PREDICTIONS OF C.M. KORNBLUTH

In the Forties and Fifties, a young Science-Fiction writer C.M. Kornbluth made several startling predictions. What is even more surprising, was his accuracy and acuity in predicting present day trends, considering that he died in the mid-Fifties. The following is from his "Little Black Bag" from the July 1950 issue of Astounding.

After twenty generations of shilly-shallying and "we'll cross that bridge when we come to it," genus homo had bred himself into an impasse. Dogged biometricians had pointed out with irrefutable logic that mental subnormals were outbreeding mental normals and supernormals, and that the process was occurring on an exponential curve. Every fact that could be mustered in the argument proved the biometricians' case, and led inevitably to the conclusion that genus homo was going to wind up in a preposterous jam quite soon. If you think that had any effect on breeding practices, you do not know genus homo.

There was, of course, a sort of masking effect produced by that other exponential function, the accumulation of technological devices. A moron trained to punch an adding machine seems to be a more skillful computer than a medieval mathematician trained to count on his fingers. A moron trained to operate the twenty-first century equivalent of a linotype seems to be a better typographer than a Renaissance printer limited to a few fonts of movable type. This is also true of medical practice.

It was a complicated affair of many factors. The supernormals "improved the product" at greater speed than the subnormals degraded it, but in smaller quantity because elaborate training of their children was practiced on a custom-made basis. The fetish of higher education had some weird avatars by the twentieth generation: "colleges" where not a member of the student body could read words of three syllables; "universities" where such degrees as "Bachelor of Typewriting," "Master of Shorthand" and "Doctor of Philosophy (Card Filing)" were conferred with the traditional pomp. The handful of supernormals used such devices in order that the vast majority might keep some semblance of a social order going.

Some day the supernormals would mercilessly cross the bridge; at the twentieth generation they were standing irresolutely at its approaches wondering what had hit them. And the ghosts of twenty generations of biometricians chuckled malignantly.

Does anyone seriously doubt that it is exactly this, that is hapening today, world-wide? This is the best arguement I have ever heard for controled breeding of Human Beings otherwise known as Eugenics.

LOS ANGELES AREA NURSE FIRED FOR BEING A WITCH

LOS ANGELES (AANS) -- A local nurse, who asked that her name be kept confidential, was offered her job back after intervention by Southern California Area Rep. of the A.A.D.L.

Rev. Nelson H. White says that he was contacted almost 4 months after the firing had occurred, but still was able to persuade the employer (a Los Angeles area Hospital) to re-hire the nurse who had been terminated. Although the employer admitted no wrong-doing, A.A.D.L. Rep. White said that they were moderately quick to respond to inquiries by his office. The Nurse in question had stated to Rev. White, that she had been fired because she refused to work on a Wiccan Holy Day. The Hospital contended that the firing had no religious discrimination, but was the result of mis-conduct on the part of the employee.

"What really irritates me," says Rev. White, "is that none of the people that we have been able to help has bothered to even say 'Thanks'". "We're a volunteer organization here, and we only hear from people after they're in trouble."

COMMENT ON THE CASE

By: Rev. Nelson H. White, D.D.
So. Cal. Rep, A.A.D.L.

It is almost impossible to defend someone on Religious Discrimination grounds, if they have been acting like an idiot on the Job, or have in fact actually broken the law. Those of you who are going to get in a jam in the next year or so -- and there are some who will -- can do yourselves a lot of good by behaving in a sensible, respectable manner. This will make defending you a lot easier.

The next most important thing is to seek help right away. Waiting 4 or 5 months before asking for someone to help you is dumb. By this time, most of your appeal rights have lapsed, and it's very hard to get a case re-opened, especially if you don't have a lot of money to spend on lawyers and such. Try using your head, and you'll save me a good deal of work, and maybe avoid giving the Occult another black eye.

MYTH, MAGIC & THE PYRAMIDS (Part 2)

By: Scott R. Scribner

Isis is more difficult to reconcile with the Graeco-Roman pantheon as Athena/Minerva (Aphrodite/Venus being represented by Hathor). As the feminine principle, she comes closest to Elohim of Judaism, God's Spirit in Christianity, Binah of the Cabala, and the High Priestess of Tarot. But particularly significant are the correspondences of Ra/Osiris, who represent a dual type. Without attempting to make them conform to the classical myths (which develop along different lines), we can see that they represent "Gods who die and rise again"*(Figure 2). Ra does this in his capacity as the sun, Osiris through the offices of Isis (Spirit) in his restoration. Within Judaism, this is the Messiah; Christ in Christianity. As the Tiphareth of the Cabala, it is explicitly associated with the images of a majestic king, a child, and a sacrificed god.<sup>17</sup> The symbols it is associated with include the Mystery of the Crucifixion, the cross, and the pyramid. The tarot correspondences would be with the Chariot (of the conqueror and the sun) and the Hanged Man.

