STALKING THE UNCUT
ROYAL MARINES

THE BLAKE TWINS are 28, fraternal, crewcut, spectacularly muscled, big blue-eyed, blue-collar Brits. Their uncut dicks together measure 18+ inches and their combined weight is a quarter ton—dick size and body mass split evenly.

Gage is the quiet twin.

Blue talks the talk.

They are friendly.

"So," I say making an anti-joke, "you protect the Queen."

Gage laughs and says, "Actually, Prince Edward."

Hmmm, I muse.

"Yeah," Blue says, "the Royals are falling apart, so's the UK. You Yanks can call the miniseries Gone with the Windsors."

Blake laughs.

Gage laughs.

We all goddam laugh.

They eat. Massive muscular arms lifting the food. Twin stacks of pancakes. Double orders of scrambled eggs. Lush black coffee. The air-diner tab is fifty bucks. The care and feeding of body-builders. I fold out the cash at the register. The Twins flank me like Black-And-Tan bodyguards.

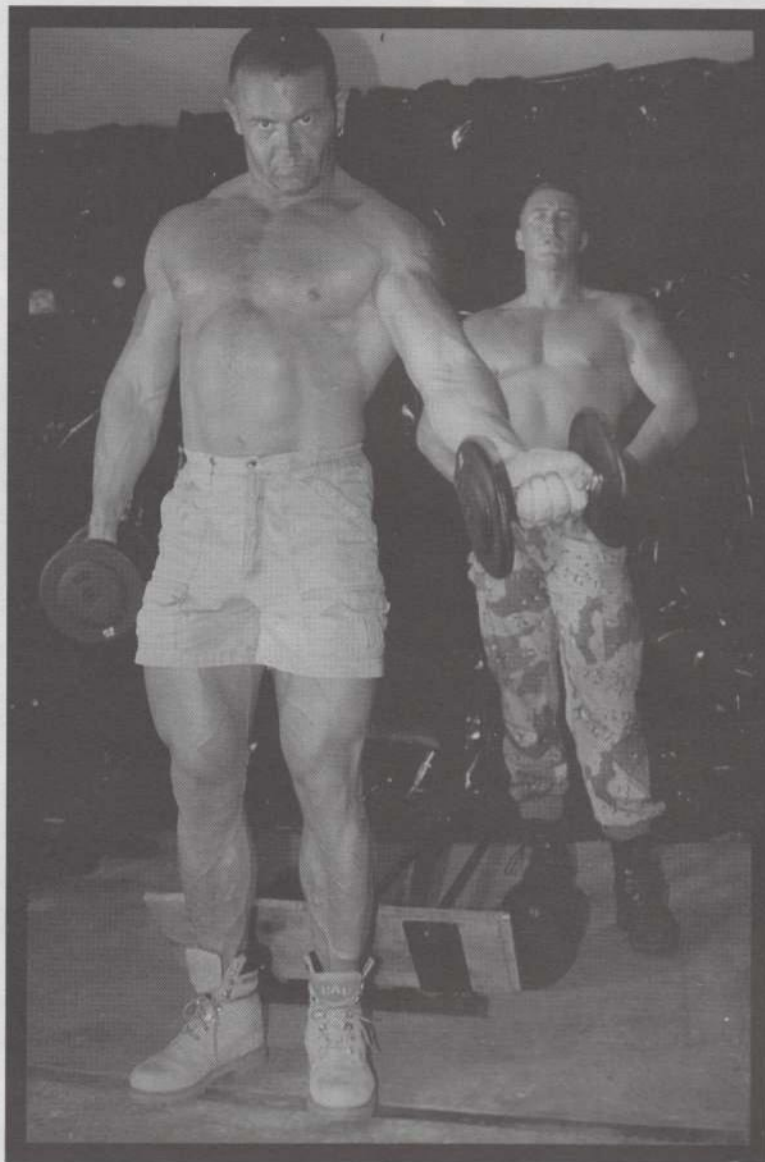

I get a rush.

Sex is in the air.

Blind meat makes me crazy.

I love big, thick, juicy, uncut dick.

I love it clean and washed with the smell of fresh army-issue soap.

I love it sweaty, cheesy and dirty with the honest smegma of a big working-man who hasn't had time to strip its roll of lip back to wash its ring around the collar.

I've paid my dues sniffing out the most beautiful dicks: huge, thick, chunky cocks that hang long and strong, with the heavy-veined shafts helmeted with a juicy fold of foreskin.

I usher the hunks into the Palm Drive free-weight gym.

They hit a few poses in the mirrors.

I check out their "look" in the video lights.

They strip off their uniforms and oil each other up like best buddies who've curled up together since before birth.

Their twin uncut dicks are a matched set, hanging between massive thighs mapped with veins like a roadmap to heaven.

How I suffer for art!

Having these Twins in my gym is not personal.

We three have come together so they can cum for the viewers. I won't cum until night. After they fly away.

I worship the uncut dick attached to these muscular military twins descended from Anglo-Saxon warriors with a bit of blond Viking Berserker thrown in the genetic mix for fucking wild good measure.

The Blakes, typically British, thought nothing special about their foreskins until they hit the shores of the USA. A little stateside sexual experience taught them how much guys prefer their tubed steaks.

They strut and pose for the camera proudly flaunting the gift that was not cut away from them.

Through my viewfinder I figure there's nothing hotter than a man with an uncut dick who likes to pose and swing his big, blind stuff—unless it's muscle-animal twins mirroring each other's moves.

Looking at the twins, a man needs a drool bucket. Maybe I even said as much.

"You ain't kidding," Blue says knowingly between takes.

"My bruver and I," —his accent ain't Masterpiece Theatre, dude—"like to take showers in the Marine barracks, with all the guys. You see a guy scrubbing and soaping his uncut dick, washing his banger inside the skin, and out, stretching, holding it up to the shower spray, filling the cup of skin with water, and nobody looks twice.

"It's all natural to us. You're the ones with the funny-looking dicks. Isn't that true, Gage?"

"Yeah, it's true what my bruver says. You guys have funny dicks."

The Twins stroke their fat, uncut meat. Their faces are fraternal, but their dicks look identical to me.

They talk about themselves as twins having sex with their dad, who is now age 47. I restrain the impulse to immediately phone their dad for a Blake-bunch 3-way.

Don't cha luv family values!

The hot video lights bring drops of sweat on their muscled pecs.

I adjust the focus and zoom in on a well-hung guy jerking off his own uncut rod. I notice he gets a longer stroke than my cut models because of the extra skin. It slides like a slick piece of heaven up and down his shaft.

Gage mentions a girlfriend he's hot for.

Blake says, "I like to watch my bruver fuck. We pick up some Asian girl, tie her down, and shave her pussy. Then while Gage fucks her, I lick out his ass."

My heart cracks thunder. My dick inches further down my jeans!

These guys are turned on by sex together in all it perversatile forms.

I salute their eager carnal-

Dear Editor,

Issue #14 arrived today, thanks! I read it from cover to cover and I enjoyed it.

However, I was amused by your review of Foreskin Forum. Your rating was much too high. I have enclosed a copy of the advertisement that appeared in Frontiers in 1988. From the advertisement, I was expecting something very interesting and looked forward to something sexy. It turned out to be a 'homemade' very unprofessional joke.

I will have to run it again just to see if it is as bad as it was 5 years ago.

Good luck with your magazine and I look forward to your future editions.

Sincerely,

H.M.

Dear Editor,

It's great to have you back. Issue #15 was fantastic from cover to cover and I appreciate the solid, glossy paper along with the centerfold featuring an all-too-rare uncut Caucasian in his early 20's. More, more, more!

I moved to Texas from the Northeast three years ago and FQ readers will be interested to know that the Lone Star State is a real patchwork quilt when it comes to circumcision.

There are uncut Hispanics and rural boys with 'skin', but all the white Anglo's in urban areas are circumcised.

Dallas is the buckle of the Bible Belt and from the looks of things you'd think that Southern Baptists require circumcision as part of their religion. The sad part is that the trend towards non-circumcision has seeped into the subcon-

Dear Editor,

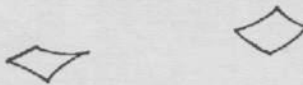

Help! I was robbed as a little kid. Some bearded guy, chanting Hebrew, took away what I now consider my prized possession.

I've wanted it restored for some time now, but I do not know which method is successful. Currently, I'm doing weight training. Can you help me?

Congratulations on a fine magazine. Is it possible to have just a few more pictures of those uncut wonders?

After my first experience with an uncut cock, I've never been so aroused and wanted nothing but an uncut cock. Keep up the good work!

Thanks very much

Dear H.M., D.T. and R.M.,

Thanks for the pats on the back! We like hearing from our readers on all aspects of F.Q., positive and negative. We're working to bring you a balance of photos, stories, artwork and features. With limited space, more of one thing means less of something else. So also let us know what bores you as well. We want to be responsive!

R.M.: The best method of restoration... that's a big question. I'll pass your letter on to Dr. Skinnon for his advice. (Readers may contact Dr. Skinnon by writing to Parkwood, Attn: Dr. Skinnon.)

Shawn left Philadelphia by train, heading west for the Gold Rush Country in California. The Philadelphia Sentinel had read "California Strikes Gold!" Besides the precious metal, he noted golden opportunities existed for shrewd entrepreneurs. Shawn's idea was to provide entertainment, in the personal sense, for the men with gold dust clinging to their clothing.

On the train to Chicago, Shawn met up with a man in the sleeper car named Charles Madison III. He was a man with a stunning presence: standing six feet tall with shoulders as wide as a door, pitch black hair, Kelly green eyes, and a magnificent handlebar mustache which he twirled while concentrating.

By the time they reached Kansas City, they had laid out their plans. They would become partners in a brothel.

Not the average "house" with floozies lying around in silk undies, but a man's brothel with an

K.C., as Shawn and Charley named him, was more than willing to take part in the adventure.

Across the country they continued, acquiring their "boys" as they traveled. They named each according to his point of origin.

Topeka was a blacksmith's apprentice, near as big as Charley, with a chest almost black with hair that trailed down to frame a cock almost as big around as it was long, balls that could choke a horse, and an ass firm as could be that was covered with coarse black fur.

Balancing that impressive body was a manner gentle as a lamb with an impish sense of humor.

Next came Wichita: tall, lithe and elegant. He was pale skinned, blue-eyed, and red-headed with just enough freckles to let one know that this quiet son of a Pentecostal preacher was a fire cracker under the sheets. Though not much between the legs—a scant five inches fully erect—he had a foreskin that hung one inch beyond the head, even when erect. He could make that mouse roar and send a man into screaming ecstasy.

Denver was a bartender they met in Colorado. His dream was to seek his fortune in that glittering gold rush country, and saw no better way than to suck and fuck his way there.

Tall, blond, penetrating blue-gray eyes, a long, curly, lumberjack's beard and a body that displayed its familiarity with physical work and the sun, but with enough softness to say that this magnificent Norse God was still only a boy of nineteen. Although his chest was smooth as silk, his arms, ass and legs had a covering of soft golden down.

upstanding reputation for the most rip-roaring, ball-churning fuckers in town.

While in Kansas City, they met a young farm hand. His sweet face and small stature made him very endearing, though this delicate appearance was highly deceiving. Hidden inside his overalls was a pendulous nine-inch pecker, thick as a whiskey glass with a foreskin that would completely drape the glass when it was soft. They wine and dined him for a few hours, telling him of their plans, before taking him back to the compartment to try him out.

Protruding between those legs was a formidable chunk of meat. Six inches on the slack with two inches of foreskin dangling off the end, a little coaxing and it would grow to a full ten inches with that single eye peering out of a half-inch hole.

On the wagon from Colorado to California, the little group came across a beautiful Indian mix to whom they gave the name "Maya". Maya's mother was full Cherokee, his father, Spanish. His mother's blood was strongest physically.

Chiseled facial features with high cheekbones framing large brown eyes that could melt butter. A tall, brown, well muscled, smooth-skinned body and a cock of eight inches, when erect, with a foreskin that just covered half the head, soft or hard, and when skinned back, revealed something akin to a cheese factory. The Spaniard seemed to dominate his sense of the erotic. He instinctively knew when to cause a shock of pain to enhance and elevate the sexual pleasure. In doing so, he could prolong indefinitely the orgasm of his sexual partner.

The last to join them was "Tera Tree". A logger in the Dakota Territory, his body sang the praises of a rough trade. Short and stocky, the muscle-bound chest, arms and legs sported just a tease of brown man hair.

The tool between his legs echoed his form. A mere four and a half inches long rock hard, it measured a full seven inches around, and truly deserved the name "his pud".

Tera had a handsome bearded face and soft green eyes that conveyed the sense of wonder and exploration with which he viewed both life and his bed partners.

When they arrived in California, their wagon was full and they were all sweating their pecs off.

A cheer of elation went up when they finally came upon a small town at the base of a mountain range. Shawn and the boys set up camp while Charley saddled up one of the horses and rode into town. Stopping in at the local bar and gambling establishment, he inquired about the availability of rooms and ladies for rent.

The bartender replied, "Ladies? Well, there's only four round these parts. Three are hitched and one is an old widow. That'd be Mrs. Barklay. She owns the only house with rooms for rent. But take care, that ol' biddy is a hellcat!"

