towel. "I'm sorry," she exclaims, "I am running a bit late. Please come in and I'll introduce you to my parents who will entertain you while I finish getting dressed. I should warn you however, they are both deaf mutes." With this she ushers him into the living room, introduces him to her parents and promptly disappears. As you can imagine this is a little uncomfortable as both parents are completely silent. Dad is sitting in his armchair watching the soccer game, and Mom is busy knitting. After about ten minutes of complete silence, Mom suddenly jumps from her chair, pulls up her skirt, pulls down her knickers and pours a glass of water over her fanny. Just as suddenly Dad launches himself across the room bends her over the couch and takes her from behind. He then sits back down in his chair and places a matchstick under each eyelid.

The room is plunged back into eerie silence and the young man is shocked into disbelief. After a further ten minutes the mother again rises from her chair, pulls up her skirt, pulls down her pants and throws another glass of water over her nether regions. Dad leaps up, gives her one from behind and places two more matchsticks under his eyelids.

No sooner have they concluded this strange behavior and the daughter returns fully dressed ready for their date. The evening is a complete disaster with the young man completely distracted by the goings on in the living room.

At the end of the evening the girl asks, "What's the matter? Have I done something wrong?"

"It's not you," replied her date, "It's just that the strangest thing happened while I was waiting for you and I am still a bit shocked."

After pleading with him to explain in more detail the young man reluctantly recounts the story. 'Well, first your Mother jumps from her chair and lifts up her skirt. She then pulls down her pants and throws a glass of water over her behind."

"I see," says the girl, "What happened then?" "Well, if that isn't enough your father races from his chair leans mom over the couch and does her from behind. He then sits back down and places a matchstick under each eye lid."

"Oh, is that all?" replies the girl. The young man can't believe the casual response to this weird practice. "It's easily explained. Mom was simply saying, 'Are you going to get this asshole a drink?' and Dad was replying, "No, fuck him. I'm watching the match."

On His Deathbed

A man on his deathbed called his friend and said, "Bill, I want you to promise me that when I die you will have my remains cremated." "And what," his friend asked, "do you want me to do with your ashes?" The man said, "Just put them in an envelope and mail them to the Internal Revenue Service and write on the envelope, 'Now you have everything."

It was a hot day in Minnesota

It vass a hot day in Minnesota, ya. Helga hung the wash, put a roast in the oven, then went downtown to pick up some dry cleaning. "Gudness, it's hot", she mused as she walked down Main Street. She passed by a tavern and thought, "vy nodt?" Helga sat at the bar, and the bartender asked her what she would have. Helga said, "Ya know, it's so hot, I tink I'll haff myself a cold beer." The bartender asked, "Anhauser Busch?" Helga, surprised, replied, "Vell fine, tanks. Undt how's yurr pecker?"

A nun gets into a cab and the cab driver won't stop staring at her. She asks him why is he staring and he replies, "I have a question to ask you, but I don't want to offend you."

She answers, "My dear son, you cannot offend me. When you're as old as I am and have been a nun as long as I have, you get a chance to see and hear just about everything. I'm sure that there's nothing you could say or ask that I would find offensive." "Well," the cab driver says, "I've always had a fantasy to have a nun perform oral sex on me." She responds, "Well, let's see what we can do about that. First, you have to be single, and secondly, you must be Catholic." The cab driver is very excited and says, "Yes, I am single and I'm Catholic too!" The nun says, "O.K., pull into the next alley." He does, and the nun fulfills his fantasy. But when they get back on the road, the cab driver starts crying. "My dear child, why are you crying?" says the nun. "Forgive me sister, but I have sinned," says the cabbie. "I lied, I must confess, I'm married and I'm Jewish." The nun says, "That's OK. My name is Kevin and I'm on my way to a Halloween party."

A man has a party and invites lots of people, telling them to bring their friends. On the invitation he puts "Theme Party—Come as a Human Emotion." On the night of the party, the first guest arrives and the host opens the door to see a guy covered in green paint with the letters N & V on his chest. He says to the guy, "Wow, great outfit, what emotion have you come as?" and the guy says, "I'm green with envy." The host replies, "Brilliant, come on in and have a drink." Soon, the next guest arrives and the host opens the door to see a woman covered in a pink body stocking with a feather boa wrapped round her most intimate parts. "I'm tickled pink" she announces. The host says, "I love it, come on in and join the party. A couple of minutes later the doorbell rings again, and the host opens the door to see two guys stark naked, one with his penis stuck in a bowl of custard and the other with his penis stuck in a pear. The host is really shocked and says, "Christ, guys, what the hell are you doing?" The first guy replies, "I'm fuckin' discustid, and my friend here has come in dispair."

15 ways to annoy your public bathroom stall mate

1) Stick your open palm under the stall wall and ask your neighbor, "May I borrow a highlighter?"

2) Say, "Uh oh, I knew I shouldn't have put my lips on that."

3) Cheer and clap loudly every time somebody breaks the silence with a bodily function noise.

4) Say, "Damn, this water's cold."

5) Drop a marble and say, "Oh shit! My glass eye!"

6) Say, "Hmmm, I've never seen that color before."

Ski season is almost here! Hence, the following is a list of exercises to prepare your body:

1. Fasten a small, wide rubber band around the top half of your head before you go to bed each night.

2. If you wear glasses, begin wearing them with glue smeared on the lenses.

3. Throw a hundred dollar bill away right now.

4. Find the nearest ice rink and walk across the ice 20 times in your ski boots carrying two pairs of skis, accessory bag and poles. Pretend you are looking for your car. Sporadically drop things.

5. Place a small but angular pebble in your shoes, line them with crushed ice, and then tighten a C-clamp around your toes.

6. Buy a new pair of gloves and immediately throw one away.

7. Secure one of your ankles to a bed post and ask a friend to run into you at high speed.

8. Go to McDonald's and insist on paying $6.50 for a hamburger. Be sure you are in the longest line.

9. Clip a lift ticket to the zipper of your jacket and ride a motorcycle fast enough to make the ticket lacerate your face.

10. Drive slowly for five hours—anywhere—as long as it's in a snowstorm and you're following an 18 wheeler

11. Fill a blender with ice, hit the pulse button and let the spray blast your face. Leave the ice on your face until it melts. Let it drip into your clothes.

12. Dress up in as many clothes as you can and then proceed to take them off because you have to go to the bathroom.

13. Slam your thumb in a car door. Don't go see a doctor.

14. Repeat all of the above every Saturday and Sunday until it's time for the real thing!

After the Great Britain Beer Festival, in London, all the brewery presidents decided to go out for a beer. The guy from Corona sits down and says "Hey señor, I would like the world's best beer, a Corona." The bartender dusts off a bottle from the shelf and gives it to him. The guy from Budweiser says: "I'd like the best beer in the world, give me 'The King Of Beers', a Budweiser." The bartender gives him one. The guy from Coors says "I'd like the only beer made with Rocky Mountain spring water, give me a Coors." He gets it. The guy from Guiness sits down and says "Give me a Coke." The bartender is a little taken aback, but gives him what he ordered. The other brewery presidents look over at him and ask: "Why aren't you drinking a Guiness?" The Guiness president replies "Well, if you guys aren't drinking beer, neither will I."

Ads in Bills: Have you ever noticed that they put advertisements in with your bills now? Like bills aren't distasteful enough, they have to stuff junk mail in there with them. I get back at them. I put garbage in with my check when I mail it in. Coffee grinds, banana peels. I write, "Could you throw this away for me? Thank you."

Fabric Softener: My wife uses fabric softener. I never knew what that stuff was for. Then I noticed women coming up to me (sniff) 'Married' (walk off). That's how they mark their territory. You can take off the ring, but it's hard to get that April fresh scent out of your clothes.

Cripes: My wife's from the Midwest, very nice people there, very wholesome. They use words like 'Cripes'. 'For Cripe's sake.' Who would that be, Jesus Cripe's? The son of 'Gosh' of the church of 'Holy Moly'? I'm not making fun of it. You think I wanna burn in 'Heck'?

Morning Differences: Men and women are different in the morning. The men wake up aroused in the morning. We can't help it. We just wake up and we want you. And the women are thinking, 'How can he want me the way I look in the morning?' It's because we can't see you. We have no blood anywhere near our optic nerve.

Pregnancy: It's weird when pregnant women feel the baby kicking. They say, 'Oh my God. He's kicking. Do you wanna feel it?' I always feel awkward reaching over there. Come on! It's weird to ask someone to feel your stomach. I don't do that when I have gas. "Oh my God…give me your hand…It won't be long now…"

Grandma: My grandmother has a bumper sticker on her car that says, 'Sexy Senior Citizen'. You don't want to think of your grandmother that way, do you? Out entering wet shawl contests. Makes you wonder where she got that dollar she gave you for your birthday.

Prisons: Did you know that it costs forty thousand dollars a year to house each prisoner? Jeez, for forty thousand bucks a piece I'll take a few prisoners into my house. I live in Los Angeles. I already have bars on the windows. I don't think we should give free room and board to criminals. I think they should have to run twelve hours a day on a treadmill and generate electricity. And if they don't want to run, they can rest in the chair that's hooked up to the generator.

Award Shows: Can you believe how many award shows they have now? They have awards for commercials. The Cleo Awards, a whole show full of commercials. I taped it and then I fast-forwarded through the whole thing.

———

Phone-In-Polls: You know those shows where people call in and vote on different issues? Did you ever notice there's always like 18% that say "I don't know". It costs 90 cents to call up and vote…They're voting "I don't know." "Honey, I feel very strongly about this. Give me the phone. (Into Phone) I DON'T KNOW!" (Hangs up looking proud.) "Sometimes you have to stand up for what you believe you're not sure about." This guy probably calls up phone sex girls for $2.95 to say "I'm not in the mood."

Answering Machine: Did you ever hear one of these corny, positive messages on someone's answering machine? "Hi, it's a great day and I'm out enjoying it right now. I hope you are too. The thought for the day is 'Share the love.' Beep." "Uh, yeah…this is the VD clinic calling, speaking of being positive, your test is back. Stop sharing the love."

Telling the Difference

Two babies were sat in their cribs, when one baby shouted to the other. "Are you a little girl or a little boy?" "I don't know," replied the other baby giggling. "What do you mean, you don't know?" said the first baby. "I mean I don't know how to tell the difference," was the reply. "Well, I do," said the first baby chuckling. "I'll climb into your crib and find out." He carefully maneuvered himself into the other baby's crib, then quickly disappeared beneath the blankets. After a couple of minutes, he resurfaced with a big grin on his face. "You're a little girl, and I'm a little boy," he said proudly. "You're ever so clever," cooed the baby girl, "but how can you tell?" "It's quite easy really," replied the baby boy, "you've got pink booties and I've got blue ones."

(What were you thinking?)

Jesus

Late one night, a burglar broke into a house that he thought was empty. He tiptoed through the living room, then froze in his tracks when he heard a loud voice say, "Jesus is watching you."

Frantically, he looked around the house. Finally, in a dark corner, he spotted a parrot in a birdcage. "Was that you who said Jesus is watching me?" "Yes," replied the parrot. The burglar breathed a sigh of relief, then asked, "What's your name?" "Clarence," said the bird.

That's a dumb name for a parrot," sneered the burglar. "What idiot named you Clarence?" "The same idiot who named the Rottweiller, Jesus."

There's this man baldheaded with a wooden leg that gets invited to a fancy dress party. He doesn't know what costume to wear to hide his head and his leg. So he writes to a fancy dress company to explain the problem.

A few days later he receives a parcel with a note. "Dear Sir, please find enclosed a pirates outfit. The spotted handkerchief will cover your bald head and with your wooden leg you will be just right as a pirate. The man thinks this is terrible because they have just emphasized his wooden leg and so he writes a really rude letter of complaint.

A week passes and he receives another parcel and a note, which says "Dear Sir, sorry about before, please find enclosed a monks habit. The long robe will cover your wooden leg and with your bald head you will really look the part".

Now the man is really annoyed since they have gone from emphasizing his wooden leg to emphasizing his bald head and he writes the company a REALLY rude letter of complaint.

The next day he receives a small parcel and a note which reads "Dear Sir, please find enclosed a bottle of molasses. Pour the molasses over your bald head, stick your wooden leg up your ass and go as a caramel apple!"

After dying in a car crash, three friends go to Heaven for orientation. They are all asked the same question: "When you are in your casket, and friends and family are mourning over you, what would you like to hear them say about you?"

The first guy immediately responds, "I would like to hear them say that I was one of the great doctors of my time, and a great family man."

The second guy says, "I would like to hear that I was a wonderful husband and school teacher who made a huge difference in our children of tomorrow."

The last guy thinks a minute and replies, I'd like to hear them say LOOK, HE'S MOVING!"

The Grandfather's Table

A frail old man went to live with his son, daughter-in-law, and four-year old grandson. The old man's hands trembled, his eyesight was blurred, and his step faltered. The family ate together at the table, but the elderly grandfather's shaky hands and failing sight made eating difficult. Peas rolled off his spoon onto the floor. When he grasped the glass, milk spilled on the tablecloth. The son and daughter-in-law became irritated with the mess. "We must do something about Grandfather," said the son. "I've had enough of his spilled milk, noisy eating, and food on the floor." Therefore, the husband and wife set a small table in the corner. There, Grandfather ate alone while the rest of the family enjoyed dinner. Since grandfather had broken a dish or two, his food was served in a wooden bowl. When the family glanced in Grandfather's direction, sometimes he had a tear in his eye as he sat alone. Still, the only words the couple had for him were sharp admonitions when he dropped a fork or spilled food.

The four-year-old watched it all in silence. One evening before supper, the father noticed his son playing with wood scraps on the floor. He asked the child sweetly, "What are you making?" Just as sweetly, the boy responded, "Oh, I am making a little bowl for you and Mama to eat your food in when I grow up." The four-year-old smiled and went back to work. The words so struck the parents that they were speechless. Then tears started to stream down their cheeks. Though no word was spoken, both knew what must be done.

That evening the husband took Grandfather's hand and gently led him back to the family table. For the remainder of his days, he ate every meal with the family. And for some reason, neither husband nor wife seemed to care any longer when a fork was dropped, milk spilled, or the tablecloth soiled. Children are remarkably perceptive. Their eyes ever observe, their ears ever listen, and their minds ever process the messages they absorb. If they see us patiently, provide a happy home atmosphere for family members, they will imitate that attitude for the rest of their lives. The wise parent realizes that every day the building blocks are being laid for the child's future. Let us be wise builders and role models.

There once was a little boy who had a bad temper. His father gave him a bag of nails and told him that every time he lost his temper, he must hammer a nail into the back of the fence. The first day the boy had driven 37 nails into the fence. Over the next few weeks, as he learned to control his anger, the number of nails hammered daily gradually dwindled down. He discovered it was easier to hold his temper than to drive those nails into the fence....Finally the day came when the boy didn't lose his temper at all. He told his father about it and the father suggested that the boy now pull out one nail for each day that he was able to hold his temper. The days passed and the young boy was finally able to tell his father that all the nails were gone. The father took his son by the hand and led him to the fence. He said, "You have done well, my son, but look at the holes in the fence. The fence will never be the same. When you say things in anger, they leave a scar just like this one. You can put a knife in a man and draw it out. It won't matter how many times you say I'm sorry, the wound is still there." A verbal wound is as bad as a physical one. Friends are a very rare jewel indeed. They make you smile and encourage you to succeed. They lend an ear, they share words of praise and they always want to open their hearts to us." It's National Friendship Week. Show your friends how much you care. Send this to everyone you consider a friend, even if it means sending it back to the person who sent it to you. If it comes back to you, then you'll know you have a circle of friends.

Happy 2000 from the Dali Lama

THE FOLLOWING IS TAKEN FROM A NEPALESE GOOD LUCK MANTRA. YOU'LL FIND IT TO BE WORTH READING AND WORTH SHARING:

Do not keep this message. The mantra must leave your hands within 96 hours. You will get a very pleasant surprise. This is true, even if you are not superstitious.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR LIFE

Take into account that great love and great achievements involve great risk.

When you lose, don't lose the lesson.

Follow the three R's: Respect for self; Respect for others and Responsibility for all your actions.

Remember that not getting what you want is sometimes a wonderful stroke of luck.

Learn the rules so you know how to break them properly.

Don't let a little dispute injure a great friendship.

When you realize you've made a mistake, take immediate steps to correct it.

Spend some time alone every day.

Open your arms to change but don't let go of your values.

Remember that silence is sometimes the best answer.

Live a good, honorable life. Then when you get older and think back, you'll be able to enjoy it a second time.

A loving atmosphere in your home is the foundation for your life.

In disagreements with loved ones, deal only with the current situation. Don't bring up the past.

Share your knowledge. It's a way to achieve immortality.

Be gentle with the earth.

Once a year, go someplace you've never been before.

Remember that the best relationship is one in which your love for each other exceeds your need for each other.

Judge your success by what you had to give up in order to get it.

Approach love and cooking with reckless abandon.

Point of view

One day a father and his rich family took his son to a trip to the country with the firm purpose to show him how poor people can be. They spent a day and a night on the farm of a very poor family. When they got back from their trip the father asked his son, "How was the trip?" "Very good, Dad!" "Did you see how poor some people can be?" the father asked. "Yeah!" "And what did you learn?" The son answered, "I saw that we have a dog at home, and they have four. We have a pool that reaches to the middle of the garden; they have a creek that has no end. We have imported lamps in the garden; they have the stars. Our patio reaches to the front yard; they have a whole horizon." When the little boy was finishing, his father was speechless. His son added, "Thanks, Dad, for showing me how poor we are!" Isn't it true that it all depends on the way you look at things? If you have love, friends, family, health, good humor and a positive attitude towards life—you've got everything! You can't buy any of these things, but still you can have all the material possessions you can imagine, provisions for the future, etc., but if you are poor of spirit, you have nothing!

Have you ever watched kids on a merry-go-round or listened to the rain slapping on the ground? Ever followed a butterfly's erratic flight or gazed at the sun into the fading night? You better slowdown, don't dance so fast. Time is short; the music won't last. Do you run through each day on the fly? When you ask- "How are you?" Do you hear the reply? When the day is done, do you lie in your bed with the next hundred chores running through your head? You'd better slowdown. Don't dance so fast. Time is short. The music won't last. Ever told your child, we'll do it tomorrow. And in your haste, not see his sorrow? Ever lost touch, let a good friendship die 'cause you never had time to call and say "Hi?" You'd better slowdown, don't dance so fast. Time is short. The music won't last when you run so fast to get somewhere you miss half the fun of getting there. When you worry and hurry through your day, it is like an unopened gift; thrown away…Life is not a race. Do take it slower; hear the music, before the song is over.

Life Lessons

I've learned- either you control your attitude or it controls you

I've learned- that regardless of how hot and steamy a relationship is at first the passion fades and there had better be something else to take its place.

I've learned- that heroes are the people who do what has to be done when it needs to be done, regardless of the consequences.

I've learned- that money is a lousy way of keeping score

I've learned- that my best friend and I can do anything or nothing and have the best time

I've learned- that sometimes the people you expect to kick you when you're down will be the ones to help you get back up

I've learned- that sometimes when I'm angry I have the right to be angry, but that doesn't give me the right to be cruel

I've learned- that true friendship continues to grow, even over the longest distance. Same goes for true love that just because someone doesn't love you the way you want them to doesn't mean they don't love you with all they have.

I've learned- that maturity has more to do with what types of experiences you've had and what you've learned from them and less to do with how many birthdays you've celebrated.

I've learned- that some members of your family may not always be there for you. It may seem funny, but people you aren't related to can take care of you and love you and teach you to trust people again. Families aren't biological. that no matter how good a friend is, they're going to hurt you every once in a while and you must forgive them for that.

I've learned- that it isn't always enough to be forgiven by others, sometimes you are to learn to forgive yourself.

I've learned- that no matter how bad your heart is broken the world doesn't stop for your grief.

I've learned- that our background and circumstances may have influenced who we are, but we are responsible for who we become.

I've learned- that just because two people argue, it doesn't mean they don't love each other. And just because they don't argue, it doesn't mean they do.

I've learned- that we don't have to change friends if we understand that friends change.

I've learned- that you shouldn't be so eager to find out a secret. It could change your life forever.

I've learned- that two people can look at the exact same thing and see something totally different.

I've learned- that no matter how you try to protect your children, they will eventually get hurt and you will hurt in the process.

I've learned- that people who don't even know you can change your life in a matter of hours.

I've learned- that even when you think you have no more to give, when a friend cries out to you, you will find the strength to help.

I've learned- that credentials on the wall do not make you a decent human being.

I've learned- that the people you care about most in life are taken from you too soon.

I've learned- that you cannot make someone love you. All you can do is be someone who can be loved. The rest is up to them.

I've learned- that you cannot make someone love you. All you can do is be someone who can be loved. The rest is up to them.

I've learned- that no matter how much I care, some people just don't care back.

I've learned- that it takes years to build up trust, and only seconds to destroy it.

I've learned- that it's not what you have in your life, but who you have in your life that counts.

I've learned- that you can get by on charm for about 15 minutes. After that, you'd better know something.

I've learned- that you shouldn't compare yourself to the best others can do, but to the best you can do.

I've learned- that it's not what happens to people that's important. It's what they do about it.

I've learned- that you can do something in an instant that will give you a heart ache for life.

I've learned- that no matter how thin you slice it, there are always two sides.

I've learned- that it's taking me a long time to become the person I want to be.

I've learned- that it's a lot easier to react than it is to think.

I've learned- that you should always leave loved ones with loving words. It may be the last time you see them.

I've learned- that you can keep going long after you think you can't.

I've learned- that we are responsible for what we do, no matter how we feel.

I've learned- that you should never tell a child her dreams are unlikely or outlandish. Few things are more humiliating, and what a tragedy it would be if she believed it.

that no matter how much I care, some people just don't care back.

An elderly carpenter was ready to retire. He told his employer-contractor of his plans to leave the house-building business and live a more leisurely life with his wife enjoying his extended family. He would miss the paycheck, but he needed to retire. They could get by. The contractor was sorry to see his good worker go and asked if he could build just one more house as a personal favor. The carpenter said yes, but in time it was easy to see that his heart was not in his work. He resorted to shoddy workmanship and used inferior materials. It was an unfortunate way to end his career. When the carpenter finished his work and the builder came to inspect the house, the contractor handed the front-door key to the carpenter. "This is your house," he said, "my gift to you." What a shock! What a shame! If he had only known he was building his own house, he would have done it all so differently. Now he had to live in the home he had built none too well.

So it is with us. We build our lives in a distracted way, reacting rather than acting, willing to put up less than the best. At important points we do not give the job our best effort. Then with a shock we look at the situation we have created and find that we are now living in the house we have built. If we had realized that we would have done it differently.

Think of yourself as the carpenter. Think about your house. Each day you hammer a nail, place a board, or erect a wall. Build wisely. It is the only life you will ever build. Even if you live it for only one day more, that day deserves to be lived graciously and with dignity. The plaque on the wall says, "Life is a do-it-yourself project."

Who could say it more clearly? Your life today is the result of your attitudes and choices in the past. Your life tomorrow will be the result of your attitudes and the choices you make today.

A true friend

"A part of you has grown in me, together forever we shall be, never apart, maybe in distance, but not in heart"

Around the corner I have a friend
In this great city that has no end,
Yet the days go by and weeks rush on,
And before I know it, a year is gone
And I never see my old friend's face,
For life is a swift and terrible race,
He knows I like him just as well,
As in the days when I rang his bell,
And he rang mine.
If, we were younger then,
And now we are busy, tired men.
Tired of playing a foolish game,
Tired of trying to make a name.
"Tomorrow" I say "I will call on Jim"
"Just to show that I'm thinking of him."
But tomorrow comes and tomorrow goes,
And distance between us grows and grows.
Around the corner!- yet miles away,
"Here's a telegram sir-" "Jim died today."
And that's what we get and deserve in the end
Around the corner, a vanished friend.
If you love someone, tell them.

Remember always to say what you mean.
Never be afraid to express yourself.
Take this opportunity to tell someone what they mean to you.
Seize the day and have no regrets.
Most importantly, stay close to your friends and family, for they have helped make you the person that you are today and are what it's all about anyway.

The ABCs of Life

Avoid negative sources, people, places, things and habits.
Believe in yourself.
Consider things from every angle.
Don't give up and don't give in.
Enjoy life today, yesterday is gone and tomorrow may never come.
Family and friends are hidden treasures, seek them and enjoy their riches.
Give more than you planned to.
Hang on to your dreams.
Ignore those who try to discourage you.
Just do it!
Keep trying no matter how hard it seems. It will get easier.
Love yourself first and most.
Make it happen.
Never lie, cheat or steal, always strike a fair deal.
Open your eyes and see things as they really are.

Practice makes perfect.
Quitters never win, and winners never quit.
Read, study and learn about everything important in your life.
Stop procrastinating.
Take control of your own destiny.
Understand yourself in order to better understand others.
Visualize it.
Want it more than anything and A-
Xccelerate your efforts.
You are unique of all of God's creations. Nothing can replace you.
Zero in on your target and go for it.

Contentment

We may not always realize that everything we do affects not only our lives but touches others too. A single happy smile can always brighten up the day for anyone who happens to be passing by your way. A little bit of thoughtfulness that shows someone you care creates a ray of sunshine for both of you to share. Yes, every time you offer someone a helping hand, every time you show a friend you understand, every time you have a kind and gentle word to give, you help someone to find beauty in this precious life that we live. For happiness brings happiness and loving ways bring love. Giving is the treasure that contentment is made of.

VIRUS WARNING!

A new virus has been recently discovered. One person can pass it on to millions (as it is very contagious). The Centers for Disease Control has reported this week that the virus spreads very rapidly from one person to the next. They have given this virus a very interesting name. It is called-

A SMILE…uh oh! Too late, I see it on your face already!

If I could catch a rainbow
I would do it just for you

And share with you its beauty
On the days you're feeling blue

If I could build a mountain
You could call your very own

A place to find serenity
A place to be alone

If I could take your troubles
I would toss them in the sea

But all these things I'm finding are impossible for me,

I cannot build a mountain
Or catch a rainbow fair

But let me be what I know best
A friend that's always there

EVENTIDE

I want to know when the day is done, that life has been worth living.
That I have brought somebody joy through kind unselfish living.

I want to feel, when evening falls and shadows quickly lengthen,
That I have made somebody glad, some weakness I have strengthened.

I want to know, that come what may I've left some cheer and gladness
I want to feel, at close of day I've banished someone's sadness.

I want to feel at eventide, that someone's cares were lighter
Because of kindness I have done, may someone's life be brighter.

The Greatest Pain in Life

The greatest pain in life is not to die, but to be ignored
To lose the person you love so much to another who doesn't care at all
To have someone you care so about so much throw a party and not tell you about it

When your favorite person on earth neglects to invite you to their graduation

To have people think that you don't care.

The greatest pain in life, is not to die, but to be forgotten

To be left in the dust after another's great achievement

To never get a call from a friend, just saying "Hi"

When you show someone your innermost thoughts and they laugh in your face

For friends to always be too busy to console you when you need someone to lift your spirits.

When it seems like the only person who cares about you, is you.

Life is full of pain, but does it ever get better?

Will people ever care about each other, and make time for those who are in need?

Each of us has a part to play in this great show we call life.

Each of us has a duty to mankind: to tell our friends we love them.

If you do not care about your friends you will not be punished.

You will simply be ignored…forgotten…as you have done to others.

Our friends are like angels, who brighten our days.

In all kinds of wonderful magical ways

Their thoughtfulness comes, As a gift from above.

And we feel we're surrounded, By warm, caring love.

Like upside-down rainbows, Their smiles bring the sun.

And they fill ho-hum moments, With laughter and fun.
Friends are like angels, Without any wings.
Blessing our lives, With the most precious things.

Creed to Live By In the SEA of LIFE

Be so strong that nothing can disturb your peace of mind.

Talk health, happiness, and prosperity to every person you meet.

Make all of your friends feel there is something in them that is worthwhile.

Look at the sunny side of everything.

Be as enthusiastic about the success of others as you are about your own.

Forget the mistakes of the past and press on to the greater achievements of the future. Give everyone a smile.

Spend so much time improving yourself that you have no time left to criticize others.