The position of this latter sephiroth within the whole diagram is also significant, since the region below that of the upper "trinity" is called the Abyss. Thus the representation of the dying god is central to the restoration of the entire created order, represented by the lower spheres. The outgrowth of this entire process is not the conclusion that the Egyptian religion was Christian in any sense, simply that there appear to be certain universal indications of psychic needs within man which may be reflections of his Fall and longings for his coming Redemption.

In this context, we are able to consider the Pyramids as vehicles through which redemption was to take place for the ancient Egyptians. It is logical, therefore, that the Pyramids should continue to play a prominent role in man's imagination as he contemplates his origins and destiny. This takes the form of mystery cults for most of recorded history.

But with the coming of technology and the drastic changes in world view which accompany it (embodied in men such as Copernicus and Galileo), the primacy of religion is threatened for the common man. How then are these basic longings to be perceived and expressed?

In the twentieth century, Carl Jung studies this phenomenon and is able to point out what is taking place. In "Flying Saucers: A Modern Myth,"<sup>18</sup> he showed that as religious symbolism lost its force, man expressed these archetypes in technological terms. That is, in place of the angels and demons of the Middle Ages came the UFO's, space creatures, and monsters of technological origin. These may either be man's creation or from "outside", but they are always seen as scientifically plausible, since that is the new criterion of acceptability.

So now we have come full circle to those innumerable problems surrounding the origin of the Pyramids of Egypt. Edwards is entirely right in stating that speculative theories based on lack of evidence are worse than logical-sensible theories of equal doubt. But he is not reckoning with man's particular historical needs. Without Christ, man yearns for the "ancient astronauts"<sup>19</sup> or those occult forces who possess psychic secrets, in order to depend on them. Thus the Pyramids must continue to represent shrines no matter what the degree of archaeological evidence for "scientific" purposes.

HOW TO GET A JOB IN THE WHITE HOUSE [IF YOU'RE BLACK]

To the victor go the spoils and to the White House goes a sometimes motley collection of relatives, friends and political wart healers who have helped the victor in one way or another. Jimmy Carter has, perhaps, opened up a new avenue for anyone aspiring a job at the throne!

From a recent news item, it appears that all one has to do to "grease the skids" to a "Jimmy Job" is:

- . Go to a party with a friend. (Preferably a friend with a gun.)
- . Consume an alcoholic beverage. (The more the better.)
- . Leave party with friend to confront friend's old boyfriend. (Make sure friend has old boyfriend beforehand.)
- . Take gun from friend and kill old boyfriend. (Do a good job -- no time to flub up here. Have no great concern -- old boyfriends have always had a high mortality rate.)
- . Get arrested, convicted and sentenced for murder.

