

29⁰⁰ July 81
8.30

1196 01

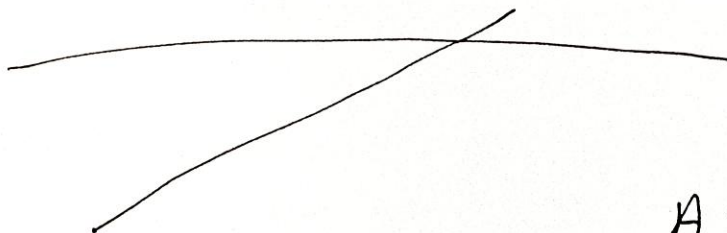

39° 59' N
75° 10' W

TM Breaks.

Aol Mitrop ored. — S.
Breaks

39° 59' N
75° 10' W

A straight
B highways

A slowing.

A Jugged. B water C
B blocks C

all mlt
Break

Aal Mobile. —

End.

39° 59' N
75° 10' W

1196 01

2/29/81

0830
SWANN/PATRICK
CLASS C

I

TOO MUCH
- BREAK -

10L BIG METROPOLITAN AREA SITUS

11

I

A STRAIGHT

A FLOWING

B HIGHWAYS

B WATER

AT SITUS

C

A JAGGED

B POLICE

10L

C

10L MOBILE ALABAMA

- BREAK -

END

1196 0 Ready to slake the energy thirst, oil storage tanks dot the Schuylkill River bank across from refineries in Philadelphia, the East's biggest producer of petroleum products. The city's docks and nearby ports on the Delaware last year logged the largest tonnage of any freshwater port complex in the nation.

1196 01

