INTRODUCTION to VIRTUES, LAWS and POWERS (excerpt) by Anonymous

Introduction

Published 1995

ISBN 1-885-186-83-5

There are people on the Earth today who hunger for knowledge of the mysteries of life. They may have sought to satiate their thirst for Truth through paths of science, art, philosophy, psychology, religion, or social services. Many, at the close of a long career in such fields, hear the hounds of death at their heels while their spiritual bellies ache with emptiness. They go to their deaths longing for the unknown, trembling with angst.

It may seem preposterous for this book to presume to fill some of that void by bringing to the reader the fundamentals of the natural Laws of the soul. Indeed, few people have ever considered that the soul of man has a type of matter, not unlike his flesh, although existing in a different octave of being. Few people are aware that there are principles, similar to known physics principles, that control the dynamics of spiritual matter. Furthermore, such spiritual Laws have a watershed effect upon the physical body of man and the Earth.

Looking out upon the sea of disorder within the major cities, one cannot help wondering why violent crime is becoming increasingly prevalent, and what could bring it to a halt. During the sixties the cry of liberals was for more social services, as though money or food could be the panacea. Others cried for gun control, more prisons, or other material solutions. Despite all attempts at controlling societal disorder the ghettos swell with violence, and the traditional family structure is almost gone.

There are some idealists who look into the heart of this disorder as though it were full of signs of wonderful societal transformation for the better. And yet, teenage pregnancies, AIDS, infections, robberies, rapes, and murders all continue to increase in number. By what criteria are these idealists measuring their success?

If one looks back over recorded history, pockets of societal peace and order rise out of the pages with haunting similarities of belief systems. Within each religion can be found keys that lead to the inner teachings of the fundamental Laws of the soul and of life itself. The fighting between religions has been due to clinging to differences rather than searching for similarities. The obvious similarities are merely echoes of the underlying mysteries which have traditionally been reserved for an inner circle of the spiritual elite.

The knowledge of the inner mysteries of life, held within the core of each religion, was withheld from the masses because of the danger of sorcery if the principles were applied without integrity. Any power that can transform a man's soul can also destroy his body if directed with malefic intent. It was safer to allow the alchemical mysteries, which were the core of each religion, to be watered down in a harmless fashion, in a way that could possibly change man's behavior through fear or promise of heaven. It was assumed by the spiritual forefathers that a man who lived decently might learn to think decently. If a man thought in a decent manner, then, later he might be able to control the spiritual forces with integrity and not run amok with unbridled passion.

For this reason, most religions focused upon behavioral instructions, rather than the reasons that certain behaviors could block the path to spiritual power. People have, by and large, decided that the behavioral instructions are no longer valid and so have developed many blocks to the higher teachings.

It is now time to reveal the inner teachings, in hope that humans can understand the reasons for behavioral sanctions and thought control.

The Laws are immutable. Man cannot break these Laws, but can break himself against these Laws. This is happening today on a massive scale. A man can tell himself all day long that fire is not hot, and yet burn himself, should he put his hand in a flame. Just as there are lower laws of the visible component of fire, there are higher Laws of the unseen components of fire. Many a man has thrust his own unseen components into fire and burned away part of himself.

It is possible to heal oneself through the application of higher Laws. If humans can bring healing order to their own lives, then they can begin to bring order to their families and to their own culture. If they do that, they can start to bring order to the world.

Healing the world must start with healing the self. This book holds the ancient mysteries through which personal transformation is made possible, if the applicant is sincere and willing to change. The dilettante will benefit little, except through some intellectual titillation. This book was written not for dinner table discussion, but at great price, and with great courage, by a traveler within such mysteries, in hope of helping humanity out of chaos. Since it merely recites the principles of the mysteries, it shall be considered anonymously and gnostically written, for man cannot hope or presume to create the Laws and Virtues. This is not a "channeled" book, but a book reflecting the experience of the traveler through many realms as real as the one before your face.

If you also dare to be a traveler into unseen realms, this book will guide you safely.

1995 JULY, LECTURE AUDIO TAPES TRANSCRIBED: ANONYMOUS

The following class lectures are transcribed either verbatim from audio tapes or from class notes unrevised by Anonymous. These lectures and written lessons were given by Anonymous to audiences familiar with the general background of Spiritual Science. The emphasis was in the dissemination of knowledge that was normally hidden from the general public, but has had a haunting recurrence throughout the millennia.

NOTE:

- 1) All LESSONS, LECTURES and CHARTS were given in class, created by Anonymous. Class Notes were taken by an auditor and not corrected by Anonymous and for these, it is suggested the reader also refer to the original, unabridged audio tapes.
- 2) Please keep in mind that this library is missing many of the original audio tapes (of which there were at least 50+ per month during a three year period) as well as some of the dowsing charts, Class Notes and Lessons. These books are compiled from the resources currently available to this library.
- 3) The best introduction to the dowsing system may be found in the Advanced Esoteric Spiritual Dowsing Books, I, II, III.

“Lessons” and “Letters” were composed by Anonymous

“Class Notes” were typed during the lectures and were unrevised by Anonymous.

NOTE: Book chapters for Advanced Esoteric Dowsing Charts IV were written during this time from October 1994 through 1995. “AED IV” was completed with charts in 1995, but it was not published and is not currently in the possession of this library. The book’s contents and charts, however, are (mostly) intact and are presented here as they were originally written.

LESSON JULY 7, 1995: Intention, Dreams, and Changing the Past

INTENTION, DREAMS, AND CHANGING THE PAST

Whether the Earth is a heaven or a hell is dependent upon the intentions of the inhabitants. The intentions of people are impressed upon the ethers of Universal Mind (Akasha, Book of Life) both on a mega scale and on the ether of the individual human body. In learning to read the ether, one reads Akasha.

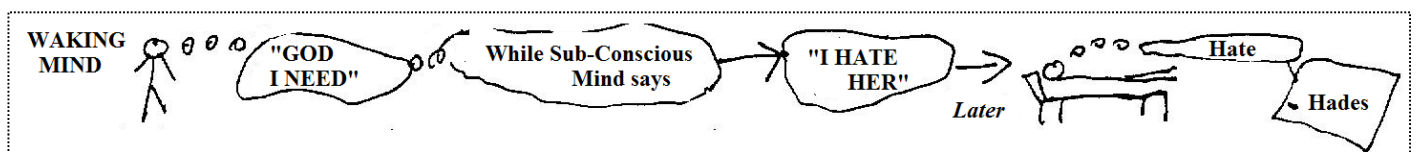

The dream state reflects most readily the individual's intention, as reflected in his ether "song" taking on the sounds of hells or heavens. Universal mind has within the knowledge of all hells, all heavens, all past deeds, thoughts and intentions of all people, and yet the personal ether Universal mind has the record of the individual and his genetic pool only.

A person dreams all the time, while his conscious mind operates on a different track. If a person is able to purify his conscious and his dreaming sub-conscious mind, then he can be a person of power.

The conscious mind and dreaming mind have different "Names" or songs that reflect the relative spiritual health and identity of the person. Each person has a key "note" that may be the same or different on the two minds.

Think of the notes as all the letters of the alphabet placed on different parts of your body, with a different set of letters slightly further out from the other set. The one outside could be considered your dreaming "song" name. One note on each level is larger, as it is the Pivotal Point of Reference for the placement of the other notes. The Pivotal Letter (note) is associated with a body part that may be the same or different on the two mind levels.

What a man physically does, emotionally dwells -on, or chooses to think with his conscious mind tends to cause his pivotal point on his waking mind to migrate to a location that is often different than his birth pivotal note location. The birth name pivotal note Location is dependent upon his ancestral karma and parental acts and thoughts during conception.

His dreaming mind pivotal note and full song reflect the consensus of intention as reflected in Mega-Akasha unless his parents are holy and/or (by the age of accountability) he chooses to be holy. To be holy is a decision of intention to act, think, and feel properly within the Plan of God instead of being selfish so as to do whatever impulses suggest without concern for others.

Some people have distorted dreaming minds due to a reverberation from bad choices in their conscious minds and bodies. Willful decisions to act against what one knows is pure, create songs that align the body with Hades or Hells. For instance, certain fantasies that reinforce a satanic song in the body create a bodily doorway to Hades. People who consciously fantasize about homosexuality, murder, or voyeurism have parts of their bodies which scream with the demons from the doors to hells and Hades. To a seer, what a man thinks is obvious by the black body emanations of a particular type of hell.

Eventually, what a man chooses to think with his conscious mind soaks into his dreaming mind, so that he has a constant sub-track of whatever his loudest song may be in his conscious mind. A body of a man who thinks wrongly develops hell doors that stick open, even when he quits thinking about the topic that brought him to disharmony. Demons from those hells float to everyone in the house, and out over the Earth. The more hell doors that are open, the more Earth becomes a hell.

The Universal Ether Mind and the personal one around each body reflect history of human choices to enter hells, but they are not the hells themselves. They are the records of hells.

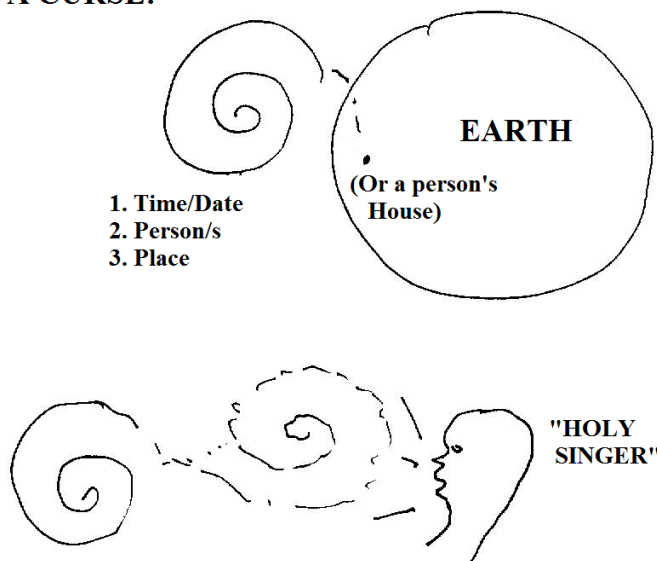

For a person to change his life after a long history of evil thoughts and acts may not be easy unless the Records are erased around his ether body and in the Mega-Earth Universal Mind. Otherwise, when he falls to sleep especially, his dreams will cause his body to reverberate with the songs of his past association with evil people and hellish acts and thoughts. His own Akasha will overpower him, so that he awakens with a body full of hell doors.

Erasing Akasha is an act of power that can only be done by a person who does not waste power through hate, circular thoughts or emotions, or by resisting the Plan of God.

Erasing akasha takes the power of Intend substance, Will substance, and Desire substances that are aligned with the forces of Grace (holy beings). To pray for healing of this type implies that one is willing to intend rightly in the future. All karma reflects malefic intention, although the Ether Personal Akasha can reflect the sins of the parents, as well.

Removing karma requires a person to be able to locate the specific akasha file in both mega-akasha and where it is written on the body ethers. The mega-akasha file should be erased first. Malefic files relate to times of choice to do evil and the earth location in which the evil choice was made. For instance, if someone made a choice to speak wrongly in a house in Oklahoma, at a certain day in the year of 1995, then one must focus on that time, date, and location. These are perceived as pulls toward satanic songs in the body ethers.

AKASHA FILE OF A CURSE:

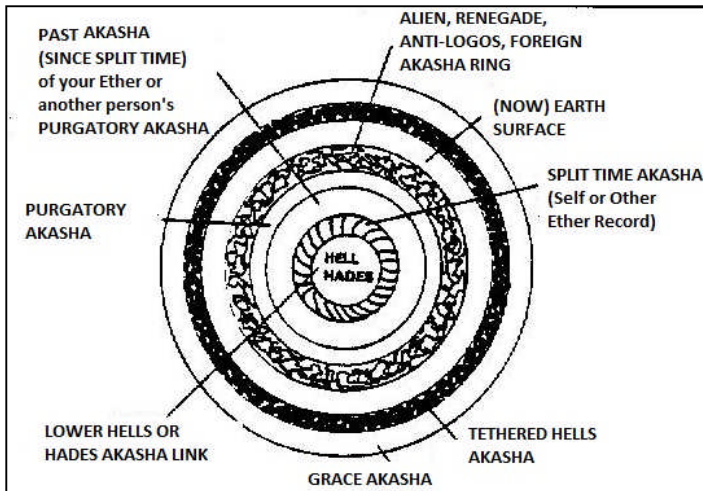

While mentally traveling to that place and time, decide to will, intend, and desire to unwind the event. The holy intention, will, and desire of the healer must be stronger than the evil intention of the person during karma acquisition. It is like singing a song of holiness that is louder than the song of evil, when one unwinds karma. Of particular importance is the unwinding of events that are causes propelling one to destruction. In some cases, groups make up large causes with malefic intent that are difficult curses to unwind. For instance, a group meditation about someone dying is a strong curse that takes a great deal of holiness to unwind.

After it is unwound in Mega-Akasha, find the body location on the ethers of the Personal Akasha that relates to the malefic intention. It is common for people who are hated by others to have huge ether holes of murder energies that must be cleared, even though the karma is another person's curse.

Although it seems unfair, a person can be wounded by the causes of others, and is not naturally immune to attack. Most evil people haven't much power, unless they have learned to open Hades doors by demon orgasms produced by evil fantasies mixed with desire to defile innocents. Association with such people is dangerous, for they will use their conscious minds and dreaming minds to destroy all that is holy, while trying to devour the power of holiness. Such people can be neutralized from being able to open Hades doors, but it takes great power to enlist the aid of Holy Beings above the Law of Free Will.

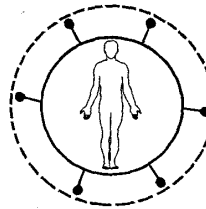

After finding the body location, beam holiness as a song to that location to destroy the evil song/memory of the time of ill intent.

--More on this later.

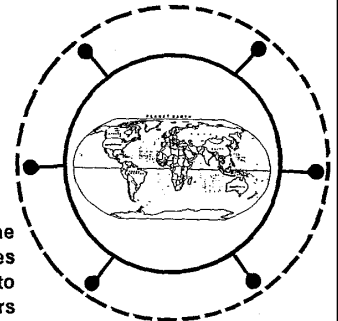

NORMAL AND ABNORMAL AKASHA RINGS

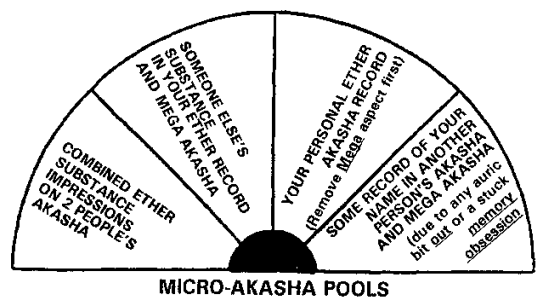

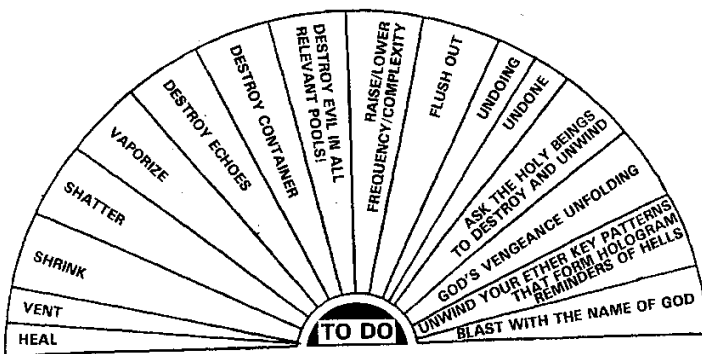

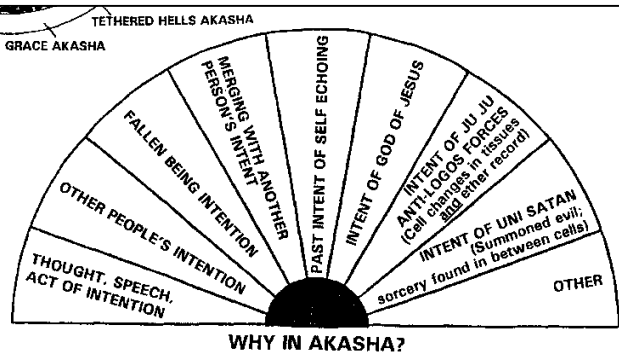

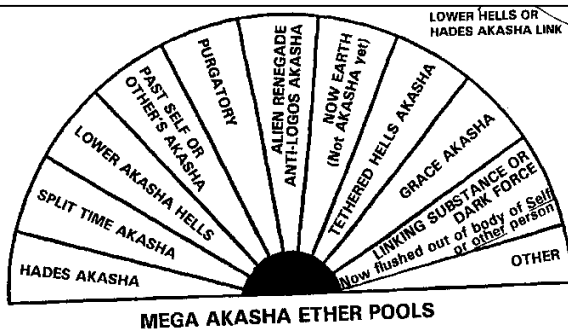

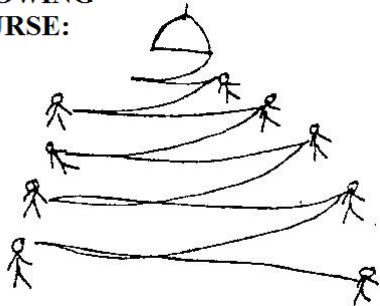

MEGA-AKASHA RING above Earth surface contains six mega anti-Christ doors

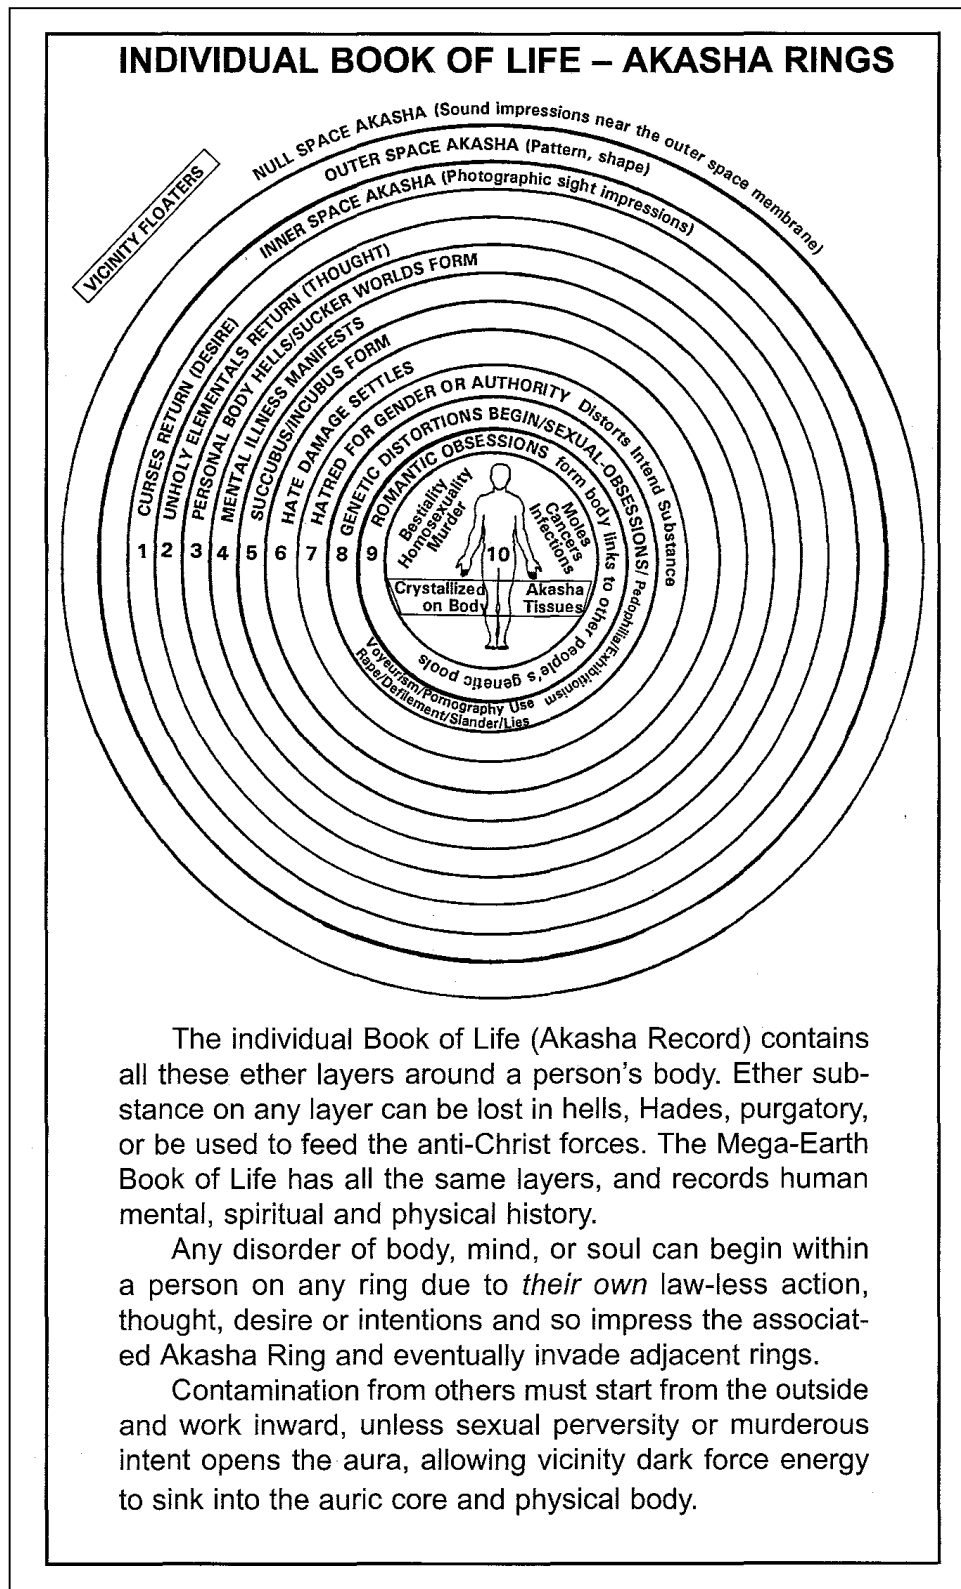

People who resonate with the earthly common grid energies (consensus) automatically begin to form microcosm anti-Christ doors in their own auras and bodies.

GROWING CURSE:

AUDIO TAPE #1 Transcribed: JULY 7, 1995 Side A

Prayer: (Not recorded)

Possibly one of the most difficult things in the world for humans to realize and remember is that virtually every physical manifestation that we can see with our eyes or touch with our hands is rooted in unseen nonvisible realities; and it is merely the condensation of causes that have been put forth to create an outcome, or an object or a person. That everything that is done with the physical body, with the mind and with the emotions produces new causes which then produce more physical effects. It is not just a spiritual effect, it is a physical effect that is produced. Just as you cannot with the naked eye see a virus, you can know the effects of the virus when it enters your cells and makes you sick. You often have to judge spiritual causes and substances by the effects rather than by the eyes and the hands. Because by judging the effects you might be able to understand the substances which created the effects well enough to learn how to control those substances.

Some turn of the century doctors, before the germ theory was accepted; many started washing their hands before surgeries just because they saw that patients did better. They didn't understand at one point that germs produced illnesses, but they just saw that washing their hands prolonged the lives of patients and because they studied cause and effect they were able to act intelligently for all concerned.

Likewise in our lives if you study cause and effect even on a visible realm, and you try to understand the mysteries of cause and effect and the octaves of it, then you can become a person of power because you can put forth other causes to counteract effects that maybe are harmful; that maybe you didn't produce. Because it is true that you can be damaged by the causes put forth by others, and you can be damaged by substances and beings which are not in the visible realm. But if you are a person of power you can learn how to control those beings, substances and forces which are producing effects in your life and help others and help the world.

We can look at societal conditions and we know, because we understand cause and effect, that many people are having children today that just don't seem right; they seem addicted to loud sounds. There are a lot of autistic or partially autistic looking children. The children that are born today seem to have a higher incidence of what could have at one time been thought to be fetal alcohol syndrome or something, but it is not just that. It is not just drugs or alcohol or anything, it is a complex of things making the children look different. You see little children covered with a lot of moles and other things, there is a subtle erosion of the genetic fabric that you can see.

I remember in obstetrics nursing when we examined a newborn baby; they always say if you see one deformity look for two more because they generally come in threes. And while studying spiritual causes for defects it makes me think it has to do with will, desire and intention, is why they come in threes. Often if someone is missing one of the blood vessels in their navel cord they often have a kidney defect and both kidneys might be deformed or something. What is interesting in Michio Kushi's early writings which I think he was very much on the ball and he described the face; identifying disorders by the face, and predisposition for disorders by patterns. Just as he did that in the physical realm--and he also associated it with the spiritual things--we can look at the effects in our lives and try to trace, without a smug attitude but a very open attitude, the causes that have been put forth to produce the effects. And that prayer that we say (See Appendix) is very key because in coming out a mystery with a sense of total openness and not just essential dogma, we then are more readily able to discern the dynamics of the causes that have brought us to an illness, a social problem, or whatever.

For instance when A asked Gar about a problem his daughter was having and she smugly replied "Cause and effect; karma" how interesting that she could not see the effects of her own karma upon her life. But she so readily could see it in others. And yet there are also situations where group karma can affect an individual's body, or it could be societal. Say if everybody in her school had an overwhelming song of disorder of a certain type, then it could impact her in a way that was different in the way it impacted them, because the manifestations are not necessarily the same for the same causes that are put together.

People react differently to certain spiritual stressors because they fundamentally have unique song configurations that make some people what we used to call "high-strung" (which is an interesting thing), and other people are somewhat blunted and don't seem to have much reaction to spiritual stressors. A person who is high strung is like someone whose body song--included in that is their mind and also their dreaming, subconscious mind--has more octaves than a person who is blunted in response.

Now a person who is neurotic or crazy might respond too readily and not have a wide octave range of song. But maybe they have a very narrow range in fact, and it is defective, so that they get a partial resonance with a certain type of disorder that creates a deadly resonance of a type that causes them to go into disarray. So a person may be sensitive to a type of disorder and actually be defective and not an evolved person.

So sensitivity, evolution and refinement are different things. But they can occur in the same person. For instance if you have a wide range of octaves of sensitivity of the so called high strung person, then it is quite possible that you have more wounds in your personal AKASHA because you have more spiritual flesh upon which to have wounds.

If your development is like an earthworm, you could crawl past a lot of disorder through your life, but if you are like a huge butterfly, then a wind might blow you over. That is not a perfect metaphor. What I am saying is that we must always remember that it is not our desire just to be sensitive and react like amoebas; it is our desire to be sensitive and act like masters in reaction to what we perceive.

In order to do that we need to understand a lot about the Law of Vibration and the Law of Dissonance and in understanding that we must then try to apply it to our waking and our dreaming selves in order to gain control over those two components which regulate one's spiritual doors.

Now, one's dreaming self is strongly impacted by what one chooses to think, feel, act and say in waking hours. Because you impress upon your dreaming self with your conscious mind as though your conscious mind was a foot and your dreaming mind was sand. So what you do, say and feel does in fact impress upon the Akashic ethers and leaves its mark because your dreaming mind is the (location) where your personal history is stored.

This poses a problem because also things that occur in your life as a child with your parents also impress upon the "sands" of your sleep. If you were a child who had been molested, then the intention of your parents would have wounded your dreaming self, or the intentions of the molester would have wounded you, and cursed you in a way. Because then, later in life, you would find your tendency would be an attraction to the very defilement that you had received. The reason is that when you go to sleep your mind would tend to wander, your dreaming mind which would tend to wander to that footprint in the sand relating to molestation, for instance.

So children who have been around parents that were into pornography in particular; the sexual crimes are very bad for children because they are so readily reinforced by our society and they open doors to hells and Hades by the very fact that they create sparks of energy. So say if you are a child that had been molested, then in adulthood if you reinforce your weakness; say you had a tendency to look at a child and find yourself being attracted to a child and you would feel shame but maybe eventually someone would say, "It is no big deal, pornography doesn't hurt anybody" by reinforcing that footprint in the sand, you then become accountable for your actions, even though you were innocent of the initial impression.

It could be something different, say you had a parent who had a tendency to lie about little things, a chronic liar. That actually creates a subtle Hades door imprint on a child, and it is almost like the foot imprint becomes a key shape to Hades doors. Then the subtle tendency to lie about little things becomes accepted in a child and as they get older they may turn into a defiler. So they get mad at a schoolmate and they tell a lie about the schoolmate and then as they go into adulthood they may think someone has wronged them in one sense, so they find themselves gossiping, and loving long phone chats and then eventually becoming a major defiler.

