letters

Dear FQ:

Thanks for your good work on FQ, but how about some models who are over 50?

J. W.

Atlanta, Georgia

Hmmm ... compare and contrast this letter with the following letter:

Dear FQ:

I'm a big fan of FQ and have been reading it ever since the early days. I know you try to show a wide variety of models with foreskin, but I'd like to see younger models than the ones you've been showing.

M. S.

Mount Sterling, Kentucky

Well, apparently last issue's topic of inclusivity rears its head once again in this issue's letters page. As you suggested, we try to put several different kinds of guys in our mag. It isn't always easy, mind you, to anticipate who folks will really go for in a major way. One major tool we use (other than our own built-in hormone-o-meters) is reader response. Just a few letters can sway our decision making in one direction or another.

So there's your cue, folks! Let us know which models really tickle your fancy (and fantasies). We really do read the letters around here, and we really do make judgments based on those letters. You don't even have to have good penmanship. Jot down what you think, stick it in an envelope and send it to: Foreskin Quarterly, 2215-R Market Street #148, San Francisco, CA 94114. If your handwriting is really bad, you can always e-mail us at bcmsales@brushcreek.com. We read those, too!

Dear FQ:

I recently read an elaborate, fascinating article in an issue of the magazine Genre, namely the restructuring of the foreskin. I'm not unfamiliar with this spreading concern/debate regarding guys who are intact and those who are cut. The article mentioned a number of books, publications, and organizations. The magazine's readership is mostly gay men, yet this issue relates to any male.

C. C.

Santa Cruz, California

I'm continually amazed at how much attention the issue of circumcision is getting lately in the mainstream press as compared to just a few short years ago. I've been getting a lot of photocopied articles from around the world ing across my desk lately concerning both the issue of circumcising babies and foreskin restoration. Thanks, guys (and in a few cases, gals!); keep those articles coming in.

Dear FQ:

I have two copies of FQ and find the magazine is the best for one who likes to see and enjoy uncut penises with their full beautiful precious foreskins. A circumcised penis isn't as beautiful and natural as one with its foreskin in full bloom. Let's keep them that way—the way we were born—which is our birthright.

The purpose and function of foreskin is protection. Foreskin protects the sensitive glans throughout life from many adverse conditions, including the abrasiveness of clothing, and wet and soiled diapers.

Without foreskin, the glans become dry and calloused and desensitized. Circumcised marriages never last as long as uncut natural ones. Let's have birth with dignity.

Surgery is such a drastic substitute for soap and water, as one surgeon said. If parents and their boys learn to retract and wash under the foreskin, cleanliness shouldn't be a problem. Forcibly retracting the foreskin, or trying to retract it too soon, can cause inflammation, though. Only four percent of newborns have foreskins that retract.

Being intact has many benefits. The foreskin is the natural protective covering for the glans, or head of the glans. It prevents the glans surface from thickening and desensitizing. The loose foreskin covers the longer shaft of an erect penis. The foreskin plays an integral part in sexual pleasure as it glides over the corona (ridge of the glans) during sexual activity. By not having a baby circumcised, you can give your son a gentle beginning, the gift of his whole body, and the sensitivity and feeling that nature intended. Foreskin should be a birthright.

I never have had any medical problems with my intact penis, and I would feel so naked without my foreskin to enjoy sexual pleasures, and to masturbate in many different ways.

I would like to see more intact men with their beautiful precious foreskins. An intact penis with its protective foreskin is so much more beautiful than a circumcised one. Do you think so also?

E. C.

Providence, Rhode Island

Well, I suspect it goes without saying that we all agree here. Much of what you've said bears repeating, though, not just in our magazine, but in the mainstream press. Let the world know that there is an option to automatically circumcising newborns, and many reasons to consider keeping babies intact.

Dear FQ:

I purchased your latest issue of FQ. I found one of your models quite interesting and was wondering if there is a way I might write to him. He is in FQ 26 and the gentleman's name is Daddy Joe Dixon. Is Joe gay, single, and easy to please, or do I need to ask him?

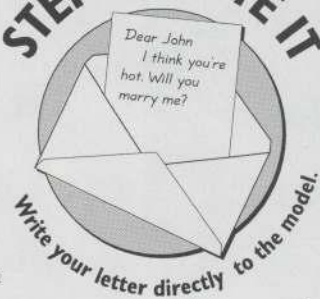

Also, if I were to place an ad in FQ looking for an intact third person for a three-way, how would I go about stating that in your magazine?

C. P.

Columbus, Ohio

Boy, that Joe Dixon! He seems to create a stir wherever he's seen. You should have seen him the day he came into the office and whipped it out for us to see! He doesn't seem to have a shy bone in his body.

We get a lot of requests from folks who'd like to contact our models. So much so, in fact, that we've developed a nifty graphic showing how to do just that.

As far as that ad goes, it sounds like you got your point across pretty well with the wording you just used. The best way to get responses to your ad is to be as explicit about what you want as possible and give folks an idea of what you look like to pique their interest. Including a photo wouldn't hurt either. I know that when I'm browsing the classifieds of a magazine, I tend to read the ads with photos first.

Also, just saying that you're into foreskin might not be specific enough in this magazine to grab someone's attention. You might want to tell 'em more and complete the picture.

If you connect with a guy and find the love of your life, let us know.

We'd be thrilled to know that we helped make a love connection.

Even if all that came of it was one of the best tricks in your life, we'd still love to hear all of the sordid details.

Dear FQ:

Ever since FQ 26 arrived, I've been tied up in knots! I love everything about FQ ... especially all of that juicy foreskin!

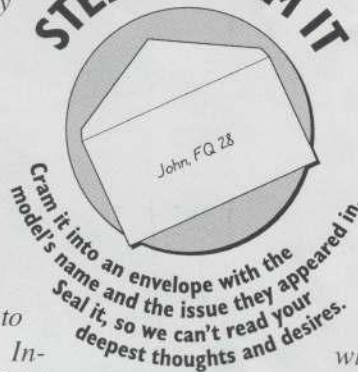

I'm holding on for more studs with Prince Alberts as well as a Kent art exposé.

Please continue to keep me hard and leakin'!

G. S.

Port Huron, Michigan

STEP 2: CRAM IT

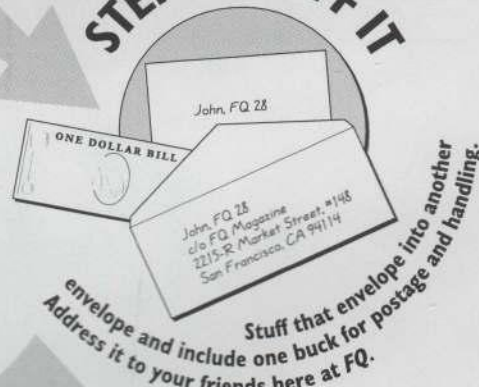

Knowing that we're doing our part to keep America horny for foreskin makes our jobs here all worthwhile. Thanks!

Models with Prince Alberts don't come around very often, but when they do, I hope it makes the whole wait worthwhile. I could easily imagine the whole topic of piercing getting a wide variety of responses from our readers, so this might be yet another cue to write us, folks!

So, you like Kent, eh? Well, take a peek at page 17. I think you'll be pleased. See! I told you we read our letters!

THE ARTWORK OF KENT

Kent has been a staple of gay men's magazines for years. Folks can't seem to get enough of his work, and we love to have him illustrate our fiction.

