INTRODUCTION to VIRTUES, LAWS and POWERS (excerpt) by Anonymous

Introduction

Published 1995

ISBN 1-885-186-83-5

There are people on the Earth today who hunger for knowledge of the mysteries of life. They may have sought to satiate their thirst for Truth through paths of science, art, philosophy, psychology, religion, or social services. Many, at the close of a long career in such fields, hear the hounds of death at their heels while their spiritual bellies ache with emptiness. They go to their deaths longing for the unknown, trembling with angst.

It may seem preposterous for this book to presume to fill some of that void by bringing to the reader the fundamentals of the natural Laws of the soul. Indeed, few people have ever considered that the soul of man has a type of matter, not unlike his flesh, although existing in a different octave of being. Few people are aware that there are principles, similar to known physics principles, that control the dynamics of spiritual matter. Furthermore, such spiritual Laws have a watershed effect upon the physical body of man and the Earth.

Looking out upon the sea of disorder within the major cities, one cannot help wondering why violent crime is becoming increasingly prevalent, and what could bring it to a halt. During the sixties the cry of liberals was for more social services, as though money or food could be the panacea. Others cried for gun control, more prisons, or other material solutions. Despite all attempts at controlling societal disorder the ghettos swell with violence, and the traditional family structure is almost gone.

There are some idealists who look into the heart of this disorder as though it were full of signs of wonderful societal transformation for the better. And yet, teenage pregnancies, AIDS, infections, robberies, rapes, and murders all continue to increase in number. By what criteria are these idealists measuring their success?

If one looks back over recorded history, pockets of societal peace and order rise out of the pages with haunting similarities of belief systems. Within each religion can be found keys that lead to the inner teachings of the fundamental Laws of the soul and of life itself. The fighting between religions has been due to clinging to differences rather than searching for similarities. The obvious similarities are merely echoes of the underlying mysteries which have traditionally been reserved for an inner circle of the spiritual elite.

The knowledge of the inner mysteries of life, held within the core of each religion, was withheld from the masses because of the danger of sorcery if the principles were applied without integrity. Any power that can transform a man's soul can also destroy his body if directed with malefic intent. It was safer to allow the alchemical mysteries, which were the core of each religion, to be watered down in a harmless fashion, in a way that could possibly change man's behavior through fear or promise of heaven. It was assumed by the spiritual forefathers that a man who lived decently might learn to think decently. If a man thought in a decent manner, then, later he might be able to control the spiritual forces with integrity and not run amok with unbridled passion.

For this reason, most religions focused upon behavioral instructions, rather than the reasons that certain behaviors could block the path to spiritual power. People have, by and large, decided that the behavioral instructions are no longer valid and so have developed many blocks to the higher teachings.

It is now time to reveal the inner teachings, in hope that humans can understand the reasons for behavioral sanctions and thought control.

The Laws are immutable. Man cannot break these Laws, but can break himself against these Laws. This is happening today on a massive scale. A man can tell himself all day long that fire is not hot, and yet burn himself, should he put his hand in a flame. Just as there are lower laws of the visible component of fire, there are higher Laws of the unseen components of fire. Many a man has thrust his own unseen components into fire and burned away part of himself.

It is possible to heal oneself through the application of higher Laws. If humans can bring healing order to their own lives, then they can begin to bring order to their families and to their own culture. If they do that, they can start to bring order to the world.

Healing the world must start with healing the self. This book holds the ancient mysteries through which personal transformation is made possible, if the applicant is sincere and willing to change. The dilettante will benefit little, except through some intellectual titillation. This book was written not for dinner table discussion, but at great price, and with great courage, by a traveler within such mysteries, in hope of helping humanity out of chaos. Since it merely recites the principles of the mysteries, it shall be considered anonymously and gnostically written, for man cannot hope or presume to create the Laws and Virtues. This is not a "channeled" book, but a book reflecting the experience of the traveler through many realms as real as the one before your face.

If you also dare to be a traveler into unseen realms, this book will guide you safely.

1994 DECEMBER LECTURES BY ANONYMOUS

The following class lectures are transcribed either verbatim from audio tapes or from class notes unrevised by Anonymous. These lectures and written lessons were given by Anonymous to audiences familiar with the general background of Spiritual Science. The emphasis was in the dissemination of knowledge that was normally hidden from the general public, but has had a haunting recurrence throughout the millennia.

NOTE:

- 1) All LESSONS, LECTURES and CHARTS were given in class, created by Anonymous. Class Notes were taken by an auditor and not corrected by Anonymous and for these, it is suggested the reader also refer to the original, unabridged audio tapes.
- 2) The best introduction to the dowsing system may be found in the Advanced Esoteric Spiritual Dowsing Books, I, II, III.
- 3) Please keep in mind that this library is missing many of the original audio tapes (of which there were at least 50+ per month during a three year period) as well as some of the dowsing charts, Class Notes and Lessons. These books are compiled from the resources currently available to this library.

“Lessons” and “Letters” were composed by Anonymous

“Class Notes” were typed during the lectures and were unrevised by Anonymous.

NOTE: Book chapters for Advanced Esoteric Dowsing Charts IV were written during this time from October 1994 through 1995. “AED IV” was completed with charts in 1995, but it was not published and is not currently in the possession of this library. The book’s contents and charts, however, are (mostly) intact and are presented here as they were originally written.

LESSON DECEMBER 1, 1994: Life and Death (Part One)

LIFE AND DEATH

(Part One) Rough Draft

Many people desire to live long physical lives and yet have failed to recognize that to do so would be impossible if the Earth does not survive. The Earth cannot survive unless mankind takes a strong stance to save it. Without understanding what is destroying the Earth, one cannot go about stopping the destruction, unless one is guided by higher beings to undertake correct action even without understanding the reasons.

Many religious and philosophical people have presented warnings about the future of Earthly existence. Many science fiction writers have been inspired by holy beings to warn humanity about potential holocausts if humans do not follow universal Laws that were designed to preserve life. Even so, religious warnings and artistic metaphors have not averted the probable outcome. For that reason, it is time to be direct as possible, despite the difficulty in communicating complicated information into base language, crude drawings, and blunt admonitions.

I could tell you what behaviors lead to personal and planetary physical/spiritual death, and tell you what behaviors would lead to life. However, it is within the design of power that I reveal why.

Earthly life is dependent upon a framework of principles of existence, herein referred to as Laws. Laws hold the framework for all visible and non-visible phenomena. Scientists have mastered understanding of a few physical laws, and yet little is known about laws that manifest as physical in (what to most people) non-visible realms of human existence.

The banal consensus of the common man is the reality that most people embrace. Unfortunately, the common man is common because he does not aspire to great vision and understanding of the mysteries of life. It is the fashion to herald the merits of simple people who do not struggle to know, but merely to experience the benefits of those who have struggled before them.

Without living with appreciation for the well-published basic germ theory, many people rely on antibiotics to recover from self-inflicted disease. People who smoke their lungs to death expect a transplant and for society to pay for it, as well. People who do not concern themselves with the modern contraceptives expect people who do use contraceptives to pay for children who allegedly have no fathers. Of course, these societal symptoms merely reflect a deeper disease.

The symptoms should be noted, however, because they are symbols of the disease. A wise man will view all things as interesting, all situations as food for learning, and human appearances/behaviors as symbols of deeper selves, of cores.

How does one understand the symbols? First one must know dark from light, left from right, up from down and so on. Symbol interpretation depends upon a context and an origination point.

If a man had lived his whole life raised by wolves, without human contact, then an airplane would be interpreted as a bird. He would think it impossible that another man could be inside such a huge bird, controlling the flight. In a primitive human culture, the use of a simple radio could be perceived as witchcraft and punishable by death. Our society is not so different, for many people who claim to love God would (and have) put prophets to death and called them evil or crazy for speaking of things not of the common man. In our current "civilization" the tendency is to put prophets to spiritual/mental death through drugs and institutionalization. Or, by elaborate media slander uncommon men are driven to hide lest they be charged with base crimes that are the product of evil minds, and thus sent to prison.

Symbol interpretation is the work of uncommon men who are able to see from a perspective that is grand and yet the irony is that a common man who struggles to learn about symbol interpretation is refined by his very struggle, until he is no longer common. He sees with a broader context, with an origination point of a higher order; that of a seeker of knowledge. He has chosen Truth over comfort.

Only a person who has taken that first step, to seek knowledge rather than the reinforcement of a comfortable cosmology, can benefit from these teachings. The next step involves examining common societal concepts that are reinforcing personal and planetary destruction, and taking action to not be destroyed in the web of those false concepts that defy fundamental laws about the preservation of human life.

The first thing that pops into most people's heads is "how can anyone know laws?" If you learn to interpret symptoms of disease, then you can propose the natural reason for the disorder within a defined concept. For instance, only relatively recently have scientists been able to see genetic material such as DNA, yet, for centuries people have been breeding hunting dogs within the framework of natural genetic law. They could see the results of certain inbreeding. They could see what breeds were fighting dogs. They didn't have to see chromosomes under a microscope to follow natural laws. Even so, some people today insist that dogs who have been bred for fighting are really harmless unless riled. As a result, many children have been mauled or eaten by such dogs, since the owners refused to accept the genetic laws as valid in their particular case.

There are laws relating to known genetic laws that are not commonly known, and yet the diseases resulting from defying those laws are rampant. There are aspects of genetic materials that are not now observable with a microscope, and yet humanity will die unless the symptoms of the breakage of such laws are not heeded.

For every law that I attempt to define to you, I can show you examples that are observable as symptoms to anyone who cares to notice. For instance, if you look in school yearbooks at the first graders for several years in a row, you will find that children's appearances are changing. Their faces are becoming increasingly irregular with more moles and subtle facial deformities. Check the same socioeconomic group and the same race together for comparison for the last year, ten years prior, and ten years prior to that. Ideally, check the same race/group since 1940. Do not compare any group with another race or economic group. The idea here is to illustrate that all races and economic groups have changed in facial structure, and has nothing to do with racism.

Each aspiring spiritual scientist should study faces for clues to the mysteries of the soul, mind, and body. In particular, people's eyes have changed dramatically since 1940. Eyes have lost their glow. Compare the old movie "Gone with the Wind" actress Vivian Leigh's face with the face of a modern actress, such as Jamie Lee Curtis. Current actresses often have more angular faces, and more skin flaws. Compare early Clint Eastwood's face to the now popular Johnny Depp, and notice how androgyny has crept in. Androgyny is everywhere: walk in a mall and notice teenagers. It is not just the dress or hairstyle. If you check old World War Two era movies, many women had short hair and wore pants and yet could never be mistaken for men. Old movies showed American Indian males with long hair, and yet they could never be mistaken for women.

The Bette Midler movie "For the Boys" was an interesting slice out of several wars' histories which illustrated behavioral changes in Vietnam soldiers that were chilling to observe in comparison to the polite behavior of earlier war's soldiers toward entertainment troupes. Of course, many people would try to blame the vulgar behaviors on the government which caused the suffering of the soldiers depicted. Any student of war history knows that suffering was not unique in Vietnam, but that in previous eras American soldiers tended to react differently to stress. This is not pointed out to defame the brave men who fought, but rather to illustrate symptoms within a larger picture. To do so, it is necessary to look at the large group, while understanding that many soldiers did not take to drugs, rape, and violence toward innocents.

So many people have sacred cows about individuals or their own self-concept that they cannot see the big picture or the detail, and so lose the symbols which could help them to understand the forces which have harmed their loved ones. If one is brave in looking at one's own life, at the big picture and detail, for symptoms of disease, then it is easier to see others clearly. Another bias which blocks symbol interpretation is the assumption that everything has a logical physical explanation. There are realms of logic that you can hardly imagine that are as real as your house or car.

An example is the materialism of the reported alien encounters. One irrefutable fact is that many people report being held hostage by weird looking creatures not of Earth. That human (limited in sight) eyes can usually only see these creatures in some kind of dream state is used as evidence that they don't exist. Our society rejects what it cannot fit into its known puzzle of reality. Our society's societal accepted reality puzzle is comparable to a preschool puzzle compared to the interlocking realities observable by the spiritual scientist.

Most UFO buffs have missed the ball park in that the mystery is more horrible than they can imagine: the aliens are demons from across the veil of good and evil. To materialists, that would be a relief; they would merely get a priest to say a few words and all is well. Or they (who have been called crazy) say that such a theory is insane and not scientific.

There is no priest who can drive back the alien demons because humanity wants them. Unfortunately, humanity will die as a result of the torn veil, unless action is taken. To say it is a torn veil may sound religious, and you likely would prefer something mysterious sounding like "time/space warp." We cannot bomb the aliens out of the sky because they are becoming us.

The mystery of the aliens is intimately linked with the not so subtle changes in human appearance and behaviors mentioned earlier. Humanity is not a victim of the aliens at large, and yet many innocent people suffer because of the group decisions.

The aliens entered the Earth through the application of laws which are not commonly known. Whether one calls these laws "scientific", "Physical in other realms" or "spiritual" is not important. It was not the aliens who applied the laws, but rather humans that applied the laws to create the present result. Whether humans knew that they were applying laws to create a planetary disaster is immaterial. You can operate a telephone without understanding electronics.

It is time to understand the laws that have been used or not used to cause the present degeneration of society and its impending death. A key point is to realize that there are different laws in focus on the other side of the veil between good and evil than those which are intended to be in focus on this side of the veil. If a person moves from Cuba to Alaska, he will have to obey the weather rules and wear a coat or he will freeze. He can argue all day about how coats don't matter, but he will freeze his butt off. Also, if a nuclear winter should occur, then the people in Cuba may be begging for coats. Decisions change the impact of rules that normally govern a place or people. If a person doesn't keep his mind and eyes open to detect change of spiritual or physical weather, then he may find himself unprepared for a big storm.

The other side of the veil was intended to be the worlds of chaos to balance this side of the veil which was intended to hold worlds of order. This follows the law of Polarity in the creation of universes. Both sides of the veil depend upon the Law of Polarity to survive. However, order is always stronger than chaos, and so the veil had to be torn from this side.

Some of the laws of the chaos side may seem like laws on this side, and yet they are not laws for this side, except in the lowest appearances, which are often paradoxical when viewed from above.

Examples of aspects of laws of the other side are:

1. Power is in combustion of matter.
2. Survival of the fittest individuals or packs.
3. Free will is to die early or vampire.
4. If the other (our) side of the veil inhabitants give up their core generativity seeds to alien demons, then they must serve as slaves of chaos.
5. Procreation through cloning.

There is much to uncover about those concepts, and yet a few notes will suffice for now, in how they contrast with the spiritual laws of this side. True power for our side is in the conservation of matter, and not combustion. Survival for us must come from survival of the spiritual workers who can lead others out of chaos. Free will for us must mean that we are aware of what it means to break a law and then be controlled by alien demons. If other people are slaves to alien demons, then they must be broken from that tie by people who can fight for them, or else all humanity will be poisoned by those slaves. On this side of the veil, the law of Gender prevails, and cloning is evil, and spreads evil. Cloning advances the alien demon genetic disorders, and hastens the death of humanity.

It's late so I had better quit writing. I have a lot of spiritual research done, with several notebooks full, but I must creep into it a bit at a time, so as to make sense. G.R.

LESSON DECEMBER 1, 1994: Desires and Cross of High Powers (est.)

Desires and The Cross of High Powers

If one is able to clear the aperture eyes and align them upwards to the soul eye in the Now, then it is possible to access powers of great magnitude. On the other hand, some disorders on a soul level may block such powers from being used down line to help humanity.

Individual karma crosses stand in the shadow of a greater cross relating to the powers of the realm of Grace. This greater cross has four arms of power lines: Father Will, Son Love, Holy Spirit of Intelligent Understanding and Our Lady of Intercession and Bringer of Angels. Unlike the cross of matter (the individual karma cross), there is no arm relating to manifestation into flesh associated with the Grace Cross. The Grace Cross has the four power lines listed above and the Logos link in the center. The karma cross has the four power lines listed above, and yet one of the powers is in the center of the cross, as a key connection to the higher Grace cross.

Just as humans have a karma cross with a downward flesh arm, so does the planet Earth have a mega (group) karma cross. Both Earthly and individual karma crosses have the four powers with the main seasonal power positioned in the center. The center position of the Earthly karma cross links upward to the center position of the Grace cross and downward to the individual karma crosses. The bottom arms of the Earthly and individual karma crosses indicate material expression, the flesh. Man must reach the Logoic powers through the karma cross connection to the Grace cross.

One of the Laws governing material Earthly existence is that all beings are large Yang/small Yin or large Yin/small Yang. There is no such thing as androgyny in the physical world unless there is death. The Earth goes through spiritual cycles of a Yin or a Yang nature and this is reflected by the spiritual powers that move down, on a seasonal basis, into the Earth's karma cross from the higher Grace cross.

All four of the powers of the Grace cross impact humanity at all times, but there is a rotation of the arms according to season so that one of them points downward toward the Earth's karma cross at any given time. There are seasons, as well, of the Earth's karma cross that bring forth stronger influences of a yin or yang nature at any given time. The season is indicated by the power in the center of the karma cross and the power opposite the flesh arm of the karma cross.

When the Christ was in flesh, in Jesus, the Grace cross had rotated so that the Son arm extended to the lower Earthly karma cross and intersected it at the center. The Holy Spirit became the small yin power to balance the yang Son power. It is as though the top position of the Earthly Karma cross was taken by the Holy Spirit, which was beamed downward into the flesh arm through the major influence of the center Son power. Jesus said to the disciples, "it is expedient for you that I go away; for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I depart, I will send him unto you". (John 16:7). He meant that as he physically left the earth, then the Comforter could enter human flesh as the pivotal power of holiness, with his own power of the Son as the guiding shadow from the Grace cross. When He left the earth, the Holy Spirit took the center position and he took the guiding shadow position opposite the flesh arm that was vacated by the Holy Spirit.

Only one of the major four powers can enter the center of the karma cross at one time because each must enter in the appropriate season. You could say that the season of the Father is summer, Our Lady is spring, the son is autumn, and the Holy Breath is the winds of winter. The end of the Father seasons signify times of spiritual harvest.

The Comforter (the Holy Spirit) is the second yin power other than the power of Our Lady. The other yang power is the fiery face of the Father. In every mega Earthly season, there is a large focus on a yin or yang power and a smaller focus on an opposite gender power. The center position on the karma cross signifies the primary season and the position across from the flesh arm signifies the underlying opposite gender complimentary seasonal power.

Seasons are not fixed time periods, but are linked to the amount of karma accrued by humanity. The Earth karma cross has recently moved to having the power of Our Lady in the center and the power of the Father as the beaming force opposite the flesh arm. This, in turn, reflects the Grace cross as being rotated with Our Lady's power down line so as to intersect the lower Earthly karma cross.

It is as though the Father and Our Lady begot the Son and the yin Holy Spirit. We are in the season of planting, the spring, and the summer harvest will follow. Only after the harvest will the season of the Son reappear. The powers of the Holy Spirit and of the Son are still accessible, but are more accessible if one takes into consideration the intercession of Our Lady and the profound influence of the Father, who is the Bringer of Law. During this season, it is expedient to appreciate the holy yin forces, to pray and to study Law in order to gain in power.

When Jesus was on Earth he said, "...no man cometh unto the Father, but by me." (John 14:6) That was because the Son power was in the center position. Now, the power of Our lady is in the center position. The importance of the yin holy powers have been greatly underestimated by most religions.

Individual karma crosses spring off of the mega Earthly karma cross as little microcosms. If one aligns the self with the influences of the current Earthly season of karma then it is possible to align further upwards to the cross of Grace, to receive power.

The biggest obstacle to alignment with the mega crosses is desire. Desire, in the spiritual sense, is not what the usual dictionary version interprets as being desire. For instance, a man may want a car and yet not spiritually desire a car. A man may spiritually desire to create his own religious reality and yet want to be a holy person. The core of desire is that it relates to higher self auric substances, such as monadic substance, Virtue substance, and/or desire substance. Sometimes it can relate to a substance from another source that is not holy, such as a fallen demigod battery power.

The heart of desire substance is the Virtue powers held within the confines of the Laws. A person who resists a virtue or hates one of the Laws will also have malefic desire substance or no desire substance at all. In some cases, people who deplete their own higher auric substances will hook onto a battery of power from fallen angels or other fallen beings to feel a type of rush sensation. It is as though such people have replaced the Tree of Life with the Tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil, that is the belief that there is no evil and so he can eat from any power source with impunity. Out of such malefic desire substance comes many demonic beings that can be dowsed as shapes in a room if one uses an Aurameter or other dowsing tool. Such beings can cause a spiritually sensitive individual to feel as though bugs are crawling all over him, or to become ill suddenly.

It is possible that a person can control all his apertures and keep them looking up in the Now and yet be looking toward an evil cross constructed by fallen beings. This is a serious spiritual disorder based upon his resistance to Law and Virtues.

Such resistance can be located if the dowser concentrates on the Holy being connection of the aura and the soul eye and measures them on the Law clock while concentrating on the following visualizations: If the Law clock alignment becomes satanic, then you should suspect a fundamental hatred for Law and Virtues and possible alliances with fallen being groups.

- 1. Think about someone you truly loved that hurt or betrayed you in some way.
- 2. Think about the worst boss you ever had.
- 3. Think about the most wonderful home and time that you ever had, for instance: Christmas as a child with your parents.
- 4. Think about the most disgusting place you ever lived or visited, like a home with roaches and flies.
- 5. Think about falling off a building.
- 6. Think about the most holy man that you ever knew. The most holy woman you ever knew.
- 7. Think of a prison, jail, or any place full of violent people. Some neighborhoods will fit this description.
- 8. Think of a nuclear bomb being dropped on France.
- 9. Think about walking down a dark street and being surrounded by thugs or rapists.
- 10. Think about the most important event in your life (wedding, childbirth, vows, etc.)

If your Law clock alignment became deranged during visualization #1, you may harbor a deep desire to think that God is romance or sex and may betray you. You may WANT to think that God is impersonally loving and just, and yet you DESIRE for God to fit into your experience of romantic love. Most people desire their concepts to never change, no matter how weakening they may be. Even so, they will argue otherwise because they WANT to believe otherwise, with their rational lower mind.

Whereas DESIRES are composed of higher auric substances, WANTS are composed of lower auric substances, such as physical pranic substance. When wants combine with desires, then combo-demons of a destructive nature are hatched. Their natures or aspects can be traced by dowsing over charts or the drawings of demons in Book 2.

When such demons are in the vicinity, sub-tracts of thoughts and emotions begin to emerge and cloud the consciousness. If you find a deviation on the Law clock relating to any of the above visualizations, dowse the number of sub-tracts of desire/thought that run concurrently with your conscious WANT or DESIRE thought stream. Each one of those sub-tracts is connected to a fallen being group. If you find these, you must pray for divine intercession and try to dowse what risk factors you have invited.

If your Law alignment deviates from holy on visualization #2, you DESIRE to think that God is unfair, a bully, even though you WANT to know God. Such a person has a deep belief that he is his own god, and lacks submission of lower will to the divine plan. He will tend to create sucker worlds, random elementals, and mentally argue so as to be “the devil’s advocate”. He may WANT to submit to God, and yet DESIRE to be his own god, so as to call all the shots in his life without the internal questioning and requests for guidance from the Holy Spirit.

If your Law alignment deviates on visualization #3, you may be resisting the Law of Change and have a DESIRE to spiritually stay a child, without replacing simplistic lower concept with Truth. Even so, you may WANT to study Law, on your own terms. Remember, Jesus taught in parables for people who had closed their ears and eyes to the bare truth, and yet he spoke directly to his disciples. Jesus told them. “Think not that I am come to destroy the law,...I am not come to destroy, but to fulfill” (Matthew 5:17), when he explained to them why the disgruntled elders of the church argued that this teachings did not fit in with the old teachings. Likewise, these teachings come to fulfill the Law, in the current season.

If you deviate on visualization #4, then you might DESIRE to think of holy people or teachings as evil, so as to keep you from the pain of changing your life. Deviation reflects a DESIRE to distrust the very holy beings that you think you WANT to cross your path.

Deviation on visualization #5 reflects a desire to believe that chaos rules your life and so there is no reason to struggle on the path to Truth. All the while, you may THINK you want to be a student of Truth, but DESIRE to be spared the trouble. You could compare each false concept that you acquired during your life is another level of the building. The more numerous the false concepts, the more frantic one becomes when faced with life-changing information that repudiates such concepts. It is as though one is falling from a high building, with no sense of concept security. Only through trust in the divine plan of the Logos can one endure the fall. Most people prefer to sit upon their stacked concepts and will only jump from them when pushed by overwhelming circumstances. This is why near-death experiences, heartbreak, and the loss of material goods through catastrophe often precede great spiritual growth. They push one out of the skyscraper that has been built with false concepts.

Deviation on visualization #6 reflects a deep belief that God can die because God is, after all, merely a human being. You may WANT to believe that there are powers higher than those of the flesh and yet DESIRE for God to be a human so as to be your mommy or daddy. It can also indicate a deep desire to deify a human or humans so as to avoid the struggle of a higher spiritual quest. Such a person is fond of quoting that “God is love” but resists, in his heart, admitting that God is also justice, severity, and karma. Such a person thinks if someone “loves” them that such a person must be holy. Even evil people “love” a sacrificial person who takes physical care of the people who have put themselves into dire circumstances through malefic behaviors: promiscuous sex, smoking, drug and alcohol abuse, etc. It is considered saintly to reduce the suffering of people who have brought suffering upon themselves, and yet not saintly to let them suffer the effects of the actions put forth. The reason that people clamor for “love” is that they want to be victims so that they do not have to stand on their own two feet and take responsibility for their own actions. They want someone to rescue them from their own disorder. Therefore, anyone who smiles benignly and “unconditionally loves” is considered a saint. Such people are fond of quoting, “...In as much as ye have done it to one of the least of these, my brethren, ye have done it unto me”. (Matthew 25: 37-40). They seem to forget Jesus' words, “For whosoever shall do the will of my Father which is in heaven, the same is my brother, and sister, and mother”. (Matthew 12:50). In other words, merely having a beating heart does not make one a brethren of Christ. It is often against Law to assist the enemy: those people who feed disorder on the earth.

Deviation on visualization #7 indicates a DESIRE to believe that God is powerless, while you may consciously WANT to believe that God will rescue you. This shows a hatred for the Law of Cause and Effect and Law of Correspondence.

Deviation on visualization #8 shows a desire to live in the future to escape taking responsibility for today. It reflects a desire to live in constructs, such as self-created sucker worlds, rather than to love Truth, which is always in the now. Fear is always based on a tendency to slide into the future. Fear is a type of desire. You may WANT to be powerful in the Now and yet DESIRE to create your own reality. People who desire to create their own reality will tend to merge with movies, thought forms, and other people at great expense to personal power.

Deviation on visualization #9 indicates the DESIRE to be a victim. You may WANT to be powerful and yet DESIRE to be a victim, thereby thwarting your spiritual progress.

Deviation on #10 will often be most clearly reflected in that the eyes on the bottom of the feet will gaze down, rather than up to the soul. The events of one’s life will tend to drowse as “evil birthdays” no matter how pleasant the memory may be. Memories are often distorted delusions that lure one away from the power position of the Now. Anyone not in the Now is off-center and can be knocked down by any wind.

Malefic desires tend to corrupt the lower spiritual body and cause one to be misled by fallen beings. Desire substance from such a person will often loop or web outward to other people forming a net of disordered sub-tracts of thought. The term “sub-tracts” is correct, in that multiple false lines of thought that whisper constantly at a subliminal level cause one to lose power and focus, as it becomes subtracted into bits or lines, and is no longer of one self.

Eventually, the false ideas push their way into the main stream of conscious thought and the person becomes obsessed. He then will dowse what the fallen beings want him to dowse and will tend to see all that is holy as something evil and to be avoided or destroyed.

He then is blocked from the holy four powers and has only borrowed powers from fallen beings. The fallen beings will use his emotions and actions as ways to infect humanity until the human is used up and then they discard him. He then dowses as a soul-less husk of a human. Cases such as this are far more common than you would think.

True generosity of spirit is lost in a person who has no logoc connection. Generosity of spirit is not love, but is an actual substance that filters down from the realm of Grace. It contains an aspect of impersonal desire to do good for others that filters down from the Grace cross and out to the eyes of the hands. People who are emotionally indulgent often rupture the eyes of the hands and so have no real generosity of spirit, but are spastic and over-emotional. True generosity of spirit is calm and aligned with Law. It can be directed out the palms of the hands for a blessing by a person who has reserved his power for good use. Without generosity of spirit, there is no down-line Grace bestowable by the initiate. If the Initiate has no generosity of spirit, then he has ruptured his hand eyes and will become soul blind. He will lose his ability to discern good from evil and lapse into disordered living, thinking, and feeling.

One can dowse for blocks and strictures on the eyes of the left and right hand. The left hand eye will reflect the desire to receive personal power from the realm of Grace to do good in the world. The right-hand eye will reflect the desire to extend generosity of spirit outward to others. If a person already believes that he owns such power, he will constrict the left hand eye. If he wants power, but is selfish, then he will block the right eye, and the substance will back up to the left eye and rupture it with congested force.

Through spiritual scientific study and practice aligned with the powers of the cross of Grace, one is able to avoid such a fate and to help others to avoid such a fate.

Perceived Needs, Malefic Values, and Emotional Habits

The most weakening conditions for the spiritual dowser arise from the following mistakes; malefic desires, malefic wants, perceived needs, malefic values, and malefic emotional habits.

Each one of those errors has within it substances that are needed for spiritual health. If the dowser uses up his auric substances, then he becomes depleted, a mere shell.

As mentioned in the last chapter, desire is composed of monadic, virtue, or desire substance see auric cocoon diagram). Wants are composed of the lower , physical air, fire or water pranic substances that influence physical and mental health.

Perceived needs tend to use a substance within the point of power for the lower self: the pivotal point. A woman can think, in general, as her uterus as being the key point of an anchored pivotal point, with a shadow position somewhere on her body relating to her “birthmark” astrological influence position. The shadow birthmark position is less important to consider than the uterus, when dowsing the health of the pivotal point. The health of the pivotal point is measured by intactness of its substance container, the amount of substance within the container, and the position reflecting security of the anchor to the uterus. Even if a woman has had a hysterectomy, this would apply, because it relates to the remaining spiritual essence of the uterus, and not the tissue.

A man’s key pivotal point is in the epididymus, with a shadow point somewhere on his body. The health of his pivotal point is measured using the same perimeters as a woman’s.

Pivotal point substance disorders are based upon the many so-called “needs” that are embraced by a corrupt society. By embracing such “needs”, the individual loses his power stance alignment with the Logos. Many accepted needs of one culture are not needs in another culture.

For instance, American culture encourages a pseudo-need for various types of “rushes”. Popular pre-school television programs are precursors for rock videos, which offer visual psychedelic effects. It is assumed that children need visual and auditory rushes to be intelligent, and yet test scores across the nation for such children do not back up such assumptions. Many children expect schoolteachers to lure them with a song and dance that will match their previous educational “need” for visual and auditory stimulation. They then “need” to wear a headset with loud music while doing homework. Many of the lyrics are based upon drugs, sex, and violence, which then can be translated into “needs”.

If a parent has the concept “my child needs me to demonstrate my love with little trinkets from time to time”, then the child grows up assuming that love does not exist without a physical action or gift. In adulthood, this may take the form of a person expecting a spouse to be constantly sexually active, to bring presents home often, and to repeatedly verbalize “I love you”. Without some physical action, the person may not believe that love can exist. Love “needs”, in such a case, are based upon notions reinforced by intermittent positive reinforcement received in childhood.

Many of the malefic love “needs” mental programs and other similar ones take other forms. You can find them by dowsing the relative congruence for yourself on statements such as these:

1. Love must be demonstrated to be real.
2. If someone loves me, then he (she) is god.
3. Romance is all there is.
4. If I weren't so ugly, people would love me.
5. God is love is humans.
6. Life is so wonderful, you should drink it up all the time.
7. Earth is my lover.
8. I need more excitement to feel alive.
9. I won't let anything get in my way of getting love.
10. I hate you for not loving me.
11. The ultimate sexual thrill is death.
12. I need a man (woman) to make me happy.
13. I need a different man (woman) to make me happy.
14. I need someone to love me.
15. I need friends to love me.
16. I need a career that is appreciated by others.
17. I need to be a mother to be happy.
18. I need to be a father to be happy.
19. I need children to be happy.
20. If I weren't so stupid, then people would love me
21. If I say I'm lonely, you will love me.
22. If I kill myself, you will love me.
23. I've got a right to grab what I need.
24. I've always been this way.
26. People hurt me all the time.
26. I feel happy when you bring me coffee (a beer, etc.)
27. If I were more successful than my man (woman),
Then I wouldn't be loved by him (her).
28. I'd like to kill him (her).
29. I need to be with the group (family).
30. I feel angry when you eat more than your share of the food.
31. I feel angry when the house is in a mess.
32. I need a different teacher to make me happy.
33. If I don't find love soon, life will pass me by.
34. God doesn't love me enough.
35. I need to control others.
36. I need someone to take care of me.

