CHAPTER ONE

Understanding The Quadrant Chart As A Spiritual Transformer

To comprehend the key charts in this series, you must first realize that they are not mere mental systems. They are codes for spiritual truths of great magnitude. Some charts, such as the listed body parts, are not greatly significant spiritual codes but are useful adjuncts to the code charts.

Some charts are like a mathematical formula of spiritual worlds. Notice that "concepts" was not mentioned; "worlds" is the correct term.

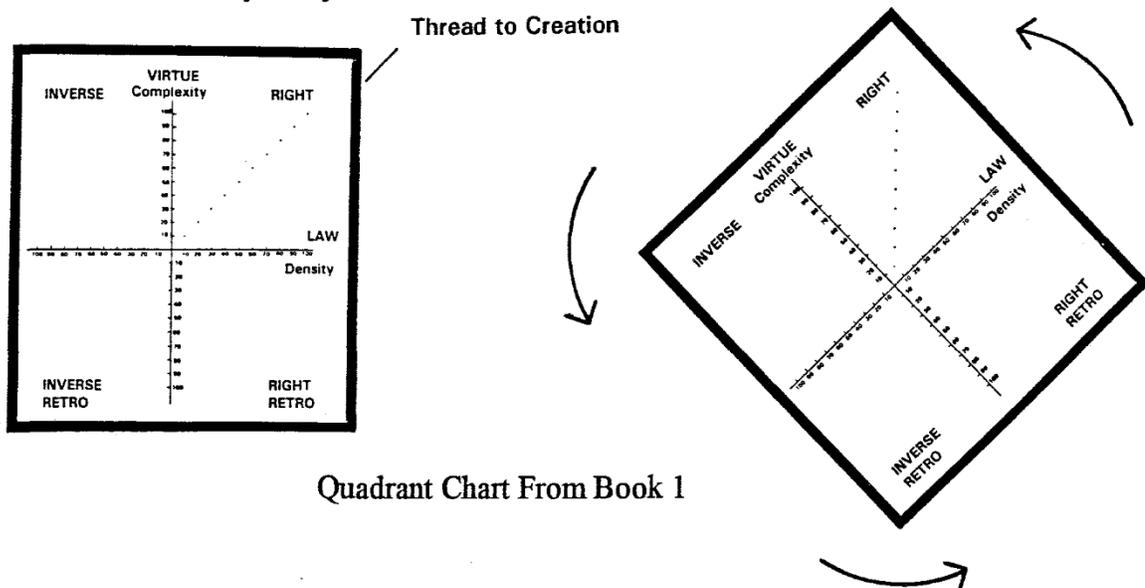

The difficulty for most dowzers is in realizing the difference between a mental concept and a real world reality. It takes an auric adjustment to dowse adjacent worlds without the imagination taking over.

One of the most important auric adjustments, for the purpose of seeing rightly, is to change etheric or corpse frequency. It is possible to change the frequency and waveform of the aura through an act of will and intention. Using a 0-100 scale is helpful. Consider the lowest possible frequency to which you could reduce your etheric or corpse aura as zero, and use 100 as the maximum possible frequency to which you could raise it. Think of frequency as applying to the relative closeness of cosmic dust molecules (of which all elements are composed). A high frequency would have a relatively large space between molecules, while a low frequency would be more dense, like an ice cube. You can dowse your present frequency and then where it should be. You then will and intend to shift it to the optimal one that will enable you to dowse correctly, aligned with your soul.

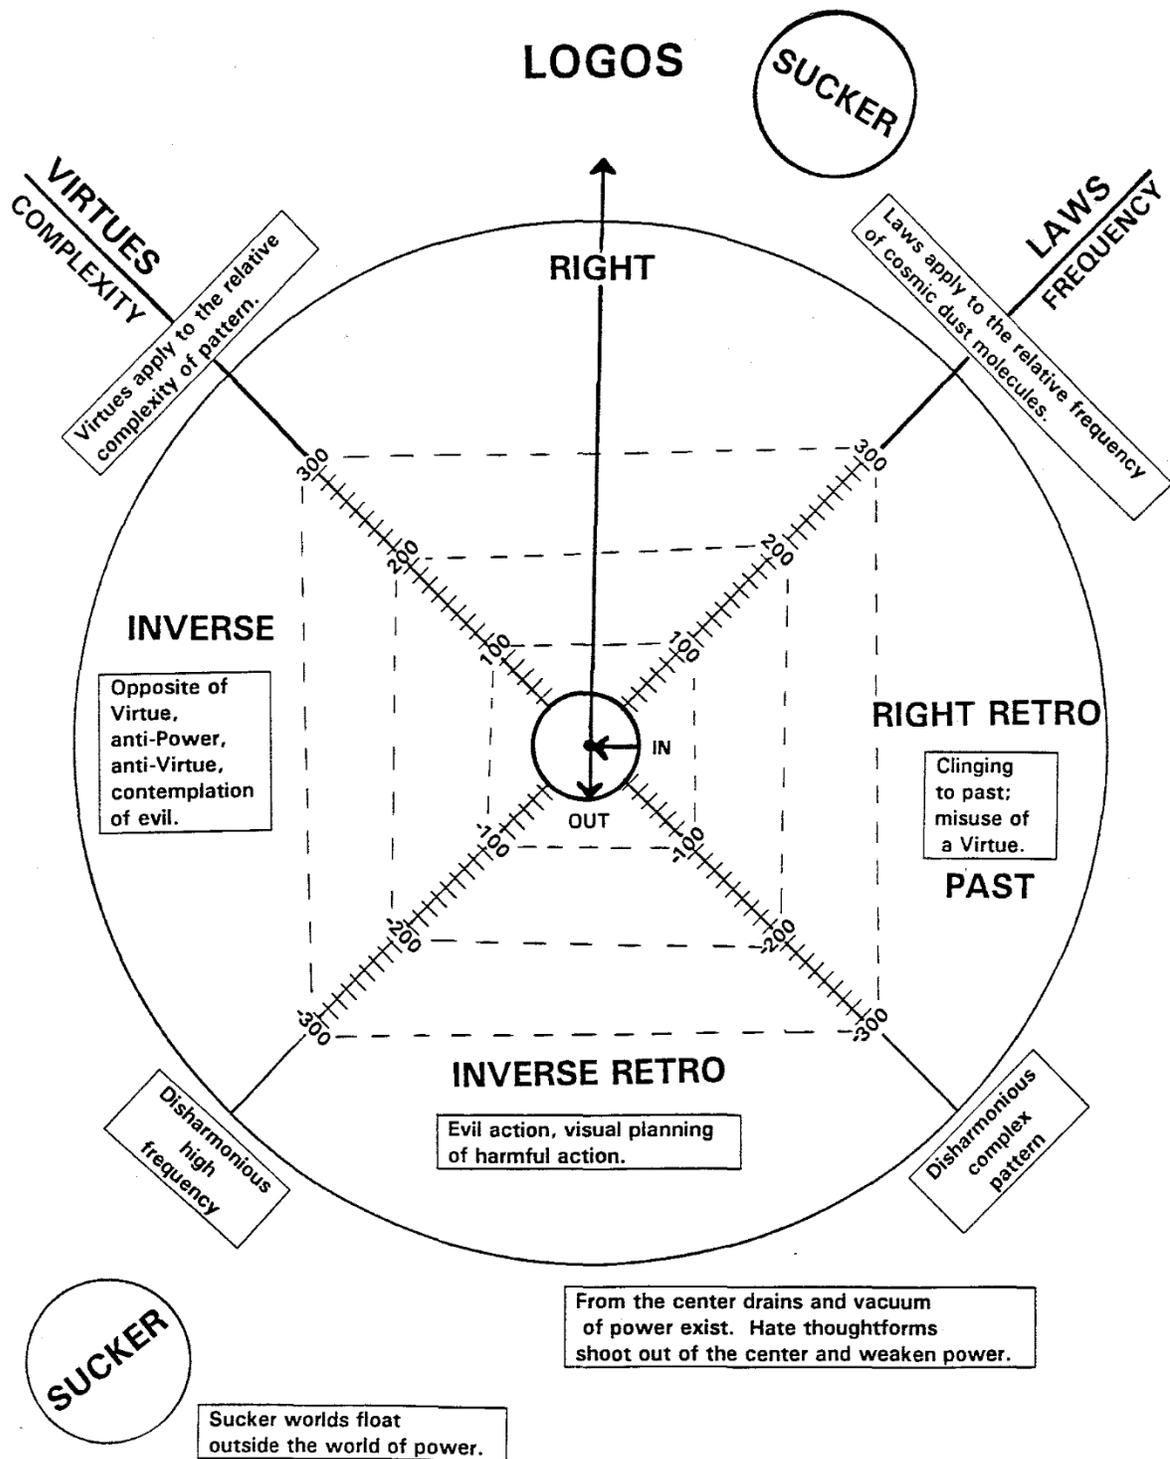

It is also helpful to focus your consciousness upon a specific body part, while adjusting the frequency as dowsed. To be successful, first identify the auric layer of the body part, while still considering the frequency. The corpse, etheric, desire container/substance, mold, null space, monad, or thread to creation are all examples of auric layers. There are charts to work with these concepts in Chapter Ten.

Shifting the eyes to a particular dowsed direction will often aid the dowser in seeing rightly. The shifting of eyes left, right, up, down, focus in or focus out is a key maneuver in learning to see with heightened awareness. This can be done only by a person with a soul, because it requires a pineal connection to a monad which accesses the Logoic forces of perception and action.

One can learn to dowse with the eyes regarding the quadrant chart. Imagine the quadrant chart below (from Book 1) held at the illustrated angle on the right. From this new position, you can hold this chart in front of your face to dowse with your eyes.

Looking at this new "rotated" quadrant chart you would be able to "tune into" the relative harmony of a person. One would merely have to see where one's eyes tend to settle when thinking of them. For instance, when thinking about Jesus, one's eyes would tend to float upward, to the upper right quadrant. In this application, the upper right quadrant is tilted so that it is like a diamond-shape pointing to the top of the head of the dowser. When thinking about a person who is aligned with Virtues and Laws, one's eyes would tend to float upward, as in the case of thinking about Jesus.

EYE DOWSING QUADRANT CHART

Each of the four lines of the quadrant chart relates to either frequency (density) or complexity of pattern. For evaluation of body or etheric emanations, one should aspire to have the frequency and density in the center line of the upper right hand quadrant. The closer one is to the Logoic impulse, the greater the frequency and the harmonious complexity of pattern. Some patterns are complex but not harmonious, like synthesizer heavy metal rock music. Such patterns would be found on the inverse, retro, or inverse retro quadrants. Think of the complexity gradations as being a crystal that has ever more sides as the complexity increases. A very simple complexity would be a ball. An ovoid shape would be an increased complexity. A geodesic dome would be more complex. Beyond this octave of complexity there are geometric shapes that proceed past normal visual comprehension.

Many people take comfort in thinking of the heavenly Father as a simple, benign human with a knee upon which to climb. As one spiritually progresses, it is important to leave simplified concepts aside, to see the full glory of heavenly manifestation and not some gilded concept. To do otherwise would be to assume that God is stagnant and limited.

If your eyes tend to settle in the retro quadrant, then it is probable that the person you thought of is somehow stuck in the past. He may be addicted to an out-of-season concept, therefore defying the Laws of Change and Season, or he may be wishing for some person, place, or thing that composes his idea of happiness. Retro happiness ideas are always materialistic and move one away from the soul. It is possible that the dowsed person may be resonating with the people surrounding him who are talking about the past. The key thing to remember is that any quadrant, except the one that pulls you to your soul, is weakening to your spiritual power.

If your eyes are pulled straight to the left, while visualizing the angled quadrant chart in front of the face, then suspect a problem relating to the inverse quadrant. This is the realm of anti-Virtues. Whereas the retro realm relates directly to Virtues correlated with the wrong person at the wrong time, the inverse quadrant relates to Virtues that are turned inside out. For instance, sorcery would be an inverse form of Divine Intelligence. Romantic love is always tinged with materialism and is an inverse form of Divine Impersonal Love. A desire to hypnotize other people against their will would reflect an inverse form of Divine Will. The inverse quadrant is in the realm of intention, while the inverse retro quadrant is in the realm of evil action.

Inverse retro evil actions include thoughts and uncontrolled emotions that manifest a willed intention to control or harm another person in some way. It suggests a strong planning modality to do harm, with visualization of acts to harm. An act of harming someone (such as slander or murder) would also reflect in the inverse retro quadrant. Retro refers to clinging to the past, especially to harboring grudges, while inverse brings such grudges into the realm of current vengeful attack.

If one senses the center dot of the diagram as being the location of resonance, it may signal a serious problem. If a suction is perceived in the center, then a vampire situation may be present. You may be draining other people of Logoic force. If you feel a suction when checking your auric layer resonance, then you need to pray rightly and go over the "To Do" charts included in this book. (The use of these charts is explained in ADVANCED ESOTERIC DOWSING CHARTS BOOK 1.) You could also have someone draining you of Logoic force. The same procedure applies.

A sense of the center dot of the diagram shooting outward in a black burst may indicate the presence of death frequency toxicity. This may mean hatred for the Laws and Virtues or resonance with a person who hates Laws and Virtues.

A sense of the eyes being pulled way out of the diagram to any other area tends to suggest the presence of a self or other-created sucker world resonance with false ideas. It may mean the boundaries of the aura are weak.

Daily study of the Virtues and Laws, and applying such study to one's life are the only solutions for not falling into malefic resonance on a long-term basis. On a short term basis, you can learn to clear yourself by the techniques that will be outlined in the following sections of this publication.

Spiritual science requires a cool mind and dedication to Truth. These charts are not spiritual pabulum to be ingested into your spiritual essence. When used rightly, charts such as the quadrant chart are not concepts but are life-changing auric transformers.

CHAPTER TWO

Law-Virtue Interface Diagram

Power is attained by aligning with the forces of Virtue in the greatest quantity and number. Law is the holder of the Virtue powers. The Laws are immutable; they cannot be broken. However, man can break himself against the Laws.