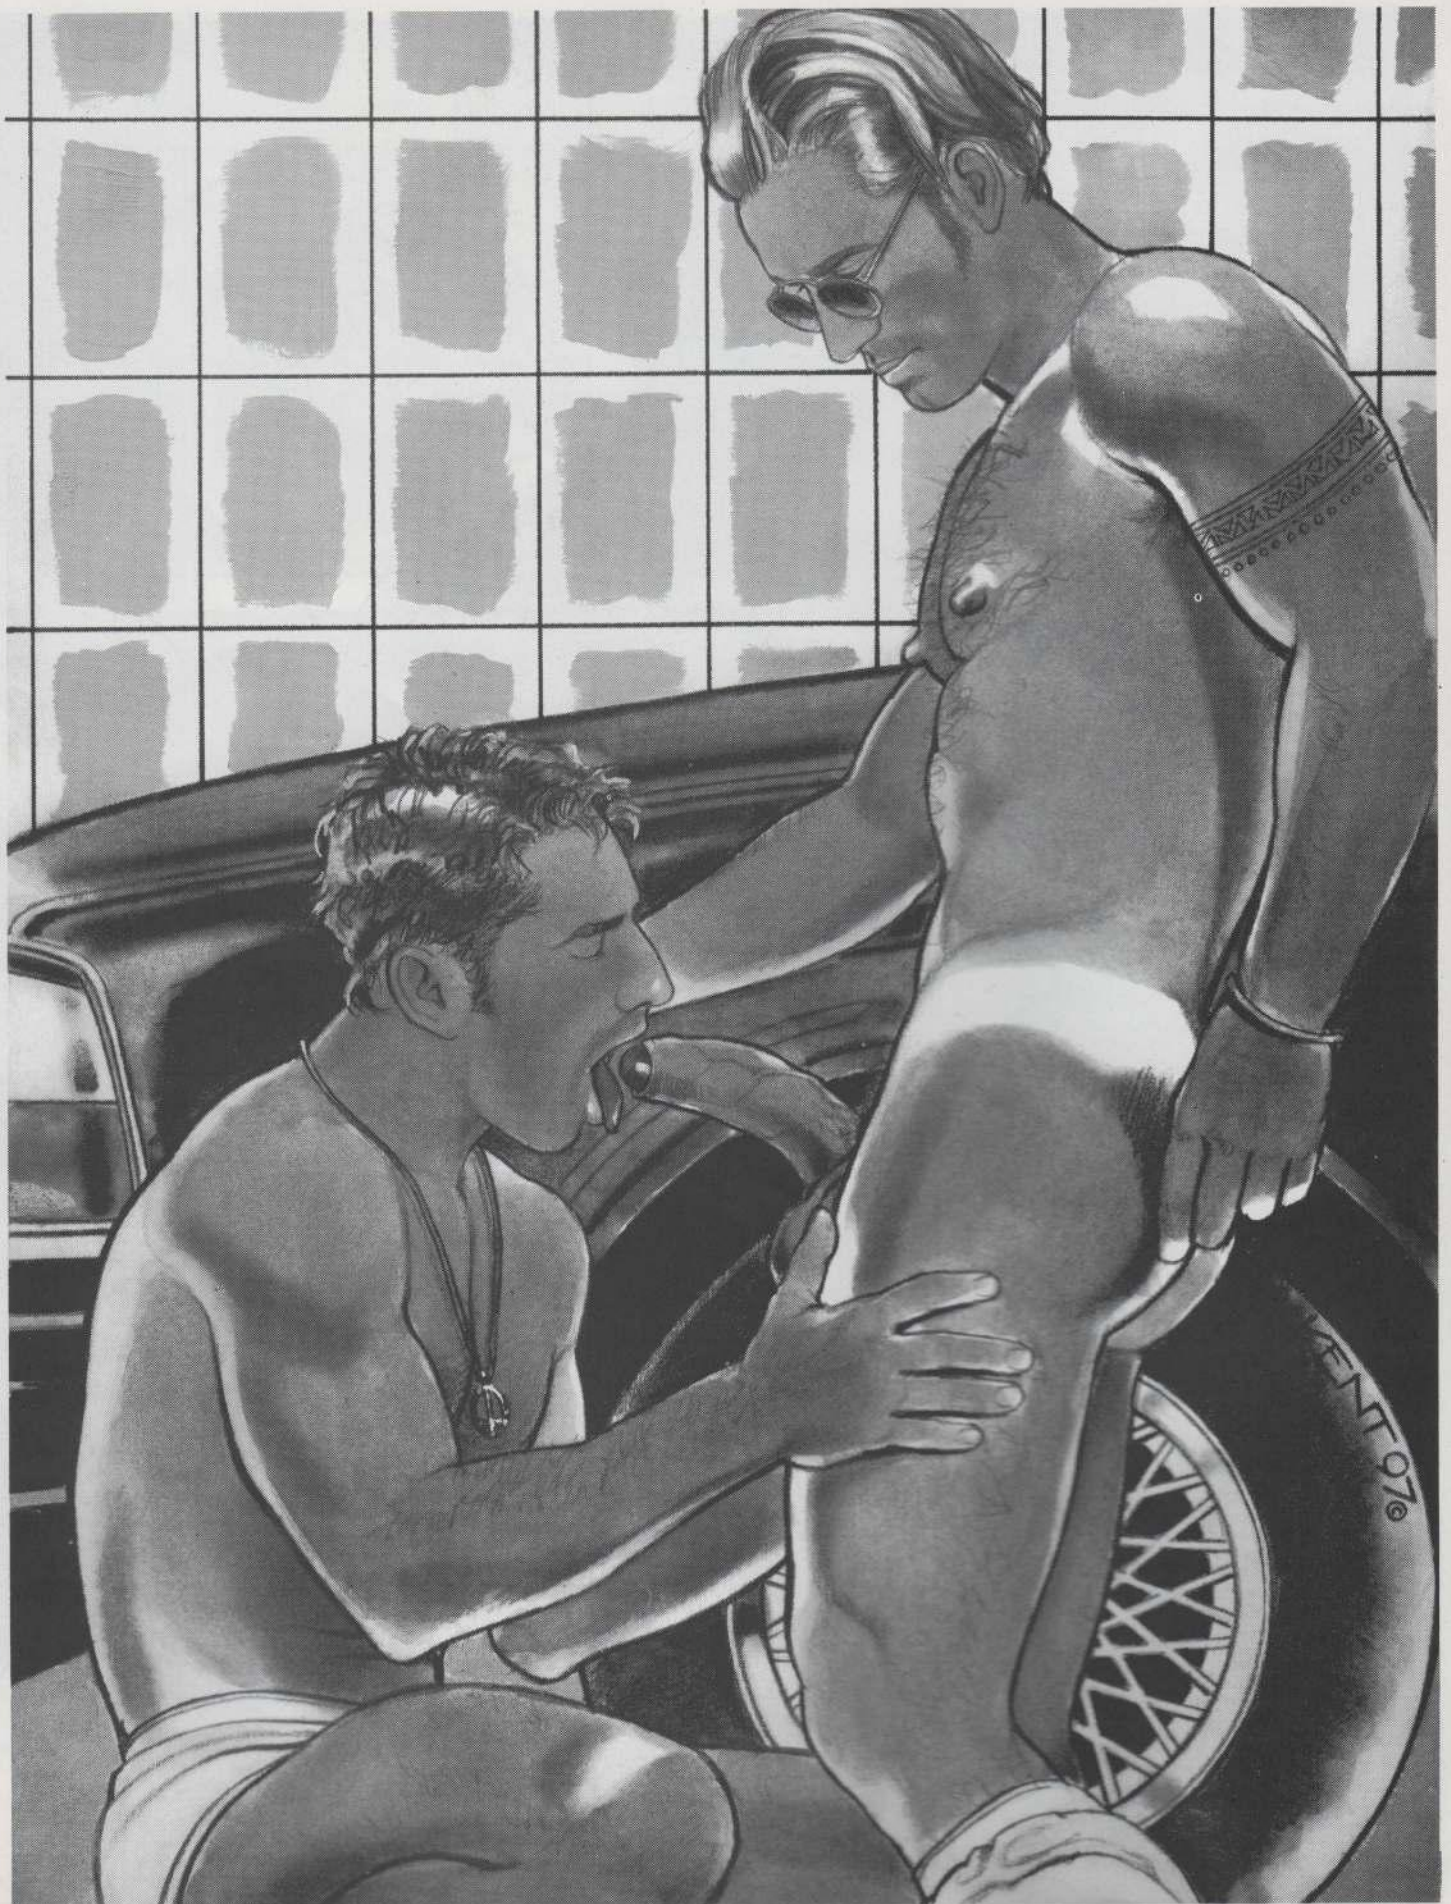

He has a very recognizable, unique style that still manages to work in seemingly different contexts—romantic, sensual, playful, and sometimes even downright sleazy!

If you are interested in purchasing Kent's artwork, write to him at: 2261 Market Street, #150, San Francisco, CA 94114

This is really about my dad. It began one afternoon in 1939, when I was standing on a hay bale, showing Robby Williams my dick. Somewhere above us a fly buzzed in lazy circles; a weak wind slapped a loose door from time to time. A thin shaft of sun was coming down like a spotlight from a hole in the roof of the barn, falling on my crotch, and Robby was standing in front of me, examining the skin.

I'll admit that there was a lot more to see than when we moved to Soddy Daisy ten years before. I was just eight then, and I think my prick was only about two inches long, but it had foreskin, and Robby's didn't. I had looked at his first, right there in that same barn, and touched the velvet skin of the head of his pee-pee, and said mine didn't look like that.

Now, even though we'd grown close together as we grew toward eighteen, it still felt kind of funny to let someone look at it and touch it. And with both of us graduating from high school in a few months, I thought maybe this was the last time we'd do this kind of thing. I had dropped my shorts, climbed up on the hay bale into the yellow shaft of light and let him touch the skin and see how it came to a point.

I don't know how long I had stood there, but Robby was touching my low-hangers and my dick was getting hard. As usual, the skin was tight and the head was straining to get out. I heard the crunch of big feet coming from somewhere in the gloom of the old barn, and Robby turned away suddenly as we heard my father's voice.

"Time for you to go home, Robby, and I'll be in touch with your folks," he said, tightly. Robby knew it was trouble and ran without looking back.

I stood there, God's floodlight on my dick, wondering what would happen next.

"As for you," my father said to me, "I've got a few things to teach you." The veins on his neck were standing out and his face was red. He grabbed the root of my cock with his fingers and squeezed until tears came to my eyes. "That's not for other people to see, unless you're some kinda queer, you unnerstand?" I didn't really understand. He took my nuts into his big hand and squeezed them too; I screamed and thought I'd vomit. "That's not to play with and not to show off." He squeezed harder and stretched my balls until I couldn't stand it.

"If I ever catch you doin' that kinda thing again, I'll tan your ass and you can bet on that!" He released his grip and I could breathe again. "Now get yer drawers back on and shovel the chicken shit in the yard like yer s'posed to. An' remember what I said: I'll tan your ass if you play with yer pecker or show it to somebody again. You may think you're a big boy now, but I swear I'll tan your ass. No kid of mine is goin' to grow up a queer."

my Dad's Skin & my Skin

fiction by Tom Gordon

illustrated by R. A. Shultz

He hitched up his belt over his gut and went off into the gloom of the barn. From somewhere in the darkness he yelled at me again, "And remember the commandment. Yer s'posed to obey your father an' mother. I've taught you that, and I've tanned your ass before, and I'll do it again—remember that." I remembered; it hurt so much I still remember it, years later.

We had moved to Soddy Daisy, Tennessee, when I was eight. It was not the best of times; my father had lost his job in a railroad yard in Chattanooga when the depression got bad. He bought the little farm on payments, although I don't think he knew anything about running a farm. "At least we'll have food on the table," he said. I remember that first night when we clattered up the bumpy, rutted track to the farmhouse, Dad driving the Ford pickup, Mom and my sister Salina with him in the front seat, and me in the back, sitting on a mattress to keep it from blowing away.

I couldn't keep my hands off my cock, I'll admit it. Even at eighteen, with my man-size dick, sometimes I'd stand in the bathroom, looking at it in the mirror, trying to skin it back so it looked like Robby Williams' cock did. Earlier this year Robby and I had both peed together in that bathroom, and his stream was straight and smooth; mine was like a gushing hose as the piss spurted through the tight foreskin.

Robby and I used to go up to the loft and smoke. We had started when we were just kids, smoking the stems of cat tail reeds from the pond behind the barn. Now, I'd snag a couple of my dad's Chesterfields once in a while and save them until Robby and I could go up in the loft and light up together—and stroke together. We'd let the smoke curl up to the roof slowly, and jerk off as slowly as we could, just keeping our dicks hard. Maybe we'd hear birds from outside, or a frog from the pond, or a fly buzzing, and we'd enjoy the quiet sounds and the pleasure in our dicks as long as we could.

Robby loved to see my skin strain as I tried to pull it back over the head. Sometimes Robby would cum, and I loved to see the stuff spurt out, five or six times, with his eyes closed and his balls pulled up all tight. I couldn't do that; I couldn't go all the way. I wanted to, but the tight skin hurt if I worked it too hard. But it was fun to play with it and smoke, and watch Robby.

Only a couple of weeks after my father caught me standing on the hay bale with my dick out, I got caught the second time. I was getting ready for bed and sat down on the toilet, naked, when I got interested in my cock again. My legs were sticking straight out, my toes were pointed, and I was stroking it as hard as I could without stretching the skin too much. I guess I was really near cumming, concentrating entirely on my work and the great feelings. I didn't hear the door open quietly and I didn't know my father was watching until he spoke.

"You can't get enough of playing with that pecker, can ya? Just because the thing has grown since you were a kid ain't no reason you've got to play with it. 'Member what I said? I told ya if I caught you playing with it or showing it to somebody again I'd tan your hide, and I will. Now! Head for your room, boy!"