The meanings of the word “love” and even the recognized emotion “love” are closely linked to cultural concepts of being a baby, a victim, and later a victimizer. Popular music reflects the underlying violence associated with the culturally accepted “love needs”. A whole volume could be written on the meanings of the word “love”, and yet it suffices to say that love concepts form the roots for many pseudo-needs that weaken personalities. Healing of the personality cannot be achieved unless one addresses the false concepts that relate to love. Pseudo-love concepts are the most resistant personality flaws to heal, because they are formed in many directions throughout life. Every time one of these false concepts is activated, the pivotal point shifts off of its power position and floats to a body location associated with the year in which the false concept was acquired.

The pivotal substance begins to burn, due to the friction of being pulled from its key point, and the loss of balance produces a kind of hysterical or euphoric “high”. Just as little children twirl around in circles till they fall down in dizziness so as to “have fun”, many adults recall key memories in order to excite the pivotal point to move to a spot that produces a remembered “high”.

Many people with strong childhood malefic mental programs entered adolescence with weakened pivotal anchors. If such a person became romantically addicted to another person, or experimented with mind-altering drugs, he can easily rupture his pivotal anchor by embracing a “false high”. He then may become mentally unstable, hyper-sensitive, weepy, and addicted to thinking about the past. He would dowse as having “pivotal point hysteria addiction”. He would tend to be depressed or maniacally happy and talk in a frenzy. many people have wobbly pivotal points that float around the body but are still loosely anchored to the key location. They have intermittent pivotal point hysteria, and feel a deep longing for the rush associated with romance.

A related disorder is “pivotal point euphoria” It is associated with addiction to the highs of pivotal point movement associated with childbirth, sexual/romantic love obsessions, food/elimination obsessions, and/or compulsive onanism without congested sexual organs. Whereas hysteria causes the pivotal substance to move upward from the pelvis and out of the body through an associated body part, euphoria causes the pivotal point substance to move down

LESSON DECEMBER 2, 1994: Life Force Aspects

LIFE FORCE ASPECTS

The energies that have been referred to as “pranic” or “chi” forces cannot exist without a system of circulation, much as the blood vitality is dependent upon the heart muscle to pump it through the human system.

There are spiritual organs analogous to the heart that is important for the drawing in of forces of regeneration and the release of creative forces to balance those forces drawn inside. All of nature exists in balance. If a person fails to create then he will move toward death.

Creation is not (in the truest sense) making something out of nothing. It has to do with the active combining of existing substances in a way that brings about a substance completely different than the sum of its parts. This is done in the creation of a relationship of two people, in the creation of children, in composing music or paintings, and in the creation of a synergistic group of people bound together by common cause.

When a human decides to avoid creation, then he begins to block his ability to regenerate. Just as the human heart has an arterial and a venous side, a human being's life force heart must draw in forces and release them in changed form outward. If a block occurs then death approaches.

A block may occur regarding regeneration if a person entertains thoughts of death for himself or others. Death thoughts regarding another person and suicide thoughts are translated as the same thing by the regenerative organ controlling life forces. People who are suicidal will seldom vampire other people for life force, but people who desire others to die will often vampire other people for life force. They may also vampire dogs and cats. Being around such vampires is very weakening, because a vampire line can last for three days after the vampire is no longer in your presence.

People who have sexual obsessions and possessions will tend to use up their creative forces solely through sexual means, and will be unable to draw in enough regenerative forces to balance the “accounts”. Such people often vampire others for both regenerative and creative forces.

A person balanced in regeneration/creativity is able to draw in free-floating generic energy and adjust it to the specific type needed. Creative primal energy can be pulled in the eyes with natural sunlight and regeneration primal energy can be pulled up through the feet or through skin. This free-floating generic energy can be used for vitalizing the air system of the body, vitalizing body fluids, or vitalizing the nervous system. Vitalizing the sexual system requires the primal energy be combined with heat catalysts from the heat pool ring around a seed bank.

Not all creative expressions use sexual energies, because there is seldom a creative need for pelvic agitation/orgasm unless a procreative seed is to be drawn down for the creation of human life. An exception is when male-female sexual union is used for the creation of holy elementals/angels. That occurs when a couple have purified themselves to a point that they move their connection (which normally attaches to the human seed bank) to a different type of seed bank used by holy intercessors to create types of guardian angels.

Most creative expressions are combinations of regeneration forces with a brow focus rather than a pelvic focus. A pelvic focus causes one to think about sexual release through physical action, while a brow creative focus causes one to think of ideas rather than functions of the body. The physical survival of civilization is partly dependent upon mankind's thoughts and plans. Without an ability to plan through the formation of ideas relating to the past and future, a man loses his right-side consciousness substances. The logical, planning, and reflecting side of a man is his right side consciousness, which is centered in the brow. Personality balance is dependent upon right-sided consciousness (not to be confused with the right hemisphere of the brain). The right side consciousness (tonal) is supposed to balance the left side awareness (nagual aspect), which is centered in the generative organs.

A human in the heat of sexual passion is in the Now, and momentarily loses his grip on the right side consciousness while the left side takes over momentarily. The reason that some writers compare orgasm to death is this link with the subconscious unknown that the left side represents. Of course, there are many ways other than orgasm to reach left side consciousness/awareness. The dilemma is that the left side cannot produce a brain memory of what it perceives, unless a person can somehow see with both sides simultaneously or learn to translate information from the left side to the right side (where language is possible).

The right side consciousness is our awake side of thoughts, emotions and language. The left side consciousness is our dreaming side of symbols, repressions, and passions. Above the two, as though from the corpus collosum upward is another type of consciousness: the super conscious mind.

The super conscious mind can only be accessed by a person who has balanced and refined the right and left side. The right side refinement can only occur in a person of correct regeneration abilities/desires. The left side refinement can only occur in a person with Law-aligned creative expression. Coordination of the forces of regeneration and creation also involves a physical body anchor between them (the heart) which can be referred to as a central body consciousness.

I must stress that all people have some type of the four minds (consciousnesses) because they are related to physical and mental survival. Ideally, all minds connect to a human soul. Even without a soul, at least one of the minds connects somewhere or life could not exist.

Insanity occurs when the right mind is split from its correct attachment (ideally a soul). It may do this because a person has immersed himself in too deep on the left side, causing weakness due to loss of creation energies. This can be due to sexual obsessions/possessions or due to the desire for psychic power. All sexual, artistic, psychic practices, and spiritual work uses creative power that must be balanced by very strong regeneration abilities and mental/emotional control or weakness of body or mind will occur.

Most souls are connected to the energy system called "the Karma Cross". Some souls are connected to a more refined energy system called "the Grace Cross". If a person does not have a soul, he ideally should be connected directly to the karma cross, because it is the strongest point of anchor to keep him physically and mentally balanced. There are many octaves of the karma cross, which extend downward like a ladder toward Earth. A person given to extreme hate or carnality would connect to a lower aspect of the karma cross. At each level, there is an aspect of group karma that reflects in the physical and mental characteristics.

The top arm of the karma cross should connect with the human's super-conscious mind.

The right and left consciousness should connect to the left and right arms of the cross respectively, while the ability to coordinate the consciousnesses should be anchored to the physical body.

There is no karma on the Grace cross. Attainment of the Grace cross alignment is not without effort and prayer; many have fallen back to karma repeatedly. The four different consciousness aspects should be aligned in the same fashion as those on the karma cross.

Hatred for truth is the primary reason that a person may dislodge one or more of the consciousness connections from the cross. Hatred for truth causes the physical brain to quit becoming aware of behaviors, thoughts, and emotions, even as they occur. A person may gradually deteriorate on this link as he first lies to others about himself and then lies to himself about himself. A decision to avoid truth will first cause the bottom arm of the karma/Grace cross to dislodge from communication to the body.

All the connections are likely to dislodge quickly from the cross if a person actively contemplates suicide or murder. Death thoughts align a person with the worlds of chaos on the other side of the veil between good and evil, and so the crosses of this system do not apply in such a person. By resonation, such a person's body tissues develop a program of chaos, which may cause them to be insane, ill, or murderous without restraint.

When such a person has made a decision regarding death of self or another person, then a major transformation begins. The body may resist becoming controlled by the beings from the worlds of chaos, because the person is afraid he will be socially unacceptable if his urges become obvious. He may try to hide his eyes because they reflect hatred. He may begin to walk in a stilted manner, as though he is a marionette. His head and neck may begin to move in a cobra fashion while he talks. He may hold his arms and legs out from his body with the joints in odd positions, as though some force was making him spread-eagled.

His consciousness connections may filigree out to vampire other people's sexual creative energy, which in his case is usually completely gone and so would cause his physical health to decline should he not vampire.

He may develop repulsive body smells. Often, such a person sends vampire lines to animal generative heat pools so as to drain life force. When a person does this, his odors may become not unlike that of a mating animal. He may find pet dogs or cats sniffing his crotch more than a normal amount. His breath may stink. His bowel movements are full of malodorous gas, and his urine becomes musky smelling. Unfortunately, the people he vampires will also tend to take on the body symptoms, but to a lesser degree.

People who are vampired often live in the same house as vampires, who find the night an easy time to follow their target. In particular, a vampired person's orgasmic auric opening allows the vampire a straight line into the auric cocoon. Vampires who sleep with pet dogs or cats can wear down the animal's aura till an animal heat line is installed.

Animals do not have consciousness links to a cross like humans. They link to an animal soul, genetic seed pool and heat pool. If people drain pets' creative or regenerative forces, the pets become sick and die, just as vampired people may become.

If a person loves truth and does not have a death wish, then he will seek to balance his forces, which are represented by the cross lines of consciousness. If he insists on merging, and prides himself on being a sensitive or psychic person, then he will vampire other people as his consciousness shifts outward to the object of merging, and globes on it or splinters. He may become mentally weak, depressed, and agitated if he cannot control possessed sexual impulses that arise from vampires who are hooked into the worlds of chaos or animal heat pools.

When the generative force vampires initially hook into a person's left consciousness energy, they supply a rush sensation that is perceived as romantic, mentally uplifting or sexually stimulating. As time goes on, the vampired person must perform some ritualistic activity to get the rush.

The activity may be a certain statement, "I am so fat", or even "my dog is so fat". It may be a specific type of body movement that is anchored into the rush sensations neurologically...such as a sudden turning out of the feet positions, snapping the wrists, or bugging the eyes.

When the person is completely taken over by the worlds of chaos, he no longer has to produce his initial ritualistic statement or behavior to get the rush. His mind and/or body is constantly in a state of frenzy, which makes it hard for him to get anything done or to think clearly. He is then an insane puppet.

If you walk through a state hospital ward for the criminally insane, you will see the most advanced states of the disorder. Many people spend their days with a protruding tongue, masturbating and threatening murder. If you view some of the recent rock/rap/heavy metal music videos, you will see that murderous song lyrics and public masturbation are becoming common on the stage. The common music has always given the clearest indicator of the state of civilization.

How does a man avoid falling in the hole of a declining civilization full of sexually tormenting vampires of life force? First of all, a man must love Truth (God) more than anything or anybody, or his god will be his job, his children, money, or sex. Anybody who hates truth or divine authority will readily go toward the demon rush, and so be lost.

Secondly, a truth seeker must learn to detect when he is being vampired or sexually tormented. A holy person will have many vampire lines thrown into him because he has more energy of the type that vampires like. If a person does not believe in evil, then he will not be cautious around obsessed people, and will tend to open his aura through his eyes and get hooked.

Thirdly, one must not feed the vampires. This means that you must not engage in gluttony if you have a gluttony vampire, in hostile or fear thoughts if you have a murder vampire, or sexual activity if you have a sex vampire. A defilement vampire will tend to provoke altered memories about your past, and fear of public ridicule, and devil's advocate mental circular thoughts about these teachings.

If you find yourself with the above symptoms, then you should earnestly pray for deliverance. Try to WILL your own consciousness lines back to the cross that it can most likely align. Just think of a cross in your head and pray for all consciousness lines to connect to that cross. Try to throw all auric bits of vampires into water, candle flame, ice, or underground with a strong burst of will and intent. Pray that you be delivered of all satanic hatred for truth and authority, and from all obsessions. If you have done all you can do, and you are still tormented then you might have to let the vampire line rot from lack for enforcement.

The rotting time can be quite painful, because you must not do what the vampires want you to do, because it would feed them. If you are sexually agitated, and know you are being controlled, then take a five mile walk while praying all the way and singing hymns. If you are obsessing about food, get busy cleaning house and fill up on something boring like popcorn. If your mind and emotions keep getting argumentative, then read something or watch an inspirational rental movie.

Usually the vampires will rot in a week if they are not fed.

I and Rex will continue to attempt to remove all vampire type lines from you, but they will persist if fed.

LESSON DECEMBER 2, 1994: Aperture Lines and Monadic Weakness

INCOMPLETE 3 of 6 pages only. Estimated date.

Aperture Lines and Monadic Weakness

The apertures are aspects of the soul windows. If a window is left open on the wrong day, rain may get in your house. If an aperture is opened for the wrong reason at the wrong time in the wrong direction, then you will drop monadic substance out the window. If your apertures resonate with the physical body rather than your physical body resonating with the higher apertures, then there is an error in direction of resonation flow that will block a proper dowsing response.

The Eye of the Soul must be considered the highest aperture, because it truly sees all that is below it. If the owner looks upon other people (or his past self) with any emotion or thought that is anti-Virtue, the eye weeps. The tears then form portals to the object of thought or emotion. If the eye of the soul falls downward to embrace the physical world, it will rupture.

If an ensouled person embraces materialistic values and fails to trust that his needs will be met if he lives according to Law, then his Holy Being Aperture will rip as the guardian angel recoils. If a person desires something that pulls him away from his soul, then the holy being aperture and the desire substance will fall downward and rupture.

If an ensouled person lets another human run his life to avoid conflict or desires to create a personal reality, then his Father Will Aperture sends out feeder lines to other people or false ideas constructs. Monadic substance drips out of those lines. If his own lower will pulls his Will aperture downward to the physical body, then the aperture ruptures. The correct alignment would be that the physical lower will should attempt to resonate upward to the Father Will aperture and not the reverse.

If an ensouled person merges with a spiritually bereft group, movie, book or companion, then his Son (throat) aperture will lose its sound and take on other sounds that are not holy. The etheric throat aperture is significant in that it has a strong effect upon the lower physical body corpse sounds. The power of the Son can be accessed by the etheric throat aperture so as to make a non-audible "Name of God" song that can be directed for physical healing to the self or others. The sounds of the etheric body are called "traits", whereas the sounds of the physical body are called "corpse sounds". If the Son aperture resonates with disharmonious sounds of a base physical nature, then the higher trait sounds lose their waveform shapes and become open doorways for disorder. The normally harmonious sounds of the traits work in concert with what should be harmonious corpse sounds. The physical throat can resonate with the etheric throat if they are both harmonious in trait and corpse sounds. This upward resonation allows one to tap power that can be used to heal when directed out of the etheric throat.

If a person desires with his heart, rather than his etheric throat aperture, he will unbalance the corpse sounds of his physical chest area. This, in turn, will echo disharmony upward to the Lehys (Holy Spirit) aperture. Since the Holy Spirit aperture is the doorway to Gnostic understanding of Truth, he will then tend to dowse poorly. The etheric traits associated with the Holy Spirit aperture will tend to go awry and cause a rupture of the etheric body or its Layer of Mystery container. He then hears the sirens of his lower willfulness and lower wants, rather than the still small voice of the Holy Spirit.

One can dowse the percentage of intactness of each aperture, how many lines or portals are causing substance loss and whether the cause is due to not aligning the "see, trust, desire, think" aspects of self with Divine Plan. It is important to check whether one's lower body, for example, your dowsing muscles, are resonating upward to the etheric apertures or whether the etheric apertures have, in fact, fallen down to a base corpse resonation.

The aperture problems originate from either a corpse sound problem based on personality conflicting with the soul, or from a trait problem coming from malefic desires and wants that go against the soul purpose. The corpse sound deviations cause an upward malefic reverberation, while the trait sound disorders cause a downward malefic reverberation that poisons the physical groin aperture.

Located at the groin is the only aperture appropriate to the physical body. Its corpse sounds should be resonating in harmony with the trait sounds of the etheric groin aperture, the major etheric eye. The etheric lower eye should NOT be resonating down line to the corpse. The corpse groin eye should be looking up to the etheric groin eye, where it receives information and holy substance to nourish it.

All apertures should only be open upward to the soul, unless there is a need to spiritually scan the vicinity or a situation. Scanning with the spiritual eyes should only be done briefly under circumstances when it is appropriate. The key is to learn to scan while the physical body resonates as though superimposed upon the etheric body. The aperture eyes can then all look in all directions, but should only do so long enough to assess the situation in question. Then, they should shake loose from the disorder being assessed and look upward to the soul once again. In most social situations, the apertures shouldn't be scanning. If you find yourself feeling emotional, then check for malefic aperture scanning.

Apertures are the lower eyes of the soul and must be aligned with Law and Virtues or the spiritual anatomy will degenerate quickly. The spiritual alignment of each aperture can be measured on the six-question Law test that is illustrated in Advanced Esoteric Dowsing BOOK 2.

You can detect anti-Law patterns by evaluating if each aperture eye is looking up to the soul in the Now, starting with your lowest eye at the physical generative organs. If your apertures are looking down, then they are probably in the past. If they are looking out then they are probably in some malefic fantasy. If they are looking up but not in the Now, then they could be indulging in some devotional fantasy not based on Truth.

Almost all weaknesses have to do with some form of materialism or carnality, not being in the Now and with a failure to look upon your lower form (and other people's) as an instrument for the Higher Self.

Mechanistic dowsing is a must to clear these problems and yet you will not succeed if you do not know when you are your old self, someone else or no one. If you merge identities with other people too readily, then you will lose your focus of power: your pivotal point. Check the question "Do I have a pivotal point? Is it (my name)?" If the core of your lower aura, e.g., your pivotal point, is losing its name, you cannot steer your ship without such a rudder. Some people have someone else's rudder or several people's rudders.

The pivotal point is the focus point of spiritual power for the lower aura. Its location can be described as the iris of the physical groin eye. It is anchored by four lines of force to the lower mold of man. Those lines of force are down line aspects of the powers known as powers from the realm of Grace, the Father, the Son and the Holy Breath. Our Lady is the power at the center. If one or more of the line anchors becomes weakened, then the pivotal point may veer away from the power position and develop a container rupture and/or substance loss. The percentage of optimal power for each line can be dowsed, as can the percentage of pivotal point substance and percentage of intactness of the container.

The physical eyes and pineal are linked with the pivotal point through a communication link down the physical spine to the groin eye. Spiritual blocks associated with the spine will tend to produce pivotal point problems. Before that happens, the physical pineal gland and the physical eyes will dowse as being toxic with death frequencies. Check the number and/or percentage of toxicity from death frequencies.

When the pivotal point and the associated groin eye become toxic, the mold begins to deviate in shape and may rupture.

Each of the apertures has unique spiritual functions that are necessary for spiritual progression. The Eye of the Soul draws in a powerful yin force of intercession known as Our Lady. The Trust aperture draws in beneficial holy forces from the realm of Grace and so is associated with such powers that are above the realm of the karma cross. The etheric brow aperture is associated with the powerful will and intention of the Father power. If the physical body corpse sounds are clear and in harmony with the etheric brow trait sounds, then great power can exit the physical eyes. Great physical healing from the Son power can occur if the throat corpse sounds are aligned with the etheric throat aperture. If the physical chest corpse sounds are clear and in harmony with the Holy Spirit etheric aperture trait sounds, then great power can be directed out of the breath relating to communication. This in turn, brings Gnostic understanding of truth and therefore hope. The generative etheric body groin eye is like a step-down transformer for high powers to enter the human form and is important for the survival of consciousness past physical death. The Lower Eye of God, associated with the physical groin, is a further step-down exit point of the power of Our Lady. The power of Our Lady controls angels of the lower and higher realms, which impact healing on all realms of being.

There are smaller apertures on the etheric hands and feet. If the physical hands and feet corpse sounds are in harmony with the etheric hands and feet related traits, then great powers can be directed to heal and bless others. The hand apertures are portals for bringing in and releasing the generosity of spirit substance from the realm of Grace. The feet apertures should normally be closed, but are used by saints to see into hells for the purpose of intercession. The feet are like extensions of the groin eye. They can look down into hells while the groin eye looks up to the etheric eye and from there is led by the soul eye.

APERTURE... LOCATION...FUNCTION

EYE OF GOD...Monad with Pineal Link...SEE that which is above

LESSON DECEMBER 3, 1994: The Mobius on a Personal Scale (Draft)

THE MOBIUS ON A PERSONAL SCALE

(One year ago—January 16, 1994-- I wrote a lesson that was not included in the books relating to the mystery of the mobius on a global scale. Now, I will talk about the mobius on a personal scale, and, for your reading pleasure, send out the old lesson for reference, although it could use my now clearer sight for an update. Later, folks. ---G.)

Consciousness is individual mental, physical and emotional integration of God (or god) awareness. Awareness is a function of a receiver and storer unit of power from above (such as a soul). Awareness cannot continue to exist if a human rejects it in favor of a false awareness of a lesser god. Body consciousness can exist without awareness, but without awareness it becomes evil.

Awareness is intimately linked with intentions. If intentions are aligned with Law and do not link with chaos and death, then a person is likely to have a soul (carrier of awareness).

Consciousness is intimately linked with thoughts, emotions, and actions. A person who chooses malefic thoughts, emotions, or actions poisons his consciousness and splits it from holy intention. If there is no connection between higher awareness and lower consciousness, then awareness will die, having no reason to exist. There is no reason for the container of awareness (soul) to store power that it cannot use within its functional framework (Law). Anything that is not used will atrophy and eventually die.

Consciousness has a strong relationship with personality strength and purity of action, whereas awareness has a strong relationship with spiritual decisions to love Truth above all else. The intersection between decision and action can be represented as the crossover line of a mobius coil. That intersection represents the full human self-identity in relationship to Law. Unless the intention is balanced by the action, the mobius consciousness/awareness system becomes unbalanced, and may rupture, because the sense of full self is no longer balanced in the middle of the two coil loops.

The soul awareness is represented in the following drawing by a triangle within the left mobius, while the consciousness is represented in the right mobius coil by a body but also contains within it the following: personality consciousness (often linked to the physical chin), generative/creative consciousness and body consciousness (usually linked to the genitals and heart), self-identity of gender consciousness (usually linked to the nose), and self-concept within hierarchy (usually linked to the pineal).

A person with malefic intentions will fill his left loop with poison. A person of malefic thoughts, speech, or action will fill his right loop mobius with poison. One aspect of hatred for Law, or one mal-intention, will poison all of the left loop. One aspect of consciousness that has hatred for God's plan (or refuses to take individual responsibility within that plan) will poison all of the other consciousnesses on the right side mobius coil.

Many people take the easy way out by letting demon's thoughts or other people's satanic personalities run their lives and so take the center mobius position. Often, such lazy people don't even allow the knowledge of their evil (by apathy) to enter consciousness, and so plead innocence when they become completely taken over by another person or by a false-self construct linked to the worlds of lies: hells and the anti-logos. They often choose a "false god" program around which to construct the kind of life they desire a create your own reality world without any rules.

An individual mobius of consciousness/awareness must first contain soul matter. If that soul matter is used to create an evil hate/death program about the self or another person, then it begins to die and fill the left mobius with poison. Whenever hate/death programs/constructs are present, dark forces are attracted by their love of chaos/destruction. As a person's soul is approaching death from being eaten by those dark forces, the consciousness on the other side of the mobius gets a sense of fear. ← In response, it provokes the individual to entice others to join in the hate/death program/construct. The soul decline is perceived as an energy decline, and so the consciousness aspects desperately flail about to form vampire lines to people and animals for any type of energy. The energy may be vampired from another person's soul, a pet's group soul/heat pool, another person's generative sexual energy or his etheric body energy, or the most desired power: that of holy people who have higher intercessor links to Logoiic forces.

The mobius of the polluted individual then begins a desperate dance to stay alive by balancing reception of power

(now evil awareness) with manifestation of power (now a consciousness of lies being truth and good being evil). The more evil the intention becomes, the more bizarre and deadly become the manifestations in speech, thought, emotions, and actions of the consciousness. The sides must balance to have any power.

← A person who has little malefic intention and yet no good intention to know God may be a soul-less person who does not vampire others. If he balances his rather neutral intention with non-malefic manifestation, then he may have a materialistic mobius over his body form that is self-contained and less likely to become a vehicle for destruction. It does not contain a soul.

Vampires always have a hate/death desire construct that often becomes the "real" them. The construct of death takes the center position of the mobius, then, and sucks energy from both sides. To gain energy, one or both of the mobius sides will extend vampire lines to preserve the sense of self construct "Pseudo Me" ↓ which envelopes the whole disordered mess. If someone allows themselves to be vampired, then they enter the "pseudo me" bubble and see the world through the eyes of the death/consciousness/awareness individual.

The mobius will pop and break if a hate construct takes its life, unless vampiring occurs. If it pops, the death construct will envelop its owner and destroy his body, while the mobius coil becomes a strangling rope to hold in the forces of evil inside the energy field of the perpetrator. Fear of death and profound weakness will occur unless vampiring begins.

Or, the mobius will encircle the death field and form a storm cloud of death that follows the perpetrator and becomes ever closer as the person's body tissues resonate with death thoughts. Sometimes this cloud floats to other people and possesses them, if the perpetrator has merged identities with someone else.

The mobius is partially responsible for physical vitality. A person with a shadow of death cloud usually has to tap into stored physical reserves in order to survive. These reserves are often tapped from the physical navel to a pool of energy known as the personal generativity tank. Inside this tank is personal vitality for living, healthy sexual energy, and a holographic link to one's parents and genetic pool. You can only tap your energy and that of your parents, but cannot drain your own genetic pool energy. For that reason, many people who were born with small tanks quickly degenerate in the face of a mobius/death shadow. That is, unless they allow their navel to resonate with animals or other people. In that case, they form a holographic vampire line to the person of resonance or animal core energy tank. In doing so, they weaken the other person or pet↓.

Ironically, the vampire becomes thin while the persons being vampired often become physically larger. That is because the physical form of the vampired person attempts to balance the size of the death shadow (because they form a mobius relationship). The vampire's death shadow grows as it eats, which is echoed in the vampiree becoming big. The vampire is in the center position tap line, which is small...and so the vampire often withers in physical size to not overwhelm the tap line.

An exception is when the vampire enters one of the mobius coils and becomes large as the evil construct grows, just as the other person who is vampired (in the other coil) becomes large. In these cases, there is a second vampire, at the center, who is thin.

In some cases, the person vampired may not be in any of the three positions, but may have an indirect link through one of the primary people. Since death/hate/chaos pools tend to grow, often there will be a whole network of mobius coils interlocking, with people branching off of those coils that are indirectly vampired by the key people with death programs. These form grape-like clusters similar to hydatidiform moles that can attach to low ether physical locations, an ensouled person's etheric body or even his soul. Such monstrosities will cause a soul to be sucked dry.

People who have embraced spiritual power and purity are often the targets of vampires, who, in the end, hunger for the blood and tissue of souls. Vampires walk the night because their victims' dreams reveal the hidden secrets that people try to hide from conscious minds for fear of being thought evil or perverse.

Everything that is thought at night is thought in day. We program our subconscious by what we accept in our conscious as "the other side of the argument", or "just not that big a deal". Our rationalizations fall asunder as the moon rises and we open ourselves at night freely to what we surreptitiously opened ourselves to during the day.

Finis!

This is the correct version of MOBIUS CHART. It reflects the thread to creation between the second and third mobius, as well as the lack of a null zone between the second and third mobius. The lines between each mobius could be said to represent the null zones. NULL ZONES can be dowsed by directions: north, south east, west, up, down, in (centripetal), and out (centrifugal)

TIME IN SPIRIT

The concept of time as far as a clock or a calendar; is based on but does not represent fully the meaning of time in relationship to the spiritual self. The ancient Greeks and Romans based calendars on the sun and stars, but to the ancient seers the sun and stars were symbolic of something greater than the visual expression. For that reason, they named the days of the week for lower gods, such as "Thursday" for the day we call Thursday to mean it for the day of the week for the lower god Thors.

It is unfortunate that the word "god" is assumed to be in conflict with the "God" since it should be assumed that a holy being of high station should have underlings. The lower gods are like secretaries to God, and therefore are not in conflict with the one true God of our Lord Jesus. Jesus was not a lower god, but was a holy spark from the Father that illuminated the Earth. He was indeed the Son. He is far greater than the lower gods, but we should not dismiss the lower gods, for they are part of divine plan.

The mystery of time is that it can be stretched or shrunk in microcosm or macrocosm, depending upon certain alchemical movements by the high powers or the lower powers, which include illuminated humans. That is part of the mystery of teleportation and other amazing feats that are just a particle of the mystery of God's powers.

Time can be explained metaphorically by the following:

- A day is composed of three substances: Desire, Will, and Intent.
- A week is composed of the three substances that have been hit with the longing to create (Sunday) Or reproduce themselves with the power of the Father.
- A month is composed of the three substances that have formed four walls of manifestation (Air, Fire, Water, Azoth-produced crystallization into matter) but includes one more thing...

On the thirty-first day...

The lightening of the Lord of Hosts hits the Powers of the moon to produce a harvest...

- The year is the production of ten, not twelve months.
- The division was strong in the calendars because there are two months which are different...

On the two days of the months when the hours are longest and shortest...

Exist the months of the intercession from the deva forces above. That is why there were pagan festivals, and later Easter and Christmas: Easter and Christmas represented the intercession from above, although Easter should have been during the solstice and Christmas at the equinox.

The pendulum clock of the Earth at that time holds still for a second...

During that time of switching from long to short days or short to long days, a magical power is on the holy ones below who understand the connection of spirit to Earth.

The American Indians understand these mysteries, as do other groups. The fear of the Christians has been a return to pagan ways, which is reasonable. The downfall of ancient civilizations was the misuse of the lower gods associated with solstice and equinox; the Dead People's Consciousness Cases on the tissue; (when this occurs) the body will get a scale link layer with a name of someone whose body is still alive, but without a soul, which would dowse as a dead consciousness layer, and must be removed. One thing found today was that people would have their Tissue Consciousness out.

CLASS NOTES: DECEMBER 6, 1994

So dowse "What percentage of tissue consciousness is with my body?"

Do: Then try to draw it back, it causes you to be weak, physically and mentally and draws contamination to you.

Ask: "How toxic am I with other people tissue consciousness?"

Ask: "How toxic am I with Dead Tumblers?"

Tissue and Low Ether Lines: Destroy, and send back. Retract yours to self and clear, or whatever.

These are from the ensouled, and Consciousness Cases are from those not ensouled.

T2 is finding something from (an ex-student): Alien Dreaming Body. This must be destroyed.

Thirty are out of one person, and they are going crazy because they can't eat. They are hunting down food.

If you put on the chart:

"Holy Signal Out"

"Evil Signal Out" : (You will dowse this) if a person is trying to find a feeder source for evil. You will find an "Evil Signal". This means they will try to feed off of you. This is a feeding source for the unensouled that T2 was not aware of.

Alien Dreaming Bodies (are from) the evil aliens which are similar to demons which were taking over the people's tissues who were being fed to (fuel) the demon orgasms.

You can dowse a week ago on yourself, or on anyone "What percentage of the tissues were converted to mature evil aliens?" The Holy Beings have broken the evil alien feeder sources and for that reason, the astral bodies of the mature evil aliens are floating out of people and they need to be destroyed, even though they would (eventually) die. The dreaming bodies are still alive, and it is like a person's consciousness floats out after death. This is the consciousness pertaining to the evil alien, they might live awhile, unless we pray they are destroyed, and be sure they have no orgasm seeds for batteries for energy.

As long as a person can't have a demon orgasm, these can't survive. These are terribly itching, as we are killing them off. They feel as though they are coming out of the back. Other people will feel miserable as these rot out, and it could take a month for them all to die, so we have to be on the lookout for them. If they have any orgasm seeds, they will last longer.

Alien Seeds of (person) in Tissue: these come with thoughts.

Alien Substance lines: Check for these carrying seeds.

Two kinds of Allies: the Under the Mirror Allies and alien allies from Split Time Intersecting Worlds.

Hopefully these will be removed in the next couple of days.

DRAWING of DOG FACE MONSTER (not available) of an animal with a prehensile tail and

Ask "How many are still in your body, and how many are around the nose, rotting?" and

"How many of other people's noses (are on you)?"

You get them from people throwing an Evil Alien Substance line to you. These will hopefully rot out, and will die in a few days. An Evil Signal from an ex-student was due to the Dog Face Dinosaurs crying out for food, and the way they got food before was from demon orgasms. When they start flying out, they start slinging Alien Seeds to get a hologram (of themselves out) to eat.

Crotch Signals are coming in to be fed. They are coming into the monastery, as they go toward the (greatest) energy.

There have been at least five different types of alien invasions, and we have to look at each one differently, this is just one, and it may be the last one we need to deal with, and there may be residue from any of them. Some of them came through the time space veil because of government research and time travel, and others came in through the demon veils, because humanity wanted demon rushes and so they did alien channeling and asked them to come. We have been so contaminated with rotting debris, and T2 was not sure what would be left after the aliens were gone; what was normal or abnormal anatomy, and she had to wait on the writing to see what was happening.

Evil Kabala Heat Crotch Signals: Remove the Alien Bodies/MEs in a person first (which are not the same thing as the dog faced creature.)

Alien MEs are actually like a phone directory system (involving) different people who have learned to hook-in to drink pranas and sexual energy. This is some part of someone they vampire in a file system (sic), which is used for rushes, combined with some sort of alien substance.

