Katya's Backstory

Authors HellOnEarthIII
Cast Katya Buryat
Published 2 years, 5 months ago
Updated 2 years, 5 months ago
Stats — 2535

Chapter 1 Published 2 years, 5 months ago
— 2535

Terrorism, Neo nazis

Katya's Backstory (full)

Growing up she was a good-natured child in an abusive household. Her father tried to indoctrinate her on racial supremacy from a very young age, but she hardly understood it. Unline her brother. Katya wasn't homeschooled and she attended school with other kids. Katya usually watched in terror how his father treated her brother, but Buryat always calmed her telling her that all this is important in order to be strong so he can protect her. In her teenage. Katya usually fed the stray cats of her neighborhood and even gave each one a name, months later she found them beheaded in a trash bag, Katya instantly claimed it was her outcasted classmate, Timofey, since he had a history of hurting small animals, as Katya stated "A serial killer in the making". One day, in the morning, Katya received a call during her class, Her father Matej has been murdered by a Somalian refugee while on duty. The news devastated Katya, despite all the cruel beatings she always loved her father, Buryat was there to comfort her. In the evening, while she and Buryat came back from the hospital a group of news reporters surrounds them, there were covering the news about Her father getting shot so Katya explained to them how she feels, sooner than later she starts blaming immigration and using slur words on the killer (an African refugee), the reporters quickly try to reprimand her saying that was hate speech and how she wasn't thinking right due to the shock of the news live on TV, Katya went on a loudly racial rant, Buryat quickly interrupts the interview and push the reporters out of his propriety, Katya couldn't stop thinking about the disrespectful manner she was treated by the reporters, so she turns on the news on the TV. She finds out the news where they were talking about the murder, but instead, they were talking about the swastika tattoos Matej had on the chest, later they started to talk about her, as Katya said on open TV. Buryat told her not to see it but she kept watching, the news started talking about how the victim was a neo-nazi and his daughter was one too, they focus on this, so in Katya's eyes, the media was almost justifying the murder of his father, Katya's blood was boiling, in her mind she started to remember every word his father use to told her, everything started to make sense now, for the first time Katya was assimilating her father's words and racism

Buryat and Katya were cleaning his father room, on the Wardrobe, Katya found out the footlocker of his father, Buryat manage to open it and they found out a Blutfahne flag along with nazi relics, Buryat grabbed the flag explain to Katya that this is the ideology their father inherited for them, that fascism was his way of life, and how Matej married to pass his philosophy on them. Katya realizes that by, and told Buryat that she too wanted to know more about, where she has to be part of the family tradition, and so, Buryat agree to train and teach her the way of life of Fascism a year went by and Katya has trained nonstop, heavy lifting and practicing self-defense, one day shopping, Katya encountered a man well dressed, along with another two, asking people for their sign, Katya approach, and the man presented himself, the name was Anatoly and he was the Head of a new political party for the city called Russian Radical Front Party or "RRFP" and that they were a far-right group that was going to make a lot of changes once they go on power, Katya impressed by this told then that it was a relief knowing that she's not alone on her ideology, Anatoly recognized her from the news interview, and praise her for her course, later he invited her to a be part of the party. The days passed since Buryat and Katya became members, they have to attend local rallies, these rallies usually end up in riots because of the Antifa group brawling with the "RRFP", Katya wanted to counter this with more violence but Anatoly refuseD because it would be bad publicity for the party and could lose the popular vote. Anatoly announced to party, that the elections would take place in January of the next year, In January the party loses the election with 73% of differences between all the other political parties The party slowly dissolved into having nothing more than 20 members. Anatoly call every one of them and give them a final speech, in which he declares that "It wasn't over" and how he's planning another group, more radical than before, he says that everyone who doesn't have the "guts" to defend his country that walks away, only 5 of them stayed (Including Katya and Buryat)

Anatoly decides to form a kind of patrol called "New Triumph Party" and using a blue version of the Blutfahne as their flag and uses an old farm near Promyshlennyi. The group of Anatoly slowly turns into a militia he used to bring violence upon the streets beating immigrants and catfish gay couples they found, to torture gay couples, punishing them and recording the crime while making fun of them, the main goon on these attacks where Katya who use to be the "commander" in front of these attacks With her new friends and a feeling of leadership, she decided to take a hit; Timofey, the local psychopath, 2 days passed, Timofey was shopping at the store gets confronted by Katya and the murder of her kittens, Timofey denies everything, Katya, Tired of Excuses cuts the way of Tima and told him that she knew it was him, Timofey after a pause starts laughing and screams at the top of his lungs in Katya's face and starts telling her how he would torture and kill her if she doesn't back off, Katya keeps her straight face looking him deep in the eyes She says nothing and lets the car behind Tima open its doors, it was the New Triumph member, Buryat grab Tima against his will and the members opened the door, covering his face, Katya was just making time so nobody could see this, the members along with Katya takes Tima far on the road, to an abandoned car workshop, outside Vorkuta The New Triumph gives Tima a savage beating, they leave his face purple and knock some of his teeth, all this while Katya was outside making sure nobody saw them after 15 minutes she comes and she squats to talk with the bloody mess of Timofey, He could only beg and shake in fear, he started crying, moaning incomprehensible noises for his swollen cheeks Katya takes out her revolver and attempts to shot him, but she's stopped by Milos, who told her it is a bad idea after some arguing, she decides to let him live, but with all his fingers broken, she approached Timofey and broke each one of his fingers. Finally, she and the other leave the scene, Later news they hear about Tima was found and quickly rushed to the hospital, he claimed he was "hit by a car".