I knew he meant business. The veins on his neck were standing out and his face was red and I could hear him breathing hard. He made me run up the stairs to my attic room like I was, naked, with my cock sticking out, and he was right behind me. He slammed the door with his foot and sat down on the bed. With one big paw he dragged me down on his lap, my cock and balls locked between his knees, and in an instant he gave me a sharp whack on the ass with his farm-hardened palm. I jerked and yelled, and he squeezed with his knees.

"Shut up and listen. I ain't havin' you turn into the kinda kid that plays with hisself all the time and gets weak and sickly and crazy and turns into a queer or something." He whacked my buns again. "I'm tellin' ya this because I care about ya, boy! Whack! You gotta stop playing with yourself, boy. It's abnormal and it's wrong, and God knows what'll happen to you if you keep this up!"

He gave me four or five more hard ones on both buns and squeezed my balls between his knees. "You unnerstand? It's for your own good! If I catch you once more, it'll be my belt on your backside. You think just because you're eighteen and almost through school you're big shit, huh?" He whomped me again with his toughened hand. "I'll bet that pecker ain't so hard now, is it! Remember what I said: the belt next time, and I'll lay it on till there's welts on your ass, big boy."

By then my cock wasn't quite so hard, but I have to admit that there was something strangely arousing in the experience—I did get a little hard when he spanked me. My buns were burning, and I stroked my cock until I fell asleep.

I don't know whether it was because he worried about me, or because he worried about everything (the farm wasn't making it and I had heard both of my folks yelling), but soon we were getting "counseled" by Reverend Billy Harkins, who ran the little white church down the road. Things had got a lot tighter around the house and I was getting dragged to what they called Sunday School for Teens, and being forced to memorize Bible verses. My father had a pamphlet called "What to Tell Your Son About Sex" as a bookmark in his bible, and I knew he was watching me. But he never said anything. I wondered which of us knew more about sex. I'm sure I thought about it a lot more than he did.

There is no year longer than the senior year in high school. Robby Williams and I were out for wrestling. And no matter what my father had told me, I was still interested in my cock—and others. I'd stand in the showers at school watching the other guys, seeing their big cocks flop around as they soaped up, and watching the younger guys with little dicks watch the older guys. Maybe I was late developing, but I remember how great I felt the day I decided my own dick was really growing, and there was some real hair beginning to grow at the root.

One afternoon during that senior year, after everyone was gone, Robby was standing next to me in the shower and reached over to my cock. He tried to pull the skin back over the head, and he almost made it because the warm water had relaxed me (and let's face it, I had been working it as much as I could). But it hurt too much, and I began to get hard, which made it all the worse; I made him stop.

That was about the time that I discovered the "doctor book" next to the enema equipment in the bathroom closet. I looked at it a lot; it told of all the terrible diseases you could get and what was the best cure for everything from sore throats to acne pimples (which had become a bit of a problem). I was much concerned about the section on how one could tell if his kid was masturbating: weak eyes, nervousness, and pimples were some of the signs that "vital fluids" were being lost. Robby told me this was a lot of old-fashioned bullshit, but I didn't want to take chances. I stopped playing with myself as much as I could. I sometimes was able to go for two or three days without working on it.

I still had not shot out a load of juice like Robby had, and I was eighteen!

At home the yelling got worse. One night my father told Mom to keep in her place, that she had to obey, like it said in the good book. I looked out my attic window that night and saw my father head for the barn. And Mom, holding Salina's hand and lugging a cardboard suitcase, was marching down the road. After that it was just my father and me.

It was a Saturday morning and I was in the shower, letting the warm water play right on the tip of my dick so I could try to skin it back. The warmth made my balls relax and hang low, and the water made the hair look darker. I didn't hear him come in; I caught just a flicker of movement through the translucent shower curtain.