Snot Globules coming out a person's mouth, which is like tracheal secretions, or bronchial.

Some are linked with different people. You can see two or three (people) with the same identity.

One commonality with aliens and demons is that they both use creative energies and procreative seeds.

Alien Generativity Cores/Seeds need to be destroyed. They are in a shell; you crush, then freeze & burn.

T2 is asking the Hoy Beings to help people stop sending signals out for feeding.

Evil Consciousness or Awareness: can be Demon or Alien. Some aliens and demons come from the other side of the mirror, and some from outer space. They are evil too, and have to be treated like demons.

Ask: “Where am I losing Auric Blood? On Air, Fire, Water and the nervous system?”

Do: To dos.

The air that you breathe or a blood energy IN/OUT on the body chart:

Ask: What % of each is inside /out the auric cocoon and how much foreign is in?

Check: If you need to destroy or heal. Then burn, freeze and disintegrating are key.

Not sent to everyone, please do not refer to it:

Tumbler Aspect: Check how full it is, and how many people are in it. This is a source of energy.

This has a pelvis link of a hologram.

←DRAWING (See larger chart in previous Lesson December 5)

Circle above the head, with a core dot in the center and a mobius attached to the core of the circle. Functionally with the Tumbler Tank, people can get in it.

t gets contaminated and they can vampire the mobius on any of the three spots: the arms, middle and outside. But it is not what Castaneda said (about the Tumbler), as there was a big hole in his knowledge. Also:

The Power known as the WORD is a TUMBLER AWARENESS.

You can dowse “How clear is the clarity of (your) Tumbler Awareness?”

Generative Tank: DRAWING not available:

Above a stick man, is a circle with a core spot in the center, and an etheric link on the left side of the drawing as you draw it, and a soul’s link on the right side.

This tank is connected to the top head and it has a joy tank at the pelvis with a pool of energy around it.

CLASS NOTES: DECEMBER 7, 1994

Found today is the Intercessor Chain of Command:

Which normally goes from Saints to the Nagual Team to the Grace Cross Intercessors...

And above there to the Cross of High Powers Intercessors

Since split time, in the last 6-7 years, the connection between the Cross of High Power Intercessors and the Grace Cross Intercessors became strained and weakened by the fact there were no suitable intercessors on earth. So when the Grace Cross Intercessors tried to intervene with humanity they got contaminated, cloudy and confused they kept trying to help even at risking their own spiritual integrity by interfacing our party. It was a real risk because of our contamination, and they were already in pretty bad shape. A year ago they only had 5% connection above the (---), in other words they were almost lost, and they had a 4-5% connection to us a year ago. It was a matter of struggling until T2 could get clear enough to explain how we can pull our end of the deal here, so as to not contaminate them through T2 and T3 and then they could be healed by the High Cross Intercessors if there was hope in their not repeatedly being contaminated from below.

Now; is it entirely possible for a contaminated intercessor to make a mistake. Just as when T2 and T3 are possessed, they can make a mistake, because their vision then becomes cloudy like people in the world at large. When T2 was in the hospital (for the foot wound/gangrene), the Grace Intercessors thought that she would die and because of that, they made an error. The night she was very sick, they took a hologram of T2’s nagual essence and put it in La as an emergency measure to hold the nagual link to the earth, even though they knew she was worthless. They just weren't seeing clearly when they did that. T2 was fueling so much of the Vermont disorder up to them that they saw even less. So for three days, she had unnatural powers. That night, had T2 not ordered her to go to a hotel and leave the hospital room, La would have beamed the nagual powers back on T2 and T2 would have died because of death construct. By being in the hotel, she couldn't beam the energy coiled-back on T2 to kill T2.

However, she was able to heavily infect T3 with her malignancies of carnality and death thoughts. The reason T2 could not see that the higher intercessors had done this, was that it was done from a level that was above T2 through methods that she was unfamiliar. A lot of the contamination that affected our group since that time was due to those three days of miscreation by La in which sexual demon obsessions, of all kinds, infiltrated our group and weakened it.

La already was in bad shape before then and already producing a lot of disorder, but it became terrible then. About two months before she left there was something that she did with her nagual energies that opened up a portal to the mirrored worlds in such a way that she then became a Black Nagual. They entered her body to use it to bring them over across the veil. That was why she was able to cause such degeneration of this place, of us, during the last book, because she had abnormal powers that T2 could not see. T2 could see the effects of them, and knew they were evil, but they were powers a step above T2's own across the veil. They were to the level of the Grace Intercessor Nagual, but across the veil.

A part of the law is that a person masters to his own level that which is below, but does not attempt to master those above. However it is also the law, that one can defend oneself against evil even if you don't understand it completely. Therefore for the last couple of months or longer, T2 has been whittling away while facing a giant. Like David and Goliath, T2 has been using little rocks to throw at a major evil that T2 couldn't even see the top of, because it was so massive.

Yesterday the high powers came in that are above the Grace Cross Intercessors because the danger of death of the intercessor(s) above us was imminent, and they were unable to help us (at that level). And by prayers of T2 yesterday, and during the night T3's prayers, they were able to bypass the Grace Intercessors who were disabled, and destroy the evil black nagual energy that had infiltrated La and others. By T2 picking away at that evil for so many weeks, La had lost chunks of her evil nagual essence, so that she had no organized powers. However these chunks had obsessions, hate thoughts, murder and they had a long life span. And they were thrown out to anyone she thought about; Ji, Fl., Se, and anyone she dowsed upon, they flew out in chunks and with them were spiritual diseases of a high order. But had she not been disabled bit by bit, and rock by rock, she would have destroyed us for sure. By the fact that we were impeccable enough as a group to struggle against the goliath evil, we were then worthy to request help from the Cross of High Powers above the Grace Cross. By yesterday, but not completely until this morning, by praying through the night, and T3's fervent prayers combined with T2's and ours, we destroyed the evil this morning, through the help of the high powers and the Grace Intercessors have been healed completely and all the rot that flew out with obsessions is being dissected from every person that it touched, and even more is being healed than was caused by that destruction in that obsessions which were old within us, the genetic ones, those somehow difficult for us to see, were also being removed in one fell swoop by the high powers. The evil synergy groups were refueled by his evil, and they are now being deactivated completely

When T2 said the battle was over a couple of nights ago it was because this was already pending and destined to occur, and the events unfolded as they should have yesterday, to cause the completion of the destruction of the black goliath. It was not that La was so awful; it was just that she was so easy to use. She is receiving a lot of healing too, to what level will depend upon her own prayers and tissue resonation with holiness as opposed to evil. Se was similar. She had a major ability to cause disorder. La empowered her like a downline black nagual during the time of T2's illness. St was also empowered by La, and Ri which caused major destruction to Forr and Si; over and over and to Gar. There was some major destruction to Mag and not so much to Cel. But the grace intercessors did not incur any kind of karma with that mistake, because they saw as well as they could, given the circumstances, they did their best. And for all of our errors to a large degree, most of us have done our best most of the time against tremendous odds in that the opponents that we have faced have been so huge, that mere mortals can scarcely be expected to be able to continue such a long battle against evil. And yet, you have struggled to do so. Because of that, tremendous healing will occur even to people who have appeared to be the most malignant.

"Hm" (was) somehow linked in with these evil forces to be used to block us from contacting the dowsers. The interesting thing was that he was hooked in before La got her power. It appears they were able to contact him directly because he doesn't believe that evil exists, and we have to look out for people in positions of power that the dark forces will use against us. Had we not been his opponents, they would not have messed with him; they would have left him alone, as he has many good qualities, so he is being healed.

Jl and Lit were infected with his evil and were beginning to work synergistically with some of our opponents., as far as giving their statements to authorities as to the nature of this work. But they are being healed. They were pawns that weren't strong enough to fight it. La will be healed as much as possible, short of not having a soul unless she prays for a soul, and requests one, and then T2 does not know, it depends on her impeccability of tissue. The last Lesson was written for her, and she didn't read it, and it was her ticket to recovery. It may be she was too weak to withstand the forces that were placed upon her by the Grace Intercessors by mistake.

Je is receiving healing, by the high intercessors partly because he became infected with the belief that T2 and T3 were evil and had taken over T1 and had destroyed her. No matter what he said, that is why he had in his heart. He listened to the sirens with hell (sic). He probably locked eyes with Hm at the dowser's convention, who had the evil.

Some people may not get a soul, unless they act impeccably in their thoughts emotions and actions, but (they are) being cleared of obsessions to hate and the "kill this party" constructs that made them work so synergistically. They wouldn't give up trying to flush T2 out in the open, and they were trying to get recruits all the time. Jel was never malignant, but T2 can tell he was recruiting (---) by trying to get him to do use all of his film footage to do a film on this cult for television. This film, if he completes it would be extremely destructive for many reasons, one of which people will start, if they saw T2's face and recognized it, then if in Time magazine, her life would be in constant danger anywhere she went, as people would hunt her down. Like they do, the evil ones would hunt her down and consider it a mission of God to kill T2. As if they don't do that already. T2 would have to live in a tomb and never walk across the streets, because they will be waiting. She would have to change her looks or move to Tahiti.

Jel has started on the film and Ni is working with him. Lc knows about it, but he doesn't support it. Jel is raising funds to finance the project from people you would be surprised that they would have any funds. The primary backer is female. It doesn't matter; the Holy Beings will try to take the hostility out of them.

Pray that this film project become derailed. T2 had been getting "Jel" for days with a lot of fuel. He called his production company Millennium Productions. He is intending to use it for a cult awareness film, to show how insidiously they begin and how much devastation (is brought) on a small scale. He wants to use it as a case for an example, and he is requesting the cult awareness members to support it.

Pray to the high intercessors to block our enemies from completing the film project. A year ago there was a warning from the Holy Beings about a media project being put together, with Ni organizing. And T2 didn't see Jel then, but he didn't have any power then.

The Nagual energies were Grace Cross Level on the Black Side, and that is why it was so hard to get rid of and that was what was energizing the film production, with chunks of evil generative substance to people in the past that then were able to help bring about this evil film project. One good thing is that his tapes are of a terrible quality.

Ask: If the divine intercessors, the high level ones, if it is within law, to for them to "look" through the films through to Jel to scare the living daylights out of him. They could make the film start, with eyes that start glowing, with a different voice coming over to say "If you do this thing, you will die..." They can implant into the optic nerves for him to see it during the film.

One time with Wk, he was going down the (spiritual) tubes, so to show him the seriousness of his spiritual condition, T1 and higher beings, lowered the temperature in his house to sub-freezing and made the whole energy of the house seem terrifying for about ten minutes. T1 was in Oklahoma and he was in Maine. It was just to show him how serious his situation was. He was so terrified he faced a few minutes (---). (He called ---) later and said "I don't ever want anything else to do with (this topic)". It forced him to make a decision. He kept saying (he wanted T1) to go to Hollywood, but T1 said "You can't do trashy movies and be in this work, you either come to the conference or you are lost." He said, "Don't worry, I will come, I just need to make money to afford the project about T1." Then the Holy Beings saw fit to show him a sign of power, and he just chose badly. Sometimes a show of power is the only thing (remaining to do) to push someone one way the other. In the Bible it says "Be ye either hot or cold, but not lukewarm, or I will spit you out."

Evil Higher Selves: are high level fallen beings.

Death Being: was an La empowered construct that when they empowered her, they empowered the death being which was still beaming at T2. Some of these death beings are taken to places not known, because it is such high level stuff.

Obsession clones are being pulled into T2's Tumbler. These are not from humans, but are from the black nagual that were brought in through La infecting other students. The black nagual is dead, but the obsession clones have a lot of battery power, and the demon orgasms work by taking a soul stub of someone with battery power even after losing their soul, and if they keep hitting it with seeds, the seed pool seeds, it charges the battery. So what they do, is the dark forces gather the soul stubs of people who have fallen especially from our group which has more battery power, and used them to beam the death beam, and (they used) others as a power source. Every demon orgasm, they could use to bring in a seed. That is why it is necessary to send the seeds back up if not for angels or (human) procreation, as they would be used by evil. So they are trying to dismantle the batteries constructed from the soul stubs. One reason (for one not) to think well, would be from the continual links to the evil power source.

Through the Veil/Black Contamination. This chart shows the levels of power and these are not auric layers.

The auric layers do relate to the intercessor powers.

Allies can be on any level (see Intercessor Chart) and interacting with us. T2 has found high level Allies.

One person dowse as an ally with a Fallen Watcher association, and had started an alliance with the ally as well.

Since T2 and T3 are in form, they should be considered on the Karma Cross level; on the Form of Cross Matter.

Even with the frailties of the party and contamination, we still have been successful in the face of everything, though sometimes we may not feel like it.

The Karma Cross has aspects of physical, etheric and low ether powers.

Both Left and Right sides have to be 100% concretized and JOINING to manifest in the physical plane.

The Right side has to be completely concretized before the Left side will start to form.

Captions for Drawings:

It is better to perceive an event on the right side while it is in the process of forming a Catalyst. At that point, it is easier to deflect the event. An event may dowse as Completed L/R and Joined by (say) tomorrow evening, but you would have to dowse it again tomorrow morning for any changes in probabilities.

The evolutionary stages for manifestation for the left and right sides involve the joining of three (separate) mobius one at a time, at which point the center dot is then created (see drawing).

This process first occurs on the right side, manifesting a catalyst. The left side will then go through the same process and produce a physical manifestation. Both sides will be Complete at 360 degrees.

CLASS NOTES: DECEMBER 15, 1994

(Apologies from Auditor and Editor: the quality of notes taken was poor).

How to assess a problem example: The (t)issue is in the same condition of a bad gall bladder with nine core issues going out from it (sic). You may have to look at things without any (previous) knowledge. Look at (the problem) with the Lehys aperture and not with the Brow. If you look (at anything) with past experience then it is the brain and not the Lehys (being used). (We need to) raise the conceptions i.e. for C when she told T2 that she 'didn't like spices'; it doesn't make sense, since C. has liver congestion. Then "ah-ha!" it was because of the stricture. If she has a reflux (symptom) from stricture and pressure which burned the tissue, then she would avoid spices. (Otherwise with liver congestion) she would have a craving for spices that would cause (the gall bladder) to empty and spit bile. On one hand you listen to what the symptom are, and then mentally catalog them with what you know. Make sure you are not thinking with the brow. And that was how the Toltecs were killed by the Spaniards, as they thought their rival was the sun god returning. The Toltecs that could see said "Ah-ha!" He may fit the bill, but something is wrong." They are the ones that lived, and that is where the Don Juan teaching (came from); the one's that fled.

Your core decision (must be) based on the Lehys (Awareness). This is very tricky for people who have a wide education. All of you have experiences with training and formal education and your tendency would be to see (a problem) through (mentally), but do you see how dangerous that can be? And that is how the FBI finds their man. They look at (the criminal's) core experiences and they know them from the person (habitual patterns). (They) expect to (catch the criminal) by how (each person is) thinking, inducting, or not (sic).

It is good to be widely educated and to see with Lehys. (C would do well to) train herself to not think with her head. If she learned to think with Lehys in a business sense as well, she would be more successful, because she would sense when "Something is wrong with this picture." If you were wanting to 'case a joint', wouldn't it be neat to do it the exact day? (sic) (Compare) what is your gut feeling and your Lehys feeling.

So this is key. What T2 would like us to do is to put a safety key on our chest to remind us not to evaluate the (dowsing) answers by the preconceived knowledge, by experience or anything. If you do that, they will trick you every time. Sometimes the Brow and the Lehys (information) are the same, sometimes not, and it is always the tenth of the time that will be your downfall.

For example, would be a spiritual student who is taught a concept by T2 and then who follows it so rigidly that they don't detect when something is wrong. Like La when it became apparent that it was the plan of God that Ji take the naguals and then T2 had to take them back. La knew that God had an ABCD plan, but the most important of anything is that God's plan be done, and (that we) be vessels no matter what happens. (And) In T1's case it was not to have children at home. They had to be sent away because otherwise (other's) children and a million children are more important than three and if a person doesn't love the children of tomorrow then a person doesn't love his own children.

For the early T1 (it was important) to be responsible to the children, but that (also meant she) was not to be frivolous, and decide "God told me something so that (I am to) have fun." You could think that and say "In 1980 T1 said she would always take care of the children, so she is a liar", but no, because (that statement at that time) was absolutely true of where T1 was supposed to be within the plan of God. As T1, instead of dying, she had to live and in that case if (you live as) a soldier for God, then do it as you are supposed to do.

If God says you are supposed to be in a synergy team, then God's will be done. If she were T1 she would be horrified, but she is not, she is T2 with remnants of T1's personality and body aspects. But T1 has died and she is T2 and God has given her a mission to write holy works and to try to help the children of tomorrow and that is more important than her own children. Others thought T1 was partying, but as you can see it is not true. With La, when her old carnality grew, then she thought she would be the next in line, as a succession. Then she thought that God was combining her and T3 when she would have a demon orgasm. And she would not (see correctly) because she took it (the information) into her head and not her heart. With the incubus, La knew that there was something about it that was not right.

If people knew the difference between contaminated sex and real sex, then in their heart they (might) strive to use the most appropriate use of the sex impulse and not let any demon tell them what to do (except for that which is within) law. La didn't want to believe that, but (she wanted to believe) that God was giving her orgasms to prepare her for the next step; for T2 to die. Then La wanted it to be speeded up. Ji couldn't wait even two weeks. Ji was clipping T1's cranial nerves and prana lines; she was trying to make T1 die. Within Law (Ji could have) waited a few months but she got impatient, and she called (the Windigo).

Everything a person says or does is indicative of spiritual things. Look at events, people's language and body behaviors with a Gnostic eye. And (it was not just a case of thinking) "La is a young woman and it is reasonable to have a life and want marriage again, as she was married for 12 years." A shrink would say "It is entirely normal to have desires for the man in the house, and that (with two?) women (also in the house) it is not normal.” T2 doesn’t care what is ‘normal’ in the world, but what is normal for saints, and she won’t (settle) for anything less.

Sometimes your superficial aspects don’t have to appear saintly, T2 makes jokes about sex. But at the heart of it, (she knows we are) to take responsibility for what is holy, what is right and true and what is not. If you get used to this in little things, you can go the whole day and look at every little thing gnostically, for example “Am I able to pray now?” Don’t pray to adore the holy beings of God, you should adore them all the time and pray without ceasing, but pray to align yourself when you get misaligned, and ask for help to align because you have done your best, and you want some assistance. So you look at it and you pray for a good reason and not just out of habit. That is why in the church people (are told to) “recite this prayer 10 times”, and then my confessions are equaled out (sic).

So what you want to do is learn to listen with the still small voice rather than with your “inventory” as Don Juan pointed out. Most people live their lives (according to their) inventory, training and work experience. You can see that T2 doesn’t neglect T1’s work experience. For example she told Alp to go to a hospital (for a symptom) and yet she also knows herbal remedies, homeopathic medicine, Bach flowers, and T1 also used to appraise jewelry. But (all that) doesn’t matter. The only thing that matters is that the primary work that she does must be done with the Holy Spirit guiding her, and not from her ‘inventory’ accomplishments or learning, and yet one is not to neglect (the latter). Look first (at a situation) with Lehys and then select (responses?) out from your experience. (It is) from your mental inventory to check something such as “What would you like for a snack, an apple or orange?” instead of asking the kid “What do you want for lunch?” That is how to raise a child, you give them responsible choices. I.e. for those employees, is to say desk left, right (but not middle) (sic).

What is manipulative? In your heart listen, not because you are afraid but because you want to sense what it is and listen. You want to harmonize your aura and not be controlled by a fear response. With danger you want to be on super-alert until it is over. (That is not to say to) enjoy it, but if (there is) danger, and the work of God is in balance, then we must take every precaution to preserve the will of God even if it means sitting in a coffin (sic).

The inconveniences you look at; whether a person is comfortable or not, if that is the (primary) concern, then you will never help someone to get a soul. You may wonder why suddenly you start to hear (or notice) noises. The Holy Beings will tell when something is building, just to get you hyper alert. Then you might think "Oh I’m just psycho and neurotic." For example is the story of the Sufi master where he told student different things to avoid disaster. The student said “What crap.” But if you (successfully) avoid disaster, how will you ever know it was there? You diffuse it by going through the future lines, and that is what you need to do. The more powerful you get, you will attract adversaries that like to fight. For example people are like Arnold Schwarzenegger, they don’t enjoy (physical) adversaries like Danny DeVito. Weak people can only (be effective) in mob rule and (then they) stone the (adversary) to death. And that is what these people (former students) are doing. It is amazing how many are banded together. Most of them left on fairly good terms too, that is what ironic.

Jeg; after being blessed and going home to her husband, she banded up with Ji. In the end it was seen she was intractable, T1 told her "You have met (the limit of the teaching) where you need to be, so you go home to your old life." T1 never once told her that she was hopelessly carnal and etc. She (also) refused to recognize it herself. It is interesting that Jeg was never treated harshly, but she went home and paired up with Ji even though they didn’t like each other. It is very interesting (to observe) the people who join up together.

The only way that weak people can tear (anything) away from power is by forming together and forming synergy, and as a person of power, you need to integrate and know in your heart that something is wrong. For months T2 knew something was terribly wrong, but she was shielded behind T3’s shadow, and she couldn’t see until (taking the trip) to San Diego (in August) to see it. T2 has to learn from Lehys and we can do the same, but we can learn faster by taking T2’s word for it. Or you can use it wisely by taking the advice, (and not thinking things like) "T2 sleeps in the couch for 10 days, she must be crazy!" And “If T2 knows so much, why not see it (the problem) the first night?” Each time T2 knew something was seriously wrong and had (acted on it in small ways). Each (action) decreased the enemy’s power. T2 had to merge with their plans. If they wanted to kill, then she had to inhale (it) and destroy it before it manifested.

See disorder without an “inventory”. The only reason that T2 encourages us to truly see with Lehys, (is because) she wants to encourage us to see. If one time in ten you are right, then you can make it 2 out of 10 times, etc.

Thinking without inventory is done by practice. For example, the things that C did when she saw the plane: C went to the corner and observed a single engine plane going out from a distance, and she thought “It is too far for that particular plane to land. (sic)” She had a very strong feeling (based on) what she heard. (The metaphor might be) that they can choose the maneuver during a time when other planes are doing maneuvers and that would be an adequate disguise. The one plane is [one’s downfall?], as it could have been your alert. For example in gambling, if you have 6 evens, then you say ‘one more must be with odds’, but it is not, as each throw is 50/50. Say if you see airplanes and you get a funny feeling in the chest; then don't assume it is a normal plane. This (current situation may be) a wonderful opportunity to learn. The only ways to learn is through fear and embarrassment; for most people. T2 would like that you learn without fear or embarrassment. However, most people are not able to move the assemblage points without that.

How does moving assemblage points apply to us? If you move your mental assemblage point to the chest, then that (in itself) is a significant difference. (It means) you hear between words, and then you (may) go to the mental inventory afterwards.

The knowledge gained on the left awareness is wordless, it is an emotional and physiological reaction. Say if you look at person with nausea or fear, that is gnostic, as you don't have time to think 'that looks like a bully' if you are a child is in the 3rd grade. If you get a split second reaction, it is like seeing the airplane.

By using the charts and then saying "God's will be done"...we are not to desire to see it as a white or black plane. For some who are fearful, don't think everything is good or bad but say "I love the truth above all else" and then see it the best you can each time, and if you screw up (---). T1 struggled to understand the mystery of time, until she understood the dial of the now (sic). (Break in lecture)

Movie Reference: "Body Snatchers"

(Invasion of the Body Snatchers/Movie): "Pod" people did what they were supposed to do and then went on in their own reality. A good line for the protagonist is that he said "Most people just take the easy way and forget what it means to be human; they lose their humanity in the desire to be comfortable. Those ones who don't resist will be the first to go." Some people believe they should "go with the flow", but you are going with power by going with the left side, and seeing with the left side and not the right (then) you are going with the flow (sic). If you stick to the right (side awareness) you become a pod person; mechanical and rigid.

Look at fear as a wonderful opportunity to be strong. Why would Don Juan go back to a place of deprivations, beatings and possible death? He wasn't paid to go back, he went there to develop his left power awareness to gain personal power. This is like the Art of War, if you anticipate any move of the enemy, then you can cover your tracks on all regards. They expect to see (this) victim (T2) in a plush guru (---) or a plaza department store and not in an attic, and not certainly in a tomb--particularly since she was such a "thief" and "stole money".

The person of true personal power is unexpected and appears powerless. I.e. a student said: "If you are so powerful why jump under (the couch) with every noise?" Because T2 knows that this is a time where evil can triumph with enough energy. You could say "Was Christ powerless?" On one hand (one) could say that, and on the other hand there is an aspect of karma in the people if they don't want a teacher or if they destroy holiness on the planet. There is free will in that they are given a choice. For example Mahatma Gandhi and Joseph Smith; you look at the saints after Christ's death, and how many were put in coliseums and fed to the lions? Some were like Saint Stephen who was stoned for telling God's word to his people. He pointed out holiness to people who were supposedly holy and yet they killed him.

You could say "It is terrible to live this every day and not know when (someone will be) coming into the house with shotguns." And on the other hand (it is beneficial) to build strong tonals and the nagual points itself. Since most of us have a hyperactive right side awarenesses, we need to find opportunities of stress to increase our left side awareness. If you treat (the situations) with right-sided thinking, then you will not advance.

Why do you think Don Juan would take Carlos out to be eaten by a leopard? Why did he put him in a stream that had such demons he almost drowned facing them? As a disciple one is only as worthy as one's left side strengths and what one's right side can endure. The only way to tolerate the experiences of the left is to see the (left) experiences in the Now. If you are thinking about them, then you are treating them as linked events and you will say something like "For 2 weeks she was hiding like a common thief" or "After my career, why should I suffer indignity? I should be living in comfortable surroundings!" Then you are inventorizing events and items in a customary time frame, and then you are cut off from left hand gnosis. Then you are in the brow, where worry and fear come in.

On the left side there is no fear, unless it is translated to the right as it (then becomes) shocking. For example, "How many times a month can I think I'm dying and not go crazy?" and "How many nights can I do this without going crazy?" (Statements which will not) strengthen right/left awareness and decrease the inventory (sic). As T1 could seldom use (her previous) notes, she could retrieve information at the drop of the hat. When the left side awareness increases the right side tonal increases as well (or else) (one goes) crazy.

"Crazy" is when the left side awareness leads to a path of destroying the mind and (one becomes like) a crying baby idiot that can't enjoy life, is morose, or so fearful that one can't laugh at a movie, or enjoy a good bottle of wine or a nice dinner. You get crazy when you don't know when to shift to the right tonal to soothe the left awareness. If you are in the left side for a long time, then be aware when it seems appropriate 'in your heart', and not 'in the head' to soothe your tonal; so then you watch something like the old movies. However, the movies are also very educational. If you had a bias about movies though, you could say "This is hokey; a 1950's film that is so bad it bored you stiff on stupid premises. Why bother watching it?" That is itemizing. But instead, you think with Lehys and ask "What would soothe my tonal? Ah-ha: Invasion of the Body Snatchers!" It doesn't seem rational, but the movie was very soothing.

Sometimes an exciting movie will be soothing and other times a boring movie. Like with C's liver, with congestion you crave spices and when the liver is strictured, you crave bland food. You can't pass a rule for everyone on what will soothe a tonal or not and you can't do it for yourself if you try to 'inventory' your tonal. Then (someday the tonal) will go up (in refinement and strength) by a chunk and something completely different will pacify it.

At one time T1 could drink a gin and tonic at 3.00pm with shattered nerves after holding a dying person. and be soothed. With a nagual experience after going into exhaustion, T1 could see demons (in the dying) and also goodness in them, and she was trying to help them as they were going through that, so it was a wonderful left side experience. Coming home at that time as T1 ten years ago, she could drink a gin and tonic to be soothed, to go to bed and rest. Now if her left side is active, she could drink bottles of gin and nothing would soothe her. You can put an energy program into the gin that holds better than water, but essentially it doesn't do a thing for her now. You could in this stage of development, take water and program it with the energy (of gin) and after three drinks, you would feel the high. But T2 can't do that anymore, after she died. Also if you move a chunk in your development --and what you want to aspire to is to move up a chunk, because when you move up a chunk you never go back. With two steps forward you might move one back.

How do you move up a chunk on the left side? Most of you are (more) chunks higher on the right than the left. You are not deficient (on the left), you are just not developed. (When you have) studied and learned (from) experts in different fields, you want to chunk up on the left. However, you only have power to the level of your lowest side. If your left side is high and right side is low, then you are crazy. If your right is high and your left is low, then you can't see.

(The left) is not an inventory taker; the left side is not rational. Remember, you don't want it to be rational. You also don't want to go crazy and say "That S.O.B.! I'm going to get a gun and shoot him!" You don't see T2 doing that. Or when you go without sleep you want to find ways to accommodate your left side awareness, but you are not a slave to the right tonal and you need to get into the practice of seeing first with the left and second with the right side and not the reverse, because those are your inhibitions (sic) ...as in shifting one's eyes.

Look at T2 and you can see her shift from left to right awareness, (you can see) whether she is in the nagual aspect left or the normal rational right. The nagual is not rational it is holographic; with the nagual you get a concept and know the whole thing. Sometimes T2 can be on a couch for 12 hours without thinking on the right, but she can write volumes without one word of thought, because she saw the whole thing in a hologram. It is completely clear. The important thing is to shift from the left to go into the right side and try to integrate it. If you can't do that you will go crazy or shut down the left out of terror.

As T1 she could see aliens made from demons, and people becoming pods, and knew that there were succubus/ incubus and she didn't know why. She studied Rudolf Steiner, but she just felt it and knew what was right and what wrong with the initial (left) awareness then she could then use the right side and work with it. She can still write out the awareness from the hologram (from the left). She does that to help us to integrate (the left) on right side because that is a true achievement for a person or any being to translate the left to the right. It is a major achievement. As your left side moves in and chunks (up) then you will feel joy, panic, loss, grief, happiness and satisfaction and you can't translate it in any way on your right; you just know that is what it is. But you should want to translate the left to the right side and that is why we have charts. If you try to be rational you won't dowsing right.

T2 was dowsing "raids" left and right, but they were possible scenarios that would happen unless they were whittled away. If one [is frightened?] suddenly then whittle away. Do not say "I won't whittle because I am too tired" because if you do that, they will get you. The whole purpose is to be a person of power, and to be impeccable striving for excellence on the right and left side even if you don't understand what you are doing.

Example: Sn - Many students don't realize the master gives initiations even if there is nothing said about the initiations and T2 has said many times that (often) the master doesn't know the initiations given to students. It is an automatic relationship that the Holy Beings have seen fit to endow on humanity. Humanity is left and right awareness and not just right.

Example: It didn't make sense (to dowsing) that a raid was coming 1 or 10 times, and you didn't know why and then you started studying it. You can't operate out of shame, (or fear that you are) wrong. T2 wasn't wrong. You have to know when you are right and even if it seems illogical, you follow it and try to understand with the right side. When you know it is correct pursue it as a golden opportunity to hop up a chunk on the left and the right. As you hop in the left, if you understand it, it you hop on right.

Divine Intelligence implies no agenda or inventories. You have what the Holy Spirit guides you to do. We all have warehouses of experience. You can pray "I don't know what this experience is for. I humbly ask to be led to the correct inventory to understand it symbolically (to interpret it) to the right side to save this chunk and to be strong."

How does a person keep their sanity? La often spoke (about T2's phrase in the books): "If you don't want to go crazy, then..." and T2 said "I don't care if (repeating the) statement drives them crazy, the statement is true."

In spiritual science if people try to grow on the left without the right side strength, then they would go mad.

What is tragic is if you have someone with a right side strength and they (still) go mad, like La; quite mad. The higher you go if you choose evil, you will go mad.

Example: Why did Cec brag to strangers of committing a murder? He went mad. His tonal could not support the left awareness that he had screwed up and that he had lost his chance for power. If a person like Jm or Cec realize on the right side that they have lost power from having a teacher that could have helped them (they go mad). Because you are only entitled (to have) one teacher. A person will find only one master and that, if you are lucky. It is only (through) your personal power or good luck that you fall to a teaching of great magnitude (which offers the) probability of continually facing the terrors of the unknown of the left side while holding in (the reigns) with your right side strength. You won't go crazy if the left side withers, but you will be [---]. However, you will go crazy if the right withers and you can't face the left.

Example: When La realized she had spent months fantasizing about sex and T2 dead...and T2 had said over and over not to put this into the ethers. When La realized that all of her rationalizing on the right side which is one of the purposes for weaknesses in desires and wants (sic) (---); you have to be able to face your wants, desires and malefic values. If you value having a lover more than God, you better face it. If you desire financial security more than virtue, then face it, to get over it.

If a person spends a lot of energy of the right side in forming a pseudo self that won't face the left side then they whittle at their tonal until the true tonal is a walnut and the pseudo tonal is a huge demonic shape, which infiltrates the left and becomes an evil monster. Lies belong to satan and if you lie to yourself about who and what you are then you are satanic and many a person has hated T2 for saying that. When T2 pointed out to La that she was satanic and going crazy (it seemed blunt) but what is the difference? Your choice is whether this person has the tonal strength to keep (going) and fighting and to be a person of power if they are confronted and if not confronted, they will become totally satanic and lose their soul. So if you confront them, they may still go mad and be evil, and lose their soul. You have two bad choices and one good choice.