Be too big for worry and too noble for anger.

Don't let yourself drown in the SEA of Life.

KEEP PLAYING

When the house lights dimmed and the concert was about to begin, the mother returned to her seat and discovered that the child was missing. Suddenly, the curtains parted and spotlights focused on the impressive Steinway on stage. In horror, the mother saw her little boy sitting at the keyboard, innocently picking out "Twinkle, Twinkle Little Star." At that moment, the great piano master made his entrance, quickly moved to the piano, and whispered in the boy's ear, "Don't quit. Keep playing." Then, leaning over, Paderewski reached down with his left hand and began filling in a bass part. Soon his right arm reached around to the other side of the child and he added a running obbligato. Together, the old master and the young novice transformed a frightening situation into a wonderfully creative experience. And the audience was mesmerized.

The lesson: Whatever our situation in life and history-however outrageous, however desperate, whatever dry spell of the spirit, whatever dark night of the soul-God is whispering deep within our beings, "Don't quit. Keep playing. You are not alone. Together we will transform your small efforts into a masterwork of My creative art. "Together, we will mesmerize the world."

Embrace change

Have the courage to bet on your ideas, to take the calculated risk, and to act.

There is nothing to stop you on the road to success but yourself.

Recognize that change will take place. It is inevitable.
Be secure in the knowledge that you can deal with what happens.

To feel secure you must sometimes bend your insecurities, and avoid breaking when things don't go your way.
You are secure to the degree that you can accept change.
You actually become secure, not by standing still,
but by growing, moving, and being energized .

Your ultimate security is your understanding of reality.
There is no permanent security on this earth
There is only opportunity.

RESOLUTIONS FOR AVOIDING MISERY

Choose to love—rather than hate.
Choose to smile—rather than frown.
Choose to build—rather than destroy.
Choose to persevere—rather than quit.
Choose to praise—rather than gossip.
Choose to heal—rather than wound.

Choose to give—rather than take.
Choose to act—rather than delay.
Choose to forgive—rather than curse.
Choose to pray—rather than despair.

ASPIRATIONS

The more you can dream, the more you can do.
You have to think big to be big.
Your only limits, as always, are those of vision.
When you cease to dream you cease to live.

Big thinking will always precede big achievements.
Great achievements always take place in the framework of great expectations.

If you don't have a dream, how are you going to make it come true?
Cherish your dreams as they are the children of your soul, and the blueprints of your ultimate success.

The empire of your future is in your mind.

Don't ever try to understand everything—some things will just never make sense.
Don't ever be reluctant to show your feelings—when you're happy, give in to it!

When you're not, live with it. Don't ever be afraid to try to make things better—you might be surprised at the results.

Don't ever take the weight of the world on your shoulders

Don't ever feel threatened by the future—take life one day at a time.

Don't ever feel guilty about the past—what's done is done.

Learn from any mistakes you might have made.

Don't ever feel that you are alone—there is always somebody there for you to reach out to.

Don't ever forget that you can achieve so many of the things you can imagine—imagine that! It's not as hard as it seems.

Don't ever stop loving, don't ever stop believing, don't ever stop dreaming your dreams.

Smiling is infectious you catch it like the flu,
When someone smiled at me today, I started smiling too.
I passed around the corner, and someone saw my grin -
When he smiled I realized, I'd passed it on to him
I thought about that smile, then I realized its worth,
A single smile, just like mine, could travel round the earth.
So, if you feel a smile begin, don't leave it undetected -
Let's start an epidemic quick and get the world infected!

Listen to your dreams

Do not take anything as being forever because forever is only as long as today.

Know that the people who are the richest are not those who have the most, but those who need the least.

That we are at our strongest when life is at it's worst, and at our weakest when life no longer offers a challenge.

Know that it is wiser not to expect, but to hope for in expecting you ask for disappointment whereas in hoping you invite surprise.

That unhappiness doesn't come from not having something you want but from the lack of something inside that you need.

That there are things to hold and things to let go, and letting go doesn't mean you lose, but that you acquire that which has been waiting around the corner.

Most of all-

Remember to use your dreams as a way of knowing yourself better and as an inspiration for you to reach your star!

Time Waits for No One

Imagine there is a bank which credits your account each morning with $86,400, carries over no balance from day to day, allows you to keep no cash balance, and every evening cancels whatever part of the amount you had failed to use during the day.

What would you do? Draw out every cent, of course!

Well, everyone has such a bank. Its name is TIME. Every morning it credits you with 86,400 seconds. Every night it writes off, as lost, whatever of this you have failed to invest to good purpose. It carries over no balance. It allows no overdraft. Each day it opens a new account for you. Each night it burns the records of the day. If you fail to use the day's deposits, the loss is yours.

There is no going back. There is no drawing against the "tomorrow". You must live in the present on today's deposits. Invest it so as to get from it the utmost in health, happiness and success!

The clock is running. Make the most of today.

TIME

To realize the value of ONE YEAR, ask a student who has failed his exam.

To realize the value of ONE MONTH, ask a mother who has given birth to a pre-mature baby.

To realize the value of ONE WEEK, ask an editor of a weekly newspaper.

To realize the value of ONE DAY, ask a daily wage laborer who has ten kids to feed.

To realize the value of ONE HOUR, ask the lovers who are waiting to meet or…

To realize the value of ONE MINUTE, ask a person who has missed the train.

To realize the value of ONE SECOND, ask a person who has survived an accident.

To realize the value of ONE MILLI-SECOND, ask the person who has won a silver medal in Olympics.

Treasure every moment that you have!

She smiled at a sorrowful stranger.
The smile seemed to make him feel better.
He remembered past kindness of a friend
And wrote him a thank you letter.
The friend was so pleased with the thank you
That he left a large tip after lunch.
The waitress, surprised by the size of the tip,
Bet the whole thing on a hunch.
The next day she picked up her winnings,
And gave part to a man on the street.
The man on the street was grateful;
For two days he'd had nothing to eat.
After he finished his dinner,
He left for his small dingy room.
He didn't know at that moment that he might be facing his doom.
On the way he picked up a shivering puppy
And took him home to get warm.
The puppy was very grateful to be in out of the storm.
That night the house caught on fire.

The puppy barked the alarm.
He barked till he woke the whole household
And saved everybody from harm.
One of the boys that he rescued
Grew up to be President.
All this because of a simple smile
That hadn't cost a cent.

Think of Those Who Love You

If someone should hurt you and say a thing unkind, remember what I write to you and keep these thoughts in mind.
For everyone that makes you cry, there are three to make you smile and a smile will last for a long, long time, but a tear just a little while.
Don't let someone who hates the world, cause you to hate it to, behind the clouds is a golden sun and a sky that is full of blue.
If someone said a thing that's cruel, don't let it get to you.
Your achievements are greatly numbered and your faults are very few.
So if a certain person should act a certain way, think of those who love you
And don't let anything spoil your day.

Dad, here is a little Angel to watch over Mother and you.
Some people come into our lives and quickly go

Some people become friends and stay a while leaving beautiful footprints on our hearts and we are never quite the same because we have made a good friend!

Yesterday is history, tomorrow a mystery.
Today is a gift. That's why it's called the present!
Live and savor every moment, this is not a dress rehearsal

Ten Commandments of Getting Ahead in Life

1. Speak to People. Even if you do not know their names. Nothing is as nice as a cheerful word of greeting.

2. Smile at People. It takes 72 muscles to frown and only 14 to smile. Your smile is one of your finest assets. Use It!

3. Call People by Name. The sweetest music to anyone's ears is the sound of his/her own name.

4. Be Friendly and Helpful. If you want to have friends, be one.

5. Be Genuinely Interested in People. If you try, you can like everybody, and everybody will like you.

6. Seek Out the Little People. Do not limit yourself to a few friends when there so many likable people around you.

7. Be Generous with Praise. And cautious with criticism. Who among us does not need the understanding and tolerance of all our friends

8. Be Considerate of the Feelings of Others. Usually there are three sides to a controversy yours, the other person's, and the right one.

9. Be Alert to give Service. What we do for others counts most in life. Add to this a Good Sense of Humor. A generous dose of patience, a dash of humility, and you will receive many fold blessings.

10. Remain true to yourself and your heart, keep the faith throughout all your travels. This will make your journey fruitful and glee.

A FRIEND IS SOMEONE SPECIAL SOMEONE HONEST AND SINCERE,
A FRIEND IS THERE FOR YOU EACH DAY THROUGHOUT THE YEAR

THEY LAUGH WHEN YOU ARE HAPPY
AND CHEER YOU WHEN YOU'RE BLUE, THEIR SHOULDER'S THERE TO LEAN ON
IF THE NEED IS THERE FOR YOU

A TRUE SPECIAL FRIEND IS A GREETING TO THE HEART,
A BOND IS FORMED AS WELL
WHICH SHOULD NEVER BREAK APART.

IT'S LIKE A QUILT OF FRIENDSHIP
THAT MAKES YOU FEEL SECURE,
IT'S WOVEN THROUGH WITH LOVE
TO HAVE FOREVER MORE.

EACH PATCH IS MADE WITH CARE AND WHEN COMPLETE YOU'LL SEE,
FOREVER YOU HAVE FOUND A FRIEND TO LAST ETERNITY

If you have a dream

Don't wait for some distant day to come, it may be too late before you've even begun.

Not everyone will agree with all you decide.

Be true to yourself first and foremost.

The only important thing in life is what you DO with the time you spend here on earth.

Don' t be afraid to follow your desires, they are not silly or selfish.

Take the time and do what makes you feel alive.

Leave your fears and regrets in the past, for this is where they belong

Don't cloud today with things that can't be undone

You have no more control over yesterday or tomorrow than you do the raging of your passions

Do not quiet these dreams nor quench your desires

For if you do, your journey is ended

You have only today to begin anew and follow your dreams

For in the end all we have are our memories

When the twilight comes to us, let there be

No excuses, no explanations, no regrets!

Words to live by

Give people more than they expect and do it cheerfully.

Memorize your favorite poem.

Don't believe all you hear, spend all you have, or sleep all you want.

When you say, "I love you," mean it.

When you say, "I'm sorry," look the person in the eye.

Be engaged at least six months before you get married.

Believe in love at first sight.

Never laugh at anyone's dreams.

Love deeply and passionately. You might get hurt but it's the only way to live life completely.

In disagreements, fight fairly, no name-calling

Don't judge people by their relatives.

Talk slow but think quick.

When someone asks you a question you don't want to answer, smile and ask, "Why do you want to know?".

Remember that great love and great achievements involve great risk.

Smile when picking up the phone. The caller will hear it in your voice.

Marry a man/woman you love to talk to. As you get older, his/her conversational skills will be as important as any other skill

Remember that silence is sometimes the best answer.

Read more books and watch less TV.

Trust in God but lock your car.

A loving atmosphere in your home is so important.

Do all you can to create a tranquil, harmonious home.

Smile at a stranger I'm sure they will love it
A smile can show someone that you care.
A smile is something we must all share.
A smile can help friends who are in need.
A smile could help plant the friendship seed.
A smile should never bring a tear.
A smile will always bring a cheer.
A smile such a very simple thing.
A smile can make the coldest heart sing.

A Friend

A friend is like a flower a rose to be exact,
Or maybe like a brand new gate that never comes unlatched
A friend is like an owl, both beautiful and wise
Or perhaps a friend is like a ghost, whose spirit never dies.
A friend is like those blades of grass you can never mow, standing straight, tall, and proud in a perfect little row
A friend is like a heart that goes strong until the end.
Where would we be in this world if we didn't have a friend

A FRIEND IS A TREASURE

A friend is someone we turn to when our spirits need a lift
A friend is someone we treasure for our friendship is a gift

A friend is someone who fills our lives with beauty, joy, and grace
And makes the world we live in a better and happier place.

To handle yourself, use your head

To handle others, use your heart

Anger is only one letter short of danger

Small minds discuss people

God gives every bird its food, but He does not throw it into it's nest

He who loses money, loses much; He who loses a friend, loses more;

He who loses faith, loses all.

Beautiful young people are acts of nature beautiful old people are works of art

Learn from the mistakes of others.

You can't live long enough to make them all yourself.

The tongue weighs practically nothing but so few people can hold it.

May you always feel loved

May you find serenity and tranquility in a world you may not always understand.

May the pain you have known and the conflict you have experienced give you the strength to walk through life facing each new situation with optimism and courage.

Always know that there are those whose love and understanding will always be there, even when you feel most alone.

May you discover enough goodness in others to believe in a world of peace.

May a kind word, a reassuring touch, a warm smile be yours every day of your life,
and may you give these gifts as well as receive them.

Remember the sunshine when the storm seems unending.
Teach love to those who know hate, and let that love embrace you as you go into the world.

May the teaching of those you admire become part of you,
so that you may call upon them.

Remember, those whose lives you have touched and who have touched yours are always a part of you, even if the encounters were less than you would have wished.

May you not become too concerned with material matters, but instead place immeasurable value on the goodness in your heart.

Find time in each day to see the beauty and love in the world around you.

Realize that each person has limitless abilities,
but each of us is different in our own way.

What you may feel you lack in one regard may be more than compensated for in another.

What you feel you lack in the present may become one of your strengths in the future.

May you see your future as one filled with promise and possibility.
Learn to view everything as a worthwhile experience.

May you find enough inner strength to determine your own worth by yourself, and not be dependent on another's judgements of your accomplishments.

May you always feel loved

There's something in a simple hug
That always warms the heart; It welcomes us back home
And makes it easier to part. A hug's a way to share the joy
And sad times we go through, or just a way for friends to say
They like you cause you're you.

Hugs are meant for anyone for whom we really care,
From your grandma to your neighbor, or a cuddly teddy bear.

A hug is an amazing thing, it's the perfect way to show the love we're feeling
But can't find the words to say.

It's funny how a little hug makes everyone feel good; in every place and language,

It's always understood. And hugs don't need new equipment,

Special batteries or parts, just open up your arms

And open up your hearts.

Parable of the rose

A certain man planted a rose and watered it faithfully. Before it blossomed, he examined it. He saw the bud that would soon blossom, but noticed thorns upon the stem and thought, "How can any beautiful flower come from a plant burdened with so many sharp thorns? "

Saddened by this thought, he neglected to water the rose, and before it was ready to bloom, it died.

So it is with many people. Within every soul there is a rose: The Godlike qualities planted in us at birth growing amid the thorns of our faults. Many of us look at ourselves and see only the thorns, the defects. We despair thinking nothing good can possibly come from us. We neglect to water the good within us, and eventually it dies. We never realize our potential.

Some people do not see the rose within themselves; someone else must show it to them. One of the greatest gifts a person can possess or share is to be able to reach past the thorns and find the rose within others.

This is the characteristic of love—to look at a person and know their true faults. Accepting that person into your life, while recognizing the nobility in their soul and helping them realize they can overcome their seeming imperfections. If we show them the rose, they will conquer their thorns. Only then can they blossom many times over.

Testimony of Darrell Scott, father of two victims of columbine high school shooting Littleton, Colorado before the sub-committee on crime house judiciary committee United States House of Representatives:

THURSDAY, MAY 27,1999 2:00 P.M.
2141 RAYBURN HOUSE OFFICE BUILDING

Since the dawn of creation there has been both good and evil in the heart of men and of women. We all contain the seeds of kindness or the seeds of violence. The death of my wonderful daughter Rachel Joy Scott and the deaths of that heroic teacher and the other children who died must not be in vain. Their blood cries out for answers.

The first recorded act of violence was when Cain slew his brother Abel out in the field. The villain was not the club he used. Neither was it the NCA, the National Club Association. The true killer was Cain and the reason for the murder could only be found in Cain's heart.

In the days that followed the Columbine tragedy, I was amazed at how quickly fingers began to be pointed at groups such as the NRA. I am not a member of the NRA. I am not a hunter. I do not even own a gun. I am not here to represent or defend the NRA—because I don't believe that they are responsible for my daughter's death. Therefore I do not believe that they need to be defended. If I believed they had anything to do with Rachel's murder I would be their strongest opponent.

I am here today to declare that Columbine was not just a tragedy—it was a spiritual event that should be forcing us to look at where the real blame lies. Much of that blame lies here in this room. Much of that blame lies behind the pointing fingers of the accusers themselves.

I wrote a poem just four nights ago that express my feelings best. This was written before I knew I would be speaking here today.

Your laws ignore our deepest needs
Your words are empty air
You've stripped away our heritage
You've outlawed simple prayer
Now gunshots fill our classrooms
And precious children die
You seek for answers everywhere
And ask the question "WHY"?
You regulate restrictive laws
Through legislative creed
Add yet you fail to understand
That God is what we need!

Men and women are three part beings. We all consist of body, soul, and spirit. When we refuse to acknowledge a third part of our makeup, we create a void that allows evil, prejudice, and hatred to rush in and wreak havoc. Spiritual influences were present within our educational systems for most of our nation's history. Many of our major colleges began as theological seminaries. This is a historic fact. What has happened to us as a nation? We have refused to honor God and in doing so we open the doors to hatred and violence. And when something as terrible as Columbine's tragedy occurs, politicians immediately look for a scapegoat such as the NRA. They immediately seek to pass more restrictive laws that continue to erode away our personal and private liberties. We do not need more restrictive laws. Eric and Dylan would not have been stopped by metal detectors. No amount of gun laws can stop someone who spends months planning this type of massacre. The real villain lies within our OWN hearts. Political posturing and restrictive legislation is not the answers. The young people of our nation hold the key. There is a spiritual awakening taking place that will not be squelched!

We do not need more religion. We do not need more gaudy television evangelists spewing out verbal religious garbage. We do not need more million dollar church buildings built while people with basic needs are being ignored. We do need a change of heart and a humble acknowledgment that this nation was founded on the principle of simple trust in God. As my son Craig lay under that table in the school library and saw his two friends murdered before his very eyes. He did not hesitate to pray in school. I defy any law or politician to deny him that right. I challenge every young person in America and around the world to realize that on April 20, 1999 at Columbine High School—- prayer was brought back to our schools. Do not let the many prayers offered by those students be in vain. Dare to move into the new millennium with a sacred disregard for legislation that violates your conscience and denies your God-given right to communicate with Him. To those of you who would point your finger at the NRA—I give to you sincere challenge. Dare to examine your own heart before you cast the first stone. My daughter's death will not be in vain. The young people of this country will not allow that to happen.

One Thing to Never Forget

Your presence, is a present to the world
You're unique and one of a kind.
Your life can be what you want it to be
Take the days, just one at a time

Count your blessings, not your troubles
You'll make it through, whatever comes along
Within you, are so many answers
Understand, have courage, be strong
Don't put limits on yourself
So many dreams are waiting to be realized
Decisions are too important, to leave to chance
Reach for your peak, your goal and your prize
Nothing wastes more energy, than worrying
The longer one carries a problem, the heavier it gets Don't take things too seriously
Live a life of serenity, not a life of regrets
Remember that a little love goes a long way
Remember that a lot…goes forever
Remember that friendship is a wise investment
Life's treasures, are people…together
Realize that it's never too late
Do ordinary things, in an extraordinary way
Have health, hope and happiness
Take the time, to wish upon a star
And don't ever forget…
For even a day…
How very special you are.

There's a miracle called Friendship that dwells in the heart. You don't know how it happens or when it gets started but you know the special lift it always brings. You realize that Friendship is God's most precious gift! Friends are a very rare jewel indeed. They make you smile and encourage you to succeed, they lend an ear, they share a word of praise, and they always want to open their hearts to us.

When life hands you lemons, break out the tequila and salt!

May you have-

Enough happiness to keep you sweet
Enough trials to keep you strong Enough sorrow to keep you human Enough hope to keep you happy
Enough failure to keep you humble
Enough success to keep you eager
Enough friends to give you comfort
Enough wealth to meet your needs
Enough enthusiasm to look forward
Enough faith to banish depression
Enough determination to make each day better than yesterday.

ATTITUDE IS EVERYTHING

Jerry was the kind of guy you love to hate. He was always in a good mood and always had something positive to say. When someone would ask him how he was doing, he would reply, "If I were any better, I would be twins!" He was a unique manager because he had several waiters who had followed him around from restaurant to restaurant. The reason the waiters followed Jerry was because of his attitude. He was a natural motivator. If an employee was having a bad day, Jerry was there telling the employee how to look on the positive side of the situation.

Seeing this style really made me curious, so one day I went up to Jerry and asked him, "I don't get it! You can't be a positive person all of the time. How do you do it?" Jerry replied, "Each morning I wake up and say to myself, 'Jerry, you have two choices today. You can choose to be in a good mood or you can choose to be in a bad mood.' I choose to be in a good mood. Each time something bad happens, I can choose to be a victim or I can choose to learn from it. I choose to learn from it. Every time someone comes to me complaining, I can choose to accept their complaining or I can point out the positive side of life. I choose the positive side of life." "Yeah, right, it's not that easy," I protested. "Yes, it is," Jerry said. "Life is all about choices. When you cut away all the junk, every situation is a choice. You choose how you react to situations. You choose how people will affect your mood. You choose to be in a good mood or bad mood. The bottom line: It's your choice how you live life." I reflected on what Jerry said. Soon thereafter, I left the restaurant industry to start my own business. We lost touch, but I often thought about him when I made a choice about life instead of reacting to it. Several years later, I heard that Jerry did something you are never supposed to do in a restaurant business: he left the back door open one morning and was held up at gunpoint by three armed robbers. While trying to open the safe, his hand, shaking from nervousness, slipped off the combination. The robbers panicked and shot him. Luckily, Jerry was found relatively quickly and rushed to the local trauma center. After 18 hours of surgery and weeks of intensive care, Jerry was released from the hospital with fragments of the bullets still in his body. I saw Jerry about six months after the accident. When I asked him how he was, he replied, "If I were any better, I'd be twins. Wanna see my scars?" I declined to see his wounds, but did ask him what had gone through his mind as the robbery took place. "The first thing that went through my mind was that I should have locked the back door," Jerry replied. Then, as I lay on the floor, I remembered that I had two choices: I could choose to live, or I could choose to die. I chose to live." "Weren't you scared? Did you lose consciousness?" I asked. Jerry continued, "The paramedics were great. They kept telling me I was going to be fine. But when they wheeled me into the emergency room and I saw the expressions on the faces of the doctors and nurses, I got really scared. In their eyes, I read, 'He's a dead man.' "I knew I needed to take action." "What did you do?" I asked. "Well, there was a big, burly nurse shouting questions at me," said Jerry. "She asked if I was allergic to anything. 'Yes,' I replied. The doctors and nurses stopped working as they waited for my reply. I took a deep breath and yelled, 'Bullets!' Over their laughter, I told them. 'I am choosing to live. Operate on me as if I am alive, not dead." Jerry lived thanks to the skill of his doctors, but also because of his amazing attitude. I learned from him that every day we have the choice to live fully. Attitude, after all, is everything.

Be thankful that you don't already have everything you desire. If you did, what would there be to look forward to?

Be thankful when you don't know something, for it gives you the opportunity to learn.

Be thankful for the difficult times. During those times you grow.

Be thankful for your limitations, because they give you opportunities for improvement.

Be thankful for each new challenge because it will build your strength and character.

Be thankful for your mistakes. They will teach you valuable lessons.

Be thankful when you're tired and weary, because it means you've made a difference.

There has been a change in Webster's Dictionary and I would like to pass this information on. Kweisi Mfume, President and CEO of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) gave a speech at Virginia Tech University. He informed everyone that a landmark decision was made last week with the people at Merriam-Webster Dictionary. They have recognized the error of their ways. So, beginning with the next edition, the word "nigger" will no longer be synonymous with African-Americans. It shall be duly noted that it's a racial slur and not what African-Americans themselves are. Along with this, all racial and religious slurs will finally be referred to as cruel and evil slurs to degrade people. (Now that's ADVANCEMENT! jkl)

All I really need to know I learned from Noah's ark

1. Plan ahead. It wasn't raining when Noah built the ark.
2. Don't listen to critics—do what has to be done.
3. When the doo-doo gets really deep, don't sit there and complain—shovel!
4. Stay below deck during the storm.
5. Remember that Noahs ark was built by amateurs, the Titanic was built by professionals.
6. Don't miss the boat.
7. No matter how bleak it looks, there's always a rainbow on the other side.

Love's Risk

There is a risk involved in everything
Every time you share a smile
Every time you shed a tear you are opening yourself up to hurt.

Some people tread slowly through life, avoiding the closeness risk brings,
Side-stepping the things they can't understand turning away from those who care too much
Those who care too long, those who hold too tightly.

There is never an easy way to love
You cannot approach it cautiously
It will not wait for you to arm yourself.

It does not care if you turn away
It is everywhere, it is everything.

Love is the greatest of all risks.
It is not reliable, it is not cautious,
It is not sympathetic
It is unprejudiced and not merciful.
It strikes the strongest of mind,
And brings them to their knees in one blow.

Even in the best of times, love hurts.
It hurts to need it hurts to belong,
It hurts to be the other part of someone else,
Without either of your consent
But, from the moment it overtakes you,
It hurts worse to be alone

The risk of love never depletes
It grows stronger and more dangerous with time.
But, it's in the total surrender of all defense
That we, no matter weak or strong,
No matter willing or captive,
No matter what, we truly experience love.

Despite the many things love is not,
Outweighing it all are the things that love is.
Love is surrender without a loss.
It is a gift without the cost.

It consumes your every thought & desire,
Every breath you take.
It is the fire that fuels you
To do more than pass through life;
It urges you, instead, to live.

No matter the outcome, having felt love,
You will never be the same.
It may scar your heart & soul
And Leave you only memories of forever.
Or, it may cause every day of your life
To feel like there is no need for tomorrow.
But, love is worth it. It is worth the risk…
For in all of life,
Love is truly the only risk worth taking.

A group of frogs were traveling through the woods, and two of them fell into a deep pit.

All the other frogs gathered around the pit. When they saw how deep the pit was, they told the two frogs that they were as good as dead. The two frogs ignored the comments and tried to jump up out of the pit with all of their might. The other frogs kept telling them to stop, that they were as good as dead. Finally, one of the frogs took heed to what the other frogs were saying and gave up. He fell down and died. The other frog continued to jump as hard as he could. Once again, the crowd of frogs yelled at him to stop the pain and just die. He jumped even harder and finally made it out. You see this frog was deaf, unable to hear the others plea. He thought they were encouraging him the entire time.

This story teaches two lessons:

There is power of life and death in the tongue. An encouraging word to someone who is down can lift them up and help them make it through the day.

A destructive word to someone who is down can be what it takes to kill them.

Be careful of what you say. Speak life to those who cross your path. The power of words…it is sometimes hard to understand that an encouraging word can go such a long way. From this day forward, think before you speak.

~ It's more important to be honest than poplar.

ATTITUDE DETERMINES ATTITUDE

I woke up early today excited over all I get to do before the clock strikes midnight I have responsibilities to fulfill today. I am important. My job is to choose what kind of day I am going to have. Today I can complain because the weather is rainy or I can be thankful that the grass is getting watered for free. Today I can feel sad that I don't have more money or I can be glad that my finances encourage me to plan my purchases wisely and guide me away from waste. Today I can grumble about my health or I can rejoice that I am alive. Today I can lament over all that my parents didn't give me when I was growing up or I can feel grateful that they allowed me to be born. Today I can cry because roses have thorns or I can celebrate that thorns have roses. Today I can mourn my lack of friends or I can excitedly embark upon a quest to discover new relationships. Today I can whine because I have to go to work or I can shout for joy because I have a job to do. I can complain because I have to go to school or eagerly open my mind and fill it with rich new tidbits of knowledge. Today I can murmur dejectedly because I have to do housework or I can feel honored because the Lord has provided shelter for my mind, body and soul. Today stretches ahead of me, waiting to be shaped. And here I am- the sculptor who gets to do the shaping. What today will be like is up to me, I get to choose what kind of day I will have!

The Purpose

We are born with two eyes in front because we must not always look behind, but see what lies ahead, beyond ourselves. We are born to have two ears—one left, one right so we can hear both sides, collect both the compliments and criticisms, to see which are right. We are born with a brain concealed in a skull that no matter how poor we are, we are still rich, for no one can steal what our brain contains, packing in more jewels and rings than you can think. We are born with two eyes, two ears, but one mouth for the mouth is a sharp weapon, it can hurt, flirt, and kill. Remember our motto: talk less, listen and see more. We are born with only one heart, deep in our ribs to remind us to appreciate and give love from deep within.

