INTRODUCTION to VIRTUES, LAWS and POWERS (excerpt) by Anonymous

Introduction

Published 1995

ISBN 1-885-186-83-5

There are people on the Earth today who hunger for knowledge of the mysteries of life. They may have sought to satiate their thirst for Truth through paths of science, art, philosophy, psychology, religion, or social services. Many, at the close of a long career in such fields, hear the hounds of death at their heels while their spiritual bellies ache with emptiness. They go to their deaths longing for the unknown, trembling with angst.

It may seem preposterous for this book to presume to fill some of that void by bringing to the reader the fundamentals of the natural Laws of the soul. Indeed, few people have ever considered that the soul of man has a type of matter, not unlike his flesh, although existing in a different octave of being. Few people are aware that there are principles, similar to known physics principles, that control the dynamics of spiritual matter. Furthermore, such spiritual Laws have a watershed effect upon the physical body of man and the Earth.

Looking out upon the sea of disorder within the major cities, one cannot help wondering why violent crime is becoming increasingly prevalent, and what could bring it to a halt. During the sixties the cry of liberals was for more social services, as though money or food could be the panacea. Others cried for gun control, more prisons, or other material solutions. Despite all attempts at controlling societal disorder the ghettos swell with violence, and the traditional family structure is almost gone.

There are some idealists who look into the heart of this disorder as though it were full of signs of wonderful societal transformation for the better. And yet, teenage pregnancies, AIDS, infections, robberies, rapes, and murders all continue to increase in number. By what criteria are these idealists measuring their success?

If one looks back over recorded history, pockets of societal peace and order rise out of the pages with haunting similarities of belief systems. Within each religion can be found keys that lead to the inner teachings of the fundamental Laws of the soul and of life itself. The fighting between religions has been due to clinging to differences rather than searching for similarities. The obvious similarities are merely echoes of the underlying mysteries which have traditionally been reserved for an inner circle of the spiritual elite.

The knowledge of the inner mysteries of life, held within the core of each religion, was withheld from the masses because of the danger of sorcery if the principles were applied without integrity. Any power that can transform a man's soul can also destroy his body if directed with malefic intent. It was safer to allow the alchemical mysteries, which were the core of each religion, to be watered down in a harmless fashion, in a way that could possibly change man's behavior through fear or promise of heaven. It was assumed by the spiritual forefathers that a man who lived decently might learn to think decently. If a man thought in a decent manner, then, later he might be able to control the spiritual forces with integrity and not run amok with unbridled passion.

For this reason, most religions focused upon behavioral instructions, rather than the reasons that certain behaviors could block the path to spiritual power. People have, by and large, decided that the behavioral instructions are no longer valid and so have developed many blocks to the higher teachings.

It is now time to reveal the inner teachings, in hope that humans can understand the reasons for behavioral sanctions and thought control.

The Laws are immutable. Man cannot break these Laws, but can break himself against these Laws. This is happening today on a massive scale. A man can tell himself all day long that fire is not hot, and yet burn himself, should he put his hand in a flame. Just as there are lower laws of the visible component of fire, there are higher Laws of the unseen components of fire. Many a man has thrust his own unseen components into fire and burned away part of himself.

It is possible to heal oneself through the application of higher Laws. If humans can bring healing order to their own lives, then they can begin to bring order to their families and to their own culture. If they do that, they can start to bring order to the world.

Healing the world must start with healing the self. This book holds the ancient mysteries through which personal transformation is made possible, if the applicant is sincere and willing to change. The dilettante will benefit little, except through some intellectual titillation. This book was written not for dinner table discussion, but at great price, and with great courage, by a traveler within such mysteries, in hope of helping humanity out of chaos. Since it merely recites the principles of the mysteries, it shall be considered anonymously and gnostically written, for man cannot hope or presume to create the Laws and Virtues. This is not a "channeled" book, but a book reflecting the experience of the traveler through many realms as real as the one before your face.

If you also dare to be a traveler into unseen realms, this book will guide you safely.

1994 FEBRUARY LECTURES BY ANONYMOUS

The following class lectures are transcribed either verbatim from audio tapes or from class notes unrevised by Anonymous. These lectures and written lessons were given by Anonymous to audiences familiar with the general background of Spiritual Science. The emphasis was in the dissemination of knowledge that was normally hidden from the general public, but has had a haunting recurrence throughout the millennia.

NOTE

- 1) All LESSONS, LECTURES and CHARTS were given in class and created by Anonymous. Class Notes were taken by an auditor and not corrected by Anonymous and for these, it is suggested the reader also refer to the original, unabridged audio tapes where available.
- 2) The best introduction to the dowsing system may be found in the Advanced Esoteric Spiritual Dowsing Books, I, II, III.
- 3) Please keep in mind that this library is missing many of the original audio tapes (of which there were at 50+ per month during a three year period) as well as some dowsing charts, Class Notes and Lessons. These books are compiled from the resources currently available to this library.

TWO LETTERS to Class: FEBRUARY 1, 1994

Note #1:

Tonight before you go to bed, clear yourself and pray that the Holy Being, known as the Genetic Obsession Remover, remove all ties that you have within you to the past. These ties can be shadows and impressions upon your cells, your liquid, your null spaces and your air, etc. If you are worthy and the time is right, then you may dowse as having a "cord severed". This would be the thread to creation between the 2nd and 3rd mobius. It may take several hours and/or days for this to complete. It may occur in sessions for several hours at a time. You would dowse as being at the 6th mobius level during the time that this healing is going on. You may be tired while this is occurring.

Most of you are doing better on your Cosmic Law alignment. From now on you must just check this for yourself.

There is a type of substance contamination that would dowse as (a specific) Law Hate Substance Contamination on body parts in both animals and humans. To find this, dowse on the Law chart which Law and which body part is affected. You should check this on the pets as well, because they seem to have parts of us related to this contamination on their body parts. So, you might find Law of Change Substance Contamination on the brain of one of the dogs or on your brain.

Note #2:

Late Breaking News

All of you seem to be ripe for clearing a lot of past residue (mostly between cells, but some inside cells or otherwise located.) Also, anyone who has had nagual power may have contaminated you on as many as 20 octaves of complexity.

Therefore, each member of our group should check themselves for all the other members and former members who have been naguals with a question similar to the following but with the correct name:

"On the first level of complexity, do I have any toxicity of "Aur" (or other student)?"

"On the second level of complexity, how high is my level of toxicity with "Aur"? (and so on, for twenty levels.)

If you had sent tendrils to family members, your nagual powers could have caused you to be contaminated on twenty levels with those people, even though they have never been naguals. Just suspect anyone you think of as perhaps now infecting you, since most people have webs to all sorts of disorder. You must clear yourself of all webs, and all planetary disorder which seems to reveal itself through name toxicities.

All of you took on a great burden to help ensoulment, and the nagual ability to contaminate the first attention of the holder was one of them, through the merging abilities. Do not feel too guilty about it; just clear it through throat blasting, praying, and the To Do chart.

Also, the Obsession Remover Holy Beings are ready to help many of you. When they work on you, you would dowse as having your consciousness on the sixth mobius, as perhaps not having a cord, and would feel tired. You might have strange dreams. It may go on for days, as you clear your whole lifetime of imbedded people and you in other people. Visions of former associates may wash over you in dreams or when awake. Pray for this clearing to occur. Nighty night,

Genevieve

LETTER: Today's Update: FEBRUARY 2, 1994

Today's Update

It is important to check for body part auric ruptures right now. I found a spleen rupture on someone, a skin rupture on someone else, a blood rupture, several null zone contaminations and ruptures, cord above head ruptures, hand ruptures, earth cord ruptures, cecil tube rupture/contamination, fabric ruptures,... in short, check all auric layers and body organ/parts for both contaminations and ruptures. Also check traits.

I found a Blacker than Black Hell rupture/contamination on Mag. Many people and the dogs still seem to have little globs of face rupture material on them, in any body location. Ruptures and contaminations may be out or in.

Forr had an Old Lover Demons-In-Disc contamination upon Li. Forr's sister, had a split Earth cord contamination on him. There was Old Nagual Mind Residue contaminating some of you.

There is such a thing as More-"Cec"-Than-Cec Rupture or Contamination. All the retro stuff can be quantitative and qualitative in measurement. For instance, More-Leg-Than-Leg Rupture. This implies a more complex geometric form, but in a similar frequency as the leg location. Therefore, you could have a More-Spleen-than-Spleen Rupture, for instance. I might be able to pretty this up tomorrow, but you get my drift.

I will be starting the next book tomorrow. It will be in three sections. The first section will be explanations of the teachings of Jesus, as recorded in the Bible, but the inner meanings. The second section will be his teachings to his disciples, which were not recorded. The third section will be teachings for this age, as revelation. Nob and (T3) have been preparing my attic room to write in, so I can fully isolate myself, while working. It will probably take a month.

All of you have improved in your Law scores, I am happy to say. I must not waste time in rechecking; there is much to do on the work writing. However, you should be able to check yourselves. I am satisfied that the different statements revealed weaknesses to you that you can correct. We are moving into a new phase of our work, and I need all of you to be impeccable. I must expect you to have learned the lessons presented thus far. If you have not learned them, then I must not hammer a bent nail. It is in your lap now, to learn on your own, the lessons presented.

I look forward to the next month of holy work, and since I have a private little room, perhaps Juanito can visit me, and sit in the sunshine on a chair in the window dormer. I will be reclusive mostly from the group, but (T3) will keep you in touch, and I will write any problems I see cropping up.

I need all of you to help Aur with Amber Press. The Law book is out of my hands now. It is a good book, and she is running off three hundred perfect bound books with laminate covers this week, which is using all the money we have to start Amber Press. Many of these books will go to teachers, who might integrate the teachings into helping humanity. Some will be sent gratis to distributors, in hope of finding a major outlet. It is expensive, but if we have a lead book, we can bind the others ourselves and send them out by mail order. We must have one book in the main stores to do so. Please pray about this project; the Earth is in such disarray that we must move quickly, or the newly ensouled will lose their souls.

Love,

Genevieve

Note Continued:

Here is a recap of yesterday's and today's latest and greatest checklist. Hate Law Issues are ripe for clearing now out of all parts of the anatomy, so there is an extensive check list with lots of examples.

Yesterday's

Fill in ... with Auric Layers...Traits...Body Parts/Organs...etc.

i.e.: Spleen...Skin...Blood...Null Zones...Cord Above Head...Hand...Earth Cord...Cec Tube...Fabric...Etc.

Also check this for Names of people

Name toxicity, up to 20 levels of complexity, these are webs through people and cause planetary disorders. e.g., On the 2nd level of complexity, what is my level of toxicity of Aur? Check all students, ex-students, family members, associates, etc.

Chart: Today's Problem List and 360° Scale Questions

Today's List:

Hate Law Tubes...Seeds...Windows –

Check: On Law Clock & on each Law individually

On Months...Planets...every Body Part

You should have the body parts charts with the larger typeface and check each word for Hate Law.

Examples of these and others are:

Hate Law blood

Hate Law bad breath

Hate Law waters

Hate Law substances (semen, sex)

Hate Law lymph fluid

Hate Law cowlick

Hate Law head hair swirl

Hate Law fingernails

Hate Law demons

Hate Law cellulite

Hate Law nose hairs

Hate Law glitches

Hate Law urine

Hate Law flatus

Hate Law skin

Hate Law warts

Hate Law moles

Hate Law African connection

Hate Law snot

Hate Law echoes

Hate Law element communications

Hate Law South Pole connection

Hate Law evil creative center (you get the idea)

On the 360° scale:

- 1) Where do I have renegade energy to past self?
- 2) Where do I have someone's renegade loop to past self of them, me, or anyone else?
- 3) Where do I have renegade energy to other people, my own past, or to false ideas?
- 4) Where do I have fantasy/sucker world renegade connections out or in?
- 5) Where do I have homo/lesbian loops/renegade links?
- 6) Where do I have future visualization renegade desire links?
- 7) Check each Law for renegade links or loops (direct or indirect) on body parts and 360° scale locations.
- 8) There seems to be a lot on skin, sexual parts, old lovers, romantic fantasy, hate, opposite sex, same sex links.

LETTERS: Renegade Reconstruction of Old Self - FEBRUARY 3-4, 1994

NOTE February 3:

Renegade Reconstruction of Old Self

I couldn't resist wondering why some of you were having such a time with one or more of the Law scores. I found that many of you have woven webs of desire substance into your old selves and old associates, and sometimes through each other, until you formed a new you that I will call a "Renegade" Soul Type Deviation, or Type 5.

The web is formed using the soul powers of a high level soul, but for ill use. Circular thinking or desires for things to be different, or longing for someone in the past, seem to be the greatest weaknesses that create a renegade type. The absolute worst desire/egoic longing is for romantic or sexual liaison with a same sex partner, or a recalled and refueled memory of some brief homosexual interlude from the past. Second to that is romantic desire or fond memory refueling directed at a zombie or Type 4. Merging with someone who hates one or more Laws will also create renegade lines.

Every single one of these renegade lines and loops were created in the last month. Some of them feed through other students, and cause belly aches and so forth. Some of them formed because of a deep desire, against free will, for some zombie to be alright and get a soul. Some of you still want to "see the God in everyone," even those people who despise Law and everything holy. In creating a sucker vision bereft of Truth, you develop a renegade distortion to your own soul, and pry it to a tensely torqued position that is anti-Law.

The extent of your romanticism, wishful thinking, recalled love affairs, and hatred for authority can be measured on a 360 degree circle representing the completion of restoration of your old self. If you were new, in the Now of your saint status, you would be at zero on the reconstruction of old self scale. If you complete the circle, you will lose your soul, and fall into the pile of webs woven by your desires and egoic fantasies that lead you down a path away from Truth. The pile of webs and lies will feel soft, almost like a bed of feathers, since you would struggle no more with desire for alignment with God. You would feel free of the pressure of sainthood, and perhaps relieved to not have to deal with the difficult task of self-purification. Despite the comfort of soul annihilation, I entreat you to persevere on the straight and narrow path of Truth and self-control.

Anyone who indulges in circular or wishful thinking will merely weave new webs, should these be removed. Hate and irritability quickly cause one to spit out webs.

I am going to give you scores, as painful as they are, in hope that you can sever these ties and stop making more of them, especially the ties to your old self. You are creating yourself in the image of your desires, and making a miserable specimen of a human in the process.

Please go through To Do charts and pray for healing, with great humility, of all desire to create your own reality of self, bereft of divine Plan. Also, check all parts of self for other people's renegade loops and webs and seeds spinning through you, contaminating you and linking you to disorder.

I will help you, as time permits. (Scores not currently available) Genevieve 2-3-94

NOTE February 4:

There are echoes of our old selves showing up for clearing.

Many of these seem like imprints in the sand of our brains. A comprehensive list will follow.

Check For Old Self Demons in the waters of the body, air, lymph, blood, etc.

For Other People Demons in the body parts as well.

For Demon Shadow and Echo Self Demons which block communication with Holy Beings.

Skin Screamers are desire globules.

Blocks can be egoics, demons, clones, etc.

Spine Tune Shape Blocks are related to the trait sounds being associated with the wrong body parts.

Each trait has a correct body part or spine association.

All Retro Traits are particularly bad for you and should be removed.

Monadic blocks can be clones, demons, etc. Brain Mental Shadow Blocks are impressions of thoughts.

We should have a clean sheet, like on the child's toy that you can write on and then lift the top sheet and remove the writing (impressions).

Trait Desire Shadow Vampires all have death frequencies.

There is something called Phantom Living Possession. The person who wants to possess another is like a phantom on the person being possessed. This relates to old desires from another person.

There is a different spinal scale that measures the purity of the spinal substance.

Check: For the number of blocks. You may dowse as having a high Gold Name percentage, but it could be:

Gold Name Suckers. They often have a desire link.

The 2nd and 3rd mobius Thread to Creation will tend to dowse as an Earth cord now.

Check for vampires on this cord.

There are also Nagual Obsession Babies from former naguals.

In general, check: For the quantity of the disorder and go to the TO DO charts.

E.g., “How many skin screamers do I have?”

CHECK:

Old Self Demons

Demon Shadows

Holy Being Echo Self Communication Blocks

Nerve Catalysts Power Blocks

Monadic Blocks

Nerve Communication Blocks

Old Self Lichen Shadow Demons

Fabric Contamination Shadows

Spine Substance Purity Blocks

Old Self Genetic/Blood Shadows

Finger Aura Clones

LETTER: Piscean vs. Aquarian Age: Defining Characteristics -FEBRUARY 5, 1994

DAY one: ...You are too worried. You will know the words. It will get easier. Face north to align, every day. Start with third section. The book will be "The Path to Heaven." 28,000 units of alignment with the individual consciousness of Jesus would be necessary to write. Call them "Jesus units." The echo "downloads" to the brain the correct wording. Call in Crystal Transmuters and then the Holy Spirit, to fill null zones (sic). (Notes are as found. -Editor)

Part three: The age of the air has begun. On the physical plane, many scientific achievements relating to air have become ever more sophisticated. Wireless communication systems, sophisticated computerized jets, and telescopes that see into space are just samples of ever increasing air-related scientific wonders. Air is more than just a combination of gases: it is a spiritual trait, of which such scientific achievements are the lowest part.

It is the duty of the Aquarian Saint to carry the water trait of the Piscean age within his vessel. The devotion of the water age must not be a forgotten trait, or this age will die of thirst for righteousness. However, the water trait must be carried lightly, as though it were a mist upon the moors, through which one walks, or dew upon the honeysuckle, in which one lightly touches to the tongue.

The water of divinity cannot be carried in a graven vessel, be it book or picture, although remembrances of such holiness do linger upon such materializations. Rather, the form of man must hold within its vapors the very essence of the Christ water, if man is to be a saint.

The path to sainthood is different for the age of air than it was for the age of water, by the very nature of the Law of Season. All Laws are in operation in all seasons, but some of them are in focus during the air age, while others are less in focus. By understanding which Laws apply most strongly to a season, it is possible to align more readily with such Laws, and reduce spiritual discomfort.

During the water age, saints were murdered by the haters of Law through the spilling of blood. Saints of this age will be defiled through slander, because the focus of this age is on the spoken and written word. Through slander, they will lose all that is considered important to the common man. They will lose homes, jobs, friends, public esteem, money, family, and may be locked up in jails or mental wards, due to the destructive influence of clever speech.

In earlier times, a person filled with hatred for a holy person would attempt to physically kill him. Now, the tendency will be to slowly torture holy people through lies and schemes intended to cause a loss of freedom. The tendency to murder is still present, but the tendency to defile is even greater.

Just as it was during the Inquisition, there will be witch hunts designed to track down and destroy saints. Many organizations founded by fundamentalist Christians will use computer networks to spread unfounded rumors about so-called "cults", and anyone suspected of being in such a cult will be in danger of losing all that he owns, and having his children put in juvenile group homes. Family members will spend huge amounts of money to have saints declared insane, and psychiatrists will sedate them with mind-altering drugs against their will.

Avowed satanists and paganists will not be bothered. Animal sacrifice, the use of ritual drugs, and worship of demons will be tolerated. What will not be tolerated is a gnostic Christian.

It is important that all aspiring saints be aware of the price they may have to pay, should their spiritual beliefs be brought under public scrutiny. The more powerful they become, the more they will be hated. Aspiring saints must be very cautious when dealing with other people, and must not reveal too much to the uninitiated person who has poor speech.

Just as slanderous words will be the suffering of the saint, holy words will be the salvation of the saint. No longer must holy books be written by hand. Although computers will be used to defile, they can also be used to prepare holy teaching materials. By using computers to neutralize the effects of slander, the spiritual scientist wisely uses the Law of Division.

Books are more appropriate during this age of air than the spoken word, because of the tendency for ignorant people to debate a teacher. It is a waste of breath to debate someone who already has made up his mind as to the proper answer. Given the problems of the age, it is important to not waste energy with senseless verbal gymnastics. Anyone who does not like to read books is unlikely to be a candidate for higher studies of spiritual science. The written word is read by the seeker as though it were spoken, and therefore books are congruent during the age of air.

Music, movies and television shows can greatly disorder the auric bodies of aspiring saints, because the age of air brings with it a sensitivity to waveforms. This sensitivity must not be dulled into submission, but must be refined, lest the seeker fail to sense the presence of holiness. The increasing refinement brings with it a sense of pain, in many cases. The auric cocoon begins to respond to electrical loops, weather changes, and even clothing patterns. Bringing simplicity to the patterns of lower life, and reducing senseless human interaction, are wise decisions during the stages of refinement.

Thoughts, which are heard within the thinker's mind as spoken words, are becoming ever more palpable. They have the same effect upon people as the spoken word, and so must be controlled by the serious student.

Emotions can now fly through the air and do great damage if they are not controlled.

LETTER: Six Etheric Cranial Nerves -FEBRUARY 6, 1994

Six Etheric Cranial Nerves

More than erasing the past, we are changing our cellular resonance with the past. These are ways to further refine the alignment of your old name/self with your current name/self.

In order of importance, use this method to merge each of the 18 cranial nerves (one at a time), each major body organ, each auric layer, and then each year (age) of your life, starting with the present. (e.g., merge current name/self at age 40 with former name/self at age 40)

You could think of each year of your life like the rings of a tree, with birth in the center. You want to merge each circle with your new self/name.

First, pull your current name to less than 5° on the 360° scale. Clear all blocks to this level of alignment. Then take your birth name and remove all blocks to alignment with 5° or less on it. Then close your eyes and hold your hands apart from each other. Hold your current self/name in your right hand and your former self/name in your left. Will that the two merge, while moving your hands toward each other. They will trace strange patterns as the two move together, one may move up or down. When they touch, pray to the Holy Powers to merge them (as they relate to the aspect you are merging - cranial nerve, body organ, auric layer, or year (age) of life). There may be blocks to the merging of the whole identity that have to be cleared as you are willing these together.

THE SIX ETHERIC CRANIAL NERVES:

Chart: Cranial Nerves including the Six Etheric

CLASS NOTES: FEBRUARY 6, 1994

Charts: Law Clock; "Condition" and Traits

A lot of ties to old self coming out. If it is a tissue resonance with old self, pray to the Tissue Changer to come and change the resonance so that you can be new. It is interesting, even if you resonate with the past self, if on the renegade scale it is not a high score, the past would have changed (sic). T2 can see some students have 50 ties, yet the old name on the renegade scale is better, which means the past is folding, which is a positive sign. Check on the Law clock or 360 degrees (on where you are and) where you would be. If at 360°, a person would have gone completely back to the old identification. If you are 30-50° degrees, it is not great, but is ok, anything beyond that is identifying with the way you used to be, with an old job, i.e. careers which are old enticements, as they bind you to the earth.

For example, if you would get up in the morning and would (remember) dressing as a nurse, (and that was the old self), you (remember that you) felt happy, knew what you were doing, with a handle on life, people liked your work, and people thought that what you did was good. For example, teaching nursing, physical therapy or any job you love, interacting with people, working in a service profession, or working to use your brains to figure out a problem (is a healthy occupation). To figure something difficult in construction; there is something so clean (with such work), to go to a desk and use systems to solve problems, and though one may be exhausted, one would feel good after a long day of work, then one might turn on a movie and chill out, and have a life cleanly compartmentalized.

The life of a saint is a 24 hours a day job, and is not like the above. One may be painting a wall, and get shaky and realize you have skin screamers on, and have to stop to clear. Or suddenly one gets overwhelmingly sleepy and finds the holy beings are coming in the mouth.

Check: Each Cranial Nerve one at a time on the Condition Charts. It would help to have drawings of the cranial nerves and etheric cranial nerves. T2 has been clearing us of ensoulment residue.

Check "Years" Chart to dowse old identity (or dowse the year on the 0-100 Charts) especially old work or companions, because they could be linked with anything.

Law conflicts could show up on the eye charts (Iridology).

There is a correlation with circumference with various parts of body with law clock, i.e. the vagina, and the penis.

Do: Think of the mouth, as all things are in a circumference;

If you thought of the snot canal as 0 degrees, 360° is the left side (of nose), and the right side is 0°,

So if you get a herpes on the same part of the mouth, make the mouth like a circle and Dowse: Hate Law Substance. You can dowse on the mouth.

Every body part that has a circumference has a key part that would be considered the snot canal.