However the left side does not operate with gamblers' odds. Each roll is not 50%. Every time you deal with another person you risk their annihilation. That is the risk of a teacher, and it is the burden to teach or help humanity. Know when to speak; not because of the odds, but because you know. Do not rationally think "This person worked so hard for 7 years, and this person needs/deserves a second chance." That is not the left side (talking), the Soul is not an inventory experience. You can't see a soul, so does that mean it does not exist? You don't measure a person's value by their inventory, whether they are smart, etc., but by the brilliance of their spiritual emanation of holiness and soul force. And if a person has one little bitty change, often the holy spirit will see fit for you to take that change, as it is better to have a mad-man without a soul, than be a zombie without a soul who feels good about himself and he feels good because he feels strong. If there was some chance that La could make it, T2 had to do it

Persons on the spiritual path are one of three things: they are either

- 1) Nutty as a peach orchard boar,
- 2) Sorcerers and vampires or
- 3) Holy, and then they are truly powerful.

It has always been T1's right side desire to give anyone a chance if they have one little change. It would be better to see 9 out of 10 people go crazy than to see no one with souls. A comfortable zombie is no comfort to (another) zombie. A comfortable zombie like Cec is very comfortable. He knew enough to band together with other weaklings to destroy the one he thought had power.

Ji said "I know that I have no spiritual substance left. All my soul has been taken from me"; Which is a victim stance. She had been cutting other people's monadic cords, but (her actions) cut her own cord as your (actions) return and devour you. You cannot kill and hope to succeed as a saint, as this is the only path to teach. T2 was concerned about Ji and Cec as (their own actions) could turn around on them and cause their (spiritual) death prematurely, with all the energy (that had been spent) to kill T2. It is like a shadow of death that shadows them and the cloud gets even bigger, even if it is (only a thought such as) "I sure hope that T2 doesn't die" which is a feel good statement with a desire in it. It is easy to perceive people who have death wishes for others, as they develop a black cloud around them. Often the groin location is the desire of death with sexual thrills.

Why is necrophilia in Satanism and sex and death so enmeshed? Because the desire to destroy through sexual methods is to propagate death. Dead people want others to die. That sounds like a paradox. Why does Cec want to kill? Because he knows he is lost and he will want to kill forever.

Some are left with no hate or malignancy towards this group. At one time Sm had intercession to receive a soul. (Gar) sent her books, and a sweet note, with hopes she would continue struggling to reach holiness and we were absolutely thrilled. And yet T2 looked at her (and saw) a synergy with Cec. T2 sees that Sm's filmmaking skills are being used to make a defaming and defiling movie saying T2 is a thief and a pervert who wants to harm people and kill aliens and zombies. T2 didn't want to see that, but you have to look at everything without wants or desires, or you won't see gnostically. (One sees) not traditionally with the "heart" but with Lehys "Not my will but thine, O Lord."

Pray: "I want to see truth or nothing. If I am strong enough to see truth, then I pray to see. If I am not strong enough, then I ask to become strong enough." Don't ask for truth because (---) weak, you ask to be strong enough to see the truth. That means (you are willing to see even) if someone you love has become [---] after 20 years.

(T2 relates a story about her own family). If you love anything above God then you will be inhibited to power to that level. You can't climb above your false gods. They absolutely stop you from soul progression, and not of (right side) rationality only, but also on the left side path of awareness; (example; choosing) to meditate, get weird and not go out in the world.

If T2 did four books a year, then that implies she is able to translate (the left) to the right side and work. You work on the left side in a different manner (from the right) but it is work and it is not rational. For example, you may see that you need to drive to Santa Fe or Phoenix for some unknown reason and you know in your gut you need to go. Like T2 knew to go to Mexico (in May) and she didn't know why, but (travel) causes people to shift to the left somewhat, as Mexico has a primal energy and that is why they are killing each other and the government is in upheaval. The Mexicans are very left awareness, but they can't work (---) with right (sic).

So what to do, is to live primarily 'irrational'; live with Lehys (awareness) but integrate it to the rational (right awareness). To the world you will look irrational. If you look at the antics of Don Juan and Genaro you would think they were nuts but everything they did had a purpose in (the spiritual) progression of pupils. They were dedicated to the progression of the pupils as odd as they seemed; and they caused fear. T2 is grateful for fear, as it is a grand opportunity for left side maturation

You should not resist or run from situations that provoke fear and you should not be rational about the fears. Have fun with it on the left, all the while anchoring it to the solid right, and you should always read your situations first through the left and then see where the Holy Spirit takes you in the inventory (of the right) and the Holy Spirit will tell you the right pile to dig through for the correct symbols to integrate the left with the right and then you will really feel good. In the eyes of the world you would not seem a success: i.e. Don Juan and Genaro were failures in the world's eye, but they were so successful as they were men of knowledge and power. But for us also (we have) purity and service. You cannot be pure or of service unless you are powerful and have knowledge.

There is knowledge on the right gained in school and knowledge on the left between words. Always read between the words on the left side first and with an inventory of words on the right side second. If you do that you will be guided right. Because the Holy Spirit will lead you to the right inventory pile to figure something out, and it may take months. But oh! The happiness when you solve the riddle of the left side.

T2 feels so happy and victorious and joyful, not prideful, but rapturous that the design of power has it that she was given the opportunity to find another piece of the puzzle of time, space and manifestation on a first hand basis through the context of this suffering time of persecution. All things work together for good for them that love the Lord and do His will.

Your joy is not that you can walk the streets and not be mowed down and (physical) security, but joy in that the Holy Spirit leads you and someday if you are impeccable enough the personality can endure a greater chunk of the Holy Spirit. The stronger you are on the left, the stronger you can reach on the right to integrate it, and then your tonal becomes a fountain of strength.

People aren't born with strong personalities, and Don Juan implies that our tonals are set. There were times in T1's life where she felt pitifully bereft of tonal with weeping and whining. Looked at just a youth (sic), looked at (being a) slimeball and a failure (sic). If you look at people's lives, (observe whether) they have developed a left and right side awareness. That is why apprentices were allowed (in the esoteric teachings) and they were not expected to endure without a teacher to guide and help develop their endurance and tonal. It was not that Don Juan was mean to Carlos, but he was using his own nagual power to anchor Carlos so he wouldn't go crazy under the left side experiences. And there is not one of you (now) or before (who T2 would) push anyone to insanity. She has been here to anchor our tonals. Some people have rejected (this help) and have gone crazy when they say "Who is she? It doesn't matter what she says."

It is T2 and T3's function. They must increase the importance of raising (a student's) left side experience rather than worrying all the time if he or she is comfortable on the right side. T2 worries (she doesn't want us to) go crazy, but she wants us to be (a little) crazy and go a little nutty, because laughing is a way to tolerate the bizarre antics of the left side. Weird things happen to you when you step into the left side. People will show up and act bizarre, and you will draw things out of them as you get more powerful...that you will draw things out of them.

Who would have thought Jmc would spend two years to get back at T2 because he stole money? It is a sign of the mediocre to band together to destroy a true person of power who doesn't want to destroy anyone at all, but to diminish evil, to help raise the power and purity within themselves, or to develop purity to overshadow all that is below them and to cause it to starve to death by not feeding it.

Anytime you feed evil, or you make excuses for evil people, or are in (in their presence) you feed evil and you lose power. Whenever you catalog a person's past, you are not listening to the current Lehys, and then you are weakening your power. It is also true that a person may have been a terrible student; abusive and defiling. But what if someone like "Ta" showed up at the door someday? T1 saw (that Ta had sat during past classes) running her hands up and down her thighs. She stole things from people's rooms, and she needed a trunk to take with her all the booty. But T1 looked at it as humorous to give other people support (on how) to dance with the bizarre weak tonals. (And yet) what if Ta became stable and showed a spark of hope?

T2 knew a nurse once who worked (the floor) under her, then two years later, she saw her with Lehys and she was really a good nurse who was mentally stable, sensitive and caring, and T1 was glad she saw her as she was versus inventorying what she was two years ago. A person may seem psychotic when they are chunking (upward) on the left side, and the right side can hardly take it, but it can crawl. How does the right side crawl to the left? By tiny actions, by acting stable when you feel crazy, yet you are still operative from the gnostic side. You don't act crazy about it, you have fun with it. We can laugh about 'getting in the coffin'. T2 laughed even the in middle of the night with the cold and bed sores (sic). She couldn't move and she thought she would suffocate, and yet she laughed thinking "Here's the great teacher on the floor, and aren't you a picture of balance and you can't even figure out when a raid is coming." Then (later) she could figure out when the raids were coming and what was logical and not from the right and left side gnostic. Then she realized it doesn't matter if it is not logical if it is not crazy. And one way to tell (the difference) is whether you are functioning (appropriately) even in stress and you don't stand around and cry all the time.

Doa and Mca would cry whenever T1 saw them, (or) when they were happy, sad, devotional, or if they got a little of anything they would quiver. That shows a weak tonal. You could ask "With a weak tonal how could they support an evil synergy?" Because evil is an energy now with a joined and united brain. Anyone who follows Pod People has a weak brain. If a person thinks with Lehys and is true to himself, the self that is a part of God and not some sucker world self, then there is no stopping him.

Question: ---

Answer: Centripetal and centrifugal. If you think of centrifugal as throwing things out, that is very much like the experience of merging with the environment to absorb it like a cloud to exp(and) and merge. There is an aspect of yin and yang and that is why women find the left side easier, but the outward going, floating, merging aspect of the Left Side is becoming like a cloud that absorbs and sees with every bit of wisp; which is not in a unit or measurement. If a cloud came into the room, it is not a unit but it encompasses and sees all of us like the Holy Ghost. (Apologies, Auditor):

The right side is solidified, masterly, delineated and refined in shape. Men are more muscular and linear in shape, i.e. (--) long and lean. With women who are (more left dominated) they are rounded and curvy and floating out. A man's gestures are in sharp bursts. Women (wear their hair) in long curls and men (appear) effeminate if they do that. A man should have sharp clean movements that are appropriate to his gender, with tight movements.

The etheric left right side (yin) is going out and preconceiving (sic). You go out to merge with it to know it, because it is wordless. A word is a materialized object. The yang pulls in the experience so as to regulate it inside the brain which holds the graven images of words. It is hard to remember the same words, as T2 thinks in concepts and holistically. This is a time for rejoicing and it is a time for being joyful that we are strong. For instance many people are depressed around Christmas; they remember childhood and wish they had something different, they are inventorying. How much more delightful it would be to merge with what is the birth of Christ, the concept and "What does it mean to me in the concept of spiritual consciousness?"

That is the truth of what Christmas should mean. It is not that we are against gifts and someone who says "Gifts are terrible" or they may say "Nothing should be against your religion per se, as homosexuality is wrong (sic)." But what if you met someone with gender confusion who had been in a very possessed environment, would you automatically say "You are a piece of shit, and soul dead"? Even those without souls, any person that identifies with Christ in the flesh will become worthy of a soul and we should aspire to find those who resonate on a tissue level of holiness. You can't look at a homosexual zombie or a ray octave type...you have to look at all people not from the inventory of this teaching, but between the words of the teaching for the spirit of the words and not the letters. As Jesus said “You evil ones go by the letter of the law, and not the spirit of the law” and yet the laws are important if only people look for the spirit and not the letter.

So there may be experiences that don’t fit because the demons lead to you to something that doesn’t fit. You have to be able to look at (something with) Lehy without wants and desires. La listened to the demons and they told her what to want and desire. A desire-less state is so wonderful because the most glorious joy and passion come from the desire of Christ and want for virtue.

T2 regrets we weren’t able to do a lesson yesterday, but that is a polite thing to say. The visits; we must go with what the Holy Spirit lays before us and be grateful, i.e. for a meal, a crumb of bread or a candy bar we are grateful. God does provide for us what we need if not what our right side inventory wants.

What T2 would like to do is shift, to practicing shifting left to right and seeing the same five minutes of the video in both the left and right, as your memories of the events will be completely different, without inventory.

For example a note from Gar (reflects) some understanding of the nagual experience. (Someone) faxed a note to Gar “Have the party goers gone to Tulsa?” and the answer Gar returned was “They left for Tulsa but with a couple of stops” which were underlined. It was a gnostic sense of “Stop calling because the phone would be bugged.” The spirit of it was that Gar had a left side awareness that we would be bugged. You look for detail and you don’t read it for the words to get to the left side awareness on a letter. If you listen to words you can get a completely different method when listening with the right. Interpretation on the right from the left takes practice. You may translate it on the right in a rational way first and then think of translating to the left but (that would be) wrong.

For example : 9 out of 10 times (when we hear a loud noise) (we may want to) hide...it is not that every loud noise means someone is coming in. That would be an inventory (reaction), to list and itemize all the sounds. The tonal becomes stressed; so you want an itemization of experience to get a grip on them. That was a pitfall T2 had as she slipped into the right, and she too is gaining more control over the right just as we are. Is it control of the right or left? T2 would say her right grabbed the left. A crazy person has their left grab their right. T2 has a propensity for her right to grab the left, and that is a coward’s way. On the other hand if she is clear enough then she will say, “What is it?” If she is not too clear she will go toward the right side which is cautious with a left side perspective, as she operates primarily on the left.

The right does not translate to the left, as you can’t take words to the Holy Spirit and say what (there is) to learn.

Example: One former student had the appearance of not knowing. One time, when she dowsed again to leave her husband, she then called to say “I’ve left my husband, can I stay there?” She gets bored with her life, then she wants to come here for a place to stay; then without any money she will go back to him. If you leave a person, don’t worry about where you go; really, if you decide to go, you leave. How many people have stayed with jobs that killed their souls? The left side (governs) in the Now.

With a Pseudo Left Side, you can ask “Am I going to leave or go back?” and you would stay in the now, but that is a Pseudo Now, as she is playing out her whims: “I don’t like the macaroni he fixed so I will go somewhere to hole-up and spend his money.”

For example, La: They wanted her to leave and (---) it too (sic). But she wanted to leave the easy way out, and (through her) whims. Doing what you want is not following whims. Growing on the left side may be fearful and painful, but it is an endless excitement to discover that (which is unattainable) by the right side. It is the mark of the uncommon man, and it will lead you to power if you persevere. It may be by doing one thing for a long time to learn it. If you think whims are in the now, they are never. The Holy Spirit is not your pimp and whims are never in the now. Your whims are your weak tonal’s leavings.

CLASS NOTES: DECEMBER 16, 1994

One way (to dowse) if you have a body symptom, ask

"Whose cuticle (or body part) is it?" Then ask

"How black is that body part?"

Men have more nose problems than women. T2's nose has a problem on the left side, but is (a child) from having Forr in his nose. When at the house she started bleeding with scabs and sores.

To reemphasize:

Check: For "Dips" in body parts when you find a symptom.

Ask for: "% of depth of dip according to your capacity."

When the air and fire prana lines go out they (consist of) the Low Ether Substance.

In fact think of the lines out as centrifugal/centripetal (Low Ether Substance)

And then you don't have to think of Air/Fire/Water, but by direction.

Aside: We could sell an herbal book with spiritual overtones, such as anal retention associated with obesity and depression connected to vampires. If someone vampires you, you will get fatter, and the vampire will get thinner. As the aura is sucked out, the body will compensate by getting fat. The vampire's aura gets fatter, and the corpse body thinner. A person with a congested liver will crave hot foods, to help move the system, someone with a strictured liver will avoid hot foods.

Example: One person had high level energies that could hide behind another (this occurs when) a person has a split agenda. One person really wanted to be holy, but it is kind of like the initiations, her major initiation was relinquishment of her adult life excessive carnality (involving) promiscuity through her marriage as well. After taking a vow of chastity, and yet still having lovers indicates (a split agenda). One (good) thing that can happen is that a person who is not a carnal person, but the sexual function is still an integrated part of his life, with communication and God's aspects. But someone else would lie (to self and others), the carnal one, and not want anyone else to know that they indulge in daydreams. The more indulgent one is, the more one would deny it. Pathology is revealed with this.

One day the (split) personalities were shoved together, and (this person) got to a point where she had to deny it completely or to face it. They were shoved together, and she almost went crazy and the personalities had to be separated again.

A person's second personality will tend to revert and reveal itself when exhausted. So late at night a person might do things that are shocking; like rubbing another person's leg.

Is a wonderful example, we need to talk more about starting to look with spirit versus the physical eyes, and the nagual aspect. Everyone has a nagual aspect that you can see with shifting to the left. For example in Castaneda's books: "Look with the left side." It is amazing how people make stupid mistakes when hateful and evil.

If we are under surveillance for the next few days, then we may kick out a new health book. When bombarded with evil energies, then the high spiritual work can't be put together in a cohesive form until the evil is gone from the air. The other/health book is easy, as it takes a lower level of clarity.

Notes:

➤ There are spiritual and physical remedies for obesity. Some people can't lose weight, unless they poop more.

They can't eliminate toxins unless do this. It is (incorrectly) taught that about one movement every five days is normal.

➤ Nothing will stick to your aura unless you have a dip or protrusion.

➤ A lot of us are going out to the future and the past. For example, go out to Thursday, at 6:00 re. to Jg, Ji and a private detective. Ji is fearful about the false information given to the FBI as their surveillance is so extensive. They will have to come in here, even though the stories don't match. But they will have to finish it to prosecute them (sic). Also Interpol is looking into New Zealand, (due to) a sexually abused child (report). That is expensive for Interpol.

When the FBI, Federals and Child Bureau interviews T2, she will say "Yes, she knew them and knew the others, and the children were never abused, they were treated very well. T1 and Forr treated Ji's child very well. Forr served as a father figure for him, taking him 5-6 times a week out to play with (another child). He changed his diapers and gave him a father's love. For Ji to turn on Forr when he (and Gar) treated that child so well -- she has received so much assistance in this group and she is alleging we are all perverts. That is terrible karma to bear false witness to people who have done you favors and tried to help. When they interview Cel - (it will be told that) Ji had been seen (by her) with a big wad of bills and her father's credit cards, and then she knew Ji was stashing money. If people testify and if people will say as I will say (the truth), then when it comes right down to it they will have to admit there was no sexual abuse or drug abuse.

La should have tried to pull herself back, and with her very flesh.

Pray to be holy with your skin and your eyes.

Damaged Iris: Check % intact for each one, and damage.

We can use these charts for ourselves. During the night; one of the problems with predicting, if you look at the 1-12 clock, it is a dial like a pointer, a Christmas tree timer.

Seeing into the Past and Future with the Etheric Left Iris associated with the Right Iris:

Wherever your focus goes to, becomes the Now and will dowse as 12:00/midnight for the etheric body and the left side awareness. So if you dowse something happening right now, it may be 1200/Now, and you are in the Now at 12 up (sic). Then (you need to) Ask “What time is my Now IN?” So we are looking at the fact that it feels like midnight always, or noon. One person has a 7AM Now, and looking at it from the left side, it is midnight (on the left) and 7AM is the right side translation, as if you were looking at a regular clock (sic). T2’s difficulty was trying to (perceive) left time frames with the right awareness, which is not possible, because the left side etheric body only sees at midnight, the symbol betwixt night and day.

Example: (Look at) 7AM Saturday of this month (as) “today”. T2 has been finding lately, that we are starting to float slowly ahead of time and perceive things, and the right side may feel uncomfortable. If you are in a group of people the left may stick ahead, and the right will stay the same. You have to find out at what time is it stuck? Ask: “At what time did my right side depart from my left?” Realizing that you are always at midnight on the left, you are constantly turning the dial (on the right), so that midnight dial is now at 8AM. It is most accurate to say

Ask “Where is the etheric iris on the time clock?” That is what you see with and can stick in the future.

Write on the clock “Etheric future as it sticks on the iris of the eye left/right” You must keep in mind, it will always feel like midnight.

Put “Etheric Midnight Iris Stuck.” This always means that your intuitive self became quagmired and contaminated, and it tears you up, if you have one side going (out). You are not (yet) coordinated with your etheric and physical, and you won’t dowse the times (correctly) if you focus from only the right side awareness (sic).

“Stick” is a good term, as the left does stop there, and it may drop some substance into the past or future. We are to the point now where we are sliding into times past and future, and more (often). For example with family members, one person has 34 future sticks of the right eye and 10 of left. There are 10/past/right and 9/past/left. Do: the To Dos, and clear them often with waveforms.

You can tell how bad off a person is by how black or white your irises are. If you think of your etheric body, with a scale of 1-10 (1 is clear, and 10 is black) they can load up, and you won’t even know. That is how cloudy your spiritual vision is.

T2 couldn’t figure it out except in the middle of the night. You have to look at it with the etheric iris eye, and that is like a large yin and large yang with other components. There is some correlation with the brain hemispheres, and correlations with one’s idea of males and females, the Law of Polarity and other things. Even if you get it completely clear, check to see if you are stuck anywhere, should you see an event; and this situation is good for a learning situation.

For example: you are “seeing” a Cult Awareness push for an insanity hearing for T1.

Ask: “Is it being modified?”

Then ask: “Where is my Right Iris Now in the clock?”

It is 11 PM this Sunday that somehow this will be pushed with the hired killer (sic) which in this case dowses as Ji’s brother and sometimes as Jm. The holy beings have a way to go to screw up their plans (and this only) if we are impeccable enough to summon the holy beings. And you have to be somewhat holy and clear to approach them. We should get pretty clear before we pray. Do what you can before you ask for help; it is the responsible thing to do.

Example: The Jg event is being modified; the City police chief sees a plotting. Jg is getting depressed and the officer is charging him for calling the mental health department. His phone was monitored by the ATF when he was in Massachusetts, so how can he accuse us when he hasn’t stepped into the monastery? T1’s cousin is a bureau chief of the ATF and he hooked on a call monitor after he found out they were a threat to T1’s life.

Look at the time: “What time am I seeing that?” 3pm Sunday night.

You can see how to put events into a format. The event may not be murder, but an employee who is considering embezzlement, or a family member who is having a hard time and needs help. This is a good method to help others be free of past and future flaws. You have to be in the now, and be yourself. With auric bits in the past and future, then you will be weakened in the now, because your now is in the future. So it is important to clear these things, and in some cases with the enemy, we have to clear them as well. With zombies they have a Pranic Low Ether Holder that can glob on you, and you can feel it. They can glob on your etheric body or monad and it feels like crap. It makes it very hard to dowse with a mixed identity and you will feel bad.

That is what T2 felt in the night. She prayed "Lord I am asking you to show us what we need to know because we love truth, and we will serve you in truth and always will." She was helped past her block and shown (the key) of the past.

On the bottom of the chart it says
Inverse Evil or Clear...Mixed...Inverse Law....
Inverse Virtue...Invisible Inverse...Mirror"
 The top empty circle is "Clear" ○

Draw an empty circle under the inverse evil: ○

It appears to be clear. Inverse evil that appears to be clear is what she meant, and that is a clear circle under the line (below "Clear"). To all appearances it appears to be clear, but it is an inverse evil that appears to be clear. If a person's monad leaks on an evil person, it will appear clear, but there may be an inverse evil under that, and it misses your vision, as it seems clear and it is not.

Another thing T2 has found, one of the reasons that we have trouble sliding into the future or past with our auric substance, is that you have Auric Dips and Protrusions that you reform by habit. If you had (a dip for) 20 years and then you become clear of it; you may slip back into it. For example C's liver was better last month, and this month it is seventeen percent reformed. It is like a blind spot with scar tissue. Clear it again, then check it.

Example: Cel has dips and protuberances mentally. Note that somehow with your etheric body you will recognize dips and you will find old auric dips of other people inside you. Then clear them out and pray for healing, and then measure them for few days after that to be sure the dips and protrusions won't reform out of habit, or you will have problems (reoccur). The protrusions are like (dirty) doorknobs or if someone hangs out the dirty underwear and the dips are like something is crawling in and eating away on you.

Example: One person has a nasal pharyngeal dip and a tracheal. It seems as if the whole sinus and upper respiratory has a tendency to model (dips). It doesn't have a big deep one Like C's liver, but this one is mottled like a kid with acne. The little dips don't get a lot of stuff, but you will fill up with etheric substances and you may feel it on your ears, throat and mouth. Her thyroid dip appears to be on the forehead. There is s shape like a cleft that goes in where the third eye would be and it affects the corpus collosum and affects the nervous system.

Example: Look For a dip that goes back. In one case he has quite a few dips in his head, they are small but deep, and then also there are the mottled superficial ones that are like little spiritual polyps going in instead of up.

Check the Lower Ether which is the not the Etheric Cocoon.

Ask "How much of the ether substance do you have that is intact?"
 "How much of it is yours?"

On the clock: Look at the Iris from a centripetal and centrifugal direction to get all of the debris.

Check left and right iris, and the (Left) is midnight time.

Sometimes with auric dips there may be strings to pull out and do waveforms.

A person's right eye has a protuberance that goes out about three inches. It is a spiritual injury with a protuberance.

You can ask "How black is my right eye protuberance?", and

Ask the same for the sinus dips, "How contaminated/1-100% percent?"

"How black, how much foreign white?" Which can be very bad.

Always check for other people's substances, even if your substance is pretty clean, as you will feel bad.

Keep a record of dips and protuberances.

The important Key things that T2 hopes is that we learn is to be ourselves in the now and personally powerful.

Example: If you went to a medical meeting and you were tired and you saw someone from medical school, and maybe an old wound will open from the past sense of reliving a painful experience. Or you might go to a college reunion with an old lover, and something happens that would make you emotionally upset, and cause the weak spots to reopen. Check them every day for a long time, be sure they are sealed properly, and then the tendency to reform them is not a possibility. After a time, you will have fewer and fewer.

Example: It is interesting that every person with their nose...everyone has a problem, in this one case it is very deep.

It is an La Clone on the Brain. These clones are like cancers with no normal blood vessels throughout the healthy tissue and they are strangling it. That is why "cancer" means "crab", it has crab legs. It is like we are pulling out the crab legs.

Example: One person has a leak or protuberance out of the palm of the left hand. It is like the Generosity of Spirit has bulged out and is completely contaminated with three people. With this protuberance, you could say there is six percent remaining, but if you drain a boil, then you have to check it for reinfection and it will gradually go flat. The etheric body (in this case) is completely toxic and may cause the sinuses to be stuffed up. In this case the contamination is in the facial nerves, the genitals, the chest torso, blood vessels and esophagus.

One reason a person may have trouble seeing, is that the Etheric has fallen over the Ether Body and it is hard to see. There are old monadic drips on this one.

Remember to always check the same things, the Etheric Body, the Ether Body, and

Ask “Where are you feeling, trusting, willing/intending and thinking?”

Remember those as they will help you remain harmonious.

Example: It feels like one person's liver has a protuberance going from the liver and it is completely dark and has the “name” of T2 and it “looks like” Nob. It is actually Nob through you, and then going into T2’s lungs. T2 will feel it as an etheric tap that goes through her hand and back and it seems to be (---). If you are linked with another person, you may have their meridians or their symptoms, just as likely as if they were your own, so one could perceive liver and lung problems (as primary instead of secondary). The Ether is like prana lines/centripetal. Remember you have to check it both ways.

Example: Another person has a dip on the genitals. Check if you get these cleared and then next time will to remove other layers that she is working on. With C’s liver now, it is 2% reformed vs. 17%.

Add to Charts: “Snap back in shape” once you have cleared out a dip, then pop it (out) as it is a (type of inverted wart). (As you are going in?) then you are doing a type of painless body work (sic).

Remember to check Clarity, even if your ether and etheric bodies are even and not pockmarked any more.

Example: Another dip is on the breast. There is a small protuberance on the right side. This seems to be old self. You can Ask for a protuberance “Where is it now on the law clock?” 20°. If you have an auric protuberance and dip, find where is was and see if you have left a piece. (It is as if) they would leave a bit of their aura in another person’s house, and then feel depleted.

If you feel wobbly, then you will have to go back and call the aura to you.

With traumas, this will happen as well.

A protuberance is if you pull out something, and

A dip is where someone ate away at you, or a piece (of you) goes out and leaves a hole, and then it gets contaminated.

Example: With C’s liver, the problem is a stricture, or a [---] of liver and it causes a pooling, and congestion of the rest of the liver. T2 doesn’t know in her case, if she keeps her ether/etheric clear very well and be sure that she doesn’t get possessed, we shall see how soon it heals. If (the problem) goes to the lower ether, it will make you sick. It doesn’t mean she is a big eater, this is due more to emotion, and (the etheric) shows trauma on any of those.

A lot of times when T2 says something we will start to automatically clear and that is very good.

Try this for the next month. With the etheric body and the ether, check if it is dirty and falling down.

Find out why it is falling, i.e. is it heavy with lot of crap?

So ask “Why am I so contaminated?”

(In this case) At 10AM on June 2 of (1993) you were being concerned about another person’s welfare, so (part of) your (etheric) would go and and be left with them.

Make your own chart that is appropriate and type it up to use.

T2 found that in this etheric body problem, she has to go to the ←strange drawings that say 1, 2, 3, 4, 5. They are holy beings that help to transform what is already solidified, from events in your lives and sickness.

There are ones at each stage called Event Changers, who also change matter.

We needed the ones that work on the second ring for the Etheric body contamination. Just view them and do not worry about what they are. They are Holy Being aspects, they are stages of progression and at each stage they can assist you.

Chart: Holy Being Powers

Then look at the ←Holy Being Powers Chart on the other side and see if you can't figure it out.

Brain dip: that is a part of your monad on the brain. Think of your whole body as having a monadic layer (instead of) like a floating balloon.

The brain of this person's monadic layer had leaked on his daughter. So do: disintegrating waveforms and then refill the monadic container. With women it often settles in the uterus as a doorway between worlds, and for any female past puberty. This tended to produce a downline dip or protuberance.

With any wound, look at the chart and Ask for "Anything missing on downline from the monadic layer?" Then dowse the etheric and then the ether bodies.

What if you miss the monadic problem? You will then have down line etheric and ether (problems), and then you will have the tissue (aura problem), and then you will have a tissue disease. It may be someone else's debris, and with a 'cuticle pic', you Ask "What area of the other person's nose, low ether, cranial nerves, other body parts etc. (are attached)?"

Think of these things systematically. Check the ether and etheric for centripetal/centrifugal flow, so you can see what you wouldn't see otherwise.

Example: There is a protuberance on the nose on the etheric body level and echoed on the ether, with an ether level problem. Make sure it is not on the upline substances as well. In this case it is an ether problem, and then T2 checked to be sure that he had an etheric protuberance and not a monadic.

The KEY is to check always upline and downline with any protuberances and dips.

Example: One person's Etheric midnight is 5AM May 25, 1991. There is something in it which can start with something on you that can cause a cancer or a protuberance. By using your dial on the year and the time, you tend to be able to pull your substances back, or get rid of foreign substances. To heal most things you need to go to the time that you received the contamination or injury because it has become part of you. In essence you have to change the past so that it is no longer part of you. It is like the House of Cards falls forward.

Example: There is a centrifugal protuberance on the etheric and ether level, but not the monad. It started last night at 2am. There was a lot of energy outside of it, a sense of movement. The protuberance is near the left ovary that is Ether/Centripetal and is at 1 o'clock AM November 20 of this year. It is an Si auric contamination. Do: In most cases, disintegrate them as they are better (able) to regenerate. If the protuberance is left out, it tends to cause a constant portal.

Dowse whether to pull back or disintegrate.

Example: There is a dip on the right foot, related to 11AM, January 3rd of last year. This was when the dip was developed and it got infected again with Se (contamination). When you get a person's name, tune into the energy, as she dowsed as "C" but it was "K/Se".

Example: There is a genital dip related to toxicity from tuning into the FBI on next Monday at 2PM. This happens when one slides into the future to scan. We have to learn how to do this, with no one to teach us and we learn from T2 when she practices it. Also one can get contaminated in the future.

TO DO:

Dowse whether to Pull Back or Disintegrate (to allow regeneration of tissue) and use normal charts.

Once clear, "Snap back" and check daily for reforming then:

Pray to the Event Changers

To heal most things you need to go to the time that you received the contamination or injury.

In essence you need to change the past. CHANGING POSSIBLE FUTURE EVENTS:

Where you stand in time, there may be a dozen futures. There is one on the farthest left of a raid with "Shoot to kill", the next is one 'shot' with public humility; such as T2 gets carted off. The third one involves not T2 but T3. The best future is on the (far) right (where) they only look around (the building) with no charges and they let us go.

What T2 has found is when people have gone to a great deal of evil, they form such a vortex of energy, often the future splays out, and it will often take the path of the strongest most malignant energies. Then you have to break the energy on the most extreme left, and so on. They put causes forth, and then it depends on the FBI agent; is he going to come in here and shoot us?

It is free will that hinges on that event. They could decide to think of even worse things to say about us.

Process:

➤ We have the (possible) events (before us).

➤ You take the worst one, and look at what level the components manifested with the Manifestation Chart of five pages (Available charts are included after this lesson).

➤ Ask: "How harmful is it?" Due to our current situation, (we know) that even this situation is a teaching condition, and you could put other situations in the same slots if you were in a crisis, and you wanted to work through them.

➤ ASK or the worst (possible future),

➤ Check the level of evolution (of an event) (An earlier Manifestation Chart is after this lesson).

➤ Pray that the Holy Beings associated with that level of (evolution of the event), that they remove the evil from you and help, and then you help as best as you can, with Put Its and Waveforms as intercessors.

