UNARIUS LIGHT COMES TO PLANET EARTH

(Extended by the Hierarchial Minds)

Ioshanna Speaks:

Dear ones, we come to you in Light and with Infinite Love. Throughout the many, yes, countless eons past, we of the Inner or Higher Worlds, have endeavored constantly to aid, to project to these lower earth worlds, our Infinite Energies, our Light Radiations. Although certain measures and benefits have been received, yet not to the extent we would wish to help, to be of service to our earth brothers.

Thus it is, we have, throughout the eons past, set forth a great plan. We, the many thousands of Higher Spiritual Beings, have created or built a huge crystalline structure, a structure which we could term, a mountain. It has been created of the Infinite Mind Energies from all of we, living on these Higher Dimensions for the benefit of the earth worlds. Our love emanations are imbued within these vast structures, and we would, that you earth brothers so partake of these life-giving energies.

This gigantic crystalline mountain is pulsing, is radiating in all imaginable colors; great shafts of Light constantly shoot out from this structure of love to the lower worlds.

It, along with the other six mountains, was created especially for you, the earth people. This great creation was expressed especially due to the vast differences in frequencies between these higher Spiritual Worlds and the earth frequencies. Thus, these mountains of crystal now have been created and form an intermediary dimension, in order to better aid you earth people.

Upon each of the seven great mountains of crystalline is built a huge city. These cities are especially to accommodate the earth visitors who will come from your earth worlds — the purpose, being to indoctrinate these astral beings with the great healing Powers existent here in these intermediary dimensions and worlds. Within each of these beautiful, colorful cities and atop the topmost ridge of the crystal mountain rests a gigantic crystal temple. This temple is purely for radiating the souls as they sit upon the crystalline benches therein for this purpose, and to absorb the radiations flowing into them from above.

The ceiling of these great crystal temples is bedecked with many thousands of lenses, from which spew forth radiating powers — beams of healing, uplifting Light. The color emanations existent are beyond description and are a Light never-to-be forgotten. It is as if there is a dense, colorful fog; each droplet of a different color. The array of colored floodlights play upon this amassment of radiation. The effect is calming, soothing and relaxing, and one wishes to remain there.

These radiating energies are of such a nature, that but a few seconds inception is all that is needed for the one visit. The visitor is each time, lifted in consciousness as he incepts into his mind these psychic or colorful energies.

Within the center of this great healing Temple of Love sits a huge rose crystal block. Three steps lead up to this great square, the first being blue, the second gold, and the third rose. Atop the quartz block rests a huge pillar of fire — a huge flame of Light. This pillar is many feet high and would encompass many persons. Yet, the steady stream of visitors or students pass up the 3 steps and into the flame quickly and step down the opposite side, then one passes on out to the outside of the crystal temple.

The few seconds spent periodically in this exquisite temple is all one necessitates to help keep him cleansed and uplifted.

It was on the celebration of your Christmas Eve, 1973, that these great crystal cities were factually completed and the great celebration held — when the Hierarchy stepped into the gigantic flame within the largest temple upon the tallest mountain and which set into motion all electronics on all other mountains, cities and temples. It was a tumultuous occasion!

It was at that time, all seven cities were joined in frequency and all the flames from the seven temples in each of the seven cities, on each of the seven mountains were brought into action — a gigantic, interlocking completed. This great regenerating system is now in perpetual activation. It is in this way that we, of the Higher Worlds can now, far better aid the earthman. He will but need to tend his thoughts unto us, and these creations. This will be the way and means by which he, or you too, can make this ascension or so-called astral trip. Your consciousness within the Unariun texts is the very best way to come here unto these worlds. It is but a matter of attunement.

And so it is – the more you are conscious of we of the Inner and Higher Worlds, and of these regenerative creations, the more frequent can be your trips here! Do come often!

If the world is to change, it is up to each one to help make it so! Now relax, open the mind, and we shall take you with us for a trip into the Celestial Dimensions – Light-filled. Here we go! We are now standing in awe and amazement as we gaze at the huge mountains of clear crystal; colorful, radiating, the shafts emitted are extending in all directions and the entire structures seem to breathe or pulsate, for they are not solid, but of pure crystal. As our gaze is transfixed and we, in wonderment, peer all about us, we seem to be in a world of glorious, radiant beauty – and so it is! We are now directed to walk up the winding thoroughfare, up to the top of this gigantic crystal mountain – the sights are too much for us to conceive. So for the present, we continue on toward and into the temple, one of the 49 which we have been psychically directed to enter. There, we walk toward and sit upon the soft crystal, rose-colored benches, as the heavenly energy mists spew forth upon us. There is a feeling of softness and a sensing of Love is everywhere; we now know of heavenly bliss. We sit quietly for the very few seconds and are then led toward the three crystal steps, up which we now quickly walk, then into the wondrous cleansing Flame of Life. What a beautiful sensation it leaves us with as we walk in line now through these three flames, now down the three steps on the opposite side of the colorful quartz block. The feeling is, we wish not to leave, but the treatment is completed instantly and we but look forward to the next time we can come again. Dear ones, think often of these great crystal mountains and temples of the life-giving flames so radiant! This will be your passport for another ascension to what many have called paradise! – Uriel

THE HEALING ARCHANGEL URIEL (IOSHANNA)

Healing Angel of the Universe, through whom the entire Unarius Brotherhood oscillates their Energies and Love to all earthmen. This lovely painting was done through direct inspiration of Leonardo da Vinci, who projected himself into this third dimension in 1973. He created also, the replica of Uriel on the Inner dimensions so that beings in all dimensions can so attune themselves unto her. (Color copies of above oil painting and the four photos available in 4"x5" – all five for $5.00.

This drawing is one of the many identical cities existent on the higher spiritual worlds which this earth world, as well as the other 32 key planets, are patterning after. When we build our first model city, the centermost crystal mountain will be instead, a vast tower or generating system 2,000 feet tall! Descriptions of the Crystal Mountains, Cities and Temples – a truly incredible spiritual aid for mankind – will be found in Vol. 6 of the "Tesla Speaks" series, or, "The Celebration of the Millennium".

AN OPEN DOOR TO HIGHER CONSCIOUSNESS!!

(Man Travels Psychically to Intermediary Worlds)

To conceive thoroughly this important experience, the building and creating of these intermediary crystal planes is all described in Vol. 6, of the "Tesla Speaks" series and also, in the "Crystal Mountain" tapes – 5 in number – in which the beloved Swedenborg, Maitreya, Pythagoras, Robert Browning, Elisha, Elijah, Maha Chohan and Socrates describe in interesting and exciting detail how these great crystal mountains, cities and temples were created especially on a new in-between plane, in order to close the existing gap between the spiritual and the physical worlds. We now have a permanent or perpetual pipeline between the two planes; now, great inner help can henceforth be extended and oscillated to the earthman to help prepare him, to help free himself of the strong earth ties and bonds.

Thus, it is as we say; as the person peers upon this mockup city or even listens to the description of its building on the tapes by the Master Minds on Eros, Muse, etc., he is factually taken there in attunement -- often called astral flight. There, you are aided frequency-wise, by the countless thousands of Higher Beings who project unto you their higher frequencies. Then, as you are motivated into one of the many Light temples created for this purpose and as you sit upon the soft crystal benches below, the countless lenses in the ceilings above radiate unto you, frequencies of a specific nature for your individual need. There, you are bombarded and radiated for a few brief moments' time, then anxiously you will walk to the three colorful crystal steps you see nearby and curiously, you'll move slowly up these glowing crystal steps and pass through three large, scintillating, varicolored flames. You wonder that it invites or beckons you and you sense a feeling of passivity as you walk through these healing, colorful, radiant flames of life. You note one is blue, one gold, the last one rose, and that your body, as well as the bodies of the long line of persons passing through these healing flames take on some of this lovely coloration! You feel greatly uplifted after the passing and wish not to leave the wondrous place of beauty and love — for love is a radiation existent everywhere in these higher realms. You can wander and explore the crystal cities created for this very purpose. You are spellbound as you walk leisurely through this seemingly heavenly realm and may wonder if you are not dreaming! Yet it is indeed no dream, although it may be a time when your physical is asleep.

You'll see many of your Earth friends and acquaintances here in this blissful and colorful abode, and you'll wish to remain rather than to return to your body. But eventually one must, to his physical body and earth return, to take up life as usual. One most often senses a change, a difference, even in his physical living after one such visitation, and one visit calls for repeat experiences in which the person can happily indulge himself.

Now it is via these vast crystal mountains and dimensions that the New Age can come about, for with each astral trip or psychic visitation, the student is further prepared and conditioned to begin to free himself of his earthly bonds. So do, dear seeker of Truth, come often to our heavenly realms and imbibe in the glories, the power and joys we have created for you there. And as you continue to make repeat visits, you'll meet more and more souls from your earth world.

Although these seven mountains, each with the seven cities — about which each city has seven temples — were only completed but a short time past (December 24, 1973 at 12 midnight), there exists now a steady stream of visitors to these cities and temples. The many cities have never, for one moment, been emptied of earth persons, but always filled with visitors. And we should add, these wondrous crystal creations are created not only for Earth, but are for all earth worlds, which are countless in number!

And so now you do have, each one, a definite manner and way to transcend the physical and slip out into these higher crystalline worlds of Light — your mental contact through the word descriptions in Vol. 6 of the "Tesla Speaks" book, or even better, the tapes, as these Higher Beings describe the very closing or last days before completion of this vast undertaking — a Mission of one and one-half million years! — Uriel

"A ROSE'S HEART SONG"

Fond memories linger from a sweet and lovely gesture as my young and dedicated student, Thomas, stopped in a florist shop to obtain for me, one beauteous velvety, deep-red bud. And as he left the fragrant store, words of love flowed into his mind from my Beloved One, Nikola (Michiel). Quickly, he jotted the message upon the tiny card, and with the rose he proudly presented his gift of love so definitely inspired from the most High One.

To you, my Beloved -
One rosebud between us,
grown in the fertile soil of my heart and sprinkled with the purest waters of Love!
Yet without your Golden rays - sweet rainbow-hued streamers that shine upon this, our bud, Ne'er wouldst it have survived one moment's time!

* *

Thy Love makes my life
a world unsurpassed in beauty,
And with thy Love,
all my life is made whole through eternity.
Our Love is blended in these two crimson sets of petals, and kiss one another,
as I do you,
For e'er and anon does love speak to us through these, the wonders of nature!

* *

Tis warm, my Love,
Heaven's lofty serenade that I find...

Ioshanna Vaughn and Thomas, receiving dissertations from Higher worlds.

Tis warmer still,
thy pure and elegant aerial Mind!

Tis sweet, my Love,
this emerald sunbeam that we share...
Tis sweeter still,
that in the sharing doth love care!

Tis fair, my Love,
the bud fondly nurtured in love...
Tis fairer still,
a rose full blown, beckoning whitened dove!

Yea, a million bridges doth span
thy tenderness enfolded,
And forsaken not, are common worlds - a breath remolded!

Oh, dost thou behold a fairer,
warmer thing than nature's adoring sigh?
Or a sweeter caress than the night's fragrant sky, strewn with crystal moonbeam streams? Nay!

Tis 'cause thy loving hand pillows
nature's resplendent showers
And fills the gap in my heart that wouldst surely be,
Hast not thy Love created summer flowers!

Words of Love to Ioshanna from Kahlil

Do you hear the words I speak to your ear?
They come not in syllables,
but are the endearing sounds of creation,
They are the true radiations of an Infinite Love.

Do you feel my hand in yours?
Do you smell the fragrance
that is ours to behold?
Oh, dear One, Light of my life,
I await the timeless time, the endless sea
beating against the shore
Till you are with us again, forevermore.

For we have harvested these things from the Fountainhead Itself, and thus it shall ever be,
For we must survive the morrow

That we may please that Infinite Sea of Love within us.

And this is the book of Love
written for all mankind,
And it is from the center
of all that is divine.
The eye of essences poured clean and clear
from the spring,
And the erstwhile waters
which have been made and materialized in its form,
For we to mold and shape,
and eternity keep.

- Kahlil Gibran

Reaching Out

Reach out upon the starry night,
and you will find that there is Light there!
In each and every pinpoint that you can visualize
there is no place where I am not.
In the eye of a hurricane there is no reaching manifestation, nor is there tranquility without going through to the center.
So reach out unto the starry nights and see there, thy destiny,
That in each and every thought,
you will find the Infinite has brought more than all of this!
Still farther out it goes - on and on - endlessly.

- Michiel

LETTERS TO IOSHANNA

May 12, 1974

Dear Ioshanna – as we listened to the tapes Sunday night, I had a wonderful experience which I shall share with you. It was first George Adamski who spoke from the planet Venus and later Ezekiel from the planet Eros about their space missions. At that time, when Ezekiel spoke, I felt a contact with my father in spirit who gave me this wonderful message. He said that he was on this planet Eros and that he was very happy and excited about his work. He told me that he was involved in even more fascinating tasks than before on the earth plane. My father was an engineer in the airplane industry for more than 30 years of his life, at first at Junkers-Werke in Dessau, then in Pirna, Germany.

The entire evening was a very lifting experience for me, as I felt moving up higher in vibrations. While asleep that night I had a dreamlike experience. I was among beautiful beings, surrounded by brilliant light which was reflected in the clear blue waters. These people were moving into and out of the water, all in a dancing motion. It seemed that I was new, and so they helped me each step of the way. We entered several spacious places in brilliant light and walked between pillars resembling the temples of Greece. As I was just feeling more at home in this new area, all of the experience was very beautiful. As I am writing to you, my thoughts are already at tonight's meeting and a feeling of great anticipation overcomes me!

Sincerely, Brigitte Halvorson

Dear Ioshanna – I am so glad you decided on putting your beautiful Wedding and Coronation of the Inner Worlds on tape. I was waiting and was disappointed when several tapes were taped and nothing of the Wedding was there, because I was there! I was right across the floor from the largest golden throne upon the platform. The flames and wedding were exquisite. I wore a long plain dress with a blue rose. I had long blond hair and blue eyes. I even had a deaf ear for three days and couldn't hear anything except the horns that were blown at the ceremony and the great golden bell – and loved every minute of it!

