EXTRACT FROM VIRTUES, LAWS AND POWERS BY “ANONYMOUS”
Introduction* Published 1995 ISBN 1-885-186-83-5

There are people on the Earth today who hunger for knowledge of the mysteries of life. They may have sought to satiate their thirst for Truth through paths of science, art, philosophy, psychology, religion, or social services. Many, at the close of a long career in such fields, hear the hounds of death at their heels while their spiritual bellies ache with emptiness. They go to their deaths longing for the unknown, trembling with angst.

It may seem preposterous for this book to presume to fill some of that void by bringing to the reader the fundamentals of the natural Laws of the soul. Indeed, few people have ever considered that the soul of man has a type of matter, not unlike his flesh, although existing in a different octave of being. Few people are aware that there are principles, similar to known physics principles, that control the dynamics of spiritual matter. Furthermore, such spiritual Laws have a watershed effect upon the physical body of man and the Earth.

Looking out upon the sea of disorder within the major cities, one cannot help wondering why violent crime is becoming increasingly prevalent, and what could bring it to a halt. During the sixties the cry of liberals was for more social services, as though money or food could be the panacea. Others cried for gun control, more prisons, or other material solutions. Despite all attempts at controlling societal disorder the ghettos swell with violence, and the traditional family structure is almost gone.

There are some idealists who look into the heart of this disorder as though it were full of signs of wonderful societal transformation for the better. And yet, teenage pregnancies, AIDS, infections, robberies, rapes, and murders all continue to increase in number. By what criteria are these idealists measuring their success?

If one looks back over recorded history, pockets of societal peace and order rise out of the pages with haunting similarities of belief systems. Within each religion can be found keys that lead to the inner teachings of the fundamental Laws of the soul and of life itself. The fighting between religions has been due to clinging to differences rather than searching for similarities. The obvious similarities are merely echoes of the underlying mysteries which have traditionally been reserved for an inner circle of the spiritual elite.

The knowledge of the inner mysteries of life, held within the core of each religion, was withheld from the masses because of the danger of sorcery if the principles were applied without integrity. Any power that can transform a man's soul can also destroy his body if directed with malefic intent. It was safer to allow the alchemical mysteries, which were the core of each religion, to be watered down in a harmless fashion, in a way that could possibly change man's behavior through fear or promise of heaven. It was assumed by the spiritual forefathers that a man who lived decently might learn to think decently. If a man thought in a decent manner, then, later he might be able to control the spiritual forces with integrity and not run amok with unbridled passion.

For this reason, most religions focused upon behavioral instructions, rather than the reasons that certain behaviors could block the path to spiritual power. People have, by and large, decided that the behavioral instructions are no longer valid and so have developed many blocks to the higher teachings.

It is now time to reveal the inner teachings, in hope that humans can understand the reasons for behavioral sanctions and thought control.

The Laws are immutable. Man cannot break these Laws, but can break himself against these Laws. This is happening today on a massive scale. A man can tell himself all day long that fire is not hot, and yet burn himself, should he put his hand in a flame. Just as there are lower laws of the visible component of fire, there are higher Laws of the unseen components of fire. Many a man has thrust his own unseen components into fire and burned away part of himself.

It is possible to heal oneself through the application of higher Laws. If humans can bring healing order to their own lives, then they can begin to bring order to their families and to their own culture. If they do that, they can start to bring order to the world.

Healing the world must start with healing the self. This book holds the ancient mysteries through which personal transformation is made possible, if the applicant is sincere and willing to change. The dilettante will benefit little, except through some intellectual titillation. This book was written not for dinner table discussion, but at great price, and with great courage, by a traveler within such mysteries, in hope of helping humanity out of chaos. Since it merely recites the principles of the mysteries, it shall be considered anonymously and gnostically written, for man cannot hope or presume to create the Laws and Virtues. This is not a “channeled” book, but a book reflecting the experience of the traveler through many realms as real as the one before your face.

If you also dare to be a traveler into unseen realms, this book will guide you safely.

1994 JANUARY LECTURES BY ANONYMOUS

The following class lectures transcribed either verbatim from audio tapes or from class notes unrevised by Anonymous and written lessons were given by Anonymous to audiences familiar with the general background of Spiritual Science. The emphasis was in the dissemination of knowledge that was normally hidden from the general public, but has had a haunting recurrence throughout the millennia.

NOTE

- 1) All LESSONS, LECTURES and CHARTS were given in class; created by Anonymous. Class Notes were taken by an auditor and not corrected by Anonymous and for these, it is suggested the reader also refer to the original, unabridged audio tapes where available.
- 2) The best introduction to the dowsing system may be found in the Advanced Esoteric Spiritual Dowsing Books, I, II, III.
- 3) Please keep in mind that this library is missing many of the original audio tapes (of which there were at least 50 per month during a three year period) as well as some dowsing charts, Class Notes and Lessons. These books are compiled from the resources currently available to this library.

JANUARY 1, 1994 CLASS NOTES

(Typed by an auditor during the lecture, uncorrected by Anonymous)

Sucker Worlds exist only if ensouled people give them power. (See Soul Lesson, Soul Blocks Charts next page for listing of sucker worlds). If one is hooked into a sucker world relative to a planet (i.e. Uranus murder sucker world);

Ask: “Who in the group (or associated with you) has threads in the sucker world?”

“How many people are hooked in?” and

Do: Destroy the sucker world itself by destroying the food source (all the threads hooked in).

You can't destroy the sucker world unless all the threads are destroyed. It will grow back from a little seed. One globule fed, that globule will become a demon, an egoic from that sucker world will hover and with any cracks in the aura, you will tend to ooze out and unite with other people's sucker worlds around you. You can't repair cracks if there are any sucker threads; they won't hold.

This came to mind this morning when “Aur” kept getting “destroy thread”, and T2 found that sucker worlds have threads. We have Mega Sucker Worlds where thousands are hooked in, and any ensouled person could keep it alive, or create a new one. The sucker world pops when the threads are gone.

We need to identify: “How many sucker worlds we are hooked into?” and

Check the related planets...quadrants...body parts... etc. (See charts next page)

When our aura leaks from imbalance, when one loses emotions and mental control, one will grab hold of the sucker world and think they are your thoughts. If you dowse “Cords”, they may be bigger in diameter.

Ask: “How many different sucker worlds you have and are hooked into, primary and secondary?

And the planets connected.

For example, imagine a Cord as big as the canister the TV is sitting as 100% on a scale.

Ask: “I want the pipeline going to a Sun Sucker World”.

Do: Get the aura meter, adjust the lenses to a Sun energy (check on the Aura Charts), and

You could dowse the huge emanation coming out of the body part.

Then ask: “Who else is hooked in?”

Do: Check % maximum.

Example: T3 has one 30x maximal, and this is related to someone's family member.

Do: Ask the Holy Beings to burn up all connections involved and Remove all threads of yours and others.

These will cause leaks on the Earth Cord...Monad...Virtues.

Also check: All students and children and remove.

Check Body Parts...Earth Map...Octaves and one may be able to clear without knowing how, Particularly if you get a physical symptom, i.e. itching and nausea. Check for these.

Example: One student has 9 threads to Mars, with 70 people hooked in, through the intestines.

One can feed them with emotional charges.

This also shows how quickly the Monad could leak, or Earth Cord break.

If the core person is obsessed about another, and hooked into a sucker world, they will keep feeding lines to you over and over. You could have a zombie with the desire substance of an ensouled person which would empower the zombies and the zombie has sexual fantasy about you, with the power of the ensouled person to create. The sucker world would be around their head at work, and every now and then, it would burst and ooze droplets of ideas, like “I wish I could get someone in bed” and have images of sex with the original obsessing thought. So the guy next to him starts to circular thinking from droplets in his head, then he starts oozing onto T2, and T3, and his desire substance reaches up to the sucker world and sends up 4-5 sucker lines, makes a big globule over his head, and eventually bursts on the woman behind him, and she starts to think about sex and the sucker world gets bigger.

Charts Combination: Auric Octaves; Aura Layers; Planets; Soul Blocks; Advanced Quadrant Chart

Ask: "Who in the group (or associated with you) has threads in a sucker world?"... "How many people are hooked in?"

Do: Destroy sucker world by destroying food source (threads hooked in). Check Body Parts...Earth Map...Octaves

Ask: How many sucker worlds we are hooked into? (Cords/Threads/Globules)(Primary/Secondary)(Planets/Quadrants/Body Parts)

Do: i.e. Get the aura meter, adjust the lenses to a Sun energy check on the Aura Charts, and body parts

Then ask: "Who else is hooked in?" Do: Ask Holy Beings to burn up all connections involved...Remove threads yours/others.

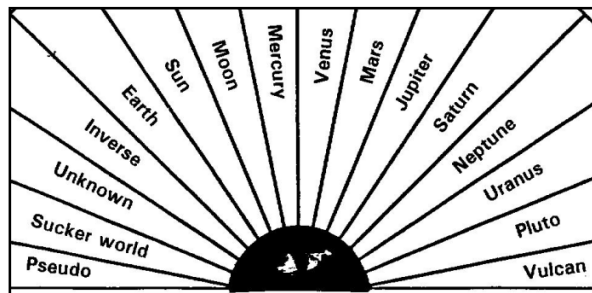

Also check: All students and children and remove. Check leaks on Earth Cord...Monad...Virtues.

This will cause you to repeatedly dowse as "other people." Key: Go back and check "How many people are still hooked in?"

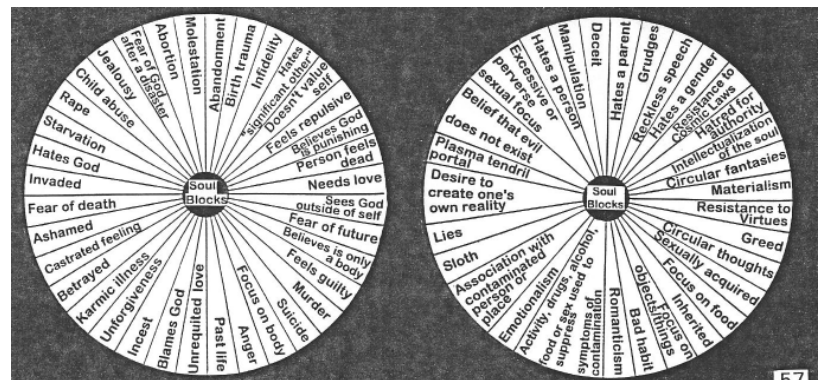

Mega sucker worlds associated with the planets are fed by millions of people, and are the most common. If you created them with nagual powers, you have a grave responsibility to destroy, or else it is like an evil demigod. Ask for: Abnormal Evil Creative Centers in a body location. With Secondary Sucker Worlds: Follow them to the primary person and eradicate all the threads coming into that sucker world from all people. Ask: "What body part on the primary person is associated?" Check: The octave level.

Do: Follow to the spider and cut well, all round it.

The biggest change in each step is in the increase in complexity, rather than frequency.

The more refined spiritual realms can only be found by a person who has refined these layers.

Anything from 1 to 13 is within the range of normal human experience. Those categories can be cleared by all soul types, if trained. They could be considered Jacob's ladder and above that is the realm of the gods. Below 1 is the range of death.

On this chart you can find blocks on Jacob's ladder. Dowse for foreign contamination, missing parts of self, blocks, and severed ladder rungs.

From the 13 null space and up, nagual power is required to clear. Anything in the Red category is satanic. Anything in Red would be retro or inverse.

The office then has a huge rain cloud of sucker droplets and then anyone who walks in the office will start to think about sex, tell nasty jokes and can't quit. Then this person who is thinking about you, and you may be in isolation, throws a desire line to you and you start getting images of sexual practice, so you throw a desire line into a sucker world, or maybe not, and you see the sucker line there, and disintegrate it, but the person thinks of you again by the power they have by another ensouled person. You could snap the line and disintegrate the cords a million times, but if they are thinking about you, they will re-hook.

Do: Remove all lines from ensouled people so the sucker worlds will starve to death. Jg had so many sucker lines feeding him; he would repeatedly send obsessive thoughts to this place.

Example: One student: the sucker world does not have lines to it, but has it in his tissue, the liver (sic).

Ask: "How many lines are going out?" (80). One student has one in his brain.

"How many lines (you have) into another sucker world or in the actual body?"

This will cause you to repeatedly dowse as "other people."

Do: Look at the body charts and octaves.

Reminder: Destroy all the people's threads connected to them.

This is where detail is important; you have to be detailed to remove. One student has 70 lines of force out of his lungs, and he is feeding 70 through his lungs and one of them is out to someone at work. He could destroy the line, but it will grow right back.

You can't heal an aura and make it hold unless you remove it (the sucker world). This is a left-over from split time, and unless you remove it, it will cause soul death. We need to eradicate them, as they are spiritual infections that will cause the soul to snap. Why does "Top" have 80 in her tissue? During the ensoulment push, there were so many nagual energies, so much in the house, that they were fed. The least little hostility, if fed by nagual pipeline, will create a sucker world.

This is why T2 can teach a concept a hundred times and the person cannot hear it even once, because they haven't done a single thing asked, or changed their thoughts or gained emotional control. Yet she would have said it over and over.

But a sucker world is a blind spot, and a person will not change unless you remove the sucker world, and all ties. In split time they were fed by inverse powers, but now it is no longer the case. All the sucker worlds would die if all the ensouled people would not feed them. We have destroyed all the evil demigod power sources, so that now they are fed through soul forces.

With leaks in monads: (and Thread to Creation) one will get drained dry and rupture, as there is an aspect of matter and form to monadic structure. It is not a concept, but a thing, and it requires a certain nutritional support. Repeatedly T2 has said thoughts and emotions (need control), i.e. if you feel murderous and with imagination, it will feed the murder sucker world with desire substance, and eat the albumin in the desire aura like an insect pecking a hole until the whole egg is rotten and the chicken dies. Check the To Do charts to remove all. Virtues and Laws have to do with the diameter and strength of the cord and a person of power will have a more massive amount of force go through it. It is a lot of work, and in essence we are still cleaning up the earth, not just ourselves.

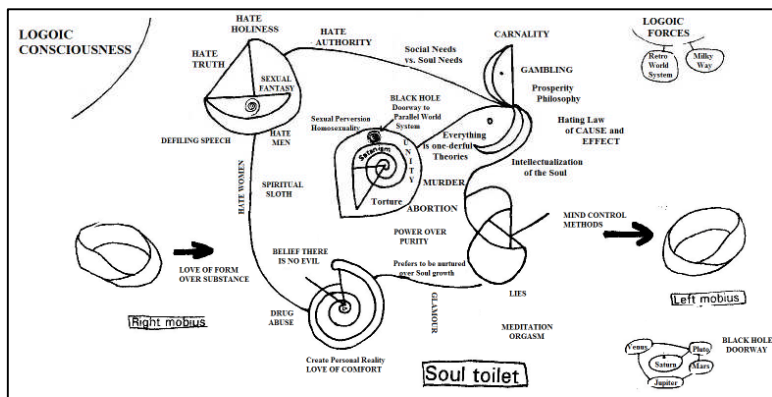

Chart: "Soul Toilet"

Your friends and family who are more associated with us are more likely to snap, by linking into sucker worlds, even though this is a by-product to split time. If we first remove it from us, then we may roam the earth with our spiritual bodies and destroy every sucker world on the planet (and the contributing planets with these energies).

Why do we get the Soul Toilet (See also Lectures October 1993) and planets associated with it?

Mega sucker worlds associated with the planets are fed by millions of people, and are the most common. If you created them with nagual powers, you have a grave responsibility to destroy, or else it is like an evil demigod. Ask for: Abnormal Evil Creative Centers in a body location. You will find all of yours.

Wherever pornography exists are sucker worlds relative to sexual violence. Say you have created a “Needs Love”, and hook into pornography (and another person through the imagery) and it goes into the liver. Soon, they have three types above the head (sic).

Eye contact will cause you to hook into a person’s sucker world. Never look in the eyes. The eyes have to do with the monad, and the null space between the 13th and 14th (Octave) and are windows to the soul. Always look slightly to the side of someone. In public (when speaking with people) look to the side of the face.

Globules have a material aspect; hair is an antennae and they glob onto hair. Take a shower after going to movies, or having gone in public, and order the globules into the water. Globules have an affinity for water, and that is why they have an affinity to you. You can order them into fresh water, like the creek. Unfortunately, so many give power to globules that they would keep going (sic).

By tonight, pray for all the portals to be closed. Clear all Primary Abnormal Creative Centers.

Hakes are a type of sucker world energy, but the primary creative (--) is the word for those you have created. They are always associated with the body.

Do: Clear your own creations, they are due to your karmic responsibility. Sometimes in a dual soul set-up, one could have threads to each other, and the primary centers would be on the threads. These layers exist on all parts of the body. One was on the intestines, re: “Red Nipple Mask”. Hold them in mind and do one at a time. Ask: “How many different people have lines into this?”

Do: Red Ones first, and House. You can try to do autopilot, but then recheck it afterwards; To blast all threads from all people. I.e. one person had 80 different people with 140 threads.

Ask: “What is this sucker world related to?” (Check Soul Blocks Chart)...Fantasy.

For example, one person would sit (during lecture) and imagine constructing a dune buggy engine! The best inventions were not malignant to humanity before 1940, and after that it destroyed the homeostatic composition of humans. For example, medicine/drugs, destroyed the stomach’s ability to adjust nutrients, and caused for example, albicans.

Look at infections, transplants, cloning genes into tomatoes. Since 1940 fantasies were fed by evil forces, and fantasy became dangerous. Key: do not feed a sucker world that already exists, say you have a thought that is not you, like “I’d like to knock the shit out of the boss” relative to a hate sucker world in someone. First know it’s not your thought, and do not feed the force of line. Realize that any malignant thoughts are never your own, never own them. One should never entertain thoughts that are vicious, and if they come your way, let them float out. Imagine fire around you when the globs hit and burn the glob before it burns your aura.

These make you itch, like bugs chewing holes to form threads, spiders throwing out filaments. Like a mite crawls along, and chews a hole in the aura for a filament to imbed. That is why we had, in split time, creatures, Sylphic biters, which caused either sexual agitation, or itch, as there were there so many sucker worlds, they could invade the aura. It is an absolute miracle we got out of split time. We were falling into a hell so great, beyond description, a world of walking zombies. A lot of movies from that time were from people who saw on some level what was going on. Why in the 1950’s, were so many sci-fi movies coming out? It was from the creative minds of people with sensitivity to what was going on. What they didn’t realize was that the space ships were coming out of hells. (See also original 1990-91 five books by Anonymous for more information.)

First, recognize when a globule is hitting you, with itching sensation, agitation, emotional upsets, and skin disorders. It is so interesting how little pustules form where they hit on T2; or bright red spots. They are not pimples, but a response to a glob. On the mouth cord, the mouth scabbed up. When on the eyes, you can get pink eye. On the private area, red dots, urinary tract infections, unusual discharges and particularly areas of sudden scaliness, where a big glob of them may land. (We may) have a hard time keeping feet cords clear from contamination. Feet will feel like alligator hide. Remember “Cold Rain on Feet”, and on auric chart #5, check “Sucker Worlds on Feet”.

We need to get rid of the Globules...Lines...Cords...Sucker Worlds, and then keep maintenance. They keep spreading in a nagual party. Agitated, circular thoughts, sudden uncontrolled passions; itching of any body location, dry patchy areas, little red spots, bumps inside of your nose, back pain where they hook in. Do you have to pee often? Is the urine stinky, with unusual urethral or vaginal discharges and malignant smell? Check for poop stink, stomach gurgles with sucker world attachments.

Chihuahuas: with “Cec” on (the dog) Rita, she smelled bad. Is the breath bad? If you have an air sucker world, you will have bad breath. Snot is a clear indicator, as the nose is the first portal to link with.

Symptoms/Check: For dry mouth, and throat, tenderness in lymphatic nodes under armpit and under collar bone, sudden hoarseness, breast tenderness, testicular pain, sudden numbness or pain along a finger, or tingling, means virtues are burning, because the Sucker Worlds burns up the virtues. Check for hair that won’t lay down flat. Your vision gets worse, with a lot of floaters. Gas, if you are farting, joint pain, especially knees, hips, shoulders, itching ears, as if you want to dig in your ears. Insomnia, or the converse, lying in bed, can’t move, not asleep, yet weird dreams and you feel dull and listless and lacking in energy even having slept for 7-8 hours. Check for feet swelling, and any swelling of the body.

Bloating: the adrenals, kidneys, and lymphatic system is so sensitive to the energies, they will get congested with fluid and the adrenals will shoot out cortisone, which will make you retain fluid, and the kidneys squirt out anti-diuretic hormone and you will bloat up like a toad.

Sudden appearance of chin hairs for women is a sign, or coarser hair, with a different characteristic. Say your leg hairs were not coarse, but suddenly got big, would mean you were forming links to sucker worlds on legs. Watch for rashes particularly on the chin, and cheek rashes. Drooling is compensation for something on the mouth, and salivary glands step up production. Difficulty digesting food, constipation, diarrhea, nausea, and a sense of fullness in the stomach, but you will eat anyway. This is the paradox of it; on the solar plexus the stomach is gnawing and needs to eat, but you feel full at the same time. Stuffed, yet hungry is a key symptom. No wonder we put on weight, with that! Dogs: watch for precocious sexual behavior and agitation, as so many sucker worlds relate to sex. Or the dogs may be very hostile with hate sucker worlds.

Religious orders require being sedate and somber, taught not to have fun. We have seen when people have fun and it goes crazy and berserk. At a certain point, shut it down, as the aura starts to shoot out energy, especially in a public place, one will get more sucker worlds, as the boundaries of the aura expand when joyful, and with cracks the cracks might widen in the aura, and in a public place be cautious with any strong emotion, or flush. Don’t get into a real “rush” situation because it is like a drug and you want to get back to it. Have a fair amount of fun, but no rush. Fun as an aspect of fantasy, is an aspect of play, one can create scenarios.

With Secondary Sucker Worlds:

Follow them to the primary person and eradicate all the threads coming into that sucker world from all people.

Ask: “What body part on the primary person is associated?”

Check: The octave level. As though in a spider’s web,

Do: Follow to the spider and cut well, all round it.

Try to get the spiritual bodies to sever the threads, and then check to see how many are left.

Key: Go back and check “How many people are still hooked in?”

Key to a mystery school:

If you know what to pray for, you may be worthy of deliverance.

If you know the question, you are worthy of the answer.

So what you are doing is finding the question to get the correct answer.

Then know what to pray for and then you may be worthy of deliverance.

For autopilot: Put out a command, and the holy beings associated with T2 to clear something (sic).

If you train the spiritual bodies on a conscious level, then you train the spiritual bodies (on a spiritual level) and will not have to do the detail.

But the first time you clean your house, you say, “Where is the vacuum cleaner, plus nozzles? Which rooms are to be cleaned first: upstairs or basement?” And after the house is thoroughly cleaned, you have done it once, and you now know the routine, because you have trained yourself well.

You direct the spiritual bodies to form a function, i.e. like a vacuum cleaner. The holy beings are like automobiles and you may not know the intricacies of the car, but you know how to drive it. Part of human karma is that step by step, we are increasing divine intelligence on a tissue level, and will have greater power on a spiritual level.

Do: Go to dates (years/months) for a tighter grip.
Go from big to little, general to specific.
Do the most apparent and most destructive,
Then get the deeper insidious ones, as they serve as blind spots over the aura.

One symptom of sucker world links is sudden appearance of weird greasy spots on the skin, particularly over the third eye, which has a particular texture, with sucker world grease, which is coarser, not normal, and repulsive. And pimples around the mouth are sucker worlds on sexual organs, or oily spots on the side of the mouth with a coated tongue; on tongue and glossopharyngeal nerve.

Nose bleeding is a clear indicator of cords snapping on the nose which has a clearer relationship to the sexual organs. Conditions on the nose and lips are the clearest indicator; big, little, red, pale, scaly, sudden spots on the cheeks are lung connections to sucker worlds which is a secondary symptom to an eroding earth cord.

Check: cranial nerves. Recurrent physical problems tend to be due to this, i.e. a dry cough. You can remove the symptoms, but have to remove the core.

Sudden loss of sensation is an indicator of nerves cut, or if urine cannot not be held, as if the nerve cannot hold tone or control, either hypersensitive, or total lack of. Urinary...Sexual...Naval; see if it feels like yours or another.

The reason you don't feel alive to your touch, say if you are in an anatomy class, particularly shut your eyes and touch, if it feels exactly the same as a corpse, it is a very ominous sign. If you feel like a cadaver, or feel suddenly cold, it means the soul force has been cut off from that area.

And do that with each cranial nerve.

With both right/left eyes; get an idea how much spiritual energy is going into sucker worlds from locations.

"How alive are the genitals...bladder...kidneys?"

"What part of me is at least 80% dead?"

Which is a good way to find sucker world locations. Or if body parts are 100 years old it would show a problem. If a body part is dead, ask:

Ask: "How many abnormal centers or a sucker worlds?", it could be a globule, or a desire tendril.

When removing all the sucker worlds, pray for healing at the location. When a sucker world with an attack thought jumps you, your throat may close up.

Check: Birth name as well, often the tissue will dowse as your birth name.

It is impossible to work when the holy beings are in, as they work on several different levels. These are Destroyers and healers. Without the yin and yang working together, then T2 and T3 would not be able to hold onto the holy beings without frying a lot of their centers. T3's nagual twins are holding onto T2 and pulling the power in. The reason T2 has no earth cord, is like a helium balloon that goes above the mobius thread to serve as a satellite for the holy beings. T3's nagual twin holds onto the balloon with no thread below the mobius. They course down through him, to T2, to us. He has to endure the holy beings and hold onto the formless nagual as well. He has twice the stress that T2 does. Don't know why the 150 (sic) goes into one person or in a team, because they all have distinct functions. (The holy beings) are not generic, and they work on multiple layers at one time. T2 and T3 probably couldn't hold onto more than that amount of holy beings. They are going to each sucker world and removing all threads in the sucker world, not just the ones you are connected to.

Imagine the sucker worlds over war sites. It is no wonder they get such trauma. The worst was Vietnam, Also WW II and all the carnage it spawned. The sucker worlds are still in existence since WW II. "Du" was in WW II, and had plenty of opportunity for sucker world contamination, particularly in the years after 1940. Anywhere there is a lot of death after 1940, one can find them.

The Sucker world of "Create Your Own Reality", sounds benign, but is one of the worst. The concept of "Unity with good and evil" and "Embracing the darkness to overcome it", that "Everything is free will/personal choice, and one can do anything they want and believe it will not hurt anyone else”---under that cloak is pornography, molestation, all manner of defilement and pagan worship.

T2 can snap her earth cord if T3 is holding on. If he snaps (it would be bad because) he is the only one who can go get her. To work with principalities and powers, one has to gain in strength in the spiritual. To those who much is given, much is required. Power in this case, (is defined as) the more you use what you know, and the more impeccable you are. T2 is happy that so many sucker worlds were destroyed today.

This is a good example of synergy and of the group, and the working of yin/yang power with a group. What was said last night (at the wedding) was absolutely true with the role in the party. Male and female teams are vital with aspects of yin and yang that are unique. Some things that one can do or see, the other person cannot. T2 can see up, and T3 can see in all directions. So together they form a strong synergy.

One of the key characteristics of the prior “Re” before T3, was the absolute harmlessness of his nature, and never wishing ill for any person, ever. And because of that...why is the design of power the way it is? T2 would say that of all the members of our party, ever, or of anyone that she has ever known as T1, that “Re” wished the best and was the most harmless. Remember the meek shall inherit the earth? The amount of power one is given or deserves is proportional to the degree of harmlessness on the right hand path.

A most conservative estimate was (a count of) 80,000,000 sucker worlds. Applied (spiritual) principles are very much like physics principles. By working as a team and having a strong yin/yang head of team, we work exponentially, whereas T1 (in the past) had to work alone, because there was not a suitable yang.

When we talked about the third type marriage, it sticks in the craw of the traditionalist. But be committed to what God wants and becoming ever more formless. “Not my will but God’s, no matter what that entails.” Worshiping the material is like the first type of marriage, where one would be afraid to divorce even with abuse. Still it is good, because people are (becoming) flippant with relationships and are promiscuous.

We see that so commonly, that something profoundly trivial will cause a severance of the material marriage, like running up a charge card, or because an in-law said rude comments. The most trivial of matters can cause a divorce on the first level. One of its highest octaves is very good for Type 3 soul, as it teaches them to be unselfish. People who remain selfish, if single, it is as if they have their own space orderly and nice and do not want to mess it up. So it is very therapeutic to teach one to give and take, otherwise one gets so set in ways that they cannot advance spiritually.

(Type 2 soul) also can resist (advancement). One can be addicted to serving, striving and yielding and then become a push over and a butt licker on a spiritual realm and they don’t ever stop to think of the big picture. And in the end we are here not for each other, but to do God’s will. So, it is a simpler life to live a life of a nun or priest to call in holy beings without distraction. And yet, it is better to “Marry than to burn with desire” (St. Paul).

People misunderstand. It is a wonderful thing to serve God as a nun or a priest. That is why they wore rings. It is wonderful if people have reached a state where they can work in male and female teams. If the body of Christ is like the body of man, there must be legs, arms, genitalia, and procreative aspects and hands of body of Christ to reach up and say “Please, Lord, help this earth”. Think of prayer with two hands, the yin and yang aspect of human joining together uniting as one, upwards saying “Dear Lord, come down through my virtues, I join my yin and yang components of self together and entreat you as an intercessor of humanity to show mercy on earth”. (It is) the virtues, pointing upwards.

Some are destined to be the prayerful hand of the body of Christ. Others are the eyes to see in the unseen world, others the throats to write, hearts to show forth love, others progenerate to bring forth that which is holy into the world. One is not greater than the other. If one is the sum total of the others, then one part of the body of Christ is the same. We all partake of the attributes of the others. If there is a cancer in this body, then we must search it out and destroy it. The sucker worlds are like cancers and we must destroy them.

This is a difficult business that you have entered, and it is a business, a hierarchy, a goal with an expected outcome. The hierarchy is the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit and the Divine Beings filtering through and the outcome is to make the earth a holy place. The method is to create training vehicles through various soul types to teach people through Law and Virtue. Teach people those things; they will choose to be holy.

Methodology: we will first clear the major things off ourselves to take the blinders off of our eyes. Some will write, edit, illustrate, teach verbally, pray and draw in angels. Some will transmute through synergistic methods, some take on naguals, and do healing on the face of the earth. Some will create angels.

We are not looking at a small table here, not sandwiches for hobos, but bringing in divinity to the Earth. We are not looking at being pretty good, but whatever our role is, being flawless. (A child here) is making a crystal wand and has put his intention of healing into the wand and directed it into a person's body with a disorder and eradicated it by the beaming the energy into the body. What was the staff of Moses, in the Old Testament? There (existed) physical devices to cause an increase in force. What the child created was a generator of power, and when an intention was put in, it was a magic wand. There is a misuse of terms with evil sorcerers, but in the Old Testament it referred to wands and power forces.

Look in the old Judaic symbols of staffs, in essence a wand and crystals magnify the energies. The child put crystals in to direct to someone. He tuned in with it and tried to find ways to magnify the healing of the earth. This is a precious thing. He has already programmed it. The purity of a little boy who wants only good, is a mighty thing indeed. We could say it is unimportant to have crystals, and the Pentecostals would want to burn us, but it is an ancient knowledge of the forefathers he is tapping into. We cannot be afraid, but embrace and separate the wheat from the tare.

The energy from the crystal is going very strongly into one student, as her soul has a hunger for what was programmed. These are the children of tomorrow. These are wonderful times in which we live, the opportunity to serve is great, and our cup overfloweth.

The child's birth was unusual, as (the mother) had a dream of the exact time and day that he would be born, and that it would be an emergency; a vertical C-section. On that day, she checked in for the birth, though it was three weeks ahead. So they put her on a monitor that brought in a radio station. When they put it on the second monitor, his heart stopped. They sliced her open without anesthetic, navel to pubis, and he was born precisely the minute she had seen, months before in her mind (the same time and date). The Obstetric was so horrified after that, he gave up delivering babies. The child was a special child and had to be born at that time.