The Dash

I read of a man who stood to speak at the funeral of a friend. He referred to the dates on her tombstone from the beginning to the end. He noted that first came the date of her birth and spoke of the following date with tears, but he said what mattered most of all was the dash between those years. For that dash represents all the time that she spent alive on earth and now only those who loved her know what that little line is worth. For it matters not, how much we own; the cars, the house, or the cash. What matters is how we live and love and how we spend our dash. So think about this long and hard…are there things you'd like to change? For you never know how much time is left. (You could be at "dash mid-range.") If we could just slow down enough to consider what's true and real, and always try to understand the way other people feel. And be less quick to anger, and show appreciation more and love the people in our lives like we've never loved before. If we treat each other with respect and more often wear a smile…remembering that this special dash might only last a little while. So, when your eulogy's being read with your life's actions to rehash…Would you be proud of the things they say about how you spend your dash? To the world you may be one person, but to one person you may be the world!

Simple vs. Real Friends

Anyone can stand by you when you are right, yet a real friend will stand by you even when you are wrong
A simple friend identifies themselves when he or she calls
A real friend doesn't have to
A simple friend opens a conversation with a full news bulletin on his or her life
A real friend says, "What's new with you?"
A simple friend thinks the problems you whine about are recent
A real friend says, "You've been whining about the same thing for 14 years. Get off your ass and do something about it."
A simple friend has never seen you cry.
A real friend has shoulders soggy from your tears.
A simple friend doesn't know your parents' first names.
A real friend has their phone numbers in his or her address book.
A simple friend brings a bottle of wine to your party.
A real friend comes early to help you cook and stays late to help you clean.
A simple friend hates it when you call after he or she has gone to bed.
A real friend asks you why you took so long to call.
A simple friend seeks to talk with you about your problems.
A real friend seeks to help you with your problems.
A simple friend wonders about your romantic history.
A real friend could blackmail you with it.
A simple friend, when visiting, acts like a guest.
A real friend opens your refrigerator and helps themselves
A simple friend thinks the friendship is over when you have an argument.

A real friend knows that it's not a friendship until after you've had an argument.

A simple friend expects you to always be there for them.

A real friend expects to always be there for you!

With that said, which type of friend are YOU?

Slow Dance

Have you ever watched kids on a merry-go-round
Or listened to the rain slapping on the ground?

Ever followed a butterfly's erratic flight
Or gazed at the sun into the fading night?

You better slow down don't dance so fast
Time is short the music won't last

Do you run through each day on the fly?
When you ask "How are you?" Do you hear the reply?

When the day is done, do you lie in your bed
With the next hundred chores running through your head?

You'd better slow down don't dance so fast
Time is short the music won't last

Ever told your child, we'll do it tomorrow
And in your haste, not see his sorrow?

Ever lost touch, let a good friendship die
'Cause you never had time to call and say "Hi"?

You'd better slow down don't dance so fast
Time is short the music won't last

When you run so fast to get somewhere
You miss half the fun of getting there.
When you worry and hurry through your day,
It is like an unopened gift…
Thrown away…

Life is not a race. Do take it slower
Hear the music before the song is over.

Lord forgive me when I whine

Today, upon a bus, I saw a girl with golden hair. I envied her she seemed so gay, and wished I was as fair. When suddenly she rose to leave, I saw her hobble down the aisle. She had one leg and wore a crutch, yet smiled as she walked past me. Oh, God, forgive me when I whine. I have two legs the world is mine. I stopped to buy some candy. The lad who sold it had such charm. I talked with him, he seemed so glad.

If I were late, it'd do no harm. And as I left, he said to me, "I thank you, you've been so kind. It's nice to talk with folks like you. You see," he said, "I'm blind." Oh, God, forgive me when I whine. I have two eyes the world is mine. Later while walking down the street, I saw a child with eyes of blue. He stood and watched the others play. He did not know what to do. I stopped a moment and then I said, "Why don't you join the others, dear?" He looked ahead without a word. And then I knew, he couldn't hear. Oh, God, forgive me when I whine. I have two ears the world is mine. With feet to take me where I'd go. With eyes to see the sunsets glow. With ears to hear what I'd know. Oh, God, forgive me when I whine. I've been blessed indeed the world is mine.

Something To Ponder

A man found an eagle's egg and put it in a nest of a barnyard hen. The eagle hatched with the brood of chicks and grew up with them. All his life, the eagle did what the barnyard chicks did, thinking he was a barnyard chicken.

He scratched the earth for worms and insects. He clucked and cackled. And he would thrash his wings and fly a few feet in the air.

Years passed and the eagle grew very old. One day he saw a magnificent bird above him in the cloudless sky. It glided in graceful majesty among powerful wind currents, with scarcely a beat of its strong golden wings.

The old eagle looked up in awe. "Who's that?" he asked. "That's the eagle, the king of the birds," said his neighbor. "He belongs to the sky. We belong to the earth—we're chickens."

So the eagle lived and died a chicken, for that's what he thought he was.

Your life is what you make it...Don't be afraid to spread your wings and fly. If you don't you will suffer the same fate as the eagle who thought and acted like a chicken.

Who Packed Your Parachute?

Charles Plumb, a US Naval Academy graduate, was a jet fighter pilot in Vietnam. After 75 combat missions, his plane was destroyed by a surface-to-air missile. Plumb ejected and parachuted into enemy hands. He was captured and spent 6 years in a communist Vietnamese prison. He survived the ordeal and now lectures on lessons learned from that experience. One day, when Plumb and his wife were sitting in a restaurant, a man at another table came up and said, "You're Plumb! You flew jet fighters in Vietnam from the aircraft carrier Kitty Hawk. You were shot down!" "How in the world did you know that?" asked Plumb. "I packed your parachute," the man replied. Plumb gasped in surprise and gratitude. The man pumped his hand and said, "I guess it worked!" Plumb assured him, "It sure did. If your chute hadn't worked, I wouldn't be here today." Plumb couldn't sleep that night, thinking about that man. Plumb says, "I kept wondering what he might have looked like in a Navy uniform- a Dixie cup hat, a bib in the back, and bell bottom trousers. I wonder how many times I might have seen him and not even said good morning, how are you or anything because, you see, I was a fighter pilot and he was just a sailor." Plumb thought of the many hours the sailor had spent on a long wooden table in the bowels of the ship, carefully weaving the shrouds and folding the silks of each chute, holding in his hands each time the fate of someone he didn't know. Now, Plumb asks his audience, "Who's packing your parachute?" Everyone has someone who provides what they need to make it through the day. Plumb also points out that he needed many kinds of parachutes when his plane was shot down over enemy territory- he needed his physical parachute, his mental parachute, his emotional parachute, and his spiritual parachute. He called on all these supports before reaching safety.

His experience reminds us all to prepare ourselves to weather whatever storms lie ahead. As you go through this week, this month, this year…recognize people who pack your parachute!

Words of Wisdom

Faith is to believe what we do not see, and the reward of faith is to see what we believe.

Standing for what you believe in, regardless of the odds against you, and the pressure that tears at your resistance, means courage

Keeping a smile on your face, when inside you feel like dying,
For the sake of supporting others, means strength

Stopping at nothing, and doing what's in your heart,
You know is right, means determination

Doing more than is expected, to make another's life a little more bearable,
Without uttering a single complaint, means compassion

Helping a friend in need, no matter the time or effort,
To the best of your ability, means loyalty

Giving more than you have, and expecting nothing
But nothing in return, means selflessness

Holding your head high, and being the best you know you can be
When life seems to fall apart at your feet, facing each difficulty with the confidence
That time will bring you better tomorrows, and never giving up, means confidence.

My girlfriend Maria sent the following. Hope you read Spanish!

Hola

Mi amor, mi vida, mi cielo, mi tesoro, mi corazon, mi todo. Se me queda algo?

Siempre he tratado de ser la misma, no creo que cambie ahora. Ademas me gusta ayudar a las personas que quiero.

De los besos que me pides, te doy todos los que quieras y mas.

Hoy estoy tan cansada, trabaje desde las 7:30AM hasta las 6:30PM. Como me gustaria tenerte a mi lado, solo para descansar en tu brazos.

Love you.

ANGELS

Two traveling angels stopped to spend the night in the home of a wealthy family. The family was rude and refused to let the angels stay in the mansion's guestroom. Instead the angels were given a small space in the cold basement. As they made their bed on the hard floor, the older angel saw a hole in the wall and repaired it. When the younger angel asked why, the older angel replied, "Things aren't always what they seem." The next night the pair came to rest at the house of a very poor, but very hospitable farmer and his wife. After sharing what little food they had the couple let the angels sleep in their bed where they could have a good night's rest.

When the sun came up the next morning the angels found the farmer and his wife in tears. Their only cow, whose milk had been their sole income, lay dead in the field. The younger angel was infuriated and asked the older angel how could you have let this happen? The first man had everything, yet you helped him, she accused. The second family had little but was willing to share everything, and you let the cow die. "Things aren't always what they seem," the older angel replied. "When we stayed in the basement of the mansion, I noticed there was gold stored in that hole in the wall. Since the owner was so obsessed with greed and unwilling to share his good fortune, I sealed the wall so he wouldn't find it" "Then last night as we slept in the farmers bed, the angel of death came for his wife. I gave him the cow instead. Things aren't always what they seem."

Sometimes that is exactly what happens when things don't turn out the way they should. If you have faith, you just need to trust that every outcome is always to your advantage. You might not know it until some time later. Some People come into our lives and quickly go. Some people become friends and stay awhile…leaving beautiful footprints on our hearts…and we are never quite the same because we have made a good friend! Yesterday is history. Tomorrow a mystery, Today is a gift. That's why it's called the present! I think this is special…live and savor every moment. This is not a dress rehearsal!

Thoughts on Life

Conscience is what hurts when everything else feels so good.

Talk is cheap because supply exceeds demand.

Stupidity got us into this mess—why can't it get us out?

Love is grand; divorce is a hundred grand.

Politicians and diapers both should be changed regularly—and for the same reason.

An optimist thinks that this is the best possible world. A pessimist fears that this is true.

There is always death and taxes however death doesn't get worse every year.

People will accept your ideas much more readily if you tell them that Benjamin Franklin said it first.

It's easier to fight for one's principles than to live up to them.

I don't mind going nowhere as long as it's an interesting path.

Anything free is worth what you pay for it.

Indecision is the key to flexibility.

It hurts to be on the cutting edge.

I always wanted to be a procrastinator, never got around to it.

I am a nutritional overachiever

My inferiority complex is not as good as yours.

I am having an out of money experience.

I am in shape. Round is a shape.

Not afraid of heights—afraid of widths

I have kleptomania, but when it gets bad, I take something for it.

If marriage were outlawed, only outlaws would have in-laws.

Life is an endless struggle full of frustrations and challenges, but eventually you find a hair stylist you like.

You're getting old when you get the same sensation from a rocking chair that you once got from a roller coaster.

One of life's mysteries is how a two pound box of candy can make a woman gain five pounds.

The real art of conversation is not only to say the right thing at the right time, but also to leave unsaid the wrong thing at the tempting moment.

The Strength of A Man

The strength of a man isn't in how hard he hits.
It's in how tender he touches.

The strength of a man isn't in the hair on his chest.
It's in his heart that lies within his chest.

The strength of a man isn't seen in the width of his shoulders.
It's seen in the width of his arms that circle you.

The strength of a man isn't in the deep tone of his voice.
It is in the gentle words he whispers.

The strength of a man isn't how many buddies he has.
It's how good a buddy he is with his or "your" children.

The strength of a man isn't in how respected he is at work.
It's in how he is respected at home.

The strength of a man isn't in how many women he's loved.
It's in, can he be true to the ONE woman he's promised to love.

The strength of a man isn't in the weight he can lift.
It's in the burdens he can carry.

The strength of a man isn't how much food he eats from your table.
It's in the effort he puts forth when you are unable.

The strength of a man isn't in how he makes love.
It's in the understanding that there is more to making love...than making love.

The strength of a man isn't in how he thinks he's a god.
It's in the confidence he has believing in God.

Question: How strong are you, my brothers? If more of us strive to be as strong as these words say, our women would be that much happier, our homes would be that much more peaceful, and life would indeed be wonderful.

We are born naked, wet, and hungry. Then things get worse.

No one is listening until you make a mistake.

Always remember you're unique, just like everyone else.

Never test the depth of the water with both feet.

It is far more impressive when others discover your good qualities without your help.

If you think nobody cares if you're alive, try missing a couple of car payments.

If you tell the truth you don't have to remember anything.

If you lend someone $20, and never see that person again; it was probably worth it.

If you haven't much education you must use your brain.

You can't strengthen the weak by weakening the strong.

Who gossips to you will gossip of you.

When someone says, "Do you want my opinion?"—it's always a negative one.

When someone is having a bad day, be silent, sit close by and nuzzle them gently. The word listen contains the same letters as the word silent.

The difference between ordinary and extraordinary is that little extra.

Scientists say 1 out of every 4 people is crazy. Check 3 friends, if they are OK, you're it.

Making a difference

Once upon a time there was a wise man that used to go to the ocean to do his writing. He had a habit of walking on the beach before he began his work.

One day he was walking along the shore. As he looked down the beach, he saw a human figure moving like a dancer. He smiled to himself to think of someone who would dance in the day. So he began to walk faster to catch up.

As he got closer, he saw that it was a young man and the young man wasn't dancing, but instead he was reaching down to the shore, picking up something and very gently throwing it into the ocean. As he got closer he called out, "Good morning! What are you doing?" The young man paused, looked up and replied, "Throwing starfish in the ocean." "I guessed that, but why are you throwing starfish in the ocean?" "The sun is up and the tide is going out. If I don't throw them in they'll die."

"But, young man, don't you realize that there are miles and miles of beach and starfish all along it. You can't possibly make a difference!" The young man listened politely, then bent down and picked up another starfish. He threw it into the sea, past the breaking waves and said—"It made difference for that one."

¡OH GOD!

A train hits a busload of nuns and they all perish. They are all in heaven trying to enter the pearly gates past St. Peter. He asks the first nun Sister Karen have you ever had any contact with a penis?

The nun giggles and replies, well, once I touched the head of one with the tip of my finger.

St Peter says OK, dip the tip of your finger in the holy water and pass through the gate.

St Peter asks the next nun the same question Sister Elizabeth have you ever had any contact with a penis? The nun is a little reluctant but reply's- "Well I once fondled and stroked one." St Peter says, OK dip your hand in the holy water and pass through the gate.

All of a sudden there is a lot of commotion in the line of nuns. One nun is pushing her way to the front of the line. When she reaches the front of the line St Peter says sister, sister what seems to be the rush? The nun replied: If I'm going to have to gargle that holy water, I want to go before Sister Mary sticks her ass in it!

About a century or two ago, the Pope decided that all the Jews had to leave Rome. Naturally there was a big uproar from the Jewish community. So the Pope made a deal. He would have a religious debate with a member of the Jewish community. If the Jew won, the Jews could stay. If the Pope won, the Jews would leave. The Jews realized that they had no choice. So they picked a middle-aged man named Moishe to represent them.

Moishe asked for one addition to the debate. To make it more interesting, neither side would be allowed to talk. The Pope agreed. The day of the great debate came. Moishe and the Pope sat opposite each other for a full minute before the Pope raised his hand and showed three fingers. Moishe looked back at him and raised one finger. The Pope waved his fingers in a circle around his head. Moishe pointed to the ground where he sat. The Pope pulled out a wafer and a glass of wine. Moishe pulled out an apple. The Pope stood up and said, "I give up. This man is too good. The Jews can stay." An hour later, the cardinals were all around the Pope asking him what had happened.

The Pope said, "First I held up three fingers to represent the Trinity. He responded by holding up one finger to remind me that there was still one God common to both our religions. Then I waved my finger around me to show him that God was all around us. He responded by pointing to the ground and showing that God was also right here with us. I pulled out the wine and wafer to show that God absolves us from our sins. He pulled out an apple to remind me of original sin. He had an answer for everything. What could I do?"

Meanwhile, the Jewish community had crowded around Moishe. "What happened?" they asked. "Well," said Moishe, "First he said to me that the Jews had three days to get out of here. I told him that not one of us was leaving. Then he told me that this whole city would be cleared of Jews. I let him know that we were staying right here." "Yes, yes, and then?" asked the crowd. "I don't know," said Moishe, "He took out his lunch, and I took out mine."

Four Nuns Out for the Weekend

It was Friday, and four nuns went to the priest at the local church to ask for the weekend off. They argued back and forth for a few minutes. Finally the priest agrees to let them leave the convent for the weekend. "However", said the priest, "as soon as you get back Monday morning I want you to confess to me what you did over the weekend." The four nuns agree and run off.

Monday morning comes and the four nuns return. The first nun goes to the priest and say, "Forgive me Father, for I have sinned." The priest asks, "What did you do sister?"

She replies, "I watched an R-rated movie." The priest looks up at heaven for a few seconds, then replies, "You are forgiven. Go drink the holy water." The first nun leaves, and the fourth nun begins to chuckle quietly under her breath. The second nun then goes up to the priest and says, "Forgive me Father, for have sinned." The priest replies, "Okay, what happened?" She says, "I was driving my brother's car down the street in front of his house, and I hit the dog and killed it." The priest looks up at heaven for a half a minute then says; "You are forgiven. Go and drink the holy water." The second nun goes out. By this time, the fourth nun is laughing quite audibly. The third nun walks to the priest and says, "Forgive me, Father, I have sinned." The priest says, "Ok. Out with it. What did you do?" She says, "Last night, I ran naked up and down Main Street." The priest looks up at heaven for a full five minutes before responding, "God forgives you. Go and drink the holy water." She leaves.

The fourth nun falls on the floor, laughing so hard tears run down her cheeks. The priest asks her, "Ok, what did you do this weekend that was so very funny?" The fourth nun replies, "I peed in the holy water."

Three nurses went to heaven, and were waiting their turn with St. Peter to plead their case to enter the pearly gates. The first nurse said, "I worked in an emergency room. We tried our best to help patients, but occasionally we did lose one. I think I deserve to go to heaven." St. Peter looks at her file and admits her to heaven. The second nurse says, "I worked in an operating room. It's a very high stress environment and we do our best. Sometimes the patient is too sick and we lose them, but overall we try very hard." St. Peter looks at her file and admits her to heaven. The third nurse says, "I was a case manager for an HMO." St. Peter looks at her file. He pulls out a calculator and starts punching away at it furiously, constantly going back to the nurse's file. After a few minutes St. Peter looks up, smiles, and says, "Congratulations! You've been admitted to heaven…for five days!"

A man walks into confessional and says, "Forgive me Father for I have sinned." The priest replies, "What is it that brings you here?" "Well father, I used the f-word over the weekend."

"Oh is that all? Say five Hail Mary's and may the Lord be with you." The man replies, "but I really need to talk about it." "Okay, let's have it then", the priest says as he leans back on the hard wooden bench.

"You see Father, I was playing golf this weekend and on the first tee, I was lining up my drive and proceeded to hit a horrendous slice into the trees." "And that's when you cursed aloud?" the Father queried. "No, not yet. As luck would have it, I found my ball and had a clear shot to the green from a nice lie; when all of a sudden, a squirrel scampered out of some bushes, picked up my ball by its teeth and darted up a tree."

"That must have been when you cursed?" "No, because just as the squirrel had climbed to the top of the tree a bird swooped out of the skies and grabbed the squirrel with its talons. The bird flew out the trees and back out over the green. Then, the squirrel dropped my ball from its mouth landing 5 inches from the cup!"

"And that's when you cursed aloud," the priest said assuredly. "No, no."

The Father interjected, "Don't tell me you missed the F putt!"

A little boy hid in his parent's bedroom closet as he wanted to see what took place in their room when the doors were locked. As he peeked through the slats of the closet door he saw his mother and her boyfriend going at it.

Suddenly the boy's father comes home. The wife wisks her boyfriend off into the closet. The same closet her son is in. After several minutes the boy says to the man, "Boy it's dark in here." Shocked, the man just nods his head in agreement. After a few more minutes the boy says- "Wanna buy my baseball glove?" The man asks "How much?" In reply the boy says $50. The man agrees. Several more minutes pass when the boy asks the man if he'd like to buy his baseball bat for $50 as well. The man reluctantly agrees. After the father departs, the woman takes her boyfriend out of the closet, and too upset to continue she sends him on his way.

The next morning at the breakfast table the little boy pulls out a roll of money and begins counting it. The mother asks: "Where did that come from? To which her son replied "Can't say." The mother asks again and upon his refusal to tell she tells her son to get in the car.

The mother takes the boy to church and tells him to get into the confessional and tell the priest where he got the money. When the priest slid the door over, the boy said "Boy it's dark in here", to which the priest replied, "Don't start that shit again!"

Just Filling In

A priest was called away for an emergency. Not wanting to leave the confessional unattended, he called his rabbi friend from across the street and asked him to cover for him. The rabbi told him he wouldn't know what to say, but the priest told him to come on over and he'd stay with him for a little bit and show him what to do. The rabbi comes and he and the priest are in the confessional. In a few minutes a woman comes in and says "Father forgive me for I have sinned. I committed adultery." Priest says: "How many times?" "Three times," replied the woman.

Priest says, "Say two Hail Mary's, put $5.00 in the box, and sin no more." A few minutes later a man enters the confessional. He says, "Father forgive me for I have sinned." Priest says, "What did you do?" Man says, "I committed adultery." Priest asks, "How many times?" Man replies, "Three times." Priest says, "Say two Hail Mary's, put $5.00 in the box, and sin no more." The Rabbi tells the priest that he thinks he's got it so the priest leaves. A few minutes later another woman enters and says, "Father forgive me for I have sinned." Rabbi says, "What did you do?" Woman replies, "I committed adultery." Rabbi asks, "How many times?" "Once." Says the woman. The rabbi replies-"Go do it two more times, we have a special this week, three for $5.00."

The bartender was washing his glasses, when an elderly Irishman came in. With great difficulty, the Irishman hoisted his bad leg over the barstool, pulled himself up painfully, and asked for a sip of Irish whiskey. The Irishman looked down the bar and said, "Is that Jesus down there?" The bartender nodded, so the Irishman told him to give Jesus an Irish whiskey, too. The next patron to come in was an ailing Italian with a hunched back, who moved very slowly. He shuffled up to the barstool and asked for a glass of Chianti. He also looked down the bar and asked if that was Jesus sitting at the end of the bar. The bartender nodded, so the Italian said to give Him a glass of Chianti, too. The third patron to enter the bar was a redneck, who swaggered into the bar and hollered, Barkeep, set me up a cold one! Hey, is that God's Boy down there?" The barkeep nodded, so the redneck told him to give Jesus a cold one, too. As Jesus got up to leave, he walked over to the Irishman and touched him and said, "For your kindness, you are healed!" The Irishman felt the strength come back to his leg, so he got up and danced a jig out the door. Jesus touched the Italian and said, "For your kindness, you are healed!" The Italian felt his back straighten, so he raised his hands above his head and did a flip out the door. Jesus walked toward the redneck, but the redneck jumped back and exclaimed, "Don't touch me! I'm drawing disability!"

Three men: a philosopher, a mathematician and an idiot were out riding in the car when it crashed into a tree. Before anyone knows it, the three men found themselves standing before the pearly gates of Heaven, where St. Peter and the Devil were standing nearby.

"Gentlemen," the Devil started, "Due to the fact that Heaven is now overcrowded, St Peter has agreed to limit the number of people entering Heaven. If anyone of you can ask me a question that I don't know or cannot answer, then you're worthy enough to go to Heaven, if not, then you'll come with me to Hell."

The philosopher then stepped up, "OK, give me the most comprehensive report on Socrates' teachings," With a snap of his finger a stack of paper appeared next to the Devil. The philosopher read it and concluded it was correct. "Then, go to Hell!" With another snap of his finger, the philosopher disappeared. The mathematician then asked, "Give me the most complicated formula you can ever think of!" With a snap of his finger, another stack of paper appeared next to the Devil. The mathematician read it and reluctantly agreed it was correct. "Then, go to Hell!" With another snap of his finger, the mathematician disappeared, too.

The idiot then stepped forward and said, "Bring me a chair!" The Devil brought forward a chair. "Drill 7 holes on the seat." The Devil did just that. The idiot then sat on the chair and let out a very loud fart. Standing up, he asked, "Which hole did my fart come out from?" The Devil inspected the seat and said, "The third hole from the right." "Wrong," said the idiot, "it's from my asshole." And the idiot went to Heaven.

Thou Shall Not Play Hooky

The Reverend Francis Norton woke up Sunday morning and realizing it was an exceptionally beautiful and sunny early spring day, decided he just had to play golf. He told the Associate Pastor that he was feeling sick and persuaded him to say mass for him that day. As soon as the Associate Pastor left the room, father Norton headed out of town to a golf course about forty miles away. This way he knew he wouldn't accidentally meet anyone he knew from his parish. Setting up on the first tee, he was alone. After all, it was Sunday morning and everyone else was in church!

At about this time, Saint Peter leaned over to the Lord while looking down from the heavens and exclaimed, "You're not going to let him get away with this, are you?"

The Lord sighed, and said, "No, I guess not." Just then Father Norton hit the ball and it shot straight towards the pin, dropping just short of it, rolled up and fell into the hole. It WAS A 420-YARD HOLE IN ONE!

St. Peter was astonished. He looked at the Lord and asked, "Why did you let that happen?" The Lord smiled and replied, "Who is he going to tell?"

It Takes Guts to Say "Jesus"

(Faith is the substance of things hoped for. Hebrews 11:1)

This is a true story of something that happened just a few years ago at USC. There was a professor of philosophy there who was a deeply committed atheist. His primary goal for one required class was to spend the entire semester attempting to prove that God couldn't exist. His students were always afraid to argue with him because of his impeccable logic.

For twenty years, he had taught this class and no one had ever had the courage to go against him. Sure, some had argued in class at times, but no one had ever really gone against him' (you'll see what I mean later). Nobody would go against him because he had a reputation. At the end of every semester, on the last day, he would say to his class of 300 students, "If there is anyone here who still believes in Jesus, stand up!"

In twenty years, no one had ever stood up. They knew what he was going to do next. He would say, "because anyone who does believe in God is a fool."

"If God existed, he could stop this piece of chalk from hitting the ground and breaking. Such a simple task to prove that he is God, and yet he can't do it." And every year, he would drop the chalk onto the tile floor of the classroom and it would shatter into a hundred pieces. All of the students could do nothing but stop and stare. Most of the students were convinced that God couldn't exist. Certainly, a number of Christians had slipped through, but for 20 years, they had been too afraid to stand up.

Well, a few years ago, there was a freshman that happened to get enrolled in the class. He was a Christian, and had heard the stories about this professor. He had to take the class because it was one of the required classes for his major and he was afraid. For three months that semester, he prayed every morning that he would have the courage to stand up no matter what the professor said or what the class thought. Nothing they said or did could ever shatter his faith, he hoped.

Finally the day came. The professor said, "If there is anyone here who still believes in God, stand up!" The professor and the class of 300 people looked at him, shocked, as he stood up at the back of classroom. The professor shouted, "You FOOL! If God existed, he could keep this piece of chalk from breaking when it hit the ground!"

He proceeded to drop the chalk, but as he did, it slipped out of his fingers, off his shirt cuff, onto the pleats of his pants, down his leg, and off his shoe. As it hit the ground, it simply rolled away, unbroken. The professor's jaw dropped as he stared at the chalk. He looked up at the young man and then ran out of the lecture hall.

The young man who had stood up proceeded to walk to the front of the room and share his faith in Jesus for the next half an hour. 300 students stayed and listened as he told of God's love for them and of his power through Jesus.

"Yet to all who received HIM, to those who believed in HIS name, HE gave the right to become children of God—children born not of natural descent, nor of human decision or a husband's will, but born of GOD."