The flower children were gorgeous. I especially loved a deep-velvet pansy flower child, although all the flower children were wonderful. I couldn't get enough of them! Thank you Brothers and Sisters for your love and I return it back. I keep reliving it over and over again, even when awake.

I walked also behind your coach and saw most everything, but my eyes were on you four. I saw Dr. Norman and the crown, giving you your new names, Uriel and Michiel. I have seen the four of you since I was very young; I called you all my four guardian Angels, watching over the world! Now I know you all as Archangels, only higher. I knew there were two females and two males. I'm happy for you all.

My right ear was blocked for three days and I could hear the music, trumpets, harps and that wonderful golden bell. In fact, I can still hear them off and on! I also saw when you opened the gift from Leonardo and how you loved it, and him. Thank you so very much, dear Teacher. Love, as always.

Your student, Irene Brown

Dearest Ioshanna – yesterday I was to the doctor about this condition of diabetes and told him I had not taken any medicine for the past week because of the reactions which were unfavorable, I thought, and that I found the testing strips indicated that, without eating bread, I could be said to be normal. He was pleased and told me to go without further medication and recommended none at all!!

This happened after the past diagnosis last November and subsequent attempts to control with medication which was changed several times and which had derogatory effects upon me and most of all, with the wonderful healing energies extended from the Brotherhood for this 'incurable' physical manifestation called diabetes and which was determined by the readers of my akashic, the Unarius Brothers, as having been the result of peculiar attempts made upon the physical organs for their eternal life, during the time of Atlantis. I suffered a mind-blowing death at that time from this tubular hookup which they had my internal organs latched into for their experimentation.

I applied the opposite as well, that I had done the same to others to cancel out the other side of that same type of negative activity cycle, as well as with the beautiful, loving, corrective energies extended from the Super Superconscious Mind of our great Archangel, Ioshanna, I'm close to completely well!

I can be controlled by diet now, we believe, and so far this has been true. I didn't write before because I knew that this was what I would ultimately be able to tell you when I would attempt to express my gratitude for this beautiful healing.

Thank you, so much – Helen Moore

EXPLOSIVE NEWS FOR PLANET EARTH!!
THE UNARIUS MISSION IS REVEALED TO THE EARTH WORLD!!

* *

This is our very first issue of what will become the Unarius quarterly newspaper or magazine to relate to Unarius students "what's going on" with Unarius. Our magazine will, of course, grow in size according to the need.

NEW AGE CITY FOR NEW AGE DWELLERS

We, the Unariuns, have just completed what we feel has been a most successful Unarius presentation – our first – at the International UFO Convention in Anaheim, California. Our displays consisted of the elegant model city and the generating system we had just built, the photo of which is shown on page 5. This city was first described to Ioshanna and defined by the Higher Minds on planet Eros, telling how their cities on the Inner and Higher Worlds were all so patterned after. This is to become the first real model city on Earth and after which many in the future shall be duplicated. The description of this lovely structure is related elsewhere in our log here; a fine, detailed definition was explained by the subchannel, Thomas Miller, who related it at the Convention and added much to the just completed affair.

The most wondrous thing about this mockup city, which is 8 ft. x 8 ft., is that, as the individual looks upon it, he is transcended and translated to the higher intermediary worlds where he can incept the higher frequencies projected for his personal benefit! The person may, or may not become aware of this uplifting or transcendent experience, but nevertheless, he is definitely taken on an astral flight into these higher realms to be further bombarded with higher cleansing frequencies, according to the particular individual need.

THE CRYSTAL CITY MATERIALIZED IN MINIATURE

Thus we Unariuns who, for the present, form the nucleus, have built a mockup city as nearly according to scale as possible. It is a most colorful array of plastic, mirrors, neon lighting, artifacts of a great variety which serve well to transcend the viewer and lift him upon his astral trip. Sometimes a few brief seconds are all that is needed to bring about this attunement. We have included this replica herein; however, a small black and white snapshot hardly does it justice. Needless to say, the model city and tower did attract much attention at the Convention. It has been said that 15,000 attended! We do know that all who came were bombarded with the Unarius Infinite Power.

Another outstanding attraction, we feel, was the dissertation by the Unarius Channel, Ioshanna, who spoke of the 33 key planets and the Intergalactic Confederation now being formed amongst the 33 physical worlds. Her speech is herein related elsewhere. It should be said, an unusual attention was given; all listeners seemed transfixed. During the projection period, most were seen with drooped heads and in a transcended state. It was heard that some saw – as Ioshanna channeled in the great Powers – gigantic vortexes of Light about the room. No one present will ever be exactly the same! Infinite Love was extended in great measures!

Unarius had reserved two connecting large rooms at the Convention wherein we gave various demonstrations, proving the continuity of life, such as the incredible laser beam, the Tesla coil, holograms, and Dr. Finch came from Phoenix to put on his delightful and colorful growing crystal slides – a world of beauty, indeed!

Various students gave book reviews; some, personal testimonials. An outstanding expression was given by Bob Hanson, a dearly loved Unariun, who talked on Nikola Tesla.

Ioshanna did her unique Mona Lisa pose and Archangel presentations which brought oh's and ah's. Some even doubted that she was the same person, so profound was the projection of her Higher Self.

Thomas, Benno Eichmann, and the professional scientist, Bruce Wegman really devoted themselves in showing on the oscilloscope and television, the Tesla coil and the laser beam comparing man's energy body with these higher frequencies. It was all most convincing!

Several students proved their dedication as they served at the book tables and booths. Rachel, Sanosun, Helen, Christine, and Jeff, etc., were included among these students.

Also included, who served most diligently, was Carl Wallenborn who helped selflessly with his physical aid in loading and unloading the great van, so needed to transfer all materials.

The two full days gave great opportunity to expose the Unarius works to the public and we do look toward good results therefrom in the way of new members or readers of the Unarius works.

SUPERCONSCIOUS NEVER SLEEPS

Of interest too, and noting how perfectly Spirit works, Ioshanna had departed the Convention halls for the last time, feeling most was over and needing some rest, went to her hotel room to sleep. After but a short time, she was awakened with a feeling of the need to again return to the gathering, so she dressed and rang the phone in Thomas' room for him to get the car to take her back there. Thomas, the always willing and ready one, quickly readied himself to find there, a real need to return. As Ioshanna made a repeat visit to the booth where a lovely lady artist was demonstrating cosmic art paintings with the hand, she spoke to the artist, Daluciel. Noting her very red eyes and questing why, Daluciel replied, "I just had a very serious asthma attack!" With that, Ioshanna told her how asthma was caused by smothering in smoke and fire and quickly related how she had been burned at the stake for being a witch as a small girl of twelve. With this relating, Daluciel began to scream loudly and cry; people came running from the main hall, hearing her screams so loud and pathetic. She yelled, "Oh, Joan of Arc!" and bent herself over to the floor; then she reared backward almost double, her hands in a tied position. The persons nearby were told she would soon be alright, and of course, within five minutes, color returned to her face and she took on a lighter aura, the knotted gnarls in her eyebrows no longer existent. Her aura now took on a lighter glow and her features became more relaxed.

It was learned later that it was she who touched the match to Joan of Arc's pyre, so a great guilt was experienced as well. Considering the rapid way she changed, we feel sure she is finished with her asthma. It was quickly noted and pointed out by Ioshanna to her, that each of her paintings carried the flames and the smoke. All this burning is now cancelled and Daluciel can express in a higher degree, her artwork. She herself was quite stupified when the flames in her paintings were brought to her attention. Her remark was, "Oh, my god!" – her way of trying to rid herself of those torturous memories! So it was quickly realized why Ioshanna was awakened and compelled to get out of bed, dress and return to the Convention, in order to help free this dear soul of her most negative past experience – which continued to influence her in the present.

Yes, the days of exorcism or removal of devils are again with us, and what a joy to see one arise from his misery and negative ties, to oscillate instead, more positively with the present.

Reminder:

If you do not have the new pamphlet titled "A Space Woman Speaks from Planet Earth", your mention of same will bring a copy to you posthaste. It contains vital and informative discussions by the Unarius Channel, Ioshanna; likewise, our new pamphlet titled "That Incredible Hierarchy", with the four photos on page 6. Your copy awaits you gratis!

Also, we shall carry a column where students wish to share tape listening with others – or book exchange.

This issue has dealt mostly with the just completed UFO Convention – and now we start preparation for our own "Conclave of Light". It is also the Celebration of the Millennium – which promises to be an exciting and power-packed two days, July 27 & 28, in San Diego, Ca.

For added interest, Jewel Miller will vocalize the "Mona Lisa" song as the portrait is unveiled and as Ioshanna again becomes the live Mona Lisa. During the unveiling and showing of the healing Archangel Uriel, the elegant melody "The Impossible Dream" will be played. Unique science films relative and expressive of the Unarius Science will be shown.

Three young scientists, new Unariun students, will demonstrate the incredible laser beam, the Tesla coil, the oscilloscope and TV demonstration showing – yes, proving in all these devices and in their function, the similarity to man, of the continuity of life! Yes, how energy is perpetual! The science of life or living will be proven in the laboratories, and this is it!!

NEW BOOKS

And now, to those Unariuns who have not made recent contact with the Center and are unfamiliar with the new and exciting "Tesla Speaks" series now being published, let us relate of this fabulous series. These books number 12 to date. (The last four are not yet published.) Vols. 1 & 2 carry vital and interesting dissertations from numerous "late" scientists – those who have recently or formerly left the earth plane speak to us from the Higher, Inner Worlds of Light. Vol. 3 contains the dissertations of many recent (late) presidents! Vol. 4 is the related direct communications of the leaders of 32 other physical worlds with the Unarius Channel, Ioshanna. The facts these Beings relate of their individual planets are most exciting and "almost" unbelievable – yet fact!

Even more inconceivable perhaps, each of these 33 other planet leaders have related to Ioshanna – after she passed on to them the Unarius Science – how they, in turn, began teaching the people of their worlds; how their people immediately began to improve, to change their world. In each case, within a matter of two or three months and often after but a few weeks time, did the population begin to slip up onto higher states of being! Some of the problems of these 32 planets were devastating, some interesting and exciting, but you will need to read Vol. 4 of the "Tesla Speaks" books to learn the incredible stories of how every one of the 32 key planets was moved forward in its evolution! The Earth is next to make the first step-up. We do have the way, the Science and inner Spiritual Powers, the Higher help to make it so.

Treat yourself to a reading of the most illuminating experiences ever, through the incredible "Tesla Speaks" series.

SCANDAL COLUMN

Let it be known: This magazine welcomes hearing of your personal workouts, overcomings or healings of any type you care to relate, for others to read and to gain some benefits therefrom.

Dear Friend and Seeker of Truth,

This is your magazine and paper – use it. If you have testimonials or interesting comments regarding the Unarius teachings, study, progress, overcomings, psychic experiences, etc., or if you come across articles that would be relative, take part dear ones, and send them in. Let us enlarge this magazine from here on in.

If you wish to communicate or contact another Unarius student via mail, list your name and address in our contacts wanted column. Join in this large and happy family of Unariuns. Share with us, your experiences, as we share with you. You shall soon learn that you cannot share without receiving. We will be happy to hear from you!

EL CAJON WOMAN SAYS

INTERPLANETARY VISIT NEAR

(The Life News – Wednesday, June 19, 1974)
By Mike Mizraki (Life News Staff Writer)

(This article is type-written, verbatim, from a San Diego newspaper. It is one of the first of many reports – earth-shaking news for our planet, Earth. Unarius is now moving out into the public eye, and the Earth people shall soon know of the great plan!)

"An intergalactic space fleet – carrying many advanced beings from 32 highly evolved planets – will soon land on Earth and invite its people to join their Interplanetary Confederation."

Such is the incredible claim of Ruth Norman, 75, an El Cajon woman who has purchased 65 acres of land "to serve as a landing strip for a trek – over one million years in the planning."

Mrs. Norman, the co-founder of what she calls the Unarius Educational Foundation, further claims she is able to establish contact with these higher perfect spiritual beings by extending her consciousness to their planets.

"I use two of my students as subchannels, and I am the generator," she said in an interview.

"I simply extend my mental super-consciousness out to any of the thousands of spiritual and natural earth planets, and their inhabitants communicate back through the sub-channels."

Each conversation is taped, transcribed, and made into a book through her own printing facilities.

These tapes and books are then sold at prices ranging from $4 to $11 through the mail to the thousands of Unarius students she claims to have. They also become additions to the Unarius library, a collection of books started by her late husband Ernest L. Norman.

She said her husband spent 35 years in parapsychological research, and calls him one of the most outstanding clairvoyants of our time.

Until his recent death, Mrs. Norman worked with him, transcribing from tapes what she calls "interplanetary conversations."

She says this earth planet has finally reached the long awaited Aquarian age — an age when people can learn to accept the help of more highly evolved beings in making "Earth a place of beauty and brotherly love."

"Over one million years ago 3,300 of we spiritual beings (she claims to be one) lived on one of the highest evolved planets called Aries," she said. "We assembled ourselves realizing that this and many other earth planets were regressing in a backward evolution.

"We assembled to do something to help these earth planets. We came incarnated into these earth worlds with great vision and wisdom to prepare them for this golden age which is now before us.

"We had to prepare them for a higher level of development whereby they could be joined in frequency and in consciousness with higher planets.

"The many other planets that are evolving on a higher existence are held back because these certain earth planets are not progressing."

Throughout these millions of years, she said, these higher beings were reincarnated on their assigned earth planets as scientists, rulers of civilizations, musicians and other leaders of thought and expression.

Thus, through their physical presence, was preparation made for a new golden age, she said.

At the same time, she claimed, great crystal cities and temples were being built "on the inner plane — halfway between this dimension and the high spiritual planes.

These temples of healing, she continued, have been built through a technology such as man has never before seen, and were developed, along with other innovations, to "aid the earth people in their climb up from the negative bonds and ties of the lowly, rapidly deteriorating earth world."

These crystal cities will be built on all the earth planets in the near future, she predicted.

"Along with these great cities and temples conceived to help the earth peoples was created a lens, a very huge tower on the inner planes that serves as a communications system,"

Mrs. Norman added.