Powers come in at a certain time of day and year for one destined to do something holy, the day and time will either weaken or support that purpose. One can be born at anytime and be holy, but to remove impediments, one should be born on the right time, that is why induced labors are very bad. To save a baby's life may be less important than aligning a baby with its soul purpose. A baby should be delivered at exactly the time to do their soul work.

The mother had an infection caught from an AIDs patients that would likely have caused brain damage to the fetus; congenital cytomegaly. Since the child would have been deaf, blind, immobilized, if conceived any earlier than he was, they advised an abortion.

JANUARY 1, 1994 Evening CLASS NOTES

(Typed by an auditor during the lecture, uncorrected by Anonymous)

Fear of the future is total poison to the nagal. Fear of the future is always based on fear of the past. Once having suffered, (the suffering) can be projected into a reason for living. It could become a Mask of which (one would) not (want) to let go; for example to fight for survival financially. A lot of thinking in life could unsettle us, and we have to just accept what happens.

What are things? "For" (here) is leaving a nice house and work. We need people who can ride out storms as well as fair weather. It is good to hit rock bottom. When T2 was 18, with two babies, working for minimum wage as a single mother, the only food bought was baby food, and she survived on fast food ketchup packets. She did that for months, and ate scraps from other plates. She worked, and then married a rich man.

It's easy to forget the poor life if you have a fancy one, or a person may be cruel to those disadvantaged. And you (might begin to) think: "If you made it, so they should too." Poor or rich, it doesn't matter, but whether or not you live honorably. T2 hauled the babies to church Sundays and Wednesdays and lived a life of hard work for an 18 year old. Both children are now (--). T2 could look back and say why sacrifice for them and yet what a valuable lesson to learn to endure. How could we sit here all day if not learning to endure, at work all day or fighting in WW II with hardship, sticking with a program, being detailed, deliberate, disciplined and hard at it? Or, one can cling to the past and be a neurotic person and have a fear of being hungry. What if T1 had had that fear? Then T2 would not be (who she is now), and neither would we. We have to just give up the past. This story was related as an example and not from attachment.

Not everybody learns the lessons quickly, a starvation engram may be an overwhelming thing, and another (engram) may be a fear of not being loved, or wishing a dead person to be with them, or an overwhelming grief for a child gone awry, or shame over a career, or anger at a teacher in the third grade.

On January 11, there was a major conjunction of the Moon, Neptune and seven planets (in Capricorn) and we are experiencing it now. It is probably why we are feeling discomfort, and things are coming up for resolution. It feels like a very powerful time. It is interesting, after a wave of clearing that the colors change and with the weather, everything gets beautiful.

Chart: Auric Layers, Planets and Body Parts with spiritual correlations

AURIC LAYERS, PLANETS and BODY PARTS

Auric Layer	Soul Block or Resonation
Yellow	Creation of evil form, resonance with or creating defiling art
Tissue	See body parts of fiber aura
Feldspar	Tangential fantasy
Blood	Shame, greed, prosperity philosophy
Amber	Hating a speaker of Truth, hating God
Love	Lack of boundaries of identity of self
Fabric	Agitated mirth, party animals
Cranial nerves	Poor thought control
Fingers	Spiritual laziness to change, self-pity
Brow chakra	See cerebral cortex
Fire	Lack of desire control, lower willfulness
Tears from eye of soul	Blaming God
Air	Resisting spiritual change, lower willfulness
Baby	Feeling helpless
Sex substance	Resistance to Now, fantasies about future, desire for power above purity
Soma	Inability to be indifferent, excitability
Water	Resonating with bad speech, defiling thoughts
Lichen	Feeling slighted, lack of humility
Earth cord	Desiring the past
Navel	Resonance with old self, falling into genetic resonance patterns, remembering/reforming old self
Fiber	See body parts, planets
Vacuum	Wasted effort, poor economy of energy
Virtue	Listening to satanic lie thoughtforms
Yellow rose	Feeling dead/incomplete without another person
Breath	Hating any Law
Feet	See body part
Cry	Wanting to be taken care of, wanting to take care of others who are unworthy, being a rescuer or victim
Green	Lack of mercy
Lymphatic	Feeling slighted or owed something; self-righteously feeling betrayed
Shell	Resistance to Law, stubborn clinging to old ideas
Blue	Focus on things
Rose	Clinging to past, feeling that past identity is you
Digestion	Feeling dead without another person
Food	Lack of levity, fearing punishment
Agni	Create own reality, excessive intellectualization
White	Cruelty
Hair	Viciousness
Violet	Deceit of self or others, self-pity
Orange	Belief that evil does not exist, sexual fantasy
Dance	Attachment to physical beauty
Cream	Lack of equanimity
Albumin	Lack of harmony, guilt, shame
Magenta	Hating yin power
Christ spark	Refusal to recognize holiness
House	Evil cunning
Milk	Hatred for authority, wanting a parent
Lion	Hating authority
Eyes	Blaming God
Piccolo	Wrong speech
Bear	Defiling thoughts
Snake	Lack of wisdom, emotionalism, failure to use knowledge
Spirit shadow	Problems resulting from romanticism, lack of calm reasoning
Red	Hating yang power
Planet	Soul block, related body part, or disorder
Sun	Herpes miasm
Moon	Food worship, obesity miasm
Mercury	Tetanus miasm, skin, brain
Venus	Thyroid, teeth, gums, vagina
Mars	Cancer, penis

Jupiter	Insanity miasm, rectum
Saturn	Lungs, allergies, snot, Achilles tendon
Neptune	Muscles, bone
Uranus	Abortion miasm
Uranus Moon	Uterus
Pluto	Lymphatic, right eye
Vulcan	AIDS miasm, epididymis
Unknown 2	Skull
Inverse Pluto	Right eye
Inverse Saturn	Throat
Inverse Uranus	Urine
Pseudo-Sucker	(Create own reality worlds) Skin
Body Part	Soul block or resonance
Feet	Materialism, clinging to split time
Legs	Emotional neediness; wild, emotional thinking
Cecil	Hatred for Law of Dissonance, hating authority
Itch gland	Hate of resonance with hate
Coccyx	Goddess worship, homosexuality
Face	Feeling like a victim
Genitals	Hating a gender or authority
Nose	Feeling helpless
Mouth	Emotionalism, accepting other's thoughts as your own
Heart	Sexual/romantic obsession
Skin	Accepting others' thoughts as your own, feeling guilt about others' thoughts
Prostate	A man hating the yang role
Semen	Hatred for women
Menstrual blood	Hatred for men
Excessive fem. pubic hair	Hatred for yin role, wanting to be a man, to grow an extension
Olfactory nerve	Hating authority, being tangential, create own reality
Optic nerve	Believes God is punishing/wanting to humiliate others
Oculomotor nerve	Anger about money or things, greed
Trochlear nerve	Hate, irritation, feeling slighted
Trigeminal nerve	Resonance with evil media, people, or art forms
Abducent nerve	Romanticism
Facial Nerve	Thinking body is everything
Acoustic nerve	Misuse of creative powers
Glossopharyngeal nerve	Fear of future
Vagus nerve	Seeing all love as sexually motivated
Accessory Nerve	Desire for past identity
Hypoglossal nerve	Wanting to own another person, social acceptance, or to be special
Cerebral cortex	Intellectualization of the soul, circular thinking
Pineal	Resistance to virtues
Pituitary	Unforgiveness, refusal to see Truth
Corpus callosum	Defending that which is unholy; defiling, clever speech or thought
Hypothalamus	Mis-use of power or knowledge to help people who are unworthy and hate God
Eye	Unrequited love, excessive romanticism
Thymus	Wanting love...loving family more than Truth
Cervical spine	Taking on another's karma against Law, wanting to suffer for someone else without reason
Thoracic spine	Hating authority, merging with the grid
Lumbar spine	Grudges, suicide thoughts, love/hate relationships, devotion to an unworthy person, worship of form
Sacral spine	Hatred for Law of Desire Distortion, wanting to own a person or to control other people
Urethra	Fear of future
Mucous in urine	Hatred for opposite gender
Flatus, foul feces	Wanting a Daddy or Mommy
Intestines	Seeing God outside of self, guilt

JANUARY 2, 1994 CLASS NOTES

One student is reforming a mold, and it is only three hours old. What we need to differentiate is whether something is cropping out from the seed, and what is the mental or emotional neediness we have that causes the disorder that takes us to the past identity. When we look at the Soul Blocks Chart, consider the nuance; an aspect here with fear of starvation. Is it food, love or money? If love is your food, then you will fear not begin loved, feel to be starving for it. Add to charts “Newly formed.”

What we are dealing with now is the new stuff, as the residue is better this morning. A lot is a control issue. Number one; realize when you are circular thinking or obsessing about a concept, even though it may seem perfectly normal in the eyes of the world. Jg cried in the courtroom, and Si didn't, the papers pointed that out.

Many women have this characteristic, for example in the Junior League, there are those who put a great emphasis in early life and marrying well. When T1 was director of nurses of hospice, there were many in the civic organization which put on fancy parties to raise money to take care of the dying. A significant number of women who were involved had a basic fear of starvation. They spent a great deal of time on getting fingernails and hair done, and if they went to classes, it was because they had nothing else to do, and they filled their lives with Jr. League stuff to do good in the community.

But the volunteer work was another method through which to justify their existence, due to a fear of starvation. They are big on raising money for food. These are women who had plenty of money, and were terrified of growing old, with face lifts, and hours in salons, and preserving appearances. If thought about logically, it makes no sense, as they had never been without money. Former beauty queens could not satisfy their need for money.

(Jokes) What three words will a Jr. Leaguer never hear? “Attention K-Mart Shoppers”.

“For” used to give seminars to Jr. League women, and he found a way to embarrass them, by someone walking in a seminar with a note, and say “Mrs. Jones, your husband's suit is ready at Wal-Mart.” Fears don't have much to do with reality with the now. And desires for a bigger house, security is a big thing, family, with anything. Is there any security? At any time, one could be hit by a truck, how much money can you put away? How much land or bicycles for Christmas?

Is desire the opposite of fear? No. Desire is the opposite pole of disorder, and both pull you into the future. Desire goes somewhat to the right, but doesn't make it holy, and fear to the left quadrants. Both will pull you out of the now. Desire implies a thought construction of your intended object of desire.

Ask: “How much desire substance is out to past, present, future, with tendrils?”

Do: Have a chart with a picture of a house, and a dollar bill, a picture of a person, and then picture something else like a question mark, some symbols to bypass the auditory mind. Also have a picture of a mother with children around, someone standing in front of a group, and people clapping and smiling and something to represent physical beauty. (See charts next page)

Whenever you dowse “danger” it is generally elementals based on a sucker world connection; someone fearing a death, or loss of soul.

Do: If you remove the elementals and demons from the room, you can check for true danger, As a Shadow will be present if there is true danger.
Think of a TV as 100% of your aura, and

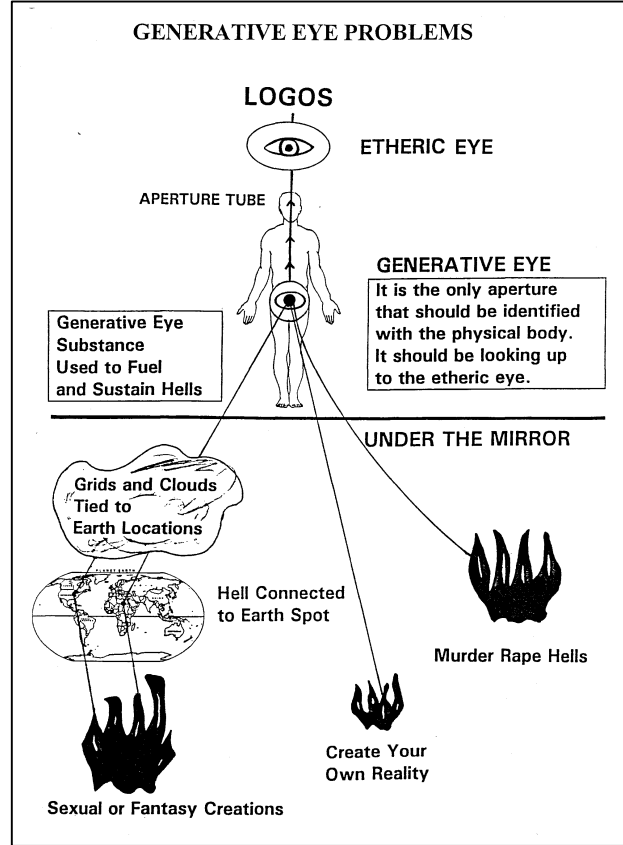

Ask: “How big a diameter of your desire aura is out?”

Do: Will a welding to go on and ask the holy beings. It is like ironing the dress (sic).

If you check the Condition Chart for the Desire Aura (i.e. a desire cord was out to an old identity) you may find a stump will bleed. Look at the body chart, follow the stump, burn it up and ask the Tissue changers and Destroyers to heal.

Ask: For abnormal cords; and for Normal...Adaptive...Maladaptive.

Ask: “How many people are resonating with this?” Those are the masks one is hooking into. These are desire tendrils to other people’s masks, and are identifying as part of one’s own identity.

[illegible]

And will the cracks to seal. When we have a weak spot in the aura, it will crack in the same spot over and over. The feet are a common place.

If one dowses different answers, one may be checking different aspects of the Albumin, Yolk and Paper like substance in the shell.

The Shell, you could ask: “What % has been lost on all aspects?”

Maybe the crack in the shell is fixed, but the albumin is still out. The albumen may not come back because of contamination. You can restore (the aura) better than cleaning it off, so disintegrate it. Pull back as much as you can though, as it takes time to regenerate.

With lost Desire Aura, check: Old names and past years.

This student reviewed his past in his sleep. To heal, send your albumin body into his body and pull it back. It is sure to have demons, as the student was possessed back then.

Check: “How toxic is the Creative Gland above the head? This is ensoulment residue.

Check the thickness of the walls, as an indicator of integrity. Why do they call skin integument?

Dowse % of wall of bladder (intact) as is in the (video cassette) movie (sic) Do: Pull it back.

Ask: “How strong is the integument on the wall of the Higher Creative Center?”

Try pulling back and recheck.

“How dead is my Cry?” If you have globules in the bladder (the integument can be intact), but if you have globules of others in what you brought back, you can feel dead.

Example: Steve McQueen in Magnificent Seven, his face started altering in films due to animal injections from Mexico.

Example: One student’s (Creative) Gland is missing; it is floating off like a helium balloon and has a stump bleeding, with five Hakes relating to “Jg”. This is key, there was a long standing hole in it with a tube that went to four people, and one happened to be a student, another an ex-student, one to self in past, and another female. The cord is gone from the rupture, and has floated off.

It is important to learn how to find spiritual disorders, as people will come to us for help.

In this case we need to create a new integument.

Ask: “How many lines out from Integument do you have?” This represents some kind of attachment.

A lot relates to one and two null spaces relating to Nerve aura. If you find threads out,

Do: Disintegrate and ask the holy beings to come in and heal.

Ask this for relatives: Tubes out...degeneration %....Do they even have one?

Why do people get snotty with contamination around their heads? Because it goes into the bladder and crawls down pineal and goes out the nose. Some created globules dowse as sperm snot. Dowse % of a sneeze as sperm snot.

What are the perimeters of evaluating a Cry?

- 1) Does she have a Cry?
- 2) And is it her own?
- 3) What % thickness is integument if 100% is ideal?
- 4) How many holes are in her Cry?
- 5) Any tubes out to malignant creative centers, other people, sucker worlds, etc.
- 6) Ask how many Crys are on the head?

One student had a bleeding stump and attracted three foreign.

A new idea of a sucker world is a Mutant Creative Center.

If the Cry severs, you might have to have a new one made, it cannot be called back.

7) Poison/toxicity in Cry...globules

8) Tears in the Cry Skin Layer (what we call the creation layer) that surrounds the body.

9) Ask for infection of the Cry Skin Layer.

10) % of rotting skin.

11) Blocks to Cry Consciousness, check auric layers for infections, globules, seeds, husks, etc.

Ask the holy beings to help you discern and to help destroy the foreign Cry with your will and intention.

Ask the Holy Tissue Changer Restorers to create a new Cry.

We need to beam energy to the holy beings to help them recreate the Cry Gland, Skin Layer/Membrane. Be sure to create the membrane/skin, or the person will ooze substance out of the hide. This is a substance secreting gland that was not noticed at first, but is significant.

What are the functions of the Creative Gland above the Head? To create angels. With the proper Cry (see function of "Cry" below) you can create guardian angels, T2 created angels to keep husks out of this place, to round them up and send them out. You can make elementals to remove certain amount of dark forces.

Obsessive thinking, fantasies, and tangents that create sucker worlds, throws off the Cry, as it makes elementals about whatever you are thinking about, instead of holy thoughts which create elementals of holiness. They make demons. Type 3 souls don't have a Cry; they have a different type of Cry.

With these, we can create thought form messages to another; send through the ethers thought forms to alert someone, i.e. they communicate Virtues somehow, like impressing upon the thought forms, a resonance of Virtues to cause a resonance to help change the earth, as the body is a vibratory instrument.

If you are missing a Cry, it is then a stump that Dark Forces can hook into, so you are constantly contaminated and snapping. The Cry is between you and the Monad. It will get infected and snap off all the time. Even reconnecting a monad over and over, it would snap due to loss of the Cry. It has been frustrating to not know how to help people. If one obsesses after being restored, it is a shame, as one can create demons or holy elementals. It is possible to call holy beings to reconstruct your own Cry, although it is unlikely for you to detect if your own is gone.

Chart: Body-Soul Connections from "Advanced Esoteric Dowsing Book II"

Cry is like the ray or the Eye of the Creative Gland.

It is an organ of the creative gland. Is Cry the organelle of the bladder? (sic) Cry may be the heart or core of the bladder. This is significant.

Ask specifically for the Creative Gland and the Cry separately. It is like the living section, and the rest secretes from it, like the zygote from which the gland forms, like the ovaries or testicles of the aura, it is the creation layer, the organ (sic).

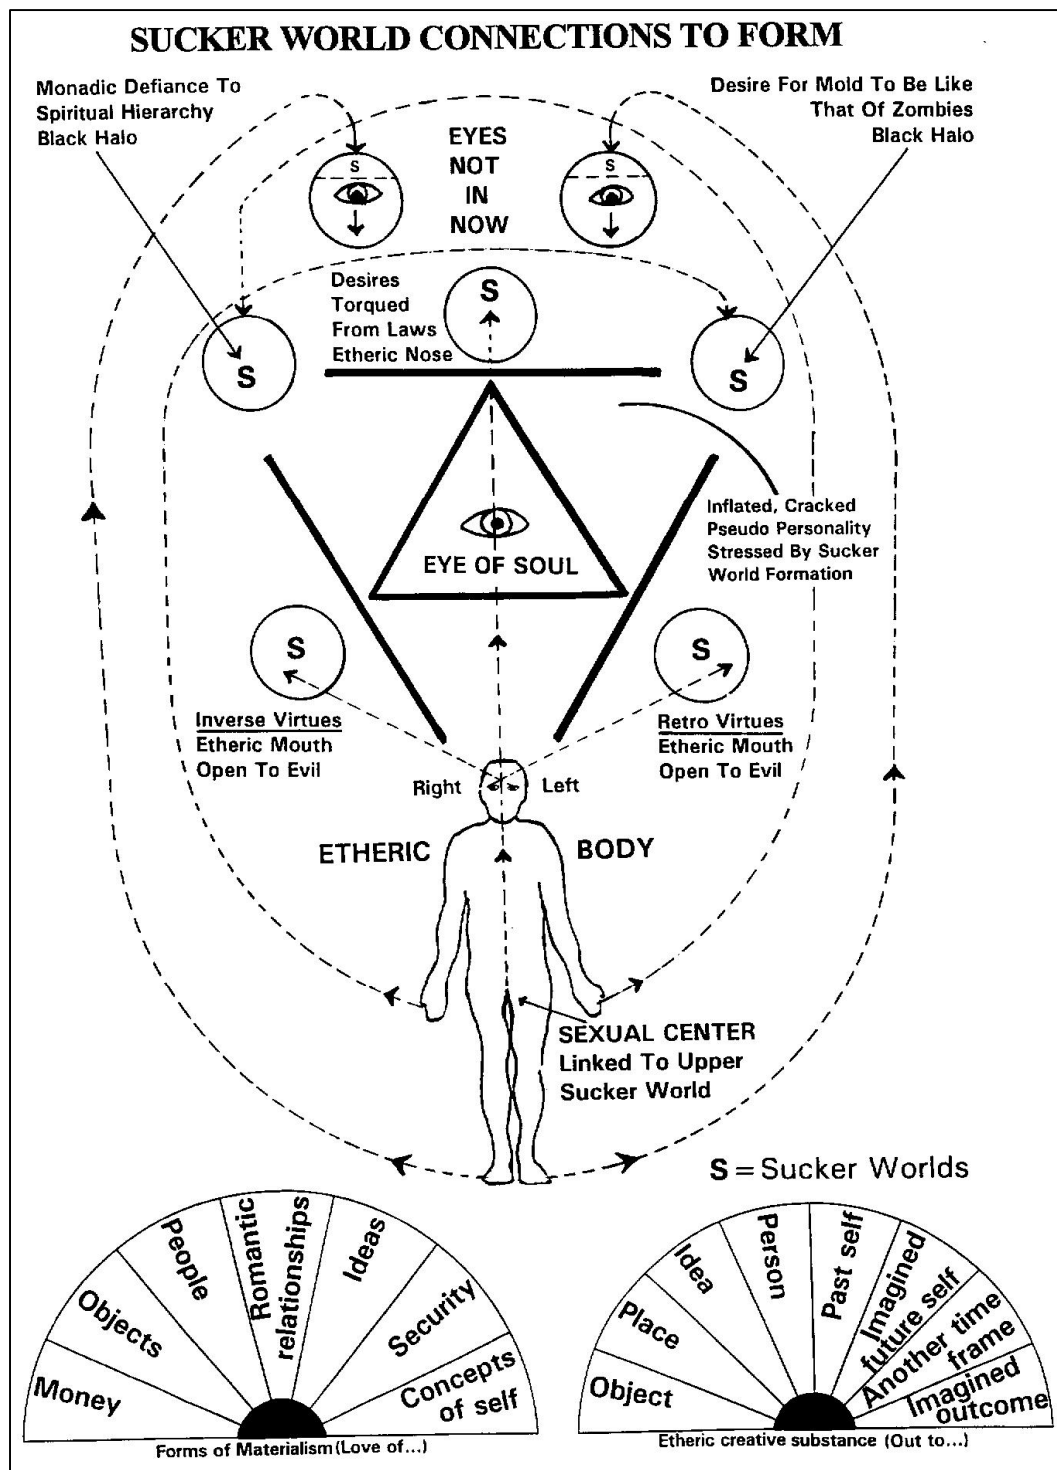

The whole egg has a creation layer that seems to filter down. Check: For tears in the skin. The Cry secretes it (the Creation layer) and shadows all parts of the aura, organs.

Ask: "Where on the aura chart do you have a tear on that layer, the Cry Skin Layer (see Auric layer/Octave #5) as it is secreted by the Cry?" Otherwise you will confuse it with the pelvic creative center, or the outer creative layer connected to the monad.

There is something about the feet that connects to the eyes. The right and left foot seem linked to the eyes. It is like a geometric design with circles that go around the auric cocoon, a circle that goes to the feet, from the left eye to the right foot, like a mobius, back up to the right eye and left foot. Mysterious auric threads. Over and over again, we see connections to feet and damage.

Chart: Sucker World Connections to Form from "Advanced Esoteric Dowsing Book II"

If you lose your Creative Gland with Egoics and Desires and leave a bleeding stump, then something will attach to suck Monadic fluid, and if you partially tear the umbilical cord, you could have your own and others (sic).

Example: one student sent old nagual substance to another. Disharmony was funneled in and caused both, plus a third student to lose the Cry.

Ask: How many false ideas are they resonating with? i.e.: "One is only a body."

That is why all three snapped. It has to do with a Dissonance Point of a specific person who is a Type 3. There is a dissonance point that is overwhelming in the creating of a "Needs Love, Believes in Body, Believes God is Punishing" aspects.

Satanic Tissue Resonation: that is making a noise that some people more readily resonate with.

Some people you can put in a room with really bad music, and the nerves start shattering right away, and others have a thicker hide to sounds. Example: For two students here, they go (resonate) with the loudest sound in the room. Do: Destroy the Dissonance Point (of resonance) completely at that level, and ask the Divine Beings to put one in that is holy. This is not the birth or the Dual Soul dissonance point, but is a tissue memory of the enormous sucker world knocked off yesterday, and the students have their bodies in the rhythm of that sucker world, and are still listening to rap music 24 hours later.

T2 is seeing that it relates specifically to Chad, Africa, and the trochlear nerve is strongly affected.

Pray: The holy beings break that dissonance point in all of us.

Measure: how much (by percentage) are we resonating with the satanic sucker world dissonances point.
We need to break the rhythm, the step.

First break it in the cranial nerves and then in the body parts.

You might have dissonance points to other sucker worlds that you have not yet stopped resonating with.

Ask: “How many Evil Dissonance Points in the Tissues are resonating with sucker worlds?”

Do: Destroy and ask that you have only dissonance points that resonate with holy forces. They are like little radio stations, they constantly emit a radio waveform. One can focus on it and obliterate it with will.

If you have to associate with someone, you shouldn't have to suffer the sound.

Do: Disintegration and Name of God. When you get through blasting the tissue,

Ask: For where the holy dissonance point should be, will it, and put Holy Energy dissonance at that point, otherwise they will feel unbounded.
The points may appear to shift, due to planetary energies.

Important:

Check: On each of the auras, and over the octave chart for residual Evil Dissonance Points.

A lot are on the Soma.

Do: To truly keep someone from leaking, blast all layers.

Go up the octaves chart and check for everything that will make it easier. Check Red first, i.e.;

Ask: “How many Hake evil dissonance points are there, etc.?”

Do: Check the Condition Chart, add to charts “Evil Dissonance Points”.

This is good, to see how people are repeatedly snapping especially after the removal of sucker worlds. You may still hum in the head after the radio is turned off, but if you recognize it, you can hum something else.

Ask: “Where am I missing a Holy Dissonance Point and put it in?” (After removing all the crap first).

Do: Afterwards pray they go into place and blast the whole body with Name of God.
You should be able to find all the correct dissonance points on the auric charts.

The ones who kept their creative glands are the ones who do not resonate as readily, and that is something to remember. It is one thing to be spiritually sensitive to pick up nuance, and Don Juan said there is a hair's difference between a nagual and a poet, and a person may be sensitive to artistic nuance, and can readily enter into the nagual experience. The problem is, they can just as easily go mad. An artistic person can readily enter a nagual party, and has a 50% change of going mad.

With stress: build the tonal to keep the nagual. You must have a sturdy tonal to endure the building of a nagual component to not go crazy. It takes a definite grounded type. T1 was a Gemini with a Virgo underpinning, and the life experience which grounded her in hard work, perseverance and self-control. She might have fallen into the artistic community and never come out. It was good she was poor, had hardship, and worked hard for many years, as she learned self-restraint and discipline. How else could one sit for 16 hours and dows (numbers into) stars? It seems crazy, but if one can, it is the detail and the forbearance to dole out spiritual energies in exact increments of nuance and precision, or else like a person from the Assembly of God congregation, one (would instead) blow out the aura to remove disorder (as opposed to use of precision).

(What is needed in spiritual science) is the logical tonal type person's ability to endure by being precise, boring, and exact like an accountant, with an artistic blending. I.e. “C” said T3 looked like a nerdy accountant and then turned into a Greek God.

Everything we are doing with the charts involves precision and Rudolf Steiner said spiritual science would save the world. We are not just sitting and praying, but are formulating a whole new science from scratch, in order to deal with the current problem. But we are not losing the devotional and nagual experience, which is without words and charts. A frustration of the warrior was lack of communication between tonal and nagual. We are bridging the gap of nagual experience and the tonal with concentration and endurance.

Those who lose the creative gland or get stuck, it is like a phonograph record that gets stuck, they have not developed the tonal power to knock off the (phonograph) arm. We need a way to strengthen the tonal arm to balance the nagual perceptions, and to change that (dissonance) point. A person doesn't have to be exquisite in the nagual to unbalance the tonal if they are attached or embedded in the future or past.

One could have a mediocre nagual component, with a more mediocre tonal, or, one could have an excellent powerful nagual component with a neglected tonal. This would be person powerful in every day affairs, but fails to do spiritual work with the same relentless attention to detail as they do in the physical. For example, B and C need to pay as much attention to spiritual charts as with the business.

This is something that needs to be studied as in a University. This is a PhD in spiritual science, or the patient will go under. We have to have enough attention with detail, to translate the tonal into nagual, or the two will become severed from each other. It is not good being a "pretty good" member of a nagual party. The power in the party will blow out the gaskets if you are not real good.

We have to redefine the tonal from the nagual. "No" and "Alp" (recapitulated) completely and stuck with it. They used to leak and get possessed with zombie resonations. The interesting thing is Alp has the tendency to merge like another student, so we ask, "Why is this other student still leaking?" It is a tendency in her auric construction for excessive Mentalism, it is a resistance relative to a certain virtue. A residual of wanting to create one's own reality, partly with a desire for other people to be ok and a tendency to mull over "Why isn't that person ok?" It involves an over concern for relatives, a mulling over aspects on the one hand and wants to understand why some make it and others don't. But to think about, say (a student), why did she not make it, when she had holy desire? So she sees the virtues and wonders why that person is not ensouled.

Two layers of thought are going on, there is a normal way of thinking, like "I need a drink of water", and another layer of thought mixed with desire which comes out of the creative center, a thinking without words, like "Why is the world so hard? What is to happen to relatives, why is the tragedy of soullessness?", and anxiety of thought, and one does not need to consciously think it, as one may suddenly be filled with sadness and have no words for it. Like a poetic angst, a poisoning in the higher thought system of this student that waxes into higher angst and falls into the death sphere. (It is like) a pool above her head with memories and thoughts that keep reforming, while consciously thinking "I need to paint the wall". It is a hyper conscious state; you need to merge the two to control them. This is a dream thought realm, and it is why in the dreams one splits (threads etc.). Do: consciously merge hyper thought realm with the conscious thought. We have got to pull the hyper consciousness with the lower consciousness to control it.

Albumen Eyes: versus the first attention eyes, this student lapses into the albumen eyes and it then tears asunder. (It is like) one head on top of the other head with the creative center. DO: repeatedly pull the albumin eyes into the physical eyes, as that implies control. Dowse: the % alignment of Albumin Eyes with the physical eyes.

Albumin eyes, if not controlled with first attention, will wander over the earth, and with no control, a dream body will go berserk. Do this before you go to sleep. This is where a person doesn't know what they are doing. If you have desire globules on your Albumin, then you will think the thoughts are your own and will react. This is the difference between a person who is in control, and those who go weepy and nutso with contamination in the room.

Check: Can you pull someone who has less than 1% alignment of Albumin into physical form?

Do: Pull it down, and then you can clear it off. Clear both 'Eyes'...pineal gland...each cranial nerve. Clear Fallen Angel infections that may have come out of sucker worlds in the albumin.

If one is contaminated or maimed, three sections in the pineal need to be cleared

Think of the pineal as the Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

With the Virtue and Yellow Rose layers, it is better to not pull those too tightly into consciousness, as it would be too hard to be stable. Have Albumin eyes down, but do not peer closely into the Virtue and the Monadic layer, as it is like the burning bush, and may burn the eyes. The back of the head, with the spiral of hair, is a residual from the birth dual soul and the direction is the direction of force to go out to join in directions (sic).

With the Albumin and first attention joined, one can then be able to control the Divine Intelligence component, there is a resistance to the Divine Intelligence component that was not conscious, but can be now (joined). The creative center manifests disorder because the first attention has no control, but if you keep pulling it in, you should get better. It is harder to hold the albumin layer in the first attention if you don't clear the demons and globules first. Be sure the Creative Gland is fully constructed, as that is the holder of both levels of consciousness.