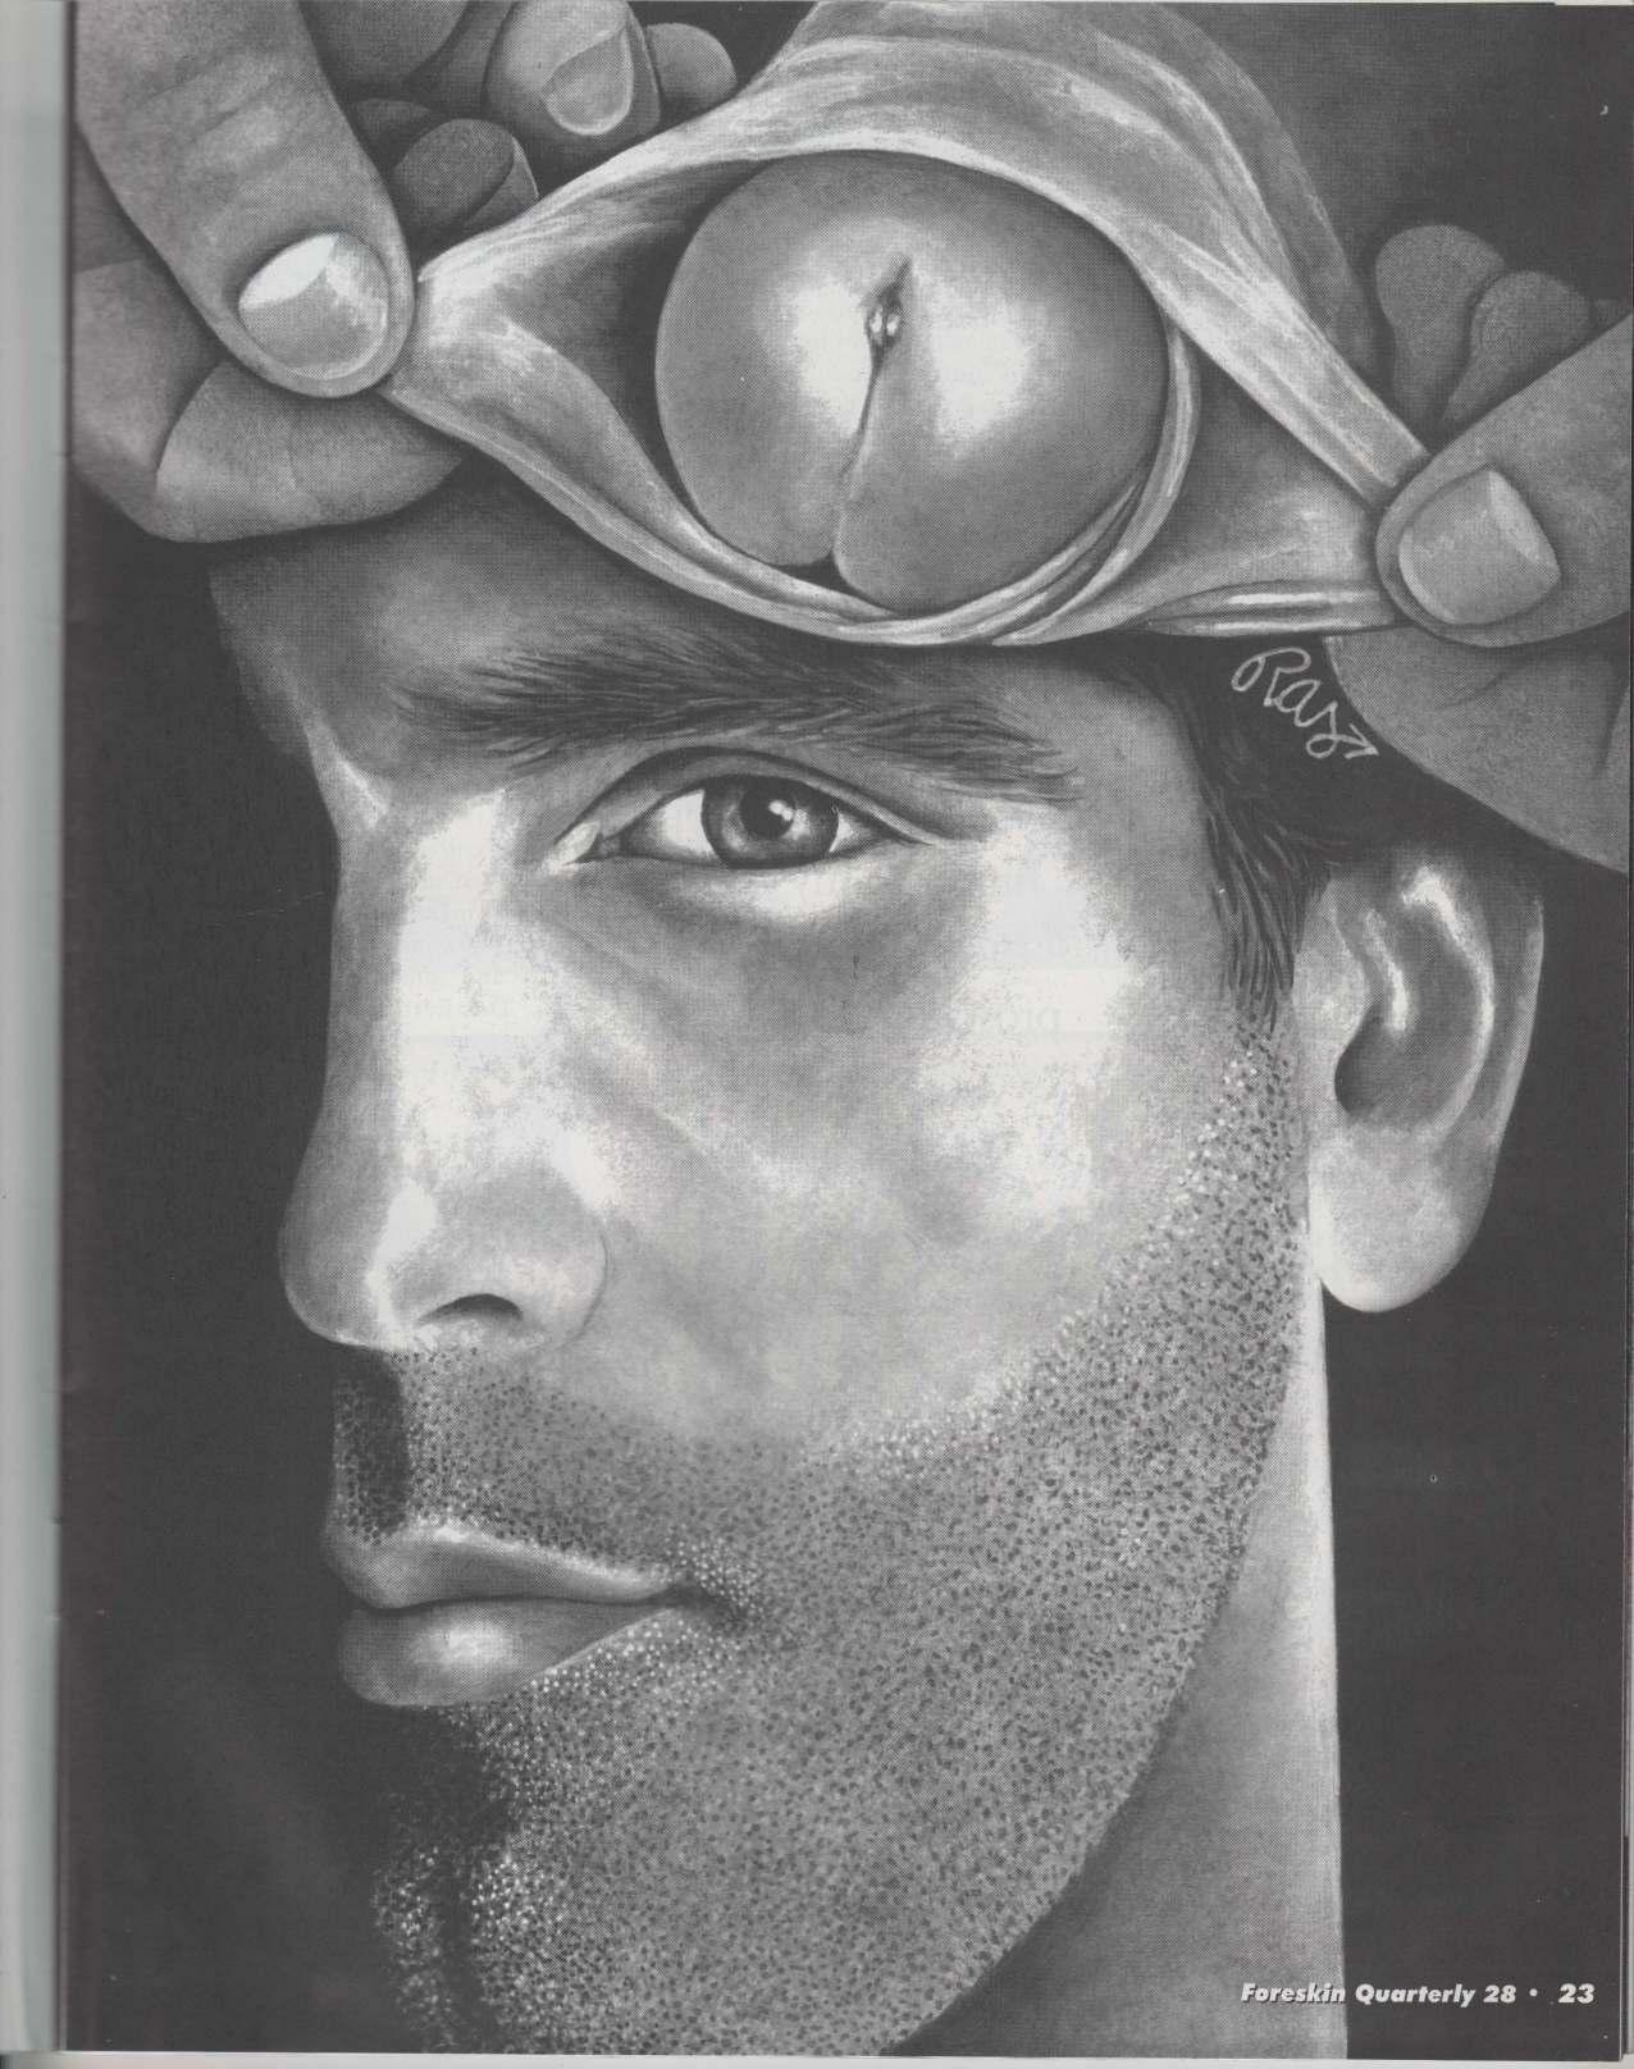

"When you're done playing with your pecker, I'll meet you in your room," my father said. My cock went soft, and I knew something serious was coming.

I just held the towel in front of me and took the stairs two at a time. He was sitting on the bed, whacking the belt against his hand. He looked up at me. "Drop the towel, boy," he said. I stood there, naked in front of him. He saw the bush around my cock and the balls hanging low from the hot shower. For some reason I was a little aroused by the sight of the belt, and my dick began to swell. For a long moment, neither of us spoke.

"Ya know, I think you're too big for the belt now, boy. I can't do anything more for you. You're probably jerking off like a crazy queer pre-vert anyway. Git dressed—we're going to town." I heard him on the phone as I got dressed.

We went, neither of us speaking as the truck rattled into town. We stopped at Doc Everett's office. He was not only the team doctor, but he was the doctor in town. I followed my father in and did as I was told—he pointed at a chair and I sat in it. He went in and talked to the doc; I could hear their muffled voices—mostly my father's voice getting louder, but couldn't make out the words. After ten minutes, the door opened, father came out, red-faced and the veins on his neck bulging, and doc invited me in, alone.

"Sit," Doc Everett said, pointing to a chair and shaking my hand at the same time. "Your father's a little excited, I think." I nodded and sat. Doc Everett pushed a mop of dark hair back from his forehead; I figured him for his late twenties, not long out of medical school, young enough to understand someone my age.

"I remember you," he continued. "You're out for wrestling, and I did your wrestling physical. I don't recall anything wrong with you. No injuries?"

"Nope."

"Look, Tom, your father says there's probably something wrong with your penis; he wants me to circumcise you." Wow. I couldn't even think! I must have looked pale because Doc came and put his hand around my shoulder.

"Relax, son," he said softly. "We're not going to do anything wild." He stood there silent for a long moment, his hand on my shoulder, until I caught my breath. Our eyes met, and I just shook my head—no, please no. He nodded, and I am sure he understood.

I just dumped on him then, and told him about beating off and my father's whomping my ass for it, and that I couldn't seem to stop. He reassured me, in a soft and understanding voice, that I was just a normal guy. In the end he asked about my tight foreskin, and asked if he could look at it. "There are lots of other things we can do besides cutting it off," he said with a grin. He had me get out of my jeans and lie back on the table while he examined me.

"Looks pretty normal to me," he said, fondling my balls, stretching them a bit. "Good testicles, normal shape, maybe even a bit bigger than average." He took my cock in his hand and slid the skin back as far as he could. "Very tight foreskin, but normal," he said. He put on a latex glove, lubricated it, and slipped a finger up my asshole, then massaged my prostate for about ten seconds. "Prostate is normal," he announced. My cock had stiffened a little, and a drop of juice had come to the tip, but he paid no attention. Doc ripped off the glove, came around to the side of the table, and put his hand on my chest and looked directly into my eyes.

"We can loosen the foreskin for you without cutting it off, my friend," he said. "You'll need to have it looser if you're going to enjoy sex as much as I think you'd like to!" There was that grin again.

"Some people don't understand this, Tom, but sex is supposed to be enjoyable; it's one of the great gifts of life. If you've got questions, I'll be glad to answer them and help you find yourself; most guys your age are trying to figure these things out." Wow, he didn't know how right he was.

"First thing you've got to do is lubricate the foreskin so it won't hurt when it's stretched a little. I'll show you how to do it." He put a little Vaseline on his fingertip, pushed the skin back as far as it would go easily, and then let the tight skin slip back down over his finger. He rotated his finger under the foreskin, spreading the Vaseline and rubbing it over the head of my cock. I got hard instantly! "Yeah," he said, "this can feel good. Enjoy it!" He told me to lubricate the skin like that every day for a week, then to stop at the office on my way home from school and he'd show me step two.

"Get dressed, son, and I'll go out and chat with your father. Seems to me your father sees circumcision more

“He put on a latex glove, lubricated it, and slipped a finger up my asshole, then massaged my prostate for about ten seconds. “Prostate is normal,” he announced.”

as a punishment for something than as a cure for something. I'm into healing, not punishing.”

It was more than a chat. I heard them through the closed door as I got my jeans on. My father was all red in the face again when I got to the lobby, and we left without him saying anything more to the doctor. My eyes met with the doc's, and we exchanged grins.

After lubricating my foreskin every day for a week, I stopped in at Doc's office on the way home from school. "Your father doesn't quite approve of this treatment, Tom," he said. "He'd like something more radical and more painful. But this is for you, and I won't send your father a bill."

He showed me an instrument called a speculum, which looked like a cross between a pair of pliers and a duck's beak. "This is the small size," he said, showing me how he could open the duck's beak by squeezing the handles, and lock it at any position. He spread some Vaseline on the blades of the speculum, then slipped them gently inside my foreskin and spread them a bit, stretching the skin. It didn't hurt much, and he left me there with the stretcher in place while he went to do a couple of phone calls.

I came back three times a week for three weeks, and each time he opened the speculum just a little wider. Soon, when he could put two of his fingers inside my foreskin, he said I was ready to stretch it and shape it any way I wanted to. Doc showed me how to put both my index fingers inside the skin and stretch it wider. "In time you might want the skin to be longer, too," he said. He showed me how to lubricate it and stretch it longer if I wanted to, so it hung over the head of my cock; I liked it, and I began to stretch it daily.

My father died one night soon after that, just when I was thinking of college. He had gotten angry at me for—I guess it doesn't matter why—and his face got red and the veins stood out, and something popped inside. Doc Everett came, but there was nothing he could do. Yes, I felt sorry to see the old man go like that, but somehow I had expected it; for years he had seemed angry at everything and pissed off at life, and absolutely sure he knew the mind of God.

I did wind up going to college. Doc Everett said I was too bright not to go. He arranged for me to get a scholarship, and he sent me a few bucks every couple of weeks; he cared about me a lot. I came back to visit him during the holidays. I had to quit college in 1941 to go into the army, but I came back to visit Doc every time I got leave. One Christmas I realized he had given me a great gift: he had ceased being my doctor and had become my dad.

Dad and I have lived together for a lot of years now. I've been writing, he's been doctoring, and together we've learned a lot about loving.

Dad likes my foreskin just the way it is, the way he showed me how to make it. My father gave me life; my dad showed me how to make it worthwhile. As I said at the beginning, this is really a story about my Dad. ☐

TAG ALONG

Fiction by Mark Hart • Photography by RVJ Studios

As he settled himself up against one of the big rocks that protected their camp from the wind, Snake watched the young cowboy that lay just on the other side of the fading campfire. Once he was sure the kid was asleep, he reached down, let his hand rest on the sizable mound in his union suit, and gave himself a firm squeeze. Been more than a week, he thought, and this kid's beginning to wear on my patience.