Since the laws impact each other, dowse the laws rather than look at charts, as there may be a law within a law.

The root may be different, or across the chart (sic). Dowse the Law with any mouth problem, eye lesion, etc.

Example: Think about the torso and belly button being 0 degrees.

If you have a problem, one could imagine a cross cut of the law clock (sic).

T2 is finding a lot on the Citrine level. (See Traits Chart) ►

This morning T2 found a lot of Evil Eye from the past coming out of us, it was more like threads than substance. T2 found Nagual Trait Demons, during ensoulment with nagual substance, demons along trait lines. Check for: Breath Demons coming back in for a landing, and Sex Substance demons. There are still a lot of Water and Lymphatic Demons Fabric Shadows.

A lot of this is due to the pressure of ensoulment, the Thread to Creation on the Mobius, now dowses as Earth Cord.

And when you rupture that, you will dowses as Earth Cord Rupture, vs. Thread to Creation Rupture.

During the night T2 and T3 did repair work, as ensoulment and nagual demons, caused auric shock and severing of Threads To Creation.

Check: For Death Frequencies.

If you find yourself depressed, with circular thinking or a fatalistic (attitude), suspect ties to the old renegade self, that you are feeding the renegade aspect, and trying to go back to a previous level of development when you did not know law or understand the virtues. Because you feel the burden of humanity on the shoulders, you may retreat to what was known to be safe in the past. This happens to all of us, just recognize it. If you are not thinking anything negative, especially about this work; if you are aligned with souls as a saint and a warrior, and not your old self, you will be truly optimistic. A saint is a warrior and just does his best, and joy is in impeccability of the warrior, and (a saint is) not concerned too much with the outcome of situations, but whether one is impeccable in one's performance as a saint, and in knowing the Laws and Virtues.

Know if you align truly with the plan of God, that you have complete power and you have nothing to fear, compare, or nothing can stop you if you truly align with God and that you have no true opponents. It may appear to be opponents because one is not perfectly aligned with the synergy of the group (sic). It may appear that helping humanity is impossible. If aligned with the saint soul, it is impossible to be depressed.

Just remember that, and it doesn't mean you won't expect to occasionally long for a different time, just don't indulge in it. It could be easy to not know about all this work, and have dinner with mom and pop, and watch a ball game, which is a death to a saint. But then this (ball game and dinner) is to retreat to death, the warrior gets weary, and it is a form of death, but you will view it as pleasant. If you find (yourself doing) this, chuckle and say, "Well, I am aligning with renegade vs. Law." Law is ever forward and (involves) change, unknown territory, and struggle against all odds.

In a war time flight pattern, if you broke off from the General and went off to some Hawaiian paradise to be with the natives, you would be a renegade from the troops and the general. It is the same with fantasy worlds, indulging and going to the past. Those become AWOL from duty as holy warriors. It is like falling asleep in the snow. For some people have a vulnerability to do this, and with merging will fall into this more readily, so what do you do? Change the music, and movies, because some of these will throw you into AWOL much faster. If you find yourself going AWOL, turn off the movie, do something different by arranging patterns. Move furniture around.

For example, if you have a (renegade) thought once or twice, it is ok, and if more, then disintegrate it. These are the shadows found on the past self, and of other people; they are impressions on the sands of the brain. We must shake the sand pattern up as changing the patterns changes the foot prints. Realize you can never go back because once you have crossed the line of the saint into a path of power and glory; you would never be able to adjust (to the old life).

Why do you think the people who have left hate us so much? Because they went back, and found they couldn't go back, and that they could not be the same. Why do the ex-students still live in Guthrie, Oklahoma though they hate the town? One used to live in a million dollar house in Malibu, and now lives in shit in a flood plain in Guthrie. Why not leave? Why is there so much energy put into hating and trying to destroy? Because when they left the work, they could not go back to a normal life, they had crossed the line. (One person) tried to go back to scouting and a glamorous style and found he couldn't do it anymore because he was changed, and it made him so mad he hates. Once the eyes are open, you can try to shut them, but you will be aware of spiritual phenomenon for the rest of your days, but be a ship without a rudder. By defying, he had no one to lead him safely through the water, so he lives a life of depravity and psychotic fears, because he is still sensitive to spiritual phenomenon, once the chakras are open, they are open.

Why would another student be so hate filled and agitated and lying? Because this one cannot go back either, though (people) think they can. Many have left the teaching; T1 taught thousands of people, with up to 300 regulars, and now it is down to 25. So you can see it is a very difficult path, and so many have cursed her. A psychiatrist in New York City said T1 possessed him because he would see spirits, and he didn't realize she had opened the eyes, he didn't know the difference. You can't go back, and thank heaven we can't, as we would be no different than road kill on the side of the road that dies as stupid as they were born.

A new octave because of the body changing (sic); it is like different levels of teaching that provoke different changes in layers of beingness. For example in order to write (Advanced Esoteric Dowsing Book I) book, T2 realized she can't take tequila or gin, and then she realized she can't ever have it again. It is a shield that she is giving up, as she won't need it. The discomfort can be transmuted in a different way. It is good to have shields in right season and to give them up in season. For example, T3 will not desire the shield soon, and neither will we in a few months as it wouldn't benefit us, we would be different. During the transition, don't give up shields too soon; they give a purpose, like the gin for the ensoulment suffering. Returning sparks from possessed people, was most excruciating for T2---so we have something to cut the pain enough to finish the job. Accept the shields in the right season.

Everything happens within season, within 6-7 months, probably, blessed wine will be much better for all of us, as fermented products will continue to be beneficial, Guinness and wine, but not herbal mixtures. (However, they) may come back. Chihuahuas are always soothing, they are so loving and easy to care for and they don't cost much to feed. With the type of work we are in, it is hard to be close to many people. To physically cuddle a Chihuahua has a soothing aspect to it.

"Ir" uses shields very well. As long as a shield works, use it. Just enjoying something is not a shield, a shield soothes, dramatically soothes. Movies may not soothe you spiritually anymore, but you may still enjoy them. Then it is not a shield, but a pleasure. Do not lose them too soon, just be aware what are shields and what aren't.

Check your new and old name. Ideally the old name should look perfect because the past is folding. This has to be checked from a male and female perspective.

New self: If the old self scale is only 30° on 360°, then it is folding, and you will eventually get up to 5° or 10°. When you get a high score, then it is still a lot of tissue resonance with the old self, which is separating your physical life and spiritual. You want both scores to be high (close to 0°) as you want the past to be gone. We are changing the past, it is a personal alchemy. If the past is perfect, then we won't have to worry about falling back, because if you fall back, you won't be hurt. A lot (of this reflects) sins of father. You will have more tissue work to do, which includes liquid and lymph with Law blocks on the Law clock on each layer of the law clock. Look for where the cells are still resonating and Do: try to will the old name to resonate with holiness as well as the new name.

Warts and things which are connections to the past: think of the renegade scale; if you had a destination across the desert with the General and the destination was to get to 5 degrees on the scale, and say you were flying airplanes, and decided to make your own choice; one who starts flying to 240° will end up in a different place. We want to align so all the airplanes fly to the same location, instead of going berserk, out of fuel, with no one to help them.

As the doctor burns off the moles, say a little prayer. When pulling out a mole, it is like unraveling a sweater. Memories would wash over one student as he pulled. Try to do what you can as far as pulling energies out of them.

◀ When working on the Law Resonation score,

Charts: Law Clock; Advanced Aura Layers

Check: all Auric Layers on two auric charts and Body Parts Charts (next page) for Law blocks using the multi ring diagram to see where they are located as far as how close to center and direction on 360° scale on both names.

Ask: What degree the old self is, and to clean up to new self. Particularly anytime you are not your old self, ask that your past change, so that there would be no danger to fall back, if it is the same (sic). You only fall back on something if it is ---.

Everyone has been working hard on the new self and been ignoring the old self, and now we want to change the past. It is a natural progression, to pull the old self up; we need the new self somewhere. This week's agenda is to align the old self to align with Law.

Chart: Body Parts

If you have new and old selves within about 15 degrees you can watch any movie and won't have a problem. T2 is lucky, being formless, though there is a gross vibratory frequency that bothers her with certain movies, that without anything really to make her feel bad, she doesn't feel bad with anything anymore.

It has to do with getting the layers, liquid, blood, lymph, bone, all layers of aura resonating with the present self-identity which is a holy saint self. Then you won't be attracted to the old self. And if you are in the old, it will be like the new; erasing the past.

Example: T2 can recite something from T1's (old name) past, and it is like reviewing a book and she has absolutely no attachment to it, without being depressed, as if it were some amusing thing to read, because it is dead to her. T2 wants us to be there, not be so formless that you run into spiritual problems, but to be new. It is born again. In one essence we have been born again in the spiritual---now be born again in bodies. T2 has to do everything that she teaches us to do.

It is just since ensoulment ended that T2 reaped no benefit from skullcap as her actual cells have shifted to a different resonance. This is why in the Carlos Castaneda books, they described how the seer and the nagual party would hide from their families, because it took many years to truly recapitulate--like (in the books) being put for 5 years in a crate. We have speeded up the process of recapitulation, but if you are around relatives and your spiritual self is 20° and the physical is 340°, then when you are around a relative and talking about childhood, it will pull the spiritual to the physical. One who has truly recapitulated could see (the relatives and personal past) without being pulled back. Now T2 could see her siblings, but there is no reason to and it is a waste of time; which sounds cold blooded in the eyes of the world. There are reasons to talk to relatives to keep them calmed down, (but) then check to see your resonance.

Remember the renegade scale, the higher you go in spiritual science, the more danger (there is) to becoming a renegade, as you gain in power. With Jesus on the mountain, Satan said to “Turn this rock into bread” (there are) temptations, and you will be given all of this. You should keep these scales in mind, and don’t get lost in all the paperwork, because the scales are vital. It would be good for a chart to be made with scales and definitions. It would help the absentee students to check the renegade scale morning and night.

In the case of T1, she had a very strong alignment with holiness, but the physical body had contamination of sins of the father and from living in this world. But she identified with holiness and was able to function in a holy manner. But we have reached a time and a point of power, where we need to align our bodies as well. She worked on it nonstop. We don't align ourselves with Epsom salts, but (we must) be willing, intending, and living Law, by having divine intelligence and wisdom and knowing how to pull our alignment on various layers to align with law.

The bread/material aspects of our lives have to be there, but we transmute them to be holy and not into silver coins but into the blessed bread, like in the last supper. All things that are touched should be holy--our food, drinks, houses and blood, must have the holy emanation. In doing that we can bridge the gap of the spiritual and physical and not be torn asunder as the spiritual body gets ever more refined and the physical the same. The cords snap because of the disparity of the spiritual and physical. Do you ever feel the itch gland is like a thermometer bulb, and the top of the head gets itchy when it reaches the top (of the bulb)?

The old self goes to the 6th Mobius ▲ as well. It is very dangerous to be floating over the mobius, and then T2 and T3 have to repair the thread to creation. (Mobius Chart in Appendix) If the holy beings take you to the 6th mobius, they will take you back and repair the threads. If you start feeling suddenly bad, check where you are on the Mobius Chart. Sometimes it is a lot of crap coming through, and it can make you go berserk.

You can think you are tired in the morning, but you may be floating around or over the mobius, and is usually demons from nagual ensoulment. Remember to check old name and new name, and it could be that one's aura is floating around. You should be on (either) one or six mobius.

With "Mobius floating"

Do: Pull yourself back by finding where you are

On the Nerve Communication Substance Blocks,

Or Nerve Catalyst Power Block, and on this scale 360° is ideal maximum power.

Find where you are and pray to get it healed and lined up OR:

- 1) Check 360° scale for Nerve Catalyst Power: 350° is being real good.
 - 2) Blocks: if your power reading is only at 20°, for example, zap on the circle until get to at least 280°.
 - 3) Envision a spiral starting at the top, moving to the left, down to the right, toward the center, until you feel something snap into place.
 - 4) Check: Frequency and Complexity (see chart top right corner) to get back to mobius one, to balance you out.
 - 5) Check to see if you are smack in the center of the mobius one, that way you can do it without the holy beings doing it.
- We have to function like holy beings, and this is how they would do it for us.

Problems with writing the book, is that T2 feels all the waves of demons as she has to stop and work on it. If you feel them coming in, Periodically check for Demons of :

Air...Lymph...Water...Sex...Eye...Breath...Traits...Auric Layers.

Dove implies new self, baptism of Christ, and lighting on Jesus as his new self. With shifting of self, go with what is appropriate, i.e. for T2 bean soup is perfect.

Today the absentees need to align the old body, and check for nagual demons, and then T2 won't have to stop writing.

DOWSING NOTES by “Aur”: FEBRUARY 6, 1994

In order to align completely with Law, we must pull our tissue resonation as near as possible to zero on the 360° scale. Each person should check their current and old self for renegade resonation on the Law clock scale (360°). Be sure to check both yin and yang or left and right. T2 and T3 checked all of the students today on their current and former self Renegade levels. The closer to zero, the more aligned one is with Law. By pulling the resonation of our former selves to alignment with Law, we are changing the past. If we change the past to congruence with Law, then we have nothing to fall back to.

Check on each auric layer and the body parts on the Law clock (with multiple rings) for contaminations. Checking on the Law clock will determine how close to center you are and the direction on the 360° scale. Check for ties to old self. Ask that your old self be changed. This is what being born again means: to be born again in both the physical and spiritual. Also dowse the years of your life for Law clock blocks of your old name/self. Check a year at a time, starting with gestation/conception.

LESSON: Enoulment & Birth Loops -FEBRUARY 7, 1994

Charts: Enoulment Loop/Naval Loop Illustrations

There are two connections that have not been previously identified. One is called the Enoulment Loop. This exists on Mobius One and connects to Mobius Two. It extends from the center of Mobius One to the top of the auric cocoon. The other is called the Birth Loop and extends from the naval to the auric cocoon.

You should pull each of these together as in yesterday's lesson. Will your new self/name and old self/name into alignment with each other on the Enoulment Loop and on the Birth Loop. Then look for sexual/genetic and enoulment contamination on the thread of each loop. Once you have removed the contamination, check for erosion of the thread and repair that. You can think of the thread as a straight line and measure it one degree at a time from one to one hundred. The birth loop connection is related to astrological positioning at birth and you can find phantoms, etc. on it. You will tend to find enoulment nagual demons on the enoulment loop.

The naval point on the auric cocoon can be anywhere on the 360° circle. The closer you are to zero reflects alignment with Law. This point can be moved from its birth position related to decisions to align with Law. This position is easier to move at the summer and winter solstices. To move it out of these seasons requires nagual power. Today T3 will attempt to pull each student into alignment. You must release or unclamp your hold on the point through prayer, will, and intention. The major push for enoulment will end in 24 hours. So the ability to repair your own soul will be at its greatest point. After that, it will be more difficult. If you want T3's help, you must do this today.

USE ALSO CHARTS: Auric Layers 1, 2; Condition Charts; Cranial Nerves (18)

Charts: Cranial Nerves; Months; Condition; Planets

Do: We need to take layers of ensoulment (residue) off by the months and years on the Condition Charts and Look for Open Windows.

One of the first things to do each morning is check the months and then the planets on the condition charts, as you will find a ton of ensoulment there. We have serious problems with leaks from so many sounds in the room.

Tissue Astrological Point: T2 drew eyes, nose, navel, feet, and butt crack on an egg. First T2 will talk about the Navel Point: this has to do with the tissue alignment.

All of you try to pull old and new name together as if another etheric egg is next to you. Try to remove anything in the way of merging names i.e. putting (a student's) old name and new name together and think of the thread to the navel.

Then check: "Where on the auric egg is it connected to the outside of the aura like an assemblage point?"

It has to do with tissue resonance.

Normally, in the average person, this has to do with the birth astrological sign's point location on auric cocoon.

But as you advance, the point at certain times of year can slide to a new position relative to the tissue resonance;

Or to a worse position with sexual contamination.

What is a worse position? Down, backwards, or behind.

Say if the navel has a cord connected to the feet, it is a bad sign,

If it is attached to the bottom, it is going away from the crown chakra, and is the worst position.

You have a spot at birth and a spot with new self, and they should be merged.

Gradually, work it until it gets to the top of the head, slightly to the right.

On a 360° scale you want it to be 0° to 10° degrees.

But if you are looking at it from an egg shape and not a circle from this perspective, where is 355°? It is down below, not the left side of head. It is an ovoid shape and not a flat two dimensions. The worst deviation would be extended from the bottom, as one looks at a geometric shape, and is not a flat circle. So when you pull the old and new together...

Then ask: "Where is the navel point?"

Example: One student's was on the abdomen.

Do: Check yin and yang, as they may be pulled in different positions. Yang was a little out of the egg in this case.
What to do is to ask for the holy powers to be allowed to unclamp the position
And will it up to the top of the egg.

The navel point tends to shift points with blocks and planetary initiations associated with the whole auric cocoon,
And the assemblage point on the navel would be a blind spot, a sun spot in your globe;
So we want to close the blind spots.

Today is a crucial day to do that. If you need soul repair work, you have to do this. This is a time to try to shove it, though it would be easier during solstice, we can repair it more readily before ensoulment shuts.

Do: Look at the navel line after it has moved to the top.
Think of it as a straight line divided in a hundred increments, with contamination, injuries etc. and clear,
Or the point will fall out of position. Yin and yang positions can be different.
We have to clear this one point by one point to 100, or you may slide off position.

Examples: We could use the top of the chart and move our awareness across the chart for (finding) contamination
---Navel to top of head 1-100. This is tissue and genetic stuff, new and old.

The Navel Point (should be) on the auric cocoon, and the other spiritual point is a little higher on the head.

One student's navel was in the center of the egg which is a hell position, and is worse than down.

The navel was missing, turned inside out and in the core of being.

One person's navel had rotted off and had to be rebuilt.

Out of town students might try this when they are not here,

Do: You can find disorder on auric cocoon, by shrinking your emanation over an egg.

Ensoulment Line: If this has problems, you will get monadic leaks. This has a lot of clones, and death webs on it.

Check: The Condition Chart on each increment 1-100 for Ensoulment Loop.

This line is real important.

It is the connection between the egg and monad, in that the first one we did was the Tissue Astrological Point, and what we used to think of as the Earth Soul Cell; now we are looking at the connection between tissue and soul, between Mobius 1 and 2.

The dot in the center will probably correspond with the pineal,

With a halo dot around the head, which is not a circle but an egg above the head.

The soul is above the head, with a line from the head to the egg, and it should be in an optimal position on top of the egg.

If the connection is awry there, this may be where you have law conflicts, in the Realm of Intention.

The lower one is the Realm of Action.

The Eyes are the Eyes of the Soul above you.

Do: With major blocks, check to see if new and old are connected, and "How many vampires?" etc.

This is hard work because of so much disorder. It is very hard; it has to do with trying to pull people into line, and it means T2 and T3 have to eat the disorder. It takes a lot of will and power to pull these into alignment as you are looking at a lifetime of habit of being pulled in one spot, and now they are pulling it into a holy position, before ensoulment ends.

This you would measure from the center dot of Mobius one, and the outside of it as 100. The center of the yolk of an egg is 0 points, and then the little milky skin at the top is 100, and it is the Soul Identity Spot.

Asides: A little bit of red pepper in a Skullcap toddy would be very good. When we have spiritual shock, red pepper

And hot water is very good. You can add honey and it tastes good.

Out of town students can experience what is being done today as stress, even though they don't know about it.

A couple of times a day, check that the Brain...Cranial Nerves...Lymphatic...and Nervous System are together, as they may fall into a habit of resonation before you get them to hold in real tight. Especially if anything comes in the environment, they may split apart, and this is where the cords split.

Check: The Above Head Auric Layers Charts and

Ask: “Where is it that old and new Soul Identity Spots keep splitting apart?” and Check the planets, as well;

Use: The Sex Parts Chart, a lot (of contamination) is on the feet, they are the first to go and the crotches.

You can take a Bell Shape Curve Diagram with the center as the joining spot.

Ask: “Where is my new self on this diagram as far as alignment?” then ask

For old self, and then will them to merge.

Ask also for Cranial Nerves, and this method is easier.

Using an actual egg is nice as you can feel it kinesthetically, and it is more than two dimensional. If you have trouble dowsing, try the egg. T2 drew on her chart a tiny umbilicus of the Spiritual Loop and the Navel Loop, and then put: “Old/New Self”---“Off...Repair...Remove”, because the loops could be off of position, have contamination or not be aligned due to poor thoughts, and vicinity globules.

These are the two main lines to worry about, Lower and Higher Selves, with contamination of ensoulment.

The navel to the top of the head is tissue alignment with holiness, and

The pineal to the top of hologram above the head represents the soul alignment;

The acknowledgement of current soul status as saints vs. the old self.

Chart: Soul Toilet

If you think of old self, you will get an old soul resonance. If thinking of your old life, you will get a tissue resonance that will draw you to the Soul Toilet.

You need to hold them tight, you can be repaired readily now, but not for long, and ensoulment contamination will be less in a couple of days.

You must will and intend them together and hold tight for a couple of days. When ensoulment ends, you won't have so much to do to hold them unless you are indulgent in intention, or action.

The next two days are especially important. Be cool, reserved and collected. The end of ensoulment demons from all the sparks of ensoulment coming back are loaded down with crap. One will more likely go off the deep end during the next few days. Once that ends one should stabilize and it won't be so hard to hold consciousness. All sparks put out should have returned in the next three days. These have demons, etc. from karma, and we must destroy it as it comes back as is full of poison. All sparks bring back karma. If you have a lot of energy, if you wake up, ask "What other warrior needs help?" It is not personal karma, but ensoulment nagual demons with karmic residue.

Don't take it personally if you find someone's demons in the living room related to ensoulment, as they could return to any of us. They just come back to our party, and it does not matter whose spark created it, they will come back, we are in this together.

Think of the two diagrams, the lower mobius and the navel outer egg. That is where they tend to glob on those two lines. T2 and T3 got them pretty clean and they have been working on it for a couple of nights.

We had to do this and finish ensoulment before T2 could write.

Check often for Vampire lines into the higher parts. One person had 70 vampire lines in and he had to be cleared or he would have folded. T3 had 180.

The mental body seems to be falling apart.

DO: Take each cranial nerve and think of the Mental Aura Layer of that nerve.

I.e. think of the olfactory nerve on the mental body layer of aura.

Think of the new and old self---now pull them together.

This has egoic blocks to getting (pulled) together. It seems very important; and

Check: The Mental Body Aura of the Brain Cerebral Cortex...The Corpus Callosum...Skin...Intestines...Bones...Water in Body...

Air Right Foot & Left... Planets...Sucker or Pseudo Worlds...New or Old and:

Do: Destroy. Some are coming back in ensoulment, (with) Sucker World Globules.

Check: The Mental Aura Layer: New and Old...Between Cells...Liver Meridian...Kidney.

Do: Look for Masks...New/Old and destroy.

Check: The new spine and old spine of the mental aura, for Demons in Discs...any Spine Disorders...Fluid, etc.

CLASS NOTES: Review of New Method -FEBRUARY 8, 1994

NEW METHOD/REVIEW:

To check the alignment/togetherness of your old self/new self,

Do: Use your left hand for your old self and your right hand for your new self.
 Or you can dowse with a pendulum over the bell curve for alignment.
 Remove all contamination found and repair boundaries.
 Check the circumference and alignment of the penis or vagina with Zero Point for both old and new self.
 Check the major organs and body parts as well. In particular, check the *Intestines...Heart...Nose...Back of Legs...Uterus...Testicles...
 Ovaries...Epididymis...Feet...Pineal...Thymus...Tongue.*

Today it is important to align the:

Amino Acids

X & Y chromosomes (on females, the Y shadow)

Elements. Check elements in groups of 100,
 Example: 1 - 100, 101- 200, etc.

Charts: Elements; Amino Acids; Chromosomes

LESSON: The Difficulty of Truth -FEBRUARY 9, 1994

The Difficulty of Truth

The struggle to see clearly in the Now without fears or desires is part of the warrior path. As the process of ensoulment has unfolded, I have experienced the same surprises that you have experienced, and the same griefs.

Ensoulment, by and large, has ended. (T3) and I have been working around the clock to clear all of you, and help you to align with Law, so that you could not suffer any ill results from your participation in this grand project. I will now describe the mysteries of the soul types.