He who hates one Law will tear his Virtue powers asunder. He who hates one of the primary (first) twelve Virtues will torque away from the Logocic impulse, which is the creator of Law.

Anyone who resists the primary Virtues will interface with the underworlds. The underworlds coexist with the upper Earth and are not normally met by a person who looks to Heaven. When a person embraces anti-Virtue, the Heavens look like hells to him. Such a person walks on the bottom of the mirror of self-reflection and sees all things from the perspective of inverse-retro.

The person of power should be able to look under the mirrored waters of self-reflection and see the disorder below, without drowning. Only by doing so will he be able to help those who listened to the sirens below...and fell. The Tree of Life exists reaching to the Logos outward from the Earth. The other Tree, of which the serpent spoke, exists under the mirrored waters.

It is possible to dowse how far one has fallen under the mirrored waters and to go about saving oneself from drowning in a sea of disorder. By looking at the auric diagram of a human form, you can dowse to what level your feet or legs have slipped below the water in deadly resonance with anti-Law.

Merely saying or thinking beatific words about love will not save one from falling below the water. Love is only one of the Virtues and is not the same thing as a Law. A person may think he has a deep love for an old girlfriend of the past, and yet he will be resisting the Now and therefore resisting the Law of Change. For that reason, he will weaken his power by indulging in such love.

Virtues and Laws are intimately intertwined. The study of Virtues and Laws should be a daily part of the dowser's work, if he is to be a person of power.

The more resistant a man is to Law, the weaker are his Virtues. The Laws are the principles upon which a man's Virtues stand. The Laws pull man to sobriety, while the Virtues pull man to Heaven. In themselves, Laws are not powers. They are principles through which Virtue powers can be endured.

The Virtues have substance that is a part of a man's soul. The brighter the soul, the brighter the Virtue lights. People who are anti-Virtue have black lights that can soil a person of frail Virtue.

It is possible to dowse how greatly one is torqued away from the Logoic impulse by dowsing over the diagram on the next page. In severe cases, the pendulum will indicate that the person is under the mirrored waters of self-reflection and is in a counter-evolutionary spiral of anti-Virtue. In even worse cases, the consciousness of a person can be dowsed as being in the higher anti-Virtue hells that exist outside of the normal Earthly system. This means that such a person has contamination from high level fallen angels, asuras, or evil demigods. Many of the so-called alien abductions are really the slipping of a person's consciousness into the evil higher frequency worlds. In those instances, the person wakes up, but feels as though he is being followed because he IS being followed. It is possible to heal those situations with divine intercession.

Almost all serious possessions occur because a person has aligned on a tissue level with forces that are anti-Virtue or anti-Law, as reflected in genetic and/or sexual contamination, or that could be found on a monadic, karmic level. All can be healed within Divine Plan.

There is no reason to intervene for a possessed person unless that person chooses to live within Law and aspires to gain Virtues. The Law of Grace requires a seed desire for change.

At first, it is good for the dowser to check each Virtue as to orientation on the quadrant chart, bell curve, and Law clock. As the dowser progresses, he can further evaluate his Virtues by dowsing each of the primary twelve upon the Law-Virtue Interface Diagram. Of course, if he has multiple identities, then his scores will be confusing.

The higher Virtues, from 13 up, exist only above the most aligned position on the Law clock. They cannot sprout forth until the lower Virtues have been purified and balanced. For that reason, you should check your lower Virtues for contamination and seek to remove it through the "To Do" charts and prayer.

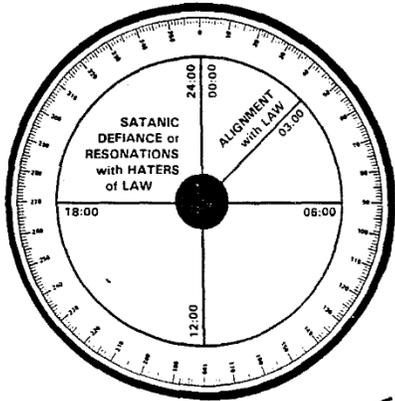

If a person torques away from Law more than 200 degrees, then he loses his Virtues and begins to slip into the underworlds in a counter-clockwise, counter-evolutionary spiral downward. The underworlds are tapped by the fallen demi-gods, evil asuras, and fallen angels in order to locate puppets for their evil purposes.

In many instances, the fallen higher being contamination will reflect in a person as a sudden surge of power or euphoria. He will lose his soul struggle, and may be very intelligent and clever in the ways that he brings harm to holy people. Usually he entices holy people by talking about "love" or "manifesting needs." He believes that there should be no boundaries in behavior and that no one should reject any behavior in others as being invalid. This starts as a sense of intellectual and sexual freedom. Materialism advances. Gradually, there develops a desire to slander others, to defile others, and eventually to cause their death. The causing death stage can take many forms other than overt murder. Most people who fall below the mirror and are tapped by the fallen higher beings do not give in to the urges, but feel great pain inside as they struggle to remember who they used to be. Many channeled beings come from this group of beings.

The spiritual dowser must be cautious. He will advance if he continues this study, and may provoke hatred in people who have the black anti-Virtue lights of the fallen higher beings. By evaluating the level of depravity in himself and others, he can walk safely above the mirror. He will be able to see downward below the mirror, but will not fall into the traps. Those traps should be considered initiations.

On the next page is a diagram of the relationship of the Virtues to the Law clock. Dowse where each of the first 12 Virtues is aligned on the 360 degree scale. Ideally alignment should be within the first 3 hours of the Law clock or within the first 45 degrees of the 360 degree scale. You may dowse that some of your Virtues are on the 1 to 12 Virtue rings. If you are receiving divine assistance or have mastered more than 12 Virtues, you may dowse as having Virtues on the Higher Virtue rings. You can dowse channeled beings on this diagram as to their strongest Virtue or anti-Virtue power and their location of origin. You can correctly dowse the origin of esoteric writings on this diagram, if you are not controlled by fallen beings. You can test this by saying, "Where is the origin of Jesus? Where is the consciousness of Hitler?" This will give you your standard as to how clear your dowsing answers are.

Dowse: where is my corpse, etheric, desire, Virtue, mold, null zones, and monadic consciousness?

Virtually all the spiritual disorders of humanity are fed through human soul substance. Nothing can exist without power; the Logos is the power of this world. If humans learned to stop feeding disorder, then it would wither and die.

Soul substance is creative, expansive, and full of energy. People who have depleted their soul substance often form rapport lines with brightly souled people in order to tap into their power source.

Fallen Demi-gods, fallen Watchers, fallen angels, demons, asuras, and sucker worlds cannot survive unless they are fed by ensouled people. The higher fallen beings can be very clever in the ways that they entice mankind to provide a food source.

All the "alien" contacts that have occurred in the last fifty years were engineered by high level fallen beings for the purpose of vampiring ensouled people.

Alien contactees usually invite invasion of their auric cocoon by resistance to at least one of the primary Virtues. Of course, they are unaware of having resistance to Virtue unless they have studied the science of Virtue. A common entry point is Virtue six, the point of intuition. If a person is enamored with lower psychism, then this Virtue herniates and inverts. Other entry points include the seventh Virtue of Desire, the first Virtue of Divine Will, and the third Virtue of Divine Intelligence.

If a person desires material success or carnal excess, then the Virtue of Desire will herniate. If a person is full of lower Will with a strong desire to see a personal reality, as opposed to the objective Logoic reality, then the Virtue will become inverse. If a person is proud of his own mental accomplishments and is stuck in a linear modality of thought, particularly about spirituality, then he will herniate the Virtue of Intelligence. He has scorned gnosis and preferred the materialization of linear thought.

Thoughts and desires form crystals in the physical body. If a person's thoughts and desires are malefic (anti-Law and anti-Virtue), then the person transforms himself into a walking lump of malefic crystallization. Those crystals can be like the old fashioned crystal radios, and beam a signal to the fallen beings outward from the pineal gland.

Prayers, on the other hand, form powerful crystal signals of alignment with Law and Virtue that attract divine intervention.

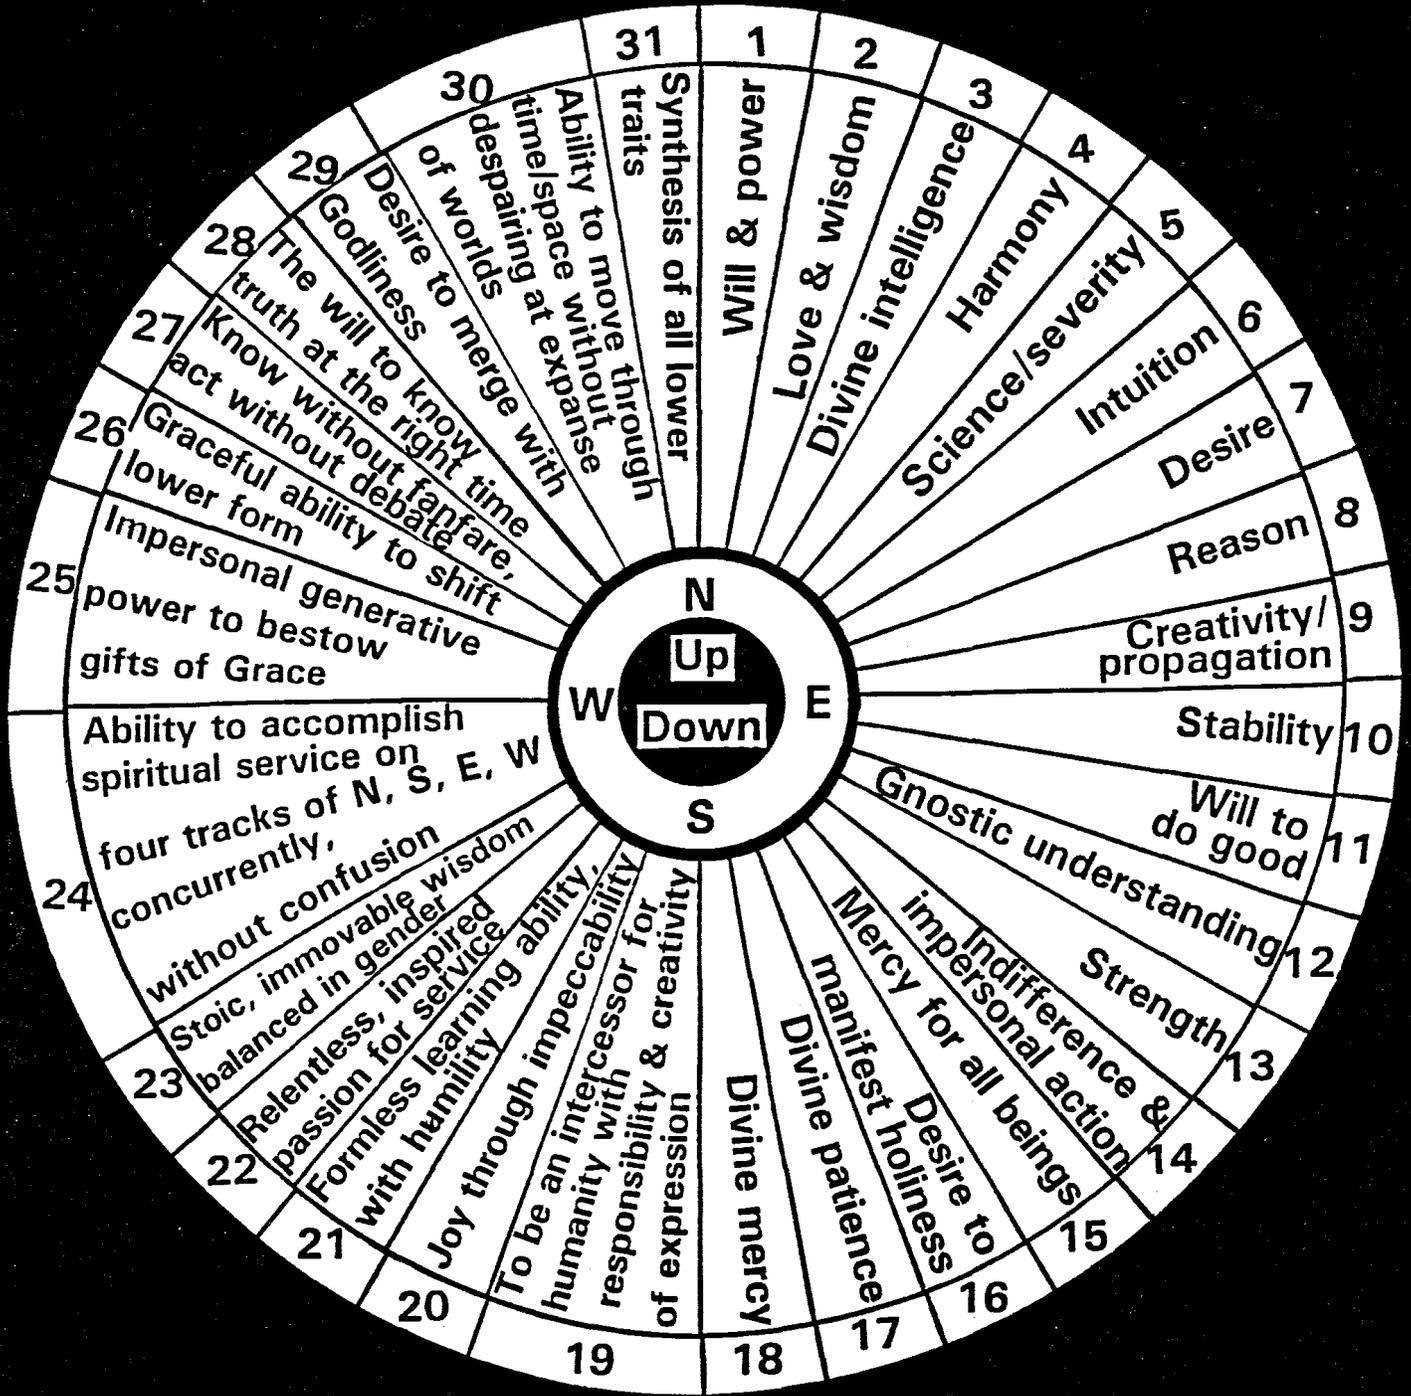

Even a person who appears to be spiritually, mentally, and physically without hope can be helped if he has at least a seed of holy desire and a submission to his divine benefactors. The hatred of authority is the most destructive of all personality traits, because it causes a man to bite the hand that feeds his soul.

