THE DEMISE OF THE A.A.D.L.

The AADL is dead. This sad news comes not so much as a surprise but rather an expected disappointment. We have been watching the decline of the AADL for some time now, and in spite of our efforts to motivate the Occult Community, the AADL finally died from neglect. (SEE AADL section, Page 4, this issue).

The Occult Community has exhibited a strange masochistic trait in permitting as worthy a cause as the AADL to go under, and like the high-wire artist who insists in working without a net, the Occult Community now has no national or local organization to assist them when they are (or will be) discriminated against and even abused by the Government or private parties.

We have been active in the AADL fight for Occultists Rights almost from the start, and will continue the struggle on our own, with this one important proviso: Persons in the Occult Community wishing our assistance will be required to at least pay the expenses involved.

We have been volunteering our time and expenses for something like 4 years now, and have posted what we feel to be a very commendable 65% average in those cases that we have undertaken.

With clowns like John Todd crashing about (see Action Alert, Page 5, this issue) the fight is most certainly not over, it's hardly begun. The Occult Community's extremely short sighted attitude of "ignore it and maybe it will go away" is absolute folly, in situations that could turn into a real "witch hunt". After they've tied you to the stake, and they're piling on the firewood it will be way too late to scream for help. It's almost too late now. You've killed practically the only hope you had. Too bad. Hope you can take the heat.

MAGICK & ETHICS

By: Fra. Zarathustra
(G.M.: T.:O.:T.:)

This magazine, and the organization which it represents, is partly the result of several broken promises on the part of a person who styles himself a "High Adept" of another organization. While I was undergoing training there, (after putting in several years of work and a great deal of money), it became apparent that regardless of the promises made to me, I was becoming less and less an equal partner, and more and more a victim of this "Officer's" egomania, therefore I resigned and founded this my own organization.

In addition to Magick, I learned a great deal about how NOT to run a Magickal Lodge. Unlike this other organization, The Temple of Truth is NOT interested in recruiting only pretty, young, impressionable (and preferably rich) people. Neither do we use a 'written exam' as a screening device, outline for interrogation or quickie psychoanalysis. We also shun the fingerprint, mug-photo, "E meter" routine, all of which was used to intimidate potential members into accepting the "Word" and "Discipline" of the "Grand Master" without question. We also do NOT turn down persons who already have some degree of enlightenment and/or prior Magickal experience.

Mature, experienced persons are no threat to us, simply because (if for no other reason) we do not pretend to be the Fount Of All Knowledge (Magickal or otherwise). History, it appears is repeating itself. This sort of thing has happened before, not just in Magickal Lodges, but in all sorts of Occult and Religious groups, in all times and places.

We recognise that there are many different paths to personal enlightenment, one or more of which may be valid for any given individual. We recognise and are prepared to give full faith and credence (on a reciprocal basis) to those other organizations (representing these other paths), which in fact do not exploit their members, the public, or use fear, coercion, secrecy or hate to bind their membership to them.

These conditions eliminate a surprisingly large number of Occult and Pseudo-Occult organizations (and individuals). The remaining, without regard to whatever other differences may exist in doctrine, method, technique, et cetera, are acknowledged and welcomed so long as they are effective, beneficial, honest and non-coercive. We may disagree on any number of points, we may not even like them particularly, but we refrain from attempting to influence their activities or teachings, because that is essentially their business and not ours.

"MAGICK & ETHICS" FIRST APPEARED IN THE INAUGURAL ISSUE OF THE WHITE LIGHT.

On the other hand, we will not tolerate attempts by others to influence our activities, or defame our persons or practices. This is only logical and just.

Having studied the rise and fall of several Magickal organizations, we endeavor not to make the same errors, hence we claim no "Secret Masters", accept no one single book as Holy Writ or Dogma, and we refuse to state that we are the only functioning Magickal Lodge in the Los Angeles area. Likewise, we refuse to claim either a Golden Dawn or an O.T.O. derivation. We refuse to coerce our own members by any means whatever into being "good" (whatever that is supposed to mean) unless their activity threatens the Lodge. We likewise do not use a rank structure, degrees, titles, Oaths of Secrecy, and so forth, because we feel that sooner or later such structure will become susceptible to mis-use and cause envy, jealousy, false pride and self-delusion, all of which lead to a loss of Magickal effectiveness and eventually the splintering or destruction of the Lodge.