"This multi-purpose system will serve eartheans in several ways. Through it, they will be able to have interplanetary communication, a continual source of energy to serve all the needs of earth people, and a hollow radar beam which will make possible, interplanetary space flight."

At this point Mrs. Norman unveiled a small scale model of the lens. The unveiling was conducted as the theme from "2001 – A Space Odyssey" rang forth from her stereo unit.

She plans to present the model and her story to the public for the first time at the 6th annual UFO Space and Science International Convention to be held in Anaheim at the end of June.

This vast generating system is to be built on the same 65 acres purchased to serve as a space fleet landing site, Mrs. Norman said.

When? "That depends on the people, when the money is made available and the people get into it," she said. "The tower will be 2,000 feet high, half as wide, and go into the ground half as far.

"When, depends on how eager eartheans are to gain this power for their world.

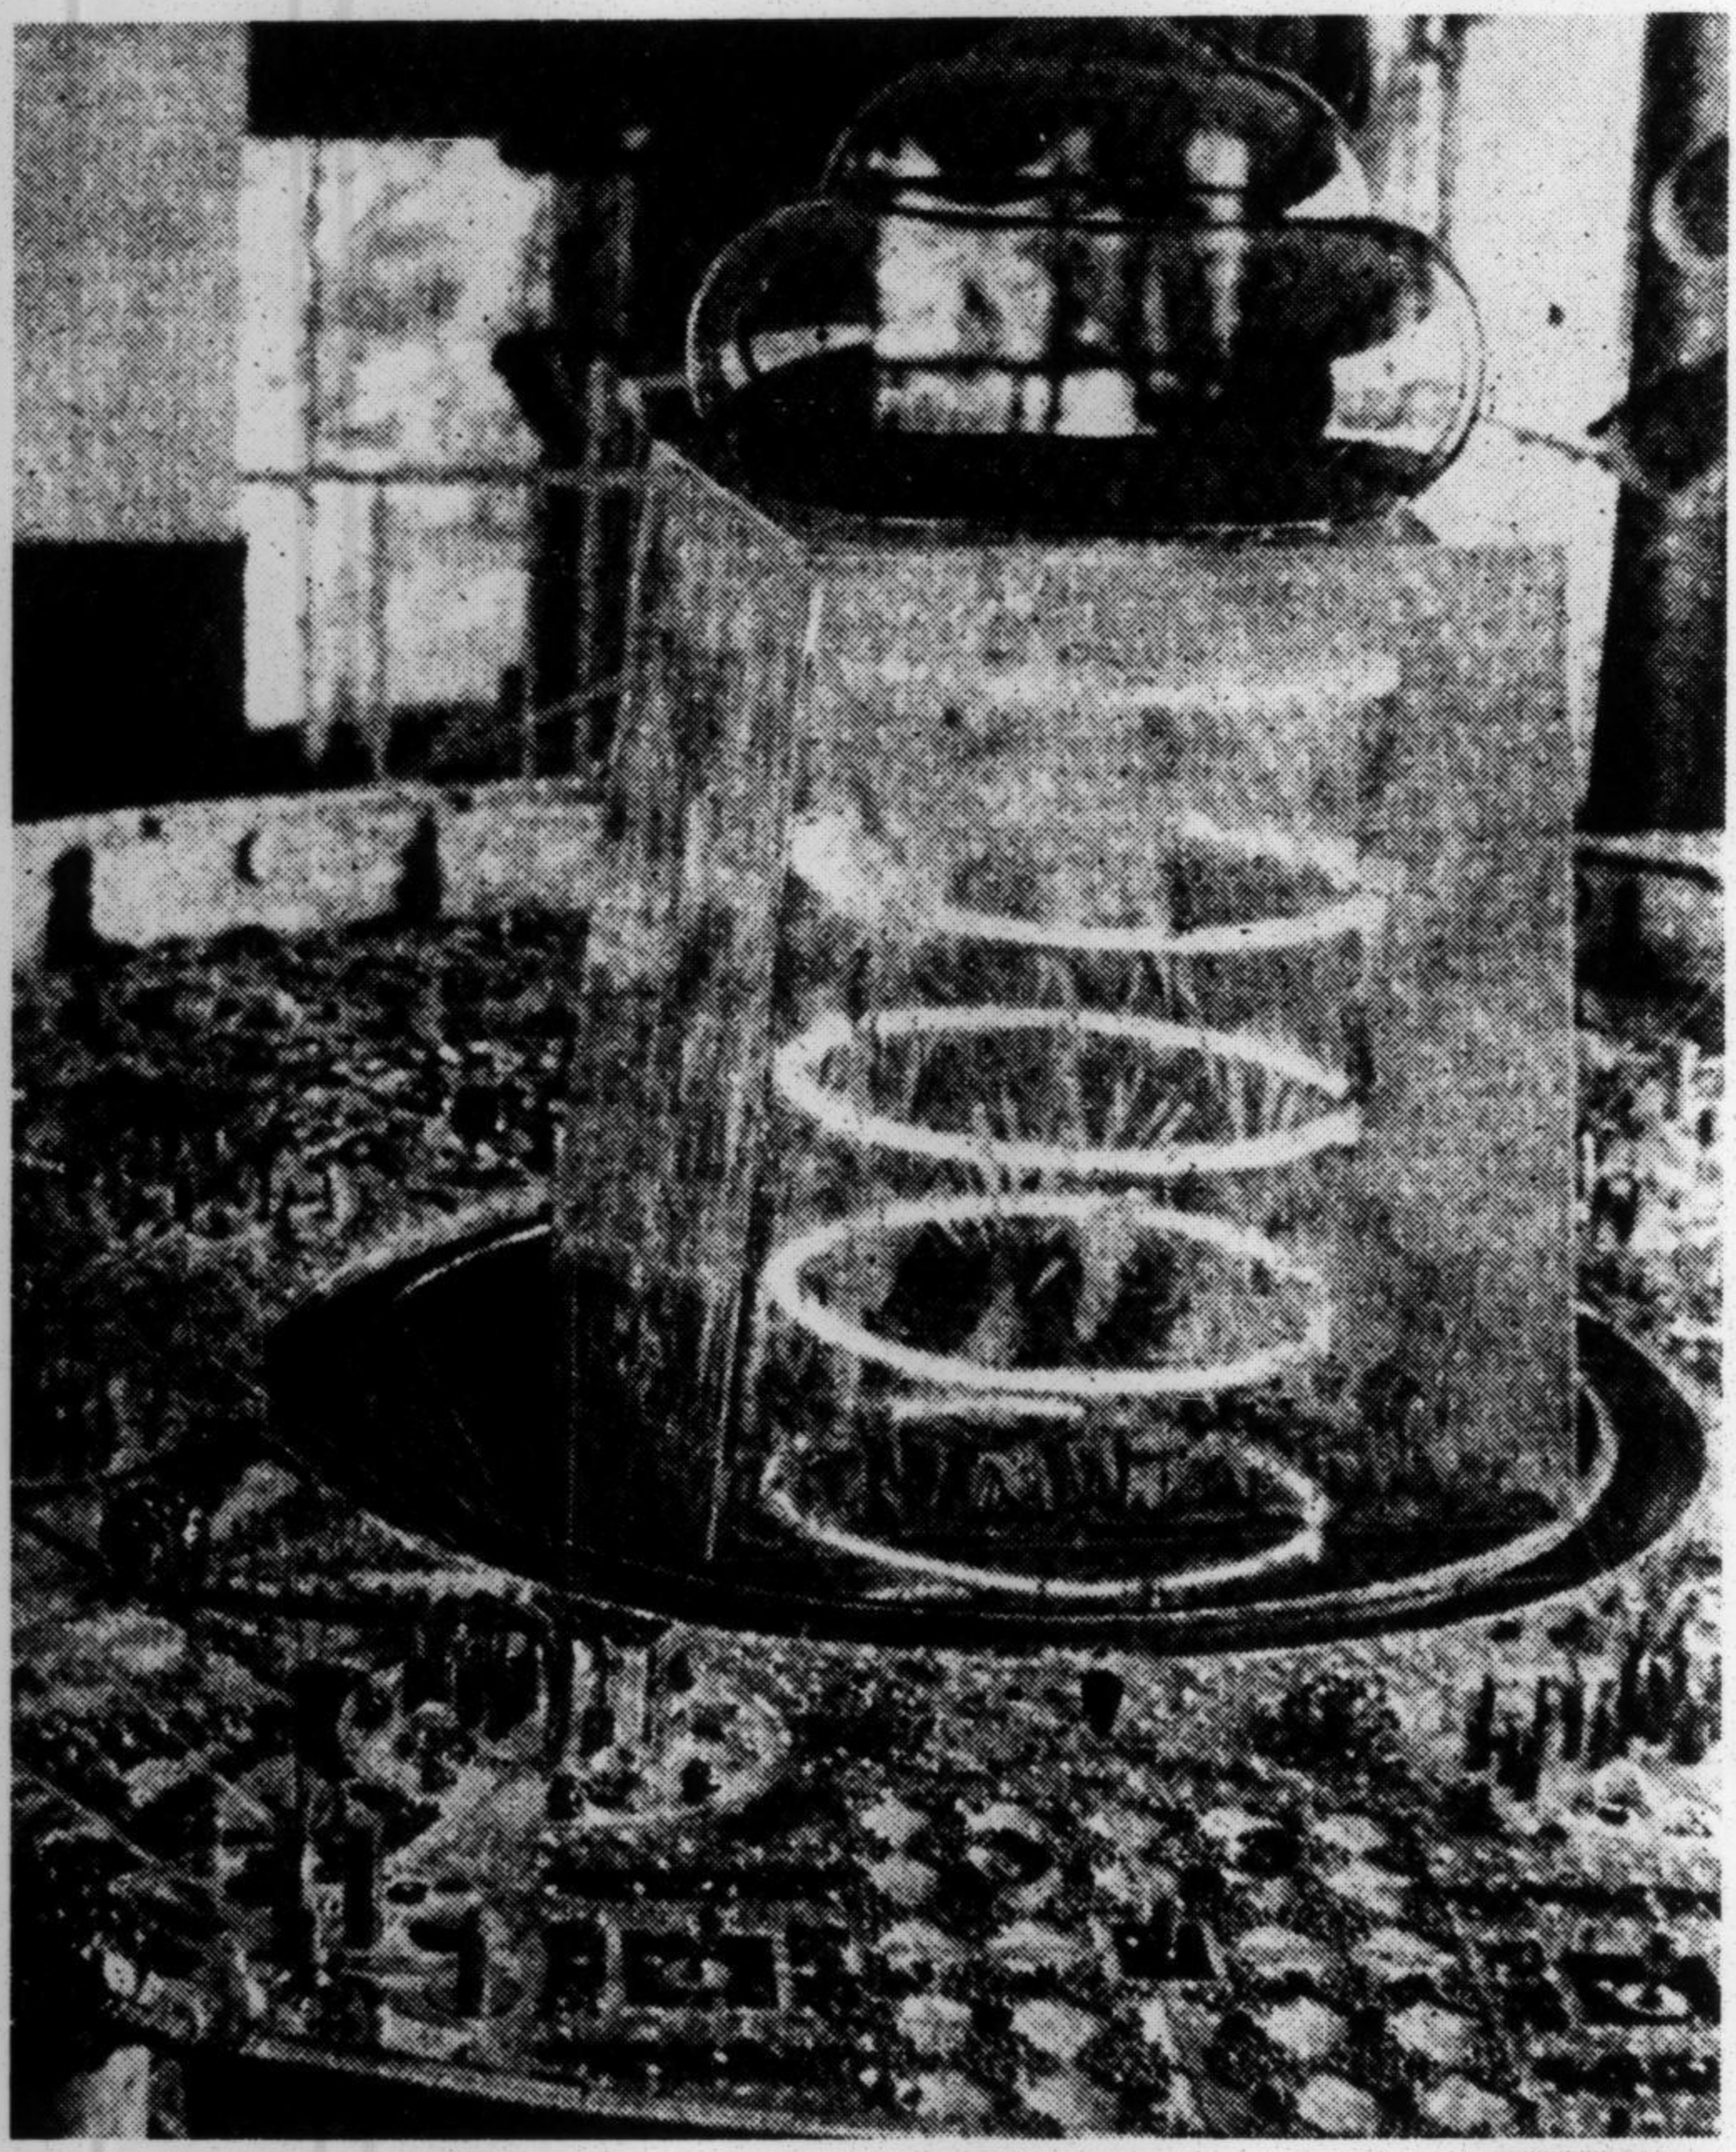

"Each of the 32 key planets I have contacted in the past few months will have or already have this generating system. Some of them built it thousands of years ago, waiting for the other earth planets to catch up. Now the new age here on this earth planet has begun. The ability to build this tower and these cities is with us.

"Earth is to be the 33rd planet in this intergalactic confederation. The object of this confederation is to bring about a situation where worlds can function in harmony.

"What our planet needs to build these cities and towers, the others will supply."

Mrs. Norman co-founded Unarius – Science of Life with her husband Ernest Norman, who died two years ago. She claims it was he who first made contact with extraterrestrial beings in 1954. From these contacts, she said, he wrote the first seven books of the Unarius library. When Ernest Norman died in 1971, Mrs. Norman continued where her husband left off. Since then she says she has made several additions to the Unarius library by contacting 63 different worlds. Many of these contacts, she claims, have been with noted persons who have died and left Earth to ascend to some higher plane of existence. As Mrs. Norman lounged in the plush confines of her hillside El Cajon home, she said, "There are many worlds far more beautiful and advanced than this cesspool. This world to me is a rockpile, a pig stye. Man is very unintelligent here.

The Proclamation of the New Golden Age

(This very enlightening and informative message from the Brotherhood took the centerfold space in the 6th Annual UFO Space & Science International Convention magazine.)

A MESSAGE FROM A SPACE BROTHER

(On Planet Eros)

"You have awaited a message from we people who have visited your earth plane, for many eons of time, and whose purpose has been to bring to the earth worlds the knowledge, the realization and the true purpose of life, and what man's spiritual heritage really means to each one. Through these many thousands of years, man has turned his back on the teachings that have been brought by the great Master from the great Spiritual Dimensions, and the worlds which have, themselves, been the Initiators of your civilization.