This particular kid's name was William S. Harper. Snake sometimes called him "Billy" or "Willy," but mostly Snake called him "kid." And even though Billy was out of his teens, he put up with Snake calling him kid 'cause he knew that without the older cowboy to guide him, he would never make it through the badlands alive. Billy considered himself lucky that he found a man like Snake to tag along after. Snake had hoped the big blond kid would make nights on the trail a little easier to take. So far Snake had been wrong.

The mound under his hand began to grow as Snake rubbed and pulled at it. Billy stirred in his sleep. Snake quickly jerked his hand away from the work it was doing in his lap and raised a leg to hide the bulge. He watched the kid's broad back slowly rise and fall, and then, when he was sure he had not woken his tag-along, he went back to the squeezing and rubbing action that he knew would release the aching, overfull feeling he had in his nuts.

I'm getting tired of my balls aching, Snake thought as he slid his fingers inside his fly and ran them along the top of his cockshaft. And I don't much care if Billy boy here does get offended. He stared for a moment at the unruly blond hair that tumbled down onto the kid's blanket and the muscular shoulder that showed through the white cotton of Billy's union suit.

"Can't believe this kid turned out to be some kind of holy roller," Snake muttered to himself as he tugged at the thick, meaty shaft of his cock until he managed to drag all of it out where he could surround it with his fist. Big strapping kid like that, he thought, and the little shit-fer-brains won't even talk about sex.

Snake stuck his other hand into his fly and fished around until he had a good grip on his nuts. He gave the loose skin of his ballsac a couple of loving tugs, then pulled it up and out into the cool night air. A contented sigh escaped from his slightly parted lips. The day-long ride with all its bouncing and grinding against the hard leather of his saddle always made him want to get his cock out where he could work on it proper. With his other tag-alongs, he'd never had this problem. Hell, with the others he'd always got them to help him out. That's what tag-alongs were for. But with this one, all he could do was stare at the kid and play with himself.

Will you look at the ass on this boy, he thought as he peeled the foreskin back off the tender head of his cock. It was damned near as pretty as that big Swede that rode with me a couple years back. Snake ran his thumb over a small drop of clear fluid that oozed from his cumhole, then rubbed it along the rough ridge that crowned the head of his cock. That big mother had an ass on him that no sane man could ever say no to. Solid, firm and round, but with skin soft as a newborn.

Snake pushed his foreskin forward until it completely covered the head of his cock, then mashed it between his thumb and knuckle while squeezing the thick knob with the rest of his fist. "And with the sweetest, tightest hold I ever been in," he whispered to himself as he let his foreskin slide slowly back and ran his fist around the thick, veiny fullness of his dick shaft. "Boy wouldn't have none of taking me in the mouth, but he sure did like it when I was slamming up into him with my fat old dick."

Snake gave his cock a couple of long quick strokes, then pressed down hard on its base so its full length stood up tall and proud in the moonlight. "And when that boy unloaded! I don't know what the hell he was screaming, but his ass muscles clamped down so hot and furious, he always managed to set me off like a cannon. Damn! I pumped some nice loads into that sweet, Swede ass."

All it took me to get that boy going was a little hand work, Snake thought as he ran his fist up and down. I got him to stroke with me, then I got him to let me stroke him, then I got my finger up his ass, then I got my dick up his ass. Snake stopped stroking for a few seconds, and thought, that's the way it's supposed to be.

Now Billy here, Snake thought, he gets all red and flustered if I even whip it out and piss with him in hearing distance. Snake peeled back his foreskin again, then held his shaft in his fist while he rubbed the palm of the other hand back and forth in the wetness that covered the swollen head. He watched Billy breathe for a few long seconds, then unbuttoned his union suit all the way up to the neck. As he pushed the sweat-stained cotton aside, he gently ran his fingers around the small dark nipples that rode on top of his heavily muscled chest.

"Wonder what the hell it is this boy does to empty his nuts?" Snake asked himself as he squeezed at the hardening nub of his right nipple. "Even a holy roller's got to empty his nuts once in a while." Snake gave his balls a firm squeeze with his other hand. "Hell, if you don't empty 'em once in a while they just empty themselves while you're asleep."

As he worked his nuts in their hair-covered sac, Snake watched Billy sleep and tried to imagine what got the kid off. "Maybe he does it while he's off pissing?" Snake made a circle around his ballsac with his thumb and forefinger and tugged his nuts down until they started to ache from the pressure. "I never thought much about how long he takes to piss, but a couple of times he was off long enough to let loose a load."

Snake let out a little grunt as he let his nuts slip out of his grip, then went back to work on the shaft of his cock. "Maybe he does like I'm doin' now?" Snake started to speed up his stroke then forced himself to stop before he went too far. "Yeah, maybe holy roller boy waits till I'm asleep, then jerks himself off."

She moved the hand he had been squeezing his nipples with slowly down his chest and along his belly until he could reach down past his balls and slide the tips of his fingers over the wrinkled pucker of his hole. He pressed his middle finger against the center of the pucker, felt its dry resistance, then quickly raised his hand up to his lips, wet it with his saliva and put it back to work. Now that it was wet his fingertip slide over the wrinkles that surrounded the tight entrance to his ass. He pressed the tip of his finger down against the center and gently slid it in up to the first knuckle.

As he worked his finger deeper into the warm moistness of his ass, he used the other hand to drag his foreskin back and forth over the head of his cock. Ever had a finger up your ass, kid? He asked the question in his head so he wouldn't wake his tag-along up. When you got your dick in your fist you ever slide a finger up into that beefy ass? Ever slide two fingers in? He let a second finger join the first. Ever slide three up there? Three's as big as man-sized cock. Snake worked another finger in next to the first two. Not as big as my cock, boy. But big as most.

Snake let out a little grunt as he pressed his fingers as far up into himself as he could. "Ever had a dick up your ass?" he asked under his breath. "Ever had your ass plowed by a man?" Snake grunted again. Billy moved a bit, like he was trying to get more comfortable. Snake pulled in a loud gasp of air, then tried to relax as he settled himself onto his probing fingers. His cock throbbed in his fist as he ran his forefinger over the knob of his prostate. He let himself moan out loud.

The kid moved again and mumbled something that Snake didn't catch. Snake started taking long strokes on his cock. As each stroke came down, he slapped his fist into his pubic mound, creating a slap, slap, slap sound that couldn't be mistaken for anything but a man beating his meat.

When the kid started to roll over, Snake kept up his stroke and spread his legs wider so the kid couldn't miss seeing what was going on. Get an eyeful, Snake thought. But Billy didn't open his eyes. He just flipped over under his blanket, adjusted the jacket he had rolled up for a pillow, shifted around a bit, then settled back down.

"Fuck!" Snake muttered as he stared at the kid's face. "Look at this guy." Snake slid his fingers out of his ass and brought his hand up to work his tightening nuts. "Sleeping the sleep of the innocent while I jerk off." Snake let go of his balls, wrapped both fists around his cock and began a long slow stroke that pulled his foreskin all the way up over his cockhead, then down tight against the base of his shaft. As his fists rose up and down he watched the kid's face, wondered what those full lips would feel like wrapped around the head of his cock.

When he saw the kid's eyelids move, he made a point of not reacting. At first he wasn't sure, but after a few seconds, even in the dim light of what was left of the fire, Snake could see that the kid's eyes were open just a touch, just enough to let him see what Snake was doing.

Like the show, boy? Snake wondered as he stopped his two-handed action and started working his foreskin. Or you just too pure and perfect to say anything? Snake ran his fingers over the head of his cock, collected several drops of the liquid that oozed from it, then brought his fingers to his lips and made a show of licking them clean. Like what you see, boy? He thought, then he spit into his hand and ran his slick wet fist up and down the top half of his shaft while he held the bottom half tight with his other hand.

Billy kept his eyes nearly closed but shifted his weight. Snake kept stroking himself but watched closely as the kid's covers moved just a touch around the area of his crotch. "Just what I thought," Snake said to himself. "The kid likes the show." Snake gave himself a few quick strokes, then thought, if he likes to watch, I guess I should give him something more to look at. Then Snake let go of his cock and leaned forward far enough to grab hold of one of his boots and yank it off. He could see the kid freeze in response to the sudden motion but Snake acted like he didn't notice and pulled off his other boot.

Once he had his boots off, Snake pulled the top half of his union suit down, then lifted up his ass so he could get the thing the rest of the way off. As he pulled his feet from the legs, he could see more motion under the kid's blanket. "Like that even more, do ya?" Snake murmured. "Well, I bet this is really gonna get you goin'."

Snake settled himself back up against the rock, then reached down with one hand and lifted his balls up out of the way. He stuck the middle finger of his other hand in his mouth and wet it real good, then reached down, slid it into his ass and began to slowly work it in and out. When he added a second finger to what he was shaving up his ass, he let out a deep moan and let his head fall back against the rock. When he raised his head up against, he could see the kid's eyes were more than half open and the slight motion under the kid's blanket had turned into a full-fledged cock pounding.

"You want to fuck me, boy?" Snake said in a husky voice. The kid's hand froze and his eyes slammed shut. "You ain't foolin' nobody," Snake said. "I saw you watching and I know you got a hard dick in your fist." Billy didn't move. "Think about it," Snake said. "I got a nice willing hole here and you got a hard cock, so why don't you do what a man should do?"

Billy's eyes came open, all the way this time. His gaze was fixed on Snake's ass and the fingers that were shoved up it. Snake slid his fingers in and out as he spoke. "Wouldn't that feel real good if that was your cock up there instead of my fingers? Think about it, kid. A nice, wet, warm hole for you to dump your spunk into."

Snake pulled his fingers out of his ass. Billy looked up at Snake's face. Snake could see the lust in the kid's eyes. He could also feel the load in his nuts, a load he needed to get rid of. Snake decided to take another tack. "Maybe you'd like it better if I used my mouth?" Snake asked. "Is that what you want? You want me to suck you off?"

Snake twisted around and rose up onto his knees. "I don't mind sucking a man off if that's what you're after." He said, then he leaned forward and slowly pulled the kid's blanket down and out of the way. Billy lay there, cock in hand, then quickly jerked his hand away and put it behind his back.

Snake eyed the stiff dick that jutted out of the mound of blond hair just below the kid's smooth belly. It wasn't a particularly long cock, but it was thick, real thick with a high-ridged, swollen head that Snake was sure would fill his asshole just right. "Nice cock, kid," Snake said and reached out for it, but before he could grab hold, the kid stood up and stumbled backward a step. Snake leaned forward, and let his fingers slide up under the kid's balls. For a second, Snake thought Billy might run, so he just stayed where he was while slowly squeezing the kid's nutsac.