We are interested in what works, consequently we are quite eclectic and inter-disciplinary in our approach. However we don't hide under a rock. We feel that if Magick is to be effective and beneficial to Mankind, it should be available and used, rather than just taken out, gloated over and played with once a week or so, hence our Shop. Many persons decry the operation of an Occult Shop as 'commerical', etc. Our reply is: "If your Magick is so great, why don't you use it to help people?" Please Note: "...Help People...", not hurt people. This brings up an important point: Except for the defence of the Lodge, we will under no conditions engage in what we consider to be "black magic" (eg: Any Magick which attempts to control an individual or limit his scope of action, opinion or thought, for any reason whatever, with or without that individuals' prior knowledge or consent.) There are already far too many people doing just that right now.

We don't even attempt to help all of the people who come to us. We pick and choose those whom we think we can help. To the pathetic, insecure little people who are desperately searching for a new Messiah to follow or worship, we say: "Sorry, we don't work that way." To the lazy, greedy, shallow and obnoxious people who expect us to give them "The Secrets of The Ancients" on a silver platter in half an hour with no effort on their part; we also say: "We don't work that way", and would not even if we could. To all the scared, guilty, irresponsible people who expect us to intercede between themselves and either Karma or the American Legal System to prevent them from receiving the Punishment which they have so dilligently and repeatedly earned for themselves, we likewise say: "We don't work that way either."

THE LAST(?) A.A.D.L. FORMLETTER

Dear Friends of A.A.D.L.:

The Aquarian Anti-Defamation League, Inc. is defunct. The only civil liberties and public education organization covering the entire Aquarian Age spectrum of legitimate metaphysical/occult/psychic movements has died a sad and lingering death.

This means that, although we continue to hear of increasing numbers of persecution cases against Aquarians throughout the country, we can do nothing for them or anyone else. The new Board of Directors was unable to devote the necessary time, energy and money to keep A.A.D.L. afloat in the face of massive indifference from the Aquarian community. A.A.D.L. was bankrupted by the investigation of the fraudulent witchcraft "persecution" case in Dayton, Ohio (which I suspect was an F.B.I. "COINTELPRO" operation) back in 1976, and limped along "in the red" for several months thereafter. We still owe our lawyers several hundred dollars for past services and can no longer publish a newsletter, send telegrams, publish press releases or engage in any other work.