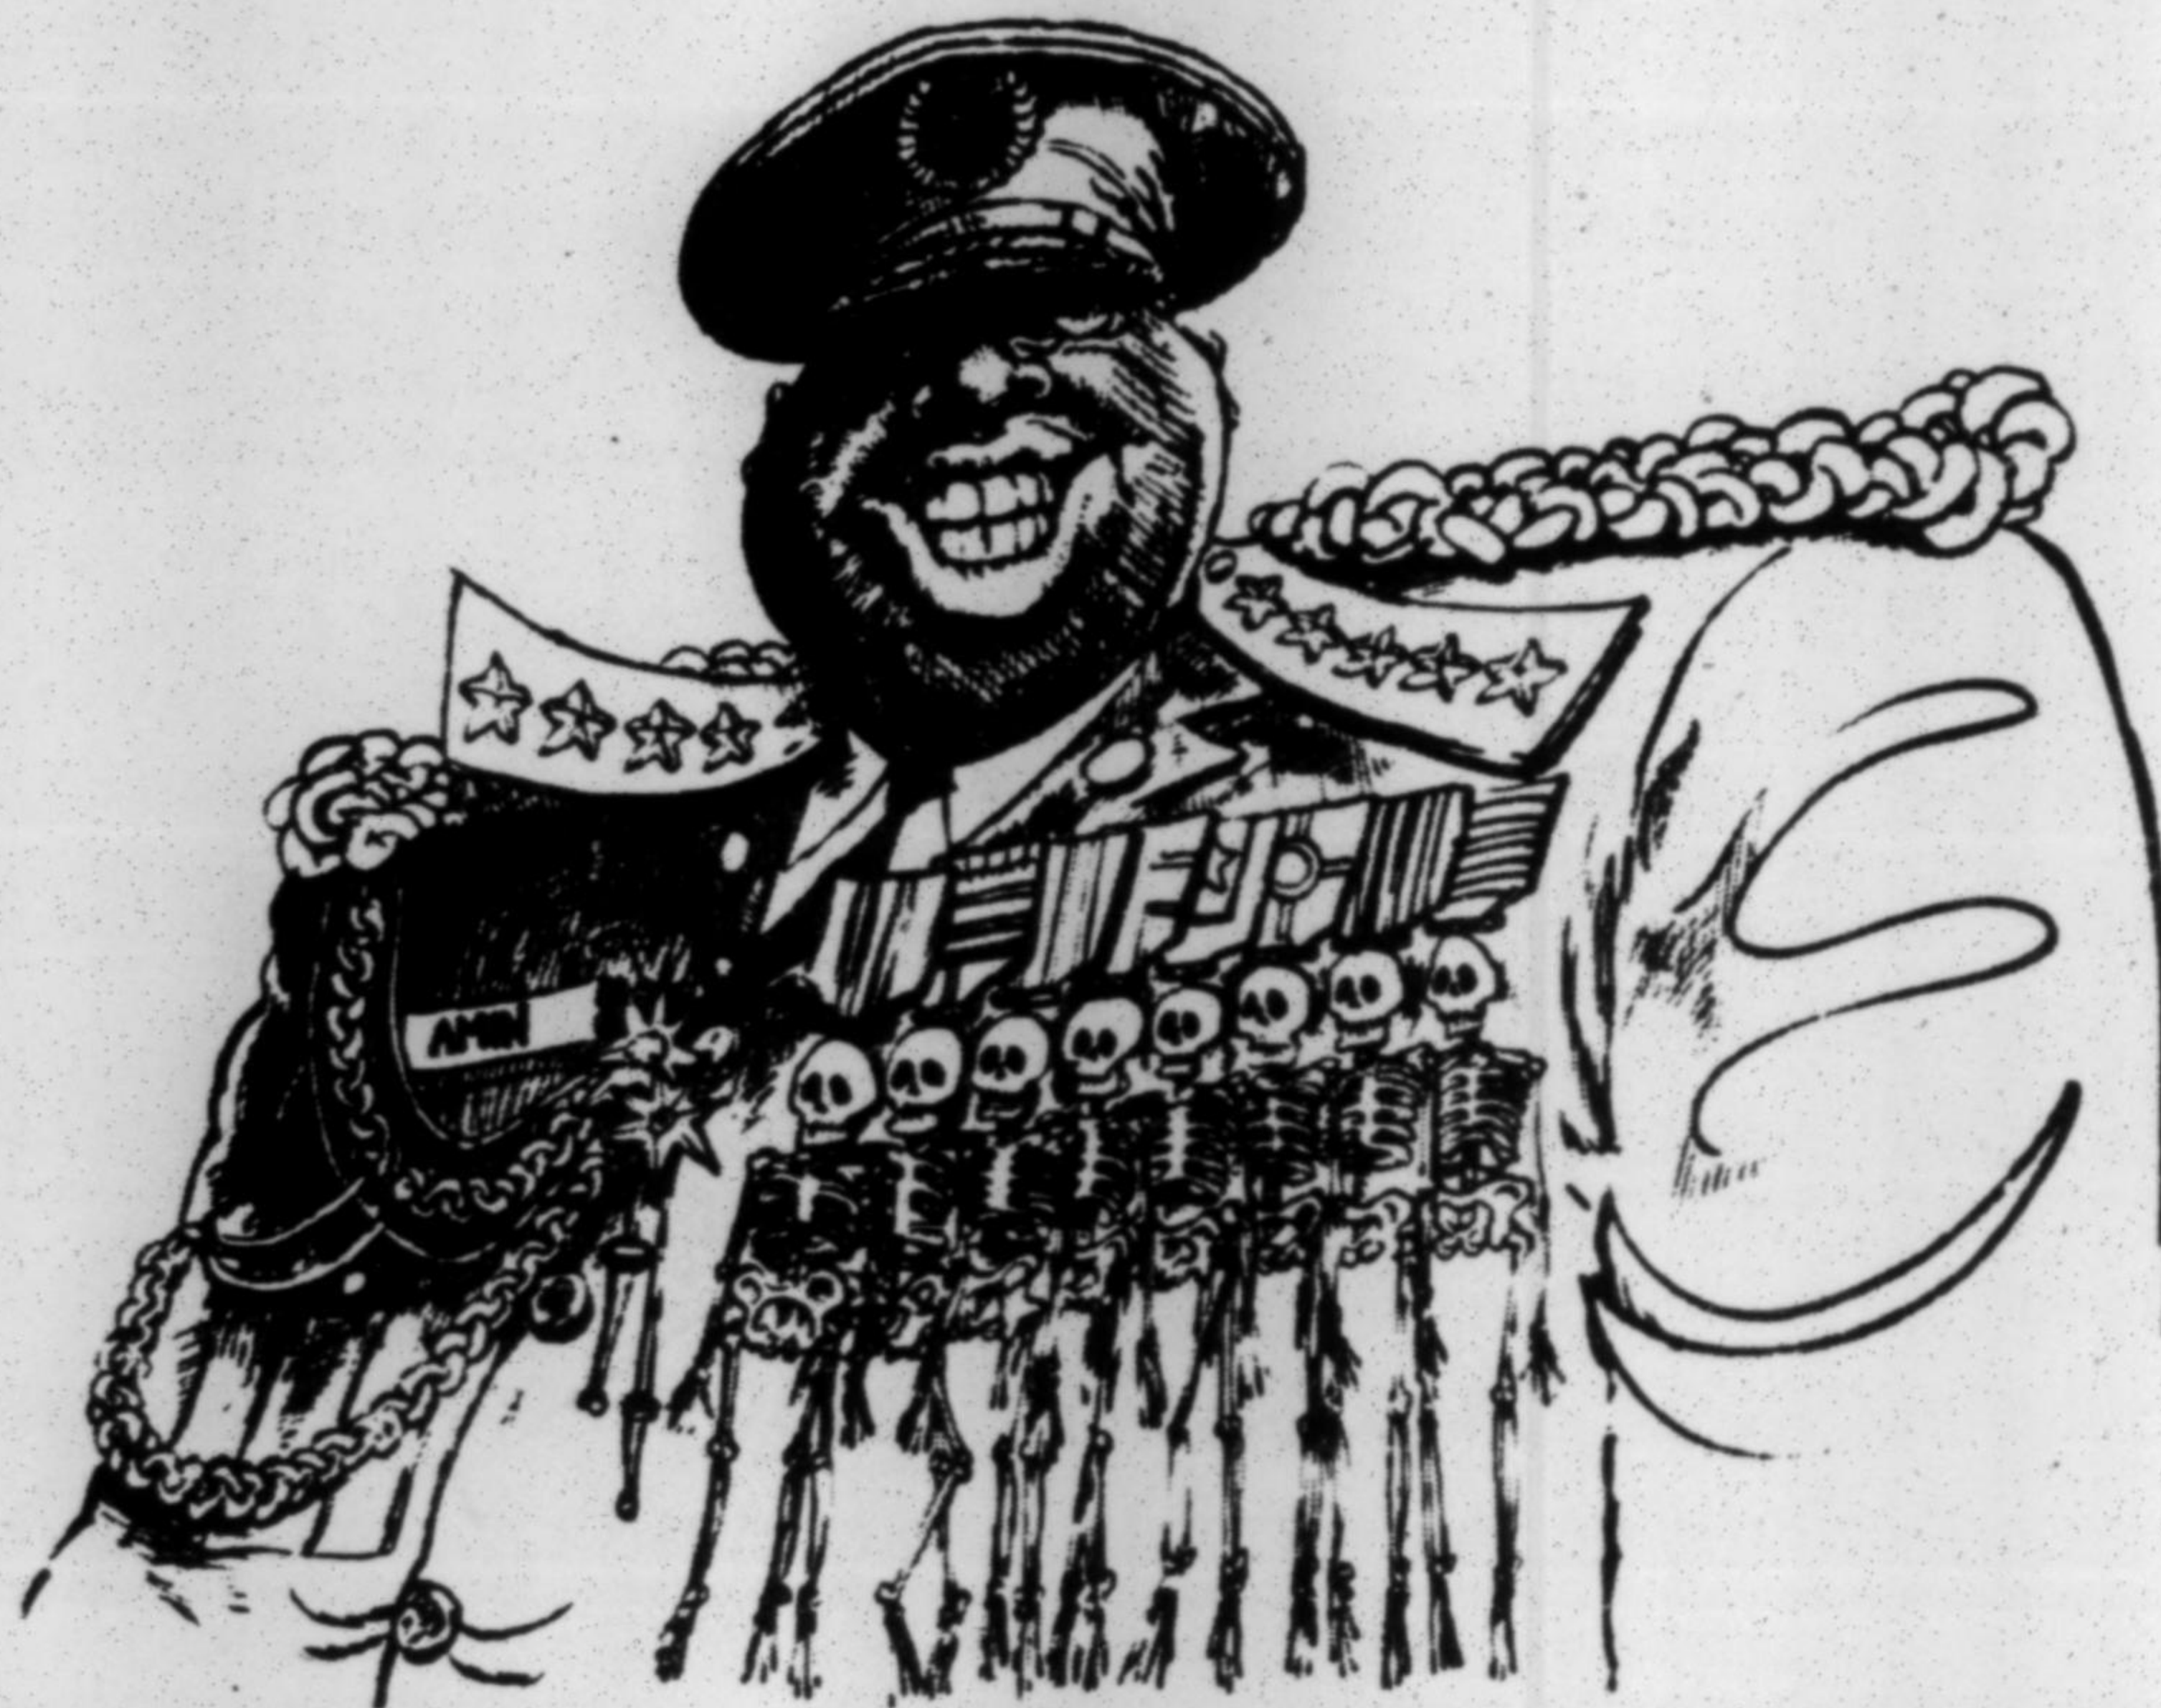

6. Start serving a prison term. (Naturally no death penalty will be imposed on you because it's too inhumane.)

If properly executed (no pun intended), these six steps should qualify you to be the nursemaid and housekeeper to the highest officerholder in our Nation.