When he was sure that Billy wasn't going anywhere, he crawled forward a step and guided the kid's cock toward his lips. As soon as he sucked Billy's fat dick into his mouth, the kid started to shoot. Five, six, seven thick wads of cum splattered into Snake's mouth as the kid bucked against his face and grunted out each salty load.

Snake stayed down on the Billy's cock while the kid pumped his cum out, then savored the taste and smell of it for a few seconds before he swallowed it down. Snake let Billy's cock slide out of his mouth, then wrapped his fist around it and started a slow stroking motion to make sure Billy wouldn't go soft on him.

Snake looked up at the kid and asked, "You like that?" The kid nodded his head "yes," but didn't say anything. "Think you can cum like that again?" Snake

“Just what I thought,”

Snake said to himself,

“the kid likes the show.”

Snake gave himself a few quick strokes, then thought

If he likes to watch,

I guess I should give him something more to look at.

asked him. Once again, the kid didn't speak; he just shook his head. Snake reached his tongue out and ran its tip along the slit that ran from the base of Billy's cockhead to the cumhole, and then he sucked the thick shaft of the kid's cock back into his mouth and down to the base. He worked on the stiff meat for several minutes until he could tell that Billy was close again, then he let it slide from between his lips and stood up.

"Your turn," Snake said.

Billy just looked at him.

"Come on, kid," Snake added. "You want to fuck me, don't you?"

Billy nodded his head up and down.

Snake moved in closer. Close enough that their cocks brushed together, then he reached out, took hold of Billy's hands, pulled them toward the two thick shafts of hard meat that jutted out between their bodies, wrapped the kid's fingers around them both and covered those hands with his own. "Feel it kid?" Snake asked. "Feel all that hardness? That's what this is all about." Snake started a stroking motion with his hands. He could feel Billy tighten his grip on their cocks.

"That's the way, kid," Snake said. "Get to know what a big man's cock feels like. Feel the heat, feel the way my heart beats in it, the way the skin slides over the stiffness underneath." Snake and the kid's eyes met as Snake talked. "Ain't nothing like a man's cock, kid. Nothing like the way you can make it feel and the way it can make you feel when you take it into your body or give it to another man in his hand or his mouth or his ass."

Snake leaned forward to let his lips brush across Billy's mouth. Not a kiss, just a slick slide across the lower lip. The tip of Billy's tongue came out and slid across the place that Snake had brushed across. Snake moved his hands from where they had been gripping Billy's hands, rested them on the kid's sturdy hips, then ran them over the smooth roundness of the kid's ass and pulled their bodies closer together.

The two men's cocks pressed up against their bellies. Billy humped into Snake like he was going to fuck the older man's stomach if he couldn't have his hole. Snake gripped the solid mounds of Billy's ass and copied the younger man's humping motion. The fluids that leaked from the heads of their cocks served as a lube for their belly fucking. Snake could feel himself getting close to losing his load, but he didn't want to cum this way; he wanted Billy's cock up his ass. He wanted to get fucked by his tag-along.

Snake backed up a step. Billy tried to follow him, to keep their cocks and their bellies pressed tight together. Snake held the kid back. "I want you to fuck me," Snake growled, then took another step back. Billy held his ground and waited to see what the older man would do next.

Snake lay down on his back on Billy's blanket, tucked Billy's jacket under his head, bent his knees and spread his legs wide so Billy could see what he had to offer. The kid stood there looking down at the hard body of the older cowboy, afraid that if he moved he'd come to his senses and all this would just go away. "Come on, boy," he heard Snake say. "I know you're a virgin, but you must have some idea what it takes to fuck someone."

Billy knew that he wanted to get closer, he knew that he had to get closer to the big man that was trying to give him so much. Billy dropped to his knees between Snake's legs, and then he reached out and ran his hands along the firm thighs that led up to the well-stuffed ballsac that hung below the thick shaft of Snake's cock. It was the first time Billy had ever touched another man's private parts. Hell! It was damned near the first time Billy had ever touched a man at all.

Billy ran his thumbs up under Snake's nutsac. The balls that filled it felt warm and heavy, like they were about the most important thing Billy had ever touched. Then he let just his right hand slide up until his fingertips came in contact with the thick shaft of Snake's cock. The pulsing harness of it rose up along his nerve endings and sent a rush of near panic through this brain. Billy wanted this cock more than he had ever wanted anything. His fingers wrapped around the shaft of it and lifted it up and away from Snake's belly. Billy wrapped his fingers around the pulsing shaft until he could feel Snake's heart beating in his fist. Then he slid his fist down drawing the covering skin over the fleshy thickness underneath until it was peeled all the way back so he could get a clear view of the first hard cock he had ever seen that wasn't his own.

Bracing himself with his free arm, Billy leaned forward until he could gently press his lips against the deep red Snake he held in his hand. He held this kiss for a few seconds, then pulled back taking a thin strand of precum with him that kept him and the Snake together while Billy opened his lips and slid all of the thick hard animal into his mouth.

A moan came from the older man as he resisted the temptation to drive his cock deep into Billy's inexperienced throat. Billy tried to copy what Snake had been doing to him earlier, but he couldn't handle more than about half of the fat cock that filled his throat, so he used his fist to work the bottom half and concentrated his licking and sucking on the fleshy head.

After a few minutes, Billy felt Snake's hands on his head and heard Snake say in a real low voice, "It's time, boy." Billy knew what Snake was after and how much he wanted to give it. Slowly, he let the head of the older man's cock slide out from between his lips so he could work his way up to where he was supporting himself above Snake's body with his strong arms. He felt Snake raise his legs up higher to where the thick muscles brushed against Billy's thighs, then he felt Snake's big rough-skinned hand wrap itself around his cock and pull him into place.

When Billy felt the head of his cock come into contact with Snake's ass he pushed forward until it broke through the resistance of the tight little muscle that tried to keep him out of Snake's body. Once the head of his cock slid inside, he felt Snake's strong legs wrapping around him, pulling him deeper in. Billy let the pressure guide him and drove his cock forward until his nuts pressed up against the firmness of Snake's ass.

"You're gonna fuck me now, kid," Snake hissed. "Fuck the cum right out of me."

Billy pulled his cock about half way out of the tight grip of Snake's hole, then slammed it back in.

"That's it, Billy," Snake growled.

Billy pulled back again, this time leaving just the head of his cock trapped in the hot warmth, then he drove forward hard and fast. Snake's body bounced back from the onslaught of the kid's weight, but he used his legs to keep himself close to the hard young body that drove against him.

Billy could tell how much Snake wanted to be filled up with cock. He could feel the man's need to be fucked and he knew how much he wanted to fill that need. He pulled back with just his ass muscles, then drove in and up, trying to get as deep into Snake as he could. He followed with quick fast strokes, half in, half out, then in deep again. Snake groaned deep in his chest. Billy fucked with all of his body.

Snake could feel the contractions in the kid's ass muscles and tried to match Billy's motions with his own. He drove his ass up each time Billy drove his cock down. They found a rhythm in each other's muscles that slammed them together and made them into one hard need to fuck and be fucked.

The rough ridge at the top of Billy's cockhead grated over Snake's prostate. Snake's heavy balls rode up tight against his body. Every muscle in him tensed at once, then fired off, driving the load up and out of his nuts. Billy felt Snake's grip him like a fist that tightened with each wad that spurted up and onto Snake's belly. The grip of that fist was all it took to push Billy over. He raised his head up and let a long deep grunt escape from his lips as his own load was pumped into the depths of Snake's ass.

Billy's arms gave out. He collapsed onto Snake's cum-splattered body and lay there, his chest heaving from the exertion, his cock still pulsing in Snake's ass. For several minutes, all they did was breathe against each other. A coyote howled in the distance. Snake finally let his legs slide down off Billy's ass so he could rest his feet on the ground, and then he ran his hand through the sweat-matted hair that fell down Billy's shoulders.

"Liked that, did ya'?" Snake asked. After a few seconds, he felt Billy's head nod up and down against his chest.

"You done real good, kid," Snake added as he ran his hand up and down the broad muscles of Billy's back.

Billy pressed his lips against Snake's chest, then rested his ear against it so he could listen to the older man's heartbeat. After a few minutes, Snake could tell from his tag-along's breathing that the kid had fallen off to sleep.

"Don't say much, do ya, Billy?" Snake whispered as he reached to his left, grabbed a blanket and spread it out to protect both of them from the cold night air. "But I don't see as there's much else to say."

HUNGRY—FOR KNOWLEDGE

Oh man! Just came aware of FQ Magazine with issue #25 and what can I say? My head is spinning. What's depicted and written about is totally awesome. As with most American males, I was cut at birth. Unfortunately, I am without a clue about what's referred to in the magazine as stretching techniques and commercial or homemade devices to acquire an overhang to one's shaft. I think I'd like to get into this activity but I need information. Please don't ridicule me for being either this naive or stupid. Is there a kind-hearted guy out there willing to respond to a letter to advise and inform me about what I don't know how to do myself? Perhaps what the method is that you use, what "tools" you may have used, and to what degree you have been successful and satisfied, if at all. I should tell you up front that there is no possibility for us to meet personally, as much as I'd love "hands on" instruction from you. #21030 [29]

DR. WAYNE ANSWERS YOUR 'SKINQUIRIES

Q As a new FQ subscriber I have two questions:

My first question: I'm about 15 months into non-surgical foreskin restoration. I was cut when I was about four or five years old. The restoration is doing great. At rest, the skin nearly covers 100% of head. I'm using the twin tape method. So far, 14 hours is my best personal time using this method. It's been fun. I'd like to continue restoration until I have one or two inches or more of overhang so I can dock. Is it reasonable to keep on stretching toward that objective? I do realize it will take lots of time.

My second question: It seems like most cum shots in videos show what seems to me to be a whole lot of cum. Is this volume normal in certain guys? Is this some sort of enhancement or trick camera work? If not, I must have been short changed. I don't think I've ever shot that much in my life. Perhaps I'm just jealous!

By the way, I'm 67, married, bisexual, and getting into 'skin a lot!

John
California

A From what you say, you must have been loosely cut. It sounds great that you are getting good coverage. It is true that in the first six months or so of stretching, you are really taking out the elasticity, so to speak, of your shaft skin. You have continued and are gaining new tissue as you continue to stretch. Having restored myself, I have overhang and closure and so I can sort of dock now, but I am continuing to stretch, as docking is a great feeling. You will need to continue to stretch with moderate traction or weight, and when not doing that, you need to use a tape ring to keep the new foreskin over the glans and help with closure of the prepuccial lips.

