HARMONY WITH NATURE
PLANETARY, SOLAR SYSTEM, ZODIAC and GALACTIC

By Riley Hansard Crabb
Director, BSRF

This Flying Saucer talk was prepared to be given to the All-Party UFO Study Group of the House of Lords, London in April, to the Psynetics Foundation, Costa Mesa, California in May, to the World Future Society convention, Washington, D.C. in June, and to the United States Psychotronic Association convention in Atlanta, Georgia in July, 1984.

Los Angeles "Times", Dec. 15, 1960: "America should begin figuring out how to meet the psychological impact of a discovery that intelligent beings live on other planets. . . Such a discovery could bring profound changes or even collapse of civilization on earth. . . Whether or not earth would be inspired to an all-out space effort by such a discovery is moot. Societies sure of their own place in the universe have disintegrated when confronted by a superior society and others have survived even though changed. Clearly, the better we can come to understand the factors involved in responding to such crises the better prepared we may be."

Our government paid the Brookings Institution of Los Angeles $96,000 for this report, and shelved it, only a month before Jack Kennedy was sworn into office. One of its authors was the late Edwin Nourse who himself saw landed Martian Flying Saucers at Edwards Air Force Base, California in the spring of 1954! -- along with President Eisenhower and other assorted VIPs invited there by the Air Force.

But actually I got interested in Flying Saucers in 1949, when I read the articles in "True Magazine" by Major Donald Keyhoe. I was living in Honolulu, Hawaii at the time, and in radio work. Probably the most striking of his articles was the interview and personal testimony of Commander Robert McLoughlin of the U.S. Navy. He was head of a detail of men at White Sands Proving Ground, New Mexico, supervising the launching of our first primitive rockets -- our kindergarten attempts to get into space.

He and his men had seen and tracked glowing objects travelling horizontally at extreme altitudes, over 50 miles, on a Theodolite, a special, 25-power telescope, with calibrations for figuring altitude and speed -- the first official sightings of UFOs, you might say. Then, while tracking the flight of one of the little Navy rockets, two glowing objects flew in from somewhere and accompanied our rocket up and over the top of its trajectory, then flew away. The only logical conclusion was that somebody was keeping our rocket launchings under surveillance, monitoring what we were doing.

A PHILOSOPHER-SCIENTIST IN ONE EASY LESSON

As far as Commander McLoughlin knew there wasn't any civilization on earth that had that kind of flying equipment, obviously operating out of some unknown base somewhere, perhaps overhead. So the Navy officer became a scientist/philosopher. His conclusion was that extraterrestrials were observing our first attempts to get into space.

This is a conclusion that orthodox science is still bucking at, here in the United States and elsewhere in the world. Their pride will not let them acknowledge that there are advanced beings who are well beyond us in evolution. Part of that problem is that these space travellers don't travel from here to there as we do on the surface of the earth. They dematerialize at the point of origin and then a few moments later rematerialize at their destination -- in this instance, the atmosphere of the earth. This is psychic phenomena, materialization and dematerialization or mat and de-mat. Of course orthodox science sneers at this phenomenon; so they have rejected from the very beginning the basis for belief in the appearance of the Good Guys and the Bad Guys from outer space, or from other systems. They have no framework into which they can refer what they are seeing, or what other reliable people are reporting. It is still that way today for most orthodox scientists. Breakthroughs are being made here and there, of course.

Without trying to draw any particular conclusions myself, I started accumulating UFO sighting material in 1949. By 1954 I had accumulated a small file of it and a few books. I was head of the Theosophical Society in Honolulu, a world-wide organization devoted to the study of occult science. The advent of the Flying Saucers was a proper subject for such study and I said so at lodge meetings.

"Why don't you give a lecture on Flying Saucers?" asked one of the members, and I agreed; so at that time I had to set down and ask myself, "Do I believe in these things or don't I?" -- and the evidence then indicated that they were believable. Thus I gave my first lecture on Flying Saucers at the Honolulu Y.W.C.A., June 27, 1954. Now we are approaching the 30th anniversary of that first lecture.

The U.S. Navy was my employer at that time, editing and publishing the house organ of the Naval Supply Center, Pearl Harbor. I did not have a security clearance nor need one as editor of the "Center Relay". Other civilians in the command staff did, however, and one of them took me to his office -- because I had been appearing on TV for interviews about Flying Saucers -- and showed me a standard Navy form for reporting UFO sightings, put out by the Atlantic Defense Command, Norfolk, Virginia, as I recall. Here was some part of the U.S. government taking these things very seriously and asking for reports on them. Since then, of course, we have learned that many government agencies are involved in this disturbing phenomenon.

I MEET MEMBERS OF THE INNER CIRCLE

In August 1951 Mrs. Crabb and I came to the mainland on a vacation trip and flew down to San Diego, California to meet the founder of Borderland Sciences Research Associates, Meade Layne. There was a seance at the home of Mark Probert that night. This was our first opportunity to meet and talk to the Yada di Shi'ite, Professor Luntz and other members of the Inner Circle of 16 spirit controls who used Mark's entranced body for communication. By that time Meade had been investigating Mark's mediumship for six years and found it very remarkable.

He and other visitors like ourselves found ourselves talking to sophisticated human beings who had no hesitancy about identifying themselves, and even sitting for their portraits by Mark, who was also an excellent painter. He could see them clairvoyantly. The Controls did not care to answer personal questions -- as in readings -- but rather on philosophy and science.

Back in 1946 there had been a Flying Saucer sighting over San Diego the night of Oct. 9th. This was nine months before the term became popular in June 1948. This space ship, with running lights and no motors or propellers, made a leisurely tour over the city for some time. Hundreds of people saw it. One reason was that they were looking up for the meteorite shower from the Giacobini-Zinner comet tail. The earth was supposed to be passing through it then.

Meade Layne did not see the UFO but Mark Probert did, from a window of the downtown hotel where he was working at the time, and told our founder-director about it. Meade put an ad in the paper and received over 40 replies from people who saw something unusual in the sky that night but came up with all kinds of different explanations of what it was because they could not identify it. So he turned to Mark the next day and asked for a seance. To his surprise, the Controls said the Visitor was a Kareeta from outer space! They were here to observe the planet and its people. They were especially concerned about the development of the atom bomb and its threat to mankind, and had decided to reveal themselves on a wide scale. Mr. Layne played his part in this revelation by reporting the incident, and the Inner Circle explanation, in his Round Robin Journal of Borderland Research. I have been editing and publishing it myself now for 25 years -- since 1959 when I took over.

THE GUARDIANS FROM VENUS

It should not be surprising that there are Flying Saucer contactees in our organization. One of the more talented of these was a mechanical engineer for one of the big rubber companies in Ohio, Ralph Holland. He was told that his home planet is Venus. Thus he had strong ties with the Venusian Viknors, the major interplanetary race most directly concerned with the welfare of mankind on this planet. In 1952, under the pen name Rolph Telano, Holland sent Meade Layne a body of material about the patrol activity of the Viknors, and their responsibility for protecting the planet from being taken over by the Bad Guys from outer space.

"Usually they are intercepted and turned back at the outer limits of the solar system," Ralph Holland was told.

THOSE MYSTERIOUS, GIGANTIC ANTI-MATTER EXPLOSIONS

What about those Invaders who are not intercepted and turned back? Are they ruthlessly hunted down and shot down? I believe so. We have a picture of one. This huge space ship was seen flying wildly over the Midwest in 1947. To me that indicates evasive action. It finally blew up with a tremendous roar over Norton, Kansas, at an estimated altitude of 35 miles. The explosion was so great it cracked the walls of buildings, broke windows, cracked the pavement in the streets of Norton, and was heard and felt in six states.

Years earlier there was a similar tremendous explosion of a space ship over Madrid, Spain, February 10, 1897. I believe Charles Fort dug this one up the Madrid papers. "Debris fell, walls cracked, windows smashed. For five hours a glowing cloud of debris hung over the city where the thing exploded." The Madrilenos panicked.

Then there was the Tunguska so-called meteorite of 1908. Something like an atomic bomb exploded over the Siberian forest and flattened all trees within fifty miles. The shock wave went around the world three times. People outside at the time of the explosion, 45 miles away, had their clothes blown off. But Capt. Bruce Cathie of New Zealand obtained information that a space ship was seen flying a course before the explosion which indicates to me again, evasive action. The accompanying picture indicates that, from Cathie's book, "Harmonic 695".

There are more, lots more, but no earthly scientist can give us an intelligent explanation for these tremendous explosions. The only way we can get information on them is through telepathy, mediumship. It is not surprising that these advanced beings are masters of telepathy. They are as far above us in communication ability as we are above the native jungle drums of Africa, or the smoke signals of the American Indian. Think how far we are above them in our electronic equipment, but they can and do make use of our psychic abilities. This is the only way we can get information -- outside of direct confrontation -- and it happens. It happens.

I think one of the best evidences of the presence of the Guardians is the spectacular success of the Apollo program. We haven't lost a man in space! How many Russian cosmonauts have been lost? 10? 15? 20? -- but not one Apollo astronaut -- except the three who were burned in the capsule on the launch platform at Cape Canaveral. I believe the only reason it went as well as it did was because the Guardians were helping and guiding us, in the construction and testing of equipment, in the earlier programs, and in the flights to the Moon and back. John Glenn got pictures of accompanying Flying Saucers; so did Scott

Carpenter. This is some of the best evidence for the reality of the Flying Saucers and the presence of the Guardians. They want us to succeed. They want us to free ourselves from this planet. As Jack Kennedy said the day before he was killed in Dallas, "Never more to be bound to this planet, Earth".

I believe that is one of the reasons he was assassinated. The space program threatens to free us from control, from organizations and institutions here on earth who don't want us to be free from their control. "Powers, thrones and principalities" as Paul called them.

WHY DONT THEY LAND ON THE WHITE HOUSE LAWN?

One of the early contactees was Dan Fry, an engineer. Here again, telepathy, during his one flight and later messages from Alan, who helped to guide him in his UFO researches back in the 1950s. One of the first questions Dan asked was, "Why don't you land on the White House lawn and show your presence?"

Telepathically Alan replied, "If we did we would be immediately surrounded by your military. We would be questioned for days, for weeks as to why we were here and what our purpose was, and then your military would want to make a deal with us. We would have to trade our superior weapons for their cooperation."

Furthermore, if the Russian leaders found out about the contact and possible cooperation of the space aliens, their military would start a preemptive war before we could make such weapons tactical. People little realize how delicate is the balance of power between Russia and the United States.

At the time Dan Fry was receiving and releasing his messages, I was working for the Navy at Pearl Harbor and was acquainted with an officer who had just finished a tour of duty at the Pentagon in Washington, D.C. I asked him about the results from a "landing of Flying Saucers on the White House lawn" and he said that was exactly what would happen. Our military would want to make a deal with the aliens and it would precipitate a great war.

This is one of the major reasons why the Guardians cannot land openly. The world is an armed camp, and with their high morals and ethics they are not interested in taking part in our endless conflicts. If the Guardians tried to deal directly with Reagan in Washington, or Margaret Thatcher in England, or Mitterand in France, or Chernenko in Russia, they would be dealing with nations that are making billions every year in the manufacture and sale of munitions. In fact, our president and secretary of state are salesmen for the three billion a year munitions industry. That's the problem, is it not?

THERE IS ONLY ONE SOLUTION

There is only one person in the world with whom the Guardians could deal directly and openly, without precipitating a war, and that is the Secretary General of the United Nations. He represents all nations. The solution would be for a Flying Saucer to enter the landing pattern at John F. Kennedy Airport on Long Island, by pre-arrangement, and land openly in the daylight, with Perez de Cuellar, his wife, and other officials of the United Nations ready to welcome the arrival of the first ambassador from the Interplanetary Confederation. Then they should all ride in limousines from the Airport in to United Nations headquarters in New York city, with television cameras from many nations covering the event for the world.

This is the way outer space contact should be handled. I personally am looking forward to the day when it does happen. These are my conclusions after thirty years of covering this subject.

CONFIRMATION FROM AN INSIDER

Ten or 15 years ago, in a community room of a church in Mesa, Arizona, I gave an illustrated lecture on Flying Saucers. An old friend, the late Neva Dell Hunter, was in the audience. She had government connections in Washington. I believe her father was an official in the government back in the 1930s. She had with her a military man in civvies, a colonel as I recall. He looked the type, erect, neat, brown hair shot with grey, close-cut.

"About ten years ago I listened to a tape recording of a lecture on Flying Saucers you gave in Hollywood. I wish I knew all you know about them," he said. "The crashed UFO in northern Mexico in 1949. It wasn't as large as you said it was -- only 33 feet in diameter, and we used three different crews of men to transport it in to the United States."

Here was an official of the U.S. government treating me as an insider, one "in the know". I suppose one crew of soldiers brought the UFO to the border. A second crew probably hauled it to Kansas, and a third crew to a hangar of the ATIC (Air Technical Intelligence Command) at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base in Ohio; and no one in the third crew knew what it was covered up on the truck, or where it came from.

This is the most secret secret our government has, and this "silence policy" has gone unchanged -- and unchallenged publicly -- through six changes of administration!. There is a good reason for it. All of our institutions, sacred and secular, political, economic, religious, scientific, are based on the false assumption that this is the only inhabited planet in the universe. This is just not true. But if the great majority of the people come to fully realize this, then these institutions will be discredited and go down. It will be the end of civilization as we know it now.