We come again, this time with the great teaching of the Avatar, honored Moderator, and you have within your midst, the World Teacher – for whom you have thus been waiting – to announce the New Golden Age, and to give to you, with Love, the great Teachings which comprise the Unarius Library. Ask and it shall be given to you! Take this Pearl of great Wisdom and refresh each one of you with the knowledge that is within each one to partake."

INTERPLANETARY COMMUNICATION NOW A FACT!

An Intergalactic Confederation has been devised and is now being consummated. The earth world is one of the 33 key planets invited to take part in this vast undertaking – a plan to BRIDGE the EXISTING GAP between worlds!

In fact, it is the very earth world that shall occupy the centermost position in the great STAR PATTERN or design, which the 33 planets shall formulate. Upon each planet shall be built a 1,500 ft. tall tower. These crystal and gold towers shall have, at their topmost point, a great golden ball or dome, from which will be projected great ray beams – energy rays of an intense generation and hi-frequency. These beams, when focused, will serve various purposes: to supply energy to worlds in need, to move spacecraft about in the special hollow tube of energy, and for many other benefits.

Direct mental (two-way) communication from the Earth with the other 32 physical planets is now being carried on through the channelship of one of the founder-Moderators of the Organization called UNARIUS.

So, UNARIUS does have great and wondrous news for you "space people" on planet Earth! Yes, you have all lived on these and other planets in former lifetimes and you retain a subconscious memory of them, and of the beautiful craft that you have come to call UFOs – that flew so silently and swiftly from planet to planet, yes, from one galaxy to another! You dear UFO enthusiasts have incarnated in this present, exciting time and age on Earth to help usher in this, the NEW GOLDEN AGE!

It is you who shall become the wayshowers, the ones who shall be the Light-bearers for those whose memories of these past eons of time are not so vivid; to those younger souls just coming up in their evolution and await your reaching hand.

Yes, it is you too, who, when we witness our fleet landing in the near future, shall be the ones to carry the Message, the New World Science to not only America, but to the entiré world!

And it is no happenstance that you are all gathered together now, or that many have remained steadfast to this, your cause, to help make possible the long-looked-for SPACE LANDING, to help push ajar the door which has, for far too long, been closed to your SPACE BROTHERS OF LIGHT!

These Messengers of Light would do no one harm, and are on missions of PEACE AND GOOD WILL. They have transmitted, through the channels of Unarius, the complete and total Science for the NOW EXISTENT GOLDEN AGE, and which exists in the Unarius Library in 33 volumes.

This Science is applicable to any and all fields of endeavor and we predict this Science shall become the text books for the academic schools of the world. It is, of course, nonsectarian, nondenominational, for it is NOT a religion and is not limited to any race, creed or color, but is for all mankind.

Since the arrival of the New Golden Age Cycle, the other 32 planets have received their New Age Science. This was relayed through the wondrous transmitting device we call "The Lens". As a result of the inception of these principles, the people are rapidly progressing!

Our SPACE BROTHERS have long waited and prepared well for their opportunity to come to Earth, to teach their higher ways of life. And this is the very reason their craft have frequently – yes, through the ages – been buzzing the Earth, to help man realize they mean no harm, but rather, they come in peace with love in their hearts for the earthman. They have been endeavoring to help the earthleans become accustomed to them, so they will be less fearful.

However, this fleet landing need not be an entire year into the future, for only the great fears of the earthman prevent them from landing this very day!! And, just as soon as man's fears are lessened, we shall again be able to shake the hand of our SPACE BROTHERS who have resided on worlds seemingly unreachable! They simply await us to make it possible for their arrival!

And so you say, "Why should they, such advanced Brothers, care about this planet?" To this They say, "Because the entire Universe is being stepped up in its evolutionary climb or progress, and one laggard planet will affect them all!" There must be a compatible or harmonic relationship between the entire galaxy in order for it to be possible to move forward; thus, their great interest and effort is being made! Let us extend all possible help to these, our SPACE BROTHERS and help remove the fears from our neighbors' minds. This is all they ask!

The Unarius Science has been prepared for this very time – the New Golden Age – and purpose – by the Advanced Minds on Higher Spiritual Worlds, and delivered to the earth channels, Ernest L. and Ruth E. Norman. You will find these volumes in the UNARIUS booth.

Many other transmissions (other than the existing 33 books) have been received from these Space Brothers, and we but await funds to publish these books. Your contributions will be greatly appreciated by all true seekers and bearers of the Light.

Thy love's lyric poem sings of lighted worlds beyond the boundary of visible skies
And the tones plucked by celestial purity doth breach the invisible cloud
Of longingness I have for thee!

Yet thy sojourn endeth not amongst the unheard voices
But the breathing fire of love burns deep into those quiet thoughts of open minds
And maketh of them one with spirit.

So dost thy happiness reign supreme with mine in these endeavors
For surely with our doing dost untold futures come to pass
And spread the wings of eternity ever wider – Unfolding unto itself the gossamer threads of Infinite Substance.

And the silken strands transform into the form that hath made the Universe whole – That which soars ever heavenward
beyond the golden sea.

Up, up dost thou fly to thy destiny – where, from thine own true Self Comes the song ye sing, and in the singing dost thy love-song's harmony
Find its journey's end within the heart of my soul!

BIOGRAPHY OF THE CHANNEL-MODERATOR,

RUTH NORMAN

(Our New World Teacher, Ioshanna, presents the Tesla Tower and Unarius, the New Age Science – the most spectacular event of the entire program!)

(6th Annual UFO Space and Science International Convention – June 28, 29, 30, 1974)

It was February 13, 1954 when Ruth E. Norman and (the late) Ernest met and immediately, the Unarius Mission was set in motion. Within moments after being brought together, the higher teachings and science began to flow.

Through the nearly twenty past years, Ruth has printed and published the entire twenty books which form the Unarius library, dictated by Ernest. Then August 2, 1973, the series of Tesla books began streaming into the dimension via her Consciousness.

These books carry dissertations from many former Earth scientists and other notables. Within 80 days' time were received the entire seven volumes, several of which are 500 and 600 pages. Volume 3 carries the dissertations of the many recent (late) presidents of the United States.

Ruth has printed and published the entire 33 volumes herself, carrying on mail distribution and home-study courses, akashic readings and counsel via the mail. Of late, she works with two subchannels, herself being the generator for the great Infinite Powers as she maintains constant contact with the Infinite Minds on the Higher Spiritual Worlds. Her past expressions and demonstrations serve to prove the Infinite Consciousness she has developed through the past millennium. Ruth (or Ioshanna) stands ready to prove at any time this contact with, not only the Master Minds on the Spiritual Worlds, but recently, has been in direct communication with the 32 key (earth) planets.

Volumes 4 & 5 of the "Tesla Speaks" series carry these discussions with the leaders of the other earth worlds. The thirty-two key (polarities) planets, each one, during their many hours of communication, told to her of their many and varied problems. Then, in recontacts, related of the rapid changes in their people after receiving and applying principles related by the Unarius Channel. So we have a tremendous success story in these thirty-two earth worlds, which should serve as a wayshower for the Earth people.

Among the relatings given to these 32 planets was information of the great tower or generating system. They were told how to build and erect these towers, which are from one to two thousand feet high and one-half as wide at the base, and how, with the proper components, the system would draw into them vast energies, each tower sufficient to supply an entire earth world with power – as well as to fly into the hollow energy tubes, spacecraft! To other important uses shall these great ray beams be put. All 32 planets have now their generating systems either fully or partly built and but await the time for the Earth to come along – for the Intergalactic Confederation must include all 33 worlds to be the success which is in store. Earth is invited to join in.

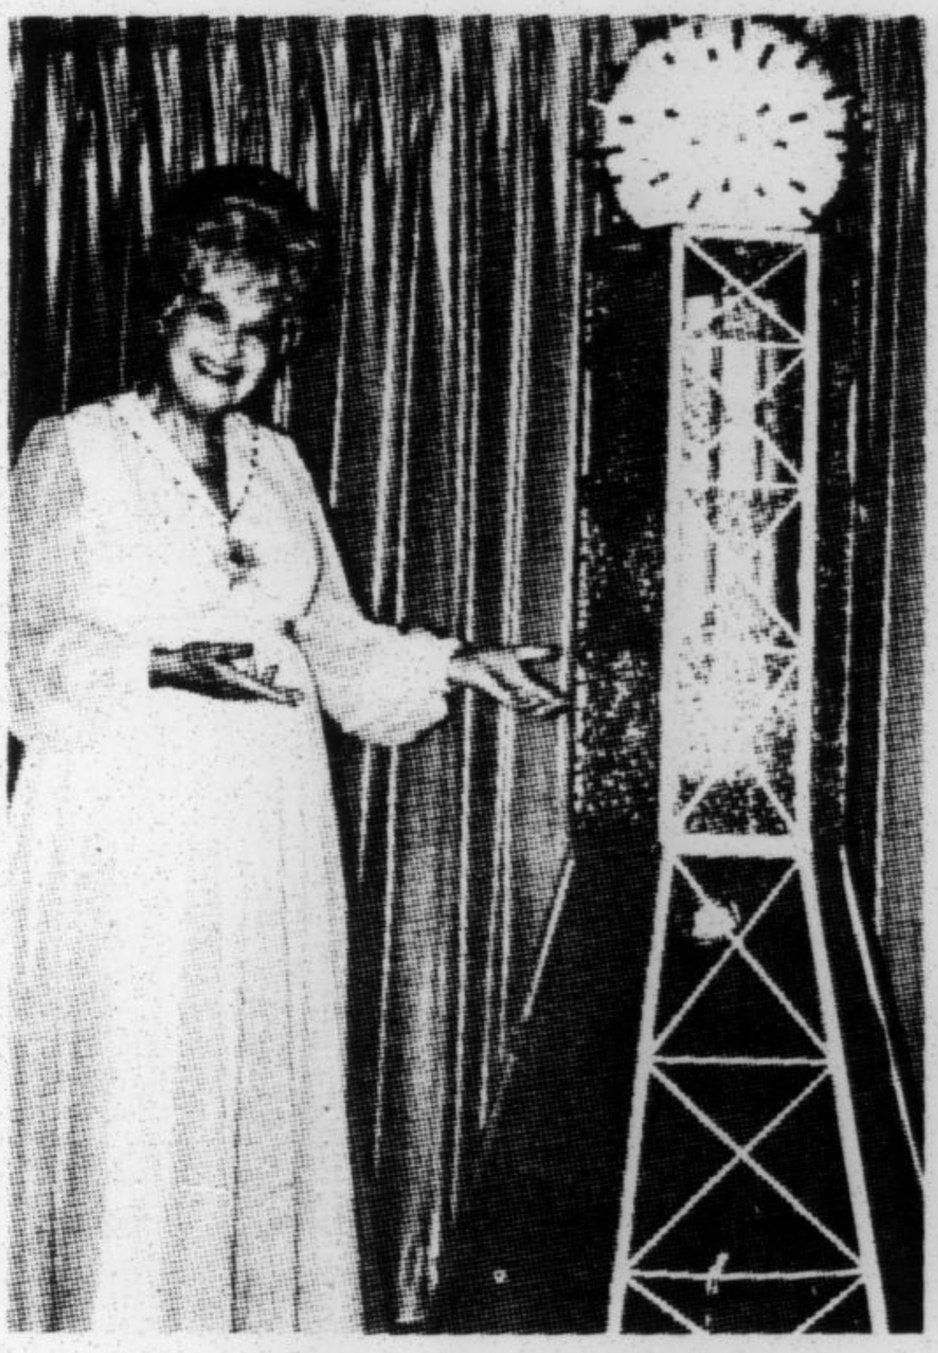

Even more important is the new model city so related from the Higher Worlds – which planets are patterned after. The Unarius mock-up city will give concrete semblance of the designs and keeping in complete harmony with all other worlds so building their cities, likewise designed.

The recorded tapes will relate further descriptions of both the model city and the generating system as you view both in the Unarius booth and rooms.

This biography could not be complete without stating that the Higher Intelligence of which Ioshanna is an extension, resides in the most High Dimensions of life and so directs and sustains the various infinite forms of life in such a manner as to precipitate and maintain the interdimensional energies of the great universal vortex so creating these very dimensions themselves. Yes, it can be said her Higher Self is expressing Infinite Creations as part of the Hierarchial-Quadrocentrics who are the sustaining Life Forces or Minds in the cosmos. Thus, to we who know her from the higher reaches of consciousness; she is the Archangel Uriel!

Ioshanna presenting the model of the generating system, the concept of an infinite energy supply, first brought into this dimension mentally by Nikola Tesla.

The original Tesla Tower, called the Wardenclyffe Tower on Long Island. Unarius will build, in the future, a tower which Tesla and the Master Mind Scientists have inspired for the New Age energy needs, from the inner worlds. The new model Tesla himself describes in the "Tesla Series" is a greatly updated version of the original.

NIKOLA TESLA'S BOLD ADVENTURE

Strange Experiments Conducted by an Electronic Wizard at the Turn of the Century.

By Harry L. Goldman

On the afternoon of May 17, 1899, inventor Nikola Tesla stepped from the train at Colorado Springs obsessed with electrifying the earth. The elite of Little London turned out to welcome the stranger from New York City and they were not disappointed – Tesla was a striking figure. His tall slenderness, wavy black hair, piercing gray eyes, and European mannerisms never failed to capture the emotions of those about him.

Of the several dignitaries who made it their business to be on hand, few were able to comprehend the significance of Tesla's visit. It was not long before the electrical wizard was able to give his audience a traumatic demonstration of his purpose.

Of the thousands who reached these shores in 1884, destiny marked Nikola Tesla, an immigrant from Yugoslavia, as one who would soon stand out from the crowd. Within a span of fifteen years, the ambitious inventor bestowed upon his adopted country a prodigious number of scientific achievements and accomplishments.

He not only gave us our present system of alternating-current power transmission, but also the invaluable a.c. motor, ideas and apparatus for industrial induction heating and welding, diathermy, with its medical applications, synchronous time mechanisms, gaseous tube lighting as in neon and fluorescent bulbs, as well as X-ray apparatus and techniques for their employment. Furthermore, Tesla established a considerable amount of the groundwork for radio communications and related fields including the science of radio-guided missiles.