Cum shots in videos can be natural or they might just be repeated clips of the same scene to look like a lot of cum. However, just as every penis is unique, so are balls, prostate glands and cum production. Also, the frequency of ejaculations (how many times a day you jack off), can affect the recovery production of prostate fluid and testicular sperm production. Since the prostate produces the most fluid by percentage to sperm, the physical health of your prostate gland will determine what your ejaculation looks like.

Some men, especially young, will cum a thick creamy white cream. Others will vary from that to a thin, almost clear fluid.

Some men will have volumes of cum and others will cum in just small amounts. The size of your balls, your prostate gland, your age, and your health are all factors that affect production. So don't worry about being "shortchanged." The videos are made for your fantasy and enjoyment. Just have a good jack-off session, enjoying your new 'skin and the final enjoyment of orgasm.

Q I read your magazine from cover to cover and enjoy the articles and photos. It's great to know that some of us are still "hanging around" with our foreskins intact. I have a question: Are foreskins getting shorter these days, or it is my imagination? Most of the skins in your magazine show a little bit of overhang, and every now and then there is a nice long wrinkle, but most seem to be just covering the glans with not much to spare. I would also like to know exactly what the medical term for the extended foreskin's tip. Is it the frenulum band or what?

The greatest feeling is to have a dangling skin with a lot of skin covering everything even when excited. I read somewhere that the reason the foreskin stays where it is without rolling up is there is a band of muscle tissue at the very end like a rubber band that keeps the skin in place.

Also, what are some of the nicknames of the tip? Peeper? One-eye Jack? Winkie? What?

Thanks for any help you can give.
Jim
Illinois

A All of us that are not endowed with our natural manhood are envious of you and your "hanging around" foreskin. No, let me assure you that foreskins are not getting shorter nowadays. You might remember in the last issue, I mentioned the young Spaniard who had for several years pulled his foreskin up to the waistband of his briefs and over the years had developed what a medical journal termed a "megaprepuce."

Even though we would love to keep our foreskins over our glans when erect, usually only those with phimosis have that pleasure. Also those who have very long foreskins can keep it there. The purpose of the foreskin is to move back and forth, over and off of the glans during sex. The rigid bands in the foreskin rub across the corona of the head and give pleasure. (Dr. John Taylor first coined the word "frenar band," but later in his article in a British medical journal called them rigid bands. There are more nerve ending in the foreskin than in the glans, and the rubbing is quite excitable. That is one reason for the radical circumcision devised a couple of thousand years ago, according to Moses Maimonides (circa 1150 AD) and P. C. Remondino (circa 1891 AD), to diminish the sexual pleasure and the desires of the male. Maimonides is quoted: "As regards to circumcision, I think that one of its objects is to limit sexual intercourse, and to weaken the organ of generation as far as possible, and thus cause man to be moderate. Circumcision counteracts excessive lust, for there is not doubt that circumcision wakens the power of sexual excitement, and sometimes lessens the natural enjoyment." Just cutting off the tip of the foreskin did not remove the rigid bands, which are the pleasure centers.

In today's magazines, we rely on the photographers' submissions, and do not have complete control on how they pose their models. It might also be a condition of the model's flaccid foreskin. With a hundred years of circumcision mania in the U.S., photographers might think that the glans must be exposed whether the model is hard or soft. Not so for us, is it? We want to see the foreskin covering the glans as much as possible. As one young man wrote recently, "A foreskin is a very beautiful portion of the body that should be left intact." I agree wholeheartedly.

The other consideration is that foreskins come in a total variety of sizes, shapes, lengths, tightness and looseness. Medically, the definition of the foreskin, also called prepuce, is "a loose fold of skin that covers or covered the end of the penis or clitoris." The Old and Middle English "fore" means "the front part of." I have even seen a few men who trained their foreskins to remain behind the glans corona. Depending on what a fellow has been given by nature, it is the glans that we usually see as he becomes hard or semi-hard in the magazines. The foreskin is supposed to retract behind the glans as we get hard but be able to move back and forth over it when we play with it.

The frenulum is not a band as are the "frenar" rigid bands. There are two words that mean essentially the same. Frenum literally is a "bridle," that is, a fold of skin (mucous membrane) that checks or controls the movement of an organ part. Frenulum is defined as a "small" frenum. Some frenums are that of the tongue, at the top and bottom of the mouth, at the gums and at the base of the meatus (piss hole), down to and spreading out to the foreskin. Usually during orgasm there are final hard thrusts which pull the penile sheath as far back as possible and tip the meatus downward, so that the sperm is ejaculated towards the bottom of the cervix to make reproduction more sure.

There is a muscle called the Dartos muscle, named after the physician who discovered it and wrote about it in the early part of this century. The Dartos muscle starts at the base of the scrotum and penis and goes all the way to the tip of the foreskin. It is the depth of a single cell, and they are lined up longitudinally along the shaft until near the glans, where they turn radially, and thus we believe form the narrowing of the prepuce lips. When excited the muscle relaxes and allows for the movement of the sheath. When flaccid it closes the foreskin around the glans to protect it.

I have not heard of many nicknames. It seems that only in the U.S. do we differentiate between the shaft tissue and the foreskin. In most countries, they are amazed that we even give names to the various sections of the penis, since circumcision is rarer elsewhere. Prick, cock, Schwanz, хуя, хуї, carájo, pija, picha, cazzo, bite, queue. (English, English, German, Russian, Spanish, Spanish, Spanish, Italian, French, and French for those of you who want to attempt pronunciation) Whatever you wanna call it, have fun. It's my favorite toy too.

It is a mystery to me with all the ways that are known to restore masculine foreskin how people like Kristen

Bjorn can make a living from foreskin and remain cut.

John
Florida

I have not been able to talk with Kristen, but like many thousands of men, especially in the U.S., we are fascinated with that which we don't have. About 80% of the men who are in their 20's to their 50's were routinely circumcised as baby boys, without their consent. NORM (National Organization of Restoring Men) only knows of about 10,000 men who have requested information on foreskin restoration. Perhaps Kristen is not aware of the procedures to recover his glans.

It is also true that as adults we have a choice, which we did not have as babies. So even though we might have information on the restoration process, it does take several years to accomplish, so some have decided not to pursue it. Perhaps those of us who are circumcised just like to dock. That fun game gives us the pleasure of a foreskin without having one. Perhaps that is why a number of intact men have requested information on stretching, to get longer foreskins—more with which to cover your partner's dick. ☺

Alexei Gromoff and Sandor Vesanye

Manwatcher, the latest video from Kristen Bjorn, features a mix of well-endowed Latino, Anglo, and Euro hunks, several of whom we've seen in Bjorn's earlier re-releases. This is a two-hour sexual marathon in six episodes held together by a theme of voyeurism, with a sub-plot of love lost and love regained.

The tale begins with the flare of a match as Ferenc Botos, the manwatcher, lights a candle and says that there are two kinds of men: watchers and doers. He is a watcher, always outside looking in.

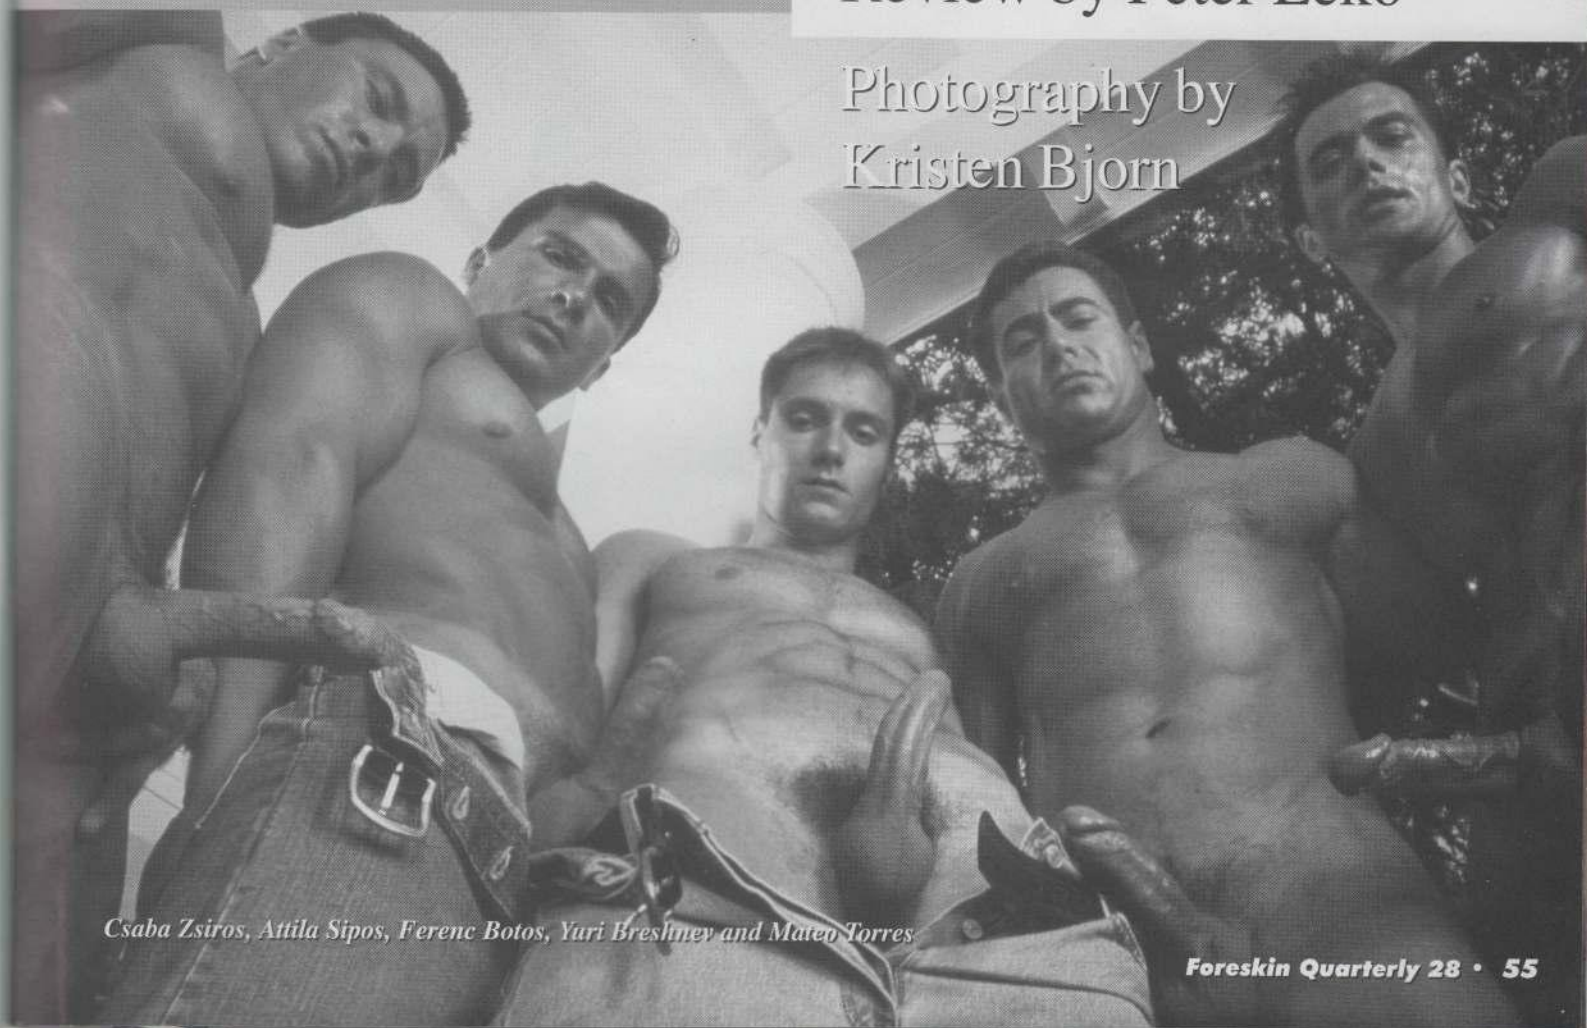

In the first episode, Ferenc sneaks in and watches Kalman and Randy swap blowjobs before Sergei shows up to join the party. Twelve orgasms wear the trio out as they suck and fuck one another, and they collapse exhausted. As they sleep, Ferenc tiptoes by them on his way out.