Type one soul types had a configuration of three rings. They were temporary soul types used to bring in soul sparks through the nagual process. Type two soul types had two rings. The upper ring was the ensoulment ring, which had an aspect of divine touch related to drawing holy beings to the Earth during the ensoulment process. They were used as intercessors of a distinct type. Type twos, as you know them, were also temporary types for the purpose of ensouling the Earth. Today the upper ring of type twos went to the New Heaven, which is a safer place.

Today there was a great shuffling around relating to soul configurations. What we have, in the past called type one or twos, are no more. Type one or twos will mean something else in the future. Rather, there are two basic soul types now on the face of the Earth: Individual New Earth Souls and Saturn group souls.

Type three soul type now refers to the trinity of the three fundamental Virtues, and is the core of the holy soul types. (T3) and I, for instance, have this core soul type, although we have other individual consciousnesses of higher orders, as well. Therefore, do not freak out if you dowse as a type three soul.

Many people on the Earth now have this individual type soul, and have holy being connections out of them, as well. To be a saint intercessor would now mean to have this type of soul, plus be so aligned that one can call holy beings.

The largest group of people now, though, on the Earth is the Saturn group types. These are clustered in levels of depravity, according to animal archetype.

It is very painful to see that the door is closed for the Saturn types, because they have refused to hear the knock of holiness upon their doors. My own (relative) is among them, once again. The price of vision is great.

I consider this war party a success, in that it contributed so greatly to ensoulment, and that so many warriors survived to retain an individual soul, in contrast to the Earth population. We now must look upon our task as one relating to the teaching of how to nurture an individual's immortal soul. In short, we must teach the Virtues and the Laws.

The primary reasons for people to lose individual souls included hated for one or more Laws, in particular Gender/Polarity and Hierarchy. Some people hated, and so were too dangerous to have desire substance. Some people, such as my (relative), failed to recognize Truth, and made light of the bearer of such Truth through ridiculing speech. To whom much is given, much is required.

In contrast, many mediocre people retain individual souls, if they have not yet had an opportunity to learn Law. Should they reject Truth, after it is offered, then they will also lose their souls. Souls are meant to carry higher consciousness; they are not meant to be vehicles for haters of Law.

Some people thought they had plenty of time to learn Law, and laughed when I urged them to "Keep their lamps trimmed, for the Lord comes as a thief in the night." They looked upon the lessons as just some mental procedure, and failed to take them to heart, and so lost interest or failed to realize the urgency.

This was the day of separating the wheat from the tares. It was a hard day. A warrior accepts his fate, though, and peers into Truth without (barely) flinching.

Now that it is over, I can quit nursing you along, and can go back to the writing. I need all of you to keep your sense of urgency, so that many people out there who have individual souls will be able to keep them. The New Earth soul types are our charges, and we must not waste time on the Saturn group souls. They have already rejected mercy.

I will probably be reclusive for the next month or so, getting the book ready. Pray for this holy work, morning and night, and pray for courage. (T3) and I pray for all of you, within the Law of Free Will, and are grateful for your assistance to the rest of humanity.

Blessings,
Genevieve

P.S. We will not have a general gathering during the next moon, due to the concentration needed for the next book, and the need for people to recover from the above shift.

LETTER:
FEBRUARY 9,
1994

Many of you are probably experiencing tiredness, muscle aches and pains and other flu-like symptoms.

These are due to the cellular changes occurring following major alignment of higher and lower auric bodies. It should improve by tomorrow. It's a good idea to rest today and avoid mental or emotional extremes. Avoid circular thinking and be sure that you do not have desire tendrils out to animals or people or to your past. There are not any particular physical remedies that will help this condition.

The key things to dowse for would be contamination or holes on the threads of the two loops (see yesterday's drawing). Also, check over the body parts and auric layers for any lower or higher misalignment. Remove vicinity egoics and desire substance. Other than that, don't dowse for long periods at a time. Just dowse for not more than an hour morning and night for the next couple of days, with brief identity and substance in and out checks during the day. (T3) has asked that the people who were scheduled to put stuff into the desire drawing stop doing so for the time being.

LESSON: The Day After the Division -FEBRUARY 10, 1994

The Day After the Division

Jesus warned the people that no one would know the time or day when the day (or days) of reckoning would occur. That is why he advised them to "keep their lamps trimmed." The reverberations from the monumental spiritual earthquake of yesterday continue to cause us all to tremble.

Even though we tremble while viewing the carnage, we must forever rest on the knowledge that there is, in fact, Law and Order in the universe. Our joy must be in the fact that now over a fourth of the human population of Earth has individual souls. Many people who have never heard these teachings, but are decent people, have souls now. The irony is that the people who have learned the most about Law were more likely to lose their souls, due to the Law of Use.

Yesterday a type of null zone developed between those people who chose a retro path of Saturn soul type, and those whose vision was upward to heaven. Each person below the null zone chose his path: you must not fall into sympathy, lest you trip and slide into Saturn yourself. Some of you have been leaking desire substance, as you perforate the null zone, longing for those people who have slipped downward into Saturn hells. If you continue to do this, you will be destroyed. You know better.

I know all of you are wondering how we can pull these people out of the pit of Saturn. That is not our concern. We did our best to keep them from choosing the pit, and they spit on our words. We must not look back, or we will crystallize into a pillar of salt, like Lot's wife. We must focus our gaze upon those people attempting to climb Jacob's Ladder, above the null zone.

Some of you will be indulgent, and say, "How could God be so cruel?" God is not cruel...man is lazy or defiant. The path to holiness has been steadily spelled out for all of you, in great detail. You have been given the awesome task of helping your fellow man, and participating in ensoulment. You have no more ensoulment residue, and you have been tidied up. Now you must be strong, and holy, and align with saints...not haters of Law.

The only way that you can help those who have drowned in a sea of disorder is by bringing the lifeboat of Law to the surface of the Earth spiritual waters. You cannot force someone to love Truth, or accept hierarchy, or anything else. They have free will to choose order or disorder.

It is impossible for those who have fallen under the waters of the null zone to dowse anything, because they are swimming with liars, and Truth is not to be found in such nether regions. Therefore, we must not waste our time trying to teach such people, because they will just dowse their own little fantasy personal realities. We must seek out those people with individual souls, and feed them, before they starve for lack of Truth. There are people, lots of them, on the Earth today who hunger for understanding of Virtues and Law. We must lead them to enlightenment, up the ladder to Sainthood. On the outer ring, they will have angels at their side, to guide and protect them. On that outer ring, saints ARE holy beings, and do not merely beg for mercy, but truly have mercy. Mercy is not the erasing of karma; it is the gift of Truth, which is the Light upon the path.

During this time of stabilization, keep your substance in to yourself. Do not rupture yourself weeping over those who have chosen a different path. Be truly merciful, by helping all of humanity, as a saint intercessor holy being. This is more than praying, but must include prayer. This means dedicating your life to helping those people who have individual souls to become saints. This means you use your time, your emotional energy, your resources, your very life blood (if need be) to help others understand what it means to be holy. In this way, you have given your life for others. That is the price of sainthood.

I cannot give you personal advice regarding family members; you must be holy enough to face those difficult problems with courage. Those of you who refuse to face truth will dowse wrongly about loved ones, and I am not going to rupture your balloon, because you would have made a free will decision to dowse a lie. I give you the attached chart, in the hope that you will learn when you are resonating with those who did not keep their lamps trimmed. Those below the null zone must be considered dead to you now, if you are to fulfill your soul task. If you are aligned with Law, it should be as though you cannot even see such people with your spiritual sight; it should be as though they have disappeared. You should not be able to be vampired by them, and you should not be able to receive substance from them. Only people with individual souls should be able to contaminate you now, unless you drip upon the lower regions with your desires.

This will greatly reduce your clearing time, unless you are full of holes, from your own weaknesses. You must struggle to hear the holy Name, even around great disorder. You must be able to walk through a sewer and keep your shoes clean.

You can do it.

LETTER: How to Check Yourself -FEBRUARY 10, 1994

How to Check Yourself

Use the four Quadrant Chart that lists Retro, Inverse, and so on relating to complexity and frequency.

Keep in your mind the idea that the straight lines dividing the quadrants would relate to the Null Zone between the Saturn Underworlds and the new Earth.

Check: The following list for disorders reflecting in the three quadrants of disorder or the lines depicting the Null Zone.

Do: Word it in your mind in some way that makes sense to you, such as "Where on this density/frequency chart is my primary consciousness?"
"Any secondary consciousness?"
"Any other consciousness?"

Desire substance upon other people will tend to reflect as a

Secondary Consciousness Point of Reference u

Upon the quadrant chart or null zone lines between the quadrants.

Check: For Primary and Secondary Consciousness locations

Body parts resonating in malefic quadrants or lines

All cranial nerves including etheric ones

All fingers including etheric ones (12)

Pay special attention to digestive tract and genitals (Sex Parts Chart)...and so on...

(See dowsing charts on previous pages)

Check: For Evil Creative Centers on the quadrants as well. Desire substance from someone who is obsessing about a Saturn soul type will reflect as evil creative centers upon the quadrants or lines.

Some people will have two holy consciousnesses, relating to specific holy beings. The key is that no consciousness should be in the bad areas or lines.

Realize that the Null Zone is like an astral world of rotting elementals, and it is very destructive to be pulled into such resonations, or to have bits of rotting soul arms yanking you into the Sea of Death. Having sex or imagining sex with someone aligned at the null zone level or below can be deadly to the spiritual bodies. For the next four days or so, null zone vampires will be a problem to contend with. Check both the picture body charts and the written words on the three ring new body parts charts (not currently available) for any resonance in the low quadrants or the null lines. Prayer will do you no good unless you align with forces above the null lines. This takes work now, but will get easier, if you are impeccable. We are watching over you, but must be reclusive right now.

Blessings,

Genevieve and (T3)

I will fax to Arkansas and Se, Aur, now.

CLASS NOTES: FEBRUARY 12, 1994

The key thing that each person needs to check for constantly is whether he or she has any substance out to Saturn types. Since the Passover, parts of us could be said to be rotting. These parts will dowse as various levels on the ring diagram that was sent the other day (with Saturn 1, 2, 3, etc.). If the part rotting dowses as being of a lower soul type than you are,

Do: You should speed the removal process by disintegrating it.

You should check on:

Body Parts...Sex Parts...Body Pictures...All 18 Cranial Nerves...Elements...Amino Acids...Genetics, etc.

On each level (Saturn 1, 2, 3, up to Saint and beyond).

There was extensive clearing done this morning and everyone in the group was cleared of the majority of these rotting substances. You should still check a layer at time for any remnants. So you would check for Saturn 1 level energy on the body parts chart (then on the other charts mentioned above). Then check for Saturn 2 level energy, then 3, and on out for each level.

For the next few days you should check where you have Saturn and “out of sight” energies.

When you get these, be sure to check whether you have substance out.

You must keep track of this at all times and pull it back or disintegrate it.

It is critical that you have no parts of yourself that dowse as Saturn or “out of sight”.

You can check this on the quadrant diagram as well. Your primary consciousness should be in the right quadrant. If it is on one of the lines, it is in the null zone below the surface of the Earth. If you have lines out to disordered people, they will pull you into the soul toilet. You also poison the group and its holy work. Everyone must be impeccable at this time and finish the transition. We should stabilize within the next two to three weeks.

There seem to be Vampire Seed Lines to those without souls and to animals. They can also be floating by. These cause the aura to be off-size. They are found primarily in the uterus and epididymis.

Under the null zone is a film called the Pluto Membrane. It is currently being broken down by the Destroyers and other Holy Beings. Once it is gone, the Saturn 5 layer will start to break down. This will continue with each layer until all of the Saturn layers are gone. Once these layers are gone, the null zone gap will be even wider between the individual souls and the group souls.

The Soul Toilet is folding, but the group-souled people would be considered to be below the “Ring Pass Not”. They would no longer be called Saturn types, but would be called “misusers of creative impulse”. Each has misused the creative impulse in some way, whether low or high. Some were in the generative fashion and others misused nagual powers. Still others misused creative powers through speech. The misuse of the creative impulse is the key, shared characteristic of those in the soul toilet.

It says in the Bible that all things can be forgiven except defilement of the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit has an aspect like the Tumbler referred to in Don Juan’s writings. Anyone who scorns the power of the Holy Spirit is devoured by it. The Soul Toilet is shutting and in the process of flushing. Its matter will be used to make up the matter of the New Earth.

CLASS NOTES: FEBRUARY 14, 1994

There are several things to clear relating to the fallen ones. The ones who dowsed as ghosts will begin to dowse as “Out of Sight” and you must check for connections you may have to them. These can dowse as:

Saint Webs...Out of Sight Genetic Webs...Out of Sight Name Resonations...Out of Sight Connections.

During this time of soul rot, do not eat food prepared by contaminated people. Bless it, transmute it and be very cautious. Out Of Sight Egoics are a weak elemental created by people who do not have individual souls. These should be destroyed. Some of you are creating demons (desire demons or elementals) of former students or family members who no longer have individual souls. The elemental demons dowse as vampires of that person's name (the soulless one) not of the creator, who has a name. You must take your creative powers seriously. You can create angels or demons. Demon creations can be traced to your own body parts as vampires. These can be self-created or may be created by another ensouled person. To find these demons and the egoics:

Check: The elements and genetic webs...Old Self... and New Self-Elemental Demons.

These are created from thinking of the past, of another ensouled person with longing, or an idea, animal, place or thing.

There is one other contamination that is very destructive. It could be called Hate Poison.

This is created by an ensouled person within his own system. Some of you may feel guilty at the loss of loved ones or others. In doing this, you are creating hate poison within yourself. Those who are ghosts now have chosen their own paths. We cannot resent their choices. We must be aloof and indifferent. Check for hate poison on the elements under your old and new names. It could be residual in the tissues from the past. It could also be indirect hate poison from having a tendril out to another who is creating hate poison in themselves. You can check for the name of a fallen one directly to see if you are creating hate poison. You should ask for “hate ‘other person's name’ poison” and check your level of toxicity. Then check for indirect hate poison on other student's names.

Check: On the elements for both direct and indirect hate poison.

On the body parts for the Correct Octave on a 1-20 Scale.

0	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20
---	---	---	---	---	---	---	---	---	---	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----

Dowse what it should be and what octave it is vibrating on now.

This gives you clues as to what to blast/clear.

Check for Rotting Christ Sparks from fallen ones.

Unknown Planet 1 is the New Earth and Unknown 2 is the New Moon.

Check for residuals of :

Evil Power Centers/Connections

Octaves of Body Parts (1-20)

Saint Webs Through Out Of Sight Connections

Fiber Cord Damage/Contamination

“Dance” Contaminations

Gaseous Desire Crystals

Out of Sight Connections

Body Parts on Quadrant Diagram

Itch Ruptures

Rotting Christ Sparks

On the Elements, check for:

Out of Sight Name Resonations

Malignant Web into Nagual Substance

Out of Sight Egoics

Hate Person Poisoning (Direct/Indirect)

Old Self/New Self Elemental Demons

Desire Demons/Elementals

Out of Sight Genetic Webs

METHODS TO CLEAR SELF WITHOUT CHARTS

- (1) Ghost Egoics: These are weak egoics that ghosts are able to create. They are like a gas that will fill the house, or surround you. Do: Will to remove.
- (2) Hate Poison: This is contamination usually from tendrils out to ghosts. Check Between cells/Will to remove.
- (3) Visualize a quadrant in the first in the right eye and then the left. Look at a room, or your body, or a body part, and will that red spots appear to represent disharmonies. Do: Destroy or repair
- (4) With your hand mark a center point in the air, with the center representing your correct level of frequency. Then ask “Where is my base chakra resonating?” If it is too low or too high, or off somewhere to the side, then destroy or repair until it hits the midline. Do this for Chakras...Cranial Nerves...Body Parts...Sexual Parts...Old And New Name.
- (5) Check the Fiber Cord for leaks or corrosion. Do: destroy or repair.
- (6) Check for Egoic/Desire Demons coming back. Will and destroy.
- (7) Old Nagual Spark Rot. Same as above.

LETTER and CHART LIST: FEBRUARY 15, 1994

NOTE:

The out of sight types can create a kind of elemental that is like a poisonous gas to the auras of those with individual souls. These can erode holes in your aura and cause leaks. They are created from a type of stinger that is buried within the navel. It can extend and shoot out these egoic elementals and then retract back into the navel.

These exist so that you can read what the out of sights are thinking and planning. Most out of sights are fairly harmless in their plans, but you may need to disable their elemental creative function. To-do so, you pull the stinger out from the navel and sever it. Then push the severed piece and the stump back into the navel and seal the hole. You can still read their thoughts and plans by tuning into the stump, but they will not be creating caustic elementals in your vicinity. Your pets and the vicinity can have these elementals, as well. You must sever the stingers of the ones sending the elementals, because the elementals traumatize your pets too.

It is a good idea to check the plans of an out of sight before you sever the stinger. Also, ask your guardian angel to warn you of any potentially dangerous plans being plotted against yourself or the group. You may need to create a chart of out of sights that you will need to check periodically. The obvious ones were checked today. This is a time for sobriety and caution on our parts.

LESSON: Losses and Gains -FEBRUARY 17, 1994

Losses and Gains

Over the last few days, our group of warriors has been shifting in characteristics and purpose within the ranks. Four of the members lost their souls (due to personal flaws) and were given individual souls below saint status, after prolonged intervention by (T3), in respect to the holy powers. It is important that those members realize they have been graced, and try to not repeat their errors.

It is harder to keep a saint soul than an individual soul in the rings below that of a saint. Even some of you with saint souls have come perilously close to splitting, in the last two weeks. The information about auric layers and flaws included in this lesson should give you room for thought, if you realize the seriousness of your role as an intercessor for humanity.

Only saints can be intercessors, but the people with less refined individual souls can aspire to be saints. Each ring of Jacob's ladder of souls brings with it the need for increasing alignment with Laws and Virtues. The lowest level of individual soul can exist with rudimentary alignment with Law, and unfortunately, a couple of you fell to such a level.

The most profound block to individual soul status is hate, especially for Truth and the bearers of Truth. The Bible warns us that all sins can be forgiven, except those against the Holy Spirit (which carries Truth in its breath). (T3) and I have tried to intercede for many former students, so that they may be ensouled. Any former student who holds malice toward this work could not be ensouled, according to the Divine Plan. Many mediocre students from the past were given rudimentary individual souls.

Hating anyone is a serious impediment to retaining a soul. To hate one gender is profoundly disabling to the spiritual bodies. To resent holy hierarchy is also deadly to the spiritual bodies.

Many spiritual initiations occur due to personal weaknesses, rather than holy powers dropping some bomb in your lap. You attract disorder by partial resonance. This resonance causes huge disorder to be called to you like rats to the Pied Piper due to your own sounds. If you call evil to you by your weaknesses, then you must find the Will to overcome such evil. The overcoming of your own evil resonations constitutes your initiations.

There have been very high level initiations of late, relating to Asura energies. As Rudolf Steiner pointed out, Asura energies have to do with "the all against the all". The fallen Disseminators of Knowledge, the Asuras, use clever speech/thought to divide holy troops. The Law of Division is therefore used for evil purpose in susceptible individuals.

I found it interesting that the Asuras used thoughts of some of you relating to supposed weaknesses of "(T1)" but did not use the name (T2). Personal weaknesses of individual students were projected as though existing on "(T1)" in the now. Circular thoughts relating to past events were filtered through satanic clouds to project doubt, fear, and hatred for this work in susceptible students.

I have told you that power exists only when the focus is in the Now, and not split into past and future obsessions. The Asuras flooded many of you with memories, through which you began to doubt all that is holy in the Now. They also flooded you with images of disaster in the future, so as to split your power three ways.

Even Jesus was tempted, so do not feel too bad about such thoughts, as long as you did not cling to them overmuch. Some of you fell into obsessive tangents of fantastical thought, and split apart your auras. Some of you trivialized this work in thought and speech, with cleverly subtle defilement, in echo to the Asura cloud sounds.

Some of you had a tendency to Asura resonance from clinging to genetic or sexual memories. By reshaping your old self in the same mold of genetic weakness, you hooked up with elemental Asura contamination once again. By recalling old sexual relationships, you merged with the contamination of old lovers or spouses. By merging with movie actresses, co-workers, or old friends, you picked up Asura patterns of defilement and division.

A house divided cannot stand. Those who would divide this group were expelled through their own weaknesses, from being intercessors for humanity. If they were without hate, they were given lower level individual souls. In such a state, they can begin to learn to apply Law in their own lives, but will not have the power of an intercessor. They must, at this point, climb Jacob's Ladder on the strength of their own Love, Will, and Intelligence, and not with so many kicks in the butt from me. I will hammer straight nails from now on, but the bent ones must do a Uri Geller on their own substance, if they wish to be Saints.

The world needs saints who's "eye is single" in the Now, without doubt or fears to cloud their vision. We gain our single eye by looking upward, and not listening to every pitiful sound that floats through our heads, or every silly dream that wafts in front of our eyes in sleep. Dividing our light tears holes in our auras, and dilutes our force. Coveting the power of another being is another method of diluting one's force, and is evil. In a couple of cases, I have seen power over purity conflicts in the students. Desire for power must always be tempered with profound humility, or one becomes evil.

Failure to truly pray in deep humility to that which is holy was a major reason for some of your problems. Some of you could dowse all day long, but did not seem to care to get on your knees in front of a candle in a holy room. Much of soul progression occurs due to divine intervention, as a result of true prayer, and not through one's intellectual interpretations of lessons.

It has been disheartening for me to see some of you shift colors like chameleons, when faced with the Asura thoughts/images. This wave of Asura temptation is over, unless you invite more through your resonance with the past. Part of (T3)'s job is to search the earth for fallen beings, such as the Asuras, and steadily eliminate them. He has worked relentlessly on the Asura energies that you drew to yourselves, in an attempt to help you and to clear the Earth. Even so, some of you are creating evil elementals. To repeatedly create evil elementals would qualify someone to be called an evil fallen being....even you could be so. For (T3) to waste his time destroying your elementals is a sorrowful task that he has undertaken of late.

These evil elementals often dowse as Christ Sparks in the vicinity, because they are composed of divine creative substance. What a loss. That same substance could create angels.

I keep holding the mirror of your weaknesses in hope that you will love that which is holy, and align with Logoic powers. I have grown hoarse from reminding you to quit listening to evil thoughts, comparisons, fears, and doubts. Until you learn the lessons already presented, there is little reason for me to teach more.

If you are truly aligned with Logoic light, then it is like a tall column of force extending down from the heavens over your form. You therefore must consider yourself part of that light, and never as a victim, as weak, or hopeless. You must never consider any other person as a victim, either. You are in your physical, mental, and spiritual conditions due to your free will decisions, and not due to some outside force. Anyone who sees themselves or others as victims is full of hatred for Law. I see this in two of you.

Ensoulment is now just an occasional trickle, and is only done in profound cases of personal change. About a third of the new babies will be given individual souls, and most of them will be born to people with individual souls already. Areas of high violence will be generally bereft of souls. New York City will have fewer than seven percent of the population with individual souls. San Francisco will be not much better, nor will Washington D.C. Fort Smith will have about thirty-five percent, similar to much of Oklahoma. It will be hard for people to resist vibrating with the trashy energies of the lowly ensouled areas.

It is still possible to lose your soul, but the lower ringed ones will be harder to lose than saints. Don't go wishing you were not a saint, or you may get your wish. It is the job of saints to help humanity, and as warriors to accept their fate.

Vision takes a toll. To see the disharmonies among you is not a pretty sight. Many of you, however, have made great progress, and that gives me joy.

Se. has been very disharmonious, and would do well to enter the monastery and take a vow of silence for a week. Reading the Bible, praying, and studying the Laws and Virtues would help to put her back on track.

Rap seems to be rebounding from a bit of soul trouble, but will do well as our (NE) outpost, if she is careful to observe her tendency to think females are superior to males.

Mag seems to be stabilizing. Da needs to not merge with movies or books. He is stabilizing after soul trouble. Ri needs to pray for guidance, and quit creating his own reality through tangential thoughts and avenues. Keeping physically busy would help him during this time of soul recovery. Top should become less materialistic.