"But HE knows the way that I take. When HE has tested me, I will come forth as gold." Job 23:10

An Easy Mistake to Make

A cattleman from West Texas died & went on to the Great Beyond. As he approached the great gate, he noticed that the terrain was bare with no greenery. He remarked to the gatekeeper, "Howdy Saint Peter. Say, this looks just like Texas." "The gatekeeper replied, "First of all, I'm not Saint Peter and second, you really don't know where you are at all, do you?"

Catholic Rights

A bus strikes a man on a busy street in New York City. He lies dying on the sidewalk as a crowd of spectator's gathers around. "A priest. Somebody get me a priest!" the man gasps. A policeman checks the crowd——no priest, no minister, no man of God of any kind. "A PRIEST, PLEASE!" the dying man says again. Then out of the crowd steps a little old Jewish man of at least eighty years of age. "Mr. Policeman," says the man, "I'm not a priest. I'm not even a Catholic. But for fifty years now I'm living behind St. Elizabeth's Catholic Church on First Avenue, and every night I'm listening to the Catholic litany. Maybe I can be of some comfort to this man." The policeman agreed and brought the octogenarian over to where the dying man lay. He kneels down, leans over the injured and says in a solemn voice: "B-4. I-19. N-38. G-54. O-72…"

Top ten reasons God created Eve

- God worried that Adam would always be lost in the garden because men hate to ask for directions.

- God knew that Adam would one day need someone to hand him the TV remote. (Men don't want to see what's ON television, they want to see WHAT ELSE is on!)

- God knew that Adam would never buy a new fig leaf when his seat wore out and would therefore need Eve to get one for him.

- God knew that Adam would never make a doctor's appointment for himself.

- God knew that Adam would never remember which night was garbage night.

- God knew that if the world was to be populated, men would never be able to handle childbearing.

- As "Keeper of the Garden", Adam would never remember where he put his tools.

- The scripture account of creation indicates Adam needed someone to blame his troubles on when God caught him hiding in the garden.

- As the Bible says, "It is not good for man to be alone!"

- And the #1 reason God created Eve....

- When God finished the creation of Adam, He stepped back, scratched His head and said, "I can do better than that"

What did God say after she made Eve?

"Practice makes perfect."

And God created woman, and she had 3 breasts. He then asked the woman, "Is there anything that you'd like to have changed?"

She replied, "Yes. Could you get rid of this middle breast?"

And so it was done, and it was good.

Then the woman exclaimed, as she was holding that third breast in her hand, "What can be done with this useless boob?"

And God created man.

There were these three nuns that were killed in a traffic accident, and were immediately sent to the Pearly Gates. As St. Peter was looking over their files, he said "You ladies have been very good, but before I can let you in, you have to answer a question." So he asks the first nun "What was the name of the first man that God created?" "Adam" she replied. The lights started flashing, music started playing, the angels started singing, and then two angels came out and gave the nun her halo and wings, and off she went into the Pearly Gates. Then St. Peter asked the second nun "What was the name of the name of the first woman that God created? "Eve" the nun said. And the lights started flashing, the music started playing, the angels started singing, and two angels came out and gave the nun her halo and wings, and off she went into the Pearly Gates. Then St. Peter asked the third nun "What was the first thing that Eve said to Adam?" The nun, clearly confused, started scratching her head, and replied "Gee- that's a hard one." And the lights started flashing, the music started playing.

Heaven

Someday, a long time from now, President Clinton finishes his time on earth and approaches the Pearly Gates of Heaven.

"And who might you be?" inquires St. Peter. "It's me, Bill Clinton, formerly the President of the United States and Leader of the Free World."

"Oh…Mr. President! What may I do for you?" asks St. Peter. "I'd like to come in," replies Clinton.

"Sure," says the Saint. "But first you have to confess your sins. What bad things have you done in your life?"

Clinton bites his lip and answers, "Well, I tried marijuana, but you can't call it 'dope-smoking' because I didn't inhale. There were inappropriate extramarital relationships, but you can't call it adultery' because I didn't have full sexual relations. And I made some statements that were misleading, but legally accurate, but you can't call it bearing false witness because, as far as I know, it didn't meet the legal standard of perjury.

With that St. Peter consults the Book of Life briefly, and declares, "OK, here's the deal. We'll send you somewhere hot, but we won't call it hell. You'll be there indefinitely, but we won't call it eternity. And when you enter, you don't have to "abandon all hope", just don't hold your breath waiting for it to freeze over.

The Confessional

There once was a young Irish woman who went to confession. Upon entering the confessional she said, "Forgive me Father, for I have sinned." The priest said, "Confess your sins and be forgiven." The young woman said, "Last night my boyfriend made mad passionate love to me seven times." The priest thought long and hard and then said, "Take seven lemons and squeeze them into a glass and then drink it." The young woman asked, "Will this cleanse me of my sins?" The priest said "NO, but it will wipe the smile off of your face."

Priest in Training

A new priest at his first mass was so afraid he could hardly talk. Before his second week at the pulpit, he asked the monsignor how he could relax. The monsignor said, next week, it might help if you put martinis in your water pitcher. The next week the young priest put his elder's suggestion into practice and really talked up a storm. After the sermon, he asked the monsignor how he did. The monsignor replied, "Fine, but there are a few things you should learn before you address the congregation again."

1. Next time sip the martinis rather than downing them glassful by glassful.
2. There are 10 commandments, not 12.
3. There are 12 disciples, not 10.
4. David slew Goliath; he didn't "Kick the shit out of him."
5. We do not refer to Our Savior, Jesus Christ, and his disciples as J.C. and the boys.
6. Next Sunday there is a taffy-pulling contest at St. Peters, not a Peter pulling contest at St. Taffys.
7. We do not refer to the cross as "The Big T."

8. The Father, Son, and the Holy Ghost are not referred to as, "Daddy, Junior and Spook."
9. Please! It is the Virgin Mary, not Mary with the cherry.
10. Jacob wagered his donkey, he did not bet his ass.
11. Jesus was consecrated, not constipated.
12. When Joseph was hit by a rock and knocked off his donkey, don't say he was "stoned off his ass."
13. And last but not least, when you leave the altar, walk down the steps, don't slide down the rail.

The Sinner

This married man goes to confessional and he tells the priest, "I had an affair with a woman…almost." The priest says, "What do you mean 'almost'?" The man says "Well, we got undressed and rubbed together, but then I stopped." The priest replies, "Rubbing together is the same as putting it in. You're not to go near that woman again, now say five Hail Mary's and put $50 in the poor box." The man leaves confessional, goes over and says his prayers, then walks over to the poor box. He pauses for a moment and then starts to leave. The priest, who was watching him, quickly runs over to him and says "I saw that, you didn't put any money in the poor box!" The man replies "Yeah, but I rubbed the $50 on the box, and that's the same as putting it in!"

Bill Clinton, Bill Gates, and Al Gore were in an airplane that crashed. They're up in heaven, and God's sitting on the great white throne. God addresses Al first. "Al, what do you believe in?" Al replies, "Well, I believe that the combustion engine is evil and that we need to save the world from CFCs and that if any more freon is used, the whole earth will become a greenhouse and we'll all die." God thinks for a second and says- "Okay, I can live with that. Come and sit at my left." God then addresses Bill Clinton. "Bill, what do you believe in?" Bill Clinton replies, "Well, I believe in power to the people. I think people should be able to make their own choices about things and that no one should ever be able to tell someone else what to do. I also believe in feeling people's pain." God thinks for a second and says "Okay, that sounds good. Come and sit at my right." God then addresses Bill Gates. "Bill Gates, what do you believe?" Bill Gates said, "I believe you're in my chair."

A priest and a minister walked into a bar. After sitting down, ordering, and some chit- chat the priest said, "Have you noticed there are no women in this bar?" He then realized the truth, "I think we're in a gay bar." A man approached and tried to flirt with the priest. The priest was dumbfounded, and didn't know what to do. The minister leaned over and whispered something in the man's ear. The man nodded and walked off. The relieved priest said, "Thanks. What did you tell him? "The minister replied, "I just told him we're on our honeymoon."

Bill Gates died in a car accident. He found himself in Purgatory being sized up by God…"Well, Bill, I'm really confused on this call. I'm not sure whether to send you to Heaven or Hell. After all, you enormously helped society by putting a computer in almost every home in the world and yet you created that ghastly Windows 95. I'm going to do something I've never done before. In your case, I'm going to let you decide where you want to go!" Bill replied, "Well, thanks, God. What's the difference between the two?" God said, "I'm willing to let you visit both places briefly if it will help you make a decision." "Fine, but where should I go first?" God said, "I'm going to leave that up to you." Bill said, "OK, then, let's try Hell first."

So Bill went to Hell. It was a beautiful, clean, sandy beach with clear waters. There were thousands of beautiful women running around, playing in the water, laughing and frolicking about. The sun was shining and the temperature was perfect. Bill was very pleased. "This is great!" he told God, "If this is Hell, I REALLY want to see Heaven!" "Fine," said God and off they went. Heaven was a high place in the clouds, with angels drifting about playing harps and singing. It was nice but not as enticing as Hell. Bill thought for a quick minute and rendered his decision. "Hmm, I think prefer Hell," he told God. "Fine," retorted God, "as you desire." So Bill Gates went to Hell.

Two weeks later, God decided to check up on the late billionaire to see how he was doing in Hell. When God arrived in Hell, he found Bill shackled to a wall, screaming amongst the hot flames in a dark cave. He was being burned and tortured by demons. "How's everything going, Bill?" God asked. Bill responded his voice full of anguish and disappointment, "This is awful, this is not what I expected. I can't believe this happened. What happened to that other place with the beaches and the beautiful women playing in the water?"

God replied, "That was the screen saver"

A man found a cocoon of a butterfly. One day a small opening appeared, he sat and watched the butterfly for several hours as it struggled to force its body through that little hole. Then it seemed to stop making any progress. It appeared as if it had gotten as far as it could and it could go no farther. Then the man decided to help the butterfly, so he took a pair of scissors and snipped off the remaining bit of the cocoon. The butterfly then emerged easily, but it had a swollen body and small, shriveled wings.

The man continued to watch the butterfly because he expected that, at any moment the wings would enlarge and expand to be able to support the body, which would contract in time. Neither happened! In fact, the butterfly spent the rest of his life crawling around with a swollen body and shriveled wings. It was never able to fly.

What the man in his kindness and haste did not understand was the process the butterfly had to go through. The restricting cocoon and the struggle required for the butterfly to get through the tiny opening were God's way of forcing fluid from the body of the butterfly into its wings so that it would be ready for flight once it achieved its freedom from the cocoon.

Sometimes struggles are exactly what we need in our life. If God allowed us to go through our life without obstacles, it would cripple us. We would not be as strong as what we could have been, and we could never fly. Have a nice day and struggle a little!

The Pope, Billy Graham, and Oral Roberts were in a three-way plane crash over the Atlantic Ocean. Tragically, they all died and went to the pearly gates together. "Oh, this is terrible," exclaims St. Peter, "I know you guys think we summoned you here, but this is just one of those coincidences that happen. St. Peter was fretting, "Since we weren't expecting you, your quarters just aren't ready. We can't take you in just yet and we can't send you back. "Then he got an idea. He picked up the phone, "Lucifer, this is Pete. Hey, I got these three guys up here. They're ours, but we weren't expecting them, and we gotta fix the place up for 'em. I was hoping you could put them up for a while. It'll only be a couple of days. I'll owe you one." Reluctantly, the Devil agreed.

BUT...two days later...

"Pete, this is Lucifer. Hey you gotta come get these three clowns. This Pope fellow is forgiving everybody, the Graham guy is saving everybody, and that Oral Roberts has raised enough money to buy air conditioning."

Too Many Children

Mary is a devout Catholic. She gets married and has 7 children. Eventually, her husband dies. She remarries two weeks later, and has 10 children by her next husband. Eventually, he dies. Soon after her second husband's death she dies. At the funeral, the priest looks skyward and says "At least they're finally together." A guy sitting in the front row says, "Excuse me father, but do you mean her and her first husband, or her and her second husband?"

The priest replies: "I mean her legs."

Entering Heaven

A Presbyterian, a Methodist, and a Baptist pastor and their wives were on a cruise. A tidal wave came up and swamped the ship; they all drowned, and next thing you know, they're standing before St. Peter.

First came the Presbyterian and his wife. St. Peter shook his head sadly. "I can't let you in. You loved money too much. You loved it so much, you even married a woman named Penny."

Then came the Methodist. "Sorry, can't let you in, either. You loved food too much. You loved to eat so much, you even married a woman named Candy!"

The Baptist turned to his wife and whispered nervously, "It doesn't look good, Fanny."

Why is my sister named "Cornflower"? Well, your father and I were in a cornfield, when we made her. And why is my other sister called "Moonchild"? We were watching the moon landing while she was conceived. Tell me, Torn Rubber, why are you so curious?

The mother went in and told her son: "We don't use that kind of language in this house. Now I want you to go to your room for two hours. When you come out, you can play with your train, but I want you to use nice language."

Two hours later, the son comes out of his bedroom and resumes playing with his train. Soon the train stopped, and the mother heard her son say, "All passengers who are disembarking the train, please remember to take your belongings with you. We thank you for riding with us today and hope your ride was a pleasant one. We hope you will ride with us again soon.

"For those of you who are just boarding, we ask that you stow all of your hand luggage under the seat. Remember that there is no smoking except in the club car. We hope you will have a pleasant and relaxing journey with us.

On a Trans-Atlantic flight, a plane passes through a severe storm. The turbulence is awful, and things go from bad to worse when one wing is struck by lightning. One woman in particular loses it. Screaming, she stands up in the front of the plane. "I'm too young to die!" she wails. Then she yells, "Well, if I'm going to die, I want my last minutes on earth to be memorable! I've had plenty of sex in my life, but no one has ever made me really feel like a woman! Well I've had it! Is there ANYONE on this plane who can make me feel like a WOMAN?"

For a moment there is silence. Everyone has forgotten their own peril, and they all stare, riveted, at the desperate woman in the front of the plane.

Then, a man stands up in the rear of the plane. "I can make you feel like a woman," he says. He's gorgeous. Tall, built, with long, flowing black hair and jet black eyes, he starts to walk slowly up the aisle, unbuttoning his shirt one button at a time. No one moves. The woman is breathing heavily in anticipation as the strange man approaches. He removes his shirt. Muscles ripple across his chest as he reaches her, and extends the arm holding his shirt to the trembling woman and whispers: "Iron this."

So the teacher thought of an activity. She said, "The first ones to answer correctly the questions I ask may leave early today."

Little Johnny said to himself, "Good, I'm smart and I want to get outta here."

The teacher asked, "Who said 'Four Score and Seven Years Ago?" Before Johnny could open his mouth, Susie said, "Abraham Lincoln?" The teacher said, "That's right, Susie. You may go." Johnny was mad that Susie had answered first. The teacher asked, "Who said 'I Have a Dream'?" Before Johnny could open his mouth, Mary said, "Martin Luther King!" The teacher said, "That's right, Mary. You may go." Johnny was even madder than before. Mary had answered first. The teacher asked, "Who said 'Ask not what your country can do for you'?" Before Johnny could open his mouth, Nancy piped, "John Kennedy!" The teacher said, "That's right, Nancy. You may go." Now Johnny was furious! Nancy had answered first. Then the teacher turned her back, and Johnny muttered, "I wish these bitches would keep their mouths shut!"

The teacher spun around. "WHO SAID THAT?"

Johnny said, "BILL CLINTON. CAN I GO NOW?"

A couple, both age 67, went to a sex therapists office. The doctor asked, "What can I do for you?" The man said, "Will you watch us have sexual intercourse?" The doctor looked puzzled, but agreed. When the couple finished, the doctor said, "There's nothing wrong with the way you have intercourse," and charged them $32. This happened several weeks in a row. The couple would make an appointment, have intercourse with no problems, pay the doctor, and then leave. Finally the doctor asked, "Just exactly what are you trying to find out?" The old man said, "We're not trying to find out anything. She's married and we can't go to her house. I'm married and we can't go to my house. The Holiday Inn charges $60. The Hilton charges $78. We do it here for $32, and I get $28 back from Medicare.

Three former kindergartners were trying to become accustomed to first grade. The biggest hurdle they faced was that the teacher insisted on no baby talk. "You need to use 'big people' words" she'd always remind them. She asked Wendy what she had done over the weekend. "I went to visit my Nana" "No, you went to visit your GRANDMOTHER. Use big people words!" She then asked Joey what he had done. "I took a ride on a choo-choo." he said. "No, you took a ride on a TRAIN, use big people words!" She then asked Eddie what he had done. "I read a book" he replied. "That's wonderful!" the teacher said. "What book did you read?" Eddie thought about it, then puffed out his chest with great pride and said. "Winnie the Shit."

The Three Country Amigos

Boudreaux, Fontenot & Thibodeaux had all been life-long buddies. One day, while fishing under the I-10 bridge in the Atchafalya Basin, Boudreaux made his confession. "We all been friend for tirty years and been through a lot. I've never told ya'll dis before because I didn't want to ruin our friendship, but I'm gay." Fontenot looked over at Thibodeaux and said, "We kind a figured dat out a while back, but wasn't gonna say nothin' because we didn't want to embarrass you."

Boudreaux thanked them for their understanding and continued: "The reason I'm tolling ya'll dis is cause I got da AIDS and I got six month to live. Ya'll da only family I got lef and I want ya'll to promise me that you won't let dem bury me. I'm scared of dem caskets and I want to be cremated. Then I want ya'll to throw my ashes from that bridge up der over this water, where we have spent so much time together." Fontenot & Thibodeaux wiped back a few tears, then agreed to do what their friend had asked. Sure enough, six months later Boudreaux died, and they were standing on the bridge with the ashes. Fontenot was about to throw them out, when Thibodeaux stopped him. "Wait, you gotta say somtin", he said. "I don't know what to say. I never was much about going to church," Fontenot admitted. Thibodeaux scratched his head. "Just say somtin…anyting. Make it rhyme."

Fontenot thought about it a while and started throwing the ashes out over the water. "Ashes to ashes, dust to dust, if you'd only liked pussy, you'd still be here wit us."

Europe in China Town

This guy is walking through Chinatown. He is fascinated with all the Chinese restaurants, Chinese shops, the Chinese signs and banners on the buildings. He is having the best time just walking and looking. He turns a corner and sees a building with a sign "Hans Olafsen's Laundry". "Hans Olaffsen?", he thinks. "How in the world does that fit in here?" He walks into the shop and sees an old Chinese gentleman sitting in the corner. The visitor asks, "How in the world did this place get a name like Hans Olaffsen's Laundry? The old man answers, "Is name of owner." The visitor asks, "Well, who in the heck is the owner?" "I am he," answers the old man. "You? How in the heck did you ever get a name like Hans Olaffsen?" The old man replies, "Many years ago when I come to this country, I was standing in line at Documentation Center. Man in front of me was big blonde Swede. Lady look at him and say 'What your name?' He say-Hans Olaffsen'. She look at me…'What your name?' I say, "Sam Ting."

Relationships

Do I look like...

A husband is at home watching a football game when his wife interrupts, "honey, could you fix the light in the hallway? It's been flickering for weeks now" he looks at her and says angrily. "Fix the light, now? Does it look like I have a GE logo printed on my forehead? I don't think so." "Well then, could you fix the fridge door? It won't close right." To which he replied, "fix the fridge door? Does it look like I have Westinghouse written on my forehead? I don't think so." "Fine," she says- "then you could at least fix the steps to the front door? They're about to break." "I'm not a damn carpenter and I don't want to fix steps," he says. "Does it look like I have Ace Hardware written on my forehead? I don't think so. I've had enough of you. I'm going to the bar!" So he goes to the bar and drinks for a couple hours. He starts to feel guilty about how he treated his wife, and decides to go home and help out.

As he walks into the house he notices the steps are already fixed. As he enters the house, he sees the hall light is working. As he goes to get a beer, he notices the fridge door is fixed. 'Honey, how'd all this get fixed?"

She said, "Well, when you left I sat outside and cried. Just then a nice young man asked me what was wrong, and I told him. He offered to do all the repairs, and all I had to do was either go to bed with him or bake a cake." He said, "So what kind of cake did you bake him?" She replied, "helloo…Do you see Betty Crocker written on my forehead?"

Hola Kasper

Gracias por los elogios, no creo merecer tanto pero de todos modos los acepto.lol. Yo no creo qu soy lo mejor que exista para ti, pero si creo que tus relaciones no eran muy buenas y no te tomabas el tiempo para encontrarlas. Ademas muchos de esos anos no sabias lo que querias. No se si eres sincero al proclamar tu amor por mi. Cuando estabas cerca de mi te sentia un poco frio, y no parecias tener todos estos sentimientos que ahora dices tener, y que tenias antes de conocernos en persona. Vamos a darles tiempo al tiempo, y veremos lo que pasa. Yo, como te he dicho antes te quiero y siempre he estado segura de mis sentimientos hacia ti. A mi edad estoy bien segura de lo que quiero. Pero eso no quiere decir que si lo nuestro no resulta me voy a morir.

Tu pareces ser bien sincero conmigo, por eso lo trato de hacer contigo. En lo unico que soy egoista es que me gustaria tenerte todo el tiempo conmigo, pero se que es imposible, por lo menos por ahora. Me conformo solo con oir tu voz. Just remember that I am here for you, for as long as you want me. Espero que tu papa se este recuperando, y pronto regrese a la casa. Te hablo manana. Love mvm.

In the hospital, The relatives gathered in the waiting room, where their family member lay gravely ill. Finally, the doctor came in looking tired and somber. "I'm afraid I am the bearer of bad news," he said as he surveyed the worried faces. "The only hope left for your loved one at this time is a brain transplant. It's an experimental procedure, semi-risky, and you will have to pay for the brain yourselves."

The family members sat silent as they absorbed the news. At length, someone asked, "Well, how much does a brain cost?" The doctor quickly responded, "$200 for a female brain, and $500 for a male brain." The moment turned awkward. Men in the room tried not to smile, avoiding eye contact with the women, but some actually smirked. A girl, unable to control her curiosity, blurted out the question everyone wanted to ask, "Why is the male brain so much more?"

The doctor smiled at her childish innocence and then to the entire group said, "It's a standard pricing procedure. We have to mark the female brains down, because they're used."

Infidelity

One Sunday morning Bill burst into the living room and said, "Dad! Mom! I have some great news for you! I am getting married to the most beautiful girl in town. She lives a block away and her name is Sue.

After dinner, Bill's dad took him aside. "Son, I have to talk with you. Your mother and I have been married 30 years. She's a wonderful wife but she has never offered much excitement in the bedroom, so I used to fool around with women a lot. Sue is actually your half-sister, and I'm afraid you can't marry her."

Bill was heart-broken. After eight months he eventually started dating girls again. A year later he came home and very proudly announced "Diane said yes! We're getting married in June."

Again his father insisted on another private conversation and broke the sad news. "Diane is your half-sister too, Bill. I'm awfully sorry about this."

Bill was furious! He finally decided to go to his mother with the news. "Dad has done so much harm. I guess I'm never going to get married," he complained. "Every time I fall in love, Dad tells me the girl is my half-sister."

His mother just shook her head. "Don't pay any attention to what he says, dear. He's not really your father."

A couple are getting ready to go to a costume party. The woman goes into the bedroom and emerges completely naked, except for a lemon hanging on a string from her vagina.

Her partner is shocked and amazed, and questions her about it. She answers that this is her costume, and this is the way she's going to the party.

So the guy goes into the bedroom and emerges a few minutes later also completely naked, but with a potato hanging on a string from his penis.

He looks at her and replies-"If you can go as a sour-puss, I can go as a dick-tater."

A husband, tired of his wife asking him how she looks, buys her a full-length mirror. This does little to help, as now she just stands in front of the mirror, looking at herself, asking him how she looks.

One day, fresh out of the shower, she is yet again in front of the mirror, now complaining that her breasts are too small. Uncharacteristically, the husband comes up with a suggestion. "If you want your breasts to grow, then every day take a piece of toilet paper, and rub it between your breasts for a few seconds." Willing to try anything, the wife fetches a piece of toilet paper, and stands in front of the mirror, rubbing it between her breasts. "How long will this take?" she asks. "They'll grow larger over a period of years," he replies. The wife stops.

"Why do you think rubbing a piece of toilet paper between my breasts everyday will make my breasts grow over the years?" She asks. The husband shrugs. "Why not, it worked for your ass, didn't it?"

Premature ejaculation

A man was having problems with premature ejaculation so he decided to go to the doctor. He asked the doctor what could he do to cure his problem. In response the doctor said, "When you feel like you are getting ready to ejaculate try startling yourself".

That same day the man went to the store and bought himself a starter pistol. All excited to try this suggestion out he runs home to his wife. At home his wife is in bed, naked and waiting on her husband. As the two begin, they find themselves in the '69' position. The man, moments later, feels the sudden urge to come and fires the starter pistol.

The next day, the man went back to the doctor. The doctor asked, "How did it go?" The man answered, "Not that well. When I fired the pistol my wife shit on my face and bit 3 inches off my penis!

Little Johnny walks into the kitchen where his mom is fixing dinner. "Mom, I got a splinter in my finger. Can I have a glass of cider?" asks Little Johnny. "Are you sure you don't want me to pull it out?" "No thanks, just the cider." "Well, sure," responds Johnny's mother and gives her boy the cider and watches him trot contentedly off. About 15 minutes later Little Johnny returns to the kitchen and again asks his mother for a glass of cider. His mother, not wanting to question his reasoning, gives him another glass and again watches him leave happy. Ten minutes later

Little Johnny returns and once again asks for a glass of cider. The mother complies with Johnny's wishes again, but her curiosity has been peaked to the point where she can't resist knowing why any longer. She wanders into the family room and Johnny sitting in front of the TV with his finger in the glass. "Why on earth do you have your finger in that glass?" asks Johnny's mother questioningly. "Well, said Little Johnny, I heard Sis on the phone say that whenever she had a prick in her hand, she couldn't wait to get it in cider."

An older couple was having problems remembering things. They decided to go to their doctor to get checked out to make sure nothing was wrong with them. When they arrived at the doctor's, they explained to the doctor about the problems they were having with their memory. After checking the couple out, the doctor tells them that they were physically okay but might want to start writing things down and make notes to help them remember things. The couple thanked the doctor and left.

Later that night while watching TV, the old man got up from his chair and his wife asked, "Where are you going?" He replies, "To the kitchen." She asks, "Will you get me a bowl of ice cream?" He replies, "Sure." She then asks him, "Don't you think you should write it down so you can remember it?" He says, "No, I can remember that." She then says, "Well I also would like some strawberries on top. You had better write that down cause I know you'll forget that." He says, "I can remember that, you want a bowl of ice cream with strawberries." She replies, "Well I also would like whip cream on top. I know you will forget that so you better write it down." With irritation in his voice, he says, "I don't need to write that down I can remember that." He then fumes into the kitchen.

After about 20 minutes he returns from the kitchen and hands her a plate of bacon and eggs. She stares at the plate for a moment and says, "You forgot my toast."

Know Your Spouse

The Bargain

As US tourists in Israel, a man and his wife were sitting outside a Bethlehem souvenir shop, waiting for fellow tourists. An Arab salesman approached them carrying belts. After an impassioned sales talk yielded no results, the Arab asked where they were from. "America," the husband replied. Looking at the American mans wife with her dark hair and olive skin, the Arab responded. "She's not from the States." "Yes I am" said the wife. He looked at her and asked. "Is he your husband?" "Yes." she replied. Turning to the husband, he offered..."I'll give you 100 camels for her." The husband looked stunned, and there was a long silence. Finally he replied, "she's not for sale."

After the salesman left, the somewhat indignant wife asked her husband what took him so long to answer, to which the husband replied, "I was trying to figure out how to get 100 camels back home."

Healthy Eating, Good Payoff?

This 85 year-old couple, having been married almost 60 years, had died in a car crash. They had been in good health the last ten years mainly due to her interest in health food and exercise.

When they reached the pearly gates, St. Peter took them to their mansion, which was decked out with a beautiful kitchen and master bath suite and Jacuzzi. As they "oohed and aahed" the old man asked St. Peter how much all this was going to cost. "It's free," St. Peter replied, "this is Heaven." Next they went out back to survey the championship golf course that the home backed up to. They would have golfing privileges everyday and each week the course changed to a new one representing the greatest golf courses on earth. The old man asked, "What are the green fees?" St. Peter's reply, "This is heaven, you play for free." Next they went to the clubhouse and saw the lavish buffet lunch with the cuisines of the world laid out. "How much does it cost to eat?" asked the old man. "Don't you understand yet? This is heaven, it's free!" St. Peter replied with some exasperation.

