Before the Purgatory:

DJ was born to Pastor Duncan Hopkins and Claire Miller in Stotfold, England. She had a very religious uprising and went to a parochial school. She has always been an hyperactive, excitable, and outgoing girl since a young age and loved the pentecostal's services. She developed a love from music at a young age, especially EDM music such as Dubstep, House Trance, and Frenchcore. DJ was also a very applicated student, being the top student in Computer classes she found passion on Computers and electronic devices.
After graduating Highschool, DJ was offered to study Programming and computer software at the prestigious "Saint Denis's Academy" in London, After arriving at the Academy, DJ found interest in the midnight parties, for the first time being a Disc-Jokey at a party she earned the name "DJ" by her class peers. DJ slowly lost interest in her studies and mostly focused her times throwing parties at the dorms, even to the point of clubbing outside the academy, it was at this club she met another DJ called Jim who introduce her to LSD drugs, they develop a relationship later.

22 years later, DJ was expelled from Saint-Denis, Instead of returning home, DJ resided in London for a few months, participating in hard drug parties and orgies with Jim, She was known as a very hot DJ Trance and Hardcore music, she was named "DJ Psilocybin" for her parties usually involving Hallucinc drugs and Psytrance music.

In March 2014, DJ has overdosed on drugs and was declared dead at a London club, It is presumed it may have been accidental, She was assigned to the Pripyat Purgatory and arrived at the town where she lives now.

Appearance:

DJ is a young, voluptuous white girl with a curvy body, blond hair, green lime eyes, and freckles.

She dresses in a rather revealing outfit: a black jacket closed in the middle revealing a blue sports bra with a skull logo (her DJ logo), a dark blue double tutu, and knee-high stockings, along with their black rollers

Personality:

DJ is very Hyperactive and outgoing, She is known for being very enthusiastic and excitable, She speaks a very thick Cockney accent and often uses Rymming slangs that make her almost unintelligible (This is another quirk of her as she was shown to speak clearly without her accent)

In contrast to her usual gleeful attitude towards most activities and interactions, DJ has admitted to being rather insecure in regards to her place in the purgatory, showing remorse for the path she took and how easily her death could be avoided, along with making certain friends that took advantage of her when she was alive.

Relationships:

Katya

Despite the clear contrast between the two, DJ considers Katya as a close friend and they both manage to work a friendship while living togheter

Buryat

Due to their contrasting personalities, DJ and Buryat have a rocky relationship,DJ likes messing with Buryat and considers him a good friend

Carrie

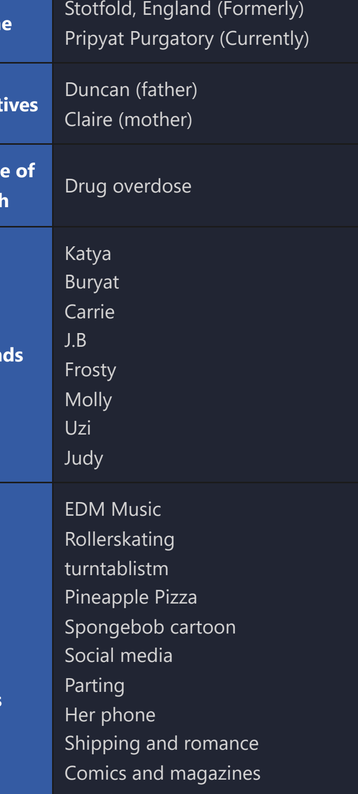

Carrie is probably one of DJ's best friends in the purgatory, they share the same interests and the same circle of friends, along with their love for partying