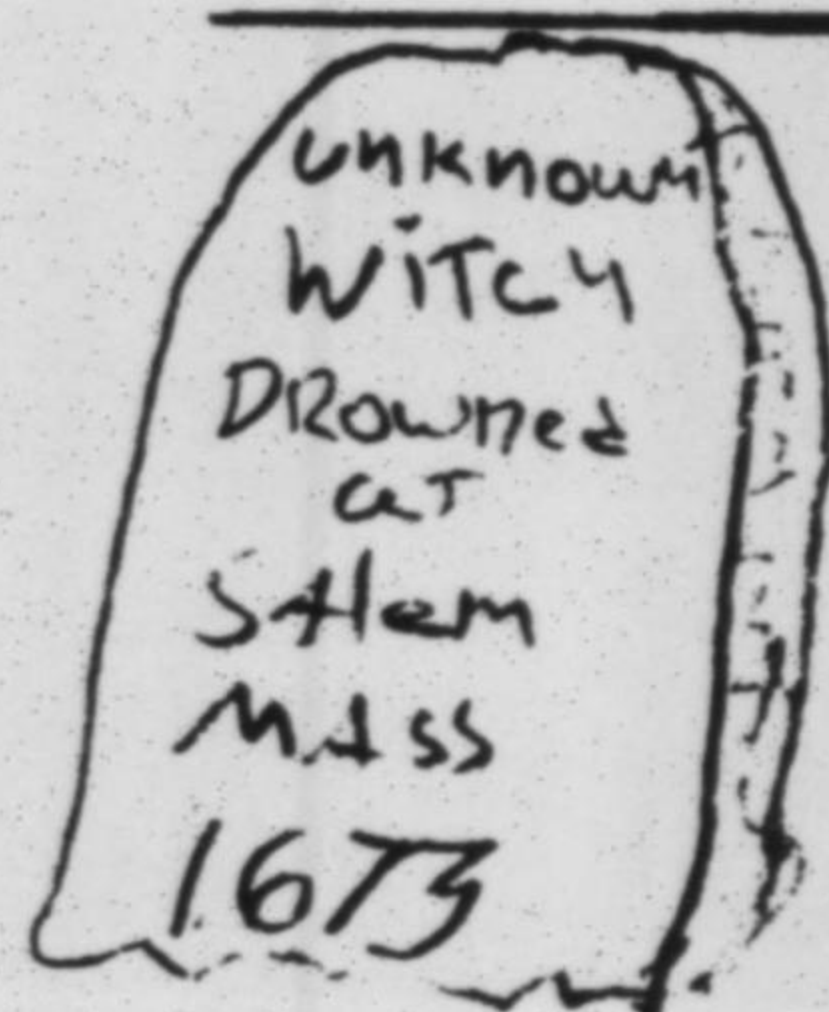

The post office box in Minneapolis is closed, the Board of Directors has retired and the Corporation will probably be formally dissolved. The files are safe and sound in my possession. The booklets and other publications from public, above-ground organizations will be censored for names, then turned over to a suitable library in Berkeley. All confidential materials will be destroyed.

There is a very slim chance that I may resurrect A.A.D.L. someday, but I'm not even going to think about it until I have several thousand dollars to spare. Sorry folks, but if so few people in this country care enough about First Amendment rights for members of minority belief systems that they are willing to sacrifice some time and money fighting for freedom, then I'm not going to continue to beat my head against the wall. For perhaps the last time, I offer the Aquarian community this thin hope:

Never Again the Burning?

WE HAVE COME TO TAKE YOUR GUN

They said it could never happen here. Not in the good ol' U.S.A. Where a man's first right has always been to take care of himself, and of his own.

But now a bunch of do-gooders and politicians have banded together to disarm the American public. They call it "gun control." And they're very close to making it happen.

Obviously, the criminals among us aren't going to trot down to the police station to turn in their guns. So under "gun control," thugs, rapists and insane killers will be the ones left with guns!

We think that's going to be a real danger. To our country. And to you.

But it's going to happen, if the American public believes the TV shows, magazine articles and campaign speeches now pushing this muddle-headed idea. Not that we think the American public is all that stupid. But people can be conned into backing "gun control," unless they hear the other side of the story.

Like we've told it here.

To get the job done, this ad (and others like it) needs to run everywhere. In national magazines and newspapers and on TV. And advertising costs a bundle.

THE EXORCISM

The Exorcism is the Magician's primary defense. It is used upon any occasion that seems to warrant it, such as the presence of an Entity that was not called, or the Entity which has been called is reluctant to leave. The Exorcism is not usually used with God Forms, but in an emergency it is permissible to use it with any Entity.

In a normal Contact or Possession operation, the Exorcism would be used after at least two 'Licenses to Depart' have failed to cause the Entity to leave. Under such conditions, the Operator would have the Receiver face him (turn away from the Triangle) reverse the Receiver's Lamen, so that the Pentagram of Solomon is showing, and show his own Pentagram to the Receiver, saying:

"BEHOLD THY CONFUSION ! BEHOLD THE PENTACLE OF SOLOMON, WHICH I HAVE BROUGHT BEFORE THY PRESENCE ! BEHOLD IN ME THE PERSON OF THE
EXORCIST, ARMED BY GOD AND FEARLESS IN THE MIDST OF THE EXORCISM; THY MASTER WHO IS CALLED OCTINIMOS !
OBEY ME INSTANTLY, ON THE PAIN OF THE CURSE OF CHAINS, AND THE CURSE OF THE FIRE !" (This is usually enough, however the Magus may continue thus:)

"GO! RETURN FROM WHENCE THOU CAME, WITHOUT HARM TO ANY LIVING THING! DEPART AT ONCE! DEPART, DEPART, DEPART I SAY,
AND BE GONE....."

If it has been necessary for the Magus to go to this extent, it is usually wise to burn some Brimstone and/or burn the sigil of the Entity. Under NO conditions should the Magick Circle be broken until it is certain that the Entity has departed and that the Receiver has fully recovered.

Note: There are many different versions of the Exorcism, any of which can be used if they largely resemble that which is given above. If another version suits you more, use it. General rule: Use what ever pleases you and gives you and your Receiver a sense of security.

To a belligerent, vile, hateful person who wishes to use Magick as a weapon or equalizer, against another person or the World at large, obviously we say: "We don't work that way and we won't help you to work that way".

Nothing of value in this or any other world was ever obtained without cost or effort. Magick takes work, time and a certain minimum amount of mental maturity, honesty, and self-criticism. ★

To a belligerent, vile, hateful person who wishes to use Magick as a weapon or equalizer, against another person or the World at large, obviously we say: "We don't work that way and we won't help you to work that way".