The convicted murderer who followed the above steps was certainly unaware that her actions would lead to such a job. Her own words of surprise "I think it's unbelievable this is happening to me" punctuate this story. If Mary Fitzpatrick had been a closer observer of the acts of Washington, D.C. (Circus of Derelicts) it might have been a lessor surprise.

In light of the recent terrorist siege in D.C. where the chief perpetrators were freed without bail we can't help wondering what "Jimmy Job" they may have qualified themselves for.

What misinformed person once said "crime doesn't pay"?

"Black journalists report nothing amiss in Uganda" (News Item).

LOS ANGELES TO CONSIDER NEW "ANTI-FORTUNE TELLING" LAW.

ATTENTION, Southern California Area Occultists! The Los Angeles City Council will consider a new law, replacing the old LAMC 43.30 on October 20th, Room 304 at 2:00 PM. Address: 200 North Spring St. Meeting will be held prior to hearings, 12:30 PM in the 10th. floor Cafeteria. Reported text of proposed ordinance is reproduced below:

Proposed Statute:

Every person who by the use of any parapsychological means with pretensions of fortune-telling, trick or other means whatever, by use of cards or other implements or instruments, fraudulently obtains from another person money or property of any description shall be punished as in the case of larceny and deemed to have committed larceny of like value.

All businesses which include as part of the service for pay the practice of parapsychological arts including but not limited to fortune tellers, tarot card readers, astrologists, psychics, palmists, and other seers, shall be required to obtain a license from the City of Los Angeles at a fee of $50.00, to be renewed annually. Said license is to be issued only to such practitioners who show proof of financial responsibility by bonding or other financial guarantees in an amount not to exceed $2,500.00. Failure to provide said proof would result in the payment of a fine of not less than $500.00 or 30 days in jail.

We are not particularly in favor of the above, because it is not noticeably better than the old one. It's still unconstitutional. (Text courtesy of Sisterhood of the Wicca).

We asked four leading crooks for their opinion on gun control.*

Q. "If a person wanted to commit a crime and was unable to acquire a gun, would he resort to another weapon?"

'Probably. The guys use hanks (knives) in here.'

"Any available weapon some people would use."

"Robberies occurred before they had guns, didn't they? They used bows and arrows, spears, and whatever else they had."

"No. I think they (guns) would be manufactured here in somebody's basement."

Some people think gun control is the solution to crime. Take away the guns, they say, and the criminal is disarmed.

Sound reasonable? There are a few problems . . . as the "gentlemen" above are quick to point out.

The criminal will always find a way to get a gun. So who is really disarmed by gun control: The criminal? Or people like you, your neighbor, and the shopkeeper down the block?

The fact is that gun controls just don't work. We already have over 20,000 federal, state and local gun control laws in the U.S. . . . and still the crime rate soars.

Is the gun really the problem? Or is it the criminal? Less than one thousandth of one percent of the handguns in this country will be used to commit murder in 1977. But almost two-thirds of the firearms violators released from prison this year will be rearrested within the next four years.

The Second Amendment Foundation is a tax-exempt, publicly supported foundation dedicated to the idea that the blame for firearms misuse must be placed squarely upon the shoulders of the criminals and lenient judges; not the law abiding American citizen.

Swift and sure punishment is the way to fight crime; not more futile attempts at gun control that only prevent the law abiding from defending themselves.

Isn't it time we got serious about crime control, instead of gun control? Think about it.

*Responses excerpted from actual interviews conducted by Sen. H.L. Richardson with inmates of Folsom and San Quentin Prisons.

Due to repeated requests, we are presenting the Table of Hours similar to those in Vol.1, #2 of TWL. Please note that the tables presented here are from different sources than those given earlier. The above table is from "THE GREATER KEY OF SOLOMON" as translated by Mathers, and does not agree with the tables attributed to Barrett's MAGUS. It also does not agree with Waite's THE BOOK OF BLACK MAGIC & PACTS, an excerpt of which is presented below.

We asked four leading crooks for their opinion on gun control.*

Q. "If a person wanted to commit a crime and was unable to acquire a gun, would he resort to another weapon?"

"Probably. The guys use hanks (knives) in here."

"Any available weapon some people would use."

"Robberies occurred before they had guns, didn't they? They used bows and arrows, spears, and whatever else they had."

"No. I think they (guns) would be manufactured here in somebody's basement."

Some people think gun control is the solution to crime. Take away the guns, they say, and the criminal is disarmed.

Sound reasonable? There are a few problems . . . as the "gentlemen" above are quick to point out.

The criminal will always find a way to get a gun. So who is really disarmed by gun control: The criminal? Or people like you, your neighbor, and the shopkeeper down the block?

The fact is that gun controls just don't work. We already have over 20,000 federal, state and local gun control laws in the U.S. . . . and still the crime rate soars.