"Well, where are the low fat and low cholesterol tables?" the old man asked timidly. St. Peter lectured, "That's the best part. You can eat as much as you like of whatever you like and you never get fat and you never get sick. This is Heaven."

With that the old man went into a fit of anger, throwing down his hat and stomping on it, shrieking wildly. St. Peter and the old man's wife both tried to calm him down, asking him what was wrong. The old man looked at his wife and said, "It's all your fault! It's all your fault!"

His wife said, "My fault? What are you talking about?" He yelled, "If it weren't for your stupid bran muffins, I could have been here ten years ago!"

Infidelity amongst friends rings. Since it is the woman's house, she picks up the receiver. Her lover looks over at her and listens, only hearing her side of the conversation…

(She is speaking in a cheery voice)"Hello? Oh, hi. I'm so glad that you called. Really? That's wonderful. I am so happy for you. That sounds terrific, great, thanks! Okay. Bye bye."

She hangs up the telephone and her lover asks, "Who was that?"

"Oh" she replies, "that was my husband telling me all about the wonderful time he's having on his fishing trip with you."

Two young lovers go up to the mountains for a romantic winter vacation. When they get there, the guy goes out to chop some wood. When he gets back, he says, "Honey, my hands are freezing!" She says, "Well put them here between my legs and that will warm them up."

After lunch he goes back out to chop some more wood and comes back and says again, "Man! My hands are really freezing!" She says again, "Well put them here between my legs and warm them up." He does, and again that warms him up.

After dinner, he goes out one more time to chop wood for the night. When he returns, he again says, "Honey, my hands are really freezing!" She looks at him and says, "For crying out loud, don't your ears ever get cold?"

Shave and a Hair Cut

This guy sticks his head into a barbershop and asks, "How long before I can get a haircut?" The barber looks around the shop and says, "About 2 hours." The guy leaves.

A few days later the same guy sticks his head in the door and asks, "How long before I can get a haircut?" The barber looks around at shop full of customers and says, "About 2 hours." The guy leaves.

A week later the same guy sticks his head in the shop and asks, "How long before I can get a haircut?" The barber looks around the shop and says, "About an hour and a half." The guy leaves. The barber looks over at a friend in the shop and says, "Hey, Bill, follow that guy and see where he goes."

In a little while, Bill comes back into the shop and he can't stop laughing hysterically.

The barber asks, "Bill, where did he go when he left here?" Bill looked up through tear-stained eyes and said, "To your house."

Keeping Warm in the Wind

An Amish woman and her daughter were riding in an open buggy one cold, blustery January day. The daughter said to the mother, "My hands are freezing cold."

The mother replied, "Put your hands between your legs. The body heat will warm them up." So the daughter did, and her hands warmed up. The next day, the daughter was riding in the buggy with her boyfriend. The boyfriend said, "My hands are freezing cold."

The daughter said, "Put them between my legs, they'll warm up." The next day, the boyfriend is driving in the buggy with the daughter, he said, "My nose is freezing cold."

The daughter said, "Put it between my legs. It will warm up." He did, and his nose warmed up.

The next day, the boyfriend is driving again with the daughter and he said, "My penis is frozen solid." "Put it between my legs, I'll warm it up."

The next day, the daughter is driving in the buggy with her mother, and she says to her mother, "Have you ever heard of a penis?" The slightly concerned mother says, "Sure, why do you ask?"

The daughter says, "Well, they make one hell of a mess when they thaw out.

The father replies, "Well that for when you're married. You have one for each month of the year.

Women and their Love for cats

Cats are independent, they don't listen, they don't come in when you call, they like to stay out all night, and when they're home they like to be left alone and sleep. And women HATE men for exactly the same reasons!

Senile Honeymooner

Because her new husband is SO old, a woman decides that on their wedding night after they consummate their marriage, that they should have separate suites to sleep in so that the old fellow not over exert himself.

After the festivities she prepares herself for bed and for the knock on the door she is expecting—sure enough the knock comes and there is her old groom ready for action—they unite in conjugal union and all goes well whereupon he takes his leave of her. She prepares to go to sleep for the night.

After a few minutes there's a knock on the door and there the old guy is again ready for more action—somewhat surprised she consents to further coupling which is again successful after which the octogenarian bids her a fond good night and leaves.

She is certainly ready for slumber at this point and is close to sleep for the second time when there is another knock at the door and there he is again fresh as a 25 year-old and ready for more—once again they do the horizontal boogie.

As they are laying in afterglow the young bride says to him "I am really impressed that a guy your age has enough juice to go for it three times. I've been with guys less than half your age who were only good for one"

The old guy looks puzzled and turns to her and says—"Oh, have I already been here tonight?"

A couple was invited to a swanky masked Halloween Party. She got a terrible headache and told her husband to go to the party alone. He, being a devoted husband, protested, but she argued and said she was going to take some aspirin and go to bed, and there was no need of his good time being spoiled by not going. So he took his costume and away he went. The wife, after sleeping soundly for one hour, awakened without pain, and as it was still early, she decided to go to the party. In as much as her husband did not know what her costume was, she thought she would have some fun by watching her husband to see how he acted when she was not with him.

She joined the party and soon spotted her husband cavorting around on the dance floor, dancing with every nice chick he could, and copping a little feel here and a little kiss there. His wife sidled up to him and being rather seductive herself, he left his partner high and dry and devoted his time to the new stuff that had just arrived. She was obviously prepared to let him go as far as he wished, naturally since he was her husband. Finally he whispered a little proposition in her ear and she agreed, so off they went to one of the cars and had a little bang. Just before unmasking at midnight, she slipped away and went home and put the costume away and got into bed, wondering what kind of explanation he would make for his behavior. She was sitting up reading when he came in and asked what kind of a time he had. He said, "Oh, the same old thing. You know I never have a good time when you're not there."

Then she asked, "Did you dance much?" He replied, "I'll tell you, I never even danced one dance. When I got there I met Pete, Bill Brown and some other guys, so we went into the den and played poker all evening. But I'll tell you…the guy I loaned my costume to sure had a real good time…"

A lady is looking to spice up her marriage, so she buys a pair of crotchless panties. She puts them on and waits on the bed for her husband to come home. Her husband walks into the room, and she says "Hey baby want some of this?" He says hell no, look what it did to your panties.

Benefits of being female

We got off the Titanic first.

We can scare male bosses with mysterious gynecological disorder excuses.

We never ejaculate prematurely.

We get to flirt with systems support men who always return our calls, and are nice to us when we blow up our computers.

When we buy a vibrator it is glamorous. When men buy a blow up doll it's pathetic.

Our boyfriend's clothes make us look elfin and gorgeous; guys look like complete idiots in ours.

We can be groupies. Male groupies are stalkers.

We can cry and get off speeding fines.

We've never lusted after a cartoon character or the central figure in a computer game.

Taxis stop for us.

Men die earlier, so we get to cash in on the life insurance.

We don't look like a frog in a blender when dancing.

Free drinks. Free dinners. Free movie (you get the point).

We can hug our friends without wondering if she thinks we're gay.

We can hug our friends without wondering if WE'RE gay.

We know the Truth about whether size matters.

New lipstick gives us a whole new lease on life.

If we have sex with someone and don't call them the next day, we're not the devil.

Condoms make no significant difference in our enjoyment of sex.

If we're not making enough money we can blame the glass ceiling.

It's possible to live our whole lives without ever taking a group shower.

No fashion faux pas we make could rival The Speedo.

We don't have to fart to amuse ourselves.

If we cheat on our spouse, people assume it's because we're being emotionally neglected.

WE never have to wonder if his orgasm was real.

If we forget to shave, no one has to know.

We can congratulate our teammate without ever touching her ass.

If we have a zit, we know how to conceal it.

We never have to reach down every so often to make sure our privates are still there.

If we're dumb, some people will still find it cute.

We don't have to memorize Caddy shack or Fletch to fit in.

We have the ability to dress ourselves.

We have an excuse to be a total bitch at least once a month.

We can talk to people of the opposite sex without having to picture them naked.

If we marry someone 20 years younger, we're aware that we look like an idiot.

Our friends won't think we're weird if we ask whether there's spinach in our teeth.

There are times when chocolate really can solve all your problems. (I can relate)

Gay waiters (or flight attendants) don't make us uncomfortable.

We'll never regret piercing our ears.

We can fully assess a person just by looking at their shoes.

We'll never discover we've been duped by a Wonder-bra.

We know which glass was ours by the lipstick mark.

Essential Elements

Element: WOMAN

Symbol: WO

Atomic Weight: 120 +/-

Physical Properties: Generally round in form. Boils at nothing and may freeze at any time. Melts whenever treated properly. Very bitter if not used well.

Chemical Properties: Very active. Possesses strong affinity to gold, silver, platinum and precious stones. Violent when left alone. Is able to absorb great amount of exotic food. Turns slightly green when placed beside a better specimen. Ages rapidly.

Usage: Highly ornamental. Is an extremely good catalyst for disintegration of wealth, probably the most powerful income reducing agent known.

Caution: Highly explosive in inexperienced hands.

Element: MAN

Symbol: XY

Atomic Weight: 180 +/- 100

Physical Properties: Solid at room temperature but easily gets bent out of shape. Fairly dense and sometimes flaky. Difficult to find a pure sample.

Due to rust, aging samples are unable to conduct electricity as easily as young, fresh samples.

Chemical Properties: Attempt to bond with WO any chance it can get. Also, tends to form strong bonds with itself. Becomes explosive when mixed with Kd (element Kid) for prolonged period of time. Pretty basic. Neutralize by saturating with alcohol. Has a tendency to create with inanimate objects such as boats, cars and airplanes.

Usage: None really, except methane production. Good samples are able to produce large quantities on command.

Caution: In the absence of WO, this element rapidly decomposes and begins to smell.

After marrying a young beautiful girl, a ninety-year old man told his doctor that they were expecting a child. "Let me tell you a story," said the doctor. "There was an absent minded fellow who went hunting one day, and instead of taking a gun, brought his umbrella. Before he realized his error, a bear charged him. He aimed his umbrella at the bear, shot and killed him on the spot." "That's impossible!", the geezer exclaimed. "Somebody else must have shot that bear!" "Exactly!", replied the doctor.

The bragging golfers

Four gents go out to play golf one day. One guy gets detained in the clubhouse, so the other 3 head for the first tee and begin bragging about their kids. "My son", says one, "has made quite a name for himself in the building industry. He began as a carpenter, but now owns his own construction and design firm. He's so successful, in fact last year he was able to give a good friend a brand new home as a gift!"

The second man, not to be outdone, states "My son began his career as a car salesman, but now owns a multi-line dealership. He's so successful, in fact, in the last 6 months he gave a friend two brand new cars as a gift." The third man chimes in. "My son worked his way up through a stock brokerage and in the last few weeks gave a good friend a large stock portfolio as a gift."

The fourth guy finally arrives at the first tee and one of the men tells him they have been discussing their kids and asks what kind of work his son does. "To tell the truth, I'm not very pleased with how my son has turned out. For 15 years he's been a hairdresser and I've recently discovered he's a homosexual. But on the bright side, he must be very good at what he does because his last 3 boyfriends have given him a brand new house, two cars, and a big pile of stock certificates."

Friends without faces

We sit and we type, and we stare at our screens
We all have to wonder, what this possibly means.
With our mouse we roam, through the rooms in a maze
Looking for something or someone, as we sit in a daze.
We chat with each other, we type all our woes.
Small groups we do form, and gang up on our foes.
We wait for somebody, to type out our name
We want recognition, but it is always the same.
We give kisses and hugs, and sometimes flirt
At nights we chat deeply, and reveal why we hurt.
We do form friendships—but—why we don't know
But some of these friendships will flourish and grow.

Why is it on screen, we can be so bold
Telling our secrets, that have never been told.
Why is it we share, the thoughts in our mind
With those we can't see, as though we were blind.
The answer is simple, it is as clear as a bell.
We all have our problems, and need someone to tell.
We can't tell real people, but tell someone we must
So we turn to the pewter, and to those we can trust.
Even though it is crazy, the truth still remains
They are Friends Without Faces, and odd little names.
Take this week to have fun and be sure to let those "friends without faces" know how much you appreciate them.

We have to be leery of our "online friends";
The reason for this comes from deep down within.
Throughout our lives, from birth to the grave,
Our impressions of others come from how they behave.
We can touch them, feel them, see them, and hear,
The truth of their words through a multi-sensed ear
We can tell by their eyes, or their language, or look,
If their words are sincere or out of a book.
But online the words we read on the screen,
We interpret to say what we want them to mean.
Our innermost feelings are brought forth there,
From the words that appear on the screen where we stare
Does "I love you" from them mean the same as from me?
Or am I only a game to them and should I then flee?
Are they laughing, or joking, or smirking, or worse?
While I pour out my heart in short little spurts?
And that night on the phone, when we spoke those same words,
Did they hang up and say "Good God, what a nerd!"
In all other places, we choose friends with care.
Online, it is sad, we must truly beware.
To all of you whom I've poured out my heart…
Remember be gentle, even though far apart.
Because "I love you" from me comes from deep down inside,
Where trust and hope and my true feelings hide.
And no matter the image I show to the rest,
My online friends know the real me the best.

While with you I share my fears and my dreams,
And I pray when we meet I am all that I seem

An explorer in the deepest Amazon suddenly finds himself surrounded by a bloodthirsty group of natives. Upon surveying the situation, he says quietly to himself, "I'm screwed."

There is a ray of light from the sky above and a voice booms out: "No, you are NOT screwed. Pick up that stone at your feet and bash in the head of the chief standing in front of you." So the explorer picks up the stone and proceeds to bash the life out of the chief. He is breathing heavily while standing above the lifeless body. Surrounding him are 100 native warriors with a look of shock on their faces.

The voice booms out again: "Okay...NOW you're screwed."

Two guys are playing golf. The women in front of them are really taking their time and are slowing the men down. So one man says to his friend, "I'm gonna go ask those ladies if we can play through." He starts walking toward them, but about halfway there, he turns around. When he gets back, his friend asks what happened. He replies, "One of those women is my wife, and the other is my mistress. Why don't you go talk to them?" So the second man starts to walk over. He gets halfway there and turns around. When he gets back, his friend asks, "Now what happened?" To this he replies, "It's a small world. "

A police officer, though scheduled for all-night duty at the station, was relieved of duty early and arrived home four hours ahead of schedule, at 2 AM. Not wanting to wake his wife, he undressed in the dark, crept into the bedroom and started to climb into bed. She sleepily sat up and said,

"Mike, dearest, would you go down to the all-night drug store on the next block and get me some aspirin? I've got a splitting headache." "Certainly, honey," he said, and feeling his way across the room, he got dressed and walked over to the drug store. As he arrived, the pharmacist looked up in surprise, "Say," said the druggist, "aren't you Officer Fenwick of the 8th District?" "Yes, I am," said the officer. "Well, then, what in the world are you doing in the Fire Chief's uniform?"

A man was driving home late one afternoon, he was driving above the speed limit. He notices a police car with its red lights on in his rear view mirror. He thinks, "I can outrun this guy!" so he floors it & the race is on. The cars are racing down the highway—60, 70, 80, 90 miles an hour. Finally, as his speedometer passes 100, the guy figures, "What the heck…" & gives up. He pulls over to the curb. The police officer gets out of his cruiser & approaches the car. He leans down & says, "Listen Mister, I've had a really lousy day, & I just want to go home. Give me a good excuse and I'll let you go." The man thought for a moment and said… "Three weeks ago, my wife ran off with a police officer. When I saw your cruiser in my rear view mirror, I thought you were trying to give her back to me!"

Bill and Marla had a small apartment in the city. They decided that the only way to pull off a Sunday afternoon quickie with their ten-year-old son in the apartment was to send him out on the balcony and order him to report on all the neighborhood activities.

To a young boy, they thought, spying would be a lot of fun and would distract him for an hour or so. The boy began his commentary as his parents put their plan into operation. "There's a car being towed from the parking lot," he said. "An ambulance just drove by." A few moments passed. "Looks like the Anderson's have company," he called out, "Matt is riding a new bike and the Coopers are having sex."

Mom and Dad shot up in bed. "How do you know that?" the startled father asked. "Their kid is standing out on the balcony, too."

In honor of all the sex capades happening in Washington, we thought this joke might be appropriate to show that throughout history some things never change.

King Arthur was getting ready to go on a Quest. He was worried about leaving his beautiful Queen Guinevere alone with all those lonely knights of the Round Table. So he went to his famous wizard, Merlin, for some advice. After explaining his predicament to Merlin, the wizard looked thoughtful and said to come back in a week and he'd see if he could come up with something. A week later King Arthur was back in Merlin's laboratory where the good wizard was showing him his latest invention. It was a chastity belt…except it had a rather large hole in the most obvious place.

"This is no good, Merlin!" the king exclaimed, "Look at this opening. How is this supposed to protect m'lady, the Queen?" "Ah, sire, just observe." said Merlin as he searched his cluttered workbench until he found what he was looking for. He then selected his most worn out wand, one that he was going to discard anyway. He then inserted it in the gaping aperture of the chastity belt whereupon a small guillotine blade came down and cut it neatly in two.

"Merlin, you are a genius!" said the grateful monarch, "Now I can leave knowing that my queen is fully protected." After putting Guinevere in the device, King Arthur then set out upon his Quest.

Several years passed until he returned to Camelot. Immediately he assembled all his knights in the courtyard and had them drop their trousers for an informal 'short arm' inspection. Sure enough! Each and every one of them was either amputated or damaged in some way. All of them except Sir Galahadhis.

"Sir Galahadhis," exclaimed King Arthur, "The one and only true knight! Only you among all the nobles have been true to me. What is it in my power to grant you? Name it and it is yours!" But Sir Galahadhis was speechless.

Gender Comparisons

NICKNAMES:

If Emma, Suzanne, Debra and Michelle go out for lunch, they will call each other Emma, Suzanne, Debra and Michelle.

If Mike, Phil, Rob and Jack go out for a drink, they will affectionately refer to each other as Fat Boy, Godzilla, Peanut-Head and Useless.

EATING OUT:

When the bill arrives, Mike, Phil, Rob and Jack will each throw in $20, even though it's only for $22.50. None of them will have anything and none will want change back.

When the girls get their bill, out come the pocket calculators.

MONEY:

A man will pay $2 for a $1 item he really wants.

A woman will pay $1 for a $2 item that she doesn't really want.

BATHROOMS:

A man has five items in his bathroom-a toothbrush, shaving cream, razor, a bar of soap, and a towel from the Holiday Inn.

The average number of items in the typical woman's bathroom is 437. A man would not be able to identify most of these items.

ARGUMENTS:

A woman has the last word in any argument.

Anything a man says after that is the beginning of a new argument.

FUTURE:

A woman worries about the future until she gets a husband.

A man never worries about the future until he gets a wife.

SUCCESS:

A successful man is one who makes more money than his wife can spend.

A successful woman is one who can find such a man.

MARRIAGE:

A man marries a woman expecting that she won't change and she does.

A woman marries a man expecting he will change, but he doesn't.

DRESSING UP:

A woman will dress up to go shopping, water the plants, empty the garbage, answer the phone, read a book, get the mail.

A man will dress up for weddings and funerals.

NATURAL:

Men wake up as good-looking (?) as they went to bed.

Women somehow don't.

OFFSPRING:

Ah, children! A woman knows all about her children. She knows about dentist appointments and romances, best friends and favorite foods and secret fears and hopes and dreams.

A man is vaguely aware of some short people living in the house.

When women hold off from marrying men, we call it independence.
When men hold off from marrying women, we call it fear of commitment.

4. I can get where I want to—north, south, east or west
5. I don't get wasted after only 2 beers, and when I do drink I don't end up in tears
6. I won't spend hours deciding what to wear I spend 5 minutes max fixing my hair
7. And I don't go around checking my reflection in everything shiny from every direction
8. I don't whine in public and make us leave early (Jessica D. S., you know who J)
9. I'm glad I'm a man, I'm so glad I could sing
10. I don't have to sit around waiting for that ring

11. I don't gossip about friends or stab them in the back
12. I don't carry our differences into the sack
13. I'll never go psycho and threaten to kill you or think every guy out there's trying to steal you
14. I'm rational, reasonable, and logical too
15. I know what the time is and I know what to do
16. And I honestly think it's a privilege for me to have these two balls and stand when I pee
17. I live to watch sports and play all sorts of ball (some exceptions, me!)
18. It's more fun than dealing with women after all (speak for yourself!)
19. I won't cry if you say it's not going to work
20. I won't remain bitter and call you a jerk (Jessica, Quintas name plate on cubi!)
21. Feel free to use me for immediate pleasure
22. I won't assume it's permanent by any measure
23. Yes, I'm so very glad I'm a man, you see
24. I'm glad I'm not capable of child delivery (EXTREMELY true)
25. I don't get all bitchy every 28 days
26. I'm glad that my gender gets me a much bigger raise (sorry ladies)
27. I'm a man by chance and I'm thankful it's true
28. I'm so glad I'm a man and not a woman like you!

And now it's time for a rebuttal-

I'm glad I'm a woman

1. I'm glad I'm a woman, yes I am, yes I am
2. I don't live off of Budweiser, Beer Nuts and Spam
3. I don't brag to my buddies about my erections
4. I won't drive to Hell before I ask for directions
5. I don't get wasted at parties, and act like a clown
6. And I know how to put that damned toilet seat down!
7. I won't grab your hooters, I won't pinch your butt
8. My belt buckle's not hidden beneath my beer gut
9. And I don't go around "re-adjusting" my crotch, or yell like Tarzan when my headboard gets a notch
10. I don't belch in public I don't scratch my behind
11. I'm a woman you see-I'm just not that kind!
12. I'm glad I'm a woman, I'm so glad I could sing
13. I don't have body hair like shag carpeting
14. It doesn't grow from my ears or cover my back
15. When I lean over you can't see 3 inches of crack
16. And what's on my head doesn't leave with my comb
17. I'll never buy a toupee to cover my dome
18. Or have a few hairs pulled from over the side
19. I'm a woman, you know-I've got far too much pride!
20. And I honestly think its a privilege for me, to have these two boobs and squat when I pee
21. I don't live to play golf and shoot basketball (neither do I)
22. I don't swagger and spit like a Neanderthal

23. I won't tell you my wife just does not understand, or stick my hand in my pocket to hide that gold band
24. Or tell you a story to make you sigh and weep, then screw you, roll over and fall sound asleep!
25. Yes, I'm so very glad I'm a woman, you see
26. Forget all about that old penis envy
27. I don't long for male bonding, I don't cruise for chicks
28. Join the Hair Club For Men, or think with my dick
29. I'm a woman by chance and I'm thankful, it's true
30. I'm so glad I'm a woman and not a man like you!

What is the one thing that all men at singles bars have in common?

They're married.

Man says to God: "God, why did you make woman so beautiful?"

God says: "So you would love her."

"But God," the man says, "why did you make her so dumb?"

God says: "So she would love you."

An African American husband and wife were going to a Halloween party in a couple of days. The husband asks his wife to go to the store & get costumes for them to wear. When he comes home that night, he goes to the bedroom where there laid out on the bed was a superman costume. The husband yells at his wife, "What are you doing? Have you ever heard of a black superman! Take this back and get me something else I can wear."

The next day, the wife not too happy, takes it back and returns it. The husband comes home from work once more and there laid out on the bed was a Batman costume. He again yells at his wife, "What are you doing? Have you ever heard of a black Batman? Take this back and get me something I can wear to the costume party"

By this time, the wife is irate, so the next morning, she goes shopping. When the husband comes home again from work, there laid out on the bed are three items.

One is 3 white buttons, the other is a white belt, and the third item is a 2 x 4 of wood. The husband yells at the wife, "What the hell are these for?"

The wife yells back…."You can take your clothes off and take the 3 white buttons and put them on the front of you and go as a domino. If you don't like that one, you can take the white belt and put it on and go as an Oreo cookie. If you don't like that one, you can stick the 2 x 4 up your ass and go as a fudge-sickle."

A guy was invited to some long time friends' home for dinner. His buddy preceded every request to his wife by endearing terms, calling her Honey, My Love, Darling, Sweetheart, Pumpkin, etc. He was impressed since the couple had been married almost 70 years.

While the wife was off in the kitchen he said to his buddy, "I think it's wonderful that after all the years you've been married, you still call your wife those pet names."

His buddy hung his head. "To tell you the truth, I forgot her name about ten years ago."

Saturday morning…Bob's just about to set off on a round of golf when he realizes that he forgot to tell his wife that the guy who fixes the washing machine is coming around at noon.

So Bob heads back to the clubhouse and phones home. "Hello?" Says a little girl's voice. "Hi, honey, it's Daddy," Says Bob. "Is Mummy near the phone?" "No, Daddy. She's upstairs in the bedroom with uncle Frank." After a brief pause, Bob says, "But you haven't got an Uncle Frank, honey!" "Yes, I do, and he's upstairs in the bedroom with Mummy!" "Okay, then. Here's what I want you to do.

Put down the phone, run upstairs and knock on the bedroom door and shout in to Mummy and uncle Frank that my car's just pulled up outside the house." "Okay, Daddy!"

A few minutes later, the little girl comes back to the phone. "Well, I did what you said, Daddy." "And what happened?" "Well, Mummy jumped out of bed with no clothes on and ran around screaming, then she tripped over the rug and went out the front window and now she's all dead." "Oh my god...And what about uncle Frank?" "He jumped out of bed with no clothes on too. He was all scared and he jumped out the back window into the swimming pool, but he must have forgot that last week you took out all the water to clean it, so he hit the bottom of the swimming pool and now he's dead too."

There is a long pause, then Bob says, "Swimming pool? Is this 854-7039?"

Lottery Winnings

A man gets home, runs into the house, slams the door and shouts, "Honey, pack your bags, I won the lottery". The wife says "wow!" That's great! should I pack for the ocean or should I pack for the mountains?

He says "I don't care, just pack and get the fuck out!"

The husband

So here I sit, in all my glory...Lend me an ear, and I'll tell you story...Once had a wife—she was such a dear, then came AOL, and it all disappeared!

Now there she sits, for hours on end…don't care where I'm going, don't care where I've been. It could be two, or it could be nine…she really doesn't care, long as she's online.

She gets out of work and rushes home, she comes in screaming at me, "Get off the phone!" Where the hell's my hug? Where is my kiss? But she's at the computer—that's all she missed! Talking to buddies, checking the mail, all her priorities—I'm in cyber Hell!

My stomach's growling—it's so unfair! No clean dishes and I'm out of underwear! Drink me a beer, stare at the walls I'll pick at my teeth while I'm scratching my balls, farting and burping all while I pee. Oh when will she get of so she could be with ME!

Ouch!

Little Johnny sees his Daddy's car pass the playground and go into the woods. Curious, he follows the car and sees Daddy and Aunt Jane in a "Passionate Embrace". Little Johnny finds this so exciting and can barely contain himself as he runs home and starts to tell his mother excitedly, "MOMMY, MOMMY, I WAS AT THE PLAYGROUND AND DADDY AND…."

Mommy tells him to slow down. She wants to hear the story. So Little Johnny tells her. "I was at the playground and I saw Daddy's car go into the woods with Aunt Jane. I went back to look and he was giving Aunt Jane a big kiss, then he helped her take off her shirt, then Aunt Jane helped Daddy take his pants off, then Aunt Jane laid down on the seat, then Daddy…."

At this point, Mommy cut him off and said, "Johnny, this is such an interesting story, suppose you save the rest of it for supper time. I want to see the look on Daddy's face when you tell it tonight."

At the dinner table, Mommy asks Little Johnny to tell his story. Johnny starts his story, describing the car going into the woods, the undressing, laying down on the seat, and "…then Daddy and Aunt Jane did that same thing Mommy and Uncle Bill used to do when Daddy was in the Navy."

A husband and wife are traveling by car from Key West to Boston. After almost twenty-four hours on the road, they're too tired to continue, and they decide to stop for a rest. They stop at a nice hotel and take a room, but they only plan to sleep for four hours and then get back on the road.