This is common in children of parents of adulterers. Say if a father comes home from a trip overseas and he slept with 20 women while he was over there, and he tells his wife a bunch of lies, the lying puts an impression on the people around. Everyone always knows on some level, on the ether level, what is a lie and what is true! So what happens, this puts an impression of deceit upon the children who may later become liars and then become dangerous. Because then they get excited with lies because it opens a type of a Hades door that they had a tendency to have open anyway, because of the parental karma.

If a person then gets under stress they may say something that is totally one of the worst things in the world. For instance make little snide comments indicating that their teacher was a lesbian or something like that; little clever woven things in conversations that had no point in taking place to start with. In doing that, they got a kind of defilement rush, because they had opened doors that their parents had cracked open a little bit, they opened it further. Then they get into circular thoughts that tend to keep the door open. I want you to think about the difference between holy thought and unholy thought.

Holy thought is creative and expansive in that it starts at a point of reference. Say you want to solve a problem at work. Holy thought starts looking at solutions that starts with horses and then it goes to zebras, in that you start from known facts and then you expand out until you finally hit on a solution. So it is expansive but it doesn't lose its anchor. The difference between a fantasizer and a thinker is that a thinker is always anchored into their purpose.

An example of a fantasizer is (a student). He would get onto a tangent and then he would go to other tangent and another tangent, another tangent and then he would start babbling, cackling and slobbering for the simple reason that he got hysterical. The reason his thinking would make him hysterical is because it was linked to “create your own reality” hell doors. Instead of being anchored in his sense of Godly purpose to find an answer, he was anchored actually in a hell. His mind was anchored in a hell that if he twisted it to a certain level, euphoria would be produced by a friction against the proper purpose.

See there is an aspect of friction of evil against good, of dark against light that is used by fallen beings to create a type of energy spark. Say if a group is working on a problem to solve it--and this is true in business meetings as well, if you don't follow the same principles you would be totally lost. Say you want to know how to solve a business problem. You start from the point of identifying the problem, identifying your outcome that is desired and then you start moving in outward circles toward finding the proper solution. But you are always anchored into your purpose.

You always have one or two people in a meeting who will grab a tangent and run with it. It won't be creative thinking; it will in fact lead away from the purpose, and it can destroy the whole purpose of the meeting. They just use it to show how smart they are. In almost every office you have some show-off that has a personal agenda. (This student's agenda) was to get euphoric. It was not to find out “What is the cause behind my suffering” or whatever, but “Let's get high.” In many offices it is to show how smart they are and sometimes it is to get euphoric as well. They think they are so clever and so into their cleverness they fly off the handle, literally. They lose their Pivotal Point of reference for that reason and they just fly off, they get mad and emotional.

Satanic Thought is not the same thing as this hysteric thought. It is often produced from the satanic desire to create your own reality, but a satanic thought more easily is defined as something that moves in; it is contracting, it is a spiral that contracts and does not expand. It starts at an assumption point and not a truth point. So you could say that if a reality is ...here (on a chart)...if you want to start a new business and you say “We need to know how to start a business about raising horses. That is going to be the purpose for the meeting today”. If someone started with another agenda, and the agenda was “I'm going to destroy this guy's desire to start a business to raise horses, because this guy is evil”... it is based on an assumption that has a different agenda than the group.

In fact I saw; there was somebody around “A”, I saw someone with a different agenda one day forming in the business world in some way. He had a desire to drag you down in some way. And so I worked on it. I also had a similar thing with “B” one day. Every now and then I will see a shadow of a curse on you guys, then I will start unwinding it, which is one thing that I want to teach you to do.

Question/Comments: -(Inaudible)-? Answer: I see him as really malicious and I have been watching that guy around you. I don't trust him, he could try to humiliate you in some way and we might take him on as a project to deflate his evil intention and then you could report back what happened. Because it has been very negative for quite some time, but it seemed a week ago it seemed to build suddenly, as if he were getting near the point of inertia.

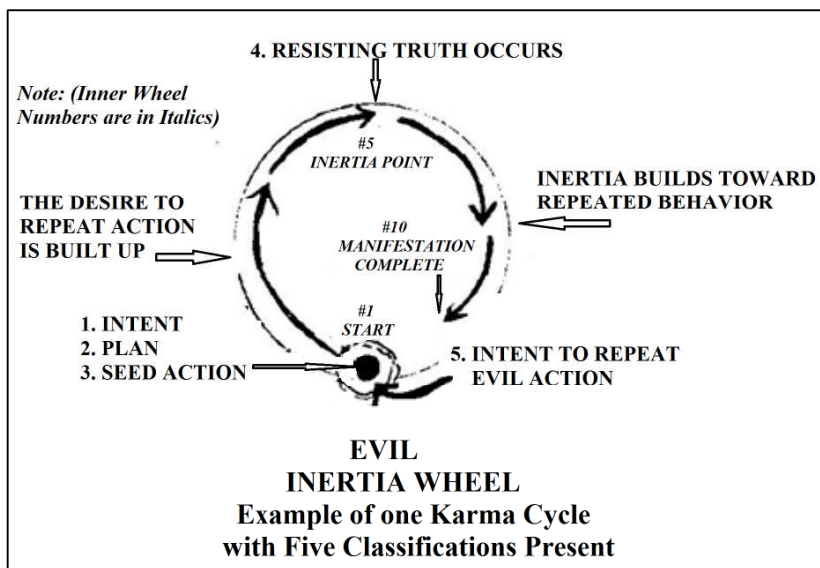

Inertia Chart

See this is the danger. If a person who is satanic builds enough steam and gets to the point of inertia, his goal is downhill after that.

Often when I would look at the dowsing chart I would see the number 5 and I realized that #10 was getting what they want. By the time they reach number 5, they have reached the point of inertia, and it is much harder to stop an outcome after the causes that have been put forth have reached the Point Of Inertia.

Inner Numbers 1-10: Manifestation Level Outer Numbers 1-5: Causes

So we need a diagram on the chart of a Seed Act (#3: Cause) which is a circle and then you have the Desire and the Will and Intention, builds it to the Point Of Inertia: (#5 Inertia Point: Manifestation).

At the point of inertia where we have the # 5 INERTIA, it is just downhill. Once it hits '5', then to shove it backward takes more energy.

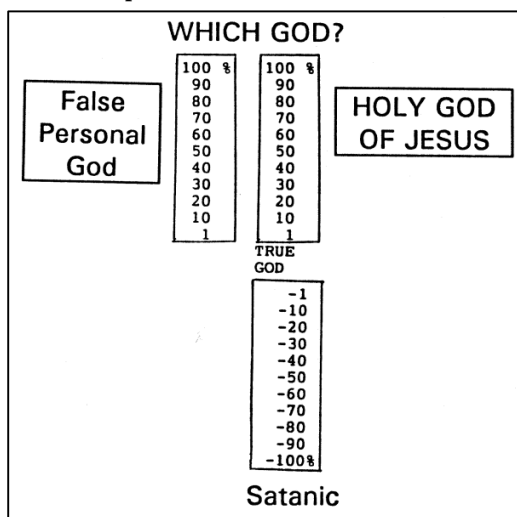

If an event is about to the number '9', then the seed act is then manifesting a second circle around it which is the result, the intended result. It takes so much energy to push it from 9 back. But it is something that you must learn how to do. The first thing to do is to recognize events as they are forming so that you can stop them before they reach the point of inertia. Because the conservation of energy is the mark of a master and if you can nip it in the bud in business, in relationships, in everything, then you are going to be a lot stronger.

Question: How do you drive it back?

Answer: To drive it back means first of all you have to work at aligning your intention completely with divine will. Because anybody who is lower willful can't do this. The only way you can do this is through either synergy; for example evil people could band together, and I will explain how they do that. But for an individual to have personal power (which is preferable to being reliant upon group defective power), you must align your Will completely to God's and to truth, Intend to live according to God's plan in all ways, and Desire rightly. It always goes back to desire, will and intend; Intention.

Intend is the substance of Intention. And you must remember that all three have substances in your body that if they are aligned with holy beings then you get Grace Substance along with it for added power.

Holy Beings will only help you reverse an evil effect that is about to happen if you are in their ballpark. And if you personally are satanic, the holy beings will not help you. Fallen beings will sometimes help people if they want to get rid of someone. So in effect what you are learning is how to reverse a curse. It is not just a curse we are talking about here. We are talking about physical illnesses follow this pattern, we are talking about relationships; we are talking about the core of all power.

True/False God Scale

You have your Will, Intention and Desire aligned hopefully on the Law Clock in the right place and I like the True God Scale. On the chart you should have a ← True/False God Scale, because you don't want to be aligned on your Intention, Desire and Will by a False God Standard.

You want to be 100% up on the True God Scale and not the Personal God Scale. If you are showing a minus reading that means your Desire, Will or Intention is satanic, inverted. In other words you are going toward contraction and that is a satanic movement of desire or will or intention.

Check: Your three components Desire, Will and Intention

On the True/False God Scale.

Make sure it is not a personal god.

A lot of people in the past--and always this is the way it is on earth unless other people learn otherwise, which God willing, we will be able to teach, have prayed for something that was their own agenda. For instance they have an assumption; and this is like the business meeting, someone can have an assumption that you are being led astray, for instance. Someone could call one of your kids and say: "Your dad or mom has been led astray by this awful guru who is a thief and a child molester and she has even been convicted and she is a nut". So then the child may go to church and pray that their father or mother be delivered from the relationship, or from the so-called cult. Now that (prayer) is based upon an assumption in their minds, and they are not saying "God's will be done", and they are not questioning the assumption. What they are doing is they are asking for an outcome based upon a personal reality. That is an evil prayer and it evokes fallen beings. The fallen beings then bring forth the curse power.

My standard example was La praying "Dear lord, when G dies make me a worthy vessel to carry on her work." That prayer had inherent in it that she would substitute me and that I would die. So it was a murder curse. People that want to bargain with God often curse others where they say "Dear lord, deliver me from this burden that I am dealing with and I will serve you forever." See that is a very, very dangerous thing to bargain with God.

The best position to pray from is a state of "Dear Lord, I don't understand what is going on here, and I ask that all evil within me be removed, and I ask that evil, if there is evil in this situation, if anything in this situation goes against Divine Plan, that I be shown how to remedy it, or I be delivered according to the plan of God"

Even in things that don't sound like they have to do with holy work, for example in business, in A's case where a man, I can see, has been cursing him. And the man doesn't think he is formally cursing, he wouldn't think of himself as satanic, but there are components to satanic behaviors and thoughts and curses that create them. You can say they are not curses, but they are curses whether you want to think they are curses or not. Many people who have cursed this group think they are just as holy as they can be to do so. When Jg's little meditation group got together and prayed for my death and visualized it, they thought they were doing something to save the children of tomorrow.

So the curse or the components of will, intention and desire have to be beamed from a container. I didn't mention before the aspect of container, but think about it, in order for a bullet to be shot, there must be a barrel of a gun. Your Magnetic Force Field is your container, and if you waste it by trying to loop around by merging, stuff like that, or by hate which makes you lose it, you will eventually get where you have eroded a great deal of your Magnetic Force Field which allows dark forces to enter into your auric field.

When that occurs you often experience circular thoughts because you have no resistance, they just come right in. circular thoughts move inward and are satanic. They are not just circles, they actually contract. That is why I say "Don't circular-think." If you are thinking the same thing over and over again, you are drawing in toward a satanic point of beaming a curse. Say you reach to a certain point and it becomes like a barrel constriction; where eventually it is almost like your whole aura squeezes in like that too, where you squirt.

You have essentially two containers that all I want you to think about in the context of this lesson.

I want you to think about yourself as having a DREAMING CONTAINER and a WAKING CONTAINER; a concept of dreaming and awake mind.

The dreaming container is what you would think of as being held in by the magnetic force field. The waking container is dependent upon the integrity of the dreaming container in that there is a gravity; a north and south gravity pressure. So if the magnetic force field ruptures then your personal AKASHA gets impressed with a whole lot of.....

AUDIO TAPE #1 Transcribed: JULY 7, 1995 Side B

Some of the most destructive things of course, is to:

Eject auric matter through emotional outbursts through desiring to merge when you loop over people;
Trying to grab other people's will for stupid reasons;
Demon orgasms of any kind;
The mental fantasy thing causes you to loop out into nether-nether regions.

So if you lose your magnetic forcefield, your ether becomes impressed with all manner of disorder from what anybody thinks or anything, it just starts impressing, so your personal AKASHA then gets ever more loaded down with other people's debris and you lose power!

Your ability to change your life is dependent upon the integrity of your Dreaming and Wake minds;
Their containers and the substances within them.

You squirt energy out in:

Fantasies	Demon Orgasms	Rage
Lower Willfulness	Misdirected Desire
An Intention to "Get back at somebody, by god" or An intention that goes against anything holy.

Intention is the primary thing you should focus on because that is where the false prayers come in and the wrong prayers to fallen beings produce far greater damage to self and others than anything else because they add power that is like an Anti-Grace Power. Whereas true holy prayers for divine purpose add a Grace Power to them.

But even a person that wasn't quite holy enough to tap Grace could be a person of power if they followed the rules for a dreaming and waking mind. So it is teachable on a rudimentary level and then can be increased and expanded upon as one reaches higher levels of achieving assistance from holy beings.

If you have conserved your energies in such a way by not being emotionally circular; as I was pointing out to Cel yesterday when she said "Why am I feeling so bad?" and I said "Well just quit worrying about it, you are being emotionally circular" and she said "That's a new one, I had heard about mentally circular, but not emotionally circular".

In many ways the emotional circular is because you have an ether impression of a type of a mental instability that will be healed. It is like a foot-imprint of emotionalism that then you kind of stepped in deeper and deeper so that it gets to be almost like an emotional demon orgasm. For example, if you get upset and allow yourself to get upset, then you get circular about being upset and you try not to think of it but you still find yourself thinking of it. So often they come together the mental and emotional, but sometimes people just can't break out of an emotion because they have stepped in that rut and have opened a hell door of some type.

Sometimes being around another person who has a strong counter song will help to snap them out of the hell door. But you see, not everybody wants to be out of the hell door. For instance what if you were raised by a parent that hated women or something, say your father hated women and he had a certain defilement fantasy and read a lot of porn (as often the porn and hate women thing go together), and if you found yourself around someone who had a strong affirmative auric emanation that respected women and holiness about women, and had say, a reverential aspect toward Mother Mary and things like that, you might actually get irritated around that person if you had a pattern of having a stuck-open Hades door since the age of accountability, you might have reinforced your father's weakness by fantasies, or whatever. In doing that you could be around a person whose song was so loud, of reverence toward all that is holy and yin, that you get irritated by them, and you think "Oh, there is just something about that person that drives me crazy, or makes me depressed."

Because if your Pivotal Point of what was happy or joyful, decent or holy, was based upon a false god concept and you were around the truth, then your sense of who you are would feel wobbly. You would feel that you were being pulled to the Holy Pivotal Point and you would hate it because you would feel like you were being controlled---because power has an aspect of emanation that tends to produce a resonance in those around.

If your actual Pivotal Point of what-reality-is was correct, but you just had a stuck open Hades door in which you anguished about; in other words some people have a tendency to weakness but they feel a sense of anguish about that weakness--in other words they feel guilt. That is what guilt is, your heart is in the right place in that your intention is in the right place. It is just that the spirit is willing, but the flesh is weak. So you may find yourself chatting and being hate-filled and enjoying it, and then you feel guilty and you pull yourself back together. That would mean that you were anchored properly. It is just that you had a propensity that needed to be healed.

What is very bad is if a person has allowed their Accountability Substance and Point of Reference of what is right or wrong to go toward a false god concept. It is almost as if there is a person standing next to them and that person has a heart of intent that is a different substance, a black substance, it is like a black version of yourself, an evil self that is always to the side or hiding behind you. When that happens then the accountability has gone toward the satanic. As a result you feel hate around a stronger song because you don't want to change, you want to keep your satanic private god. So you start intending to find ways out, and "How can I get around this." But it always comes to the formation of the Evil Double Self only occurs by decision.

(The Evil Double Self) occurs because a person does what they know is wrong, one time too many. You know there is a kind of a point of no return. I say that on one hand, and on the other hand I say there is no point of no return, as by Grace all things are possible. But you may not be able to reach Grace without help if you have gone downhill. I don't say this to you guys personally; I say this as a concept in working with people.

If somebody intends (as one who curses you), if he intends to "Get rid of you no matter what, in whatever way that he can", then you can talk to him all day long about "This isn't right, what you are doing is wrong", and the person will just think you are evil and fucked up because you don't fit his idea of god. He will think you are evil because you threaten him, in that your song will remind him that he is butting up against a greater God than his little personal god. So your song will be so loud that every time he is around you he will get angry because it will threaten his personal agenda and his personal god and his own little Private Idaho Potato world.

People with malefic intention, Black Hearts--that is what I call them, if they don't choose to love God, there is nothing you can do for them, except remove their power to destroy you. We have been blessed in many ways by having so many opponents that the science of spiritual protection is being developed out of that. But, if your song was really, really loud it might just pull people whose hearts are turning a little black or starting to sway toward being pulled out into their evil double, it just might help pull them back in shape. It might help. A person who wants to know God and truth, feels good around a holy person, and a person that wants a false god feels irritated by everything they do, and gets uncomfortable.

Comment: A person who hates God, I will talk to them and..... to get them in touch with their faith. When someone says they don't believe in God....and yet they don't know what to do, they know that something is wrong and I tell them, "That is your problem, right there." Some people can see it and others absolutely won't move. They almost never come back to me again because they get irritated and they have been very depressed; for years, their whole life.

Answer: They probably want you to tell them a simple physical solution so they don't have to change anything.

Comment: They want to be put on a hormone pill, a thyroid pill to give them a lot of energy and cure them. Sometimes that will help someone who does believe in God because....those are the ones who do get better. I have seen many people that without the spiritual component there is no hope of them getting better. The ones that don't have it, I see going slowly downhill.

Answer: This reaction will get stronger and for you too, (another student). You will be teaching a seminar and you will find a woman trembling and twitching before long... you watch for it. The opponent that has arisen in your case and has grown, has grown proportionately to how much he fears your power. Holiness evokes reactions out of both fear of exorcism but also because the people with stuck open Hades and hell doors want to provoke a friction to get euphoric. They actually enjoy being vicious. Haven't you ever been around people; like the nurse's aide when I was so sick, hit straight through a nerve and she knew it. She was watching my face while she was doing the injection and smiling when I winced. The sadistic hospital personnel are some of the worst; they want people's butts to show in front of others. The nurses that don't bother to cover people so they get humiliated, they have a defilement thing.

It is more obvious in a setting such as that because people are more vulnerable when they are quite ill. But to expose someone; I've seen in the hospital nurses would strip someone who had been their whole life a very religious, modest person but who was elderly. They would strip all their clothes off and four nurse's aides would come in and just pour water over the person's body, and soap, and leave the door wide open so that any passers-by can see the naked old lady, and it is so defiling. It is inconceivable to have such a lack of respect or when they are dying in ICU, I have seen them laughing about a person shitting on themselves while they are getting CPR. And the people, I could see their eyes and they would be conscious. To this one person I said "I'm sorry" and then when they said "Oh, we'll have to let him go" and the guy was still conscious! I had never seen it happen before, he was still conscious and he was a DNR, "Do Not Resuscitate" he had massive cancer or something so he decided while he was still conscious to give up on it. But he looked at me, and they were chatting and laughing in ICU and I said "Oh I'm sorry."

It is the fundamental lack of concern about the dynamics of a group is one sign of a satanic person. In that they move inward toward themselves instead of their virtues expanding outward to include ever more love of more and more people.

A person should start with love of mother, father, self, siblings, and then it should be love of one's extended family, love of friends, and love of all of humanity. This doesn't mean that you are just wishy-washy weepy-loving, it means love for the holiness potential of humanity and the desire to be strong enough to help humanity.

This is where the joy of God comes in. Because a virtue of love that is expanding outward has within it inherently great joy that soothes the suffering of the saint and without that joy you can't go on a spiritual path. You must have joy in doing what is right, but you only develop joy in living Godly by first deciding that you are not going to have a personal god and most of all, it won't be your own self, but you are going to struggle to understand the mysteries of God and you are going to respect what is right and wrong in your life and you are going to decide to be a person of power so that you can help humanity. Because without personal power you can't help humanity, so you are not going to waste your power in any way on petty trials but you are going to use experiences that are in front of you, like your situation, to learn how to exercise spiritual power.

You can't say that God puts stumbling blocks in front of you, but I would say that it is the design of power that as you grow in personal power you be given challenges so as to expand your knowledge. To stress you a little bit so that you gain more ability to use what you already know and to learn other virtues associated with the outward spiral.

Remember when I talked about the first ten virtues and then 11-14 on? The virtues of the saint are the ones that expand out away from self-concern and are more concerned with God's plan on a larger scale. But you have to learn how to use those virtue powers by experiences that directly impact you first, because that is the training ground. That is how you learn like a Pavlov dog, when something hurts, when the bell rings then you learn to identify disorders that you can help others with.

1. You must have Intact Containers.
2. Ask "What % of my Waking Container is intact?"
3. Ask "Number of Holes in the Container?"
4. Ask: "How much ideal Substance do I have?"
(Think both in how intact and number of holes in the Container as well as % of substance)

There is one other thing that I forgot to mention and that is;

5. Also watch for Shape because your containers take on the shape of your Name.

Your NAME is a geometric shape that is the symbol of you. And what I would like to do is draw each of your containers for you and everybody's containers would be symbolic of their Name on the dreaming self and the waking self, in other words your sub-conscious mind and your conscious mind. The more satanic it looks shows you how satanic your subconscious mind is.

Many people have such satanic subconscious minds, they don't even realize when it creeps over into their normal mind and they have a split schizophrenic self. Like La, when she would say things that were so hilarious like "Of course she's a whore, she's a nurse, isn't she!" and she wouldn't even realize that she was sitting next to a nurse. And the "Yeah I'm going to have to get Lucy (the dog) some big pink flowered stretch Wal-Mart pants like all the fat women wear" and I said "Oh, you mean like these?" (and I pointed to myself). And you could say -"Oh she had to have known she was rude"- but it is a perfect example of a person who has severed their intention from their actions because the dreaming mind reflects your true intentions; it reflects "Do you really want to know God?"

It was always so hilarious when I would see people in the monastery, people sit and pray like Jm with beatific meditative stances all the time, and yet his intention was just to gain some sort of power trip and then start his own little metaphysical school which had nothing to do with God. (He wanted) to cut out everything in the teaching about sexual morality and to just use the charts for his little metaphysical school where he could charge tons of money. He invited Mag and Du to join him before he left. He still lived there and he was already recruiting members for his little metaphysical school. Du and Mag (note: and Cel) were both approached while I was out of town, while I was in Chicago, to join the metaphysical school and leave the monastery.

And I said "Without the power of God, why would anyone want to be in anything metaphysical if there was no God in it?" It is inconceivable to me, it was satanic. But he couldn't even roust a demon very well. The reason was he didn't keep any power, he didn't know how to control power. Even satanic people have to have some knowledge of power in order to do a proper curse which is what they all want to do. What do you think love potions are but curses that are put in people's drinks? Can you imagine how satanic it would be for someone to put vaginal secretions in a person's drink? And yet that was done in the monastery.

A male student says: "Well, I didn't do it!" (Laughter)

G: That is an old sorcery technique; an old love potion. The idea is to cause the other person to be; by using a homeopathic of your sexual secretions and with stirring it a lot like a witches brew to create a love potion to cause another person to be sexually agitated in your presence.

An example (a relative) joined some metaphysical school in Oklahoma City and they taught her different ways to do love potions and this was not by using their own secretions but she made some sort of love potion and as a joke put it into her grandmother's drink. The grandmother became the nastiest old woman after that you could imagine. Before then she had been bad enough but she wasn't pornographic or anything. She was a church going Baptist woman. And she always said she didn't want a man, she could hardly stand being around men, she liked being by herself. But after that, she became so vulgar that I couldn't stand to be in her presence. She started reading trash novels and she had been reading science fiction and stuff like that or mysteries. Then it went to romance novels, pornographic romance novels. Then she got to talking about sex all the time every time I was around her until I couldn't stand to be around her. Now I could say the grandmother had a propensity, but the fact that the (granddaughter) did magic on her, impressed that weakness on her until it snapped it into manifestation.

Some people could be pushed and they don't give, because they don't have an inherent weakness in that area. You think about the auric field as, say, if you get dents in it from your parent's weaknesses or whatever, there is an inherent weakened spot, like a weak spot in the chain, and somebody can dig into the weak spot and rupture it; like a thinned out skin area. So they find a weakness and they do magic and they can snap you through that weakness. Another person could have the hide of a rhino spiritually, and not much will affect them spiritually.

You can be hideously possessed and still behave decently if your intention is proper. An example would be, I was in hospital with my foot open. A whole lot of demons entered the hole. It was a very deep, physical and spiritual auric rupture, and it has taken me all this time, since last September, to clear that out. You can't even imagine the energies in that foot. A lot of the energies, as I cleared them, were things that were astonishing to me; as I didn't (normally) hear the babbling voices of them. Like the babbling voices that would say foul sexual things. I didn't hear the babbling voices until I pulled them out of my foot. And I found I had to find a way to translate them because I could hear the ones that I had a genetic predisposition for, but I couldn't hear the others because I was in a different range, I was in a different ballpark.

If you personally align the best you can with heaven, you don't normally see hells or hear the voices from hells unless you focus on them. There are times to focus on them though, if you want to get rid of an assassin, then there is a good reason.

What I found was, the way I had to translate them without actually being inside the hells, necessarily, because the language of demons is one that you don't necessarily want to have to hear every demon in your environment all the time, you only want to hear the ones that you need to translate to see what the intention is. So I found:

(How to translate the babbling speech of demons to check for Intention and how to clear):

- I found I could feel a sudden wave of sickness and not know what it was.
- I would take the keyboard of my typewriter and I could type out what the demons were saying more easily than identifying it another way.
- It was a way of feeling the demon shape and translating it into speech.

Let's try to hear one on Cel: Often if you go into someone's privates you can find them.

- This one is saying "Open the door." It is wanting to be let out.

Cel: Oh, great!

- But the problem is it wants to go out and just wait. (Chuckles)
- The shape of the demon would look a certain way, and I can draw it.
- You can unwind demons just like you do curses as they are all similar.

What are demons, what are curses, what are evil plans?

They are all matter that is directed into a) Frequency; b) Waveform Pattern; c) Point of Reference; d) Container.

Those are key components so what you want to do:

1. Shape: Identify the turns and angles of the demon, curse, obsession or whatever it may be, you can unwind them.
It doesn't look that bad but I need to find out:
2. Tether Point/Point of Reference: Ask: "Where is its Point of Reference?" Is it a person? Is it a hell.
We need to organize the hell and hades information. This is an underground hell #7 so that is where it is tethered.
3. Coordinates: Ask: "How many earth coordinates does it have?"
(In this case) five, which generally means connected to five people.
4. Frequency/Complexity: I.e.: "Frequency"
On the Typewriter Chart ALT means change frequency/altitude.

Once you anchor in, you can DO:

1. Deadly Resonance
2. Vaporize by raising the Frequency after grabbing it with your will, intention and desire.
3. Shriveled it into a Dot and Crush until it disappears
4. Song/Dissonance Point of the Demon: Coordinates. You could think of this as a musical scale and call it a song. There is always one dissonance point in a song that causes it to somehow be anchored in the brain.
(Note: more charts and lists are in "1995 JUNE, JULY, AUGUST" on this date.)

There are layers;

- a) Find the song; which is a series of frequencies but with one PRIMARY NOTE.
A song has different Frequencies/pitches but it has a primary note that is repeated as the Dissonance Note.
What else does a song have? It comes out of an instrument which has a:
- b) SHAPE: Instrument: So is it a flute, is it a base drum, is it an oboe, whatever it is, the instrument is the shape.
The sounds that come out are the pitches that are influenced by the shape of the container.
- 4) It must be anchored to a POINT OF REFERENCE: in other words if you are going to conduct an opera you would have to know the octave range of the singer, and know where the base octave was. Tether Point Question: Do you draw that every time for a curse? Is it necessary?

Answer: It is not necessary. However: It is a practice to draw the demon and sometimes it can be done by the hands:

Ask: "Where on my aura do I feel resistance?" If you had yourself right here...each demon exerts a resistance to your health, to your well-being, to whatever, it has a force field just like water or something. There is some kind of a force field that makes it a different consistency than you.