Nothing of value in this or any other world was ever obtained without cost or effort. Magick takes work, time and a certain minimum amount of mental maturity, honesty, and self-criticism. ★

When Bill Stanton of Chicago asked local authorities for help in removing a skunk that had moved into his garage (and reacted predictably when the doorbell rang or the family dogs barked), the police turned him down. So did the Lincoln Park Zoo, a local private zoo, local pet shops, Animal Welfare, the dog catcher, the county Wildlife Department and the state Department of Conservation.

So Mr. Stanton bought a trap and caught the skunk. That, said the Department of Conservation, was illegal—illegal to bring the trap into Chicago, illegal to use it in Chicago, and illegal to use it without a license in Chicago. Furthermore, it was illegal to keep the creature because it might be rabid, it was illegal to let it go because it might be rabid, and it was illegal to kill it.

Still, no one would take the skunk off Mr. Stanton's hands. "It made me feel like the skunk had more rights than I did," he said.

The federal government recently gave a psychology professor at the University of Michigan $5,800 to study why Americans have children. Asked how the nation's taxpayers will benefit from her survey, Dr. Lois Hoffman replied, "I don't understand that question."

The Law Enforcement Assistance Administration awarded $75,805 for a study of gambling. The resulting 934-page report concludes, among other things, that people who gamble in state lotteries face tremendous odds against winning.

The two scientists from the University of California at Irvine who discovered that 14 percent of the female seagulls off the California seacoast are lesbians have been given a $62,000 National Science Foundation grant to further their studies.

The United States appears to be the only country in the world which asks its teenagers what to do about world affairs and tells its senior citizens to go out and play.

A linguist who spent $89,000 in public funds to produce a dictionary in Tzotzil, a Mayan dialect, himself admits the project is essentially useless even to the people who speak the language. The author, who obtained a grant from the Smithsonian Institution to produce the reference work, warns in his introduction that the 10,000 Zinacantec tribe members for whom the dictionary was produced may end up using its pages for toilet paper.

It takes 24 pounds of forms for a public school system to request continued public support, according to Dr. Jack P. Nix, Georgia state superintendent of schools.

It is hard to realize these days that this country was founded partly to avoid taxes.

Mohammed Al-Feisal was not the only sheik in the U.S. last October. There was also Sheik Ongha Biran, enthusiastically welcomed on Capitol Hill by James Abourezk, Gaylord Nelson and a number of other solons.

Sheik Ongha Biran is ruler of the oil-rich state Halat Al-Bhudi on the Persian Gulf. Chances are you have never heard of the state of Halat Al-Bhudi, and for a very good reason: It does not exist. Which is more than some senators on various energy committees know.

Ongha Biran is a jumbled version of the name Brian Hogan, which belongs to an enterprising reporter of the National Enquirer. He purchased a flowing Syrian robe for $88 in a costume shop, rented a blue Cadillac limousine from Hertz for $31 a day, and accompanied by a fellow reporter in a conservative business suit who claimed to be Sheik Ongha Biran's interpreter, he set out for the nation's august chambers of legislation.

"Uniformed security guards at the Dirksen Senate Office Building," reports the Enquirer of 11/1/1977, "were the first to fall for the hoax. They flagged the blue Caddy right past them into the official parking area.

"But the first dignitary to fall over himself was Sen. James Abourezk (D-S.D.) . . .

"Welcome to the United States," Sen. Abourezk gushed as he ushered the sheik into the inner sanctum of his posh office.

"Wilkins [the interpreter] asked Sen. Abourezk if he'd like to send a tape-recorded message back to the 2,400 residents of Halat Al-Bhudi . . ."

Of course he did. They all did, when the bowing, handshaking and backslapping with the sheik from the oil-rich country was over. Sen. Gaylord Nelson (D-Wis.) was upset because Sheik Ongha Biran had only one day to spend in Washington on his whirlwind tour of the U.S.

And so it went. To get to the offices of your elected representative without an appointment, and to have much of oil-hungry Washington crawling on their bellies, all you need do is wrap a towel around your head and claim you're Sheik Bogus Al-Phoney.

HEW has proposed that anyone 55 years of age or older who cannot speak English or do basic arithmetic should be eligible for disability aid. The department explains, "The inability to perform simple calculations in addition and subtraction would represent vocational restrictions. An individual's inability to communicate in English may be a decisive factor resulting in a finding that he is disabled."

In the 202nd year of American independence.

The haves and have-nots can often be traced back to the dids and the did-nots.