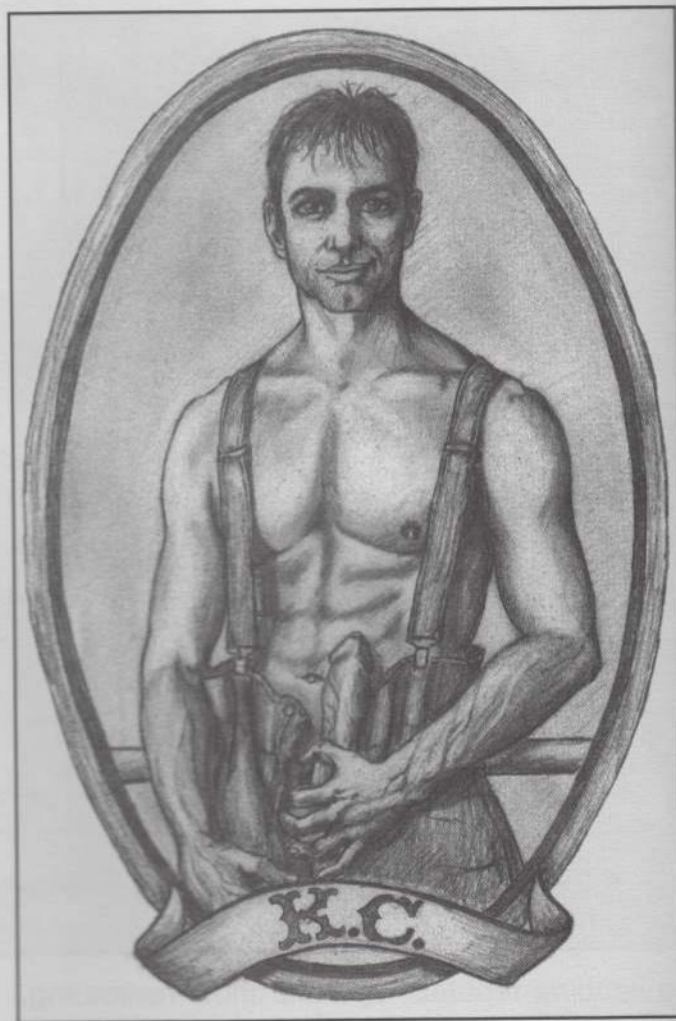

Sitting on her rocker on the porch, Mrs. Barklay was a spry woman in her sixties. She had no tenants and was quite amiable to talk about the permanent renting of all nine bedrooms in her house.

"How ya boys gon'na make a livin' 'round these parts?: she asked, a suspicious tone in her crackley old voice.

"Madam, my partner and I hare both entrepreneurs," Charley explained. "We have men that all want to earn an honest day's, and night's living."

"I respect that, sir," she said, smiling as she tipped her rocker forward. "Now, how ya gon'na make a livin' 'round here. There ain't much in town and most of the mountains been staked."

Taken aback, Charley stated in his most gracious voice, "This town needs some entertainment."

"What kind'a entertainment are we talkin', boy?" she inquired with a malevolence, raising one eyebrow. She knew she had this eastern fancy-pants by the nut-sack, and intended to have her fun.

Charley steeled himself and, figuring there was nothing to lose, summoned up his charm and stated, "We intend to entertain, in the finest manner, the men who mine, refine and ship the gold, butchers, bakers, bartenders and all."

"So ya want to run a whorehouse!" she blurted amidst a thundering laugh that nearly caused a landslide. "What the hell makes you think you boys can handle all these men?"

Now on the defensive, Charley answered, "I think we can handle anything they can dish out. We can make any man happy and keep 'em happy, too!"

"Well, I can see you've got some gumption," she said, "and being a woman who's not shy o' business, let's get to it.

"Here's the deal. Rent the house for a hundred dollars a month, give me a cut o' the profits, and I'll throw in my services as yer madam. Take it or leave it, boy. Seein' as how mine is the only house in town, I don't see no other choice."

Finally Charley cracked a smile of amusement. He felt the description of "hellcat" had been a bit understated, but he respected this feisty old lady and liked the idea of having her around in the event of an unmanageable client.

Business started slowly, but in less than a month, word had gotten around town. "If ya wan'na clean yer whistle, go to the bar. If ya wan'na shoot yer wad it's the Barklay house."

It was Friday morning and the sun was breaking over the mountains when Charley did his morning inspection of the boys. Freshly bathed, shaved and hair combed, each came into Charley's office for the once-over.

After breakfast, the first customers arrived with little pouches filled with yellow dust.

"Good mornin' gents," Mrs. Barklay greeted as she sat the men down in the parlor. "Take off yer hats, this is a fine house we run here."

One at a time, she'd take them into her office, inquire as to their desires and measure their gold as per service needed.

"Thank-ya, Mr. Caine. That will buy you one hour with yer choice o' the boys. Jest take yer pick."

Jester Caine thought a moment, then with a sheepish grin said, "Mrs. Barklay, ah wouldn't know which ta pick. Jest pick a good'n fer me."

"Topeka 'll do," she said. "He's a fine man, you'll be satisfied, I'm sure."

She brought in Topeka and sent him and Jester up the staircase, calling after, "Gently, Topeka. Ya got a shy one there."

"Mr. Wylie Thompson!" she exclaimed, stepping back into the parlor. "Ah do declare, you get more handsome by the day! Come on into the office and we'll talk business.

"Mrs. Barklay, I want the Indian." Wylie was dying to get into the sack with Maya. "If that isn't enough, I'll give you more. I jest want ta take ma time."

Knowing Maya's tactics, this statement amused Mrs. Barklay to itching, but she kept a poker face and continued.

"Well, Wylie, this much gold will get ya the rest o' the mornin'. Do ya want that long?"

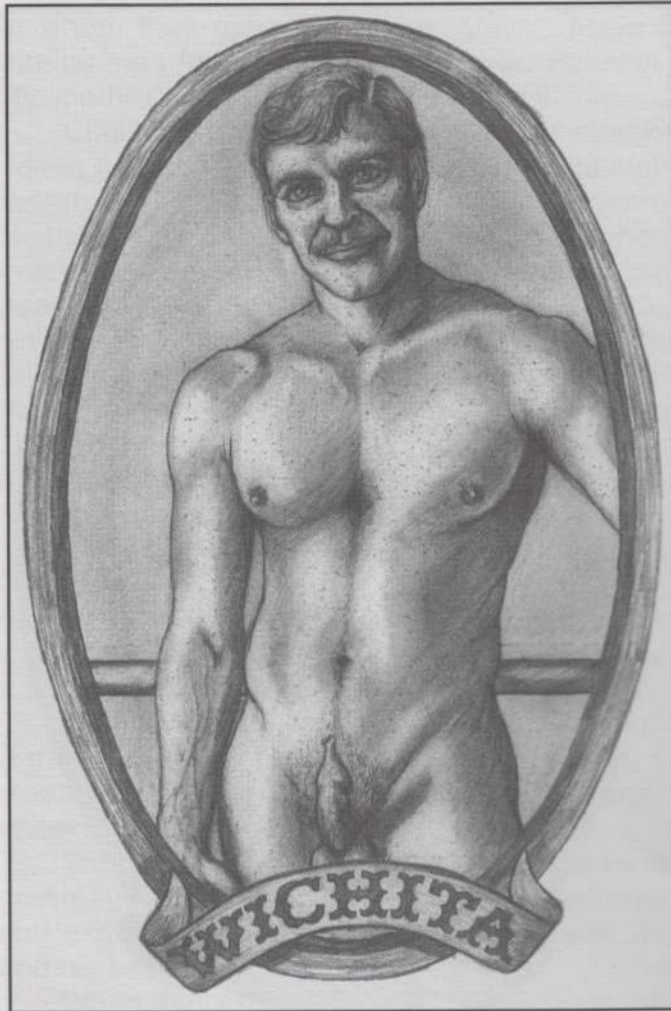

"Yes'um, I guess so," and though he sensed something awry, he proceeded with "I have a hankerin' for more than one dance around the floor."

Mrs. Barklay nearly lost control of herself. She managed to reset her composure and stepped into the parlor.

"Maya," she squeaked, then cleared her throat. "Ya'll be entertainin' Mr. Thompson this mornin'," and ushered them upstairs as she began to quake from a laugh that was on its way up from her gut and wouldn't be stopped.

She quickly moved into the office, closed the door and let go with a laugh that rumbled through the house.

Settling down into herself again, she stepped back into the parlor. "Grampa Bones? Well, I'll be! I guess ya all's next." Mrs. Barklay liked good paying, repeat customers and Grampa had plenty of gold, though he spent months on end in the mountains prospecting for it.

"Ya been in them hills to long, Grampa! I'm glad ta see ya back."

"I can't stay too long, but I want the pretty boy in the parlor," he whispered.

"All our boys are pretty, Grampa. Which one d' ya fancy?"

He thought for a moment and said, "Wichita."

Appearing in the parlor, Mrs. Barklay motioned for Wichita. "Now don't ya be too rough with Grampa, he don't make it down here too often."

Wichita looked at the toothless man who was grinning from ear to ear. "I think I can fill your needs. "Let's go upstairs to my room where we can have some privacy."

As Wichita led the way, Grampa followed close behind. "Come on in, Grampa, and let's talk a spell."

Wichita always liked to calm down the men before the clothes came off, lest they get too excited, too fast.

But the door barely closed before Grampa was shucking his boots, pants, shirt and long johns.

"If it don't make no never mind, I'd like to talk later! Right now, I wan'na see ya necked."

Slowly unbuttoning his shirt, Wichita was putting on a show for the old geezer. "Now, come over here by the bowl and pitcher. I'll just get you washed up and we'll get to it."

"Fine by me. Ya know, I once lived in Wichita." The warm water was bringing his shriveled pecker to life. "Shit, that feels good."

Wichita dried him off. "Now just lay back, Grampa, and I'll take things from here."

"If ya don't mind, boy, you lay back and let me go to work!" Grampa was licking his lips in sweet ecstasy as Wichita laid his head on the pillow.

Spreading his legs, he felt Grampa's tongue tracing a path from his ankles right up to his balls. He was giving Wichita a lesson in "tongue bath".

Slipping one of Wichita's balls into his mouth and then the other, Grampa's tongue swirled the ball-sack round and round. Wichita's dick grew longer and harder. Slowly, Grampa's tongue lapped up between the balls to the base of the cock shaft.

"I love a boy who wears a long coat," whispered Grampa. "It gives me something extra to chew on."

Grampa's tongue darted to the center of the foreskin as he sucked the skin deep into his mouth. Munching on the foreskin with his gums was bringing a blush to Wichita. The more Grampa chewed, the puffier the foreskin became.

His scratchy tongue was flicking at the rounded head, causing Wichita to jump every time Grampa swirled his tongue.

"Hold still, boy! Got'ta get you warmed up before we get going here."

"Grampa, I thought you were doing just fine," Wichita purred. "I'm fired up and ready for ya, Pappy!"

"Don't call me Pappy!" Grampa snorted back, immediately driving Wichita's bulging dick deep into his throat.

With each downward stroke he was dropping his jaw wider and wider, like a snake devouring its kill. Every time he came up for air, he sucked the sweet nectar from the head of Wichita's pulsating prick.

By now, Wichita was thrashing over the bed. Deeper and deeper the volcano was swallowed into Grampa's tight, eager throat. Stronger and hotter, the lava was burning in Wichita's balls. Lava seeping up to the surface with each upward pull. Grampa was having his way with Wichita.

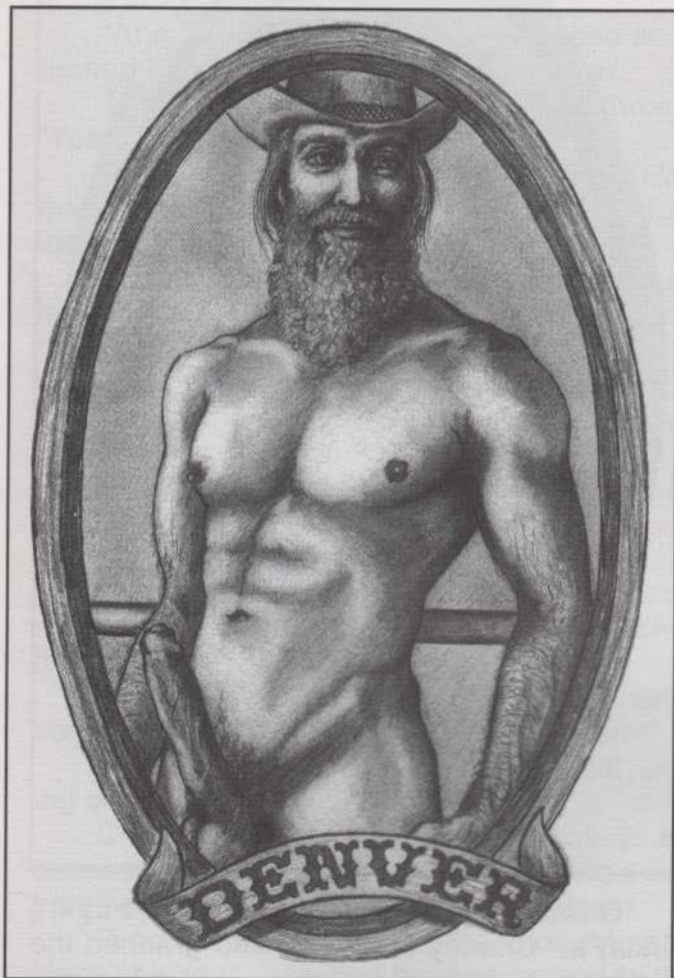

"Here it comes, Grampa! I'm gon'na blast my load down yer throat! Don't miss a drop! It's gon'na blow!"

Blast after blast of cum was flowing, up the shaft and out through the straining head. As quickly as the scalding lava discharged, Grampa's wayward tongue whisked it away.

Wichita was brutalizing Grampa's throat as he dumped his load into the willing depository.

Suddenly, Wichita felt the volleys of cum spattering on his leg. Grampa was shooting and he hadn't even pulled the trigger.

As the passion subsided, they lay on the bed collecting their thoughts.

Normal breath returned slowly. Grampa was like a kitten with the warm snugglies.

Wichita was a mess. Limp, sweaty, drained and ready for a nap. But that growing lecherous gleam in Grampa's eyes let Wichita know that this "roll in the hay" had only just started.

Mrs. Barklay had become aware that many of the men couldn't afford the full services the boys provided. Charley suggested they put a hole in the wall for the men who couldn't afford all of the amenities.

Charley explained, "They call it a 'glory hole' because a man could stick his dick through the hole and have it sucked in all its glory." Mrs. Barklay wouldn't mention it to most of the customers. But, if one came up short on money, he could still have a quick thrill and be on his way.

And, with business getting better, Charley and Shawn thought the boys might occasionally require "time off" to relieve their sore derrieres.