Is the gun really the problem? Or is it the criminal? Less than one thousandth of one percent of the handguns in this country will be used to commit murder in 1977. But almost two-thirds of the firearms violators released from prison this year will be rearrested within the next four years.

The Second Amendment Foundation is a tax-exempt, publicly supported foundation dedicated to the idea that the blame for firearms misuse must be placed squarely upon the shoulders of the criminals and lenient judges; not the law abiding American citizen.

Swift and sure punishment is the way to fight crime; not more futile attempts at gun control that only prevent the law abiding from defending themselves.

Isn't it time we got serious about crime control, instead of gun control? Think about it.

*Responses excerpted from actual interviews conducted by Sen. H.L. Richardson with inmates of Folsom and San Quentin Prisons.

It will be seen from this table that there is a recurring rule of the planets in unbroken succession through the whole week, after which the sequence recommences in the same order, each planet during the first and the eighth of the day hours and the third and the tenth of the night hours of the day referred to that planet. These constitute the planetary hours.

SON OF OCCULT RIP-OFFs

CONWAY COLLEGE, aka: CONWAY COLLEGE PRESS, of Laconia, New Hampshire, and their wide promotion of "Outstanding Personalities in Metaphysics" appears to be yet another Occult Rip-Off. They take your money but they don't deliver the goods. They likewise don't bother to answer their mail.

PAN-PAGAN PROJECT aka: The NEMETON DIRECTORY. This is an old one. Over two years ago, the Nemeton organization solicited money for listings in their "directory". As far as we know, the directory was never printed, and Nemeton hasn't bothered to answer their mail either. Of course they haven't bothered to refund any of the money they collected.

ALAN M. LINDE & ASSOC. of Beverly Hills, CA. Watch out for these guys. They are trying to pull TWO rip-offs of the Occult Community. First: they try to weasel copies of organization's mailing lists for free and Second: they are trying to sell very out of date books and publications for a measly 10% off of retail (40% is the usual discount). They are so far behind the times, that they think Bonewits is still the editor of Gnostica.

THE MAGICKAL CHILDE (Formerly known as The Warlock Shop) has been strangely quiet since we sent them Xeroxs of Herman Slater's bad checks.

The Temple of Truth

THE TEMPLE OF TRUTH, unlike most other Orders and Magickal Lodges, is essentially unstructured. It has no "grades," issues no pretentious certificates, and has no fixed curriculum. The Temple of Truth exists primarily for its students and members, and hence does not get involved in the internal workings of other organizations. The Temple of Truth takes no part in political quarrels which sweep through the contemporary American Occult scene. Likewise, we abjure most of the "traditional" secrecy which all too frequently hides ineptitude and selfishness on the part of those purporting to know it all. What little is kept secret is simply for the safety of the individual student, and no information is "forever denied" to a promising student. Each individual is free to select his own course of study, as well as the rate at which he chooses to pursue it. This "independent study" concept allows the staff as well as the students considerable flexibility. The student defines what it is he wishes to do and then later submits a report on the results he has achieved. Selections from these reports may be published at a later date.

Individual students are encouraged to adopt the scholastic method but not required to do so. In any event, the lack of rigor will not bar the student from opportunities to test his theories. Empirical results are the cornerstones of the student's progress.

Flexibility is also stressed in the admission standards of the organization, the main emphasis being on a better than average moral and ethical behaviour on the part of the individual applicant. The applicant's motivation should be a desire for spiritual development rather than an egotistic craving to be called a "High Priest" or a "High Priestess," or the lust for "Powers"—usually over others—in lieu of Self-control.

The student is encouraged to practice his magick in his own home as a part of his everyday life. This emphasis on individual practice (after an initial period of instruction) is one of the largest differences between The Temple of Truth, and other Magickal organizations operating in the present Occult spectrum. Membership in The Temple of Truth is non-exclusive, or in other words, members of other organizations can join ours. Dues are low because we are not supporting a large staff or headquarters complex.

The Temple of Truth is sponsored by The Light of Truth Church, a duly licensed and incorporated Religious Institution. The Church is neither evangelistic nor fundamentalist in the usual sense. We do proselytize the basic dignity of Man, and we recognize the subjectivity of what most people call "truth." The Church's teachings, being cabalistic, are compatible with Christian, Moslem, and Hebrew religious tenets.

Dues, donations, and so forth to either the Temple or the Church are entirely tax-exempt, under both State and Federal law.

The Church also operates a Gift and Occult Supply shop, The Magick Circle, at 1274 N. Lake Ave., Pasadena, California.

Interested persons are invited to call, write or come by the shop at anytime during our business hours daily except Sunday. Our telephone number is (213)-794-6013. Correspondence may also be addressed to our private Post Office Box, 3125, Pasadena, CA 91103.