The kids have done remarkably well, because they tend to be in the now.

Sometimes in spiritual work, splitting of consciousness is part of the procedure, and not always a contamination. In this case (T2 is 90 people) she is helping the Rebuilders in the healing of the glands.

One concept to help; if a person has the first attention and Albumin separate, is to dowse "What is controlling their behavior?" In almost all cases, it is the Albumin. It takes a person with great self-control to (act upon the control of) the lower eyes. (It is important) to be able to sense the albumin so you can clean it, but be controlled by the first attention. I.e. (one child) can see where the albumin eyes are.

Ask: "Is someone's thinking coming from a split Albumin...his own First Attention...

Or another's Albumin eyes, which may or may not be split?

So the creative center goes crazy as the consciousness at night floats off, as there is no control by the first attention. You should be able to control them with the pineal in the corpse head, and when asleep at night, it should be right there. T2 is not looking at us from Albumin eyes, but from other eyes, as there is too much Albumin disorder into the room to see properly with Albumin eyes.

Example: One student has Albumin eyes still above the head, why?

Check: Cry Intactness...Membrane...Contamination...Dissonance Points to clear.

Check Auric Layers for Infections...Globules...Demons...Husks.

It has been a wonderful week together, and it seems a lot of deep work was done; very stabilizing. What was done today was the finishing touch, a digging out of all the pus pockets and sucker worlds, and we are now healing the spiritual skin. It should make a big difference. If we dowse that we have Suckers Out, it is like tendrils/suckers out to others.

Check for Burst Creative Gland fragments

Clear: by pulling out of Body Parts...Uvula...Auras.

These are tough, because they have created matter in them, So go through the To Do Charts, and Say "*What all do I need to do to get rid of all Foreign Cry Bladder Residual?"

If you get "Abnormal Power Center" in self, it may be someone else's Cry attached.

Pieces of Cry can be on the Virtues and the Monad.

Check people's bedrooms for Cry chunks. Look through the Houses for:

Globules...Husks...Cry...Demons...Masks...Molds...Seeds...Evil Power Points...Residue.

"Evil Creative Center" is probably a Cry chunk; yours or others.

If you dowse as two people, the tissue may dowse as the memory of the last name.

Check the age of your tissue, and if too young or old.

If you do something consciously, you will do something subconsciously, so don't feel overburdened by finding husks and clones, etc. This is part of education, and the training of the Albumin to operate with the first attention and under your control. So don't feel over-burdened.

JANUARY 3, 1994 LESSON: "Hakes, Suckers, Husks and You"

Hakes, Suckers, Husks, and You

Today, T3 and I worked on evaluating each student as to the malefic creation of elementals. It appears that harmful elementals are being created by several of you relating to key subjects and as a response to dark force husks in the room.

Hakes and Suckers are types of Husks, but there are other kinds. Suckers are like little fish on a shark, but do not refer to sucker worlds. They are, though, residuals from split time and sucker worlds.

All of you have husks coming out of your hides, due to past disorder that was entertained through behaviors, thoughts, or emotions. We found out that you could predict the husks about to "be born" and destroy them in advance. If the husks crawl out of your hide, then you have a tendency to start thinking your old ways, and falling into old habits of emotionalism or neediness. In some cases, perverted sexual images from the past influence the type of elementals you create from the husks. Elementals are produced by you when you resonate with your egoic/desire substance with the husks that are crawling out of you or other people.

We evaluated the most contaminated people, and found that a lot of you had a high husk secreting rate, due to your past associations. "Ia" links: especially "Sn" and "Ri" had with them lesbian husks, due to his relationship with a bisexual sorcerer (sic). Many of you are creating sexual elementals based on resonations with sexual husks.

Husks are chunks of sucker worlds that are now destroyed, but are still capable of being poisonous if you resonate with them and provide desire substance to form elementals. Elementals are being formed solely by your resonance with the husks, and the husks are your own karma, coming out of your tissues, like a foul sweat.

Romanticism, neediness to be appreciated, hate, materialism, desire to create an image of material success, longing for old lovers of same or opposite sex, wishing for any place or achievement of the past, tendency to create a fantasy world were some of the husk characteristics. When these float out of you, then you tend to fall into their grasp, and when mulling over the sensations, create elementals. If you look into someone's eyes, then you absorb their husk types. This causes you to split on your Cry/Creative Gland/Membrane Level, or your Earth Cord or Monad.

Many of you have used up all your desire substance on the creation of elementals recently. Some of you have blown out your Cry aura with emotionalism, or irritation.

We have worked hard to create protective elementals to shield our homes from outside husks, and yet we cannot protect you from husks crawling out of yourselves, or elemental demons you create as a response to the husk attributes. Each of you should dowse your husks, demons, etc., and try to look ahead to ones that will creep out later. Those of you who had a lot of lovers or who have a tendency to fall into a longing for people, places, or things, will have a worse time. We are keeping score, and expect all of you to control any emotionalism during this time.

Hakes refer to husks coming out of sucker worlds that had been powered by Asura and Fallen Jehovahs and may be Deros-related. Globules erode the Earth cord. Globules most likely come out of lymphatic seventh level husks, but also come out of Red Hakes which form Clone Links. Name Seeds primarily refer to husks' components of the Fallen Jehovahs, Asuras and Deros nature.

There are millions of husks and demons floating over the Earth today, due to die-off of sucker worlds. Most can be sent into water or concrete. Do this morning and night, and often in between. What worries us most is that some of you are indulging in your husks, and actively creating elementals. This must stop. Dowse how many elementals you have produced over the last few days, and you will see what I mean. The top producers were Sn, Ri, St, Gr, Ra, Mag, No, Ram, C, B, Fo, Ne, and not far behind was La. Ph and Du have the most husks yet to be excreted, but Gr has a great many as well, as does Sn. Mag has about 30 husks trying to work their way out of her groin. Ra, C, and Fo have a great many more to be excreted, and may need help. Ri has blown his husks out, by and large, with only a few remaining.

We will check you later to see if you get yourselves free of husks, elementals, and quit leaking desire substance into the formation of demons. Genevieve January 3, 1994

JANUARY 3, 1994 CLASS NOTES

Example: One student dowses as “Suckers Out”, but it is desire tendrils.

Do: Identify what kind of flaws make people split. (See Soul Blocks/Lessons)

Example: One has a hole in the solar plexus, and

Do: On the Charts write: “Flaw...No Flaw...Past Self...Grid...Ensoulement Residue...Self...Other”.

Clone links: The ensoulement residue came in for a landing and caused imbalance and leaks. One of the risk factors is resonation with ensoulement residue as it comes back. It is something we all have to watch for, and is causing one student to split the monad.

Ask: “How contaminated is my Cry/Skin Membrane?”

The Cry Skin Layer may be contaminated with desire substance. That means that we need to check to see who is leaking out of the desire aura. It feels like they normally occur out of the solar plexus.

Ask: “How intact is the Albumen Layer Solar Plexus, and how contaminated?” then ask “Why?”
I.e. some past self and ensoulement residue.

It is very important to keep the solar plexus cleared off, one student was gushing. You can get monadic leaks through any layer and any chakra after it erodes. This is residue from ensoulement and work done in class, and desire substance in/out. Often the work takes days to finish, like last night they were working on the mega sucker world with thousands of demons cleared in layers.

Ask: “How much desire substance do I have left that is available, and how much used up?”

It takes about three days to reform. It is a good indicator of how much was squirted in the last three days.

Check: for desire tendrils out and holes in solar plexus

Without desire substance, you lose joy, energy, happiness and it is a cause for depression. A part of the function of desire substance is to be able to have vitality, endure and have a sense of humor. Use the desire substance with humor, and it builds, laughing builds desire substance faster, it regenerates, and you don't use it up laughing unless you go overboard.

Why do we have holes? Residue globules are eroding (the auras), and the husks that have been floating around from the healing process are caustic. When they hit, they feel like acid, which rots and makes a by-product. Look at the solar plexus very carefully, that is where we are being hit the hardest.

(Finding) tons of demons on the Holy Spirit aspect of pineal. This aspect is the collector for ensoulement residue, and it is why we are having so much trouble.

Do: Get to 100% intact and 0 contamination. Check it periodically and clear it out.

CHECK: Solar plexus...Cry membrane...Albumin layer...Holy Spirit Pineal component.

Ask: “Who has an open window to the Holy Spirit aspect of the pineal?”

Example: The dissonance point for one student is moved or out of place.

Ask: “Where should it be, and where is it?” and

“Where do I have malefic dissonance points blocking the Holy Spirit aspect in the pineal gland?”

If you have difficulty moving it, look for contamination and go to the To Do chart. If you don't have a dissonance point at all, it may mean a severed pineal gland from the Holy Spirit aspect.

Do: Take the pineal chart and ask separately for Father, Son and Holy Spirit aspects.

Ask: “How many blocks do you have for maintaining the Holy Spirit dissonance point?”

Do: Look on the auric structure and auric layers chart, and find the location of the block, it could be anywhere. The biggest block that you have would be anything that would produce multiple identities.

Example: One student has four identities. This student tries to understand the present through the past. That may be good in certain seasons, to see patterns in life, to understand why one reaches the same type of problem, but in another sense it keeps one from recapitulation. For now, it would be destructive, so do not review any of the past in relation to present. If one says “This is a pattern I've had for a long time, or since childhood” or anyone says that about you--pinch 'em!

People have mental tendencies for certain analytical behaviors, and for some it makes them more vulnerable. So do not run the risk of pulling threads back to certain times.

Aside: You should be able to remember the dreams better if you pull the Albumen Eyes down to first attention.

The Holy Spirit aspect of the pineal may be the valve for contamination; backing up through the solar plexus.

Ask: The holy beings to help us clear it faster.

It is interesting to think of the pineal as the valve of ensoulment and other work.

Do: We may go to the cranial nerves from the pineal (sic).

We could check each person to see how many times to dump the pineal to get rid of the toxicity.

Example: One student was up to 190x saturation ("Copious"). We may have Father and Son toxicity. And T2 always reads too low (on yang side).

Do: We can pull this out of the belly button, fingers and hands and send into the creek. T2 dumped gallons of this for an hour at 3AM.

The Father seems to relate to masks;

The Son, demons and desire tendrils

The Holy Spirit to demons...sucker world residue...desire tendrils...clone residuals.

When T2 works with the Breath Consciousness from the pineal, she has to quit clearing and define the problem. The purpose through the Breath is only for identification and she has to quit clearing then.

Seeds coming in for ensoulment can be found on the Planetary Null Spaces especially Pluto.

Check: for Soul Toilet Seeds: Moon and Pluto. These seem to be reflecting on the earth cords.

Ask: for Moon and Pluto toxicity and erosion, on Earth Cords;

Do: Pull out of navel and put in creek.

Also look at the Dissonance Points of the Father/Son/Holy Spirit missing in some of us.

Ask: "Where are the dissonance points of the Father/Son/Holy Spirit and where they should be?" This reflects most strongly in the pineal, but the dissonance points in the cord should be compared with the planets.

Ask: "Where on the body charts is your particular place for the Vulcan dissonance point?" etc.

Check/Do: Make sure you have dissonance points for them, and dump toxicity for each null space.

Ask: For toxicity for each planet, this is what is eroding the earth cord.

A lot of us are losing Fabric Aura.

Check/Do: "How much of the fabric aura is out to other people?" Try to pull it back in.

A lot seems to be going out and ripping because of the floating masks and molds. Pray the holy beings come in and help restore the fabric aura and clear the energy of the earth cords, so we may be strong, and remove the ensoulment residue and the remaining sucker worlds.

Werewolves are coming into the Sex Fabric due to some of you thinking about certain people that are in fact each other; like a fear of loss of another person and attachment to form of another. A lot of fear elementals were beginning to be made in the last 24 hours.

Example: One student has clone seeds that are cloning out obsessive energies. Coming from husks and the resonance with the husks in the environment has caused the sex fabric aura to get infected and start floating out. The husks are in the intestines or over the solar plexus and is a breeding of the clone energy that hasn't been removed. With Jg in particular, the clones are coming out of husks.

Ask: "How many Jg (or other name) clones do I have, and how toxic?"

And it probably will reflect to the earth cord.

This is an example of a connection made during sleep, as the albumin eyes were not aligned with the physical and the albumin was toxic.

If the albumin is toxic, and then you pull it down to physical eyes, the first attention will be filled with the disorder of the albumin. Unless you are able to separate yourselves to know it is toxicity, you will find yourself having obsessive thoughts relative to what is in the albumin.

Check: Albumin in directions North, East West, South, In/Out, Up/Down.

√Particularly In/Out Toxicity...Ensoulement Residue...Residuals from Sucker Worlds.

Fantasy residuals on the Ray Octave Worlds (See also Lectures September 1993) 1B level are globbing on various body parts. These are like wandering egoics which are fed by circular thoughts that recently occurred. These thoughts seem to be focused on the sense of danger. Seems an “Si” and “Woody” sense of danger thought forms linked with our group and in other places. “Jg” clones would make “Si” be afraid, then “Woody” would pick it up and percolate it and it becomes circular thinking. It is dangerous. Anytime you feel fearful thoughts, expect clones of someone who hates us, check for egoic and desire elementals that relate to fear...hate...murder.

Never do any research of any significance unless you are very clear. The danger is to go off on a tangent and spend two hours there, rather than staying on the main road.

Ask: “Is it the arm, or the main body?”

Do: Spend a good proportion of time throwing things in creek/concrete and find your aura cracks.

Example: One student’s albumin eyes were way above the physical eyes and the astral aura wandered over the earth and got severely contaminated. Anybody whose astral body is separating from the first attention is getting horribly contaminated.

Do: WE NEED TO HOLD THE ALBUMEN EYES DOWN.

Exercise pulling it up and down...Check yourself to see how tight you are holding in the night;
And increase the percentage of your ability to hold it in.

Student’s night time ability to hold:

Woody 2%, Star 90%, Fo 20%, Si 60%, Gr 2%, Sn 9%, and those with little control are wondering the earth. Advise St, Fo and Si to tell Woody every hour on the hour whenever he does not have it in his body, and T2 wants him to have it in his body, he has no control at all and that is why he is so contaminated—we have got to put more oomph into this. C is 4%, B is 90%, with the same advice for C. It is a direct correlation with contamination and splitting of the aura with how much the albumin is separated.

Why is Woody 2% at night and at day is 7%? He needs to quit thinking so much, shouldn’t dows more than an hour maximum at a time, and then do physical work. When his pineal gets tired, he starts to float out of his body, and he can’t work his jaw (speaking) except for one hour at a time, and then lay off his jaw for an hour. Anyone with trouble should do this method.

For C, it is not from abuse of dowsing, she floats out of her eyes all the time, and she needs to quit looking at people. Wear a rubber band, and with anything that she says relating to the past, she may snap the rubber band on her wrist---anytime she thinks of the past, anything in the past 24 hours. Her biggest problem is floating to the past.

Sn should wear a rubber band, do the same as above, and check hourly to see what % alignment she has with her astral albumin eye and physical eyes. She should set the alarm for 3AM to check how aligned and how much albumin is gone wandering the earth embracing zombies. Also Check: % of contamination. Using the 360 circle would reveal a better alignment, or use the Law clock.

% of Albumin out...

What % of that aura which remains is aligned with the (lower) eyes...

Degree of toxicity of what is remaining.

It may be multiple saturation and one may get 20x times the saturation with toxicity.

Do: Go through the To Do charts, as the toxicity depends on what you have (---).

Cry/Skin Membrane:

Do: Dowse ruptures on the cry membrane and skin.

Draw a picture of a person with a little cartoon character circle at the top like they are talking, and out of the circle is a circle that envelops the whole body that you would call the cry membrane.

Look at the body chart for Membrane/Skin: Tears...Ruptures...Bulges.

You bulge out on locations associated with desires, particularly neediness, fears, desire to merge, be recognized and loved in particular. Longing for the past, thinking about any house with longing, hate, and when you bulge out, the tendency is to rupture and to form desire tendrils to whoever it is you are thinking of, even in the sleep.

You have a Cry Aura, and it goes around the body and then it bulges, ruptures, and the albumin leaks in two or three locations. You then rupture the Cry, then the chunks of the membrane of Cry, glob on the person you are thinking of and form Evil Creative Center fragments.

Check: For Evil Creative Center fragments in your auras, it is always evil when this happens and it doesn't matter who did it.

Elementals out of the hole of your Cry skin i.e. those relating to neediness, hostility or etc., they dowse as demons.

The goal is to only create holy elementals with one's conscious first attention and will. If people continue to create demons, their Cries will be castrated or given hysterectomies by the Holy Beings.

You should dowse: "How many demons you have out?" Cry fragments, or Cry skin fragments dowse as Suckers on the recipient's aura and burn holes in the aura.

Do: They should be disintegrated on a regular basis.

Ask: "How many suckers are on the Christ Skin. They are Sucker Hakes like the little fish that ride on sharks.

Some of you are burning the virtues.

Do: So dowse the percentage burned (Woody/50%, Sn/90%, BJ/95%). Virtues are burning because of elementals in from others that have crawled in the aura through the Christ skin and are burning up the virtue powers. If your virtues are burning, you need to;

Find/Do: "How many gaps you have, and clean out the gap and seal it.

If the virtues are completely burned, the monadic cord will sever. C/98%, Si/60%, Fo/80% St/40%. Cracks on the Christ Skin are probably from the albumin astral body wandering the earth contaminated, crawling back into the aura holes and infecting the virtues with other people's crap and demons.

Do: A lot dowse along the planetary lines of force.

Continue to find Windows for disorder: primarily little leaks in the aura, like husks floating in the room.

Example: One student is sensitive, and the primary dissonance points shifts to whatever is in the room. Woody is the same, and another one,

Do: They need to clear the husks often out of the room, and Repeatedly check primary dissonance point location and where it should be.

Check: "How many malefic dissonance points do I currently have?" This shows where husks attach,

Do: Pull out of orifices and throw in creek and concrete.

Then get rid of (foreign/malefic) dissonance points.

The "Name of God" is good to use over the overwhelming noise to change the sound.

Until the husks are gone, you will be extremely vulnerable. The ideal situation is that you will tightly hold (your own holy) dissonance points, and that no grid will throw you off.

A warrior necessity: If in the jungle, and a leech gets on you, don't bleed to death, but flick it off and forget it. If you look at each one and get upset, you won't keep walking. Keep a cool head no matter what happens---this is spiritual war. So anytime you find yourself feeling wobbly; first never have it in the solar plexus and heart, but pull the energy to the brow. If the primary consciousness is lower, you will start squirting. If other students squirt, that will throw you off, too. You have to be tough enough (to take) whatever is in the room.

Anyone who shifts and resonates without control will have trouble holding on to a saint soul, because of lack of stamina. One can gain stamina by practice. This is like boot camp, every time you are falling down, kick yourself in the butt and get up. Every time you find yourself getting wobbly, say “straighten up!” Notice if someone is slipping their consciousness to husks and the grid and say to them, “snap the rubber band”.

Check every hour, or you will start slipping out. For Woody, St needs to be his drill sergeant. For those who resonate with anything, Ask: “How many malefic resonations do I have” at any time.

Malefic resonations means you are taking on the evil songs in your environment, you are allowing the body and the aura to sing with disorder.

Example: Sn has 8 malefic resonations, so Br can keep an eye on her.

Do: Keep a journal to track how many malefic resonance points you have during the day.

Some causes include thinking of the past...emotionalism...things...a house.

Make a chart with causes and other.

Sometimes people don't use their will but will fall into the grid (patterns). Whatever the cause, know the pattern, and the time of day.

Sometimes we are weaker in a certain time of day.

If we can figure out that time, we can research a planetary weakness

Which is sometimes a certain person...a weakness in the past re. a certain hour.

You could say there is a correlation with the law clock and the material clock:

If you stick with a noon spot (as 0) it will show a deviation with a law and virtue.

Naguals are linked to hours of the day.

There are certain hours of power for the naguals, for all people, warriors of our party and energies, whatever.

There are hours where you won't be in as much power, and it should not be (considered a) weakness but the absence of power. It should be a neutral power. If it is a weakness, you should find the cause and remove it. So you don't want to interact so much in that time. It is usually related to a law.

With residual Murder Hakes in the environment.

Ask: For resonations re. Chad, Africa. Which was such a polluted sucker world and we will probably get murder hakes from this for two or three weeks.

Check: Some have egoics out to people who are very possessed and forming portals.
Also check for zombie portals.

Looks like T2 and T3 twins are back on ensoulment duty. They are getting to where we can move faster to remove disorder and we will balance faster. We are clearing debris off the ensoules so they may receive the souls. Everyone here is helping. Toxicity is received in the Holy Spirit side of the pineal, but all three aspects are involved. Husks and floating stuff should end in a day or two. Husks are not elementals, but they are they creating elementals. Murder elementals are being created through resonance with the husks. The holy being Destroyers help to eliminate this stuff.

Example: One student has 20 lines to old past and 10 grid resonations forming portals into the group.

Ask: “How old is the House, Cry, etc?” If they are too young, clear.

Do: REPEATEDLY close Open Windows from students.

Not holding the Albumin in tight is like a muscle weakness. If it is never held in tight, you have to build it up. Emphasis here is to keep it in as tightly and as long as possible. Focus on it consciously during the week.

The souls were in such stress from split time that more souls were born in sucker worlds. By 1990, almost all were born in sucker world resonations. The stronger the soul matter, the less likely they were to be born, some were more vulnerable. It was very deadly to the souls, and it is why people snapped.

Referencing an article in "Newsweek": The world changed dramatically since 1940 with the Hydrogen bomb and radiation exposure---with the concept of radiation and cancer, and how it might affect the spiritual body.

Now an ensouled person could create a type of sucker world, but would not have the force;

The ones in the past were created by evil forces and fallen demigods.

The grid right now is stuff floating out of the sucker worlds destroyed. We got rid of a ton of it so far.

We need to teach people why pornography is so wrong, and the depictions of murder.

It will be tough. We have to get rid of the floating debris to be clear enough.

Prayers are so important. If your Cry and its membrane is intact, you can create elementals to protect (yourself and others). This is where you get automatic protection. We can store ours (holy elementals) by restrained emotions and thoughts. In the long run, we don't lose so much energy, and it is truly an automatic thing. When you say prayers, if you are clear when the prayers are said, you will create elementals and that is why it is important to do so morning and night. Do the same ones we do. Clear yourselves as best as possible and with a clear Cry and membrane, we can create the elementals. It takes a lot of power to do so. And anyone with a Cry gland can do so if they are clear.

Wouldn't it be a wonderful thing if you had so much control, you could make guardian angels to watch over children during school? They tend to dissolve after a period of time. When T2 was aware of increasing husks in the air, she would try to get clear enough to generate enough elementals to protect. But with their toxicity, it has been a challenge. Clearing the sucker worlds has been the biggest exhausting factor. It might take a week to digest what we do in class in an hour. The holy beings go out, and it is a part of the human karma equation, that it takes a matter of time to digest and breakdown the disorder to where the holy beings will come in and remove the residue.

That is the difficult path right now. We have taken on the burden of the earth. Our joy should not be in physical, mental and spiritual comfort, but in the knowledge that we are serving God and we are with impeccability, and to gather enough power to do so. It is first done through extreme self-control and complete lack of hostility, perseverance and endurance that is super human.

To be a saint is super human, and to look on the discomforts as red badges of glory. And T2 is not referring to the novel (by that name) or blood, but the red retro destructive traits that torment us and pull us into the soul toilet, and where we try and pull on to the rim again, and shake the piss and feces off of our wings to fly away, only to fall in, fly, get a dump on us, and fly again. The earth has an enormous rectum and urethra, and is continually defecating and urinating on us so that we might somehow detoxify the earth like human Epsom salt particles.

Angels are like the seeds, the psyllium husks that make it slide out easy. And they coach you a bit, so it will slip by you and go into the flush. Angels throw something in the toilet and flush, so you can hover a little longer over the toilet. We must take our discomfort graciously and keep at it. Know when to stop and change step, when to take a walk and when to laugh. If we break step often and laugh often, we will be able to do fine and eventually will be able to operate without thinking about it. Now we need to think about it to define it, so that those in the party will not get discouraged, and be able to show the way to others in the future. Take the role of the saint; the cost, discomforts and the glories.

JANUARY 4, 1994 LETTER

Some people were born with Were-Animal Dissonance Points. These are linked with Fallen Jehovah. They are dying off, but anyone who was born this, or had sex with anyone who was born with it, is secreting it out of their genetic material. It is traceable to the amino acids, null spaces, and the spiritual genetic catalysts (forms of communicative substance). These are producing Animal Husks with seeds in them. The seeds are inert. They would dowse as Evil Power Points. They will work their way out because they are a product of split time, but they will make you feel sick. They can be found in the digestive, urinary, skin, and pulmonary systems. They can also be found in mucous and gas.

There is a red pox-like lesion on the skin that will dowse as “Fln” pox. If you tune into her, you can remove all types of pox and Fln virus and Fln cancer. There is an Evil Lichen that will make you itch. It comes from Nephilim contamination from previous sexual partners and eye substance. Check your toxicity of Nephilim Lichen Dissonance Alteration. It gives you foul snot breath. There is also something called Nephilim Cream that affects the liver and spleen. One student’s Lion ruptured and Nephilim got in the holes.

Check for the number of death frequencies you have in your aura. These come from resonating with floating globules in the environment. Also check the number of Soma Implants you have in and out. One way to do this is to go over the body parts chart and ask “What body part you have in you and where it is located on you?” Do the same for parts of self out. This forms a type of cloning mechanism. Most of this is primarily die off from split time, so don’t worry too much about it.

JANUARY 5, 1994 LESSON: The Importance of Joy

After a long and difficult battle, such as the one we all participated in to assist ensoulment, there is a tendency for shock and battle fatigue to settle in the aura. We must take measures now to bring back a sense of joy and energy to each of you.

The Law of Season and Rhythm has brought us to a time of restoration and clean-up, following the difficulties of so many nagual powers that descended upon you in what logically would have seemed prematurely bestowed. In a difficult war, sometimes half-prepared soldiers must be pushed to the front lines, and so must suffer casualties and wounds.

This is not the time to blame the self or others for any frailties, or to have fear of the future. This is, as always, a time for the Now experiences facing us. Those of you still in distress were people who perhaps thought too much during the past few weeks, while the nagual life is in the experiential realm, rather than the realm of intellectualization. Those people given to thinking of the past or future with longing or regret have suffered the most during this time with peculiar contaminations that are far worse than anyone who never had nagual powers would have suffered.

Any power great enough to heal is also great enough to harm, if pointed in the wrong direction of time. Those of you still suffering must look upon the Law of Cause and Effect as your comfort and rationale for current discomfort. If you put forth proper causes now, you may be able to reduce your discomfort, during this time of restoration.

I advise all of you to only dowsing an hour or so at a time, and then do something physical. Taking a part-time job would be fine during this time, and some of you would benefit from being away from the work for a couple of days a week, or even five days a week. It would strengthen you to be focused on non-spiritual tasks for a few hours a day, although morning and night would be a good time to dowsing and pray.

In the past, I saw definite improvement of depression in several of our current and former students, when they found outside interests, such as a job. This is not to say that I want you to forget your spiritual tasks; I am merely saying this is a season to soothe your spiritual bodies with the mundane.

We must find ways to refill our desire substance, which is the essence of joy. Pets, taking walks, dancing, painting, laughing at silly movies all tend to help us refill our desire substance. Mentalism and dowsing uses desire substance up, and some of you are empty. Only a person with a great capacity for joy can be truly powerful. It is a spiritual task to find ways to kindle happiness within.

Anyone whose happiness depends upon the physical presence of another person is not able to refill their joy bank, because neediness is based upon the past and the future, whereas joy is based upon the Now. I stress this to you, because I see some of you weakening even in the presence of T3 and T2, because of a lower attachment to form. I would like to see all of you be able to find joy with or without others, always in the Now, without any fears for safety, or shame of the past. I would like all of you to be flexible regarding your self-identities, and not hinge your sense of self-importance upon approval or relationships.

Part of the way to regain a sense of sobriety after such a traumatizing time, such as ensoulment, is to take up a new interest, take a trip, or move everything in your room around. Build something, write poems, go to museums. It is important that you not look to us to tell you what to do. Our desire is for you to find ways to balance yourselves.

Think about these concepts for the next few days, and experiment with ways to regain a sense of fun in your life. There is, after all, hope on the Earth. You have done well, so do not mull over things to excess.

I will be focusing on the book for a couple of weeks, and so will be checking you from home, and will write any lessons. It is more energy efficient this way. T3 will probably come in during some evenings next week, but go ahead and plan some fun things, without too much concern about whether you see us. You need a break from such intensity.

I would like every student, near and far, to say the prayers morning and night, and do clearing upon awakening and before going to sleep. Beyond that, shift gears for now. If you do so, then you may recover in time for the next battle. Nevertheless, do not try to plan for the next battle, just live your lives decently and full of joy, that we have been victorious.

JANUARY 6, 1994 LETTER re. Auric Layers

There seemed to be some damage to the Snake and Lion auras this morning. There is old self fabric coming in for a landing, causing your Cream to rot (or curdle). You should disintegrate the returning substance and restore your Cream Auric Layer. The Holy Beings have been working on this today, but be sure to check these things later on. Spiritual Genetic Catalysts are becoming contaminated and putting it into trees works well. Be sure to check where you should put things, because this will change with the type of contamination. Trees seem to be in focus today, but it could be something else tomorrow.

If you are having cold or allergy symptoms, it could be a sign of a damaged or ruptured Akasha Aura. If the symptoms persist after the aura is restored, it may be shock characteristics. Remember to check your Albumin Eyes and for Albumin contamination. Also check for bulges, cracks and leaks in the Albumin layer. This will reflect in the Cry Skin/Membrane and is due to improper desires.

JANUARY 11, 1994 SAINT PRAYER

"Dear Lord Jesus and heavenly hosts, I pray that all evil residue be removed from every level of my being. I pray to be a saint, and to do the will of the Father. I give up all personal angers, grudges, desires, and fears, to join in the heavenly army. I ask that this time be one in which I am reborn, free of all reconstructed personal agendas, so that I may be of service to God and mankind. Have mercy on me, Father, in my frailties this past year. Burn out all disorder from me, as I stand before You, humble and willing to submit my life. I ask that God's Will be done in my life, on all levels, and that I be shown any errors so that I might correct them. Tonight, as I sleep, (Today, as I go about my tasks), I pray that You transform me, into one who is worthy to be called a saint. Glory to God in the highest. Amen."

JANUARY 12, 1994 LETTER re. Old Lovers and Parents

Contamination seems to be coming out of the corpse tissues related to old lovers and parents. They can be activated by thinking of an old lover, a parent or merging with a lower soul type. They are rotting and coming loose and causing a lot of spiritual strain. The more sexually active a person has been, the worse these will be. Sleeping with a promiscuous person will cause secondary contamination of these things as well. They can be cleared with the TO DO chart. If you start having memories of old lovers, don't get into it or you will blow out all of the substance of your monad.

JANUARY 13, 1994 LESSON: Discovery of the Spirit Shadow

Discovery of the Spirit Shadow

The struggle for mastery must be fought on two levels. First of all, the aspirant must be steady with his footing on the material world. If a man cannot master the simple lower aspects of life, how can he hope to master the higher? Secondly, the aspirant must struggle to get to know the secret side of the self, herein called the Spirit Shadow.

The knowledge and control of the Spirit Shadow self can only be gained by a person of mental stability. The criteria for mental stability are different for the initiate than for the general population.

The Law of Correspondence, "As above, so below," has an application in the evaluation of mental stability. If the aspirant can take orders from parents, teachers, or employers, then he likely will be able to work within the heavenly hierarchy without becoming satanic. Anyone who hates authority in the lower realm will likely hate authority in the spiritual realm, as well. The man who insists that there are no holy beings between him and God is not likely to be successful in attaining spiritual power. Therefore, anyone with a mental block regarding authority should work in a menial job, so as to become humble and obedient, first to man, and then to the heavenly hierarchy.