As they were all great cock suckers, they could get away from the bump and grind, work "the holes", and still earn their salary.

All went well for two weeks, then, one Saturday night, Mrs. Barklay called Shawn and Charley into the office.

"Boys, we have a problem. There's five customers a sittin' in the parlor and all the boys are busy. Now, I've checked all of 'em in and ain't one's got more than the glory holes are worth. Should ah send 'em walkin'?"

Shawn's eyes popped. "No ma'am! We never turn away money. Charley and I'll take care of the holes."

Charley was aghast. "Suck cheap dick, not fuckin' likely!"

But, with a little seduction and a lot of cock stroking from Shawn, Charley reluctantly agreed.

Charley was just getting seated when the distinctive chink of spurs on boots was heard approaching the hole. A little fumbling of buttons and a soft prick with a hairy set of balls burst through the hole.

Resigning himself to get it over with, Charley reached for the prick and began to massage it.

His tongue went to the cowboy's balls. First licking and then sucking each nut in, one by one, he was becoming painfully aware of the musky, "hard working man" odor wafting up from the groin.

To a refined gentleman such as himself, this experience was less than savory, but he braced himself and proceeded.

"Get to the dick! Suck it! I Don't got all night. Suck it!!" ordered the cowboy.

Charley popped the hooded dick into his mouth before he even thought about it. He wanted to bite the cowpoke's nuts off, but he filled his mind with visions of gold, gold, gold!

This guy was getting hard, fast. As the cock was growing, so was the taste. "Shit! Cheap, cheesy dick! I forgot to wash the damn thing," Charley remembered.

"Quickly, get off or I'll throw up all over this asshole," Charley thought, trying not to gag.

"There she blows!" came booming from the other side of the wall. Two squirts shot to the back of Charley's throat and the dick pulled away. Another pump and cum landed "plop" on Charley shirt.

Charley cleared his throat and spat the jism on the floor, grinding his shoe into it as though it were an ugly bug. Grinning with mild satisfaction, he grabbed a glass of whiskey and downed half of it in one gulp.

Shawn was busy working on a fancy man's cock. He'd never seen one of these before.

There was no foreskin, nothing to pull or chew on. Shawn was being careful, he didn't want to hurt this guy.

As Shawn took the shaft into his mouth, the guy didn't seem to flinch at all. In fact, every time Shawn's lips stretched to go further down on the cock, the man would thrust in even harder.

The man was huffing and puffing like a freight train, laboring up a steep grade. Shawn gripped the balls, pulled gently and boom, the hot liquid hit the back of Shawn's throat while the fancy man was howling like a wolf.

Charley barely had time for another swig of whiskey and the next cheese log poked through the hole.

Gripping the balls with his left hand and stroking the base of the dick with the right, he slid the spongy cock-head into his mouth.

"Fuck, another foul one," the thought went screaming through his mind.

"Well, another quick blow and, aaah, whiskey at the end," his well-deserved prize.

Squelching his gag reflex, he deep throatied just in time to feel the cum searing down his throat.

"Good-bye and thank-you for buying Barklay's," Charley muttered, and grabbed the whiskey.

He put the glass down and saw through the hole, a man stripping—pants, shirt, long johns, everything! "What this?" Charley questioned to himself.

There stood a naked man, just inches from the hole. Charley, slightly perplexed, reached through to grab the cock.

"Take it easy, man," said the man behind the wall. "I get my ass licked first. Then you can have my dick."

He turned around, spreading the cheeks and pushing his fur framed pucker up to the hole.

"Lick it!"

"Fuck that, you cheap shit-head!" grumbled Charley.

"Come on, man, lick my ass. I paid for it!"

"Yeah," Charley growled as he quietly rose to his feet. "You deserve to get your money's worth." He unbuttoned his pants, pulled out his cock and started jacking himself.

"You have the sweetest little hole in the valley," he cooed as he softly ran his fingers around the rim. Charley let a wad of spit plop down on the head of his cock.

"Come on, lick it!" A pleading tone was heard in the voice.

"And how's this feel?" Charley asked as he rubbed his cock-head against the pucker.

The answer came back, deep and throaty. "Yeah, man. Stick it in!"

Pulling his cock back, Charley roared, "Here goes!" and slammed his granite hard shaft deep inside with one thrust.

"Is that better?" he harassed as he ground his balls into the guy's ass. "I want you to get your money's worth."

To Charley surprise, the man pushed harder onto the cock and moaned, "Yeah, keep it going!"

Charley pounded with all the fury in him.

The nerve of that son-of-a-bitch. He's fuck this pig in his slop.

"I'm gon'na come!" squealed the pig.

Charley could feel the ass ring squeezing his dick as wave after wave of spasm wracked through the man's body.

Yanking his cock out of the guy's ass, Charley commanded, "Now get the fuck out'ta here!"

The man scrambled towards the door, pulling on his clothing as he moved.

Charley took a final gulp of whiskey. His stomach was warming and he was feeling a little light headed. Perhaps he'd better sit down.

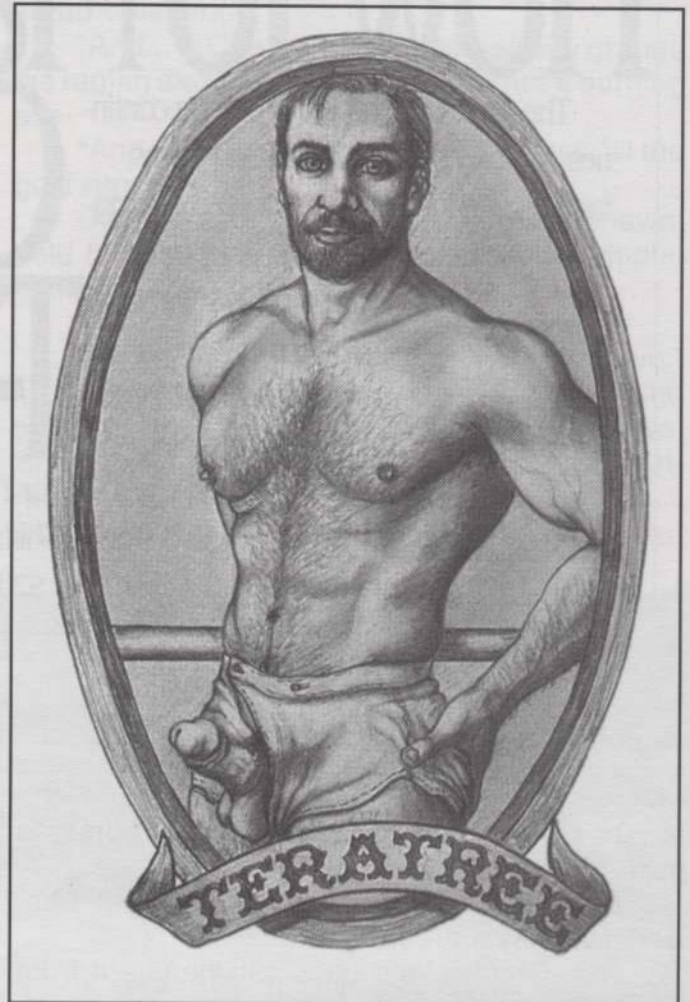

"Enough was enough!" he thought. This wasn't his idea, how had he ever agreed to this bull-shit?

Light footsteps came down the hall, the door opened and there in front of him, poking through the hole was a tiny little dick.

The dick was no bigger than his little finger and rock hard. The balls, on the other hand, were two extra large eggs, grade double A.

Charmed by this sight, Charley decided one more would be all right.

He gently cupped those astounding orbs in his hand and swooped down on the dick, like a hawk with its prey.

Swallowing it fully, he began swirling his tongue round and round the cock-head as he pulled the foreskin back with his other hand.

He was going to give this one a thrill!

In a grand waltz of tongue and cock, twirling, curling, fluttering up and down, a change in direction and the trick was turned.

Charley churned the ball sack.

Groans were getting louder.

Charley knew the guy was close.

The ball sack pulled tight to the man's body and with a heaving of his groin, the jism exploded, shot after shot after shot.

Squeezing the balls one more time, Charley wanted to get every last drop.

The man dressed and left the room, leaving Charley with a satisfied smile on his face.

In Charley's pants, a raging hard-on was pushing for attention.

He went to the door and called to Mrs. Barklay, "Any more for the holes?"

"No, Charley, the boys can handle it from here."

"Now it's my turn," he quietly said to himself as he stood waiting patiently.

He didn't have to wait long for the other door to open and the miner to leave, eased of the pressure in his balls.

Walking in the miner's footsteps, Charley put his rock hard-on through, a drop of pre-cum catching on the hole, forming a silken thread from cock to wood.

"What the fuck is this?" Shawn bitched.

"All right. I'll clean it up!"

Taking the wash cloth and cleaning the cock-head, Shawn was hitting every nerve on the behemoth of a dick.

Shawn took his time getting all the fuck juice cleaned off, letting the cloth do a little of his work.

Shawn began to suck. Groans were coming through the wall. Shawn intended to make short order of this cock. Get it off and tell Mrs. Barklay to send the other away!

Charley had had more than a little whiskey. He knew he wouldn't come quickly, and he needed to take a piss, badly!

The glory hole was large enough that Charley could reach through and pull Shawn's head further down on his cock. When Shawn had fully relaxed his throat, Charley let go.

Shawn was drinking what the thought was cum.

His throat was taking a lot of fluid. "Shit, this fucker has a quick trigger and a full load," he thought.

Then, suddenly, he realized the dick wasn't throbbing, the flow wasn't stopping, his gut was filling with... "He's pissing!!"

Shawn fought to get off the dick.

Charley pulled back his cock, stopping the flow.

"Drink up, partner!" and pulled Shawn's head onto his cock again.

Shawn was choking on an endless river of piss.

His mind started reeling. "That bastard, that's Charley pissing in my mouth!"

Charley finished pissing and pulled his cock out.

"Next time you get some smart idea, asshole, ask first! Don't volunteer for me until I say so." Charley was furious.

"Now get your butt upstairs and wash up. I'll be right up to fuck your ass, and don't keep me waiting!"

Shawn was on his feet and up the stairs in a flash. In no time he was clean and in the bed, nervously waiting. Charley was normally well mannered and genteel, but that fierce display downstairs had rattled Shawn pretty badly.

The door swung open as Charley stomped in. Closing the door, he stripped, took a dive and landed firmly atop Shawn.

Forcing Shawn's legs apart, his cock found the pucker and the head drilled its way in.

"Please, Charley! Don't kill me with that thing!" Shawn whimpered.

"Daddy's home. Now open the door, or I'll huff and I'll puff and I'll blast your ass open."

With a single thrust, Charley buried the full length of his cock. "Now, what brilliant idea do you have next?" he growled.

"Let... only the boys... work the holes... from now on!" Shawn lurched and groaned in pleased obedience.

"And...?" Charley asked as he slowly ground his raging dick in and out of his partner's burning ass.