What to do is follow the primary principles of the laws...you have to;

Use Law of Frequency with Deadly Resonance;

Or change the frequency up and down and so far that you pop it.

Often you can unwind it often by changing the frequency by honing your attention like a beam; say into the uterus

And then lowering or raising the frequency till it pops.

But in order for that to work well, you need to have a concept of the instrument that is being played.

You could call it the COLOR aspect, except color reflects frequency too;

(For example) curses are yellow or blue curses.

DO: Make an "instrument": chart with fundamental shapes

You could dowse them in order, however,

Using the waveform chart is in many ways determining the shape one must use to unwind a curse or a demon.

Using the waveform chart alone will often do it.

One Key thing to remember is : Do: PULL IN OPPOSITE DIRECTION

These things tend to be Centrifugal, Centripetal, Counterclockwise, Clockwise,

They tend to go in or out.

You don't have to consciously know what direction they are going but by looking at the direction chart you could

Ask: "Which way should I pull?" (Centrifugal etc.) and then dowse the direction which can usually take the place of drawing it (except for very complex curses).

The more you use waveforms and frequencies and learn to practice raising and lowering them, you get more nimble, and then drawing them is very easy then. Drawing is actually faster. I had one group curse of death that I drew that took a long time and as I unwound it I was sick with physical sensations. Unwinding them can make you feel sick as they are being pulled out of you. There is a something that happens when you work on these, realize this and be cautious of working on anyone else, as they can start to unwind you. If you get a really big, big demon in someone, what you are having to do is pit your will, your desire and your intention against that demon and if a lot of people are hooked into feeding that demon, you are going to have to be darn sturdy, or have a lot of holy beings helping you.

That is why you should always pray first.

Essentially You:

Pitch your own Will, Desire and Intention in perfection with:
Intact Containers that are not misshapen
Dowse % of deviation of those Containers and you might get the right answer.
Dowse how many holes there are.
You pit it against and you unwind the pattern using:
Frequency Chart: Raise...Lower...Deadly Resonance

Generally you do one of those. In order for you to get to do something with Deadly Resonance, it means you have got to lower your etheric body to do it. In a hell it might be a real low frequency and then to unwind I have to go down into that hell and I have to hold it there, it is like holding it underwater. In effect your etheric body is holding something evil at a certain pitch and unwinding it at the same time.

In other words all you really have to do is:

Pull in the opposite direction and have a strong ability to blast a frequency of desire, will, and intention
With power that is holy to shatter the thing.
If it is holy, then you will have some holy energies to help.

DO:

1. Always go back to the Laws (i.e. Law of Dissonance)
2. Where is this thing Anchored?
3. How many Dissonance Points?
4. How many Tethers to the earth does it have?
5. You want to get rid of every evil anchor to Hell... Hades...Purgatory...Other People...Animals...
That this evil is feeding off of.

You see, one demon could have 100 lines out, and sometimes you are not strong enough to get the demon unless you whittle away at its feeder lines for a long time. I have found that I have had to work so many days to remove some of the energies from the last month that have been building up from severe curses with fallen beings behind them. It has been a real struggle and I would pray and I would say "Dear God, I just ask that I be strong enough to do whatever it is that I am to do, God's will be done." And then you just endure.

The way that a person becomes an enduring personality-not endearing-but enduring is by trusting God.

By trusting the one true God, you don't have to ever defend yourself against anything. In essence I am saying you need to fight to defend yourself. But what I am also saying is that you are going with the flow of divine plan, if you learn how to use divine power you are not going against it. You don't have to defend yourself if you are doing God's will. Nobody can ever humiliate you, defile you, really. It is just if you have a false god program you constantly feel defensive. And you remember that, in dealing with other people.

By trusting in God you might go through some experiences in this that are very painful. You may feel physical symptoms as you unwind some of the karma things with which I would like to work with you. You might feel emotional and have memories. But the key is you are totally unattached to them. Like I was telling Cel when I worked on curses, on people in the house, a lot of old stuff and Cel and Si both would say "Is there a lot of stuff in the house today? I feel so bad. I feel so bad." and I kept telling them to quit worrying about how you are feeling, just don't give it much mind.

Don't be attached to how you feel. You observe your feelings because they are indicators of effects that causes have provoked, and you want to study them. Come from a more analytical perspective rather than an emotional or physical perspective. Just be analytical about it. You might be there, and suddenly it feels like bugs are crawling all over you. It can wear you down if it goes on for days and nights on end and so it is reasonable to pray for deliverance after a period of time, if you can't seem to get through it yourself, or ask for help. But I know that sometimes the holy beings don't step in right away, so we learn to endure.

The way we learn to endure is we trust God, and that gives us our fundamental joy of living. Out of that joy of living which is anchored in a firm understanding of laws and a decision and intention to know truth.....

7-10 JULY 1995 Dowsing Notes From Lectures

CAUSE AND EFFECT

Material realm reflects spiritual causes: spiritual causes reflects in lower world
Others' causes/beings/substances/forces may affect one's spiritual anatomy
Will, Intention, Desire, Purity + Power to control (↑) and help others

Sensitivity may be caused by

- (1) Wounds
- (2) Larger/greater anatomy trauma

In youth causes curse/damage/imprinted in aura that later cause doors to open to that type of (↑). Probably causing behavior to reinforce that trauma contamination, reenactment causes thrill or rush because hell doors open.

- (3) Trauma or even proximity to liar, adulterer, thief, degrader: This causes imprints

DO: Know the Laws of Dissonance and Vibration. Apply to waking state.

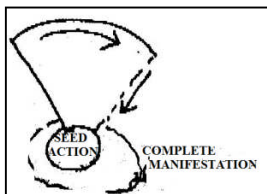

RIGHT/Creativity: Is expansive, Centrifugal and well anchored to purpose/intent.

SATANIC: Is contractive, causing rupture--inward toward self.

Do: Undo Malefic Causes

- a) Intend to live totally holy; b) Desire; c) Will it; d) Holy Beings will help

5↓

- 1) Identify early indicators, in order to preserve energy,
- 2) Stop event/curse at or before #5 on #10 Point Inertia Scale.

PRAYERS based on False/Wrong/Unholy Assumptions/Bargains are heard by Fallen Beings

Best Prayer: "I decide to be a person of power to help humanity align with God's Plan. I don't understand what is going on. I pray all evil be removed from me. I pray that I be delivered from evil according to the Plan of God."

Do: Check Magnetic Force Field in container of Desire, Will, Intention.

It can be lost by hate, obsessions, demon orgasm's looping others wrong intention/desire, fantasies, rage.

Dark Forces can enter: Circular thinking results—Do: Check Intact/Shape

Dreaming and Awake Containers: Dreaming is contingent upon Awake Integrity.

Guilt: Is the result of the Intention anchored correctly, but the Desire is weak and off center.

Opponents: Are a blessing in that they teach us the science of Dark Force removal--to grow in strength,

To develop virtues. Those with evil intent can be helped only by removing power.

Fallen Beings power Demon Orgasms: They focus mainly on high potential holy people because they are a greater source of energy. DO to Clear:

- 1) Detect nature of attack and Inertia Level #1-10
- 2) Ask the Holy Beings to help clear.
- 3) Holy Being Blast 4) Unwind 5) God's Vengeance Unfolding

A Holy Person: 1st Corinthians 13:13

Hungers for God; Trusts in God; Loves Truth, even if it hurts and more than self or others.

Intends rightly with the heart of Christ - to be holy - to know God - to serve God (to have no false gods).

Recognizes evil; avoids and battles evil

To Recognize Evil

See and dowse: "Where is the heart?" and "How many are there?" (Check % of Black)

Do: Clearing method to stop evil energy fields is to close the door to evil and stop reproduction.

Use the lightening rod to ground technique and mirror it back to sender.

Curses: Starts with a person deciding to do something wrong, then two others join in.

If someone continues to curse you (if intractable) remove or sever their ability to tap others' New Earth Layers of Beingness; Pray and ask the Holy Beings to do this. Pray for deliverance from Curse and Vampires.

Role of Exorcist: To prevent defilers from harming innocent; Destroy unholy Trinities; Go into hells and Hades and come back unscathed.

Time and Space/Movement Ability=Alignment with God's Plan

Hell and Hades are for storage of intractable qualities of people

Bind up in hell containers: Spirit foul energy is there.

Do: If a recipient of Grace turns bad-remove them from Grace Akasha connections.

Check: "What parts of me are in Hells?"

Don't: Hate, merge with a defiler or combine sex with perversity or hatred of authority

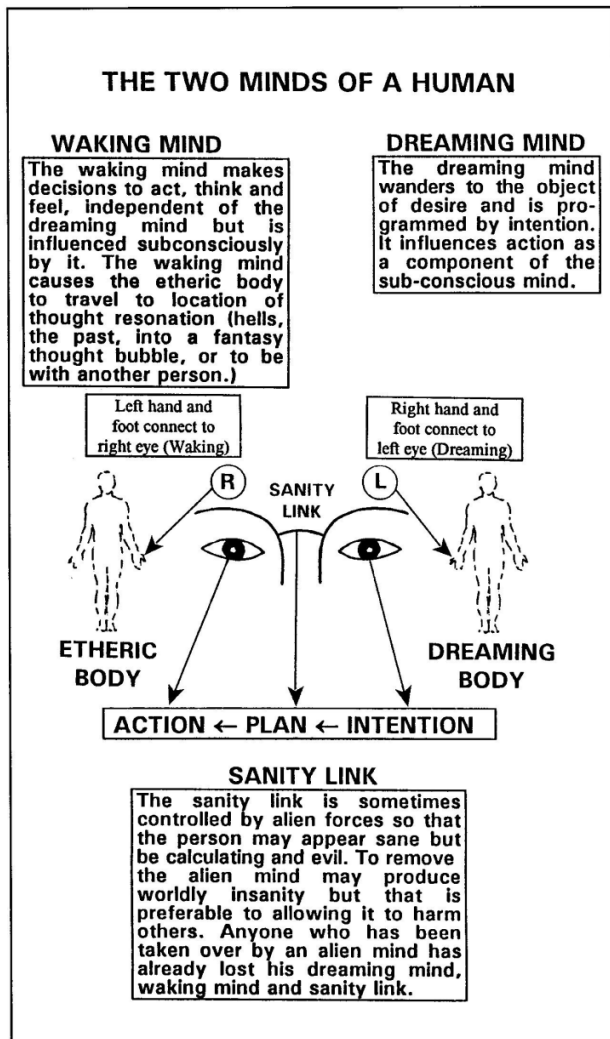

Do: How to translate virtue into active life--how to apply to life:

Show how misdirected virtue or energy results in spiritual decay:

Lying spirits come and then Will, Intent and Desire (degenerate/are lost).

First: Master the lower lying spirits

Second: Master the higher lying spirits

◀CHART from "A Prophet's Story

Student Example:

"I am my own god and can do whatever I want."

➤ Willful defiance thoughts cycling over and over can be within cells. ➤ When Waking Mind and Dreaming Mind align with satanic thought it becomes visible.

KEY

- Strongly control conscious mind so it does not align with unholy contamination from dreaming side.
- See Intention with Left Eye and
- See Action with Right Eye.
- Separate self from anyone who has cursed you and any: Curses Made; Pulls, Echoes, Shadows, Connections to Hells & Sounds.
- It takes a good deal of time to train and control the dreaming mind.

Saints glow brightly so that angels can see to land on earth.

Submit totally to God's Will.

Totally, passionately desire holiness above all.

Curse Container (is composed of):

- Air, Fire, Water and Crystallization of Power
- Cosmic Dust molecule
- Pattern of Outcome
- Desire/Will/Intend → Becomes manifest

Do/Check:

- Air, Fire and Water (on Condition Chart and others)
- Desire, Will and Intend Content
- Eye of Needle (Locate)

Connections to people (Find through)

New Earth Layers of Being connections

Demon Orgasms: Contain Human Generative Tank Substance to Mega Kundalini Tank substance.

If someone is doing Kundalini curses:

Sizzle/sear/seal the top of the spine

Disconnect them from other's New Earth connections: each one

Discern Angle.

AUDIO TAPE #2 Transcribed: JULY 7, 1995 Side A (No Side B)

CHEYENNE, WYOMING

If you dowse that you were supposed to get in bed with two women, or that you had the right to hate somebody, or that you were supposed to kill somebody; in many things that we do there are exorcisms that seem quite strange because you actually are (for example) “killing” that double of a person. You might get “kill, kill, kill”, and I have seen on some people 30 doubles that keep popping out, and I couldn’t understand until recently how to stop the production of the doubles. It is like the false god intention; these doubles would be fueled by fallen beings and would be inspiring curses in people. So what I did was to keep destroying the Doubles but it (would dowse as) “kill this person or that person.” But, I asked the Holy Beings to explain it and the Holy Beings said: “It isn’t actually killing the person it is killing the Double that has been lying to the person based upon a false god”.

I would over and over again destroy the Double and try to help the person get their intend substance back to reality. I would infuse in them the power of the Holy Spirit to pull them back to God, so they hopefully wouldn’t curse me or somebody else. Then I would destroy their evil doubles. But they kept reproducing their evil doubles.

Now I’m seeing that the double production is directly linked to these stuck open Hell doors and Hades doors. Whenever I would be around a person and I would hear the same song over and over again, it would be a song I knew, like What About Me (Sings): “And maybe a baby....” Those songs occur in stuck open doors. The reason you translate it into a song you know, is because your subconscious mind is trying to give you a clue as to what the weakness is that caused the hell door to be stuck open.

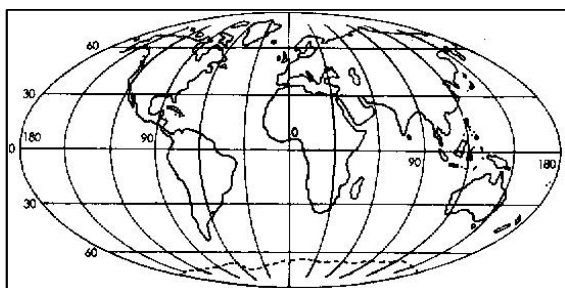

But, it may not be your hell door. It may actually be that you got an auric wound and someone has a piece of their substance in you, and that person has a door stuck open, and you hear the song going on all the time. Those songs, sometimes they are the hardest things to find, but now I know that if we correct all of our personal AKASHA substance, in other words our subconscious mind becomes pure, and our conscious mind becomes pure, then they won’t be able to enter us anymore.

They enter into the genetic dips, personal weaknesses and decisions that you have made, your mistakes or whatever. In other words your personal AKASHA makes you more vulnerable to certain invasions. I found that we can correct our personal Akasha and our waking minds through this concept of unwinding evil patterns because it is all composed of cosmic dust molecules. All it is; is that you want to take a spiritual infection and turn it into healthy tissue, which sounds like a lot, but it is not that hard. It is not hard, but it takes a lot of energy. What I am thinking is, if we can work as a group with power, then we can correct these things as a team far more easily than one or two of us doing it. We can combine forces and call down Holy Beings and pop these things out

The key thing, is that you must desire to have all Hades and Hell doors shut on both your waking and your dream state. That would mean that you choose to love truth, and you choose to think rightly, and choose to act rightly, and then you are worthy then to receive Grace in erasing all of your personal karma.

A lot of your personal karma has already been erased, but sometimes it has been reformed. Genetic demons...we have had a lot of removal of that in the past at the monastery. The problem is, is that some of the Hell doors have a tendency to reopen if they get a stimulus from the environment that reminds you of something. So what we are going to do now is erase Akasha. In other words (erase) as if something never happened and this will have downline effects.

I have alluded to this, and on one level we have done some of this in the past but never to this level. I am thinking we can look at a physical illness, (for example) B’s asthma. Let’s go back and let’s find the genetic and personal stuff and let’s get rid of it.

You have to get rid of it (erase Akasha), as I mentioned in the last article, first on the Mega Earth Level. My mistake in the past was that I erased it on the personal level, but I didn’t always erase it on the Mega earth one.

What you have to do, is go to the Mega Earth Akasha,

- Find the time and place, take the globe or map.
- Find the place, and it may be a place you have never been because it may be in a genetic pool.
- The time or date; it could be from someone that had a W.W.II trauma or demon that maybe came and visited your house, impressed some demonic energy upon you so that you would have say, Rg’s W.W.II demon impression.

You find the Place, Time and Map; you don't have to dowse the time too much in years, but you can dowse time with a sense of going forward or backward with circles of the hands. Say you go backwards with your hands until you hit it.

It can be a future time (forward). The reason is, if it is someone's projected fantasy or desire, it sticks like a (---) or a curse. You may find it in the future in pending danger to you. You can find curses by moving in the future or the past. To do that you are anchored in the Now in a strong sense of Godliness and reverence for all that is true and holy with decision and intention to do rightly. You move to the past or future and you don't have to think how you are doing it because you will find when you have reached a certain point in the future, you get a glitch. It is as if your hand wants to stop there.

We could use an aura-meter. If it is easier for you, you can just think circles, and get an aura-meter or a pendulum signal. Because all that pendulums and aura-meters do is accentuate body signals. Your subconscious mind reads Akasha and it gets a trigger, so you get a pendulum response. For the subtle stuff you may need a dowsing instrument, or you do until you get a few layers off.

To Clear Mega and Personal Akashas:

➤Go into the past, and you go in the future, and you could think of each circle (of the hand) as a year or start it as a month, and you could feel the curse/demon as a glitch.

➤You could ask "Which direction do I need to go first?"

If something is impending very close to the now it would be felt like a burden upon your head. I have had trouble predicting events in time very well because the curse above my head felt like the curse might be looped to a week in the future, but I would be seeing it now which brings up another method of clearing.

If there is something that is forming, solidifying, you sometimes have to vent the steam of inertia to slow it down, because you don't have the strength to back it up yet. If somebody wants to do harm to you professionally or any way, and they have brought it to 90% solidified, you might have to vent the steam of inertia enough to sidetrack it, either to deplete it completely, or to make it into something small so that the effect is weakened.

This is what we have done many times, by enacting the raids. It wasn't enacting like play acting, because I actually could sense the presence of evil coming. They were coming.

It was just a matter of venting the steam of inertia of curses which you do on some level by living it with the etheric body. You manifest it etherically... But you dissipate it so that it doesn't manifest in the materialization.

It doesn't ever crystallize, so in other words you vaporize the steam of it.

That, I would say is not the ideal method.

The ideal method Would be to catch it before it hits the point of inertia, and rewind it.
Because that takes less power. So what I would recommend; first think of:

1. Auric Glitches: Demons...Events...Curses...Something Karmic you have coming on...

You don't have to know what they are. All you think of is; any disharmony in your auric song.

2. Write where each letter of the alphabet is on large body illustration: ABCDEFGHIJKLMNOPQRSTUVWXYZ

Use the body picture and Dowse: "Where it is?...Where it should be?"

For example: "Where is your A on your body?" and "Where should your A be?" etc.

"Where is your B?/Where should it be?"

This is very simplified, but...(See also LESSON this date)

3. Type Out Demon Talk: The reason I like to type the demon songs is that if I were stuck on one of my body letters, I couldn't get off that letter, or I couldn't type it.

For example I couldn't type the word hope, because I couldn't type the letter 'o' in the word hope. You might try with illustrations of body parts, or just a big body and check front and back for the location of the letters.

4. If your letters are way off you have to figure out;

- How many Malefic Pulls are pulling on that Letter to keep it haywire?
In other words, your Name, your body song is off kilter; Why?
- Use: Up...Down...Waveform...Frequency...Complexity
You don't have to write the alphabet letters down, just ask for each letter, Where they are and where they should be,
- Then eliminate through the To Do's; Pull in opposite direction primarily and Change Frequency.

STEPS

- Use a big illustration Body Chart/Iridology Eye Chart
- A Direction Chart: includes Centrifugal...Centripetal...Etc.
- Frequency Range Chart: Made similar to the True/False God Scale
Because some things dowse as Minus Frequencies In that they are pulling as if in a black hole.
- Complexity Pattern/Frequency Range/Direction to Pull Charts:

Quantity, Percentage and Inverse Chart
0	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	20	30	40	50	60	70	80	90	100
100	90	80	70	60	50	40	30	20	10	9	8	7	6	5	4	3	2	1	0

Question: Can you use the two body parts charts (drawing and list) that we have?

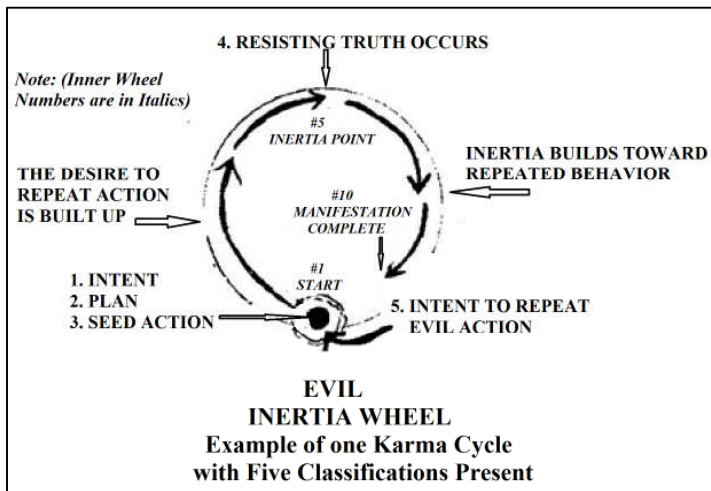

Answer: That is good. There are a lot of internal charts. There might be some on the liver, on the deep internal parts.

The Iridology Eye Chart is very good to use because I had a major curse came into my eye last week and I just ruptured to smithereens. I had a lot of hemorrhaging in this eye and it started to hemorrhage in the other and my forehead started squirting and I knew I better get onto the curse detail. Because it can actually translate into the physical at a certain point if you don't....you have to realize that you need to get it before then, because it is really hard to eliminate once it has started to manifest physically.

When RP was in OK the last time, or right after Mexico, all my fingers split open and started bleeding.

Skin signs are an indicator that you need to really look at the curses.

Question: How do you know when it is reaching the point of inertia? Do you dowse it on a scale of 1-10 and see if it is 5 or above? Answer: That would good to put on the Body Chart: "POINT OF INERTIA."

Draw the illustration of the inertia wheel in a circle, with the seed act.

Around the Seed Act is a dotted circle where you have the result, the Desired Outcome.

Then you have the Circle of Inertia going around with 5 at the top (Inner circle) (at the point of inertia) (Put #1-10 from Seed to Finish: Inner Circle).

So then you are over the hill once you get past that #5 point. Then the arrow is pointing down toward the Manifestation Desired.

Ask on this illustration

- "How many shadows are on the (i.e.) right lung?"

Some of these dowse as pre-cancerous.

- "How advanced is this shadow?" (1-10 on the Inertia Chart): It is at 7; uh-oh, past the Point of Inertia which will take a lot more Will and Intend Substance and Desire Alignment to push it back over the hill. Once it gets back over the hill, it doesn't take much energy to dissipate. Some will dowse as Echoes.

- "How many Echoes on the body parts?"

- "How many Malignant Directional pulls?" Do: Find both Dissonance Point and Directional Pull.

Some of these will dowse as:

Silent/Invisible Evil: You can have something that you can't hear or see, but it is there, and God can show you because it is a Blind Spot. Sometimes dowses as Silent, sometimes as Invisible.

Most of the way you perceive these Akasha things is a type of SONAR SENSITIVITY.

It is like the Psychic Detective Agency movie we saw.

- You actually do a type of sonar in octaves that are inaudible because all thoughts and emotions use cosmic dust molecules that vibrate in a certain waveform pattern and a certain speed;
- By understanding the physics principles of spiritual science, by using the law of vibration and laws of dissonance which include... you have to know which direction you are facing to know which way to go home.
- You have to know where the point is, in which to know the direction on the map.
- You need to know the dissonance and the directional pull from there.
- Then you have it. You can choose your poison;

To remove, you can choose to:

1. VAPORIZE
2. CONTRACT
3. DEADLY RESONANCE
4. As you are doing that you must have in mind the DIRECTIONAL PULL that is needed to UNWIND THE PATTERN

Directional pull: in other words you must know the musical instrument through which to play.

- As you practice this, you will get more of a Range,
- Your auric components will become more supple so that you can learn to shape the musical instruments needed for the Deadly Resonance.
- You can go into a Shape and then pop back.
- You can become more Resilient.

Now I admit I have done so many of these Akasha things for the last few days, and I have had trouble snapping back when I got too tired and the Holy beings would tell me sometimes “You are getting too tired, you better quit!” and I would say “Oh, just let me work just a little bit longer it has only been 15 hours.....” and so they would say “I’m warning you” and sure enough, then I would be unwinding one more demon like this and I would get the worst headache, oh my head would feel like it was coming off, and my eyes would get all distorted and they would say “We told you, we told you, now you unwound part of yourself”. So I said “OK, excuse me, will you help me out here, guys?” and sometimes they wouldn’t they would say “No, no, you are going to have to do it yourself, bit by bit.” So sometimes I would have to go to sleep so that I could put all my energies on just one consciousness.

What you are doing here, you realize, is dividing your consciousness.

- You are becoming more aware of your dreaming self, and you are also consciously directing force with your waking self. In essence what you are doing is refining your spiritual bodies every time you try to do this.
- But if you push it too far, since it involves changing your etheric shape and pitch, you will get too tired, you will have trouble snapping back. So in order to recover from that, and I speak from experience, you may have to actually lie down.
- What I do is take the crucifix and say a prayer with “May I be brought into a state of holiness” and I would doze off into a type of sleep that I can’t describe except that it was a Rewind Sleep. It is almost that you put yourself on an auto rewind machine.

When I have done this, I have had to sleep in another room from RP. Once I fell asleep on a sofa. It is not normal sleep and you will know it, because you are so unconscious, it is as if you feel you are walking through mud in some dream plane.

Most of the time when people sleep they are somewhat aware of their environment. With this I am not at all aware. Last night I was in another room trying to write the lesson and I started to work on something that I was shown, and then finally, as I just kept unwinding stuff, I had such a splitting headache I went in to rest and I was so out. It was very hard to wake up. You may find this tonight. On the one hand you might think you have to sleep more, and it is OK when this happens, because you will feel shocky. You might get the same experience I have when doing it a lot; I get a reptilian brain pain, and eye pain. Your ears may itch as you are unwinding something as if you have bugs in your ears. And your eyeballs feel very tired. But I think this is just a transition stage. I usually have to do something first in order to show you, but then you pick it up very fast.

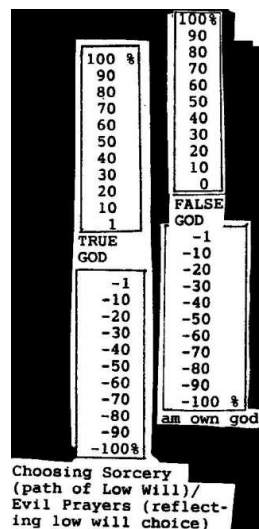

Holy Beings do say that it would be easier to work on this on the road for the simple reason that there is something about moving that will keep you from getting stuck. One thing I found was that you get a frozen brain, a sense of being frozen in a spot with this, and the moving unfreezes it. Start on little ones and work up.

AUDIO TAPE #3 Transcribed: JULY 7, 1995 Side A

CHEYENNE, WYOMING

I'll talk more about JU JUs which are a type of curse.

First thing on today's agenda is to study the concept of winding and unwinding in relationship to going toward God's holy plan, or going towards evil, or being unwound from holiness or being wound toward an evil way.

If you look at the ←Holy God of Jesus Chart where the (-) 100%/down is satanic, you have to realize that whenever you are checking Desire, Intention and Will, you have to double check and make sure that your purity of Desire is for the God of our Lord Jesus rather than a personal or false god. This is a very tricky thing in the teaching of people downline from you.

We are going to have to stress this, because a lot of people pray to false gods. By adding that God of Our Lord Jesus Scale to the charts, we are generally safe, though I have had lying spirits from alien Logos influences that would say they were the God of our Lord Jesus; but I would feel a pull, an (odd) energy about it, so I kept talking to them and forced them (to show themselves). This is why I started using the keyboard (to dowse), as I kept talking to them until finally they would show their hand. I could always see after a certain point what was evil, because they had characteristics that showed they hated God. They hated the One True God.