The Temple of Truth

THE TEMPLE OF TRUTH, unlike most other Orders and Magickal Lodges, is essentially unstructured. It has no "grades," issues no pretentious certificates, and has no fixed curriculum. The Temple of Truth exists primarily for its students and members, and hence does not get involved in the internal workings of other organizations. The Temple of Truth takes no part in political quarrels which sweep through the contemporary American Occult scene. Likewise, we abjure most of the "traditional" secrecy which all too frequently hides ineptitude and selfishness on the part of those purporting to know it all. What little is kept secret is simply for the safety of the individual student, and no information is "forever denied" to a promising student. Each individual is free to select his own course of study, as well as the rate at which he chooses to pursue it. This "independent study" concept allows the staff as well as the students considerable flexibility. The student defines what it is he wishes to do and then later submits a report on the results he has achieved. Selections from these reports may be published at a later date.

Individual students are encouraged to adopt the scholastic method but not required to do so. In any event, the lack of rigor will not bar the student from opportunities to test his theories. Empirical results are the cornerstones of the student's progress.

Flexibility is also stressed in the admission standards of the organization, the main emphasis being on a better than average moral and ethical behaviour on the part of the individual applicant. The applicant's motivation should be a desire for spiritual development rather than an egotistic craving to be called a "High Priest" or a "High Priestess," or the lust for "Powers"—usually over others—in lieu of Self-control.

The student is encouraged to practice his magick in his own home as a part of his everyday life. This emphasis on individual practice (after an initial period of instruction) is one of the largest differences between The Temple of Truth, and other Magickal organizations operating in the present Occult spectrum. Membership in The Temple of Truth is non-exclusive, or in other words, members of other organizations can join ours. Dues are low because we are not supporting a large staff or headquarters complex.