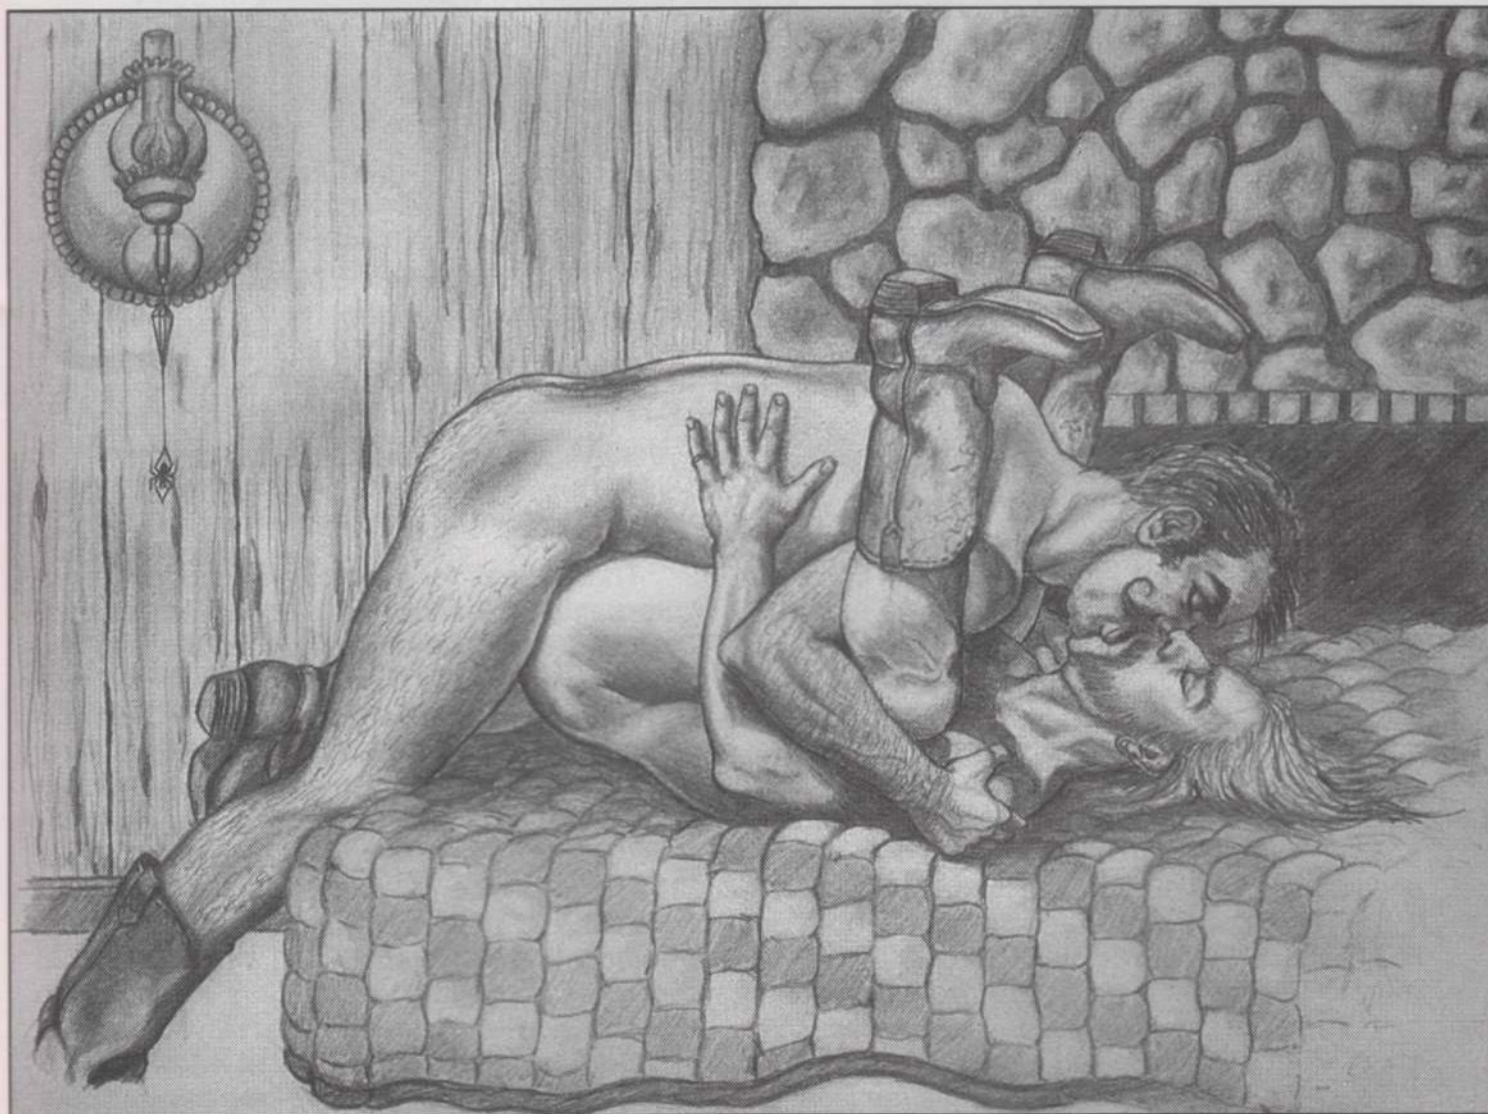

"And you keep working my sweet ass 'till the gold runs dry!"

Charley wrapped his arms around Shawn, held him tenderly, kissed him, first one nipple, then the other, then the mouth.

Two tongues met and caressed.

Charley whispered softly, "I love you Shawn."

Amid the moans and groans of human passion, the love juice shot, Charley into Shawn, Shawn all over Charley's chest. Two men, partners in every way.

HEY BUD!

HOW DRY WE ARE

GETTING YOUR DICK LUBED WITH BUD BERKELEY

Hey Bud!

Needless to say, I'm delighted that FQ is up and running again. Unless a magazine features uncut cock, I consider it a waste of paper. Amazingly, almost all the fiction in J/O magazines allude to — or go to great lengths describing — uncut guys. Sadly, most of the photos feature clipped dicks, or ones that are skinned back, masquerading as cut.

Since docking is strictly a foreskin experience (leaving me out), I'd like to read more about it, both from reader input and in fiction. Photos in FQ, I suppose, would be out of the question. Your reply to Tender Meat in #14 was great (I can only fantasize what it must be like having the sensitive glans of an uncircumcised penis).

A Satisfied Reader

Dear Reader,

Thanks, pal, for your comments. Yes, porn writers must describe the penis in action over and over again. After you have discussed the huge size of the stiff dick, what more is there to say about the circumcised penis? Big, fat cockhead? OK! That has also been said ... over and over again. So, writers, desperate for some creative variation, turn to foreskin. Long, tapered, thick, veined, slithery sex skin slowly being pulled off the juicy, pink cockhead and down the quivering shaft and then slowly returned to its puckered, rosebud self overhanging an inch or two in front of the bone waiting for fingers or tongues to explore inside its mysterious inner sanctum. Yeah!

Docking is not limited to uncut fellows only! A long, wide foreskin can usually be stretched over the wide glans of a cut cock, giving the circumcised fellow a taste of foreskin.

Docking is often a difficult accomplishment if the foreskin is the narrow, pointed type. The solution can be a warm water bath for the foreskin. Let it dangle in warm soapless water a few minutes to relax the skin. It will usually become more flexible and willing to share itself with a hungry, skin-deprived cockhead.

Anyway, USA artist Blake contributed the following sketch for readers needing some one-handed docking guidance. [See page 25]

Reader, you might also find this "input" letter of use: "As we unveiled to each other our erections, we looked at each other with astonishment. We were both uncut and our cocks duplicated each other in contour, length and, most importantly, overhang.

"I placed his dick in my hand and retracted his skin. It slid back easily, unveiling a semi-dry steak just like my own.

"I had to get my foreskin over that meat! I held his foreskin tightly back to his balls with one hand and he pulled my long foreskin over his bare cockhead. His cockhead felt just like my own under my stretched-out skin. Our dicks were twins. So, we decided to experiment. While we were docked, we ran surgical tape (the non-sticking kind!) vertically from my foreskin and over his, which was stretched-out down his shaft. Then we took turns pumping our locked-together skins.

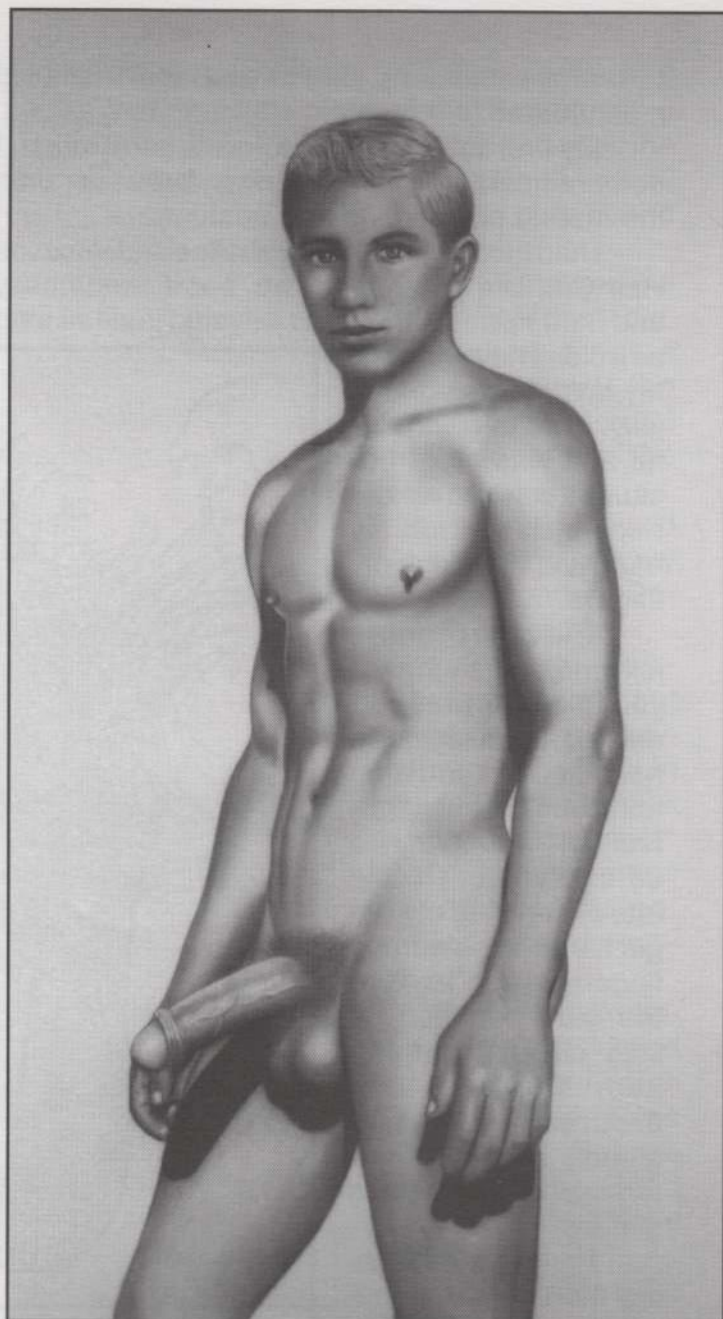

"Amazingly, we used the same rhythm and after an hour of pumping we had simultaneous orgasms ... while our foreskins were taped in a mutual embrace."

Finally, Reader, the next letter will reveal more "tender meat".

Hey Bud!

I was impressed by one of the letters in your last column, as well as your response to it. The writer with "Tender Meat" had the same problem I had: a super-sensitive glans. He might be interested in my solution to the "problem."

When I first learned how to jack off when I was a kid, I discovered like Tender Meat did that my cockhead was so sensitive that touching it skinned back just about put me through the ceiling. Jacking-off with it skinned back was out of the question.

But I wanted to feel that gorgeous, wonderful shape whole, all of it, from trigger rim to cock-slit, from frenum to foreskin and back again. It's the most beautiful part of the male body, and I wanted to feel it without its sheath and see it when I masturbated.

My first solution was mother's hand lotion. I don't remember what kind it was, but several on the market now feel about the same.

I had tried oil (including Vaseline and Vaseline Hair Oil), like you suggested, but it was messy and hard to wash off. I tried jelly and jam (as long as it didn't have seeds). My favorite was guava jelly. That felt wonderful and was great because it washed off and I could clean it off my hand just by licking my fingers.

The taste of guava jelly mixed with my hot young sperm was terrific! then I discovered hand lotion, and that felt even better. Perfect, in fact. Washed off easily, too. I could feel every bit of my eager flared glans with my fingertips and explore the cleft between its little cheeks and frenum praeputiae, around the corona glandis and the swollen lips of my meatus glandis.

Forgive me for using the Latin anatomical names for frenum, trigger rim and cockslit!

When I finally lost my virginity (to another uncut guy, thank goodness), I found that my fuse was so short that often I'd get my rocks off sooner than I wanted to. My j/o buddy's foreskin was short, so a lot of the time his cockhead stuck out, even when he wasn't so hard, and I guess his glans had gotten somewhat conditioned to being touched.

Anyway, he usually could outlast me. So, to increase my staying power, I got the idea of toughening up my glans by keeping it skinned back all the time.

I figured that was why circumcised guys had permanently dry cock-heads.

Well, I cut strips of a Band-Aid, skinned my dick back, and held the foreskin back with the strips of adhesive tape. My super sensitive glans didn't like it much to start with, and I guess I walked funny for a couple of days. But in just a few days it stopped itching as the skin of my glans got used to being exposed.

Before long my cockhead looked just like all the circumcised cock-heads I'd seen. Dry. Permanently dry.

Now my foreskin stays locked behind my corona all the time, hard or soft. Sometimes it will inch down maybe a third of the way covering the trigger rim, but that's all, unless I pull it down. Even then, as soon as I move around and my pants rub against my penis it slides back up and behind the crown.

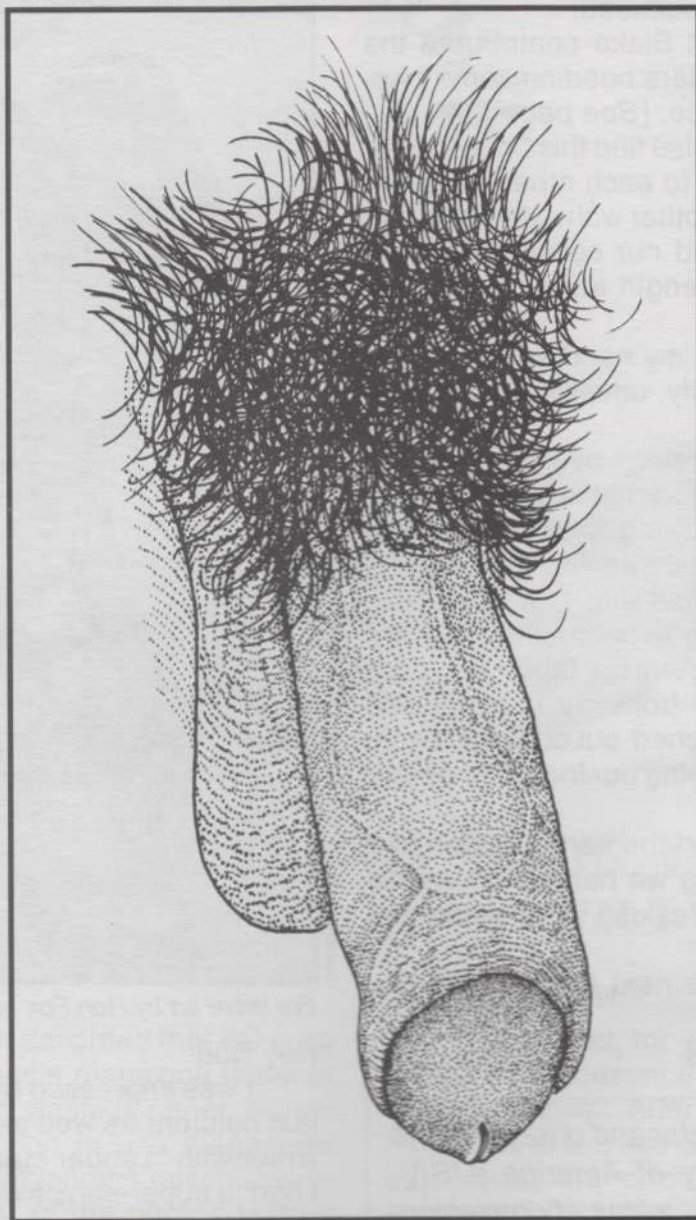

I'm not sure whether having a dry glans improved my staying power, in fact, I doubt it. But it opened up whole new vistas of masturbation. With a dry, "pseudo-circumcised" glans I can jack off with my foreskin all the way back, and usually do.

That good old hand lotion still does the trick if my pre-cum lets me down, or if I just want variety of sensation.

I can jack off completely dry, too, for a different sensation: I don't go through the roof like I would have before, and the sensations are great.

Then I found another approach that "Tender Meat" might like to try.