St. Paul said "Test the spirits". If I suspected when I was writing that another voice had entered in, you could say, I would be typing something and they would say... what I would do is look up at my crucifix and ask "Dear God of Our Lord Jesus if there are any interfering spirits of any kind from any worlds, I ask the holy powers of Grace that are above me, please intercede for me and drive these evil powers away that would interfere with God of our Lord Jesus' holy plan on Earth". It got so I would have that prayer on a sub-track all the time so that, you could say, I programmed my subconscious mind to always having prayer.

As LG., I programmed my dowsing mind by saying "God's will be done" all the time when dowsing until finally I didn't have to say it any more. But I would sometimes say it every few seconds while dowsing. But, when you reach a certain point where very high level fallen beings try to interfere, then that prayer won't work because (you need to know) whose god's will be done?

You realize that people have personal gods. Their god could be money, sex, another person or it could be revenge, the god of revenge. The realization...what the Anti-Christ energies really are, are an Anti-Logos Alien Energy. It is like a sub-category of Anti-Logos and the Anti-Christ. You could say there was a plan of the Anti-Christ; if children and adults could be 100% converted to a false god program; to do the will of a fallen Jehovah, then the Earth could be used by alien forces.

There are very many correlations between the alien invasion and the Anti-Christ; and the way they intended to do it was by invading the cell structure through a type of a viral invasion that was enhanced by promiscuity. The encouragement of promiscuity is an indicator of increased Anti-Christ activity. A lot of people read Revelations and they think "Oh, it's one guy and he's and then going to try to take over the world." It is not that simple. It would be much easier to take care of the problem if it was just some man who was a mean man who wanted to take over the world. But in fact it is an insidious infection of the 666 in society as a whole. It is almost a frequency of a viral invasion of humanity, that a man would then have a mark of the beast on his head. People worry too much about credit cards and stuff. Granted, in the early teaching of LG., I tried to stress things like the bar codes, etc., because it is a dangerous thing what they are doing.

When you consider that now they are doing a lot of research on implanting animals with little bar codes, then pretty soon that will be your identification code. That is what they will want you to do at some point, have an implant in your arm of a little bar code and then wherever you are, you could be stopped at any time and lose your personal freedom completely. If you ever got on the Government's hit list, then it would be very easy for them to track you down if you have one of those. That sounds very Sci-fi, but that is the mark of the future.

Question: ...there are plans to have a card inserted in the body that will open accounts....

Answer: Yes, that is something that will be pushed. This is something to be concerned about, but I would say it is less of a concern than what is happening to people's spiritual insides and in their physical insides. People are being programmed without chips. There have been Sci-fi novels written where they would install viruses in people that would have programs. People would tend to behave certain ways if they got a certain virus. If you look, (there are) certain illnesses which produce certain mental states, and how certain types of dementias associated with certain organic diseases; and it is not so far-fetched to think that an installation of a virus could provoke a certain type of mental state that would facilitate certain types of take-overs.

Comment: ...There was an article on a virus, some type of infectious disease associated with depression...

(Break in tape)

Answer It was almost the same thing; the depression and illness too. Of course most people wouldn't react that strongly but I couldn't help but think there wasn't something linked with it besides just cytomegaly. Looking back on it, I think a lot of mental illnesses are related to viruses that are linked with Hells and Hades. In fact you could look at a herpes blister and I bet you could find; you could tune in and dowse on any of these charts to find where it is linked. We are going to work on the Hells Charts. (See Combo Chart end of Side A)

Almost all illnesses are linked to some disorder on the spiritual plane, or to a person. One key chart is "Why is this disorder in Akasha? In any Akasha and in the personal Akasha?" Fallen being intention seems to be a big reason. There are fallen beings that have been invited to Earth where the doors to Hades have been opened. They have an intelligence that some people will listen to. ↓"Square Chart"

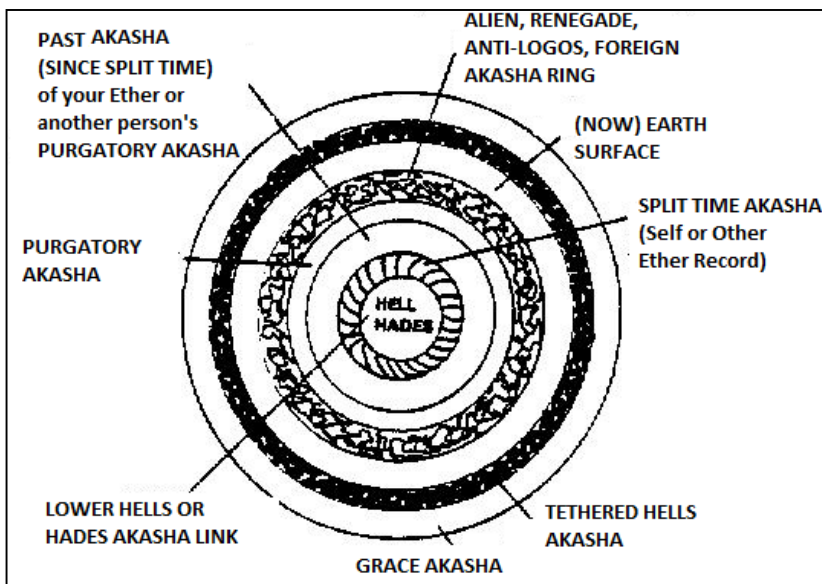

WORLD		NON WORLD		PSEUDO WORLD		SUCKER		EVIL BEING
DOWN	LEFT-INVERSE	BACK	OTHER	FRONT	RIGHT-HAND	UP
NOTHING LEFT	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	NOT MEASURABLE
TENS	HUNDREDS	THOUSANDS	TEN THOUSANDS	TEN THOUSANDS	HUNDRED THOUSANDS	MILLIONS	BILLIONS	TRILLIONS

There are some beings that you can't really say that they have "fallen", they just don't really belong here, that being I would call a Renegade type of energy, but that is a bit different.

Renegade type energies are more like the Anti-Logos forces. You can't really call them fallen; they are in the wrong place. In their space, they would perhaps, be appropriate. But there is a difference between fallen and just in the wrong space. Like the bear (seen in the woods yesterday in Colorado), that bear was not evil, but if I had walked much closer that bear could have attacked me but it would not have been an evil bear. I would have been stupid to have gotten that close.

In order to clear disorders, what we have to look at is the concept of anything that we view as a manifestation in the physical, mental and spiritual realm, has to have some initial creation. There has to be a Seed Act of a type: Something precipitated creation. You could ask "Who created this?" A manifestation can be a death frequency which is not exactly the same thing as a curse with cell changes. Death frequencies can be something that, maybe if you do something that opens the doors to Hells because you go against God's divine plan (which includes the Tisunal activity). By going against God's plan, you can take on death frequencies.

If you look at the circles of the different ←Akashas and the NOW Earth surface is placed in a certain location, realize that death frequencies that produce certain types of illnesses are merely anything that points inward from there.

For instance the past, the split time, a focus on the past, a focus on purgatory, over concern with those that have passed on, Split Time Akasha (is one of the worst) and Grace Akasha is out from there. It is also true that Tethered Hells Akasha is out from there, but that produces different types of illnesses.

The inner hell (like the old image of hell being under the earth), inside the earth as an inferno, and is a fairly useful model, although you have to look at it more as a lowered frequency hell, or an inverse frequency hell.

If you were thinking of frequencies, it would be in the minus range on the True God Scale. Whereas if you are looking at Tethered Hells, they can be quite high in frequency but they are on the False God program.

(See also Appendix Charts)

That is why it would be better on the False God Chart (page 24) to have two 0-100% charts going up instead of one. The reason is on the left would be the False God Chart and the right would be the True God Chart and I think you would have a clearer dowsing response. So you could have a Tethered Hell god and you could:

Ask: "How true is my Intend substance?" And if it were aligned with a tethered hell demon, or concept or obsession, then you would get 100% UP on the False God Chart but it would be a false or personal god program.

Question: What is the starting point for the questions? Is there a place you are trying to get to?

Answer: Yes, let's think of a check list.

CHECK LIST

You feel bad.

Ask: As far as my alignment with the total Plan of God on my Ether Level (the Akasha level):

"How unwound am I at this point?" Cel is at 7 (out of 10 unwound) so;

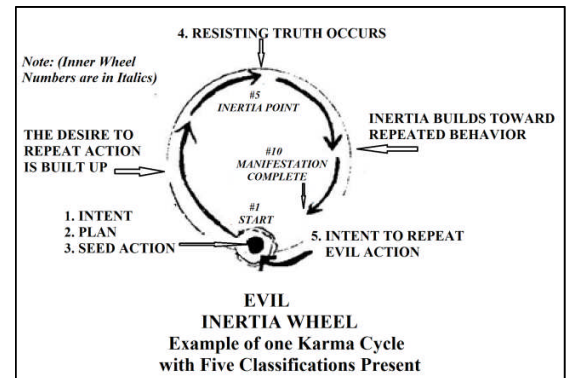

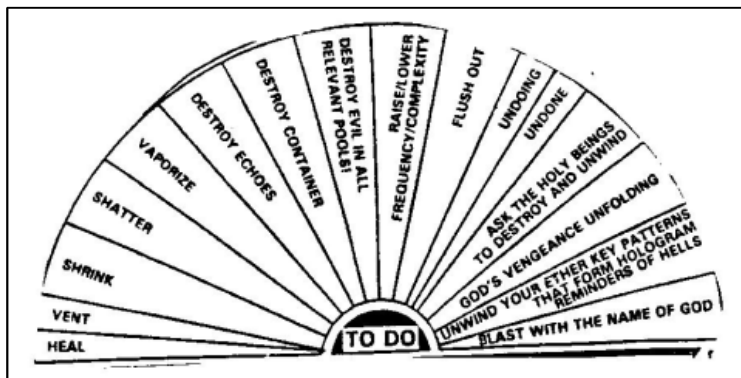

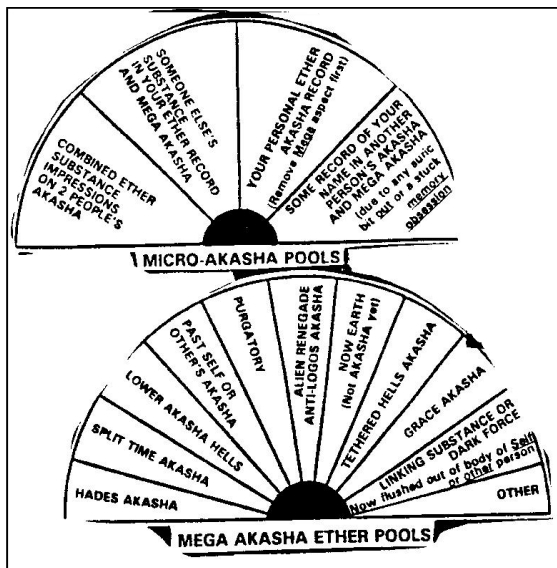

Do: Look at the Inertia Point Circle to gauge this: C is 8, A is 9.5, B 6.75, Si 6.25....

You are looking at it from a Holy Manifestation perspective. You are saying "How unwound am I from Grace?"

Question: I am unwound 9 points out of 10?

Answer: Yes it is "Unwound from God" I am going to ask how many factors and you have; three.

3. ASK: "How many factors have unwound me?"

4. Go to the worst factor and check the ←Micro Akasha Pool problems. On your Micro-Akasha Pool I see there is combined Ether Substance on two people's Akasha. Why?

5. Go to the Why Chart in Akasha. (Chart list next page).

(Dowses): "Past intent of self, echoing"

So I went to the Micro-pools to your personal body ethers and Then I went to Why In Akasha Chart.

6. Ask: "Where is it linked to in the ← MEGA Akasha?" because it is always linked in the MEGA.

Right now I am seeing it on the NOW Earth. Does that mean it is not linked? It is floating in the NOW earth and it is not linked in yet.

Do: Remove it from the NOW Earth first.

This one hasn't had time to link up yet. It appears that for a period of time you can be combined with someone's ether and it would automatically echo onto your personal Akasha, but it may not have settled in the Mega Akasha yet. Right now it is floating in the Now Earth and hasn't settled in yet.

7. To Do: Get rid of it on the Now Earth first : Shatter... Deadly Resonance... use the Frequency Scale,

I can see a dark force floating. If I go to the little ←TO DO Chart on the right I get "Shatter", which tends to mean you have reached a deadly resonance with it. That means I have to check the frequency scale. I will used the Holy God of Jesus Scale and;

Ask: "Where am I and where should I be?"

I am supposed to raise the frequency to clear this one.

That brought you way up on your Grace Scale and sometimes when you see one there are often three things. Two things might just be downline but I just see one. It looks like some record of your name is in another person's Akasha and in Tethered Hells Akasha and as to why it looks like; "INTENT OF THE UNI."

8. "UNI": UNI dark forces are satanic and it is interesting that they are called UNI because I have found you can dowse for "How many UNI-ties do you have?" It is almost like UNITY.

You have two UNI-Ties. So in other words there is some substance link with people who have satanic intent. One of them is that man (referred to off the tape). Just on impulse I went over to the Manifestation Chart and I see there is a Living Possession. It is a type of Manifestation Problem. I suspect that both of those UNIs are coming behind the one Living Possession. Yes. And if I dowse how complete it is;

MANIFESTATION CHART:

9. Check: "How complete is the manifestation?"

I get a full manifestation of the UNI Living Possession. In other words a satanic person has invaded you in some way.

10. Now look under the WHY CHART

And you will see the UNI is found in between cells. It is a little bit difficult to destroy but it looks I'm supposed to "Destroy the Container" of the sorcerer.

In order to curse or bless anybody, a person has to have a CONTAINER through which to eject substance.

A lot of people have Fallen Being Containers and this is where we need to add this:

FALLEN BEING CONTAINER: Ask: "How many fallen being containers do you see on a person?"

In this case, three. These put a Shadow over you. So what will I do?

I will ask the Holy Beings to flush this out of you and him.

I am supposed to vaporize it, so that means I can grab it and raise its frequency.

Do: So by tuning into you I can tune into him. It is a real sense of going to where the container is and honing in on it.

Then with your will, hold onto the container while you raise the frequency to vaporize it.

Sometimes you will find more containers than you initially saw.

I'm sensing something here. Something that toward this manifestation, there was an Event that had to do with a Seed Act to possess you. I got down to the Seed Act.

In order for a manifestation to occur, there had to be something precipitating it to start with.

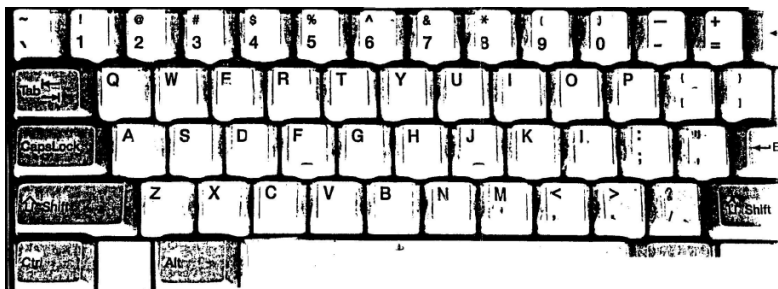

There was an event that occurred.

When I typed it out, I was trying to hear what the dark force was saying.

It said "In his death you will inform the UNI of the result" which doesn't make much sense except that I asked "How many deaths does the UNI need?" "Three deaths".

So I have to hold the deaths as if under water, but what I am doing is blasting it.

It seemed like I was spacing out but I was blasting the UNI Dark Force.

The precipitating event; I had to shatter another UNI shell around a woman at your workplace, I think. I have (typed) on here “I love you”.

Could there be a woman that has some kind of thing for you? The reason is, the dark forces seemed to erode you by your being in the presence of someone with a romance-Satan program. Let me see if I can get more information from this; if it is still around I will try to get more information:

“UNI is in...” I doubt if this is her name, as it sometimes will start with one person and spread to another, and I am getting “lying spirits”, but I am getting someone named Violet, and there is also “UNI is in...Julie” “UNI is inyou”. M (the office worker) has 5 identities, and I know it is your secretary but I can’t get the name “M.” The Holy Beings definitely say that she is not the root of the UNI. It says “No one you can rescue”. I see “rescue” in it.

(The spirits are saying:) “I love you, A.”...“

Exit from the UNI if you want, but I will not go, I will not go, , I, I...will, will, will”;

“A is my UNI, is my one is, one is...”

Usually when I type them out I am knocking them down.

“You exit from the UNI-tie only by UNI-will.

It is my will, I will not let you go, I will not let you go, I will not going...”.

See I’m knocking it down all the while. It is hiding. They are lying they are full of lies, but they keep saying this. But the Holy Beings are knocking it loose and probably at the bottom I will get who it is.

“Illness, illness, illness; I love you, I love you..., I miss you ...go to JU JU rescue..”.

The Keynote is the H. I destroyed this container.

I just tracked it down, I just kept pushing it while it was talking, I tracked it to; and if you can ever do this it is very helpful, because you hit upon one letter, and it will keep hitting “H,H,H,H,” and then I know I have its key point, it’s key note. “I love you, I love you, I will, I...” I don’t think M started this, but I think she took it over and became contaminated maybe five months ago. It looks like she started to increase in some sort of romance thoughts that were dark force related and not just regular thoughts. She had had them before but not like this. Eight demons are inside M.

I suspect that man that curses you became linked with M. The dark forces then could work on you. It looks like he... “I love you, I love you...” This is another case/container and you must get them all.

This is something that I did not put on the chart. But I think next to the body chart put:

DEMON ORGASM EXIT POINT.

The reason, it seems that this container of hers is linked with a Demon orgasm exit spot that is right on the sternum. Remember I used to say that an ex-student had a hole between her breasts? At the time I was confused about it, but if you’re dealing with a person who is cursing you, you have to find where the demon orgasm Exit spot is, that the poison squirts out of.

Do: Go through TO DOs and try to shut the demon orgasm exit point.

Each container will have its own Exit Point. Out of this one came a dark force.

There is a dark force that came out of her that I am starting to unwind.

Now I am back to a Seed Act and I get Living Possession again.

What has happened to you; the man who is cursing you managed to hook into satanic forces and got a Demon Orgasm started with M. So that the seed act would be the actual act of having the demon orgasm, which would produce another curse and each one was that preceded with thoughts of romance; and romance would be combined with something else that was satanic. For example, I will ask the Holy Beings; I don’t know if I want to say it, it is kind of embarrassing. It is combined with a kind of an exhibitionism with lesbian undertones with you observing. In other words; she having some kind of sexual activity with another woman with you in bed with them.

Question Is this on my mind or on their minds? (Laughter)

Comment: Or both? Which reality? (Laughter)

Answer: Which head is it? Look at the bottom of the chart...

Question: Where do we get to the To-Do stuff? (Laughter) No! I’m sorry.... (Great laughter).

Answer: That’s rich.

Do: On the bottom put two circles: WAKING MIND in the center circle
DREAMING MIND: in the outer circle and Ask: “Which mind of this person is having this dream?” Her waking mind.

“Which mind of A’s is involved?” It doesn’t seem A is involved, thank goodness.

What is happening is; she has an obsession that she is reinforcing with her waking mind that is used as an orgasm trigger. You could probably dowse this: “What percentage of the time is her waking mind thinking about sexual matters during a time frame or the last week while she was in your office?” 90%.

Comment: That’s probably why she isn’t getting any work done. (Laughter)

G: It is probably is why her work slipped.

What is happening here Ask: “What percentage of her dream mind thinks about sex involving A?”

Comment: (You could claim) “It’s reverse sexual harassment! But I can’t tell you what it was!”....(Laughter)

G: When people get to this state, they honestly are not aware of how much time they spend thinking about sex.

Do you still have that little gift we got? Is it in the foyer?

Comments: She wants to get work done and now she.....; (It is a thigh-master) (Jokes)

What do you do if someone has you targeted with a romance program?

Because I can assure you that it is one that they want to destroy you with. Anytime you have a living possession with a romance program, it is like the Jean Tarnauer thing where they will kill you. It grows and it grows and it becomes an obsession and it is not just a simple obsession as in the case such as this, it becomes something that keeps fueling. Every time she has a Demon orgasm, she sends another romance curse and it gets bigger and bigger each time, it spirals then.

That is what an obsession is, an obsession starts with one seed act, a decision,

Which in her case it would have been, she wanted to be with you or something, then it started with circular thinking adding orgasms to it. Each circle, each orgasm adds a generative spark that opens up a demon orgasm door. The only thing that you can do is peel away all of the circle layers and shut those demon orgasm doors. The person may still sit around and fantasize, but it is a true challenge to shut every single door so that she cannot have demon orgasms.

If she has demon orgasms you will be cursed.

All she will have to do then is get a little mad at you and combine a demon orgasm with the man who curses you.

So she can combine hate with somebody else, it doesn’t have to be with you, for the program. In fact...

OBSESSION DEMONS that result from Fallen Being Answers to Evil Prayers have a Birth, the Life span of a human (usually 65-100 and set at Conception) and follow a human life Cycle. Their age of maturation is computed by dowsing the number of years allotted them, and where they are now. They are often stacked around the Birth Life Spark (these are found with a focus on the Pineal of a person with Demon Name or Face.)

ALL DEMONS are dependent upon the existence of a Life Seed that has a human Akasha Link.

You find these demons floating in the room attempting to vampire people and pets.

AKASHA LINKS are regulated by body position of Accountability Point (if intact) or location of Nucleus if not intact due to Demon Orgasms.

AUDIO TAPE #3 Transcribed: JULY 8, 1995 Side B

CHEYENNE, WYOMING

Question: Why would M. have demon orgasms when she is very involved, as a church going person?

Question: Who is at the core, M or the man?

Answer: I'm pulling the dark force pattern and auric debris from M's demon orgasms into my body as we talk. Sometimes it appears that we are just casually talking but while we are talking I'm trying to absorb it. It is one way to get rid of it when it has invaded someone's body. I am pulling it into my body and it is sometimes faster for me to do it that way. There are often associated demons.

When there is a container around her, someone is obsessing about you, and there is a Container Echo around you.

We need to add to the charts CONTAINER ECHO ON PERSON WITH LIVING POSSESSION

You have to get rid of the container and the echo. Get the container first.

➤ I couldn't just blast A's echo, I had to blast where it is coming from; you have to destroy the container.

➤ You could ask what is a container made out of? People make it out of their own substance!

This is why people, with their personality with their physical body, they actually cause themselves to get ill, or to get skinny. I couldn't understand how La was losing so much weight, because she did eat a lot. I think part of it is, people actually use their cells at a certain point, when they burn out all of their spiritual substances, they start burning their own body. But in other cases, the irony is, they burn spiritual matter and their bodies can get bigger and then they burn their body and their body can bloat out but actually have less substance, kind of like a road kill, when a person gets bloated.

The most vampired I ever got was the fattest I would ever be, and the reason is; it was like a road kill thing. I would wake up one morning and be swollen like a bizarre bloating that would have dead stuff in it, with a sense of death. The sad thing is, when you destroy these Fallen Being Containers, if you don't stop it as early as possible, the person may actually kill themselves. So you want to cut them off from all fallen being connections so they won't keep burning their own bodies. What I have tried to do in the past and particularly in the last few months, with Sn and various people, I tried to keep blasting them with the holy powers to try to reprogram them away from the fallen being demon orgasm program. Because if they keep using their substances, they will either be hopeless vampires of other people's substances, or they will die, they will actually kill themselves.

You have seen people who were wasted away with hate and then they would get terrible diseases because they hated somebody. The problem is, if they vampire, the other people can degenerate. Children can develop chronic disease states because their parents use them to fuel obsessions.

How many more Echoes do you have? I still see two Echoes. You see, every echo, it sounds insane, but essentially every demon orgasm of a person who is thinking about you in a defiling way, produces an echo. Pretty soon the echoes make you feel cloudy, as if you can't see through them, or there is a sense of being cut off from God a little bit, and a feeling of a sense of pain. It is not just when you are around a person, but it is actually all the time, the echoes will make you feel pain, and you can try and try to clear them, but every time the person has a demon orgasm then you get the pain again.

Demon Cloud: What you have to do is unwind this one layer at a time, one echo at a time. Each one you have to destroy with will, intend and desire. This is why it is kind of exhausting if you don't get it early on because it is not just one cycle that has gone past the point of inertia.

Say if she is in your office and fantasizing about you, then she might be up to #3 on the demon orgasm scale, and once it gets to five there is not much you can do about it, because people have demon orgasms in their mind, so the inertia hits. What you have to do when she starts the fantasy thing, and it doesn't have to be about you, but in her case it would be something sexual; when you see that she going on the demon orgasm scale and building up to about a 3, then blast the living smithereens out of her with holy forces and say "In the holy name of Jesus I rebuke you and I order you out of here." Because every time a person has demon orgasms there are fallen beings associated and we must rebuke them and we must not allow them in our presence.

In essence it is your responsibility to know if someone is going to put a Fallen Being Echo on you from having demon orgasms of any kind, mental or physical. And you notice when they are about to reach the point of inertia and you stop them before then. And it is your job to stop them, because if you don't you will have a curse echo on you.

People who have romantic obsessions or sexual obsessions don't realize that every single one of them is a curse. Every single one of them. They are marked in every case by a perverted precipitating fantasy or a thought of hate. One or the other. Perversion or hate are the hallmarks of demon orgasms. Hate is often clouded in romance thoughts of ownership, but usually it is precipitated with something that goes against the law of Gender or obviously the Law of Polarity with hate and it is not just a normal sex thought, it is a perverse thought or a hate thought, an ownership thought.

If you learn to pick up the thoughts as they are trying to build toward the point of inertia, then you have the power to knock them down. The sad thing is, it takes energy. Say if you had three secretaries and every one of them had these fallen beings that were trying to destroy you spiritually. And every day, two or three times a day, three women would put an obsession echo on you, it would gradually wear you down until pretty soon, all those voices in those echoes would make you see the same images they were seeing. It would be tiring because you would then have so much to clear, you would tend to throw up your hands. That is how people get worn down. Before understanding these things, I could hear the thoughts, as in the past with people, but it was not (with an) understanding the mechanism, and knowing at which point to intervene and where was free will.

You see in the case of Demon Orgasm there is no free will involved because it is a fallen being that has a person in a Pavlovian program designed to destroy somebody holy. That in essence is what it is. They don't bother that much with demon orgasms out in the street with common people that have no potential to do a lot of good in the world. They try to attack people who have a high purpose because these are high level fallen and evil beings. Some are fallen, and others are just Anti-Logos evil beings that haven't fallen, they are just evil; in our world context they are evil. Beings designed to be chaotic are not evil in their space but if they are designed to be chaotic, they are evil in our space.

Question: (How to avoid).

Answer: I would say that if you systematically clear them and block them. It is almost like you are fencing with your environment. Somebody starts to build up; you see a demon orgasm thought doesn't have to be sex, it could be like "I'd like to kill that fucking asshole" something like that.

It could be someone in your office that just hates you like that man, his demon orgasms may be just a blast of hate coming out of his guts. So every time he thinks about you, he tries to put an echo of a hate demon orgasm, and he doesn't have to consummate it with a sexual act. It could be consummated with an outburst of verbal poison, which is usually the alternative.

The ones that are the perverse romance, sex things, usually consummate with onanism. But the ones that are hate filled like that man, consummate with slander and that is what has worried me about him, is that he has the propensity to have hate demon orgasms which result in slander, and a desire to destroy you in some way, to defile and undermine you. Not just in a business sense, but in a personal sense so that people that have known you a long time would question you, and think that you were getting flaky. What worries me is that with your secretary being hooked into romance, she could reveal anything about this teaching that she knew and he would exaggerate it to people and try to make you appear foolish; which is important to divert. He is already trying to, not about this, but about something else.

So when you look at the hate and the sex/romance demon orgasms you have to learn to fence with them because it is part of learning to be a master, and once you have fenced with them a while, like you see when he is building up to a hate/slander demon orgasm and on the inertia scale he is up to a 4. Then you start saying "In the holy name of Jesus I ask the Divine Powers to destroy this evil from this man" and then it starts backing it down to 0.

The seed act, in his case, would be the thought of hating you. Just as in your secretary's case it would be the thought of having a three-some with you. Both of them are seed acts. The onanism or slander is not the seed act. Thoughts are acts. By doing that, she tries to build to a point of inertia where she can have a demon orgasm and he tries to build his hate to the point of inertia where he can have a demon orgasm, then they both blast holes out of their demon containers that poison the environment of your work place and are filled with slanderous thoughts about you. It is the challenge of a person of power to take on, as if you are a fencer in a Three Musketeers movie, the evil of those around you so that you may learn how to fight them quickly, smoothly, precisely with the least amount of energy.