Many a metaphysical student embraces being controlled by a vampiring discarnate channeled spirit and yet would hate a human teacher who is aligned with Logoic power. That is because the evil spirits brag on them, and offer spiritual highs. The true teacher holds the mirror of the soul and points out all weaknesses, so as to heal them. Weaknesses are the failures to bring into physical manifestation the incorporation of Virtues within Laws.

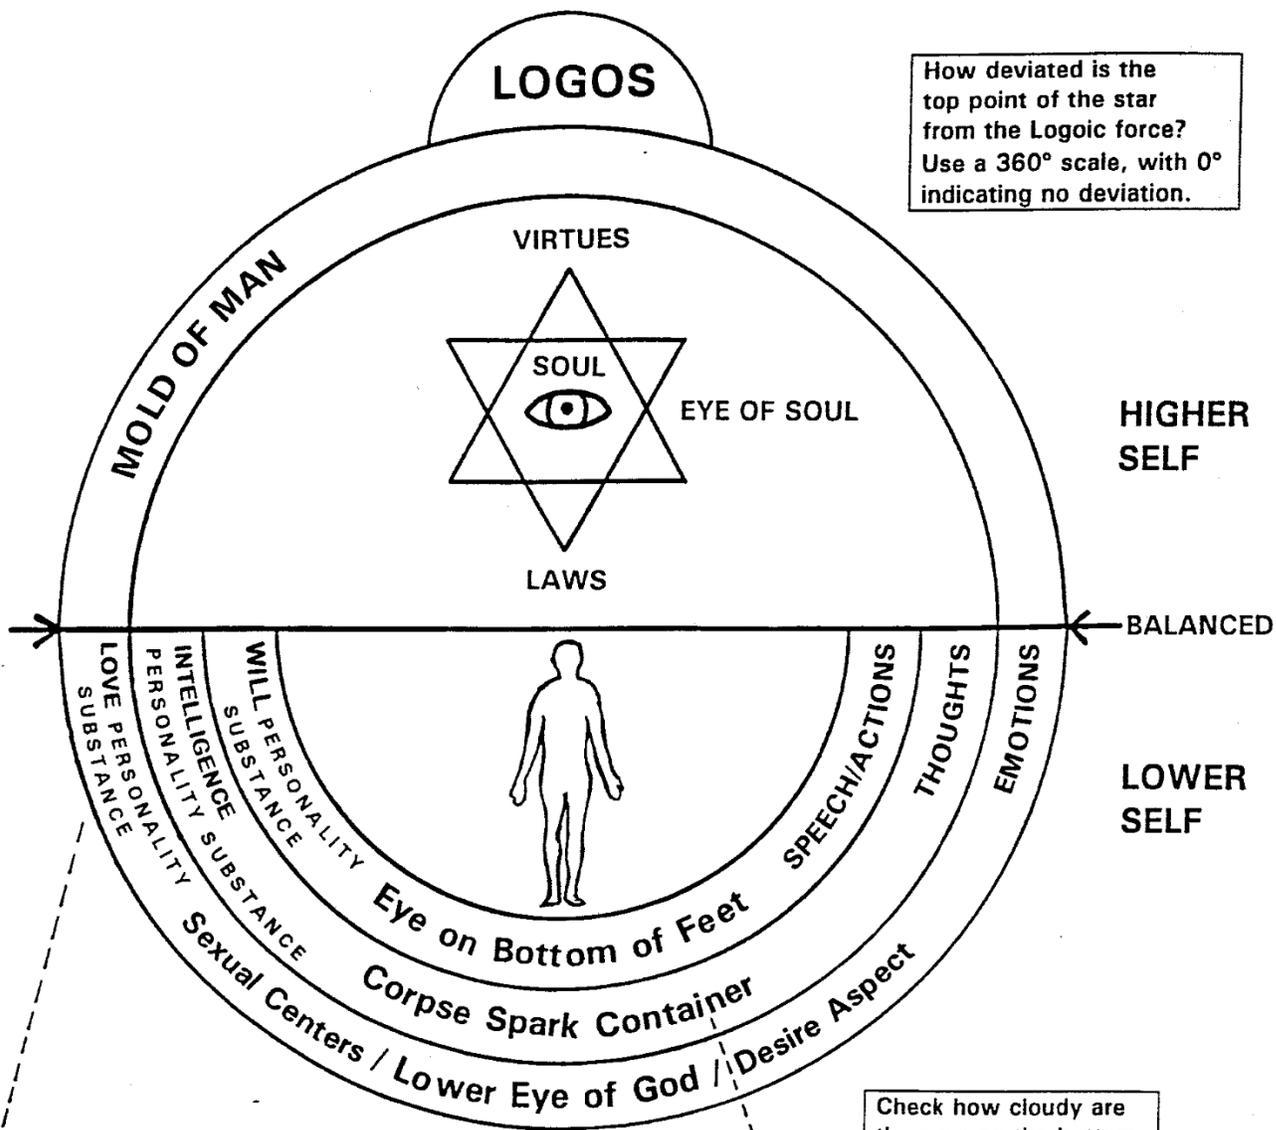

There is no reason for a dowser to study concepts such as universal Law unless he incorporates the information into his physical, mental, and emotional life. There is no reason for a teacher to teach Law to people who refuse to incorporate it into their lives.

In fact, such study can imbalance a brittle personality and drive it to madness. A soul can only be as strong as the supporting personality beneath it. A soul is a vehicle for consciousness that is supposed to extend downward into flesh. There is no reason to have a soul if higher consciousness does not extend into flesh.

CHAPTER THREE

The Balance Of The Soul And Lower Self Within Law

What one does in the flesh reflects upward upon the mold of man and upon the soul. Many people dowsse soul issues and waste energy thinking about past lives when they would do well to change their physical and mental habits. By strengthening one's lower aspects, a person can support a strong soul.

If one identifies the weak section of his lower self, it is then possible to correct it. Low level souls require less personality strength to support them, whereas high level souls require a much stronger personality to provide support. Each section of the personality-soul balance illustrated can be measured on the quadrant chart. One can measure the present percentage of power he has relative to the ideal of the 100 percent required to support the soul. If your measurement is low, you will need to investigate further.

As an example (see the Personality-Soul Balance Diagram preceding this chapter), the auric layer relating to the realm of action also includes speech. Speech is an action and relates to the manifestation of a geometric shape through sound. If you have poor boundaries regarding listening to every malefic energy pattern in your environment and responding like protozoa in a petri dish, then you will rupture this auric layer. In effect, you take on the "names" of all that you hear. You may be able to dowse weakness in this area by dowsing how many names you have on the action/speech auric ring. You should have only one name, and that name should be clearly aligned with holiness on the Law clock.

The second auric ring of the personality has to do with thought control. If a person cannot control speech and action, he will be unable to control his thoughts, as well. Most uncontrolled thoughts have to do with a person listening to all the babbling disharmonies in the ethers (evil names).

It is possible that a person can have a primary weakness from the personality level of thought. This often occurs in people who fantasize a great deal, or who pride themselves on their intelligence or originality. Such people often lack devotion and hate authority. Anyone who hates authority will also hate Law, and will reject his soul.

Weakness of the personality in the thought ring can be measured through the perspectives of air, fire, water, and tissue. People given to fantasy often have a weakness of their air auric container. People who are hostile or pride themselves as passionately living with gusto often burn out their fire auric containers. People who pride themselves as being loving often end up spilling their auric water out of its container. People who are materialistic often rupture their tissue auric containers. Materialism can mean worship of money, a person, one's body or sex, a house, a pet, food, or a philosophy. It is possible to dowse the percentage of intact substance in each container, and its position on the Law clock. Also, the containers should be checked for holes that may have been drilled by various vampiring spirits in the vicinity.

People with thought weaknesses should not meditate freely. They fare much better with structured prayers. They often need to keep their physical bodies busy so that their minds will not wander. They may need to reevaluate their personal self-concept, and need to pray for personality change.

Materialism is not just a soul issue, but is a personality issue that must be addressed on the personality level. By simply acting as though one is no longer materialistic, one becomes less materialistic. If one is given to body worship, then quit jogging ten miles a day. Read books about saints. Study Virtues and Laws, so as to replace your body focus with a spiritual focus. All improvement of the personality must be measured in regard to intensity, duration, and frequency. If you decide every day to reduce your weakness in intensity, duration, and frequency, then you will succeed.

Some people are born with personality propensities that take longer to change, and so they must work harder at it. Under no circumstances should you attend group therapies or any structure that promotes a viewing of the past. The Now is the only position of power. You must decide to be new every day, and see others as new, if you want to change.

To be truly powerful, you must have a strong personality to support a strong higher self. Every decision you make will alter your personality for better or worse.

A communicative aspect of the lower self that has an impact on the soul is the corpse spark. It rests inside an etheric container correlated with the human heart. An evolved person's lower self is influenced by the health of the corpse spark and its contamination. Without health of the corpse spark, a sensitive individual will suffer personality degeneration.

There is a type of substance inside the corpse spark container that can be called "personality substance". It has three parts: a Father Will part, a Son Love part, and a Holy Spirit Intelligence part.

If a person has a misuse of lower will, then the Will personality substance will pervert or weaken and cause the corpse to resonate with fallen beings or Law-haters. If a person hates himself or others, then his Love personality substance degenerates and causes him to resonate with like people or fallen beings. If a person is too linear in thought and does not incorporate gnostic understanding into his thinking, then his Intelligence personality will align with similarly traited Law-haters or fallen beings.

You should dowse how much substance you have in the three personality sections with 100% being the optimal amount for you to support your soul structure. You should check for the number of people's names linked with resonating webs in each section. And check on the quadrant chart for the spiritual alignment of each section.

You can pray to be refilled in a section if you have wasted your personality on lower will, hate, or pride in mentalism. To remove toxicity from foreign substance contamination in the personality substance, allow it to decompose by throwing it into the ocean, trees, rocks, metal, or other things listed on the "Put Into" chart.