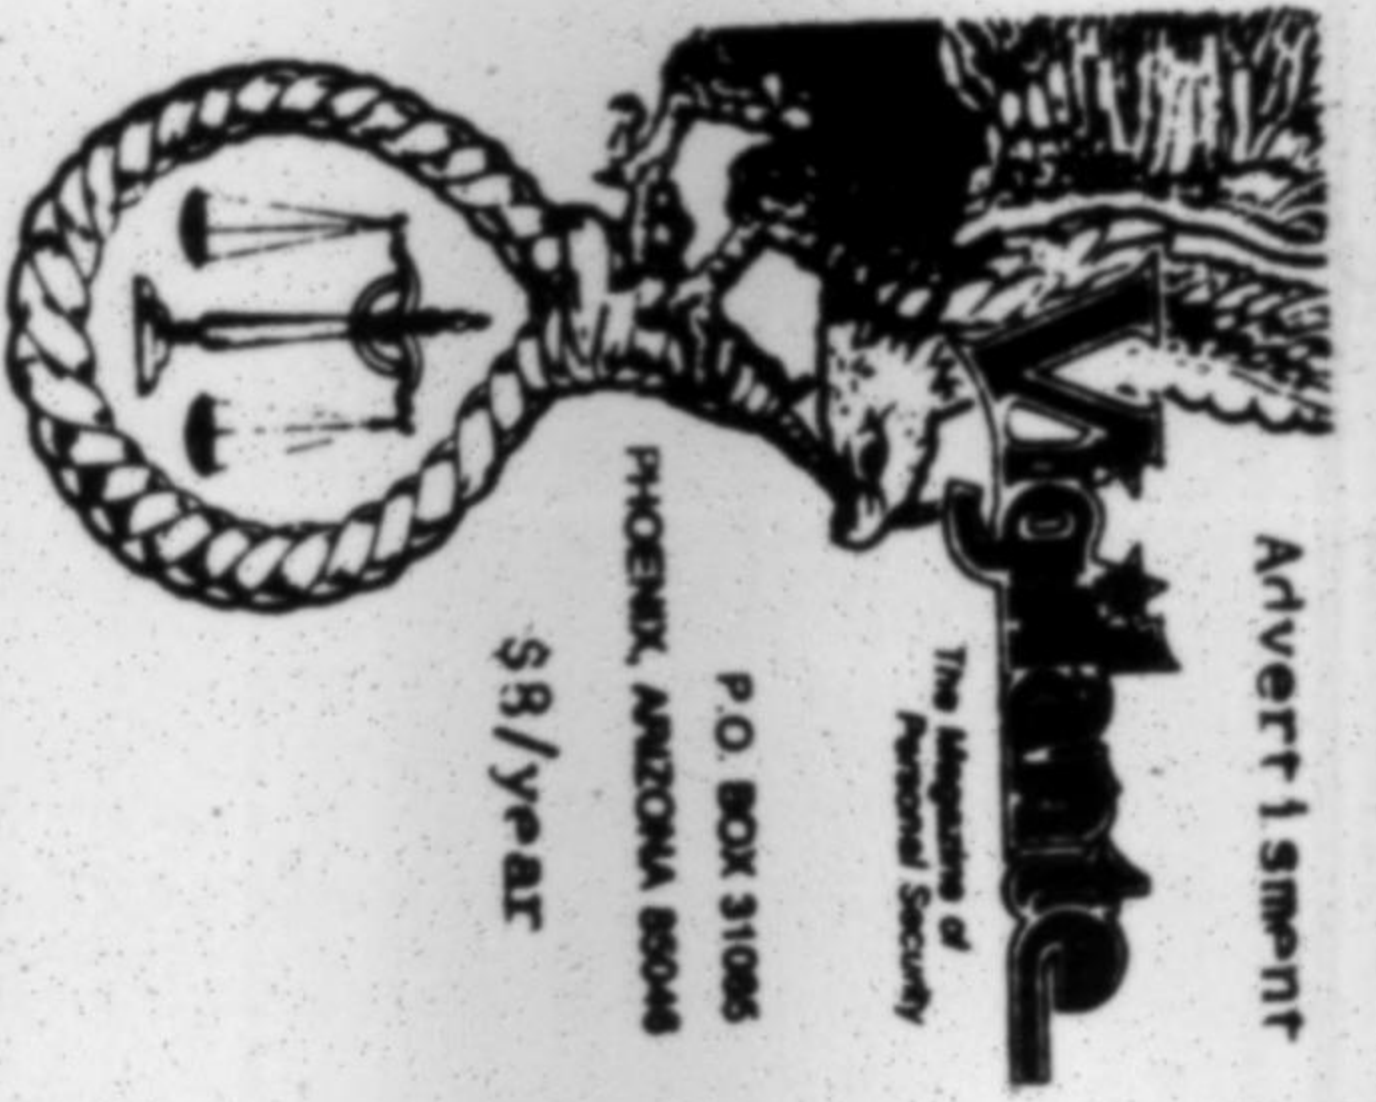

The Temple of Truth is sponsored by The Light of Truth Church, a duly licensed and incorporated Religious Institution. The Church is neither evangelistic nor fundamentalist in the usual sense. We do proselytize the basic dignity of Man, and we recognize the subjectivity of what most people call "truth." The Church's teachings, being cabalistic, are compatible with Christian, Moslem, and Hebrew religious tenets.

Dues, donations, and so forth to either the Temple or the Church are entirely tax-exempt, under both State and Federal law.

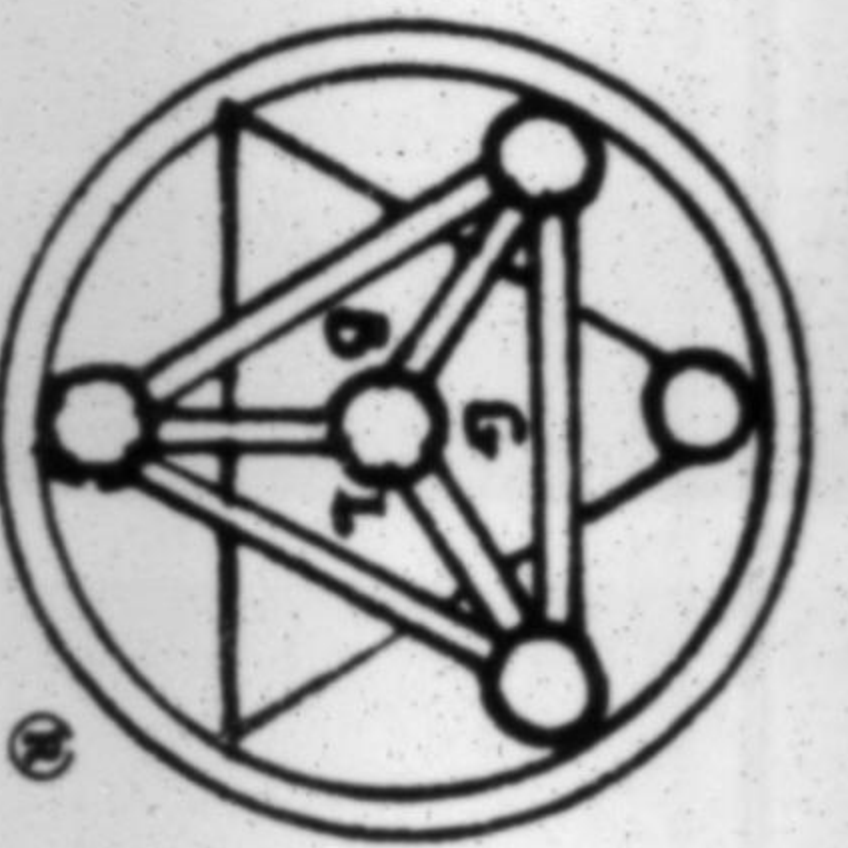

The Church also operates a Gift and Occult Supply shop, The Magick Circle, at 1274 N. Lake Ave., Pasadena, California.

Interested persons are invited to call, write or come by the shop at anytime during our business hours daily except Sunday. Our telephone number is (213)-794-6013. Correspondence may also be addressed to our private Post Office Box; 3125, Pasadena, CA 91103.