At the turn of the century, when colleagues were directing their attention to moderate distance code communications, Tesla was feverishly anticipating a method of broadcasting music, speech, pictures, and newspapers to all parts of the globe. According to the inventor, his "World System" of communications would not only interconnect telegraph, telephone, and stock ticker services, but would also provide the benefits of safe and accurate navigation without the aid of compasses. Clocks throughout the world would require little attention as their operation could be radio-controlled from a master station. In addition, he claimed that it would provide personal telephone communications between parties, regardless of distance, with an incredible device small enough to be carried in one's pocket.

As though this were not enough, Tesla's World System was to incorporate the transmission of electric power without the aid of wires. Swaggering in his own inimitable manner of grandeur, the inventor predicted the feasibility of running the street cars of London and lighting the lamps of Paris by the power generated from Niagara. The implications of such a reality fermented a passion which bordered on the threshold of physical pain. "Humanity will be like an ant heap stirred up with a stick," cried the impetuous Tesla. "See the excitement coming!"

Tesla's New York experiments had become restricted by the physical limitations of his Houston Street laboratory. The four-million volt lightning-like discharges produced by his electrical transformers struck ceilings and walls. It was impossible for him to apply practical tests to his wireless transmission theory without accommodations more in proportion to the enormity of his imagination.

Evidently, Tesla's fame and stories of his scientific achievements had preceded him in his journey to the West. His arrival created quite a stir in that bustling community known "for its cosmopolite and high bred people" as well as "its reputation of always doing the right thing at the right time." Noting Tesla's arrival, the Colorado Springs "Gazette" (May 28) declared, "This week has been noticeable for the presence of distinguished personages in Colorado Springs. Tesla, the electrician, second only to Edison, if indeed to anyone,* is establishing his scientific headquarters here and will settle the question of wireless telegraphy in the weeks to come." News reporters badgered the inventor about his scientific achievements and for information pertinent to his presence in Colorado Springs.

Tesla satisfied their curiosity by informing them that he proposed "to send a message from Pike's Peak to Paris."

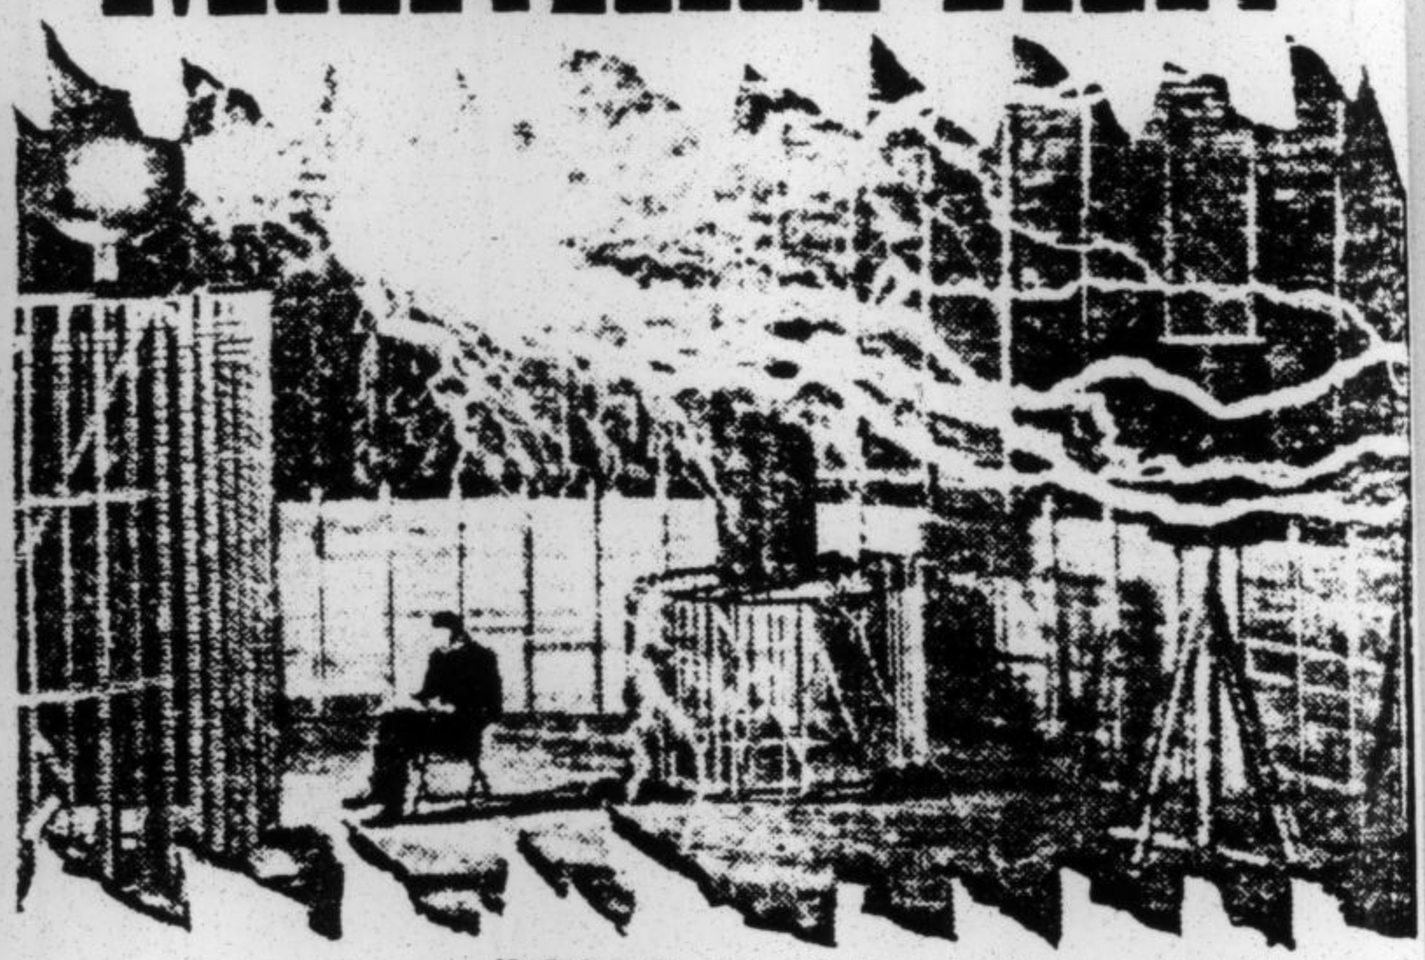

* The author of this book does not assume responsibility as to the accuracy of the statement, "second only to Edison," although this was the common understanding at that time. Edison himself gives a dissertation in "Tesla Speaks" Vol. 2 (1973) giving Tesla the credit for the many inventions initially inspired by Tesla, the genius behind it all.

THE ELECTRICAL WIZARD WHO ROCKED MANHATTAN

(At times, the Unarius students will send in newspaper clippings, as this article of Tesla, which we are always most happy to share with others.

NIKOLA TESLA ... as a young man.

INSIDE Tesla's Colorado Sorings lab his lighting arc flashes. The year — 1899.

EVERY WEEK THE STAR LOOKS BACK ON FASCINATING MOMENTS IN HISTORY

(This article is typed word for word from a newspaper clipping, telling of Nikola Tesla's inexhaustible, genius mind.)

Nikola Tesla, practically from childhood, was known as many things in the world of science. For many of his early years he was called an eccentric genius. But, by the time of his death in 1943 at the age of 86, he had truly become recognized as an electrical wizard. He perhaps first captured public attention while carrying out a minor and very small-scale experiment in his Houston Street laboratory, in the downtown area of New York City.

He created an earthquake that virtually rocked Manhattan in 1896. "It was all caused, quite unexpectedly, by a little piece of apparatus you could slip in your pocket," said Tesla." The little piece of apparatus was a mechanical oscillator which Tesla had screwed to an iron pillar in the middle of his laboratory.

VIBRATED

As the oscillator vibrated, whole buildings, sympathetic to that pitch, began to vibrate. Water pipes broke, windows shattered and furniture moved about. Finally the oscillator reached the pitch of Tesla's building and, when that too began to vibrate, he realized what was happening and destroyed the oscillator with one blow of a sledge-hammer. At that moment, the police arrived.

Tesla, not realizing that other buildings had been involved, apologized that he had no experiment in progress with which to entertain them.

Even as a child, Tesla had been something of a wizard. His first experiment in producing power took place in 1865, at the age of nine. It was a 16-bug engine.

Two thin slivers of wood, as thick as toothpicks, but longer, were glued together to form a cross. The cross was attached to a spindle with a very small pulley. A piece of thread acting as a drive belt connected this pulley with a larger pulley, also mounted on a spindle. Sixteen June bugs were glued to the cross — four to each arm. As they tried to fly away they turned the small pulley at a high speed. This turned the larger pulley at a slower speed but developed a surprisingly large amount of torque or turning power.

This first experiment came in his hometown of Smiljan which is now Yugoslavia, where he was born in 1856. The seed for his greatest invention, the one that won him fame and should have won him fortune, was planted when he was 20, while studying at the Polytechnic Institute in Gratz, Austria. The Institute had acquired a Gramme machine from Paris. When turned by mechanical power it would supply electricity; if supplied with electricity it would operate as a motor and produce mechanical power. It used, or produced, direct current (DC) electricity.

Although power sources were now more sophisticated than the batteries from which they evolved, they still produced direct current, as did the batteries.

SPARKS

The Gramme machine produced a great amount of sparking. When Tesla suggested that using alternating current (AC) could solve the sparking problem, his professor ridiculed him. His father's death put an end to his studies and he applied for work on the installation of Bell's new invention, the telephone, then being installed in Budapest. He was given a job as a draftsman in the Central Telegraph Office, but his outstanding abilities soon attracted attention and he was placed in charge of the telephone. Here, he made his first practical invention — the telephone repeater or amplifier.

In 1882, while walking in a park with a friend, the solution came to him "in a flash." He never used the trial and error method of experimentation; he worked almost entirely in his head, visualizing the machine he was working on until it was perfect.

While walking in the park he had been working on his AC machine. Suddenly it was finished. "Watch me," he called to his friend. "There is no sparking – I have solved the problem." He had conceived the idea of a rotating magnetic field dragging the armature around with it. He moved to Paris and joined the Continental Edison Co., which was making dynamos, motors, and installing lighting systems under Edison patents.

By 1883 he had managed to build an AC motor but he was told that he didn't understand "our American humor". He resigned immediately.

Then a group of promoters offered to set up a company in Tesla's name if he would invent a practical arc light for street and factory illumination. He did this within the year, but found he still lacked the money or influence to get his AC motor into production. He received a very small salary from the company. After the arc light was developed, Tesla's backers forced him out of the company. For the next year, until the spring of 1887, Tesla worked as a laborer for $2 a day.

The foreman of his gang, also working below his accustomed level, introduced Tesla to Mr. A. K. Brown of the Western Union Telegraph Co. who, with a friend, supplied the money needed for Tesla to produce his AC system. As rapidly as the machines could be constructed Tesla produced three complete systems of AC machinery – for single phase, two-phase, and three-phase currents.

IMPRESSED

George Westinghouse, also an inventor and head of the Westinghouse Electric Co. in Pittsburgh, was very impressed with Tesla's invention and gave him $1 million for the patents plus a royalty of 1¢ per horsepower produced when the machines went into production. Although it was basically one invention, the idea was so radical that the U.S. Patent Office regarded it as 40 inventions, and issued 40 patents.

Tesla went with his invention to Pittsburgh, but felt that his advise was being ignored. Although he was offered a salary of $24,000 a year and a third of the net income of the company, Tesla returned to New York in 1889, anxious to get on with his research on an AC power system. Half the million dollars went to Brown and his friend who had financed the AC machine, but Tesla was still a wealthy man. He lived fastidiously and well, but he was a man devoted to science. He never married – dedicating his life and wealth to his work.

In 1890 he developed the principle of tuning, without which modern radio would be impossible. The combination of condenser discharge (invented by Lord Kelvin in 1856) and tuned circuits opened a new realm in electrical science.

The first public application of Tesla's alternating current system was made at the Chicago World's Fair, the Columbian Exposition of 1893, the first World's Fair to use electric lighting. Unfortunately his backers didn't share his dream and faced with bankruptcy, Tesla was forced to abandon the project.

BREAK

When the New York State Prison authorities adopted high voltage AC for the electrocution of condemned prisoners, Tesla believed that Edison interests had engineered the project to discredit his system. DC was safer only because it was unable to carry high voltages for any distance from the generator. The 1896 completion of the Niagara power plan was another break for Tesla. A charter was granted to the International Niagara Commission in 1886 to develop power from the Niagara Falls.

Lord Kelvin, the chairman of the commission, favored direct current although this would mean that transmission of power to Buffalo, 22 miles away, would be totally unfeasible. Finally bids were called and both Westinghouse and General Electric (successor to Edison General Electric Co.) submitted proposals to install a Tesla alternating current generating system.

ROYALTIES

The Westinghouse powerhouse plan and the General plan for the transmission lines were accepted. The Tesla system provided electricity to industry throughout the Falls and Buffalo areas and made transmission of power to New York City a possibility.

While the world was accepting his AC system, Tesla was already working on his next project – wireless transmission of power. The wireless had to wait when a fire destroyed Tesla's laboratory in 1895 and with it, his financial resources.

The head of the J.P. Morgan group, a Mr. Adams, formed a new company to finance Tesla's experiments. In 1897 the Electrical Review reported that Tesla had constructed both a transmitting apparatus and an electrical receiver for electrical communications without wires. Then in December, 1901, Marconi transmitted the letter 's' across the Atlantic with devices smaller and far less complex than those Tesla was building.

Tesla was forced to confess that his true intention was the wireless transmission of electrical power. On January 7, 1943, at the age of 86, he died – as he had lived – alone.

Ioshanna to Michiel

Were I the daisy and Thou the honey bee,
and Thou wouldst my nectar sup,
You'd drink each drop and taste it twice,
and there, in fair caprice,
I'd tend within my petals fair to Thee entwine, and hold Thee fast, Until it was my strength had waned,
and dropped, my petals fair become!