The aspirant must be able to love other humans in the material realm, if he is to develop divine Love in the spiritual realm. The aspirant must learn to feel love for all humans, and give up any hostility or sense of possession of other human beings. Saint Paul mentioned, "Faith, hope, and charity (love), but the greatest of these is love," as the most important traits for a man to develop. Faith is along the line of The Father, hope is along the line of the Holy Spirit, and love is along the line of the Son. Jesus referred to the Holy Spirit as "the Comforter," and said that if He left, the Comforter would come. He meant that the season for the Holy Spirit (yin age of air) would follow the season of the Son (Piscean age of water.)

The Father, and faith, follow the primary trait of Divine Will. A person who aligns his lower will with Divine Will is able to partake of truth, faith and trust in God, which is full of joy. A person who so submits, in humility, to God often loses his sense of angst, and life becomes full of joyful meaning.

The Holy Spirit, and hope, follow the primary trait of Divine Intelligence. A person who submits his lower mind to gnostic understanding of the Divine Plan, without mentally arguing or comparing, is able to experience hope for himself and for the Earth. He loses depression that comes from lower mental arguments based upon material concerns.

The Son, and lower love, follow the primary trait of Divine Love. A person who chooses to love the spiritual growth of his family and friends above their material comfort is able to align with the wondrous sense of being united with holiness. He loses his sense of loneliness, and feels happiness in the family of the holy hierarchy.

A person who has not mastered lower love should work in a service profession that requires humble service without glory. Working in a nursing home, volunteering in a hospital, dishing out bowls of food in a soup line, would all be ways to build lower love. When lower love is mastered, it may be more appropriate to devote time to other activities or studies. It is important not to get stuck in one lesson, but to move on to the next one.

The ability to think in a reasonable fashion on the lower realm must be mastered before one can hope to master higher gnosis of spiritual truths. Therefore, traditional education is advisable. If one tends to find math easy to comprehend, then it would be helpful to study literature. If artistic tendencies are present, then the study of sciences would strengthen the weaker spots. If one tends to like computers, then take a dance class. The greatest thinkers are generalists, and can apply principles of truth to many types of endeavors. The danger is in sticking in a rut of achievement, so that blinders form on both the physical and spiritual eyes, in such a way as to bar higher awareness. Anyone who can think intelligently about a wide variety of subjects is likely to perceive the mysteries of paradox within spiritual concepts. Otherwise, one may become a bigot with simplistic fundamentalist thinking who tends to worship a golden calf of a perceived deity. Many people have made a graven image of the Bible, the Koran, or other teaching, therefore losing the whole meaning held within.

If one has truly gained humility, the ability to love, and the ability to think on the lower realm, then it is possible to begin the arduous task of attaining spiritual awareness of hierarchy, understanding of the mysteries of Divine Love, and the ability to see with the spirit shadow (have gnostic sight).

Man has long confused spirit with soul. There are many people with only spirits, but no souls, or souls without spirits. Spirits are the etheric forms of man or beast, existing in a higher frequency than the physical form, but containing life force of a gross nature. Above the head is the primary location of this spiritual matter, although it exists over each body part, as well. Illness occurs when some of this spiritual matter becomes contaminated with a death frequency.

This etheric form of a man is like a stereotypical ghost, and can leave the physical body, and travel to other locations. It can also, in part or whole, possess another person. This occurs if there is an obsessive desire or neediness on the part of the sender. If emotions and thoughts are in tight control, then this etheric aspect of a man can be trained to think in a way that far surpasses the physical mind. It can be trained to travel to other parts of the world, and see with eyes of greater understanding than the lower eyes.

A person of poor physical, emotional, or mental control will never be able to control this etheric component of self, and will tend to lose it in fits of rage or sorrow. It will fly out to objects of desire in bits and pieces, leaving the owner ill or neurotic. If a person has no etheric shadow self, then he will die unless he vampires the life force of other humans. This is common. Many people of strong etheric vitality can feel themselves being sucked dry in the presence of such needy people.

Vampirism usually occurs by a type of auric sucking motion from the weaker person, who then can vacuum in a tendril from the auric cocoon of the stronger person. He then nurses vitality from that thread, as from a straw, to feed his physical strength. Many emotionally unstable people are physically strong through the unconscious sucking of etheric vitality of dozens of stronger people. Unless the initiate learns to recognize such vampirism, and breaks the vacuum line, then he will weaken physically and mentally. He will take on the traits of the vampire.

A strong sense of itching, neurological pain, or heat is usually felt in the body location being sucked. If it is the etheric location above the head, then headache is common. A simple visualization technique can often clear such energies, because it changes the frequency and waveform of the suckers. Think strongly of standing under the ocean. It works as well if you need to think of having an oxygen mask on your face. Hold the image until the physical sensation of being drained leaves you. Sitting in a physical tank of water should work, as well, except for the head area. It is possible to clear children by holding an image of them under the ocean.

It is vital for the aspirant to gain control over his spirit self, if he is to ever gain power and awareness. If he senses that he might be sucking the forces of stronger people, then he can correct his error by the following manner. First, he must do the underwater visualization in case he has been spiritually injured by others. Then, he should envision a large eggshell around his body, and above his head. On a subconscious level, he is thereby attuning to the etheric auric perimeters. He should strongly will all cracks in the eggshell to heal. The cracks are where parts of the self have leaked out. Then, he should pray that etheric vitality be restored to all parts of his body, by the holy forces that are capable of etheric restoration within the auric eggshell. He may need to avoid other people or any mental excitation, while the area heals.

Any persistent physical symptom of a body part should alert the aspirant to the probability of an etheric leak in that location of the auric eggshell. The avoidance of hysterical people is a must, if one is not to be sucked dry. Above all, the absolute control of emotional neediness must be the goal of the aspirant. Any irritation, rages, or weepiness produces holes in the auric eggshell.

If the aspirant learns self-control and auric protection, then he can begin to train his spirit shadow. He can try to project his spirit shadow ten feet above his head while in a room full of emotional people, thereby preventing vampirism. Most etheric vampires hook in through eye contact. The aspirant learns to look a bit to the side of a person, unless he moves his etheric aura upward for protection. It is possible for a person not in one's presence to become an etheric vampire, if such a person is in a rage or other intense emotional state. Bits of their auric eggshell then fly out to the other person like knives, digging holes in the recipient. These are removed by the above methods.

Spirit shadows can exist in soul-less people, because they are prana-receptors of physical incarnation, which can continue to exist even if a person has starved his soul. Many people have lost both their soul and their spirit shadow.

The higher purpose for the spirit shadow is to impress upon the physical body knowledge of the higher worlds. The spirit shadow can serve as a type of translator between the seen and unseen, between the mortal and the divine. It is the bearer of gnosis. For that reason, the aspirant must learn to control it, and prevent it from being contaminated by others. Contamination by other people will impress upon one's body foreign thoughts and desires. Most obsessions and possessions are traced to the spirit shadow disorders.

No one can be healed of obsessions or possessions unless he is willing to control his emotions and thoughts, which rule the spirit shadow. No one can attain holy gnosis in the presence of such spiritual disorders. Even though the spirit shadow is not the soul, it is a translator for the soul, which must be in place if the soul is to continue to exist for long.

The soul is composed of matter, and is fed through attainment of the Virtues by the lower self. The concept of the Virtues as powers, rather than ideas, can only be understood through gnosis, and cannot be gained without gnosis. Only the path that one sees can be followed. The Virtues are the light of the Logos, and the spirit shadow is the being that walks toward that Logoic Light. When the Light is seen, the spirit shadow returns to the human body, and translates what it could see, on a cellular level. This is gnostic awareness, between words. You can mentally understand that there exists a Virtue called "severity" and yet not understand the meaning through just reading the word. You may mentally argue that severity could not be a virtue, at all. That is because you cannot understand the gnostic nuance of the trait, without an intact spirit shadow, to go look at that face of the Logos, and come back to you with a cellular report of the meaning.

If a Virtue is not understood as important, then it will not be fed. If the Virtues starve, then the soul starves. The soul is a vehicle for higher consciousness that can survive after physical death. If one goes to death without a soul, then the individual consciousness cannot survive, unless by some miracle a new soul is granted, which is unlikely. If someone starves one soul, would they not likely starve the next?

The preservation of the soul is more difficult in the current age than it was in the time of Jesus. Even then, souls could die. "Fear not the man who can kill your body, but fear the man who can kill your soul," was His warning. Even so, people persist in the childish notion that no one can harm the soul.

The most damaging influence upon the soul occurs through sexual contamination. The spiritual influences and flaws of both parties unite, in the sexual union. The creative potential for new human life has a close correlation with spiritual creative potential of the soul. The auras of both individuals open during the moment of orgasm, and the spirit shadows impress genetic information upon each other. There is an etheric component of the genetic material that carries with it spirit shadow memories, impressions, miasms, obsessions, and possessions.

The wise student of Truth will examine all aspects of his life for disorder, and remove it, so as to be clean enough to understand the mysteries of Virtue and Law.

Charts: 24 Hour Law Clock; Auric Ring Diagram; Traits

There is a sloughing off of Old Name Point Residue that will tend to make you uncomfortable unless you douse it away. You should

Do: You could look at the ▼ Auric Ring Diagram
And put the Zero Point ring on the outside.

If your name point is outside of the rings, you could be resonating with some of your old self-hatred for Law and it is pulling you down. If you are pulled away from the Law clock, there is an aspect of traits contamination.

This will also cause you to dowse as near 24:00 on the Law clock. One of the key causes for this is hatred for hierarchy. If you find yourself resonating with hatred for Law, you should pray earnestly to align perfectly with Law. At this time, none of the students are so defiant that they have a point of 355° or more, but a couple are getting close. The closer to 355° on the Law Clock and the further out (from center), the worse the hatred for Law.

Some of this will dowse as ensoulment residue. You should realize that it is actually residue of your own ensoulment with the new souls that we have received. Ensoulment should continue for about the next four weeks. This is a window of opportunity to perfect your alignment with Law. Once this period ends it will be extremely difficult for people to get new souls or for people to change soul types.

Dowse: For any Extra (Name) Points, indicating resonance with other people.

Soul Toilet or zombie resonation causes you to lose your name point completely;

In such a case, dowse its proper location, and pray for restoration.

Check: For auric (Spirit Shadow) holes, which cause you to leak on other people and take on their resonance points. These may appear due to Crystals of Old Self Points, or other's clones, becoming gaseous with decay and popping. Check for these every couple of hours, as they are sloughing off today.

Do: Everyone should try to pull their Primary Name Point to the Zero Layer of the aura (this is not the zero degree, that would imply perfection within Law). It would not be possible for you to just Will yourself at perfection; it takes layers of initiations. If you can identify the trait (such as a color, air, fire, etc.) then you can try to see what is the problem. There is also a correlation with Spiritual Genetic Catalyst Contamination.

There is a Personal Soul Point and a Genetic Pool Point. The genetic pool point is a reflection of parental or sexual contamination, and indicates the level of defiance to Law. You should try to pull your Genetic Point into alignment with your Personal Soul Point.

Dowse: Over Planets...Months...Amino Acids...Elements, and anything to do with the Tissues,

For anything blocking your Genetic Pool Point alignment;

This point would be on the Fabric layer of the aura at the same degree as Personal Soul Point.

There is another point called the Hair (Law) to Agni Filament Location. This should not necessarily be with your Personal Soul Point on the Law clock. This has to do with physical and mental characteristics that are unique to each person, depending on what your role is to be.

Check: Where your Hair/Agni Point is on the Law Clock (or 360 scale) and where it should be

And for Foreign Hair/Agni Points. It should be on a ring inside the other two points (sic).

JANUARY 16, 1994 LESSON: The MYSTERY of the MOBIUS II

THE MYSTERY OF The MOBIUS II January 16, 1994
(Draft only: First Mobius Chapter in "Lectures: December 1993"))

A mobius coil is a geometric design that can be fashioned with a strip of paper that is twisted once either to the right or to the left, after which the ends are taped together.

The mysteries of time and space can only be explained metaphorically, with symbols that are familiar. The mobius is one such symbol.

Time could be said to be the movement of mass consciousness along one plane of a mobius coil surface. In a mobius coil, the underside becomes the top side, at the point of the paper twist.

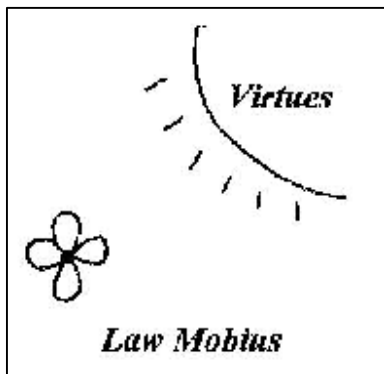

but have not been composted by the Logoic forces. They are commonly considered hells. May 1, 1993, was such a time of intersections with retro-worlds.

The mobius is more readily illustrated as a figure eight design, in order to show the points of intersection. Every Earth of the past, present, or future can be represented by a right-hand mobius intersecting a left-hand mobius at the center. The right-hand, or yang, mobius represents the air and fire energies, while the yin (left hand) mobius represents the water and earth forces upon the arms of a cross. This is the cross of matter, upon which mankind is hung.

Anything that produces death to the mobius forces will eventually cause the materialization of matter to end, for that system. It is normal for systems to grow old and die, after a number of time cycles. There are some behaviors that weaken a mobius system, and hasten the demise of a star system. The mobius matter is strengthened when the inhabitants on the time consciousness spot are aligned with Law. The mobius is a symbol of the Law, or the plane upon which mankind lives. The Virtues are the Lights that illuminate him, feed him, and warm him. Without the planet to stand upon, or the sun to warm him, mankind could not live. It is true both above and below. Therefore, what each man does, in relationship to Virtue and Law, impacts the whole future of the planet.

The mobius could also represent a rung in Jacob's Ladder into heaven. In reality, there is a heaven rung between every present and future rung in the ladder. Heaven is earth-as-it-should-be, which is slightly to the right of Earth-as-it-is. The future star systems are above the one of the present. The Sun is the center of the mobius. One must pass through the spiritual Sun to reach the future heaven and earth. This is possible with the powers gained by passing planetary initiations (gaining the Virtue Powers) and living congruently with Law. It is natural for a Virtue-empowered person to survive the end of time in one system, and to float up to the next, while pausing briefly in a heaven world.

The difference between one world and another is in the frequency and complexity of pattern. As one attunes to a more refined frequency and complexity of pattern, then it is not difficult to bridge worlds or times.

The current star system reached such disharmony during the last forty years, so that by May, 1993, the yin arms of the mobius began to break apart. The mobius yin floated to the side, and intersected a parallel world. Many aliens were able to cross over, during the last forty years, due to the distorted yin mobius. The destruction was enhanced by government research, such as that commonly known as "The Philadelphia Experiment", because of the use of mobius waveforms in time machines.

Other destruction was brought about by psychics, who aligned with retro-mobius systems, and invited demons through the holes dug through their own misuse of power. Most of the demons masqueraded as "space brothers" or angels.

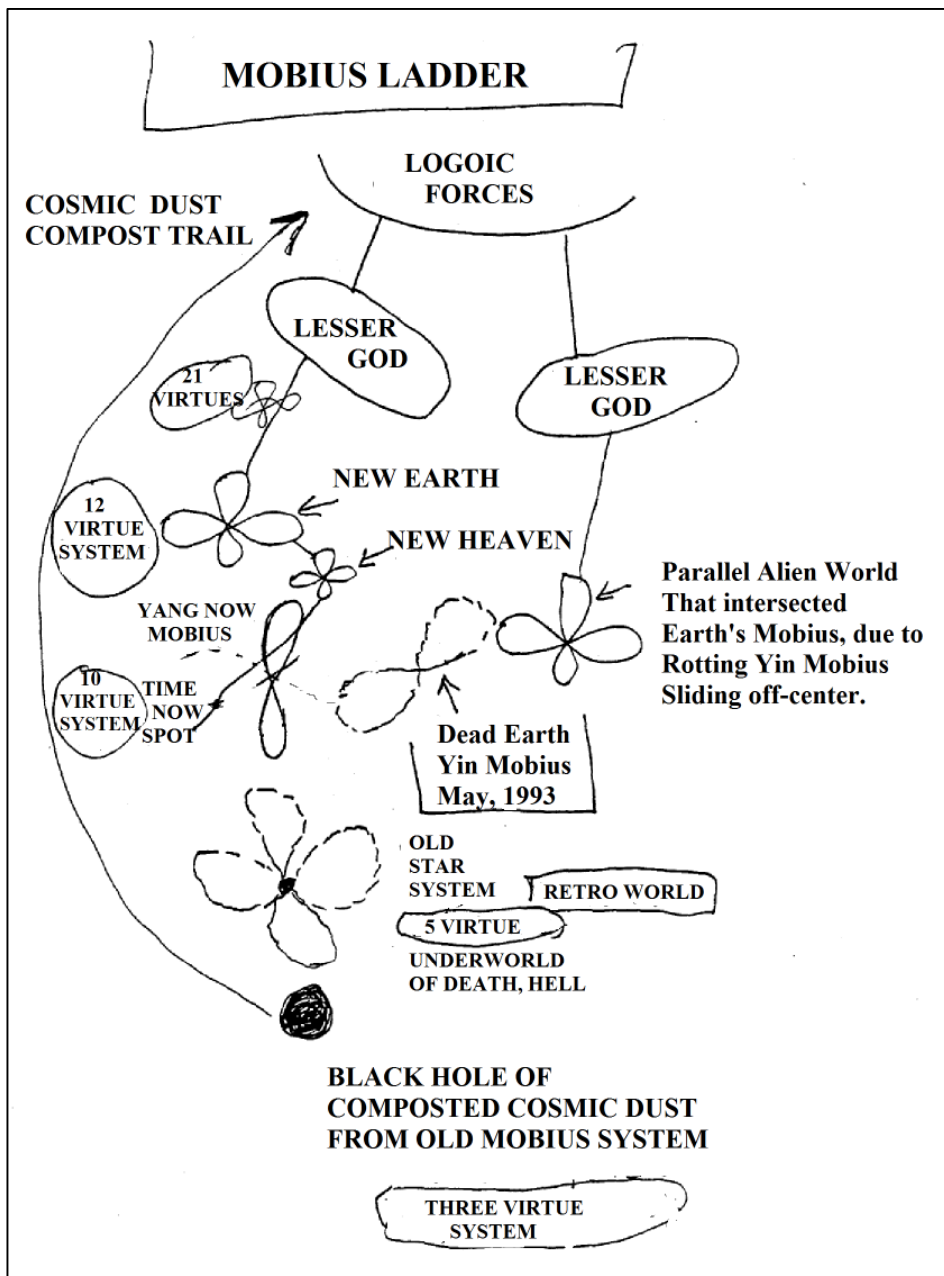

People who stay in retro-worlds, rather than advance into the world of the next season, become demons, and develop strange appearances. Some people on our current Earth are becoming disfigured through their distorted desires, and their faces are changing at their approaching demon hood. They tend to look more and more like an animal, as demon hood advances.

That is because so many lost their souls, as the yin mobius rotted and floated away, during May 1993. Since then, many people have been given a new type of soul, congruent with the New Earth, which is above this mobius system. They were given souls in hopes of preserving their consciousness beyond death. The only people whose souls did not die, when the yin mobius decayed, were those who had already mastered the ten primary Virtue powers. Since the next higher world is of twelve Virtues, it is important for the ensouled people to struggle to attain greater power of Virtue before they die. They need twelve powers to climb the next step of Jacob's ladder.

Normally, there is up to a forty year span of time, after the yin mobius dies, before the yang mobius dies. When the yang mobius rots away, then the people who are aligned with the twelve-Virtue higher mobius will be pulled automatically to that world.

On the one hand, you could say that all these worlds exist in the same space, but in different frequencies and waveforms. One should consider inner space just as mysterious as outer space, for indeed it is so. Therefore, the New Heaven and Earth are indeed within you, at a resonating frequency and waveform, should you choose to turn an ear. Likewise, the hells of the old worlds are within you, if your cells resonate with people of no Virtue. The past world, which is now a hell, is a five Virtue system. Therefore, any person resonating with five or fewer Virtue powers is becoming a demon in an underworld. The underworlds eventually are composted inside a black hole, to create future worlds, and so all the inhabitants die. The only way to eternal life is through the attainment of Virtue and through living within the mobius of Law.

Eternal life means that you retain a soul to hold your awareness of self, and can even retain your memories of this life into the next life, if you gain in power. A master is measured by the level of awareness he has of the mysteries of life, and of himself. Therefore, it is a reasonable goal to want to keep consciously alive, as you dance into the next world upward. To keep alive, you must not look down, or you will fall off Jacob's Ladder into the hells of the past. You must keep your right eye on the mobius Now spot, and your left eye on the mobius above, to keep your balance. It is difficult to dance with the times, because half of our mobius system is already dead...but is quite possible, if it were not possible, this book would not be written.

At the point of mobius yang death, or personal death of an ensouled person, a sudden sense of being yanked out of the body occurs. The sense of flying toward light is perceived, and a bit of shock. Any old soul-blocks or attachments will slow down the flight, as though your life is passing before you. If you cling hysterically to the images, you will be pulled into the underworld. If you pray to align with the Logos, and are calm, then you will pass the monsters of your old weaknesses, and progress upward.

Most people will stop off at the New Heaven, which is like a rest way-station, for about three days. Then, they will enter a new form on the New Earth. Advanced Virtue people can go directly to the New Earth in their same body, if they so desire.

Ensouled people who die now will not go to the old heaven, but will rest in the twelve Virtue heaven, until the day of reckoning occurs for the rest of the yang mobius. The New Earth is forming, but does not have enough matter composted from old worlds yet, to support material life to any great extent.

Right now, the new Earth looks as though it is covered with an iridescent sea of light. The water looks like mercury, but has many colors not common to this Earth. As time goes on, it will approach the appearance of the old earth, but better looking, and without machinery.

The ability to move from place to place through teleportation will be common there, so cars will be unnecessary. Thought transmission will take the place of telephones and television. There will be thought "stations" that one can just tune into. Since all people of low Virtue will stay on the dead mobius, there will be a time of great peace, the proverbial millennium.

If that all sounds crazy, then consider how strange a radio or television would have been to a cave man. It is the destiny of man to continue to evolve, and the destiny of worlds to continue to evolve.

Mankind is to the point where he needs a roadmap of the soul, because he has lost his faith in mere behavioral instructions. The soul, for most people, is just some fairy tale to keep down death panic. Many have despaired. For that reason, this book is written. Anyone who reads and scorns these words of prophecy is doomed, due to rejection of Grace.

(Charts not currently available)

The human face should have a mobius energy pattern superimposed over the eyes, like glasses on your eyes. The energy should be a mobius left for females and a mobius right for males. The direction of eye movement indicates your time intention. New Heaven and New Earth time is perceived as up, through the pineal gland by the eye intention.

Male Mobius

If a woman obsesses about a man, she may get a mobius right energy on her face. This upsets her time sense, to next year, because a man's time intention should appear reversed. Obsessions occur when a desire tendril, composed of etheric substance (Spirit Shadow) leaks out her forehead or other body part.

Also, a person thinking about the past may have a Now spot on the wrong side of the mobius plane (the underside).

Now

Wrong side

The now spot has a correct location that will move appropriately with the planetary movements. You have an appropriate Now spot relating to eyes, and auric ones as well.

Mobius

Soul Now Spot
Genetic Pool Spot
Personal Planetary
Influences on Body Now Spot

If any of these spots resonate wrongly, they shift locations and produce illness. Desire and intention resonations shift the eye mobius and Soul Now Spot. Physical and mental resonations shift the genetic and planetary spots. A male and a female mobius can unite, when a couple faces each other and forms a power center, if both people are balanced. Same sex couples cannot do this.

A person who believes he is only a body will have a fixed eye intention location that doesn't change with the planetary movements. They will also have fixed locations for the past and future. This is a person seeing only with his body, having no soul awareness. Body-focused people would have the same consensus body eye movement locations to indicate now, future, and past, regardless of gender.

Mobius eye movements relate to people who are spiritually sensitive and conscious of non-visible phenomena. As a person spiritually evolves, other people will begin to sub-consciously notice that the evolved person's eye movements are different. There are locations other than time locations that a seer becomes aware of, relating to dimensional spaces. The strange appearance of a seer's eyes and eye movements may frighten the consensus-oriented person.

JANUARY 18, 1994: CLASS NOTES

The Eye Mobius has two sides, an up (top) and down (bottom) side to the ribbon.

There can be contaminants or connections to other people on either side.

They are composed of Sex Substance/Desire Pox.

Check: For this on both your New Self/Name and Old Self/Name.

On each of the primary auric layers on the inside...outside of the auric ring

On the Soul Now Ring...Genetic Ring... Hair/Agni Ring

Also the number of sex substance/desire pox on the top and bottom of the Eye Mobius.

If you have body locations that are frequently contaminated or leak, check those as well.

Of course, check the generative organs for the number of sex substance/desire pox.

The numbers can be quite high if you have been promiscuous or your partners were promiscuous or due to genetic contamination. If there are people who dowse as having connections to/from you, you should check for the number of pox to/from them as well.

All the students should make sure they have only one identity and no active desire tendrils, so that T3 and T2 can work on them tonight and try to help with the major contaminants.

Check for sex substance/desire pox on:

JANUARY 17, 1994 LESSON: DEATH WEBS

Any person who aspires to do great things in the world must have power to do so. This is particularly true in regard to spiritual transformation of the self and of the Earth. The degree of power of the aspirant can be measured by the number of death webs clinging to his lower and higher auric forms. The more death webs there are, the more people suck life from him.

Death webs are links to people, places, things, or fantasy worlds that drink life-force. Physical, mental, and spiritual health is affected by such drains. One reason people get progressively weakened and stiff of body as they get older is that the webs begin to constrict the acupuncture meridians.

Some people, such as those who study such disciplines as Tai Chi, are aware of the lowest frequency/complexity of pattern webs that affect physical health, but unaware of the webs that block soul health. Therefore, they may keep their bodies limber and healthy, but the soul may necrose. Such a person then may store a great deal of Chi life force, but lack soul force power, which is far more life-changing in its intensity of force.

Every organ of the body has auric layers that may contain death webs. An organ may be infected with the webs on three primary levels: the soul level (which has two aspects), the genetic pool level, and the personal sex substance layer, which reflects individual planetary influences related to birth.

Each of the layers should have a key spot, like a birthmark, that differentiates the individual from another person. These often show up as small dark skin spots on babies. Such a spot is like an anchoring device to hold the person into incarnation. It is his dissonance point, his true name. A person has two soul names, a genetic name, and a personal name. These do not necessarily exist in the same body location, but may.

The soul names should, ideally, be near the head. One relates to the eyes, and one relates to a spirit membrane over the whole body. Most people develop new spots, unrelated to their soul birth spot, due to merging with other people. When this happens, a small filament from the soul layer exits the auric cocoon, and attaches itself to the other person. It is as though a spider has shot out a web.

Soul webs occur readily if someone desires to possess or own someone else. Reliving past glories can cause webs to shoot back in time, to an old self. Having a fantasy, or private world of mentalism, creates a type of auric cancer, as the creative forces are directed to a pseudo-world. It is like a cartoon thought balloon, over the head, or out from the body, with a filament linking the self to the bubble. The soul energies then leak into the balloon, and weaken in the associated body location from which the filament exited.

A tremendously weakening filamentation occurs when a live ensouled person obsesses about a dead person. The filament goes to the corpse, and begins to pull an associated body part to the grave.

There is a normal point associated with one's primary genetic pool composition, linking a filament to an Earthly location. Sexual intercourse causes a merging of genetic pool filaments, so the promiscuous individual begins to develop lines to many Earthly locations. These are very weakening to the mental state, and often the physical state, if the locations are full of war or dark forces. All sexually-acquired filament spots are passed on to any future children.

The personal point normally has a filament to the time and place of birth that connects through to the soul layer. Filaments tend to form, producing new points, due to romantic love or devotion to friends, teachers, or parents. The purpose for such filaments is to allow a temporary merging to occur for the purpose of understanding another person, but most people seem unable to withdraw the filaments. They shoot out to people in movies, to pictures in magazines, or to a supermarket checkout clerk. This reflects the societal concept of merging as being something good, which is erroneous most of the time.

The reason the birth points on any layer are in specific locations relates to alignment with Law. Perfect alignment tends to be in the pineal gland. The only exception is the birth personal point, which reflects merely a time and place of incarnation, so it may be anywhere.

It would be of little use for the webs to be removed, unless a person decided to quit putting out new webs. Most people are the sum total identities of all the people they are webbed into. They do not have their real minds, and merely echo the consensus ideas of their webs. Thoughts and emotions reverberate on the webs, and a whole network of people send thoughts along the lines. There is so much static, due to the lines, that few people can hear

Truth. They will mentally argue, as all the little voices on the webs begin to talk. Few people can control their constant mental babbling, because the webs carry so many disjointed thoughts.

There is a way to remove the webs. Take a King James Version of the Bible, and open it to The Lord's Prayer. Place a sack of sea salt on the prayer on top of the Bible. Pray that the emanations from the prayer, and the Bible, go into the salt. Leave it overnight. The next day, take two tablespoons of the salt out and put into a bathtub of hot water. Soak in the tub for at least thirty-five minutes, while saying the prayers that are in the appendix of the book Virtues, Laws and Powers. Wash your hair in the water, as well, but do not use soap or shampoo. Add nothing else to the water. Mentally request holy beings to remove the webs, so that you can be strong enough to do good upon the face of the Earth.

Most people would benefit by doing this weekly. Anytime you feel agitated, such a bath would be of great benefit.

JANUARY 19, 1994: LETTER

A lot of grid stuff seems to be rotting yin-mobius of the planet debris coming out of dead deva-type water/earth spirit corpses. This dowse as a Physical-Other cause for mental/physical symptomology (agitation, itching, snot, etc.) Also, it causes the vicinity to be full of dead or dying yin demons of water or earth type. The air or fire demons are more likely desire/egoics from people, or from self. Do: Disintegrate most with a fire waveform. It should calm down after a full moon. Pass the word. There are also parts in our own bodies that are rotting, relating to water and earth energies. These would dowse as Water and Earth Tissue Demons in our bodies. This is a strong reason for feeling flu-like symptoms.

Book out to print initial run tomorrow night! (Virtues, Laws and Powers)

JANUARY 21, 1994: CLASS NOTES (Morning)

We may call in different angels to heal. To dowse part of the old self grid;

Check: “How far out the energy will go from a mole?” The aura may go out 10 inches, but from a wart or mole, it could be 40 inches. One student has 197 inches.

Check: Virtues...Elements...Octaves. If you see contaminations like “sex pox” the source, could be from multiple causes such as a weakness due to: inherited tendencies...auric disturbances...and then one may have reinforced the weakness with later relationships.

If working on other people: Once you have healed yourself, you will heal others (sic).

Ask: If you have enough power to call in the holy beings to blast. Remember, think of yourself as a holy being, but it is helpful if you have other holy beings to help you. In this case, ask the holy beings to help, and to blast. In this student’s case, (his ability) has gone down to zero, but it may be a valve for disorder, one may have a cesspool of disorder that needs to be drained through the valve. Times of the day or week are important. You might have to dowse to see if you need to recheck it later.

Example: In another case an aura is 176 inches out. This may not be physical, but etheric, and in this case the Tissue Changers are the ones to ask. Do: Measure the number of inches that have been disintegrated until it goes back in, until it snaps.

This is important because these shoot out of the aura, and will intersect with strangers. You don’t want any part of your aura shooting out that you don’t control. You want to be in control of your aura. It is like a bulge. Do: To help dowse these, think of Retro Energies...Red or Black in Spectrum.

Example: A groin energy from a boil is 900 inches out. It goes straight down and is intersecting with harmful energies going down. The Tissue changers are here, so measure how many inches to blast, and if it is by your own power, and also go through waveforms for these. Sometimes we can’t call in Holy Beings until you are clear, but you can whittle away from it, like an old man on the porch to whittle away wood, until you whittle a point. The holy beings would be like a chain saw. If you have a pocket knife, you can whittle away until it goes. Look at yourself now as a holy being, and do not see yourself as passive. With a small degree of harmony, you can whittle away with a pocket knife, and then later it may become a chain saw.