This is the reason why the Guardians -- and the Invaders -- refrain from coming in publicly and in great numbers -- unless They are forced to by the start of an all-out atomic war. This they can stop real fast by turning off our electricity -- which was not done to another planet in our Solar System, Maldek, which got into the "armed camp" situation we are in today but was not interfered with.

Their planet did blow up, between Mars and Jupiter, and the asteroids are still orbiting there, over a thousand of them. One of the largest is our Moon, we are told, and when Astronaut Armstrong landed there in 1969 it was said that he had "returned to the scene of the crime", the crime of sabotaging a planetary school room.

Now it is a universal law that advanced beings of one civilization do not interfere with the evolution of another civilization. This has been dramatized for us many times in the Star Trek TV series; but other planets do not want to be disturbed by the results of our suicidal course, and apparently appealed successfully to a higher authority. They have the right -- and the might! -- to interfere this time!

THE UNFORTUNATE PLANET OF THE FIFTH ORBIT

Consider this message received, through the Ouiji board, by the Williamson group in Prescott, Arizona, August 17, 1952: "I am Zo. I am head of a Mars contact group but my home is Neptune. . . Earth is backward, too many wars. . . We are here to warn you. If there is dissension among you we will not contact you. Be calm and quiet! We have only love for all men. We hold certain councils on Uranus. We must now decide what to do about your planet Earth. Your bombs will destroy universal balance. Your Hydrogen bomb could make an asteroid belt out of you. This happened many years ago to planet of the fifth orbit. We knew what they were doing but we did not interfere.

"We cannot stand by and see another waste. After their destruction there were terrible disasters on Mars. Great volcanic eruptions took place. Many of our people perished. We would have been thrown out of the Solar System and lost if we had not quickly constructed two artificial satellites. Some of your scientists have noted that Phobos and Deimos reflect too much light to be made of earthy substance. They are right. They are metallic in nature. They readjusted our unstable condition and saved a planet,"

It is significant -- and very disturbing to orthodox science -- that Johnathan Swift wrote an accurate description of Mars' two artificial satellites in his book, "Gulliver's Travels", in 1726. This was 150 years before they were seen by astronomers! How did Swift get the information? By telepathic contact with advanced beings from outer space, how else?

The souls of those failures from Maldek -- and they were failures, millions of them -- were dumped here on Earth to go through the same experience all over again. There are a lot of failures here from other Systems. One of the teachers of mankind through Alice Bailey, the Master DK, wrote that the scum of the Galaxy is gathered together here on Earth. Maybe this is why the great Irish playwright, George Bernard Shaw, observed: "The world is an insane asylum and we're all inmates." We are here for rehabilitation; so it shouldn't be surprising to find oblique references to this planetary blow-up in Western literature and the fact that Maldekians are here on earth. We found one in the writings of George Gordon, Lord Byron.

MANFRED FROM MALDEK

Byron was a Scotch Lord back in the late 18th Century. He was also a student of occult science, a Cabalist, no doubt; for there in his dramatic poem, "Manfred", is a description of a magickal ceremony performed in a Swiss chalet high in the mountains, on a dark and stormy night. Beings of the Elements came to his call. If they came in full form to talk to him he must have had a materializing medium handy. How I would like to have been in on this, especially when Lucifer showed up, last?

"The Star which rules thy destiny
Was ruled 'er earth began, by me.
It was a world as fresh and fair
As 'er revolved around sun and air.
Its course was free and regular.
Space bosomed not a lovelier star.
The hour arrived and it became
A wandering mass of shapeless flame,
A pathless comet and a curse,
The menace of the Universe.
Still rolling on within a force
Without a sphere, without a course,
A bright deformity on high
The monster of the upper sky.
And thou beneath its influence born,
Thou worm, whom I obey and scorn.
Forced by a power which is not thine
And lent thee to make thee mine!
Forced for this moment briefly to descend
Where these weak spirits round thee bend
And parly with a thing like thee.
What wouldst thou, child of clay, with me?"

There's a veiled reference to Maldek, I believe, written by one who's soul knew its planet of origin, even if the personality didn't. When "Manfred" was published in London in 1817, the first printing of 20,000 copies sold out the first day! And now we are faced with the same kind of Judgment Day crisis here on this planet. How many will pass? About 60%, according to figures released by the Theosophical Society; and 40% will fail.

THE LUNAR MAFIA

Now a word about the Bad Guys, the Men in Black, who are most appropriately called the Lunar Mafia because that appears to be their home base -- as well as the interior of the earth. We are told their major exit and entry point is at the South Pole, in Flying Saucers which can travel as fast as 3,000 miles per hour, we are told. They have a way of appearing to contactees and scaring the hell out of them, or anyone who has a fragment of a Flying Saucer or a good picture of one.

THE "UNIFORM" OF INTERNATIONAL DIPLOMACY

Often they appear at a contactee's door dressed very formally, black topcoat with velvet collar, homburg hat, black suit and shoes, swarthy complexion, slightly slanted eyes, and poor English. Other times they may appear in the uniform of an Air Force or other military officer -- of course the unwelcome visitor might be a normal earthian, a government agent, wearing whatever masquerade seems suitable for the occasion.

"Hand over the picture, or else!"

If the contactee or researcher refuses to hand over the picture or artifact, he may be kidnapped and wake up the next day or a few hours later with a black eye and the evidence gone.

Here is what Flying Saucer researcher John Keel has to say about the Men in Black: "They are the intelligence arm of a large and possibly hostile group. They move in immediately on terrestrials who have been contacted by other groups. Their main purpose is to dissuade individuals from continuing to accept further contacts. To achieve this they often issue stern warnings, threaten the well-being of children belonging to the contactee, threats of one kind or another, deliberate near attempts to kill the contactee. He may go to bed at night and wake up smelling gas in the house, go to the kitchen and find all the burners on. By whom?"

During Keel's investigations back in the 1960s a woman called him at his home. "The Men in Black are out in front of my house," she said. "They have set up a camera and are taking pictures of the house." Then they folded up their camera, got back into -- or disappeared into -- their black limousine and drove away. Some of their actions are totally inexplicable to us.

One night Keel was following one of their black Cadillac sedans on Long Island. Usually the license plate has three Xs on it. Suddenly the car disappeared from in front of him and was behind him! Their mastery of matter appears to be complete. They can appear and disappear anywhere in any form they choose. In our slides we have copies of photos taken by Flying Saucer skeptic Jim Moseley, of the typical black Cadillac sedan, parked in front of the home of a researcher in New Jersey. The Man in Black is standing in the doorway of a house or store across the street, watching the researcher's home. This went on a for a week! The researcher's wife, Mary Robinsone, became so frightened she refused to stay home while her husband was at work and went to stay at neighbors.

Question from the audience on the time of the Maldek blowup. I dont recall having seen a figure on that, probably a million years ago.

The Theosophical material through Leadbeater said some of the souls from Maldek -- he called it the Moon period -- were coming into incarnation during the Lemurian period. That was a long, long time ago; but there are failures from Judgment Days on other planets here on earth.

I believe I'm a failure from Judgment Day on Venus and I'm sure there are millions of other Venusians here with me who are doing make up work. As a general rule these failures from other, older systems will be among the more advanced members of mankind; so now, on this planet we have a great mixture of the original people who started their human evolution on this planet as Lemurians. Then they evolved to Atlanteans and now Aryans. Blended in with them are aliens from other planets and systems who joined the human race at a level suitable to their own level of evolution. These are of two general types, those who were sent here for rehabilitation and those volunteers who came in to help upgrade the quality of the human race.

SAMUEL LANGHORN CLEMENS, A VOLUNTEER

Mark Twain, I believe, would be a good example of the latter. He was born in 1836-37, when Halley's comet made an appearance in our skies. During his lifetime he had a reading from a seer. "You came with Halley's comet. When it returns again you will be gone." The comet did return in 1910 and that is when Twain died. I believe the Comet is a Solar System Bus, ferrying souls from planet to planet -- another, little-suspected aspect of the Flying Saucer phenomenon. There must be thousands of souls here on earth ready, willing and waiting for the Comet's return in 1986! They've put in their time. They've had it with this jail of the Solar System.

THE GREAT, GREAT QUESTION OF LOYALTY

But the Invaders like the place! This is really a beautiful planet with abundant supplies of air and water. Their problem is they have no souls. They envy us. They want souls. They can get or earn one by joining the human race -- birth through an earth mother; but the problem is loyalty. The new human is no longer interested in the takeover program of the Invaders and their ruthless way of doing things. No morals! No ethics! This problem was portrayed in the television series "The Invaders" years ago and has not been rerun since. Egg-born reptiles come out fighting, without knowledge of father or mother, or love. Warmth and affection are human qualities, born of a heart and a red-blood circulating system. This is the problem of the Invaders. They keep losing their "soldiers" to the "enemy".

This is a problem for the Good Guys also, for those of you who have volunteered to come here to help uplift backward mankind. You, too, may not want to be awakened to your original mission. The world of physical matter is seductive. It has its sensual enjoyments. The cross of physical matter may be more enjoyable than you were told.

THE CHALLENGE OF THE FLYING SAUCERS

When Commodore Perry sailed his side-wheeler gunboat into Tokyo bay in 1854, he challenged the Japanese to come out of their self-imposed isolation of over 200 years and join the community of nations. One liberal Japanese shogun was assassinated for advocating government recognition of the aliens from overseas. Nevertheless, a rebellion was started. It turned into a revolution, the military-religious oligarchy of the Shoguns and the Buddhist priests was overthrown, the Emperor Meiji was restored to power, Japan got a parliamentary form of government, it embraced the advanced technologies from the West -- and look at Japan today!

This is the challenge of the Flying Saucers from outer space today. Can the civilized nations of the world adapt to the advanced technologies -- and the philosophies -- of the Guardians and the Invaders? Must we have a revolution to throw off the shackles of the Military-Industrial-Religious Oligarchies which run us at a profit today?

Many people would welcome the change. Look at the logical sequence. For 200 years we have had the United States. There is the British United Kingdom. There is the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics. There are the Estados Unidos do Brasil, de Mexico, the United Provinces of Canada, etc. We have taken the next step in human evolution for this planet, the United Nations, world government. What is the next step beyond that? Why United Planets, of course!

But the advanced beings coming here from outer space dare not land openly at any of the capitals of the major nations, Peking, Moscow, Washington, London or Paris. If they landed in Washington and the Russians found out about it, they would start a war immediately before we could put advanced technology of that kind into tactical weapons. This is how delicately balanced our civilization is. And if great space ships were known to land in Moscow, the Pentagon would start a preemptive war with Russia before the Russians could incorporate outer space technology into their weapons systems. The only solution to the problem is public contact with the Secretary General of the United Nations. He is the only person on earth who represents all the nations, where a contact could be openly made without starting a war.

Of course that Brookings Institution report says, in effect, that it would mean the end of civilization as we know it; but our civilization is coming to an end anyhow. The question is: Are we going out with a bang or a whimper? Great changes are coming. Are we going to wait until we are kicked down the road of evolution? Or are we going to march forward voluntarily? That is what lays before mankind now and we have only a few years in which to decide.

Here is a comparatively recent example of Guardian patrol activity, from South America. Why wasn't this a page one story in the Los Angeles "Times" and other metropolitan dailies across the country? Probably because the wire services have strict government orders not to carry such news stories!

THE BOLIVIAN UFO CRASH OF MAY 6, 1978

I quote now from my Journal of Borderland Research, January-February 1979 issue, reviewing Larry Arnold's article in "UFO Report" for January 1979: At the southernmost tip of Bolivia in a country famed for embracing the ancient and still-enigmatic ruins of Tihuanaco along the shores of Lake Titicaca, lies the political Department of Tarija. . . the most inaccessible of the nation's nine Departments.

"Juan Orozco, a woodcutter living in the frontier of the Argentine border and Tarija, Bolivia, was with friends when a loud whistling noise interrupted their work. They looked up. Orozco later told the Buenos Aires newspaper 'Clarín', and suddenly 'something appeared flying about 120 meters high. It was surrounded by flames. Afterwards we heard a thunder that made us tremble. Our ears ached'.

"A few miles and several minutes across the border was the small mining village of La Mamora, situated in the midst of a mountainous, woodsy and scantily populated area typical of Tarija. At 4:30 p.m. on the same afternoon the community's stagnant tranquility was pierced by a 'loud and high-pitched whistle'. Heads turned and eyes strained to find the source of the shrill sound.

"They didn't have far to look. No more than 90 meters (300 feet) above them was an astounding sight: a metallic cylinder that glistened 'more than if it were chrome' and sparkling with reddish orange lights. Its front end had a conical shape and bluish smoke was pouring from the back.

"The strange aeroform was moving so slowly -- only about 220 miles per hour -- that many of La Mamora's 900 residents, including four mining engineers and the village chief of the Bolivian National Guard, had time to examine the brilliant and noisy descent. No windows, doors or other structural details could be seen. The object resembled more than anything else a slowly falling chrome-plated artillery shell 13 feet in diameter and 20 feet long. And its 'target' appeared to be El Taire, a peak approximately 12 miles away!

"Three minutes and 15 seconds after the fiery device was first heard above La Mamora, its journey ended against El Taire as 'an intense flash of light took place leaving several people momentarily blinded'. This tremendous glow (or fireball) was seen throughout a radius of 93 miles from the point of impact -- a distance encompassing more than 900 square miles.

"Seconds after the crash, a gigantic explosion occurred on the side of El Taire. The resulting shock wave broke windows 45 miles away and was heard throughout 57,000 square miles of west central South America. Two ear-splitting sounds, a blinding flash of light, and a glass-shattering sonic wave -- yet the residents of the Royal Cordillera were not yet spared all the devastating effects of the mysterious object's impact on El Taire. The detonation was immediately followed by a type of rumbling even more fearful, an earthquake!