Du should watch his tendency to hate, and his tendency to view Nob as a victim. Nob should pray for strength and do more days with a vow of silence.

Sn needs to pull her focus out of her chakras, to her soul, and not the past, or any petty irritations. L needs to pull in her aura. Ram needs to try to understand and accept hierarchy, in particular male power. C and B need to continue improving control over desire substance.

Keep these things in mind, and attempt to gain personal sobriety, strength, and alignment, over the next month.

LETTER: FEBRUARY 17, 1994

NOTE:

Fiber is a layer of the aura related to planetary energies.

Malefic resonations cause ruptures and splits to this layer of the aura.

All fiber ruptures reflect on the planets.

To detect these disharmonies, you can check on the planets for ruptures of body parts.

They are correlated with soul blocks or resonation with soul blocks.

You can interpret disharmonies on the Auric Layers...Body Parts...Planets through spiritual weaknesses.

For instance, if you had an egoic in the vicinity reflecting the seeing of “All love as sexually motivated” or had created one yourself, you would have damage, leaks or rupture to your Vagus Cranial Nerve.

Body parts would be called Fiber Auric Problems.

Traits and auric layers related to soul blocks would be higher octaves of these issues.

If you wake up highly contaminated, it reflects poor control of will. Night is the time of will.

There are several reasons for itching. Generally, it is most likely:

Hakes...Hate Thought Forms...Ruptured Cry or Itch Glands.

Chart: Body Parts correlated with Soul Block or Resonation

Body part	Soul block or resonation

LETTER: Monday's News -FEBRUARY 21, 1994

Monday's News

I figured out today that a cause of picking up grid thoughts related to a mutation of the spiritual water molecule. In fact, the air that we breathe is contaminated with a residual from split time that is now breaking up.

There is an element from another world, related to Deros contamination, connecting to or attached in some way to oxygen. I don't know all the details, but I can remove the contamination, by merely focusing on the following diagram to locate the mutation. I know that all of this disorder will eventually slough off, but you will feel better if you disintegrate it now, rather than wait. Ask where on the body charts or lists and auric layers you have the following abnormal element:

(See drawing)

H H BURN

O

O

ASURA ROT

(Line drawing not currently available-Editor)

It seems that this element links a person holographically to the old Earth and all the contaminated people therein, soul-less or not. It also seems to link you, and others, to old memories and habits, therefore pulling you away from your soul tasks. If there is a heavy fog, or rain, you will feel this disorder more intensely. We are working to clear you, but do your best to find any of this in yourself, your pets, your house, and even your enemies (soul-less or not.)

We have been under scrutiny lately, with For's parents hooking in with Jg and the so called Cult Awareness Network. To see what such people are planning, if they do not have individual souls, you need to merely project your vision into their navels and dowse over the risk chart. (To Ir: please fax out a big version of the destructive trait/plans chart).

To get a clear answer, be clear yourself first and very calm. Tune into their personal file about you, the (Foundation), (T1), and so forth. It is like getting into a computer file. Then dowse their emotions, plans, etc., on the chart and/or the soul blocks charts and the new evil cabala charts. It is like you are pulling up a file in their computer with your name on it, or this group's name, and reading their thoughts. So many people are being harassed by the defilers linked with Jg, and so many relatives have been filled with fear by his lies, that you must be very cautious right now. He will not rest until this holy group is destroyed and I am dead or locked up in the nut house.

I know that For's parents met with a couple of investigators here in Guthrie, and we saw them pound on doors to quiz anyone about us. They are back in (their home town), and For called to chew them out. The interesting thing about his conversation with them is that they were obsessively interested in obtaining information about (T1), but did not even mention their grandson. They are evil pawns now hooked up with others. Of course they bawled and squalled to strangers here that they merely wanted to give their grown son a birthday party (even though it was not his birthday.) All of you must realize that you must be very cautious about anyone knowing about your connection, until people forget about that cruel bastard, Jg. Do not lie to your former associates or family members: avoid telling anything. Do not think you are stalking if you say something bad about this group; that is a grave spiritual mistake. You must hold your head high, and realize that in this age of air, slander is the type of murder given to martyrs, and not the Piscean spilling of blood. You must be cunning, and avoid martyrdom, if possible. But you must not pretend to align with defilers. That makes the Holy Spirit cringe.

I hope that the clearing of this oxygen link will help you. We look in on you and your families with great love and concern.

(T2 and T3) NOTE to "Iri": We will bring the movie back in a couple of hours. While we work on the group, we are going to watch the movie. If this is clear, please fax out. I will fax to Arkansas. I suspect that a private investigator will be looking for "Aur", and maybe anyone on the Samaritan papers. Tell "Se" to not give anyone her real name, nor "D", if they come to the door. It could be a subpoena regarding a "JG" civil suit against the Samaritan. Anyone who gets grabbed at the door should ...not give out any information. It is OK to walk Benson now and the dogs, with caution. Anyone who gets grabbed should say that the building is just a private dwelling and that the Samaritan foundation has folded. "Aur" is on her way home now, I believe.

Thanks for all your hard work.

Love,

Genevieve

			2- Guardians

LETTER: "Tuesday's News" -FEBRUARY 22, 1994

Tuesday's News

During the night, I found something along the line of "Asura Rot" inside (or shadowing) oxygen. It seemed to disintegrate easily. I am sure this, like the linked element mentioned yesterday, will eventually slough off, but I am all for removing them early, when I find them.

Yesterday I mentioned how to read the plans of soul-less people. To read an ensouled person, merely focus upon his pineal gland, instead of the navel.

Keep in mind that if his pineal gland is polluted with foreign desire substance, then you might get someone else's reading. Unfortunately, most people are polluted with other's thoughts, and never know their own right minds.

We saw the rented movie, "A Cry in the Dark," last night, and would highly recommend that all of you see it. It is a true story with interesting similarities to our own case. It also points out the danger of trying to explain your side of the story to media, to people who have other agendas, and to people who merely want to hear thrilling gossip.

I would like to give all of you some advice on dealing with people who might be giving you a hard time because you no longer are like them. Or, in a worse case, such as For's, if your family is trying to harm you or control your life.

Do not act weak in any way. Do not tell them that you are hurt by their actions, or that you are angry. In the first place, you should not be so attached as to become hurt and angry, and you mustn't lie. You can certainly avoid telling all you know, but you mustn't lie. Even zombies respect a person who appears calm and strong, and evil people like to think they can control your emotions enough to produce a reaction. Let's face it; anyone who would violate your rights cares nothing for you, except as an extension of their own idea of self. You do not owe them an explanation.

Evil people often appear sloppy, sentimentally sweet in the eyes of the world. For's mother drove out to "Bc" (who mailed libelous news articles to former students) to quiz him about (T1) for the cult awareness people. She knocked door to door and talked to the police, illegally prowled around in his former house for clues, and in short, acted like a damn spy for Jg.

And yet to anyone she met, she purred like a kitten about her just wanting to give a surprise birthday party for her son. The whole time she was here, she was feeding the destruction of her own son's good name, and yet she looked like a saint to the locals. (T2's) own father, mother, and sister have told authorities that (she) sacrificed animals in cult rituals. They have tried to take (child) from For, and have (T2) locked up in a nuthouse, and yet they are enraged that I will not tell them where I am. I tell you this to warn you to not be surprised by the amazing qualities of slander, should someone have a personal agenda.

We are in a different time now, a bizarre time. Grown women, like Rosanne Barr, have decided their father molested them forty years ago, even though they have no memory of the event. Courts allow such slander decades after the suspected crime as evidence to allow monetary "compensation" by greedy grown children. We have reached a time when the preferred method of torture is through lies. Any attempt to justify yourself through the courts, media, or by personal conversation will merely feed the baying hounds.

I found out this morning that one's guardian angel sometimes will take a hologram of an egoic and wave it in front of your face until you take notice. It is to inform you of danger, or to tell you of progress in some avenue, regarding certain people's plans, whether unsouled or individually souled. I put on my chart the category "Warning from Desire/egoic Globule Held by Holy Being." This is different than just a wandering egoic by a stinger or an evil person fed by an ensouled person. When this occurs, you must look at the Evil Plans charts and names charts to figure out what your guardian is trying to warn you about. You should have the chart listing "former student, family member of student, etc." to determine where the egoic originated. As soon as you realize the warning, the holy being disintegrates the globule. It is quite helpful.

Sometimes they tell you to help someone else who is leaking, since you are intercessors. "Desire Substance or Leak from Ensouled Person," seems to be the category.

This morning, I could see globules relating to P's ex-wife thinking of causing some kind of trouble. I also could see that Ng's family may turn on Jg with a legal threat, as they begin to see that she has been victimized by him. That was good news, and was the result of the cunning letter she sent. He may dampen his media thrills if he is sued by them. Mag's ex-husband, N, is talking to media people, and will say his wife was kidnapped by me, so as to back up Jg. Jg is saying that I kidnapped Ng. I also saw the possibility that the druggie neighbors reported seeing Jas get in the car outside the monastery to child welfare. We may get a visit by the welfare people, but they will most likely leave a note in the mailbox. Ir can then call them, and say "No children are here, or have been here (in the last week...unspoken end of sentence.)" Merely say she lives there with another lady, but refuse to give out names. If there are no children in the house, they have no right to come in or quiz you to excess. If the welfare worker insists, allow her to tour to the house by herself (insist on this, because media may be trying to barge in the door.) If this danger is not over by next week, although I suspect it will be over, then the boys should not come here. I will keep you posted.

I found that an electric heating pad can block your spirit shadow from returning to you, so use only hot water bottles for backaches.

All of you are doing better and better. To Nob; Aur returns today later. I think you can bring the manuscript over to the monastery north door safely, if you look around. I still get that the cult awareness people are going to contact your father's house, if not already, and do some real slander, without regard for your whereabouts. Beware. They are into handing out libelous packets to strangers, and they are well-funded. Du, there is no reason to not go ahead with your new house work. I am glad you have rapport with them; you have done a good job stalking. I am pleased to see you both getting stronger spiritually every day.

I am hopeful that all of you are stable enough now that I can concentrate on our next book. Bless you,
Genevieve 2-22-94

LESSON: Spirit Shadow Buds -FEBRUARY 22, 1994

Spirit Shadow Buds

In the last 48 hours, second spirit shadow buds were delivered to many of the warriors in our party. These are given for the purpose of allowing the warrior to act as an intercessor more completely and to enhance his own spiritual growth. They are granted by the Ensouler Holy Beings, mostly to those who assisted in ensoulment. Others will be given this gift at later times.

The Spirit Shadow is like the double in Carlos Castaneda's writings. It could also be compared to the etheric double referred to in earlier writings about Sun souls. If you have more than one spirit shadow, you can maintain consciousness after corpse death more readily. Essentially, every ensouled person has a spirit shadow that is unable to separate from the corpse. It is affixed to the aura and seldom leaves the corpse for good reason.

Every person in our party SHOULD have a second spirit shadow. The spirit shadow is like yourself. There are three primary functions of the second spirit shadow. It gathers information to increase the individual's consciousness power; it communicates with other ensouled people and has the ability to teleport. You must have a second spirit shadow to teleport. Its purpose is to leave the body and fulfill its functions. It is possible to move our consciousness to a refined spirit shadow and solidify its matter to become a different physical body. If anything happens to your corpse, your spirit shadow can become your first attention and solidify a corpse body.

The consciousness of the second spirit shadow is different from a dream. It is not a visual, but more Gnostic. It may include gustatory, olfactory, kinesthetic or auditory awareness as well. You are more likely to wake up knowing something. If you have a second spirit shadow and wake suddenly in the night, write down what is on your mind. Do not pay much attention to the visual "poodle dreams" (as in Carlos Castaneda's work), but what you "know" at that moment. You may need to check your charts for some clearing or just know what a course of action you have been contemplating should be.

The spirit shadow does not follow desires and egoics as do possessed dreams. It would never go to your past. Its only function is in the now. It is fractured by desires and egoics. Each warrior must aspire to separate from his history.

You can measure the spirit shadow's level of development on the 360 degree scale, with the closer to 360 being more evolved. Aspire for a minimal development level of 90 degrees. It is possible that everyone will get a second spirit shadow within the next week, if they are able to be impeccable and in the now. The reasons for the first spirit shadow to have not developed are: losing the self in the past, in fantasies, in people, or in things. If you are caught up in any of these, the spirit shadow will not evolve.

Having a second spirit shadow is a big responsibility. You must keep track of it on the condition chart morning and night, like dreaming bodies. Sleep is the realm of the spirit shadow.

CLASS NOTES: FEBRUARY 24, 1994

There are glitches in the initial self that are like ties or webs to people.

They could be called Birthdays.

Another term is Snake Birthdays.

These are evil birthdays that form a pattern that is like part of yourself being encased in glass.

This is a type of mold that must be broken. They tend to pull you back and reform the renegade self.

To find these, ask "Where you have evil birthdays on Body Parts...Planets...Auric Structures...Dates...Times?"

Also check for Former Lover's Evil Birthdays...Evil Cabala Evil Birthdays...Cry Evil Birthdays.

Evil birthdays are similar to holes in the self. They are holes in the Christ Consciousness.

Check for Non-Christ Consciousness Birthday Selves on the elements.

Evil birthdays are vampires, but you must check for them as "Evil Birthdays."

They vampire the pranas, so check for the number of Evil Nerve... Air...Blood...Sex Birthdays.

Also check each auric layer individually by name for evil birthdays, particularly:

Evil Milk...Bear Spark...Nagual Mind Birthdays.

An Evil Power Point in another person projects a ray that puts a hole in you that would be called a Birthday Hole.

Resonating with people who hate Law causes you to reform the renegade self, creating evil power points on you that beam these rays out to other ensouled people. Everyone should

Check: each Law individually on the Law clock for their alignment and Remove: any Evil Power Points, aspects of Renegade Self, and blocks to Law.

Foreign auric bits can spray out an acid that drills holes in your aura.

This could be called Evil Power Point Evil Birthday Acid squirting in the vicinity.

Check: Each planet for Evil Power Points relating to specific Laws.

The number of Evil Power Points or Evil Birthdays on each Quadrant, including the right quadrant.

Do: Superimpose, on the concentric ring/law clock, the following body parts as though you are looking at each one from outside yourself: Navel...Mouth...Each Nostril...Each Eye...The Area Right Between The Eyes...

Vagina...Head of Penis... Anus.

Also check for both evil power points and evil birthdays

As though you are standing in the center, facing 00:00 and looking up and then down.

Evil power points can cause you to pop out Self on a String, so check for this as well.

Check for the number of Evil Birthday Residue Globules contaminating you.

Check for Evil Birthday Residue on furniture (chairs, sofas, beds, in rooms, etc.).

Check for the number of Birthday Dead Spots affecting you.

Check the complexity and octaves of 1 to 20 for Evil Birthday Shadows.

Check for the number of Night Crawlers you have. These are aspects of the Evil Cabala.

Corpse Aura Hooks from ensouled people cause ruptures in your aura.

There is also something called Sex Knives that must be removed.

They are related to floating auric parts from other people.

Everyone should check each auric layer for intactness.

Check for Snake Birth Days and Evil Birthdays on (and on each Quadrant)

Dates	Auric layers	Body parts	Planets
Cry	Former lovers	Evil Cabala	Elements
Pranas (nerve, sex, blood, air)		Milk	Bear spark Nagual mind

Check for:

Non-Christ Consciousness Birthday Selves

Holes in Christ Consciousness

Evil Power Points Evil Birthday Acid Squirting

Check for Evil Power Points on:

Law clock	Planets relating to specific Law	Body orifices
Each Quadrant	Evil birthday residue globules	Evil birthday residue on furniture
Sex knives	Self on a string	Night crawlers
Corpse aura hooks	Evil birthday dead spots	Octaves for evil birthday shadows

CLASS NOTES: FEBRUARY 25, 1994

Hair is an antenna out and in, if you wear a wig, people cannot read personal emanations.

Charts: Conditions, Laws

Clearing class with the Spirit Shadow (Lead by T3):

Ask: "Where is my first spirit shadow?"

If you cannot draw it home, check the Laws on the law clock.
The second shadow should be above the head.

Check The ◀Condition Charts.

Think of it as a dreaming body, as adaptive or maladaptive.
Make sure it is in tight.

If contaminated, it will start to wobble and go out.

Resonations cause leaks.

Those students traveling in airports when they resonate with certain people, it creates a leak.
If you partially resonate with hate or defiance it tears a hole in the aura. Once it starts leaking is a vampire situation. It will give a sense of spiritual attack, since you are "bleeding" and it will invite an attack like sharks; it is like leaking steak to people used to brown rice, or vice versa (sic).

Holes in the aura allow others to move in with egoics to eat more. We need to have a sense of the Spirit Shadow, and its condition. Nagual substance is coming back and may be the cause of resonations. Look at the body chart, you may get by with asking "Where are the nagual links?" so as to locate the nagual ties to disintegrate.

Any leak is due to desire globules out, don't pull them back; just get rid of them. One person had 270 resonations, with holes in the Christ Consciousness.

It is interesting how interrelated everything is. If you pop out with desire tendrils, it creates Resonance Points, it pulls the Earth Quadrant readings off at a Tissue level focus and then everything falls to hell. If you feel yourself falling apart, it may be (resonations to) a number of people or you are overwhelmed by contamination through another source. It is a good clue that something is wrong. You are not supposed to feel that way, so suspect it instantly as spiritual problem. Your true spiritual self is strong and if you lose sight of it, if you are lost in a fog, or panicky, you may drive it off a cliff. It is in effect still there, but momentarily you can't see it, so you may think you have no strength. If you identify with the Now, you have strength. It is not possible to lose it, unless you yourself surrender and give it away. If you're convinced you have no power or holy strength, then you give it away, it is gone, and you lose sight of it and defeat yourself.

Very few people have power left in the world. So we are our own worst enemies, fighting ourselves. Realize it is some aspect that one can ultimately gain control of. If you think you can't control it, you give up personal power, if you can't gain control of the situation; it is already one strike against you. You have surrendered before giving yourself a chance to find what it is. Although it (spiritual aspects/situations) can get very profound, and it is not to say that it is easy. With this level of struggle, it has much more subtlety and greater nuance and is harder to detect. The battle requires greater precision and finer discernment.

Asura contamination was very insidious and destructive. It is like a kind of person with aspects of evil that is able to blend in seamlessly, that it appears at the least benign, or that it creates argument for division, but is rational and something you listen to, as there are certain mental resonations that you can accept, and are willing to listen to (sic). It is like you have invited the worst enemy into the home, as if you accept them on the most subtle level.

It comes down to things such as resonations again and again---desire substance, which is very powerful. The more you are able to recognize your own, the more you can discern others. For all of us who have gone out in the public, we can feel the egoics and substances of ensouled people, which were not there a couple of months ago. The strange silence is not there anymore.

Check loss of desire substance on the spirit shadows. Don't retrieve what is lost. Pray to a Holy Being to restore it with exorcist type, and dowse how many are available to pray to have substance restored (sic). Loss of substance is a problem with Law and also auric debris from people being ensouled, and who are blasting stuff out of their aura and it clings to our chakras. Check and remove. Severe enough contamination will cause a resonance. Initially, is it like a scratch or abrasion, then it becomes bigger. The stronger a person is, he becomes less susceptible to auric debris. If the aura is more tender, one can react to more of this. Do: Clear off debris on the auric layers and chakras. Go to the Soul Lessons, etc. Auric debris has death frequencies and this is why it is shot out. Most people have no concern about Law, or Spiritual Science, so they will constantly blow out bits of Desire Aura.

Check for things that are embedded since they may keep the resonance links open. These may be due to people that you worked with as a nagal, and had no consciousness of it and when the window of opportunity opens; we can get rid of that material. Check for (auric/Desire) links to Law that you still resonate with.

Look at the small gains instead of the large picture. (Understand) the holy aspect is undefeatable, and that all in the party basically can't be defeated. But with areas of weakness, these are things that you still accept about yourself. Like "I always have bad hair and will never have good hair". We have to look for it by not looking for it (sic).

Maybe we have to accept (to wait for an answer to) a question. We ask, and then we forget it. There is a certain very profound spiritual aspect that will go to work on it and at a certain point (the issue) will resurface, and you will find it, as it is more likely (one is) accepting a certain aspect. And then one can go digging for the answer for a while. Any further explanation about it ends up taking one around into other file cabinets. The spiritual body is given a task and starts to work, if allowed to perform the spiritual functions, will eventually accomplish its goal, it may take a while.

Say if you are looking at it about a certain soul block, and are concerned about not being able to see and cure a leak on a Spiritual Shadow. It is interesting with Law, T3 had low scores on one with 10-15% acceptance. He could intellectually see the problem, but to T3 the 90% is a block and he couldn't see it, which allowed it to grow and be fed. If we identify the law, and the aspect of it, one can return to it, like a book mark. You don't think about it constantly, but if you know the block at the bottom of the whole mess is a law resistance and if you return to a problem perhaps with a law related to it (it will clear in steps). Realize you may activate a connection with resistance to law that is creating problems down the line (sic).

This is like an evil you invite into the house because you recognize it as your own, or you accept it. For example you may own an idea of failure, or that "the work is too hard", and "it is always been like that with you". This is a weakness that you have accepted in yourself, and if you accept it, you accept the evil which has nothing to do with holy aspects of self. T3 had accepted about himself some things as his, and others he rejected immediately.

Spiritual capabilities: with blocks they reveal a weakness which can create a danger as it comes from a direction you can't see, and then you don't see an enemy from that side, you are unprotected.

We have to face all directions, not just one.

Seasons are directions:

With nuances and octaves of that as well as Direction, Frequency, Rotation, Dissonance Points and Complexity.

The Dissonance Point: Is the entrance point to a room, it is the thing that links the room as a function, and the walls have a complexity of basic geometric shape, and could be rotated. It is like in some way the aspect of a side of a house that is torn open, or been demolished, or been blocked up and with a window we can't see out of (sic). For it to work, you need all sides, if you have no floor, you can't stand, if you have no roof, you have no protection with the rain, if there is no glass in the windows then the weather comes in. With no closet you can't hang up clothes. No spiritual aspect of the person can be ignored. You have to root out whatever the spot is so that you can be strong, because the consequences are extreme. Aspects come in to focus to clear, and at that time present opportunities to look at the aspects.

PRACTICE: sending your first spiritual shadow out into the street. (Be sure you have all of your substance and are intact) as we won't be able to travel as well without a full tank. Pull it back. Send out into a polluted person, like an ex student. Check the Condition Chart, and then Ask "How contaminated is your own soma/aura?" This shows that if you have wandered off, you will get injured, contaminated and damaged on the spirit shadow and the auras.

T2 continues class:

There are mysteries of spirit shadows and things still to unveil about them. Today is the first time we are able to see (---) and we can look for desire substance. If it doesn't follow desire, but has a desire (aspect?). Suspect that it can leak as if torn up (sic). The Spirit Shadow may have a desire component that can leak, though as it may follow (egoics).

There was an aspect of egoic tendrils and desire, with aspects of yin and yang with desire being more yang and the egoic aspect is going out to find something. The Spirit Shadow follows along the line of an egoic. Maybe it is more linked to thought, a mental aspect vs. a desire aspect. If it is developed, it can go out to different things, if not developed, it should stay home. Desire substance has a link with the desire layer, but goes along the egoic line.

Pray that all of your own karma comes back to be dealt with and digested. A certain function of holy beings is to dissolve and break down the karma. You may be going along and all of a sudden you feel 150 resonations. You could have a past link, with what is coming back, and it could either fuel a Renegade Self or you can take it, recognize it and get rid of it. Disintegrate it. Prayer is an aspect of this (clearing). This material is returning and in effect it should be composted and not used to recreate a renegade self. Say, with trashy thoughts of past events; it requires certain holy beings to break this down. We need to pray for assistance from the Karma Transmuters, and any other additional holy beings that could assist.

Ask: “What degree of renegade self has been reformed?” And ask “What Law is being resisted?”

This is recreated through misalignment with Law. No one here desires that to happen, but misalignment and conflict, is a resistance that creates a scab. It is where you are leaning in a certain direction and you ultimately get a scab or a callous. It is a result.

New students would have to agree to certain things:

1) Be aware of some sort of commitment from them before teaching at all.

They need to be non-smoking, not practicing homosexuals and not promiscuous.