I sprinkle talcum powder all over my cockhead and rub it in well while my dick stiffens. I also rub my fingers with talcum powder. Then I jack off, feeling every tiny bit of my glans and the inside of my foreskin where it's most sensitive — where all those nerves are that you mentioned.

Peter Leko's art is a familiar sight to our readers.

The talcum is just about as slippery as the hand lotion, but it's dry-slippery. A totally different sensation from wet slippery, like with pre-cum or hand lotion. I can trace around my whole glans and enjoy the feel of its shape while I see it all flared and tumescent in anticipation of orgasm. Now I can savor the sight of that wonderful shape and the sensations of pure ecstasy it gives me, as long as I want (almost!).

I feel as if my whole body has become a penis and my glans is the pinnacle of all my sensuality. Then I can ejaculate any time I want, by tickling my cock-slit, or stroking my frenum, or sliding the corona through the circle of my fingers.

My orgasm is quick, intense, and absolutely fantastic as my penis squirts jets of sperm halfway across the bathroom.

So, I can say that a permanently dried glans penis gives sensual pleasures that I wouldn't even have dreamed of.

Having a permanently retracted foreskin also gives me some insight into the success of foreskin restoration. I was curious to know if the toughening of cockhead skin is reversible. So, I taped my skin in the "down" position for a couple of weeks to see if the skin of my glans would return to its moist, touchy condition. The answer is no. Once it's dry, it stays dry, even covered by its original foreskin, which is just as moist inside as it ever was. But keeping my foreskin down didn't restore the slick tenderness my glans originally had.

Another effect of a permanently skinned back prepuce is stretching. In its normal "down" position the edge of the foreskin closes and makes that neat little rosebud that's so pleasing at the tip of a penis. When it's skinned back all the time, the edge of the foreskin is stretched around the full width of the shaft behind the corona and it loses its elasticity.

Then, when it's pulled down to cover the whole glans, the rim doesn't close tight like it did, but makes a wide sleeve around the glans, especially on the underside where the frenum was stretched. That's what I showed in the drawing with my story "Afternoon Delight" in issue 14.

I'd guess that foreskin restoration that covers the glans with ordinary shaft skin would never bring back its original condition. Most of the advantage of "uncircumcising" probably is psychological.

Maybe my experience with cockhead toughening will give "Tender Meat" some ideas about creative masturbation! Good Luck, "Tender", I Keep it "UP"!

The book is not only one of the most sensitive and sensual accounts of "coming of age" I have ever read, it is a masterpiece of the publishing art. It is illustrated by superb artist, Ron Fox.

Butterflies Shared Our Secret is limited to 300 copies and sells for $100.00 (well worth it for lovers of great collectible books). For information about the book and or Ron's art, see Foreskin And Art on page 52.

Hey Bud!

Did you read in the newspapers recently that a baby in Florida bled to death after his routine circumcision, while a California boy had the tip of his glans-penis cut off during his circumcision?

What an outrage! How can they continue to risk the lives of baby boys for an unnecessary operation?

I'm Mad as Hell!

Dear Hell,

I agree. How parents can risk the lives and bodies of their perfect newborns by allowing for the amputation of their foreskins is beyond comprehension. The medical profession claims anti-circumcisionists use isolated cases (such as the two you mention) to condemn all neo-natal circumcision. They claim such "complications" are rare. Well, one boy is dead and another is mutilated!

A recent newspaper article (Anti-Pain Cream For Circumcision by Frank Spencer-Molloy, August 19, 1993, San Francisco Chronicle) points out another medical "mythology" — infant circumcision doesn't hurt. The article states: "Although injectable anesthesia is already available, few newborns are given it, largely because of doctors' erroneous 'belief that pain is not experienced in the same way by infants, or that it is inconsequential,' the authors say in a study published recently in the Journal of the American Medical Association."

The article continues; "Researchers in Canada have found that an anesthetic cream recently developed to ease the pain of shots in children also works for circumcision ..." A decade ago they were touting circumcision by the laser beam as the answer! Whatever they come up with to deprive boys of their foreskins, the fact remains they are being deprived! What's the hurry? Adult circumcision is not usually difficult ... especially with modern anesthesia's. Isn't it about time each adult male be allowed his own decision about the style of his penis?

Adult circumcision hasn't always been painless. The Manly Arts catalogue of circumcision memorabilia offers an antique poster announcing that Dr. Thaddeus Camwell "will visit the Old Covenant Church to perform the covenant on newborns and converts." The poster continues, "Adult converts should partake considerable whiskey prior to the exercise of the covenant."

The recent British movie, Young Catherine, all but showed the painful circumcision of Prince Peter (Peter the III) of Russia. He failed to consummate his marriage to young Catherine (Catherine the Great). His phimosed foreskin was blamed and Catherine ordered it secretly cut off.

The young nobleman was plied with alcohol by his men until he passed out at which time the Court's surgeon whipped out a knife. "How will we explain what happened when His Majesty awakens?", the men mused in the next scene. It was decided that while in their drunken stupor they had a contest to see whom among them had the longest cock. During the contest His Majesty's foreskin was accidentally cut by a broken piece of glass, or so the young man was told. To ease the pain, Peter was also told that he won the contest ... the longest penis presumably being more important to the future Czar than his foreskin.

A "Long Dong" contest also cost a young GI his foreskin during W.W.II as reported in my book, Foreskin: A Closer Look. Things never change. What with medical "myths", whiskey, laser beams, anesthetic creams and long dong contests, those few foreskins among us are practically museum pieces. Where are those museums? Check the Foreskin Finder List published by the Uncircumcised Society of America.

The Foreskin Of Christ

by Randel Shard

During the Middle Ages, fifteen churches claimed to have the foreskin of Christ. Pope Eugenius IV declared that Christians visiting the foreskin would be granted forty days indulgence. He did not specify which of the fifteen churches claiming to possess it had the real one, so the faithful were on their own.

It would be hard to decide. Nowhere in the New Testament is the Lord's foreskin described, so it would be difficult to determine any distinguishing features. Since it was removed from the infant Christ, it might, like the rest of Him, light up like a light bulb, attracting wise men and shepherds from miles away.

Perhaps, from the time of Christ through the Middle Ages, it had been used as a light source by miners or spelunkers ignorant of its holy origin but nonetheless impressed by its usefulness as a lamp. A thousand years is a long time for even a Chernobylized foreskin to glow.

Or maybe not.

Though many pious homes use Jesus as a night light, the adult Christ Himself was not believed to be incandescent. The New Testament describes Him in glowing terms, but not in terms of glowing. If He did glow, the Roman's might've kept Him up on the cross longer as a street light.

Given the yen for relics during the Middle Ages, the foreskin fascination shouldn't be so surprising.

The ability to perform miracles might be one criterion, but that'd be hard to be sure about, since people might be cured of their ills through belief alone, and not by prepuce itself. Double-blind tests might be conducted, with the use of placebo foreskins, but that's a dangerous game to play with the faithful. Even the most humble parishioners might revolt if they found out they were deliberately blessed with a less than divine foreskin. If word of that ever got around, there'd be more than petitions nailed to the church door.

Even if the experiment worked, it might still bring about the wrath of the Lord. After all, thou shalt not put thy God to the test. Not even His foreskin.

So, perhaps, it was left as an optional matter of faith, left up to the individual to decide, and also left up to the individual to figure out which of the fifteen churches actually housed the Lord's foreskin. Whether or not anyone broke from the Church on the matter, history does not say, though schisms have been started for less.

Given the yen for relics during the Middle Ages, the foreskin fascination shouldn't be so surprising. Churches were built with little bits of Saint's bodies beneath the altars. Some bodies were said not to decay; they were incorruptible. A martyr who did not rot was considered a shoo-in for canonization. Certainly, the Lord's body wouldn't rot, either. Since Christ ascended into heaven, He didn't leave a body behind. But he did leave His briss.

That's assuming it wasn't ascended into heaven when He went up there. Many Christians believe people in heaven are reunited with their lost body parts. But that raises the question of whether Christ was Christian or Jewish; a Jew, even if he did believe in an afterlife, wouldn't exactly see a need to get his prepuce back after he died. True, Christ didn't worship Himself (that would be an insufferable character trait even for the Son of God) and so could hardly be called a Christian, but on the other hand, dying on the cross seems like a whole lot to go through to help out the goyim. But the question may well be moot here. After all, Christ is often depicted with holes still in His palms. If He hasn't gotten those fixed yet, He probably hasn't gotten His foreskin back, either. Maybe it's a hygiene thing. He's got enough problems keeping His wounds from getting infected, since every politician and salesman who goes to heaven expects to shake His hand. The last thing He needs is an uncircumcised penis to keep clean. So, He probably didn't take His foreskin back.

Foreskins are thrown away by the rabbi after circumcision. Even the most adoring Jewish mother wouldn't keep her son's prepuce, even if she did think he was the Son of God, and many have thought so. But since it was divine and thus incorruptible, and would have lasted while others would rot, did some farmer, sifting through the trash for compost, find the intact foreskin and keep it?

Or was it squirreled away by someone who recognized the Christ child's divinity (some equivalent of Joseph of Aramitheia, for our purposes here Joseph of Arabrissea) and kept hidden for ten centuries in some secret nook or cranny till some English king, eager to distract his knights from the usual sports of killing each other and complaining about who gets to sit, where, at the table, sends his best and bravest on the epic equivalent of an Easter egg hunt and makes the rest sit at the card table with the uncles?

Perhaps some young paladin, exhausted from his ordeals but still grateful not to have to sit with Uncle Lester, sees a vision of the Lambskin of God, still in the hands of the Saracens, who, like their descendants today, feel compelled to ransom everything.

Single-handedly, he wrests the foreskin from the heathen grip, and crosses deserts and seas to bring the Most Holy Skin to its rightful place — England — and there he finds ... fourteen other knights bearing foreskins.

The quest is just sort of forgotten, and everybody goes back to killing each other. The lesser knights continue to eat with Uncle Lester.

Somehow, fifteen different churches got his skin(s). Perhaps they were donated by knights, or passed down the knight's family for generations ("You can't give away the foreskin! It's been in the family for over a hundred years!") till donated to the local parish. In the spirit of anonymous giving, they could have dropped it in the poor box. Those not so humble might've placed it in the collection basket.

Or perhaps the motives involved were not so charitable. Perhaps pastors, out on their evening walks, were encountered in dark alleys by mysterious strangers who hissed, "Pssst, Padre. Interested in the foreskin of Christ?" Some priests, wizened by bad experiences in Amsterdam, might turn their nose up on the offer, but the more trusting of them might believe, and squander the parish's heating budget on yet another foreskin.

Foreskin forging may have been an arcane but thriving business, branching out into indulgence kiting, penance fraud, the passing off of kindling as pieces of the true cross, and the development of Lourdes, the Vegas of miracle towns.

They may have ransacked rabbi's trash cans looking for suitable material, or perhaps they used some sort of ersatz foreskin, in much the same way that camel's hair brushes are not made from camel hair but from squirrel hair.

That's assuming it wasn't ascended into heaven when He went up there.

In our day and age, these people would be calling their product "4-Skin" and, if pressed for details, describe it as "a cheese food product." Their spokesman would not, of course, be Jesus, but someone who plays Him on TV. Maybe Vincent from Beauty and the Beast.

And though today we have ersatz cheese that needs no refrigeration and resists spoilage for millennia, and a cult following behind a show about a Christ like fellow made up like Burt Lahr who lives in the sewer, the foreskin of Christ seems lacking in our everyday spiritual life.

Did the foreskins get tossed out, one by one during spring cleanings and rummage sales...

Was the whole idea rejected somewhere between the Reformation and Vatican II? Did some cardinal, trying to get the kids back in the Church, reject the whole foreskin tradition as square and old-fashioned, and have all fifteen of them thrown out? Are they festering somewhere in the Vatican dump, under a pile of St. Christopher medals and the Shroud of Turin?

Are there still some unreconstructed traditionalists who yearn for the days when the priest kept his back to the congregation, everything was said in a dead language, and you could get forty days indulgence for visiting the penile flesh of the Lord, at any one of fifteen locations?

Did the foreskins get tossed out, one by one, during spring cleanings and rummage sales by church ladies ever tidying and mindful that priests are just men, made of flesh and blood, and often possess strange hobbies, just like anybody else?

Do they rest, forgotten, in church basements, to be collected, one by one, in some horrible apocalyptic movie storyline, some Legend of Zelda for the Revelations crowd, maybe the next Indiana Jones movie if they can ever get Harrison Ford's salary back down to Vatican Bank proportions? Perhaps another Nazis-after-the-Grail plot device?

After all, Hitler really did try to get his hands on the spear believed to have pierced Christ's side. Imagine what he could've done with the Lord's foreskin and the spear — perhaps crushed the Allies with some Jehovah-sized novelty item and embarrassed Joe Stalin as whole divisions of T-34s were wiped away with a wave of heilige Schwanzfleisch. Only Indy, and some cute kid sidekick, and Sean Connery, and some love interest we'll never see in any subsequent movie, could save the world from a fate worse than historical revisionism.

AS AN IDENTITY

An Anonymous Submission

I remember during civil disorders in the mid-seventies of the subcontinent that there was an incident involving travelers, trying to cross the border between the East Pakistan (now Bangladesh) and India, being detained. Specifically, all males, including those dressed in business suits, were stripped naked to see whether they were circumcised.

Although I don't remember which side was carrying out the strip-search, those with the "wrong kind" of penises were executed in the nude.

There were 21 American POW's in Iraq, two of them women. Of the 19 males, 13 were officers, from colonel to captain. Each male, without exception, was badly beaten during repeated interrogations. A Department of Defense report said that 6 of the POW's specifically remember their captors checking out their penises to see whether they were circumcised.

The Iraqis believed that Israelis were piloting the aircraft and thought that any circumcised pilot was automatically a Jew. Several POW's were threatened with bodily mutilation, one specifically with castration. Another found them repeatedly using a cattle prod on his body.