Then you say "Ok, I know something terrible is going to happen."

For example you are at your business with a feeling that something is closing in on you, what do you do?

Ask:

"How many malefic cores are in this?" (In our case) there are 8 right now, and there were 50 a week ago

"What stage (of manifestation) am I in?"

"What Holy Beings will help?" Dowse what to do.

Realize that to clear them (the event cores), you are using your own substance to slide forward and change the future. Ideally it is your etheric substance, and sometimes it is the low ether, and unfortunately some of the monadic substance. If (the monad) gets traumatized by (perceiving that) the whole business is about to under (---) you are sitting (still) when you go forward to eliminate (an event core), and you may feel real sick, and if you didn't know this, that you could be doing (something like) this, then you could think that something horrible was actually about to happen. That is why it is important to have a chart saying "Future Event Adjusted".

Ask: "How many core malefic futures exist?"

Check: "How malefic (is an event core) on the Dark And Light Scale?"

← (See this chart) If it is God's will, (the core will) be light. You must also check it on the law clock. It may appear to be inverse and then you run into a trap. Sometimes you will see inverse on the law clock and you see it backwards, and will look holy.

Lying Spirits are around your head when you have trouble dowsing.

Pray earnestly "That the Holy Beings destroy all evil energies and help you to see." For example last night T2 prayed "Dear Lord, I don't understand why I keep living the raid situations, and I can't understand why I can't identify the times (correctly)."

The times of the possible future events change due to a person's going down one line of (possibilities) to change it and then the (time) line on the chart (will change all the others). So there are many variables in (dowsing the correct) timing of a potential event.

Example: You may wonder something like "Why can't I sell this house?"

Ask: "How many bad (thoughts?) are causing this?"

There may be other people's substances in the house that prevents the sale.

Look at each event core until it is CLEARED/IN THE RIGHT QUADRANT AND GOD'S WILL.

Notes:

Sometimes you dowse a high level intercessor, but it may be a Black Intercessor.

You may find a "Grace Level Intercessor" but it may be from black side and evil.

"Event Changers" could be evil; a type of ally (or holy).

What T2 is trying to teach you, is that in your heart you have to know what is holy or not holy.

And in what you dowse, that may be a hard thing, if you are in a particular environment, or if people are irradiating you with their lower ether. Lately here, so many people's thoughts have been propelled into this building with such force, (and during such a time) you can know something is going on, if a large number of people (are involved), then you will know when it is unsafe. T2 would rather you be wrong 99 times than (to miss) the 100th time (when it mattered).

Example: You may be clearing an arm of evil, as in one student's liver.

Ask: "How many arms interface with her liver?" She has nine (event) scenarios that contributed to her liver problem.

The future is a possibility and past (contains) recorded scenarios where one is bad, and then it gets better (sic).

If you mix something horrible and then blend it with something happy, and then touch them together to get the person's (---) phobias (which is simplistic) (sic).

Do not fuse your phobias. Don't mix them with something else and then have them all your lives; but get rid of them!

All of us have to face whatever the symptom is and then whittle our way out of it until you get to the bottom core.

You should try to do the simplest first and then work to the worst, but sometimes you get the worst to face first.

You may (send the etheric) body to forward times as well as the past.

DO: Go through the manifestation charts, the To Dos and ask “What holy beings will help?”

Often you have to pull something out. Sometimes you send out the ether, etheric body or monad at that level.

Example: One person did have a monadic dip and if it gets to all of these (manifestation) levels (in the ether and etheric as well), then it can go into tissue (manifestation) and someone may stab you (sic). Though it may have a tissue (origin), if you have a primary tissue weakness that will tend you to have the other weaknesses as well, as it is a Blind Spot.

Example: Right now as an example of going to the future. T3 is now going forward 25 minutes ahead and he is seeing a woman whose name is Susan. She is a social worker. Ask “How toxic is T3 with a woman whose name is Susan from the lower ether substance of someone obsessing about this place?”

What T3 is doing is scanning the future to know how to react. If you know when to hide, you will have power.

Know when to talk, when to move and be still. These are the marks of powerful person and they are not gained automatically. They are learned just as we (are learning them). T3 slid forward, and he saw a glitch in the future and then you may feel possessed and anguished from others’ egoics and thoughtforms, and depressed.

With the sorcery and witchcraft allegations made against T3 and Sn by Sm, Jm, Ji and Cec--they wanted (the authorities) to raid 301. And since T3 is the sole owner of 301 they have to incriminate an innocent person. Anybody that hurts one person intentionally just to be cruel will hurt anybody. So it doesn’t surprise me.

T3 is anguished, and what is he doing? He is breaking down all of the dark forces on the social worker. If he doesn’t, then she will hate him and make a very harmful association. (----) if someone is attacking even your ex-friends to say something vile about you to raid the house to see if you and a child are in the house.

T2 traced her own substance back to 3-4 AM this morning, (and saw someone) looking in 301’s attic in the middle of the night. This is important to know, what if they plant dynamite, or child pornography or anything since there is no secure screen or any window there? All they have to do is tear the screen loose, and pour [---] in. It could have been an agent wanting to see a hidey hole in the attic. If T3 thought about it, he would need to check the attic for that reason. When one is (in the future with others) there is stress. Do not (be?) with the evil that you are digesting.

As a holy warrior you are expected to remove the evil of those attacking you to prevent them. It is self-defense.

With a pack of allies that are wanting to pursue you, if you remove them from the (people), they will feel less antagonistic.

Example: This person is standing around with Jm near the back street of the big hotel. And if you ‘go out’ there, you could say “I don’t see them.” Then ask “What time are you seeing them?” We actually may not see him physically, he won’t be there, because your Now Dial is 2PM, but it is now for you. Why is it Now, when it is here and after and know the difference (sic). Do it by DIAL OF TIME and HOUR by CLOCK and A DIAL (sic). (Apologies)

However remember if you get waves of discomfort, why do you not (check it by going into) the past and future?

Now we may still be (perceiving) her if she is thinking of coming in here. (Then if T3 doesn’t want her dark forces to enter this place, he can clear her).

Example: At 5:25PM there is a 5th level manifestation for a mental health worker, possibly Interpol coming towards someone in the alley at 214. Tune into the sound of the plane (flying above) and see when you are going to different people. This time T2 finds it is the FBI. You have to wipe your (mental) slate clean. This is the FBI “in the sky.” And you want to (be able to) dowse if it is in the sky, in a car, or from someone walking.

Now the 5th level is manifesting at 214 and 301. There are reasons for events (to occur) for a good reason. Jm is depressed. He is looking for (a child). With a large group of people (involved) one person may be thinking “I have to go in!” and you feel that. You have to know in your guts that something is wrong. You better know, so as to take the safe side, because the alternative is ----it is harder to see. If T2 traces the mental health worker, then check the plane.

Ask: “When are they mentally thinking of someone coming into the place?” At 5:33PM it is the mental health worker and the police chief. Why was it delayed last night? Because the FBI got new information.

Put on the chart: ---

Si’s sister admitted they had received several letters. Jg was trying to say that Si was a kidnap victim.

T2 felt a terrible fear. If you sense (something is about) to happen does that mean it won’t happen?

T2 was ‘killing’ the event arms. There were 50 arms existing with free will decision.

Ask “How many arms do you have to ‘kill’?”

CLASS NOTES: DECEMBER 17, 1994

The biggest mistake by the ex-student (who sent out a falsified document allegedly written by T2) was the incongruity of the writing style. The writing was nothing compared to that which they were presenting in the books. The shrink said that the writing in the book Virtues, Laws and Powers was not congruent with what the ex-students were saying, as the book focuses on the spiritual and not the physical.

To deflect an event: take the dark forces from the people involved in an action to deflect the action.

Clean up the dark forces as much as possible and then see if the event is deflected.

When dowsing check:

Whether to use the right or left Iris,

Whether it is a Centrifugal, Centripetal or a Communication problem

Or if there are Interpretation blocks on the left.

Make sure if left side is active, that the right side is interpreting,

And if you are in the right side, that the left side is receiving in some way.

It is wonderful to be aware of dreams. The left will interpret from the right what is going on with a vision to translate the dream. For people who are too possessed, they cannot. But you can be concerned about your dreams if you can clear yourself adequately and that you are without a Pseudo Right or Left side which are filled with desires and wants in the dreams.

Without the Pseudo Right and Left, you can see rightly in your dreams. In the Old Testament the kings knew when to fight or not in their dreams. You can maintain a consciousness and alter-awareness while walking around and that is what we want to work on today.

Chart excerpted from 1995 "A Prophet's Story"

Go over the ← chart and see if you can perceive it (sic). (Original Chart is not available).

Check for blocks on the right, left or between each other,

If you get fearful, or desirous, then you will not see rightly.

That is why having a sense of humor about it is important, and if you dowse "gang rape", then you can still chuckle (about it).

If the Waco (Dravidians) had been dowsers, they would not have had the guns and they could have walked out when the press was still there. The Feds knew they wouldn't because they were physical survivalists.

Most people are far too ignorant to see that it is far more powerful to deflect a battle it before it is fought. Lao Tzu said "The best battle is one that is not fought."

The master wants to conserve energy and is not worried about what he looks like, but how he is. And he is not worried about saving face, or proving anything. (He only cares about) fulfilling his desire for knowledge and his impeccability which is not (about) just the physical. He has to act in many realms; sometimes physical, with other aspects. The strongest person floats with the situation without needing to exact a coup.

One of the problems with a lot of people is that they are not satisfied with winning; they also want to humiliate the enemy. And our (desire) is not (to) not have enemies. They say they want to be our enemies, but we won't allow them to. You enter a fight under your own terms if you are a person of power. They thought it was a weakness for T2 to hide. They don't understand (the reason is) to avoid fights with weaklings.

The Key was to use the correct Art of War (technique) to dance with the (enemy in) a battle. For sure if you make the enemy mad, he will make a mistake and lose. By pushing an enemy's weakness, he will fall on his own sword.

At different times we have done that with all of them, i.e. by our sending letters to the feds, the police, and Cult Awareness Network about Ji as a liar and a lazy butt who was supported by us. We also pointed out her weakness in romance, her desire for things, her desire to be taken care of and her deceit, and that she was conning the Cult Awareness for money, even though she had been given travel money from us. She told them we robbed her, which was so easy to disprove by the time the Feds interviewed her. They knew we didn't rob her, she was a liar and that she had income with welfare, etc. Her lies caught up with her. Her desire to project her weaknesses onto T2 failed. She couldn't prove them in the long run but idiots will believe anything. However, the long run damage is minimal. When angry, a person will slander poorly, one can slander wisely if not angry. No one could believe that T1 was a thief. Ji lied wrongly. She could have said that she herself had gone crazy and taken that to the limit and that could have been believed, as things seen on the left side is so foreign to people. But she slandered unbelievably.

As for Cec we reported his radionics to the FDA and called them. It made him mad. He made his own mistakes by claiming he had killed T1 with radionics. Then he said people wanted to kill T2, and that is why she is hiding. So they then thought maybe his claims were paranoid.

With Jg he said lies recklessly instead of sticking to partial truths and exaggerating. For example saying he was a cult member and he got away with that when he said it in Vermont. It is easy to show that this so-called cult was never in Vermont, but that T1 visited Vermont for (hour long lectures) during two dowsing conferences; four days total. Anyone interviewed would say "no, never" to either a seminar or monastery in Vermont. He made a mistake to strengthen his position, but all the Feds had to do was interview his own family to find out he was never a student. By lying wildly, he was not precise in his techniques of destruction, so he was not a worthy opponent, he was weak. You should use your released information with precision in a battle like this. Say the truths that are selected, maybe exaggerated, and focus upon it. Lying in the long run is not effective. He made a mistake and Ji, because they expanded their lies to encompass so many things, that by lying on one statement, all of their statements seemed like lies.

They then typed up recent "lessons" saying we were going to bomb "3 Virtue Zombies" like Hillary Clinton, and they were stupid. They would have had to be experts in writing T2's style which is as difficult as copying a painting style. But the book Virtues, Laws and Powers was compared. Most people think that (these) works are just a collection (of techniques) to communicate. For example in one student's case, she thought it was like technical typewriting. So (in a French translation) instead of saying "If the initiate desires to achieve his maximal dowsing potential..." for example, it would be changed to "If you want to get clear." The original writing was done in an auditory manner and on the left side. The right side is predominantly visual, where people just see words.

Phonetics went out of style (teaching children in the grade schools) how to spell. Then they taught kids with flash cards that say "illumination", and they memorize the patterns, and not the (letters?). This was destructive for children because it taught them only one way to remember. Ideally they should teach them both ways. They should teach visual and auditory interpretation by writing in a way that you hear the words, like poetry. If you take "Walls do not a prison make...." and e.e. cummings' work is strange in form and sound. i.e. "It may not always be so and I tell you if your lips should touch another..." that is an example of an auditory writing. You can't just look at e.e. cummings (for example) even though his forms are strange. Auditory (communication) has more power than the visual because it has the spiritual aspect of mankind and a lot of people who are hopeful poets and a lot of frightening poets of the 70's tried to do right side poetry that became vulgar. They were using words about defecation, and realism poetry, where everything is one vision after another of disgusting images, so poetry lost its romance and lost its ability to inspire, and became just a series of brutal images of life as it was in a person's eyes on the right side.

Poetry : Don Juan said "The poet is one step away from the nagual." That is why this is spiritual writing and as we produce more books we must focus on triggering the poet in people because we have had too much societal influence toward the right side acquiring of knowledge to the degree that we have lost our spiritual power.

When your left side stands on guard it will alert you to possibilities of danger. And in everything in your life, when we get through this crisis, T2 would like to show you how to be more productive in your personal lives; how to view minor dangers as opportunities to exert your left side awareness and be more powerful in positive things. With the enemies deflected, then we can go toward the inner enemies to be more powerful, and with societal enemies, to be able to help at large to change the events of society. If we can change (ourselves) then if you master someone else, then (you may master) a group, and then a city, and then an event of mega importance. And that is where we need to be: a synergy group of people.

When you feel drowsy and hazy, it is ok to go half to sleep, and hold 10% of your right side consciousness to interpret.

Why do we remember the dreams when waking? (You remember because) it is when you are partially awake. You need to program yourself to go into a partial awake-ness when the left side is trying to communicate something to you. When the cloud entered the room, then you could sense any danger.

Example: By putting a sign on this front door saying “We are open” it took the steam from their breaking in! Their whole power is in their thinking we are holed-up and if we are not, then it deflects their entering with force! We called the police once to say that someone had come into the building implying an intruder. The police were seen walking around the building and it satiated their thirst to be inside and put off the raid for several months. That was a big factor; something about the lost dog event reduced the probability of a raid. We were so open and harmless in chasing a Chihuahua, it took away what they wanted to see, which was (that we are) dangerous hardened criminals by (observing) such maneuvers.

Nothing happens by accident. A person can summon an event to occur and it seems (to influence) and to deflect disorder. Seeing on the left side was that Alice (the dog) was lost temporarily and it looks like an FBI agent dropped her over the fence. It is great to have Chihuahuas. It gives an image of harmlessness. Every drug dealer has huge guard dogs, usually pit bulls but bigger. They are bred with Rottweilers to be huge; 200 pounds. They look like small horses with big jaws. There were things that we did right that have deflected (events) on a physical plane.

There is a thing we can do on a physical plane to deflect (events). One could say it was strange that Nob bleached her hair (perhaps by a force of power) to begin to look more like T1 to confuse them, and to confuse (the dark forces). With the (one) long eyebrow, though, they all thought she was La. The foot injury was good (to occur in one sense), in that they expected T1 to walk with a cane, all humped over, or wasting away (but she did not). The information sent out about T1’s death, threw people off for a long time, and propelled Cec to make a fatal error. He bragged about it like a person in prison, by doing so, they all got caught out. It caused him to eventually lose all credibility with the law and the Cult Awareness Network.

Question: Critiquing (after the fact) makes sense, but living it? (sic)

Answer: The physical actions made by (accessing the) left side awareness make sense, but in retrospect, often you will know what to do, but not know why. Like before T1 died, she became a hermit in the town. (People) rarely saw her face, and (before that, she had) dressed as a Junior League, dolled up and in spiffy outfits. (T1 appeared to be) a rich woman who was interested in furthering the history of (this town, who wanted) to take over (an historic building) with a (charitable) foundation with money to preserve it and (---). (The Town thought she was) strongly ok, and she was born here. A group of lawyers and doctors wanted this building for a non-profit, but they were “foreigners” from Oklahoma City. T1 convinced them that by her having lived in Logan County for several years, that she was close enough to be a local. The sheriff was at the meeting, he is the older man who has the most power in the office. He developed a gut level intuition that this group was good, practical and that the building wouldn’t have to be demolished. He said “Well the gunfighters association didn’t put a roof on, so let’s turn it over to (T1).”

The key thing is that by the only image they had, was of a woman who was interested in non-profits, civic works and improvement. (So) that was the big thing with the Cult Awareness, was that T1 was a “rich bitch in 909 who made everyone else live in a jail in poverty and took all their money”. She looked rich and smart, (so the townspeople) partially believed the lies. And it didn’t dawn on them for a long time (that she would) live in either of these places as they thought (she was used to) luxurious --- (sic).

The more perceptions you throw out, the less they can grab you. Never show your weakness to your enemies or friends because you don’t want anybody to grab you. You may have a friend or associate that goes bad, or holds a grudge, “You should have done this or that” and if they lose their soul and become a zombie, they may turn mean. If you have spilled your heart out to that person with your innermost fears, weaknesses and desires, then they could use that against you. One of the big things in these probable future events was because La was at the seminar where T1 told about the drug dealer’s dog she had shot with a shotgun. What they didn’t realize, since the primary (audience) were Easterners; they didn’t realize the psychology of that. The people in this town, the police and the Feds, think shooting a dog is nothing. The Feds tend to be brutal, and they knew about it in their records of the raid on the drug dealer. T1 had to protect the children. (This was) noted for days on end and it was a massive (event) that was coming after us, but the (authorities) already knew about it from the records. It could have been dangerous for La to accuse “Yes, there is at least one weapon and T1 knows how to shoot it.” T1 didn’t know how to shoot it, because (what she did) she did on the left side.

You can do things you don’t know how to do, if you shift to your left side, because with fear, it stimulates the left side. Ideally you can, in yourself, produce a state of alert tension that will satisfy the left side’s need to be full of necessity. The reason fear or embarrassment works is that you need to have necessity to defend yourself in some way either emotionally or physically so that you get on hyper-alert to weaken the right side to let the left take over. If the tonal is wobbly from fear or embarrassment, then the left will take prominence. The right side will come back fairly soon. Some people have shifted completely to the left, and have never got out. Carlos’ nagual woman became stuck in the left.

One of the key problems that people have in the left side experience: did Don Juan's corpse body jump over the house? Some people have problems with nagual writing, as they think "How does a physical body jump over a house?" What happened was that Don Juan was able to transfer his auric cocoon onto his Nagual Twin, (a twin spiritual being that can sometimes be illuminated with the low ether body superimposed, and it will look like the person, but the eyes will look shadowy). When Sn was in California and Wade saw "Genevieve" on her. The reason he saw "G" in her, was because a nagual, twin etheric component was in Sn at the time, and he saw G's face superimposed and saw the name. Why was it that Cg put signs up in Vermont saying "T1 was there in disguise"? She thought Sn was T1 in disguise, because she saw the same thing. Sn is 5'6" and T2 5'2" but they thought Sn was T1 because the nagual twin was superimposed.

How did Don Juan quit having people look at his physical body, but instead at the nagual twin? He put his physical body in a dimensional space of invisibility, and put his auric energies into the nagual twin and by throwing out a filament of power, a low ether line over the house, his twin walked on the ether line through the air. There is a reason to keep the lower ether energies; it is part of our power. Measure to keep it (centripetal and centrifugal) and the same with the etheric body. If you maintain the power of those, then you may be able to maintain the power of nagual energies as well.

If someone was a real seer, i.e. Genero, he would have seen that Don Juan's physical body was still standing by the nagual woman, but what he could see would be a blur. You can still see a person in another dimensional space, if you look from the left side (you can also see a sorcerer then). A man was doing this in the room in a conference (where T1 was speaking and she) could see his feet and legs, and a swirl of energy where he was sitting. She knew the man had made himself invisible, with a fair amount of power, but he was evil from the emanations. People who are totally unaware, will not sit on top of a person that is "invisible", and yet they don't (consciously) register that they are there. When T1 saw him, then Sn and Aur could shift and see him too.

Gregory thought T2 was in the Vermont conference and also because of the strong projection of being in Vermont, with a wig, new style of clothes, high heel shoes, makeup, fingernails polished and that was in the ethers and it fooled them. With intuition they picked up the thought form that she would be there in disguise; then with the nagual twin and double, Sn could walk around with T3 and we needed someone to teach, so Sn could teach with nagual power, and others would swear that Sn was T1. Imagine how psychotic that would sound, if you say that to a zombie? People who had known T1 told others that T1 was there.

When a person operates with power you separate another person's Right and Left side Awareness to such a degree that you manipulate their perception so as to manipulate the outcome. Jumping over the house, did Don Juan's physical body do that? No, it was done by throwing an ether body line and sliding down it with the twin nagual and all the auric consciousness upon it. You may say "How does this apply to me? I'm not a nagual." A person who trains his L/R awareness and the ether and etheric body, if one is masterly in those, then one may be endowed with nagual powers. We were not very capable during ensoulment in controlling (those aspects), because of not having had adequate training on the left and the control of left with right. It was not wise to maintain the power any longer than necessary until we gained in power on the lower levels.

As one gains in discipline on the R/L sides, it would be possible for one to go out and borrow nagual powers to bring great good on the earth; just as Sn did at the conference and Ab in Mexico and here. And these (classes) are like a practice for that which should come later, (with) the practicing of shifting from left and right. But it was the design of power that you guys have received training for in the future, as well as training in the past. The training on the left side does not form incrementally in a rational zombie fashion. The left is not rational but (has a) hologram affect. Because of that you will have experiences in the now that will cause you to recall the experiences from ensoulment, and you will learn in retrospect what is actually in the future. That sounds enigmatic but if you recall the time Don Juan was turning his hat and he said "A man of power can go into the future and the past and change things." (Could) the Indians could have prevented the Spaniards changing Mexico? That is true, as it would take so much energy, and yet should they? Absolutely not, as the Spanish brought Christianity. But the concept is correct; can one go back into the past and change a war? If a person of power is in a synergy team, they could prevent the deaths of people who have already died.

For example Joseph Smith, how could he baptize people who were already dead? You can go back to their lifetime (in the past) and teach them and pull them out of purgatory. How do you take them out of Purgatory? You slide back in time and teach them before their death and by teaching them about soul progression, and spend a year with them in the past. You spend time with them. You could split your awareness three times and some people spend their energy thinking of past lives. It is a possible part of the awareness to slip into the past, into a different body to learn from it.

T2 had a dream of a concentration camp and she was both the Jewish girl and the German male guard as well. T2 asked the Holy Beings "How could it be?" and they said it is possible to split the awareness so as to gain understanding and virtue, because in becoming the German guard, he could then decide to be compassionate, to treat them fairly or to be an abuser who enjoyed tormenting others. As for the girl, she could decide to be self-pitying or to use the experience of fear, panic and starvation, to dwell on the mysteries of life before death, during that year in the concentration camp, to acquire mastery -- if not food, in a little cell.

There is no event in one's life that should be assumed to be negative.

It may be you are using it as fodder for your progression to grow as a person of awareness and consciousness.

If you suddenly get (sleepy), see if you can feel it (the left consciousness). It is like a cloud, it feels as though, and the room gets hard to see. People complained at T1's seminars, because they would fall half asleep. Try to hold your left awareness while anchoring it to the right. When going to sleep try to hold 5-10 awarenesses of the right, so that the dreams become lucid exercises of the left that you recall and control. Look at the chart (not currently available), on the left it says 12 (awarenesses). See what you find on the charts and remember you have to be totally impartial, and we may deflect this (situation) as well.

Even if you transmute a core future to be neutralized, you need to live it. If you don't, you have to be there completely. There is a possibility that it could still happen if you don't have enough power to deflect it, so you take the physical measures of the event about to occur if it is already in the ethers.

The left tells you "It is in the ethers", and the right tells you to "Take precautions" and then you can transmute it as you take physical actions. Be cautious if what you see in the ethers is if you see "go to Miami." It doesn't matter if you pack your bags now, but if (the threat is) murder, it does matter to wear a protective vest. The severity of the ether event dictates the preparation and caution all the while you transmute what you see and feel.

Chart: 5 Steps to Manifestation

FIVE STEPS OF MANIFESTATION RIGHT SIDE MANIFEST

Steps to take:

- Check for proper balance on the Right/Left and
- Keep checking the charts which will keep the right side awake while left side is active.
(It is either the) R or L influencing each other. And practice not being [---].
- By reporting what you see (verbally), you solidify it in your translation so that you get used to translating it auditorially.
- As the event builds, keep a watch so that when it occurs you are ready.

When an event is being unwound -- you could say that we have an extreme event now, as there were 50 possible malefic aspects of "raid" that each one had a core, and each core had arms out of it. (It is) free will and (we are) erasing something (that is) branching out from each (core) like a tree root, which will branch out everywhere and get bigger when they have water. And they will go to the water. That is why we have been dowsing the "Sewer Lines".

This is an important concept, every major event is like a tree trunk and the causes are the roots. What you want to do is get all the roots to make the tree fall and die. T2 wasn't sure we could do it with the final (tree).

Last night the one root made the tree smaller, but the tree was sitting there; a sapling. As you are removing a root, from that notice how the roots have filaments from there. In effect you are taking it from the fifth culmination design to the fires to the one mobius. We are taking it down to ←#1 mobius.

Last night the one mobius was still there. It takes a lot of work to take it from the fifth level of absolute manifestation to a reduced form of manifestation (where another thing will manifest). When down to the #1 mobius, the tree event that the enemies wanted was a massive redwood, and now there is just a sapling, and T2 is not sure if we can remove it. We may have to have the sapling (event occur) to get over the event. During the night the mobius was changing shape and it became disfigured by all the ways to deal with spiritual and physical (causes). It was small on one side and larger on the other. The yin/yang balance became bloated and misshapen. Now it is a circle with a tiny mobius on the end like a balloon with a dimple. It is still there which means that out of that could grow another sapling; a different event associated or an event not to be considered the same as the fifth culmination. But it could be a different culmination with different causes that go forth with a better event for us. Now we can say though, that whatever happens won't be that bad. It is not a total disaster, but (still) a possibility. If the evil synergy group built steam, they could grow grafts off the sapling and we could still have disaster, and a person can die from a poisoned berry hemlock---or a hatchet.

So if the warrior (right side) ever goes off guard, the left is always on guard. If we would remove the sapling then we can show how to develop programs for other situations in your private life. In order to do (this process) in a lesser situation, you have to be able to shift awarenesses. This is a good time to practice. If you can shift in an emergency then you can shift at will. But this (situation) is hitting you on the back; to have you here to encounter the danger.

Ask For “Blocks on the left, right and communication” and “Are they coordinated?”

You could ask: “Is T2 experiencing one of the roots or trunk?”

This is key: Ask “Is it a Root, or a Trunk? Or a Sucker Line?”

This one is not a sucker world. Sometimes it is the main tree, and sometimes the rose bushes. It may appear beautiful of a pale blue color and out of the bottom will sprout sucker rose lines that look like wild roses. They sometimes graft potted roses onto a wild root to strengthen the life of the rose. The suckers then may be more sturdy than the main bush. The main bush that we have may be harmless, but the suckers forming may be sturdy as hell. They are maybe, a malignant vine that chokes us. If all we look at is the bush the delicate (roses), the roots maybe very malignant, and it may cut us to pieces.

A Rule of War: Never be smug in victory. Be happy, contained and continue to be cautious lest the sucker off the root chokes you while the pretty main bush charms you.

This is important information in dealing with people in every situation in your life.

When you pull in disorder to change an outcome it will cause the left side to be very poisoned.

The major jobs of a male nagual is for exorcism. T3 is in the left side to gather disorder, the demonic forces at work, so as to transmute them. He is anchored to T2’s right and (is able to) be safe. That is why a team is important, because you anchor each other.

Missing Awareness/Vampires or globs usually (land) on the tissue. Think of your body and look at the charts and

Ask “Where is there a block on my left and right side” and “Where is the communication between the two blocked?” Should be 100% Awareness.

“How much is mine?” If someone drips soul matter on you, you will show it.

A person can be cloudy because someone else maybe a lower soul development which is imposed on you and (so you) clear it. This is more like a cloud, like a mist without chemicals. It is not bad, but it is bad for your situation, to have anyone else on you.

A person’s relative brilliance and cloudiness has to do with spiritual development and refinement. With lower development (substance on yours), you will drowse as “cloudy” no matter what they have on them or not.

If a person goes into the left too much they may get fearful, neurotic, weepy or paranoid. Cel’s challenge is to make sure she is anchored enough by the right side and typing the class notes has enhanced it, as they (the lectures) are spoken to the left side. One could say something and it appear to mean one thing, and on the left there is a whole different meaning.

At the earlier seminars where T1 would suddenly for no reason, start talking about Epsom salts, or foods to be eaten if one is a Pisces, or the clothes to wear if a Gemini - something stupid like that - it was not that T1 wanted people to be concerned with what to eat, but (those topics were) soothing the right side and anchoring it into something comforting when people started falling too far to the left and started losing it. In the seminars, people would start losing their minds. Some were pushed to the limit by (the knowledge of) losing their souls with aliens. You could say (the alien invasions) were a simplification and sci-fi, but T1 had enough personal power to push the audience into left awareness so they could learn about law and virtue.

Most people think they already know it, or don’t need it. (The lectures assisted) removing self-importance through fear or embarrassment by the demons and aliens being illustrated in front of the class (and their removal) demonstrated with power. When an etheric monster was there, which stunk over the room, that was a show of power in order to pull people into a left awareness to learn through the spiritual awareness vs. the right side. It may seem manipulative and it was. (It was done) so that people could be saved from death of the left side soul. It was a power-move to help rescue humanity (in general) and specifically of you guys.

It was perfect to have people chopping and hacking (demons/Things) in the seminars. Some of the events were meant to be so bizarre that it took people out of their normal inventory. If she had kept the subjects within the (typical) inventory, you would never have been pushed onto the left side. That is why T1 was called crazy, but the fool is the wise man in Shakespeare because you have to catch people through the trickery of spirit. They only come to God kicking and screaming.

Most people think they know God as being in the church and sitting there.

They don't know themselves...

They don't know what reality is...

They don't know who they are...

They don't know who God is...

T2 will keep talking until you get a 'cloud' (sic). By training yourself to sense danger, you will get an instant response to develop it.

The trickery of the spirit is not the same as a sorcery manipulation, but it keeps the fragile human psyche from going berserk. It keeps the tonal from going insane. It is merely a superficial enticing, a romancing of the spiritual aspect of the person vs. a rape of the spiritual aspect. You could say sex is a beautiful thing, but if one finds a lover with a candle dinner courtship and marriage, that is a beautiful thing. To say "That's my women" to throw her down and rape her; that is hideous.

The enticing of the left side must be done so as not to produce a psychological trauma. But the seduction would produce pleasure and comfort. You could say it is like a seduction into the world of spirit.

Why did the Sufis refer to the beloved and the lover in poetry? (Because of the) seeming similarity of enticing the spiritual self and of God, with the marrying of the right side awareness of everyday consciousness as a true marriage of a whole person.

There may come a time to use the full left side to work and then (have it) pulled back by a team member's right anchor. For example T3 could go completely into the left and be anchored to the right. Then the left can be brought back to the other's right side awareness.

To use or change a manifestation, you must be able to translate from the left and communicate it with the right or you will be useless. It is a part of an aspect of power. You can help others, in their lack of control of containers. That must be impressed.

Left Side Awareness Practice:

Check: How much of your ether and etheric you can hold onto while on the left side?

Now, hold it in, until we are told to slide out. It is a skill to become aware of when you are sliding out.

It is ok to slide out as long as you stay in this room.

Everything you need to 'pick up' on the outside you can pick up from this room, as the (other people) are focused on this room.

You don't need to travel unless you have to.

T3 is transmuting the evil that would change events. You can dowse to see what time he is changing the future. It is now 1:11, and he is transmuting something at 1:25, at the entry of (301).

If you are not clear, you can have someone's egoics and desire elementals on you that are free thoughts.

You have to be totally desireless, or you will 'read' fear. You want to read events.

It is good to read people's fear, but you must not care.

Learn to determine: "Am I reading the fear or the event?" If you form egoics then you lose yourself and your power.

With constant fantasies one can go psychotic like "La".

Don't fantasize but see: "Seeing" is not a fanciful pseudo reality.

Pay careful attention to R/L power loss due to egoics/elementals or obsession bubbles. The production of these must be constantly evaluated when operating on the left side. When T2 or T3 are working; if one is asleep then the other will be anchored. Sometimes they both are out and anchored to us.

If you go out on the left side a lot, you will get clammy and cold. This is important to know if you slide out to correct a future that will harm you and you don't know it with the right side, as it is not anchored. Then you may feel clammy, fearful and crazy and you won't know why. In such a case it is helpful to bring something that pulls you into right side somewhat such as hot water with a citrus rind, and not the fruit itself. Put the citrus rind in the tea and then a tablespoon of Skullcap/tequila mixture and a shake of red pepper or ginger. This will cause you to get out of left side shock.

