To all but a few scholars of the academic fields of mind and spirit, Magick is not an end unto itself, but the means by which practitioners hope to accomplish their ends. Magick is the art, craft, and science whereby changes are manifested in one's environment and/or oneself, whether the magickal tool is the athame, the hammer, the pen, or the human brain.

It is assumed - and hopefully correctly - that the practitioner has a clear idea of the changes he intends to manifest. To form this idea realistically and practically, he must learn the extent to which his magickal effort has the potential for change; the degree of success this particular work can achieve.

How is Magick used to change our world? Is it merely an attunement with the universe; a deeper, pre-verbal, essential understanding of subtle energy dynamics, of "the way things really work"? Is it a body of techniques that extends further, into the manipulation and generation of energies which can aid or hinder the manifestation of change?

How has Magick changed the world? By the inner growth and illumination of persons who have stood at the cusp of change throughout history? By unseen powers altering the balance of probability? By contributing one more true perspective on the nature of self and universe? By the transformation of the base into the sublime?

And, conversely, how has the world changed Magick? Have ethics, politics, religion, and academia intertwined with Magick so completely as to smother it as a separate endeavor, or have they exalted it to a more universal study? Has science gutted the body of magickal lore, choosing to recognize only its most mechanical, verifiable aspects as worthy of note, consigning the rest to a purgatory of intellectual rejection under the headings of Charlatanry and Superstition? Have the forms and styles of these groups and individuals foremost in the Magickal movement, through the gifts of new technologies, new communication, festivals and networking, evolved the realms of Magick into a new and wondrous phenomenon, a Great Work of unimagined potential, a Magickal Child wholly new in the world with a unique and shining nature?

We meet once again to share the wonder of discovery, and to engage in the Grand Study, at once ancient and newborn. At the WinterStar Symposium artists, healers, musicians, scholars, ministers, and authors - students all - meet in blended joy and purpose, to assess the past, attest to the present, and access the future together.

Making Magick Work

An Exercise in Working Wonders

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 27 - SUNDAY, MARCH 1

What is Magick? Is there truly a "Practice" - accessible to anyone with the discipline, devotion, and determination to pursue it - that can enable one to realize his/her fondest dreams? By what agency does it work, and what are the necessary steps? Has it worked its wonders in the past? Can it work for me? How can one learn?

The Association for Consciousness Exploration is proud to host ISAAC BONEWITS, one of America's best known authorities on Magick, Witchcraft, Paganism, and the Occult, for a weekend of workshops Friday, February 27, through Sunday, March 1. Isaac's extensive background in the field of Magickal scholarship includes an accredited Bachelor of Arts degree in Magic and Thaumaturgy from the University of California at Berkeley and a Masters Degree in Religious Studies, as well as the editorship of the periodicals Gnostica, A.A.D.L. News, and Pentalpha Journal & Druid Chronicler. He is the author of several books - including the classic Real Magic - and is an active recognized clergyman as a Neopagan Priest and founder of the Druidic religious organization Ar nDraiocht Fein.

Isaac presents two programs on Magick on this visit to our city, which will be held at the A.C.E. office:

1) HOW DOES MAGICK WORK? - Feb. 27th 8-10 PM

This two-hour lecture introduces the theory behind Magick and the variety of ways Magick-workers of many cultures view the source of their power. Included are discussions of theatrical, psychological, parapsychological, quantum-mechanical, and spiritual aspects of the nature of subtle energies and Man's ability to shape them to our will. Question and Answer Session will follow.

2) THE WORKING OF MAGICK - Feb. 28th 1-5:30 PM

This workshop/seminar will study the actual design and performance of Magical Rituals, both devotional (religious-oriented) and practical (wonder-working). Special emphasis will be placed on those components common to all Magickal ceremonies, in any culture. Isaac will offer advice to novices on the dangers of dogmatic attachment to so-called "one true path" schools. The workshop will conclude with a short but powerful eclectic Magickal ritual designed and run by class participants.

3) SPECIAL A.C.E. BONUS!!! Sunday, March 1 1:00 PM

To wind up this special weekend, we will be showing THE MAGICKAL MOVEMENT: PRESENT AND FUTURE a videotaped panel discussion from the 1986 WinterStar Symposium, featuring Margot Adler (author of Drawing Down the Moon), Isaac Bonewits, Selena Fox (Director of CIRCLE Sanctuary), and Robert Anton Wilson (author of Cosmic Trigger, Prometheus Rising, and others.) Socializing and entertainment will follow.

Got the MAILING LIST BLUES?

If your group does mailings and you're sick of digging stuck labels out of your typewriter, messing with address changes and wondering whether you've sent 10 flyers to the same person...

DESPAIR NO LONGER!