When they check out four hours later, the desk clerk hands them a bill for $350. The man explodes and demands to know why the charge is so high. He tells the clerk although it's a nice hotel, the rooms certainly aren't worth $350. When the clerk tells him $350 is the standard rate, the man insists on speaking to the manager. The manager listens to the man and then explains the hotel has an Olympic-sized pool and a huge conference center that were available for the husband and wife to use. He also explains they could have taken in one of the shows for which the hotel is famous. "The best entertainers from New York, Hollywood and Las Vegas perform here," explains the manager.

No matter what facility the manager mentions, the man replies, "But we didn't use it!"

The manager is unmoved and eventually the man gives up and agrees to pay. He writes a check and gives it to the manager. The manager is surprised when he looks at the check. "But sir," he says, "this check is only made out for $100."

"That's right," says the man. "I charged you $250 for sleeping with my wife."

"But I didn't!" exclaims the manager. "Well," the man replies, "she was here, and you could have."

Potentially vs. Realistically

A young boy went up to his father and asked, "What is the difference between "potentially' and 'realistically?"

The father answered, "Go ask your mother if she would sleep with Robert Redford for a million dollars. Also, ask your sister if she would sleep with Brad Pitt for a million dollars. Come back and tell me what you have learned."

So the boy went to his mother and said, "Would you sleep with Robert Redford for a million dollars?" The mother replied, "Of course I would! I wouldn't pass up an opportunity like that."

The boy then went to his sister and said," Would you sleep with Brad Pitt for a million dollars?" The girl replied, "Oh my God! I would just love to do that! I would be nuts to pass up that opportunity!"

The boy then thought about it for two or three days and went back to his dad. His father asked him, "Did you find out the difference between potential and realistic?"

The boy replied, "Yes…potentially we're sitting on two million dollars, but realistically we're living with a couple of sluts."

Generalizations

There is an archipelago of beautiful deserted islands in the middle of nowhere where the following people are stranded.

2 Italian men and 1 Italian woman

2 French men and 1 French woman

2 German men and 1 German woman

2 Greek men and 1 Greek woman

2 English men and 1 English woman

2 Bulgarian men and 1 Bulgarian woman

2 Japanese men and 1 Japanese woman

2 American men and 1 American woman

2 Irish men and 1 Irish woman

One month later on these absolutely stunning deserted islands in the middle of nowhere, the following things have occurred:

One Italian man killed the other Italian man for the Italian woman.

The two French men and the French woman are living happily together in a menage a trois

The two German men have a strict weekly schedule of when they alternate with the German woman.

The two Greek men are sleeping with each other and the Greek woman is cleaning and cooking for them.

The two English men are waiting for someone to introduce them to the English woman.

The Bulgarian men took a long look at the Bulgarian woman and they started swimming.

The two American men are contemplating the virtues of suicide. The American woman keeps bitching about her body being her own, the true nature of feminism, and how she can do everything that they can do. They bitch about the necessity of fulfillment, the equal division of household chores, how her last boyfriend respected her opinion and treated her much nicer and how her relationship with her mother is improving. But at least the taxes are low and it is not raining.

The two Japanese men have faxed Tokyo and are waiting for instructions.

The Irish began by dividing their island into North and South and by setting up a distillery. They do not remember if sex is in the picture because it gets sort of foggy after the first few liters of coconut whisky, but they are satisfied in that at least the English are not getting any.

Viagra

An elderly woman goes to the doctor and asks his help to revive her Husband's sex drive.

'What about trying Viagra?' asks the doctor. Not a chance' says Mrs. Murphy. "He won't even take an aspirin for a headache." 'No problem,' replies the doctor. "Drop it into his coffee, he won't even taste it. Try it and come back in a week to let me know how you got on."

A week later Mrs. Murphy returns to the doctor and he inquires as to how things went. "Oh it was terrible, just terrible doctor." 'What happened?' asks the doctor. "Well I did as you advised and slipped it in his coffee. The effect was immediate. He jumped straight up, swept the cutlery off the table, at the same time ripping my clothes off and then proceeded to make passionate love to me on the tabletop. It was terrible."

"What was terrible?' said the doctor, was the sex not good? "Oh no doctor, the sex was the best I've had in 25 years, but I'll never be able to show my face in McDonald's again.

Stand by your man

The woman's husband had been slipping in and out of a coma for several months, yet she had stayed by his bedside every single day. One day, when he came to, he motioned for her to come nearer.

As she sat by him, he whispered, eyes full of tears, "My dearest, you have been with me all through the bad times. When I got fired, you were there to support me. When my business failed, you were there. When I got shot, you were by my side. When we lost the house, you stayed right here. When my health started failing, you were still by my side.

You know what?"

"What dear?" she gently asked smiling as her heart began to fill with warmth.

"I think you're bad luck."

SEX, SEX, SEX

A small guy goes into an elevator, looks up and notices a huge dude standing next to him. The big dude looks down upon the small guy and says, "7 feet tall, 350 pounds, 20 inch penis, 3 pound left testicle, 3 pound right testicle, Turner Brown."

The small guy faints. The big dude picks up the small guy and brings him to, slapping his face and shaking him and asks the small guy, "What's wrong with you?" The small guy says, "Excuse me, but what did you say?" The big dude looks down and says, "7 feet tall, 350 pounds, 20 inch penis, 3 pound left testicle, 3 pound right testicle, Turner Brown."

The small guy says, "Thank God! I thought you said 'Turn around."

There was a widow and widower living next to each other. They had been neighbors for over 30 years. Over a number of weeks, they had become close. One day, the man asked the woman if she enjoyed fishing. Yes, she replied. She used to enjoy fishing with her late husband. The man agreed to pick her up at 6 the next morning. They went down to the river at 6 a.m. the next day and began fishing. After a while, the man began to move the boat upstream. They came to a fork in the river and the man asked the woman "Up or down," being nice, he wanted to let her decide. The woman looked around, promptly took off all her clothes and jumped the man. They had passionate sex. After a while, they redressed and resumed fishing. Later in the day, they came to another fork in the river. Again, the man asked "Up or down" and once again, the woman stripped and another round of passionate sex commenced.

That evening, upon arriving home, the man asked the woman if she would like to go fishing again tomorrow. The woman agreed. At 6 the next morning, They got to the river. "Up or Down" the hopeful man asked. "Down" the woman replied. A little surprised, the man headed that way. After a morning of fishing, they got to another fork. "Up or Down" the man asked. "Up" the woman said. "Wait a minute," the man said. "Yesterday, when I asked that question, you took all your clothes off and we had passionate sex, what's going on?"

"Well," the woman replied, "yesterday, I forgot my hearing aid and I thought you said "Fuck or Drown!"

A man and his grandson are fishing by a peaceful lake beneath some weeping willow trees. The man takes out a cigarette and lights it. His grandson says, "Grandpa, Can I try some of your cigarette?" "Can you touch your asshole with your penis?" he says. "No," says the little boy. "Then you're not big enough." A few more minutes pass, and the man takes a beer out of his cooler and opens it. The little boy says, "Grandpa, can I have some of our beer?" "Can you touch your asshole with your penis?", he says. "No," says the little boy. "Then you're not old enough."

Time passes and they continue to fish. The little boy gets hungry and he reaches into his lunch box, takes out a bag of cookies and eats one. The grandfather looks at him and says, "Hey they look good. Can I have one of your cookies?" "Can you touch your asshole with your penis?" says the little boy. "I most certainly can!" says the grandfather. "Then go fuck yourself," says the boy, "These cookies are mine!"

A man wakes up his wife during the night with a glass of water in one hand and two aspirins in the other. She asks, "What's this for?" "This is for your headache," he says. She replies, "But I don't have a headache." He smiles and says, "Gotcha!"

Great Comeback

A teacher was wrapping up class, and started talking about tomorrow's final exam. He said there would be no excuses for not showing up tomorrow, barring a dire medical condition or an immediate family member's death.

One smart-ass, male student said, "What about extreme sexual exhaustion?" The whole classroom burst into laughter.

After the laughter had subsided, the teacher glared at the student, and said, "Not an excuse, you can use your other hand to write."

A guy rents an apartment in New York, and goes to the lobby to put his name on the group mailbox. While there, an attractive young lady comes out of the apartment next to the mailboxes wearing a robe. He smiles at the young girl and she strikes up a conversation with him. As they talk, her robe slips open. It's quite obvious that she has nothing on under the robe. Poor guy breaks out into a sweat trying to maintain eye contact. After a few minutes, she places her hand on his arm and says, "Let's go in my apartment, I hear someone coming…" He precedes her into the apartment, and after she closes the door, she leans against it allowing her robe to fall completely open. She purrs at him, "What would you say is my best feature?" The flustered, embarrassed guy stammers, clears his throat several times, and finally squeaks out "Oh, it's got to be your ears!" She's astounded! Why my ears? Looks at these boobs! They are full, don't sag, and they're all mine! My butt—it's firm, doesn't sag, and has no cellulite! Look at this skin, no blemishes, or scars! Why in heaven's name would you say my ears are the best part of my body?" Clearing his throat once again, he stammers -

"Outside when you said you heard someone coming—THAT WAS ME!"

A man decided to have a facelift for his birthday. He spends $5,000 and feels really great about the result.

On his way home he stops at a newsstand and buys a paper. Before leaving he says to the sales clerk, "I hope you don't mind me asking, but how old do you think I am?" "About 35," was the reply. "I'm actually 47," the man says, feeling really happy.

After that he goes into McDonalds for lunch, and asks the order taker the same question, to which the reply is, "Oh you look about 29". "I am actually 47!" This makes him feel really good.

While standing at the bus stop he asks an old woman the same question. She replies, "I am 85 years old and my eyesight is going. But when I was young there was a sure way of telling a mans age. If I put my hand down your pants for ten minutes I will be able to tell your exact age."

As there was no one around, the man thought what the hell and let her slip her hand down his pants. Ten minutes later the old lady says, "OK, it's done. You are 47." Stunned the man says, "That was brilliant! How did you do that?" The old lady replies, "I was in line behind you at McDonalds."

An old man on the beach walked up to a beautiful girl in a bikini and said, "I want to feel your breasts." "Get away from me, you crazy old man!" she replied. "I'll give you twenty dollars," he says. "Twenty dollars? are you nuts!? Get away from me!" "I want to feel your breasts. I will give you A HUNDRED DOLLARS!" "NO! Get away from me!" "TWO HUNDRED DOLLARS!" She pauses a second, but then comes to her senses and screams, "I said NO!" "FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS if you let me feel your breasts." She thinks, well, he is old, and he seems harmless enough…and five hundred dollars IS a lot of money…"Well, okay…but only for a minute," she says.

She loosens her bikini top and while both are standing there on the beach, he slides his hands underneath. Then he starts saying, "OH MY GOD…OH MY GOD…OH MY GOD .." After entirely too much of this she asks, "Why do you keep saying 'Oh my God'?"

With his hand still firmly on her breasts he answers, "OH MY GOD…OH MY GOD, OH MY GOD…Where am I EVER going to get five hundred dollars?"

A guy's driving down a country road when he comes upon a sign saying "Apples- $5.00 each." He thinks that is a lot of money so he decides to go see what's up. He goes up to the farmer and says, "Hey, how come these apples are $5 bucks each?" The farmer replies, "They are peanut butter and jelly apples." The farmer hands him one and says, Here, try one." So the man takes a bite out of the apple and says, "Peanut butter -that's great, but I thought you said that they were peanut butter and jelly apples." The farmer tells the man to turn it around. The man bites the other side and exclaims "son of a gun-jelly!" The man says, "These apples are great -give me some." He gets back in his car and drives a little further down the road and then sees another sign "Apples -$10 each." Again, he pulls over, goes to the farmer and says, "Hey, what's up with these apples?" The farmer says, "They're ham and cheese apples. Here, try one." The guy takes a bit and exclaims, "Son of a gun -ham!" The guy then says, "Let me guess -I have to turn it around." The farmer says- "You got it." The guy bites the other side and says, "Cheese." Again the man says, "These apples are great-give me some." Then he gets back in his car and drives down the road.

He comes upon a third sign that says "Apples -$50 each." The guy really wants to see what's up with these apples. Again, he pulls over, goes up to the farmer and says, "What's the deal with these apples? 50 bucks each?" The farmer tells him that "These apples are p—y apples. Here, try one." The guy takes a bite out of it and says, "Yuck! This apple tastes like s-t." The farmer says, "Turn it around!"

Squirt Meeting Satan

Clinton dies and he goes to hell. Satan meets him there and says, "Bill, we have to find a spot for you for all of eternity."

So Satan takes Bill down a hall and they come to the first door and open it. Inside is Bill Gates being burned at the stake.

No," Bill balks, "I can't do that for all eternity."

"Fair enough," replies Satan.

Satan takes Bill down the hall to a second door. Inside is Ted Kennedy being pulled apart on The Rack.

"No," Bill again balks. "I can't do that for all of eternity, either."

Satan takes Bill to the last door. Inside, Kenneth Starr is being held up to the wall with chains around his wrists. At his groin is Monica Lewinsky giving him a great blow-job.

Bill smiles. "Yes!" he shouts, "that's for me."

Satan walks into the room and kicks Monica and shouts, "Get up Monica, and get out…your replacement's here!

Her Majesty the Queen was being shown around a hospital. As she was being given the guided tour by a senior consultant, they passed a room where you could see a man masturbating wildly through the window.

Of course, the Queen was not at all amused and demanded an explanation as to why these activities were allowed in the hospital. "Ah," said the Doctor. "Now although it is perhaps unfortunate that you should have witnessed that, in fact, that poor patient is suffering from a very debilitating condition. He produces so much sperm that unless he gets rid of it 4 times a day, his testicles will explode."

"Oh," said Her Majesty. "Well, in that case, I suppose I can understand."

A little further down the corridor they passed another room. The door was open, and through it, you could see a nurse who was clearly giving a patient a blow-job. "Goodness gracious!" shrieked Her Majesty. "I demand an explanation for this kind of sordid goings-on!" "Ah," said the Doctor. "Same problem, better health plan."

Negotiations 101

I guess some things will never change. I hired a temp while my secretary was on maternity leave. Trying to arrive at an agreeable wage, I asked what she expected to earn. She said, "Well…the minimum I could work for is four hundred a week."

I told her I'd give her that much with pleasure. She shook her head and replied, "With "pleasure", it'll be $600 a week."

A mother was walking down the hall when she heard a humming sound coming from her daughter's bedroom. When she opened the door she found her daughter naked on the bed with a vibrator. What are you doing, she exclaimed. The daughter replied, I'm 35 and still living at home with my parents and this is the closest I'll ever get to a husband.

Later that week the father was in the kitchen and heard a humming sound coming from the basement. When he went downstairs, he found his daughter naked on a sofa with her vibrator. What are you doing, he exclaimed. The daughter replied, I'm 35 and still living at home with my parents and this is the closest I'll ever get to a husband.

A couple of days later the mother heard the humming sound again, this time in the living room. Upon entering the room, she found her husband watching television with the vibrator buzzing away beside him. What are you doing? He replied, Watching the game with my son-in-law.

A guy meets a girl at a nightclub and she invites him back to her place for the night. Her parents are out of town and this is the perfect opportunity. They got back to her house and they go into her bedroom, and when the guy walks in the door he notices all these fluffy toys. There's hundreds of them, fluffy toys on top of the wardrobe, fluffy toys on the bookshelf and window sill, there's more on the floor, and of course fluffy toys all over the bed.

They clear off the bed and go at it. Later, after the sex, he turns to her and asks…"well, how was I?"

She says, "Well, you can take anything from the bottom shelf."

After having been commissioned by God to take a survey of how man was doing on earth, St. Peter now stood before his boss ready to present his findings.

"Tell me, St. Peter, what have you found out?" God asked. "I'm very sorry to have to tell you this, but the people are behaving in a sinful manner. There's drugs, alcohol, murders, you name it, a regular Sodom and Gomorrah. But the worst is this new obsession with oral sex. According to my survey, 88% of the population is doing it. Even four out of five dentists recommend it. I'm afraid it has reached epidemic proportions."

"Hmmm," God said thoughtfully, "Do you have any recommendations as to what should be done to put an end to this sexual perversion?" I think we should send a message to everyone on Earth who engages in oral sex. The contents of that message should tell them exactly what will happen to them on Judgment Day if they do not stop this type of activity.," replied St. Peter. "That is an effective solution," God stated, "but I think that instead of punishing those who practice oral sex, we should reward those who refrain from it. Let's send a letter that's personally signed by me to each one of these good people." And so they did.

Do you know what the letter said?

The Foot, Hand and Penis Talking

The foot, the hand and penis were talking about their lives.

The foot says man I got it rough! Everyday I'm stuck in dirty smelly socks, shoved in a tight shoes and made to walk miles carrying all this weight with no way to breath. The hand says to the foot that's nothing! Everyday I'm stuck in dirty water made to pick a nostril or two, shoved in ears and made to scratch a hairy ass. I've got it rough!

The penis say's to the foot and hand that's nothing! Everyday I'm shoved into a smelly pair of underwear and a tight pair of pants and then forced to hold my breath the whole day while two bowling balls continually bash my head with each and every step. Then when I get home and am finally allowed to breath he shoves a raincoat over my head, shoves in a dark damp closet and makes me do push-ups until I puke!

The Man on the Moon

When Apollo Mission Astronaut Neil Armstrong first walked on the moon, he not only gave his famous "one small step for man, one giant leap for mankind" statement but followed it by several remarks, usual com traffic between him, the other astronauts and Mission Control. Just before he re-entered the lander however, he made the enigmatic remark "Good luck Mr. Gorsky." Many people at NASA thought it was a casual remark concerning some rival Soviet Cosmonaut. However, upon checking, there was no Gorsky in either the Russian or American space programs. Over the years many people questioned Armstrong as to what the "Good luck Mr. Gorsky" statement meant, but Armstrong always just smiled.

On July 5, 1995 in Tampa Bay FL, while answering questions following a speech, a reporter brought up the 26 year-old question to Armstrong. This time he finally responded. Mr. Gorsky had finally died and so Neil Armstrong felt he could answer the question. When he was a kid, he was playing baseball with a friend in the backyard. His friend hit a fly ball, which landed in the front of his neighbor's bedroom windows. His neighbors were Mr. & Mrs. Gorsky. As he leaned down to pick up the ball, young Armstrong heard Mrs. Gorsky shouting at Mr. Gorsky. "Oral sex! You want oral sex? You'll get oral sex when the kid next door walks on the moon!"

So, these two guys are carpooling home from work one day. Traffic is barely crawling along and they are both a bit bored. The driver is looking around and suddenly he points at two dogs having sex in someone's front lawn. "Look", he shouts, "What are the those dogs doing? Are they fighting?" The passenger, being a man of the world, replies, "They are having sex. Don't tell me that you have never had sex doggie style before?" The driver, a bit shy and nervous, admits that he has never had sex doggie style. The passenger says, "You have to try it, it's pretty cool. Here's what you do. Tonight when you get home, fix your wife a margarita and then suggest that you want to try this new sexual position." The driver thinks a bit and then decides he will give it a try. The next morning, the two commuters are back in the car and the passenger asks, "Well. How did it go?" To which the driver replies, "It was great. But it took me 6 Margaritas just to get her in the front lawn."

A woman desperately looking for work goes into a toy factory. The personnel manager looks over her resume and explains that he has nothing worthy of her. The woman answers that she really needs work and will take almost anything. The personnel manager hesitates and finally says he does have a low skill job on the "Tickle Me Elmo" line. The woman happily accepts. He takes her down to the line, explains her duties and tells he that she should be in by 8 a.m. the next day. The next day at 8:45 a.m. there's a knock at the personnel manager's door. The foreman of the "Tickle Me Elmo" line enters and begins ranting about the woman just hired. After screaming for 15 minutes about how badly the assembly line is backed up, the personnel manager decides to check out the situation himself. They head to the assembly area and sure enough, the Elmo line is practically at a standstill.

At the end of the line is the woman just hired. She had a roll of the same material used to make the Elmos and a big bag of marbles. They watch as she cuts a little piece of fabric, takes two marbles and begins sewing them between Elmo's legs. The personnel manager begins to laugh hysterically and finally after 20 minutes pulls himself together and walks over to the new employee and says, "I'm sorry I guess you misunderstood me yesterday. What I wanted you to do was to give Elmo two test tickles."

There were 2 old-maid sisters…both virgins. It's Friday night and Gladys looks at Betty and says, "I'm not going to die a virgin…I'm going out and I'm not coming home till I've been laid!"

Betty says, "Well, make sure you're home by 10 so I don't worry about you." 10 o'clock rolls around and there's no sign of Gladys…11 o'clock…12 o'clock…Finally about 15 after 1 the front door flies open. In runs Gladys…straight to the bathroom. Betty goes and knocks on the door, "Are you okay, Gladys?" No answer, so she opens the door and there sits Gladys with her panties around her ankles, legs spread, and her head stuck between her legs looking at herself. "What is it, Gladys? What's wrong?" asks Betty.

"Betty, it was 10 inches long when it went in and 5 when it came out. When I find the other half you're gonna have the time of your life!"

The Penis poem

My nookie days are over
My pilot light is out
What used to be my sex appeal
Is now my waterspout
Time was when, on its own accord
From my trousers it would spring
But now I've got a full-time job
To find the blasted thing
It used to be embarrassing
The way it would behave

For every single morning
It would stand and watch me shave.
Now as old age approaches
It sure gives me the blues
To see it hang its little head
And watch me tie my shoes.

Six of the seven dwarfs are sitting around the house one day when Sleepy rushes in and says, "Guess what guys, I've won a trip to see the Pope!" Everyone gets all excited and chants, "We finally get to ask him, we finally get to ask him."

The next day, they are standing in front of the Pope, Dopey out in front of the other six. All the other six start pushing Dopey and saying, "Go ahead, Dopey, ask him, ask him!" The Pope looks at Dopey and asks, "Do you have a question to ask me, young man?" Dopey looks up shyly and says, "Well, yes." The Pope tells him to go ahead and ask. Dopey asks, "Well, do...do they have nuns in Alaska?" The Pope replies, "Well, yes, I'm sure we have nuns in Alaska."

The others all keep nudging Dopey and chanting, "Ask him the rest, Dopey, ask him the rest!" The Pope asks Dopey if there's more to his question, and Dopey continues. Well, uh, do they have, uh, black nuns in Alaska?" To which the Pope replies, "Well, my son, I think there must be a few black nuns in Alaska, yes."

Still not satisfied, the others keep saying, "Ask him the last part, Dopey, ask him the last part!" The Pope asks Dopey, "Is there still more to your question?" To which Dopey replies, "Well, uh, yeah, are there, uh, are there any midget black nuns in Alaska?" The startled Pope replies.

"Well, no, my son, I really don't think there are any midget black nuns in Alaska."

At this, Dopey turns all kinds of colors, and the others start laughing, and yelling, "Dopey fucked a penguin, Dopey fucked a penguin!"

Ethel is a bit of a demon in her wheelchair, and loves to charge around the nursing home, taking corners on one wheel and getting up to maximum speed on the long corridors. Because the poor woman is one sandwich short of a picnic, the other residents tolerate her, and some actually join in.

One day, Ethel was speeding up one corridor when a door opened and a man stepped out with his arm outstretched- "STOP!" He said in a firm voice. "Have you got a license for that thing?" Ethel fished around in her handbag and pulled out a Kit Kat wrapper and held it up to him. "OK" he said, and she went on her way. Making the corner near the TV lounge on one wheel, another man stepped out in front of her, and shouted "STOP!" "Have you got proof of insurance?" Ethel dug into her handbag and pulled out a beer coaster, held it up to him, and he allowed her to carry on.

Going down the final corridor before the front door, a third man stepped out in front of her stark naked, and holding a sizable erection in his hand. "Oh, no," said Ethel, "Not the breathalyzer again!"

A man went to a plastic surgeon to get work done on his penis. The doctor, curious, asked what had happened to it.

"Well," the patient said, "I live in a trailer camp. A gorgeous buxom creature lives in the trailer next to mine. I used to peek into her trailer and I saw that she had a habit. Each afternoon she would take a hot dog from her refrigerator and put it in a hole on her trailer floor. Then she'd sit on it and have a ball. She nearly drove me crazy. So I got a bright idea. The other day I got under her trailer and when she slid the hot dog in the hole, I slid it out and slipped my penis up through the hole. She sat down on it and everything was going just great until there was a knock at the door."

"And then?" asked the doctor "Aw hell," the patient explained, "That's when she tried to kick it under the stove."

Bob joins a very exclusive nudist colony. On his first day he takes off his clothes and starts wandering around. A gorgeous petite blonde walks by him and the man immediately gets an erection. The woman notices his erection, comes over to him grinning sweetly and says: "Sir, did you call for me?"

Bob replies "No, what do you mean?" She says: "You must be new here; let me explain. It's a rule here that if I give you an erection, it implies you called for me."

Smiling, she then leads him to the side of a pool, lies down on a towel, eagerly pulls him to her and happily lets him have his way with her.

Bob continues exploring the facilities. He enters a sauna, sits down, and farts. Within a few moments a huge, horribly corpulent, hairy man with a firm erection lumbers out of the steam towards him. The Huge Man says: "Sir, did you call for me?"

Bob replies "No, what do you mean?" "You must be new here, it is a rule that when you fart, it implies you called for me."

The huge man then easily spins Bob around, bends him over the bench and sodomizes him.

Bob rushes back to the colony office and is greeted by a smiling naked receptionist. "May I help you?"

Bob says: "Here is your card and key back. You can keep the $500 joining fee."

"But Sir, you've only been here a couple of hours; you only saw a small fraction of our facilities." Bob replies: "Listen lady, I am 58 years old, I get a hard-on about once a month, but I fart 15 times a day. No thanks!"

The Watch

A rather confident man walks into a bar and takes a seat next to a very attractive woman. He gives her a quick glance, then casually looks at his watch for a moment.

The woman notices this and asks, "Is your date running late?" "No", he replies, "I just bought this state-of-the-art watch and I was just testing it."

The intrigued woman says, "A state-of-the-art watch? What's so special about it?"

"It uses alpha waves to telepathically talk to me," he explains. "What's it telling you now?" "Well, it says you're not wearing any panties."

The woman giggles and replies, "Well it must be broken then because I am wearing panties!"

The man explains, "Damn thing must be an hour fast."

Why e-mail is like a penis

- Those who have it would be devastated if it was ever cut off.
- Those who have it think that those who don't are somehow inferior.
- Those who don't have it may agree that it's neat, but think it's not worth the fuss that those who have it make about it.
- Many of those who don't have it would like to try it. A phenomenon psychologist call "email envy."
- It's more fun when it's up, but this makes it hard to get any real work done.
- In the distant past, its only purpose was to transmit information vital to the survival of the species. Some people still think that's the only thing it should be used for, but most folks today use it mostly for fun.
- If you don't take proper precautions, it can spread viruses.
- If you use it too much, you'll find it becomes more and more difficult to think coherently.

The little old lady and the bet

A little old lady went into the Bank of Canada carrying a bag of money. She insisted that she must speak with the president of the bank to open a savings account because, "It's a lot of money!" After much hemming and hawing, the bank staff finally ushered her

Into the president's office (the customer is always right!).

The bank president then asked her how much she would like to deposit. She replied, "$165,000!" and dumped the cash out of her bag onto his desk. The president was of course curious as to how she came by all this cash, so he asked her, "Ma'am, I'm surprised you're carrying so much cash around.

Where did you get this money?" The old lady replied, "I make bets." The president then asked, "Bets?" What kind of bets?" The old woman said, "Well, for example, I'll bet you $25,000 that your balls are square." "Ha!" laughed the president, "That's a stupid bet. You can never win that kind of bet!" The old lady challenged, "So, would you like to take my bet?" "Sure," said the president, "I'll bet $25,000 that my balls are not square!" The little old lady then said, "Okay, but since there is a lot of money involved, may I bring my lawyer with me tomorrow at 10:00 a.m. as a witness?" "Sure!" replied the confident president. That night, the president got very nervous about the bet and spent a long time in front of a mirror checking his balls, turning from side to side, again and again. He thoroughly checked them out until he was sure that there was absolutely no way his balls were square and that he would win the bet.