by October of 2013, the group went back to the headquarter and find out from the outside that the farm has been vandalized, Only a few broken windows and "nazi scum" paints everywhere, this alerted the group who went inside to see the damages, they found out that some people have been there, even a smell of gasoline in the house like someone would have planned to burn the place, after walking around for a moment they realize that the vandals found out about the bodies and where hiding inside the house, at that moment 2 guys run from the closet to the door trying to escape, but Buryat manage to catch them One of them says that they're from a branch of "Antifa", that they wanted to burn the farm to the ground but didn't realize the party was so dangerous, they found the bodies and quickly hide when they heard them come, they both begged for their life and swore to never speak about this again, crying Anatoly gave Buryat the order to kill them, this act was reprehensible since the 2 Antifa members were "just kids" Anatoly stated that they know too much, Buryat beat them both to death and the Members carry their body to the farm, now the "RRFP" has 5 bodies in their basement. Later that day, Katya was talking with Milos in the farm, when they both hear gunshots so, they run quickly back to the house to the arsenal and walked slowly, along with the other members with a gun in their hands, all they see in the snow it's two men bleeding outside, and approach them, Katya confirms that one is dead and the other one has a bullet wound in the stomachs and can't walk, the wounded man identifies himself as police and told Katya and the others that they were going as civilians to investigate the disappearance of some refugees. Anatoly order Buryat and Milos to bring the wounded cop inside in the basement, and the corpse of his partner, later, Anatoly came back from the Basement and warned the group that they're in BIG trouble, the group quickly split up and ran away so only Anatoly, Milos, and his bodyguards stayed in the house, including Buryat and Katya. The Party started to entrench the house, putting mattresses on the window and wardrobes on the door, everything that could delay an entry on the police, they'll not make it easy for the police, Anatoly was decided to not go on the jail, along with the other, so they lock the wounded police in the basement and wait for the rest of the cops to negotiate 25 hours passed and finally, the police surrounder the house, Anatoly (lying) said that they have children inside and don't try to use tear gas or anything to break inside, that the police officer is stable on the basement, but they're not letting him go till they remove the search charges and leave, clarifying that everything was in self-defense but the police were not there to negotiate, they wanted Anatoly and everyone inside to surrender, the party refused. the days pass and the siege continues, with the police surrounding the mountain and having snipers around the house, inside the group was still trying to negotiate, but at this point, they feared for their lives, in September of 2014, the siege lasted at least a week, the food supplies for the party were about to run dry, the wounded cop has fallen sick and needed professional attention. Anatoly decide, alongside 2 members and Buryat to carry the wounded cop to the entrance, and exchange him for their liberty (at this point Anatoly thought that the serious condition of the hostage would help him granting his demands), so they carry him to the garage of the house Katya and Milos keep the guard at the corner of the house, keeping an eye on the police, they both were discussing how they're gonna get out of this, Katya says that they don't have enough proof and that they won't go on jail since this is a big misunderstanding, and they were just defending their property, Milos even propose Katya that if they get out of this one, they could go for a beer or something, when Katya was about to replies, gunshots can be heard from the garage outside the house, they both pay attention and watch in fear how the police start to approach the scene, Milos shouted at them that "That's far enough, we're not giving up here', Katya is frozen in fear for his brother, she didn't think about anything, she stayed on the window watching the police enter that garage minutes that felt like hours passed since the gunshots, and the police take 2 bodies from the garage, Milos was shocked, maybe it was a traitor he says, maybe Anatoly shot himself, Katya can't stop looking at the paramedics. The cops took one body, then 4 cops had a bigger corpse, it was Buryat's body Katya feels her heart stopped, her blood starts to run icy water, she feels a chill climbing on her spine, Milos tried to mumble something but Katya is stunned, didn't say a thing, not even breathe, no doubt was Buryat's body, in a very long pause of silence, Katya grab's her gun, opened the front door and she started walking towards the police, Milos started shouting at her to don't go, that they're gonna kill her, but she just keeps walking with a hateful stare Without a warning, Katya draws her revolver and start shooting at the police in rage, she doesn't even aim, the police and the snipers opens fire on her, riddling her with a rain of bullets, Katya is shot numerous times and falls dead on the ground