Believe me, A.C.E. has been there. We finally got fed up and found ourselves a decent mailing list software program that simplifies our lives and saves our sanity (this mailing proves it). In fact, it's so good, we're ready to offer this service to other groups.

If you send out mailings of 100-10,000 pieces, we can help. For reasonable prices, we can computerize your list, sort, update, merge and purge entries, print a master list, even print the labels for you. For more info contact:

Starmentation

A Multi-Media Experience

SATURDAY, MARCH 14 1-5 PM

FEE $15/10 TO ACE MEMBERS

This workshop is an example of the multi-media presentations offered at the yearly Starwood Festivals and WinterStar Symposiums. Using techniques culled from such esoteric sources as Shamanic ritual, cinematographic effects, Ken Kesey's "Acid Tests", and participatory percussion music "jamming" Joseph Rothenberg creates an experience of an altered state of consciousness, characterized by a heightened awareness of the mind's ability to be programmed and to program itself. Film, special effects lighting, music, multi-tracked tapes, musical instruments (ours and those brought by participants), and movement are just some of the components used to evoke a very special level of awareness and creativity.

Memory Enhancement

SUNDAY, MARCH 29th 1-5 PM

FEE $15/10 TO ACE MEMBERS

For several years Joseph Rothenberg has been instructing students in techniques for the enhancement of memory, and the participants in these classes have usually begun with the same complaints: "I have a terrible memory for names." "I'm good at names but not numbers." "I just don't have as sharp a memory as I used to."

Actually, your memory is incredibly powerful. You've recorded enormous amounts of data: names, dates, experiences, smells, sights, sounds, textures, ... a vast repository of information, and under the right conditions they can come back with crystal clarity. The trick is to gain effective control and access to the most amazing "computer memory banks" known to Man.

Joseph Rothenberg's class on Memory Enhancement teaches efficient methods of learning, memory storage, and access techniques. Through a combination of mnemonics, relaxation, proper learning, and association he can help you store and retrieve information faster, more efficiently, undistorted, and at your own command.