The next morning, at precisely 10:00 am, the little old lady appeared with her lawyer at the president's office. She introduced the lawyer to the president and repeated the bet: "$25,000 says the president's balls are square!" The president agreed with the bet again and the old lady asked him to drop his pants so they could all see. The president complied. The little old lady peered closely at his balls and then asked if she could feel them. "Well, Okay," said the president, "$25,000 is a lot of money, so I guess you should be absolutely sure." Just then, he noticed that the lawyer was quietly banging his head against the wall. The president asked the old lady, "What the hell's the matter with your lawyer?" She replied, "Nothing, except I bet him $100,000 that at 10:00 a.m. today, I'd have The Bank of Canada's president's balls in my hand!"

Sign of the Times

A Highway Patrolman waited outside a popular local bar, hoping for a bust. At closing time, as everyone come out he spotted his potential quarry. The man was so obviously inebriated that he could barely walk. He stumbled around the parking lot for a few minutes, looking for his car. After trying his keys on five other cars, he finally found his own vehicle.

He sat in the car a good ten minutes, as the other patrons left. He turned his light on, then off, wipers on, then off. He started to pull forward into the grass, then stopped. Finally, when he was the last car, he pulled out onto the road and started to drive away.

The patrolman, waiting for this, turned on his lights and pulled the man over. He administered the breathalyzer test, and to his great surprise, the man blew a 0.00. The patrolman was dumbfounded. "This equipment must be broken!" exclaimed the patrolman. "I doubt it," said the man, Tonight I am the designated decoy!

16. You say I'm a bitch like it's a bad thing.
17. Can I trade this job for what's behind door #2?
18. Nice perfume. Must you marinate in it?
19. You look like shit. Is that the style now?
20. Oh did I step on your poor little bitty ego
21. "If I spread you with Preparation H would you shrink down and become less irritating?"

Q: What did Monica's right leg say to the left leg?

A: Nothing. They've never met.

Q: What does Monica and your computer have in common?

A: You don't know how much either of them mean to you until they go down on you.

Q: Why does Monica wear green lipstick?

A: Because red means stop.

Q: How can you tell if Monica has been in your refrigerator?

A: By the lipstick on your cucumbers.

Q: Why is Monica like a doorknob?

A: Because everybody gets a turn.

Q: How do you tell when Monica reaches orgasm?

A: She says, "Next".

Signs you're living and working in the '90s

Your reason for not staying in touch with family is that they do not have email addresses.

Keeping up with sports entails adding ESPN's homepage to your bookmarks.

You have a "to do list" that includes entries for lunch and bathroom breaks and they are usually the ones that never get crossed off.

You have actually faxed your Christmas list to your parents.

Pick up lines now include a reference to liquid assets and capital gains.

You consider 2nd day air delivery painfully slow.

You assume any question about whether to valet park or not is rhetorical.

You refer to your dining room table as the flat filing cabinet.

Your idea of being organized is multiple colored post-it notes.

You lecture the neighborhood kids selling lemonade on ways to improve their process.

You get all excited when it's Saturday so you can wear sweats to work.

You normally eat out of vending machines and at the most expensive restaurant in town within the same week.

You think that "progressing an action plan" and "calendarizing a project" are acceptable English phrases.

You know the people at the airport hotels better than your next door neighbors.

You ask your friends to "think out of the box" when making plans.

You think Einstein would have been more effective had he put his ideas into a matrix.

And, the number one sign you work in the nineties...

You think a "half-day" means leaving at 5 o'clock.

Things NOT to Say to A Naked Man

I've smoked fatter joints than that.

Ahh, it's cute.

Who circumcised you?

Why don't we just cuddle?

You know they have surgery to fix that.

It's more fun to look at.

Make it dance.

You know, there's a tower in Italy like that.

Can I paint a smiley face on that?

It looks like a nightcrawler.

Wow, and your feet are so big.

My last boyfriend was 4" bigger.

It's OK, we'll work around it.

Is this a mild or a spicy Slim Jim?

Eww, there's an inchworm on your thigh.

Will it squeak if I squeeze it?

Oh no, a flash headache.

(giggle and point)

Can I be honest with you?

My 8-year-old brother has one like that.

Let me go get my tweezers.

How sweet, you brought incense.

This explains your car.

You must be a growing boy.

Maybe if we water it, it'll grow.
Thanks, I needed a toothpick.
Are you one of those pygmies?
Ever hear of Clearasil?
I didn't know they came that small.
But it still works, right?
I hear excessive masturbation shrinks it.
I'll go get the ketchup for your French fry.
It's a good thing you have so many other talents.
So this is why you're supposed to judge people on personality.

Twas the night before crisis, and behind White House doors,
Not a creature was stirring, especially Al Gore.
The interns were nestled, dressed in their berets,
In hopes that Saint Bubba would come out to play.

When on the East Lawn, there arose such a clatter,
Even Sam Donaldson lost control of his bladder.

Away to our TVs we flew like a flash,
There's a special report, and it's pre-empting M*A*S*H!

And what to our wondering eyes should appear,
But a homely lil' troll, with tapes for us to hear.
With a K-Mart bought blazer, and a bad frizzy 'do,
And a tale to be told- to me, and to you.

On the chair! On the carpet! On the Oval Office desk!
With a chubby young intern, who was all eyes and chest.
The Prez had been careless, indeed, dumb and dumber.
Now the whole world knew Bubba had gotten a hummer
And Monica Lewinsky emerged from the rubble,
If she'd just kept her mouth shut, we'd not have all this trouble.
And thus set in motion, a whole web o' spiders,
With pundits galore, and White House insiders.
You ask, "Who would care about Bill and his penis?"
Republican Ken Starr, and he's armed with subpoenas!
More rapid than eagles, process servers, they flew!
"Here's one for you! And for you! And you, too!"
"Now Jordan! Now Cockell! Is there anyone else?!?
Let's subpoena the lawyers! And Bubba himself!"
"We want you to tell us about Bill's private life,
And anyone he sleeps with, except, of course, his wife."
And many months later, after long we've all suffered,
Let's examine more closely just what Starr's uncovered.
We've learned "Little Bill" has a mind of his own,
And—horror of horrors-he likes to get blown!
A funny fact surfaced, after 40 million bucks:
Seems most people don't care just who Clinton, er, makes love to.

The economy's great, and shows no signs of slowing.
Hell, we hope Ms. Lewinsky NEVER stops blowing!
Now the public's grown weary will this sleaze never end?
We just want to get back to "E.R.", and to "Friends."

Now Monica, Linda- and Ken Starr, you suck -
Get the hell off my TV, your 15 minutes are up!

Prissy Woman

A Southern Belle and a Northern lady are on a flight together. After take-off, when everyone is settled in, the Belle decides to be polite and offer up some conversation:

"So, where y'all from?"

The Northern lady replies icily: "I'm from a place where we do not end our sentences with a preposition", then turns her head quickly with a "hmmph".

Stunned, the Belle sits there in shock. After awhile, she regains her composure and decides to try again:

"So, where y'all from...bitch?"

Three women were out golfing one day and one of them hit her ball into the woods. She went into the woods to look for it and found a frog in a trap. The frog said to her "If you release me from this trap, I will grant you 3 wishes.." The woman freed the frog and the frog said "Thank you, but I failed to mention that there was a condition to your wishes—that whatever you wish for, your husband will get 10 times more or better!" The woman said "That would be okay" and for her first wish she wanted to be the most beautiful woman in the world...The frog warned her "You do realize that this wish will also make your husband the most handsome man in the world, an Adonis, that woman will flock to him." The woman replied, "That will be okay, because I will be the most beautiful woman and he will only have eyes for me...". So poof-she's the most beautiful woman in the world! For her second wish, she wanted to be the richest woman in the world. The frog said, "That will make your husband the richest man in the world and he will be ten times richer than you...". The woman said "That will be okay, because what is mine is his and what is his is mine". So, poof—she's the richest woman in the world! The frog then inquired about her third wish and she answered, "I'd like a mild heart attack."

A young man, hired by a supermarket, reported for his first day of work. The manager greeted him with a warm handshake and a smile, gave him a broom and said, "Your first job will be to sweep out the store."

"But I'm a college graduate." the young man replied indignantly.

"Oh, I'm sorry. I didn't know that," said the manager. "Here, give me the broom, I'll show you how."

A first grade teacher had a small number of children gathered around a table for a reading group. After the story was read she gave the children a work sheet to do. She thought they may have some problems so wanted them to work on it there. She heard a little girl say very softly "damn!". The teacher leaned over and said quietly, "We don't say that in school." The little girl looked at the teacher, her eyes got very big and she said, "Not even when things are all fucked up?"

There was a great loss recently in the entertainment world. Larry LaPrise, the Detroit native who wrote the song 'Hokey Pokey" died last week at age 83. What was really horrible is that they had trouble keeping the body in the casket. They'd put his left leg in and.....well, you know the rest.

Cousins

A 7 year-old and a 4 year-old are upstairs in their bedroom. You know what?," says the 7 year old, "I think it's about time we start swearing." The 4 year-old nods his head in approval. "When we go downstairs for breakfast I'm gonna say 'hell' and you say 'ass',o.k.?" "O.k." the 4 year-old agrees with enthusiasm.

The mother walks into the kitchen and asks the 7 year-old what he wants for breakfast.

"Aw, hell mom, I guess I'll have some Cheerios." WHACK!! He flew out of his chair, tumbled across the kitchen floor, got up and ran upstairs crying his eyes out.

She looked at the 4 year old and asked with a stern voice, "And what do YOU want for breakfast, young man?"

"I don't know," he blubbers, "but you can bet your ass it won't be Cheerios"

The Punk

A young punker gets on the cross-town bus. He's got spiked, multicolored hair that's green, purple, and orange. His clothes are a tattered mix of leather rags. His legs are bare and he's without shoes. His entire face and body are riddled with pierced jewelry and his earrings are big, bright feathers. He sits down in the only vacant seat, directly across from an old man who just glares at him for the next ten miles.

Finally, the punk gets self conscious and barks at the old man: "What are you looking at you old fart……didn't you ever do anything wild when you were young?"

Without missing a beat, the old man replies: "Yeah. Back when I was young and in the Navy, I got really drunk one night in Singapore, and had sex with a parrot. I thought maybe you were my son."

Thoughts

1. It hurts to love someone and not be loved in return, but what is more painful is to love someone and never find the courage to let that person know how you feel.

2. Maybe God wants us to meet a few wrong people before meeting the right one so that when we finally meet the right person, we will know how to be grateful for that gift.

3. Love is when you take away the feeling, the passion, and the romance in a relationship- and find out you still care for that person.

4. A sad thing in life is when you meet someone who means a lot to you, only to find out in the end that it was never meant to be and you just have to let go.

5. When the door of happiness closes, another opens but oftentimes we look so long at the closed door that we don't see the one which has been opened for us.

6. The best kind of friend is the kind you can sit on a porch and swing with, never say a word, and then walk away feeling like it was the best conversation you've ever had.

7. It's true that we don't know what we've got until we lose it, but it's also true that we don't know what we've been missing until it arrives.

8. Giving someone all your love is never an assurance that they'll love you back! Don't expect love in return; just wait for it to grow in their heart but if it doesn't, be content it grew in yours.

9. There are things you'd love to hear that you would never hear from the person whom you would like to hear them from, but don't be so deaf as not to hear it from the one who says it from his heart.

10. Never say goodbye if you still want to try—never give up if you still feel you can go on—never say you do not love a person anymore if you can't let go.

11. Love comes to those who still hope although they've been disappointed- to those who still believe although they've been betrayed, need to love those who still love although they've been hurt before.

12. It takes only a minute to get a crush on someone, an hour to like someone and a day to love someone—but it takes a lifetime to forget someone.

13. Don't go for looks; they can deceive. Don't go for wealth; even that fades away. Go for someone who makes you smile. It takes only a smile to make a dark day seem bright. Hope you find the one that makes you smile.

14. There are moments in life when you miss someone so much that you just want to pick them from your dreams and hug them for real! Hope you dream of that special someone.

15. Dream what you want to dream; go where you want to go; be what you want to be, because you have only one life and one chance to do all the things you want to do.

16. May you have enough happiness to make you sweet, enough trials to make you strong, enough sorrow to keep you human, enough hope to make you happy and enough money to buy me gifts.

17. Always put yourself in others' shoes. If you feel that it hurts you, it probably hurts the person, too.

18. A careless word may kindle strife; a cruel word may wreck a life; a timely word may level stress; a loving word may heal and bless.

19. The beginning of love is to let those we love be just themselves, and not twist them with our own image—otherwise, we love only the reflection of ourselves we find in them.

20. The happiest of people don't necessarily have the best of everything; they just make the most of everything that comes along their way.

21. Happiness lies for those who cry, those who hurt, those who have searched, and those who have tried, for only they can appreciate the importance of people who have touched their lives.

22. Love begins with a smile, grows with a kiss and ends with a tear.

23. The brightest future will always be based on a forgotten past, you can't go on well in life until you let go of your past failures and heartaches.

24. When you were born, you were crying and everyone around you was smiling. Live your life so that when you die, you're the one who is smiling and everyone around you is crying.

Laughing for absolutely no reason at all.
Having someone tell you that you're beautiful.
Laughing at an inside joke.
Friends.
Accidentally overhearing someone say something nice about you.
Waking up and realizing you still have a few hours left to sleep.
Your first kiss.
Being part of a team.
Making new friends or spending time with old ones.
Late night talks with your roommate that keeps you from sleeping
Sweet dreams.
Hot chocolate.
Road trips with friends.
Swinging on swings.
Watching a good movie cuddled up on a couch with someone you love.
Song lyrics printed inside your new CD so you can sing along without feeling stupid.
Going to a really good concert.
Getting butterflies in your stomach every time you see that one person.
Winning a really competitive game.
Making chocolate chip cookies!
Having your friends send you homemade cookies!
Spending time with close friends!
Running through the fountains with your friends.
Riding a bike downhill.

The feeling after running a few miles-an accomplishment!
Seeing smiles and hearing laughter from your friends
Holding hands with someone you care about.
Running into an old friend and realizing that some things (good or bad) never change.
Discovering that love is unconditional and stronger than time.
Riding the best roller coasters over and over.
Hugging the person you love.
Watching the expression on someone's face as they open a much-desired present from you.
Watching the sunrise.
Getting out of bed every morning and thanking God for another beautiful day.

The Rules of Life

Charles Sykes is the author of DUMBING DOWN OUR KIDS. He volunteered high school and college graduates a list of eleven things they did not learn in school. In his book, he talks about how the feel-good, politically correct teachings created a generation of kids with no concept of reality and set them up for failure in the real world.

1. Life is not fair; get used to it.

2. The world won't care about your self-esteem. The world will expect you to accomplish something BEFORE you feel good about yourself.

3. You will NOT make 40 thousand dollars a year right out of high school. You won't be a vice president with a car phone until you earn both.

4. If you think your teacher is tough, wait till you get a boss. He doesn't have tenure.

5. Flipping burgers is not beneath your dignity. Your grandparents had a different word for burger flipping; they called it opportunity.

6. If you mess up, it's not your parents' fault, so don't whine about your mistakes. Learn from them.

7. Before you were born, your parents weren't as boring as they are now. They got that way from paying your bills, cleaning your clothes, and listening to you talk about how cool you are. So before you save the rainforest from the parasites of your parents' generation, try delousing the closet in your own room.

8. Your school may have done away with winners and losers but life has not. In some schools they have abolished failing grades; they'll give you as many times as you want to get the right answer. This, of course, doesn't bear the slightest resemblance to ANYTHING in real life.

9. Life is not divided into semesters. You don't get summers off, and very few employers are interested in helping you find yourself. Do that on your own time.

10. Television is NOT real life. In real life people actually have to leave the coffee shop and go to jobs.

11. Be nice to nerds. Chances are you'll end up working for one.

Moral Dilemma

This is a moral question for you. It is an imaginary situation, but it is fun to decide what you would do.

The situation: You are in the Midwest, and there is a huge flood in progress. Many homes have been lost, water supplies compromised, and infrastructure destroyed. You are a photographer out getting still photos for a news service, traveling alone, looking for particularly poignant scenes. Suddenly, you stumble across a Marine helicopter crash. It's Bill Clinton's and he's struggling to keep from being swept away in a raging river and you have the choice of rescuing him or getting a Pulitzer prize-winning photograph of the death of a President.

What shutter speed would you use?

ANN ARBOR IDIOT

The Ann Arbor News crime column reported that a man walked into a Burger King in Ypsilanti, Michigan at 8:50 AM, flashed a gun and demanded cash. The clerk turned him down because he said he couldn't open the cash register without a food order. When the man ordered onion rings, the clerk said they weren't available for breakfast. The man, frustrated, walked away.

KENTUCKY IDIOTS

Two men tried to pull the front off a cash machine by running a chain from the machine to the bumper of their pickup truck. Instead of pulling the front panel off the machine, though, they pulled the bumper off their truck. Scared, they left the scene and drove home. With the chain still attached to the machine. With their bumper still attached to the chain. With their vehicle's license plate still attached to the bumper.

IDIOTS RETAIL

I was signing the receipt for my credit card purchase when the clerk noticed that I had never signed my name on the back of the credit card. She informed me that she could not complete the transaction unless the card was signed. When I asked why, she explained that it was necessary to compare the signature on the credit card with the signature I just signed on the receipt. So I signed the credit card in front of her. She carefully compared that signature to the one I signed on the receipt. As luck would have it, they matched.

ADVICE FOR IDIOTS

An actual tip from page 16 of the HP "Environmental, Health Safety Handbook for Employees: "Blink your eyelids periodically to lubricate your eyes."

IDIOTS IN THE NEIGHBORHOOD

I live in a semi-rural area. We recently had a new neighbor call the local township administrative office to request the removal of the Deer Crossing sign on our road. The reason…. Many deer were being hit by cars and he no longer wanted them to cross there.

IDIOTS ARE EASY TO PLEASE

I was sitting in my science class when the teacher commented that the next day would be the shortest day of the year. My lab partner became visibly excited, cheering and clapping. I explained to her that the amount of daylight changes, not the actual amount of time. Needless to say, she was very disappointed.

AN IDIOT'S IDIOT

Police in Radnor, Pennsylvania, interrogated a suspect by placing a metal colander on his head and connecting it with wires to a photocopy machine. The message "He's lying" was placed in the copier, and police pressed the copy button each time they thought the suspect wasn't telling the truth. Believing the "lie detector" was working, the suspect confessed.

LOUISIANA IDIOT

A man walked into a Circle-K, put a $20 bill on the counter and asked for change. When the clerk opened the cash drawer, the man pulled a gun and asked for all the cash in the register, which the clerk promptly provided. The man took the cash from the clerk and fled, leaving the $20 bill on the counter. The total amount of cash he got from the drawer? Fifteen dollars. [If someone points a gun at you and gives you money, was a crime committed?]

ARKANSAS IDIOT

Seems this guy wanted some beer pretty badly. He decided that he'd just throw a cinder block through a liquor store window, grab some booze, and run. So he lifted the cinder block and heaved it over his head at the window. The cinder block bounced back and hit the would-be thief on the head, knocking him unconscious. Seems the liquor store window was made of Plexi-Glass. The whole event was caught on videotape.

NEW YORK IDIOT

As a female shopper exited a convenience store, a man grabbed her purse and ran. The clerk called 911 immediately and the woman was able to give them a detailed description of the snatcher. Within minutes, the police had apprehended the snatcher.

They put him in the car and drove back to the store. The thief was then taken out of the car and told to stand there for a positive ID. To which he replied "Yes, Officer…that's her. That's the lady I stole the purse from."

SEATTLE IDIOT

When a man attempted to siphon gasoline from a motor home parked on a Seattle Street, he got much more than he bargained for. Police arrived at the scene to find an ill man curled up next to a motor home near spilled sewage. A police spokesman said that the man admitted to trying to steal gasoline and plugged his hose into the motor home's sewage tank by mistake. The owner of the vehicle declined to press charges, saying that it was the best laugh he'd ever had.

Real Insurance Claims

The following are actual statements found on insurance forms where car drivers attempted to summarize the details of an accident in the fewest possible words.

I pulled away from the side of the road, glanced at my mother-in-law and headed over the embankment.

Coming home I drove into the wrong house and collided with a tree I don't have.

The other car collided with mine without giving warning of its intention.

I thought my window was down, but I found it was up when I put my head through it.

I collided with a stationary truck coming the other way.

A truck backed through my windshield into my wife's face.

The guy was all over the road. I had to swerve a number of times before I hit him.

In an attempt to kill a fly I drove into a telephone pole.
I had been shopping for plants all day and was on my way home. As I reached an intersection a hedge sprang up, obscuring my vision and I did not see the other car.
I had been driving for forty years when I fell asleep at the wheel and had an accident.
I was on the way to the doctor with rear end trouble when my universal joint gave way causing me to have an accident.
As I approached an intersection a sign suddenly appeared in a place where no stop sign had ever appeared before. I was unable to stop in time to avoid the accident.
To avoid hitting the bumper of the car in front I struck a pedestrian.
My car was legally parked as it backed into another vehicle.
An invisible car came out of nowhere, struck my car and vanished.
I told the police that I was not injured, but on removing my hat found that I had a fractured skull.
I was sure the old fellow would never make it to the other side of the road when I struck him.
The pedestrian had no idea which way to run so I ran over him.
I saw a slow moving sad faced old gentleman as he bounced off the roof of my car.

The indirect cause of the accident was a little guy in a small car with a big mouth.

I was thrown from my car as it left the road. I was later found in a ditch by some stray cows.

Rehab Mission

Two young guys were picked up by the cops for smoking dope and appeared in court on Friday before the judge. The judge said, "You seem like nice young men, and I'd like to give you a second chance rather than jail time. I want you to go out this weekend and try to show others the evils of drug use and get them to give up drugs forever. I'll see you back in court Monday."

Monday, the two guys were in court, and the judge said to the first one, "How did you do over the weekend?"

"Well, your honor, I persuaded 17 people to give up drugs forever." "17 people? That's wonderful! What did you tell them?"

"I used a diagram, your honor. I drew two circles like this: "O o…and told them this (the big circle) is your brain before drugs and this (small circle) is your brain after drugs." "That's admirable!" said the judge.

To the second boy the judge said, "And you, how did you do?" "Well, your honor, I persuaded 156 people to give up drugs forever." "156 people! That's amazing! How did you manage to do that!"

"Well, I used a similar approach. I drew two circles…o O…and said (pointing to the small circle) "this is your asshole before prison…"

Three Cowboys

(Dedicated to my colleague Jerry S., Big time Texan)

Three cowboys, one from Louisiana, one from Arkansas, and the other from Texas are sitting around a campfire, out on the lonesome prairie, each with the bravado for which they are famous. A night of tall tales begins.

The guy from Louisiana says, "I must be the meanest, toughest cowboy there is. Why, just the other day, a bull got loose in the corral and gored six men before I wrestled it to the ground by the horns, with my bare hands."

The guy from Arkansas can't stand to be outdone. "Why I was walking down the trail yesterday and a fifteen foot rattler slid out from under a rock and made a move for me. I grabbed that snake with my bare hands and bit its head off and sucked the poison down in one gulp. And I'm still here today!"

The Texan remained silent, slowly stirring the coals with his penis.

Little Mary was not the best student in Sunday school. Usually she slept through the class. One day the teacher called on her while she was napping, "Tell me, Mary, who created the universe?" When Mary didn't stir, little Johnny, an altruistic boy seated in the chair behind her, took a pin and jabbed her in the rear. "God Almighty!" shouted Mary and the teacher said, "Very good" and Mary fell back asleep. A while later the teacher asked Mary, "Who is our Lord and Savior, "But, Mary didn't even stir from her slumber. Once again, Johnny came to the rescue and stuck her again. "Jesus Christ!" shouted Mary and the teacher said, "Very good," and Mary fell back asleep. Then the teacher asked Mary a third question. "What did Eve say to Adam after she had her twenty-third child?" And again, Johnny jabbed her with the pin. This time Mary jumped up and shouted, "If you stick that damn thing in me one more time, I'll break it in half!" The teacher fainted.

Hard to Quit

Three desperately ill men met with their doctor one-day to discuss their options. One was an alcoholic, one was a chain smoker, and one was a homosexual.

The doctor, addressing all three of them, said, "If any of you indulge in your vices one more time, you will surely die."

The men left the doctor's office, each convinced that he would never again indulge himself in his vice. While walking toward the subway for their return trip to the suburbs, they passed a bar. The alcoholic, hearing the loud music and seeing the lights, could not stop himself.

His buddies accompanied him into the bar, where he had a shot of whiskey. No sooner had he replaced the shot glass on the bar, he fell off his stool, stone cold dead.

His companions, somewhat shaken up, left the bar, realizing how seriously they must take the doctor's words. As they walked along, they came upon a cigarette butt lying on the ground, still smoking.

The homosexual looked at the chain smoker and said, "If you bend over to pick that up, we're both dead."

Life Lessons

I've learned that you cannot make someone love you. All you can do is stalk them and hope they panic and give in.

I've learned that no matter how much I care, some people are just assholes.

I've learned that it takes years to build up trust, and only suspicion, not proof, to destroy it.

I've learned that you shouldn't compare yourself to others—they are more fucked up than you think.

I've learned that you can keep puking long after you think you're finished.

I've learned that we are responsible for what we do, unless we are celebrities.

I've learned that regardless of how hot and steamy a relationship is at first, the passion fades, and there had better be a lot of money to take its place.

I've learned that sometimes the people you expect to kick you when you're down will be the ones who do.

I've learned that we don't have to ditch bad friends because their dysfunction makes us feel better about ourselves.

I've learned that no matter how you try to protect your children, they will eventually get arrested and end up in the local paper.

I've learned that the people you care most about in life are taken from you too soon and all the less important ones just never go away.

I've learned to say- "Fuck 'em if they can't take a joke" in 6 languages.

Sperm Count

A 75-year old man went to his doctor's office to get a sperm count. The doctor gave the man a jar and said, "Take this jar home and bring me back a sample tomorrow."

The next day, the 75-year old man reappears at the doctor's office and gives him the jar, which is as clean and empty as on the previous day. The doctor asks what happened, and the man explains, "Well, doc, it's like this. First I tried with my right hand, but nothing. Then I tried with my left hand, but nothing. Then I asked my wife for help. She tried with her right hand, but nothing. Then her left, but nothing. She even tried with her mouth, first with the teeth in, then with the teeth out, and still nothing. Hell, we even called up the lady next door and she tried with both hands and her mouth too, but nothing."

The doctor was shocked, "You asked your NEIGHBOR?" The old man replied, "Yep, but no matter what we tried, we couldn't get the damn jar open!"

Filthy dirty minds!

Y2K Jitters

By Mark J. Bishop

'Twas the week after Christmas and all through the house not one PC was working not even a mouse.
I turned on the power but nothing was working
I grab the computer and start banging and jerking.
I laid out three grand for this big piece of junk

On January 1st the damn thing went "kerplunk"!
When I threw it out the window it made such a clatter my neighbor just called to see what's the matter.
I turned on the TV the cable is down my microwave oven is making weird sounds.
my new VCR is as dead as a rock not one light is blinking not even the clock.
It's twenty below the peak of snow season the furnace won't work the pipes are all freezing
This couldn't have happened at a worse time
I think I have frostbite on my behind.
I laughed for a second and thought it all funny then a call from my bank in regards to my money.
"we managed your pension and savings with care but for some odd reason your money's not there we were Y2K ready we'd thought we'd be heroes but regret to inform you your balance is zero"!
I drop the receiver to the bathroom I rush
I push down the handle the toilet won't flush.
I turned on the faucet not one drop hits the sink
I head out the door to the pub for a drink.
I jump in the car turn the key in the switch
It only goes "click" I scream, "son of a bitch!"
A computerized ignition has just sealed my fate
Not set up for the "2000" date.
I twitch like a madman this cannot be true

No car, heat, or money what the hell can I do.
Shouting obscenities as I ran out of sight
Happy Y2K to all it's been one hell of a night!