There is a difference between someone reading the book Virtues, Laws and Powers and your taking on the responsibility of teaching a person. They need to know it is not frivolous. It is not a seminar to last a month or three months. It is not what you are doing this year, and then next year you do something else.

2) Dowse the suitability. You should be able to tell a student who has genuine holy desire.

3) It is a karmic responsibility to take on a student.

POEM: LEHYS -FEBRUARY 24, 1994

LEHYS

The silver water sang to him on that fateful day.
He would have liked to have not been afraid, and yet the fear of his destiny washed over him
In mists of steely grey.
The loneliness of his breath upon the morning echoed back in haunting hues as he shivered in the river, the river of doom.

The man the world called Crazy
Issued the lightening Clap, and then the birds of heaven began to swirl and flap.
Out of the skies fell white feathers from ghostly higher worlds, and then his eyes opened Forever.

He saw the Holy Ones from days of long ago.
Their tears baptized him, in more water still,
Filling him inside, until bursting from his eyes.
He feared he would drown,
So great their tears.
And yet he crawled, half-broken, from the hallowed stream,
To enter a stranger dream.

Forty days he prayed;
Ten were prayers of air,
Bringing powers of speech,
Lovely, wise, and fair.
Ten were prayers of water,
Devotion to the Laws,
Love for what is holy,
Tears for those who fall.

Ten were prayers of fire,
To give him strength to fight
All that blocked divinity
From entering human sight.
Ten were prayers for Virtues,
That they be manifest
In the frailty of his form as part of his flesh.
The sins of the fathers
Stood before him, as a ghost,
Tormenting him with all that humanity
Loves most.
Self-doubt flew as knives
Through the stormy sky,
Formed through sounds of ridicule
From demons in the night.
They said that if humanity
Failed to say such prayers
That all his work would be for naught;
He could only show the Way.
He gazed up in the sky
And bid the demons leave.
He straightened up his back,
And shook loose of fears and grief.
He willed himself to stand,
Although weak from fast,
He climbed down from the mountain
To face yet harder tasks.

CLASS NOTES: Lehys as the Christ Emanation -FEBRUARY 25, 1994

Charts: First, Second and Third Spirit Shadows (locations)

(FULL T2 DOWSING CHART in Appendix)

EVENING: Today while praying in the holy room, T2 asked for guidance in the writing project and what were the impediments to helping humanity in the book to be written and to have the correct information purely to help humanity in the next book. It is a dying-off occurring in people who have no individual souls, a kind of sloughing that is Unsouled Corpse Aura Bits. They are in the wind and seem to be blowing like skin fragments. When they hit on you in a spot sensitive to resonation, then that spot might resonate in an inverse and retro quadrant. If you check body parts on the quadrants (you can find them and) it is not a risk factor other than resonation, but in a week or two, they will necrose and rot away.

◀2nd Spirit Shadow

In the interim you will feel quite anguished when a lot are on you. Many parts of your body will feel dead. When you find this, make sure the Earth Cord is not leaking. With a lot of these, the cord will split open, and you will start to leak out of the Earth Cord.

Ask: For the next 2 weeks, look very closely for

"How intact and % contamination of the Earth Cord?"

As these get on the spirit shadows, they may tend to cause you to leak desire substance on the First Spirit Shadow which is tied into the desire aura.

◀1st Spirit Shadow

The Second Spirit Shadow, T2 is not sure, check on the body chart for organs, etc. for Unsouled Corpse Body Parts. Disintegrate with fire waveform.

T2 figured this out from writing a section with Christ on the mountain for 40 days and nights, fasting and when he prayed was challenged by the devil. (See "Lehys" poem on previous page).

T2 was trying to see with fresh eyes, and merging with the holy name of Jesus; what you could say would be his name when he was baptized. T2 believed he was given a name when the dove descended. She kept hearing the name when doing the passage. She had to spell it one way because of the emanations of the letters, and pronounced another way. Lehys. The closest word to this was a composite picture of the name---Lingtkatz which is closer to the pronunciation, though the spelling looks different.

To add the extra letters is too cluttering for the written word. What does Lingtkatz mean? It is prehistoric Germanic, very ancient, light as air with a connotation of the breath. It is light and breath, which is very clean, in that each has a connotation of the Holy Spirit and Dove and the meaning of lungs; Lingtkatz. Other words related to it are interesting, in having to do with birds, meadows, and beams of light, and breath/light as two connotations. It was indeed the name.

T2 is not a linguist, so when she heard Lingtkatz, it is not easy for an American ear to hear, but the subtleties in the name are with a bird, like likeness, and flower, lily, different connotations added together. To have the Bible describe it as the dove descending, (it was) a ball of light descending birdlike and beautiful, looking like the dove.

Rudolf Steiner has written extensively of the Christ impulse when it entered. Jesus was a holy being before the baptism, and the other (baptism) was more remarkable than his birth, which was remarkable. When T2 thought the name, she could hear it, and it was a key thing to do relative to the experience of the Christ impulse.

The second section of the poem is relative to Christ being tempted on the mountain. T2 became aware when she went into the experience---it was a key reason for the fasting 40 days and nights. The reason he had to do it: he had to do

10 days (each) in purification of air, fire, water and 10 in summation of purification of the 10 virtues, (one could say) of the earth element: a condensation of virtues in application of the flesh, acceptance and going through the trials. A full cycle of law clock for each one (10 days) he fasted and prayed.

T2 has been pretty casual about food and drink. And Jesus too, would scorn elders who said he was a drunkard, meat eater, and a fool, and if he fasted, he would also be called a fool. He did what was appropriate for the time. Sometimes T2 shouldn't eat meat; sometimes she has seaweed water or sprouts. There is a purpose for fasting during times (---) to prepare for a great work. Partial fasts, like giving up something in Lent, are important and we shouldn't scorn such practices, as it can help you to align more readily in stress. You are adjusting the air, fire, water components, when you don't eat, to do more readily what you need to do. To understand the Lingtkatz, she couldn't have earthy things, only carrots, roots, and no meat. If it changes tomorrow, fine. We don't resist anything, and we don't cling. God's will be done if that is what it takes.

Jesus fasted because He had a great trial before him, the three years of ministry would be a great time of struggle. During the baptism, He could see his probable future and saw with clear eyes the perils and most likely scenario of being betrayed, insulted, hated and murdered, and He needed strength to face it. To get the strength He realized he had to purify the lower aspects to align with the Logoic powers, or He could not do it. The only strength had to be found within the Logoic forces, so He knew, because He was trained with the Essene ancient knowledge, He knew many mystery school secrets, and of the forces that followed lines of air, fire, water and knew that the virtues had emanations along 10 lines of force and along each of the three primary aspects of the Trinity. And He knew certain laws as to how one met those powers. And one of the lower laws was if a person was too congested in the stomach, it would lead away from a higher focus. To study something airy, one would have to be empty except for airy foods. So He decided to undergo the fast, complete or partial does not matter, it is not honorable to starve to death. He may have eaten marsh, or juices, it matters little, the key thing is He followed the laws He needed to do, with enough will and devotion to purpose, and enough wisdom and intelligence to do all that He needed to do.

As He started the fasting and praying, stuff started coming out of him, sins of the father. No doubt He was of the purest lineage on Earth at that time. If you take it back, it goes way back and many were sins of the fathers committed as there always are with different ancestors. His lineage was not different, as being in the world there is no way to get away from some genetic contamination. These started to flush out of him and took the form of haunting voices that would torment him like the devil, and they would say, "You are not better than anyone else, you are a fool. If you don't stop, you will lose everything you have, the family will make fun of you, the town will not accept you and think you a fool, and lock you up for being crazy" All were echoes of the sins of the father that were not truly aligned with law. If you look at the most holy people you know, they have askew aspects of laws. All of the genetic glitches against law, started flushing out like toxins during the fast, and they haunted him during the air trial, the first day of air would be the first virtue, Will and then Love and Intelligence with nuances of each virtue each day.

In this day of Air, the way that people get to you is through humiliation, slander, defilement and lies. Even at the lowest level in the work place, if you told people nothing about this work, if you work in an office, the people will tend to lie about you. It is the tendency of wanting to put you down in some way to others in some kind of defiling way. It was usually subtle and only "For your own good" because we are in a mega age of Air. But Jesus was in a micro age of air, and what was the defilement of the webs of all people raised with Him, His childhood friends, synagogue, and holy men who said "You are not following the teachings". So all the people he had ever known was echoing back to him, as a time of voices and webs.

This is a macro and micro time for us. Sometimes when we have gathered here, malignant winds have blown, and like last summer there was a weird hot wind. This is a cold malicious wind that blows. It is not just something that Don Juan talked about as "wind being intelligent", but are the primal energies demonic that ride in the wind. When Jesus says "The devil tempted Him", it was an evil wind with the voices of all the people He knew. It is not a metaphor, but a real experience.

If you wake up and start thinking circular thoughts about anything,

Ask: "How many ensouled or unensouled people are in your room?"

Do this every time you wake up,

"How many Corpse Aura Contaminations do I have?"

So you do not fall into the trap of listening to Wind Demons. It is part of your Air Trial.

Fire seems to devour air. With the 6-day candles, they will burn in three days because the fires will burn faster and feed on the air demons. If you try to explain that to one who is not in spiritual science, they would think you nutty, but all you have to do is mark a candle the day it is lit, and you will see it is true. T2 doesn't know how long this will last, but be careful about fires; this micro-time will be over in two weeks. If we have macro and micro at the same time, there will be a lot more stress. It is like wheels within wheel in the age of air, yearly cycles and then small cycles.

Fire (includes) hate, the other hostilities, the burning with desire as well---it is love/hate, emotions, all the gamut of the emotions. So with a Fire Cycle you will experience a lot of passionate emotions. With a Water Cycle, you will feel dead, depressed and weighed down. The Assimilation Cycle was the last 10 days of virtue that Christ endured, and was the time expected to pull together in crystallized form in behaviors, thoughts and emotions what you have learned (sic).

The point of all this, is that T2 just wants all of us to realize that we will have small and large initiations and we must not give in to them. For instance, all these globs relative to the unensouled, with the thoughts attached---it may not be something you consider malignant, or you may think it is a strain of energy. It may be a holy being holding a thought to let you know what someone is up to. Don't just lie there and think. Get up and see if it is a malignant thought form from an holy being and if not, disintegrate it.

ASK

How many people am I?

How many would dowse as me?

How many are in the room?

Ensouled/unensouled?

Any parts of self out?

Desire Globules, Tendrils out?

You can do most of these by not getting out of bed, or turning on the light.

Dowse with tongue or fingers.

How many Holy Being Lines of Force are leaking? (

(We may have leaks with connections with Guardians)

How eroded is the Earth Cord?

How intact is the Monad?

How intact is Second Spirit Shadow?

Have you dowsed a Vampire? Then you have leaked on someone. Drains or hooks are your own fault. If you have desire substance on an ensouled or unensouled, they hungrily drink it. It is a connection to you and they keep sucking. But you are the one that has dripped on them.

Hooks may have a different plane of causation, but you do need to:

Check: For hooks in auric components.

Some people lose corpse auras due to aspects of the grid.

Example: The left lung will go into shock from a globule,

The corpse aura will then float out and leave a hole and then something dives into it and hooks.

DO: Unwinding Waveform. Any hook, is probably a hole.

Check: "How many holes you have on various auric layers?" Especially:

Earth Cord...Corpse Aura...Spirit Shadows ½...Thread to Creation...Monad.

Ruptures: Face...Feet...Heart...Solar Plexus ruptures are very common

They occur due to the First Spirit Shadow going berserk and splitting apart.

Usually ruptures are in the spirit shadow and not the corpse.

Do: Before bed and if you wake at night, check these and also do it the first thing when you wake up.

The more controlled you are in the day, the more controlled you will be in your sleep, so that soon you will be very controlled in your dreams. That will be the next stage of teaching: the complete control of dreams.

All in all we are doing very good. Keep a sense of calm sobriety and sureness about your own path, so that you don't let every little thought that blows by shake you up. If you have a gross dream; don't repeat it to anyone and don't think about it too much, it may be globs. Many dreams are just fed by globs of other people with a (--) scenario, and may have nothing to do to symbolize your path. If you are yourself, not anyone else in the room, and you have all your desire substance, the dream may have some significance.

Dreams can be very important, but we are getting used to spiritual shadows which are not the same as dreaming bodies. They have a whole nuance that we have to get familiar with. Until we get used to them, we will be clouded by desires or anything floating.

If you find yourself depressed from globs, first thoroughly check:

For any of the unensouled egoics in the room,
Or corpse aura fragments in the room,
Or on aura layers
On any of 20 octaves on beingness
On any body part.

Then, if you can't seem to get it, and have done your best, question whether you are just going through one of the null zones, a personal dark night of the soul---if you feel a sense of void because you are between the steps of the ladder. It is an excellent idea to look up some things in the book, (Virtues, Laws and Powers) especially if you feel depressed. It may seem simplistic, but will serve as a foundation for you.

There is no stasis. The Law of Change is so dynamically true in this group and for those ones courageous enough who are apart from this group, to face the unknown. Sometimes it is terrifying to face the concept that many things that you have always accepted as true may in many ways be metaphors for truth. Not that they are not true, but it is something more behind that, that you are obliged to observe the meaning behind the symbols. That is the frightening path of the spiritual scientist and person dedicated to spiritual refinement. Don't just sit on your butts and watch evangelists on the TV screen. You are a participator in the drama and no longer are an observer and you are expected to be saints and not just to worship saints.

That is a concept---that really no one expects people to be saints in the churches. They expect you to be pretty good, and to fit like a base minimum requirement. But here you are expected to advance, and you have, all of you. You have come through waters and are changing and advancing.

See, we knew that if you could do it, others could. We are all a bunch of misfits, there is a lot of diversity in this group, and from a lot of different backgrounds. But if we can come through ensoulment and retain a saint soul; some of you don't realize you are still saints.

There is a certain technical aspect to spiritual advancement---that if you have stepping stones, a person can follow the stones. It is not (for someone) to have a beatific vision and bleed through the hands. But one is a saint through hard work, like Jesus undergoing the cruel sounds of air, the genetic crap coming out and taunting him with cruel words, fire/hate, and water/drains, blood/---; is how to become saints, by undergoing the trial. And T2 would say that all of us, by the very fact of having the (Lehys) vision and knowing what we are going through. And we have gone through a great deal---the ensoulment was unparalleled. If you tried to describe the process or even try to remember, it will seem fuzzy. Nagual experiences are so mind boggling that looking back later; it makes one's head spin.

For example, the glass wind chimes sounding through the house. When in the kitchen, they could hear the sound of glass wind chimes. Glasses have been breaking a lot spontaneously. "Wind Glass Broken"; these are like omens of patterns changing, that things are ready to change. One aspect of glass breaking is that people without individual souls due to their decisions, is that some part of them is breaking up, and slivers of them are getting into the members and we need to be careful. Why glass chimes? We keep hearing glass.

Omens are interesting, like when T2 was walking in the flood plains, and it looked like a million robins landed in front of her. Why robins? She didn't know they travel in huge packs. There were easily 500 and they were all around her in part, and it was a good sign. A bird with red on it, is a good sign.

Another omen in the park, a woman was praying aloud to God under a tree, and she didn't see T2 and T2 thought "Isn't that wonderful?" For so long, you didn't see anyone praying earnestly and here was a woman in the park with her heart open, and wonderful to see people with souls.

It may not seem like much if you look at a group and most with no souls (sic). In essence, they are basically not ensouled. Maybe there will be group souls, but now it seems to be webs that lock together. Just a few people care about having a soul. If we can have that many people have souls, we have contributed what we can, and if we help them to keep it, we will be doing well.

When a person has a soul, you can measure it by seeing a look of anguish on the face as negation is passing by them. They will experience a knife as they are seeking out what is holy and are developing refined perceptions. One who has no ability to see what is holy or good, doesn't care about a soul. One must love truth over comfort. A lot of people just want to be comfortable.

Answer: It is like the Sufi stories. And we (could somewhat) say a person is unlikely to want to learn something unless they are a little uncomfortable, in embarrassment or fear. With people excessively comfortable mentally, they can't see any reason to have anything different. They have learned to shut the doors to their own perception. On the contrary, some will have achieved a level of mental or physical skill but still have a natural craving to understand the mysteries of life, and such a one can be approached. It is a mystery and a discovery of soul, and can be read.

Anybody on marihuana is unlikely to ever be helped, and it is why it is most destructive. Marihuana dulls the sense of soul's pain that is experienced when the soul is rotting. Therefore, it would be impossible to teach anybody addicted to the sensation of marihuana. Also, they tend to hate authority.

(Those who smoke) cigarettes are very intractable, as the Holy Spirit follows along the line of air. For the soul to be touched so that it trembles, requires an air intervention. That is why step down teachers must not accept anyone who cannot stop smoking, as it makes behaviors degenerate.

If a person is not too set in their way, they can be confronted to some extent. Why did one student get a soul, when sent a book? Because it was read, and some part of her began to tremble with the knowledge on a cellular level that there was truth in a book, and she prayed and got a soul. It was pretty merciful to get one, after having betrayed us. Yet there is nothing more merciful than God and with the desire for people to receive souls, God's mercy is boundless and forgiveness abundant. The key thing is that a person must want to make the commitment to have a soul, and to not defile further. It is amazing that someone could do something so wrong and still be granted mercy. Yet T2 is so joyful to the depths of her being that (this person) has a soul.

It is like the prodigal son. We have dowsed all day, so why not cut the fatted calf for us? Or the fatted Nori sheet, or seaweed... We have to approach joy with caution. If they defile again, they will lose the soul. T2 thinks it is remarkable that the holy forces would touch one as was Saul. Note: in the appendix of Virtues, Laws and Powers, we forgot the name "Jacob's Ladder" on the cover design.

We will need to have people come in and work with teachers step by step. Remember the things we have done here, and it is not just the practice of putting virtues into water, but we can do a whole paper on just water and the virtues. Practice taking contamination out of the water, and then practice putting in love and hate, so people can start noticing that they too, can change matter. Show people the dynamics of these exercises so they can see the difference between the taste of something. Use predominately water, as it is so neutral they should be able to distinguish the differences.

With something along the line of moving in and out with the Spirit Shadow, explain it as a ghost part of yourself. Word it simply, tell them to move it over to the left, and see if their vision is different, because if the spirit shadow is out, the eyesight will seem fuzzy. See if you are perfectly aligned to one side or not, and use the aura meter to detect the spirit shadow. Use simple dowsing things for demonstrations. If you trained people with the aura meter, it would be the easiest way to train people to dowse, as things are magnified.

It would be nice to have a manual to go to the dowsing conventions, that also refers to the book. We will see a fairly high number of ensouled people there.

T2 thought logically that the next book would be a manual, but we (students) are supposed to do those. So far, T2 has been writing poetry. The book is supposed to have illustrations and poetry. She doesn't know if it will change, but it is very auditory.

CHART CHECK LIST: FEBRUARY 25-26, 1994

Today's checklist:

1. Returning sparks dowse as evil creative centers.
2. Returning nagual components cause evil power points, giving other students new birthdays.
3. Evil dissonance points can create evil birthdays, if an out-of-sight is fueled by an ensouled person or the person that has the evil dissonance is ensouled, this is due to hatred for Law Check on soul blocks, evil cabala, and evil plans charts for where you have evil dissonance points or birthdays.
4. Drains on Holy Beings are possible due to a person leaking from one of their Holy Being connections, these would dowse as a body part rupture.
5. Desire threads to strangers cause the Earth quadrant resonation to dowse as inverse retro; you can have were-insect problems from leaking on strangers.
6. Check the % of desire substance in your first spirit shadow, the 1st spirit shadow carries desire/egoic substance.
7. Check on the body diagram for desire leaks on both spirit shadows and for evil power centers The 1st spirit shadow should be superimposed on the corpse form, the 2nd should be above one's head All desire problems are linked to resistance to a Law.
8. A lot of egoics from out-of-sights can be put into trees.
9. Do the Bagua -(turn in all directions--a swivel chair is helpful) disintegrate all desire globules out or in, egoics, evil creative centers, self on a string, and birthdays.
10. Hooks are globules or egoics that enter a hole caused by a birthday or resonation problem. Resonations cause leaks, then drains, then a vampire situation. If you dowse you are being vampired it is probably due to your own leak, this relates to the Law of Vibration.

CLASS NOTES: Initiations and Omens -FEBRUARY 26, 1994

(A change in) hair, eyes, mouth, hands and manner of walk will change emanations. It is wonderful that we have the opportunities to talk; for example when Carlos (Castaneda in his books) went back to the overseer (sic). It is good to be in areas of danger, because one can (learn to) shift the emanations. It is perfect to be in the hot seat.

Consider the virtues from a perspective of air, fire and water today.

Check how aligned you are and how much you apply law in regard to the virtues.

Use the Law clock with the analogy of the shotgun (Law) and shells (Virtue), as it is hard to separate laws/virtues.

Laws are related to the holder of virtues;

And without the structure of Law, we cannot hope to have virtue.

Weakness with a virtue is resistance to Law,

Where there is difficulty in applying Law, there is a weakness in a virtue, relative to air, fire and water.

This has to do with directions:

East seems to be in focus now,

Northeast is in relationship to thought and air.

And when a southern direction is in focus, it is a fire aspect.

You should think not so much about directions but Primary Traits relative to Virtue on the Law Clock to see how they are with Law.

Examples: If you have a problem with say, the 3rd Virtue along a Fire Trait, then it has to do with misuse of will and the readiness to anger; misdirected passions---passions directed by the will in a poor direction.

Problems with an Air Trait; no matter which Virtue is probably due to recklessness of speech thought and fantasy.

Problems with a Water Trait, is misdirected devotion to that which is unholy, to people who are unholy, love of past or self in past and devotion to old self vs. the Law of Change

Many people don't understand that the laws and virtues are timeless but the appearance of how they will become manifest and taught must change with the season and age...if not, the people will not hear. It is why the churches can't change people's behaviors anymore, and the deterioration of society is rapid, because if churches don't adapt teaching of fundamental truth which is immutable to the age, then people will not hear, because they hear along a line of force: air, fire, water.

Piscean Age was a devotional aspect, if you could touch a heart---for example, "Christ died for your sins", "God is love", is what drew people into churches with the love aspect, which is a primary law of devotion.

Air now must be taught through some application of intellect. Thought has to do with speech and instead of just saying "I can't understand", but instead (by study and speech we learn) through a devotional framework, (which was appropriate in the Water age). But now in the Air age, we must give people reasons, we must explain laws and virtues, we can't expect them to absorb it as if immersing them in water.

The way that people gained the Christ impulse was as though being immersed as in baptism in water, and the waters took on the frequency and waveform, as the holy water in the people themselves, a watery merging. With so many sounds now which throw people off--- the water merging won't hold as well. It is too airy now, (it is) the winds of change. The symbols of truth taught in the churches are still valid, the problem is the approach must be air, speech, words, rational explanation, symbols, not purely from a devotional approach, because people are no longer able to change purely through the water approach. They used to be able to do that.

Likewise all of us must seek to have the traits of baptism not just of water, but of the Holy Spirit which is the air, and fire, which is divine will manifest in one's own being and that is the course of sainthood. It is why saints were burned at the stake in the past; it was a baptism of fire, a lower fire. And now the baptism to fire as saints involves misguided devotion of others toward other ways, or inverse devotion which is hate. Love/hate. So the baptism to face (by today's saints), is to be hated by those who are still hanging on the past ways. It is the Water Initiation, to be hated by those you love the most.

With the Air Initiation, one must be able to keep one's balance even in the face of slander, words---all the words coming back at you in the head from the grid. And if you can hold your own sense of holiness despite the sounds of the grid, if you can hold your own knowledge of that which is holy (--). It is not just one step, it is Jacob's ladder for each (initiation), the higher one gets the more difficult it becomes.

Fire Initiation is how well one can control will and passion---passion and intensity of purpose. Certainly, it means control of anger and sexual desire, and control of desire for things, and the will to do just one thing (sic), and (not) misdirecting will. But it is not just the avoidance of such things as those, but in the dead of night when everything seems lonely and without purpose, one must be able to, with one's own will, direct one's purpose as a Holy Being without angel or Holy Beings to help you. Can you be a holy being when the holy beings step back?