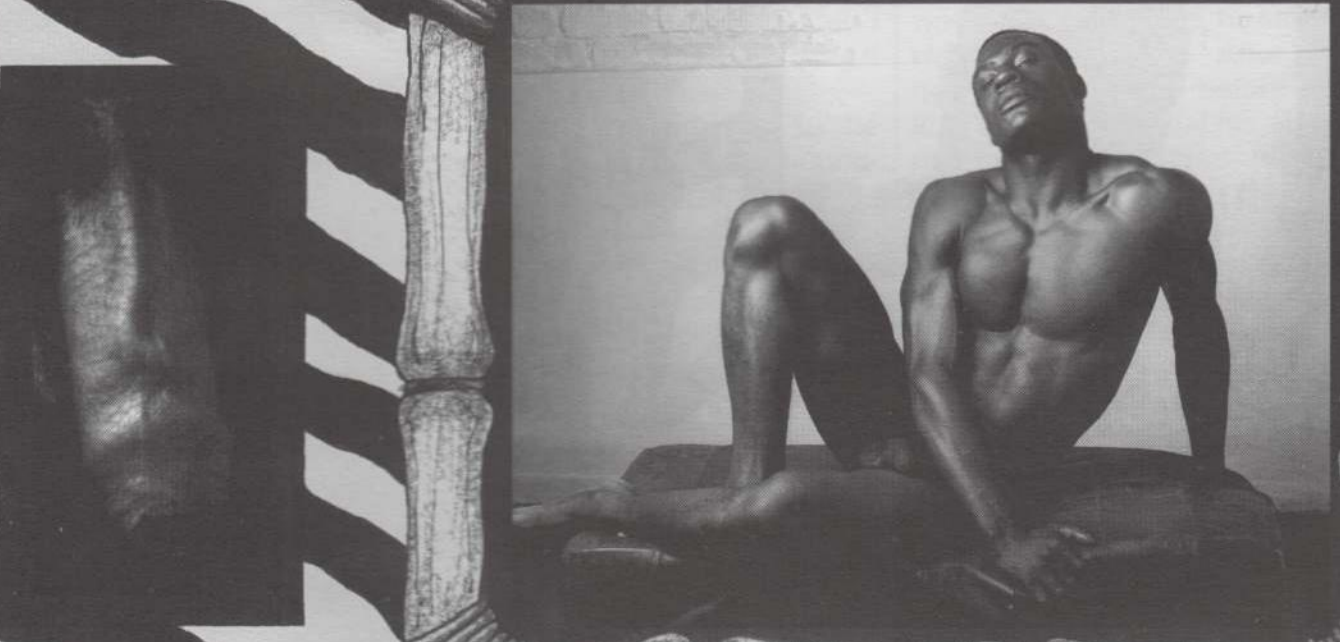

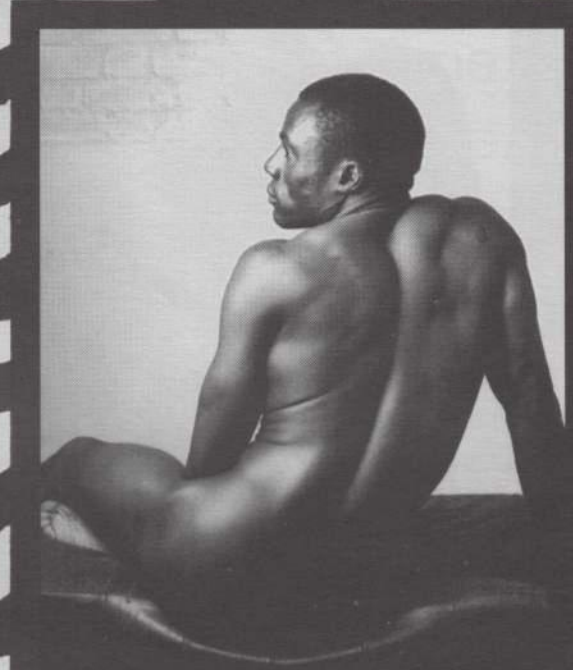

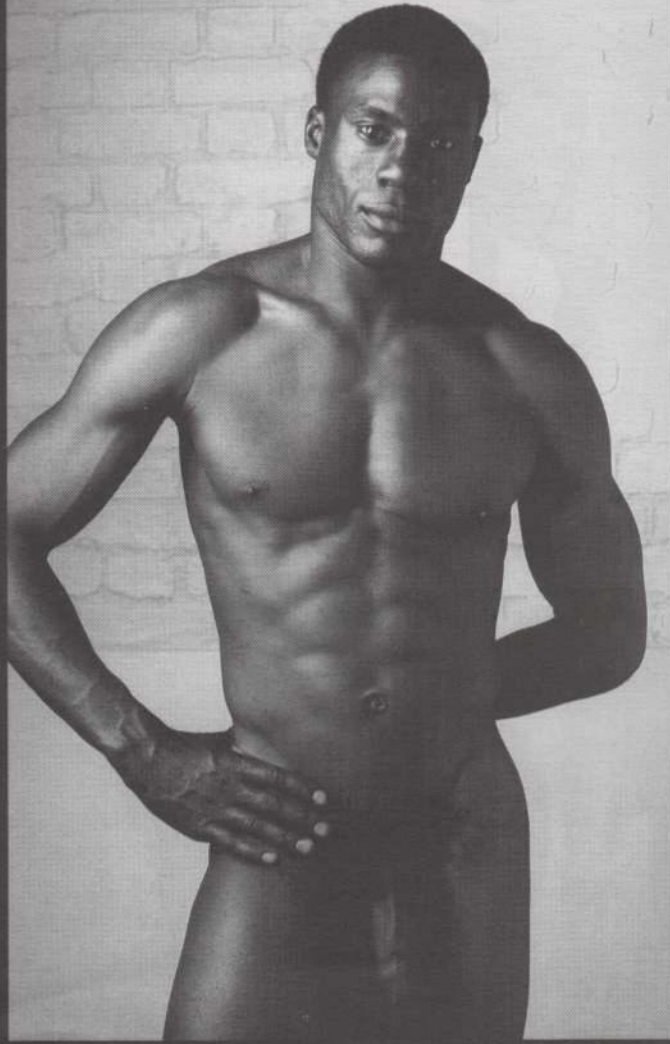

Although the report delicately avoiding mentioning exacting where he had gotten the electrical charges, we can be sure that his cock and balls were included, and maybe even his tits and asshole.

There are many published reports about the war in the former Yugoslavia. Since all sides use roughly the same language, only written in different characters, the only way to tell who is on your side is to have the detainee drop his pants. When they have spotted a circumcised man, he is taken to camp. One Serb who was circumcised for reason of medical necessity was scared silly, trying to explain to other Serbs that he really was a Serb.

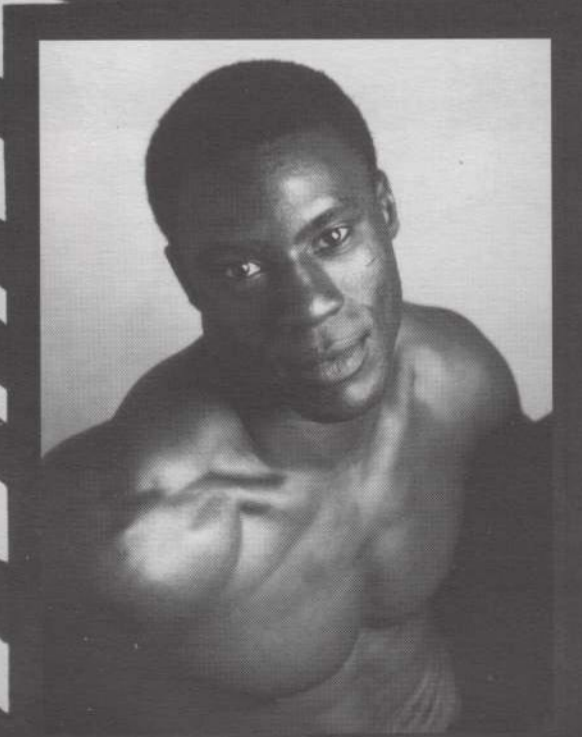

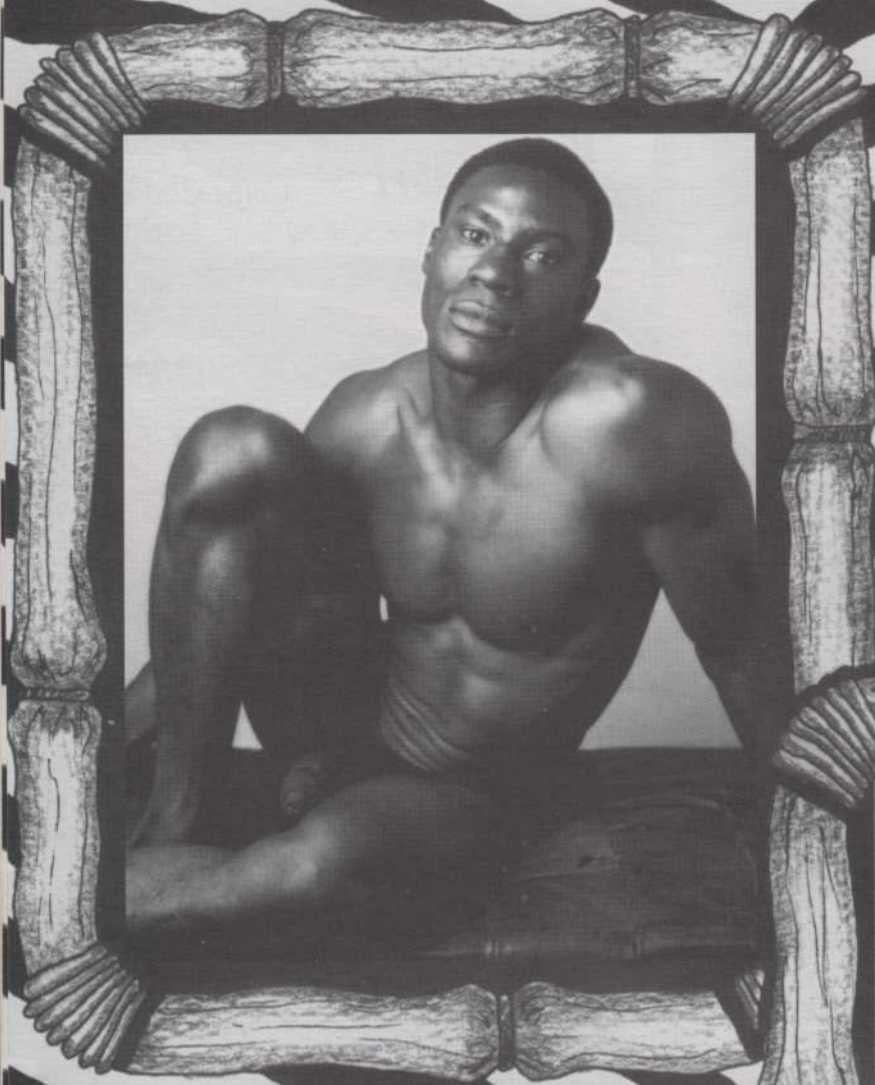

The Serbs rounded up all college graduates who were Muslim and forced them to perform for the Serbs—mutual fellatio, anal sodomy, and, worst of all, to castrate fellow prisoners. One was forced to chew off a fellow Muslim's penis. Afghan volunteers working with the Bosnian forces have crudely circumcised Serbian POWs. Some Serbs have also been deprived of their genitals.

A Doctor's Story

It would seem to me that the vast majority of Doctors in this country are very pro-circumcision as the 3,300 performed every day would attest. However, an experience I had as a teen-ager will show that there are some doctors who appreciate a nice long foreskin when they can find one.

Our school system provided a physical exam every autumn for high school boys for physical education and sports participation. In my senior year, a new physician was given the contract. That began a series of singular experiences for me.

As I entered the room for my exam with the new doctor, I was expecting the usual superficial assembly line job. After stripping down, he went through the usual procedures until he got to my dick and balls, which I soon realized, was his chief interest. He seated himself in front of me and had me stand facing him. He then took my dick in his hand and pulled the skin back very forcefully, as it would retract, and continued to pull back and forth to the farthest limit.

He seemed annoyed at the long overhang I had, even with the raging hard-on I immediately developed. In a minute, he took a slide and put some pre-cum on it and laid that aside. Then he returned to rubbing and gripping my dick very tightly with his fist.

Before long, I shot a load that he caught "sort of" with his other hand. He said, "Boy, you were loaded," as it dripped from his hand to the floor. He then took another slide and put some of the cum on it and went over to his microscope to have a look. I noticed that his face was very flushed and that he was breathing heavily.

He let me take a look at the cum sample and I could see the sperm swimming merrily about, obviously, happy to be released from their prison. He said that I was now capable of becoming a father.

I considered this to be somewhat beyond the boundaries of a school physical, but thought little more about it ... until, I received a note from him a couple of months later telling me to report for a follow-up exam.

This time he was even more interested in my long skin. After having me lie down on his table, he worked with my dick just enough to get it hard and then proceeded with the exam, rubbing against it with his sleeve from time to time. I could see that he was watching it from the corner of his eyes. Then he took a measuring tape and carefully measured length, circumference of the shaft, the head and balls and even the length of my pubic hair.

When I asked him where I was on the size chart, he said, "I was above average." After this, he jacked me off as before with less effort to conceal his enjoyment of my functional, moving parts.

He cleaned off my belly and timed how long it took him to finger me and shoot another load. Then he got out his Polaroid camera and took pictures of me when I was both soft and hard, pulled forward and skinned back.

From that time, until the end of school term, I received another two or three requests for exams. Every exam included at least one jack-off. Sometimes he would monitor my rise in blood pressure as I would build up to cum. But I believe his blood pressure was probably higher than mine.

After the school year ended, I didn't expect any further requests to return for an exam since he had finished his contracted term. I graduated and started college. The cards continued to arrive and I returned for more "exams". He, in fact, attended to my legitimate health problems, even putting me in the hospital for thyroid malfunction.

The reminders arrived until a couple of years later when I moved to another city, .

He really loved my long skin. For all of his services—professional and otherwise—I was never charged a cent.