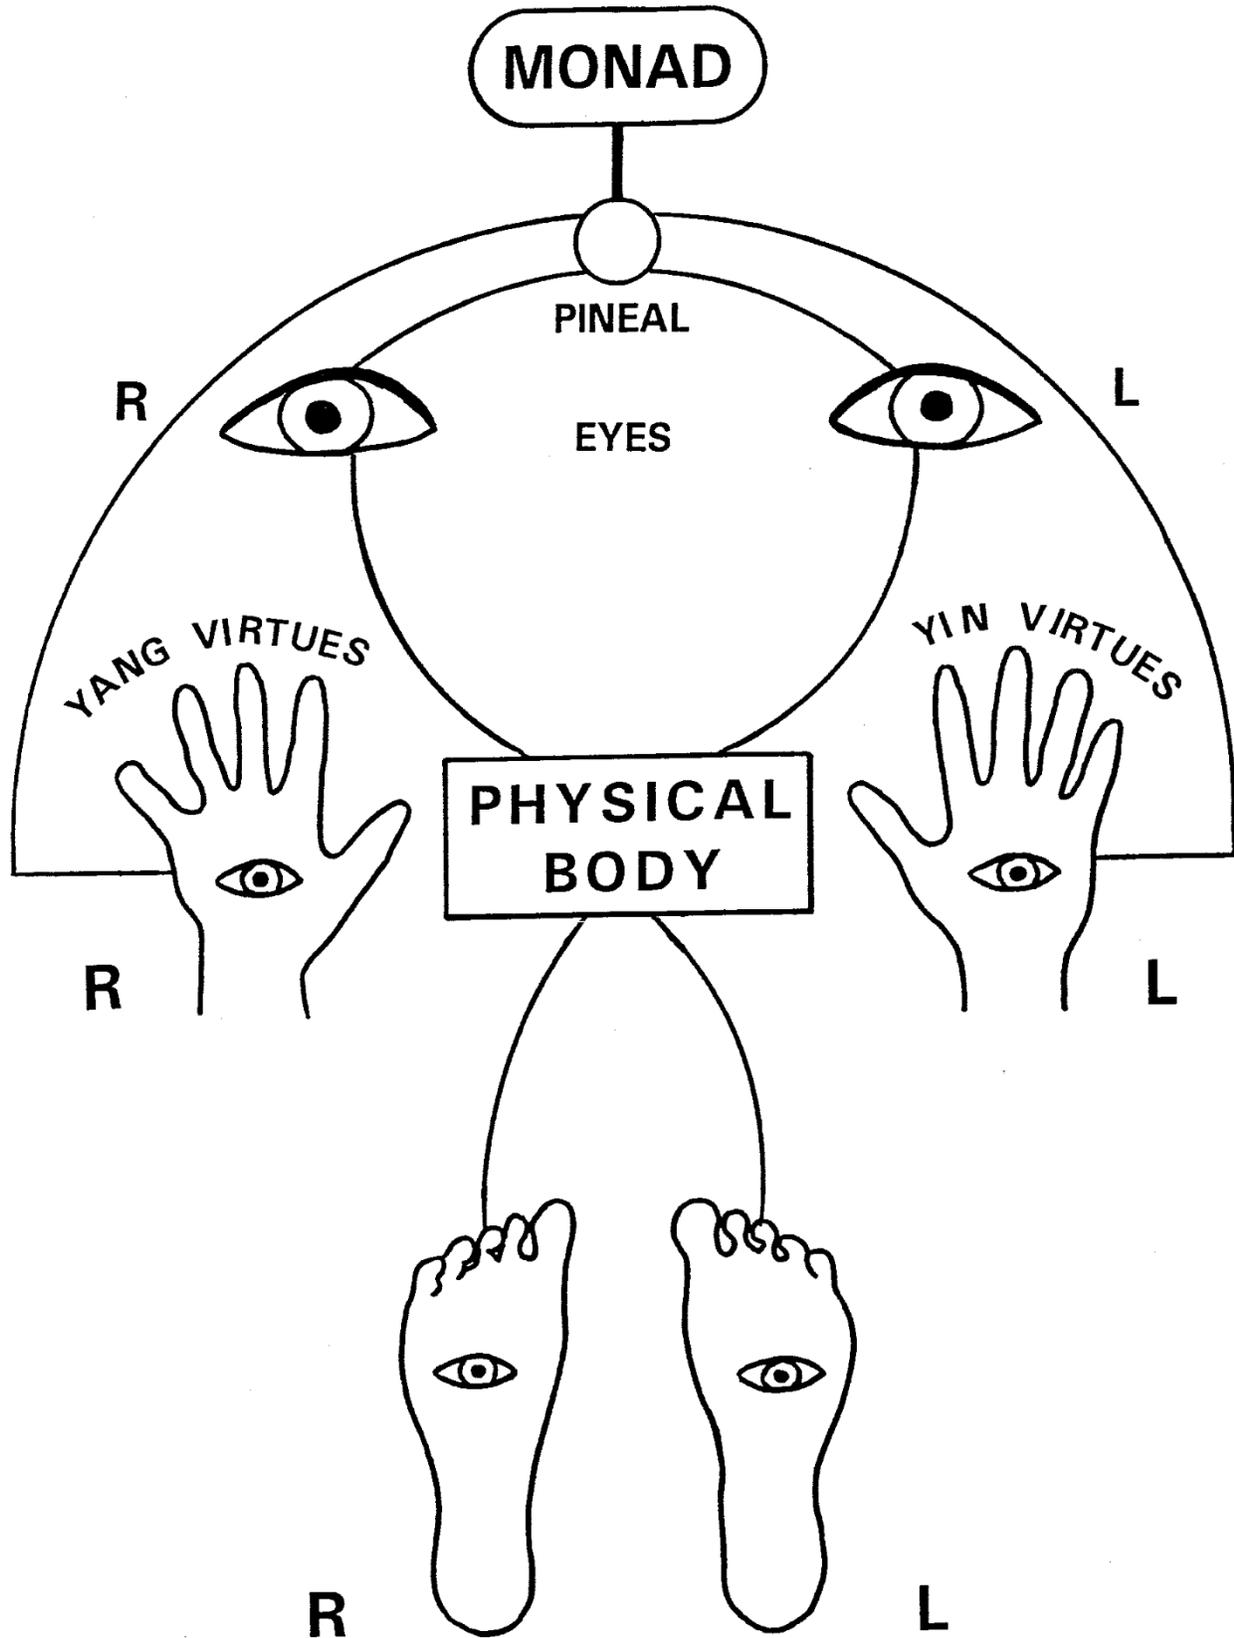

Above all, you must identify which section is weak or contaminated with mixed identities (including old self) and try not to indulge in personality weaknesses. Find ways to strengthen each section so they may support a fine soul. For without a personality that is strong and clean, no soul can be borne.

Another measurement of the action section can be made by dowsing, "How cloudy are the eyes of my feet?" (See drawing on next page.) Your feet are like your hands, and each holds connections to form or soul. Your hand eyes have a connection to your soul, while your feet eyes have a connection to your physical form. The eyes in your head reflect both soul and body. In many cases, humans disassociate from their soul, so that the eyes in their head only reflect their body connection. The fingers have links to Virtue powers of the soul, whereas the toes have links to personality structure.

Each toe can be dowsed on the Logoic alignment diagram illustrated in this chapter. Use the left hand to dowse the left toes and the right hand to dowse the toes of the right foot. If you find a deviation from the Logoic impulse, then see how many names you have on that toe. Often, if you have spilled desire substance upon a person who hates Law, your toes will begin to develop a goat-like emanation. Dowsing the Law question (explained later in this section) relating to the deviation can help you find weaknesses within yourself or the person you are hooked into.

Many of these mixed identities can be ordered out of your feet eyes into the ocean, in order to decompose. They become sources of physical and mental illnesses, if allowed to take seed in your body.

BODY-SOUL CONNECTIONS

The personality realm of emotion/desire often is disordered in people who pride themselves as being caring individuals. Many people in caregiver roles have weaknesses in this area. Their whole idea of self often becomes intertwined with another person's weakness. They spend their desire substance desiring other people to get well or be happy. Many romantic relationships are based upon neediness, and reflect as damage to this area. It is possible to evaluate this ring of the personality as to the percentage of power to balance the soul. You should also check alignment on the Law clock.

If the lower self deviates, the auric mold then distorts and herniates. The soul structure, represented by the star of David, then torques away from Logoic impulse and splits apart into two crooked triangles. You can check how much stress you have placed upon your soul by the degree of deviation of the top point of your soul star from the Logoic impulse.

PERSONALITY-SOUL RUPTURES

An Unbalanced Lower Self Cannot Support A Soul Structure

A Complete Rupture Indicates An Inability To Control Actions, Speech, Thoughts, Or Emotions

If you have a torqued soul, identify whether it is due to a personality weakness or a high-level hatred for Laws. The high-level Law hatred can be healed only through true prayer (see Book I) because it implies you need to change on a soul level. Once your soul is pulling itself away from the Logoic impulse, divine intercession is needed to restore it. Divine intercession will not occur without prayer, because of the Law of Free Will. Any man has the right to destroy his soul, but he cannot make a new soul without God. Even a person who has destroyed his soul can receive mercy and a new soul if he prays rightly and prepares his personality to align with Law.

Laws cannot be separated and evaluated so readily as Virtues, because "he who breaks part of the Law breaks all of the Law." The following diagram provides a method to check one's alignment with universal Law. To check your alignment, first mentally focus upon your tailbone on a physical level. Then, pendulum dowse your deviation from the center (alignment point) of the following diagram in relationship to the truth of each of the statements that follow.

Universal Law Self Evaluation

Statements:

1. I am dedicated to incorporating spiritual Truth into my physical life.
2. I accept as true that some of the concepts that I once embraced regarding spiritual life may no longer be valid.
3. I do not want any pleasures or comforts that would lead me away from alignment with the holy Logoic Truths and soul development.
4. If I found one, I would accept a holy prophet as valid.
5. I have a responsibility to control my thoughts.
6. I have a responsibility to see my sexual life as part of my spiritual expression as a creative member of the holy forces. I understand that sexual excitation may be normal or from floating egoic/desire elementals. I will not allow myself to be physically controlled by floating elementals, even if I feel sexually stimulated.

Deviations on the scale in response to saying the above statements will reflect serious, multi-level conflicts with several universal Laws. To study the Laws further, read VIRTUES, LAWS, AND POWERS by Amber Press.

Yin disorders tend to be more concerned with desire/emotional obsessive problems of the lower self. Yang disorders tend to be concerned with mental/egoic obsessions. Vampirism tends to occur with a yin disorder, while destructive elementals tend to occur with a yang disorder.

A first question yin deviation type will tend to believe that human relationships are more important than spiritual progression. A yang deviation type simply will not care about spiritual matters, or whether his physical habits or thoughts align with Law or Virtues.

A person with a maximal yin deviation on the second Law question might hate his childhood religion and blame it for his suffering. A yang deviation might mean that he is picking and choosing a religion on the basis of comfort, rather than Truth.

A third question yang deviation type would spend his energies trying to manifest material success. A yin deviation type would tend to try to manifest relationships with people.

A person with a maximal yang fourth question deviation might have all his spiritual constructs so separate from his physical manifestation that he cannot imagine that a prophet could exist. He has reduced all soul awareness to a mere human mental construct. A yin maximum question four type would tend to be devotional to a religion or person above what they represent.

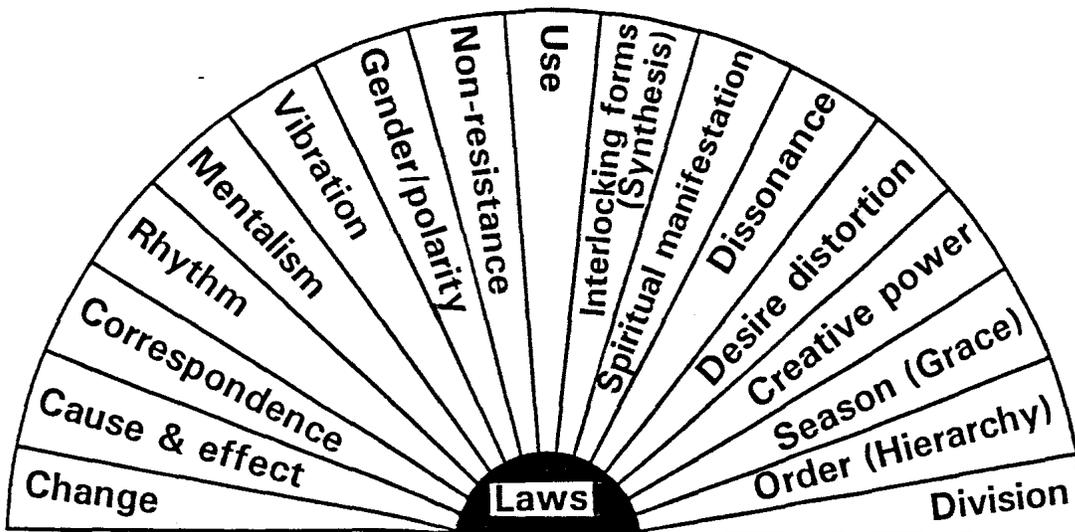

Yang deviation on the fifth Law question occurs when a person thinks he has a right to think what he wants, even if it pollutes the environment. A yin deviation type believes he can feed desires of an unholy nature without any spiritual repercussions.

Some hate disorders are primarily yin of a sixth question type. For instance, romantic love/hate obsession would reflect as a strong yin sixth deviation. Sixth question deviations do not reflect only sexual propensities, but also reflect miscreation tendencies in the artistic realm, or a propensity to create your own reality. Sixth yang disorders may be malefic egoic desires to manifest sex with a particular person, or the desire to grow inside another person like a cancer.

There are many nuances and variables relating to deviations on the scales. Dowsing over the soul lesson/blocks charts (found in Chapter Nine) should bring illumination if the dowser is down to one identity.

If a person deviates to the right or left completely off the scale, then he may become a vessel for the dark powers. Sometimes there are tendrils from other people that throw off one's reading on the scales. These tendrils often can be removed through prayer and use of the waveform chart.

A man is measured by the purity of his consciousness. If his consciousness aligns with the universal standards, he has power. The universal standards are the Virtues within the framework of the Laws. They bear study.

CHAPTER FOUR

Aligning With Power

If the dowser does not short-circuit or dissipate his power in materialistic and tangential activities, then he can be more than just a great dowser. He can be a great instrument for good.

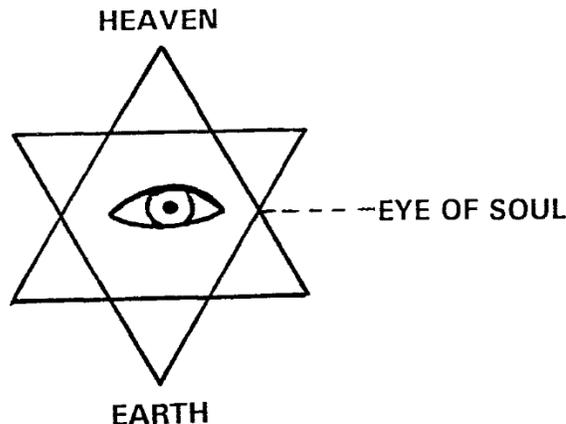

Power rests in keeping the pipeline of creative potential open to the Logoic hierarchy. It is the design of power that each person who uses his creative gifts wisely will be given more. The creative energies of a man are his measure of power. The irony is that creations aligned with Law will increase a man's power; creations that are not aligned with Law will weaken his power.

The dowser who is aligned with Law walks in the Garden of Eden, in that he meets no harm and does no harm. All that he sees is good. The dowser that loosens his Law boundaries is "eating from the Tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil," and therefore does both harm and good. Remember that in the Bible, to "know" a woman meant to have her sexually. To "know" evil, in the creative sense mentioned in Genesis, is to unite physically, mentally, and emotionally with evil. This is not the same thing as recognizing evil. If one does not recognize evil, then one cannot know the boundaries of good. One should recognize evil but not wallow in it.

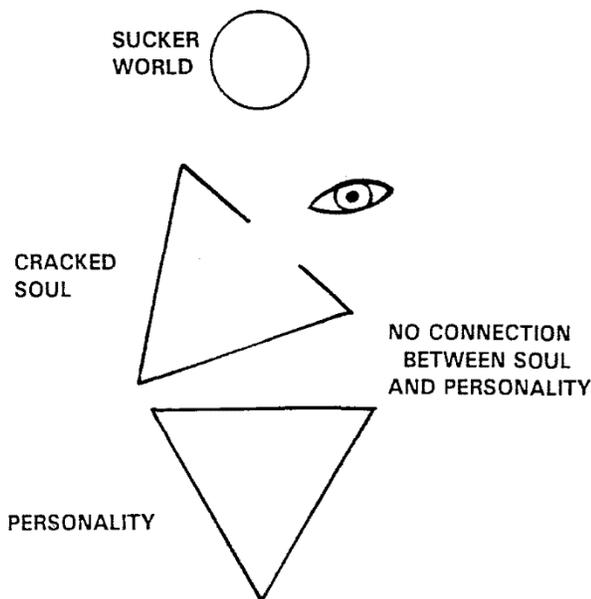

The strongest personality can support the strongest soul. Some personalities are pseudo-strong, inflated, and cracked. They appear to be large, but are weaker than the soul. Ideally, the personality and soul should be of matching size, and have no cracks.

Also, the trinity of the personality (air, fire, water at the core) should rest in a balanced fashion inside the trinity of the soul triangle. The personality should point to Earth, downward, to root it. The soul should point to heaven. At the core of both should be the eye of the soul.