This is Fire's highest initiation, to have one's own will so aligned with divine will that you stand tall when there is nothing but darkness around you and you become a beacon of light and fiery purpose to those around you. And this requires such impeccability, one must watch one's self every step of the way. If you get angry, be grateful, as it will flush out the weaknesses, and help heal those rungs on the ladder to gain the higher. If someone tries to defile you, you may pass an air initiation.

You don't want to put in the ethers that people give you a hard time, just be cautious and be aware that these initiations have been part of the paths of saints for all time. The initiation of fire for this age is not being burned at the stake like a heretic, or having your head chopped off. It has to do with being able to hold one's own will aligned with God no matter what you face, or who is around you. Fire is a trait of will, and to never use will recklessly for lower use. Because the economy of energy is of paramount importance,

You have achieved the highest level of saint if you have mastered Will in perfect alignment so that it does not waver under any circumstance. (For example) if you can do what you have to do, get out of bed, with no depression, and not to say that one "can't cope".

The highest Air initiation is when with the sounds of hell are around you and babbling voices crawl out of your flesh saying you are crazy---you hear, but you don't care. You know what they are, and you say "Get thee behind me satan". What is Satan, the devil? It is anything inverse/retro against the path, often one's own past self and past relatives who have not changed and resisted change. Often (it involves) the people that are held most holy in one's mind (---) that their behavior becomes comfortable and they don't want to face change.

The planet has changed, we must change our methods or we can't help. We don't change the roots of holy air, fire, water, but approach to dance with the season both on a small scale in personal lives and large scale in a way to help humanity.

Water's highest initiation is when devotion is to truth above that of any human, one's own safety, happiness or anything---your happiness then becomes devotion to truth and impeccability. You manifest in the struggle for truth, your devotion to truth is so great you never fool yourself again about any person or yourself, and face unflinching the truth, with stamina, stability, and without falling apart, no matter how difficult (it may appear). And only when you do this, will you be able to see rightly.

The only way to keep out of danger is to see rightly and not be swayed by desires, fears, anything. Only do that: be devoted to truth. (Not towards) devotion to a person or comfort so much that you fail to recognize truth. Be willing to bear the discomfort of change along air, fire, water. May be T3 can analyze where you are weak along lines of Virtues.

T3 states: Start with the soul blocks, and with every item, go item by item, and Ask: "How many old self resonations I have with this particular soul block?" Do: To Do and get rid of them.

As you go through the soul blocks chart you might feel something repulsive, so check the quadrant chart to see where the resonations are in the quadrant. If you find hate resonations in the past, then use the To Do Charts to remove. Use this method as a way to focus, and when you are done, go to the body parts, and ask for soul blocks on body parts. In general, as an Example: You are dowsing the stomach; go to Soul Block Charts and Ask: "What are they, what kind, how many?" and go to the To Do Charts.

Do: Go to the Virtues and start with the 1st virtue, and Check for Soul Blocks on fire, water, earth, air.; Do each virtue and To Do.

If you have any trouble blasting, check for Hooks...Drains on:

Threads To Creation...Navel...Pineal...Earth Cord...Spirit Shadows.

Go to the Virtues book drawings and dowse over the virtue drawings for blocks with traits (air fire water, earth, and the colors) and blast what you need on the lines. And ask for any blocks to the New Earth on the Virtues.

T2 states example: In one person's case, lost Tissue Aura organs were causing a constant drain on the Spirit Shadow.

For example: the loss of kidneys was related to the 17th virtue, and Water;

The loss of skeletal right foot bone was related to 8th Virtue Air/Fire/Water blocks, with a Split-Time Resonation.

Virtue power is impaired when one does not have all the Traits and then one can't use the virtue power.

Loss of ovaries in this case was a Water/Air block on the 9th Virtue.

CLASS NOTES: Personal Change Measured By Frequency/Duration/Intensity -FEBRUARY 26, 1994

Personal Change Measured by Frequency/Duration/Intensity

EVENING The talk tonight is about why we get some blocks to our spiritual path, how to identify and remove them. It is not due to “them vs. us” or auric globules on us (to) zap and then that is it. But it is an aspect of personal tendency to resonate with the past that attracts certain things with the Law of Partial Resonance. For instance, the past renegade self, as one torques away from alignment with holy law, it is “renegade” versus the Garden of Eden and holiness.

You could measure past renegade self on the Law Clock with Air/Fire/Water and Tissue or Earth (which is a condensation of those attributes) perspective. Say you had something that occurred in a current time frame; something reminded you of ten years ago---when you were sad, 10 years ago. T2 had that happen today and speaks from experience. As her lower aspects of consciousness were restructured to be of more use in humanity, after (what happened) last summer; she began to understand human emotion more readily after a time (though she was in shock for a while).

She drove to Wal-Mart to get prayer tea lights for candles in the holy room, and she saw her son walking away and felt such sorrow. Couldn't go up to him, he was with his father, and she wouldn't risk being seen. She saw her son walking and it reminded her from a tissue perspective of birth, love, being a mother, and feelings for a child and great sorrow poured out when she saw him; that she had left him and couldn't go to her own child. What happened was that she fell back into memory of a Water type devotional love; a type of mother to a son. And she remembered when she, as a corpse, as her former self (more normal than now), could be with him and hug him and tuck him in, all the things what a mother would do. She felt such pain, and knew these are the types of pains, initiations that all must bear, it was a sign.

It was not just a coincidence, as he lives a good 50 miles away or more. But he was there because she had to understand this; it was the design of power. So when she saw him with his father, and felt sadness and joy, the father has a soul, she was pulled back in time in a way all of you will find yourselves doing, and this is a warning. The sight pulled her back and she went into split time, but it dowsed as Old Earth Water Block Demons.

Desire demons: when a part of self goes back relating to devotion and an old life. If one looked at the world with water eyes after that, one would see everything from the old earth perspective, because one is looking with old earth eyes. They were not in the now, which is where one must be. If she had at that time checked her Water Renegade Self on the Law Calendar, she would have found that with a wave of anguish, she had torqued to a 350° resonance. Some people think (T2) has no human feelings, but she is human as she has chosen (this path) and it is the design of power that she experience everything we have experienced if not more strongly. Her salvation was that she recognized it as a block and that it weakened her power and purpose. So T3 and T2 took a two mile walk and prayed for deliverance and prayed for a way to align.

Then an interesting thing happened when walking. T3 said the cows don't have an earth soul. He was looking through an Old Earth Fire Block, involving desires, passions, longing for something with intensity or the past. It is a renegade block of a fire nature, and it torqued him to 280°. But she could see that he had a fire block that blocked his vision. So that was a real comfort, as she realized what is happening here. T3 was seeing through old earth eyes and with a fire block. If you ask “Do cows have old earth group souls?” the answer is no. But if you ask “Do the cows have New Earth group souls?” you get a yes.

She was looking at her son with old earth water eyes. So she asked the divine powers to help see through New Earth water eyes. She asked that all old earth water blocks be removed. So it is a repeated recapitulation, it is as though the recapitulation is not just sending the children off to private schools, not seeing them, shutting the door to them, and not seeing the parents. But it is in fact living with the decisions every day, and it is something we deal with every single day of our lives as a serious series of decisions of soul. And the true acts of saints are not to ‘rush to storm into battle to slay dragons’, but to whittle away little bits of poisonous molds of ourselves that we pluck out of our own selves bit by bit.

The overwhelming thrust of disorder has been air blocks and demons, things from the past, and people who come to haunt you with their thoughts and memories of the past. In reality, they come back in a sort of a trail, with bits of your own flesh coming back to you that you have scattered over your life. It is like the bread crumbs in the fairy tales, and following back to your birth, with the resonations on them, through the years of your life, and you have to eat each one as you go back home. And you have to eat it graciously. It is as though it is not an easy task to release one's past and live in the now---the way of a warrior. It is not necessary that you not see people, what matters is not whether you see or not see them, but whether you can still act impeccably without undue emotions, misuse of will, lack of boundaries or flighty thoughts. If you can see people without weakness then it is good to be in the world. The problem is if you are around people and while around you they try to put more bread crumbs down for you. (The bread crumbs are) to try to keep you on the old path, to keep you in 'line' for their sake vs. your own---what they think is the 'line'.

This is why many people who have holy lives have had to be recluses and hole up in caves, they had to keep their vision clear of all Air/Fire/Water disturbances, clattering for attention and control. So you would say that these blocks and demons could be called old earth Air/Fire/Water/Sexual, because any sexual will reflect (sic). Some are just "Hate Law" Air/Fire/Water/Fabric blocks and demons.

It is important to realize these are not just things returning, but many thoughts and memories returning are things restructured and might have actually been created for somewhat a positive reason, like Carlos Castaneda (stated): "If you can't take anymore, you retreat to what is familiar". If the balloon is filling too fast, you throw down anchors. So don't put yourself down overly much, Change must be measured by intensity duration and frequency. You can't just automatically forget about everything you once thought was a pretty good way to live, though now, it may seem shallow.

Frequency: maybe you once spent 2-3 nights a week with parties and laughter, and now spend the time in prayer. Now maybe (you party) once a month or week, so the frequency of shallow behavior is down, and maybe you need that much anchoring to keep bound in earth.

Duration; maybe you used to spend 2-3 days in the doldrums, where you couldn't get out of bed or you had hyperkinetic behaviors, where you frantically had to do something to not think of the soul. And maybe now it is an hour or two in the doldrums and in being self-indulgent instead of one or two days. So don't be too hard on yourself; the duration is decreased in the weakness.

Intensity: say, once your way to "just let loose" was to fly to New Orleans and get shit faced drunk and party for a week, listen to jazz bands and be delirious on balconies on St. Patrick's Day and Mardi Gras. Look at it like intensity, maybe you feel a little bit frantic from the pressure of life and more high-strung than you have ever been before. You feel the sensitivity of your spiritual state, so you drink Skullcap and gin, watch a stupid movie and tube out. That is not so bad, it beats wasting a whole week in New Orleans, to spend 2-3 hours with skullcap in front of a movie. So don't put yourself down when you throw an anchor down to ground you. Maybe it helps just getting into your work and not thinking of anything spiritual. It could be playing music and anything comforting and soothing and which distracts you from the weight of the experience of being an intercessor for humanity.

The path to sainthood is where one gradually improves in ability to endure stress: frequency, duration and intensity. (This path) doesn't require that you're there overnight, merely that you are trying to realize when you have spiritual stresses and while you struggle to understand and control (one's thoughts, emotions, actions) graciously, hold your head high, and try not to indulge overmuch. (It is important) that you are gentle with others who are indulging, because maybe they are improving in intensity. Be wise enough to view from that perspective. We are changing so dramatically in our lower and higher aspects.

In a nagual party the dynamics are so major in one's ability to see the earth and human soul dynamics, it is so acute, you can see people with no soul, and could be weighed down with sorrow if you thought too much about it. But hold yourself together to be an intercessor. Somehow one becomes stronger, how does one become strong? If one is practicing for the Olympics, one would gradually increase the amount of time ice skating, and endure it a little longer, increase the intensity of leaps, and more often a week. Then (one might practice) three rounds a day. It is the intensity, duration, and frequency of your practice which would make you a master for the Olympics. And you are in the Soul Olympics. For that reason you have to build yourself up steadily.

Sometimes in times of catharsis, when renegades try to reform, it may be an air trial, with a water and fire overlay, (which is happening now). Have an eye on it, be aware when it happens and don't indulge too long. You feel the pain, and then you say "What percentage is adaptive, or maladaptive? Is it an old earth block, Air/Fire/Water? If it is, I want to be delivered from it, and remove it from myself with my own will, and if I haven't the strength to do it, I ask the Divine Powers to help, God's will be done."

Through God all things are possible, and through your own alignment of virtues, you take on the qualities of the Christ Spark, and in doing so part of Law, Virtues, and body of Christ and you help others by your own will, love, intelligence and emanations. And you can put your hand out to them and say "demons of water be gone". And what you are actually doing is (---). "This person doesn't have the strength to push out the demons of their own creation, so I am combining my powers with them to help remove it".

There are a lot of evangelists on TV who zap people who then fall over. A truly holy person to some extent can do that if they understand they are zapping demons of the person's own creation. But what good is it if people don't learn how to not recreate them? Father Delorio (?) for example was there as a sign of God. But (one's ultimate purpose) is not to heal, in the long run, because education is the key. Give people hope, and the world desperately needs hope, and maybe that is his role in life. He is holy. Our job is to teach people how not to create demons or create renegade selves and how not to create Air/Fire/Water demons that restructure old selves of consciousness. It is not an easy thing for T2 or T3 or any of us.

When Jesus says that He was here to show us the way, and He was in the garden and He sweat tears of blood, because He experienced the same trials all of us have experienced. He was not short one iota of all the suffering of humanity, and a servant is not greater than the master. We may not suffer the crucifix of the flesh, but of our good names and whatever, we may have to pay the price. We just pray and we don't sulk, and if we sulk, we just pull ourselves back in line and pray. We have to. We have a great responsibility before us scarcely begun, a noble and glorious journey. Reread the (Carlos Castaneda book) Journey to Ixtlan passage in the Messages I book (by Anonymous) about the phantoms that called out from the side of the road. It was when Genero heard the voices as he tried to find Ixtlan. They tried to feed and give him affections, but they were phantoms, and they were so desperate to draw him to them.

Whether one is a phantom or not is a relative term. It was like when T3 said "cows have no group soul". But if you look through the New Earth eyes, they do have an animal group soul, and it is even more glorious. If you remove all the blocks, a lot of humans will get group souls too, as (stated) in the book. Be happy with group souls, as they may step up (to individual souls). Now it looks like people will have individual or group souls.

One of the hardest things about being a servant of God is timing. But know when something is finished or when it is time to do nothing. T2 prayed for hours in the holy room, and she has been able to write two sections of the book, but it has been through great tears and prayers. It will probably be another 2-3 days before she will have another session. T2 will wait for the exact window of opportunity as this book (Advanced Esoteric Dowsing Book I) is on a different level than the last book and takes great attunement. T2 has to go past the trials and it makes her impatient as she wants to go at it. But she rests in God, and knows everything happens according to law. Be patient. In your darkest hour, if you don't understand what is besieging you in time of trouble, do your best to understand the blocks and then earnestly pray that the divine powers will show you a way out and they do.

After you have prayed and have the prayer go forth, you just rest in God and you go and do something else and you shift your consciousness. Play music, clean house, do something, don't just sit around and be morose. Joy is the infallible sign of the presence of God. Be joyful in sorrow. Our joy must be our trust in divine powers in Virtues and Laws. This is where joy is found in sorrow and loss. If you are truly identified with your own attainment with God, then you will be joyful in the core of your being. Now why, when T2 torqued away with the water law, was it she went to the old earth? If one experiences great sadness, one is thinking of an old earth block of some type. It is a mistake T2 made and she will gladly make any mistake if it will lead us out of ours.

LETTER FEBRUARY 27, 1994: Today's News

TODAY'S NEWS

A lot of the spiritual disorder that you feel is due to the reforming of your renegade old selves due to longing for split time persons or false ideas. It is not accurate to just dowse how deviated (torqued) on the Law clock you are that day, because you are missing a lot of the nuances of flaws within yourselves.

You should check each planet, one at a time, on the condition chart, on the quadrants chart, and dowse how many demons (evil elementals that are anti-Law) you have created along each planetary line of force. You should also check each planetary energy line of force for contamination from other people. The contamination could be earth cord leak, monadic drips, desire globules, pranic demons of air, fire, water, earth or sex nature, or hooks or drains. It could be foreign cry or some other auric layer. Most of you now have two Spirit Shadows and both of them have types of desire substance that should be checked as to missing percentage, damage, etc. One of the biggest problems now is contamination or ruptures on the lines connecting you to your holy beings, such as guardian angels. You should dowse morning and night how many of these lines are contaminated, leaking or ruptured.

People with souls on the outer saint ring have a very strong potential to create angels and demons. The difference between angels and demons is whether the elemental is holy (aligned with Virtue and Law in the Now) or unholy (aligned with someone who hates a Law or resists Virtues in the past or fear of the future). You should try to evaluate on the soul block charts, Law chart, and Virtues chart where you are falling into evil resonance problems. For many of you, it is in longing for someone of the past. It may start as a small pranic demon from them, with something like obsessive misplaced devotion, and then you grab hold of the demon and feed it, and grow a cancer or virus in your spiritual bodies from the mirrored pattern. You must not cling to circular emotions or thoughts that arise out of the pranic demons and desire demons floating around, or you will reform your renegade selves, and lose your saint status, and make your holy beings recoil.

Any devotion or desire to a person of the past who hates Law will cause leaks, or squirts that dowse as "sex pox" or "desire pox" on the people that it sprays upon (including other aspects of self). Corpse aura chunks that follow desires will dowse as "self on a string" out to some place (usually in your past) person, or idea of past self that you long for. These can be measured on the Law clock as to severity of deviation, along planetary lines of force, and as to the primary soul blocks/Law blocks.

You can get mega-planetary ruptures; for instance, you can be ruptured on your Saturn line of force at your feet or face or hands, etc. These are very serious energy drains. They prevent you from having spiritual power.

If parts of you such as corpse aura or desire substance, float to the past, holes are left in your aura that disordered egoics/demons from Law-haters in your vicinity can crawl into. Your salvation is your own thought and emotion control, and your refusal to link up with floating disorder. You should disintegrate all floating pranic demons/egoics/desires along each line of force that are in your vicinity, so you will be less tormented.

If you gather enough power, from synergy of balanced Virtues, alignment with Law, and a decision to not leak, then you can create protective elementals in your home that will destroy floating crap. Only a person of impeccability has any power in his prayer. Your prayer is supposed to be the focusing of desire, will and Holy Spirit intelligence toward the end of holiness. If your desires and will are fractured and leaking to the past, then you will have no power.

I will be evaluating all of you for created demons, desire substance out and leaks. -Genevieve.

Dowsing RENEGADE OLD SELVES due to: Split Time Persons...False Ideas (See charts Feb.25-26)

Check: Each planet, one at a time,
On the Condition Chart,
On the Quadrants Chart, and

Dowse: "How many demons (evil elementals that are anti-Law) you have created along each planetary line of force?"

Check: Each Planetary Energy Line of Force for: Contamination Other People... Earth Cord Leak... Monadic Drips...
Desire Globules... Pranic Demons of Air/Fire/Water/Earth/Sex Nature... Hooks... Drains... Foreign Cry... Other Auric Layer

Check: Two Spirit Shadows; Two types of desire substance for: % Missing... Damage... Other "Condition"
Lines connecting you to your Holy Beings: Contamination... Leaks... Ruptures... and on Guardian Angels.

Do: Evaluate on the Soul Block Charts, Law Chart, and Virtues Chart where you are falling into evil resonance
Longing for someone past... Pranic Demons from them... Obsessive misplaced devotion... Circular emotions/thoughts

Check: Pranic Demons... Desire Demons... "Sex Pox"... "Desire Pox"... Corpse aura chunks/"self on a string"
Person... Place... Thing... Idea

Do: Measure on Law Clock Severity of deviation... Along planetary lines... As to the primary soul blocks/Law blocks.
Also: Mega-Planetary Ruptures; i.e. Saturn line of force at feet... face... hands, etc. (Very serious energy drains)

CLASS NOTES: FEBRUARY 27, 1994

You wonder why people who you haven't thought of for 10 years can glob on you? If you start resonating with your old self, you take on a hologram pattern of your old self, putting out a siren saying "Here I am!" If how you become your old self is by resonation, your song becomes your old self song when you start to long for the past, and even in sleep, it becomes the old song, and the others hear it like a siren and go to it. That is why they can glob on you.

If you are your new self, people shouldn't be able to find you in the ethers they should have a hard time hearing your song, they shouldn't be able to hear you. It is important not to have photos, as you go back to that resonation and stick, which is against the Law of Change. This Law is so important as it is what protects you. It is the law of protection. If you are an ever unfolding butterfly, then you will fly above the worm-like state of common man, and no longer be in a cocoon that can be squashed, or a larvae crawling on the ground to be stepped on, you are flying, with no one to blame but self if you are contaminated, leaking, vampired, or a lot of people floating around your head.

If you have made yourself available by saying "That is just the way I am, I have always been that way" if you go retro and instead of pushing to refinement, they can web in and grow like a cancer and virus, where clones and spiritual virus and cancers come from. They start spreading through auric layers if you make the mistake of opening resonations to people from the past. This is why you do not explain yourself too much to people, (better) to leave a little mystery. Say if you meet new people/students, you still don't want them to know much about you. You could seem superficially friendly, but the core of private self you must hold in reserve. Don't reveal a lot about yourself recklessly. The more you reveal about yourself to people who are not really aligned, the more they hear your song, the more they start to think they know you.

Part of the Art of War:

Don't reveal your strengths or weaknesses as you don't want others to counterbalance your strength or take advantage of any weakness. This goes beyond the art of war to a privacy about yourself, or else people can hook in.

That is why changing your appearance is good; it throws off your expectation patterns. The problem is if you get with people who have known you in split time, they will often start to make the sounds that they like about you, and they get angry if you have changed, and they think you are not normal anymore. People get afraid of you if they don't know you. If they see you changing, it is generally experienced as terrifying. They don't want you to change, they want you to be the same as they are comfortable with what you were, and if you change they perceive that as evil. Most people's expectation of evil is based on if you fulfill their perceived emotional needs. If you have reached a position where you realize it is not advantageous for that person's spiritual growth or your own to spend energy soothing emotional bodies or desire substance, they get threatened and afraid. Soothe them a little in a superficial manner, and do not pour desire substance on them.

You should not reveal your changing spiritual structure, or refining spiritual structure. If you reveal it, you will be perceived as alien, evil and crazy, because in the eyes of the world, if you are not looking for food, sex, romance or cuddles/hugs/Buscalo/money...then you are crazy. So it takes a long time for you to lead someone gently. It takes a long time in a teacher role from where they would just accept you as you are within law, and let them gradually make their decisions to align or not align and you let them, and they let you. The only difference is the person who is needy will be threatened and will try to restructure the old you in some way with the old name because they can hold onto it. It is the security blanket who they think you are is a part of what they think they are, and if they don't have it, they tend to flip out. And it doesn't matter how often you contact them.

For example, For's parents are agitated, because cults tell people not to contact their parents. But he had been in contact them, as often as he had for the last two years. Since he is a grown man, it is not unusual to not contact them for a month. But it was not that he didn't contact them, his sound was changing, and they perceived that as they could not contact him (at all spiritually and he was not) at their beck and call.

It is so interesting, the metaphor of "Birthday". It wasn't For's birthday, but the parent kept saying "Oh, we are here to celebrate his birthday!" And when she broke into the old house, she said "Happy Birthday", when it was two months past. What they really wanted was to recreate a new birthday, a birthday hole to reenergize the mother/son connection as it was at birth. She wanted the umbilical reestablished. She thought it was cunning to say "happy birthday", but subconsciously, she was saying the truth. She was here to create an umbilical cord and that is why so many of the holes that have to do with desire dowse as Birthdays. There are people who are trying to web into you with an artificial umbilical cord, trying to become child, mother, father, and old lovers, spouses, whatever.

Example: How many married couples in their 60's start calling each other mommy and daddy? We've got to realize that a pathology develops in relationships of longstanding if the person is not wary of the neediness of relationships whether of the partner, child or siblings. If they get an idea of a certain sound and if you change, they will say you don't have the right to change, you always were this way, so you must be hypnotized to not want Christmas, or turkey, or to go shopping, so you must be crazy.

The way people evaluate your Name is generally what you will do for them. Think about that statement and you know that is true. You may listen to all their crap when they vent their spleen and you hear them talk and that is a sign of a friend to let one ventilate emotions. Where we are, is no longer acceptable to them because we don't want to reenergize negativity.

Example: T1 had a student with two teenagers, (the mother told T1) the children would come home and she would (set aside time to) hear them gripe about their teachers. When T1 called one time, the mother said (she couldn't talk because) it was the "special time of day" with the daughters. People shouldn't get dependent upon reciting the day's events; it is a pathological dependency. In the eyes of the world, it is a lovely thing for mother to sit and hear the children recite the day's events. But it is energized negativity.