The Un-Circumcised

Most circumcised men don't understand why circumcision is an erotic topic for us uncircumcised men. Some uncut guys have deep desires to be circumcised, with a few yielding to adult circumcisions due to our odd stigma. Other uncut men's FQ True Stories often remind me of an event that happened to me back in college.

It began with a friend's warning. He said, "I know some circumcised guys on campus duping uncut guys into sucking them off. They say it makes an uncut guy appreciate circumcised penises, and shows him why he should be circumcised. I was told to warn you that you're next on their list, so expect a visit soon."

Just hearing the story, and picturing them doing it to me, made me ejaculate in my pants. For days, any thought of them knowing I was uncircumcised, and the mere notion I was next, excited me so much, I'd get an erection and ejaculate.

A week later, the guys came to my room and it happened. Locking my door, one said, "We're alone now. You know why we're here, so I hope you're ready. I'm Ron, meet Carl and Bob."

Patting my stout bulge, he said, "If you knew how nice a circumcised penis is you'd be circumcised. We want to help you earn a degree as a real man — a Circumcised Man! So welcome to 'Circumcised Penis 101' class."

I was rock hard as he tore my underpants off. Seeing my foreskin nipple lofting beyond my erection, he pinched my foreskin flap and laughed, "With this skin you truly need our lesson. I heard you had a long foreskin, but you're the most uncircumcised guy I ever saw." I'd only seen a few, but knew he was right.

He went on, "We have the finest specimens of circumcised penises around and I know when we're done you'll be glad we did this." I'd often fantasized about trying sex with a circumcised guy. As they stripped, the reality was now happening with three. When I saw their enormous, perfect shaped cocks, I fell docile to their every wish. So, as they pushed their erections at me with their hands on their butts, telling me to feel them, I eagerly obeyed.

Their huge glans and bulging veined shafts felt great! Ron drew my foreskin back, saying, "Compare our circumcised penis assets to your pathetic cock.

From being trapped under a nasty foreskin, your glans isn't plump, has no ridge, it's sticky, smelly, and wrinkled. Our stout, soft, dry glans, look, feel, and smell far nicer. But, the most valuable benefit is they taste much better. To learn how great circumcised penises taste, you need to suck ours until we ejaculate."

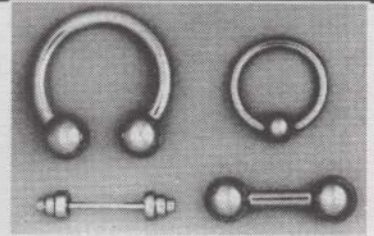

Hugging Bob's butt, I began sucking his gorgeous circumcised cock wildly and it tasted super! I felt a rush of ecstasy as he soon ejaculated in my mouth. I then sucked the other two off the same way. Ron's cum still covered my lips, as he said, "I'd ask if you liked it, but I see you loved it. You didn't resist it like most guys, so I know you're ready. Now you know how nice a circumcised penis is, you want yours to be, don't you?" I really did and nodded timidly.

Leaving, Ron laughed, "No need to thank us, it was our duty, and we enjoyed our mission. But, you better get circumcised or we'll be back to give you more lessons." Then Bob hollered back, "By the way, thanks for the great blow-jobs."

The look, feel and taste of their great circumcised cocks left me unbearably excited. With my foreskin drawn back taut, I almost looked circumcised. Staring at my erection, wishing it were circumcised, I ejaculated without even touching myself, just like I'd done before each time I'd anticipated them doing it to me.

Overcome with emotions, I was happy, sad, ashamed, embarrassed, relieved and joyous all at once. Happy to know the splendor of a circumcised penis, sad mine wasn't, ashamed to be uncircumcised, embarrassed by what they'd done to me, very

by BUD BERKELEY

Over the centuries, circumcision has been forced on unwilling subjects for myriad reasons: as a mark of conquest; as a sign of religious conversion; for health reasons; and to prevent masturbation. In this sometimes humorous, often erotic, and always fascinating book, the founder of the Uncircumcised Society of America takes us on a romp through these little-charted waters of history. He then addresses contemporary concerns of health, hygiene, sexuality, and social mores.

relieved it was over, but joyous it had happened.

I loved sucking my first cock, and knew I'd gladly do it to a circumcised one again. At that moment, I wanted to be circumcised more than anything, yet having finally felt and tasted a circumcised penis filled me with amazing pleasure and contentment. I felt very peaceful as I cried myself to sleep with tears of joy.

That night I would have let them circumcise me in a heartbeat. I now know my fantasy of being circumcised is more arousing than the reality would be. So, I still have my precious foreskin, and a great fantasy. The best of everything!

They teased me about being uncircumcised. used me to suck them off, but also enlightened me to a great pleasure. That night remains an enjoyable and vivid memory. From it, I gained a true passion for circumcised penises and have since enjoyed sucking many more. If they indeed wanted to teach me to appreciate circumcised penises, they certainly did that. I'm eternally grateful they did it to me and I love circumcised penises, but I never want to be circumcised myself.

Like I said, I can truly relate to all uncircumcised men, and I know the trauma of being circumcised in our society. I pity men circumcised at birth because they'll never know the incredibly intense pleasure of a foreskin. I'm very proud that I'm still not circumcised. Some circumcised as adults recommend it, but I highly recommend that all men remain uncircumcised, enjoy God's precious gift and be proud to be uncircumcised.

— D. W.

First Time

I grew up with a very tight foreskin. It was about a quarter of an inch long and the opening was only large enough to allow me to piss. My older brother was cut and he used to tease me by telling me that my penis looked like a "little piggy" in reference to its pointed end which did not look a bit like a pig snout.

No one ever instructed me on foreskin retraction, and I just assumed that I had a deformed penis. Our family doctor made an attempt at what I now realize was retraction when I was seven or so. He greased up my foreskin and his finger with Vaseline and managed to insert part of his pinkie finger into my little puckered opening, but he was unsuccessful in retracting the skin. I had no idea what he was up to, but I was sore for a couple of days after the experience.

Around age ten my penis began to lengthen, and I clearly remember beginning to have frequent erections — usually for no particular reason. I continued to grow and to have rock hard erections until at age eleven, I got the first look at what was covered by my foreskin.

I woke up one morning with a "piss hard-on," and while I was urinating a small portion of my dark purple glans peeked through my foreskin. I was horrified! I thought my guts were coming out through my penis. I had no idea that it was my dick head. I had seen the head of my brother's dick many times, but it was light pink in color as were the dick heads of my cut friends. After the initial fear wore off, my curiosity came into play. I gently massaged the patch of purple with my finger and experienced a wonderful sensation. It felt like little jolts of electricity shooting from my dick then down my left thigh.

I continued to explore this new sensation each time I got hard while pissing. By the end of the week, I noticed that more of this magical purple meat was beginning to protrude through my foreskin.

One Saturday afternoon, I was taking a bath. I was stretched out in a tub of warm water with a rock hard erection. I began to rub the purple area under my foreskin as I had been doing when I pissed. Suddenly, my foreskin completely retracted all the way back to the corona and— with the warm water as a stimulus—I experienced the first and most phenomenal orgasm of my life. I am convinced that I actually blacked out for a moment due to the sensory overload.

No one was at home that day, so I locked myself in my bedroom and taught myself how to masturbate. I probably had three or four more orgasms that day, complete with a small squirt of clear cum each time. By the next day, my little dick was so sore, I had to lay off for a while.

From then on, however, I have jerked off at least daily and I have become very proud of my foreskin, although, I kept it pulled back throughout junior and senior high school so that I could "pass" as being like most of the other guys.

I later learned that a good number of those guys were engaging in the same masquerade as I was.

Ace in the Hole

FROM Catalina Video

Director: Taylor Hudson

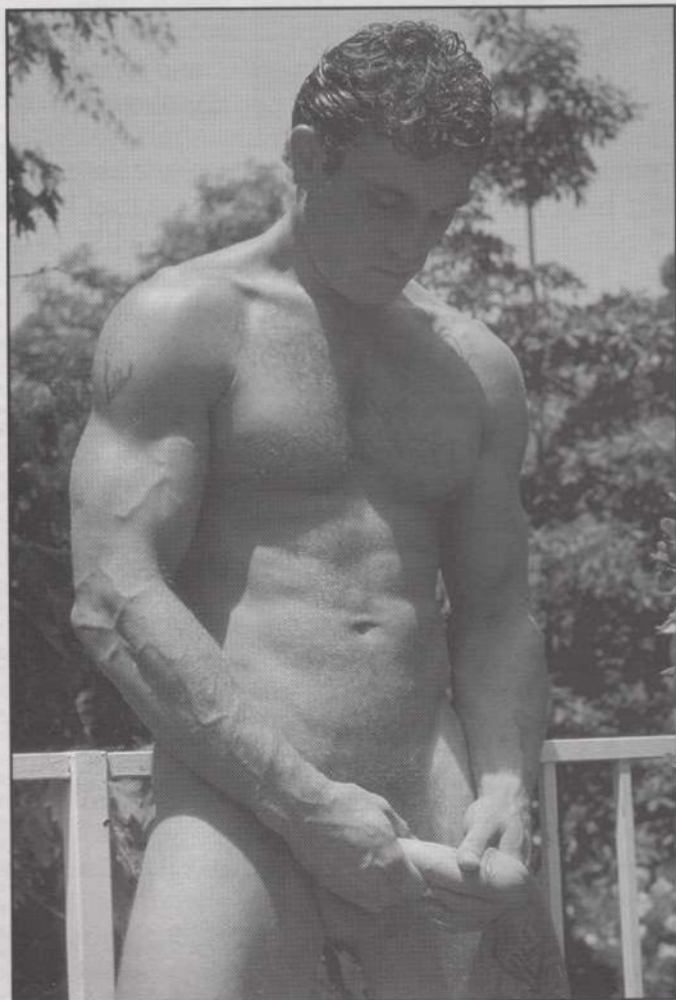

Cast: Ace Harden, Marco Rossi, Andrew Montana, Damien, Tony Brandon, Dexter Crews, Johnny Roma and Zak Sp\ears

Running Time: 90 minutes, approx. Shot on video. Feature

Rating: FFF

This glossy new release from Catalina Video is a winner. The title has a double meaning in that the star, rugged Ace Harden, has a huge, uncut cock and loves to ruff-fuck guys — thus the title “Ace in the Hole.”

Harden introduces each handsomely mounted sequence with a few words as he lays back and strokes his big, beautiful tool. This technique is reliable but an unoriginal form of scene introduction. In this movie, it serves the purpose of stringing together unrelated, free standing loops.

Director Hudson has assembled an outstanding cast of good looking, buffed up models of varying ages. There are five sequences in this highly entertaining video. Three feature silky foreskinned, uncut cocks.

Unfortunately, Director Hudson chose his weakest scene to open his movie. In this first “strike out” scene, we are introduced to Dexter Crews and Andrew Montana. Strike One: both are cut. Strike Two: lack luster, pro-forma, paint-by-the-numbers sex. Strike Three: neither model gets a hard on throughout the scene even though Dexter squeezes the base of his cock to give the illusion of it being hard.

Nice double J/O cum shot at the end of the scene but it’s not worth the wait. However, the high quality of the production elements in the scene—lighting, camera angles, and music—give the viewer an expectation of greater things to come.

The second scene has the versatile Marco Rossi using a vacuum cleaner in Damien’s home. A prolonged sequence of vacuuming the drapes grinds the action to a halt. Eventually, Marco begins to arouse himself with the suction from the vacuum cleaner. Damien enters. Both models are young, buffed up and handsome. Marco has a long, fat, uncut dick.

Damien wastes no time in replacing the vacuum cleaner’s sucking action with his own. This very erotic scene features angles and close-ups of Damien sucking Marco’s rock hard, pre-cumming, foreskinned rod. There is a prolonged, very exciting rimming scene as Damien passionately sucks Marco’s ass.

The lighting is even and totally revealing. No dark shadows and lost action here. Marco rewards Damien for the rim job by shoving his fat, long dick into his ass. The camera coverage of this white hot fuck scene is outstanding. Several angles are employed to capture the sexual intensity of this ass pounding scene. The camera shoots up from the floor to capture Marco ramming his big, uncut cock into Damien's ass as we see Damien simultaneously J/O to full, cum splashing climax. Good timing and a patient camera man gave us this unique, sex charged scene.

Unfortunately, this exciting scene is marred by stupid dialogue and bad dialogue recording. Throughout the movie the editing is consistently tight and well timed. However, the editor can only cut together what the director gives him. Director Hudson must discover different cutaway shots for the editor to use when he is editing scenes where the action does not match. Hudson provides his editor with one cutaway technique throughout the movie: a medium close-up of an actor's hand lolling around from left to right and groaning "Oh, Yeah!" So fake. So distracting.

Hudson elicits genuine and sensual erotic performances from his actors. He needs to master the movie making technique known as "cut-away coverage". All is forgiven, almost, as Hudson shows us Damien milking down Marco's gorgeous, uncut cock to squeeze out the last drop of thick cum through that luscious foreskin.

The next scene presents Ace Harden at his mature, masculine, ruggedly handsome best. He is paired with younger Tony Brandon. This scene sizzles as Ace seduces, then ravages his youthful partner. A special treat to the lovers of the uncut dick is seeing Ace's monster, ramrod-hard cock swing between his muscular thighs. One leg sports a macho tattoo which enhances his virile image. Young Tony swallows Ace's gigantic cock down to the balls. We see in loving close-ups all of his remarkable sucking action.

Then, in an arousing turnabout, Ace spreads apart the cheeks of Tony's firm bubble butt and rims him. Here is a magnificent specimen of masculine manhood rimming a handsome young lad. Hot, hot, hot! This prolonged, erotic action leads to Ace slowly — at first — gliding his super huge cock into Tony's willing ass. The fucking starts. Ace, the gentle, becomes Ace, the pile driver. He thrusts and gores young Tony's ass unmercifully.

These guys are turned on, and ready to go. The exceptional camera work captures each long stroke and deep thrust from several unique and creative angles.