The Gin formula is for the right side. Use juniper berries, willow bark, wild lettuce (pain reliever) etc. Put these into gin and shake it up. Put two Tablespoons into a quart of gin. Take off the gin label and bless it with the (---) aspect. Often you need only a homeopathic amount. If you add this to hot water it will soothe the clamminess from the left side work.

Kava Kava is a pain reliever as an anesthetic and combined with Skullcap is a relaxing pain reliever.

(To put in a) blessing pray: “To be strengthened, purified and made holy and powerful on the right and left sides, and that you can learn to communicate between the two so as to be perfect and clear.”

- 1-First you pull any programmed energies out of it that occur in processing and storage,
- 2-Then after pulling out of these energies, you bless it.
- 3-You can will the energies to go into the toilet or put it into a liquid.

It is good while doing left and right work to have a bottle handy for shock on either side, as we are being put through difficult training. And you will find that even when you don't know you are training, you are. Skullcap is for cold and clammy symptoms. Willow is for physical pain, or when you feel inflamed, agitated and hot. If you feel excitable you can use the willow, or anything like it.

Learn to feel the difference between:

- Mentally inflamed (gin/willow)
- vs Mentally in shock (skullcap).
- Dowse the amount, or just pour it quick, as you may find yourself going into shock and you need to prepare for these things.

It is important to take a maple syrup bottle and take at least the skullcap with you. The gin is less important. You can usually drink dark beer, or a glass of red wine for an energy to anchor you on the right to keep from being wobbly on the tonal so as to hold it (firm).

Wine will more readily anchor the left and Beer will more readily anchor the right.

If you feel clammy drink wine and if you feel inflamed and agitated drink beer; the richer the color the better.

White wine is for inflammation, and red wine is for feeling wobbly. When inflamed you want something cooler.

Right side shock happens sometimes if the left has translated too much to the right. You will start to think you are going mad. For example, you may suddenly see something like hallucinations, and that is not uncommon. One time T1 was in such profound shock after a Boston conference that in the airport, she was so sick. She started seeing on peoples' faces the faces of people who hated her the most, because of so many (of their) demons were on T1. What was interesting was that the (strangers) started to act towards her just like the enemies. This is when the left overwhelms the right. So get a grip to anchor yourself so as to anchor the effect of the left. In this case, she couldn't digest the demons fast enough to stop hallucinating.

Ingested left sided awareness projected outward is hallucination.

It is better to use the leafy herbs. It is good that it develops a sediment (sic)

(Sometimes people will be stuck) in the left side and they won't know. For example, people who are psychotic, they go into the left side and they aren't aware of their physical appearance. And (when they) explain what they wear or not, it is not appropriate (sic). Listen to what they say, how they look, what they wear, by their mannerisms, and it is always an emergency (when this occurs) and it means they need to withdraw from left side work.

How to survive financially and do (spiritual) work: T2 figured out she could keep an aspect of herself hovering over the head to know what was going on to help and direct her. She was seeing the guardian angel.

Coughing is left sided contamination, and (reflects a) sliding out. Grapefruit rind is soothing to the respiratory system, and the rind reduces (mucus). Sometimes spiritual work will make you fill up with mucus and the Holy Breath (work) may produce mucus in the lungs as they are connected to the Holy Breath. This doesn't mean that everyone with a snotty nose is doing spiritual work.

ADD to tea: take orange peels that you have washed, put them in a quart jar of seltzer and let it leach out into the water. It works better if you add a tiny bit of tequila or vodka, it will extract the peels better, and then you get orange water, and it is much better than orange juice. Say you want to have a drink of tequila in cold or warm weather, with the extracted water, you get the taste. Also freeze the rinds, chop them into dime size pieces and freeze them in the bag so the oils stay intact and the rinds don't mold. It preserves the essential oils of the rind and it is soothing to left side, as it reduces the mucus.

Ideally a person gets to where they can operate on the left and the right side without being psychotic and without mixing up their clothing. It takes practice to work on the left and still function on the right. It is better for people who do a lot of spiritual work to cut their work hours, It takes so much energy for you to keep the left from activating, it better to delegate time to use the left in practice and service and not to mix it greatly in your work life. It might make you crazy or open to attack, as it is a show of power. In a store, T2 shifts completely to the right to dull the emanations so as to look like other people.

T3 is pulling something from 11:30 last night. It was an event outcome changed in that somehow the SWAT team members walked around the inside of 301; which is legal, they have a search warrant. They didn't want to make it obvious. Throughout the tour of 301 during the house, they saw nothing relative to child abuse etc. and there was not enough reason to do a dangerous armed assault on this place. We reduced their hysteria, by our being here (at the monastery), and there was not even a Chihuahua. What seems brilliant in the right in retrospect is curious and bizarre at the time in the left.

There is a possible reentry to 301, in 15 minutes, which is not logical, but T3 is collecting the dark forces on the people who would tear up the place. Last night they loosened a window to reenter. There are hell's lines on the police chief.

A Major pitfall, if you go out (in public) you can feel toxic and emotional. Before dowsing anything check how much consciousness (substance you have) L/R and if it is more than 100% then you have brought something back. (If you find yourself) arguing about the day's accomplishments, or how the day went, then you have brought something back from the left side that is contaminating.

Many times T2 and T3 would float out of body and be in a coma all day and not know what they were doing. They could hardly walk to the toilet, and were practically delirious. They might eat a crispy burger and sleep four hours. So this would seem to a right-sided person, as doing nothing. If one had a strong enough right, one had to anchor the other's left side so we would not go crazy. In many ways the left side didn't know what the right side was doing. T2 and T3 were using powers on the left that were not just theirs, they were anchoring beings of grace from above, but they didn't have enough experience to translate the experience (to the right side).

There may be times that you do spiritual work that you won't be able to translate to the right, but that is ok. To be a saint seer on this planet, the Holy Beings can work through you even though you may not understand it. You are the earth intercessor for those above that you don't understand. The master doesn't know how the initiations occur to the students, but they occur naturally as an experience within the divine plan. Don't be discouraged to not know it on right, but it is good to do so, as you then increase in power on the right. You become in many ways as hard as nails in your ability to tolerate stress and that is good.

Seeing an event from the right is different from an experience on the right. Experience on the right is more traumatic, you have to experience events on the right on some level to dismantle it. We are projecting our left and right to the future to translate it and dismantle it on the right side, which is the realm of physical action. We have to be there on the right and left to dismantle (an event). We are approaching the cores of great mysteries of healing by doing so.

Ask: "Did the event occur on the left or right sides; both or neither?"

Example: If you are looking at the trunk of the tree you will know to see a component of it by using the right side intelligently and not by discounting the left. If your left is saying it is absolutely happening, believe it. You may be dismantling it in the future. At this point T2 doesn't know if she is "dismantling" or it is "about to occur".

These steps are how a Golden Eagle can become, and spawn eaglets. We are an eaglet. Ji's group was a grey filthy spawn of the black eagle that had raped the golden eagle.

Do: After the manifestations, sew the hole between worlds (sic). Then the (--) T2 rents the hole in the fabric of space. If the initial lightning bolt shoots through the higher intercessors or God, you add cosmic dust around the construction. If it is cosmic dust it is free floating everywhere, and then link it to the core mobius of the etheric sun. Material (?) is/must be fertilized first. The first part is the ovum must be fertilized by the sperm. There must be a substance equivalent to sperm for the "ovum" (catalyst?)

Milk of a plane, a Milk of the Devachanic Plane: To Sn please look this word up. It is a word used by some Theosophists. It is like the milk of that plane. The sperm happened next, it received the milk of the Devachan plane and now something else has been added, something in the shape of a cobra striking; a coil with a backward S with a longer tail than in a cobra image. The mouth of which is attached to the fertilized ovum, it is like the white thing inside the shell, and the milk is like the albumen and that connects to the NOW spot of the earth and creation. It is ejected from the mother eagle, it hatched this group is like an eaglet and its babies as it matures are awarenesses of God within the context of human forms.

The bestowal of the awareness of God is the primary function of this Eagle the method will include written materials which are the only outward appearance to be made by this group. The other function will not be visible to the world because they will evolve spiritual transmutation powers that humanity cannot understand in general or humanity in general cannot understand.

There are things that are very strange in the mysteries of time and space and God's powers are beyond comprehension except in this situation. It is given to us to know that something could be allowed to happen in the twinkling of an eye and yet be erased completely to fulfill law on one plane, while neutralizing the effect with a law on a higher plane.

The events that we have seen building and happening on the left and on the right sides occurred. Not all of them, some of them were building on the left and did not move to the right, because we were able to thwart them before they materialized on the right. Other situations were removed from the right and the left and time was changed. And it is as though whole groups of people have appeared and disappeared in the twinkling of an eye. Whether we operated in the future or the past or the now is irrelevant and dependent upon the leaf of the tree appearing at the time.

If one goes back to change the past from a future position, then are you working in the past, or are you working in the future, or the now?

If the past or the future of the Now are changed and the influences around and leading to the events are changed then you are likely to have amnesia about the event as would everyone else relating to the event. And yet, your knowledge that these things can happen and that you are able to summon the power to make it so, is necessary for you to manifest power again to do great work in time and space.

➤ If you lose the awareness that changing events will also change your perception of the past, then you will lose your power.

➤ You must realize there is a difference between the memories that are altered by power, and the memories that have not been altered by power after the fact.

You will know when something has been altered by power by the Mark of the Eagle, the Golden Eagle of this group, as opposed to the mark of the White Eagle of God or Dark Eagle of Satan.

You may say that there was a raid in White Time and Black Time that was changed by Golden Time and blessed by our Father, who begat us. So if you are in a NOW that seems mysterious to you, then ask yourself if it is a Golden Eagle NOW? And woe to those defiling people who are now food for the Golden Eagle.

Beware of other traps that have manifested out of groups that have spawned an ugly duckling hatched from the Black Eagle. Be wary, but ever cognizant of the greater power of those Eaglets born of the White Father.

All the events that occurred this weekend were the events being pulled to the Now, and it is not the same thing (---).

- There was a power line to the future events linked to the Now that were digested through experiencing them and deflating the disorder until each thing that happened became less malignant in a series of possibilities/events.
- If you knocked out one event another takes its place depending upon the causes put forth.

According to the Law of Free Will, not all causes can be removed if the fundamental players choose evil despite knowing truth. This was true in the case of Cec, Ji, Ji's brother, a woman, and the (T1/Ji) being. The others, including Jg were essentially peripheral and had no power on the left side except for the (T1/Ji) energizing. Those people with the (T1/Ji) energizing that chose to not resist the evil at all were destroyed. Just an aside, T2 doesn't know what that means physically, but she knows they were destroyed on the right and left.

When most people lose their soul, they no longer have left side power, and in Ji's case she was hanging on to immortality as long as this form (T2's) existed. They wanted to destroy this form thinking that they could cannibalize the source of power from it. It is possible that they could have, because of the gift to Ji of a power link to the Golden Eagle that could not be destroyed except through the reclaiming of it by the rightful owners. Had they been successful in causing T2's demise prior to this time, then the golden powers would have gone to feed evil.

We were linked directly to the White Eagle, but were somewhat impaired by the fact that we did not have a step down eagle to work in the physical world of manifestation since the White Eagle is interactive on a man's left side awareness. But it only can help on the material side if there is a step down Eaglet born of a Father and a Mother Eagle; both White. To be hooked directly to one parent is to cause a wasting away for lack of the other gender power.

We were linked to the Father who is able to fiercely use His will and power ironically on the left side awareness; whereas the Mother Eagle uses her power on a human's right side awareness. It is yet another Cross of Awareness. And yet in the heavens the right side is the Male Eagle that touches the left side of spiritual manifestation and the Mother Eagle in the heavens is on the left side of God and yet touches the right side procreative awareness and manifestation of form.

The union between the Father and Mother Eagle where together they are as one; is God. And yet also souls come through the Father into the left side of humanity and therefore we must say “Our Father in heaven” rather than “Our Mother in heaven”. We bless others by bestowing the Mother’s gifts of life to the body and the right side mind, and we bless humanity by bestowing souls from the Father.

We could not have won this war except that the Grace Intercessors extended their yin God power down to empower us to fight the evil before us. The more malignant the synergy group got, the more contaminated the Grace Intercessors got, so we had to fight them to save the Grace Intercessors. We would have lost Saint Joseph and Saint Anna and it was (through) the (T1/Ji) link to the Grace Intercessors. That is how the Grace Intercessors made the mistake of giving the nagual to La and (when) La said “She knew how Ji felt.” This was mating the Black Eagle to the Golden Eagle.

Not in the lecture or sent out (at the time):

➤ “In” was born with a connection to the Black Eagle in him; he was not an eaglet, which is why his fingers were so covered with psoriasis scabs, because they were like a horned toad. His whole body was like the lizard man. While his face looked like he had a mask of benign womanly sweetness. He was always evil. A lot of people have invited Black Eagle links into their families. You look at the people affected by the Ji/”A” Link, such as Cec, who embraced it completely.

➤ When Cec told Du that “He knew of a male power group” he was talking about “B” as the male pseudo nagual and Ji as the female with “In” as the catalyst and Ni as the courier.

➤ “D” was always evil but he didn’t have a primary Black Eagle link. He had a secondary one because he was conceived with two human genetic orgasm seeds instead of one which occurs because he sold his soul to the devil in a prior life and so a human genetic seed formed a genetic link to a spawned seed of a Black Eagle that had entered a human form seed; in other words a seed that would provoke a human form. The Black Eagle seeds cannot enter a baby unless it has a regular genetic seed attached to it, and the baby has a black soul by its own free will. This caused his children and to be forever tainted by the Black Eagle Shadow. The effects of this on the children’s lives have been somewhat neutralized so that they will do no harm but if they interface with a member of the Gold Eagle nagual party, (ours), then they will be used as carriers of destruction. Therefore for their safety and to promote a happy life for them they must not be tempted to resonate with their genetic memory by exposure to this party.

➤ La has been neutralized after she willingly sold her soul, and to hide her shame hid her procreative connection to the Black Eagle by wearing a cloak of piety while she devoured us from within. Black Shadow: This is a hole that exists like a shadow and will be filled with what it is accustomed, unless a person has great holiness on the right side. If a person refuses to feed the Black Eagle, they can be healed. La got her wish fulfilled when she desired to be in Ji’s position after T1 died. It was only a matter of time before Ji found it expedient to grant her that position, all the while holding onto satan. And she was holding onto La with the right hand and satan with the left. She found it expedient because La lived in the house (with T2 and T3).

➤ Ji received her Black Shadow the night of the Windigo, by praying for T1’s death, for the power to destroy ‘the woman in her way’, she prayed to her god: satan. She didn’t pray “God’s will be done. I’m uncomfortable in the situation, please show me the way, Lord”. Instead she prayed for an outcome that was against “God’s will be done”. Then (a person is) connected to the Black Eagle because they are praying to the god of low will instead of submitting to higher will.

Note on students:

1) It is possible to interface a Golden Eagle Group, but this person (unnamed) cannot be trusted with power.

2) Another person that is married and received a Black Shadow from the marriage, can, if (this person) does not resonate to evil, be entrusted with limited power.

3) In the case of children with shadows removed, they are in danger in a Golden Eagle Group. If one of their parents is interfacing and resonates with the memory of the children it will thereby recreate the shadow.

➤ Ji didn’t realize she was praying for her own death in doing so. But that doesn’t matter. It was often taught that if you desire another person’s death, then it will befall you. If death occurs to those people you view as your enemies, then it should be Divine Vengeance not yours. He who has a Delilah cut his hair of law, loses his power.

➤ “C’s” power came from the primal pool of hate around the earth fed by destructive humanity that kills saints and desires chaos to rule. This pool is linked with the genetic shame of all people who have refused Christ over all life times and all centuries. Those people who recognize holiness and truth and yet hate it, form a putrid link with Fallen Asuras that empower them with a substance that emits during orgasm and returns to the genetic seed pool to form a cloud of mutation upon all humanity to better serve as vehicles as beasts of burden for the unholy kabala demonic beings such as Ahriman and many others. Only a Golden Eagle party free of Black Eagle links can free humanity from this bondage of bestiality; the embracing of lower and higher forms of life. In this case the higher forms are mutated animal monsters that breed with the lower forms intended to be Adam Kadman (a word for the primordial man supposed to be in the form of God).

➤“M” received this beast link from (his wife and a child) through sexual means. T2 never knew until now for sure, but as to not be detected as a child rapist, he had sex with (the child) by putting his penis between her thighs next to her vulva, but not entering her so the doctors would not discover it: repeatedly. And the child already had a satanic link and did not resist because she was having continual demon orgasms during the sexual acts. She asked him to do it and the combining of demon orgasms with normal orgasms produced a fusion of both sides of the veil energies. It would not have been necessary for him to have been in the same room with her as La demonstrated in her demon orgasms.

➤The child was deactivated, but will always have a propensity for evil, as will (“D” and wife), Cec, “B”, “M”, and “E”.

➤E sold her soul when she decided to join “Md” in a so called nagual war party against this group to destroy it. To her it was all like a game, a chess game, but she was one of the pawns that walked upon the chess board, and joined the lying game thinking it was like a virtual reality computer experience in complete disregard for her friendship to (T3). They did have power, but they don’t anymore.

➤“F’s” mother and sister will always be evil and should be avoided because they hate God. The “G’s” as well because they love power above service. The “H’s” should be avoided because they love sex above God. “I” as well, because she is her own god. Wilhelm Reich is “J’s” god. “K” became a pawn that walked upon the black table because of his hatred for authority. Most of the others are just too weak to be warriors. They have not developed their tonal enough to survive the left side work (of the former students).

CLASS NOTES: DECEMBER 18, 1994 Conference

Evening

Forms that know God can be events, sounds. The creation of forms that know God is greater than making a baby. It could be a poem or the making of a wooden nativity scene in that objects that partake in expressions of those that know God become endowed with life. So the singer must have the song to be a singer, the song must have a singer to live. To be part of God means to extend oneself into holy expressions of His grace. Without that, one dies and loses one's power and loses oneself in empty space of rottenness, darkness and Godless worlds.

The Father Eagle is on the right Face of God, but the station crosses matter to the left side (sic) to endowing form with spirit, just like a sperm energizing the ovum. Whereas the Mother is on the left Face of God and is the recipient of the endowment of spirit, and then bears the fruit of that spiritual catalyst within her to form; an ovum.

The ovum forms throughout these steps.

➤The God Lightning Bolt touches the primordial ovum and then it gains a layer.

➤It is mitotic division in a way, but ironically, it forms; it actually is a sphere as opposed to a circle and forms a spiral when seen from above.

➤When it is started from the center, it seems clockwise, and from the outside seems counterclockwise, and it looks counterclockwise when looking down from heaven.

➤Then the picture that was drawn with the egg like creative developing zygote has the deva milk and a yin yang aspect.

The yang aspect is represented by the Triangle (See 5th Step), because the yang is the primary aspect of creative impulse in that you think of Father, Son and Holy Breath the Trinity of cosmic dust; two male to one yin. In spirit, that (arrangement) is not unbalanced because there is the unmanifest Our Lady, which balances the equation, but leaves it with a dissonance of irregularity to allow physical form. You cannot have creation without a minor irregularity of tone or form which separates it from its creator and the variation then, is the core of FREE WILL.

The yin aspect is not really an arrow (See 5th Step). If you can draw the arrow in dots it is more appropriate. Better to just have a line with a dotted arrow underneath for direction of flow, the yin side looks like...when Don Juan was joking, he said there was a doorway between worlds that looked like a vagina. It is like this line, you could say it has an opening capability but it has a directional focus of out from the center. You could draw it an elongated opening, but with a direction out. The fact that the yang aspect has three sides is significant in that it anchors the male to form. It is the shape representing the cosmic dust molecule and by representation the male is more anchored to form than the female who has the door between worlds and a link ideally to the unmanifest Our Lady.

Unmanifest Our Lady Doorway: You might wonder how did the original Mother Eagle get born? They both came out of the Father in a spontaneous burst of force. But you should not call God "Father, Mother, God", but should consider God primarily Male in character with Our Lady connected on the lightning spiral at the level between the higher intercessor plane and the Grace plane (sic).

You might wonder “What is Our Lady?” since we have metaphors of God and Our Lady. Our Lady is the orderly receiver of Divine power in her highest aspect, and she has other aspects down line. She sprang from God as a point of dissonance just as in Genesis. It said that God was lonely, that is of course a human way to put it. More accurately stated, would be that God was generous, and good and wise, and an aspect of God is the bestowal of gifts and Life.

There are many worlds in which the primary Father and Mother Eagles are catalyzed by God to procreate. The Black Eagle of the inverse worlds was intended to be a compost mechanism only to eat the dead creations that failed to thrive because they severed their connection with God.

The three holes are rent when a creation is formed;

The Father Eagle sperm,

The God Lightening catalyst hole.

These holes normally close upon holy creation. If a person who has a connection to the Golden Eagle (which is the first born of the Father and Mother Eagle who enter earthly manifestation). If someone containing that connection has the creative powers within the eaglet, does not close the creative holes upon manifestation, then all that is above it begins to rot. Normally, the holes are automatically closed as a reflex unless someone decides to unite with the Black Eagle as well.

The Black Eagle is a force that is ravenous. If it enters our world then it would be called Satan. It has a breath that is called The Presence. When you are doing spiritual work and you are digesting evil, that breath can choke you, make you cough. If you have lines to someone who is evil, that breath of the presence will fill you with poison, to the Holy Spirit.

The Holy Spirit radiates around the sperm core of fertilization within the ovum before gestation is finished and zygote embryo and remains within the eaglet as the seed of God (sic). As you will see, with the drawing, the lightening catalyst unites with sperm with the ovum and so the whole creation has a light form; the lightening catalyst of God's power.

The actual (---) of the Father sperm is yang and centripetal, while the Holy Spirit is yin and centrifugal. This allows it to enter form in that it has a type of gravity to hold it in space. Just as the earth must have a North and South Pole.

The Grace Powers enter through the Mother's eyes. So the Mother Eagle is somewhat down line from the Father Eagle in that the Father Eagle is yang like the primary aspect of the Father, but he has a small yin which holds the Grace link of his partner in a hologram, which should be in his pineal. Without the female Grace link, he cannot have it in his pineal.

All things to procreate, must have the yin Grace link and the yang Father link. This is why many cultures have women in humble positions in relationship to men because there is a correlation with the design of power that the Father Eagle has a large God link and small Grace link, and the Mother has a smaller God link and a larger Grace link which allows her to be an intercessor.

This complex of eagles and eaglets is echoed down many layers of creation. Our earth has a down line Father and Mother Eagle that created one set of eaglets that together are the Golden Eagle. It is almost like you could draw one eagle around both of them because they are one. By joining form and power, they are able to create that which is below them (which are) Forms that Know God in a down line fashion.

Naguals and their members of the groups are linked to the Golden Eagle of this earth and the creation of forms that know God is their responsibility.

Jesus brought the Bestowal of Eaglets to Earth. Before then, there was only intercession above and not true creation below. Although there were holy people who understood God to some extent and prayed to God, no one had true power of divine extension. More accurately, (no one had) the extension of divine Powers before Jesus, while on earth. In other words, any holiness of grand design and manifestation occurred only through those that were not in form, who might try to dictate in some way the language of the Gods to mankind, and only through Suns, or thorough those who were worthy.

Jesus came to bring Life and Hope in that it was possible then, in the mystery of Golgotha, for man to be a co-creator with God although unlikely that most people would choose to be so, or be impeccable enough to use power with love and with trust enough in God, to walk on the left side awareness.

Another e.e. cummings poem “Trust your heart though the seas catch fire. Live by love till the stars walk backwards. Honor the past but welcome the future, and dance your death away at this wedding. Never mind the world with its villains and heroes, for God likes girls and tomorrow and the earth.” It is kind of a whimsical twist at the end which is typical e.e. as a true romantic and who sees God as a Sufi as a lover of his beloved. He is using God as the male who sees his beloved as the earth. He is bringing it down into a poetical whimsical poem of creation. There is something about some of his poetry that is very nagual-ish in that he walked on the left side while maintaining grace and balance. Not always; e.e. was flawed.

But it is beautiful thing to find form with the grace of God within it. Unfortunately, many eaglets which are people, endowed with nagal characteristics refused to develop the left side and so withered their connection to God and lost their creative potential which can only exist in the dynamic relationship of left awareness being translated into form by right awareness.

There is a paradox there, in that the left awareness in the level of nagal humans is predominantly yin, and female, while the right awareness is predominately yang and male. Which shows that in different stages of Planes (of Manifestation), the cross of matter crosses again. T2 has told you the Father eagle connects to the right Face of God and extends down line to the right side awareness, in the earth sphere of human intercessor form. A male carries the right and the female carries the left awareness (predominately) and with a lesser right awareness, and a male the opposite. These dynamics are necessary to ensure the tension of opposites on each level of creative force. There must be this for the cross for matter to occur. Jesus was hung on the cross of the descension into matter and the switching of the awareness. Jesus came from above the earth Golden Eagle that is why he is called the first born Son. It is as though Jesus was delivered from the primary Father and Mother Eagle, or above the earth Golden Eagle. And He brought to earth the potential for creation of White Eaglets.

Although mankind did not receive Jesus then, and even though they think they do now, the impact of Him falling to earth like a brilliant white comet left its mark forever and the lightening catalyst that propelled him to save humanity remain in his disciples as the Word of God.

There will never be another White Eagle that comes to earth, but the legacy of that Eagle in the lightening spark is the ladder to the White Eagle, through which those people led by the Golden Eaglets may fly and climb upward.

Golden Eaglets and their progeny can fly to the White Eagle if they are impeccable. The rest of humanity could not withstand the fire of the lightening catalyst and must ride on the backs of the Golden Eaglets or burn themselves in some manner of self-denial while climbing the lightning bolt upward.

Our job is to be carriers of humanity within Grace. The feathers of Grace can hold many people if they don't hate those feathers and seek to destroy the very vessel of their salvation. Many Golden Eaglets have been destroyed by aligning with the dark side so as to avoid their responsibility to humanity. "Live by love, though the stars walk backward".... without love for humanity in general, there is no hope to maintain any personal power of the left side except through evil sorcery that seeks to kill those Golden Eaglets still connected to God. We must endeavor to purify ourselves on the left side and right side so that they exist in harmony with each other and are not hiding from our sight by pseudo selves, but are open reflections of God's face. It is not a small thing that the First Born left the Lighting Bolt of the Word of God. "In the beginning, was the Word."

You could say: "Was Jesus in the beginning, if the beginning was the Word?" "The Word was with God and is God." Lightening can strike and recoil and then we not see it anymore, or it can strike kindling that burns forever. If you live rightly and seek to advance on the left side to align the right, then you will take on the bolt of lightning that swings zig zag from yin to yang and left to right and through that propelling motion, you are able to catalyze creations down line from the Father, by the left going to the right maximally and somewhere you find (---) in the harmony of alternating consciousness. And by resonation with Christ, you form a microcosm of the Word, and a lightning bolt within your very form.

People are waiting for the second coming of Christ, and yet this time the second coming goes up, not down.

The ability to develop the second coming of Christ came with Christ's descension as a dove upon the form of man.

The ability to know the second coming of Christ is when the dove is able to bear young which fly on, they are coming home. People are always wanting God to come again, they are going to have to come to Him this time. That is the inner, inner teaching of the Second Coming that most people don't want to hear because it implies grave responsibility and implies a dependency upon the Christ spark that was left on earth when Jesus ascended to the Father.

Before T2 saw this today, she looked for Jesus in many high worlds and she could not find him. Sometimes she thought it was Jesus, but it was someone who had taken on the traits of Jesus. T2 knows that Jesus is with the primordial Father and Mother Eagle. He went home. But from that plane, He still intercedes with his Father for us, (and is) maintaining his link with earth only through those people who dare to take up the sword of battle which is rent though the planes of creation and has a lightning bolt for a handle. It is the true sword that was thrust into the stone, in the legends of Arthur.

If you are impeccable, you may pull that sword out of the stone of your own right side awareness and fight many dragons that no one will ever see and be Don Quixote through worlds that are invisible to those blind on the left side. And you will be honorable and you will never regret and you will live in your Father's house forever, all the while working below, maintaining two residences of which only your consciousness of location is your separation. The kingdom of heaven is within you; if you form a hologram link to the lightning sword of God, as his warrior.

You see how important this material is, somehow, someway, there is a step-down version to touch humanity's hearts with a desire to know God. Without a little magic from above, there can be no miracle on earth, because humanity has shut its heart to God. And it takes the most lightening of swords to rend that heart so that it feels the pain of its existence enough to look upward for help from its divine parents. To all appearances it is a terminal case of heart disease...and yet if God would send his first born, then maybe these eaglets as grand children can follow in the tradition in holiness and take on their Father's name with honor, dignity, power, purity and joy.

➤For wherever there is great love, there is great joy. Where ever there is profound generosity of spirit, there is the ability to endure the cruelties of base creatures that exist on earth and call themselves human.

➤Wherever there is submission to divine rule and law, there is insurmountable will that nothing can back down and no despair, no pain of flesh, no ridicule, no torture that man has ever devised of a physical, mental or social nature can even come close to knocking down a person who stands with the strength of his Father as an able samurai with the lightning sword fighting the battle that Jesus asked us to fight.

This has been an important weekend in ways that over the next month, you will understand on your left side more and more. There were experiences that you had that you don't remember, that you will begin to remember in your sleep and as we work on refining the language somewhat on the written material extracted from this time together, we will get the refined version to go quickly through the mail.

One of the core things T2 wants to stress is what she started with, that the creations of the golden eaglets; the forms that know God, can be anything that you think of as solid, or not. That form is something that has a shape but it is more than that. For example T2 draws a circle on a paper that in itself is not a form but a representation of a form.

To truly have form requires the ingredients listed in the Five Left-Side Diagram and the Five Right-Side and the other aspects that were the illustrated shapes given. T2 has had a hard time seeing the right with that stress. You wonder why the Black Eagle devotees strive to unite with the Golden Eaglets of the holy God, who carry the sword of lightening? It is the only way they can procreate. They haven't the right to spawn without a person on the right who has the sword link giving them that power. Unfortunately, through many twists of fate within the law of free will, that has happened in the world over, and in our group.

Or, you notice a twist of FATE within the law of FREE WILL, that Fate has to do more with earthly karma impacting individuals down line.

Whereas Free Will is personal karma.

Parental Karma is not nearly as significant as you would think except that it magnifies one's fate influences.

To overcome one's fate means to overcome the world. But one cannot overcome ones fate unless one overcomes one's karma and does not add to it by malefic actions, speech and thoughts.

Are we saved by Grace that religions debate over and over again? Is it predestination or true Grace? The arguments are silly, if one views rightly with left awareness and interests (?) to the right side. Each man is free to the extent that the boundary of his system allows. But "Walls do not a prison make, nor iron bars a cage." Each of you must find within this prison of disorder a hermitage within yourself, so that no man can defile you in his prison because you are holding the core of your being within the handle of the lightening sword of God. Men may hate you if they see that lightening peek out of your eyes. They may seek to kill you because you have entered into (their) underworld.

What love God has shown the earth! What a challenge we have before us. Instead of looking at the obstacles, we must give thanks for the opportunity to serve our Father in heaven as worthy warriors. (We are) not smug, not prideful, but humble, cautious, waiting for the high commands. And never breaking ranks because you want the world to be one way, instead of what you see is true. So if God tells you to do something, you do it. Even though it does not make sense to your right side which is the product of your fate, and karma is the right side. It sounds to be opposite, yet the right side holds within it the genetic propensities, your physical inclinations, emotional framework, your core shell of a tonal that can be strengthened and healed by God if your left side is developed enough to do so. Your tonal can be healed only by Grace.

That is why Don Juan said "One's tonal is not changeable, that if you have a weak tonal at an early age, then one will always have." He struggled to find someone with a proper tonal to be his apprentice, and the reason for that is that the sorcerers of Mexico are largely bridging the right and left side of God, and T2 is not talking about the Left Face of God, which is the Mother aspect. It is the Left Side of God which is not His Face. It is as though the Father and Mother are the face of God's form; but to his left where he threw the disordered sparks and where the Black Eagle lives, the Toltec sorcerers and most other sorcerers found they got more power by tapping into the left side with allies, than going through all the trouble of finding holy power through the intercessors above them.

You probably think it odd that (T2 suggests) you study Don Juan's teachings. Don Juan learned from a system that was pretty much set, that predated Christ. It was a system of power above purity and within that system, Don Juan was impeccable whereas most of the others were not, and he lived reasonably with a conservation of power usage in the Black side. T2 won't say that he was 'good', but she will say that he was better than the ones that followed and many of his peers. To study his teachings, helps one to understand the mysteries of creation and power itself, therefore to avoid the grasp of sorcerers that still exist. Most of the naguals of the earth have died and they will seek out anyone else belonging to a nagual party. Then that hunger for nagual power, like the mediocre Jms of the world, is to drink their power and own them. So you must understand how evil power works, to protect yourself.

You all have done well today and the implications of the events of this weekend were moderately well defined after getting off the couch (sic).