Children are taught to be tough by saying "I love you, and let's pray". If they are talking crap, then don't let them ventilate. One does not have to be soiled with hostility or neediness. It is a parent's job to not let a child be excessively needy or ventilate hostilities, they should live in the now. This is a very unacceptable approach to parenting. If a child wants to tell you about how they are struggling, how to understand something, or what they have read about a life of a saint and some inspiration, or they have met someone who seemed to be holy, it is worth listening to. But you should not reinforce evil circular thoughts. And you cannot let them think it is ok, just get up and walk out.

In the eyes of the world, a friend does not do that for a friend, rather, at lunch they will tell you everything bad about another person, and is not they want advice, they just want to gripe. Sometimes you might have to explain why you are out of sorts, like say "I have been trying to deal with an interpersonal relationship problem". That is a positive thing, it is "Ok, I am trying to deal with a conflict, trying to hash this out, and it is not me trying to just gripe".

The biggest problems that we have, have to do with desires and predominately the desire to restructure renegade selves due to residual attachments to people who resist law. All it takes is one alignment with a person you once thought was a pretty neat person. Maybe 20 years ago you thought he was a decent guy, but now he may be a hater of law and you may be defensive. If you slide back, you are worshiping an icon of a person who is peripheral in life, so you can reenergize an old idea of yourself. For example if someone idolized you and made you feel important, then for that reason you may hate to give them up, because after all, who is going to worship you? You may think that is the only time in your life that you had love. It is not the way of the warrior.

(One may begin) to think back on the times of life where it was simple and fun, when one could go out and eat, go to Europe and all sorts of fun things. But St. Paul said: "When I was a child, I spoke as a child, but now I give away childish things". Now, we are not 20 year old flakes, rolling around in bed and eating bon-bons. So it time to give up memories and places. What you remember is pretty darn cloudy, you weren't loved as much as you thought you were.

Even foul memories will restructure the renegade self, as it is part of the identity you want to hang on to. For example, For's mom recites endlessly: "In 1950, her husband quit his job, she was pregnant, with a breast infection and a cocktail party was cancelled with wasted hors d'oeuvres". It was her justification for hating her husband. Bitter memories justify our present spiritual advancement. If you want to be angry, you can dredge up anything from the past to justify it. There are very few reasons to be angry. If you are angry, do it for a good cause, for example Jesus with the money changers at the temple.

The three primary types of demons are Air/Fire/Water and the Planets in combinations and directions.

One could ask "How many demons and shadows do I have of Air/Fire/Water?" You will not get all unless you Check: Planet by planet. You need to look at it from a tighter angle.

Also check Dates and Years and you will find places where the laws are screwed up.

Example: Say you keep getting something over and over again.

You have something on the Quadrant Diagram (i.e. a Retro Pluto energy) and

It seems to be related to Laws, such as Correspondence.

Check the Soul Blocks, Soul Lessons and Virtues, to see what is you are resisting.

Do: Go to whether part of you is out---"Is it desire substance going out to a person or is it originating with you?"

If you have a person obsessing on you, (in such a case) you are always out for them to be globbing on you. If you knew them 10 years ago, and they are sending desire tendrils, they are resonating with your old self; (and that means) you have started to reform your renegade self. With a desire globule sent to the past anchoring with an old job or love, they can follow the rope and come straight to you and spread through your auric layers like a virus or cancer. Generally it is due to a leak and if you have a great wave of passion; you can splatter out desire substance through the holes and that desire substance becomes like a pox on all the people in the room: called Hate Law Desire Pox which makes you itch.

Say someone sees you on the street and they remember your form. They can hone in to your current emanation and if they have a soul or not they can send egoic or pranic demons. If something is wondering around your house, then zap and disintegrate it. If you go to sleep and the spirit shadow wanders off, something else will jump in the hole.

Why does Dracula wander at night? Because people have poor control of desire, and they go into any self-indulgent habit. If poor control of desire is 10% during the day, it is 80% at night. If you control it in the day, you will control it in your sleep. It is why vampires could wander into auric holes from the desire substance out. It is why Dracula invaded the redhead woman, she had desire substance on every man around, so he dove straight in when she closed her eyes and her defenses were down. That is why it is important to pray tonight that holy elementals be formed.

Say you know you have a weakness in a particular area. For example you know you need to learn to be more reasonable and you find yourself getting out of control.

Ask “What line of force relative to a planet do I need to create an angelic elemental along?”

Example: A Venus type angel that has to do with the ability to reason

And then go to a virtue relating to the ability to reason

And ask “That a Venus face of that virtue be in focus” and if you have enough impeccability,

You can will together from cosmic dust a Venus elemental relative to the ability to think properly.

In other words, you are creating an angel along the line of Venus and Divine Intelligence.

You can't do this with desire substance out, or with Venus demons out.

If you long strongly for the past, you will create Venus demons.

The desire substance goes with the use of will.

Nothing goes without will. A lack of will is a misuse of will, and it is a dilution of will in a broad stream. It is not a lack of will, but a squirting out without a lot of focus---you may have a water hose without pressure. Everybody has will and it is either aligned with the fiery force of the Father or else with petty desires to the past or future, which would broaden the diameter of the tube and give it less pressure. One must narrow the scope if you want any power.

Examples for creating Angelic elementals: If you know or not know the weakness, if you seem to have a problem with directing your will, you probably have a Fire weakness. Check the planetary aspect. If you need to create a fire elemental on Jupiter, check for demons out first, then you know you want it relating to severity, so pray to “Dear Heavenly Angels of mercy and light, we ask the Divine Powers to come down and help me create an angel of ___to help purify me in all manners” This is using a higher law with lower law, and can help balance you with the creation of angelic elementals that will protect a scar you have in your spiritual anatomy that may be punctured in the night.

You can create elementals to protect you from wandering spirits in the night. For example:

Today: “What kind of elementals do we need to drive out the grid crap?” Pluto and Virtue 3.

Do: First dowse for removal of the demons,

Then pray that the holy beings come into this room right now relative to Pluto and the 3rd Virtue.

Why do you think when the holy beings are coming in that it causes us to make a mouth movement? Could it be more an act of the creative chakra? Are they actually coming in from outer space, or are they being formed? Feel these angels as they come out, as an odor, a sense of asphyxiation as they come out. We ought to be able to detect different lines of force by odor, and a lot of the demons will smell very bad. It is a link with ionization: with the holy beings it is like a suffocation and with demons; snot.

Create a Saturn/2nd Virtue and check for blocks to making them. See if you can smell the differences. It is not a surprise that the throat chakra with the mouth is linked with the creative chakra of the pelvis. It is a higher center. We are making words and you may not hear them, but we are making the sounds of angels. “Lo, I speak with the tongues of angels”. When we breathe this one, it feels like smoke, it is like a burning sensation in the throat foaming and burning. When you create them, have in mind you want the angels to remove disorders along that line of force. Imagine if many in the world could create these, what a wonderful world this would be.

Mercury/4th Virtue. Start noticing kinesthetically taste, smell, sense of pressure, sound and notice the differences between them---the different holy beings. Ask the divine powers to come into you and help form from raw cosmic dust angels of protection and removal of disharmony and ask for the power to do so with the help of holy forces in the room, and hopefully you will be able to do it by yourself. Some come around and sound like glass wind chimes and it is quite lovely...Mars/One.

There are octaves, and there are fairly low level angels and as you refine you can make, or summon those of other rings. You may be bestowed upon. You will create low level angels that can enhance the holiness of the planet and form protection which will help you keep the house clear and the aura from being attacked by wondering elementals. It is why children were taught to pray at night for guardian angels. Since we are supposed to be advanced, we are expected to be more specific than a lay person. It is advanced training, if we said Mars/One angel to a lay person, it would not make sense, and they wouldn't have the background of what Mars means. We have learned.

If you get used to doing it in a group, you can do it alone. You can feel a tension in the throat if you are doing it properly. You can smell floral aromas like gardenias and magnolia flowers. Try smelling through one or other nostril and can smell better with your mouth open, as you are really tasting it.

Neptune/6: The ones made will continue to purify us and will last at least a week depending on your strength. They should protect people in the room along those lines of force, or you can send them to protect children. For example when (a child) was sick, T2 prayed for the right elementals needed to help him be (---). And in this case (the illness) affected the cell structures with infections from food poisoning, but he is now essentially well. (We can smell) Lily of the Valley, it is like a perfume, we (have the sense of) smell in the fingers.

The more practice we gain in detecting angels, the more refined we become, and then we will know the second the angel or demon comes in the room. Some demons smell like bad breath and will affect the taste like a bad smell. Some make the ears ring. Itching is the most predominant symptom for demons. Some of them, your eyes will puff up. If you wake up and your eyes are puffy it is probably demons.

Method: With a long taper candle, blue in this case, stare at the candle and pull particularly elementals or disharmonies of any kind relative to Uranus/3. Watch the candle flame, and if it is done properly, it should reflect upon the flame. Throw everything in the room relative to demons on Uranus/3. The tip of fire begins to fork out like a serpent's tongue as the demons go in. It is a good way to practice disintegrating demons, because you will be able to see them. Every one (of the demons) that goes through will fork the flame. A good way to do it is to have a glass of water behind the candle and any that won't stick in the fire, will go into the water. You can generally order them to go into one or other.

Practice this if you are sitting very still in a room with no wind and practice in a room with no windows (and you will see) the water will make a splash when a demon goes in. Flames will hop with no wind in the room and you can be in the dark in order to study it. It is wonderful we have the power to do it. It is easy to rationalize this. That is why it is good to practice in a sealed-off room.

The best way to do this is, take a candle, a glass of water in front of a window cracked slightly open and order demons through the candle, through the water and out through to the dirt outside. T2 has seen the flame would split in two and the water would splash on the window as they went out. Do it at night, and order all the demons of planets, of all the virtues out.

Look at the Laws (and Planets). I.e. if one has a Venus hatred for Hierarchy or has Law of Change demons, etc.

You can check Rhythm or Gender and check by each Law for % of hatred.

If you hate one law, you hate them all. Dowsing one primary law can give one a handle of focus for one's hatred of Law.

Usually one Law is an entry point that can grow to hatred for all the laws.

(It would be) a Mega Dissonance Point for hatred.

There seems to be a lot of sorcery in Undead Connections,

And hatred for/the misuse of the Law of Dissonance is an undead (aspect).

Do: If you throw them out at night, ask to create protective elementals along that line to take its place, So that when you go to sleep (it will offer) protection. The flame gets larger with a big rush of demons.

Anytime you are specific, you will get better results.

In this case, we are removing a specific demon and creating protective elementals.

It feels like it happens simultaneously and towards the end (sic).

Why does the flame split? Does the evil go through the center?

Nothing can ever be done without a tight will along the line of the Father and it is a fiery force able to change matter.

Lao Tzu said "A warrior must take care to never lose heart." Because with the loss of heart is the loss of will.

We need to keep the "fire". If you lose the fire, then you lose desire to live.

Desire and will are intimately linked. Or (you might lose) the desire to do good if you lose your will.

In other words, if you lose heart on the spiritual path, you lose your fire to go on, as a fiery aspect of your being is able to burn a road ahead of you. If you lose the will of the Father, you lose desire, which comes from the will of the Father.

Without the will of the Father it is not holy desire, because true holy desire has a fire of will. It is not wimpy and watery. Yes, it follows the line of the Son, of devotion, but Jesus was the Son of the Father, and male. It is a yang trait, desire, emotion, passion; it is a higher octave of sexual desire. Both (sexes) have it along the line of force, without the fire of the Father and devotion begat by the will of the Father---the devotion of the Son---there can be no yin intelligence and wisdom. That is why in Genesis Eve was plucked from the rib of Adam. Without the Will of the Father and devotion of the Son, there can be no airy intelligence.

The feminine intelligence is composed of will and devotion as well. One cannot just be intelligent without devotion springing out of will. Without watery devotion seeping out of (will) there can be no airy Gnostic understanding of God. Yin does in one respect spring out of the (ribbed) side of the heart of the Father and Son and it is not inferior; it is just part of the Trinity. It is just the third beat, "The One begat the Two", was just the number Three which does not make it any less important. The Trinity must be balanced on all sides of the triangle in order to have power.

A warrior must take care never to lose heart; or lose the fiery sense of mission and lose devotion to that which is begat by the fiery sense of mission. And when one loses the desire to learn and to know, and has not the will to know, then one becomes inert, a spiritual couch potato. You have to find little ways to keep your joy, to keep your life going with the burden of sainthood and the knowledge you have. You must not let your knowledge overpower your heart. You must only learn as fast as you can bear to endure the (path with) your love and fiery will. You must raise your will, your feistiness, to the level of your knowledge or you will go crazy. Whatever it takes to remain feisty, you must do it.

It always bothered T1 when she would see a student excessively devotional and submissive, for example "Fm", the week before she left said; "Oh, we are so honored to have this knowledge, so blessed." She went on and on. That is very creepy in the sense that it is "The lady protested too much". If one is trying to say something that many times, one is trying to convince somebody. With everything that is manifest, there is an unmanifest. If one has to insist they are lucky, then they must think they are unlucky.

With one student, he would bow to T1, and it would make her blood run cold. (There must be) no bowing and scraping, it is very creepy. What one should respect and honor is Law and Virtues, the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, but if one goes on and on overmuch about a devotional tract, it is unbalancing. To say you are a "worm" is to say you have no spark of the Father's Will. One should not say one is a worm. One should say "We are masters in the making so we could help the Earth and greater things shall we do, said Jesus".

Our purpose (the teachers') is to help you find yourself, which is a holy self.

Any Self-Created Realities...Defiance vs. Law...any Sucker Globules from people you know,

Do: Throw them into the candle. These seem to follow Traits.

Angels: Can go up and down frequency, which is not the same thing as refinement or holiness.

If an angel is to protect you on a Black octave or Trait,

It has to be at that frequency or a waveform which is disgusting.

But it has to have the ability to dip into hellish microcosms to destroy.

Traits: You could say the Black Octave Trait Destroying Angels. (See above)

Back of the Leg Void Energy Trait:

These that we are doing are Pseudo Sucker Retro Connections.

They are not planets, but Traits.

Traits are of a higher octave than the planetary (energies), which are airy, fiery and watery.

But the Traits are a higher octave of same (air/fire/water), as less solidified.

To understand Fire Trait vs. Planetary Energy: it is a finer substance but not necessarily more holy than a planet.

It could have a malignant trait of a high frequency and complexity.

Do: Measure it as to relative alignment with the Logoic plan and not by complexity or frequency but whether it follows with the will of God.

Measure everything we do think or feel with Law, and we will not be led astray with any person, place or thing because the Laws are immutable. If you ever doubt your path or way---and sometimes with self-doubts it is because of things in the room---go back to the book (Virtues, Laws and Powers), measure your alignment with Law and the Virtues with percentages and it will help you get back on track.

Because what happens, you get to being indulgent if the voices of the world start to lure you like the hounds, sylphs, sirens and the demons of this world. The created thought forms and desires will drag you from holiness and you will think you are going into a rose garden.

The only thing to know is how to test yourself for Virtue and Law and clear your blocks and recognize when you are blocked. If you can do this for yourself, you can do it for others on the Earth. If you ever learn just those things, you will never need to see T2 again, but she would be happy to see you. But it is vital for you to incorporate it when you go to sleep and wake-up because it is your salvation and of those for whom you seek to help.

One of the real problems, like For's parents calling us a "cult"---one of the key things of so-called cult leaders is what they want you to do is stick around forever. But T2's idea is that we will become so aligned with Law and Virtue, that we could be anywhere on the Earth, and never have to see her again; to be a shining beacon of light. The key thing is, if this were a true cult, all T2 would want is to get more people here to bow and scrape towards T2 and T3. But all (the teachers) want is to get the information out. They want us to be able to leave carrying knowledge with us and to be strong, independent and our true selves, not carbon copies of them, but to align with Law and God individually which is your true self---with God and not with them.

Keep in mind a person that struggles to do that is perceived as unnatural in the world, which is where the persecution will come into it, unless you are very cunning and avoid confrontation. Jesus was not a fool, He avoided answering questions. You don't give people more information than they need. He didn't say He was the King of the Jews, He answered with a question "Who do men say I am?" to deflect hostility. It is no honor to be arrested and pulled into court. It is better to do your work. However, that is considered pathological. It takes so much energy to soothe some people. For example "For" could call his parents, but when he didn't spend a week at the house, (the mother) started panicking.

The first ring of the individual souls isn't as creative for angels and demons, so they are more harmless. But the further the rings go out, the closer you are to the Sun, as if on a high mountain you are the closer to the solar force, the will of the Father. The higher you climb up Jacob's ladder, the more you can create angelic elementals, or if you are cranky, demons. So it is very fortunate that some only have the first rings. But they can aspire to climb and become higher types, through their own impeccability.

We are still ensoulment and taking on the karma of the people receiving the book. Some part of them resonates on a tissue level to the book and if they put forth a prayer, even on the weakest level, the Ensoulment gives them a soul. They (the Ensoulers) have been working quite a bit since the books have arrived.

Bad belly aches probably have to do with the Second Spirit Shadow toxicity from accumulation of disorders from going around and removing disorder.

First check: "What percent of the first spirit shadow desire substance is intact and contaminated?"..

Then "Second Spirit Shadow?"

Also, they are growing and you can feel it as the energy seems to come out of the Earth Cord or belly and you may feel bloated or tender around the belly. Make sure all the substance is back and not contaminated, and

Ask: "How intact is the connection to (---)?" For example,

Check: For erosion and check the Traits along Virtue lines.

Here is a Rose/4 disorder. Classify them.

You may be taking on Ensoulment Residue Karma from people receiving the book.

The holy beings called the Destroyers are called in to help.

You can clear with the To Do charts as well. Also the holy beings recoil from ensoulment residues.

Ask: That the holy being connections to the solar plexus (be repaired)...

Which is the Holy Spirit Receiver holy being and is also a Holy Being Caller.

Other people's remembrance of you is like a telephone number.

You could say (for example) it is a Saturn/4 phone number,

Do: So you have to put a block to that phone number with (the creation of) holy elementals.

For example ask: For the Planet...Trait...or Hate Law Correspondence on Saturn/4.

“How many Phone Numbers...Unlisted Numbers...Call Waiting are out?”

This is like typing in a computer code. It is as if one demon is behind the other.

Party Line is like Call Waiting and you will hear the loudest one at first.

CREATE ELEMENTALS ON THE LINES OF FORCE THAT YOU ARE WEAKEST.

CLASS NOTES: Angelic Elementals to Protect Children and for Healing FEBRUARY 28, 1994

Angelic Elementals to Protect Children and for Healing

For children, pray for holy desire for truth, and create angelic elementals around them so they will be drawn to holiness and to protect them from the voices that are around them. If they strongly reject the elementals, the elementals will go to another person. They still have the choice to accept anything that you offer verbally or in the forms of elementals, which will make them more inclined (to holiness), and make the path smoother. As they see our serenity and ability to move through obstacles, and if you give them counsel, they will see you have personal power stored, and as they get older they may admire that and children tend to emulate parents.

Remove the effects of the world, if we can. It is the responsibility and the right to destroy the (negative) elementals and then the children will get used to the holy sounds and when they are in the world they will hear and notice more and more the unholy sounds, and then they may seriously study the laws. And if some event happens in life, you can say, "This is Cause and Effect and you have to deal with that." Gradually, you will be able to encourage them toward their path.

If you work on someone's cancer, see what you can do on the spiritual planes of causation and it seems this one (a person discussed) may be embedded in people. You can tell her about Death Webs, Desire Substance, and that she is embedded in other people. If one is embedded in foul people; the lymphatic system responds so readily when embedded in people who hate law. Talk to them about the Law Clock and Body Parts. A primitive soul can improve (especially) if she does daily study and also checks on the people with whom she deals with in their congruency to Law and Virtue.

Newer Law Test, ask % agreement to the statement:

"God is unfair to the homeless, etc." versus "T3 and T2 are unfair to students".

Today we will check the Spirit Shadow Desire Substance out and whether (we need to be) making holy elementals or not. We can throw stuff into the Desire Diagram, or go through the planets and look for the relative alignment with each planet.

T2 wanted to bring up an important concept. To create holy elementals, they should be created not by desire substance, but by the direction of Will pulling free floating cosmic dust molecules into form with dissonance points aligned with planetary lines of force, traits, and (---) substance. (T2 referencing) Master of Strogalos: the old method was to use an aspect of old desire substance and that was very weakening. It is what the old channelers did.

The new spiritual anatomies are interesting, the desire substances are related to Spirit Shadows One and Two, and not everyone on Earth will have two. It is a two tiered desire substance. Think of them like a dreaming body except not connected to body parts. They are independent ghost forms of self that can operate independently, and have desire substance. It is weakening if it goes every which way. Keep the desire substance in both 1 and 2. Measure if it is 100% in, and if it is out make sure it is adaptive. T2 doesn't know the reason for why desire substance would be out adaptively, but she will figure that out.

Now the Spirit Shadow Desire (Substance) is two tiered. They don't know all the reasons or what the difference of the two are. We must control both of them, and control the corpse aura as well. One could

Ask: For "Spirit Shadows 1 and 2 with 100% Desire Substance in tank",

You don't want to be leaking in the spirit shadow because if you do, you will suffer severe contamination, blow a hole in the aura and lose power. A lot of desire substance has to do with power, (as it is) the Fiery aspect of the Father. Take care never to lose heart; it is the Fire aspect of desire, the heart of desire. Desire is (also) number Two; (Love/devotion of the Son), and Three (intelligence of the Holy Spirit); without the Fiery Heartfelt Passionate Will, there is no ability to control or use desire, as they are intimately inter-linked. The development of will is of key importance.

How to develop will when children and adults are so indulgent? Our society in general encourages lack of will in us, for example the statement "You can do what you want" and (encouraging a belief in) lack of hierarchy (and including) a lack of stressing respect for teachers as this will dilute the will. (People in such a situation) don't align with the group, but function erratically in every which way, with "Who says I can't just ride on the shoulder (of the road) if I want to?" If I drive on the left side in England, and insist on driving left here, then I will have a head on collision on the road. It is like (they are saying), "No one is going to tell me what to do."

Teach them to submit to rules because he who masters a small thing well, can master large things well. For instance a child should be taught that an orderly room is expected, because disorder on the physical realm breeds in the spiritual and mental realms. They need to be taught order, and it is a link to hierarchy when describing order. It is part of order and we must be concerned with superficial and mental order as well. Can a person think logically and follow a train of thought to a logical conclusion? (This teaching) may seem not thought out, but it is if it follows laws with a certain line of reasoning. To the uninitiated it doesn't seem logical, but it is a spiritual logic vs. material logic and it is why we have so many charts.

There is an orderliness in the way we discover things and check lists to clear, and they are meant to help us start to think in an orderly way. (This teaching) develops will incrementally, by doing what is considered a little bit uncomfortable, more and more every day. For example, if something you really hate to do is to clean the bathroom, then clean it every day for a month to get over the repulsion of any duties, or any types of work. If you really don't like balancing a checkbook then you should sit down with texts books, and work with numbers. Or, you should offer to figure something out for the people here. For example, "How many pounds of potatoes do we need for the gathering?"

Do it if you don't like to do it. Figuring amounts, thinking in quantity and quality---be linear if you don't like to be linear. By doing what is uncomfortable, eventually you see what to do and you do it, and you are not uncomfortable. Eventually your will becomes in total control of your behaviors. For example if a certain person irritates you at the office, if gum smacking is irritating to you, or someone picks their nose or does something repulsive, and you get riled, or someone has a language problem that irritates you...if you find yourself rubbed raw around such a person, how can you develop will in such a case as that? You decide to not be irritated by the person that is repulsive (even if) someone has bouffant hair under the arms with sleeveless dresses.

Remembering as T1, she took care of a woman whose pubic hair was down to her knees and bushy. It was so gross to wash every day, so finally she decided to get the scissors. The woman looked at T1 with so much hate and T1 knew she didn't want it cut off. So, she washed it for two months every day and was just sweet about it. It is good for the lower will. T1 always figured it was good for her to do repulsive things and it seemed it was wonderful that somebody would bathe a stinking crotch. She thought how bad it must be to have a back or an ear itch and not be able to move, (if paralyzed) so she would go to patients and scratch their backs and ask them to signal for another place. What if the cheek was itching and they couldn't scratch it? T1 thought "Isn't it wonderful to have this opportunity to serve humanity?"