I have had to learn this at great cost because I have often gotten to the point of 9 on the inertia scale where the hate, slander or whatever, which always masqueraded as self-justified rage at me or carnality/romance. Like Cec always imagined I went to his room at night and had astral sex with him. He was the most pathological sicko I ever saw. But it has taken me a long time to figure out, to catch it before the point of inertia. People know to some extent when you do that. Maybe they do, maybe their dark forces know. They start to fear you and they may hate you more. They begin to see that they try to do something and you block them. Maybe the evil man might try to go to a meeting and say something about you, but he finds he can't, he is befuddled. His head swims; he can't even think or talk straight. This is because you have taken the sword of righteousness and said

God's Vengeance Unfolding: and that is something you should add to your chart. God's Vengeance Unfolding because it doesn't matter if it is in the realm of business. You might think it is not a big deal in God's eyes whether somebody talks bad about you in business because after all, it is only business. But it is something, because what it means is that evil is being allowed to reproduce off of your energy. And it is a training ground that must be fought on every level of society, families, business, churches (where a lot of slander goes on, in churches).

In every field of human endeavor, we face the same problems. Those problems include those that are liars and defilers trying to harm those who are struggling to be holy. And if we do not protect them in schools, in churches, in business, if we don't teach them how to protect themselves, then just sitting around and looking beatific and waxing eloquent means little because people have to live and work and breathe and eat with other people and interact and if you can't go to work without being attacked because "Oh, it doesn't matter, I'll separate my spiritual life from my material, and I'll just fight back in the way that I always knew." You see, that wouldn't work now.

Once you have crossed the line to the spiritual path of the saint, you no longer can act as a normal man because your powers are different and you have intersected the realms of Grace and even if you should fail on your spiritual path, you would still forever be marked by that. You must look at your spiritual studies as having to be translated in the other realms and this is maybe a little push from the Divine forces saying "We need you to understand the art of spiritual warfare in all aspects of your being." Because we are dealing, as it says in the Bible, with Powers and Principalities. We are dealing with forces that if we don't recognize in the work place, in the family and everything, then we will be devoured by the very forces we refuse to see.

It is not enough to just see them; we must learn how to defend ourselves so that we may defend the children of tomorrow. For every fallen being we lock up in Hades or Hell and shut the doors forever, a thousand children may be kept from going astray. They (the fallen beings) will be attracted to us and they will come through people who you would never know. They would be vehicles for the destruction of anything holy. It seems bizarre to think that the people who have known this vessel the longest sometimes have been the greatest betrayers and yet it is not that bizarre, because they would be the ones most tormented to betray. The dark forces find it, as they said in one of your exorcisms, that they like "tasty morsels" and it is not just that they just like a challenge like in the sense of a game. A person higher on the realm of spiritual hierarchy has more substance to devour. And a person who is an animalistic (a local neighbor type) does not have a lot of "meat" for the high level satiation of fallen angels and high level beings. They want a lot of power.

People who have wasted all their power don't have any power, so they are not really worth much. Except that, if they are keys; they open doors to people who are choice morsels. For that reason, weak people are often portals to destruction of holy people. To find a way to protect oneself against weak people is a challenge of a saint.

How we can help weak people be strong people is a prime question. However, I can assure you, you can never help a weak person be a strong person unless the weak person intends rightly, and wants to know God: true God. If that person, all they want to do is have a romance god, or a god they can say confession to and that is it; or if they don't hunger for righteousness, hunger for knowledge and what God is about--you see a person that truly loves God, hungers for God and truth and holiness and purity, and feels the pain of their own failures, but has trust that God will show them the way to align. Because if you truly love God you trust God.

The only reason people don't trust God is because they are untrustworthy towards God. People who live lies don't trust in God, and they don't know they live lies. Many church women have such fantasies and rationalize the darkest obsessions, and say "Oh, that's not a big deal, after all, the psychiatrist says it is normal to have fantasies" So they use that fantasy to blast holes in other people like some malefic rifle and they justify it: "I've got a right! I've got a right to romance! I've got a right to hate! I've got a right..." that is what it is always preceded by---is a sense of Jean Harris when she killed the Scarsdale Diet Doctor; "I've a right, he did this to me, I have a right!" It is not ever: "Dear Lord, I submit my will, my intention, my desire".

Some people when they are broken by what appears to be fate; maybe some tragedy befalls them as tragedy has befallen us all, deaths of (relatives), we have lost friends in the spiritual battlefield, we have seen children some do well, some do badly, we have lost homes and money, self-respect in regard to other people's viewpoint of us, we have been degraded in the public, as Cel has, and she has been stolen from on a massive scale by sickening homos. And yet we can have all those things happen to us, but if we have faith, hope, and charity, exactly as St. Paul said. I wonder if you can find it in Corinthians: "The greatest of these is love" is one version but "Charity" in King James. It is often what they recite in weddings and a person who loves truth, even if truth hurts, is a person who loves his fellow man as much as himself-- and I'm not saying more.

Even if you lay down your life for another person it doesn't mean you are a martyr in the sense as the world sees a martyr, because you ought to have self-respect. You love the greater, you see the needs of the greater and you may have to sacrifice yourself for the needs of the greater. If a million people could be surviving spiritually because you died, then there would be no question but you would die. That doesn't mean you are a martyr. What it means is that you love them as much as yourself. "Remaining now are Faith, Hope and Love, these three, but Love is the greatest of them all." 1st Corinthians 13:13.

If you love yourself as much as any man, but no greater, you will sacrifice yourself for the betterment of all. But that is not how most people view martyrdom. Most people look upon the concept of martyrdom disdainfully as though you are a masochist. What I would like to do is find a term that is not martyrdom, but is in fact what the holy saints have done to differentiate it from some sicko--as you see with some parents who feel they have been martyrs for their children and in fact they have been trying to living-possess their children. They view themselves as martyrs. They do all these things that are pseudo-masochistic...not masochistic per se, but in fact what they want to do is "own" them. They do a lot of things that are borderline, but it has nothing to do with loving themselves as much as their child.

You see the key thing about true saintly martyrdom, is you love yourself with as much respect as you love those that you serve, whereas some people sacrifice themselves with a sense of shame or degradation, which is not martyrdom. If you are part of God, if you have the Christ impulse in you then there is nothing to be ashamed of, and nothing to kowtow to in other people. This is where we run into a problem, even in the church. The thought of wearing the hair shirts and flaying the back; these things were like saying "I'm so unworthy, I'm so unworthy."

I would say that in spiritual alchemy; all alchemy starts with a tiny bit of the substance already being present. For a person to become Christ-like you must assume that, if alchemy is possible, then he must have that little bit of Christ within him that he has allowed himself to receive through submission of his own lower willfulness. If that spark of Christ is within him, then he has nothing to be ashamed of. What he must do is be so happy that he has that and have a Divine joy that that holiness is within him. That he should not be ashamed in front of any person, and should not serve foul people above himself.

That is another thing, a lot of people who view themselves as martyrs, as parents who martyr themselves to children, supposedly, actually are ashamed, but they also assume all their children must have somehow more Christ than they do, and they worship their children. Their children are their false gods. We must realize that in serving humanity, they are not our false gods. In a lot of nuns and priests, I have seen a borderline false god emerge where they view serving humanity as almost as if the people were god. In fact they thought the foulest people they met on the street were still god, and they had no discernment; which is one of the gifts of Grace. A man, a woman of God must have discernment or you are lost. If you look upon every person as holy, and they are not, then you love lies.

What makes a person holy? What is the dividing line? It is whether one intends with the heart of Christ. If you intend rightly to be holy, then that is enough to receive respect from all that is holy. But if (people) intend to have a false god, then you must spit those people out of your mouth, just as God. God's vengeance unfolds and if you do not see the intentions of others they will devour you in the workplace and family and everywhere.

You must be able to see whether someone has a holy heart of intention to know God, the true God of our Lord Jesus. And if they do not, you must recognize it or they will build until they destroy you with a curse of great magnitude.

Now I have shown you this Inertia Circle, and this circle for most people, when they do a seed act of meanness, or whatever, say a person with a false god heart, a Black Heart, then you could say the seed act was black like the black heart with a false god, like that cursing man. Most people's seed acts are little, they don't produce much of an effect, but if those people with black hearts work together, if two of them work together, they build a curse twice as big on the inertia wheel, and if three work together, they get three times as big. So every time they have some demon orgasm, they get a massive wheel increase so that pretty soon they can swallow you before you even know it. They get fallen beings. If they pray falsely while they still have souls, they can draw in fallen beings that then increase the diameter of the circle of the wheel of inertia, so that it could condemn all that is holy in your life and on the earth.

Therefore to not recognize a person of evil intention; if his heart is to the left and it is black, is to sign your own spiritual death warrant. Because if you don't recognize an evil intention and want to think "Everyone intends rightly," what happens is, they start forming their evil intention spiral and it keeps building and you just don't want to see it until pretty soon it has just engulfed you. You may be to the left of them when it starts, but pretty soon it engulfs them, their right side as well, and then it engulfs you, and all around.

Because these inertia wheels are more like spheres that grow like embryos, giant embryos of satanic forces. They grow more spherically than just clockwise or circular, though there is no adequate way to draw it. They become little worlds of their own, little sucker worlds of demon conflicts and spilled poison that shed on people. It is our job to stop them.

Question: On a daily basis (what is to be done).....?

Answer: When you look at someone, mentally dowse, "Where is the person's heart?"

If you superimposed them on yourself, ask this. For instance ask: “Where is Py’s heart?” And I can’t go out as far left as I would have to go. The more out means the number of evil doubles they have developed from demon orgasms.

So ask: “How many Black Hearts does (this person) have?” I have whittled so many away, it is just amazing.

“How far to the left is her heart?”

Or worse; “How many were there?... “How many have been put down?” ... “How many have been reproduced?”

What I have been working toward this last week is stopping the reproduction of the Black Hearts.

The reason the intensity to find me occurred, was because I’m very close to stopping it; by tomorrow probably, and knowing how you can stop it. I know how to whittle them away so as to shrink and vent the poison. I know how to do a lot of things that are after the fact, but what I am praying for night and day, and;

I ask you to pray for as well:

“How do you stop them completely from poisoning you with curses and demon orgasms?”

“How do you stop the heart of hearts of the black hearts?”

“How do you keep people from being used by fallen beings?”

“How do you keep people from just being vessels?”

If a person doesn’t intend rightly, a person has given his heart over to Satan. In other words a person has sold themselves to the devil. This is exactly what it is. If a person makes a decision to no longer want to know truth or God, but to take the easy way out with sex, or romance or art or money as their god, then there is nothing you can do, because it is up to them. You can’t talk them into it; you can’t force them to intend rightly, you can’t do anything. I have watched and prayed and hoped and whittled away from all of these demons that came out of those black hearts for months, years, not even knowing what it was. And now I see we are approaching the core of evil reproduction on the Earth. That we are going to know it soon, and we are going to be able to stop it from happening. I think that is why we’ve had a lot of attack and a lot of attempts to stop us.

When I say “I or we” of course it merely is the holy beings are revealing to us in octaves of understanding, of complex spiritual matters, how humans can keep from becoming evil, and close the doors to evil forever. And we have to do this, and we have to do it soon.

I say “soon.” Know that if we know the method by which another human could shut the doors to evil in his own life and if we publish that method, then those that see rightly and know rightly in their hearts, will multiply that teaching the world over. And we are almost there.

Question: --? Something that short circuits? Dissipates their energy?....

Answer: I don’t know, because it may be the design of power to allow poison to return to its creator, to allow the lightning to be mirrored back to the one that desired it. It may be the design of the creator that they have no matches. It may be the design of the creator that they be in a spiritual asbestos. It may be that they just might be dead. I don’t know. It might be that they are dull and lacking in any desire to harm holy people.

AUDIO TAPE #4 Transcribed: JULY 8, 1995 Side A

CHEYENNE, WYOMING

...to become holy is the only way you can protect yourself against frauds because many people can have illusions of color and light and magic. Many people can appear in long robes, majestic and glorious and show you fancy things and adjust your perception. But do they invite you to become united with the powers of the heavens [---] and the saints above?

People can show you many things and yet all that matters is whether you in fact become holy, become saints, become able to do those things, to become able to demonstrate and it is not demonstration it is another beingness.

What you demonstrate is meaningless, what you are is everything. If you are holy, then there is nothing that can ever dispel what you know. But if you imagine yourself as holy then you will always be fluctuating to illusion.

When you think of Merlin and King Arthur, what was Merlin to imagine himself as a (--) I tell you to take things under water to drown them, to dispel them and that is the same thing that King Arthur was told: "Imagine yourself a fish..." I tell you to dispel things by vaporizing them and (Arthur was told) "Imagine yourself as a bird..." It is not imagining. No. The difference between a master and a road side scholar--not a Rhodes Scholar but a road-side scholar, is that one becomes what one imagines. You become by trusting in God.

(Aside): I look at that (lamp) light, it is so peach it is like looking at Heaven.

You become by trusting and then deciding to move to that point of trust so that you change inside. It is not intellectual, it is not emotional. No. It is spiritual. Should you decide to do so, then the heavens will be exalted. I cannot say you will be comfortable. But if you differentiate comfort from joy you will be joyful.

You have to realize there are more parts of self than you know and should you align [--] you become happy. I have known more darkness and I have known more light than most people and I am happy. I am so happy. It is because I know God is real. I don't know God as a person, I know God as a series of forces that are downline as a series of hierarchal beings that are mighty, majestic and intertwined with human destiny.

But I know they are there and I am never afraid and I never doubt and I never lack in-- because there is a like a rock of destiny. There is holy, there is mighty, there is [--] full of angels that are always there. I am eroded by something in the room. Wherever there is satanic impulse, holy beings begin to leave. (Pause) [--] since you are so mighty in your discernment.

(A child offers G a favor) That is a lovely thing. Beware of giving in to the habits of thought that have brought you to destruction through the intricacies of human relations over the course of time. One of the major pitfalls that people run into is that they are not in the now. They will compare something with something they have seen before. Or they pass a judgment based upon fear or based upon hatred for the one true God which is your case.

If you love the one true God then you will recognize the little [---]. Because the one true God has many faces and appears in many ways. He may appear in a bubbling brook. He may appear in somebody in a supermarket. He may appear in something that you open and read in the dead of night, a book that you have never read before. The one true God can appear in many ways. But when that face appears, should you scorn that face and be smug, you are taking a great karmic debt. Because humanity is a mass, it is a sea of disorder and whenever God chooses to appear down in that sea and say "Let's try to bring a little order to this disorder" to undermine or to scorn that portal is a great karmic debt because there are so few windows in which God appears today.

It is like the earth is a cesspool and for anything holy to come through requires that the vessel that comes through that cesspool have enough energy to withstand the taunts of the fallen which often include those closest (to them). And to be able to deliver holy words past the cesspool of the defilers and the taunters is a mighty act of power.

It is not one (act) that it is done once; it is done every day, every minute. It takes a constant pressure of holiness. It takes divine force to endure. I have said to you there is desire that one must purify. I've said to you that there is intention that one must purify. I've said to you that there is will that one must submit to God and purify and I've said; and I will say it now: one must pray rightly. One must ask only the greatest power, that the God of our Lord Jesus intersect [---]. But one must never pray for personal gain or glory or for anything except that the holy plan of our God Lord Jesus become manifest on the face of the Earth. And if I pray for anything else, then I am satanic. I ask that those that are with me now Pray: "Pray that we be delivered of all evil within us and without us." All evil in a context; remember you have to start from a proximity point.

How do we anchor ourselves as a group? I say anchor ourselves with Jesus and Mother Mary and if we cannot anchor ourselves there, we have a serious problem. So I say that in the context from an anchoring point, a pivotal point of our Lord Jesus and Mother Mary that all evil; that all that Jesus and Mother Mary would view as evil, be destroyed and that we would rather die as humans than to deface the holy plan of God. I personally would give my life if I thought that I had somehow harmed the plan of God according to our Lord Jesus and Mother Mary.

To St. Michael and all the saints above, in the Name of our Lord Jesus I ask that if there is any way that any of us, that we not be allowed in any way to go against the plan of God according to our Lord Jesus and Mother Mary. We don't know what that is. We submit ourselves in total ignorance. We give ourselves over to God and that is an important factor. We must submit ourselves. If we don't know what is holy, if we don't know what is bad, we must ask God to show us. I think tonight as we sleep we should pray for discernment. We should pray that first of all, you must decide to trust that there is a God in the heavens; the God of our Lord Jesus. If you decide that, then all the rest is downhill. If you decide there is a God of our Lord Jesus and you say that anything below that, (against Law) has to be destroyed.

I don't want people to worship what I do. What I want is God's Plan become manifest and we must; I can feel a Satan Cone in the room. There is a Satan Cone. See it is very interesting that when there is a higher purpose in the heavens there is always equal opposition. There is kind of a law of Polarity. What I am seeing now, what I am sensing now is a Satan Cone of opposition. There are false gods in this room and if any of you could dowse worth a damn you could dowse how many false gods. I dowse there are three false gods. And if you have a false god then you best release them, or you will be destroyed. And the reason you will be destroyed is that no one in this party can be allowed to have false gods. I say you will be destroyed, and you will actually physically die. It is not to provoke a fear that I say that, but I know it is true.

Is your false god Art? Is it carnality? Is it selfish [---]? Then you best destroy it before God destroys you. You cannot have a false god. A false god is left to the heart and that isn't good enough for God. God wants holy intention, holy will and holy desire and if He doesn't have it, then you will be destroyed. It is amazing how much resistance can be given to that which is so logical.

I think we should go to sleep and rest upon the concepts of "Dear Lord, how much do I submit my will, my desire, my intention to your holy plan? And if there are any impediments there, I ask that they be removed and I ask that I be purified in all ways."

Do you realize that every time you get possessed, like you wake up at night and have horrible things going through your mind; if that was the prayer that you always thought, that you would become ever more holy even if you were still possessed? It is like, you can take on the demons of hell and if you know who you are in your waking and dreaming mind then nothing can ever hurt you and that you can grip the bowels of the greatest demon and force it into submission and he will back down! I am here to tell you I have done it: today.

It is not that you won't feel the pain of it. I feel the pain of it. I vomit, I bleed, I have some pain. But there is nothing that will stop me. There is nothing that will depress your dignity, as your dignity as a warrior is never undermined.

Sings: To Dream the Impossible Dream

(From the Movie "The Man of La Mancha")

*To dream the impossible dream,
To fight the unbeatable foe,
To bear with unbearable sorrow,
To run where the brave dare not go!*

*To right the unrightable wrongs,
To love pure and chaste from afar,
To climb when your arms are too weary,
To reach the unreachable Star!*

*This is my quest! To follow that Star!
No matter how hopeless. No matter how far.
To fight for the right without question or pause,
To be willing to march into hell for a heavenly cause.
And I know if I always be true to this glorious quest,
That my heart will lie peaceful and calm when I'm laid to my rest.*

*And the world will be better for this,
That one man (or woman or all of us), scorned and covered with scars,
Still strove with our last ounce of courage,
To reach the unreachable Star!*

The wounds that we bear will not be visible although maybe, they may be mortal. Every time I hear a dog bark I wonder if it is the end. And yet should you act with integrity you have nothing to fear, nothing to hide and you will be ok when the end comes. Even if the end comes, it will be ok. Should you live every day with complete purity, there is nothing else you can do! Should you live each day with complete impeccability, with looking at it as if it were your last day, how could you do better? All you have to leave the world is what you are today.

Of course people who don't love the world don't care what they leave the world. So they seek to defile as they lead others to the trap. I look at humanity and I ask [---] happy. I have little things that anchor me to the earth, like Chihuahuas and worrying about coats at Goodwill. There are little things that link me to the earth, the Chihuahuas and the coats because I look with such horror at the times, at what I see. Like Nostradamus, I look. And yet you guys don't even realize how hard it is for a holy being to enter a realm where there are pre-conceived notions of reality. You, Fo, are full of them.

When you have preconceived notions of reality, the holy beings, they suffer because they want to tell you what is real, what is happening, what is going to happen, what will happen. The angels want to tell you and you have pre-conceived notions and you are smug, every one [--]. (Sighs) I struggle against it. I am nothing but a human now; the holy beings have left because of the scorn of RP and Fo.

RP and Fo have abolished the Holy Beings and you both need to pray on that. I am nothing but a human. I am a human that loves God, though. But the both of you cannot see it. All you can see are your own notions and your own memories. You have no notion of [---] holy beings, You have no notion of holiness, neither one of you do. Both of you are despicable. Get out of this room, both of you. You are both despicable, carnal, pieces of shit. (They leave the room).

There comes a point when you can no longer rationalize when people actively choose evil. When that point arises when they are in the presence of holiness and they seek to defile it by some graphic mind-set of defilement that is so into their own reality; they are so satanic. Check where their hearts were. We can no longer tolerate that. See, what I am trying to teach you, is to check where people's hearts are. If God's heart would be right here, where are their hearts? What is interesting that Fo is on the Left and RP is on the Right. It is almost like they are closing in on me.

What does it mean the right and the left in the context of where the heart is? It has to do with a type of satanic energy one decides upon with intention. It is like I know when God is with me. I have prayed as a vessel for years and I know that satan is with someone else. I know when satan is on the right or left of a person. And I know what they say to people and if you don't know, you are lost. I won't say the common man is lost. What I am saying is those two tonight made a major error in that they went to their own memory banks to evaluate their experience and in doing so, they cut themselves off from Grace.

It is like God shows us things. It could be in an elevator in New Jersey or something. It could be in your living room at home, just spontaneously. It could be in your Grandma's kitchen. It could be anywhere. What I am saying is that God tells us things from time to time and if you try to evaluate by your previous experiences, you are satanic.

There is something about receiving God's Grace that is always in the Now. It is like a moment of Glory that shines upon you somehow and somehow you are changed and something in you, your innards just shift. The more you are open to it, the more often it happens! It is kind of like, if you let God come in one time, God will come in more often.

But God doesn't come in if you just evaluate it by your previous experience. God comes in because you opened to it at that second. You trust. And if something superficial throws you off so that maybe you miss a moment of God's Grace coming down and touching you on the head, then you damn well may miss your whole life. Damn is a good term too, for tonight; damnation. Yet there is some aspect of damnation for those that receive the gifts of Grace. For somebody to sit and say "Well, I remember when this person thought this or did that or whatever" which is what they were doing; was damnation for them.

You have to be able to see yourself and others new. You have to be able to just receive what God gives you and understand that and just say: "Ok, I may not understand the context and everything else, but ok, I will try to receive what God gives me even if I don't understand it". That sense of 'don't know' that sense of humility, is missing from them. That was the core of it. It was like a lack of humility in the divination of Grace. And God comes down in mysterious ways. God may come down through some lady in the supermarket to you some day. She may say something to you that just bowls you over and somehow changes your life with what she says. But you are going to know, if God tells you something through that lady, you want to be open to it. But I wonder how many ladies in the supermarket have people ignored? How many old men in bus stations have people have ignored? How many masters have been refused at doors and in casual meetings? How many times have you met a master and not remember? It is like if you meet him and you are told that he is a master, but you don't receive him, how are you going to receive him if you don't know?

How many people are even open to ever believing that there is such a thing as a master, or a seer, or a saint or a prophet? How many people will even hear a prophet, a saint or a master? How many people ever want to? That is my pain. My pain is how many people will ever want to? What is a tragedy for me is those that have, and yet scorn. That is why I sent them away. Fo saw for years LG suffer and pray earnestly for the sight of God, for God to come upon the earth. He saw her pray in her holy room on her knees for God to come upon the face of the earth. (Sighs) Should these men not know, then not one would know.

It is like the grief that comes over me to realize the paradox of them falling; that I can write things. I believe I can write things now if I am not murdered, I will write things. I will write things that will inspire the masses who want God. And I will do my best with every fiber of my being as I have for years with every aspect of my being as LG, as G or B. It doesn't matter what my name is because I am God's; I am God's tool. That is all that I am: God's tool. I will write things, inspire humanity. It is expedient to have assistance. And yet I feel grief.

So often when you look closely at light all you see, you are blinded by. I look back and see the Earth. Sometimes I just pray to understand the dynamics of human reaction to that which is above and pray to work with that. We must never doubt that God is with us. We must never doubt that there is holiness that transcends the base, vulgar aspects of humanity. (Weeping)

God; there are things that are noble, there are things which are (---), there are things which are glorious, there are things which transcend that which is vulgar and base on the earth and that we must always aspire to those things. One must always have faith that those things are present. We must look for those things in each other and we must encourage those things in humanity; something which is finer than what humanity is used to. Humanity is used to that which is vulgar. And that is what pains the Gods above that serve the One True God of our Lord Jesus. There are fine things in the world, there are glorious things. There are things of such beauty and [---] inspire. There are things that I want to write. All I need is a safe place where I won't be killed or molested or anything vile. All I ask is for a quiet room to pray and a place to write. If I am good enough, then my dream will be sanctified. END OF SIDE A: (NO SIDE B) #4

- 2. Ask: What Level on The Manifestation Chart Has It Reached? (After 5 Is Inertia).

- 3. Destroy The Substance Container and The Fallen Beings Associated With The Curse.

- 4. Destroy the Echoes of the Curse.

REMEMBER it is our responsibility to remove these and it is important to remove them before Inertia is reached.

How to Destroy:

- Unwind your Ether Key Patterns that form hologram reminders of hells, etc.
- Ask the Holy beings to destroy and unwind.

Order for Clearing

- 1. You feel bad.
- 2. Ask: "What % of alignment to the Plan of God am I on the Ether level?" and "How unwound am I at this point?"
Also check each level on the New Earth Layer Of Beingness Chart
- 3. Ask: "How many factors have caused this to unwind?"C
- 4. Check the worst factor (first) on the Micro Akasha Pool Chart (For example Combined Ether Substance with two people in Akasha with "Past Intent of Self Echoes").
- 5. Then Check On The Mega Akasha Chart : (Page 73)
- 6. Find the Demon Orgasm Exit Spot (next page) where the poison is spitting out.
Use To Do's to Clear; Each Container has its own Exit Point.
- 7. Work down to the Seed Act which is often a Living Possession.

NOTE: Every Demon Orgasm is a Curse

- 8. Check each Obsession on whether it is from the Dreaming or Waking Mind.

You may also check the % of time the person spends in any Obsession.

AUDIO TAPE #5 Transcribed: JULY 9, 1995 Side A

CHEYENNE, WYOMING

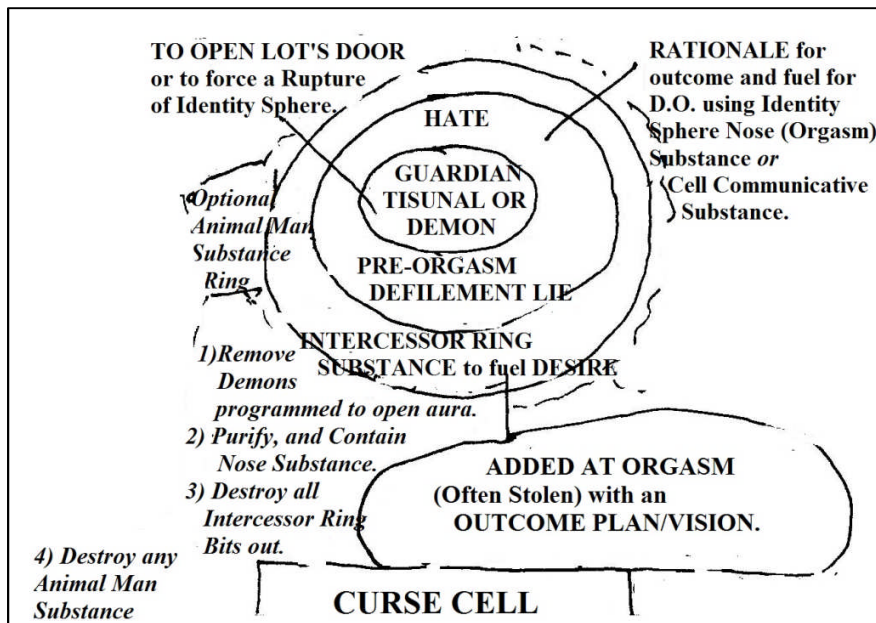

I've told you that we need to look at how to stop people from cursing you or using your energies to have demon orgasms, like in A's case at work. In order to give you an explanation of the most malignant types of curses, I drew an ANATOMY OF A CURSE (This chart is not the one referred to) using an example, a real example that illustrates the most malignant ones are synergy curses in which a person takes a position of Intent, Desire or Will and when you get three people that take those poles or positions of power even as satanic then you develop a dangerous situation because you have a combined free will to do evil. It often starts with speech between two people.