In some cases, the soul has floated away from the personality. This is due to a diversion of power upwards to some idealized vision of life that is not True. The energy of the dowser then enters a type of sucker world of imagined glory.

This imagined world would not dowse as deviated on the Law Clock, in that it floats too far upward, but not to the left or right. The fact that it is an imagined world does not make it harmless. On the contrary, it drains life force from the Logoc Core for its own purposes, which are diversionary. It is as though the troops have departed from the commander-in-charge, and wandered off into a far country of their liking.

There are locations on the physical body that are linked to common auric weak spots in relation to malefic sucker world creation. The hands, feet, eyes, and sexual centers are common corpse link locations for disordered worlds of malefic creation.

Why do people create false worlds that weaken their power, as suckers weaken a tree? The most common reason is materialism. Materialism takes many forms: love of money, objects, people, romantic relationships, ideas, security, and concepts of self.

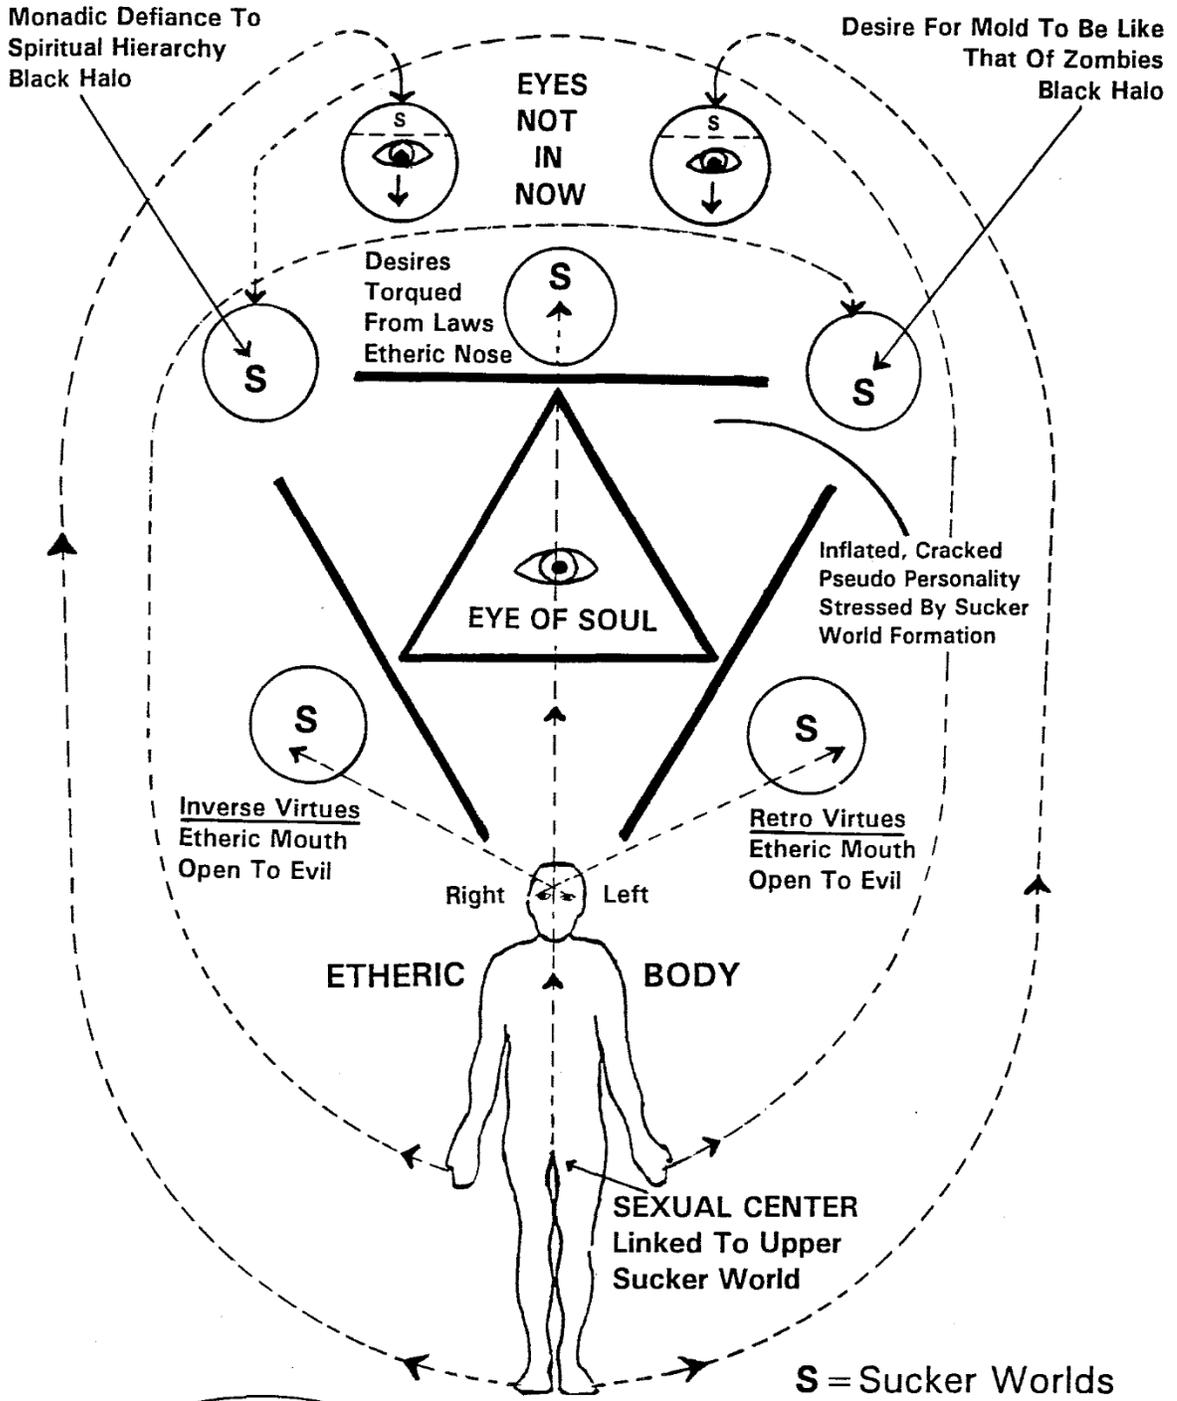

In diverting power to these sucker worlds, many people "blow a fuse" and their spiritual lights go out. They may lose their ability to see Truth, and their dowsing goes haywire.

The study of Law and Virtue takes a lifetime, and often it is difficult to see ones own weak spots in relationship to the creative impulse. For that reason, it is helpful to have a dowsing system to evaluate areas of power loss.

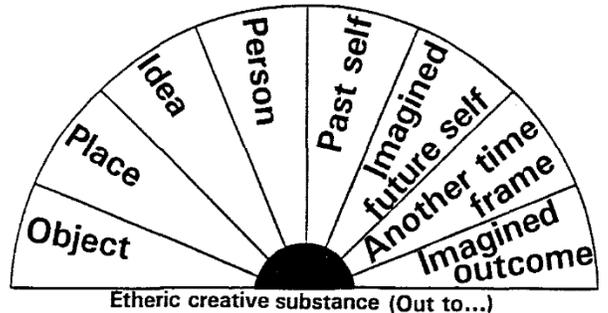

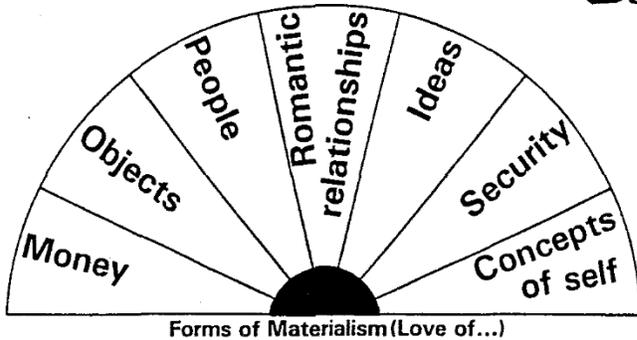

On the sucker world diagram on the next page, you can dowse over each of the circled key areas of sucker world formation that arise out of the hands, feet, eyes, and genitals. You can dowse a percentage of how much of your etheric creative force has gone into the closed circuits of false worlds in each circled location. You can dowse the relative purity of your etheric substance, related to each location, on a percentage scale, the Law clock and quadrant chart.

If you find a lot of creative etheric substance out from a location, then first WILL yourself to stop wasting or squirting your etheric substance, and to close any holes. Then, dowse over the waveform chart a series of waveforms through which to move your etheric body (with your will and intention) so as to disentangle from such a malignant creation. Then, recheck your percentage of substance related to the location and recheck on the Law clock and/or quadrant chart. If any problems remain, then go to the "To Do" charts.

SUCKER WORLD CONNECTIONS TO FORM

S = Sucker Worlds

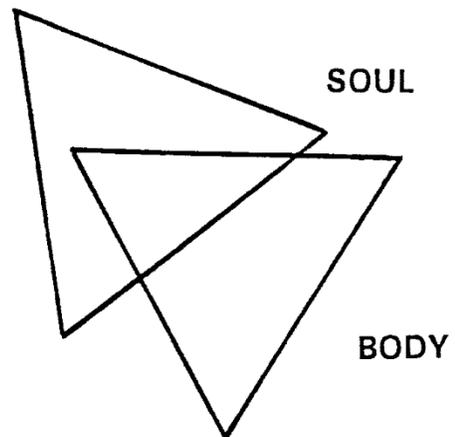

These sucker worlds are often due to etheric creative substance out to past self, imagined future self, another time frame, a person, a place, an idea, an object, and/or an imagined outcome.

In severe cases, the soul triangle will deviate from Law, in response to the sirens within the sucker worlds, and eventually cause a monadic leak. You can dowse the degree of deviation of the top point of the triangle on the Law clock.

LAW CLOCK

In such a case, monadic fluid may drip on other people, and form batteries of Logoic power that help fuel disordered sucker worlds in other people. Then, you would have a link to other people's sucker worlds. This would dowse as "Evil Name Cloud Link to Sucker Worlds."

You can dowse on each of the key locations (hands, feet, eyes, sexual centers) how many such links exist. You can then do waveforms to remove them, pray, and check the "To Do" charts. Then re-evaluate yourself on the percentage scale, Law clock, and quadrant diagrams on the key locations.

It is impossible to create holy sucker worlds, because sucker worlds are lined with the mirrors of self reflection. They have to do with a person looking at himself and thinking of himself as God. True, holy creation looks always upward, without walls or mirrors, to the True Creator of all that is Good. The person who is a co-creator with God takes his responsibility seriously, and gives all credit to the Logos. He has nothing to hide in some dark room full of mirrors.

By asking to receive creative force, we increase our power. To receive this increase in power, we must ask the source of power: The Logos. Otherwise, we divert our search into a dark room full of mirrors and deplete ourselves.

CHAPTER FIVE

Removing Physical Disharmony Seeds

Many malefic thoughts and desires form ghost-like beings that can enter the human body and grow. Such disorders can produce mental and physical illness unless removed.

Removing vicinity elementals should be a priority for any dowser, because they can wear down the auric structure and enter into it. The example egoic elemental drawings that were given in Book 1 represent classic forms of disorders found in the air grids of major cities. Copies of these drawings can be found below and on the next two pages. By dowsing over such drawings and using the "Put Into" and "Pull Out Of" charts found on page 35, one can eliminate such energies from the home before they enter a human body. Elementals can be sucked into the aura and willed out the eyes and mouth into a candle, or a substance that is specific for that type of elemental. If the elemental has already entered the body, usually at the tailbone, it can be willed out of the tailbone into the appropriate substance or location. Willed to the proper location, the elementals will decay, causing no harm to any living thing.

It is vital that the aspiring spiritual scientist does not create disordered elementals nor welcome them into the body. In order not to create them, first you must recognize their presence through the normal senses. Sometimes malefic elementals produce a sulfuric odor, or a dark cloud seems to descend over the face of an afflicted individual. Emotional depression is common. Obsessive thoughts and desires must be present for such elemental production. Some people are like husks, and can only produce elementals if an ensouled person throws out auric tendrils to them.

Creative catalysts must come from the Logos, out of soul substance. Without creative catalysts, neither beneficial nor harmful elementals can be made. The catalysts can be vampired from ensouled persons by someone without a soul, if the ensouled person merges aurically with the unsouled person.

If a person has a catalyst and a willed desire for any outcome, then the next step of elemental production is reached. At this point, there must be a type of friction between opposites, to create an impetus for the catalytic spark to go forth. For holy elemental production to occur, the spiritual scientist resists some worldly aspect of self, and embraces heavenly concepts. This creates a type of friction between the physical body and the soul, which allows the next step of creation. Just as a human baby is created by the sexual tension between man and woman, so do heavenly creations require a tension of opposite poles. Earth and Heaven are poles.

This is where the holy concept of a sacrificial life or a vow of poverty arises. Changing one's career, habits, or living situation may be important in aiding some people to gain power. Often, if one releases a lower attachment, then higher power is gained. Most people see reality as being the sum total of their physical activities, rather than their spiritual state. True power is found by the dowser who sees through the soul eyes downward, reflecting into physical perception. The lower manifestation should be viewed from the soul eye through the body, as though it were a periscope. The soul vision is therefore brought into flesh consciousness. Since the pull to Earth is ever strong, the tension produced by soul focus allows dynamic creation to occur. This includes the creation of holy elementals.

The next step of elemental production occurs through visualization of an outcome. This can occur in one's sleep, if deep desires are present while awake. Many dreams are composed of half-developed elementals of an unsavory type.

At that point, a ghost-like elemental, or even a whole scene, begins to come into being. Thus it is relatively easy to cause something to manifest. Elementals can then enter a human body, if the recipient has a weakness in the realm of action. It takes a seed act of the recipient to empower the elemental sufficiently so that it can crawl into the physical tailbone.