"The quake registered in a very extensive area of 75,477 square miles -- almost the size of the State of South Dakota. The Argentine cities of Oran and Tartagal, south and southeast respectively from El Taire were shaken, and the seismic force was so strong that movement in the earth was perceived in cities as far as 165 miles away. Pedro Romanuk, an Argentine UFO investigator, states that Aguas Blancas, a town 400 miles away in Chile, also registered the force of the earth reeling from the impact of the projectile.

IT WAS NOT A METEOR OR A SATELLITE!

"What was this devastating missile seen and heard by thousands of South Americans? . . . most meteors streak toward earth at 32,000 to 47,000 miles per hour. . . these velocities are not even remotely close to the 220 mph reported by the eyewitnesses. . . Furthermore the shiny projectile's extremely shallow descent, 27° to the horizon, is practically impossible for a meteor whose parabolic trajectory becomes increasingly vertical (90° to the horizon) as it nears the earth's surface. . . government agencies and the press in Bolivia and Argentina soon discounted the satellite hypotheses.

"The consensus among the hundreds of persons who viewed the object, including those who saw it actually crash, was that 'the artifact was intelligently commanded towards the base of El Taire. The observers believed the accident was not casual but intentional. . . . An interesting sidelight to the explosion is that along with the silvery projectile a second body, noticeably smaller, closely followed the cylinder. After the crash, the smaller partner was seen to fly away from the scene!"

Evidence of patrol activity by someone, obviously. I say the Guardians of our planet. An invader from outer space, perhaps from outside the Solar System, hunted down and forced to self-destruct against a remote mountainside. This aspect of the Flying Saucer phenomenon has always been ignored or covered over by Air Force propagandists -- such as J. Allen Hynek; but this was one of the major points put forward to the Secretary General of the United Nations in the 1960s, U Thant, by Colman Von Keviczky: there are both Good Guys and Bad Guys in outer space, and the Bad Guys represent a threat to our civilization.

Let us not forget the remaining evidence of the El Taire explosion. The fresh crater was 1,300 feet deep, 1,600 feet wide and almost a mile long. There was no debris! Over 10 million cubic yards of granite dematerialized! Vanished! Anti-matter? Lack of "incriminating evidence" of sky explosions of Flying Saucers is another characteristic of the results of research in this most fascinating and disturbing science field. They usually disintegrate completely.

THE INVADERS, WHO ARE THEY? AND WHY?

Solar systems run down, burn out, planets too. The beings on the planets use up the water and air; so eventually it becomes uninhabitable, like our Moon. The Planetary Logos or Spirit withdraws. Perhaps they get tired, like we do, only on a larger scale. There are beings on that planet who have not finished their human-level evolution -- but they have mastered space travel! So they are fanning out through nearby solar systems, constellations, galaxies, looking for a new home.

This is true of certain of the space beings who are coming here. We don't call them Guardians, we call them Invaders! They are behind us in evolution because they are an elemental, reptile or animal type of evolution. They don't have a soul as we do, an immortal vehicle of consciousness which survives death of the body. Some of them are egg-born reptiles. They don't know their parents. They have no heart, no circulating blood which gives human warmth, love. So from our point of view they are utterly without mercy. They have no human feelings of compassion and sympathy, and some are so ugly they don't dare show themselves to us humans or we'd run screaming through the night. Maybe they look like crocodiles walking on two legs -- and yet they have intelligence -- or intellect -- enough to build and fly spacecraft. They have mastered space travel and might be compared to rats deserting a sinking ship. Earth, at the 3-D level appears to be one of the most desirable planets in several or many solar systems. It still has plenty of air, water and vegetation. Obviously they don't want an all-out atomic war which would make the surface uninhabitable. What they do want, some of them, is to return the human race to Stone Age conditions more suitable for their level of involution. This, of course, is against the forward-moving, evolutionary plan of the Solar Logos as I understand it.

One Cycle of Evolution

THE TUNGUSKA METEORITE, SO-CALLED, OF 1908

Seventy-five years ago in Russia there was another UFO explosion which has intrigued Flying Saucer researchers; and, like the May 1978 blast in Bolivia, it was in a remote part of the world, the frozen wastes of Siberia, where it would do the least damage to humans and their habitations. Forest trees were laid flat for a radius of 40 miles or more from the blast site. Here again, the missile from space did not fall in an increasingly steep trajectory like a meteor -- or a spent artillery shell -- but in comparatively horizontal, low level flight, obviously under control of some kind. After reading Russian data on the "meteorite", here are Capt. Bruce Cathie's conclusions, in his book "Harmonic 695":

" . . . it approached from a southerly direction and, when it reached a latitude of 58°, it suddenly decided to alter course; it veered off to the east for 20 miles or so, whereupon it changed direction yet again, executing a sharp turn west-north-west, just before impact which wiped out in a flash millions of trees in the surrounding forest area. . . . That leaves only one conclusion to a logical mind: the object, whatever it was, was under the control of some sort of intelligence; and the point of impact was not a matter of chance -- it was carefully pre-ordained or pre-calculated. This leads me to conclude that what flew over Siberia that day long ago was either a space ship which blasted something into the Grid at that particular point, or else a controlled missile which was exploded in the area for some definite purpose."

And that purpose, in my opinion, was to protect us from an Invader or Intruder from outer space. To me, the erratic flight of the UFO before impact suggests evasive action, flight from hot pursuit by the patrol craft of the Guardian Viknors. The pursuing Flying Saucer need not have been visible to ground observers there in Siberia, but its effectiveness is obvious. I wonder if the EL Taire UFO explosion was also on one of Capt. Cathie's world grid lines?

THE WESTPORT, NZ CRASH OF 1955

Speaking of New Zealand, Cathie's home country, reminded me of this significant news clip from the Honolulu, Hawaii "Star Bulletin" of March 30, 1955. It comes from the paper's reporter, Edwin Gold, in Mangaia, the Cook Islands: "Even in this remote part of the South Pacific, news of 'flying saucers' is received with interest. And the latest report has caused some alarm here. The Cook Islands are under the trust and jurisdiction of New Zealand and New Zealand is the nearest source of world news. Recently (Feb. 7, 1955) the town of Westport, on the western side of the South Island of New Zealand, reported a visitation by an 'object' seen coming in from the ocean, which somewhat resembled the flying saucers.

"As the object moved in toward land, it looked like a large torpedo united to a smaller, the large section leading. The object was last seen heading toward a high mountain range behind Westport and then suddenly there was an explosion which shook the entire region and an enormous column of smoke rose from the mountainside. No explanation has been made by officials in Westport as to the facts. One theory is that a war weapon, being experimented on elsewhere in the world, got out of control, crossed the wide Pacific and hit the New Zealand mountainside."

HOT PURSUIT IN THE AMERICAN MIDWEST

Yes, we have incontrovertible evidence of hot pursuit of an invading UFO here in the United States, and the success of that police activity was visible and audible to thousands of people in at least four states! The data on the 1948 aerial explosion is in the caption of the accompanying photo. The noted English collector of Fortean and UFO researcher, Harold T. Wilkins, devotes a couple of paragraphs to this one in his book "Flying Saucers on the Attack", published by Citadel Press, New York, 1954: ". . . a terrific explosion in the sky over Kansas rocked buildings, broke windows, and did damage over a wide area of Kansas, Nebraska and Oklahoma. On that day, Feb. 18, 1948 a ball of fire exploded over Norton, Kansas and a blue-white cloud, the result of the explosion, was visible for hours and was photographed.

"The explosion was so abnormal that it was seen in six states: Texas, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Nebraska and Colorado. The authorities at Chamberlain Observatory, University of Denver, were positive it was no meteor, and they knew of no astronomical phenomena to explain it. This strange sphere of fire was seen over two towns in Oklahoma and its speed was reckoned at 600 miles per hour, too slow for a meteor, which moves miles in a second. There was first a terrific blast of an explosion that shook buildings with the force of an earthquake. The blast was followed by a roar of appalling character that lasted ten seconds. Then there appeared, at what was calculated to be 35 miles high in the sky, a strange blue cloud that rolled and bellied forth like a monster dragon in extremis! Two hours later a B 29 bomber appeared and circled under the area of the cloud until sunset."

The death throes of a mortally wounded dragon. Was Wilkins close to the truth of the type of Invaders who were flying the exploded Saucer? Egg-born serpents from a line of evolution highly evolved but quite different from the human? Yet walking erect on two legs?

"There is no confirmation of the reports from two other B 29 pilots that, before the appalling explosion, they had seen a long, cylindrical, shining metal projectile with a shiny nose, and a terrific burst of flame at its rear end," continues Wilkins. "This amazing projectile was said to have had the prodigious length of 10 miles and to have travelled 1800 miles per hour! Truly an incredible story. . . Had some mysterious cosmic visitant met with a terrible accident? Whatever this phenomenon was, there came reports that it travelled erratically before the explosions and in a way no meteor would do. . . "

So we offer the opinion that it was trying in vain to evade the hot pursuit of the Viknor patrol craft.

ELECTRIC VAMPIRISM

We can divide the Bad Guys into two general groups: the Invaders from outer space who are the source of what we would call Cosmic Evil, and the Invaders from inner space who are a source of Planetary Evil; and these latter apparently have as much right to be here as we have, the ones we call the Lunar Mafia. The journalist and Flying Saucer skeptic John G. Fuller was forced to recognize their presence when digging for material in New Hampshire in October 1965. The Jalberts in Fremont lived near highpower lines. We quote from his book, "Incident At Exeter": "Joseph had recently noticed a reddish, cigar-shaped object high in the sky, over the power lines. It hovered there motionless for several minutes -- exactly how many he did not know because he was so absorbed in watching it. After a considerable length of time a reddish-orange disc emerged apparently from inside the object and began a slow, erratic descent down toward the power lines. As it reached a point within a quarter mile of them it leveled off, then moved over the wires until it reached a point several hundred feet away. It then descended slowly until it reached a few feet above the lines. Then a silvery, pipe-like object came down from the base of the disc and actually touched the lines, remaining there for a minute or so.

"The protuberance then slowly retreated into the body of the object, and it took off at considerable speed and rejoined the cigar-shaped object and disappeared inside it.

"Joseph's mother had not seen this but had observed a similar occurrence some 20 miles away, near Manchester. The only difference in their descriptions was that the protrusion extending down from the object she observed was reddish rather than silver colored. Joseph was very reluctant to bring this sighting up. His younger brother had prodded him into telling about it; and when we asked why he was hesitant, he told us that the whole thing looked too scary; and he did not like to talk about it. 'It's the first time I've seen one of these things touch anything,' he said, 'and it happened so near to me I really tried to put it out of my mind.'

Intuitively, Joseph sensed the menace in the unwelcome presence of these non-human, elemental types, stealing electricity; so it is not surprising that he was disturbed to where he did not want to talk about it. Fuller was not and he remained skeptical until the great blackout of November 9, 1965. Then he went back over his over 200 pages of notes. "The words 'power lines' or 'transmission lines' appeared on an alarming number of pages. I began making a notation in the margin of the transcripts wherever a reference to this was made. There were 73 mentions in various locations by various people. . . "

Fuller's awakening came when he returned to his motel for dinner with a couple of friends. The lights flickered momentarily when he approached the booth, but remained on. They ordered martinis and prepared to relax.

"As the waitress brought the drinks, she had a broad smile on her face. She had been helpful in the past in supplying the names of people she had heard about who had sighted objects and was interested in the story as it developed.

"I suppose this is all your fault,' she said, putting the martinis down on the table.

"What is all our fault?' I asked.

"You mean you haven't heard about it?' she asked.

"Heard about what?' Zimmerman asked.

"The blackout. The power failure. All over the east.'

"You're kidding,' I said. The lights in Hampton were blazing brightly. I did recall, though, the flicker as I had left my room.

"It just came in over the radio in the kitchen,' she said. 'New York, Albany, Boston, Providence, all of Massachusetts, are absolutely black. Not a light burning. This is no joke. I mean it.'

"This seemed so incredible that we hardly took it seriously. I got up, went back to the room and turned on the television set. I was startled to see the news staff of NBC-TV broadcasting in faint candlelight. The picture was fuzzy and barely discernible. The commentary, of course, confirmed all that the waitress had told us, and more. I still found it hard to believe. And, of course, the first thing which crossed my mind was the long series of UFO sightings involving power lines. . . I sat glued to the TV set, waiting for some word as to the cause of the failure. The news commentators were as confused as anyone else. . . The Portsmouth-Exeter area, we learned, was one of the few pockets of light in the entire Northeast. . . no announcement came which gave even a clue to the mystery. . . Suddenly the major emphasis on the entire UFO research -- the power lines -- was now becoming the focal point of a new mystery -- no less than the UFO phenomenon I had been dealing with for weeks. The country was moving, it seemed, from one Space Age ghost story to another. Or were they both the same?"