The editor professionally repeats the best action scenes, allowing the viewer to completely experience the thrill of seeing a mature hunk plowing a young lad. Both of these good looking men had their cum shots repeated twice from two separate camera angles. This is a super sensational scene.

The following picturesque scene by a swimming pool features the same un-hard, disinterested Latin model Dexter Crews who bored us in the first scene. His hapless partner is the attractive Johnny Roma. This handsomely photographed sequence misfires.

During the last scene, Director Hudson teams his mature star, Ace, with mature model Zak Spears. Not only is Zak the same age, but he possesses the same masculine virility and sexual intensity as that of Ace. This final scene shows us two, hunky men satisfying themselves with each others big cocks and rugged, muscular bodies.

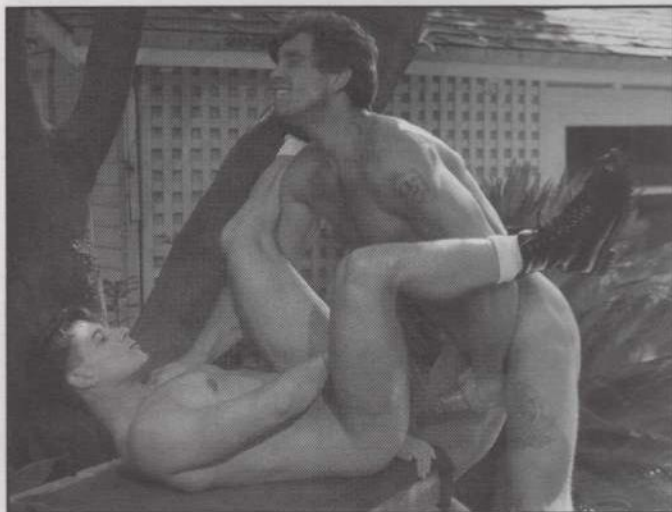

Ace is in Zak's hole at once with high energy and nonstop, piston-plunging, hard fucking action. Zak genuinely loves it. He would have to in order to take it as he does.

There is good chemistry between these men. The excellent camera work is put to good use in capturing the sweat dripping, sexually, of these two studs. Ace's cum shot is especially arousing as he stands before a kneeling Zak and shoots (and shoots) streams of hot, white cum onto Zak's hairy, muscular chest. The contrast of Ace's white cum splashing onto Zak's black chest hairs is a fitting climax [sic] to this enjoyable movie.

A salute to past Hollywood movies is seen as Ace and Zak, sexually exhausted, embrace during the final fade-out.

Especially remarkable about this well crafted feature is the coupling of models of various ages, young with young, young with mature and mature with mature. The overall quality is consistently good. We are not presented with any "knock your socks off" scenes, nor do we see any crudely made amateur footage. Each scene has a visual glossiness that is most welcomed in gay porn.

Sadly, all of the dialogue recording is awful. Please, Mr. Sound Engineer, place the mike closer to the models when they speak. The music scoring is appropriate without being intrusive. Social responsibility is respected by these fine filmmakers as they practice safe sex throughout the movie. Each model doing the fucking wears a condom.

Finally, Catalina's previews of coming attractions at the end of the tape are most generous in their content. We see models, hard action and cum shots. No teasing here.

"Ace in the Hole" will be one of the most enduring films in your collection. The sincere, overall hot action, provided by models varying in ages and personalities makes this movie first rate erotic entertainment. Draw this tape from your video dealer's shelf — in your hand will be all Aces.

Book Review:

FORESKIN: A Closer Look

With a snip snip here, and a snip snip there, here a snip there a snip, everywhere a snip snip! Ouch, that could hurt! Now, let's contemplate this one more time.

In this two handed reader, both hands on the book, the writer takes us through a history of his life from childhood to the present.

The presentation is very clinical, dry, and at times plodding. The subject is the scarring of men for the sake of tradition, religion, politics and morals.

It begs the question... is circumcision nothing more than lacking a skull-cap? The writer laboriously takes us to Egypt, Libya, England, etceteras. to study the promiscuous "virgin" boy penis. The concept that Queen Victoria had a hand in this should tell us nothing is sacred, not even a foreskin.

The utter reverence devoted to the foreskin in this book is one step short of saying novenas to the holy prepuce. Yes, Charley, there was a Holy One that belonged to a Jesus Christ of Nazareth, and during its hay day there were several different churches claiming to have the one He lost during circumcision. (It's in the book!)

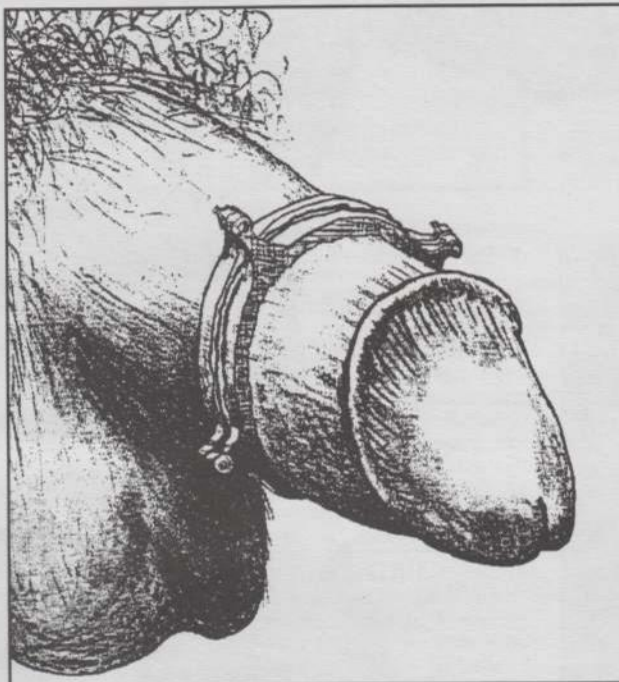

Facts abound in this book. (Although most of the research material is from other researchers' work.) It is not to say that the book is any less worthy. The historic information alone is worth the price of the book. This is not a Dick [sic] and Jane book from elementary school. This is an intelligent accounting for thousands of ravaged men, losing their shields while their armor was down.

Weaving from ancient history to the present a coherent, cohesive text of the circumcision rights practiced by each tribe and nationality is not an easy task, but the cloth is finished with few nicks from the loom.

The author, founder of the Uncircumcised Society of America, gives a compelling case for the retention of the aú natural. The book is slanted, just as books favoring circumcision would be. The foreskin takes a life of its own.

Should a man have the right to retain what has been so readily taken from him by brute force, religious piety and social inclemency? Foreskins have been the subject of humiliation and ridicule. It therefore must follow that this book is a necessity for the man of today. It doesn't matter that you are circumcised or have been spared the scalpel, this book should be a text for the men's studies classes in the Americas. Men have so little information about their reproductive organs. They know they are fertile if their mates bear offspring, if not, they have failed. In these days of women's rights, this book tells of the male anatomy from a multi-cultural view.

A German bediente, or retainer, circa 1910.

Take the time to peruse the text to find repeated reference to cleanliness and sanitary conditions as related to the male. If more time was taken to educate the male of his manhood, less might fall on the cutting room floor.

Whether you like the book or not is unimportant. Whether you read the book or not indicates your willingness to take a long look at the past and peek into the future.

On a basis of One to Five — Five being almost perfect — I rate this book a Four. Read the book, display it proudly in your library. If someone wants to read it, let them, but don't let it leave the house. Make them buy their own copy.

ERECTION BEFORE

ERECTION AFTER MEGA-10

There's a lot more to it than just pumping it up!

You'll see top XXX-stars going through this new system and enjoying their huge size with their partners! You'll see such demonstrations as:

- How to increase size and staying power at the same time!
- How to develop the ability to climax without cumming - and maintain a full erection for continued sex!
- How to develop the internal muscles that make your penis thrust out and up as never before!
- How the three different shapes of penises affect sex!
- Why pumping up by itself doesn't work!
- How long it will take to show a measurable difference.
- A secret of immediate size increase any man can use anytime for instant results!
- The equipment you'll need... how often to use the system... the important side benefits of the system... how women feel about male genital size... much, much more!

UNIQUE FOUR-STEP SYSTEM VITAL TO SUCCESS!

If you've ever dreamed of seeing your penis grow as much as several inches longer and thicker... probing new depths of ecstasy within your partner... stretching aroused openings to the limit as few men ever have, this extraordinary 4-way system is your ticket to success! But pumping up with a vacuum device is not enough! Unless you know and use ALL 4 PARTS of this proven system, you'll never see how really huge your penis can get! Now, for the first time, everything you need to do is shown, step-by-step on

CASE HISTORIES PROVE THIS SYSTEM WORKS WHERE OTHERS FAIL!

Doctors measured and recorded giant increases in both length and thickness in men who carefully followed this system. (There was no improvement noted in the men using other enlargement techniques.) • Youth of 19, grows 2.4 longer, 2.3 thicker! • Man aged 60, gains over 2.6 in length and circumference! • 36-year old develops 2.4 in length, almost 2 in girth! • Man of 61, 2.7 length increase, 3.1 in girth! • 58-year old documented 2.8 length increase, 2 1/2 around! • 3.1 length increase for 20 year old; 2.2 around!

JUST USING A VACUUM PUMP IS NOT ENOUGH!

Yes, a vacuum pump is essential to increasing penis size. But pumping up is only one-fourth of the secret to success. Without all four parts in place, in order, properly used, you are probably doomed to failure. This is the first video that takes you step-by-step through the only enlargement system ever proven to really work. That's why we call it THE RIGHT WAY TO ENLARGE YOUR PENIS! LOGS

In Respectful Memory Of...

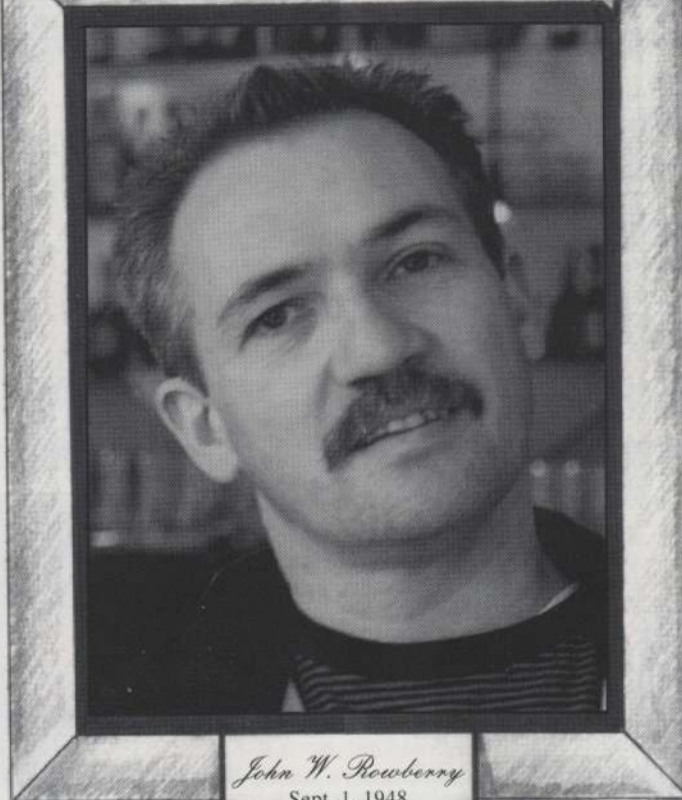

From
The
San Francisco
Sentinel

John W. Rowberry, former Editor of Foreskin Quarterly, long time San Francisco resident, a journalist whose career spanned over two decades in gay publishing as a writer, editor and critic, died of AIDS complications on Dec. 4 at his home near San Diego, Calif. He was 45.

He is survived by his lover, Gary Voice; his mother and stepfather, Theresa and Fred R. Green of Texas and predeceased by loving companion, Charles R. Musgrave. No services will be held per his request, and his ashes will be scattered by his lover in places special to the couple. Donations in his memory go to San Diego Hospice, 4311 Third Avenue, San Diego, CA 92103, or to an AIDS care organization of choice would be appreciated.

Although best known for his strong creative touch with such magazines as Drummer and Inches, Rowberry was unconditionally committed to fighting censorship openly within or outside the gay community, communicating across international barriers, and championing gay and lesbian rights wherever and however they were threatened.

A belief in direct as well as free speech led Rowberry to coin the celebratory term "gay porn" in place of the closeted "all-male" and to consummate the marriage of activist politics and gay erotica in magazines such as The Alternate. He encouraged contributors to stretch themselves in word and picture while preserving the unique style of each publication.

John W. Rowberry
Sept. 1, 1948
to
Dec. 5, 1993

Rowberry met artist Musgrave on a weekend trip to Galveston, Texas, in 1969, they were separated only by Musgrave's death from ARC in 1987. The couple moved from Houston, where Rowberry continued his theater work as production designer from the Queen's Haven nightclub, to Los Angeles in 1972, where he soon melded his visual art talents with publishing. After a short stint with the Advocate, Rowberry became editor of the magazine Entertainment West, then found a long-term home with Alternate Publications.

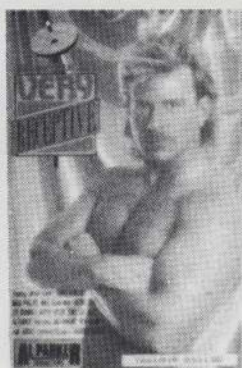

Relocating with the company to San Francisco in 1979, Rowberry became editor of Drummer, began The Alternate and shortly thereafter, Foreskin Quarterly, and Mach. In 1985 he left the company to take full editorial control of Stud Flix, Inches, Uncut and then Stallion magazines and to publish special interest magazines such as Skins. He relocated to San Diego in 1988. Shortly after meeting Voice, he moved to Las Vegas, Nevada, where they remained for three years. Here Rowberry established his reputation in gay video critique, following his 1986 Gay Video: A Guide to Erotica with the annual Adam Film World Directories.

Rowberry's fiction has been published in anthologies and the book Lewd Conduct. He also wrote the screenplay for the gay erotic film Blue Angel in 1986, starred in the movie My Uncle and I, and played the title role in The Picture of Dorian Gay.