This is a wonderful Christmas because there was a healing that was completed today in which the Word of God can again be spoken and brought to humanity in completion for the first time since Christ left. There have been interpreted visions and enlightened inspired writing of the disciples and of other people and beings. But the sword that He left cannot be pulled out of the stone of the right side (except) by those humans who refine themselves in this age of air. In the age of water, was the preparation to soften the stone, and the age of air we will make the stone lighter so that the sword may be withdrawn by others. You might think "Is there more than one sword? Or one?" Swords come out of the creation of holy eaglets from the Golden Combined Eagle (male/female). There are mysteries about this time that will be unfolded over the coming months. But T2 thinks we have had enough to deal with tonight and today.

➤ Now (will be available) a new lingo; like Star Trek, like Spock and Data who is a robot guy who is trying to be human and talks like Spock.

➤ You can see anything gross, say in a movie, and get no contamination if you are anchored in:

Our Sword of Power with Christ.

➤ This will be a really nice Christmas in the sense of Christ being born on your left side. It will take work to go through its gestation and maturation.

➤ The key in breaking up darkness is to do the unexpected. We are lucky that we have opponents, because we will be on our toes. There is an opportunity of rebirth for man this Christmas, in Christ.

➤ The jazz drummer (heard recently) left you feeling graced, unsullied and pure in the world. You can be holy with any profession. There was a famous jazz drummer in Chicago, who was ensouled.

CLASS NOTES: DECEMBER 22-23, 1994

December 22

Times: Parallel...Sucker...Rex...Etheric...Holy Being

Events: Appear as trees with roots as 100% power is needed for manifestation to complete the causes.

These appear as trees with a percentage of power needed for manifestation of their intention.

Two trees of 50% power will produce an event because the total is 100%.

It has been hard to determine one event from another because we did not test whether it was 100%.

(There are different) types of causes put forth (some) which are like the allegations that provoke causes.

Why did T2 absolutely see the (events) happening currently?

Because it was happening in the same space, in a parallel time.

December 23

CAUSE Fan-Chart List

Cause is being: Added to...Enhanced... Removed...Decreased

Effect is being: Enhanced...Decreased...Removed...Created

Evil Causes and/or Effects are: Returning To Owner/Creator

More Dimensions: Added...Removed

Right Side of Dimension(s): Added...Removed

Being pulled to NOW or Different Time: for Increase...Decrease

As a person goes through life their sexual energies, whoever they are directed to, mentally or physically, causes like a plasma tendril out to the objects of desire. Say if a person was raped against their will, they would not give tendrils to the rapist. What is interesting about our group, the rape/defilement fantasies were fed by the black nagual links so they were able to create sexual/plasma tendrils against the will of the people involved. It is interesting that the zombie plane is only on the right side, and yet to manifest it has to have a left side, which is the plane of Death. So the manifestation of physical events occurs when the Plane of Death and the Zombie plane are balanced.

It is interesting that everything that happens has a Shadow of Death on it, on the Earth.

Branches of the Tree: Go to the Etheric

Trunk goes to Sexual Causes

Roots: are already in Death, except that part of the roots float up to the plane of thoughts. In other words, some dimensions of roots are leaving only seven of the 31 underground and 13 Death Dimensions are added.

In healthy life, there are normal 31 dimensions in the Death Plane, and 31 on the Trunk, and 31 on the Branches.

As (physical) death approaches, those dimensional numbers shift so that only 7 are on the roots, and the 13 Death Dimensions are added to the roots.

Ask: Whether any of the 7 normal dimension Death Roots (and the 13 dimensions NON LIFE Death Roots) have been added to you or someone else, so as to detect the Shadow of Death.

For example on Wednesday, T2 had 5 and was growing 6 normal (Death Dimensions). T3 and Cel were as well. That is a bad death shadow. They are decreasing now on all of us.

Murder:

➤The act of murder has the right side, and the effect of murder is left side.

➤The act of murder also has a left side because it manifests on:

The etheric on the thought plane,

And sexual causes plane.

Parallel Time: A lot of causes are in parallel time. They don't do anything, they go straight. The only causes, if they intersect the Zombie Eye Time, then that (becomes) an effect. But any cause that has no energy would be in parallel time, but it has a two dimensional cause and (would stay) in parallel time.

Thought and Emotional Plane: Three dimension causes tend to move in an angle towards an effect. It is invisible. You could say, if someone did a physical act, the cause would have 31 dimensions. A 3 dimensional cause is invisible and on the thought and emotional plane; or if this plane is energized, it drops to the etheric plane, so that it begins to get heavier and move toward intersection.

Low Ether Plane (NOT Etheric Plane): So before a cause can produce an effect, it has to have thought and emotion in it, and etheric energy of the person, or low ether: two catalyst Dimensions and 29 (31 includes the catalyst).

It is conceivable that the event NOT have the catalysts and therefore the event would not happen. The event has to have the catalysts to happen.

The True Etheric Plane exits with the plane of death normally in that it is the spiritual component of the physical body in an ensouled person.

The Shadow Etheric Plane has 31 Left dimensions. As death approaches the 31 become shadowed and eventually only 7 of those remain and 13 Death Root Dimensions (Purgatory roots) are added. The Right 31 Dimensions disappear and death occurs. As the right is on the visible plane, death occurs when they disintegrate. The Shadow Etheric becomes the Death Plane; it is the same plane but in a healthy etheric it would be called Shadow Etheric in zombies and the Etheric Plane for ensouled.

Death Roots/Death shadow: A zombie does not have an etheric component of the roots of their existence. Normally the 20 death roots are not present. There are 31 etheric roots present in an ensouled person, and 31 shadow roots present in a zombie, the shadow of their body:

Shadow/Etheric Plane and later the Plane of Death or the Shadow aspect of the human. They don't have any energy remaining in the etheric (Left).

In order to 'see' with left awareness, a person would have to have a living etheric body, so the zombies are not able to see with the left side unless they are empowered (by the ensouled).

How can a cause exist on two dimensions? All causes start on three dimensions because they have to begin in thought/emotion/action so they would start with at least three and go up to 31 dimensions. As they decay, they go into parallel time unless they build and combust at the event linked to the cause; in other words, if they produce an effect.

Parallel Worlds are “Decaying Causes Plane”: An act of power is to make a cause decay. Everything has to manifest on one or more planes. Nothing can manifest on a visible plane that does not have components on the shadow plane.

LAW: All effects have causes, but not all causes will produce effects.

➤ By adjusting causes you change effects.

➤ Causes can be on the sexual plane through dark force powered imagery, sexual magic or sexual contamination through intercourse with a possessed person. One person had a black nagual; she had a lot of power on the sexual causes plane, and when combined with death images, (this combination) is likely to cause death (of the one fantasized about) to occur. So the Satanist commonly likes rape with murder. They grab power by raping and taking in some way.

➤ It takes a lot of power to remove the influence of rape. T2 had contamination on 5 sexual causes planes due to the defilers’ plans to rape/murder. A normal fantasy would not have the power to link into your sexual forces plane, but with black power, one can.

DIMENSION CHART NEXT PAGE:

There are 31 Physical Manifestation Dimensions:

➤ The Sexual Causes plane only intersects 6 of the 31,

But has 2 that are not part of the Zombie Eyes Plane/31 Dimensions.

➤ The two that are different are:

1) The Left Side of Parallel Time Sexual Creative Dimensions.

These are the roots of Non-Visual Causes (that you can’t see with normal eyes).

2) The Catalyst pair of Dimensions for Creation of Causes.

YIN and YANG Catalyst is required for creation of anything.

DIMENSIONS CHART

PRE-PRE-ONE GOD DIMENSION; the Lightening present only in Divine Intervention Manifestations.
PRE-ONE ENTRY; is present on the Right side only. It is represented by a Square plus two Triangles which equal the Star of David dynamics. It is the Doorway to Higher Powers, good or evil.

- 1 (R/L) Parallel Time Plane, Ether Tank Associated-
 1 = YIN Catalyst on Right, Yin Ether Tank association and Mother Genetic Link
- 2 (R/L) Parallel Time Plane, Ether Tank Associated
 2 = YANG Catalyst on Right. Yang Ether Tank Association with Father Genetic Link
- 3 (R/L) Low Ether Plane (plus 1-2 catalysts on R/L): Generosity of Spirit Link
- 4 (R/L) Low Ether Plane (plus 1-2 catalyst on R/L): Identity Link
- 5 (R/L) Low Ether Plane (plus 1-2 catalyst on R/L): Joy of Living Link
- 6 (R/L) Thought-Emotion Plane (plus 1-2 catalyst on R/L): Larynx
- 7 (R/L) Thought-Emotion Plane (plus 1-2 catalyst on R/L): Sinuses
- 8 (R/L) Thought-Emotion Plane (plus 1-2 catalyst on R/L): Oculomotor Nerve
- 9 (R/L) Sexual Causes Plane (plus 1-2 catalyst on R/L): Breath Communicative Substance
- 10 (R/L) Sexual Causes Plane (plus 1-2 catalyst on R/L): Awareness of Individual Mind
- 11 (R/L) Sexual Causes Plane (plus 1-2 catalyst on R/L): Personality substances (9)
- 12 (R/L) Sexual Causes Plane (plus 1-2 catalyst on R/L): Hells, Hades or Heaven Link
- 13 (R/L) Sexual Causes Plane (plus 1-2 catalyst on R/L): Regeneration Pools Link
- 14 (R/L) Sexual Causes Plane (plus 1-2 catalyst on R/L): Earth's Etheric Vitality Container Link
- 15 R Ability to Act on Decisions
- 15 L Awareness of LAW between Cells
- 16 R Integration of Moral Concepts
- 16 L Earth NOW Spot Connection
- 17 R Personality Strength From acting within Moral Framework
- 17 L ME Template
- 18 R Tailbone and Sexual Function
- 18 L God Concept and Divine Link; if Congruent with Truth
- 19 R Generativity Core; ability to use Creativity for good or evil purpose
- 19 L Joy of Living Substance Component; linked to Generativity Core
- 20 R Pivotal Point Connection; auric Boundaries Defined
- 20 L Tissue Consciousness of Other People's Emanations
- 21 R Sense of Individual "ME" within social context
- 21 L Guardian Angel Link
- 22 R Link to Ancestral Genetic Pool Patterns
- 22 L Link to Individual Spiritual Past Lives Imprint Patterns, Individual Akasha Ethers
- 23 R Reptilian Brain Link: Gender Identity
- 23 L Communication among components of Identity: Soul (Triangle), ME (Circle), Tissue (Five pointed Star)
- 24 R Accessory Nerve Link; desire to submit to Divine Plan.
- 24 L Auric Cocoon; opening mechanism during orgasm or death
- 25 R Desire to recognize Virtue
- 25 L Presence of Life Spark
- 26 R Desire to care about the well being of other creatures
- 26 L Individual Etheric Body in ensouled (in the soul-less: Death Shadow)
- 27 R Desire to Pray
- 28 L Soul Drops of Life (In the soul-less: Death Shadow)
- 29 R Desire to retain a Soul
- 29 L Soul (in the soul-less: Death Shadow)
- 30 R Desire to Know God
- 30 L Soul Trinity Consciousness (In the soul-less: Death Shadow only)
- #31: EXIT FROM WORLDS; present only on the Left Side: Sleep, Dreams, Tongue Tip.
 At the Death Exit, a person as a Cosmic Thought is forgotten by God. Only Holiness is allowed to LIVE.
 (Sorcerers avoid the Exit.)

Death is a process that can begin on any dimension on the left side, right side, or in the communicative aspect or in the case of the dimension.

CASE

If the entry catalyst dimensions #1 and #2 become unbalanced with each other, then the 31st forms a vacuum of death to the other dimensions.

TIME CHART

TIME: is the relative tension away from the Solstice. Time is what we think of as gravity, in that it is dependent upon a magnetic pull that cannot exist without a counterpart of opposite quality. Form requires the presence of opposites.

Micro Solstice: This is astrological time, and a 24 hour period would be a micro solstice.

A Macro Solstice should occur in about 16 years (which will have 6 seconds). A Macro Solstice occurred about 30 years ago, around 1961. That was a summer Macro, and the next one is a winter one (which may mean destruction of civilization). What people think and desire will manifest on the physical in a destructive manner in 16 years during that time.

If a Macro Summer Solstice occurs and one has a lot of person-thoughts in it, it can grow diseases, like infections.

If a Macro Winter Solstice has evil thoughts in it, it grows wasting diseases, murders, the focus is less on the disease than the destruction.

There is a Macro-Macro Solstice that has 12 seconds. That may not occur for 40 years as a Summer Solstice.

NON TIME: is the exact moment of Solstice, winter or summer. It is three seconds of NON TIME.

The creative potential of thoughts and emotions when combined with the two catalysts Yin/Yang Sexual Causes produce effects very rapidly. That was why danger (recently) increased dramatically because any of the evil planners who had already formed causes that included the two catalysts would be able to manifest their desires quickly.

What one thinks and desires at the moment of Winter Solstice is born readily. (This is true) in a person of power, especially, or an evil synergy group that has evil power backing.

The Summer Solstice three seconds of non-time has a different quality in that the Catalyst Powered Desires and Thought Causes which are focused upon during those three seconds can produce great regeneration, or an adding to something physical. Whereas the winter solstice causes are more apt to produce destruction of matter.

We were able to use the destructive potential of the Winter Solstice to our advantage by beaming willed energy upon the Evil Death Plans of our opponents and reflecting it back to them in the same measure that they directed it upon us. That was the only way to avoid their evil Synergy from producing deadly effects upon key members of our group. If we hadn't held a mirror to reflect the black nagual batteries at that time, they would have unleashed upon us.

It was directed by the Holy Beings who held the mirror in front of the members of our group who had death shadows, so as to protect them. What this means on the visible plane, is not known. We must merely say “God’s will be done” and trust that we have been led out of the shadow of death through divine intervention.

The Nagual Visual Plane: (fortunately for us) is in the future, looking back so as to avoid annihilation.

The Holy Being Plane: Has Right/Left/Other sides that can be focused upon to see past/present/future Causes/ Effects.

All Planes: exist concurrently on the Time Tension Spot relative to the distance from solstices.

Some evil causes are still producing effects because they had already intersected the visible plane with many Rays of force at different time spots. Therefore those causes and effects were not destroyed during the Solstice because they had in fact already occurred even if they were in the future. It is like a spider with one leg on Monday, one leg on Tuesday, one on Wednesday, etc. The remaining danger that we have, has to do with these Spider Legged Causes linked to multiple time locations/intersections. Sidestepping those spider Arms is imperative for survival.

Example: There are 9 spider arms coming out of three remaining causes. The Times for these arms to intersect will include (in highest probability, as Time can be adjusted depending on some action, but the event is sure).

--6PM today it looks like ATF will enter 214

--7PM Saturday FBI will enter 301 and 214 and there is another sucker (event) to that,

--Today at 8PM, 301 Police Shadow (the house may be entered).

--9AM tomorrow, there is another possibility of ATF entering 301

It is possible that these legs might combine and form (an event at) one fell swoop. None will cause human death or arrest or any other serious problem with the exception of multiple bugs installed. The (events) will probably just clear the air and it looks like the shadow of these arms should dissolve by Sunday night, or Monday. And there should be no further danger.

We should be free of the evil planners after that, unless any new causes are formed and energized. It would be best for T3 and Gar to be in the two buildings at those times so there would be less damage upon entry (of authorities). It doesn’t look like they will go through the computers or paperwork, or confiscate anything.

Note to Gar and T3:

Leopard “A word heard”. There is something about Interpol that is like a leopard in the way they operate. They like to think they will spring and attack. Anybody in the building when the Interpols enter should sit very quietly and not move.

The Chihuahuas at 301 should be moved into the dining room with the door barred for their safety with papers down, away from the door. People will be in the yard and this will keep them from dropping the barrier and letting the dogs run into the street and being hurt. If all the Chihuahuas are put in Rap’s room with the foot barrier securely anchored or nailed to the door so people will step over it (and not release the dogs into the hallway where they might run outside and be harmed as the front door will be open). Nail a sheet-rock outside of Rap’s door.

Gar: do not let the dogs out after 3pm today at all, for any reason!!! After 3 they should be confined in Rap’s room--only-till Sunday night: all of the dogs. It is the only safe place. They may get run over by insane people, cops or something.

They will most likely force entry through the main room and the kitchen. It would be better to leave 301’s door unlocked, so they will just open it.

Gar: Unlock the windows so that they don’t break them, and have them slightly open.

Leave the back door of 301 unlocked so they don't break the glass.

Evening

There are 31 Dimensions on the Visible Plane and Death Plane.

Exit From World's Dimension: is the Death Plane's 31st Dimension.

The 24-30 Dimensions intersect the Death Plane on the Left Side only.

Pre-One Entry Dimension: the Right Side has no 31st Exit from World's Dimension, but it has a Pre-One Entry Dimension. The Pre-One Entry Dimension should be linked to before the 1st Dimension, whereas what has been called the 31st Left Dimension would be at the end of the list.

Both sides have 31 Dimensions but the Visible Plane has a different 31 than the Etheric Shadow Plane Which at death becomes the 20 Dimensional Death Planes.

DIMENSIONS: (Additional information to the Standard Chart)

1-2: Yin and Yang Catalyst Dimensions: the 1st and 2nd Dimensions relate respectively the Yin and Yang Catalyst.

On the Parallel Time Plane: # 1-2 dimensions serve as catalysts in some way as they are shapes that stimulate creativity.

3-4-5: Low Ether Plane: has the Two Catalyst Dimensions and the 3-4-5 Dimensions of the Right Side Visible Plane AND the Left Side Plane.

6-7-8: Plane of Thought-Emotion: exists on 6-7-8 of both Left and Right and has 1-2 Catalysts.

9-10-11-12-13-14: Sexual Causes Plane has the Catalysts and 9-10- 11-12-13-14 Dimensions.

1st Dimension Catalyst could be compared to a circle, Yin shape.

2nd Dimension Catalyst is Yang and is represented by a triangle shape pointing up.

15-16-17 Right: These dimensions have to do with Self Concept

15-16-17 Left: NOW Spot and ME Template

18 Right: Tailbone and Sexual Function.

18 Left: Layfolk Layer of Mystery aspect.

19 Right: aspect of one's Generativity Core

19 Left: aspect of Joy of Living Substance

20 Right: has a Pivotal Point Connection

20 Left: has a Lower Auric Mold Connection

21 Right: has Generosity of Spirit Substance

21 Left: has a Drop of Divinity Connection

22 Right: has a Human Seed Pool Link

22 Left: has Generativity Soul Furnace Link

23 Right: has a Reptilian Brain Link (Lower back of head, brainstem more or less - below the head but not the head)

23 Left: has to do with Communication

If something is manifesting or not manifesting, by dowsing over the dimensions : it will bring (the situation) to light (such as with) auric residuals that have gone towards the formation of an evil construct/created causes.

For example if you take something like Joy of Living Substance, associated with 19L and you have the 1-2 Yin/Yang Catalyst Duo, then you can create an obsession to bring about an event that is destructive.

The most destructive obsessions occur when the 22 Right Dimensional Focus and the 1-2 Yin/Yang Catalysts combine with the 9-14 Sexual Plane Dimensions (or even two of those six Dimensions) because enough Generative Power is gathered then to pull any evil desire (such as murder) that is linked with sexual pleasure into physical manifestation. This can produce a "Mob Mentality" to hunt down and kill innocent people.

Slipped into a Death Frequency (which will cause a necrosis on the Etheric Shadow Plane and draw one towards death).

It only takes one Dimensional weakness for evil to destroy you, because that is your blind spot.

Events, whether good or bad, do not have to manifest on all 31 Dimensions Left and Right. They are stronger though, if they have equal Left to Right, like a balanced Mobius. That is why Males and Females combined are much stronger than a group of one gender. Females tend to the left and males tend to the right.

Generally an event would have to occur with the Yin/Yang Catalysts Dimensions intersecting the Entry Right and the Exit Left dimensions (at bare minimum) in order to be visible to the human eye. The more dimensions that are added above that, the more powerful the event becomes.

To find out if an event is going to occur, one would have to decide if there was an Entry Dimension before the 1st, and an Exit Dimension known as 31, and whether there is a Yin and a Yang Catalyst Dimensional Overlay. This produces a square that frames an event. Anything short of a square will not be visible. One can measure the size of the square as a power measurement.

Maximal power of a square would be combustion. If you consider maximal power as the peak of a bell curve, you can see that the exact center between Yin and Yang produces combustion.

To be powerful without destruction, one would have to be slightly left or right of the center line (for instance 10% deviation on either side of the bell curve).

Power on the Yin side would imply a focus on the 31st Exit Dimension.

Power on the Yang Side would imply a focus on the Pre-One Entry Dimension.

➤When an event occurs there is a type of Spiritual Combustion that deflates the causes in most cases unless there are so many causes that more events are needed to satisfy them. With great effort the combustion can be made to occur on the Low Ether level only.

➤If the event occurs on the physical level it also occurs on the Low Ether, Sexual, Thought-Emotional plane, Parallel Time and Shadow/Etheric.

➤In order to manifest it only on the Low Ether Plane, one must have sufficient power stored to destroy all but the 5 Dimensional Overlays of the Event.

The Shadow/Etheric Plane is the realm of intention. If one's intention is to produce another person's death then the 13 Death Roots will grow in one's soul.

➤Zombies have 31 Shadows while

➤Ensouled persons have 31 Etheric Dimensions.

➤Either way, a person must have a Shadow or the Etheric Counterpart to the 31 Dimension Physical Plane Body Or the body will degenerate.

➤It is possible for a person to live with 8 Right Dimensional Visible Plane Intersections and 8 Shadows/Etheric Dimensions if none of the Shadow/Etheric ones (exist) include(ing) the 13 Death Dimensions.

➤In order for a person to be physically healthy, mentally healthy and spiritually healthy, 31 Dimensional Overlays are needed on the Right Visible Dimensions and the Left Shadow/Etheric Dimensions without Death Roots.

Age

➤It is possible for a person to have some dimensions resonating with the Age of 20 and some with the age of 100. This is often due to emotional links to other people or self-concept problems. These would have to be measured on the Yin/Left and Yang/Right as well, taking into consideration the Pre-One Entry on the right and the Exit 31 on the Left.

➤You have to look at them as a tree where you see the age of the tree above the ground which is Right, and which has seeds which is the Pre-One Entry Life Points. (Then you look) underground which is the Yin Shadow/Etheric Roots that provide invisible sustenance to the tree which if severed the tree will topple.

The roots are the Exit Waterloo because a sapling can sprout after a trunk has fallen or been sawed off of healthy roots and that sapling can eventually bear fruit. But no tree (evil or good) survives with poisoned roots.

Poisoned roots would be evaluated as to the intention of the planter of the tree. Any evil intention produces an evil tree. In other words a cedar root produces a cedar tree; apple roots produce an apple tree. One cannot hide one's intentions long before the fruits begin to fall by pretending one is an apple tree although grafted onto cedar roots. One will feel a struggle to such a degree that the whole tree will die.

No personality can survive on the right side that is not supported by the Intentions on the Left.

Evil Intentions must sprout evil acts and anywhere you see evil acts be sure that there are evil roots. Do not make excuses for anyone who does great evil because their intentions are evil.

Ask: “Where is a person's square likely to become a triangle at any time?”

When a person's square becomes a triangle the person dies on the physical plane.

Note: It is good to do something different now and then even if you are already pretty convinced your life is hard enough. Just shifting to something to get you out of your normal awareness will stress certain dimensional doorways and provoke heightened awareness states.

When one is under stress, if the will goes toward strong prayer, then Holy Beings can add other Dimensional Awarenesses normally only accessible to Holy Beings. The whole reason T2 was able to give those talks during the latter part of the conference was that she embraced discomfort of the cold floor, claustrophobia and pain and she used her discomfort energy toward prayer rather than complaint or self-pity.

All discomfort produces an energy that can be directed toward enlightenment. But first you have to know whether you are going to flip out being that uncomfortable, and you should not go past your personality strength just to change your routine.

The stress of a physical nature as a child can make one neurotic or make one resilient. Often people choose between those. Personality strength has to be gained incrementally. You can't go without eating for two weeks and no sleep to see how much stress you can take. If you are about to go crazy you have to shift gears.

If you see God as your strength and you trust the Plan of God, then you will never go crazy.

➤ Our goal should be to learn how to clear those Dimensions on the left and right and heal them, strengthen them and make them holy.

South Pole of the earth is the Anchor Point for the Right Side of dimensions.

The North Pole of the earth is the Anchor Point for the Left Side Dimensions.

What is the Anchor Point? If you are going to draw a waveform pattern illustration you have to have an initial dot or position in which to place the Point of your pencil. That would be the anchor point.

Dimensions carry the life force through the organism in particular waveforms.

Space is the perceived distance between waveforms and is the holder of matter. Perceived emptiness of a visual field does not necessarily imply that the space is empty. There is no empty space. There is only space that intersects our perception with its contained waveforms, or, bypasses our perception. Space is like ocean water. It contains traces of all the matter that swims within it and yet appears to be clear. Space can be Right hand or Left Hand space just as chemical formulas of sugar are right or left hand. (The sugar substitute Equal is the Left hand side of sugar. It tastes like sugar but the body rejects it, as the body is only right hand and only recognizes right hand calories.)

It is possible for Space to be neither Right nor Left Hand but Inverse Evil, or Holy/Other.

For example, the Monastery now is Holy/Other as the Holy Beings are trying to work.

Holy Beings exist in what you think of as an empty space and they change it just as completely as a drop of poison will poison a glass of water, or a proper homeopathic tablet in a glass of water will heal. Your body has space that is one of those categories: between every cell, and inside every cell.

Space is very important because Holy Beings enter through space and also through the Holy Being Dimensional Plane.

A space disorder is primarily due to a person refusing to acknowledge his spiritual roots, disorders, or his left side.

People hunger for knowledge like this, and we should give it to them. We are well into the next book.

CLASS NOTES: DECEMBER 24-25, 1994

December 24: Directional Dowsing Charts

If you think of the human eye; instead of a line drawing, you think of it as a sphere with the lines going out (a 31 piece pie). You would think of the lines as centrifugal (CF) and centripetal (CP), and that would take care of it. (Chart Below)

It is like the CF is like the SHADOW/ETHERIC and the CP component is the CREATIVE PLANE that come together by magnetic attraction on 31 lines equidistant apart.

(Type 2) High Watchers which are associated with "TOM" (drawn to the right):

Mega Allies: made by higher level beings to attack us. Self-Identity Nose: Is a Cat Being which is a watcher connected to an ex-student to empower him to harm us by an evil high level being.

Evil "Father" Seed: is the "TOM"

➤ Down/Center Evil:

These Directional Evils were formerly invisible. These show the intersections of the Left with the Right.

There is something very important about clearing 24 hours in advance regarding the Micro Solstice. It has to do with the N/S poles and not with (---). (This happened around 11AM CST today) and this is a “Building Solstice”. T2 had the things/events (pre) constructed to replace the other programs, and then she shoved them (built them) using the micro solstice; in this case praying to be delivered from Evil. Now events are disappearing on the physical plane.

Parallel Time Frames have the two sexual catalyst components which work like magnets. If someone has a thought or emotion it will hook up to the two Sexual Catalysts. Then, if someone has a Want, the Low Ether Plane will attach to it. (This process) gives thought and emotion a lot of power.

Event Creation:

- a) If a person is investing want/desire (which is the same as the Parallel Time Frame), it would be the thought or emotion to a construct such as someone's death.
- b) Then if someone has active imagery of an event occurring such as death, they bring it even more solidified, into the Sexual Causes Created Plane where you have desire/egoic constructs.
- c) These are essentially what ends up forming the Etheric Plane, which is just under the Visible Plane, to the Human Eye Plane. It is the balancing of that.
- d) Then, you have the Etheric Substance forming the event. This doesn't mean you use your etheric body to form the event, but that the earth's etheric energy can be pulled. Because the earth has an aspect of an etheric body like ensouled people do, and it starts forming a tornado swirl.

The more dimensions the Shadow/Etheric has, the more dimensions are added to the Sexual Causes Plane (which are equal in number) until they both reach 31. It is then visible to the human eye. It can be visible on less than 31 as well.)

Some events only require a few causes on the shadow (with) sexual causes to manifest on the visible.

For instance a lie: it doesn't take a lot of energy to think of a lie. All a person has to do is have a mental construct about what they want to lie about and then form an etheric construct with maybe 6 Dimensions and a balancing 6 Creative Plane Dimensions and then they can verbally lie, or read (perceive) the lie.

You can read a lie, and yet have only 6 dimensions interfacing the Visual world.

You can see it or hear it, so you can say it definitely exists.

If several people lie about the same thing they can eventually add up to 31 Creative and 31 Etheric Dimensions (L/R) until it provokes an outcome that is visible. For example, "Will a child-worker come to the house?" The dimensions are additive (by involving more people), until they provoke a visible response.

If a whole lot of people want someone dead, they can end up having maybe 90 dimensional power forces towards the visible death which means that there is so much power, and there is more than just enough on the 31, that they could have multiple dimensional power added to provoke an outcome of death.

The only way to avoid getting caught up in being a "victim" of such attempts at sorcery manifestation,
Is whether one is ignorant about what is happening or not.

STEPS FOR PREVENTION: Two main steps to intercept sorcery manifestation

- 1) Know how to dissolve those causes that have added dimensional power to an outcome.
- 2) Or, confuse the enemy so that they have trouble focusing upon a location or the person.
(So as) the outcome of the event is not agreed upon between the different enemies.
In other words cause confusion to the enemies.

The more varied the desired outcome, the less power to the manifestation of the worst outcome.

- a) For instance if people think you are already dead, they won't visualize you being killed.
- b) If some think you are dying anyway, they will think "What is the point of killing?"
- c) If they think you are in Italy, they will be aiming in the wrong direction if you are actually in Australia.
- d) If you can make them angry, then you can make them do something that bothers the other members of the synergy group and frightens them with something that is their Suki.
- e) If you get someone to brag that they have killed you then they are open for investigation for possible murder charges and will cause others to think they are nutty.
- f) If they confuse others with you because of similar hair color or body size, then they will be aiming at the wrong direction and will splinter their dimensional power focus. Even something as dying the hair red, is good.
- g) If they get their stories confused with different signals so as to exaggerate the stories they use to defame you, they will contradict themselves: i.e. "She's a lesbian" and "She's a whore".

Micro-Micro Solstices: Each day has two: one is Building and the other is Destroying. These do not have the same concept as the seasonal Solstices (winter/summer). When these occur, they do not just last for three seconds, but they enter into a hole of three seconds and continue for a longer time. You then anchor a type of power surge that comes into the three seconds to complete it. It is either a building or destroying moment of power, and the Micro solstice happens during the daytime.

The Macro Winter (which has just passed), was when the Solstice information was figured out.

The winter solstice was a moment of power where we could resolve the harassment so they would leave us alone.

T3 asks: What do planes (of manifestation) have to do with time? T2: It has to do with the distances between the solstices; the tension. The power of today's Micro-Micro is still being used right now to destroy. That is usually why, before a micro solstice, T2 has to start planning what to use it for, and that is why she started working around 6:30AM this morning.

If you grab the solstice power, it is like a loop in that if you have your intended outcomes in the center, you can just grind on that loop to bring forth the manifestation of what your intention is. This is also true of people who are obsessing, if they obsess at that moment, they add power to it. This is what happened with the enemies. They have hit the solstice with obsessions and empowered them with fallen beings, and invited fallen beings. With being empowered with demonic carnality, the demons fed the people with catalysts for obsessions, so that if they had demon-fed, orgasm-seed, demon-constructs at the moment of solstice, they entered a power loop.

If you hit on a Destruction solstice moment, then you may focus on destroying the evil constructs.

You can do it another way as well, by calling in Holy Beings to help with their power. However, you are using the natural earth power by grabbing the solstice loop. You have to enter the loop within 3 seconds, but you can stay in the loop for 20 minutes. Do: So visualize in your own mind what is to be destroyed (for a destructive force, don't think of what you want to happen, but what you don't want to happen).

For example: (to destroy) the lies told about you,

Pray: "That the people leave you alone, to destroy any lies, constructs, obsessions, publicity about us, arrest warrants, demands to pick up children or anything."

Dowse: How much more power your mind has when you willingly enter the solstice group?

For example, Forr has 20x normal power.

There is a sense of the earth not breathing when it happens. It seems to have been occurring about 11 this morning, and around 6 at night. The time may be variable; dowse when it is each day, then visualize a loop, and enter it as if going inside a tire. As a group, it would offer 20x more power than normal.

Low Ether Mouth Problems (Chart): These appear to be at the genitals of the Low Ether Plane.

Do: Think of someone's low ether mouth, and check with Right Side Awareness and Consciousness on the Visible plane. Because even though you think that you don't see it, you actually do on the physical plane.

Ask: "What percentage of maximal is it?" If the low ether mouth closes 100%, it indicates a physical death.

Check: % Contaminated
% of Constriction

Ether Lip Bits (in self/others): Destroy other people's lip bits in self and others because it is poisonous.

Pseudo Ethers

Watcher Powered Communication Links to Fallen Beings

Ask "How many Links on a Mirrored Number Scale?" Others/Self: Backwards...Mirrored...Reverse

This is Watcher Powered Pseudo Ether that empowers lies and energy to go toward destruction of Holy people.

These are on the low ether cocoon, and if a person loses the low ether completely, they are given a Pseudo-Ether by the Watcher.

Do: Destroy those links, as the fallen beings are obsessed about getting rid of us.