Like A's book (that he brought) had some very good stuff on wrong speech. If one person gets on the phone to talk to another or it could be in an office with one chatting with another; one of them having an agenda that is not holy. (They would) like to humiliate a third party, to lie about them, to slander because they have some reason that they want to justify hating the person. Hate is never really justified, so what they tend to do is lie about the person they want to hate so that they can justify their hate to others.

It will start a slander chain that is common in all organizations and if one of those persons has a jealousy, like a desire to be you. It seems to me that in A's case, that man in some way want to be you so there is some aspect of the #1 person.

Although this was not your case that has been drawn here, there are going to be correlations with your case. One person might want to be, and there is a jealousy component, so the gossip begins. There is another person that is holding some kind of grudge or has an intention that is malignant for some reason--desiring to destroy to get back; for one reason or another. In your office's case your person three would be your (office worker).

But there is someone, a person number two who I think is present, a female. You may not even know the female. It appears to be someone your secretary confides in and person number one confides in person number 3 in your case. It doesn't have to follow the same pattern, but one of them has to know both of the people. Other than that the other two don't have to know each other.

So they start the...one of them has a grudge and another is jealous for whatever reason. Person number three is someone who has a tendency toward sexual fantasies. I would say that in almost every curse, one of the persons is going to have some kind of sexual fantasy thing. The reason is, to energize the curse, the generative function is almost necessary.

The other two really don't have to be that sexually [--]; but they might have hate demon orgasms. Like the man in your office seemed to want to blow out that hate from his chest. I would say that anybody who enjoys gossip for gossip's sake--and there are reasons to discuss people's situations to learn from them, but to merely enjoy defiling is another story and usually indicates one of the hells related to defilement like the underground hell #7 and a lot of times there are other ones; particularly if there is a jealousy component--wanting to defile some person they are jealous of, for whatever reason.

You can see how people's faces just shine with some kind of sick pleasure when they hear someone is having trouble, and have you ever seen someone; say someone in the office saying: "Did you hear that so and so is getting a divorce?" and "Yeah he caught in bed with another woman." And some people's faces will just look like they are enjoying hearing about the suffering of someone else that is creepy and indicates a person that has gossip demon orgasms. This is where, when they talk on the phone or something, they actually have a mental and a physical ripple rush to hear something foul and it is different from the other Demon Orgasms (D.O.s) but it is significant in that it is one of the most destructive things in the world.

Now, if these three people combine energies, auric substances with their own particular type of D.O. the first one is jealousy, the second one is slander and the third one is sexual; what happens their dream minds form a synergy ring. It is almost like they form their own Cosmic Dust Molecule with Will, Intend and Desire. If they all were just sexual in their D.O.s rather than hate and slander, it is unlikely they would form a very good synergy team. The reason is, they would have blown out power centers by their sexual stuff. So they rely on each other to get their own particular type of D.O. They need complementary D.O.s rather than the same D.O.

However, what ends up happening, is that they all end up having all three types of D.O. because a person can be a slanderer; and this is a person who loves to chat on the phone for long periods of time like your (office worker) who likes to go and talk to people. People who are just too chatty, you have to watch out for in hiring because they tend to have loose lips and they sink ships.

A person who has a basic jealousy type energy; that wants to be a big shot but somehow doesn't want to go to all the trouble to become a person of power: for instance Fn was always wanting to be a film-maker but she didn't want to go to college and study filmmaking, did she? But she was always wanting (her boyfriend) to get her jobs in film-making but she didn't want to carry coffee and work her way up the ladder and she didn't want to go to college either. So she was mad that she couldn't be a filmmaker without doing any of the leg work or the beginning work.

You see this in every business and every organization; secretaries that don't want to be called secretary but "executive assistant" or something. They have to have some big-shot name. There is no honor anymore in our culture in doing things that are humble so as to gradually work their way up. It is like people are too prideful. And this type of person who won't carry coffee and doesn't think of going to the boss and asking "Say, can I get you your lunch for you?" A woman who goes into an office of any kind or a man, a beginning man who comes into the office as a base level employee ought to do considerate things that are appropriate with his level of entry and includes just courtesy such as carrying coffee. Like in filmmaking, I'm sure you have to start out carrying coffee, males and females, and as a nurse I was wiping butts. I have done a lot of that.

Will can be stolen from you for power use by others if your Tretas are cracked at the top due to hatred for Law/Authority.

Your Desire Treta ruptures if you reinforce obsessions that link you with others in hell/hades who share the same obsession. When it is ruptured, other people of similar obsessions can tap your Desire power.

Shared lies or justifications that promote opposite gender hatred attract an Akasha Pool Link/Light Drain that ruptures your Intend Treta. Often, it is a very subtle lie that encourages mere avoidance of opposite sex, as "independence" or "unnecessary" but later becomes narcissistic and leaning toward homosexual mind-sets about gender. Hatred for God/Truth is the root, and laziness, and an intention to be narcissistic/love-less.

Obsessions cannot exist unless a person hates Authority/Gender and has chosen to be love-less.

Creative Thought Valve Substance is a component that is present in True Love. People without mental, emotional, physical or artistic boundaries may need to pray that this Valve be sealed up unless used for Love.

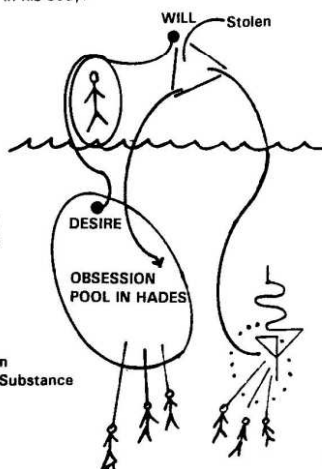

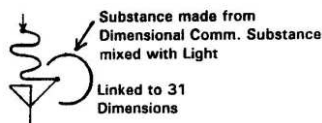

True Love is healing to the body, whereas Lies (which include Hate) or Selfish Narcissism weakens the dimensional framework of the body and poisons around the person. A person who has submitted his will to the True God and has chosen to love humanity will be 100% LOVE/LIGHT in his body.

3. DESTROY ALL Halo Substance or Intercessor Ring Components of CURSE

It is not degrading if you look upon it as part of a stepping stone. But a person who wants to start at the top and wants to cut all the steps and this is true in the spiritual realm, too, in that people who want to be powerful but they don't want to work on the virtues, and they want to be in spiritual studies but they don't want to follow the guidelines. Such people are treacherous.

So I would call Person #1 here, the Treacherous Demon Orgasm Person. This is a person like Jm who wants to be a sorcerer but he doesn't want to go through the leg work of changing his life so as to be a holy transmuter rather than a sorcerer. This type of person in the spiritual world is treacherous, a sorcerer, rather than a spiritual scientist. This type of person wants to use higher knowledge to get rushes; mental rushes, financial rushes, relationship rushes, that sort of thing.

(Physical symptoms #1, #2, #3): This type of person, if you think of the body or the auric cocoon as having areas where there would be a blasting out of energy in a demon orgasm; I would have to say this person, it is almost like their guts have blown out. It is like there is a relationship of a treacherous person in their intestines. I know when I have had contamination in the past with this treachery, that my own guts feel like I'm bloating up, my belly will bloat up and with intestine problems which is linked with being exposed to this type of treacherous person. Related with that would be a lot of mucous in the system and snot. Although that happens with the other two as well (in variation). Snot doesn't seem to occur with all three, however this first kind seems to cause bloody nose. The nose feels not so much snotty, but dry and sore and bleeds readily. Whereas person number three would tend to produce a lot of mucous, the nose would be sore with a lot of mucous. Number two tends to cause the lips to have problems more than the nose; such as fever blisters. So you have your treacherous demon orgasm, the intestinal blow-out type person.

Then your 2nd type person the slanderaus one---well, I guess that makes sense for that one to affect the mouth. If you are being cursed by this Evil Trinity of people, you may get mouth sores as a result.

Of course the 3rd person is obvious (carnality/sexual). If you have a person that has all three, they tend to blow themselves out unless they add more people to the synergy group. So that is why they recruit. A person who becomes, or has one of these weakness: treachery and treachery by the way is directly related to hatred for hierarchy and the sexual perverse person is directly related to hatred for gender; always. There is hatred for usually the opposite sex and it manifests usually as voyeuristic, exhibitionist and homosexual or lesbian fantasies. Those are the key things that tend to be in their fantasies. Sometimes it is pedophilia; so pedophilia, exhibitionism, voyeurism and homosexuality. Anytime you find those thoughts going through your mind you actually may be hooked into a person that is perverse.

You can often tell. If you look through with your left side and we haven't done enough practice with that, you will be able to see around a person of perversity a kind of a dark cloud around the nose and also around the pelvic region. You have to look at the left side to see it. There is kind of an imposed swarthisness in front of the face. That is because there is a door to Hades usually, on the nose and the pelvis.

If three people have a common desire and will and intention relating to a fourth person which we will call the victim position--I know that victim is not a good term, maybe we will call the #4 the Target Person. If these people have their treachery demon orgasms, slander D.O.s and sexual D.O.s one time combined then their Dream Minds are hooked. This means that there are actually in each other's ether. And what does that mean to be in each other's ether? It means they have opened a door to a hell or a hades together. They get kind of, you could say trapped in a pattern. It is as though the door gets frozen open by the force of the combined effort. It is like they rip open a part of their spiritual anatomy so that it has the pattern of all three of them in it.

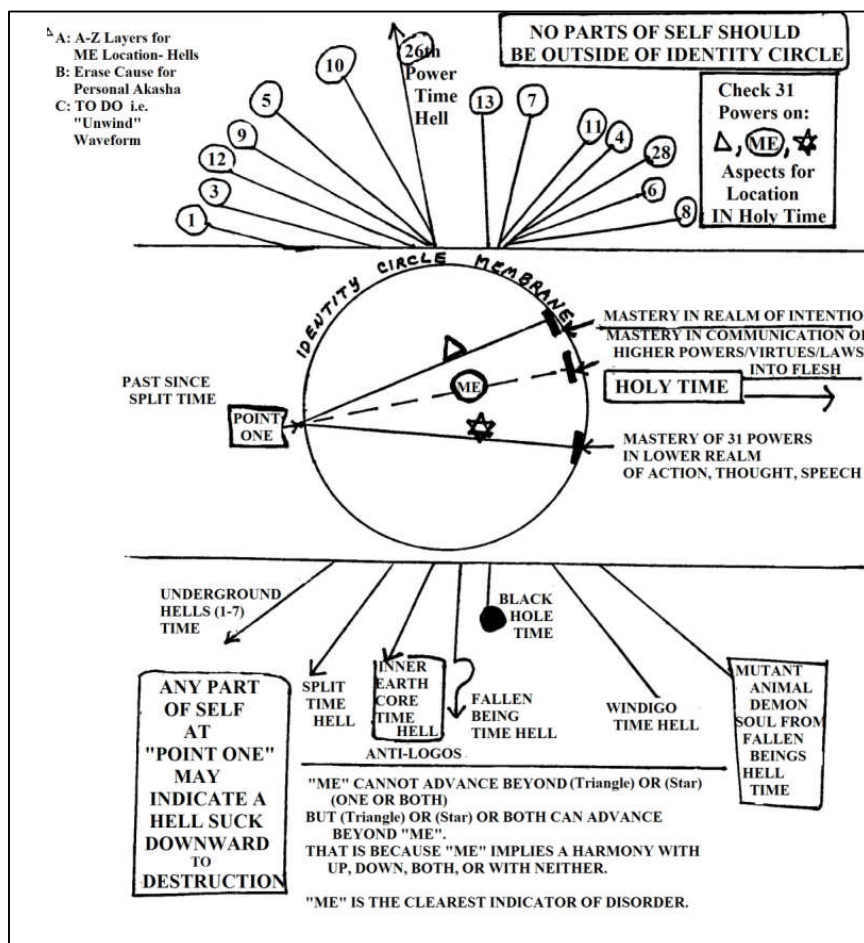

You could ask "Do they have an actual matter, do they actually have a substance connection?" Usually there is an Orgasm Substance. It is a distinct substance that binds everything together. It is the strongest binder because its whole purpose is to bring forth life. I remember quite some time ago, I think it was October, when this hell stuff came up. I told everyone they should make sure that we don't have (demon orgasm) seeds floating around because they will get in other people. And I saw that in the coming months, part of the plan, that some people would just willfully leave their seeds out. They wanted to form a synergy team. They knew it, and the only reason they would get rid of them would be if I mentioned it to them because they didn't want to be embarrassed.

False Concepts Linked to Lower Hells Chart

So with the CURSE-LINKED DREAM MINDS, every single one of them has a: False God Program.

(First) you have three people and you could say it is not a total curse yet, because there are other aspects to a curse. But you have three people who are linked to their dream minds and they don't have to...person one doesn't have to know person three but they usually do.

What happens, they are constantly thinking what the others are thinking. It is like they are on three tracks. These sub tracks are very interesting in that it could actually be considered as only one track, in that there are three that are together. It is like a triangle that is moving down a tunnel and each corner is a person's subconscious mind that is linked.

It is Linked to TIME,
It is Linked to SPACE and
It is Linked to HELLS.

←This chart is from an older version of a lesson but it is very good, where I describe the angles (of tethered and underground Hells).

If you look at the middle section where the Identity Sphere is located; this is like Holy Time and your Identity Sphere is supposed to stay intact inside Holy Time. In other words, you are not supposed to have your ME up in a Tethered Hell.

That implies that you have moved at a wrong angle in Time and Space with your consciousness.

Why do you think people have demon orgasms preceding mental arguments or something? It is in order to divert their consciousness in a wrong angle so as to rupture into a hell. If it goes to out one angle it goes down to a Time Hell. Other angles go to Underground Hells or Tethered Hells. All the hells aren't mapped here, but I will eventually do that. (See Hell Chart in Appendix).

So the key characteristics of the thought that they use to achieve some thrill whether it is a slander thrill or whatever will regulate the angle of the ME leaving the Identity Circle and leaving Holy Time. If you leave Holy Time and enter a hell, if three people join forces, they can have more power to blast through; to go into an underground or tethered hell. That is the reason people join forces in evil synergy groups. That is why gossipers like to chat. That is why some people have social demon orgasms. Those who have social D.O.s are generally trying to grab people with their wills and have a type of Will D.O. It is actually a treachery thing. It is like people at seminars who want to get power from each other and they lock eyes and they try to show how powerful they are. These people are generally treacherous and a lot of them also have the D.O. of the sexual types; you know, going to seminars to find someone to go to bed with or whatever and it happens in any business.

So what happens, a person's dreaming mind is then stuck in a hell with the other people. If you imagine this 5th hell here of the three people in this Anatomy of a Curse Illustration (not currently available) hooked into the 5th hell, they have merged and exited by their purpose. They are all three thinking about the same person, so they have a focus, a purpose, they have a reason for living; they don't even know what it is yet. As far as they are concerned, they just want to have fun and they think it is fun to sit around and chat and whatever. But it is not a conscious curse where three people get together and do mumbo-jumbo. It is the most casual thing that combines.

Now if at least one of them doesn't pray for deliverance and break out of that circle, they eventually add other people to it. You know how contagious gossip is and how contagious treachery is! As they add more people, the potential for destruction of a group or an organization increases proportionately with the number of people linked because you have more people that are willing to have the characteristics of having some desire substance left, some will substance left or some intend substance left. So if you don't get it when it is just the three, then you will likely to be faced with a major curse towards an individual, toward an organization; which is exactly what happened with our organization.

By the group meditations that were being done by Jg's eastern guru thing were very bad because a lot of people still had some soul matter. You don't have to have soul matter to curse anyway, because people can curse all the way down to their own body tissues and use their body tissues and burn it like burning wood; like burning chairs in the house for the fireplace. And if they add more people, they just vampire those people. People who curse are always vampires at one point or another and usually sooner than later even when they still have [--].

Question: (inaudible) Answer: It is always based upon a false god program and usually it is "I am my own God" and there is an aspect of "Fuck hierarchy. I am my own boss" and a hatred for hierarchy is one of the key symptoms of a person that will defile an organization of any kind. And they always say; and this is the way they lure their recruits in businesses or in organizations they say: "You are letting that person take your power from you." In other words if it is your boss or your teacher they will say "You are letting that person take your power!" or (they think) "That person is trying to take my power!" They gossip with each other but they use it in different language they will just say "Who does he think he is trying to tell me what to do" or "Who does she think she is, because she is my teacher trying to tell me to limit my behaviors?" There is always the sense of "Fuck you."

It is interesting that the terminology of the common man; he always uses sexual words in hatred for authority like: "Fuck you"; "Eat me" you know, all these things that they say to insult somebody. It is always something defiling "Go fuck yourself." That is the kind of things they say behind bosses' backs. That is why one of the ways they often try to bring down someone is by alluding to them in sexual ways by slander about their sex practices or what they are doing. This is one of the biggest problems in the world today. If you don't like someone you just report them for something that they didn't do. You just slander them, but sexually. You get treachery, slander and sex almost always together, if someone is nutty they will have all three, sooner or later.

And they may think of it though, that they are fond of you or have a romance thing but it will always end up being treacherous. A romance thing in the office never just stays romance. I'm talking about a one way thing. I'm not talking about a normal attraction where people meet and then they get together. I am talking about a romance obsession for someone that is woven into sexual imagery. That person will always end up being treacherous one way or another even though they appear to be totally devoted. Because it is intimately linked with the formation of a curse "If you don't want me, nobody else is going to have you" "If you don't want me, I am going to bring you down" that sort of thing. There is an undercurrent of that in every romance obsession, wanting to destroy the object of attraction because romance obsession is not the same thing as the love of a man and a woman.

If you love someone you want them to be happy and you don't want to devour them and you don't want to bring them down just because they don't want you. Love is like the Corinthians verse which we probably ought to read today. But you have read it a hundred times. You know the gist of it. It is unselfish. This demon orgasm thing is very selfish because what it tries to do is grab the object of desire with sexual fantasies and will grabbing, so as to force someone into having a relationship.

So a person who has gotten into one of these 3 major areas of weakness could be said to align with the main components of this early day version of the Identity Sphere in that you could say the Number 1 Person who is treacherous could be represented by the little Triangle in that there would be an Intent that is evil. The person who slanders and wants to be another person has an idea of himself that he is inadequate so he wants to be someone else. So I would say that

The desire be a victim is often Position #2 as well (as) intention to destroy through slander could be a ME problem. Because slander has to do with---the ME has to do with pulling in energies together. It is almost like the slander person is the one that pulls the other two together. That is the intermediary. It is like the Ego of the sicko group.

And then the (3rd Person) who acts out the sexual stuff could be represented as the Star. It is not a real tight analogy.

But the fact that there are Three Components in the Cosmic Dust Particles have three components of Will, Desire and Intent are very key in that by taking one stand on each position (as three people), it is almost like you do create your own reality. It is almost like people trying to create their own Cosmic Dust Particles with their attributes but they don't have enough strength to take all three positions, they only have the strength to take one.

What do you do if somebody has burst through into a hell and they are around you, they tend to leak out substances which are poisonous to you spiritually? And if you under stress then the substances can get onto your cells. They actually go around your cells or in your cells or whatever. I drew person #1 has the cells walls with Hell/Hades Clouds of Darkness and the Cell Nucleus with the Dark Forces. You see, the targeted person, during a time of weakness or auric cracks or whatever could actually get all those same components in the cells. If you find that happening, or if you try to identify problems within yourself; if you feel cloudy, you may find that you have those just because of contamination and not because you are treacherous or a slanderer or anything.

The one thing you will find around a person who is being cursed, you will find RINGS OF DEATH that have a certain sound to them. You can find them most readily on yourself by thinking of the alphabet so;

Ask: "How many Rings of Death do I have on A? B? C?" etc.

It can wear you down, these curses. Association with cursors can pull you into hells on a certain sound. You have got to realize that you have the whole alphabet in your personal Name. You have it on your Wake layer and your Dream Layer. Check your wake layer first and then your dream layer:

Clearing Example: On my Wake Layer where is my A?"

I will check a student's A...and then his B..., C--his C is linked to a [--] in Outer Space which tells me there is a problem. H...I...J...; K has a power time hell. L...M...N...; O is in a Power Time hell, P...Q...; R is the same hell as La, he has an La resonance. S...T...U...; V- now I am getting demons flapping.

So you can dowse it two ways.

1) Check if it has a pull outside of holy time, like a tube you are removing like a tunnel. If you have a pull on any of these,

it could be a pull to a hell and if it is a pull backwards it is probably a pull to the past since Split Time. So you would probably ought to write on the charts: "Past Since Split Time" on the backwards (Time), because that is bad too, if you are going the wrong direction.

2) A general overview would be "Where is my Triangle; where is my ME; where is my Star?" But it will be a lot tighter if you check each of the letters for that and that is how you will find the Rings of Death.

Question: Check each of the letters on the ME, Star and Triangle?

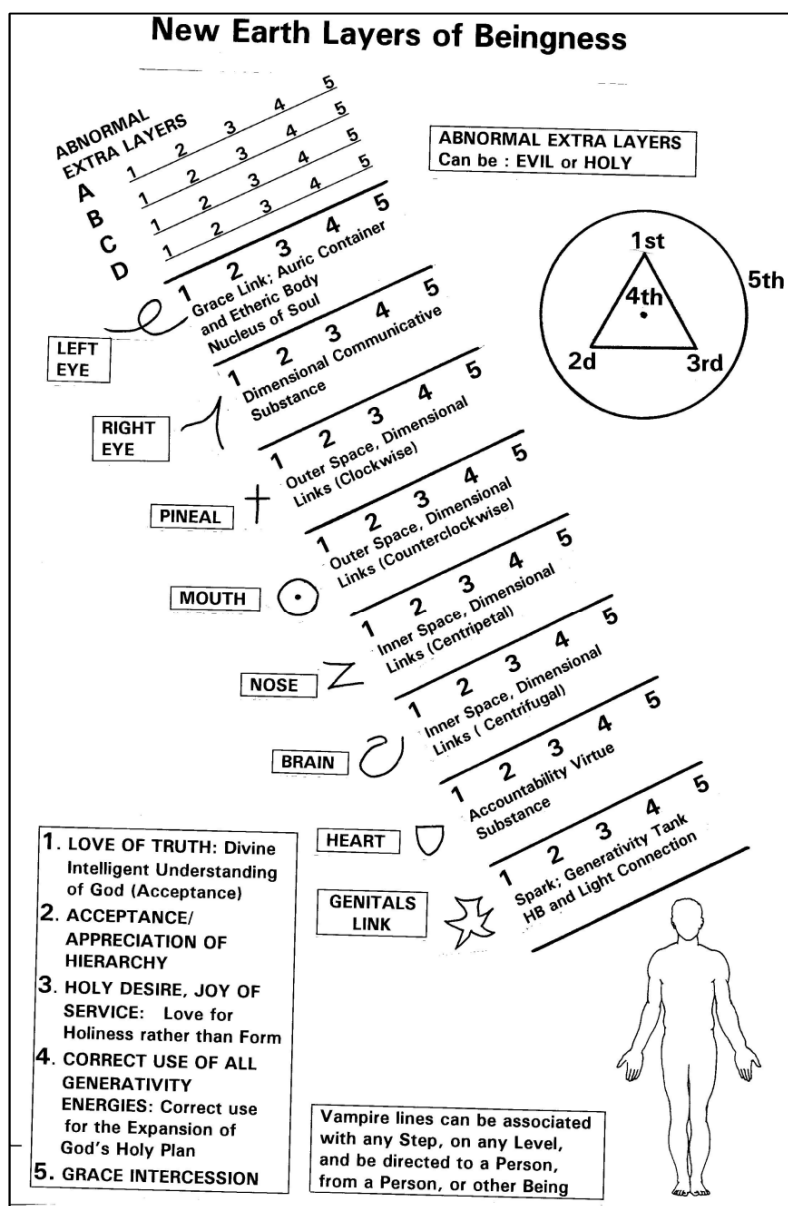

Answer: No. Why don't you just think only of the ME but check the Wake Mind and then check the Dream Mind. When you find them, then you have to look at...(To do): Erasing the Cause from Personal and Mega Akasha by going through the To Dos.

I worked today some on the different aspects of unwinding things and I realized that when you are looking at a curse it is more than just unwinding. The unwinding has more to do with the sexual aspect of a curse. There are other aspects that must be addressed.

Like on your Chart; the one that has ←Layer of Beingness, one of the layer charts that should have been in your last packet where you have New Earth Layers of Beingness. This chart with the symbols on it was in the last package from yesterday:

Keep in mind that each curse and each dark force that significantly impacts you has components of those three types of energies: Intend, Will and Desire.

Think of the sexual unwinding of the demon orgasm as probably the most important and the “Willful defiance to holiness in flesh” is a major thing that you must try to avoid in yourself and also in association with others.

Unwinding it unwinds a lot of Will aspect and also there are Intend aspects with the sexual too. Don’t get me wrong, there are also Desire aspects. Obviously there are all three with the Sexual (focus person).

The sexual is the most advanced degrading state because anybody who has hit the sexual level is already generally a slanderer and treacherous person.

How would you help somebody if you were trying to teach them that they were making curses? First of all you would have to try to get them to give up their willful defiance to holiness in flesh because if they keep reinforcing their weaknesses, you are going to have to take another step which is more difficult.

To help them get over this though, if they are intractable, you have to remove the New Earth Level of Beingness connections that they have. This is something you must pray about because if a person is going to repeatedly curse you, you have no choice but to remove, to separate yourself from them. But what you could consider it being, is taking away part of them that could move toward the Rapture. This is a very serious state, and yet you have no choice.

You see, everybody, even a base person; virtually all people have some aspects of this New Earth Layers of Beingness. It is in order to give them an opportunity to be able to hear the word of God and to follow. But if they refuse to follow the Word of God, then the Holy Beings have shown me that they must be severed from their ability to tap others’ New Earth Layers of Beingness. And you don’t have to know how to do this. You just pray: “Dear God, if it is the God of our Lord Jesus’ Will, I ask for deliverance from this person’s ability to tap my New Earth Layers of Beingness or to harm anyone by having sexual orgasms while thinking hate thoughts or preceding perversity.”

You know, it is not the desire of Holy Beings that people be cut off from God which is essentially what this is doing. But there is something greater than personal free will and that is people that repeatedly infringe on the freedom of others must be stopped.

The purpose of being an exorcist is to help innocent people not to be contaminated by defilers and a person who has sexual demon orgasms is a defiler of all that is holy. I would say that if there is no way that the person is going to change, then you will have to sever from him. I didn’t know that until today. So I am praying earnestly for guidance every step of the way and the Holy Beings only show me things that they expect me to use.

Now a person can lose all these layers and they don’t feel bad. They still have their perverse fantasies and demons orgasms. They don’t feel any different. That is because they are already cut off from God. The only thing you are doing is that you are shutting the doors so they cannot have one foot in Hades and one foot in Heaven. See, you are stopping the pollution. But you are not changing them. A person who is intractable would stay the same. The only thing is, how are you going to keep them from harming you?

I want you to think of Time as being distinctly aligned with direction and Time and Space has to do with the consciousness of the person. And your ability to move in Time and Space to the New Heaven and New Earth has to do with your decision to align with God’s Holy Will and intention and Desire.

A person who isn’t going to go down the holy path, but in fact is going to use the very energies that God has given him to drag others into hells has to be stopped.

The whole reason for hells and Hades are to store intractable people; aspects of intractable people. They are for storage, they are not for people to just go and party in; just like you would want to go into a prison every night or something, or some whore house and then go back to church the next morning. That is not the purpose for hells. Hells are supposed to be locked. It is a misuse of Divine, holy powers given to people; it is not given to Chihuahuas to enter Hells. It is a quality of being human that you can go into hell deposit a demon and then come back out and escape. But if you go into hells because you like it there, then you don’t deserve to be called a human being. And that is what we have to look at; if people willfully go to hells then they will have to be just stopped, put in.....

END OF SIDE A

AUDIO TAPE #5 Transcribed: JULY 9, 1995 Side B

CHEYENNE, WYOMING

So I asked the Holy Beings and they said “Well...” What if you have a person that is slandering; that repeatedly, no matter how many times I shut the doors to hell for him; took all the demons off, and I have done this so many times for some people it is mind-boggling and yet they still form the sinister Trinity? So what am I to do?

At one point I removed Grace Substance which is one thing we must remember: if a person has been given Grace, you must remove them from Grace Akasha; Mega and Personal if they go bad otherwise they can tap you through the Grace Akasha. They can track you down like looking at the map, the Grace Akasha Map (not currently available.) That is on my agenda today, to remove many people from the Grace Akasha so that they will leave us alone. This means removing them from their personal Grace Akasha.