Bio-Feedback Meditation

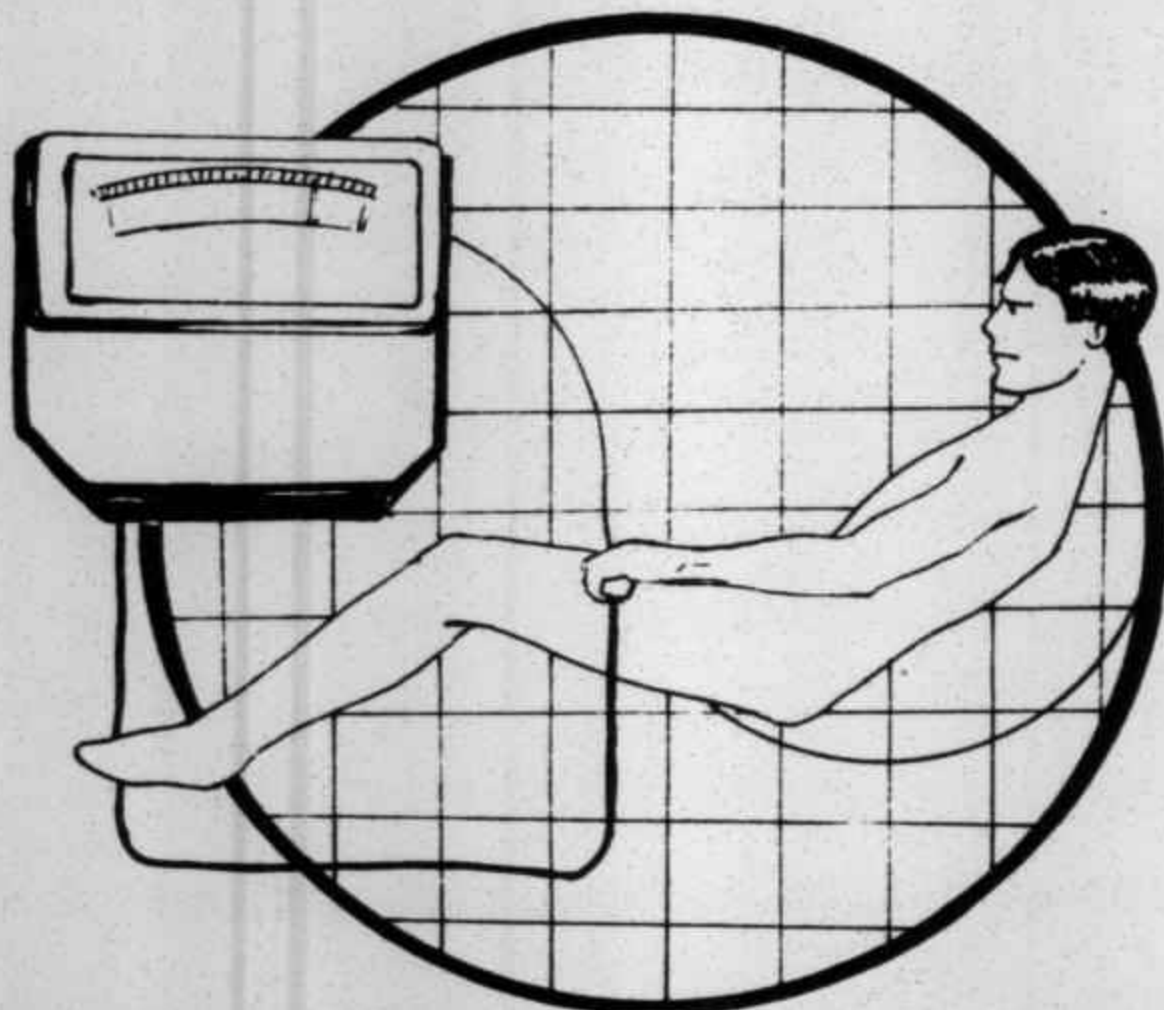

Meditation is an art and a technique of control over one's mind and its relationship to the body. Through meditation, an individual can learn to focus his awareness on a particular idea or an internal process, and thereby use the inherent ability of his mind to identify and control tension, stress, and pain, and even to achieve altered states of consciousness.

Stress is one of the prices we pay for our busy, active, constantly changing lifestyles. Stress has many causes, both physical and emotional, and the mind and body store stress-produced tension built up over time in a variety of ways. Aching muscles, reduced resistance to disease, physical and emotional anxiety, nervousness, adverse skin conditions, insomnia, and a host of other ills can be caused or aggravated by stress. Compulsive habits, such as chain smoking and over-eating, can also be stress related.