Sweet Story
(Dedicated to Jessica D.S.-she LOVES chocolate)

It was another Payday, and I was tired of being Mr. Goodbar. So I saw Miss Hershey standing behind the Powerhouse on the corner of Clark and Fifth Avenue, and I whipped out my Whopper and whispered, "Hey Sweetart, how'd you like to Krunch on my Big Hunk for a Million Dollar Bar?" Well, she immediately went down on my Tootsie Roll, and, Uno, it was like pure Almond Joy. I couldn't help but grab her delicious Mounds 'cause it was easy to see that this little Twix had the Red Hots. It was all I could do to hold back a Snicker and a Krackle as my Butterfinger went up her tight little Kit Kat and she started to scream "Oh Henry, Oh Henry!" Soon she was fondling my Peter Paul and Zagnuts and I knew it wouldn't be long before I blew my Milkduds clear to Mars and gave her a taste of the old Milky Way. She asked if I was into M&M, but I said "Hey Chiclet, no kinky stuff." I said "Look you little Reese Piece, don't be a Zero, be a Lifesaver. Why don't you just take my Whatchamacallit and slip it up your Bit O'Honey?" (And what a piece of JuicyFruit she was, too). She screamed, "Oh Crackerjack, you're better than the Three Musketeers!" As I rammed my Ding Dong up her Rocky Road and into her Peanut Butter Cup. Well, I was givin' it to her Good 'n' Plenty, when all of the sudden…my Starburst!

Yeah, as luck would have it, she started to grow a bit Chunky and complained of a Wrigley in her stomach. Sure enough, nine months later, out popped.a Baby Ruth!

Wake Me in Philadelphia

One day this guy took the train from Washington, DC to New York City. When he got in he said to the ticket man: "Sir. I really need you to do me a favor, I have to get off this train in Philadelphia, but I'm very tired and I'm sure that I'll fall asleep en-route. So what I want you to do is to wake me up in Philadelphia. I have to close a big business deal there, and it is very important for me. Here, let me give you ten dollars for the favor. But I warn you, sometimes when people wake me up I get really violent, but no matter what I do or say you have to get me off this train in Philadelphia. Is that clear?" So the ticket man agreed and took the ten dollars. Later, just as the man had said, he fell asleep. When he woke up he realized that he was in New York City. He was so mad at the ticket man that he ran over and started yelling at him. "Are you STUPID or something? I paid you ten dollars to wake me up in Philadelphia. And you didn't! I want my money back." While our hero was yelling at the ticket man, two other men, further back in the train, were watching all this. One turns to the other and says, "Look at that guy! Man, he is mad!" The other observer says, "Yeah, almost as mad as the guy they threw off the train in Philadelphia."

Top 20 Homicides of the Year

Every year the U.S. and FBI is asked to investigate over 36,000 serious crimes including murder / homicide. And every year the Homicide Investigations Unit puts out its "Top 20 Homicides of the Year". Although these crimes are horrific in nature, I certainly hope we can take preventative measures to avoid such things in the future.

20. Alex Mijtus, 36 years old, was killed by his wife armed with a 20" long vibrator. Mrs. Mijtus had had enough of her husband's strange sex practices and one night during a prolonged period of "fun" she snapped, pushing all 20 inches of the vibrator into Alex's anus until it ruptured several internal organs and caused severe bleeding.

19. Debby Mills-Newbroughton, 99 years old, was killed as she crossed the road. She was to turn 100 the next day but crossing the road with her daughter to go to her own birthday party, her wheel chair was hit by the truck delivering her birthday cake.

18. Peter Stone, 42 years old, was murdered by his eight year-old daughter who he had just sent to her room with no dinner. Young Samantha Stone felt that if she couldn't have dinner no one should, and she promptly inserted 72 rat poison tablets into her father's coffee as he prepared dinner. The victim took one sip and promptly collapsed (Samantha Stone was given a suspended sentence as the judge felt she didn't realize what she was doing, until she tried to poison her mother using the same method one month later).

17. David Danil, 17 years old, was killed by his girlfriend Charla after he attempted to "have his way with her". His unwelcome advances were met with a prompt kick in the chest and then four shots from a doubled barrelled shot gun Charla's father had given to her an hour before the date started, just in case.

16. Javier Halos, 27 years old, was killed by his landlord for failing to pay his rent for eight years (yes, eight years). Landlord Kirk Weston clubbed the victim to death with a toilet seat after he realized just how long it had been since Mr Halos paid his rent.

15. Mary-Lee Cooper, 11 years old, was killed by her one year old sister who climbed on top of her while she was sleeping, suffocating her.

14. Megan Fri, 44 years old, was killed by 14 state troopers after she wandered onto a live firing, fake town simulation. Seeing the troopers all walking slowly down the street, Megan jumped out in front of them and yelled, "Boo!" The troopers, thinking she was a pop up target, fired 67 shots between them, over 40 of them hitting their target. "She just looked like a very real looking target," one of the troopers stated in his report.

13. Fiona Given, 17 years old, was killed by a hit man hired by her ex-boyfriend after she broke off their relationship. The hit man was promised to be paid $500,000 for the task. The hit man killed the boyfriend after he found out that a 16 year old high school student, whose father was in jail for rape and whose mother worked as an ironing lady, didn't have access to $500,000.

12. Louis Zaragoza, 68 years old, was killed as he prepared to drive to work. His wife, Lee Zaragoza, had been plotting to kill him for over a year, and had cut the brakes on his car four times previously. On this attempt, Lee was just about to cut the brakes again when Louis snuck up behind her. He grabbed her and spun her around. As he did, she lost her footing and stumbled into him, stabbing him in the lower ventricle of the heart, killing him instantly.

11. Mahmood Foli, 22 years old, was killed by an unknown member of the Russian Mafia after he accidentally took away the gangster's drink too soon at the nightclub he worked in. The gangster was so upset that he forced the waiter to drink over 27 liters of Coca Cola (the drink he had taken away) until Mahmood drowned.

10. Julia Smeeth, 20 years old, was killed by her brother Michael because she talked on the phone too long. Michael clubbed his sister to death with a cordless phone, then stabbed her several times with the broken aerial.

9. Helena Simms, wife of the famous American Nuclear Scientist Harold Simms, was killed by her husband after she had an affair with the neighbor. Over a period of three months, Harold substituted Helena's eye shadow with a uranium composite that was highly radioactive, until she died of radiation poisoning. Although she suffered many symptoms, including total hair loss, skin welts, blindness, extreme nausea and even had an ear lobe drop off, the victim never attended a doctor's surgery or hospital for a check up.

8. Military Sergeant John Joe Winter killed his "two timing wife" by loading her car with Trintynitrate explosive (similar to C4). The Ford Taurus she was driving was filled with 750 kilograms of explosive, forming a force twice as powerful as the Oklahoma Bombing. The explosion was witnessed by several people up to 14 kilometers away. No trace of the car or the victim were ever found, only a 55 meter deep crater and 500 meters of missing road.

7. Patty Winter, 35 years old, was killed by her neighbor in the early hours of a Sunday morning. Her neighbor, Falt Hame, for years had a mounted F6 phantom jet engine in his rear yard. He would fire the jet engine, aimed at a empty block at the back of his property. Patty Winter would constantly complain to the local sheriff's officers about the noise and the potential risk of fire. Mr. Hame was served with a notice to remove the engine immediately. Not liking this, he invited Miss Winter over "for a cup of coffee and a chat" about the whole situation. What Winter didn't know was that he had changed the position of the engine. As she walked into the yard, he activated it, hitting her with a blast of 5000 degrees, killing her instantly, and forever burning her outline into the driveway.

6. Michael Lewis, angry at his gay boyfriend, used the movie 'Die Hard With a Vengeance' as his inspiration. He drugged his boyfriend, Tony Berry, into an almost catatonic state, then dressed him only in a double-sided white board that read "Death to all niggers!" on one side and "God loves the K.K.K." on the other. Lewis then drove the victim to downtown Harlem and dropped him off. Two minutes later Berry was deceased.

5. Jay Newton was killed after a co-worker at Sea World in Florida dropped a 20 ton killer whale on him. The whale had been hoisted out of his tank by a Master Ton crane. When the victim swam underneath to inspect the harness. His colleague, Brian Hartley, released the whale, crushing the victim instantly (and emptying a quarter of the water from the pool).

4. Carl Densinter, 34 years old, was killed by a fellow worker trying to prove a point. The worker, San Amote Pet, disconnected the internal landing gear settings on a Boeing 747 test plane (the plane's gear automatically retracts after take off). But come landing time, the landing gear wouldn't re-engage. The helpless Densinter couldn't do a thing as the plane eventually ran out of fuel. In an attempt at an emergency landing, the 747 exploded and Densinter was killed instantly.

3. Mary Dridely, Joseph Coles and Haven Gillies were killed as they walked past a New York apartment building. David Smee, aged 7, and his 6 year old sister were left alone in their 27th floor hotel room by their parents as they went to the hotel's gaming room. Bored, the kids though it would be fun to try to squish the "ant looking things on the foot path below" (people). They started by throwing fruit, then quickly graduated to chairs, televisions, even the drawers from the bedroom dresser.

2. Conrad Middleton, 26 years old, was killed by his twin brother Brian after a disagreement over who should take the family home after their parents passed away. Conrad had a nasal problem and had no sense of smell. After the argument, Brian stormed out of the house, then snuck back later, and turned on the three gas taps in the house, filling it with gas. He then left out a box of cigars, a lighter and a note saying, "Sorry for the spree, have a puff on me. Brian." Conrad promptly lit a cigar, destroying the house and himself in the process.

1. Gail Queens, 23 years old, was killed by her zookeeper boyfriend Matthew Kellaway after she refused sex. He invited her to the zoo to see the lions feeding, and at feeding time led her into a room that had a large slide away panel. He explained to her that it was a large glass viewing window to watch the lions devour their prey. He ducked out for a quick smoke and locked her in the room. Suddenly the slide away panel opened to reveal many people staring at her. She was just about to yell and tell them that they were on the wrong side of the glass when she realized that it was her on the wrong side. Another panel opened and three hungry lions were let into the pen. Gail survived for two days in hospital before dying of massive internal injuries.

The Workplace

Maintaining a healthy level of insanity in the workplace

Find out where your boss shops and buy exactly the same outfits. Wear them one day after your boss does. This is especially effective if your boss is of a different gender than you.

Make up nicknames for all your coworkers and refer to them only by these names. (That's a good point, Sparky." "No, I'm sorry, but I'm going to have to disagree with you there Cha-cha.")

Send e-mail to the rest of the company telling them exactly what you're doing. For example: "If anyone needs me, I'll be in the bathroom."

Hi-Lite your shoes. Tell people you haven't lost them as much since you did this.

While sitting at your desk, soak your fingers in Palmolive liquid. Call everyone Madge

Hang mosquito netting around your cubicle. When you emerge to get coffee or a printout or whatever, slap yourself randomly the whole way.

Put a chair facing a printer. Sit there all day and tell people you're waiting for your document.

Every time someone asks you to do something, anything, ask him or her if they want fries with that.

Send e-mail back and forth to yourself engaging yourself in an intellectual debate. Forward the mail to a co-worker and ask her to settle the disagreement.

Encourage your colleagues to join you in a little synchronized chair dancing.

Put your trashcan on your desk. Label it "IN."

Feign an unnatural and hysterical fear of staplers.

Send e-mail messages saying there's free pizza or donuts or cake in the lunchroom. When people drift back to work complaining that they found none, lean back, pat your stomach and say, "Oh you've got to be faster than that."

Put decaf in the coffee maker for three weeks. Once everyone has withdrawn from caffeine addiction, switch to espresso.

The New Secretary

The real-estate boss got a hot new secretary, and he decided to put some moves on her. But within a few weeks, he is feeling displeased at the way she is working, not caring, coming to work late, and so on.

Finally, he pulls her aside, and has a little talk with her. "Listen, baby, we may have gone to bed together a few times, but who said you could start coming in late and slacking off?"

The secretary's reply, "My lawyer!"

Some Useful Phrases for Around the Office

How about never? Is never good for you?

I see you've set aside this special time to humiliate yourself in public.

I'll try being nicer if you'll try being smarter.
I'm out of my mind, but feel free to leave a message.
I don't work here. I'm a consultant.
Who me? I just wander from room to room.
It might look like I'm doing nothing, but at the cellular level I'm really quite busy.
At least I have a positive attitude about my destructive habits.

It's all about the money

(Unfortunately this has always been the case, 9 out of 10 times)

A crusty old man walks into a bank and says to the teller at the window, "I want to open a damn checking account." To which the astonished woman replies, "I beg your pardon, sir; I must have misunderstood you. What did you say?"

"Listen up, damn it. I said I want to open a damn checking account right now!"

"I'm very sorry sir, but we do not tolerate that kind of language in this bank." So saying, the teller leaves the window and goes over to the bank manager to tell him about her situation. They both return and the manager asks the old geezer, "What seems to be the problem here?"

"There's no fucking problem, dammit!" "I just won $50 million bucks in the damn lottery and I want to open a damn checking account in this damned bank!"

"I see," says the manager, "and this bitch is giving you a hard time?"

Creative Signs

In the front yard of a funeral home- "Drive carefully, we'll wait."

On an electrician's truck- "Let us remove your shorts."

Outside a radiator repair shop- "Best place in town to take a leak."

In a nonsmoking area- "If we see you smoking, we will assume you are on fire and take appropriate action."

On a maternity room door- "Push, Push, Push."

On a front door- "Everyone on the premises is a vegetarian except the dog."

At an optometrist's office- "If you don't see what you're looking for, you've come to the right place."

On a taxidermist's window- "We really know our stuff."

On a butcher's window- "Let me meat your needs."

On a fence- "Salesmen welcome. Dog food is expensive." (Ouch!)

At a car dealership- "The best way to get back on your feet—miss a car payment."

Outside a muffler shop- "No appointment necessary. We'll hear you coming."

In a dry cleaner's emporium- "Drop your pants here."

On a desk in a reception room- "We shoot every 3rd salesman and the 2nd one just left."

In a veterinarian's waiting room- "Be back in 5 minutes. Sit! Stay!"

In a Beauty Shop- "Dye now!

In a restaurant window- "Don't stand there and be hungry, come in and get fed up."

Inside a bowling alley- "Please be quiet. We need to hear a pin drop."

In a cafeteria- "Shoes are required to eat in the cafeteria. Socks can eat any place they want

"On Sale Today!"

As she walked up to the store's fabric counter, a pretty girl asked, "I want to buy this material for a new dress. How much does it cost?"

"On sale today, just one kiss per yard," replied the young gent behind the counter.

"That's fine," replied the young lady, flashing a gorgeous smile, "I'll take 12 yards."

With expectation and anticipation written all over his face, the clerk hurriedly measured out and wrapped the cloth, then held it out teasingly. The girl snapped up the package, turned to go and pointed to a little old man chewing tobacco beside her. "Grandpa will pay the bill," she said.

Clinton Bashing

Bill & Hillary Clinton were sleeping one night at the White House. Hillary wakes up and starts shaking Bill to wake him up. "Bill, Bill wake up." Bill stays sleeping. Hillary continues, "Bill, Bill wake up." Bill finally wakes up and says, "What do you want?" Hillary responds, "I have to go use the bathroom." To which Bill says, "Please tell me you didn't wake me up just to tell me you have to go to the bathroom."

Hillary says, "No, I just wanted to tell you to save my spot."

Have you heard about the new computer model? It's called Bill Clinton. It comes with a six-inch hard drive and no memory.

The genie gets even

A Man is walking down the beach and sees an old bottle in the sand and begins to play kick-the-bottle to amuse himself. After a while he picks it up, and a pissed off genie merges. She says "normally I grant 3 wishes, but in your case, you SOB, I am going to grant only one." He thinks a minute and says "OK, I want to wake up with three women in my bed." She says- "So be it!", and disappears back into the bottle. Next morning, he wakes up with Lorena Bobbitt, Tonya Harding and Hillary Clinton. He has no penis, a broken leg, and no health insurance.

During a recent publicity outing, Hillary sneaked off to visit a fortuneteller of some local repute. In a dark and hazy room, peering into a crystal ball, the mystic delivered grave news. "There's no easy way to say this, so I'll just be blunt: Prepare yourself to be a widow. Your husband will die a violent and horrible death this year."

Visibly shaken, Hillary stared at the woman's lined face, then at the single flickering candle, then down at her hands. She took a few deep breaths to compose herself. She simply had to know. She met the fortuneteller's gaze, steadied her voice, and asked her question.

"Will I be acquitted?"

The Indian chief says to his son, "Son, you push-um outhouse off-um cliff?" The kid says, "No, me no push-um outhouse off-um cliff." The chief says, "Son, me tell-um you story of Great White Father, George Washington. Many moons ago, when Great White Father was young boy, him chop-um down cherry tree." Him father ask-um, "Georgie, you chop-um down cherry tree?' George say-um, "Cannot tell lie, Father. Me chop-um down cherry tree." Him father say, "Georgie bad, but Georgie honest, so you no get-um punishment."

"Now I ask-um you again…you push-um outhouse off-um cliff?" The kid says, "Yes, Father, me push-um outhouse off-um cliff." The Chief grabs the kid and beats the tar out of him. The kid says, "Father, Great White Father tell truth and get-um off scott-free. I tell-um truth…why you beat-um tar out of me?" The Chief says, "George Washington's father not in cherry tree when George chop-um down."

A Dr. Suess style poem

Kenneth Starr:

I am Starr. Starr I are
I'm a brilliant barri-star.
I'm here to ask, as you'll soon see,
Did you grope Miss Lew-in-sky?
Did you grope her in your house?
Did you grope beneath her blouse?
Did she give you gifts and ties?
Were you spied by prying eyes?

William J. Clinton:

I did not do that here or there!
I did not do that anywhere!
I did not do that in a chair!
I went not near her giant hair!
I did not join—even for fun,
The Mile High Club in Air Force One,
So stow your feathers and your tar,
I did not do her Starr you are!

Kenneth Starr:
Did you smile?
Did you Flirt?
Did you peek beneath her skirt?
And did you tell the girl to lie,
When called upon to testify?

William J. Clinton:
That is it, you've gone too far!
I do not like you Starr you are!
I will not answer any more!
In fact, I think I'll start a war!
The public's easy to distract,
When bombs are falling on Iraq!

Lucky Frog

A man takes the day off work and decides to go out golfing. He is on the second hole when he notices a frog sitting next to the green. He thinks nothing of it and is about to shoot when he hears, "Ribbit 9 Iron." The man looks around and doesn't see anyone.

Again, he hears,"Ribbit 9 Iron." He looks at the frog and decides to prove the frog wrong, puts the club away, and grabs a 9 iron. Boom! He hits it 10 inches from the cup. He is shocked. He says to the frog, "Wow that's amazing. You must be a lucky frog, eh?" The frog reply's, "Ribbit Lucky frog." The man decides to take the frog with him to the next hole. "What do you think frog?" the man asks. "Ribbit 3 wood." The guy takes out a 3 wood and, Boom! Hole in one. The man is befuddled and doesn't know what to say. By the end of the day, the man golfed the best game of golf in his life and asks the frog, "okay where to next?" The frog replies, "Ribbit Las Vegas." They go to Las Vegas and the guy says, "okay frog, now what?" The frog says, "Ribbit Roulette." Upon approaching the roulette table, the man asks, "What do you think I should bet?" The frog replies, "Ribbit $3000, black 6." Now, this is a million-to-one shot to win, but after the golf game, the man figures what the heck. Boom! Tons of cash comes sliding back across the table. The man takes his winnings and buys the best room in the hotel.

He sits the frog down and says, "Frog, I don't know how to repay you. You've won me all this money and I am forever grateful." The frog replies, "Ribbit Kiss Me." He figures why not, since after all the frog did for him, he deserves it. With a kiss, the frog turns into a gorgeous 15-year old girl. "And that, your honor, is how the girl ended up in my room. So help me God or my name is not William Jefferson Clinton."

The wives of three presidents and a prime minister are talking together about how a penis is called in their language. The wife of Tony Blair says in England people call it a gentleman, because it stands up when women are entering. The wife of Boris Yeltsin says in Russia one calls it a patriot, because you never know if it will hit you on the front or on the backside. Bernadette, the wife of Jacques Chirac, says in France one calls it a curtain, because it goes down after the act. The wife of Bill Clinton says in the USA one calls it a rumor, because it goes from mouth to mouth.

From the law offices of Johnnie Cochran, Esquire, here are the top ten proposed closing arguments in the matter of United States v. William J. Clinton:

10. If the dress aint a mess, he won't need to confess
9. The economy's great let the white boy skate
8. If the Bitch didn't spit, you must acquit
7. If she is not spread eagle, then it is not illegal
6. Lewinsky's a whore, and Bill's better than Gore
5. So he lied to the masses, he was just saving some asses
4. He cheats on his wife, but it's his personal life
3. Bill can't tell the truth till he sees Ken Starr's proof
2. Bill is not sleazy Lewinsky's just easy

And the number one closing argument by Johnny Cochran:

1. If the sex is just oral, it is not really immoral

Hillary is waiting at the pearly gates and St. Peter comes up and says, "I know you were somebody down on Earth, but you are just like everyone else up here, so you will have to wait your turn. Hillary takes a seat and notices this wall covered with clocks. She also notices that every now and then, different clocks jump 15 minutes ahead of time. When St. Peter returns, Hillary says, "What's with all the clocks?" St. Peter replies, "Well, each clock represents a man back on Earth." Hillary asks, "Why is it that some of the clocks skip ahead 15 minutes?" "Every time a clock skips, that means that a man has committed adultery," answers St. Peter. "Which one is my husband's clock?" inquires Hillary. "God has that one in his office," answers St. Peter. "He uses it as a fan."

A salesman was traveling between towns and got a flat tire in the middle of nowhere. Checking the spare, he found that it was flat, too. His only option was to flag down a passing motorist and get a ride to the nearest town. The first vehicle to stop was an old man in a pickup truck. He yelled out the window to the salesman, "Need a lift?" "Yes, I do," replied the salesman. "Are you a Democrat or Republican?" asked the old man. "A Republican," replied the salesman. "Get screwed!" yelled the old man as he sped off. The next to stop rolled down the window and asked the same question, to which the salesman gave the same answer, "Republican." The driver gave him the finger and drove off. The salesman thought it over, and decided that maybe he should change his approach, since there appeared to be few Republicans in this area. The next car to stop was a red convertible driven by a beautiful blonde. She smiled seductively and asked him if he were a Democrat or Republican. "Democrat!" shouted the salesman. "Hop in!" replied the blonde. Driving down the road, he can't help but stare at the gorgeous woman in the seat next to him—the wind blowing through her hair, perfect breasts, and a short skirt that continues to ride higher and higher up her thighs. Finally, he yells "STOP THE CAR! STOP THE CAR!" She slams on the brakes, and, as soon as the car stops, he jumps out. "What's the matter?" she asks. "I can't take it!" he replies. "I've only been a Democrat for five minutes and already I want to sleep with a woman I've only just met!

Bill and Hillary were married for 40 years. When they first got married Bill said, "I am putting a box under the bed. You must promise never to look in it." In all their 40 years of marriage Hillary never looked. However on the afternoon of their 40th anniversary curiosity got the best of her and she lifted the lid and peeked inside. In the box were 3 empty beer cans and $1874.25 in small bills. She closed the box and put it back under the bed. Now that she knew what was in the box, she was doubly curious as to why. That evening they were out for a special dinner. After dinner Hillary could no longer contain her curiosity and she confessed, saying, "I am so sorry. For all these years I kept my promise and never looked into the box under our bed. However today the temptation was too much and I gave in. But now I need to know why do you keep the bottles in the box?" Bill thought for a while and said, "I guess after all these years you deserve to know the truth. Whenever I was unfaithful to you I put an empty beer bottle in the box under the bed to remind myself not to do it again." Hillary was shocked, but said, "I am very disappointed and saddened but I guess after all those years away from home on the road, temptation does happen and I guess that 3 times is not that bad considering the years." They hugged and made their peace. A little while later Hillary asked Bill, "Why do you have all that money in the box?" To which Bill answered, "Whenever the box filled with empties, I cashed them in.

One afternoon, three close friends named Hercules, Sleeping Beauty and Don Juan, sat by the river contemplating their lives. Bold and arrogant, Hercules exclaimed that he was surely the strongest person in the world. "That may be true", said Sleeping Beauty, "but I am better because I am obviously the most beautiful person in the world". Don Juan laughed at both of them and said that without a doubt, he must be the greatest person alive simply because he had been with the most women. After several hours of argument, they decided to consult a Guru for the truth. First, Hercules went into Guru's cave. A few moments later he came out with a massive grin on his face. The Guru had said that he was, in fact, the strongest person in the world. He was very pleased. Sleeping beauty came out of the cave with a lovely smile: "It is true! I AM the most beautiful woman in the world!" Moments later a distraught Don Juan came stomping out of the cave: "Who the hell is Bill Clinton?"

Sung to the tune of the Beverly Hillbillies

Well dere once was a story 'bout a man named Bill; Da poor president couldn't keep his willie still; Den one day he was workin' at his desk, When in walks Monica and shows da boy her chest…

Boobs, that is. Two of 'em. Bodacious ta ta's

Well da next thing ya know, Monica is on her knees, mouth open wide and as happy as you please; Bill sez, "Oh yeah now don't say a thing," "If you do a good job then we'll have a little fling."

Blow job, that is. Phalli osculation

Well, Bill lost his load and it fell upon her dress, He said "Clean it up, 'cuz you really are a mess, And you're invited here to dis fine locality, To have a heapin' helpin' of little Willie C." Da weiner, that is. Da presidential staff.

So week after week, Monica is on her knees Keepin' Willie and his wiener just as happy as you please, But then she figured out dat the fling had gone too far, And she blabbed it all to Linda Tripp who blabbed it all to Starr.

Bad girl, that is. Cigars. Bodacious ta ta's

Well it weren't too long 'til we all knew the score, 'bout da stuff dat went down behind da oval office door; Da country's in da toilet and da people cry, "No more" But if we oust da cheatin' jerk, den we gotta live with Gore.

Boob, that is. Great big one Head stuck up his rear.

So now ya know da story 'bout Bill our president. Wonderin' if dis fling's gonna cost him every cent; So da moral of da story is to do it quietly, And stay outta trouble with dat girl named Hillary.

A woman always wanted an expensive car—a status symbol to drive around and be seen in. She scrimps and saves, goes to the BMW dealer, and plops down several years income for a brand new state-of-the-art, computer enhanced, kick-ass, dream mobile.

While she's driving off, she decides she wants some music and searches for the radio. The dashboard looks like a control panel at NASA. She fiddles with this button, that gizmo, jiggles these and those, but finally gives up. Can't find the damned thing.

Furious, she races back to the dealership and screams at the salesman. Tells him they forgot to install the radio. He assures her it's right there in front of her. It's hooked into the onboard computer. All she has to do is tell it what she wants.

He demonstrates: "Classical," he says. "Click", the car fills with the sounds of Paganini.

"Blues," she says, and "click" a B.B. King classic plays. She drives off amazed. Country," she says, and "click" a Garth Brooks tune comes on. "Folk" and "click" Joan Baez sings about the night they drove ol' Dixie down. "New Age" and "click" Yanni at the Acropolis snaps on. She's so captivated by this new toy that she isn't paying much attention to the road. Another driver runs a light and cuts her off. "ASSHOLE!" She screams. Click- "Ladies and gentlemen, the President of the United States."

Toward the end of 1997 I embarked upon a journey to compile as many jokes as I could. I decided to name the book Internet Jokes due to the origin of most of the jokes. If you have access to the web or e-mail I'm sure you too have received many jokes at one time or another. I was receiving so many jokes via e-mail that I decided to categorize each joke and put them in a book.

The jokes that follow are not all "G" rated folks. Then again they are all not "R" rated jokes either. If you are easily offended, this book may not be for you. Mostly everything in this book (99%) came to me via e-mail. You will find many interesting pieces of information, (whether reliable or not is yet to be known), amusing tidbits and a wealth of laughter. I gave credit to the originator of the contents whenever feasible. I tried to be as tasteful as humanely possible and not include any jokes that would be too offensive or were in poor taste. I certainly hope you enjoy reading this book as much as I enjoyed compiling it for your reading delight. jkl