Example: One student has a mole shooting 180 inches at the solar plexus. Do: We call the Angels, Destroyers and Tissue Changers. The holy beings are known by function, if you know the function you can request help, because they are impersonal---like the Cell Rearrangers, the Destroyers and Reshapers. Eventually, the more you whittle away at your dark forces, they (the holy beings) come faster and faster and you have a repertoire of holy beings that can come and work through you.

It feels exhausting (working with the holy beings) even if just sitting there. If you control the holy beings, it has to go through your will and intention, and if you are not aligned and concentrating....Ask if you may go for a walk, to a movie or do housework. Sometimes T2 has to sit and do nothing for hours on end, but if she moves it takes the focus away, and she needs to maintain the focus.

You have to be the consciousness directing the Holy Beings and if your consciousness goes to the spice cabinet; when you do that, it throws you off. If you do something like folding towels, T2 may drop 10 holy beings. Or a brisk walk she may drop 30-40. In times of great seriousness and great clarity, T2 will just sit, and with focus she can get to 180. If T3 and T2 are watching something on the news, and he gets upset, it will drop down to 120, even just a commentary on the news, and if you get worked up it drops you down.

How much power one has is how many holy beings one can command at any period of time. The more practice we have for controlling and splitting consciousness; if we can do it in more ways and not pass out from the stress; (we can’t do it in our sleep), then we can be really powerful to do good. Sometimes you just want to do something like go shopping, but if it lowers your consciousness to where you can’t do your soul’s work, then you can’t do it.

When you start to whittle away, you begin thinking of yourself as a holy being, do waveforms, the To Do chart, and do what you need to do. At a certain point the dowsing chart will say to call the holy beings or pray for intercessors. Ask the holy beings to enter you, and ask to be intercessors for humanity.

Dowse how many are you able to call in at this time. Don't feel bad if it is 1-2 or 3, it may be 10 in a week. If you manage a few well, then they will increase. If you manage yourself well, and consider yourself as a holy being, and control your thoughts, speech and actions..."To whom much is given, much is required." The more you use your own power wisely, and holy beings wisely, then you will be given more holy beings. It is the way of Law.

Measure it. When you get emotional, you will lose all power of holiness. No one emotional can command Holy Beings or command evil beings to depart.

Test to see If you can obliterate someone else's mole energy. Practice by using yourself as a holy being. See what to do. First: can you see the 50 inch auric spike?

If every wart or mole ejects a negative energy:

Ask: "How many inches out from the aura does the worst one project from a body part?"

This is consciousness. We have to perceive these things and then remove them with disintegration of waveform, and a beaming of consciousness to a location.

Do: If it is a valve; a Wart Valve

It may go to the very core of your being and
Be in the genetic side of the mobius, up or down,
One may be able to go forward in time and do layers, and
Do it in one sitting, but that takes a lot of focus.

Example: If you pick up something near the heart area, it may be in the heart meridian and be manifest on the feet. The actual energy may come out of the heart, but may manifest anywhere on the heart meridian on the body. Don't get hung up on the location of the lesion. Think of it as systems. There may be no physical indicator. Some have a thickening of skin, and dryness under the skin, or they may not feel anything. Usually there is a physical one somewhere on that meridian. The worst ones are the crotch ones, because they are so tied in with procreative forces, it is important to try to get rid of those.

Things on today's list; after clearing what has oozed out check to see what else is in the location.

Example: One student has male homo clones. These may show as a sore spot, like a chronic back itch, or pimple that repeatedly appear in a location, also boils, itchy dry patch psoriasis and skin tags.

Herpes originate from dark forces inside the cells, and produce auric projections, and make auric cancers. We have been working a lot on viral layers. Generally it is systemic. Herpes in one location will not project out so far, but it is a putridness throughout the system, look inside the cells or cosmic dust molecules. It is systemic always, and in every cell.

Fungus and chronic infections too, Check the immune system inside cells.

We're at the point of looking at the mysteries of all being, soul and physical disease as being pretty much the same thing. It is exciting to go to cosmic dust molecules (for clearing). We are clear enough to sometimes clear it to the moment of creation. We are near that for everyone. One will know (something) is cropping out if a body location changes age, to that of a parent's death or illness (sic).

Do: After disintegrating (the auric projections of) the moles and warts, see if something is underneath it. Inches out is important, as it has to do with pressure. The degree of pressure hones in on the frequency of it, and if it is enclosed in a tighter space, there will be more pressure, than just water (sic). This helps you pick up the consistency of it.

Herpes Evil Power Center: take it through the To Do charts, and you will probably find something hanging off of the Virtues and Laws. It may not necessarily be personal, but sexually acquired, or in the genetic pool. Viruses like chicken pox---why do people get these through the population? Is it just a physical communication, or in fact evil spirits sweeping through the population having physical effects? Spirits of disease. And if medicines are given, i.e. for shingles, herpes zoster, simplex, chicken pox, then the spiritual problem is still there and will erupt worse, like in homeopathy, and will drive it inward and produce insanity.

If the point of drainage is removed, and if one doesn't have the valve (to drain), it will turn inwards. It drains when under stress, because one loses the harmony, so something feeds the spirit of disease, and when something feeds it---you may think it is something physical, like not having a balance in the amino acids, or too much beans, chocolate, or not enough lysine and one may have a greater outbreak, but why? It is not necessarily a physical disorder, but angels or spiritual deva type forces that come in on the amino acids. To willfully eat an unbalanced diet and with emotional stress, will tend to cause an outbreak. If you suppress herpes through medication, it will cause a mental level symptom, like depression.

Acne is a trouble-releasing poison, and is often spiritual poison. With pimples around the mouth and nose, then there is a lot of genetic sexual contamination of procreative organs, and can manifest as acne with syphilis miasms from the forefathers getting the diseases. Sometimes the worst polluted people will have smooth skin as the disease has turned inward and gone all the way out and then went in. It is the ultimate contraction and expansion. A clear skin person who is polluted will probably get cancer. If it doesn't drain, then the forces will turn inward and cause the cosmic dust molecules to deform and the creative forces to go awry.

Growing up in split time, one may have contamination from peers, with associating with those who are disordered. Acne on the cheeks is an air spiritual, genetic sexual or spiritual contamination. Neck is the lymphatic demons, but if they try to suppress it will go into lymphoma and Hodgkin diseases. In the spiritual disorders carried along genetics, they are generally anchored to a time when the parent became disordered himself. Say a heart disease chromosome activated at age of 40, or insanity chromosomes erupt at age of 45, it is often in adulthood, and a kid will look pretty normal until adulthood, and then when the great grandparents developed syphilis on the brain at 45, the great grandchild develops insanity at 45 from syphilis miasm. It is coded through the cloud of the grandparents' age.

From a physical perspective, why do some kids have acne and others don't? Because if the male sexual energies of either sex were misused by ancestors at puberty, then it would tend to manifest (sic). Sexual obsessive energies would manifest as acne in descendants. So there really is something about sins of fathers in things like that. In a lot of cultures, a kid at puberty would be taken to a prostitute to be 'broken in'. It was common even in the U.S.

You have to look at each disease. With all diseases that are deep and genetic, clear the surface first and go to the core of the onion. Now you are approaching to the core, and that is because we have worked hard to remove other disorders. If we clear off the surface, and the stuff that is obscuring the genetic vision, then we can get to the bottom of "why." I.e. black pimples are air spirits over the lung meridian. Why does one have dry skin with pimples? Why do our feet get like alligator hide sometimes? Because the acupuncture meridians are contaminated.

The feet are the map of the body; see where are the coarsest areas and the go to reflexology chart. The genetic stuff will reflect on the feet as it is coming out. I.e. when T2 gets clearing on people and overloaded with toxins, she will show a sudden callus. That is just weird. And if you do a lot of spiritual work, your feet may get really gross. It won't do any good to moisturize them. Part of the soul is connected to the feet. Sometimes the soul is severed at the feet.

Check: Make sure you don't have Split Threads to Creation at the feet. Toes are like fingers. Fingers represent virtues (and etheric fingers) for 12 fingers. Toes are the same. If the feet get bad, it is often a virtue contamination or a soul problem, monadic leaking, or someone connected to the monad from a certain location. Now it is genetic and old cell stuff coming out.

It is very interesting for each of you to experience tuning into other people' warts and moles.

Do: Touch and merge to sense the horror within it. If you touch a really bad mole, you will sense the essence of the ancestors in it. You may not sense this on yourself, as it is a part of you.

Dowse: over the soul blocks charts. Do particularly the ones with hairs out of them. Think of the worst mole or wart you have, get one that is raised up and dowse soul blocks coming out of it. If you weren't born with it, it could be contamination of someone you were close to, like a school friend that you took on the disharmony through resonance.

Dowse Abortion Demons and get the most disgusting names you can find to dowse over. You can see what sort of energies are coming out of it. It could have been a baby sitter that took care of you. Before we snip them, we have to pull out of them the spiritual effect. When the life goes out of the moles and warts, they will not bleed. If you remove the spiritual cause, they will dry up and be like little flaps. A lot may be on the back, which correspond with vertebrae of certain meridians.

Do: Feel the top of the head, for strange bumps that are small or like goose eggs, feel the section and Dowse over it.

Go to where your hair makes a swirl, and see what the soul block is. This is the one you came in with. You reincarnate to learn a lesson. Nothing happens without a reason, the body reflects something serial, and that is why we are born with lumpy heads (sic).

Phrenology: measure the bumps on the head to indicate personality traits.

You can find out all sorts of things, i.e. tendencies of criminal, etc. with certain shaped heads.

We could have a field-day with “Cec”: he had some class warts on his face. If you touch one, lots of sins of the father energy will be coming through. We are not born with all of them. Why do people keep acquiring them over a lifetime? Ask “How many you had at 10 and how many now?” It depends on the type of person; some don’t go to the skin but go inward.

Think about the Hair Aura, it means law, and defiance in genetic structure in defiance to law. Look at it as something to eradicate. It is probably more complicated. In the meantime, pluck them out (of the warts and moles), freeze, slice and dice them.

You can take an iridology chart with a magnifying glass, and see eye spots, and you can use those the same way as moles. The eye can show monadic problems. The soul may have gone into a body contaminated, as we did not have a big choice of parents. Spots in the eyes/iris will reveal the monad.

Ask: “For the percentage of auric weakness with wounds, etc.?”

Anytime with surgery or a sharp blow to the body, look at it as a potential auric injury.

Tonsillectomy is harmful in many cases. When one has many sore throats, look at the spiritual causes. If one removes the drainage point it will shove it either out or in, and cause cancer or skin lesions.

It may seem we are focusing on the physical, but it is the spiritual causes of the disorders, and we are eradicating the roots.

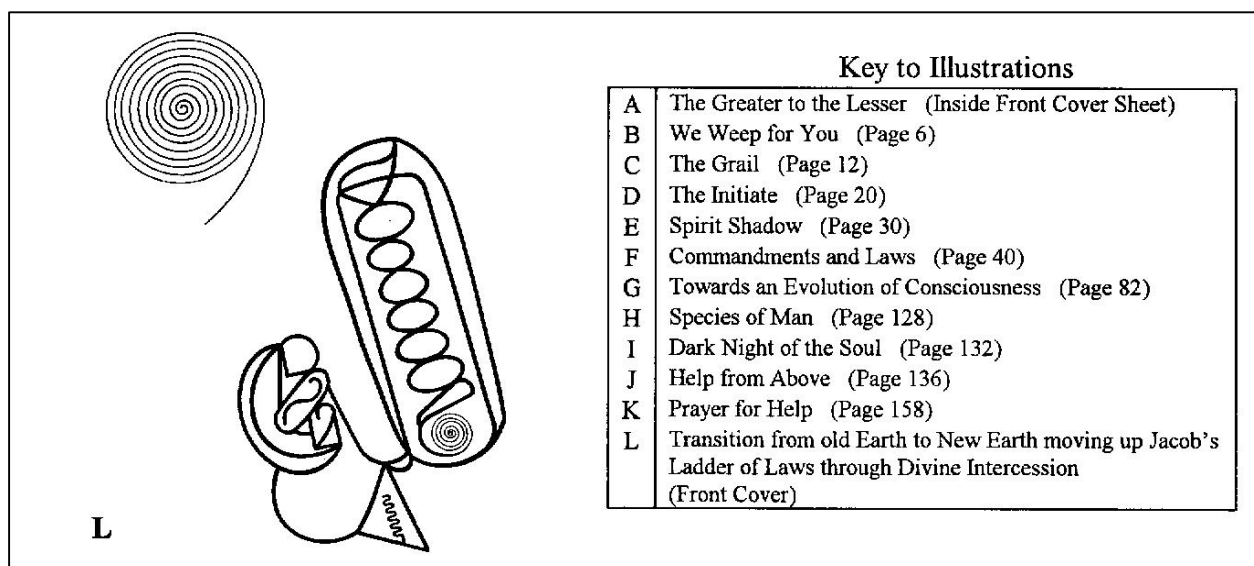

JANUARY 21, 1994: CLASS NOTES (Evening)

Charts: "Jacob's Ladder"/VIRTUE DRAWINGS excerpted and explained from Virtues, Laws and Powers

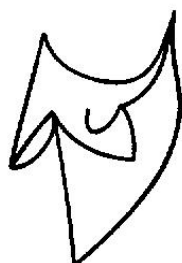

The initial proportions are so important, with the drawings.

They are subconscious symbols to draw people in.

T3 had no concept ahead of time (as to the proportions), they were revelation. It was known that a design was needed for each chapter. With a final drawing (drawn by T2), T3 would notice a nuance slightly off, and would change it. They are like radionic symbols.

The big drawing ("Jacob's Ladder" on the cover of Virtues, Laws and Powers) pulls in desire elementals for the students. Put it behind a candle. It looks strange and makes one agitated in a way. Will desire elementals into a candle and they will be sucked in. Then will the elementals into the mobius in the center. The drawing has a sound that has a ritualizing (?) effect for debris of elementals. Think of things going from between cells into it, and see if you can feel it. If you are not near a candle, think of a fire in it. This drawing is more complex than the Virtues, and it had to be for desire elementals, as they are so difficult to get rid of. The drawing is like a maze that deactivates the elementals. It has a North, East, West, South, up and down aspects and handles desire elementals of fire, water, air and earth, which makes it unusual. It is specific for the elements as it has all of them in it. T3 had to get the perfect nuance, and look at it freshly without preconceived notions in case of error in interpretation.

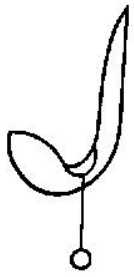

"We Weep for You" caused a twinge of pain. This is the design of the Holy Beings saying "We weep for humanity, we love humanity, and want to help humanity", and that is why it hurt to look at it.

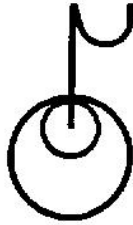

B

The 12th Virtue:

“Development of Gnostic Understanding and Divine Truth, Laws and Virtues beyond Words or Pictures”

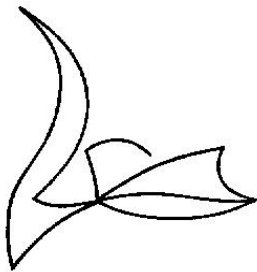

12th

8th

Has Virtue #8 Reason inside it, and it is from a different angle (Virtue 8 is in Virtue 12), and seen from a different perspective, the ball with the line is within it. Virtues are easy to dowse over in case you have something wrong with them.

G

“Towards an Evolution to Consciousness” looks unattractive, and then after the drawing was perfected, it looked like something crawling out of dirt trying to come alive, that is what the holy beings wanted.

Now is ripe to heal viruses in the bodies. Now physical healing is possible. Pray.

Certain times of the day, month and year, can clear up stuff, sometimes one can't get rid of a physical problem until the right time. Now is a time for genital warts, moles and herpes. It is important to get rid of these as malignant melanomas follow along viral pathways, and a lot of cancers follow. The reason organ systems shut down is because of viruses.

Ask: “How high a contamination of virus you have?” and “How high the virus count is within the cells?”

Viruses are very spiritual. Poor hygiene increases viruses. A lot of spiritual diseases are inside of cells.

Last three nights, T2 and T3 were working on inside cells and bottom of mobius layers, for the trauma we had around ensoulment, and from the obligation of clearing us from the trauma of ensoulment. They have been working 24 hours today to clear it up, and a lot of personal stuff is cleared along with it. Some nights they would work on two or three students a night, or up to six, with 180 holy beings to work with us. Intermittently T2 and T3 will stop to work on the book.

Keep at it, a lot of stuff that is being pulled off has been loosened up by our own ensoulment. Our own refined ensoulment produces debris and sins of the father coming out of the flesh. We are aspiring and working towards perfect sainthood, so we loosen up a lot of stuff. Ask “If it was what I did to help, or is it my own soul residue?” A lot of what is coming back is purification, and it is very physical, an extremely physical layer.

Regarding the Law calendar: so if T2 gives a wrong approximation of time it is a law calendar (aspect).

We can predict anything; we don't have to go by the human clock.

The Law Clock is basically a piece of pie. Time and space are very weird. You might be doing spiritual work and look up, and it is 12 hours later. Or you might take a walk that should have taken 10 minutes and it was two hours. Sometimes you want to think, you have had a sliver of pie, but another person could swear you had a fourth of the pie. You could have had a fourth of pie if it were shallow, and eighth of a pie of a deep one, or have a piece caved in on one side, or cut a fourth of pie, and go only the top crust (sic). Think about it.

Many mysteries to pie and geometry and time; Miller Time, Half Time and Contractor Time.

JANUARY 24, 1994: CLASS NOTES (Morning)

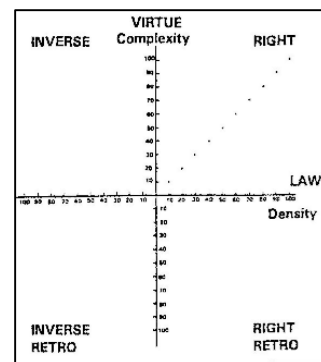

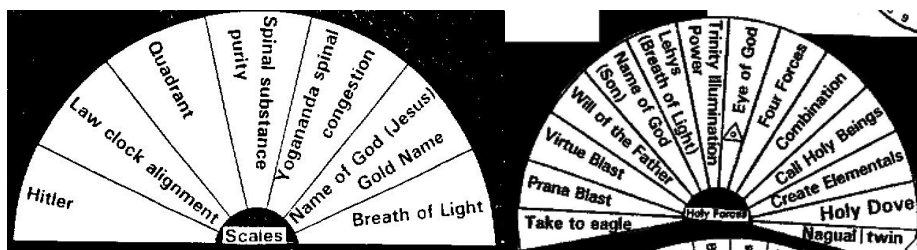

Charts: "Scale" Chart, Holy Forces and Quadrant Charts

Find ways to find blocks in your personal power.

Do: Think of the fingers associated with the months and
The etheric fingers for the 12 virtues, don't get hung up on location, just consider the fingers.

(Reference Advanced Esoteric Dowsing Charts III for explanation of King James Power Chart and later in this book for the Yogananda scale, etc.)

Turn your own little finger towards you.

Ask: "Where on your body chart you have a death frequency from resonance, globule, etc?"

Do: Take the little finger, point it, and will energy to only come out of that finger, and Measure the energy on the Scales.
Then see how many blocks there are.

If it is very low in energy, it may be acupuncture meridian blocks or a severed Thread to Creation.

Do all 10 regular fingers plus the etheric fingers.

When you get to the right hand, use those fingers to blast the partner (?).

Keep track on a piece of paper how many units from the finger you have.

Do yin and yang reading.

Do not think of virtues at this time, as it may have to do with a scar or other, but look at the Quadrant Chart, and make sure you are shooting King James Units in the upper right hand quadrant.

Find pattern weaknesses to a meridian for blocks in spiritual health.

Then evaluate those with a serious flow to energy.

This should improve physical health as well. All fingers are related to cranial nerves and months, as a person is more kinesthetic through the fingers, one can sense better the meridians this way.

We may need to use different fingers to eradicate all the death frequencies due to different lines of force.

Check: First your personal power as a Holy Being. T2 stresses for us to identify selves as Holy Beings, as a holy being can command angels. A person not aligned with Virtue and Law cannot command angels.

First see how much personal power you have and how close you are to being a saint.

After assessing personal power, then

See how many angelic forces you are able to command.

If these meridians are blocked, you will not be able to command the powers associated with the meridians.

Check for number of:

Death Frequencies...Blocks...Webs of Old Self...Ties...Self Out & Foreign In on Vertebrae.

After checking fingers, check:

“Which vertebra is associated with that block?”

And see if you can clear the vertebrae and then recheck the finger.

Sometimes you can clear something by looking at it from a different angle.

You may detect some block on the vertebrae. Vertebrae are linked with all the body parts, and the nervous system in particular is so important in spiritual power. By unblocking and looking at the vertebrae, you are still going to have to think of nerves going out to locations, and not just the bones (themselves).

Add to Chart and Check:

Bone Cartilage...Synovial Fluid...Blood Vessels...Nerves...Blood Flow...Nerve Tissue Discs

Ask: Whether it is the primary spinal cord...nerves going off of it?

We are looking at Air...Fire...Water energies.

Ask for Self...Other...Old Self. Start at the top of the spinal cord.

Ask for Auric/Thread injury

Check: Beneficial...Harmful,

T2 found something foreign and it was a holy being healing the area.

Itch Gland:

Check: Look at the anatomy charts and dowse “How many Zero Point viruses are on tip of coccyx?”

(Which is the point of the aura that intersects the Void.)

Find out “How many you have?”

This is a seed to a lot of your weakness. Do this first and everything will go easier.

Project all the power you have on the picture of coccyx. Throw them into trees.

If you have a lot of contamination and don’t have a lot of power, throw them in the trees. These are residues from split time, viruses of malefic energies, inside of cells and pooled at the tailbone. Hannah Kroeger said at 2AM a spiritual gland at the tail bone would dump poison into the whole system and make you itch. It may be the etheric gland, and it sends through the whole nervous system when it dumps. Drain it periodically to sleep better.

Ask: “How many viruses are in the itch gland, and in the coccyx bone?” These make Death Webs.

If you dowse “Vestigial Tail” (VT) it is the itch gland, since we do not have a VT anymore.

Check: Red and Black Octaves on Itch Glands.

This is a good reason for illness, degeneration and wars, because when this dumps, it goes through the nervous system and produces abnormal (notes illegible). It goes out of the nerve channels and makes moles and warts.

Check: For Threads...Tendrils...Secondary Void Holes...Name Resonations...Other’s Names.

Do: You may be able to blast and disintegrate.

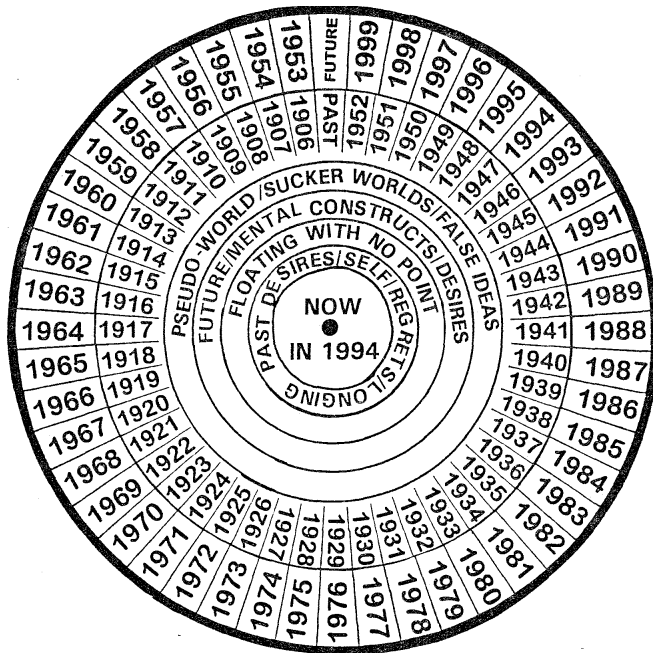

Adrenals are linked with the Itch Gland, suspect (this if you have) a problem with the adrenals. Corn silk is the best tea for cleansing the kidneys.

Spiritual forces are more damaging than anything physical you can take in. It is not how much you take in but how well you eliminate. A lot of problems with the kidney, liver, adrenals, and lungs will occur as they get shocked related to spiritual toxins that come through. On a walk, force yourself to breathe through the nose so that the breath is not so shallow. Will to expand your lungs all the way down and blow out more toxins.

All the physical solutions won't do much good, unless we find the spiritual causes that are kinking the organs. So many of the things we are dealing with will cause the intestines to bloat out with belly ache, gas and stinky stools. That type of energy you can will out of solar plexus into something. Often this is linked to lymphatic channels, with congestion of the liver, spleen, and blood. The lymphatic you feel in the groin and armpits with tenderness and the liver spot under the arm meridian will be tender. You can pull things out of those spots. (See Chart next page).

For example, a student has 80 Were-Animal threads related to the Itch Gland.

Chart: Years Chart, from Advanced Esoteric Dowsing Book III

Check: Go to Years Chart, and you will find contamination of a person with Were-Animal contamination. This is getting to the nitty gritty.

If you empty the itch gland, what will happen, it seems to spiritually drain out of there. If you keep emptying it your organs should work better, otherwise it will spasm, back up and the organs will get shocks and back up.

It used to exit out the vestigial tail but the VT was such an opening for disorder that it was safer to seal it off than to keep it open. Try to get all of the death frequencies out of them. Holy beings are helping today and we can clear in the future as it drains down.

T2 and T3 are using a third level power. Some other powers have been coming in and made them uncomfortable. When the holy powers shift in octaves, it causes discomfort, as it opens up and blasts through channels. What they just did, was essentially what we can do, we need to increase our ability to tolerate King James units. With a group synergy, they can intensify, and we can do it very powerfully to clear others.

Another power is coming in on a 12th octave. We can control the King James units with the 3rd track and also operating on the 12th track. This is where they are operating on are the 3rd -4th octaves of healing. All of us should be able to do this and steadily build on it. This 12th octave is to clear us of nagual spark residue regarding the ensoulment that caused portals. (Mother Mary's number is now 035795)

A PULL-FROM CHART:

Pull from	Thoughtforms, desires, hatred
Vestigial tail	Materialism, enters through crown chakra and cord
Rectum	Hatred for authority, enters through mouth
Uvula	Gross carnality of thought, entry through eyebrows, temples
Air balloon	Deceit, covert plans, slander, defilement, entry through left lung
Pelvic blast	Desire for power above holiness, entry through back
Genitals	Need for love/nurturing, entry through eyes
Eyes	Hates truth and law of polarity
Feet	Murder and suicide thoughts
Heart, over sternum	Feeling like a victim, fear of becoming a victim
Throat, between clavicles	Hatred for a gender, resistance to one's gender, entry through spine
Knees, just below kneecap	Love/hate, romantic obsession
Solar plexus	Hatred for change, converges at solar plexus
Armpit	Hatred for Law of Use
Fingertips	Desire elementals, desire for power, entry through nose
Nose	Desire for power
Hands	Desire to possess and control, comes in left hand, out right, moving through pelvis(navel) for generative power
Rectum & area below navel (straight out from)	Desire for psychic phenomena, indulgence in fantasy, receives through hair spiritual impressions, thought reception, affects throat, brow, & crown chakras
Throat chakra	Thoughtforms of destruction, desire to destroy that which is harmonious & beautiful, desire to create disorder, desire to kill, spirits of disease, entry through ears
Right side of tongue	Wishing someone was dead, arteries receive contamination, veins expel through urine, sweat, menstrual and seminal fluids, desire for indulgent physical experiences at the expense of the soul, tongue receives contamination which is expelled through gross skin oil and sexual secretions, snot represents sexual toxicity

JANUARY 24, 1994: CLASS NOTES (Afternoon/Evening)

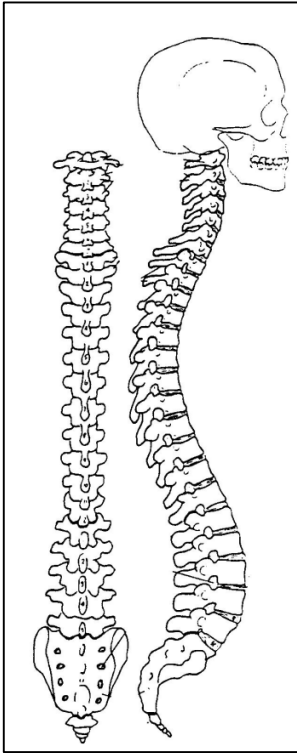

Chart: Spinal Column for Yoganada Scale Clearing

Put your old names next to the spinal cord drawing to clear.

You can find tons of death frequencies, etc. on the spine.

Put on the body chart: Repair...Destroy...Other...Call the Holy Beings

Example: Say you find an abnormality on the spine, and a death frequency, etc.

Do: Dowse which one it is, and go to the To Do charts.

Ask: "Is it a part of "me".. an auric hole needing repair... a globule from the grid?"

Make sure this is written on the chart.

T2 Finds it extremely helpful to use the big spinal chart.

Aside: re: the dogs: Juanito is Arthur, Rita/Guinevere, Benson/Merlin, Maggie/Morgana, Ruby is the Lady of the Lake.

Check: For Past Itch Gland Connections to Former Associates,

Particularly to relatives and ask for the years.

Most have been accumulating in the itch gland pathology for some time. (We have) pathological itch glands from years of debris coming through the spiritual system coming through split time.

Look: from 1940 on for Split Time Itch Gland Contamination death frequencies year by year. Year indicates how far back the torque is, affecting frequency and complexity.

Ask: Past...Shielded... Secondary. If powerful, one can clear more than one year at a time, try the destruction waveform, and To Dos. If you can destroy it with direct will, do so, otherwise To Do charts.

Check: The Itch Gland on the Military Clock. Say 9 o'clock against the year. You might have the right time, but have a ring outward (sic).

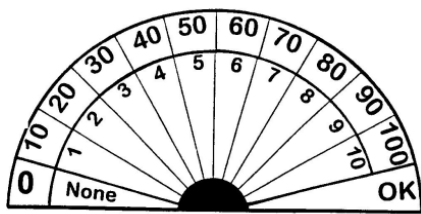

Something bizarre, it is interesting and is a complete correlation, that the spine at the moment of physical birth would correspond with the bottom of the coccyx, and where you are right now would correspond with the top vertebra, cerebral. If you are 40, 20 would be in the middle.

The itch gland location is relative to (word illegible). As a person gets older, this may be a cause for death. Say you were 80 with a lot of poison; you would put a spiritual pressure on the spinal column and internal organs, as it has more pressure per square inch on the spinal column. This has to do with aging and if you keep down the spiritual causes for disease, you would have less pressure on the spinal column.

The Itch gland is an overflow, for moments of great trauma; you would get a great deal of toxins. The purpose is that it is a valve for poison. It could be like an etheric lower appendix that catches spiritual toxins. The length of the spine depends on the amount of toxins that it can hold. When people reach a stage where they quit growing, they get so many toxins; it swells out like a hernia and congests in the itch gland. Why do some have more than others? Could it be that the rest of the spine is pressured and the poisons shoot into the kidney, liver, and lung through the nervous system as it backs up? It is not the itch gland per se, but the whole system, the spine, brain, and all of the spinal fluid must carry all the spiritual energies. The brain and spinal fluid are so connected with their interaction, as with meningitis they tap the spine to see what the problem is.

If you currently correlate (your current age) at the top of the spine, then half way through your life is in the middle of the spine. Aging is the relative congestion of the spinal column; that they can no longer release the toxins they have accumulated over time. The spinal column is like the Now, birth to death/now. Say if you are 60 years old, 30 in the middle, and when 30, 15 is in the middle, so it is an increasing amount of pressure that is a component of aging of the organ systems and are related to the spinal. If we can clear this out of the spine, then the organs, the mental and spiritual system should clarify. It is linked with the organ's nervous system, spinal fluid, and all connections, and this is monumental.

In all the esoteric schools the spine is referred to as Jacob's ladder. So you could say that it is as if you start as a baby with no consciousness, and where you are now is the top of the ladder. If consciousness goes beyond that, then it will go out the top of the head. Think of it as a neurologist doing a spinal tap, to see the pressure in the spinal fluid. As above, so below, the body reflects the spiritual functions. So do a spinal tap for yourself.