The great blackout of Nov. 9, 1965 started with a massive power failure at a remote-controlled substation at Clay, New York, ten miles north of Syracuse but "there was no sign of mechanical failure, fire or destruction there"; however, there was a Flying Saucer sighting, but no one in authority dared attribute the blackout to a Guardian from outer space! It "was noted briefly in the press," writes John Fuller, "and then immediately dropped with no followup comment. Welton Ross, a private pilot and instructor, was approaching Hancock Field at Syracuse for a landing. It was almost at the exact moment of the blackout. As he looked below him, just over the power lines at the Clay substation, a huge ball of brilliant intensity, red, appeared. It was about 100 feet in diameter, Ross told the New York 'Journal-American'. . . With Ross was a student pilot who verified the statement. At precisely the same moment, Robert C. Walsh, Deputy Commissioner for the Federal Aviation Agency in the Syracuse area, reported that he saw the same phenomenon just a few miles south of Hancock field. Five persons reported the sighting. Although the Federal Power Commission immediately said they would investigate, no further word has been given publicity since. . . " Nor will it ever as long as the government's "silence policy" on Flying Saucers remains in force -- as it has through six administrations; that's why we're suggesting that we believers go over the government's head to the next higher authority, the Secretary General of the United Nations.

THE REALITY OF PICTORIAL EVIDENCE

Other people saw Flying Saucers over New York City during the blackout and John Fuller writes: "'Life' photographer Arthur Rickerby took a strikingly dramatic picture of the New York skyline just after the blackout. In the western sky a brilliant, silvery object appears that has not in any satisfactory way been explained, after it appeared in the November 19, 1965 issue of 'Time'." What Fuller means is that the glowing, disc-shaped object photographed over the Time-Life building at the height of the blackout could not be explained away! All the authorities could do was ignore it.

But Hollywood actor Stuart Whitman could not ignore it as he looked at the strangely darkened and silent city from his hotel room. "I heard a sound like a whippoorwill whistling outside my 12th floor window. I was dead sober when I saw these two UFOs trying to communicate with me. One of them was orange and the other was blue. They gave off a strange, luminescent light. So I couldn't see if there were portholes or who was in them. Then I heard them speaking to me as if they were on a loud speaker. They spoke to me in English. It may not have been audible to anyone else. They said they wanted to talk to me because I appeared to have no malice nor hate.

"They said they were fearful of earth because earthlings were messing around with an unknown quantity and might disrupt the balance of the universe or their planet. The people in the UFO said the blackout was just a little demonstration of their power and they could do a lot more with almost no effort. It served as a warning. They said they could stop our whole planet from functioning. They asked me to do what I could to fight malice, prejudice and hate on earth, and then they took off.

"I couldn't say how big the objects were, but when they took off I felt elated. I wasn't even shocked. And I know I wasn't asleep because I was awake and standing by the window the entire time. I don't know why they picked me as a contact. But I'll swear on a Bible that I saw them out there and that they talked to me."

The Guardians told Whitman why they chose him for contact, because he had no malice nor hate! And the other important quality for possible useful contact with an earthian, emotional stability. Whitman didn't panic when he saw the lights and heard the voices in his inner ear, no shock, no panic, only curiosity. The historic meeting was reported in Robert Gribble's NICAP Reporter, February 1966 issue, 5108 So. Findlay St., Seattle, Washington 98118.

"WHERE I COME FROM SOMEBODY IS WAITING"

CLOSE ENCOUNTER IN SWEDEN, 1955

By John La Fontaine

From "UFO ASPECT", Danish UFO
Report, Summer 1981

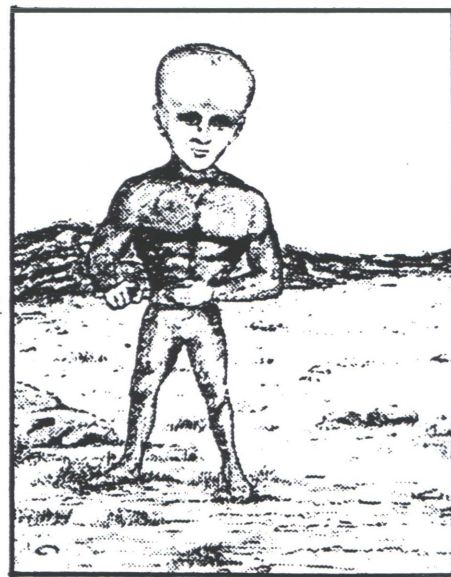

At an exhibition called "Love or Chaos" at Charlottenburg, Copenhagen, several hundred people each day visited the FUFOS stand to listen to a continuous lecture supported by slides, and the many questions indicated that interest in UFOs is steadily increasing.

One morning when several schools were visiting the stand, I noticed a distinguished gentleman, about 60 years old, who listened to the lecture several times and became extremely interested each time the slide-show came to the section about humanoids, a series of slides produced on the basis of a substantial number of interviews with witnesses. Even though the lecture was interesting, I could not understand why an ordinary listener would attend it several times, so my curiosity was aroused; and I started to talk to the man.

At the beginning he was very reserved, and did not want to go into details; but when he saw that I took him seriously, he eventually told his story. For an hour he told about his experience while I took notes and indeed it was a strange story.

"I once saw and talked to a man like the one shown on the slides. In 1955 I was working as a lumberjack in the Gulf of Bothnia in Vestra Norland in Sweden with two brothers who supplied timber to a sawmill in mid-Sweden. One early morning in July, about six o'clock, we were busy cutting trees, when we heard a sound like a big animal thrashing its way through the forest, or like branches breaking and rattling. A moment later we saw a cigar-shaped object flying haphazardly in between the trees and branches and leaves were falling to the ground. My immediate thought was that it was a small airplane, which had lost its wings and was now preparing, without control, for a crash landing.

"Approximately 300-400 meters away flowed a river, which the aircraft evidently was heading for. It was obvious that the aircraft would hit the ground within few seconds, so we started to run in the direction where it had disappeared. 15-20 meters before we came out of the forest, the aircraft crashed in a clearing 40-50 meters from the river.

IMPLOSION LEAVES NO DEBRIS

"I dont know what we had expected, maybe a deafening crash, when the impact with the ground caused the petrol to explode. But it did not happen. Not a sound was heard but a gigantic flash of light engulfed the whole area like a vast flashbulb, so that the sunlight almost disappeared. The light was so intense that we in fact could see through the trees. For a second I could see the grains of the trees and these were more than one meter in diameter -- like an X-ray. Seconds later came a vacuum wave sucking everything towards the centre of the light. All three of us tumbled forwards, branches and leaves flying past us. In all probability it lasted only a fraction of a second, but I still remember how I crashed into a tree, time stopped, and my whole life was reviewed in my mind in a flash. Even the normal sound of the forest had stopped.

"When we had recovered somewhat, we went out into the clearing to see what had happened. Nothing was to be seen at the point of impact, only a few piles of timber were scattered around. We looked bewildered at each other and decided to return to work. At the entrance to the forest one of the brothers suddenly shouted: 'Here's a dwarf dressed in a uniform! Obviously the plane has crashed in the river and he must have been hurled out.'

"For awhile we stood paralysed gazing at the lifeless body. He was small of build, about 110-120 centimeters. Around his body a white light vibrated like a halo. When one of the brothers tried to touch the man to see whether he was still alive he retreated with a scream. He was deadly pale and said he felt as if he had received an electrical shock. At the same time the stranger opened his eyes and said in perfect Swedish: 'Do not touch me. It will only bring you difficulties.'

"His Swedish was so perfect that the brothers who spoke a Swedish dialect could not understand very much from what was later said. 'Now you know who I am,' he said. He knew in beforehand what we were going to answer and just demonstrated that his question was correctly grasped. Suddenly I became quite calm and studied him closely.

"He was no dwarf. He was very well-built with broad shoulders and normal features. His skin was yellowish like that of an Asian. The eyes were deep socketed and black, without any white around. His face was badly bruised with a couple of big wounds on the chin and on the forehead. It did not bleed but the skin watered around the wounds. The top of his head was slightly downy and the hair was almost white. The earlobes were one with the neck and resembled a shark's fin. The lips were wrinkled, narrow and colorless. When he smiled reassuringly -- which he did a lot -- he revealed a row of small teeth in the upper as well as the lower part of his mouth. I especially noticed that his canine teeth were flat and as broad as two of our front teeth. His hands were small with five slender fingers without nails and when he moved his hand it looked as if the ring finger had grown together to the little finger, if not they were synchronized.

"His uniform was of a reddish metal and appeared glued to his body. It was flexible and followed the movements of the body closely. Head and hands were free, but at the feet the clothing continued into a couple of closed shoes, size 35-37. The footsoles were ribbed and vibrated, and for a moment I thought of caterpillars on a tank.

"The stranger looked at me and nodded slightly. There was no doubt that he knew what I was thinking. With those shoes he could roll forwards and backwards without moving his feet. Around the waist he had a broad silvery metal belt with an unusually large buckle, which shone slightly in a light-blue shade, which later when he was dead, turned dark blue. In the middle of the buckle was a sign in yellow, UV. It looked like a V which was incorporated in a U.

"He knew I was studying him and he said: 'It is because of the clothing I can stay with you awhile. Internally, I am destroyed.' His right hand disappeared into his clothing at the hip, where no pocket could be seen. He brought out a rectangular object. It was the size of a box of matches with 12 small dents. With a slate pencil attached to the object he engaged the different indents several times. When completed he threw it several yards away.

"'Dont touch it,' he said smilingly. 'It will tell my fellowmen what has happened, so that they dont come looking for me. Where I come from somebody is waiting for me.'

"The stranger lay for awhile as if asleep. His hands were tightly clasped, and it was evident he went through great pains. Suddenly the brothers became somewhat confused, looked at each other, and went back into the forest without a word. Later -- years after when recalling the incident, I am convinced that the stranger one way or the other asked the brothers to leave, without saying a word. I sat talking and listening to him for two hours before he died."

THE TEACHINGS OF OUR INNER CIRCLE CONFIRMED

What they talked about for those two hours I could not get the witness to reveal. I begged him and urged him but there was nothing to do, just a few fragments like these:

- The stranger came from a place in the vicinity of the constellation we call "The Eagle". (Simon & Schuster's little paperback, a Golden Nature Guide on the Constellations, Sun, Moon, etc., New York, 1956, $1.00, shows Aquila, the Eagle constellation, to be north of Sagittarius, with the bright star Altair near its center.)

- Several races from space have visited us, some so far advanced, that we could only see them when they materialized or dematerialized to visit a parallel universe in the orbit of the earth.

- Some visitors kept people on earth under surveillance and had done so for thousands of years.

- Others took samples of earth, with a view to later settlements.

- Still others had contact with mankind for centuries.

In this context it is rather immaterial what was talked about even if it would have been interesting with further information about this conversation. I could understand from the witness that it had not been what was normally being told in connection with other encounters of this kind. The witness continued: "Just before the stranger died, he gave me a folded bag from the invisible pocket and said: 'When I am dead, the light will disappear from my body and with the help of the other two men you shall put me in this bag and carry me into the river where I shall disappear. Then you will rinse yourself thoroughly with water so that you don't get ill.'

"He was now breathing heavily and I could see the end was near. The halo around him became weaker and gradually disappeared. His light blue buckle gradually got darker. He looked at me for a moment and smiled. Then he said something in a language I have never heard before or since. Suddenly he switched into Swedish, and I got the last couple of sentences:

'You have come without any wish to and depart against your own wish.
Our life is like a vapour.'

"He said a few more words but his voice was so weak that I did not catch them. I am convinced he prayed to some deity before dying. I was very moved.

"With the help of the brothers we got him into the bag and carried him into the river. The bag smelled of sulphur and burned our hands as if they were raw flesh. He was quite heavy, between 90 and 100 kilos. When the bag came into the water it started bubbling around it and we realized that some chemical process had started. After five minutes nothing remained, and I thought that maybe the stranger had hoped to crash in the river to a quick death, instead of lying for a couple of hours suffering, whilst a minor in the mind asked some silly questions. He would probably have preferred to die alone, thinking of his home light years away.

"I KNEW HIM IMMEDIATELY FROM YOUR SLIDE"

"I think that was all," said the witness and prepared to leave. "I stayed for a couple of years with the brothers, but we seldom talked of that special day. I think, however, each of us went through it every day. The brothers are dead now, but I remember it like it happened yesterday. Even 22 years later I knew him immediately from your slide. It is strange, I thought I was the only one who knew this type. Over the years I have seen many pictures and drawings of visitors from space, but I've seen nobody like him until today."

The witness produced a piece of metal and held it to my nose. "Look." I was bewildered. It resembled a big crochet hook. "What is it?" He laughed knowingly.

"A couple of days after the incident I wandered around where he had been lying. The rectangular object was gone, but the pencil slate was lying in the grass, shining. I have kept it as proof that I was not dreaming."

He left. And while I gazed astonished after him, he disappeared in the crowd, an anonymous who with his story and pencil slate could hit the front pages of the world's newspapers.

The words of the stranger to the witness seemed familiar. They appear in the Old Testament Pseudopigraphs, 4th Book of Ezra 7:138-8, according to which Ezra is taken home to the Lord who owns the highest heavens, and whose home is in the sky: "You have only been allowed to live a limited while, so that all mortals made in the human picture, may live."

"UFO Aspect", the Danish UFO report, is published in English, well printed on glossy paper, by FUFOS, Free UFO Study, Bragesgade 26 D 3, DK-2200 Copenhagen N, Denmark. The editor writes: "FUFOS was founded in 1968 by six young people and since that time has expanded slowly but surely. At one stage we had eleven study groups and as early as 1969 we issued the first edition of our magazine.