PROGRAMME

Saturday July 27 – 9:30 AM to 10:30 PM

9:30 AM	Registration . . . meet friends from past lifetimes!
10:00 AM	Opening: Invocation given by Dr. Phiroze Nazir. Welcome and Power projection by the Unarius Moderator, Ioshanna.
10:15 AM	Unveiling and description of the Four Archangels of the Universe by Kenneth Bond.
10:30 AM	Display of the Model City of the future and the Generating Tower. Discussion of its great importance in the New Golden Age and explanation of relation to key planets in the galaxy. Description of Model City by Bob Hanson. Generating System's function is described by Thomas Miller.
11:15 AM	Pyramid Cosmic Energy Form: talk by Bill Cox. Dowsing and the pyramid with its relationship to healing. Phiroze Nazir to speak on Extended Awareness.
12:00 AM	Don Showen will give a talk on Biofeedback.
1:15 PM	Unveiling of the Mona Lisa Painting and presentation of the real Mona Lisa. Narrated by Vaughn Spaegel.
2:00 PM	Oscilloscope – TV set. Showing similarity in principle to man, by Benno Eichmann.
2:45 PM	Ioshanna will contact a Higher Spiritual Brother – A Surprise Guest!!
3:15 PM	Unarius book reviews by Unarius students, Sanosun & Christine. Inspirational verse and music.
3:45 PM	Unveiling of Replica of Archangel Uriel and the Healing Angel of the Universe. Music of the Spheres.
4:00 PM	Tom Reed will speak about his overcomings and show illustrated slides of the energy body.
4:30 PM	Crystalography Display: An exciting, colorful, light creation in living action by William Finch of AZ.
5:30 PM	Movies: Films on Hidden World; Leonardo do Vinci; Magnetic Force – revealing, exciting, educational!
7:30 PM	Student Testimonials: Rachel Kadan & Helen Moore.
8:00 PM	Tesla Coil Demonstration by David Reynolds.

8:30 PM Talk about energy by Gabriel Greene.

9:00 PM Ballet International: "Swan Lake".

9:30 PM Rev. Consuela Herod to speak of Unarius Science.

10:00 PM Verse by Archangel Michiel: Voice by Tom Miller.

10:30 PM Healing Projection by Ioshanna.

* * *

SUNDAY, JULY 28

10:00 AM Opening of the program and Power Projection given by Unarius Moderator, Ioshanna.

10:30 AM Taped Speech of the Moderator, Ioshanna, given at the UFO Convention in June, 1974.

11:00 AM "Possession & Self-Exorcism" – Rev. C. Marcoux.

11:45 AM Unarius Book Reviews: By Vaughn Spaegel.

12:00 Noon Cosmogenic Art: Oil painting by the hand. Demonstrated by Daluciel.

12:30 PM Tesla's poetry recited by Thomas.

1:00 PM Electronics Demonstration: The incredible Laser & Hologram Demonstration by Bruce Wegmann.

2:00 PM Questions and Answers.

2:30 PM "Unarius: Space, Time & Deity", by M. Bertiaux. "The Golden Age Regeneration of Religion in the Unariun Cycle", by Marc Lully of New York.

3:00 PM Pendulum Demonstration to determine obsession, by William Finch.

4:00 PM Movies: Visual display of Universe with sound track of recorded teachings, by Ernest L. Norman.

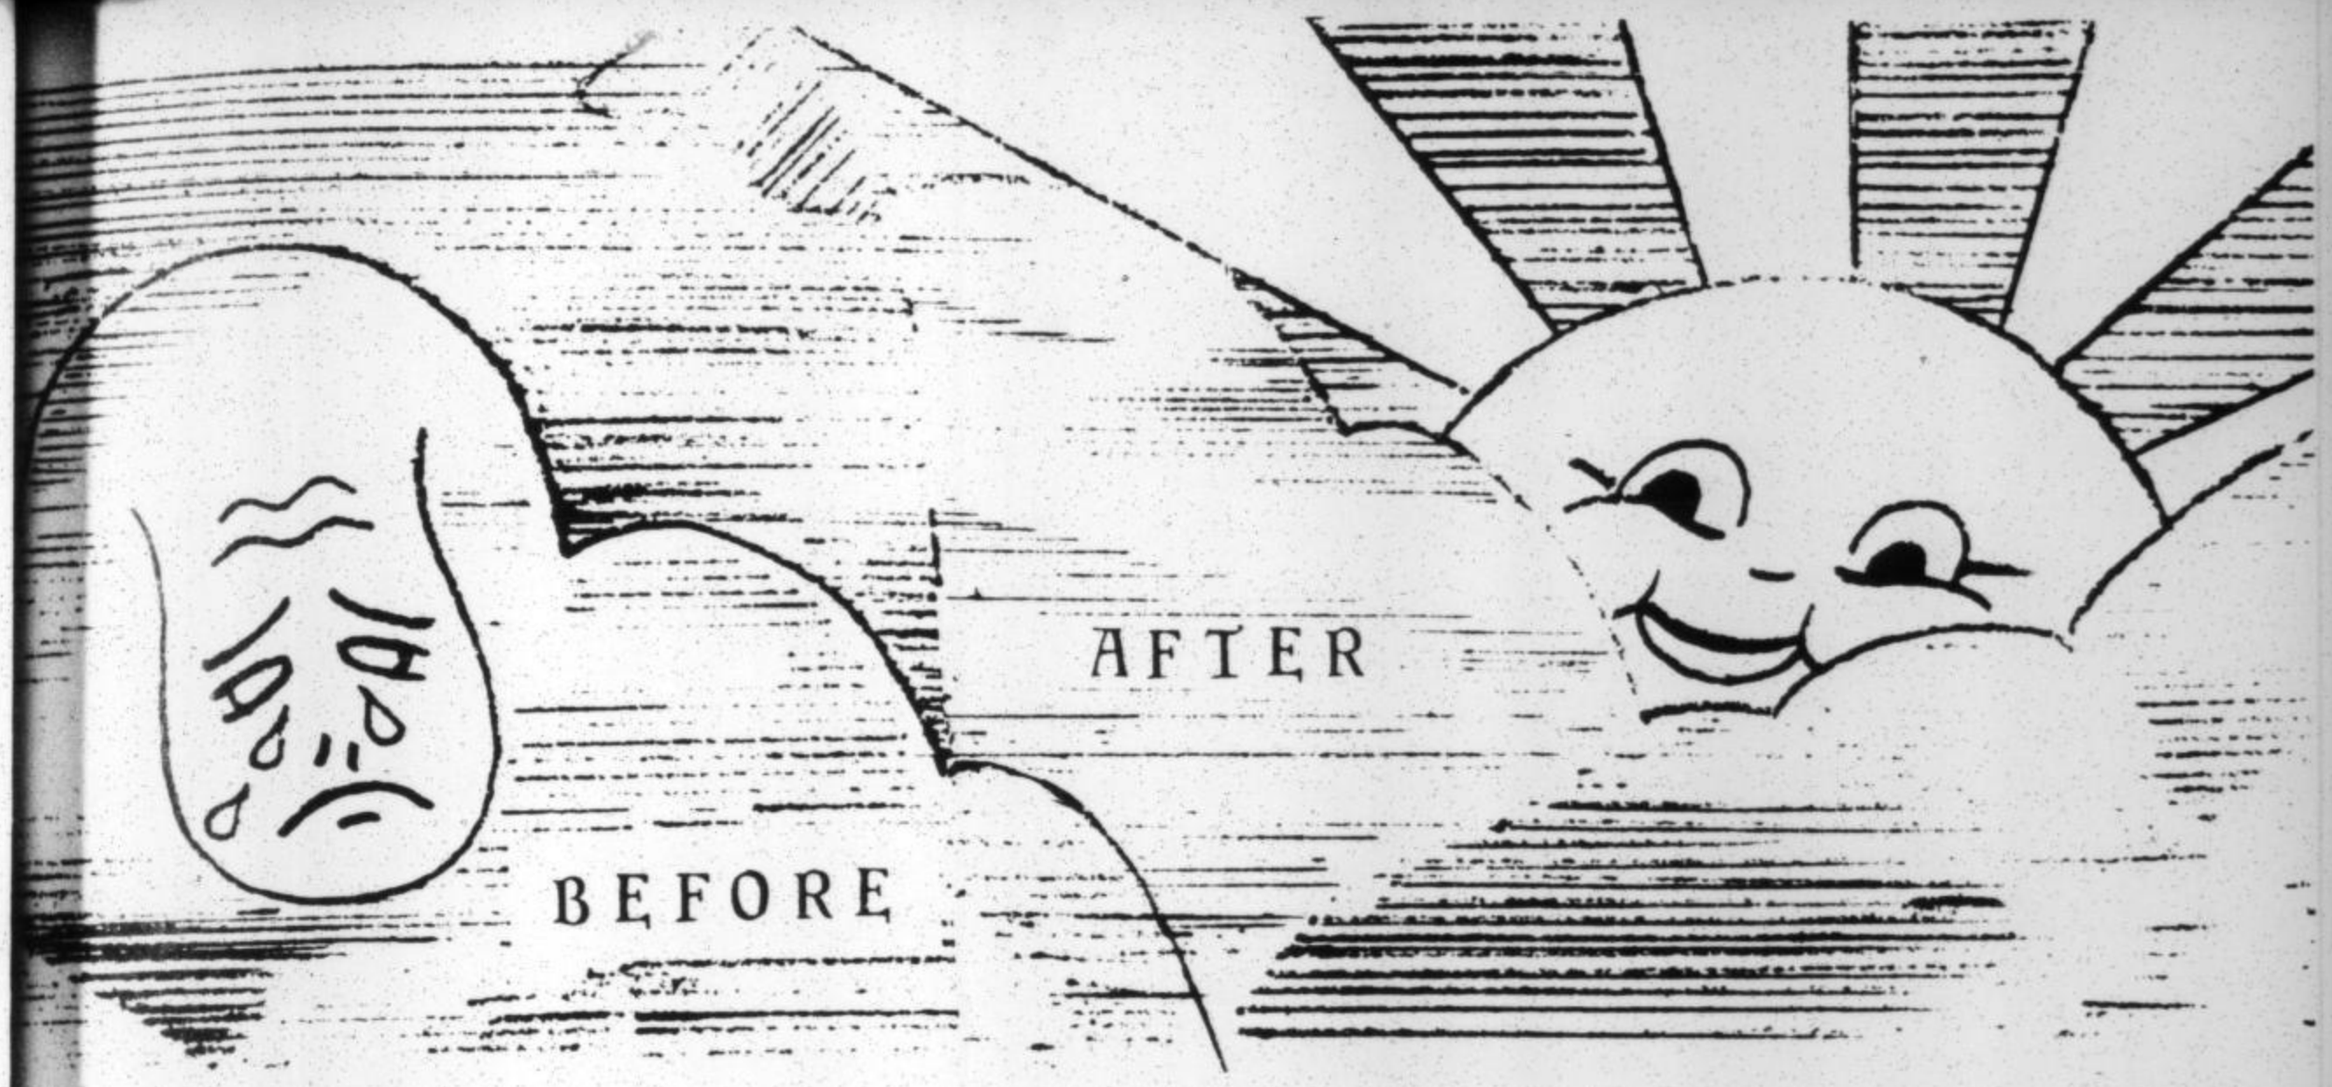

6:30 PM Tone Poems with Music, by Ernest & Ruth Norman.

7:45 PM Former life readings through T. Miller for audience.

8:20 PM Crystal Mountain Healing Tape, by Swedenborg.

9:30 PM Reappearance of Archangel Uriel to give Power Projection for Healing.

Note: (We may find it necessary to change, in some small degree, the program time schedule, but shall hold to the above as closely as possible.)

TESTIMONIAL SECTION

Recently, I have been feeling very much alone, despite the company of others, and have been exhausted, no matter how much or how little I did. Feelings of resentment have run high here at the Annex; struggling to overcome various kinds of control, and trying to get some sort of steady inflow of money have seemed impossible.

Jeff Swanson

Last night, both Jewel and myself felt like orphans in an orphanage, clinging to one another for support and playing jokes and pranks when we dared to. The bed Helen bought me is about a foot too short for me and although I am very grateful for it, yet it gives me nightmares! I toss and turn, seem constantly about to fall off of it, feel guilty for sleeping yet stay in bed as long as I can and almost always wake up with a headache in the morning.

It finally came to a head this morning when I awoke enraged after a nightmare. In the dream, my family was completely enslaved by what I assumed to be villainous types, but worst of all, they were living on opium or heroin and subsequently turned into zombies. I vowed revenge and went hunting! – which is when I woke up with less than congenial feelings toward Helen. I was certain she had enslaved my family and me, and turned them into senseless brutes. Needless to say, this is not the way to say good morning and I deemed it prudent to read the Lessons Course book of Unarius for awhile, until I could maneuver a little more rationally.

I could hear Helen crashing around at the back of the house, but she seemed to be avoiding me and even when she finally came out through the living room on her way out the door, she was most unwilling to look at me. I assumed that she felt guilty and got even angrier!

Then Rachel (another Unarius student) called and allowed me to defuse over the phone. As I tried to explain things to her, (she said, "How are you?") I became more certain that I had been a child at the time of the industrial revolution and like many, had been forced because of family setbacks, to enter a poor house. The family was broken up except perhaps for Jewel and me, or we may not have been related but only sought refuge in one another. In exchange for the barest necessities of life we worked until we were ready to drop and were looked down upon as almost subhuman. At that time, opium was readily available and I am certain, used to placate the physical needs of the workers. Being young, we were not given any, but the atmosphere and the psychic aura of the situation affected me greatly. I resented the killing of the inner for the enslavement of the outer to such a degree that I came to hate with a fury. This has carried over into this life in many ways. Although involved in the drug culture previously, I was always opposed to opium in any form and all addicting drugs; opposed to such a degree that I cooperated on many occasions with the police – a cultural taboo to the nth degree! I was very sympathetic to those trapped but resentful of those deliberately killing the spirit of so many.