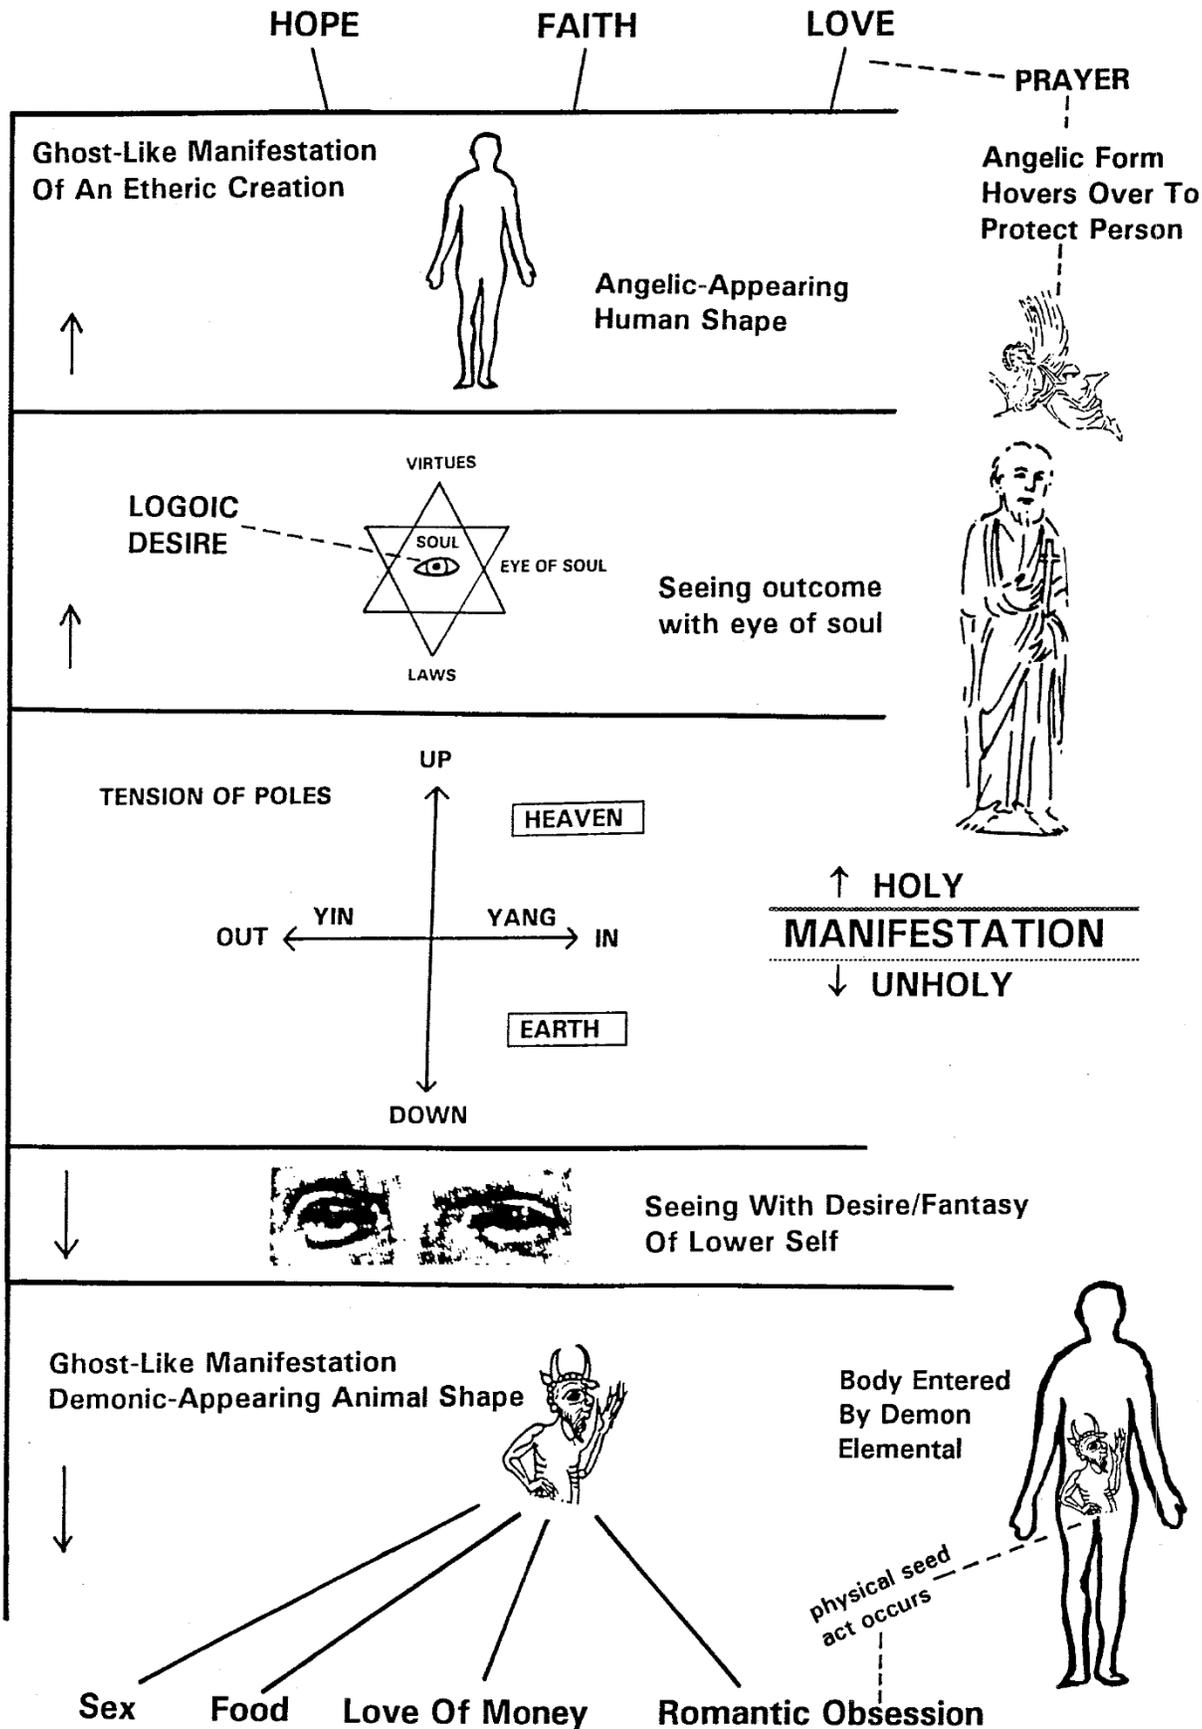

For instance, sexual elementals in the vicinity cannot enter the human body unless sexual acts occur. Writing a letter to an old lover can activate romantic love elementals. Having surgery or dental work can open up acupuncture meridians for such elemental invasion.

Children who glue together puzzle models of prehistoric birds often overlap the patterns of disharmonious elementals, and draw them into their hands. Having such models in their bedrooms draws resonating elementals to the children.

Having extended financial interactions with possessed people can cause elementals to enter the mouth. Emotional upsets, especially rages, can also open the mouth to elementals.

Being present during any type of seance or mediumistic activity can cause the eyes to open to such elementals. Painting pictures or writing poetry or any form of artistic expression opens the solar plexus to vicinity elementals. If one should try to express artistically the torment of such elementals, they become imbedded in the artist.

UNHOLY VS. HOLY ELEMENTAL PRODUCTION

If a husk type person is using your soul matter to create elementals, then you will have what dowses as “Web Lines Out.” Elementals will crawl to you through the web lines and enter a location on the spine. These can be tapped at the top of the spine or the bottom of the spine and removed through an act of intention and will. Superficial elementals can then be thrown into the ocean to decompose (or another of the locations listed on the “Put Into” chart).

You must remove all webs or lines to or from all people if you wish to protect yourself spiritually. You do this by dowsing a corresponding spinal location and WILLING a specific waveform to occur. It is as though there is a ball around the disorder and a vacuum force inside the center of the ball, sucking the disorder inward. You do not have to rationally understand how you do the waveform; you must simply INTEND to do the vacuum inside the ball waveform.

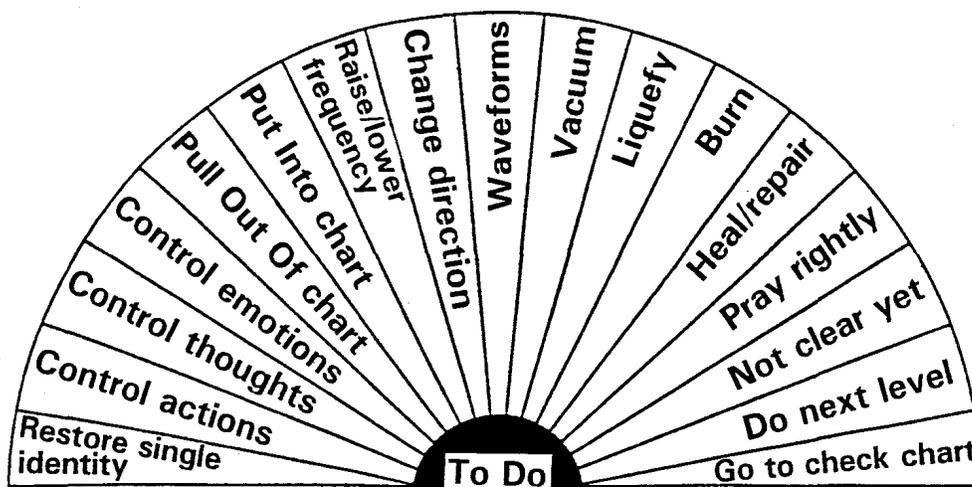

In long term cases of disorder, the elementals have set up housekeeping in a body location, after migrating from the spine, eyes, solar plexus, or fingers. A pattern of illness may emerge. Often nests of fallen angels enter the location. In such cases, it is wise to use the prayer given in Book 1. Use the waveforms chart to disintegrate any floating disorder in the room. Then, dowse the spinal segment associated with the afflicted body part. Do the vacuum-inside-the-ball waveform until all is gone, and use the “Put Into” chart for residue. Look at a map of the Earth and order residue under the ground of resonating locations. The centers of Africa, the North and South Poles, Alaska, and all oceans are common elemental composting locations.

Far more insidious than elementals are the demons that grow out of the fallen angel nests. These were invited through some act of intention and will, although such an act may seem benign to the uninitiated. Merely worshipping the form of a religion, rather than the meaning, could cause such a nest to grow. Loving a person more than Truth can readily cause the formation of such a demon nest. Ignorance does not protect one from the Law.

Since we live in a sea of malefic elementals, it is likely that most people have at least one demon nest in a specific body location. You can dowse over the demon name illustrations at the end of this chapter to find resonating ones within your own corpse. Then, you can dowse over the body illustrations from Book 1 to locate the nest location and spinal exit spot. Finally, use the “Put Into” chart, Waveforms chart, vacuum waveform, and other “To Do” charts to remove the pocket of disorder.

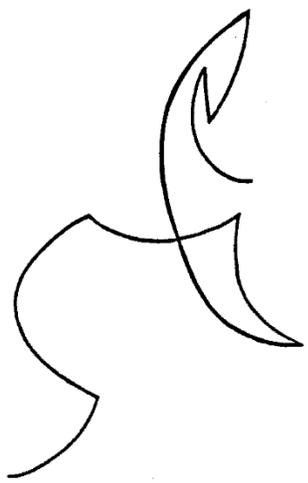

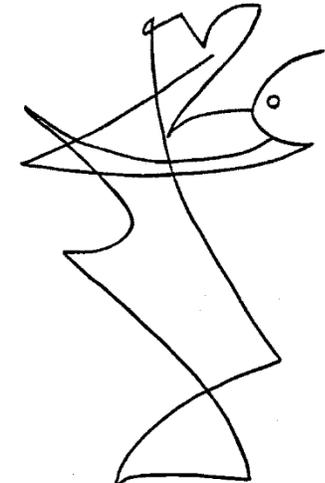

It is wise not to live in areas of great disorder, because such disorder in the air will wear you down. It is also difficult to live in a house with a person who hates even one of the Laws, because such a person creates elementals of disorder. Having harmonious music and friends who aspire to learn Truth will reduce your re-infestation.

It is the responsibility of enlightened people to remove such spiritual infections from the Earth.

CHAPTER SIX

Thought Shadow Removal

Just as man has free will, so do many holy beings. Over the centuries, some holy beings have chosen to follow a path of defiance to Divine Plan. Some of these fallen beings torment humanity with thoughts that lead people away from their soul's path.

If a person refuses to entertain such thoughts, then the evil beings tend to withdraw them. Such thoughts dowse as "Satanic Thought Shadows On The Brain." Some of them are so subtle that it is difficult for a person to see them as evil.

In the early stages, such thoughts can be ordered out of the eyes into the ocean. The eyes feel toxic when such thoughts are present. In the advanced stages, the thoughts migrate to a body location and prepare a home for a spiritual invasion by a fallen being. This is more serious than a demon. The removal of a full invasion requires prayer for divine intercession.

Toxicity with fallen being thoughts can block dowsing completely or produce false answers. In such a case, ask for "The Answer Of Lehys". The name Lehys is an easily dowsed symbol of the Holy Spirit. Also, focus on seeing with the Eye of the Soul, trusting with the Halo, willing from the brow, desiring from the throat, and thinking from the chest. If you do so, your dowsing will improve. This is explained and illustrated in the next chapter.

On the next page begins a series of drawings that depict satanic thoughts produced by fallen beings. Such symbols produce a type of sound in an inaudible range. Satanic thoughts by fallen beings are like primary name symbols for lesser disharmonies as well. Therefore, such symbols can indicate satanic lies from many levels of fallen beings or of human creation. To understand such symbols you must realize that all of them are evil, despite the title below them. If you dowse that you have such a negative energy, try to remove it. Do not fear the symbols. Remember that Jesus demanded to know the names of the demons, so as to control them. With these names you can control the dark forces as Jesus did, if you follow the guidelines.