"Today the association -- which has memberships of over 4,000, making it the largest of its kind in Europe -- undertakes work in many different fields, including a vast amount of lecturing and informative work. We have divided Denmark into 12 different areas, enabling us to contact UFO witnesses quickly and are establishing an Alarm Chain by telephone, and developing 11 kinds of detectors in ultra-sound, polarised light and photographic surveillance. . . ## FLYING SAUCER RESEARCH IN A TOTALITARIAN STATE

BSR Associate Hakan Blomqvist Interviews
Juri Lina, UFOlogist and Dissident,
From Jan-April 1982 AFU Nyhetsblad

Freedom of speech and opinion are something most of us in Scandinavian countries have become accustomed to. But what we take for granted is for others a dream only. This interview with Juri Lina, age 32, Estonian journalist and UFOlogist was made in December 1981. It gives a frightful picture of the way nonconformists are treated in totalitarian states. Mr. Lina is a brave man and we wish him all the best here in Sweden.

(The capital of Juri's native country, Tallinn, was a northern terminus for the earliest of Europe's trade associations, the Hanseatic Leagues. A thousand years ago Estonians watched for the arrival of trade goods from southern Europe and the Orient. Today they watch for the arrival of Visitors from Outer Space! RHC)

BLOM: First a classic question. What started your active interest in UFOs?

JURI: It began in 1969-70. On Nov. 2, 1969 I observed a cigar-shaped object from which emerged three or four shining spheres. We were three witnesses to this incident.

GEORGE ADAMSKI'S telephoto of a cigar-shaped Mother Ship materializing Scout Saucers over Palomar mountains, California, March 5, 1951, from "Flying Saucers Have Landed" by Leslie and Adamski.

Sept-Oct 1982 RR, Page 6

BLOM: Did you know anything about UFOs before this observation?

JURI: Yes, I was very intrigued by the mystery. In 1967-68 Soviet authorities published several articles on UFOs and some were translated in Esthonian newspapers. In 1970 I began my first field investigations. Other young people came to me and talked about UFOs and asked for books. At the time I only had two underground books in Esthonian. One of them was "De flygande tefaten" by K. Gosta Rehn, translated from Finnish to Esthonian and Samisdat-printed. I also contacted Tunne Kelam who wrote articles on UFOs in local newspapers. He told me there was something like one hundred Esthonian cases and from him I borrowed books and other material. I was deeply fascinated by all this and started a small underground publishing house to print Samisdat literature on UFOs, in secrecy.

JURI LINA

BLOM: Didn't you fear your activities would be discovered?

JURI: Yes, we were very afraid of the authorities and I used the pseudonym Tuulo Ellis in print. We received very few books from abroad but lots of magazines which were easier to smuggle by mail. Books didn't always reach us. Most of the material we received from Finland. Our information-net increased, we had contacts with people from Moscow, Ukraine, Leningrad, Lettland, Lithuania, Finland and Sweden. Material posted in Sweden never reached us. It had to be shipped via Finland. Our publishing grew, we printed books on parapsychology and philosophy.

BLOM: How long could you keep up this activity without interference from the KGB?

JURI: About two or three years. Several people in our group were interested in philosophy and some had become vegetarians and teetotalers.

BLOM: How did the KGB find you?

JURI: Somehow they found out there were some young people gathering who didn't drink and who had peculiar philosophical ideas. They started questioning my friends about what I was up to as I was a leader of the group. My friends warned me and mentioned the KGB visits. I now had to be very careful. Very little material was kept in my apartment. If someone wished to borrow a book I told him: be at my place at this date and hour precisely and the book will be there.

But on April 2, 1975 I woke up and noticed some men who tried to enter the front door of my house. I immediately realised it was the KGB and hurriedly burned dangerous letters and documents. They came to search my apartment and started enquiring about my UFO interests.

UFOs exist only in the West, not here, they said. You are not to tell anyone about UFOs. You are not to tell anyone about UFOs. (Interesting isn't it, that the Russian leaders have a Silence Policy on Flying Saucers, as do the American leaders, and for the same reason: fear of loss of power, of control over the people, to a superior power from Outer Space! RHC) If you persist we will make it impossible for you to live here in Esthonia. Also you dont drink. This is not good. You must have religious reasons.

BLOM: They were afraid of your philosophy?

STRANGE IDEAS ARE FORBIDDEN

JURI: Yes, they thought of me as religious. After this visit I could not get anything published in Esthonia. All editors refused my articles. That was the end of my journalistic career. Instead I took a part time job transporting cattle to Central Aisa. When I came back from this job I was called to the police. They asked about my income as I didn't write anything. I told them I was blacklisted by the KGB. You must have mental problems to believe in such things, we will put you in a mental hospital, they said. Then I started quoting Marx and Lenin and they were confused by my knowledge. To put an end to my strange ideas hard work was the best, they thought. I started working as a nightwatch.

BLOM: But you didn't stop writing?

JURI: No, I smuggled articles to Finland and also published some in Esthonia, using my friends' names. They got the money and gave it to me. But this was no solution to my problem. Sooner or later I would be discovered and imprisoned, perhaps in a mental institution. In the USSR they can send you to prison if you haven't been working for two months. The second time this happens you are sent to Siberia.

BLOM: Do you know if any Russian UFO-researchers have been imprisoned?

JURI: Yes, there was a man in Minsk, Veacheslav Zaitsev. We had much contact in 1976-77. In 1978 he stopped writing and I heard from Moscow he had been sent to Siberia for five years. Religious propaganda they called it. He had been quoting the Bible in his UFO research!

BLOM: How did you escape from Esthonia?

JURI: Well, I realised my situation was getting more and more dangerous. In 1978 my friends from Finland helped me. They sent a Finnish girl to me and we were married. The marriage was only a front, of course. I didn't know if this would succeed but possibly the authorities were tired of my activities. With me gone they could easily disrupt the group. I did receive permission to leave my country and arrived in Helsinki, April 2, 1979. There I started writing about human rights in the East. My friends in Finland warned me of these activities and in July 1979 I moved to Sweden.

BLOM: Are you publishing articles in Sweden now?

JURI: Very few. Most of my material goes to the USA.

BLOM: Have you been contacted by the KGB in Sweden?

JURI: I was invited to the USA, Canada and West Germany to relate my experiences and talk about human rights in the East. One evening, after listening to a speech by a Russian dissident in Stockholm, a KGB man came up to me and said, "If you don't stop your activities you will be killed," and he hit me. I also noticed another man but they couldn't do anything as several witnesses arrived. That was in February 1981.

NO BOOKS FORBIDDEN IN SWEDEN

BLOM: How does it feel coming to Sweden from Esthonia?

JURI: It's like another planet! You don't realise how happy you are here in Sweden. A big surprise for me was all the books available. No books are forbidden.

BLOM: In spite of all your hardships you mentioned something about feeling protected?

JURI: Yes. It is related to a UFO experience I had on Nov. 24, 1974. This was a Sunday evening and I felt very restless. A strong urge to visit a secluded place in the woods made me call two friends and we drove off to our observation post. When we arrived there was a strange red light above the trees. Not a clear light but a diffused glow. We went to our familiar old spot and immediately felt like being watched. After a short while the surroundings were illuminated in an unknown way and our bodies felt taller or bigger.

BLOM: This happened at night?

JURI: It was dark but around us everything became brighter and brighter and there was a definite increase in temperature. About half an hour past midnight we heard a noise like when you strike a match, but much stronger. From the east came a green ball of light passing about two meters above our heads.

BLOM: How big was it?

JURI: From a half to one meter in diameter. We all shouted "UFO, UFO!" It passed us and disappeared into nowhere after about 100 meters.

BLOM: Was the light in the woods still there?

JURI: No. It disappeared some ten minutes before the ball of light passed us.

BLOM: You were not afraid?

JURI: No, we felt very happy. It was a positive experience. After this all three of us have had an inner feeling of being protected, like nothing evil can reach us.

BLOM: What do you think it was you saw?

JURI: Perhaps some apparatus from a UFO. They wanted us to have proof we were noticed. After this experience I had no real deep fear of the authorities. An inner voice told me to be calm. When the time is right, I will escape from the USSR, I thought.

BLOM: What about Close Encounters in the USSR and Esthonia?

A NUCLEAR WAR WILL NOT BE ALLOWED

JURI: I have published two cases in FSR (Flying Saucer Review) From Nikita Schnee I heard of a Close Encounter involving a Russian officer. This happened outside Moscow in June 1978. The humanoids this man met told him: "We know a lot about you. If you start a war that becomes dangerous to the planet we will interfere and stop you." They also mentioned a catastrophe in the near future.

BLOM: What is the present situation on UFOs in the USSR?

JURI: There has been a general increase in reports and the authorities are worried about the consequences. They want them to go away. In Moscow there is a man, an academic, who works as chief censor. His name is Migulin. He reads all articles on UFOs before they are published. But more and more activities have filtered through lately.

BLOM: How many cases have you investigated personally?

JURI: About thirty. There are something like 200 documented cases from Esthonia.

BLOM: What do you believe about UFOs?

JURI: Personally I think they are interplanetary, but possibly also inter-dimensional. I don't believe they originate on this planet.

BLOM: How many books have you written?

JURI: Twenty-three, but only one has been published, in Finland. It is about UFO research in the USSR. I have also written about parapsychology and mysteries generally.

BLOM: Will you continue your UFO research here in Sweden?

JURI: Yes, but so far I have only held a few speeches. I still don't know many Swedish UFOlogists.

Juri's comment about being into parapsychology and the Mysteries indicates that Flying Saucers are an awakener, especially when the researcher comes to realize and accept the fact that the craft and their pilots are materializations from other planes or levels of consciousness, as well as locations related to known planets, suns and systems.

There is also a forewarning that if the millions of crypto-Nazis in the United States crawl out of the woodwork, rise up and get control of the nation -- as they did in Germany in the 1930s -- Flying Saucer researchers will have to follow Juri Lina's example and head for the nearest border; and hopefully, with the protection and guidance of the Guardians from Outer Space, they will make it -- as did Juri Lina! Associate Hakan Blomqvist writes for "Archives for UFO Research" (AFU) PO Box 11027, S-600 11, Norrköping, Sweden. The Lina interview, with bibliography, was in the January-April 1982 issue.

Dear Mr. Crabb;

In supplement to the last letter I am writing to you of an experience that I had while in New Mexico.

Shortly before the Colorado UFO Flap, and almost immediately after the Alamosa incident (Snippy the race horse's death theoretically by an UFO) there were several strange incidents right in Las Vegas.

During the weekend of September 17, 1967, at 8:13 PM that same evening, there appeared in the Western direction an UFO with the same magnitude as Venus at full intensity. The UFO moved from West and traversed in direction the the North-east moving app. 3-5 degrees velocity/ second. The color of the object was an intense electric blue. There seemed, to be a fuzzy 'haze' around the immediate exterior. Although the intensity of the light made it hard to determine the actual shape of the object, it was determined to be disc shaped. One added note of concern; the object cast a bright reflection on shiny objects on the ground, as well as on the thin layer of clouds over-head. Later that evening (although probably coincidentally) there was a strong odor of burnt plastic along with the stench of iron-sulfide.

On the Wednesday following immediately after the above incident there occurred a more controversial sighting made by close to one hundred fellow classmen as well as a few townspeople. At approximately 10:30 Mountain time (the time zone as the above) a formation of dim lighted objects passed from North-east to West of Las Vegas thus ending in West Las Vegas. The speed of these objects reproached and surpassed the calculated speed of any migrating fowl in the area. They were geometrically circular with no visible deviations. The approximate elevation was between 2550 to 4,500 feet above the elevation of Las Vegas. This calculation was made by referring to the relative position of the UFO's to the scattered cloud layers. The objects were visible at times when below the lowest cloud layer, and beyond visibility when above the clouds. The cloud elevations were tabulated in Geology lab the following day based on the weather reports for that evening.

In addition to the two reports above I must add that there are little if any air-craft in the immediate area of Las Vegas. The only commercial Air Craft is from Santa Fe as well as the Air Force bases in Colorado.

The controversy was caused by threats to me and a few other fellow students. The day immediately after this sighting I received a phone call from a friend who said that his life was threatened if he was so much as magnify the incident to higher authorities. He said that I should refrain from doing the same. I did, for a while any-way.

A few weeks later, the exact date I do not remember, I was out riding with one of the town detectives or night police. We drove up into the mountains near the Gallinas Canyon to see the view of the town when a light appeared in the sky. At first the light seemed to have no difference to any aircraft; however, it began to move erratically and then completely reversed direction without any visible and normal circular deviation in known aircraft. The object appeared to be declining in the Eastern horizon near an old water tower. At the time, the water tower was about five miles from our position. We decided to take a chance and raced full speed in that direction. By the time we arrived there was a series of small brush fires near the tower. After extinguishing these, we decided to search the area for the culprit. We arrived at a deserted ranch house surrounded by a wooden fence, and on the other side of the fence was a sharp decline into another canyon. Upon reaching this fence we stopped to obtain our direction to radio in a report. Just as suddenly as you blink an eye it became terribly hot, and the area immediately in the decline was turning blood red. At that moment an object about fifty to seventy five feet in diameter shot straight up into the sky at fantastic speed. The object was blood red. Later that night after intense over-all search of the area, we radioed in for official help. The rest I can not disclose, because the investigation was kept official and gradually got into the hands of the Air Force. I tried to sleep it all off and forget it but it was the events afterwards that almost caused me complete mental and physical breakdown. Not many will believe the rest of what I will have to say, but it does not matter that much. .... About two days after the sighting of above I too received a phone call in the form of a mild threat. I was told that I should keep all the information of the sighting to myself and forget the whole affair after all. The day after the phone call a man met me in the street on my way into the town. I never met him before but he knew about everything of the sighting and even gave me added information that confirmed some of my own research on Atlantology. However, concerning the former subject, he convulsed into an open threat to keep my mouth quiet. I retorted that not many would believe me any way. I made no mention of the other person (the cop) who was with me at the time of the sighting, but I let my thoughts refer to it. As though he read my mind he immediately confirmed the name of the other fellow and added that he was also encountered. From what I later learned, the cop lost his job and was later divorced from his wife. I will not disclose his name at the present time until I am sure of his permission. I can not refrain from hesitating in giving you the rest of the story, but to keep it to myself would result in a complete breakdown.