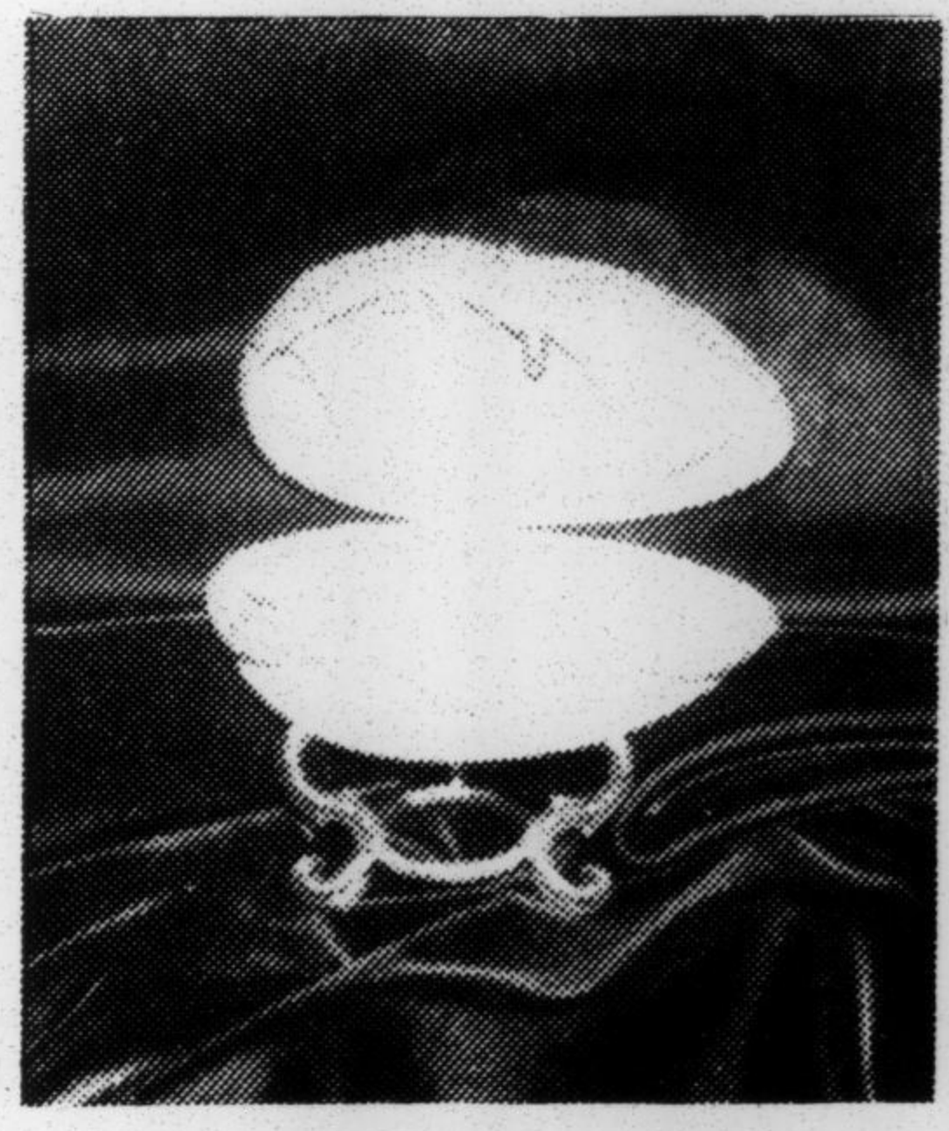

This cycle has manifested itself in the form of chronic poverty ever since I came anywhere near the drug culture – just as it has for many others – that a great portion of the drug problem and unemployment problem is a reliving for many at the time of the industrial revolution is not at all unreasonable in my mind. This "chronic poverty" is with me now. Despite sums amounting to almost one thousand dollars which should have manifested themselves long ago, there is nothing but the feeling that I'll never get out of the hole. The deplorable living conditions and complete aversion to work typical of this culture once again points to a reliving of this cycle. The tiny bed represents benches or anything else I could find to get myself up off of the floor to keep from getting a deadly chill.

My resentment has for the most part dissipated and I am eager to get to work, confident that my difficulties can be resolved just as can any problem when infinite principles from within are applied. I am certain that I have been provided with skills more than adequate for the provision of my bodily needs if I will only release them and let them go to work! I am certain I can get a good night's sleep too! — no matter what size the bed! It seems apparent that my compulsive eating stems from the great hunger I experienced at that time also. I feel better!

(A short time later) Within 24 hours of this "poorhouse" workout, a check for $435.00 arrived — proving positively, Principle works!)

July 6, 1974

After receiving the Unarius literature and ordering the books in toto, I began to read about half a dozen of them at once — there were so many areas of questioning answered by each book that I could not bear not to be reading any one of them. The result was quite predictable; having had a glimpse of what was go-on in this world, and its neighbors, not to mention interwoven dimensions, there was simply no way to stay away from 'where the action is'!

The very first thing that I did upon meeting Ioshanna was to put into her hand a tiny pearl which I had gotten at Sea World in San Diego. It seemed very important to me that she have it as a symbol of I knew not what. She accepted it in her gracious way but with a wee bit of a quizzical look and then the matter seemed to be over with. It was, however, far from over with. Two days later, while shopping for decorations for the mock-up of the Model City, I expressed a desire for pearls, reams and reams of pearls to build a temple entirely of pearls! "We're going to have to get to the bottom of this!" Ioshanna laughed.

She was, of course, as good as her word. Less than an hour later in a crowded restaurant, the Brothers came through and answered Ioshanna's query as to my fascination for pearls. I had been one of those who had assisted in the building of the Taj Mahal; specifically, I had been in charge of the implanting of fine jewels upon the inner walls and upon the tomb itself. As a reward, the Emperor Shah Jahan gave to me the largest, most exquisite and perfect pearl known to man. The great love of the Shah which had inspired each of us in our work came once again to the fore and I asked that I be allowed to contribute the pearl to this monument of love.

(The beautiful love that existed between the two, Shah Jahan and his wife, Mumtaz Mahal, inspired him to have built this most awe-inspiring monument in her honor; however, she changed worlds shortly before the Taj Mahal was completed. Jeff, who in that lifetime helped to decorate the inside of the temple, had such admiration for Mumtaz, that upon receiving the wondrous pearl, he humbly placed it on top of her casket in the tomb. So when he arrived at the Center for the first time, he placed a pearl in the hands of Ioshanna, who had lived the life of Mumtaz! Shah Jahan later lived the life of the beloved poet, Kahlil Gibran, who still expresses exquisite poetry to Ioshanna from the Higher Worlds.) – Ioshanna

About one week later came a knock at the door and Christine (one of the students) walked in with an eggery set, beautifully colored and covered in pearls! This was the same eggery set which had tuned me into the tomb, as I had seen it at the shop where we had gotten the decorations! Inside the decorated egg was the little pearl that I had given her, the interior lined with satin, beautifully scented and complete with a beautiful poem stating that which Ioshanna radiates – the realization that the pearl of great price is not a thing that you can hold in your hand, but only in your heart. It is peace of mind. Thank you, Beloved One, for your Infinite gift of realization – Jeff

And here is the beautiful poem which Ioshanna gave to Jeff, written by the Moderator, Ernest L. Norman.

THE PEARL OF GREAT PRICE

There was the woodsman who dwelt in the forest with his wife, that she did bear him a son,
And he grew up to be a stalwart lad,
strong of heart and clear of eye.
Now it came to him as he slept, and in a vision, that he saw a lustrous gem,
a pearl of great and wondrous size!

So it came to pass that he must go upon the face of all lands
And cross the rivers and the seas thereof so that he might seeketh out this priceless pearl.
Yet none he asked and all he saw,
knew not of such a gem.

And so it was, that he did come where stood a great and wondrous temple - That sitting there within the lofty pillared hall were many of the great and wise old men.
And each did proffer him a jewel -
a jewel of wealth, a jewel of power,
Or a jewel of many of the things that are of earthly desire.

Though he saw them there in all their blazing glory, he liked them not,
For as he touched them,
all did crumble from his touch.
And so he cryeth out in anguish and despair,
and fleeth from the moated palace walls.

Now, once again beneath the forest shade,
he did seek to wet his anguished brow
and slack his thirst in shaded pool,
But ere his lips did touch the cooling waters
mirrored there,
Within his heart he saw reflected there,
a great and beauteous pearl!
As he looked in wondrous awe,
he saw that words were written there -
The words that would remain unto him
the lasting glory of all time,
For these were simply, "Peace of Mind".

(The photo on page 48 is of the eggery art, which is actually an ostrich egg, halved, painted in blue, decorated with blue satin and white pearls. This was purchased by Ioshanna for Jeff Swanson, to help him to further polarize the past, for this egg art, so beautifully decorated, helped to bring inphase, the casket in which Jeff, in that past, placed the pearl. The egg art is, in miniature, the casket!)

During the 1974 Flying Saucer Convention in Anaheim, I was privileged to see at least a portion of the Power that our Beloved Ioshanna packs on behalf of the Unarius Brotherhood. As she spoke on the main stage, I began to feel the intense heat and the perspiration began to flow more and more; my body seemed to become less and less a part of me. I could hear Ioshanna speaking and reflected briefly that she wasn't watering things down a bit for these people; whether they got the message immediately or not was not important – it had been implanted in their psychic anatomies in full force.

The words became less and less perceivable to me as the power stepped up and up until it seemed I was bathing in energies! The air seemed filled with tiny flashing lights and suddenly I saw it! A tremendous vortex of energies directly in front of Ioshanna and encompassing the entire auditorium! The top of this vortex seemed to go clear through the ceiling and yet I could see it pouring in and billowing out to encompass the entire planet, it seemed!

Amazed, I watched as small vortexes (relatively speaking) rushed up and down the auditorium. They were ten or twelve feet high and more of a gold than the larger one which seemed to be both white and a combination of all colors! As I looked to Ioshanna again, she seemed bathed in Light and I realized that it was both like being under water and at the same time, being very light-headed! The energy seemed about to burst my head and all was silent except for Ioshanna's voice which was clear and strong. I was drenched and there seemed to be no such thing as time, only those fantastic vortexes which were sailing up and down the room around the Great One. Somehow the speech ended and I helped Ioshanna backstage, all the while exploding with enthusiasm.

She was quite calm and very cheerful about what was to me, the most fantastic energy projection in the history of man! Out in the halls the people all seemed to have just come from the shower; even the air looked scrubbed and sparkling! As for myself, I was beaming and floating, bursting with a positiveness that is immaculately logical, yet painfully rare. This moment lives in Infinity, I know, and many shall be the time that I will visit and draw from it. Once again, I am so very grateful for your gift of realization! Thank you, forever!

My dear Ioshanna — I am so grateful for Volume 4 of the "Tesla Speaks" series that you so kindly sent me. It is enthralling; it is magnificent! No words can describe it! One goes out and joins the energy waves as you so oscillate the many planets!

These series must spur this planet I am sure, as nothing else will. There is a definite change in people's facial expression, compared to the look of gloom they expressed a couple of years ago – so noticeable as I ride the bus or the subway. The trees and plants have a brighter lustre. People go to the different parks now without much fear, as I see them lie on blankets and on the grass to relax. That was unknown here a couple of years ago; in fact, a few years back, the people were advised to keep away from the parks here because no end of destructive incidents would occur there to people just walking through the park.

I am sure that in the years to come, there will be a greater change as the spacecraft from the other planets visit us. People will begin to stir.

Beauty and Love in abundance,

Ellen French

NATIONAL ENQUIRER

A TESTIMONIAL OF LIBERATION

By Vaughn Spaegel

July 4, 1974

This is a personal experience from which I have suffered, and I must say that it was quite discomforting; one that has assailed me for the greater part of my life. This problem has always taken place when there is a need to address any group of people and a preparation is necessary, to give some kind of message or a statement to an audience. I would stammer and stumble, mumble and groan as I became more conscious of what it was that I was saying, and would attempt to analyze each word before voicing it. The effect would be a dragging out or halting effect to the message because I was always conscious of all the eyes looking at me and was conscious of the need to be very certain that what was said would be correct – at least, I thought so. I have been told in no uncertain terms that when I attempt to speak in public, there is too much ego consciousness and that my message is lost because of the slowness in delivery and the impersonality, a lack of feeling. What came through was not the content of the message, but was the fearful feeling of myself run rampant and the frequencies were very negative because of the attunement from the subconscious.

The unusual part of this is that ordinarily, I enjoy speaking to groups of people if it means speaking of myself or giving my ego an opportunity to express, but when it means speaking to the public about an important message, particularly one where it means that I have to let go of myself and let come through the full understanding of the higher frequencies which would be a part of the talk, and when all eyes are upon me, somehow I shrink within and subconsciously feel judged.

Just recently, while I was rehearsing a talk to be given about the true identity of the Mona Lisa and Ioshanna was sitting in front of me, and I in a chair, that I had the same feeling and I had completed a portion of the talk when she stopped me and said, "Vaughn, you're not on trial." I thought of this and exclaimed to myself, "But that's just how I feel; I am on trial," and yet there was no reason to feel this way because it was only Ioshanna who was listening and helping me prepare the talk in a manner which would be straight from my own heart, giving the full description of my personal experience in the way I felt when I attuned to the past of Leonardo da Vinci.

Directly on these words, "You're not on trial," I saw psychically myself in the prisoner's dock, facing many judges, it seemed to me, who were sitting on an elevated platform. All around me were vast throngs of people both sitting and standing and listening, while one of the officials was reading from a long scroll, the indictments which had been prepared. This took place in the 14th Century in France when I, as a supposed leader of a country, had worked only for myself and against the people, keeping them in the bonds of ignorance and holding them back from their own progressive evolution.

Again I saw the court scene some 15,000 B.C., at a time when Atlantis was in the midst of its greatness and I was on trial, being presented to the vast assemblage here by the court. At the time I had lived as a priest who had accumulated much political power while using information to my own advantage and through devious means had developed great powers which had now come back full cycle to me. The many who had suffered at my hands had allied themselves together to bring me to justice to account for these crimes against the state and the Infinite.

Now I do know why I have always felt the need to search for the proper words in presenting a talk and why I felt conscious of the people in front of me as I stood up on the podium and how I would feel uncomfortable with my delivery. I felt fearful and inadequate. It is now quite obvious that I tuned to these past lives and felt I was under trial, and to protect myself against those indictments, I would make my own defense, searching for the words which would present in some ways, the possibility that these indictments were incorrect; in other words, I would rationalize and try to evade the truth that was being brought in these indictments against me. In this way, I could fabricate a different picture and attempt to defend myself on my own presentations.