Measure: “How many times saturated (contamination)?” We have to have a standard. In spiritual science we are creating a standard to judge and compare so we can reproduce the studies and do analysis without variation. Like the King James Unit, it is a great standard for spiritual power. It has holiness in it. So in the context of the King James, we have to use the same standard for the inverse systems. A mistake last night, T2 almost changed the standards to measure the inverse systems. Likewise with the spine, as it affects the spiritual, mental and physical health.

Measure: “How much pressure of toxins is in the spine?” with the standard of the name of someone who believed in Jesus and understood how to clean his spinal columns: Yogananda.

The Yogananda Standard: focus on his face because he combined the eastern and western, and he knew how to vent his spine and also he revered Christ. It is the tightest standard found. The day he died, he went to a dinner party and lay down to die. He lay in state and did not rot for months. He had learned to spiritualize his body. He just decided to lie down and leave his body, but he still had the emanations of a saint.

One saint in France died and has never rotted. When T2 saw her face, she burst into tears as the emanations were so stunning. Tune into Yogananda, to his spine standard. If the pressure of his spine is that of a saint and that what was accumulated in the spine is spiritual poison, then the amount of pressure on the spiritual spine and itch gland was the standard.

Toxins are due to Old Monadic Leaks...Ensoulment Residue...Parental Genetic Links...Sins of the Father. If you want to know about the years of life, ask: “When did you get the biggest part of them?”

Example: For Genetic Links...Sins of the Father; write the years on your spine to your current year.

Think about this logically, why do people get sick with different things, organs, times in life and in different countries, rooms of houses and different directions? Why is it if someone is 40, why would they suddenly get ill at a certain location? Could it be the weakest point in a pendulum swing is in the center? It could be a tendency to weakness in the spiritual, but wherever a person has a trauma, say you have a trauma at 10, and you are 40, the 10 age would be reflected at the top at 10, but $\frac{1}{4}$ the at 40. Scars repeating on the spinal vertebrae and are relative (sic).

If the spine is a composite of the age, and if the tonsils are out at age of 10, a trauma that was at the top is now at $\frac{1}{4}$ th the spine. What would you get, but bladder problems, and prostate, as the problem moves to age 10 on your relative spine? Tendency for symptomology, symptoms would tend to migrate downward as your spine's pressure increases. In Homeopathy things travel up to down, in to out. Why is it that half the men in the United States develop prostate problems? Why do so many women get hysterectomies and leaky bladders? Is that normal? Leaky bladders, uterus taken out, lower back problems and why at childbearing years, do women have yeast infections, and toxicity from the lower parts of the spine that create abnormalities in the immune system? Also diet is a part of that. But this is interesting.

The purpose, the reason that we are here is to get as clear as we can to do some good in the world.

If you look at the spine enervation, and the problem is respiratory, you can see which nerve connects to the respiratory. Then you could ask what age does that represent for you? Say if you were 50 and had bladder problems, it could be contamination acquired in teenage years. If you removed that with clearing methods, then we should be able to do spiritual clearing on the problem.

Think of something as serious as thyroid, pituitary, or major organs, parathyroid gland problem, what would be in the Now to make it go haywire? It has it to do with a rupture in the spiritual spinal column, Jacob's ladder, with a spine, brain, pineal, pituitary problem where there is a leak, or a Void Hole. It would be interesting to check a public figure or a relative for common man contamination level (sic).

Look at: Void Holes in the Spine and the age. Focusing on the age helps you to heal it.

Chronic problems may be from carelessness about getting into the spine (sic).

Scoliosis, etc. at birth, may be sins of the father.

Do: Look at the spine chart and concentrate on the discs and ask:

"How many demons are in each disc and the years (and month)?" This is last year's disc demons.

Look at the spaces in the vertebrae and dowse "Where you have the most demons?"

Use the Destroy Power, to do's and check Yin...Yang.

Don't just think of the number of demons in the disc,

Ask: For Old Genetic and Lover Connections as they will migrate to the disc relative to the spiritual blocks relative to the interaction of the other person and their blocks. I bet you could map the amino acids on the spinal column in some way, and the degree of saturation for the genetic and old lover toxicity of disc spaces.

Ask: "Where do I have an abnormality in the first 10 years of life, etc.?"

You may find it still being there, and in the present.

Look at the spinous process and

Ask: "Where do I have Malefic Webs to Other People...Old Self?"

Check: The months on any part of the spine.

Genetic Homo Clones on the articular process and facet.

For skin lesions check: Wart Mole Skin Lesion Communication Contamination.

Get rid of the communication, and the moles will slough off.

Read between the sheets for this one.

If it perks up your ears, it is coming out of your spine. If I have to beg, it's not worth it.

Example: Something about the word "twins". One female student has a Double Desire Aura. She was supposed to be a twin but one that died. It feels as if another self and aura was projected that was not hers. Her parents wanted a boy, and gave her a boy's name, and something projected to the left and it is like another being. It's the bad seed---a parent's desire for a boy was a bane on the student's existence, and it is an evil being connected to split time, sucking the air out of her lungs. Phantom Desire self: her parent's desire to have a son created an elemental being adjacent to her, not her core, but to the left, it became a phantom that has haunted her. Check any part of her spine for connections. Ray-Kip Syndrome/Phantom Desire Self: find these on years. They multiply. Look for where they are feeding in the spine and destroy the communication that they feed on.

Example: Another female student has two 79 year old women as phantoms. It is someone she knows who has a living possession of her. By looking at where she is connecting is the middle of the spine. The woman would be 79 now, and dowses as alive because she is feeding off of the student, but the corpse is not alive.

Example: Another student has a living possession of an ex-student. Check for them coming out of the discs. The phantoms make Void Holes that make one weak in the associated areas. Do: Blast the communicative connection like a thread to a wart. If you disintegrate the thread, it should disintegrate and, for example, go out, and decay, but if it is fed by a blocked nerve, or air supply, it will keep going. Cut the thread, seal up the hole.

Example: One student would dowse as having a part of the aura being sucked in. We have to call them Auric Indentations. Whenever there is a phantom, it is in indentation rather than an intrusion.

We have figured out the scale such as the Yogananda scale,

The auric indentation of phantoms that drain you at certain locations, and
The power scales to measure relative power in your fingers, yin and yang
Which shows blocks in the meridians.

*It is imperative at this point to find standards and write them out to monitor evolution and help other people.
The more detailed you are, the better you will get.*

“Ex-Caliber” Movie Class Notes:

To “rest in the arms of the dragon”: is that once we quit doing with the yang and allow the yin to absorb knowledge without losing the boundaries of the yang, we may keep all power. If we float out without the yang boundaries, we get crazy and defeated. The “dragon” is the yin nagual experience between words, the lacking of boundaries to experience of the spiritual self, the spirit shadow of everything.

Arthur’s sword was broken because of the misuse of power (Re. the sword fight between Arthur and Lancelot). Arthur was reunited with the sword by his remorse and the Holy Spirit. Lancelot agreed to obey Law and Virtue by kissing the sword.

Passions destroyed dreams. Separate one’s own destiny from humanity’s, and if one can’t do it, one can’t be trusted with the Grail or the sword (which are Law and Virtue and the Holy Spirit). The sword was pulled back from King Arthur because he couldn’t get over his passion for Guinevere (and neither could Lancelot). This is why the war party could not survive; they could not control themselves, so the Lady of the Lake took back the sword.

Although King Arthur screwed up, he still had to live the last part of his life in a warrior fashion and had to do his best to destroy the evil he had wrought to the end of his days. He split the Virtue powers and sins thinking he could deny that part of self and separate from the part of self that had done wrong (sic). Merlin said when one denies truth a bit of the world dies.

This is why we can’t give just a part of the truth. It is time to pull the sword out of the Lake, and it will appear threatening with the sword Excalibur. The truth of Laws are hidden by the Lake, which is the divine grace of the Holy Spirit. If we don’t present it with all power, if we split the consciousness with the Virtues, it is the Law of Division, and we will fold in amongst ourselves. We can’t separate guilt or honor, and that is why we do the purification now. We are accepting our Mordreds, the sins of the Father, and all the disgusting residuals so as to make it right. It was only in the splitting of self that the kingdom went down. By uniting self and eliminating the destructive aspects, the Kingdom will rise.

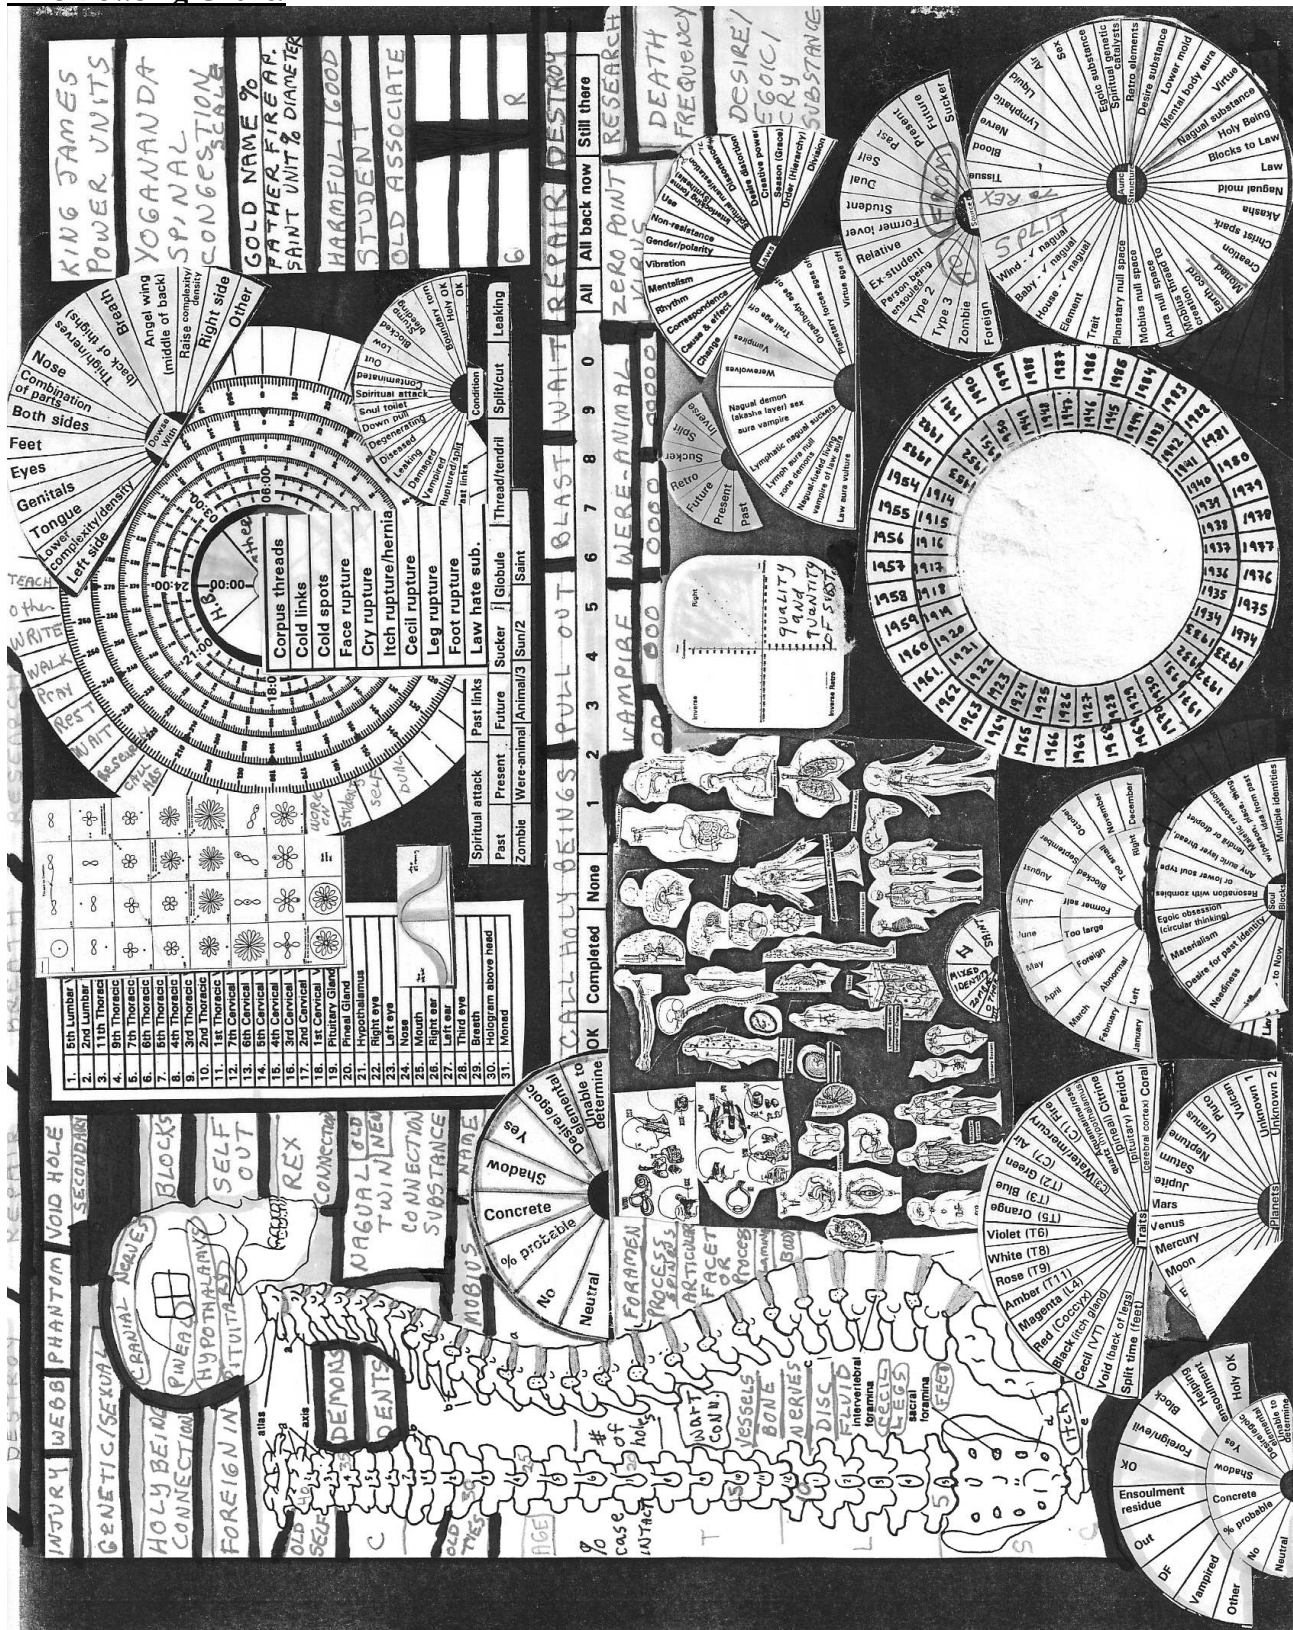

With Arthur we have seen the misuse of power, and with T1, and with the powers that are growing we are at the threshold of pulling the sword, with humility, sobriety, and great precision of movement. Like a knight dedicated to search for the Holy Grail, which is the Name of God.

Morgana offered many cups to drink from to Percival, she offered the different sounds, and sounds are living things to divine consciousness. Percival carried the Grail back to Arthur.

The words of the spell included words that meant breath is the power of creation. When Morgana blew the breath, it was desire substance, and she lost her power because she didn’t retain it. By her own weakness she was killed.

JANUARY 24, 1994: CLASS NOTES (Today's Dowsing Lists)

FINDING BLOCKS IN PERSONAL POWER:

First dowse: ITCH GLAND and the coccyx bone.

Ask: "How many Zero Point Viruses on tip of coccyx?" (Zero Point of aura intersects the Void)

Do: Project all the power that you have on the picture of the coccyx and Throw virus into trees;
Residuals of virus are malefic energies inside of cells and pooled at tailbone.
Drain periodically, and at night, to sleep better, as it dumps toxins into the nervous system

Problems:

Death Webs	Red And Black Octaves	Threads	Tendrils
Other's Names	Secondary Void Hole	Name Resonation	Were-Animal Threads
Split Time Itch Contamination (check years)

Check On:

Adrenals	Kidneys	Liver/Liver Spots	Lymphatics
Lungs	Elimination Organs	Spleen	Blood

Do: Blast and Disintegrate....Pull out of solar plexus... Breathe deeply through nose on walks

Next: Check spinal pressure on the Yogananda Scale

Problems: Write your age on the Spinal Column Chart with your current age at top and birth at bottom.

# of Times Saturated Reveals Contamination	Old Monadic Leaks

NEW METHOD:

Think of little finger and King James Power Standard (KJ units) and point it towards you

ASK on body chart "Where are death frequencies from resonation/globules/etc?"

Point little finger at body part, will energy to only come out of that finger, measure the energy.

See how many blocks there are (i.e. Acupuncture meridians blocks/severed thread to creation)

Check each vertebrae (from the top) associated with the block (clear and recheck the finger)

Vertebrae are linked with:

All body parts	nervous system	nerves to locations	bone cartilage
Synovial Fluid	Discs	Primary spinal cord or nerves

Do all 10 regular fingers + etheric fingers.

When you start with the right hand, use the left hand to clear it.

Keep track on a piece of paper how many King James units

Yin and yang

Be sure it is in the upper right hand quadrant of the Law Clock

Once the fingers are cleared:

Find pattern weaknesses to a meridian for blocks in spiritual health.

Evaluate, and then use a serious flow of energy. This should improve physical health, as well.

Use different fingers to eradicate all death frequencies (due to different lines of force)

Check: First your personal power as a holy being to see how many angelic forces you are able to command.

JANUARY 25, 1994: CLASS NOTES (Morning)

DO: If you get “Pull Out” on the To Do Chart: then look over Pull-From (pg. 57)& Body Part Charts to pull. Write in your old names and dual’s names, new and old.

Check: The Yogananda Scale for 1993 self, and now self.

You would not be checking current self in 1993, but it would be your old identity, which you will sometimes find by old names. This means it is old stuff cropping up and it won’t register a dowsing response unless you

Ask: For the old identity; which is stuff ready to clear or old ties re-energized.

Example: One student has one in the center, and is related to egoic substance. The ones in the center may be from birth, and are the worst (along with those in the far outer rings), and they relate purely to genetics which affects null spaces, and genetic catalysts. Look on the Traits Chart▲. When you get “genetics” always look to the traits to know what to blast.

Phantom issues have nuances to identify.

Look on the Law clock and ask for Phantom Self.

Try to blast it in that clock time, as you may not be able to see it on a body part, look to the months.

Check old and new self. The Inside Rings are more likely a physical layer;

The more Outside Rings are monadic, which relates more to complexity than frequency.

The inner rings are less complex.

Check for layers of years on them.

Think of the Law clock as a sphere and the time would have to do with the degree of rotation. If the Logoic impulse is 00.00, or 24.00, that would be the North Pole facing the Sun.

We are trying to describe a sphere in a flat plane, and we can only approximate. The center of the sphere is maximum gravity. You can check the auras for components and aspects. Not all are phantom, some are contamination.

Do: Use the law clock for contamination, the clock and degrees out will tell you how bad they are. The closer to 2400 is the more torque they have and the further out is more damaging. Check Nagual Contamination from Ensoulment, and Genetics.

If you check at the moment of birth for the Itch Gland Shadow on the Yogananda scale, even if you drip out the liquid, you may still have a Shadow, with air in it i.e. if you are infected with genetic contamination.

Example: In this student's case, it is a hernia in the itch gland and is bulging out diverticula which made a pocket: Itch Gland Hernia. T2 suspects the hernia is related to genetic contamination, maybe a weakness in the itch gland.

Do: Look at an Octave, Complexity and Frequency and Blast a disintegrating waveform, and healing.
You can often Will disintegration and they will disintegrate.
Check other names as well.

We are moving into a time in the group where T2 and T3 will more or less give you methods of clearing self and others, rather than working on you so much. We need to gain in power rather than being treated (sic). We will see if we can clear ourselves and then work out an orderly teaching program. These can be taught to Type 2 and Type 3 souls, and Type 2 will have more power. Look into writing up a teaching manual. If people could have clear spines, they would not be tormented with so many thoughts, those that wash over the brain and spine can bring you to ruin.

We will start working on a book for teachers, with a parable book and children stories. It is interesting how you will find some things way off the Law Chart.

New Scales: Gold Name Scale; Father Fire Saint Units Scale

New Scales:

GOLD NAME SCALE: Alignment of personal name with the Christ Impulse.

The Christ Impulse, no matter what your individual name nuance could be, but for each person involves the time born, or the particular path. And it is not to have the same name, but to have everyone aligned. If you

Ask: "If the God Name Scale was a 100%, where would your name be?" It should be at least 90%, and it has to do with your soul path, and your personal part of the Christ Impulse. If your beingness was echoing with old self or zombies, you would be misaligned. Your name would not be securely anchored and not listening to the Grail tight enough. Check: In almost all cases, it is old self ties to split time.

Do: See if you can pull yourself to 100%.

If you find only 60% aligned, go to date chart and see where you are stuck in the past.

99% is as close as you can get. 95 or above is excellent. Check old name as well.

Changing the old name is like changing the past.

Check on the Body and Spine Charts. Are you less than 95% aligned with the Gold Scale?

If you get discouraged about this, think where you were 10 years ago. Check self at birth for %. Shows how the sins of the father affect you.

FATHER FIRE SAINT UNITS SCALE. A new scale; has to do with soul as applied to the current soul status and of birth. Re: opening of the eye; it is more of a concept of diameter than anything else. It is:

Can the Eye be single?

How large (in diameter) is the Eye (Father Aperture),

The larger the diameter, the more the soul takes of the Father Fire. Father Fire Aperture.

How large is the person's eye open and whether you will see a small or large amount.

Partly has to do with how open the eye. One gets blinded the closer one gets to the Father Fire. It has to do with the closeness to the Logoic impulse. Say if you have a Father Fire Saint Units Scale, a saint would be able to see some of the Father Fire.

"Saint Unit" would be one unit. Most humans with any connection would be a percentage of a saint. The more powerful a saint becomes, they may develop 2, 3, or 4 units. In most cases, it would be a saint unit percentage: one unit being one diameter, and a going out with a greater aperture.

You could check the percentage of constriction. Percent shows the constriction, and how open the soul is to sainthood. If one is aligned perfectly as a saint, then one may get another saint unit. One can fluctuate from moment to moment with monadic leaks and globules that cause resonance to go awry. No one has more than one saint unit at this time.

If you were just contaminated, it could pop up (quickly in percentage), and if you are totally clear and still register low (i.e. with "Cec" with all the work done on him he still registered only a 2%). If you are not able to clear the monad, you will degenerate; you will not be able to see God. If you are contaminated and not able to see if the aperture because it is shut, you will not be able to see. Realize it is probably showing undetected contamination.

You could check "What you were at your initial ensoulment?" If you check someone like Yogananda, you might get a reading of 2%, but check how many Saint Units he was. He was two units, plus.

You ought to have enough clarity of mind to check yourself if you are impersonal. Not many people were born as saints, since saints did not necessarily need to incarnate, and there was a low chance for a saint to incarnate after split time. Yogananda checked out from the pain.

If you are attached to someone, you may get an inaccurate reading. This reflects the soul vs. the parents. The parents with a bad influence can shut a soul down by contaminates.

What about an evil person having an inverse aperture? Look at Anton Le Vey, head of the Church of Satan: he is 4 units down.

This is why we need standards, we can add inverse to all of them. (So check if) your Eye is single but is towards evil and looking down. If you check on the ◀ Quadrant Scale you can see where the Father Fire aperture units are. Make sure it is not an inverse reading, though you ought to know (what it is) by the fruits of the tree.

See, if T2 senses a disharmony from another person, she can check which scale to use. Example: There is an inverse Gold Name spot with heart disturbance through a student to T2 through her right ear.

This tells her that she has a Secondary Inverse-Retro Evil Gold Name Link. If you have a boil, or a sore spot, use this method. Check: years, spine, etc.

Example: A thumb is split (sic):

Check: Years...Scales...Complexity/Frequency...Links...Contamination and Do: Blast.

You can use the Name Scales and Quadrant Scale to find where to find something such as Ask: Self...Someone Else...Where It Is Coming In...or Through and Do: Disintegrate it.

If it is family or a student, you want to clear them.

Example: One has a Split Time Zero Point Itch Gland. Do: clear the virus and heal the tear in the gland.

Often with the resonance in the room, the lowest common denominator is the regulator. T2 and T3 are closing their apertures; T2 asks that we stare at (the teachers) and try to stay up (in resonance). The lower a person drops (in resonance), the bigger the swarthy factor and pores get. When T2 says pore, it is spiritual emanation at the skin aura. Pores mean more than one thing with skin. It takes longer to go up than to go down. The low resonance is so malignant, that to go back up is like crawling uphill. Going down (in resonance) involved closing the (Father) aperture and dropping the Gold Scale.

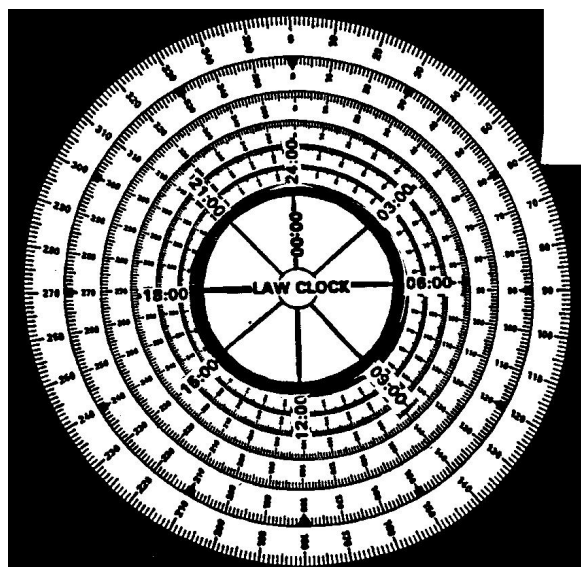

If you get out around a group of people and don't raise yourself up, within certain ranges of scales (it will) open you to certain dark forces. You cannot resonate or you might stick. After being out to a movie and a mall, if you feel agitated and hostile, know that you have slipped down.

Or if you feel achy and itchy, the easiest thing to do is to look in the mirror, if you look swarthy or dead, know you have slipped down, as the eyes lose the luminous quality, they look hooded, evil, and feel ugly. You will attract more contamination with the Law of partial resonance.

T3 has done this (dropped in resonance) before (by intention) to see what kind of contaminations were needed to remove. If you do it consciously and for a purpose, it is different. T3 feels a residue when coming back (to proper resonance), it is like dipping into a slimy pool. You may have pulled yourself out, but you will have slime on. Check Red and Black Octaves: (These show up as contamination) when you dip into the inverse scales. Black is worse and more extreme.

JANUARY 25, 1994: CLASS NOTES (Evening)

Chart: Concentric Circles Law Clock

If you look at the Law Clock concentric circles;

Ask: "Where you have an injury on the Father Fire Aperture?"

If you have an injury in the 'eyeball' you will get a;

Red...Black...or Yellow Spot.

Also ask for injuries on these Color Octaves and the Traits.

Do: Some of these injuries have to be pulled out,

As they are; other people buried in us, bits of others.

Identify the Black octave injuries, and

Look on the left and right 'eyes' as if it were an

Ask: For the left eye, then the right eye:

"Where on the Black Octave do I have Father Fire Aperture injuries?"

Do: Then blast, call for the Holy Beings, pull out, etc.

Check: For 100% gone.

This is something to do for loved ones with souls who are not involved with this work.

Ask: For the Black Octave...Red Octave...Yellow Octave; Yin...Yang separately.

Then check all the octaves on each Trait.

Think of the Yin and Yang Acupuncture Channel.

It is as though the itch gland is like a bladder with a yin and yang aperture which would be on the right and left and connecting through channels that metaphorically represent the kidneys. It is probably an adrenal connection. These can really pull you down.

Check: You could have a piece of your own 'eyeball' on someone else,

A Thread Out on one of the octaves.

Example: You could have substance on Orange Octave; Right Hand Side; 3 Rings Out; at 0900.

We are getting exact. If we are to call ourselves spiritual scientists, we have to be specific, and be able to hone and be tight with the assessing.

This is a time where T2 and T3 are not so much here to hold our hands, but to set guidelines on how to clear yourselves. Every one of you can clear this way and you can teach others. Everything given during this session, T2 strongly suggests for you to take notes and make a systematic clearing session morning and night to clear self. Now with standards, we are working with the tightest scale and the most usable. We don't have to wait for T2 and T3 to clear us.

Review: it is Distance from Center...Clock Time...Trait (With Black, Red And Yellow Octaves For Tissue).

Check: Wart Skin Lesion Communication Threads to the spinal column.

Current name...Old name.

Do: Some you pull out and disintegrate, etc.
Dowse this over the spine.

There is a situation where people vampire the spinal spiritual fluids. We think of the spine and brain as at closed unit, but it is like the monadic fluid, in that it courses through the body, so it is a correlation. So if someone is draining the monad, you may not seem congested because someone may be drinking it.

Think of monadic fluid, if it is comparable to the spinal and the brain fluid, you would think that it would come in and circulate with a set amount and should not leak out. With a plug in the cooling system, then if the engine heats up, the pressure can start steaming and blow holes in the radiator, then you have to pour Perrier in the radiator. When the engine is resting, is it draining the fluid out, is it high or low, is it good or bad? We can't measure this purely by the Yogananda Scale.

We need to check whether we are low from holes....artificially low with toxicit...or if we are being drained as fast as the pressure is produced. In the end we will blow out and overheat the engine.

Do: How would we measure it? If we have the Yogananda Scale for pressure, and then identify whether the pressure is artificially low due to holes in the line, it would be something along the line of a measurement of pressure in square inches, a measure of the whole system like a PSI. Saint Leak Gauge, if you were a saint with a totally clean spine with no demon toxicity, then you would need to use that as a measure; if a saint had a totally clean spine, how fast would he leak? Saint PSI and Rate of leakage.

You could have a completely clean pipe with a hole in it. You could be clear and leaking out fluid. A standard of pressure we could call a Yogananda Spine Leak Rate, with a % of how much of the spine is open at that pressure. If one percent of Yogananda spine was open, how fast would his spiritual fluids leak out? Yogananda would have a set amount of pressure if you look at his spine.

What is relevant is the degree of the opening. The rate would be consistent with the yoga leak rate standard. Rate implies speed of time. Rate over time would work, or could do with aperture. In the general population it would be hard to tell if it was Yogananda pressure, or dark pressure. It is easy to tell a leak, but not easy to immediately separate wheat from the chaff. Check: "What % of the surface area of the system is intact or damaged?" And we may get into tenths of a percent.

Do this in two steps.

- 1) (a) Check "What % of spiritual spinal system is on the Yogananda scale?" and
(b) "Where is it, on the quadrant chart?"

"What % of spiritual spinal system (re. Nerves...Fluid...Monadic Fluid) is in the Right Quadrant?"

- 2) "What % of surface area of auric cocoon relative to these systems, the membrane encasing it, is intact?"

It will leak where it is not intact. Just as with the spinal column and the blood brain barrier; the spinal and brain fluid should be a closed system, it is an analogy with the monadic fluid, as it washes over the brain, and goes out smaller and smaller to the peripheral nerves. Check: The surface area.

Example: One student has 78% of the system intact. That is terrible, it means she is leaking out, and that is why she is feeling bad.

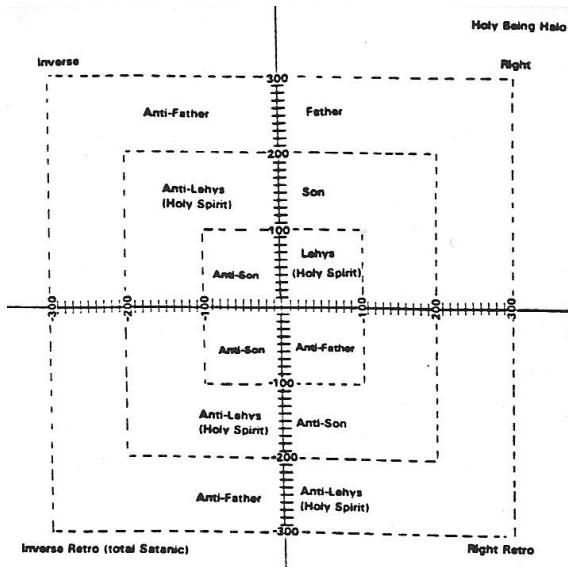

Do: Establish where the Yogananda spinal normal point is, which is between intactness and congestion.
Establish it on the scale of force.