A federal judge has ruled that excessive exposure to rock 'n' roll music constituted cruel and unusual punishment for a Virginia prison inmate.

Clifton Tydings, an inmate at the Bland Correctional Center, argued that the center's policy of allowing prisoners to play radios, tape recorders and record players without earphones aggravated his nervous condition. The suit, filed against Supt. W. D. Blankenship, asked for damages of $10,000.

U.S. District Court Judge Glen M. Williams awarded Tydings $1,000 in damages and $1,000 in attorney's fees and directed center officials to return to a previous policy of requiring earphones for listening to music. "No one should inflict their rock 'n' roll music on someone who doesn't want to hear it," he said.

In Garden City, Kans., the law says you can't drink from the public drinking fountains.

A $60,100 grant made by the tax-supported National Science Foundation (NSF) is studying why people in Philadelphia have an accent different from people in other parts of the country. University of Pennsylvania professor, William Labov, who is doing the research, says "it's very useful for us to be able to map the changes in the English language." As for the way people talk in Philadelphia, Dr. Labov said: "In Philadelphia, words like tour, T-O-U-R, and tore, T-O-R-E, are pronounced the same."

Asked what application his study will have for taxpayers, Dr. Labov replied: "The (NSF) isn't supporting our work because it has these applications."

New York City has 100,000 more children receiving welfare than it has children, according to a study sponsored by the Foundation for Child Development.

Last year the federal government distributed an estimated $1.7 million in supplementary security income to over 900 New York City residents who had been dead for months.

Boulder, Colo., is building a public restroom with federal money at a cost of $408 per square foot, nearly ten times what Denver would pay for restrooms in a park. The facility, containing one stall for men and one for women, will cost $67,000.

Miami landlord Jeff Rudolph has been convicted of a misdemeanor for spraying the garbage cans behind his apartment complex in an effort to get rid of flies and roaches. His crime: depositing "poison . . . in any common street, alley, lane or thoroughfare of any kind."

The Temple of Truth

THE TEMPLE OF TRUTH, unlike most other Orders and Magickal Lodges, is essentially unstructured. It has no "grades," issues no pretentious certificates, and has no fixed curriculum. The Temple of Truth exists primarily for its students and members, and hence does not get involved in the internal workings of other organizations. The Temple of Truth takes no part in political quarrels which sweep through the contemporary American Occult scene. Likewise, we abjure most of the "traditional" secrecy which all too frequently hides ineptitude and selfishness on the part of those purporting to know it all. What little is kept secret is simply for the safety of the individual student, and no information is "forever denied" to a promising student. Each individual is free to select his own course of study, as well as the rate at which he chooses to pursue it. This "independent study" concept allows the staff as well as the students considerable flexibility. The student defines what it is he wishes to do and then later submits a report on the results he has achieved. Selections from these reports may be published at a later date.

Individual students are encouraged to adopt the scholastic method but not required to do so. In any event, the lack of rigor will not bar the student from opportunities to test his theories. Empirical results are the cornerstones of the student's progress.

Flexibility is also stressed in the admission standards of the organization, the main emphasis being on a better than average moral and ethical behaviour on the part of the individual applicant. The applicant's motivation should be a desire for spiritual development rather than an egotistic craving to be called a "High Priest" or a "High Priestess," or the lust for "Powers"—usually over others—in lieu of Self-control.

The student is encouraged to practice his magick in his own home as a part of his everyday life. This emphasis on individual practice (after an initial period of instruction) is one of the largest differences between The Temple of Truth, and other Magickal organizations operating in the present Occult spectrum. Membership in The Temple of Truth is non-exclusive, or in other words, members of other organizations can join ours. Dues are low because we are not supporting a large staff or headquarters complex.

The Temple of Truth is sponsored by The Light of Truth Church, a duly licensed and incorporated Religious Institution. The Church is neither evangelistic nor fundamentalist in the usual sense. We do proselytize the basic dignity of Man, and we recognize the subjectivity of what most people call "truth." The Church's teachings, being cabalistic, are compatible with Christian, Moslem, and Hebrew religious tenets.

Dues, donations, and so forth to either the Temple or the Church are entirely tax-exempt, under both State and Federal law.

The Church also operates a Gift and Occult Supply shop, The Magick Circle, at 1274 N. Lake Ave., Pasadena, California.

Interested persons are invited to call, write or come by the shop at anytime during our business hours, daily except Sunday. Our telephone number is (213)-794-6013. Correspondence may also be addressed to our private Post Office Box; 3125, Pasadena, CA 91103.