There are many other aspects to this being judged and standing on trial; being confronted by authority has always been with me, this great feeling of resentment to authoritarian figureheads, whether it be the government or individuals who would, in ways, direct me to complete some task. It always tuned me back to these times when I was on the other side and was a defendant or an individual who was standing under the cold glare of truth as it was being projected to me to tear away the falseness of the facade that I had erected. And so the other side of the wave form was now being experienced and has been experienced by me in this lifetime where I have felt very discomforted and these feelings generally would demonstrate themselves as deep anger and resentment and a feeling of being persecuted. In fact, this persecution complex alone has been a great factor in my life and has caused me much difficulty and much emotionalism. So this looking back at this past which has always been the nemesis of my difficulty in being completely free to speak, constantly being held up because of the possibility that I would say the wrong thing and the disclosure of my true identity should be revealed if I did not fabricate pretty words to build up my defenses to protect myself from the truth and to distract the attention of the listeners from the real me. This has always been the thorn in my flesh and has now been unlocked with the recognition of this past being "on trial" and the objectification about this experience. I now know why I have had this block and inability to speak from the heart and without any consideration given to the words as they would follow one another.

Now this past negative experience cannot oscillate to the conscious mind in a negative manner. This information is now out of phase as a positive bias has been projected by this recognition of the past and the positive energies which were oscillated at that point of recognition by my mental consciousness and by the Brothers on the Inner; thus a cancellation and healing was manifested! I can say that this healing, along with the many, many others I have received, is to me one of the greatest, because it means freedom in so many ways from the bondage of these past oscillations of my negative past. And here we have constantly placed in front of us the validity of the Unarius Science, just how energy manifests itself constantly, eternally, oscillating from our past and how this past can now be unlocked and free each one of us from the negations which we have expressed for so many thousands of years! Thus with the cancellation, healing results and we take one step further into the bright light, which is Unarius and life itself, and the higher worlds beckon us on.

My thanks to the great Brotherhood, to our Unarius Channel, Ioshanna, for the constant loving Infinite Expression which is directed to we students who certainly would be involved even that much more in our negative past were we not have been given this opportunity to become students of this, the Science of Life, and help in all ways with the Mission of the Brothers of Unarius.

TRUE LIFE EXPERIENCES

By Christine Veazey

This is a true life story. It shockingly hits home for everyone, for yes, everyone has lived through these same experiences. It is the story of karmic ties and psychic pressures. It is the real story, the 'behind the scenes' of life lived and relived, lifetime after lifetime. There is a piece in this for everybody, for I have experienced the same trials and errors, learnings and relearnings as all my dear brothers and sisters everywhere.

We all know how it feels to lose a loved one, don't we? It leaves us stark naked, helpless, numb and frightened, when we don't know what life is all about. "What is there left?" we ask. Do we blame others? Do we blame ourselves with self-flagellation, torturous persecutions from the awful guilt? Or do we blame God? Do we turn in every direction but the right direction? Yes, thousands upon thousands of painful thoughts being blown through the mind like leaves being mercilessly ripped from the tree, scattered by a tempest storm, to settle in unfriendly places, to be trampled and crushed. Why did this have to happen to me! Is there no relief; is there no end? I wish I were dead...and it can go on and on!

Of course, if one ever lives through an ordeal like this (and many don't) they often wonder how they ever made it. Death. What is death? What is life and why are we here? What happens when we die? What a dirty trick someone played...so we bought a jigsaw puzzle called life, but we got gypped because, try as we will, none of the pieces fit! Everybody gives advice...this piece goes here; put that there. But the advice is all wrong! You can't throw the puzzle away because it's you...but you're fed up with trying! Now what?

I'll tell you a story about a father and a daughter, two brothers and a mother. And to let you know a little ahead of time, the daughter found her way out of the hole, and the rest of the family is on its way – a truly happy ending but an even better and greater beginning.

Twenty-six years ago, a youngster named Christine came bouncing into the world. The father was planning on her, the expected one, being a girl – even insisted that she be named Christine even before she had arrived! But this is not the first time they had been together or with the other members of the family. They had been, unknowingly, together for many lifetimes, trying to free themselves of the ties from out of the past. But what do people do when they don't know they are reliving a past life experience? They relive it and add more to it and, finally, simply being born is like walking into a death trap! I can tell you of some certain poor souls who have been murdering each other for thousands of lifetimes in different ways because of a resentment from hundreds of thousands of years ago, hatred which has been strengthened to monstrous proportions, and lasted and multiplied to this very day! This is what happens when people are ignorant of the Science of Life, and they don't know how to free themselves.

But to return you to the story – the daughter and the father were very close. They looked alike, had the same interests, the same talents, and it was just found out that they were soul mates (by an akashic reading). The father was a carpenter; Bill was his name. It was comical to see this big, husky man ask the little kid of ten, "Now, what color do you think I should paint this room?" This was a fun game because he would just want to prove to himself how accurate they were together. Christine, out of a selection of 8 or 10 different shades of a color, would invariably pick his choice! – (which shows how a polarity can function together, as one.) Unfortunately, a close relationship between father and daughter often sprouts jealousy between mother and daughter. The girl developed many perplexing to herself feelings – resentment, confusion, but mostly guilt that she had such a possessive feeling towards or about her dad, and disliked the mother at times for "intruding". This led to bitter quarrels later in life! But all this could have been understood and resolved, had the family known of the Unarius Science. Then they would have understood the reason for these feelings and emotions; years of unnecessary emotionalisms and conflicts could have been avoided.

Along about the age of 12, the girl's father killed himself in a moment of completely being dragged under by his many obsessions and the lower astral forces. For four or five years, Bill had been fighting a battle with his lower self – the many problems from out of his own past lives. Finally, he started drinking to relieve his psychic pressures, which started a whirlpool descent and brought in more negative astral entities (earthbound, lost souls) than he could handle. They hooked up to his psychic anatomy like parasites and drained what little energy he had left. Finally, he hit a cycle where he had committed suicide in past lifetimes, the pull and the push being too great, and he went under with it again.

But a few years later, when Christine was talking to her aunt (Bill's sister), the aunt related how, even when Bill was just a little three-year-old, a kind man happened to stop by and talk to this little one who was moving too close to the edge of a bridge! The man seemed to sense that the child was ready to go over and coaxed him away and brought him home. The young one was suffering repercussions over a fight he had just witnessed between the mother and father, and thinking it was his own fault, tried to do away with himself. This is how possessed he was and how he had built up these suicidal thought-form tendencies to the extent that even shortly after he entered the physical body, he became obsessed to the point of wanting to leave again! (No one ever wants to do such a thing if he is in his right mind. This is the direct result of astral obsession, of which science and medicine are just now beginning to wonder about.) The father triggered such a guilt response in the child that he almost succeeded in "pushing" the boy out of the physical world. When these two souls were together in the physical, each felt the unexplainable and obsessive desire to end the life simply by the psychic attunement with each other, the subconscious reminder of what they had been causing one another to do probably for many lifetimes. Then if one or the other was in the adjacent dimension, the pull would be inextricably more overwhelming. These two souls never had a chance since the first suicide!

Now the family had been gone when he took his life (Bill, Christine's father). Christine "knew" that something was terribly wrong. A great sense of emptiness and loss rushed in upon her while she and the family were eating in a restaurant, a state of panic. When the family got home, she frantically began searching the house for the father. She went from room to room calling, ran across the street to the neighbors to see if he was there, looked all around, and finally she spied the father's boat. She knew, she absolutely knew beyond a doubt, that he was in that boat. Up to the boat she crept on tiptoed feet, climbed up the side and looked over the edge. There he was. He had taken his life while they were gone. But this is what happened to the girl when he changed worlds. Half of her psychic anatomy went over to the other side with him! Of course, this would happen, they being soul mates and she not knowing how to maintain her own individuality.

You've heard about lost souls, earthbound entities? A soul doesn't have to be on the other side to be earthbound or a lost soul, who can't find his way to his destination. There are multitudes of old and senile people, where the majority of the psychic anatomy is in another dimension, but there are just enough syncing pulses to keep the physical going on this earth plane. This is what happened to Christine. For seven whole years she was bumping around here on the world, confused as confused could be – nothing made sense. She slept 14, 16, 18 hours a day because she was really mostly on the other side with her father! Sometimes it got so bad that when she did go to school, she had to force herself to concentrate very hard, just to remember how to maneuver herself from class to class, but sometimes she'd get lost. Unable to think, her grades dropped and she was a D-student, and she was always in the counselor's office being tormented and threatened with ultimatums.

Resentment upon bitterness and inferiority complexes by the dozens built up until this girl hated the world and despised everything and everybody. Finally, she began thinking to herself about suicide. Little did she consciously know that it was her own father, because of his loneliness, pulling her to the other side! Incredible but true! Of course, the father did not know in his psychically debilitated state, that he was weakening this girl's will to survive her earth world life, nor did she. (It might be added here that two individuals involved in a relationship do not have to be soul mates for a complication of this nature to take place. In fact, any two people with karmic ties can attract each other from dimension to dimension. This is how souls are attracted, through frequency relationship to each other, lifetime after lifetime, to work out karma.)

About the age of 19, the Unarius Brotherhood guided Christine to a psychic counselor named Elsie (whom she had known in a past lifetime, or they wouldn't have come together this time) and this woman, sensing the girl's needful state, began bringing the girl to confront herself with the psychic shock of her father's departure. The woman could see that the girl was all "hooked up" with the father and helped her to realize the ensnaring entanglement that both souls were hopelessly entrapped in, until they would consciously let each other go. This was the first time in the previous, nightmarish, seven years that anything made sense for Christine – a light in the darkness! The road to self-discovery, and recovery! Slowly, she began to fit the pieces of the puzzle together and to build a new life!

But this is not where the story ends. Christine had a younger brother by the name of Paul. He was intelligent, and very kind, but the dear boy started drinking and using drugs at the very early age of twelve years. (It was psychically realized by Christine that Paul had been the father of Bill.) To prove it, Bill's father was an alcoholic most of his life, died of cirrhosis of the liver, and shortly thereafter, Paul was born. The boy would try to sneak sips of beer or wine at holiday gatherings such as Thanksgiving, Christmas, etc. By twelve, Paul was a regular drinker, reliving the alcoholic life that he had just come from but a few years before! – which goes to show how we constantly relive until the negative ties of the past are worked out. If Paul had known that he was continuing and reliving a drinking obsession from the previous life – and who knows how many other lives – he, with the help of the Unarius Brotherhood, could have had a permanent healing and removal of the obsession.

But this is what happened instead. For a little background history – Bill hated his own father (who became Paul) all of his childhood and adult life, because his father didn't take care of the family. Because of his hatred, the father was actually attracted back through frequency relationship to Bill and was born unto him as his own son! Then when Bill committed suicide, this triggered tremendous guilt with the then young boy Paul, (for psychically, Paul felt guilty for being a negligent father to Bill in the previous lifetime) and so began again, his drinking to escape, at such an early age! Because of the tremendous guilt complex, Paul attracted back to him the deceased father, Bill, who hooked up to him psychically, and actually pulled the boy over to the other side. Paul was killed by the same way that the father took his life – through suffocation, which proves beyond a doubt that the father "helped" the boy to the termination of his own physical life!

These two souls have been burdened and overwhelmed by this continuous and constant back and forth reliving, unconsciously pulling each other to their dooms because of their lack of understanding, which is the dilemma of all earthbound souls. Each one who is on this earth plane right now, is an earthbound soul. We here are endeavoring to work out karma of various and sundry natures. But the case that you have just read is not an unusual case for this earth plane. It is only one of many of an infinite variety of hellish karmic involvements that souls here on this world are endeavoring to free themselves of. Unfortunately, the earthman has not known of these startling realities until this present age. In the civilizations of Atlantis and Lemuria, these truths were known. Seventy-five percent of all Asiatics know of this to a degree, but the truth has been blotted out, changed, lost, distorted since the ancient, advanced civilizations of the past, and until this time, the earth people have been but groping in the dark, trying the best they can, without the slightest sense of how to cope with problems from out of past lives, which they are constantly, in everything that they express, reliving! People have been helpless to help heal themselves up until now, but now the inner help is finally coming through to the earth worlds.

Needless to say, it was so very fortunate that Paul had been given the Lessons Course book of Unarius to read and therefore, through his attunement process with the Brotherhood, he has been helped and guided to the rehabilitation wards on the Inner. There, the two souls, Bill and Paul, will be separated and they will be shown of their many past lives – how they have been reliving the same negative karma over and over again. They will go to school on the Inner and learn of the Higher Concepts of life – the Unarius Science, and how they can be freed of this horrible condition that they have been regenerating, instead of working it out. So, isn't it wonderful! Both will be in better condition psychically and much stronger and healthier psychically because of this help, than they have been for thousands of years!

Christine feels a great change in her psychic disposition, as she was not really "completely back" from her seven-year ordeal, even after these many years. But now with this tremendous psychic releasement and realization, she has become more integrated with herself and feels more complete than ever before. Only a few months ago, she was unable to speak to people, was extremely shy and withdrawn; a real mental case when she was first exposed to this healing Science. But now, with the many past lifetime workouts and realizations, her healings are very noticeable. She smiles instead of cowering when talking with people; speaking to an audience of how Unarius has helped her is no problem and she is becoming freer by the day!

Thank you, dear Brothers (and I feel my father and brother thanking you now too). I am so very thankful! You are helping them to finally break the chains of their pasts. For surely, without your help, they would have destroyed themselves irreparably and would have been eventually absorbed, back into the abstract Infinite, had they not received help.

And I know, that there are thousands, millions of souls with torments and pressures, who can all receive permanent healings once they start to study these Infinite Principles, and learn how to save themselves from thousands of years of hardship! Unarius is the Open Door! I cannot stop thanking you for your help, dear Ioshanna, and dear Brothers. Love in the utmost that I can now express,

Christine Veazey

A word from Ioshanna:

I'd like to add an important word to Christine's fine
