SPECIAL EDITION

This is a special edition of the Georgian Newsletter. It is being mailed to everyone who will receive the January 1991 issue of the monthly. The purpose of this special edition is to announce some changes in the method we circulate the materials we receive.

First, please note our new address:

P. O. Box 41718
Bakersfield, CA 93384

Mail sent to the old address may not be accepted after

December 21, 1990.

There will be no 1990 issues, and the date will change. We are a full year behind now and will advance all subscription expirations beyond 12/89 one year to compensate our readers in some small way for their inconvenience and to thank you for continuing to stay in touch, even when we didn't.

Subscription conditions survive unscathed.

Those of you who have requested back issues will receive them as they are available gratis. In the future, back issues will be available only for the prior year as they are available.

The first Georgian Annual will be published eventually, and $35 will put you on the mailing list (if you aren't already) up until we order the paper. After that, subscriptions will be entered for the issue following. If you have subscribed, you will get annuals equal to or greater than the number of times you sent in your 35 bucks. All two of you.

We no longer take ads but will be happy to make mention of you in the monthly as space is available.

The submission specifications have changed somewhat and are worth some careful consideration:

To submit articles for consideration in the Annual, please help us out by:

* * * * *

1. Sending a cover letter with your publishing name, other name (see below), and permission to print in the Annual (and monthly, if you so desire);
2. A SASE sufficient to return your manuscript or check (see below);
3. The typed (double-spaced) manuscript.

If your manuscript is accepted for publication in the annual, you will be sent a check for $20 on acceptance. (If you prefer equivalent compensation in silver, please let us know in your letter in lieu of your other name. Be sure to send a sufficient SASE.)

If your manuscript is rejected for the Annual and your cover letter indicates that it can be considered for the monthly, we will do so. Rejected manuscripts will be returned only if you have sent a SASE. All publication rights revert to the author on publication.

Tarostar, Stan, Our Lady of the Wild Things, Rik, and Merlin, please contact me for your payment preference. Moonraven, $20 has been mailed to you, plus $20 in silver. Please see Pagan Studies Contest below.

Please mark all other correspondence CLEARLY with either "for publication" or "NFP" (not for publication). This greatly simplifies my work. It also helps if you enclose a SASE.

"Getting in touch" escapes unscathed.

If you see something you like, let us know. Our writers are now getting paid, even if it isn't much.

The opinion expressed in the Annual and monthly are not necessarily those of the Georgian Church. So there.

The last Pagan Studies Contest wasn't; we had one submission. It is cancelled due to lack of interest. In its place, we now pay for accepted submissions to the Annual.

Ring of Truth: See Pagan Studies Contest. The only difference here was that everybody followed instructions apparently and to the letter. There were no submissions; therefore, no winners.

I hope dean will remain philosophy editor. I'll still be editor-in-chief. Marc has been outpacing me dramatically as chief publication assistant of late, and I really should express my gratitude to him in print, along with the fact that he will get a pay raise after the first Annual is mailed. I think those of you who receive it will agree that he will deserve it.

Thanks again to all the fine folks who continue to make this possible and worthwhile.

Fauna, Editor-in-chief
Dean, Philosophy Editor
Marc, Chief Publication Assistant