Two days following the encounter with the man in the Las Vegas street, again while I was walking down town, a black car started to speed in my direction while I was near the road. It came very close to hitting me, too close to suit me. I reported it to the nearest cop. He passed it off as a wreckless driver jumping the stop light. Aside from shaking and angered, I soon forgot the incident by passing it from my mind. Then suddenly I remembered something about that car. The windows, they were not clear glass, but tinted, a smoky color. The license plate on the rear of the car did not register any state; as a matter of fact it seemed to show nothing but three (XXX) exes. I might have passed this off as a form of Diplomatic or Government car, but there was something about it that I knew was not either. That was the tinted windows which made it hard to see the occupants of the car.

Toward the last weekend of October, while having a cup of coffee at my favorite cafe, and discussing politics with a few Fraternity fellows, a shot broke the monotony of the smoke filled room. The bullet came through the front window and ~~slammed~~ right into the wall about an inch above my head. Had I not been bending down to sip my coffee.... I still have nervous twitches attributed to the thought of this. However, this last incident was not enough to satisfy the intentions of the strangers, ( I was beginning to suspect the connections), a series of bad luck streaks and freak accidents began to terminate the faith of my best friends. Some-how I began to take the hint after I was bed-ridden with pneumonia for two weeks and flailed in my studies. SO, by the end of the quarter I lost all hopes of returning to New Mexico Highlands University. Now here I am back in old Mount Kisco once again, unemployed and back to 1-A.

There was one thought that keeps returning to my mind, and that was the words of the stranger. He mentioned something about a series of violent earthquakes all over the world caused by the breaking of the San Andreas fault in California. He also mentioned something to the effect of a shift in the Earth's axis, causing a great amount of the Polar ice to melt. The new rise in the waters would undoubtedly cause extreme concern to the balance of land masses. This is all nothing new from what I have learned on my own; but, however, there is one added fact that I still don't seem to understand. Why do people have to suffer from knowing the truth about these things??? I know that I share the same mis-fortunes and threats as many others. But why? What harm is there in sighting an UFO.?

I have hesitated to write many times since returning to Mount Kisco, but there must be a time that I when faced with other difficulties, should reconsider my hesitation. Perhaps by going into the service over-seas to back my price for freedom will I eventually forget the past few months. Mean-while I will refrain from further investigation into UFO's until I once again regain my confidence. For I have also encountered the mysterious and infamous "Men In Black".

Sincerely,

Russ E. Griffin

A SPACEMAN'S VIEW OF ARMAGEDDON

In bringing this talk-transcript to a close we turn to a voice of authority from Space, one who commands great fleets of Flying Saucers and their crews. The information was channeled through Mrs. E.P. H. back in the early 1950s.

"Our presence and our purpose grow increasingly clear to all unbiased and unprejudiced people of your earth, and thousands eagerly await our visible appearance. It would be quite a relief if we could make a simultaneous landing on all portions of your globe -- which I might remark is entirely feasible at this very moment -- and, employing etheric forces in the use of which we are experts, put an end to the jangle of incongruous and irreconcilable factions now blocking all possibility of united efforts toward peace. Our instructions and our principles prevent our taking such a course.

"A predominance of resolution by the inhabitants themselves must precede our entrance on the scene en masse to use our superior powers to augment those possessed by mortals at this time. It is one thing to compound and explode such a hellish thing as your H-bomb, but where is the mortal who has solved the problem of preventing its explosion or of nullifying its deadly effect? No such person exists on your planet!

"One thing I would like to make crystal clear! We Space Men, in whatever capacity we may temporarily serve, are irrevocably pledged by the most solemn oaths to abide by those Universal Laws which alone can preserve life on every level of conscious existence. To accept or condone any variance from these fixed and unchangeable codes governing all honorable behavior would be to forfeit privileges we have earned through ages of unremitting effort.

"At times you may forget that the warfare rages upon the Astral planes simultaneously with the war on the physical plane. The mere fact that many thousands of mortals have been killed does not conclude the matter! They still live! Our problem is to segregate them, not by your earthly categories of race, age, sex, etc., but in accord with their innate purpose and desires. This greatly complicates our task.

"But I say to you in all solemnity, your country of America shall be saved as by a miracle. It will not be a peaceful deliverance; but through the unfaltering loyalty of millions who have placed their faith in the Master, the Christ of God, this land will be cleansed of the abominations now infesting it.

"A long and arduous warfare has been waged against the Powers of Darkness impinging upon earth's inhabitants from invisible citadels where Lucifer has long reigned supreme over his vassals -- invisible to mortals -- assigning his followers tasks of fiendish ingenuity to entrap and inveigle human beings into abject slavery to his demands.

"As it rages on the physical plane there are three types of weapons to be employed: First, the actual material armaments necessary for defense. Second, mental agility necessary to recognize delusive propaganda. Third, the spiritual awareness and moral stamina to move steadily forward in defiance of all resistance, to establish and maintain regimes of honest government in every phase of human affairs.

THE RESPONSIBILITIES OF PEACE AND PROSPERITY

"Not without physical discomfort and suffering may the victory be won. Mortals must prove their mettle. Armageddon affords you a glorious opportunity to show yourself worthy to participate in the responsibilities as well as the privileges of the Golden Age.

"Our means of thought communication and visual observation of any person or place on the entire globe is beyond your present comprehension. It makes possible the fulfilling of a promise many times repeated, that all who put their trust in God will be divinely protected under all circumstances.

"Our appearance in physical form or the materializing of the ships we use occur only on instructions from our Headquarters far above bases in your stratosphere. (The Madrid, Spain UFO sighting of Sept. 5, 1968 would be a good example of this kind of planned appearance. Thousands of Madrileños were thronging the streets to see the runner bearing the Olympic torch, but he was upstaged by the glowing Flying Saucer 90,000 feet overhead.) They follow a predetermined schedule, not as to your clocks and calendars but in conformity with carefully computed sequences of events depending largely on mortal reaction to each step in the program. Many factors enter into the decisions made, such as planetary influences of a magnetic type, astral conditions, changing vibratory rates in many parts of the globe. This is owing to peoples' awakening to their peril and their making desperate attempts to extricate themselves. This latter consideration is perhaps the most potent point in our releasing forces in their behalf. You must yourselves instigate the attempt to gain your freedom before we can come to your rescue.

"Of course we fully sympathize with your interest in the mechanical construction and motive power used to achieve the feats of apparent wizardry which mark our arrival in your material world. Even though we may, for some specific purpose, invite you for a ride, it will be impossible for you to ferret out our secret of propulsion, since you have rejected opportunities afforded you to become acquainted with the laws governing these higher forms of energy.

"Now, what we ask you to do is to believe in our reality and our entirely impersonal desire to be of service! The sooner these two facts are accepted by people generally, the more quickly and easily shall we be able to achieve our goal and the fewer lives will be lost in the process. We are admonished to save every soul who will gladly adapt to the glorious transformation scheduled for the New Age! Some may be removed from your planet to help for a time from planes invisible, as many thousands are now doing. I am referring to recent arrivals on the Astral planes, and to a great many others, dating back to your beloved George Washington, the immortal Lincoln, and other men of their caliber. We are submitting our plans to the Highest Court of Heaven for approval and we look forward with confidence to your whole-hearted cooperation."

My love and blessings, Ashtar

In conclusion we append the remarks of the Chinese Sage, Lao Tse, channeled through Mark Probert, also in the early 1950s: "The Flying Saucers have often come simply in quest of knowledge, just as you make expeditions to far-off places, to the Polar regions or to Central Asia. They are not here with intent to interfere in your affairs; nevertheless, if there is another world war, employing nuclear energies, they may be forced to intervene. The release of atomic forces has disturbed their sphere of existence rather seriously.

"Let it be understood that if ever such intervention becomes necessary, it will be wholly impersonal. There will be no taking of sides. It is contrary to the Law that any one plane should interfere with the process by which another works out its destiny. They are vastly your superiors in science -- though every plane has its special forms of development and progress; so that we speak of differences, but not often of superiority or inferiority.

"The Etherians are large people, up to 15 ft. in height. I would say that they belong to the human order of evolution -- that is, you would not call them Devas or Nature Spirits. Yet the great forms you have seen and photographed, in the clouds and on the surface of the earth also, somewhat resemble them.

"You ask why they are now suddenly present in large numbers. I shall tell you. Always when a civilization, a culture has reached its height and is destined to collapse, the Ethereans have appeared in numbers. They come to make an examination and final record, for their own knowledge, of the status of that civilization -- somewhat as you do with disappearing tribes and races. And it is true also that they have been alerted and disturbed by your release of atomic energies.

"But all past civilizations and races have had their day and failed in some way, and passed out of earth existence. So with your civilization. The Etherean people came, and observed, and made their historical records then. So they come now."

Anything that is born, must die; and that is true of civilizations as well as human beings, only the time scale is different; so remember that life goes on to higher and higher goals. The death of one civilization heralds the birth of a newer and better one! Goodbye, Pisces, welcome Aquarius!

Dear Brinsley:

Sorry you had to cancel our proposed talk to the All-Party UFO Study Group of the House of Lords, for reasons beyond your control. You should keep the committee going, whether I come over to address it or not. One government in the Western world should be regularly and openly looking into this most serious and disturbing subject.

I am enclosing an Abstract of the talk that was in preparation for our April meeting. It will be given at the Fifth Annual convention of the World Future Society in Washington, D.C., June 14th, and is being offered to the lecture committee for the U.S. Psychotronics Association convention in Atlanta, Georgia, June 27th through July 1st. The theme of the convention is "Agriculture II -- Harmony With Nature" and I am suggesting Harmony With Nature at the Solar System, Constellation or Zodiac, and Galactic levels!

In the Secretary General of the United Nations we have the one person who represents mankind, for better or for worse. Thus he is the only one who can and should be ready to welcome the arrival of the ambassador and other officials of the Interplanetary Confederation. This would be Harmony With Nature at the Solar System level, the next logical step in our evolution.

Are you far enough along in your committee work that you could have one of your people at the United Nations sound out Perez de Cuellar, to see if he is mentally and emotionally prepared to plan and carry out such an official reception? Perez says he is prepared to negotiate, negotiate, negotiate; how about "negotiating" with official Visitors from other planets? The authority and impersonality of the Visitors -- along with their technical superiority -- would give the United Nations a police power which it has hitherto lacked. Just the threat of such superior power should give Washington, London, Moscow, Peking, Paris, etc., pause in their war plans and even force them to consider peaceful alternatives!

Yours,

Dear Riley,

Thank you for your interesting letter of the 30th April

Yes, I entirely agree with you that we should make every effort to establish contact with official visitors from other planets.

I will contact a leading member of our Lords
HFE Group, Admiral of the Fleet The Lord Hill-Norton, who used to be Chief of the Defence Staff and answer him your letter.

We will also try and sound out Perez de Cuellar, and let you know how get on.

All best wishes,

Sincerely,

Brinsley.

E YADA DI SHI' ITE

This personality was born in the city of Kaoti (City of Temples) in a civilization called Yuga (Vast Body), or Yu. This civilization consisted of 180 million people and existed a half million years ago. It was located in the Himalayan Mountains. He was taken from his mother as a baby and raised in the temples, to become a Kata (Priest) and later High Priest or Yada. The word really means "Spirit Life": He was therefore one of the heads of a mystical order called "Shi Ite".

The "Yu" civilization had been founded by a man named Na Sep Ni Ha, meaning the seventh son of a family named "Ha". E Yada was killed in a violent quake that completely destroyed the civilization along with eighty million of its inhabitants. E Yada was about thirty-four when he died and the "Yu" civilization one thousand and twenty-four when it died.

LAO-TSE or LAO-TZU

This personality lived between 550-600 B. C. (b. 604 B. C. encyc.), in a town called K'uhsien. He belonged to a wealthy and educated family, and had no need to work for the Imperial Library, yet spent much time there poring over the books. He later became a roaming sage. Actually he did no writing at all, but his sayings were compiled by his disciples. Had a wife and seven children, and according to custom, several concubines. At about fifty years of age he abandoned his family and followers and was taken into the mystical school of the White Brotherhood. He died smiling happily at the age of eighty-two.

He had an extraordinary intellect and was a truly great philosopher; a central figure in Taoism.

PROFESSOR ALFRED LUNTZ

This personality was born in 1812 and died in 1893. He was a clergyman for the High Episcopal Chuhch of England. He was of English and German parentage and was born in North London. Graduated from the Eton School for Boys at the age of seventeen. He worked in his father's law firm in Hanover, Germany, until he was twenty. Attended Heidelberg where he took a course in philosophy and comparative religion, then on to Oxford where he received his Ph. D. in the Episcopal Theological Seminary and later served a donship. He was a devotee of Queen Victoria. He was not surprised when he died to discover that he had survived the grave, but stunned when he realized there was no heaven or hell as he had so eloquently taught and believed.