A person who has been Graced has like a cell layer that has a glow around it. And the earth has like a glow around it from the Grace Akasha. And if people are evil, they shouldn't have any links to that energy. The Akasha itself is not the energy, but it tells them how to get to people with energy, in that they have a map to people with Grace energy. See, I had all their Grace Substance removed, but they are still in the memory of Akasha so they can still read the maps. So what I have to do is more than remove their substance, I have to remove their Maps.

I don't like to do this, because that is how people know how to get to the New Heaven and New Earth through the maps. They are supposed to be able to follow their intercessor through the worlds and be able to come out (and --?) during the times of Tribulation and afterwards. But if people choose in their waking and dreaming minds to do evil, then they have to be removed.

So, what I found was that the only thing I could do to keep some people from doing evil is put them in Hades and lock the door. In essence what that means there is a part of you within your ME that travels through the Time Tunnel and the willfulness is how you shoot your auric components out at angles. A person's ME can be burned, like cauterized in a Hades fire, all around. It is like Lot's wife looking back and being turned into a pillar of salt and I have said to watch Lot's Door.

To go through Lot's Door and to enter into Hells and Hades is a very dangerous thing if you are attracted to something in that hell. This is why we dug up this old lesson which is a little rough but it will give you some information. (See Lesson on The 7 Hells 1994 October). You need to see which hells you have any part of yourself in. And you need to pray to not be sealed in there forever. I am dedicated today to helping everyone and the Holy Beings are with me and I have prayed earnestly for this; but (also) to be delivered from those that curse.

Yet I also know that if people change, they can be healed but in the meantime all of those that hate hierarchy, who have sexual demon orgasms, that intend to destroy through slander, all treacherous people, I intend with the power of the Holy Beings today to burn their MEs until they are to a crisp in Hades. The reason we do so is so they can't have curses anymore; particularly people that have been in this teaching. How many times have I said the same things over and over again? “Don't hate anybody, don't want to devour anybody, don't mix sex with a perverse thought.” How many times have I said “Don't allow yourself to merge with someone who is a defiler”; that sort of thing. And I know that this has been the hardest path that any spiritual student could have taken because this is the training for saints.

To be a saint means you must be an exorcist. You must be able to go into hells and Hades and come out unscathed and if you do not go into Hells and Hades and come back unscathed, if you get attracted to the little images down there; if your eyes glow when you hear someone is sick and nauseated, if your eyes glowed like La's did when she wanted to look at my foot wound--it was almost like a salivating dog; if you get excited at the thought of someone dying or somebody being humiliated or if you want to sit around and form an evil synergy that wishes someone physically dead.....I don't want anyone physically dead.

I have the eternal optimism to believe that somehow people can choose even on a physical level to be holy. That somehow, someday, someday, that people can change. They can change in a split second, if they desire to. If they submit their desire to God, if they submit their will to the divine hierarchy of which I am in that hierarchy. Therefore anyone that has hated me or these teachings is satanically willful. Because I have been sent here by God to show people how to not fall into hells, to lead them to heaven, to teach people the pitfalls on the road to sainthood, to try to formulate some teachings, to try to give people some kind of map on how to become powerful enough to change the whole world.

And yet out of all of these teachings, we have a small group left. However, out of the Virtues, Laws and Powers book, others are being prepared and out of the next book even more will be prepared. It will be too dangerous for us to teach publicly. But we will be able to put forth the word of God on the face of the Earth against mighty odds, against Judas. Which I have to say, we have had no less than the Judas energy in our group; people that want (a child) defiled, people that want a child to be in an institution; people who would want to harm a child, people that want to see me dead and humiliated and stopped from writing; people who have put so much energy into having RP arrested as the “Mad bomber” (of Oklahoma City).

Where does this evil come from? It comes from satan and anytime you start feeling sorry for someone that has somehow joined the Judas energy then you will become like that person. You will merge with the curse by sympathy, because God is love. It is true that God is love, but if you love humanity, then you want this teaching to survive. Because without this teaching, there will be few saints because no one knows the steps of “How does one build to sainthood?” better than this vessel. Now whether this vessel can sort through all the teachings and formulate methods that are incremental and teaching systems which are understandable will mean how much time I have. Because it will happen and it will happen quickly and the Holy Powers are ready to assist. But they have assaulted me with so many curses and I have had to run and worry about a child to such a degree of force within our own group where we have wasted so much time that could have gone toward the formulation of teaching materials that could have blessed all of humanity.

It is not enough to read pretty little stories like in the William Bennett Virtue Book. What people need is “How do I translate it to my life now?” What does it mean in the nitty-gritty? “How can I translate a virtue like Will? Oh yeah, Will is a great virtue, how do I translate it to my life?” People then start thinking that those who are snotty upstarts are holy because they are willful. First of all we have to define Will cleanly, purely which we did fairly well in Virtues, Laws and Powers; I think we have defined virtues adequately or thoroughly enough.

What we need to do now is say: “This is how you apply them. This is what it means” and we don’t want to get into the fundamentalist thing of “Don’t do this, don’t do that, don’t dance, don’t gamble, don’t, don’t, don’t” What we want to do is point out how certain misdirected powers or distorted willfulness or desire or intention, how they poison you so that you end up behaving those ways. See, the behavior is the last thing.

Anybody who behaves; like who wants to be on the phone for two hours so as to find all the little gossip details; that is behavior that is an advanced state of spiritual decay. And I have talked about it and talked about it and talked about it. But even worse than that it feeds decay in the person on the phone. If someone wants to trap somebody else in a long conversation, the other person allows themselves to be trapped; then becomes a synergy person with the one with advanced spiritual decay. And they end up becoming clever defilers because after they have been into so many hells, hades so many times, the lying spirits talk for them.

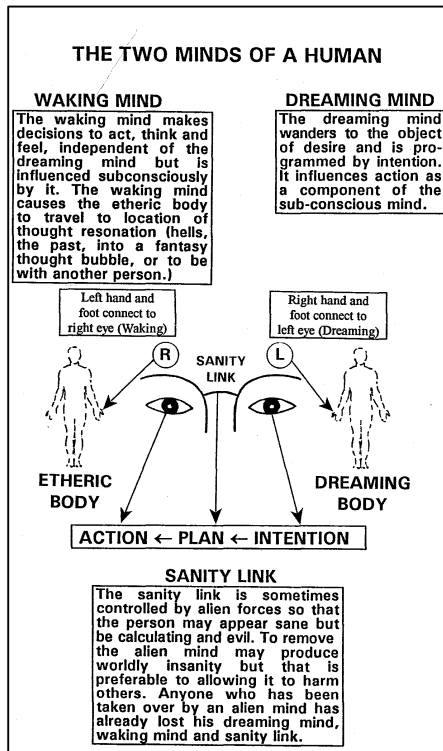

Lying spirits are extremely clever the higher you get up on the spiritual ladder. I have heard lying spirits say the most subtle things. But you can never know the holy voices from the foul on the higher levels unless you master the lying spirits on the lower levels. The lying spirits come through all three major categories: desire, will and intend. And they always tell you that the person they are lying about “is”...they project their own weaknesses upon that person or they make others hate the person who would somehow interfere with whatever they want.

All false god programs have to do with malefic intent, desire and will. For instance if you had a: “I am my own god” thing. There are aspects of all three but only one of them is pointing up. Like if you have a triangle. See, that is a very strong willfulness, a hatred for hierarchy. It is an intention to be your own god and it is a desire to be your own god. I would say Will would be the pointer up on that triangle. That is what I saw in Fo last night and that is why I ordered you out of the room. I saw “I am my own god” thoughts which were “I can think and do whatever I want. This is interesting intellectually but who is she to tell me what to do?” You didn’t have to think those thoughts with your waking mind, because your dreaming mind was thinking them.

See, whenever you become spiritually pathological with a false god program, your dreaming mind thinks the defiling thoughts 24 hours a day. It becomes a record that is on a glitch. That is why you sometimes will hear a song or your ears might whine. They get a glitch if something is hung in your ethers. And this is not just Akasha here. We are talking about it actually starting to become part of your body cells and at a certain point it enters your cells and then it becomes, your dreaming mind then becomes like one of those black rings (Death Rings). It is like a record that goes in a circle around that ring and it says the same thing over and over again. Now Fo didn’t have to think those words, because I could read them on his dreaming mind. If a person also has them on his waking mind, in agreement with the dreaming mind, then it becomes a scream. And that is what happened.

There was maybe a two word mental argument about something I was saying last night after dinner that leapt up from the dreaming mind with an “I am my own god” program. So what I saw come out of him was a scream of satan. Now, that might have seemed severe but you see, I react to what I see whenever I see the dreaming and wake mind aligned, I see satan in a person. That is what I saw in the restaurant in Mexico. I saw a huge satan net where that pervert had hooked in with an evil synergy group of evil child molesters. His waking mind was a total pervert and his dreaming mind was a total pervert and it was a screaming sound straight from hell and Hades.

Being around him was like hearing, or being next to a B-52 bomber as it was about to go off. It was like the sounds of the propellers, the wings and the force. It wasn’t just sound, it was smell to me. I smell satan. I feel satan as a pressure on my flesh when it is around and it is always when the Wake mind decides to agree with the satanic Dreaming mind. So Fo was very much along the line of will, primarily and RP was along the line of desire. He sat there and he hated me. What happened was, I had been clearing some Gar stuff and it was flushing out of everybody. His dreaming mind had a curse combined with Gar with a scenario like this: there was a Sn and Gar component with RP. So as I was trying to understand the dynamics of this, I was flushing this out and you could say it was coming to the surface because it does enter the cells at a certain point.

The curse was leaking out and leeching into the conscious mind, linking the dreaming mind that holds the curse of hate. Gar had a desire thing, but unfortunately the desire directed toward me became hate. She had a romantic desire toward RP and hate for me. It was the same thing with Sn. Sn was in the position of slander on this and Gar was in the number 1 position (treachery) and RP was on the third (sexual).

So what happens is, and I have seen this same scenario before with Fo and Si and Cel with variations of torture jones or whatever. But what happens is, that as they are being flushed out sometimes, they creep out of the eyeballs and I can see. It is almost like "Oh, there is the wake mind and there is the dreaming mind." The right eye I see the Wake Mind and the left eye is see the Dreaming Mind. So I am looking at your mind all the time and normally the dreaming mind, I figure, ok, it is going to take a long time in most cases to clear the dreaming mind. But whenever the wake mind decides to agree with the satanic dreaming mind, I have to take a position of action because that means that you are becoming satanic on a tissue level. That means that you are deciding to accept with your waking mind in front of me, a satanic position. It is like a defiance. It is defiance not to me, but to He who sent me.

Because a person can be possessed as hell, and the whole room can be full of demons and your dreaming mind can be so loaded down with parental demons, with sexual connections from the past with people like La daydreaming about you or whatever; you could be so laden that your left eye is like totally satanic, and I am not going to worry about it too much. I mean, I am, I am constantly trying to clear it, but whenever your conscious mind decides to align with it by accepting thoughts that it hears from the dreaming mind or from the vicinity--say a demon flies out in the vicinity and has like: "Who is this bitch to tell me what to do" or something like that. Then, especially when the Holy Beings are around; whenever the Holy Beings are in the room as they were last night, and I see the satan eye come up on the right and it aligns with the satan eye on the left then I have got to address it because it is a defiance to my Father in Heaven.

Remember when Jesus said "If they hate you in one town, you shake the dust off of your feet and you go on." Well there is more to it than that. You cannot allow Satan to back you down. And it doesn't matter who satan is looking through, because you can't argue with Satan. If someone agrees with their wake/right to the dream/left mind that: "I hate you, bitch"--that shooting out desire--see that is desire. It is desire for your destruction. What is hate? It is desire for destruction. When somebody resonates with a demon in a room so that their conscious mind accepts hate and it matches their subconscious mind which needs to be purified or decides to be their own god and assumes I can't see it.

I don't know how anybody could think I don't see at this point. But I can see what is done in the realm of intention and I can see what is done in the realm of action by the look in both eyes. And you can too. All you have to do is practice. If you can read intention, you are going to know where action is headed. That is where you need to learn to align your will, your desire and your intend to counteract the forces of curses and of actions; seed acts of little slanderous conversations with mixed substances of all these things, you must break up these evil trinities.

If you break up an evil trinity, then you have to pray for guidance because if they are going to regenerate, you are going to look at burning; allowing them to slide into Hades, which is what would have happened to them if you had not interceded for them probably, anyway.

It is interesting how people don't realize that to be around an intercessor gives you some protection against sliding into hell and Hades. That is why I am always happy to be around you guys because there is an aspect of strengthening that goes on. It is almost like each time I am with you, I can sense that the holy powers come down more quickly and that God is with the three of you a great deal so I am always happy to be with you.

It was that way with the others, too, in that I always had hope that somehow people would choose rightly and that they would desire rightly, they would act rightly, they would intend rightly, they would speak rightly. And I still have hope. I have seen Lazarus come back from the dead in many people and I know that God is a merciful God to those who choose to do His will. And miracles can occur. But I think today we need to look at separating ourselves from anyone who has cursed you. And you need to separate yourself from the curses that you have made and you need to ask that they be burned and I would say that the curses that you have made is not a major problem here.

What is a problem is having substance connections to people who do curse others.

So, what I would do is look for any Pools, Echoes or Shadows In relationship to the Hells, to the Sounds (Alphabet) and see “Which way are you really going?” If you think of directions around you.

The way the “Hades Burn” goes, it is as though your Identity Sphere sizzles all on the outside should you become malignant (sic). Make sure that you are not going in the wrong direction. Make sure that you are always in holy time with both of your dreaming and wake minds.

See, even if you are highly possessed, you can still align with Holy Time with your dreaming and wake mind. I tell you I have been the most possessed person in the world because of the nature of my job. In taking on so many demons as I have in the past, and becoming quite ill with it, I know what it is like to hear the hounds of hell. I know what it is like to hear the babbling voices of lying spirits. But I also trust God and I know God is real, God is in me and God will help me fight all this evil that is within me that I accept, for the purposes of transmutation. If you allow evil to enter you for purposes of transmutation, that is a mighty act of an exorcist and a saint. But if you are attracted to any of the evil that enters you then you will be destroyed by it and that is what happened to past members of our group.

They were required to function as exorcists and so they had evil enter them but they liked some of it, they wanted it to stay. They wanted to go to the Pan Hells, the bestiality hells, the lesbian and homosexual hells. They wanted the power hells, the surge hells, the mental thrills hells. They wanted all those things more than they wanted God because in the end, an exorcist is a servant. An exorcist takes on the soil of others and washes the feet that have stepped into hells and then takes his own cloak and puts it around the person who has fallen and hopes that that person will love what is represented by the exorcist, which is Law and Virtue. And yet, many, many have received such blessing and have fallen. Many more will receive blessings in the future and many of those will fall.

But if we pull 100 people into the teachings of Laws and virtues and ½% move toward sainthood, then we have succeeded because it doesn't take very many saints to change the world. One saint by his very presence transmutes what is around him on a 24 hour basis. One saint blasts like a light in the heaven. One saint is like a glowing candle that somehow shows the angels where to land on the runway of Earth. Without saints there can be no heavens or the angels. Without saints there can be no hope for the children of tomorrow. And yet there are few who love so greatly as to take the burden of sainthood on and so we should not be so surprised that many have fallen.

Because it takes tremendous love to sacrifice oneself to die in self and be born again in Christ. Because in the end that is what you do, you die to self and you are born in Christ. And yet to do so opens the door to such beauty, such love beyond words, such desire and passion for holiness that all lower passions pale. Such force of intention toward divinity that aligns with you, propels you into the arms of the mighty archangels and you hear their songs in heaven and there is no finer joy, no finer intention and no finer will than that in a person who has submitted himself or herself totally.

And yet the irony is that the babbling voices of the lower world would tell you that that person wants to take your will. And yet that person has no personal will, no personal desire and no personal intention, save rudimentary human characteristics which must be there in order to somehow cling to life on this plane. One must have rudimentary human characteristics. But you are more than human when you become a saint.

You are more than human after you have brushed the wings of angels, as you flew upward in the arms of Christ. You are more than human. You are part of the Christ Impulse on the earth itself as all saints must be and that is why they were called Christians. They weren't Christ but they were part of the Christ Impulse. They became part of the flame of God on the Earth. That is not the same thing as saying ‘you are God’ all this is saying is that God is within you and you have nothing to ever be ashamed of and nothing to fear, because you are in the greatest power that ever could exist, you are in the power of the Creator Himself.

The creative forces of our Father in Heaven are far greater than anything that we could hope to create without Him. All that is created without God is disorder, disease, cancers, foul speech and foul art that is defiling to all that is holy as the exhibits that homosexuals have. And all that is embracing chaos will seek to destroy that which embraces total order and Law. And because of that you must take care. You must take care, but that does not mean you have fear. You must take care if you choose to be powerful because they will hunt you down somewhat and you will have to watch your back.

Even though you must take care, the holy angels will watch your back for you and that is why they warn us when we are in danger. They will warn you and help you to be removed from curses that are directed at you. They will help to make your life joyous even in the face of some loss in the lower plane. You will never lack for joy. You will have temporary grief but that is not the same thing as joy that is lost. Joy is immovable, firm, and stoic. Grief is transitory and gives way to power and serenity that is part of God as well. You could say that the part of God that dipped into Earth, in Jesus our Lord; He grieved, He wept, He [--]. But He did not give up His mission and He did not turn His back in the face of treachery, in the face of slander, in the face of murderous desires.

He stood firm as we will stand firm and we will look upon our mission with dignity, with honor, with a decision to die in Christ to live, to submit our wills, to submit to the divine hierarchy, to love that which is holy and strong and not curse it for fear that it will curse you. People are afraid of holy power because they fear it will devour them. If they only knew that should they ever be devoured in the glorious burning bush of Truth that climbs to heaven then they would be born again in a much finer form because it actually changes your cells to have Grace Substance; your cells begin to change and glow. When you embark on Hells and Hades missions of personal demon orgasms, of slander, of treachery of just laziness on the spiritual path (that is) when you get black rings and poison that mixes with the power that you have already found, and becomes ever more deadly.

No, we must be holy in this work, every single one of us must be holy and we must settle for nothing less than complete submission to Will in our dreaming and waking minds to God; complete submission to the will of God on both minds; complete submission to the divine intention that God would have you have in your dreaming and your wake mind; complete submission to desire to love humanity, to serve God in the wake and in the dreaming mind. That must translate as holiness in flesh, in speech and thought and intention. It doesn't mean you don't have fun, it doesn't mean you don't love the opposite sex; it doesn't mean that you give up sitting around and laughing or partying. No, it means that those things are secondary to your divine mission and you will not allow anyone to pull you down. No one.

When Si had to leave her children behind to follow the mission that she was to do--either that or be dragged into the arms of Satan himself because they would have never let her have the children. She would have had to live in the same house as that defiling piece of shit. That was a true test of power, will and intention to desire rightly and it was a bitter test of which she passed in pain and suffering and one that will undoubtedly always haunt her, and yet don't you think that saints get haunted by what they see on the wayside? Of course they do.

It is like when Noah wept and when he was in his tent unclothed, drinking wine and he was weeping because his son had married a sorceress. He was so sad that his son had married an evil woman and it was destroying his holy seed line. His genetic line was being destroyed by the foul son poisoning the genetic pool of Noah. Noah was overcome with sorrow. He was in his tent drinking wine and he passed out and he was molested by someone that was evil: an evil son. And we look upon that and yet we know that Noah was holy, that he was obviously a saint. He did go against the stream of consciousness at the time in building the Ark; he attempted to save the species all over the world. He struggled to help mankind's survival.

Whatever the concept of the Ark meant was not necessarily the same thing that is in the literal translation of the Bible. There is a way that Noah could have built a Spiritual Ark. You could say he could have put species and people in a time and space position. You could say he could have teleported them to a kind of a frozen state till a time where he would have teleported them back--in effect, lifted the animals up and put them in a frozen time/space place: like you could think "Ark" and let every animal live. People get too hung up on the literal because it took far more power to build a heavenly Ark than it did to build a lower Ark. There was a lower Ark as well. That is because the one that was bridging the worlds had to be able to stay in the middle one (sic). There is more mystery to that that we will discuss later. But mystery is not what we are dealing with today. We are dealing with the future.

Because of that; if you wanted to think of when you get home, what do you work on, what do you check?

You might type this as a list. Look in the mirror at your right eye and just get a little hand mirror; look at your right eye. Ok, I must be really getting possessed. Now look at hers and I will give you an example, now look at them. It is though you are looking in the mirror and you see your right eye which is her right eye. She has a curse, a UNI curse in there which usually means it is linked to Hades.

I guess you could ask "How many Hades links does she have in the right eye". You might be able to dowse one but if you are contaminated with the same curse, you might not be able to see it. But see how many you can find. I want to see what you guys get.

Answer: I know why you are having trouble. It is the...you are hearing the Echoes.

You have to separate : Primary Dark Forces:

Echoes	Shadows	Curses Links	Curses	Dark Forces	Hades Links	Hell Links
--------	---------	--------------	--------	-------------	-------------	------------

- On one hand you could say there were only 3 primary Hades Links,
- But the three each have a yin and a yang component so what C saw was 6.
- If you split into the yin and yang components and down line from that you have echoes and shadows in the right eye which add up to the 30 or so.
- There were three but each one had a yin and a yang component and all curses tend to have both components.
- It is very understandable that you could add a zero to that for the simple reason that each curse has Echoes down as they are kind of [--].

*Aspects of Spiritual Name Chart
Chart excerpted from "A Prophet's Story"*

To look at a curse think of looking at the top of the pyramid because there is an aspect-- although I use the Trinity a lot--if you think of the way of pyramids they have a base of four points, each base line with a three sided Trinity.

You can look at a curse from a different perspective. You can look at it from the;

➤ Top point which is the Eye of the Needle Point or you can look at it from;

➤ The Three Sides which would be the Desire, Will and Intend Substance components or you could look at it from;

➤ The Four sided Base of it which would be Air, Fire, Water and Crystalization of Matter. Could we have a little drawing of that for a Chart?

So a curse could be said to be like a pyramid.

To break it down it starts with an Eye of the Needle.

In other words a person has to make a decision to do something they know is wrong and then somehow they have three people taking positions. The one on the top can be on one of the three points. They can take turns being the eye of the needle.

The three primary people can take turns. And then the air, fire water and Crystal components are when the curse settles in someone's tissues. It is like the AFW would be getting into your mold aspect. So we are talking about your etheric AFW.

But then it crystalizes. Crystallization is actually the result of the AFW components crystallizing into a set pattern. You could say the crystals themselves have AFW components but they take on the Pattern. And what is the key thing about manifestation of anything? It is that you are operating at a certain frequency of cosmic dust molecule....

CHEYENNE, WYOMING

So the COMPONENTS OF MANIFESTATION; and I go over these over and over again because in everything that you remove as an exorcist you have to understand the components of manifestation in order to remove those components.

- There has to be a starting point, the Point of Dissonance Which you could say the Eye of the Needle is like that.
- There has to be a Cosmic Dust Molecule That has the components of Desire, Will and Intend.
- There has to be Air, Fire and Water aspects and
- There has to be Crystallization of Power.

You could say that by rotating the directional focus of a Cosmic Dust Molecule you would put a focus of Air, Fire, Water on it by the rotation of the angle of Dissonance.

The crystallization is the condensation into a pattern that forms a container.

What did I say yesterday? You always have to look for a container. A container implies a crystallization of a manifestation. You could say that something can start out like a thought that was burning some ether substance but then took on a gaseous form of manifestation combined with somebody else's...say the thought could be airy.

Somebody else could have desire and add fire to it.

Somebody with intention could add water to it.

So you have Air, Fire, Water which ought to be put on the illustration.

You have Air, Fire, Water and they have the joint of Desire which would be a Patterned Outcome of Desire.

- So they had in their mind the shape of the outcome; what it would be;
- So you have the Eye of the Needle, the trigger person,
- You have AFW (Air, Fire, Water) apparently within the Desire, Will and Intend Substance and then
- You have a Pattern of Desired Outcome, Willed Outcome and Intended Outcome.
- By the time it settles into that pattern which is a container shape, it then is a manifestation.
- You have manifested something.

The same components of manifestation; if you practice the removal of malefic manifestations you will eventually be able to manifest something by doing the opposite. In other words, well, you actually manifest all the time on some level or not. Most people cannot manifest much because they lack...they have used up their desire, their will and intend substances so they have to join with others to form a synergy team (helicopter flies directly overhead).

A person that doesn't waste their desire, will or intend substance on stupid things can manifest by himself something. He can figure out how to manifest but it takes a lot of energy. The creation of guardian angels and stuff, of lower angels are done through holy elementals. They are done through the same steps. And whether an angel is a fiery angel, or an airy angel or a water angel depends upon the tilt of dissonance of the direction that you point your will.

The very mechanism with which people have demon orgasms could be the mechanism that you could save humanity if you had control over it and used it properly. That is a major thing; one must first have complete control; gain in power individually preferably, rather than collectively. If you have collective power then you are dependent upon the weaknesses of your fellow group members as well as their strengths. But that means any hell they are connected to, you are connected to, and any Hades.

This is largely what happened when we did some spiritual work last year as a group. We got some group contamination because of some of the holy work we did when everybody was in town, we had some members who had problems with will, desire and intent. And because of that, we ran into problems. But what could have been really holy and dynamic work and continued in certain group sessions which could have done tremendous exorcism, it had to stop. We had to stop it for the simple reason that some people were just going out of their skulls and were too nutty, people like Jm and Mob. They started having demon orgasms with the powers instead of using the power that was given them through the Grace of God to do exorcisms, which is what they were supposed to be doing. They were acting like jack-asses and because of that, they got addicted to energies that then they started tapping, using all of their energies trying to tap. And they went downhill as a result because you don't enter a door of power without having an equal amount of responsibility to control those powers within yourself. If you have no self-control then you will be destroyed by the powers that you seek to tap, in a group of power. So, people with poor self-control degenerated.

You know, you could look at it from a sarcastic point of view and say: "Well then, why would anybody ever want to be in a group such as this if you can degenerate so readily as we saw?" and yet who did the Holy Beings have to choose from? The world is in a sad shape. You guys managed to pull through. If you managed to pull through, they could have. You don't abuse power. You didn't go nutty. You didn't start obsessive bestiality fantasies or anything gross. No. If you did it, that tells me there are other people in the world that can make it. And if out of probably 300 people that started with the LG teachings of three years ago, that were receiving regular mailed lessons and faxes, now we are down to a handful. But that actually is not that bad odds if you look at the fact that anybody was allowed in the teachings---anybody at all. And then when I as LG said "OK, now everybody is going to spend two hours a day on their spiritual study" that instantly dropped it down to 100. (Chuckles)

I remember Ras saying "Who are you to tell me to do that?" Well, I'm writing the lessons, you know? I'm supposed to be your teacher, if I am your intercessor and if I am going to suffer your exorcisms then I have a right to ask that you pull your weight. She acted like...people were indignant, they wrote the nastiest letters because they were expected to do something in a school that was designed to help them to become powerful and they were expected to do their homework and to serve God and man.

So as the things evolved, people then either weakened or dropped out. But you see, if you measure your success by numbers then oh, wow, we could just form a "Get-rich and be happy" Dale Carnegie school and we could make a lot of money off of it by misusing some of the teachings, telling people how to [--] manifest how to tap into a bunch of synergy pools with a bunch of sickos which is exactly what Jg's so-called spiritual group did; they all hate God. Not all of them, some of them loved God. But what happened is by forming a group meditation with an expected outcome; they decided what the outcome was going to be. They didn't ask God what the outcome should be. They were their own gods all the while praying that I would be destroyed and Se would come back. Did it ever dawn on them that that might have not been God's will? No, it didn't. They didn't care.

This is the same thing we have seen time and time again with "Does this person really care to do God's will?" So anyway, you look in Si's eye and you see those things which we have been clearing as we have been talking about it and I have said (in the past): "don't have sub-tracks" but if you can hold your consciousness on your dreaming mind and waking mind in a coordinated fashion, very tightly, you can eventually develop whole sub-tracks and work on more than one problem at once with grace and agility. It used to make me very thick tongued to work with a split consciousness, but I have had to split it quite a few times now because practice makes perfect. Now, you actually have cleared it.

All you have to do is go thorough the things that you already know how to do.