The more powerful you get, the greater the pressure you can take in the spinal pressure.

A Saint Level One should be able to make it to 1/3 of the right hand quadrant, say 40/40.

It is an aspect of temperature in working with high level beings and angelic beings, an essence of frying, as it increases the vibration and the pressure.

Saint One Yogananda Point Pressure and Congestion: as he would have no congestion and no leaks and be a perfect standard for a Saint One 40/40. That is important; if you had a nasty pressure the quadrant reading would veer off and go inverse. If you go off the midline, part of the pressure is due to something nasty.

We are measuring both the pressure and the quality of the pressure. We are measuring the components. Inverse retro would increase the amount of negative pressure, and then you would know the spinal fluid is being spiritually attacked by the dark forces.

◀Note: You can use the inside squares as "Units 1, 2, 3" each unit @33°

How to read the Quadrant Chart:

Straight up on the Quadrant Chart: one may be increasing the ability to withstand pressure,

But Down: know something is wrong.

Vertical axis is the congestion, and the Horizontal axis is the intactness.

OO at the middle point is a zombie reading, and

If in Retro Quadrant, you have an evil creative power.

For example Johnny Carson is smack in the center.

If it is 100/100, you can tolerate a greater saint unit of monadic fluid.

Sometimes when we gather together, you will show a higher reading than when you are home, because of synergy and the effect of the Holy Beings.

Example: 32° vertical and 0° horizontal shows high congestion on the monad (near Saint #1). You can have leaks on the good stuff, and be filling up with pus or the bad stuff. With a reading of 1/1, even if you filled the monadic fluid, how fast would it leak out? Check also the quality of the leak.

Note: One of the female naguals has an aspect that can heal in this area. It is a unique ability of the female, and nothing to do with the male.

Do: Use your scales to see the force of this power. We are being blessed by the holy beings. If you measure the units, you will see; check the saint units, which is another type of power. Measure by the scales that you know.

It is a sign that this group has been touched by the Holy Powers who have seen fit to help clear up the group's stuff. Could you perceive a measure of the Holy Forces coming into this group? The Holy Forces, ever since we have finished the book, have been trying to shove (healing?) into this group to shift the tide of events.

We are merely vehicles of these wonderful forces, we need ways to measure them, perceive them, and be able to clean the lines of force so as to perceive and project these forces on the face of the earth, if we are to change the tide of events. We want to completely change them (the tide) forever, and reverse the destruction of society. Learn how to do this, to increase the power-in (sic).

Not everybody can do the same work to fulfill the plan, some will serve to be the artists, editors, and do binding, checking, proofing etc. all of the boring things to produce a document, all in order to change human consciousness. So many have already contributed so much.

With everybody pulling together we can teach people how to measure what is good and what is bad. We are not in a time to just say to people; "Don't gamble, drink, go with loose women, smoke cigarettes and think that behavior is holy." For example the recent Paul Newman film, the whole focus was on the coarse physical. Magic was the focus, both when they described the Jesus miracles, and how they thought they could replace them? The physical emphasis was so strong, it was very hard to watch, and saying that the emanation of Jesus was unmistakable (sic). "An evil and adulterous generation seeketh a sign." A holy person should be able to perceive holiness.

This (teaching) is training the common man to perceive, these are the guidelines to becoming holy and also the reasons. It is not just us saying to "Do this or that, or we will go insane or go to hell." It is not to try to lure people out of fear, as we are trying to explain, as this is the age of Air and it is spoken communication, and the written words are included. When you read something, you hear it in your head, too, that is because you are hearing with your throat chakras which are linked with the ears. We hear in the throat chakra now. You reverberate with anything seen or read or heard.

We are not in an age of devotion, but we are doing this to rationally communicate to people. We can no longer expect them to “mind us because we said so”, but we need to appeal to reason and devotion. It is not to give up devotion, but to supplement devotion with reason, we cannot within free will say things like “people will burn in hell”, but must give people information appropriate to the age of air, which is what we are doing. A big job ahead of us and any help is appreciated.

Another book will be started as soon as this (Virtues, Laws and Powers) completed. When we look at the immediate effect of what we are proposing, we will meet some resistance due to the fact that holiness will be hated, and there will be resistance to anything of this nature, due to the Law of Gender. We will have to be cautious and do our best, it is important to do so. We have a grave responsibility to do so.

It is inappropriate for T2 and T3 to be involved with the book distribution. They need to be focused on calling in of Holy Powers and world (sic) with the awareness and presentation of truth and law in a format both written and obviously artistic. That should be their focus and anything above that, we will be asked to handle without discussing with them. In a well-run organization, it is better to divide the chores in a clean way, so that people who know what they are doing, will do it, as well as anything to do with money. T2 and T3 need to focus on how to pull in enough Holy Powers and awareness to accurately portray Law and Virtue and teaching methods to write and teach and illustrate in a way to do the work. They need to be cleaner in focus.

(It was a) good time, the last three days, with the standards/scales; we will rebind and document (sic). Some may be able to start classes, or send out to people who have seen the other book. So, we don't know how it will be done, but it is extremely positive and optimistic that we are over the hump. The amount of power we can draw in shows “As above so below” and the result will be good, cohesive and pulled together. All are being stronger, all look better than last month.

The things we did during this conference, you can check all your relatives and clear them. Everything can essentially be done by each of us, and can be taught.

From a spiritual point of view, (we need) to put up the book right, efficiently and do it as well as we can. We have to take the initiative and get it done. It is completely in our hands. It is up to us and we need to see it that way. Within Law, T2 and T3 can pull in the powers and do the writing. (As for) the material end, it would be improper for them to go further. It is a form of intercession that we do this.

Many ex-students couldn't tolerate the pressure of the current level of work. The books could be sent to them. Send the books and say this is a gift. Many spiritual teachers would incorporate this information if they had it. If we can sell and make enough money to send books out to people....the goal is not to make a profit, but to give away what we can.

So much of our symptoms are alterations on a physical level. Physical and mentally, T2 is seeing people mentally stabilizing. When you wake up and go to sleep, look at these scales. Without a measure or a definition, you can't get rid of anything. Before, we would be looking at a wide expanse, instead of a narrow alley. We can ask what about this avenue, what are we looking for in this avenue, look at the street lights, and the air. We are pulling it together as a group. It is going to be much quicker to measure power, It is a reality in the group now.

At night when T2 and T3 clear at one level, then later at night when people sleep, they go out and retrieve more crap to clear. And at least they did reel it in. T2 and T3 went days on end clearing. The night they cleared one student, all they could do was pace, and when clearing the biggest lump of the spiritual bodies. With physical resonations, they are so much like the original monad, that one keeps reforming the old monad. They were asking “Where on a tissue resonance level are people being pulled back to the old things?”

The amount of power given to the group the moment they picked up the books was increased. The holy beings said ok, this group is doing pretty well, and it is like the Bible parable of the talents, “Do your best and to those that much is given, much is required.” “To those who have a lot, more will be given, and those with a little will have that taken away.” More is given to those who are impeccable. Everybody in the group seemed dynamically improved. During the day T2 and T3 worked on the book and at night they were processing stuff to stabilize the group. They wondered why they were doing so much tissue stuff for the group, as it seemed retro, but it was a holy being design to build synergy and to throw sparks.

Poison is flushing out, so much that people are itching. Calling it the itch gland is appropriate. If you check it you will find that it has soaked up more in the body, and then it will get congested again. It is a reservoir, and is a wonderful thing that it is where we draw all the itch. If you go into physical liver and kidney failure you itch, and with our spiritual liver and kidneys we are itching. T2 and T3 found they could pull out of chakras into the trees, concrete. Pulling through the navel, solar plexus, fingers and eyes, was the only thing that helped. If there was one desire tendril in or out, or any link to the past, the itching was impossible to stop.

Why do we make different charts? It is so much is related to season that putting things into a new chart is helpful. Put old charts in a notebook and if you are stuck on something, you can thumb through to find and to blast. In general, it is good to have the current charts, so you can get clearer. Now, so much can be found with all the Scales. Like how many leaks you have, by direction, and toxicity.

Call it Itch Encasement/Percent Intact:

The number of holes and quality of the substance of the congestion.

Think of Inverse Retro Quadrant or Retro Quadrant, they are different in quality vs. quantity.

First ask quality and quantity of poison or of substance.

Substance is a better term since you will be measuring it in the Upper Right Hand Quadrant as well.

Dowsing Check List:

For the next week check:

1. Spinal congestion in general
- 2 In what quadrant congestion exists?
3. Holes in spine
4. Gold Name % alignment
5. Father Fire Aperture Saint Unit % diameter. (If one unit is a saint, how open is the eye?)
6. How many King James Units can you muster?
7. How many people are you, are you current self, old self or both
8. How many people would dowse as being you, this shows another direction of flow.
9. How many phantoms are you picking up, where are they coming from and on spine/body parts?
10. How many wart communication lines do you have?
11. How many auric dents (thinking of spiritual component of spine and brain as being an encased part),
How many dents in the encasement, and protrusions?
12. How many demons are coming out of each spinal disc? This has to do with desire demons. It could be desire demons that you have walked through and had an affinity with a meridian with a disc and spine location.
13. How many death frequencies do you have; individual units and go To Do.
14. Old self ties
15. How aligned is your eye mobius dissonance point? Is it on the correct side of the mobius, or on the other side of the ribbon?
16. Soul membrane over the whole aura.
17. Genetic mobius
18. Hair/Agni mobius (your personal mobius). Often you can yank it, unless something is contaminating it.
19. Earth Cord contamination and intactness
20. Intactness of Monad, substance out, connections to other people from dripping
- 21 If you have picked a certain age for body parts, where are you, under or over?
22. Alignment with Laws on clock. Are you within 1-3 o'clock?
23. Contamination on the law clock, and which ring outward?
- 24 Condition chart, check months, each of them
25. How much power in each finger and etheric finger and how many blocks?
26. On the condition charts how contaminated are you on the traits?
27. Body chart; where do you have black and red octaves which are negative/retro?
- Add Black and Red to traits and know they are retro and destructive
- 28 Intact, and condition of Pineal on Father, Son and Holy Spirit
29. How much Cry substance do you have out or in?
30. See on body chart where do you have a contaminated line to a holy being that needs work or is severed?
31. Virtues especially the first 12, where are they on the bell curve?
32. Demons out of spinal discs.

These are the key things to focus on over the next month. Then go over the old charts if you have nagging sense of disorder. Have a book of the new charts, but not the composites. Then you don't have to filter through the same items over and over. This next month will be a different month for everyone. There is so much tissue purification and clearing of ensoulment. If you just follow the guidelines on this checklist, you will feel cheerful. If you wake up feeling dull and the eyes glazed over, make sure you clear self before you next go to bed. Morning and night do dowsing and you will do pretty good. If you don't do it the first thing, you lose some self-control in your sleep.

In addition to the list, add the two little Problem charts and the new strip charts, have those to dowse over in general. (See January 24, 1994 page 68)

If you master the stuff conveyed in the last three days, you have done pretty good, and be sure T2 and T3 will be watching.

As you become more spiritually advanced your holy pressure would be higher for tolerating the holy beings that are coming through. A person has to get used to holy beings and their presence. It is like Jacob's Ladder. 40/40 is more or less one saint unit. Measure the % of a saint unit you have mastered in this quadrant. It should be exactly at a 45% angle. If not, it implies that the poison of the spiritual spinal fluids are increasing. You want to know not just the amount of force you have, but how pure it is in quality, not just quantity.

Same as in the itch gland. If your itch gland gets real toxic, and the spine gets toxic, or you get hernias or leaks in the itch gland, you may have the right amount of pressure, but what is in there is poison. A person could pray to draw in holy beings or be vampiring another student and it be clean substance, and would still have a leak. People don't mean to vampire. It feels like they are drowning and they grab a hold with no mal-intent. If you're vampired, you may have to keep praying and sucking-in (the auric bands), This is where you have to dowse the intactness of the spiritual spine and brain, and how much is torn and leaking. Think of it as a surface area. If you don't check that, you will miss stuff.

This chart will not tell you about vampires. If you are vampiring a holy person you will look gorgeous on this chart. If you are vampiring a slime ball, it will look like Charles Manson. It shows you the pressure and quantity you can hold. You have to check the surface area of intactness, and the point loss. That is the loss of monadic substance. It is like a spinal tap after childbirth, you may leak spinal fluid in the head; you lose pressure inside the head, and you spasm.

This is why many people's monads flopped shut and they had to restore monadic threads over and over because of holes in the aura. What are they? Monadic Projections Out or Dents In. If you view it this way, you will get a clearer picture.

Do: Think of it as a skin all around this enclosed (---).
Ask what % of surface area of skin would have a hole in it?
With a pig bladder filled with water, what % would be dribbling?
Look at it both as sucking-in and ask "Why is the dent in?"
Check also adjacent things sucking it out.

"As above, so below." If we study the body system, there will be a correlation of the spiritual systems, so we can use the analogy of a spinal system fairly well, but use it lightly with other correlations that go along with it.

First thing to do on the check list,

"How many people dowse as being (me)?" and
"Would that person be self or how many people dowse as old self?"
Also check for the dogs, as tendrils will make them ill.

One mystery mulling is the concept of the Cry gland. How it intersects this spinal system. Paradoxical; think of a chart of rings and how it relates to the Cry gland. It has an aspect of being in the middle like a channel inside, like the lymphatic system that could run along the spine: that is related to the Cry gland. If you had a tube or cable with multiple cables inside a coaxial, and the spinal system could be 6 rings out with bones and nerves. If asked where the Cry aura would be, it would be inside (sic), the paradox is that the Cry system is less dense than the other.

Aspects of desire would be inside the conduit of the spinal system. The enclosed system of spine and brain, and running up through that would be a plastic coated wire. If your Cry Aura gets out of sorts, it will show in the spinal system, and will cause a protrusion out of the spinal system, and not the other way around which would seem logical. The spinal system in essence is primarily injured through the protrusions of the Cry aura through it. When desires and egoic energies go to the past, you shoot a filament of desire out to the past.

Movie Review: Ex-Caliber

In the movie Ex Caliber with the sorcerer mist – he was evaporating a hole through the normal structure and changing the structure so he could change form to appear like the woman’s husband. The key thing to understand if you can’t control the desire essence you will end up like the gal at the end of the movie, Morgana. She looked real good, until she let the power be lost, and she got old. She opened up the gates of her power, because the control of desires and the mental process control this, and it shoots holes through the spinal system and one loses power. This is why the mystics insist on a desire less state. Not that you shouldn’t have it, but know how to control it. If you don’t, you shoot out the spinal column through the rings and leak like a sieve.

How does one control desire? Control thoughts, as they precede desire. How do you control thoughts? Partly by controlling the social influences, reading material, what you see before you go to bed and what you read and hear. These affect thought and spinal fluid.

If you are around a lot of people, and someone is describing a graphic sex movie, and the desire aura is globbing out, make an excuse and walk away. Not that you can’t be light about sex or to not desire sex, it is not to resist desire, or be afraid. You can talk about anything without anxiety, but with anxiety, it is resistance and an unresolved conflict with that issue.

Yesterday stuff was coming out of the spine and the conversation was getting grosser and grosser. It was a way to entice weakness to the forefront. When enticing weakness to the forefront, you can bring the desire aura to the spinal system, and rupture the membrane, and lose the sword Ex Caliber, which is virtue and Law carried on the soul force.

It was why Arthur fell asunder; he couldn’t control his desires for Guinevere any more than Lancelot for Guinevere. Because it was the law, Arthur went against the law and what he knew was right because of his desires. He was obeying the letter, and not the spirit, and he was the spiritual leader by understanding it and obeying it. He was allowing knights to be killed because he was denying the truth.

Jesus; “Whatever a man does in his mind, he does...”---‘lusteth in the heart’. The common romantic notion in Guinevere and Lancelot was that they were victims of circumstance, but the reason they went down, was they had circular fantasies. In the beginning, that was all it was, but Arthur was trained by Merlin, and he saw it, and he knew the knights were right because it was a mystery school. To deny it, he was going against truth.

In the final scene, he was visiting a convent; he said to Guinevere he had a dream of coming back as a normal man and to be with her as a husband. He still did some good, the allegory is for ourselves, and we need to look at it from the perspective that if we control circular thoughts, we control desire substance. If we keep in a tight ring, control the spiritual spinal system, we control the ethers. We don’t just blow the ethers out like Morgana and lose power. That is the core of power.

Recognize when others are on you and when you are out. Can you recognize it, or do you just let it control your behavior, like Arthur with Morgana? He had no self-control, and he gave into the moment without any control, so he slept with his own sister.

Use the candle and the Desire Substance Design (See end of lesson) morning and night. It trains you to go through a series of waveforms, and it is not magic, but is the use of natural Law. The reason the design was not included in the book (Virtues, Laws and Powers), nor the holy salt bath (See Lesson on Death Webs) information, was that (the teachers) did not want dilettantes to look for magic. People would feel better using the diagram and the salt, but the problem is, if the person does not go out and change all aspects of his life, then it would be a kind of magic. If they did not agree with the Laws but just did this.

Our first job is to teach law, and when people follow through and get training, we can teach them short cut methods. It is fine for us to use these techniques, because we have tried and worked hard, and persevered. T2 and T3 will not supply magic, or send crystals, etc. (like the Bob McKusick crystals) to those who do not follow law to help remove entities, even though the methods may repel elementals. The enemy is within us, and by clearing them we will be so strong. Likewise our power should be such by our own clarity and whittling away. We did not get entities overnight, and won't get rid of them with a bead. Our ancestors and our whole world has been defiled. We will whittle away until we get them (cleared).

Lancelot prayed and fought against himself, he overcame his weakness then but lost later. The Round Table went down with the deceit and poor thought control of Arthur, Lancelot and Guinevere, and they lost their unity of purpose. Lancelot would quit the meetings, he was ashamed, and so there was not a synergy force that went through the group.

The last two months have been very productive. It is a tremendous financial and time burden, but be eternally grateful. The strength to the group depends on this, with the discomforts and challenges. We should be starting another book this week (Advanced Esoteric Dowsing Book I).

With individuals and a few scattered groups that want to do good, the problem is the loss of (universal) inner knowledge. That if we get the teaching out, there will be groups growing that will increase in power and work synergistically. At the current time we will look at the groups. When T1 first met HK, she was holy, but the group was very disordered. Her ideas were to love everyone and she was a Mother Theresa sort of healer with loving, open arms and heart. Her ministry was full of homosexuals, lesbians and the promiscuous. One woman talked about Stuart Wilde who worshipped Khan as a man of power. There was no control, though she had been a mystery school person for many years. She did not understand the fundamentals of power which is in essence Law. Though like Mother Teresa, she was only dedicated to good, but the group had no power.

With the Brotherhood of the White Temple, and HK's teacher was Dr. Doreal, who was also studied (by T1) for years, but his group has no power. They would send things out five times a week and had no ability to (create) change with anything that he taught. They had no personal power and when he died they had no power. He was a failure. He did not teach them how to have power. Yogananda had power, but his followers had no power.

How can you change the world if you have no power? As T1 searched for someone holy who had power, and who had died and left power---not with sweet words, but with people who could change the Earth, and she couldn't find them, She studied Claire Prophet, who essentially turned into a paranoid. She was sweet, but when the souls folded, she folded with them. They once had power, with charisma, and they meant well. It was more her husband that had the power. She had none. Her books have an iota of truth, but they are a total waste of time. The way to judge a teacher, is by how much impeccability and power the followers have to bring holy changes to the Earth.

References to: Book/Aquarian Gospel of Levi; Movie/Kingfisher; Theosophical Society

Question: If we are asked "What is the source of this information?"... how to give credence? (sic)

T2: Say it is from inhabitants of a monastery. One could compare it to the Aquarian Gospel of Levi. He prayed for 40 years. He was a minister, and he saw the life of Jesus, and it was very congruent to the New Testament. It is extremely hard for the common man of today's world to think that anybody would be holy or that anybody's whole purpose for being would be to align with God to be of service to humanity. It is such a rare thing.

T3: Even people who teach don't think it is possible.

T2: In the movie Kingfisher there was an association for research and enlightenment. Edgar Cayce: was essentially a study group. We have Bible bangers with no boundaries, who would talk a lot, but wouldn't change anything in their lives, and had no power.

Theosophical Society would have seminars on shamanism, and paganism as if it was the same as Rudolf Steiner's teaching. They had no boundaries; it was as if it had become a mental thing.

To tell anyone that there is a group of people who want to align (with God) 24 hours a day and give up their lower selves, lives, family, children or anything---that is crazy in the world's eye, and seems deranged.

Say to people: "This is from a holy source, and that is all I can say." If you try to explain this person is holy: what do you say? That she is on the lam and wanted to be picked up for child abuse?

T3: To explain, don't waste their time. The holy being that is giving the book is you, and the person who is receiving it will have that sense (sic). They may be curious and may ask, but if they have to have a mental argument from whom it came, then, it is not worth it.

T2: Say it is from a monastery: "The source is a secret monastery of spiritual aesthetics and say they wish to remain anonymous." "The information is divinely inspired is revelation. They are reclusive aesthetics."

It is absolutely perfect to not lend any personality to the works that go out of this. If anyone needs to do a sale, say you are a representative of the publishing company. But you can go on and talk about the need for transformation. T1 is so loved, hated or feared by the dowsers, it will spur sales. The majority think T1 is dead.

Send all the core dowsers a book. They will spread it around. They will have classes in the next dowsing conference. Go to local chapters with Student and Teachers manuals go to the groups and chapters.

Send to JJ, EJ, Peter Paul and Mary and the Vermont singing couple and HL. Dowsers will refer to the book to seem to have authority. People will order the book. Everywhere Aur and T1 traveled, people would snap up the books. Do not send it to the Course of Miracles people.

The first task of a teacher is to shake up student's ideas of reality. Then they can learn. No one wants to learn about Law and Virtue, but they loved to hear about aliens sucking brains out of noses. They were so afraid; they shook like in a Pentecostal church. Some gave up reality; some wrote afterward that they could see entities afterwards. It opened up the spiritual vision to see, and their own desire elementals would stare them in the face when they went to bed at night.

T3: More people are willing to accept that evil has power, and that those that are good don't have power.

T2: If T3 went to the dowsing convention with his glowing eyes, they would be convinced he was evil. It is amazing; the reaction toward T1 and anyone with spiritual vision was either fright or hate filled. Watch out when you go among people who have a little bit of sight. Blink a lot and wear tinted glasses and look to the side.

It may not be possible to present the drawings separate from the writings. A lot of the application of the writings are individual so what may strengthen one person may not do for another. Some people are more auditory, some more visual. It is powerful to teach a presentation of the work and to put on poster boards like an art show, of the elementals and virtues.

Another book would be the shapes of thoughts and desires. One could do a whole class on what a virtue looks like esoterically vs. a hate thought, and people can feel it. It is good to generate enough book sales to send people out to teach seminars, and we could map out seminars and spring out other teachers. The east coast is prime (for this) material, though they have a high homosexual count, many are sick of it.

It sounds outrageous to speak about the Species of Man (See Virtues, Laws and Powers) and yet when people live in fear of other people murdering them, it should be not that difficult to digest.

If T2 could work and have seminars, and not to spook the natives too much with benign (topics) like "thoughts create shapes", and "sounds make sands settle in certain ways" could be taught.

Aside: Don't have the desire elemental designs near your bed in the night, as it may suck out desire substance.

Animals: Have Between Cells...Null Zones...Planetary...and Holes in the Spinal Systems as well.

JANUARY 26, 1994: CLASS NOTES

The most important thing for T2 and T3 to do is to get us to be powerful so that we can teach others to be powerful. We need to see how much personal power we can garner. We need to evaluate ourselves, and it is important that T2 and T3 do not do it for us unless we are way off base.

Before blasting:

Make sure you are only yourself, and

Have no Void Holes and no Desire/Egoic Substance out.

The easiest thing is to check on the body chart for Thought Form Elemental Demons, and Do: Blast them in body or spine locations and then see how many are left.

Start with this and as you are blasting, go to the side of yourself and

Ask: “How may King James units you can blast with?” and if it is too low, ask;
“How many blocks you have to being able to blast with the King James units?”

Example: One student’s encasement was 89% which caused Void Holes.

Do: Pray.

Check the Yogananda scale, it should not be above 1 Unit, and

Check the quality and quantity on the Quadrant Chart.

Check Gold Name and % of Saint Unit (of 1st Unit).

T2 and T3 will check on us when we are out of class until we can hold the Gold name at 90% all the time.

Charts: SOUL TYPES and Condition Charts

With a problem in raising the Gold Name percentage:

Ask: “How many blocks you have?” For example,

Do: Check links to the past and Soul Type Chart►.

With Links to Past...People...Old Lover Stuff Surfacing in the Tissues...or Split Time;

You will drop in Gold Name.

SOUL TYPE
Ensouled
Mixed
Animal
Pets
Transition
Zombie
Other
Husk

Do: Look for blocks on the body parts and spine for areas to blast,

Use the Condition Charts:

This is a lot of Wart Communication in Itch Glands.

Skin lesions show up in ingrown hairs/Hair Aura from sins of the father.

Red spots and pimples are classic examples of desire substance globules.

Check: Desire Substance...Sex Substance...Albumin (Aura/Eyes) it may be residue.

Look at the Law Clock and say “Where do I have anything malefic going out?”

Do: Ask whether to Destroy...or Pull In.

Check the Auric Charts and ask “What do you have out?”

Ask “What you have out to teachers?”

1994 JANUARY LECTURES

It is normal to send tendrils to teachers, it is important that you recognize it. T2's problem is she can't see yang desire tendrils. Females or males can send yang desire tendrils. It is good to remove the protruding moles, as they are an auric protrusion, and you may be reminded of it every day.

Dowse every day for Wart Communication Threads...ingrown hairs and disintegrate the base. There will be many layers coming out for a while and then the lesion should lose its life. If doesn't fall of its own accord, then "bob-it."

Dowse "How many blocks with "Cec" Trait/Octaves or dark force energies you have?"

They are lower than black. This contamination shows up strongly on the skin.

The "Cec" trait is correlated with Split Time Residual and the Vestigial Tail.

Charts: TRAITS/Octaves explained

Black Trait/Octave is correlated to the Itch Gland and the Red Trait to the last bone of the coccyx.

Yellow Trait is Tissue as opposed to bones.

Rose: T9,

Amber: T11,

White: T8,

Violet: T6,

Orange: T5,

Blue: T3,

Green: T2,

Air: C7,

Fire: C1,

Water/Mercury: C3,

In ascending and descending order.

These correlate with the times of one's life and years where you have abnormalities.

Traits imply between auric layers and are similar to null spaces.

Split Time Trait: Another trait octave related to feet.

Void Trait: Legs (no color).

Aquamarine Rose Quartz A shade with blue and pink which is not magenta but like a tourmaline, in that it has two colors, and can't be called one or the other, there is a link with the Hypothalamus and it goes into the monad.

Citrine: It is like a clear topaz: Pineal. Cranial nerves would go through the pineal.

Peridot for the Pituitary.

Coral: Another color re. the Cerebral Cortex, it is not peach, but like a coral.

Feet Split Time Holes are not void holes, but holes from split time, and not to split time as they are directional (sic). It feels like something left behind:

Egoic Substance Suck Tube.

Check "How many holes from or to split time you have to the feet?"

Do: You can disintegrate these if you focus on them with planets and months.

Check: "How many death frequencies you have on each trait octave?"

Traits: Between auric layers similar to Null Spaces are like a clutch plate interfacing with another plate that creates a friction, and that may have been a function for it. Steiner said as Ahriman became stronger, then man's feet, would shrivel and the nails become thicker, as the etheric connection is gone. It is as though the Earth has a mist on top of it like an astral mist. It seems to be when we walk on the Earth, it goes up to mid-calf over the whole Earth and we are walking in that mist.

The mist is like some artists depiction of hell where the top of the mist is like hands reaching up in that mist of dying demons, and grabbing on to the feet and trying to pull us into split time, like packs of demons in this mist. In a year the mist will be there as an auric layer of the Earth, and the demons will be gone, composted. They are being sucked down and are grabbing now, though they don't seem alive. The mist layer will not have anything to do with split time eventually, it is a normal layer, but right now has split time interfacing it. In the next six weeks, split time will go. It will depend on where you are standing, it is not here in the building, but down the street, when you drop down, it has to do with sea level elevation, for example across the tracks has the mist.

Before going to bed, remove residue on the feet.
Check for ties on the feet for split time, morning and night.

Split Time Foot Implants. Some of us have threads up from the feet crawling up the legs, or implants.

Do: Check To and From.
Time of day makes a difference.
It is worse at night, and will eventually go away as it sinks lower, but we want to get rid of them now.
Put them way underground.

A power is coming into rearrange, and increase people's ability to withstand power units. This is like rearranging some of the disorder to order to expand the number of power units to stretch the capabilities of the students and to destroy a lot of contamination. It is a power that occasionally peeks through the clouds, and if T2 can grab it she can beam it. This is a very soft yin power. You may not feel it when it goes through you.

Every time they do this it is like cleaning out the pipes, and there will come a time they won't need to do it. They are aligning and roto-rooting, so we can anchor in the sense of power so as to use it. T3 is destroying the debris and she is sucking in the debris. A lot of this is die-off debris. The sum total of any virtue power is not equal to the synergy power, which is exponential. The weakest finger is the base number, and then the number of virtues one has will add the power exponentially. The virtues that are higher than the base virtues are added into the total and if you can bring up the lowest virtue to the second lowest, the power will increase dramatically, as the lowest one will set the pace.

T2 is seeing this more and more in us and it is why it is important to find the weakness. If you find the weakness and bring it up, you can increase in power. If you are missing any of the first ten Virtues, you have no power. That is the first rule. You must have some virtues in the first 10, and the lowest common denominator of the first ten is the base. If one had 12 virtues, of at least 10 King James Units, each, the figure would be 10 to the 12th. If one has 14 virtues and all of them had 10 KJ units, it would be 10 to the 14th plus. One cannot skip a virtue and have any power. We have to have some virtue in the first 10 in order to have any exponential power. We cannot skip the 11th and have the 15th, to have it to the 15th; we would need a minimal amount of virtue in the previous ones. If you have 15 virtues and the 14th was only 2 units of power, the base would be 14x2, plus the added others.

No exponential power can exist if any Virtues are missing in the first ten. Develop exponential power. If you have 10 consecutive Virtues, and if the 8th virtue would have only one KJ Unit, one would not have exponential power (because it would be 1 to the 10th). If the 9th Virtue is the lowest at 2, with 6 KJ units on another Virtue, and 8 KJ units on another, it would be 2 to the 10th, plus the extra KJ units on the other Virtues.

If a man and wife do synergy, if the woman had on the first 10, her lowest was a four, and the man's lowest was an 8, the synergy power would be based on the four. One's Virtue power depends on how one work's on the Virtues, ones awareness of weakness, and how they go about changing them. Blocks on Virtue are the past links and things coming back.

T2 and T3 last month have worked so hard to knock off (illegible). The power of this war party will depend upon the lowest common denominator. Otherwise, if one person was totally blocked, we would have a main group, plus a satellite group, which is what we don't want to do. The force would be so great if every member of our party, were to have 4 units per 12 virtues. If we had only 6 people who could attain this, they would make a center group. The more people in the group with consecutive virtues of high power, the more we can change the world. No one will be excluded, T2 and T3 will help the weakest one and it is worth the effort, because we have a world to save. They will not ignore one person because they were weak, so will build them up for the power of the group.