RAMOND NATALLI

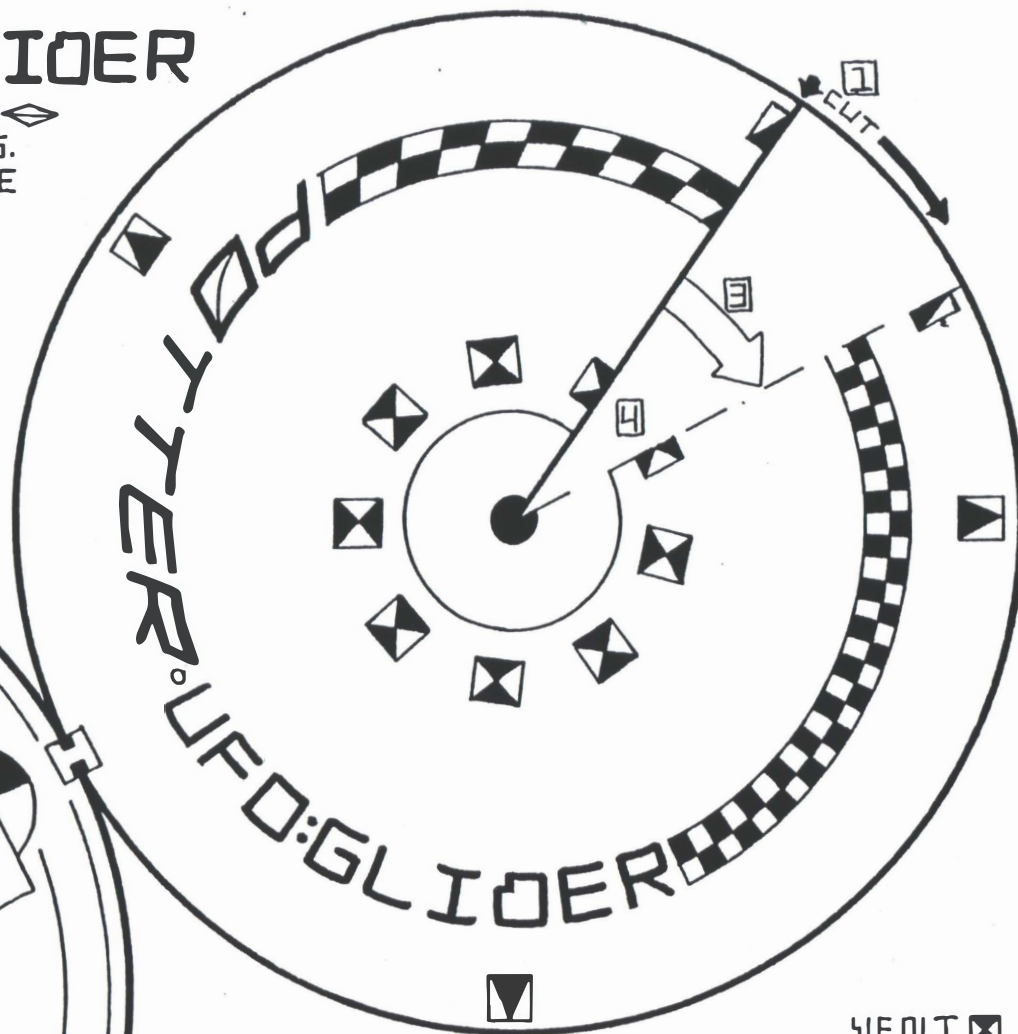

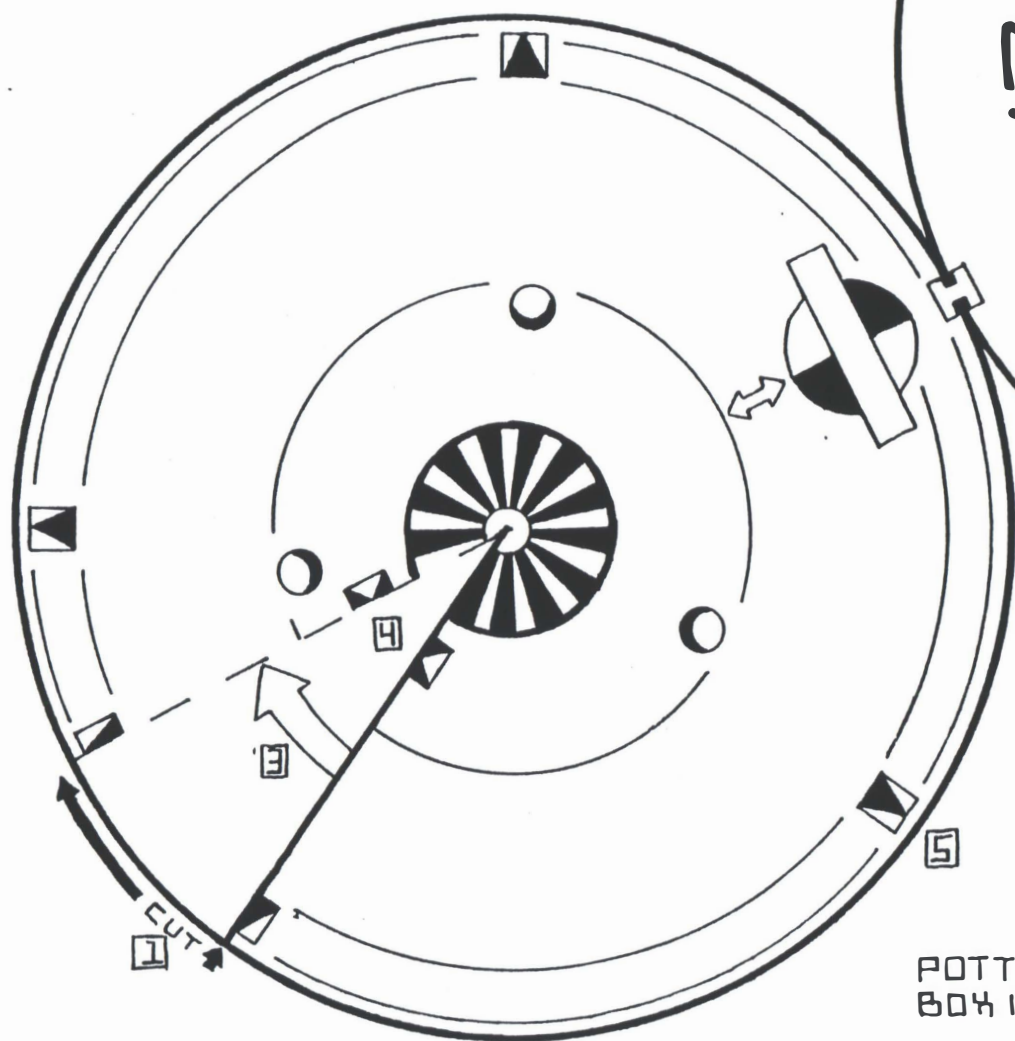

This personality was born in 1598 and died in 1652. He was an astronomer and belonged to the Royal House of Astronomy in Rome, Italy. He was also a student of law. He was a close friend of the famous Galileo and secretly fought the bloody hand of the Inquisition. Ramond Natalli was an agnostic.

He continued to pursue the field of astronomy after passing into the astral. He was pleasantly surprised to discover he had survived the death of his physical body. He discovered two things of great interest after being in the astral world about two years - the first was that sun spots were atomic storms and the other was that atoms consist of photons of varied frequency levels moving in a series of quantum arcs.

Flying Saucers

NAVY MISSILE EXPERT SAYS HE SAW THEM AT WHITE SANDS

NEW YORK, Feb. 23 (UP)—A navy officer says flying saucers were seen over the White Sands, N.M., proving grounds for guided missiles last year, and he thinks the discs are space ships from another planet.

The officer, Cmdr. Robert B. McLaughlin, writes in the March issue of True magazine that saucers were seen at White Sands in April, May and June, 1949.

On one occasion, he said, two small saucers chased a navy rocket.

The air force has called the discs hoaxes or misunderstandings of natural phenomena.

IS MISSILE EXPERT

However, Cmdr. McLaughlin, identified by the magazine as a naval ordnance and guided missile expert, wrote in his article:

"I am convinced that they are space ships from another planet, operated by animate, intelligent beings."

A navy spokesman said Cmdr. McLaughlin now is commanding officer of the destroyer Bristol.

In its January issue, the same magazine published an article by Donald E. Keyhoe, who also believed the saucers were space ships from another planet.

Said the air force at that time: "Air force studies of flying saucers lend no support to the view that they come from another planet."

Next day the air force ended a two year investigation into flying discs by labeling them "misinterpretation of various conventional objects, a mild form of mass hysteria or hoaxes."

Cmdr. McLaughlin said that in April, 1949, a group of navy men and scientists "tracked" a disc with an instrument which was being used to watch a weather balloon and chart its progress upward.

105 FEET IN DIAMETER

He added that data obtained indicated the saucer was about 105 feet in diameter and flew at a speed of about five miles a second at an altitude of approximately 50 miles. It was visible for a minute.

He wrote that in May, 1949, he personally watched a flying saucer at White Sands.

"As I watched it," he recounted, "it rapidly gained speed. The object had now passed overhead and I thought it was going to fall near a ranch house two or three miles west of us. But it spurted like a scalded cat, shot over the Organ mountains behind us and disappeared."

He also wrote that in June other observers saw two small flying saucers flitting around a 2,000 feet per second navy rocket. The discs finally speeded up and passed the fast traveling navy missile.

At White Sands, officials said the flying saucer report is "nothing new" and declined comment.

Last August, two Los Angeles newsmen reported that officers at White Sands informed them they had seen flying discs or mysterious flying objects.

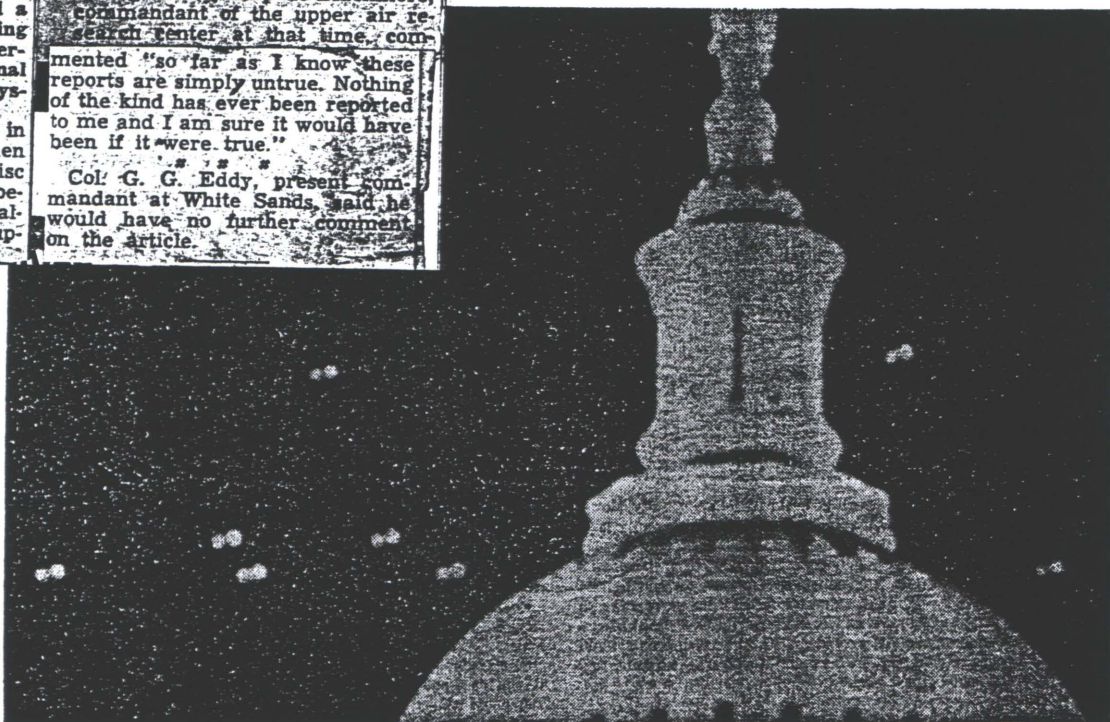

Marvin Miles, aviation writer for the Los Angeles Times, and Clem Roberts, new commentator for radio station KFWB, Los Angeles, issued the reports.

Brig. Gen. Philip G. Blackmore, commandant of the upper air research center at that time, commented "so far as I know these reports are simply untrue. Nothing of the kind has ever been reported to me and I am sure it would have been if it were true."

Col. G. G. Eddy, present commandant at White Sands, said he would have no further comment on the article.

Typical Man-In-Black stands in doorway across the street from the Robinson's apartment. Frightened by this real apparition, Mrs. Robinson went to stay with neighbors while her husband was at work that week.

"Men In Black" and the black Cadillacs they arrive in are not something "dreamed up" by UFO buffs, as an article inside, by John J. Robinson, will point out. The large black auto, pictured above, carried a man in black who watched the Robinson home for more than a week. It was photographed by James W. Moseley, who also took our back-cover photo. Although SAUCER NEWS has not yet established the identity of the Robinsons' strange visitors, we HAVE proven that REAL and PHYSICAL visitations of UFO researchers, by unknown persons of questionable motives, are taking place. Don't laugh - for they may be at YOUR HOUSE tonight!

SPACE VISITOR?—What people in Madrid saw in the sky was this cone-shaped object, photographed here through a telescopic lens.

'Thing' In the Sky Defies Explanation

Sept. 6, 1968

By H. AUGUST DEBELIUS

MADRID (CNS)—Madrid's "flying saucer" is still a mystery. Thousands of people saw it cross the sky above the Spanish capital.

Even the Spanish Air Ministry admits that it has no positive knowledge about the nature of the unidentified flying object.

