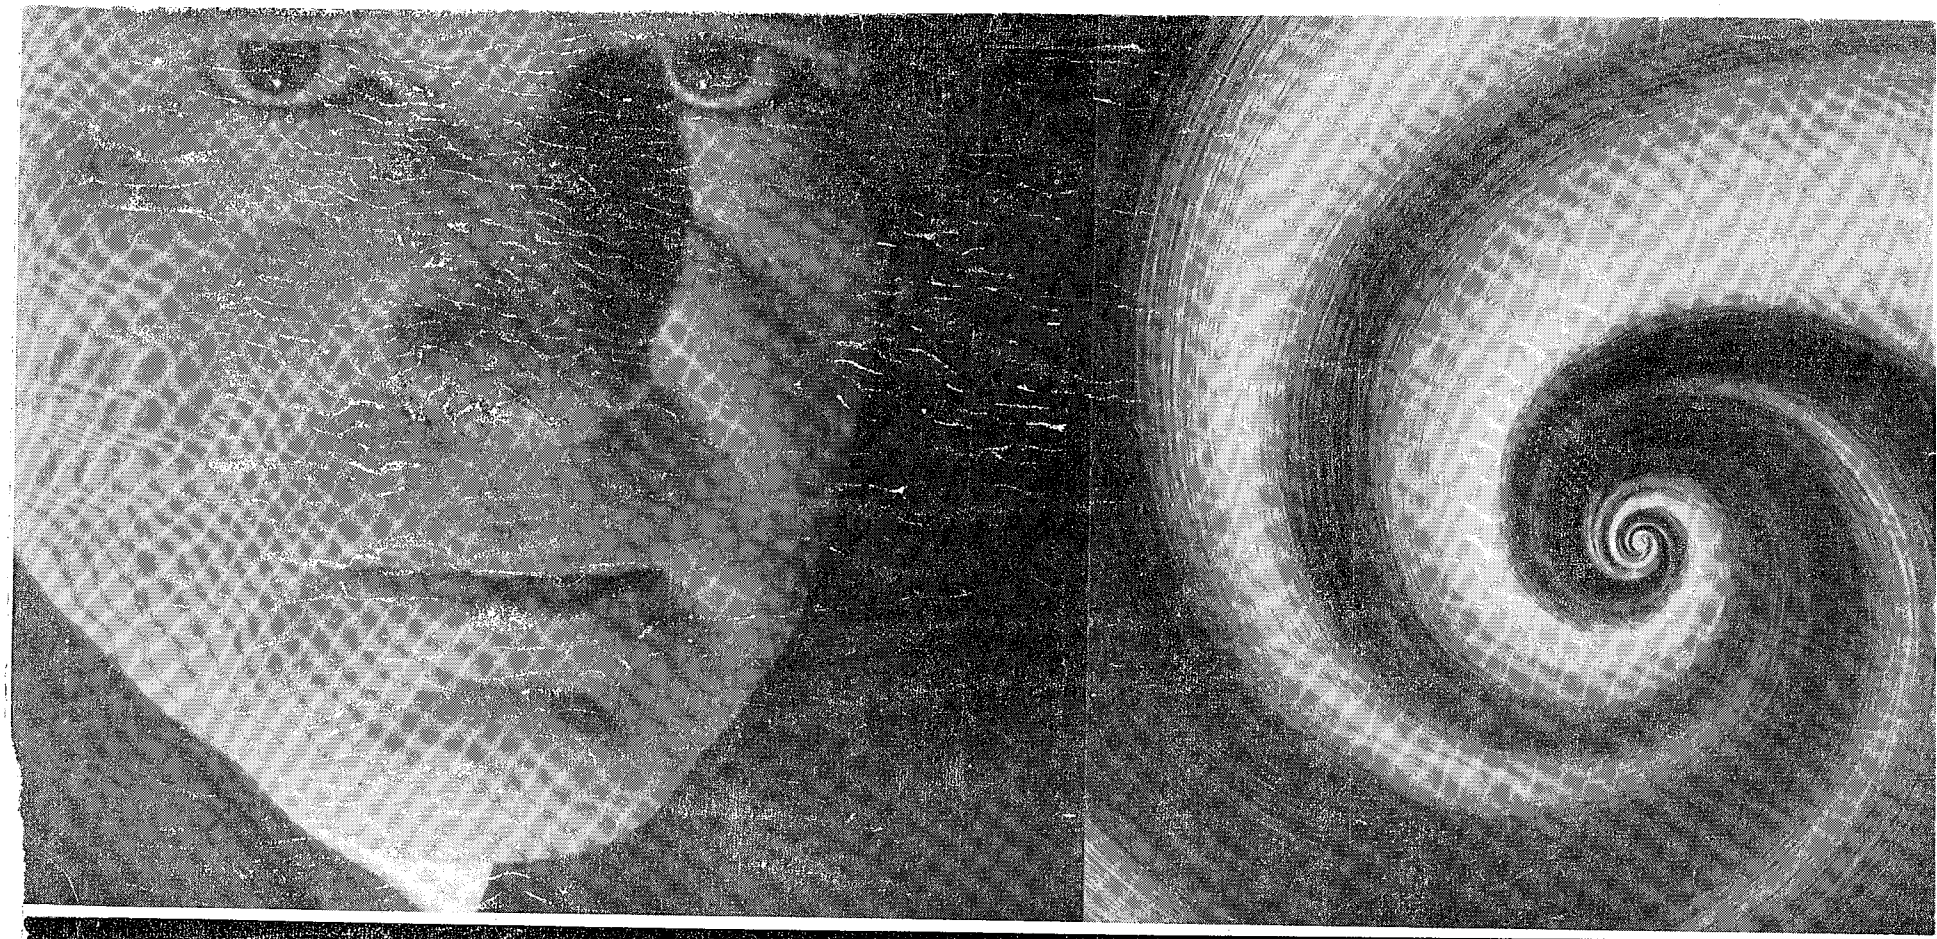
The Southern Israelite



. . . . . Of Time and Space

Artist Leo Katz, now in residence in Atlanta seems to be peering into the future, contemplating what is to be. Aspects of his current phase during which he is concentrating on vortices is illustrated in his painting at right above. This issue contains other examples of his work during his many faceted and illustrious career on pages 8 and 19, also material by Meyer Levin on page 7 and Adolph Rosenberg on page 18 . . . . also See AMERICAN SPACE and JEWISH TIME . . .