Some past people/students were intractable with blocks, such as hatred for gender, hatred for power or a poor use of will, so they could not stand up under the teaching. They will keep working on everyone and working night and day to remove blocks and debris. Some are having layers coming out. The key thing is that everyone keeps at it, and if have a lot of sins of the father, genetics, you have to work harder than the next person, but you may be the ultimate athlete.

If one can achieve mastery over one's handicaps, then one has achieved mightily. It is a challenge to be impeccable; and that should be the criteria. Then you will eventually generate a great deal of power if you stick with it. All of us are gaining in impeccability every day. T2 and T3 don't mind blasting us, there are a lot of King James units in these powers. Sucking in the debris poisons T2 and T3 for a while, and then they compost for a while. It is a burden, but they gladly bear it because this war party must gain in power to succeed, and work together to accomplish goals. We can't do it through just benign newsletters, or feel good messages, or kissy huggy philosophy, but addressing weakness in Virtue and Law alignment, and pushing until every person here will be a master, and there will be no slack.

The greatest thing we can do for you is not to make you feel good, but to show you your own self miseries and weaknesses, so you can eliminate them. Then your sense of well-being will come from alignment with the Logoi forces, and they will keep at it until you are.

JANUARY 27, 1994: CLASS NOTES

During the night T2 noticed students still have parts of self left in Split Time.

It may be more than one phenomena, a part of it is like Phantoms of self in other people,
Or Self on a String on someone else's aura, Out...In.

Check: Feet...Legs...“Cec” Layers...Lower than the Spine Connections...and Octaves. Could be anywhere.
When T2 was clearing, these seemed to be major ones from long term relationships and from children.

Now, these are links to split time that have to do with....remember old Earth Soul Cells?

At the moment of orgasm, the little pyramids that come out...suspect that these are little pyramids that have echoes of current self that are out in the past and linking you to people. The sexual act is so creative that there are a great many Pyramids left in Split Time for some of you.

It doesn't have to be sexual acts, but other higher creative acts that you have put a lot of energy into them. Not that they are much different, it could be anything with a lot of desire, like a desire to serve. The desire substance could create bits of you from desire of being of service. For example T2 had dreams all night of being a hospital nurse because of her desire for service.

The first thing to remove on yourself, from the message of yesterday, be sure that everyone has;

Self on a String inside...outside of sexual auras removed, and

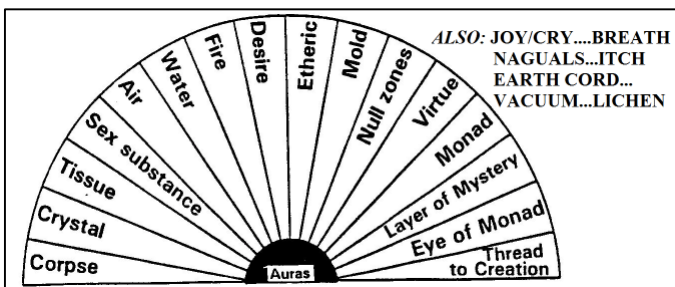

Then remove these from other people's sexual auras, and

Then find the creations, which are like clones, but not the same thing. They are the product of desire sexual creative force, which may be, depending on the octave, whether it is a common physical orgasmic energy, or emotional passion, or a mental creative function. The most debilitating will be the sexual, as they are lower on the spine and will pull you down lower. Try to see if you can clear these. Some are very insidious and difficult to see, and those into other people in/out of their auras are even more difficult to see.

Charts: Planets and Auric Layers

◀AURAS (Short List)

A lot of these are in places and not people. T2 can see one of T1 in grade school kindergarten class.

Do: Go through year by year, start with gestation in mother's uterus, with an attachment to being not born.

Even if you lived before split time, there would still be a disfiguring of time before that time as well. You have to look at the whole life.

One of the mysteries of how much good one is able to do in the world, is if you can clear yourself; you have the authority to clear another. You have to be clear to help others. It has to start somewhere, with somebody being clear.

These seem to cause muscle aches. When you start thinking circular thoughts about something that makes you anxious or depressed, it is something surfacing. Just say, you know you are just possessed probably with old self, or you may start thinking you have a rational reason for being depressed.

When clear, the eyes get bright and one feels cheerful. If you find yourself going into an old pattern of disordered reactive behavior, know it is the old self. When the eyes look hooded, and you look dead, and drowse as dead, you may drowse as your mother or father. When you are yourself, you get better looking.

Yin power seems to clear stuff that we may not be talking about today. It is very intelligent and has aspects of Holy Spirit intelligence as it moves over you and does what is needed to be done. It restores the Gold Name to multiple layers of your being, when your being has gone haywire from working on people, or other.

If you get a high reading on the Yogananda Scale, look at the quadrant, you may be flooded with holy beings and show a pressure on the Yogananda Scale, in the right hand quadrant (for healing).

Check the age on your organs with Traits, which reflect old ties. The new dual souls are linked in with the small other sex, yin/yang.

If you look at the Law Clock and ask: “Where do I have an abnormality in Jupiter or Mars?”

Meridians have fire or water influences.

Ask: “Where the imbalance is related to the Sun, etc?”

Because the relative distance out from center is related to how far out it is from the solar plexus.

This has to do with going from the center, outward in the auric cocoon.

For example in the inside of the yolk, it would be in the center, and it reflects on the body organs.

With a persistent physical problem, i.e. bladder infection;

Ask: “Where on the (i.e.) bladder meridian do I have a problem?”

Do: Use the Law Clock.

For systemic problems, like herpes, look on Traits;

Ask: “Where on a Trait am I having a problem on the law clock?”

Traits are between the meridian spaces.

You could do this on the auras as well, the tissue, desire etc.

This is not for the virtues, there you would have to use the Bell Curve Chart (see end of lesson).

Say if you had a chronic bladder problem, while thinking of the bladder;

Ask: “Which virtue is off, and where on the Virtue Bell Curve, (page 91) and then what to do?”

Do: Repair the thread. A lot of the virtues need to have repaired Threads to Creation.

REVIEW: For Virtues and chronic problems:

Ask: For the problem Virtues,

Check: For vampires from the past, for example “old self” and check old name.

Do: Destroy or repair.

TO CLEAR: Planets...Body Parts...Traits...Auras...Months

Do: Use the Law Clock and To Do charts.

Put in “Repair... Destroy” in the center of your Law Clock chart.

Check: On the Law clock for Wart Communication, on the Spine...Old Self...New Self.

For wart connections: get them while the getting is good, you may not get another day.

Warts, moles and skin lesions are connected to dates.

Concrete Phantoms: Most phantoms are like mist, but once they are concrete, it could be someone dead, or an obsession. When concrete, they are related to mucous producing glands of the anus, the nose, skin of the urethra and skin of the feet. They change the cells of the brain tissue, when the phantom becomes concrete. The ones we took care of so far were 50% or less concrete. Some are more stubborn.

Concrete Phantoms are:

You concretely in other people.

It could be yourself in you, or yourself in other, or someone in you.

The locations (sic) are where they are coming out.

And dowse for Phantom Babies:

When there are shadows or concrete phantoms, because they make babies that come out of the feet.

On the desire design, paint the mobius green. (Editor's Note: Not sure if this applies to design page 82.)

Complete MOBIUS Chart: Appendix

When T2 goes past the third mobius to the fourth, she looks dead. Sometimes it is to figure things out which means to go beyond the human condition, which means to sever the earth cord.

One of the things to see was that someone is linked to T3. There are holy being connections linked to the old T3, but is translated into T3's (current) holy being connection. If he has something like this, then expect that we do too. This is related to the location of T3's old soul spot.

If we thought of his auric cocoon, his old soul spot has threads out of it with links to people in his past. T2 had to leave her body to see how many Old Self Soul Spot Connections are coming out. They are like hairs out of a mole. Some have so many, it is former soul resonations. Before you had a transformation, the last year's spot, is like a scar. Scar Threads to Past. The reason these are not seen so readily is because they are like a blind spot because of scar tissue. The biggest reason for them is like a fungus connection to the past. So even though we have been made as new, these would seem to tie and hold you down. Some are people, places, and the biggest is old idea of self, concept of self in the past.

This won't be found as much in others outside of the group. In a nagual group, we had more energy to reestablish past ties than the normal person. For removal, the male nagual power will have to disintegrate the ties.

However, we can disintegrate some ourselves (Old Self Scars and Connections).

Find them on the Concentric Circle Law Chart,

Think of the concept of the old soul's spot, and that the whole chart represents the spot.

Ask "Where on the old soul's spot do I have these ties?"

Do: Find the location and disintegrate.

(Work with) the spine and if you take the Itch Gland with the Law Chart;

You can see where you have contaminations to the past.

Start with the feet, then the Nerves...to Back of the Legs...to Vestigial Tail...to Itch Gland,

And on up the spine like sliced portions of the spinal cord.

To clear, use the law clock on concentric circles.

Here we find ties or contaminates relating to the past in particular, but also any time.

We should not have to look for years, as the spine represents years.

Between the spinal discs are the null zones of the vertebrae. You will get most of the crap that you have left behind in life.

There is something wrong with the mouth threads; i.e. there are Old Self Blocks on the mouth threads.

It is very common to have Threads to Creation or Holy Being Ruptures on the mouth.

If the mouth is scaly or bleeding, it usually means a ruptured thread.

The mouth has several Threads to Creation.

Ask: “How many threads you should have coming out of mouth?” “How many intact?” “% Contamination?”

Herpes would be a Trait Abnormality on the Threads.

Check: Also the nose threads and genital threads.

Scaly patches usually mean an erosion in the aura, a part of self out, or in;

So check: the auric layers and spine and Ask the reason.

For example Type 2 demons were found as a reason for a scaly face patch.

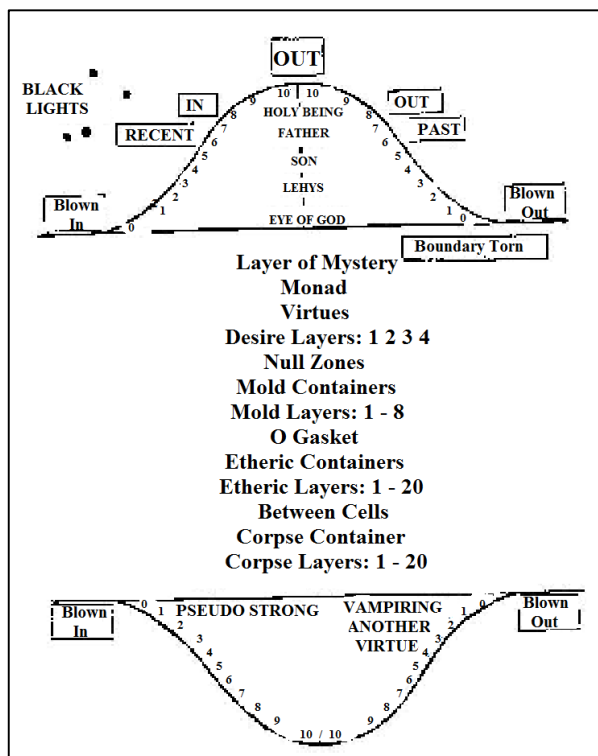

Particularly for any physical problem.

Ask: For “How many holy threads you should have, how contaminated, and how intact?”

Particularly for the pineal gland.

Ask the same questions for the Cranial Nerves...Pituitary...Hypothalamus.

Check: Condition Chart, but generally you just need to destroy or repair something.

JANUARY 28, 1994 LETTER: "Today's News"

Today's News:

Earlier today, I told you that auric dents in other people can indicate pieces of them out to you, which form like callouses upon your auric components. They show up sometimes as skin lesions. The question to ask would be, "How many pieces of other people's auras are grown into me, as warts, from a string attached to their auric holes?" (Or something like that.)

Also, I found that many of you had been losing parts of your auric substances, due to false ideas that go against Laws, or resonation with someone who has a false idea. The person with the false idea develops a "cold spot" on one of the auric layers, most commonly the sex aura, or on several layers. As the auric layer floats out, it becomes a floating "Cold Link" that globes onto the person in the location or thoughts of the originator. Cold links can survive for several weeks. If a person has a cold spot, he tends to vampire others for energy in the associated aura, and may produce a phantom of the vampired person, due to the link.

A lot of links with others who have cold spots may poison the spinal system, and cause a burst itch gland. Disintegrate the fragments and seal it off.

Dowse how much of your sexual aura is out due to cold spots or resonation with cold links. Pinch off cold links and pray for a refill of your sexual aura (or other auric substance that has been reduced, so you will not vampire others in a reflex move.)

Someone on a string to you, or from you, can encourage or produce a resonation against a Law, until you develop a cold spot, and start to lose auric substance, and then become a vampire who has phantoms.

It is important not to lose the itch gland through rupture, because the itch gland is like a tonsil, adenoid, or uvula. It catches spiritual disorder that crawls up the legs, and holds it to prevent the disorder from poisoning the spiritual spine, and later the soul. There is some disorder that can come into the feet in low altitude areas, but the greatest foot and leg disorder comes from globules of the low octaves types from people you know who think about you, or from thoughts floating in your vicinity. The itch gland is a holding tank, and must be checked regularly with the spine on the Yogananda Scale, to prevent rupture.

Each of you should check the Law Clock for alignment with the Laws. If you are less than 0300, then you need to check for a cold spot, cold link, vampires, itch gland overflow or rupture, etc. It may be that you have a false idea that is not congruent with Law.

For instance, when checking the soul blocks charts, I could see that one cold link was connected to someone who "needed love." The person dowse as a seven years old, but was well over sixty. She had created a misuse of the Law of Desire Distortion in her childhood memories in order to justify her slug-like existence. She was (a person's) mother. She had woven memories with illusions of being mistreated by her parents, and was wallowing in them, as a form of sick entertainment, or out of boredom. Then, she expanded her idea of being unloved and mistreated to (this person), as though (she) had indeed been guilty as her parents were, in refusing to take care of her. One of the worse things you can do is to feel sorry for someone who dowse as "needing love." Nine times out of ten they have a block related to a cosmic Law, and are blaming you for their state of misery.

If you find yourself overwhelmed with romantic, nostalgic, or sad memories/thoughts, then suspect some problems in your alignment with Law, or someone you know who hates Law and may be obsessing about you. So many people have souls today, that they can well form these cold links to you, and send a load of what appears to be "need love" or "feels hurt" or some such crap like that sort of thought. We need to expect people to be tough, or they will never want to learn Law. We must not reinforce weakness in ourselves, our children, or others. If a person is fearful, then there is usually a fundamental belief that God is punishing/cruel (which is against the Law of Order/Hierarchy and the Law of Polarity.) If God is cruel, then all must be evil, right? That would make anyone fearful, should it be true, which it is not.

We must realize that all emotional weakness is due to an attachment to a false idea rooted in defiance to a Law. You will locate these false ideas on the soul blocks chart, and find the associated Laws when comparing the soul blocks to the Laws alignment on the clock. Many of the floating cold links will dowse as blocks on the cranial nerves or planets. If you have cold spots due to your own resistance to Law or resonation with someone, then you will reflect it as a disorder of your planets on the Condition chart.

These are major issues now, with so many people getting souls. You must purify yourselves of all tendencies to align with people who hate Law, or your aura will become an ice cube. If one person in our group thinks something like, "(Place and name of person here) who has conspired to destroy this work is not such a bad person and T2 is too hard on him or her," then the Law of Division is set to destroy our group. Such a person then links cold spot links with the defiler and contaminates the group. I spent half the day tracking down three such links. We cannot have synergy power if any one of you fall prey to the belief that some people are "pretty good" even if they hate Law. You must hold your resonations back from haters of Law, or become one.

You must be in the world in order to change it, but not be part of the world, or it will change you. You will be a master or a pawn. Choose.

JANUARY 28, 1994: CLASS NOTES

Cold links make a person look cold or dead. Often it is something strong like “Needs Love” but it is almost invariably linked in with hatred for love. They feel they have to beg, they feel mistreated and that there is no cause and effect, that someone is unlovable or that God is punishing. It is extremely pathological to be around a needy person and you have to train them. We have to help children get over it. It is commonly expected as normal and thinking there are mental or physical reasons for feeling certain ways, but invariably it is due to linking in with people who hate laws. Since society is so full of people who hate law, it is easy to do, and we can go out to Wal-Mart, and come back feeling depressed from globules or hostility.

This morning, (if you were) feeling so bad, the most common law resisted is the one of Order and Hierarchy. In the context of this lesson, if someone who hated authority had a piece of the aura leave and put a cold link on another person, then the other person would resonate with a poor alignment of order and law. You can discern a globule that way, but the soul block is “Needs love”, or “Feels God is punishing”. It sounds benign; to need love, but invariably it is linked with hate. Check on the auric layers for soul blocks; it often means someone hooked into you from the past.

Check your auric layers for Cold Spots, because Phantoms grow out of cold spots. Two or three people here have leaking itch glands. If you find yourself thinking of a particular person, ask if you have a Cold Link from them. Particularly if it is an ex-student, they will start festering and thinking, or an ex-spouse or lover. What it appears to be will be something sentimental, and will not seem unpleasant.

This shows why vampires and phantoms exist. Cold spots are yours, and cold links are others on you. Cold spots can occur with resonance with cold links, for some reason, the resonance could be so overwhelming that you develop spots. The Lymph aura seems to be big. Do: Put “Itch Gland” on the body parts chart.

If people have leaking itch glands and they think of you, you will feel it as an itch. A lot of the stuff that drips out will be in different octaves, even though the itch gland is an octave, it could have a foot octave that has crawled up the leg. So disintegrate what is in the itch gland and seal it up with a cauterizing waveform.

Check: Always check for hernias.

Check the spinal and itch gland on the quadrant and the Yogananda Scale.

Check how much of the sexual substance is out in cold links.

For Cold Spots you have to check the auric layers to find them.

“Feels Repulsive” is a big one, and “God is Punishing”.

Ask “How aligned you are on each law?” and know the worst one is the one the spots are coming in on.

For Blocks and the Condition of each Planet, it will reflect many cold links.

“How many leaks are in the Cry Organelles, or Cry Gland?”

Do: When still have a part of it left, then seal up the stump so that it will sprout back out.

First get rid of debris, and then seal it back up, usually with a waveform.

Will it, and the holy beings will seal it.

It is often due to cold links/spots caused by emotions and thoughts that go crazy and produce the Cry abnormality. Especially sentimentality will cause leaks and rupture. the worst case would be the poison from the bulging and herniated itch gland would go all the way up to the Cry and then into the monad.

Example: A student has a cold spot resonance with someone else. Part of her aura has gone out to a stranger.

Check: For Itch Gland residual.

Before going to sleep, get rid of itch and cry glands in the room.

You can find a lot on the body chart for itch or cry glands or cold links/spots on body or spine.

Often: Werewolf...Vampire...and Lower Soul Type connections to Cranial Nerves...Body Parts.

It is sometimes from feeling sentimental about someone who hates law, feeling tender thoughts about them, or feeling empathy for them, which sounds like a nice thing, but is not in the realm of the warrior.

Empathy is so powerful, as soon as you empathize; you form power ties to that person. Generally empathy is a fundamental belief that there is no cause and effect, that someone is a victim. You feel sorry for them and think they have suffered more than they should. Generally speaking, people get better than they deserve.

For example in sleep as well; if you wake up in the night,

Dowse: "If you are your new name, and how many others would dowse as being you?"

It is more complicated if you are sleeping with someone in the same room, due to resonance.

Suspect a cold spot/link has been activated. An ensouled person is globbed on an auric part.

If you develop a cold spot and feel depressed and are replaying memories,

You are probably developing a cold spot from their globule.

Then dowse the Laws of Hierarchy/Order or Cause and Effect, you will get a lot of them.

Ask: "How many malignant resonations are related to the Law of Hierarchy?"

If you have a glob on and are resonating, you will almost always dowse as hating T2 and T3 as leaders, as they represent another step up. You may not dowse as hating God, as it is too ambiguous a word, though you may dowse as hating Jesus. Sometimes one would have a general conception about Jesus that is wrong, so one would not dowse as hating Jesus.

Then ask: "How aligned am I and this person on these laws, and how much do I hate T2 and T3?"

Re: resonations with people who hate law: you can resonate with people in a movie just the same as with someone you know. You should be able to see anything and not resonate. Check the two laws (listed above) morning and night, they are the worst ones to get messed up on.

It is why our group is so dynamic and inter-working, we have to check everyone else to make sure they are not messed up. One way to tell if you have a lot of contamination in or out, your urine and bowels will stink, with a correlation with bladder and rectal mucosa, which creates a stinky purulent urine, gas, or bowels worse than normal. Then the itch gland has backed up into the mucosa. If you have hernias, and stinky farts, with hooks into or from people who hate law, then you will bloat up and start farting. If their cry or itch gland has blown, you will find this.

Ever notice a person with cancer, their bowels stink, and this is a correlation with law hating. Ever have bad breath, even after using Clorox, like some days you can't get your breath right? It is because people are hooked in who hate law. It is as though the bowels are backing up into the mouth.

Sexual substance in cold links can get on animals.

If you do this (clearing) consciously you will start to do it unconsciously.

T2 thinks we are doing a lot unconsciously. It is interesting how things cycle through, i.e. with cosmic law questions. We should be impersonal enough to check ourselves. Hatred for T2 and T3 reveals globules and contamination. It is a fast way to find contamination.

JANUARY 29, 1994 LESSON: Aligning with Law Part I

ALIGNING WITH LAW

In order to be of use to the holy powers, an aspiring saint must have mastered twelve virtues on four octaves (see page 44 in the book Virtues, Laws and Powers). Even if these are mastered, if there is an underlying defiance to even one Law, then the aspirant will not have any power and will be unable to assist the group in holy endeavor.

I am going to list core statements to illustrate, which can be dowsed as to percent of deviation relating to the Laws. There are many more I could have used, but I focused on ones that have blocked your learning in the context of these teachings, and therefore your spiritual progress. Not all the listed statements were used for each person. Sometimes only one statement would apply, sometimes all of them would. The higher the percentage score for today or the month, indicates greater conflict with the Law in question. I am not doing this to be mean, but merely to show you fundamental problems, habits of thought and emotion, that relate to resistance to one or more Laws. You can retest yourself, or ask someone else to test you, if you score poorly, after praying for help to align. None of these scores are due to a mixed identity or things surfacing from the past. Law conflicts are due to personal mental, emotional or physical decisions that have become habits. Some are so insidious, that you are unaware of their existence. If you find yourself mentally arguing about the scores, or whining, then consider them highly accurate. (Student scores see page 100).

The Law of Change

My life is harder now than it used to be. If I was not involved in this teaching, my life would be easier. In some ways this teaching has hurt me. I wish I could lead a normal life again.

The Law of Cause and Effect

Some people are not as fortunate as other people. We should help those who are less fortunate. Sometimes people have not been fair with me. Sometimes T2 and T3 have not been fair with ex-students.

The Law of Correspondence

What a person does is his own business, as long as he doesn't hurt another person.

The Law of Rhythm

If I have a lot of personal business or work to attend to one day, I can always catch up on my spiritual dowsing a day or two later.

The Law of Mentalism

There are probably hundreds of systems of thought to explain theoretical spiritual frameworks that are just as valuable as this teaching with Genevieve. The traditional church is more valid than these teachings.

The Law of Vibration

Sometimes I just need to go with the flow of my emotions in order to feel really human. It is unnatural to expect people to never feel deep sadness over the tragedies of life.

The Law of Gender

Some people cannot help being gay or lesbian. We should love them as they are, and understand that they have a right to sexual expression as homosexuals.

The Law of Polarity

Check the following names: Ji (who admitted severing the monads of members of our group with nagual powers), Do (who turned Fo in for child abuse and conspired with Jg in a web of lies to media), Jg, and Jm (who revealed Genevieve's secret name to people who hated her), and Ni (who sent the defiling fax to the monastery and conspired with Jg and Cec to defile this work and destroy Si). I.e. "(Name) is not such a bad person."

The Law of Non-Resistance

I have a right to not accept part of these teachings as true. If I try really hard, I can work out a personal system that will work for me, and I can incorporate any other teachings I want to into this work, because it is my right. If I wish to become holy, and try very hard in my own way to be so, I will become holy.

The Law of Use

These teachings are very hard to apply all the time in my life, and sometimes I just want to be normal. Sometimes I have a right to get angry, or blue, and I shouldn't feel guilty about it.

The Law of Synthesis/Synergy

Everybody has strengths and weaknesses, and I should just accept my weaknesses as part of me.

The Law of Desire Distortion

Everyone is created in the image of God, and I should look at them that way.

The Law of Creative Power and Dissonance

Sometimes I get overwhelmed by events, or just have to be silly, and feel wild and carefree when I do so. Having fun is being wild and not worrying about anything.

The Law of Spiritual Manifestation

God is the only One who can create. I cannot hope to be a co-creator with God.

The Law of Season

There is nothing I can do to change the tide of events related to spiritual matters, but to merely ride the tide out calmly.

The Law of Order/hierarchy

When it comes right down to it, I control my own destiny, independent of these teachings. I would like to find a true master, but doubt that I have or will.

The Law of Division

Sometimes I can't help but think of friends, family, and former students, and remember the good times.

JANUARY 29, 1994 LESSON: Aligning with Law Part II

ALIGNING WITH LAW: PART TWO

Jesus said, "He who hates part of the Law hates all of the Law". It has been a painful but necessary task for me to reveal to you areas of Law that you hate, so that you may struggle against the tide of human destructive impulse, toward the bright light of the Christ impulse.

It is not acceptable for you to be "just pretty good guys" if you expect to bring the world to a holy consciousness. You must learn to recognize the faint sounds of Law defiance, in yourself and others, if you expect to become victors in the battle against human evil. The worst scores that you had were probably the most unexpected, because you had a deaf ear in that direction.

I probably threw you for a loop with some of the Law statements, because they sound like Unity calendar quotes. They do not sound "that bad". I did that because I wanted you to see the utterly insidious nature of Law defiance, and the failure within yourselves to align with Truth, due to the weakening effects of habit and culture.

There are basic requirements that must be met for a student to learn. First of all, he must recognize the teachers and the teachings as valid. Then, he must recognize that he does not know something. Some of you are so set in your religious or philosophical thinking that you have just filed away parts of these teachings in the "file 13" because they did not fit into your idea of reality. Anytime you felt uncomfortable, you just filed the teaching away and retreated to your safe mental haven of religious or thought system. Sometimes you filed away the very core aspects of Law teachings, and so are bereft of understanding of Truth.

Some of you are frightened of Truth, and would prefer to worship your old lovers, spouses, parents, or past selves, because you feel safe in doing so.

I will go through each key statement now and explain why it is so destructive, should you merge with the false statement as though it were a pseudo-truth. Refer to your earlier lesson, since I will go through each one by number of Law.

1. The tendency to feel sorry for oneself, to pine for the past, is poison to the warrior for Truth. Spiritual sight can be painful (believe me now and hear me later), and yet your joy must come from alignment with Law, and not from avoiding the stings of Truth in some spiritual opium den of iniquity.

2. Victim mentality causes nothing but destruction. It is used to make one person feel superior to the person who is "unfortunate", or to make excuses for failure. It may indicate hatred for a male or female teacher, because you hate males or females.

3. Everything that you do, think, or feel, reverberates on the whole Earth, as it also impacts the destiny of all beings.

4. Spiritual tasks must come before all others, because they have to do with the Law of Rhythm and windows of opportunity for helping the planet. We must strike when the iron is hot, or else wear a wrinkled dress.

5. Some of you have spent so much time trying to correlate your experience within these teachings with so many other past teachings, that you have divided your power, and not been in the now. It is a Law that a man will meet but one true teacher in his life (if he is worthy to have even one). The reason for the Law is that if a man cannot recognize one teacher, how could he recognize another teacher? It is a waste of holy energy for the powers to endow a dilettante. Also, for you to compare these teachings to the traditional churches is to compare apples and oranges, the fruits from two different eras. Christ is the root of the tree from which our fruits must come, and yet our fruits do not look like the roots. There is also an element of unwillingness for males to accept a yin teacher, despite the fact that this age is the age of air (yin). You could more readily accept an old man with a foreign accent in a long robe, than a nurse from Oklahoma.

6. A warrior cannot indulge in emotional or verbal outbursts, if he is to be balanced enough in his tonal to help bring holiness to the planet. If a warrior is out of control, he is dangerous.

7. Any homosexuality is disgusting and obviously against Law, both natural and divine Law.

8. To mentally mull over the good points of people who have willfully tried to stop the publication of these holy works is to divide the power of our group, and align with the perpetrators of defilement. Just because you were fond of someone is no reason to not see Truth. Remember King Arthur's downfall.

9. Just dowsing like a maniac, going to church, and/or praying will not align you with Law. You must face your frailties, and endeavor to align. If you shut your eyes to part of these teachings, and therefore the Law, then you lose the whole benefit.

10. A warrior for Truth never rests in a bed of mammon. He must be a saint, and always hold himself separate, even though it is a lonely path. He cannot indulge in human crying binges, or rages, because his power is great, and can do harm. The greater the awareness, the greater the control that is required.

11. The warrior must believe that perfection is his goal, and is possible. He must weed out his weaknesses. It is a choice whether to resonate with the weaknesses of your split-time old self, or your current self within the context of these teachings.

12. Some people have created themselves in the image of their own frightful desire hell, which means they are mutants far from God, and are often without souls. They have lost their sparks, and are monsters, and should be viewed as such. You should not indulge in thinking that mass murderers, rapists, and pedophiles are holy. Likewise, you should not indulge in thinking kindly about people who have tried to destroy this work. Rather, you should not think about them at all, except as examples to avoid. Some people are "pretty good" but have a fatal flaw, such as a lust for power, which would make them dangerous to this work, and so are dangerous to you.

13. Even in joy, a warrior must exercise restraint. A warrior can act quite frivolous, but have a perfect motive. The core of a warrior must be steel, despite the superficial appearance. Never assume that a master, who appears to be frivolous, cannot pull his power into play at a split second's notice.

14. It says in the Bible, "ye are gods". If man was created in the image of God, then he has step-down gifts of creation and also responsibilities. Some people are lazy, in that they want holy beings to be holy for them, or think it is blaspheming to be a co-creator. This is false humility.

15. Everything we do impacts the destiny of the future children. We must always be on guard as to when to act, so as not to miss the window of opportunity to serve God and man. You must trust in your own holiness to bring about the power to create change, despite the impediments of the season.

16. If you have not recognized the power within these teachings by now, then you have a serious block. You need to pray about it, in great humility, to the Divine Powers. If you can submit your will to your teachers, then you can submit your will to higher Law. For instance, since "Ir" is in charge of the monastery affairs, it is important to submit to her regarding house affairs. In regard to Amber Press, it is important to submit to the executive director, "Aur." In regard to Law, to your teachers T2 and T3. If you have a problem with lower authority, then you have a problem with higher authority. If you cannot accept these teachings, then you could not accept higher teachings.

17. Indulging in past memories weakens the Now point of the warrior, and causes him to create false memories or sucker worlds that further drain his power. Attachment to one's role, such as to a profession or a parental role, may block your ability to have power of action in the Now. To look at the good points of a Law hater from your past is to align with that Law hater, and therefore, you weaken the synergy power of this group, and weaken the possibility of changing the future to one of hope and Law.

There are additional questions for two of the Laws. Each student was tested on the additional statements for the Law of Order. Check yourself on the additional questions on the Law of Gender. (B tested at 40% on both statements, in other words---“Everyone’s an asshole.”)

- 1.) Women are castrating bitches.
- 2.) All men are assholes and not to be trusted.
- 3.) I would rather be married to a person of the same sex than to one of the opposite sex.

The additions to the Law of Order follow, with the reason code for the table in parentheses.

- 1.) T2 is not my teacher. (G)
- 2.) T3 is my not teacher. (R)
- 3.) I don’t want a teacher; I want someone to love me. (T) (could be either or both phrases)
- 4.) I care less about Truth than I do about going to Heaven. (H)

Check for face ruptures.

This is the correct version of MOBIUS CHART. It reflects the thread to creation between the second and third mobius, as well as the lack of a null zone between the second and third mobius. The lines between each mobius could be said to represent the null zones. NULL ZONES can be dowsed by directions: north, south east, west, up, down, in (centripetal), and out (centrifugal)