The Low Ether will look like it has zero Watcher Links unless you look at the number scale backwards.

People can have normal prana, and watcher links as well.

Charts: Holy Solstice Manifestation

When things/events start to break apart you can feel something toxic, and then when it breaks you feel better. When events reduce down to the two catalysts, then you know that it is breaking down.

Ask: "Who has two catalysts that need to be broken?"

Do: You have to break down the shadow/etheric to its death, and then it can break up, or go down and evaporate. The rest have to evaporate up, and in the each plane; plane by plane down to the two catalysts. If you get rid of those, then change happens, and we are at the point now to remove the catalysts. The key was to remove the watcher catalysts, and they had to be seen with a different vision.

This is a good Christmas day.

Review: If you think of the human eye; instead of a line drawing, you think of it as a sphere with the lines going out (a 31 piece pie). You would think of the lines as centrifugal (CF) and centripetal (CP), and that would take care of it.

It is like the CF is like the shadow/etheric and the CP component is the creative plane that come together by magnetic attraction on 31 lines equidistant apart.

The 31st line: (Re. Dimensional Chart)

This would correlate with Entry Pre-One Dimension

On the Centrifugal Shadow/Etheric Plane the 31st is an Exit 31. (Both sides have 31.) The shadow/etheric is on the other side of the sphere, and the only lines out of place would be the Exit and Entry. To draw them, they would be 5 degrees to either side. The other lines would be equidistant.

PUT ON CHART:

- No/Yes/Transition
- Occurred/Occurring
- Manifest/Occurring

If looking at something that is occurring/manifesting:

Ask for example: "The raid and the officers' probability of coming into 214 and 301 today,?" and
"Our seeing it occur on the physical plane?"

Which is a meeting and combustion between the right and left sides

- Ask:
- 1) Has it manifested on the Pre-entry (CP)? yes.
 - 2) Has it manifested on the Shadow (CF)? yes.
 - 3) Has it manifested on 1-30 CP? Yes, up to 30
+ the Pre-entry=31.
 - 4) Has it manifested on 1-2-3 CF? Yes, up to 4 and then something happened.

With this (glitch) T2 found that she had asked the question "has it occurred?"

But she found the question most appropriate was "is it still occurring?"

This question is from the perspective of the material plane, after checking the etheric. Put on chart: Occurred/Occurring.

5) Is the event Manifesting or Occurring? yes up to 30 + Shadow Exit = YES.

6) Are the CP and CF fused into a NOW point?

T2 gets that they are, unless there is something happening that she doesn't understand.

T2 is now looking through the Eye of the Mouth which was recently acquired.

Every day there is another layer to understand with the Manifestation (events).

For example: How do people put prana into the constructs?"

They may be watcher or other fallen being pranas instead of normal ones.

Death Time VS Holy Being Time

GOD'S TIME VS DEVIL TIME OR VS EVIL TIME

God's time is able to thwart evil outcomes

Which of these causes are manifested or need to be eliminated?

HOLY BEING TIME

Now time has 10 manifestation rings of the 2 pyramids and an outer shell. Outer shell of manifestation is formed after 10 yrs. are linked.

Evening:

...After calling the Monastery and finding that nothing has happened today, or at least no one has entered the buildings...

There are Mysteries of Time and Space: of when things/events are forming or not forming on the physical plane, and it is a challenge. The most important thing about a researcher is to not obsess about being right, but to obsess about knowing. If a piece is missing from the puzzle then it is a further challenge. If one sticks to one reality and doesn't go with the slants of events, then one doesn't learn.

With mysteries so enormous about time and space, it is not surprising that we don't experience them on a physical plane, but it is occurring, and we need to know how. One may ask; "How did I see a physical event, and it was not physical?" It is a hit or miss. We need to hit on the right tactics in the right Dimension and Framework; of which you are intending to see how it works, and to know how to get there again.

Every day is a different piece of the puzzle:

- The Angles
- The Planes
- The Building and Death Planes, and the Dimensions interfacing them
- The Solstices (Macro/Macro.....Macro.....Micro/Micro.....Micro)

Now, something else is missing.

Yesterday morning T2 was able to look through the Eye of the Mouth (that is the most accurate term), but sometimes one has to shift left/right communications and bypass awareness.

The ability to see, predict, divert and change those (events) that have already occurred, as well as seeing them as they occur in the NOW; T2 predicts (is possible). But the biggest trouble is seeing them in the same time frame as other people. Why is she not able to do it? It may be for a good reason, so that she may always see ahead. It would be helpful (as well) to see what are the results. It is good to see the twilight zone reality superimposed on the events that are happening.

For example, one could look out and see a van, and if we blink the van will disappear; this is not a (physical) event, but a twilight zone intersection. When we were up in the 301 attic, the sense of murder was so strong, and the glee. One could feel men crawling in the window with glee trying to hunt T2. It was like a man shooting a goose. It was totally palpable.

Three days before one relative of a student came into town, T2 wouldn't go outside the door, and she said to T3 "Someone is looking for me and will recognize me, and I can't go out the door". (She said this) only a day and a half ahead of time. At that time she predicted accurately what soon manifested in the physical.

So either she is predicting it, or it is changing (by being seen). Which is fine.

But what she wants to see are the dynamics, so they can be reproduced with full knowledge by other people.

Sometimes she has had to disassociate from the body, float through different worlds and try to see relationships between worlds, dimensions and times. Every time she has asked a research question, she has always received the answer eventually. She had to know the right question. So what she is looking for is the right question and not a general question (such as) "Why are these things happening?" And some of them are happening and visible: like the Feds shining a (listening device) beam into 214 windows from a car window for 2-3 days. We definitely had a break-in in the 301 attic; which is odd for a burglar to do, because the 1st and 2nd floors were completely accessible. Also we have had police cars pull up and sit in front of the house and under the bridge looking at 214 and 301. Also it is a fact that A's daughter has been called 2-3 months in a row by Jg's sister. T2 is trying to collect the verifiable events seen by the physical, to identify the intersections.

In medicine, you have hard signs and soft signs. Hard signs in medicine would be fever, or pus out of a wound. Soft signs are something like aches and pains which are not measurable. When A said that Jg's voice was laughing; that was a soft sign, in that a hard sign is seeing a police car. A soft sign is the fact that Jg was so smug he thought he could laugh at A. The fact that he was smug was a telling soft sign, as he thought he had something on A, as he was laughing at him. Now we 'dowse' that A is being busted, or it is claimed that A is one of perverts etc.

Black helicopters are a hard sign, as they are usually identified with FBI; and the supposed OG&E man (Oklahoma Gas and Electric), who asked T3 "Who lives here, and is it a business, or shop?" This happened as soon as Cel walked out of the door. For an OG&E man, the only thing the road guys do is read meters, they don't ask questions. The credit office would call, but not knock on the door and when they sign you up is when they ask. Also he had a sheet of paper and not a small order book that fits in the palm of the hand, or in the belt (1/4 page size), and not full size pages like T3 saw. They don't read meters that way. That was a hard sign.

Example: The two men breaking into the 214 and 301 said 'they thought it was a church'. That was a hard sign with people trying to break into both places.

If you add up the hard and soft signs, the known facts and soft signs; they point to the probability of events. The fact that Forr and Cel were followed were hard signs. "You don't need a weatherman to know which way the wind blows." Bob Dylan.

Examples:

- The three sets of two men dressed identically in windbreakers, black shoes and Dockers that came out of the bowling alley three different times to walk under the bridge around the block and around to 2nd Street and Warner is a hard sign, though they had been pointing north, as if they were going north.
- The fact that Alice (the dog) ended up in the house at 301, and (apparently) had jumped a barrier that she had not been able to jump in a month, is very weird....she didn't jump the gate, but someone put her in the house.

More evening notes (estimated date):

There have been two primary types of Futures in Formation that T2 until now had trouble differentiating from the present.

- An event that is occurring in the NOW, on the visible plane, has 30 dimensions plus an entering Pre One Dimension on the centripetal aspect, and 30 centrifugal, plus an Exit 31st Dimension. The CF and CP aspects are moving in time as two sides of the same wheel.
- People who have had hostility toward this party have had nagual batteries fueling their desired events connected to monadic substance drips and ME-substance of anyone who has had a soul in the last year and a half.

DRAWING (Not currently available.)

- Fallen Beings indirectly feed the Evil ME Substance, a type of malefic prana, through their tissues which exist in the NOW. The event is actually above the NOW time, but is hanging like a cloud of doom above the (body) tissues of anyone desiring the event to occur who has been empowered.
- Even though the event appears to hover above the NOW point of visible manifestation, it can easily move downward to superimpose the NOW.
- Before that, the Evil ME which is below the NOW point enlarges until it engulfs the whole body of the Evil doer. The person then becomes the vessel for the Fallen Being that fueled it in the NOW.
- When the Evil ME takes over the tissues, it has the ability to pull the event down into visible reality and if such people link into an evil family of fallen beings, the event becomes unavoidable except through Divine Intervention.

Example: There were 63 Evil MEs forming in opposition to our small group with 5 major Events linked to them and fed by synergy. The events were: the murder of T2, T3, Cel, Gar and (a child). It is interesting that Forr and Si were not on the hit list. And yet they were considered important to track the others and to build the synergy with their family members by uniting to destroy the perceived "Evil Ones" (in their minds).

- Each of these five events had side events associated, such as the destruction of Sn, Abe, and anyone else associated with this party socially, financially, and if possible physically.
- When T2 perceived the shadow of danger, it was because T2 could feel these hovering events linked to someone in the NOW. So she was looking up with her pineal instead of looking around with her pineal which is the normal NOW Event-in-Progress position. Sometimes her pineal pulled to the left to see a future forming that held a danger different than those shadowed events that were forming above like storm clouds.

DRAWING (Not currently available.)

- The future events that were solidifying in the near future appear to be a yin/yang mobius with three positions linked to an event in the future NOW (and not above it, as in the former scenario). The mobius was composed of fallen being energy lines, or pranas, and had a female on one loop, a male on the other loop, and either gender other person in the center.

DRAWING (Not currently available.)

In the drawing it appears that T2 would shift her pineal to the right and yet she is looking from a perspective that is not normal human. So her pineal goes to the left for future vision, whereas yours would pull to the right for future vision. It has to do with T2 being anchored above, and you being anchored below. So our perspective is mirrored, but that does not mean one (way or another) is bad. Neither one is evil; it is just that one person must translate.

Therefore to interpret events one must stand with a position in time and decide whether the Pineal Movement is:

PINEAL MOVEMENT (Ask):

Fallen Being Fueled-Realities-Forming: that can be pulled into the NOW through human will and intention.)

Another odd experience has had to do with a perception of some people as dying. This T2 found had to do with their murder constructs swallowing them, rather than their willful ME sucking in the construct for power.

Below are illustrations on: (Not currently available.)

A) What a person's tissue identity would dowse as when he is alive in the NOW in the visible plane.

B) What he looks like as Death Engulfs him.

C) Three days later:

T2 is sure that some of you have experienced spontaneous shifting of your pineal to perceive events that were forming from one of the directions listed above, or perhaps in one of the angles illustrated below: (Not currently available.)

Whenever you have an overwhelming conviction that something is happening or real, then you must use that as an impetus to push you toward spiritual science in order to discover the mysteries of Time and Space, Life and Death, Realities and Sub-realities. Do not fall into the trap of assuming that what you do not (physically) see is not real because it may jump on you from above, crawl up from some sewer like a rat from below, or lunge at you from around the curve of Time to devour you.

To be a seer means to see shadows of events before they appear and to destroy them, or avoid them.

Today we destroyed all of the Evil ME Hovering Shadows and have yet to destroy all of the...

Future Forming Evil Mobius Events. And yet it will be done soon.

Despite these victories, we must be cautious because the evil synergy group threw many balls forward in time which will keep rolling through inertia, and we must side-step them, or be wounded, perhaps mortally.

301, 214 and Sn's house is bugged. None of the other house phones are bugged. Ji/Ji's brother/Cec are being tapped from Ji's mother's phone. The ATF and FBI pushed for a tap to see if there was a hired killer after T2 because of the letter that was sent out from last hired killer event. T1's cousin in the ATF could authorize it).

If you see a future forming, that would be (perceived) to our right as we look with the pineal. We need to see if it has:

FUTURE EVENT MANIFESTING, NEEDS:

- 31 Dimensions Centripetal
- 31 Dimensions Centrifugal
- Both the Exit and Entry points
- See how close/how many dimensions it has added (recently)
- How many Dimensions are needed to manifest on the visible plane.

Some of these events hanging over us had 31 Dimensions both CP and CF and what stopped it was only the waiting for when the Evil MEs had enough power to pull the event down. They would have been able to do it soon, as they had so much synergy and so many fallen beings feeding them. We did everything exactly right.

You have to act as if it is occurring, and you have to act so fast to prevent it from happening.

➤ What we cleared this morning were the Evil MEs that were trying to pull it down. You have to take precautions because the events were about to manifest. We were in fact under observation by agencies, and the Feds had been in the 301 attic, and there was an active plan for murder with Jm as the gun slinger.

➤ They are putting some focus on Cec bragging about eliminating T1. Cec had a thing about "Bad Seed" evil prodigy (that is how he saw a child of T1) But he blabbed too much.

➤ The Feds entered the dirt room on house on 24th Street and looked around for bombs/guns/drugs, and they found nothing. They wanted to do that to not lose face with a raid.

Someone is in a car now, 6PM, Interpol, under the bridge. Cec; knowing Government agencies very well as he works for NASA, knew that to get enough power to catch us he would have to use Interpol with the reports of us being out of the country. When he went for Interpol he said we "...were planning terrorist activities to destroy pockets of zombies and aliens". He talked another person into backing him up and told them what they would get out of it: "If they caught T1, then a relative would get (a child)" etc. Cec tried to tell everyone what they would benefit from, and revenge was a big one of course, and to "get rid of evil on earth" was another. (For example instead of spiritual means to remove evil, Cec claimed T2 was saying: "Let's do violence"). So Interpol is under the bridge: with six people in ski masks:

Practice moving the pineal as a sphere rotating, instead of pulling to one side or another.
It is almost that you hold the vision inside the sphere as it rotates.

- Interpol just saw T3 leave 214 and cross the street. Now he is walking back to get something out of the kitchen (6:05PM).
There is danger for T3.
- Now it seems they are at the door with guns drawn 6:10PM. (This is one of the balls that was rolling.)
T3 is taken to Wades garage for interrogation, as well as Gar.
- Holy constructs from above are being added to the Feds.

You want to be able to detect events on the map and in time. It is confusing unless you know the real time in the physical world. If you have an approximate time then you can see where you are, if you are ten minutes ahead of time, it may show that you are in the NOW. What is helpful is to keep a few U.S. maps as well, as that is something T2 looks at often. One of the Agent's Sukis (weaknesses) is that they look for a wooded rural area for a Cult/group to hide out in. They don't expect people to be in town (next to a Police Department). This is how things are discovered. One is to advance and keep bucking a problem until it is resolved.

➤ The Low Ether Construct Plan of two FBI agents that had the above programs are what we are seeing as happening in the NOW. It was as if we were reading a plan. In the Time Space Tube it would look like it appeared in the NOW, but instead it was a Low Ether Construct that didn't have enough power to manifest. It was manifesting, but not in any more than 4-Up and 6-Down Dimensions. We have to become precise with this (system).

Say if you have Interpol in the garage on 8PM Sunday;
You get the pineal rolling, and check its proper position on the clock.

PROBABILITY OF EVENT MANIFESTING ON PHYSICAL:

Ask: 1) How many dimensions is it manifesting on the Right/CP?

(This one has)- Pre-One Entry + 30 Dimensions + Initial 2 Catalysts -

2) How many dimensions is it manifesting on the Left/CF?

- Exit Point + 30 Dimensions + the Cohesion of Sides (x)
- The Space Tube which can draw as a mobius instead of a wheel
- + a Pre-One Entry and Exit inside the Space Time Tube.

3) How many L&R Dimensions are needed to manifest physically?

4) How many L&R Dimensions are present NOW?

Some events don't necessarily need all 31 L& R Dimensions to manifest in the Physical Plane.

5) Are the Left and Right sides joined together?

As you know, thoughts have fewer dimensions than the visible (physically manifested).

6) Is there: Confusion or Division of the Event?

If 2 (or more) Space Time Events are linked together and seen by the pineal, they will confuse the issue or event.

7) Is the event blocked?

The event may not happen for a reason. Something may happen to supersede it. For example a 9AM raid by Interpol.

Aids To Reading Events:

- Dowse:
- Reduce R and/or L: Consciousness/Awareness/Communication
 - Enhance R and/or L: Consciousness/Awareness/Communication
 - Change aspects of event to Good
 - Add/Remove Catalysts
 - Deflect/Do Not Deflect
 - Other
 - Pull event into the NOW (from past/future)
 - Blocked by: Sucker-Worlds/Egoics/Desires/Elementals

If these are fueled by evil synergy and/or catalysts they can provoke the event of obsession.

When one is too far into the left side,

CLASS NOTES: DECEMBER 26, 1994

Evil Constructs such as those with murder, death, defilement programs are formed by:

Zombie Low Ether Life Substance.

- There is a limit to how much lower ether life substance one person can draw in to increase the rate of an evil obsession growth.
- If a person constructs a Murder Ether Obsession with great intensity, he could cause his own death by using all his life force.
- One way that some of the evil people mean to increase their obsessions while remaining healthy is by FORMING TISSUE LINES from their body to people who still have ether substance not used by obsessions.

Example: If one obsessive zombie has five tissue lines out (plus his own) then he will drowse as having:

- 6 Ether Mouths since he is able to drink the ether of those people he has hooked with his tissue energy.
- The ether mouth is a Tissue Ether Level Extension to The Human Genetic Seed Pool.

Do: It is possible to seal up a zombie's ability to hook others through his tissue lines. It is like dipping them in shellac. Then the person must use their low ether for life maintenance rather than obsessions or his obsessions will devour his health.

The evil synergy groups can all be hooked into the same obsession cloud which will tend to bring it into manifestation, and if they talk to an innocent family member they may be able to throw out a hook through the phone thereby pulling them into their obsession. Then when a family member talks to you, you are poisoned with a construct that may have within it your own death. So let's get rid of them.

The tendency to mental illness is the tendency to lose one's life force for obsession, then form reflex forming tissue links that confuse an identity and make one a multiple personality type being.

How does one make tissue lines? They are an abnormal state completely in that they are filaments of a diseased human seed pool line connection. Normally there should be one trunk of tissue energy connecting to one's genitals to the human seed pool. Some people have injured their primary trunk and may have other filaments from other body locations going to the seed pool. Holy Beings can heal the main trunk and remove abnormal trunks which will increase sexual and physical health.

Obsessive people tend to throw filaments of their seed pool line trunk out to other people thereby forming vampire connections that they can drink the life force of the other person and form evil ether constructs out of the other person's vitality.

We must ask the Holy Beings to remove the ability for obsessive people to send filaments out to others, even if it means removing them completely from the seed pool. The seed pool connection is not required for health if a person has ether substance and does not use that ether substance to create poison. Therefore the malefic person is given a choice to quit obsessing, or his evil thoughts will devour him. On some level he knows this because he becomes weak when he hates and strong when he does not hate. This is also a healing method for psychotic people who are dangerous to themselves or others; they then become reinforced by good thoughts and weakened by bad thoughts till their obsessions change, or they self-destruct.

Pray: "I don't want to know anything if it is not God's will (to know or act on the knowledge)."

If something should not happen at any time, then Pray to be "Totally blocked to doing that."

Pray: "To know what to use and not to use at any time."

The Holy Beings reveal information for self-defense, but never for offense. The only way this (current process) is within law, is that you could say it is their evil is being returned to them and not directed to us, to prevent the holy work from continuing, and for our actual physical survival.

We could pray the Holy Beings assist us to protect us from such evil. If the zombie has synergized with others to choose evil, the evil will befall them and that is law. (This is not to ask for a particular person)

Pray: "Not to know even who, Dear Lord, but if it is within Law I ask for anyone who is using their life force to destroy us that they be stopped and for us to be protected from the evil of attacks. But that it return to them so that they will receive their own evil and it not come to us."

The Holy Beings are healing our Seed Core Lines. (This) is why, as people get older, the seed pool line gets frayed, filamented and leaks tissue energy, and the Holy Being are working on us. If (the primary trunk of tissue energy core line) is opened up more, then it is healthier.

Sometimes you will get a tissue injury in the aura and it will automatically put it into the seed pool (sic). If the Holy Beings heal you, then you are less likely to filament and lose power. These filaments are weakening and form auric injuries, and this is another aspect of auric healing. Therefore even while learning about self-defense, we learn about auric healing.

Some of the law enforcers were being drained by filaments by the evil synergy.

These Holy Beings are called the Destroyers of Evil: we need to pray for them to “Remove all the catalysts above and below the mirror to destroy all the catalysts feeding constructs.” One plan which was to pick up (a child) had 40 evil seeds attached (each seed had two catalysts that formed them).

CLASS NOTES: DECEMBER 27, 1994

Old Orgasm Seeds drowse as Dead Tumblers. These have obsessions, egoic constructs, anything, and each has to be destroyed separately. Look at the toxicity in the mirrored image on the number scale, as you can't read the numbers properly unless you read them backwards. With contamination, you can find a lot of it on the nose.

CHART: Dimensions related to auric parts.

CHART: of 1-31 contamination. (Charts in next day's lesson)

For example, T2 had a strong 25th Dimension abnormality and on the left side, which could mean a pull toward the death, as 24-31 on left are often pulls to death.

It is important to see each event from a clean slate, and not from the right hand inventory of "What has happened before, and would make sense now". If you think with the left, and then move to the right, and let the left side go to the "inventory room", then you are more likely to see what is going on.

For example: T2 may see a raid going on (on the left side, and not on right), and yet each time she sees an event, she learns more of how to stop it, or why she saw it that way. This is done with no attachment with "right or wrong".

Learn how to look, and then evaluate each similar event, one with the other, for similar errors, or new errors.

But one must not assume one is wrong because one has been wrong 30 times in the past. It is like with gambling, when tossing the coin and it comes up heads 50 times and so next one "must be tails". One may see it as similar to the boy who cried wolf, but it is not, it is spiritual science.

The Spirit is unveiling before us. We could be filled with a sudden wave of urgency that something was happening at 214; and in the car yesterday there was a wave of toxicity related to T3 and Gar, with fear components. T2 had to clear a lot to see it. T3 said that he felt waves of clouds as well, with a dizzy, fearful malignancy floating over the whole monastery.

We have to look at these as Left Side Facts that we try to map and understand. A city grid cloud is different to a person focusing on a place and thinking of (i.e.) murder. If we understand the differences we will eventually get to the point to predict anything.

Quote: Rudolf Steiner

Rudolf Steiner: When listening to a politician he said "When I hear a lie it was like a louse running over my liver".

That is a good example of translating a physical experience into a spiritual metaphor to be spiritually aware. We need to look at our physical bodies as the condensation of the other side of your spiritual self.

Primal Substance: is an aspect of consciousness.

The Ether Mouth is a Tissue Ether Level Extension to the Human Genetic Seed Pool. Most people have a natural energy link from the pelvis to the seed pool. If the pool is like a yolk, it is a human pranic energy that is helpful but not necessary, as energy can be acquired otherwise.

Abnormal Link to a Human Communicative Evil Network: check who is involved with the network, and how many clouds of (i.e.) murder that are linked to fallen beings. Fallen beings are still feeding these and it is what to get rid of.

Black nagual demons with orgasm seed components: These are actually the fallen beings. If they can tell people what to think and do, we are in a world of hurt.

Some of the zombies involved with the raid are sending Evil Communicative Substance to various people with thoughts in them. What we are reading are the plans and thoughts. The Evil Communicative Clouds settle over a building and we can pick that up. If they can't hone in on you personally, they can still make you leak from the very pressure of their desire to kill. For example we are currently picking up "insanity hearing", "witchcraft allegations", "kidnap (a child)" - basically everything in the charts. Do: Destroy the Orgasm seeds, pray for the Holy Beings to help us.

Awareness and consciousness substance in an ensouled person relates to the right and left side, and can also be in those clouds. It is not just the Ether Communication Substance, but look for L/R Consciousness Awareness components in the clouds and destroy.

Remove all ensouled substances.
Close Extra Ether Mouths webbed into others/breaks up synergy group.
(The tissue filaments from genitals out to others).

We won't be able to see the event unless we remove the CLOUDS, and that is today's lesson.

We can control the events partly by removing the clouds.

The clouds of evil were feeding the evil synergy group. They received some kind of prana from clouds because there were soul bits of other people in them. It is Manna from Hell.

Now look at all the enemies and see how many clouds they are being fed from with the left/right/communications substances. If you go above a person's house and see what the clouds are linked to, to other people, then one can read the clouds, like files.

We are now REMOUNTING the Exit-Left Dimension links to other people's right tissue dimensions.

This would clear the connections of an evil synergy person (his death thoughts etc.) to people that had lines in him.

TO REMOUNT: If a person visualized death for another person, then according to karma that should drag them into the death root dimensional state, however, they can get life force from other people's tissues which would make (the perpetrator) not suffer the consequences of their own evil imaginations.

They could have:

Both Right Tissue constructs that were evil,
Left Shadow/Etheric type constructs that are evil, and Communicative Substance Evil Constructs which should kill them,
Unless they vampire other people's and therefore infect them with the same disease.
So "Remounting" is breaking the vampire connections.

We have to remount the 24-31 L/R Dimensions. If they form evil from Left imaginings they become death roots, and then they may vampire other people to feed them. So you have to ream all of the filaments from the Dimensions like scraping a carrot.

When death occurs the 24-31 on the right disappear and 24-31 on the Shadow become Death.
The Entry Catalyst dies or disappears and the Exit catalyst becomes like a vacuum for the rest, as it has to have two catalysts, yin/yang.
If the yang is removed the yin becomes a vacuum.

Evil Creative Pool Connection

There are 31 aspects of Self in the Lower Cocoon:

Personal Creative Life Pool (Regeneration Pools)

30 Personal Creative Life Pool is in front of Ether Navel since mother separation.

It has a certain amount of 30 substances (New Cells are created from this energy).

TISSUE CONSCIOUSNESS SUBSTANCE:

Dowse % of surface area of tissue substance not being controlled by: Centripetal/Yang...Centrifugal/Yin Balance.

Look for tissue substance out/in that has centrifugal or centripetal qualities.

Centrifugal ME: 100 % (Ideally)

Centripetal ME: 100% (Ideally)

(Extra) NOT ME: 0% (Ideally)

(Extra) NOT ME: 0% (Ideally)

Do: Destroy what is out and Extra.

Tissue Consciousness Substance cannot return.

When this substance is gone to fuel “WANTS” (emotional, primarily) a person gets a weak personality.

Tissue substance is a Tonal measurement. Without this, one becomes a reflection of other people’s perceptions of you; NOT who you are. Without self-control, there is no point in refilling the substance.

CONCEPTS: (Wanting more than anything else)

I want to be loved

I want to be thought of as Holy

I want to be liked

I want to be T3 or T2

I want to be thought of as powerful (NOT: I want to BE powerful)

The raids that were dowsed were nearly to 100% on physical plane (at the Causes Built Stage) and each time they were experienced by us, it caused the event on the physical plane to go down finally to 5%.

EXAMPLES OF THE PROCESS OF MANIFESTATION:

Causes built to → Visible Event to → Winding Down to → Cloud Residual (of evil-causes remaining)

➤The VISIBLE part of the Visible Event is like a DOOR TO VISION. It must be pulled tight by the increased tension of the Evil Causes put forth created the evil belief that “T1 was guilty”, which then became a cause in itself.

➤When a CAUSE reaches a certain level of “steam”, it pops in two pieces, with the EFFECT being the second half. By decreasing the causes that were building up to a powerful dangerous effect, we weakened the cause to 5% of its biggest size. (A week ago it was maxed out).

Do: Blast with Holy Powers to disintegrate and overwhelm it.

A BIG cause takes coordination of the players (i.e. Law agencies). So before they could get coordinated to rupture the cause into a “cause-effect” visualized event, we confused them on many levels. For examples: leaving the city was a precaution; (as well as) music in the windows. Everyone was looking for Alice (the dog) outside. We put metal over the windows at 301 (which would cause them to realize we are not experts in defense) and we allowed an entry into the 301 attic by the feds, while we were at 214.

The couch made the evil synergy group’s TRACKING ALLIES confused by the strangeness of the action.

So “IT” (the Tracking Ally) couldn’t see T2.

IT went into a spin of confusion that led the evil dowsers to think she was in a dozen different places.

SELF IDENTITY SUBSTANCE is like a Trait. The substance will go out with False Concepts linked with lower Hells (see chart), i.e. hating the feminine face of God. It is difficult to hold a soul with this substance gone.

LESSON DECEMBER 1994 (est.): “Body” does not mean “Flesh”

“BODY” DOES NOT MEAN “FLESH”

“Body” means an organization of energies that have a →

of similar focus of power and is supplied by a feeder that has the same “name” sound.

The sound must be altered by changing its shape in order to break the body.

The body must not be coordinated with the feeder person (you) through a line of force that is recognizable by its sound (100%) “diameter” which is pitch producing

And its angle ○ on the clock,

Its color (blue),

Its angle in relationship to the ← feeder.

The body link is the Key while the feeder line is the Lock.

The lock is produced by an echo in the flesh of the person vampired with the flesh of the key vampire.

The Echo is produced through 3 versions of song: Intent, Will, Desire to form a memory in Flesh Akasha that is shared with the vampire’s.

When a memory is shared in Akasha with vampires, it produces a longing in the person vampired; when it is activated it is engaged in vampirism.

To detect vampires you must find memory and unwind it and the burn the associated body site (mentally) to seal the etheric leak. It will stop the memory echo then.

Ask “How many memories you have in your flesh” and

The location on the body,

The diameter % of maximal,

The color,

The angle of vampire ○

The angle of vampiree -○ and

The Name of the key person.

(Check for each one) The Number of vampires

- Each may have a different (vampiree) angle but will share the vampire tube angle.

If you remove dark forces from a soulless person who has only body and mind left, then he will fill back up again in the empty spots unless you fill the spots with AZOTH and seal the cores of each layer. If a person has no soul, he still has a 7th Vacuum Hole there. Fill it up.

In extreme evil, remove all Earth coordinates to the sternum, navel, genitals and eyes.

The “body” can be evil and intractable even if the rest of the layers are filled with AZOTH.

In that case take a spiritual sledgehammer to his evil double (2 in one student).

Crystals can have many sides. They should have 5 sides in people without souls and 6 sides in people with souls. If they have fewer than 6, and have a soul, then they are injured in the part of them that has the POINT OF STAR aspect relating to it:

Crystals have a soul aspect if AZOTH (#7) is present.
Perhaps a Grace Layer, too.

The layers within
person.

Some people only have the body left. The others are controlled by fallen beings.

This is an unsouled, 5 parts star
(body layer, mind, spirit, soul, other).

PRAYER LIST

DOWSE WHICH PRAYER WOULD APPLY TO YOUR CURRENT SITUATION

Make sure to lead the prayers with “Not my will but Thine, oh Lord” and vow that if you are in error in dowsing, that you get a strong response on the dowsing list at the bottom to alert you.)

- 1) To correct all intercession errors and their effects.
2. To remove effects that have occurred from wrong prayers, and to be forgiven for trying to bargain with God. If by such prayer bargaining I have contacted fallen beings, I ask that my errors be corrected, while I promise to not bargain with high powers again.
3. To strengthen personal Will that is aligned with God’s and to be guided where to direct that Will now, even if I don’t consciously know what I am doing, in order to remove all obstacles that are blocking purification.
4. To destroy all malefic habits, assumptions and false beliefs...and to destroy the effects that such habits, assumptions and beliefs have caused.
5. To destroy the cause of all dark force screens intersecting mine.
6. To remove all human and animal portals into hells, Hades, purgatory, or evil people connections...direct or indirect.
7. To destroy the cores of all evil awarenesses that are contaminating others.
8. To close all energy sources that are allowing evil to interfere with God’s plan.
9. To destroy all links to bodies that each evil awareness possesses.
- 10 To destroy all substance connections to and from people or animals who are linked with evil.
11. Pray that all evil automatons be disabled from doing harm.
12. Pray to remove all residual patterns of spiritual contaminations.
13. Pray for deliverance from all evil that is within and without.
14. Pray for divine intervention to lead my spirit to the correct prayer for purification or removal of the cause of my spiritual suffering if it be within Law.
15. Pray for closure of all bottomless pits of disorder and for closure to all portals to other pits, bubbles and chaos doors.
16. Pray for removal of all evil incarnate influence lines, direct or indirect.
17. Pray for the removal of all curses that are meant to interfere with God’s plan.
18. Pray for removal of all vampirism to or from all people and animals.
19. Pray that all evil doers be unable to summon dark forces, and those that have been invited be destroyed.
- 20 Pray to defer to the wisdom of the Holy Judges as to the process and outcome of purification.
21. Pray to be destroyed in any way the Divine Powers see fit if I should align with fallen Beings and become dangerous to the fulfillment of God’s plan.
22. Pray for the removal of all carnality, greed, envy, hatred for hierarchy, hate or lack of love, false pride, lies and lying spirits.
23. Pray for the removal of causes of all evil screens in this building.
24. Pray for trust in God, Divine Faith and Hope, perseverance and strength.