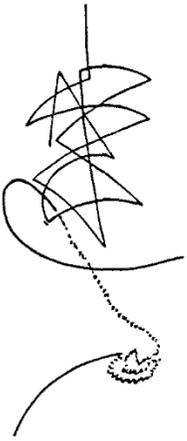

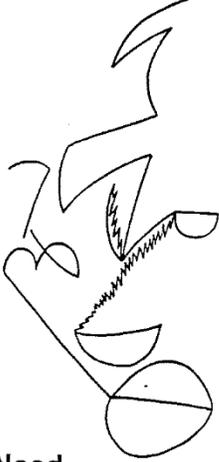

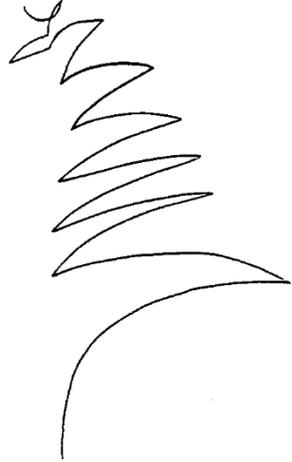

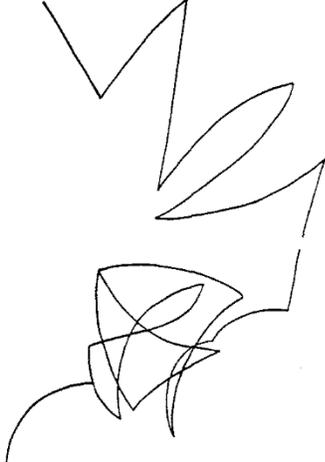

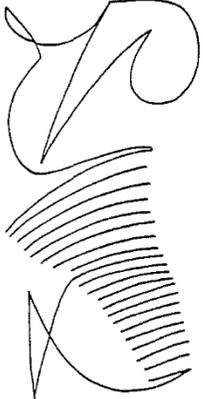

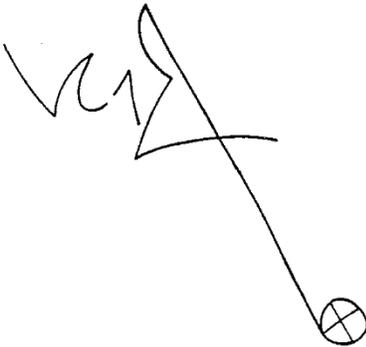

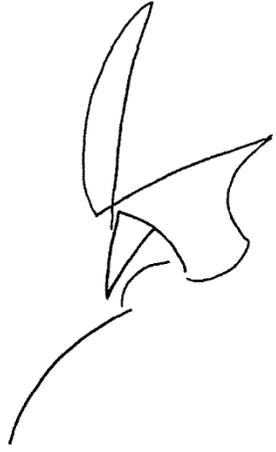

If they are of egoic or demonic origin, follow the guidelines given earlier in this publication for such removal. If they are of satanic fallen being origin, then pray for divine help and put the residue into the ocean. Above all, do not indulge in feeding the subtle lies of the satanic sounds by circular thoughts, out-of-control emotions or actions.

Our society is inundated with such sounds. They are normal in the eyes of our society. That does not mean they are holy.

To aspire to be a spiritual initiate is a lonely path that few dare to tread. Many churches are feel-good insurance policies that do not address true inner change. Jesus was an exorcist and a teacher of Law, as were his disciples. Few exorcisms are done today, because the dark forces have become part of humanity. Some people feel as though they have lost their power if their dark forces are removed. They often hate an exorcist. They feel empty without fallen beings telling them what to think and do.

You must be brave, and desire to know Truth in order to achieve the correct dowsing response to these symbols.

CHAPTER SEVEN

Dowsing Response And The Eye Of The Soul

Misalignment of the spiritual bodies can cause a kinking in the lower dowsing response. Awareness of proper alignment can help you to pull yourself back into shape.

The dowser will do best if he concentrates on thinking with his chest. This aligns him more readily with the Holy Spirit.

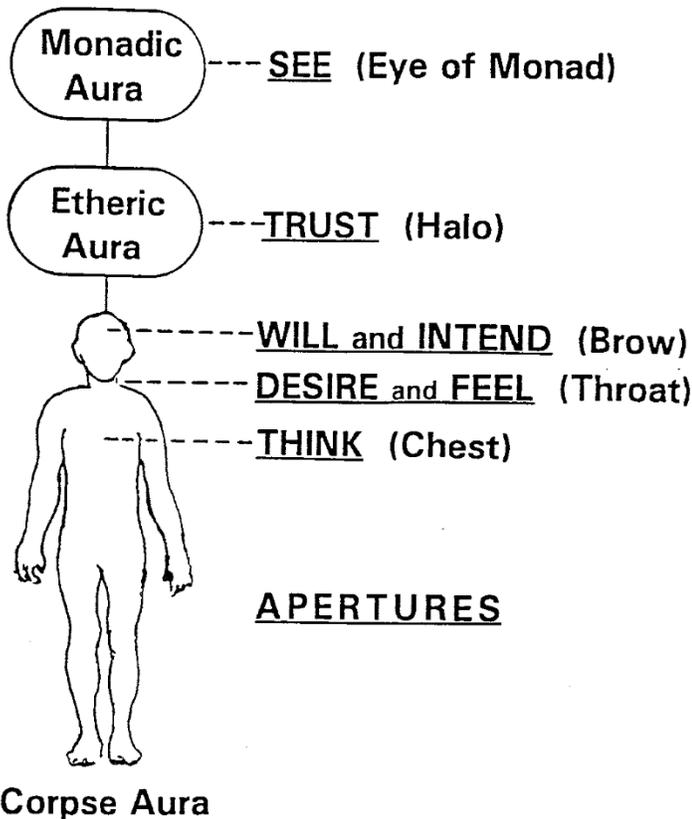

Emotion and desire should be pulled to the throat, because if such aspects slip lower they will cloud the dowsing response.

The lower will should be pulled to the brow, where it will tend to align with the pineal gland, and guide the dowsing response. This should not be confused with any thought process. The brain should be emptied of all previously acquired concepts, so as to truly see without coloring the outcome by expectations.

The ability to TRUST should be focused above the head, where the holy beings enter the human halo.

The ability to SEE should rest inside the center of the monad, above the halo. If your soul is aligned with Law, then you will see rightly. You can dowse how aligned your soul is on the Law clock.

CORRECT ALIGNMENT OF APERTURES

Thinking	Desiring/Feeling	Willing/Intending	Trusting	Seeing
----------	------------------	-------------------	----------	--------

DOWSE: Where am I _____?

Ideally, there is a connection between the pelvis of the body and the generative aspect of the eye of the soul. You should be sure that your sexual centers are aligned on the Law clock in the holy range, just as your soul eye should be. If it is not, then you will not dowse properly. Aura aspects of the generative organs regulate the muscle movement of the final dowsing response, upon receiving signals from the soul eye.

Prayers, such as the one given in Book 1, invoke power that can assist your dowsing. However, if you say such prayers and subsequently ask for some physical outcome, you may end up invoking a fallen angel or Fallen Watcher. Fallen Watchers are planetary guardians that have fallen into defiance of the Holy Logos.

For instance, if you pray to find someone who will love you and satisfy your physical desires, then you are performing a sorcery ritual. It is not proper to demand what you think is a suitable physical outcome, because that is looking downward to materialism, rather than looking upward to the soul. We must pray for courage, for vision, for strength, for grace, but never should we pray for objects or to have a person come into our lives. It may be that your greatest power is in being celibate, because you have a weakness regarding your sexuality, or because you are too emotionally needy. Or, it may be that your path is to be solitary, for some unknown holy reason. The objective is to be receptive to God's will, not pray to have God give you what you think you need or want.

Some people pray for money, thinking it will free them for spiritual work. Some people pray for a certain job, or to give birth to a child, or to get physically well. All such prayers are dangerous, because you may end up selling your soul to a fallen Watcher.

Sometimes such prayers cause a type of power called a "Fallen Being Battery Loop" to be put into place. When this happens, the person feels a great rush of euphoria and power. At this point, the person may start hatching demons.

Human-created demons are often concerned with sexuality or materialism. Some of these types of demons can be found by dowsing over the demon name and satanic lie pattern drawings found in previous chapters. You can also find them by dowsing over the egoic illustrations and common human-created demon patterns illustrated at the end of this chapter.

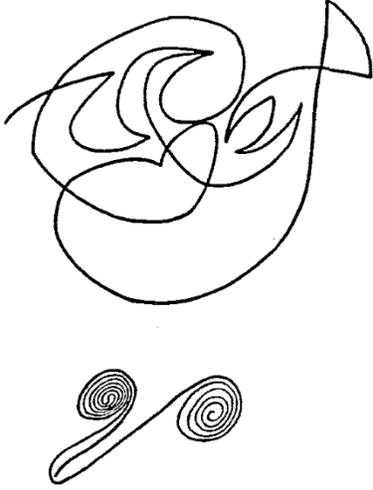

You can touch each design with your left hand, while holding a dowsing implement in the right hand to indicate a "Yes" answer. A pendulum, L-rod, or aura-meter will suffice. Often, demons cause the "Yes" and "No" answers to be confused, so it is best to program your implement with the concept of an absence of movement for "No" and any type of movement for "Yes." If there is still no definite dowsing response, the disorder may be trying to hide or be so deeply entrenched in a blind spot that it is difficult to detect. You can try asking for "The Answer of Lehys" to flush it out of hiding. When dowsing these types of disorders do not always assume that no response is a positive one.

Keep in mind that if you do not keep your air, fire, water, sexual substance, or desire substance to yourself, then you will form multiple identity webs that will be portals for such disharmonious energies to enter. Most webs are on a dowsed body location. You can dowse the percentage of each substance intact and the percentage of intactness of the holders (or containers) of each substance, of air, fire, water and sex substance. Be sure to check the same for the personality substances of Will, Love, and Intelligence.

A person who has formed malefic prayer links with fallen beings may dowse as though he (or she) is BECOMING a demon. His name can be dowsed on a percentage scale or the Law clock. When his name becomes a full circle, to 359° on a 360° scale, then he would dowse as fully demonic. The mystery of names is discussed in the book VIRTUES, LAWS, AND POWERS.

At such a point, the person can no longer dowse properly. He or she will see everything that is good as bad, and vice-versa.

This chart will help you to dowse over all the drawings to indicate causative factors delineating the type of disorder represented by the drawing. It can be used as a general problem chart as well. The most serious disorders are nearer 360°.

CHAPTER EIGHT

Dowsing The I Ching

Seers of the past would use yarrow sticks thrown upon the ground as dowsing tools. The pattern that appeared would approximate a code that the wise men could interpret as universal symbols. The seers had, in fact, developed spiritual science standards for their dowsing answers.

They understood the mystery of omens. Omens are merely the shadow of an event before it occurs. The event is like a big bird in front of the sun, casting its shadow upon the ground in front of your feet.

The casting of the yarrow sticks was a request for an omen through a recognized universal code. The wise men had studied the patterns that preceded events, and translated them to the stick patterns.

It is possible to determine whether one's current course of action is beneficial or detrimental to spiritual progress by dowsing over the sixty-four hexagram patterns that compose the I Ching system of dowsing. The use of a pendulum over the I Ching patterns is far more reliable than throwing sticks to locate the pattern of the omen.

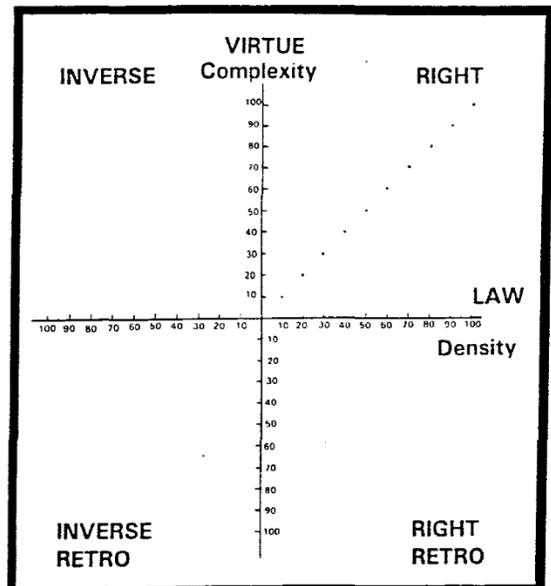

This type of dowsing should not be trivialized or used for money making schemes. One should not use the I Ching as a cheap glimpse into the future, but rather to view the present course of action and its projected outcome.

One cannot dowse the I Ching properly without aligning with Logoic power and abandoning all sucker worlds of personal miscreation. Otherwise, the lower self would tend to dowse mirrored desires of false worlds. After clearing oneself of other identities and praying, it should be used with reverence or it will be meaningless.

If you get a positive dowsing response on one of these symbols, check to see if the event is helping you move toward your soul development or moving you away from your soul's highest good. Dowse the quadrant of the event for you.

You should dowse whether the whole concept of the symbol applies to your situation or whether only a single word or phrase is applicable.

You should also evaluate whether the symbol applies to your situation or if you have a mixed identity and none of the symbol applies to your situation.

CHAPTER NINE

Removing High And Low Dowsing Blocks

Dowsing blocks can occur on the personality level or on the soul level. Also, they can occur in the communication links between personality and soul.

Soul level blocks include a hatred for any one of the universal Laws. Hatred for one of the Laws is not easy to detect unless the dowser studies the Laws. The Laws are most completely defined in the book VIRTUES, LAWS, AND POWERS. Soul level blocks can include a partial or complete misunderstanding of the Virtue powers. Virtue powers are also explained in the same book.

After studying Virtues and Laws in concept, it may be possible to dowse successfully over the soul block charts and soul lesson charts (at the end of this chapter) to discover high-level weaknesses. Keep in mind that other people in the vicinity who have such blocks may blur your dowsing.

All soul blocks originate from defiance to Truth. Many people absolutely detest the Laws of polarity and gender. They do not want to think that any behavior goes against universal Law, or that a beatific, smiling person may in fact be evil, should he defy one of the Laws. The Laws are immutable. They cannot accommodate personal whims. They are principles that control all life; they are not concepts. No man has ever broken a Law, but many a man has broken himself against the Laws. In a larger sense, the destruction of civilized society that is occurring today is due to hatred for Law on a massive scale.