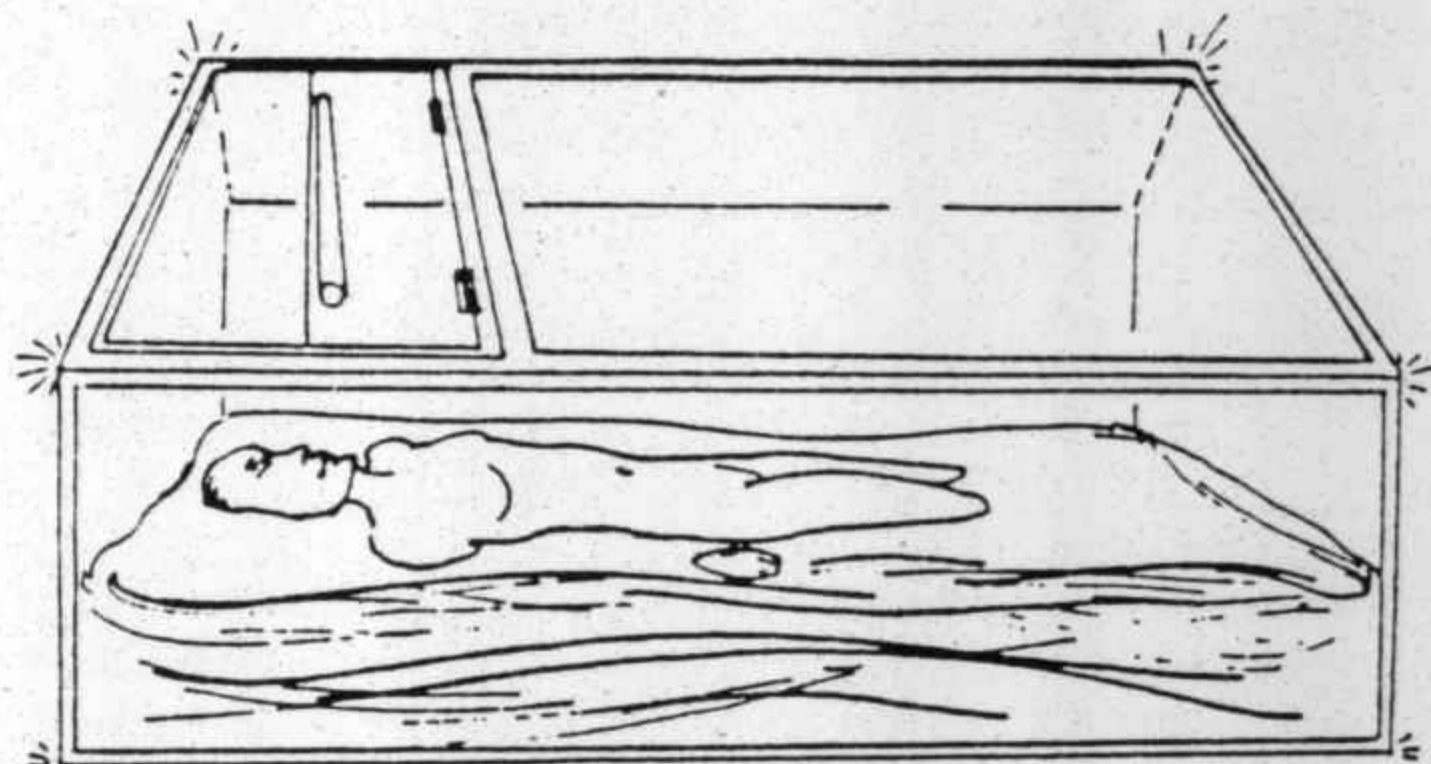

Coupled with the science of bio-feedback, the art of meditation is an excellent time-tested method of controlling stress. By monitoring the body's success at achieving the desired results of relaxation and internal process control, one can learn to effectively use meditation to aid the mind's ability to change the conditions of the body and aid healing in a fraction of the time needed for meditation training alone. Furthermore, the deep states of relaxation attained during meditation provide an excellent opportunity for self examination and consciousness exploration. Once the training is complete, the bio-feedback devices are no longer necessary.

Joseph Rothenberg, co-Director of the Association for Consciousness Exploration, has been working professionally in the field of mental health for over seven years, and has taught classes and held personal sessions in Memory Enhancement, Bio-feedback, Meditation, and Stress Management. He is available for personal counselling and aid in these and related fields. Fees are $25.00 per hour session, $15.00 for ACE members. For more information and to set up an appointment call:

Training in Paganism and Magic

CauldronFire Temple offers a second year of classes focusing on practical training in the beliefs and practices of the modern Earth Religions. The series will provide a clear program synthesizing many Pagan paths. Those who have done some reading in the subject will find help in organizing their ideas and getting started in practice. Curious newcomers will find guidance and an open, friendly atmosphere. Advanced students will find unique perspectives and new techniques.

The classes are separate and may be taken individually, but do constitute a complete series and are best understood by participating in all the sessions. For more information, please call Moira or Ian at 321-0253, evenings before 10:00.

The schedule for the course is as follows:

The DARK HORSE TAROT is a deck which draws on the Celtic traditions while preserving the Golden Dawn symbolism and interpretations. In addition to the usual 78 cards, two alternative cards are provided: an Eris trump, and a "Jive" Death trump.

The deck is to be colored by the owner. This NEW printing has new borders, Hebrew lettering and some artwork, and comes pre-cut and boxed. Felt tips or watercolor will complete the deck - plastic will preserve them.

WINTERSTAR '87

The 1987 WinterStar Symposium will be held from Friday, Feb. 20th, through Sunday, Feb. 22nd at beautiful Atwood Resort in Dellroy, OH. The site features downhill and cross-country skiing, indoor pool, sauna, whirlpool, restaurant and lounge, and our accommodations will be in 4-bedroom cottages with fully equipped kitchens, 2 baths, heat, lots of room, and all the comforts.

This year's program will reflect our past tradition of providing advanced study classes, as opposed to the wealth of "intro classes" on diverse subjects available at most festivals. The class/workshop slots will be 20% longer than in the past, and the panel discussion on Sunday will start earlier and last longer. Many of our past speakers have been included in our program, and we are pleased to welcome first-time WinterStar participants Dennis Carpenter of CIRCLE Sanctuary, and apprenticing medicine-woman AmyLee of Hawk Hollow.

The event will begin with a class/workshop slot from 5:15-6:45 on Friday evening, followed at 7:00 by a banquet at which one of our guest speakers, Dr. Robert Anton Wilson, will give a key-note speech. This will be followed by a showing of the 30-min. film, "Life and Liberty...for All Who Believe", a documentary by the People for the American Way about the Religious Right and its growing involvement in politics. The fee for the banquet will be used to help defray the costs of the Lodge meeting rooms which will be our center of activities for the weekend.

Classes and workshops on a variety of subjects will be held from 9:30 through 6:30 on Sat. and 9:30-11:00 on Sunday. Saturday evening A.C.E. and Chameleon Club personnel will present a multi-media ceremonial experience entitled Form and Substance. This will be an exploration of mind-states experienced in a specialized environment of programmed light and sound. Structured sequences of planned motion and form blend with the participants' improvised interpretations of character and spirit roles. The exercise is aimed at increasing each participant's awareness and understanding of the processes by which we create our inner selves. Attendance at the Form and Substance workshop is a pre-requisite for participation. Bring percussion instruments if you have them.

The weekend will conclude with a panel discussion on the topic: Magic Changing the World, the World Changing Magic, featuring several of the class and workshop presentors. Question and answer opportunities will be provided. (This discussion will be videotaped for viewing and possible distribution by A.C.E.)

A room will be set up for merchant tables on Saturday and Sunday. Tables and chairs are available there, as are electrical outlets.