What's more, the Air Ministry refused to comment about another sighting reported later by scientists at a weather station in Cuenca in east central Spain.

Spanish air force F-104 jet fighters attempted to intercept the thing seen by thousands of Madrilenians.

Amid the flurry of imaginative rumors, at least a few facts emerged to establish what the thing was not.

The first reaction from the Madrid Observatory was, "We don't know what the thing is but we assume it must be a satellite."

However, a spokesman for the U.S. space tracking facility at nearby Robledo stated, "It is definitely not an American satellite." When asked if it could be a flying saucer he answered, "Who knows?"

The Spanish Weather Bureau announced that there was no reason to suppose it was one of

The mysterious UFO, which appeared above the Spanish capital Sept. 5 during an evening rush hour, when the sky was still light, cruised above the center of the city for more than one hour. So many people stopped to stare at the strange gleaming object that traffic in the Gran Via, Madrid's main street, became completely jammed.

At half past seven that evening I was at the Plaza de Colon in central Madrid, waiting for the arrival of the Olympic Games torch-bearer. The crowd was not looking up the broad avenue leading to the ceremonial platform. All heads were turned skyward.

First with skepticism, then with growing astonishment, I saw a brilliant apparition in the western sky.

As it moved slowly to the southwest, the entire crowd's attention was completely distracted from the ceremony. Photographers turned their cameras skyward and took numerous photos, some through telescopic lenses.

The photos clearly showed that whatever the thing was, it was something very unusual, conical in shape and emitting a blinding light.

The Spanish air force, which picked up the unidentified object on their sophisticated American-designed radar network, dispatched F-104 jets to investigate.

One pilot attempted to approach the object at an altitude of 50,000 feet but was forced to give up the chase with the device still a great distance above him when his fuel ran low. Another pilot came close enough to give a graphic description of the device.

"It was pyramid shaped," he said, "and there were three globes of bright light at its base."

The many photos, and telescopic information from the Madrid Observatory, bore out his description.

their meteorological balloons.

While tens of thousands of Spaniards gaped at the moving object in the heavens, and Spanish radar briefly tracked it, strangely the vast U.S. military air base at Torrejon on the outskirts of the capital claimed it did not show up on their radar screens.

The Spanish Air Ministry, while admitting that it had no positive knowledge of the nature of the thing, offered a soothing suggestion—with considerable reservations—that it might be a commonplace thing. "Although trustworthy data is lacking," the statement said, "it would seem that we might possibly be dealing with a weather balloon."

It was not a very convincing explanation, nor one which tallied with eye-witness descriptions and photos. For one thing its shape did not suggest a balloon; for another the pilot quoted in an Air Ministry statement described something quite different from a balloon; and finally. There were credible reports that the thing was moving counter to winds at its estimated altitude.

One theory advanced by a respectable government source was that it was a meteorological balloon that drifted over Spain from France—a balloon used by researchers in the Concorde jet liner project. But that theory collapsed the following day when French technicians found their balloon in northern Spain, and said they had tracked it constantly and it had not drifted over Madrid.

Is he REAL? Or ...?

Amateur photographer Jim Templeton insists that there was no one else in front of his camera when he photographed his daughter on Solway Marsh.

So Jim, of Newton-road, Carlisle, let police experts see the colour print.

They said the man, looking towards "an atomic station" and NATO radio tracking base, must be 7ft. tall—if he's really there.

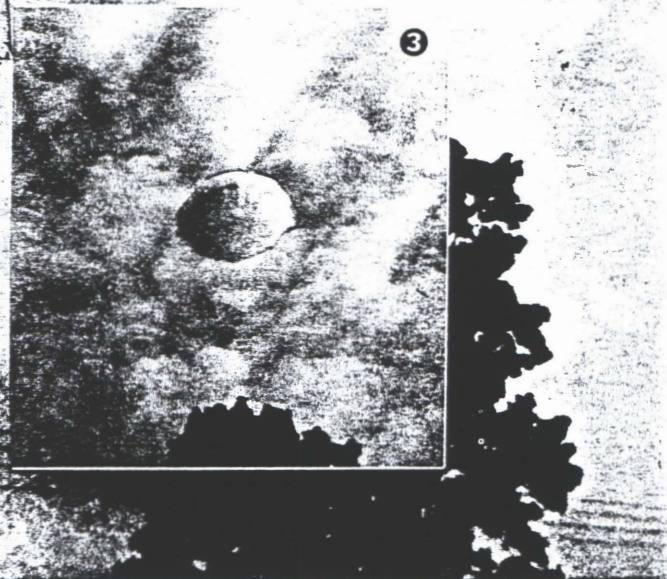

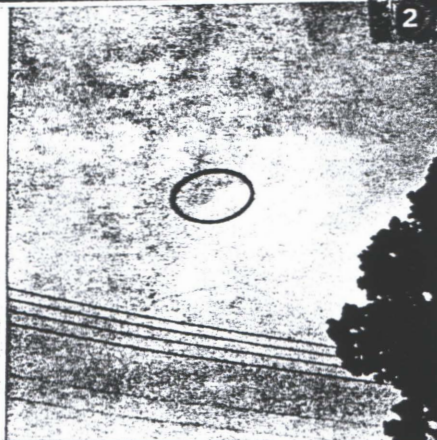

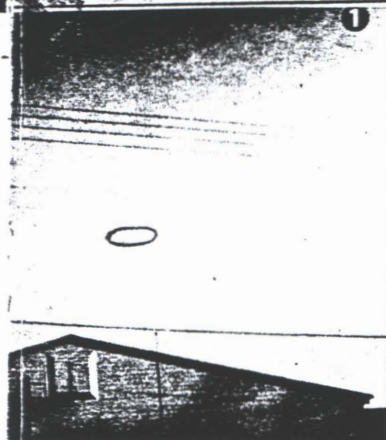

"It's a mystery," said a police spokesman. "But we're not taking it seriously. It must be a freak."

Passing Time Has Broken the Bonds

This picture, first foreign flying saucer picture, was taken by Newsreel cameraman Enrique Hausemann Muller, in Spain, April 24, 1950. The object was described as being very luminous, of very huge size, and spun across the heavens with a rotating motion, giving off streamers or rays of flame like a fireworks pinwheel. Yet it seemed to be intelligently guided, and did not appear to be indefinite in shape. It showed the distinct oval of a disk-shape and seemed thicker in the center than at the edges. The color was a weird greenish orange, rather more green than orange, and there was absolutely no sound following its passage across the skies. Its speed was estimated to be in the neighborhood of four hundred miles per hour, and was in sight long enough for Muller to focus his camera and get it squarely in his rangefinder. This picture is reproduced by courtesy of United Press Newspictures, Chicago, Ill. Efforts to obtain another foreign photo, that taken by Chilean officers at the South Pole base of the Chilean government, have proved fruitless.

This photograph was taken by Duane Wray, who lives nine miles north of Norton, Kansas, at 5:05 p.m. CST February 18, 1948. It has been claimed to be a meteor. Yet the so-called meteor was reported over El Reno, Okla. at 5:05 p.m. and over Stillwater, Okla. at 5:12 p.m. Reports also came from Garden City, Dodge City, Anthony, Hutchinson and Dassel, all in Kansas; Sydney, Nebraska; Buffalo, Oklahoma; Higgins, Texas, anywhere between 4 p.m. and 5 p.m. An army pilot reported the object seemed to come from the ground and go up. Apparently it exploded many times.

4000-Foot 'Saucer' Revealed in Photo

ALAMOGORDO, N. M., July 30 (UPI)—A photograph of an "unconventional aerial object"—saucer shaped and an estimated 4000 feet across—was released today by a group of civilians at this missile test center.

The Aerial Phenomena Research Organization, which has Government employees in its membership but no official status, said a Government photographer took the picture on October 16, 1957. The weird, huge object hovered for 15 minutes over the north missile test range near Holloman Air Force Base, the APRO claimed.

E. G. Lorenzen, of Alamogordo, spokesman for the APRO, said the name of the photographer could not be revealed. He said the Hatch Act forbids Government employees from becoming involved in public controversies such as the decade-long debate about whether flying saucers exist.

"Experts have examined the negative and all prints and are convinced of its authenticity," Lorenzen said. He quoted the photographer: "I've never seen anything like it before or since. It definitely was not a cloud."

Lorenzen said APRO members calculated that the "unconventional aerial object" was 4000 feet across its longest axis, my computing angles drawn between it and fixed objects—telephones poles, mountains and such—which appear in the photograph. He admitted it was only an educated guess, since the altitude of the saucer was not known. The photographer did not disclose that he had taken the picture until March of this year, Lorenzen said.

The APRO spokesman said the picture was released today because the unofficial organization had made all the use of it from an information standpoint which could be made.

in trouble. Look at the fire.' It originated on the ground and grew in size to about 100 feet around - a ball of fire, sort of reddish-orange, like nothing I ever saw before."

"Then, almost as quickly as I saw it, it diminished, got smaller and finally, about 10 seconds after I first saw it, it disappeared completely."

From his position Ross said he could estimate with some degree of certainty that the UFP first appeared over the New York Power Authorities Niagara Mohawk Company (attributed by some as being the source of the trouble) and during its rather brief visibility continuing on over the New York Central Railroad tracks near Lake Oneida.

Among many other persons known to have observed the exact or related event was Robert C. Walsh, employed by the city of Syracuse As Deputy Aviation Commander. Walsh said that while on a simple pleasure ride over the shopping district of downtown Syracuse the lights seemed to dim, then brighten and then go out completely. At first he was panic stricken with the thought his eyes were failing him and fearing that he might crash and hurt someone he began to take evasive action. However at about this point he could still barely see the lights from the traffic in the street and not knowing what to think he radioed the tower at Hancock Field. They told him, NOT KNOWING the overall wide spread Eerie bright objects — dubbed Big Mama and the Baby UFOs — have been seen repeatedly in northeast Colorado by bewildered ranchers and law officers who link the UFOs to the bizarre mutilation deaths of 77 animals.

"There is a very definite connection between the lights and the mutilations because each time we've had a mutilation the lights have been seen," said Logan County Sheriff Harry Graves, of Sterling, Colo.

Since August 1975, when the first UFO and mutilated animal were reported, 74 cows, one steer, one bull and a horse have been mutilated, added Undersheriff Jerry Wolever.

In every case, parts of the body — eyes, ears, tongues, sex organs — have been surgically removed in ways that have veterinarians baffled.

"It's very puzzling," said Graves, 47, a law officer for 23 years.

He added that there is absolutely no sign that the deaths were caused by predators — and in all cases there were no visible footprints or tire tracks.

The sheriff said he and four other officers have seen Big Mama numerous times.

"Big Mama looks like a huge, brilliant star that hovers high in the sky for up to 90 minutes and then suddenly disappears at great speed," Graves said.

Sometimes, he added, as many as three baby UFOs have "come out of the belly of Big Mama and their lights are very bright.

"When the little ones get done with whatever they're doing they join up with the big one and disappear," Graves continued.

"We've chased Big Mama by plane and cars and have stationed men in remote areas — but we still can't get close enough to see what it is."

Undersheriff Wolever said that he watched as news photographer Bill Jackson photographed the mysterious objects and watched them through a telescope.

"At first Big Mama was round but then she disappeared on the night we photographed her," said Wolever.

"When she reappeared she was more pear-shaped and her color changed from white to red to green to white."

UFOs Linked to Weird Animal Mutilations

Wolever, 40, an officer for 11 years, said Logan County residents began reporting the weird objects at the same time as the first animal mutilation.

"We had reports coming into us almost every night during a period when there were many mutilations," Wolever said.

"The mutilations occurred in the same concentrated area where the reports of the strange lights came from."

Sheriff Graves said the mutilations defy explanation because:

- Predatory animals will not go near any mutilated carcass.
- There are no signs of bleeding.
- Whole sections of skin are removed without leaving any trace of a blade mark on the flesh underneath.
- The animals are sometimes found flat on their backs with all four legs sticking straight up — an unnatural position.

In the only two cases where there were markings on the ground, strange pod-like indentations were found.

Rancher Richard Gillham, 27, of Peetz, Colo., said he discovered "a series of circles about four inches in diameter and about five feet apart in a tripod-type formation" on the ground where one of his cows was mutilated.

"The ground was real hard so whatever made those indentations had to be quite heavy."

Sheriff Graves said he found similar pod-like marks, only smaller, at a mutilation site southwest of Sterling.

Frank Zink, a 40-year-old rancher in Iliff, Colo., claims that he has lost 11 animals to mutilations in the last two years.

"I'm positive that predators had nothing to do with them because the cuts were just too perfect," he declared.

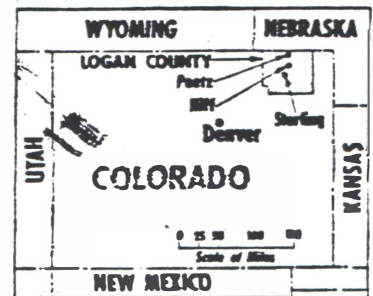

The mutilations throughout the county have left veterinarians perplexed.

Dr. L.L. Rieke, a veterinarian who has practiced in the Sterling area for many years, did an autopsy on a cow that had been mutilated in Atwood, Colo.

"I discovered the uterus was gone, taken out from behind. I don't know how to explain it. It still has me baffled," Dr. Rieke said.

Another veterinarian who examined mutilated cattle was Dr. William Fanning. "I went out with the sheriff on several cases and there were certainly things we couldn't explain," he said.

Added Sheriff Graves: "It's very strange, very weird. It may cost us our lives, but one of these days we'll solve this mystery."