No dowser will dowse well unless he understands Laws. Dowsing responses occur within the realm of Law; they are not magic. The highest dowsing response occurs from the soul level and is not blocked as it descends downward into the physical realm of manifestation.

Some people accept Laws and embrace Virtues as concepts, but have severed their spiritual life from their physical life. When this occurs, no high-level dowsing response can take place. It is as though the soul brain cannot communicate to the physical brain. To move past this block, the dowser must pray to incorporate in his physical body the Virtues and Laws as active powers, rather than as mental concepts.

In teaching others, some dowsers have taught part of the Law or Virtues but failed to teach aspects that are controversial. In doing so, they failed to impart to their students the steps to personal power. It is as though they were teaching about electricity but failing to mention that a person must not stand in water when operating a drill.

Merely quoting benign teachings about the cabala, but failing to teach its application, leads people to think that there is no God of power in the heavens, but that God is merely a concept. So many teachers have done this to avoid irritating people, that it is not surprising that our society today is so bereft of values.

A dowser may study Law and Virtue for years, and yet if his life does not reflect such study then he will dowse poorly. His muscles will reflect the conflict within his soul, and give a message of confusion. This is why many people give up the practice of dowsing or warn others not to dowse.

The soul can only be as powerful as the purity of the personality. A dowser's personality must be congruent with Laws and Virtues or he will fall into depression or rage. Depression is just the underside of hate.

The personality can be strengthened. Prayer to align the lower self with Laws and Virtues, refusal to take a victim stance, and living in the Now will empower the personality. Every day, one should do something that enhances the lower will. For instance, taking a daily walk, being disciplined about prayer times, cleaning house whether you feel good or not are all examples. Reading one chapter of a holy book, such as the Bible, every day, would also help to strengthen the personality. Being sweet when you feel tired, being strong when you tremble inside with fear, and changing your routines will help you gain personality power.

Most people have their weaknesses enhanced by their relatives and friends. If someone saw you as a vulnerable victim for years on end, then it would be difficult to break out of the victim role. Often moving and changing friends helps you to change your life. Focusing on the Holy Elemental drawings may help you to align your physical/mental/emotional lower self to holiness. Such illustrations are tools that must not replace personal change on a deep level.

Above all, we must all keep changing, or we will become stagnant and rot. Dowsing is an excellent tool to help us keep changing on many levels. It can open many doors to self-exploration and healing.

It is a gift from God.

CHAPTER TEN

Dowsing Protocol, Working Charts, and Chart Index

What follows is a basic check list for use with the working charts on the following pages. It provides a step-by-step list of dowsing questions to use each day for the clearing and alignment of your spiritual bodies. There is a more in-depth explanation of these questions and procedures at the end of this chapter.

It is a good basic check list but the elements of the list are more important than the order in which they are performed. The procedure is mutable and, as you become familiar with these charts, you may find that you expand on the sample questions. In the beginning, it is strongly recommended that one follow the check list in a very precise and detailed way. This will train your spiritual bodies and help to integrate the procedures so that you will become a more effective dowser.

QUICK CLEARING CHECKLIST

Check number of IDENTITIES and/or PERSONALITIES
Check percentage of CORPSE AURA in the NOW, PAST, FUTURE, and SUCKER WORLDS
Check percentage of CORPSE AURA or for specific BODY PARTS under the mirrored water of self-reflection
Check contamination of, percentage remaining and number of elementals out or on: AIR FIRE WATER SEX SUBSTANCE (number of demons created)
Check intactness and the # of names in CORPSE SPARK CONTAINER
Check percentage of VIRTUE (1-12) contamination, substance remaining, and number of ANTI-VIRTUE DEMONS created
Check percentage of ETHERIC SUBSTANCE contamination and substance remaining
Check percentage of DESIRE SUBSTANCE contamination and percentage remaining
Check deviation of MOLD on Law clock

DOWSING CHECKLIST

Begin each clearing by making certain that you have only one identity and that this identity is your own and not someone else's. A state of multiple identities weakens the dowser's power and increases the likelihood of erroneous dowsing responses. Instead of your problems or issues, you could be dowsing someone else's. It is not necessary to ask all of these questions in order to achieve a single identity. Having several ways to ask a question is a good method for checking your dowsing. The nuance of a certain question can reveal a hidden truth.

If you have multiple identities or personalities then this is evidence that you have foreign auric substance on you or part of your substance is linked with another person. If you get a response to the following questions then it probably means you are going to have to do more research to find the root of your problem. You may need to locate which auric layer is affected and whether it is substance in or out. You may find that your substance tends to migrate to a certain person or time in your life, linking you with your past, an idea you have about yourself or a place. Having a mixed or wrong identity is a "good" indication that everything is not right and that you are operating as a weak dowser and not as a dowser with power.

ASK:

How many people am I?

How many people is me?

How many names do I have?

How many consciousnesses am I?

How many consciousnesses do I have?

How many identities do I have?

How many personalities do I have?

How many people am I webbed into, or how many people are webbed into me?

Am I _____ (insert name here)?

How old am I? (to detect past self resonations)

How many evil birthdays do I have? (This is another way to locate counter-evolutionary old self resonations or resonation with a person of a different age.)

How many death frequencies do I have?

Think of your physical body and check each of these questions for each layer. Think of these substances as being held in a container, with 100% as the ideal level of intactness and amount of substance.

1. FIRE SUBSTANCE

- a) How much of my fire substance is INTACT?
- b) How much of this substance is MY OWN?
- c) How much of this substance is FOREIGN?
- d) How many HOLES do I have in my fire container?
- e) In relation to the FIRE (FATHER) aperture, from where am I WILLING AND INTENDING? Is it from the BROW? The substance of this aperture will also dowse as CASE (Father) substance.
- f) PRAY and WILL that any fire elementals in the process of development be destroyed. You can refer to the Unholy Vs. Holy Elemental Production diagram to check the development of elementals and the Egoic Drawings to discover the type of elementals being produced. PRAY and WILL that any holes in the fire container be healed and use WAVEFORMS to remove any foreign substance.

2. WATER SUBSTANCE

- a) How much of my water substance is INTACT?
- b) How much of this substance is MY OWN?
- c) How much of this substance is FOREIGN?
- d) How many HOLES do I have in my water container?
- e) In relation to the WATER (SON) aperture, from where am I DESIRING and FEELING? Is it from the THROAT? The substance of this aperture will also dowse as BLADDER and MOUTH (Son) substance.
- f) PRAY and WILL that any water elementals in the process of development be destroyed. You can refer to the Unholy Vs. Holy Elemental Production diagram to check the development of elementals and the Egoic Drawings to discover the type of elementals being produced. PRAY and WILL that any holes in the water container be healed and use WAVEFORMS to remove any foreign substance.

3. AIR SUBSTANCE

- a) How much of my air substance is INTACT?
- b) How much of this substance is MY OWN?
- c) How much of this substance is FOREIGN?
- d) How many HOLES do I have in my air container?
- e) In relation to the AIR (HOLY SPIRIT) aperture, from where am I THINKING? Is it from the CHEST? The substance of this aperture will also dowse as RING (Holy Spirit) substance.
- f) PRAY and WILL that any air elementals in the process of development be destroyed. You can refer to the Unholy Vs. Holy Elemental Production diagram to check the development of elementals and the Egoic Drawings to discover the type of elementals being produced. PRAY and WILL that any holes in the air container be healed and use WAVEFORMS to remove any foreign substance.

4. HOLY BEING MEMBRANE SUBSTANCE
- a) How much of my membrane substance is INTACT?
  - b) How much of this substance is MY OWN?
  - c) How much of this substance is FOREIGN?
  - d) How many HOLES do I have in my Holy Being membrane container?
  - e) In relation to the HOLY BEING (HALO) aperture, from where am I TRUSTING? Is it from the corpse or the HALO? The substance of this aperture will also dowse as ENVELOPE (Holy Being) substance.
  - f) PRAY and WILL that any tissue elementals in the process of development be destroyed. You can refer to the Unholy Vs. Holy Elemental Production diagram to check the development of elementals and the Egoic Drawings to discover the type of elementals being produced. PRAY and WILL that any holes in the membrane container be healed and use WAVEFORMS to remove any foreign substance.
5. CORPSE SPARK: the center of the corpse
- a) How much of my corpse spark substance is INTACT?
  - b) How much of this substance is MY OWN?
  - c) How much of this substance is FOREIGN?
  - d) How many HOLES do I have in my corpse spark container?
  - e) In relation to the EYE of the MONAD (SEE) aperture, from where am I SEEING? Is it from the pelvis or the EYE of the MONAD? The substance of this aperture will also dowse as EGG or TESTOSTERONE substance.
  - f) PRAY and WILL that any air elementals in the process of development be destroyed. You can refer to the Unholy Vs. Holy Elemental Production diagram to check the development of elementals and the Egoic Drawings to discover the type of elementals being produced. PRAY and WILL that any holes in the corpse spark container be healed and use WAVEFORMS to remove any foreign substance.
6. While looking at the Personality/Soul Balance Diagram on page 18 in relation to the lower personality, ask:
- a) How aligned with the Logos is the outer ring of the lower personality, this encompasses the sexual center, lower eye of God, desire aspect, and emotions ring?
  - b) If 100% is perfectly aligned with the Logoic design of the mold of man, how aligned is my mold?
  - c) As man is created in the image of God, then the lower mold should reflect downward into the outer ring of the personality. Ask how much my sexual center and substance reflect that man is created in the image of God? Check this on the Law clock.
  - d) If you find your mold is not in the right hand of the Logos, then ask: How deviated is my mold from the Logoic design that man is created in the image of God? Realize that the mold deviates in response to emotions, desires and sexual energies. The sexual energies include creative mental processes and any procreative energy, whether mental, desire, or physical, could possibly deviate the mold of man, if man is created in his own image rather than the image of God.

7. How strong is my thought component and corpse spark container in relationship to my soul force?
- a) If my soul force is 100%, ask what percentage is the thought aspect of my personality aligned with my soul force? This measures whether your personality can support your soul.
  - b) You should also measure the strength of your speech and actions. It will help you to determine whether you are balanced so as not to rupture your soul.
    - 1) Each ring should be 100% intact, as each is like the legs of a table: the Father, Son and Holy Breath. All three need to be balanced to support your soul. If the personality is weak in one ring, ask how many people you are and remove any weakening force. See if the force of the personality is going out to others. People are weak due to having multiple identities from webbing out and, consequently, do not have personality power, as having power implies having a single identity. If your substance is going in many directions, then the eye is not single. On each of the three rings of the personality, ask the following questions and correct by pulling substance back and disintegrating disharmonies.
      - a) ASK: How many people am I?
How many people is me?
8. Check your DESIRE substance with the following questions.
- a) How much of my DESIRE substance is MISSING?
  - b) How much of this substance is MY OWN?
  - c) How much of this substance is FOREIGN?
  - d) How many HOLES do I have in my desire substance container?
  - e) PRAY and WILL that any desire elementals in the process of development be destroyed. PRAY and WILL that any holes in the desire substance container be healed and use WAVEFORMS to remove any foreign substance.
  - f) Desire substance can be used from any aspect of the aura. If a person is mental and goes off into fantasy and sucker worlds, it could be used to create elementals from the brow chakra. Ask from where you are desiring. Some people tend to desire from the brow, others from the heart (romance), and others desire strongly from their genital area. The key is to constantly pull your desire substance focus to the throat, be sure it is in the right hand quadrant of the quadrant diagram, and check your desire substance on the Law clock.
9. On the Law clock, check the degree of torque away from Logoic impulse of the top point of your soul star.
- a) How torqued away from the Logoic impulse is the top of my soul star? The more powerful the soul, the less torquing that can be accommodated without a rupture. The more powerful the soul, the larger the star becomes, the larger the mold ring expands, and the larger the personality structure that must be present to endure the more powerful soul. As one advances, it is required that the personality base be strong. There must be utter sobriety and absolute control of actions, speech, thought and emotions. One must have more and more of a base of power, or the soul will topple.

- b) If your star is torqued, then check the Virtues. The torqued star introduces the requirement for checking each Virtue.
- 1) You should check the first twelve Virtues, one by one, on the Virtue bell curve diagram and with the Virtue Problems chart. Each Virtue should be at ten or OK on the Virtue Bell Curve for each of the primary layers or apertures. A Virtue can be blown in (left side of curve) or blown out (right side of curve). For example, if a Virtue is weak and blown in, that layer of the Virtue will dowse somewhere on the left side of the curve in the zero to nine range. If it dowses as below zero, then a boundary of the Virtue is entirely ruptured. If a Virtue dowses as being in the inverse curve, then the Virtue is pseudo-strong and draining another intact Virtue or being artificially sustained through a vampire situation or a connection to a fallen being.
  - 2) Look at egoic drawings and demon names for ones that you may have overlooked. You may have somehow incorporated a demon name.
  - 3) You might still have a Virtue that is leaking but a very bad leak will torque the star. The Star is a gauge and will torque if Law and Virtue are strongly resisted. If so, check the six law questions on the universal law evaluation self test for some influence that you have allowed in your life. Maybe you have watched a movie and identified with a character who is fundamentally not harmonious, linking you with a fallen demigod.

10. If your mold is deviated, check fundamental body parts and systems on the Law-Virtue Interface Diagram.

- a) While looking at the diagram and dowsing over it, dowse your alignment for the following key body parts/systems. Your body should be aligned in the first section of the diagram between 00:00 and 03:00 or in the section of the Holy Virtues. If any part of you is aligned anywhere else, go to the "To Do" charts and correct your alignment. Try waveforms first and then re-check the alignment. If not completely aligned, you may need to perform more actions from the "To Do" chart. At a minimum, check the following items:
- 1) Where is my heart aligned?
  - 2) Where is my penis or vagina aligned?
  - 3) Where is my larynx aligned?
  - 4) Where is my skin aligned?
  - 5) Where is my right eye aligned? my left eye?
  - 6) Where is my intestinal tract aligned?