Ferenc says that Sandor is his favorite subject for watching, and as he peeks in the window Sandor dreams about moments of passion with Alexei. Alexei sucks Sandor's cock and Sandor fucks him before they dash into the surf for a swim. Back in bed, they enjoy a hot 69 with Sandor on top before Sandor fucks Alexei. Later, Sandor gets horny and asks Alexei to suck his dick, but Alexei would rather watch Gangsters at Large on the TV. As Sandor jacks off, Alexei tells him that he's disgusting and leaves.

In the third episode, Alexei wanders by and Gabriel and Adriano watch from their balcony. They come down and invite him in, and Ferenc sneaks in and watches as they simultaneously suck Alexei's cock. As Gabriel and Adriano nibble his shaft, Alexei ejaculates in one of Bjorn's trademark situations. Then Alexei sucks Gabriel and Adriano, chewing Adriano's shaft until he cums, while Gabriel jacks off. Alexei fucks Adriano doggie-style, and Gabriel jacks off as he sucks Adriano and Alexei plows his ass. Gabriel and Adriano rim Alexei and jack him off, and Adriano fucks Alexei as Alexei sucks Gabriel.

In the fourth episode, Ferenc spots four hunks as they disappear into their house, so he follows to see what happens. Attila, Csaba, Yuri and Matteo pair off to suck cock in their open patio as Ferenc watches. After more sucking and rimming, one pair fuck doggie-style and the other missionary. When Ferenc creeps in closer to watch, they spot him and invite him to join in for more sucking and fucking. When they are sexually exhausted after thirteen cum shots, Ferenc steals away.

For the fifth episode, the scene cuts to Sandor alone in his room, with Ferenc wistfully watching through the window. Sandor is dreaming of Sasha, Gyula and Zsolt frolicking naked in their pool, and in his dream he helps them produce twelve more orgasms.

In the final episode, Ferenc peeks into Sandor's bedroom as he sleeps alone. Ferenc goes in and looks down at Sandor. He can't resist. As he steps out of his shorts a rigid erection snaps out and he gently begins caressing Sandor. Sandor wakes as Ferenc begins licking and sucking his hard cock, and they kiss hungrily. Ferenc pumps Sandor's penis to a gushing ejaculation, and Sandor returns the favor by sucking his cock. Ferenc squirts as Sandor nibbles the base of his shaft.

Wrapped in one another's arms and legs, Ferenc and Sandor roll over and over in ultimate skin-to-skin contact, their genitals crushed together between their crotches. Ferenc sits on Sandor's vertical shaft and masturbates him with his anus as his own erection bounces stiffly from his crotch. With Sandor's cock up his ass, Ferenc jacks off a spurting load before the pair shift to side-saddle. Ferenc squirts another gushing load as Sandor's cockhead prods his prostate, and Sandor pulls out to fertilize Ferenc's genitals as they kiss. His face illuminated by candle light, Ferenc says "So that's how the story ends—and another beginning. And now I can say for sure, it's better to be a doer than a watcher." He blows the candle out.

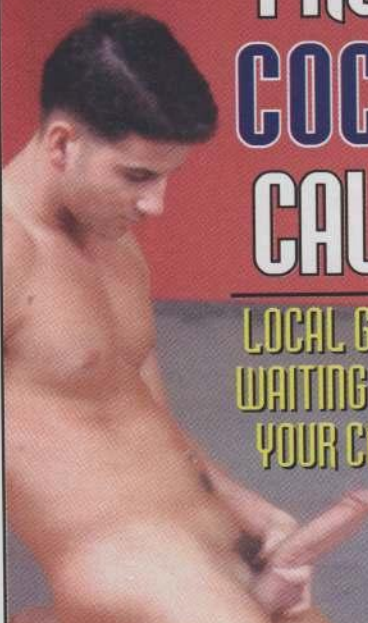

Manwatcher is classic Bjorn. It has all the elements that have placed his work at the forefront of male erotica:

mature, well-endowed studs, muscular but not beefy, most of them uncut; nonstop sex precisely choreographed down to the last flip of an upright erection; superb crotch-shots that reveal the glorious variety of male genitals in action, from Zsolt's ramrod straight erection to the delicious upward curve of Alexei's stiff cock. The videography is brilliant, precisely on target, revealingly lit, artistically composed in the wide shots, and intimate and revealing in the close-ups. The penetration scenes are so graphic that they will make your sphincter twitch. The cum-shots are gushing, two of them no-hands ejaculations from sheer sexual tension, and there is more foreskin play in Manwatcher than is usual in Bjorn's productions. Much of the dialogue is translated in subtitles.

Bjorn portrays sex as the shared pleasure it was meant to be. There is little solo jack off in Manwatcher. Only seven of the 60 orgasms are self-induced in the strict sense. More often than not, his performers masturbate their partners to orgasm. Manwatcher is short on plot and long on sex. Although the actors kiss eagerly and often, their kisses are sexual rather than romantic. Most of the sex is sensual, sex for the sake of sex. Only in the last episode does Bjorn give free rein to romanticism. When Ferenc finally gets together with Sandor, their union ignites the screen. Sex doesn't get any hotter than this. Manwatcher merits five stars on all counts. Don't miss it.

VENUS II for men

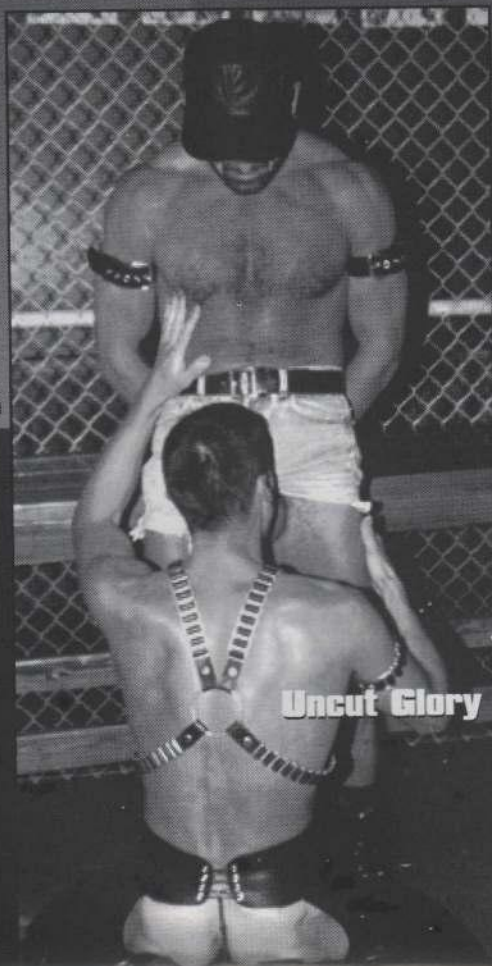

real Men • real Sex.

Brush Creek Media

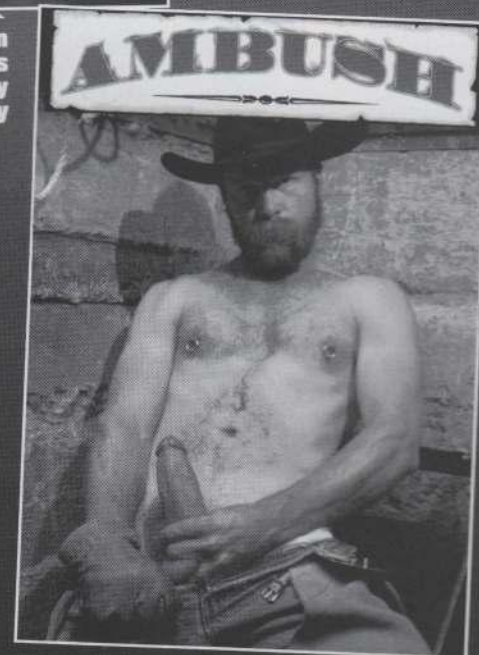

Powerhouse Bears

BEAR discovery Chris wanders into San Francisco's notorious Powerhouse Bar, and gets caught up in a butt-munching, dick-sucking orgy of bears, bringing the whole scene to a hot sticky climax.

Uncut Glory

From the sticky 'skin-filled pages of Brush Creek Media's Foreskin Quarterly magazine comes our own celebration of foreskin in all its drooping, dripping, glory. Uncut studs fill every frame of this foreskin-filled suckfest.

The men from Uncut Glory are joined by more leathermen for a more intense session of fucking and sucking. From piss to toys, scenes shot at Blow Buddies, San Francisco's premiere sex club are too naughty to show here!

BEAR & International Leatherman wall calendars for 1998.

From BUNKHOUSE, starring BCM discoveries Buddy Larue, Gus and Greg. A rancher is snagged after leaving the safety of his Western bar. He is forced to submit to the local boys, as his partner watches.

David Grieger's beautifully twisted illustrative art is explored in Volume 2 of our BCM Artists Series.

Hombres Latinos: The Movie

Gamma Beta Mu

Fuck-hungry frat brothers turn out five unsuspecting pledges during a sex-driven hazing ritual. Starring GBM models Austin Black, Dmitri, Cory and GBM 4 coverman JC Carter. Learn what it really means to go Greek!