It is very important to do things incrementally to develop one's will because if you don't work at something that appears slightly repulsive, then anything (might take you away from your focus/will). For example, if someone does something that irritates you and reminds you of your mother or father. If someone can irritate you, then find out what it is (causing) the irritation, and use it for a development of will. Do: Find the trait, and find a way to counterbalance it, if they press your buttons.

The desire substance squirts out of the spirit shadow with irritation. Even worse, you might create an elemental demonic of irritation. Not all of them are big demons like in the movie, but are like bugs that crawl all over you. For example, the Night Crawlers---a lot of Evil Cabala creatures are created by people as they follow an archetype of a flaw. These could be irritable thoughts that start creeping in with a life of their own. They are demonic elementals, but small, and can be thrown out like flies from a window as they swarm you. In a work place if someone is irritable, you will be more sensitive to it, with itching or back pain. It is like snakes that grab hold of your kidneys and you feel a bite in the back. For example, T3 went to an astrologer and when he left, T3 had a pain in his back. The demons have teeth, and can grab you.

Today 600 (holy) elementals are still alive today. How long they will work and how well formed they are is a sign of power. A very good one should be able to survive a full lunar cycle. It is interesting, the full moon seems to be a good time to create good elementals and it is a time for demonic elementals for sorcerers. It is interesting that a lot of elementals that were made yesterday ate up grid stuff from here and 301 last night. They destroyed a lot of the crap. If they didn't destroy all, it is because we didn't create all of the right type.

It would be wonderful for people to try to create an evolved elemental and for T3 to measure them:

- 1) Is it the right type?
- 2) How refined is it? and
- 3) How long will it survive?

It is a wonderful gift to give people if someone in the office is suffering or if a child is dying, to send a protective healing elemental for the parent or child; if it is God's will. If you could fill a hospital with holy elementals...in all the hospitals in Oklahoma City area, the only one with holy elementals was the Catholic Hospital (a newer built Catholic hospital was pushing toward materialism, and the nuns took a secondary place) but the St. Anthony was still run by nuns, and T1 did not see earth bound spirits or demons coming out of people who were dying. A lot of nuns were old, and spent a lot of time in prayer and in walking the halls in prayer and they were creating elementals. With the icons, crucifix, and symbols of Christ, they had a radionic effect in the halls and the people were comforted and blessed.

Remember that if we could...(as many of the younger nuns have no power to create holy elementals)...we need to help the clergy to somehow understand Laws. And T2 is very pleased if we could get more priests to understand the application, then we wouldn't see them going under when around perverts. There can be something so malicious (about the public) involving a religious person who goes bad. People love to read about it---they enjoy the destruction of other people.

T3 states: It like the aspiration to be good or holy is bankrupt, like everything else.

T2 states: It is like anybody who pretends to be religious is afraid to be compared to Jimmy Baker. Yet there are so many ministers and priests who have struggled to bring holiness to the planet and we don't hear about them.

The Corpse Aura has a substance like the Desire Aura and if you have a liver "missing", you will be weakened.

Pranic substance and the corpse aura is something that all people have, whether ensouled and not.

One can get a lot of contamination with the corpse aura.

It is similar to prana but reflects as an organ on someone, and will produce illness if something like that is out.

See how well you can assess someone else.

And then check Corpse Prana Vitality.

Check: "What quadrant their overall substance is resonating with?"

You can have 100% substance in spirit shadow, but if it is in the inverse or retro quadrant, it can mess you up. You may

Ask: "Why is the corpse aura inverse or retro?"

Inside a house, suspect zombie egoic bits, and that the corpse is resonating with malefic thoughts.

One way to measure is to Ask: "How many body parts are floating?" Particularly ask

"How many penises are in the house?" In the Arkansas house they have 50 and vaginas, 82.

"How many mouths?" 90.

Do: Look at a student's mouth and ask

"Where on the law clock and World Map, is it resonating with the grid?"

Check your own vagina and tip of penis, as so much has to do with creative energy that you can measure corpse resonance by these spots the most readily. You might have walked through a store and have sent a desire tendril to someone in the past, and then fueling these crappy egoics that come along. This is why the desire tendrils are so malignant.

Check: On yourself: think of your tips of fingers and check your pointer finger on the law clock.

A lot of desire substance leaks out of the tips of the fingers.

That is why when we throw stuff out, a lot of energy will go out.

Ask: For leaks or ruptures of the corpse aura, and the 1 and 2 Spirit Shadows.

It might be that you have a little rupture that might have healed, someone might have something hooked in and then it sealed over, in the fingers. Ask: "Is anyone hooked into my fingers?"---even if sealed over like abscesses. Fingers are aligned with Virtues.

Teaching children is a primary challenge, we need to teach them and remind them that when the corpse aura is out, it will go out with emotion and thoughts and they will have to seal the spots off, or if they resonate with a person; if retro (will go into retro themselves).

DO: Teach them to pull off all foreign substances, heal the leaks, and pull auras/body parts into the correct quadrants, and see if you can heal these people. We need to figure out how to teach those with souls, as they can rupture themselves. You can look at someone directly and not lock eyes and you can tell when others do lock eyes, you will start to squirm. But teach children not to grab people with their eyes.

HOLY ELEMENTAL PRODUCTION

Practice putting an elemental on top of the table.
Try to focus and tune into its relative alignment.
Check to see if it is 100% maximally refined and reformed,
And if it has a month which an ideal time to survive.

To Measure whether the correct type is created, check by:

- 1) Selecting the right Virtue Power (number 1-31)
- 2) Whether you have enough Holy Father Will to pull it together from cosmic dust
- 3) Whether you have enough Virtue power to keep it alive for any length of time.

The relative refinement of formation would be an indication of law alignment and will; it is a yang component here. Law is the barrel of the shot gun, and without alignment of Law, one can't form virtue powers. Law is the structure. If it is formed, it will reveal its alignment with law, the more formed it is. If it survives, this also shows will, to have the virtue to keep it alive for that long. Keep in mind to practice a lot and an important part of prayer is the collection of power to generate holiness. What you are seeing here is effects of holy prayer.

Practice the concept and elementals of Love for Truth; this is along the line of Venus, but instead of number, it is an aspect of it. It seems to reach a ceiling, it seems to rapidly go up and then stop. In this case, 9 elementals were formed, and they are more refined, closer to 360 degrees. In this case it would be better to think of a concept.

Think of elementals in terms of descriptions:

Mars/21: There is an aspect of intensity to learn what is holy, a holding of energy and not wasting energy on worthless battles. If you have blocks on lines of force, you cannot create holy elementals. Check for blocks on the planets. These will help all of us. What tends to happen is that the rest of us get the hang of it as we go along.

New Earth/27: "To know without fanfare and act without debate" Virtue is very advanced and very important.

Do: When creating these at home, do them every day deliberately and measure yourself.

Measure the quadrant, was it holy?

Measure the refinement, "How long it will last?", and "How many were made?"\

Example: We are seeing one in the correct Quadrant, but this one is deviated a bit south of the diagonal line.

Try to readjust the form so they are correctly aligned.

You want everything to be totally aligned with Virtue and Law.

Vertical is Virtue, and Horizontal is Law, with more of one than the other, it will veer it off the path.

Pluto/7, Venus/2, and Blue Trait/4: Blocks are bits of self out, or egoics, disintegrate them. It is best if the group can make 100 of each...Pluto/6. You don't focus on creating a lot, but as you gain in power you will be able to create more of greater refinement that will last longer.

This has to do with how many levels you can split your consciousness, and if your holy beings are in good shape. The reason it is good to split your consciousness is to make more---it is that you may send to a group of people. It is not like you are dividing the same amount of cosmic dust, but splitting your consciousness to do it on different arenas.

You can tell them where to go. Today they will be divided up among the members to offer protection on airplanes, etc. They might make you feel a little head pressure or dizzy. Ask: "Which Virtue am I lacking?", since your weakness is the one you want to create. To find where your weakness is, is a way to cover your butt, because you always get attacked at your level of weakness. These strengthen the weaknesses, and the more you practice, it is like a muscle, until you get more and more powerful.

Try creating along a certain law. For example try to create elementals that relate to our ability to devour evil thoughts, to help us not be circular thinking or to help keep us from aligning with grid thoughts. To help us to quit having circular thoughts is along the line of Vulcan, to remind us of holiness and not the cackling evil voices from evil imaginations that swirl through the skies. Will these to go to family members that need it and to anyone that it is God's will to help and so they will not be led astray. It is protection for people being worn down by the grid voices. It is entirely within law to create them.

Make elementals related to joy in holiness, divine service, joy of God, learning law, virtuous lives, serving God and Man. Reinforce and inspire ourselves and others by our own manifestation of angels' song, laughter, hope, desire for that which is holy and joy for that which is holy. The Trait of Fire (not planetary fire) is a fiery joy that will inspire you for a long time.

Part of the secret of alchemy is that you have to have a little gold to create more gold. You have to have a little joy in service to law and virtues and if you never have a little nugget of joy, then you cannot create it. You have to have the pattern; it is the starter of the bread. You can take and spread this over the Earth. If everybody who got the books were as joyful in reading and studying virtue and law and elementals such as this should be put in each book, then (----).

The world is full of babbling disordered voices, and (this creation of holy elementals) is merely to counterbalance and protect people and this offers them free will to listen to evil or good. It gives an option as most of the world has no option, and there is so little order. But instead just the joyless recital of what has been taught before, we need to help people be inspired, and it is our job by creating such elementals. If you went to mass and filled the room with such elementals, it would be a wonderful thing.

The pineal seems to be the key to production and is the pathway through the mouth. With fire elementals, candles are helpful and with water types they may be less helpful. Candles are helpful to align the will. These (divine joy elementals) are more complicated to make, as true joy is closer to God, so they are very refined. Some songs create elementals of their own, but are short lived. These elementals take more effort, but are longer lived.

Have joy in the warrior state if fighting for the souls of man in this constant battle which we must face. Have joy in this form of service. It is probably the highest feat that you will accomplish, to see all of the sorrow, and still be joyful. It is to suffer personal losses, and still face truth joyfully with all the losses and against all odds. It is a true sign of impeccability and alignment with God. Joy is a very high virtue to be attained. True joy is not amusement, but is to the core of your being in knowledge aligned with Law, struggling to align with Virtue and the knowledge that you are of service and not an ornament on the planet, but actively bringing good to the face of the Earth. In the eyes of the Earth you will look like an idiot and people will try to defile you and compare you to every slimy preacher they have ever met. Even if you teach 100 people to get only one to listen, and if your own family is unlikely to listen, you will still have joy in knowing you are doing your very best to do God's will.

The persecution we must face will be fairly unrelenting. When T3 was taking out the trash, three potheads walked by and said to him: "There is David Koresh!". Those that sell drugs for a living, if a holy person walks by they have to say something to defile them, as it is their impulse. If we moved locations, they would do the same thing and we just have to live with it. Be joyful, even though we can't go outside the door without people saying trashy things. It takes a lot of impeccability to be joyful in a case like that and if you may be arrested or have trumped up charges against you, or if they raid the place.

It was on the front page of the Oklahoma City newspaper that we were linked with David Koresh; and that was thanks to two ex-students. They did a terrible thing lying. To defile (this work) is a terrible thing, and to overtly go about trying to destroy it through outlandish lies. They were saying we have guns, etc. But we have to live with the hecklers and be joyful. A warrior must take care to never lose heart, if joy is based on what others think of you, you would be in bad shape. We have to do what is right no matter what anybody thinks or says. We don't get outrageous, but we do what is right within law and order and reason. If someone lies about you, it is their free will to do so. If you are on page one of the newspaper, and then everyone looks at you as you are doing something kinky and amassing machine guns, what can you do?

The pen is mightier than the sword. They are afraid of the pen, not the sword. It works both ways. We will use like against like as in homeopathic treatment, and will fight with holy words and not blow out our brains or stab others, but write truth and hold our heads high---indoors. Hold the wigged heads high! (Laughter)

In order to be joyful, we have to will ourselves to be joyful for creation of holy elementals and we need to shift points (Assemblage and consciousness) points to do so. It is interesting to tune into the joy elementals as they are very serene and not giddy. They are very strong, serene and cool, not giddy.

Development of will: For example, anyone who can sew for hours has attention to detail.

In teaching children: you could say that the left side of the body is everything that is good about your mother-- the trait of love or endurance, whatever your mother had that was good, so that they embrace the yin aspect. And the right side of the body is good about the father, or the male you most admire. If you first teach children to respect male/female authority, the birth parents, God, parents, teachers, whatever, if you stress that while doing crochet and knitting, you will blend together the love of male and female and order/hierarchy with yin and yang movement of the knitting and crocheting.

Since order is so linked with hierarchy and a garment is linked with order and form, aligning it with the Law of Gender is very important. Also the Law of Season; after night comes the day...see the movement of all things of flux (sic). Why do we cling to what we know? With every stitch, look only at that stitch, and one should be able to construct something and not realize how long one is sitting there. If one is truly in the now, one would not squirm. What if we could teach children to sit still and know what is God?

God is Law and Virtue; the fingers are the virtues and a sense of being in the now, with male and female powers, with the laws of season, moving rhythm and polarity where one thing on a pole like is a magnet and another (sic).

Virtues: a child could be using the fingers to move certain lines of force through certain threads and look at the colors they are fashioning with what you pick of the yarn. You can ask them "What does that color mean to you?" and then bring in a trait aspect. Like "If you think of green, could that conceivably be healing to you?" You should always bring in Law of Polarity with color and design. For example, whenever you see only red in a room, your eye hungers for apple green or (magenta), due to the hungering for poles, for a balance in polarity. It is like thinking of the Dinshah color charts whenever you see deep blues, your eye hungers for orange, browns, or rust, because if you only had blue in a room, with no orange, or rust, you would hunger for the other pole. It is the Law of Polarity, there are poles in colors and in people as far as people (----).

This is where people get the idea that opposites attract, you could say similarity is attractive due to partial resonance. Complete resonance destroys. If you had a room all one color, you would feel destroyed with a deadly resonance. If you had a room predominantly green with one throw pillow magenta or red, you would feel soothed.

You are teaching them design; or the Law of Polarity or Vibration. What is the energy that makes on the (---)? If you have a color or another as the light bands hit your eye, is it the true color, or does it go beyond and is it the vibration on the color bands that you receive (sic)?

Law of Season, if you have sewn a garment...if you wear the same color all the time, i.e. black, you will get sick unless you wear an undershirt of colors. They are frequency bands. And it was very frightening when it was popular to wear black all the time. Black does block energy from going through you, but you must have color in your life to balance out the black you are wearing in public. If you don't do that, you will feel ill. If you ask a child "What is your favorite color?"---with a weakness, one will be drawn to that color, so you may strengthen it by understanding the attributes of other colors. Why do you hate a certain color, i.e. a lot of people hate mint green, which has to do with hatred of Cause and Effect. Many people who hate mint green, it has to do with the frequency band of mint green. It might have to do with one of the virtues; a defiance to the 14th which is Indifference and Impersonal Action, and also Stability, the 10th Virtue. If you think of mint green as a wimpy color (you may be threatened by it), and one who could enjoy it would not be threatened by it. What you resist is a weakness to something.

If someone hated pale violet, they would tend to have a problem with the Law of Division. They would think they are able to shove to get their own way for anything without respect to economy of energy. Once T1 knew a red headed woman who wore red clothes and had red fingernails, who tried to shove her way into success, with the success aspects of predominately red colors. She liked being fiery. (It represented the) Law of Division, she was pushing her way instead of trying to split the obstacles in front of her. She didn't try to part the Red Sea, but tried instead to swim to get to the other side.

A person who would embrace all colors would tend to understand nuance. As you attain virtue power, you can detect shades and colors will glow, with more nuance to shapes and of purple and violet.

Reds are interesting, so many shades of red with so many completely different characteristics. If you are strongly attracted to a color, it is your weakness. As you gain appreciation of tones, like a pale yellow with a lemony undertone, we ought to be able to look at something and have it not be a favorite color, but learn to appreciate all colors. People who are depressed often crave blue or have water imbalances. They will crave blue because it is a reflection of a water imbalance. If you avoid blue it may be imbalance as well. Observe the colors you go towards (and resist).

If you use different types of fabric, you will feel different (colors within them); there is a silk color, a cotton color, a wool color, all are of a certain color, and if you shine through a light and sense this and ask "What is the feeling?" The fabric will put off a different energy even if it is the same color.

Men wear subdued colors for sternness, as they give a power presentation. Men are becoming a little too yin with lighter colors. It is like saying "I'm taking off these emanations, and this is what I am". It is good however, to shift colors a lot, so people could not get a grip on you. If you crave a fiery red, it is deficiency or an excess of fire. We have genetic tendencies with color imbalances, and ideally one could wear all colors. They are a measuring of the lower tendencies and what you wear is how you align with your genetic tendencies.

The concept that everything is a pattern; take a cloth design with a lot of angles, how do you feel? For example compare a paisley vs. a floral design. Also we need to be aware how words on clothing impact the children. At high schools T-shirts say "Racism Sucks" and it is a weakening thing to put on shirts. For example, For's jacket with leukemia (design/words) on it, is not good.

Muscle Testing is another way we can stop and think of the patterns in life. If we teach that, then the desire to merge with Law and Virtues will become better (sic), it is the rudimentary education of people. Teaching the importance of pattern is a key trait, and how can you teach a person to be a master musician if they don't understand Law of Dissonance?

Dissonance is something unexpected, it is what gives something life and anchors it in room. Say you are in a room with a Victorian design---then to have an oriental vase, it is a surprise. You might see walls that are patterned with rudimentary flowers, and then see another pattern on the cushions. Some people think it is better to not have something clashing, yet sometimes we need one sound that is not expected.

Each color has a variance of nuances and you have to look at the octaves of color, i.e. blue with devotion.

Ask "Which octave of blue is this, is it visible or nonvisible?"

It may seem like it is a gray cloud, in the sky, so you can shift your awareness to that octave.

This is higher awareness by being able to shift your awareness to another frequency and one can go into and out (of the frequencies) with will, so that you won't get to be like the idiot in the recent movie, where he got stuck in one awareness and went nuts. We must be able to shift in and out and know which octave you are looking at, if you cannot, you are not a master.

An extreme example of what you might do without thinking on another plane of causation is: you might see somebody with a cloud of evil around their mouth, with poison squirting out of their mouth, so you might assume that the person is evil and get them out of the office and fire them because of the evil, so you fire them. Now what if that person had a Living Possession, say their dead mother was grown in them and you could have removed that, and the poison would have stop dripping, and maybe the divine powers had at that time seen fit for you to heal someone? If you make an assumption about them too readily, and you fire them and they commit suicide from being weighed down (---). Be cautious about evaluations, and cautious on interventions on the material and spiritual plane. It is something you must learn, and if you don't, you will be reckless.

What is the downfall of all spiritual healers with great gifts? It is they can see greatly, but they may not be able then to slip in and out of awareness because they will fixate on something on the wrong quadrant and won't know the difference between something with right hand 100/100 and Inverse. So they might hear a voice to build a medical center which may be a distraction of a dark force, but was assumed to be good because of the high complexity and frequency.

That preacher (in the movie) was not a bad a person, but he was not wise with an ability to perceive. With his gifts, he got cocky and assumed that anything he saw had to be holy and never once did he think to seriously evaluate whether his vision was inverse or retro to the holy path. And he didn't go to trying to understand what is holy or not, true or not.

One of the key things that T1 tried to do was to create standards of evaluation so that you can determine independently (of the teachers) what is holy and unholy, and not rely on dreams and visions at random, and then wake up later in the middle of the night thinking you are supposed to move to South America. You will know, because you have standards and procedures.

Standards are Virtues and Law which is the basis of all holy religions.

Procedures are frequency, complexity and quadrants of orientation.

Check: Whether the (action) is on the straight and narrow--if it is on the diagonal within the Right Hand Quadrant.

In the early days, we asked for the polarity (of a thought, word, action, other), using the right or left hand, but the Quadrant Chart is far more refined. It is infinitely more refined than a polarity check:

Which asks “Is it good or is it bad?”. Good or bad for whom?

“Is it good or evil?”; most dowsers would stop there.

We need ways to double check ourselves, and that is why we have these charts. We need ways to examine what we are looking at from every angle without blind spots that lead you astray. It must seem we do the same things over and over, but the very fact that we have followed the guidelines in some fashion, we are able to create holy elementals now, and we are not creating demons. We are learning to hold in our desire substance. Know if it is yours or someone else’s.

How can you know anything if you don’t know your identity? In what religion do they stress how to know who you are and how many people? If you don’t know who you are, you will be torn between identities, and fractured in power and focus.

A big task is before us, it is not an easy thing, to not just “rest in the Lord and be saved”. You might be saved as a good old boy, but as a saint, you are expected to work for your salvation. “By the deeds and fruit of the tree, will you know them.” If the created elementals are aligned in the upper right hand with the correct tension, then they will be powerful and holy. If you just dowse “good or bad”, you will just be a simplistic fool, and be torn asunder. If you recklessly intervene with no careful forethought, you are dangerous.

In everything that is done, one is cautious, intelligent, and aware of systems and procedures, and standards. We must be above all, harmless to the Earth and inhabitants except to those things that are evil that tear up the plans of holy hierarchy. We must in fact do battle on that front, which is not a popular concept.

This is why the churches no longer say Saint Michaels’ Sword. What a sorrow, as we must keep our sense of necessity and must not get so smug that we walk into the hands of the enemy who are the haters of law and virtue. If you ever forget the enemies are out there, then you will become them. The polarity is fundamental to everything we do, and the more you fight for order, the more disorder will fight you, and try to tear you asunder. Try to be as invisible as possible so they don’t get a grip on you. Get rid of death webs.

Keep your identity, know Law and Virtue, what is correct or not, truth or not, order or disorder. Learn those things, gain in power and you will change the face of the Earth.

HYMN: "Oh Jesus, Oh Jesus, I have no friend like you."

Hymn:

*Oh Jesus, Oh Jesus, I have no friend like you.
If heaven's not my home, then Lord what will I do?
The angels beckon me from heaven's open door,
And I -- don't feel at home in this world anymore.*

A saint soul; if one has lost the sacrificial sense and sense of duty, the sense of Joan of Arc and the disciples, the sense of duty and devotion, if a saint should lose that, they would lose the saint soul. The whole purpose of saint souls is to be deliberate in waking, sleeping and in all times and ways to do God's will. It is a type of soul educated to action and service. You cannot separate life as a saint from service. All aspects of your life must come under the scrutiny of the soul.

Evil overtakes a saint not by a full assault; the best way is through insidious resonation, by merely getting you distracted so that you resonate with zombies. That is why religions have emphasized the proper behavior and use of substances, as they affect the vessel. It (the body) can't hold the light of Virtue if it is poisoned. One person's poison may not apply to another. In general, thoughts and emotions are what poison the vessel. "It is not what goes in the mouth, but what goes out of the mouth that poisons the man" (Jesus' quote). It is the Law of the Vessel.

Law and Virtue: Virtues being yin, and Law yang, they have a type of power that when balanced according to the Law of Polarity, they have the ability to focus downward intersecting light rays where the two forces meet--the cross of matter; two lights intersecting in matter.

If one of the arcs of light goes haywire, or walleyed, we have no creation, as creation depends on the poles' intersection.

(Drawing not currently available:)

The point of light is the point of combustion.

The triangle is the dot at the center of the two figure 8's; it is the top of the triangle.

The side is the yang, and Father is the top part of the pole, or the center of the figure 8.

How does one time travel? It is when one travels through the dot in the center (of the Mobius)

It is the point of junction of Law and Virtue; it is the power to move through time and space.

That is a very important statement.

If one is asked; (one might respond) "If the eye be not single, the body would not be filled with light".

If one is not looking at the same point, there is the possibility of destruction (sic).

Pray for Divine Intercession. Always; never forget that all of our positions have to do with intercession. It is why we are all here; we are all intercessors for humanity.

DRAWING: 31 Mobius Chart

This is the correct version of MOBIUS CHART. It reflects the thread to creation between the second and third mobius, as well as the lack of a null zone between the second and third mobius. The lines between each mobius could be said to represent the null zones. NULL ZONES can be dowsed by directions: north, south east, west, up, down, in (centripetal), and out (centrifugal)