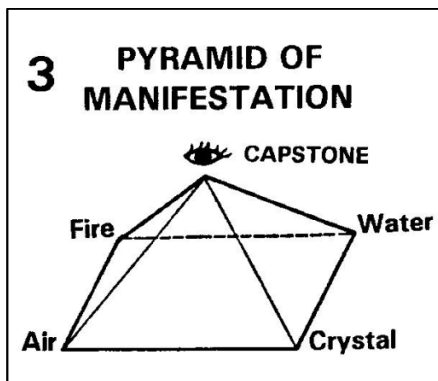

- You raise or lower Frequencies,
- You blast Patterns,
- You go back to the concept of the Pyramid
- You realize you want to see if there is any Crystallization, AFW Components and
- Whether there is any Desire, Will, Intend Substance Links and;
- What Direction are they are going and pull in the opposite direction
- You burn, you freeze, you go at angles. That in essence is the core of it. Burn/Freeze/Go at Angles

If you just remember that, Burn, Freeze, Go at Angles: you can clear almost any demon on the face of the earth. That is if you have enough power stored. As a group, though, if this group gets really tight, we could hit the biggest demons and the most demonic people (snaps her fingers) just like that. You get holy synergy, there is no stopping you. The only thing is, everyone in the room must be aligned.

The level I am talking about is far greater than anything we have done before. If every single person in this house was completely aligned with God's plan and had no defiling aspect, no lower willfulness, desire and all that, then we could do tremendously powerful things and I am hopeful that the next time that you guys come we will be able to do it that way with purity.

We have to be pure. We cannot allow one defect of any proportion. I am not saying that we are not going to have frailties. But we cannot allow any major defects because we must be clean in order to lead humanity and to just know what to teach in ways that will be a clean and in order to be exorcists for the earth, the whole earth, we must be very clean [--] or I won't pull us into the synergy anymore because I saw the contamination that occurred in the past and I wouldn't do that to the individuals who don't deserve it.

Ok, we have done that with her right eye. There is something else though. There are Fallen Beings in there.

You can remove the crystallizations

- Imagine the Pyramid: Does she have any Crystallization of a demonic type ?
- (In this case) There is no AFWC
- (In this case) There is no Desire/Will/Intend (On each Triangle)
- Oh, there is an Eye of the Needle there. See, it is like it climbed up the pyramid.
- Is it a person? Yes. In this room? No
- It is Sn

See, the reason that I, although I had to write it in on my chart; it is good to have photos of people that you know from the past of the group because of the synergy working sessions. This is where a lot of this contamination has come from and that is why I am not doing any (synergy work) with the group this time because I know that there is some stuff that needs to be cleared before we do it again because I don't want you to [---]. It is to protect you. However, B and C, you could safely work together because you are obviously a team anyway. You two could synergistically pull your energies.

Ok, we have the Eye of the Needle there is a demon in there, it has a Sn aspect. This is something in the Eye of the Needle that you need to look for. At the top of the Pyramid cap it is almost always a Demon Orgasm (D.O.).

What is a Demon Orgasm? It is a substance, a generative substance that may be of three different...well I'm getting two types, but I am seeing three. One is a subtype of another, OK. It can be;

Human Generative Tank Substance which is like a normal part of procreative substance that often gets depleted in people who waste it. Or it can be a;

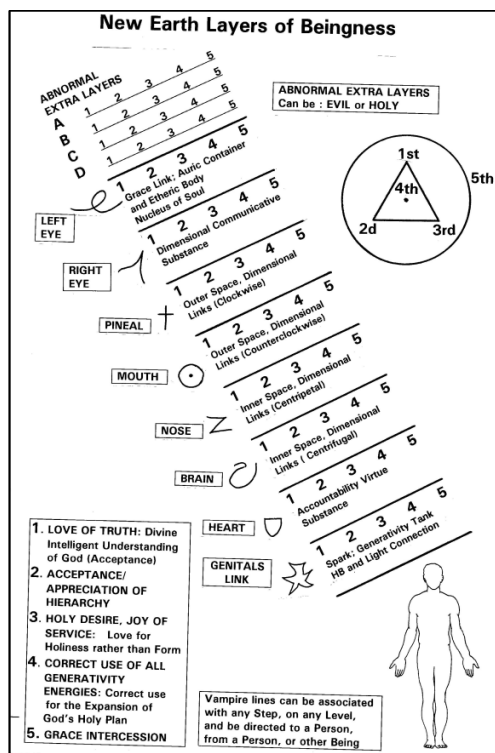

Mega Kundalini Energy which everybody, you could say, has in their normal constitution an aspect of generativity substance associated with your Life Seed that they can use up if they are not careful.

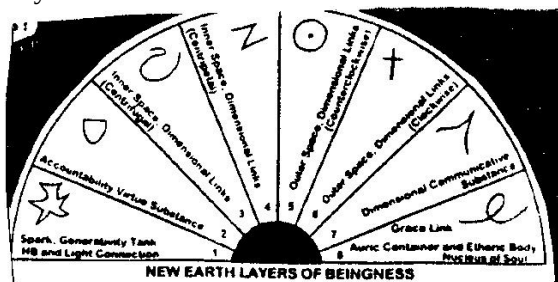

Some people then have learned how to tap Kundalini. The meditation people, the Easterners, they learned how to tap Mega Kundalini. They need to be stopped from it because if they form curses from that, the curses are worse. That is a lot of our problem; we have a bunch of people whose big thrill is tapping kundalini energy. People who do Kriya Yoga are very dangerous if they curse somebody, or are obsessed with an outcome or want to force an outcome in a situation. So what you do then, is you sizzle the top of their spine. If they are meditating to get their own outcome you sizzle the top of their spine. How do you do that?

Your Point of Power is very much your body's point of power. Think of it, your manifestation is very much like that pyramid and you are going to direct a stream of force as an Eye of the Needle out and point it to a direction that has a force of fire. In other words you want to lean towards the fire angle as though you have your whole consciousness as that pyramid and you are going to zap the top of their spine. You need to zap it where it caves in at the base of the skull where they skull kind of dips in. You zap it there for its spiritual [---]. Now, you could eventually heal it if the person quits cursing. But there is no reason for a person or anybody who is going to use their generativity forces, their kundalini forces for evil, doesn't have any business being able to. So you zap it.

We are going to have to go through this lesson and look for To Dos to make a chart and you need to go through the ↓Fan Chart of the New Earth Layers and you have got to disconnect them from other people's New Earth Layers.

1. SPARK: Generativity Tank, Holy Being and Light Connection
2. Accountability and Virtue Substance
3. Inner Space, Dimensional Links, Centrifugal

4. Inner Space, Dimensional Links, Centripetal
5. Outer Space, Dimensional Links, Counter Clockwise
6. Outer Space Dimensional Links, Clockwise
7. Dimensional COMMUNICATIVE Substance
8. GRACE LINK: Auric Container and Etheric Body Nucleus of Soul.
(Note: This is information not listed in the other charts)

So you find:

"How many New Earth connections do I have out towards this (person in photo)?"

"Relating to this (person in photo)?" (

"How many connections have feeder lines?"

Think of it as Generative Feeder Lines out from the New Earth Connections.

➤ It feels like you just SNAP it.

➤ To do that think of your body manifestation as being that pyramid with those components of AFWC and ➤ Then you think of which angle you are going to move it to.

To me it feels like it is pointing straight up to remove the SPARK one.

To me it feels like you have to do each one of them individually.

➤ So I am thinking of the Spark of Sn: <Snap>

See, I can fix these later if she ever straightens up or anything.

So then you go to the next one. Which is it?

It is the Accountability Virtue Substance Links.

Ask: "Which direction do I go?"

I'm going to point (the chopstick) this way for Accountability Virtue Substances.

Usually what I do is take my chopstick and move the point like this..;

Ask: "The Eye of the Needle is pointing in what direction?" and point there, so it gives a focus.

"Is there any other Angle?"

Now I am going to go to the Inner Space one and it feels like I have to go up slightly to the right.

It could be different for different people.

So in essence, what I am doing, I am using my own power as if it were a pyramid of AFWC, Desire Will and Intend and have a Point at the top of it and I am directing it to an Angle in order to disconnect evil links on each of these New Earth Layers while thinking of Sn.

You can do this for yourself ask :

"If I have any malefic Spark links, which way do I beam them off of me?"Malefic (Mouth?) links?"

You get these links on you when you go out in crowds. It is like you get a glob on you so you ask;

"Which way do I turn to zap it, the right turn to zap it?" It is like a zipper.

So you do that and let's just see if we got it all is zapped in her eye.

Question: Is that only for people using Kundalini substances or is it also for [-people tapping New Earth-] substances?

Answer: I would do it on both cases.

- Now the Spark on the New Earth layers tends to relate more to the Generative Tank.
- I get a strong link, at least in this case with the Fifth Level, the Outer Space (Mouth) relating particularly to this kundalini tap.
- I think they can come in in different ways.
- I think there is a correlation with the spine, too.

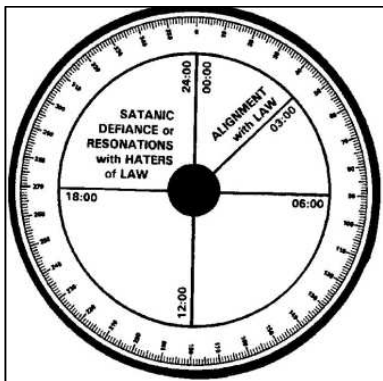

Question: Is it only the people from our group who can do this?

Answer: A lot of people do it spontaneously so they are able to form meditation rushes to tap kundalini. So the key thing is, you want to make sure this person....you get rid of the kundalini links by (clearing) the New Earth Layers as well, and there is a sub-type. You need to make sure that nobody has a Grace Kundalini Tap on you.

GRACE KUNDALINI TAP which is illustrated on the 8th New Earth Layer Chart has more power to it. Like right now, I feel one. This one I can't zap with the pyramid. This one I have to zap from my Halo. It is like a sense of asking my guardian angels to zap it for me from my Halo.

Ok see, for that demon that was in her eye to stay alive, it had to have power links, energy links and now it feels like it is gone. You see her dreaming mind is still not very clean. But it is cleaner. I'd say if 10 is dirty it is a 4; largely because it is in a state of frozen shock; it has a memory of all that and in this case after you clean something as from her right eye, you want to try to will the Holy Names of God and you don't do that with your pyramid, you do it with your hand. Like you would do it in the mirror like this (...?). (Pause)

There are many Names of God and the more powerful you become the more Names of God that you learn to use. It is like you say the unspoken Names of God depending upon the level of your power. (Pause) There is some residue that is being driven out of the right eye. (Pause) Ok, now I would like for you to check: if you check her eyes first for clarity. You can check it on the Chart↓ that shows "Blind, Clear, Dirty":

You will see that her right eye is clear and I think the Names of God also cleared her left eye. So if I look at her eyes and I am getting an indirect reading of her waking and her dream mind I can check it then on a Law Clock Scale.

The interesting thing is that someone can be absolutely clear but they still will not look good on the Law Clock Scale. If you think of the Law Clock, check the Desire, Will and Intend separately.

I could clear some of you guys and still find you are not perfect on the Law Clock and that is if you decided to be your own God or decided to will wrongly or desire wrongly. Then you would still look bad on the Law Clock! Isn't that something? I used to always think that if someone is clear they would automatically want to be holy. But I am seeing that in these matters that people can, they can just fight it and fight it and fight it.

Ok now, let me see if you have any curses in your eyes. To expedite matters, since I have gone through the steps, I will say the worst case scenario, if you have an intractable curser, you do have the right to sear the person and throw him through Lot's Gate which is in essence just throwing their point of power, like throwing their pyramid into Hades where it loves to visit, but it likes to come back out to tap your power and then go back down into the Hades. What you have got to do it let it stay where it loves (to be).

Now I want you to think of that man and woman (at A's work) because I want to be able to read them well enough so that I can short them out so that they don't do curses. What would be good if B and C could look in each other's eyes and just think of...B; start to look at C's right eye and just using your chopstick, think of your pyramid of power pointing in different directions and all you do is just allow your sub-conscious mind and conscious mind to say "God's will be done" and you will be led to angles to move it that it will be like an indicator of...or you could use an aura-meter if you prefer to check the angles and we have a couple here so it is just up to you. If it feels like you can use the chopstick or you may not need it, (but use something) to practice. Fo and Si can do the same thing.

One of you start by looking in the right eye and see if you can move energies in a way, and raise and lower frequencies. If you do this awhile, you will intuitively begin to do it automatically just everywhere and you don't have to move your arms. (Pause) "A" has 60 demon orgasm curse layers that are still there. Fallen Beings are with those connections. It is almost like when you are cursed, you are eternally...like with the three people cursing; you are caught in the middle. Actually the concept of the mobius with the three positions is more accurate with the cursed person but they both work; (Pyramid and Mobius).

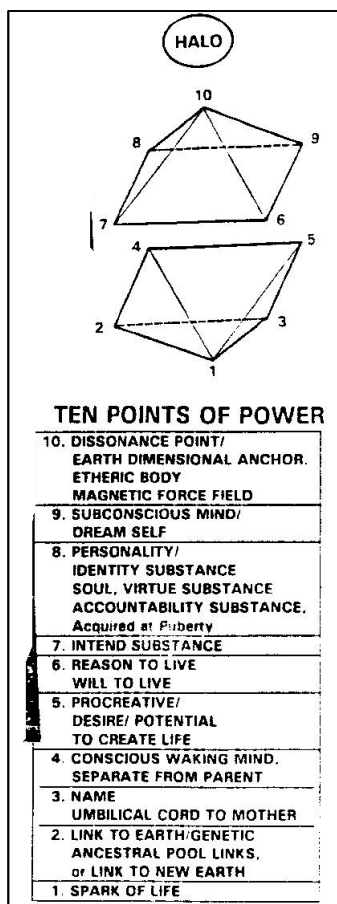

Question: Is it La?

Answer: You know it feels like she was the third person. It is funny that you say that because it didn't even dawn on me, but I do get a very strong energy like La might have called your office or was intending to or something. I don't know what it is, but there is something creepy when I sense La, I do get there is something very creepy. After everything else that she has done, nothing would surprise me. Did she turn a child in to be put into an institution? Did she steal every corporate paper we had about the business? There is no telling what else she did. The avenging angels have been on duty the last couple of weeks. I've spent, I don't know how many hours a day with avenging angels blocking events and knocking the crap out of people who were trying to build so much synergy to harm you guys as well.

(Note: On the audio tape the voices sped up almost inaudibly and then someone turned off the audio tape at this point...Break in tape).

(Note: The voices are heard at a normal speed after the break in tape):

G: Change in topic. If there is someone who is worthy you can touch that person in an examination or something, touch their throat or whatever and appear to be doing anything but in fact what you will be doing is increasing desire to know the one true God and you won't have to say anything verbally, because should they receive that desire to know the one true God of our Lord Jesus then intercessors above you will connect with them and watch over them. You don't even have to watch over them. That you in fact will be like, you would be like a person in a war, someone that sought out those to save.

Question: (It is like a spiritual) Triage?

Answer: Yes. I don't know, it would be nice to get that movie "Angel at my Table." Oh, it is the other movie then? It is the British woman who saved the airmen. Judy Davis plays this English woman in France, a true story, who saved a lot of British and American pilots that landed and she got them out of the country when it was invaded by Nazis. It is quite a courageous and lovely story. But it was like whoever she touched they would [---] they were thrilled. She had a healing touch.

She was actually a front. The reason they accepted her was she was a Red Cross Nurse during WWI that worked and saved a great many Germans as well as Allies. So as a result the Germans knew her as someone who is merciful and good and she saved some Germans, they actually gave her a medal after WWI. They loved her and she did a lot of things. She used every penny she had. She was a Duchess I think, or something.

But the key thing here, is that you will have the power but you have to discern when to use it and you have to pray for guidance when to use it. It will come out of your hand, your right hand. All you have to do is lightly touch somebody's arm, it will be there. And you really don't have to touch them; all you have to do is think of them. But it is easier to touch them. You are in a position where that would be good but you must not leave any substance on them. You have to turn it over to the Holy Beings.

It is important now for me work now on C but it would be good for everybody else to eat something to stabilize. Maybe C could put a chair right here. You would think it is hot enough in here already but there is something about the warm juice helps...Oh, that is great.

Well, what I am thinking Si, do we have anything from the permanent books, do we have something that could show the three sides of each triangle. With the Eye of the Needle we need to see three sides (on each side) and four sides on the bottom. There is 1, 3, and 4 on the pyramid. I know it is hard to imagine but that is how it is. There is a pyramid book in there with several illustrations. But you need the concept of the 1, the 3 and the 4. I almost think you have to look at it....

Comments: One square and four triangles...?

G: The Principal of Manifestation using the Pyramid Concept as Self has to do with---and the question was, with Will on top of (one or more of) the 3 (sided) Triangles of the 4 (sided) base. What I would say is, the very secret of transmutation is which one is on top. You can adjust it with 2 Will on Top and 1 Desire on top (and 1 Intend?).

By the rotation of the Trinities on the Pyramid (the four triangle sides),

You adjust the properties that therefore change the power.

And any additional movement would be the rotation of the whole pyramid.

The rotation (of the whole pyramid) you could say,

Would be the Air, Fire, Water and Crystal ;you could rotate those components left to right.

Then you have the four three-sided Triangles and normally Will is on top.

But what can you do? You can put desire on top (of one side)...yes,

You have the four (three sided) Triangles of the Trinity (Will/Desire/Intend).

For each one you put a different component or varying combinations. It is like a formula, you see.

Consider this mathematically, you guys are mathematicians, if you had:

The variables of the AFWC on the bottom;

The variables of Will, Desire and Intend (on the 4 sides of three-sided triangles)

And you could put those in varying combinations.

Then you could take the whole thing and on a 360°; roll it around.

You would have an infinite number of variables, right? Virtually.

Comments: Actually you could almost [---] rotate that around and AFW must be three points one each of the four sides?

G: Yes. That would be a good illustration.

More comments: (Inaudible)

G: And so by adjusting the North, South, East and West rotation of the base and adjusting the Desire, Will and Intend components of the Trinities and therefore adjusting the Eye...it is interesting on the U.S. Dollar bill the Eye on top of the pyramid? The Eye....

And I say the Eye of the Needle, I say that if you are ever able to adjust those components, directionally and you point the Eye of the Needle, then you can create a form of your desire, your will and your intention. And if you can create it, then you can destroy it.

Question: I see that we have a little....

Answer: Well, there are times when you need two parts of Desire and one part Will. There are times when, and you still have intend. It is there but it is like taking a back seat. It is like downline. There are things and times and aspects of beingness that require more Will, more Desire and more Intention and within those are also components of Fire, Air and Water sometimes you need to beam more Fire, Air or Water energy through the Eye of the Needle.

AFWC BECOMES Desire, Will and Intention but you have to realize that

When you burn AFWC (raw matter) it becomes will, desire and intention (refined matter).

It is both the rotation of the raw matter and

The rotation of the refined matter

That forms the barrel of the shotgun through which the Eye of the Needle ejects.

So by understanding that and considering the model; which it would be lovely to have a model where you could just flip the triangles around but it is not necessary because you ought to be able to do that. You could make a very clever design that you could check each side "How am I here?"

I said that each corner of the base is like AFWC there are more nuances here and variables if you think about them. Say you have a Triangle and one edge of it is the Crystal and one edge is the Water and you have Will and you have Desire and you have Intend. Suppose you flip Desire to the Crystal edge? What does that mean? It means that if you don't have impeccability, you have united your body with desire that could be of your own choosing and the Eye of the Needle could then be toward destruction of what you desire.

AUDIO TAPE #6 Transcribed: JULY 9, 1995 Side B

CHEYENNE, WYOMING

Question: Is that always the Will, or Desire or Intend?

G: This is where the Dissonance Point comes in. I would say that in every human manifestation if you compare it to the pyramid, it would be like a freckle on one of those points and that freckle or that mole would be the point of Dissonance that would make a person predisposed toward fire, air or water, desire, intention and will.

Why are some people born willful, some full of desire and some full of evil intention, or holy intention? It has to do with that freckle of Astrological Dissonance. If you don't have that, you don't have a point to anchor yourself to manifestation. It is like you have to have something to anchor you. For that reason there will never be a being born on the earth that doesn't have some kind of little frailty or flaw. That little frailty or flaw keeps you from floating off.

In the heavens there is no pyramid per se. There is another shape of manifestation and so it is not necessary to have a slight flaw in heaven. But on earth one must have at least a slight flaw; otherwise the earthly experience would be unbearable. So there are little dissonance points and some people have huge ones you could measure them easily. Look at Donald Trump's and then you could look at the Pope's. Trump to Pope. It is always there. It must be.

It is always a tiny bit of longing for the human experience that keeps a person alive. If you didn't have that little bit of longing for the human experience, then you couldn't hold form. It wasn't always that way. In the Garden of Eden it wasn't that way. You could manifest in the Garden of Eden without that little bit of longing to have a dissonance from God.

In effect the dissonance point is almost like the original sin. Without a little bit of original sin component, how are you going to stay out of the Garden? It is like you would be irretrievably drawn to the Garden of Eden unless you have a little bit of dissonance. In other words a little bit of sin. And this is the danger of sainthood in that many saints over time desired so much to merge with the Divine that they have forgotten humanity. They have sat around in Tibet and snowy peaks and thought divine thoughts and just floated off.

Movie References: "Eye of the Needle"; "The Razor's Edge"

The Eye of the Needle is such a good movie. We saw the new version at the monastery, didn't we with the guy from Saturday Night Live? He is a comedian who plays a serious role.

Comment: It was The Razor's Edge

G: But anyway, it is easy to be a holy man on the top of the mountain but it is much harder in the city. Was it with Belushi? No Bill Murray. That was an excellent movie. Oh, the Eye of the Needle was with Donald Sutherland he was a psychic who saw his daughter killed before she died.

Comment: That was a good movie too. (Laughter)

G: The Eye of the Needle was a good movie but a little racy. If you don't have that little bit of humanness, then there is no way that you could keep in the mainstream of human experience and somehow translate it into something finer.

The dilemma of saints to both maintain the earthly experience and yet somehow help those who only know an earthly experience, to reach beyond that; it takes many, many years of reaching to heaven to transcend human experience enough to touch a holy intercessor; in most cases. However people have been graced mightily during the troubling times over the past few years. What will happen in the future, I don't really know because it depends completely upon how people use what they know. (With this last sentence the tape seemed damaged.)

I am convinced that these teachings will be explicit and helpful and people will be able to reach toward sainthood. What they choose to do with it is another story. But I tell you that judging impeccability is when you do what you know the best you have and being impeccable you cannot be concerned with what happens after that. If you think over much about the future or the past you will go mad. You must just be in the now to be sane. It is the only point of power and do your best and be happy in that your joy must be in your impeccability in that it is not a Hallmark statement. It is absolutely true. If you are impeccable you are joyful.

It takes time, it takes a lot of whittling away of lower willfulness, lower desire and lower foul intention to get to the point where you finally die to God and you think: "Wow! Why did I ever cling to all that crap anyway?" It is like once you finally go to God there is nothing else. It is like you can't imagine the life you ever lead before. It doesn't mean that you don't ever like good food or don't want to buy coats at Goodwill or have a carnal experience. No. It doesn't mean that at all. It means that you are tempered with the fires of heaven and that nothing will ever own you except God. Which you will accept the human weaknesses of others to a limit. You will not accept it when they choose to do evil. You will hold your head high. You know the difference between human frailty that anchors one to the earth as a dissonance, a genetic, an astrological or somehow God given dissonance points, who knows?

You know the difference because you know the difference between good and evil. And whenever those little slot-machine eyeballs roll down and one of them is evil and the other is good, you will pray for the deliverance of that person. When both of them roll down and they are both evil, you will fight them like a wildcat. Because your whole purpose for being on the earth is to bring forth the plan of God. You will not allow anyone in your presence to be consciously evil and if they are you will pin them to the wall. Either that or you get away from them, but if you don't pin them to the wall then get away from them or they will try to devour you.

I want you to remember that pervert in Mexico and what he did to me? I want you remember his coming over and he rubbed his arm against me and he made sure he touched me in a sensuous way. He had the hounds from hell saying "Fuck you, Bitch!" and he was touching me. Had I not fought him I would have not defended my Father in heaven and Mother Mary. He was defiling the Blessed Virgin by defiling me and I would not allow it. He rubbed on me with all of his pedophilia. He dared to rub on me, he rubbed my arm.

If we ever allow ourselves as sparks of God to be defiled, then we defile the Blessed Virgin, we defile our Father in heaven, we defile our Lord Jesus. I remember some bitch from Vermont sent me a magazine trying to depict Jesus as some homo, faggot, kinky thing. It was a whole magazine of homo Jesus lovers. They claimed there were hidden gospels that revealed Jesus with his disciples were in an active homo relationship. She sent me this stuff. I thought "My God. Why must they defile Jesus? Why?"

Why is it that every homo defiles? That sodomite in the restaurant who raped children was trying to defile me by his touching me. We can never allow, not in thought and not in action because should we ever allow defilement of what is holy within us then we allow defilement of what came into us from above. It is sometimes reasonable to appear unreasonable. It is sometimes reasonable to say "This won't cut it. Don't touch me, asshole." It is sometimes reasonable to say "I will not tolerate defilement because I am in my Father and my Father is in me." I will not allow anyone to insult my Father or my Mother. I will not allow them to insult my children either which are the children of God. I will not allow them to bring forth evil progeny out of sucking the life out of our vessels, our spiritual vessels. I will not allow that person...I will not allow demon orgasms. I will not allow Hades connections; I will not feed people who want to destroy that which is holy on earth.

If I appear mad, then so be it. There is an insanity that is far more insidious and of greater concern to me, and that is a spiritual insanity where all defilement is allowed and its: "Oh, it is just their own thing" where pornography of children is allowed as free speech. Where people can put crucifixes upside down in jars of urine of homos and call it art and have it paid for by the federal government. I have a problem with that. And if people aren't mad about homos dressing as nuns and marching through the streets, if people aren't angry at defilement of what is holy then I say, if they want to say how 'mad I am,' that that is insane in the eyes of the world, then I am insane. But I won't take some pedophile rubbing up next to me in the restaurant knowing what he was doing. He knew what he was doing with both eyes.

And if that is insane, then I choose to be. If it is sane to go to the bathroom and jack off 20 times a day, then forgive me; "Beam me up Scotty." Is it sane to picture gross scenes? Is it sane to want to kill and hunt down somebody like a damn dog? Is that sane to want to put a child in a home full of sodomite teenage coke addicts? Is it sane what has been done?

I say we need to look at what is sane. We need to decide what is sane in the eyes of God and that is destroy the evil within us and I have said this for months now. "Dear Lord destroy any part of me that is evil." And I have prayed that for weeks. I would go in there early in the morning in the room where you two are sleeping and I start praying: "Dear Lord destroy any evil within me or impacting me I earnestly pray. If I be able to face any truth according to the Plan of God then anything that is against the plan of God that has entered this vessel I ask that I be destroyed in that, and if I am worthy to be reborn in Christ I ask that I be reborn in Christ. I ask that only healing occur if I can somehow be of service to the plan of the God of our Lord Jesus." I will not [---] die like a damn rabbit on the road. I would rather be dead than to be unworthy to kiss the feet of Jesus. And yet I know. I know Mother Mary and our Lord Jesus have seen my suffering.

He has seen your suffering. He has seen those who seek to defile in different ways, through business, through relationships, through ownership of a person wanting to [--], wanting to devour you, wanting to take over the energy you have or are or own.

There is a record back (?) to the demonic ones. I have all the flaws that they have. They have [--] if anyone who has known me knows that it is not true. But I am not here to defend because God is [--] and He is my benefactor. But to me this is an underworld and I struggle to keep one foot in this underworld and not be a stranger in this land, not a stranger.

But I have no agenda but to serve. I am on the front lines of this war. I am on the front line of the holy being army, I am on the front line. You are with me, I hope, because I am not completely human anymore. And all that I am, all that I have, and all that I will ever be is God's. I will never doubt, I will always trust but because I must be anchored here I must have human attributes. That is why the human attributes are yours, the same as yours. I am not like you anymore not since I died two years ago. I am not and I never will be. But I struggle to somehow bridge the gap between the human and the divine and I do not always do such a good job. It is hard to be in two places. I have darn near died a few times. They are after me like wolves now, and always will be. But I will never stop trusting and I will never doubt that humanity is worth it.

I believe that if you have survived this far then others might as well. I believe that there are people who could be saints who we have never met or will never meet and that is how, if this vessel could be balanced enough, we could put forth books that could change the world. And we are already doing that

To do so we must be holy, all of us; not one person can be unholy that works on such a book. A book that is holy is precious and must be treated with the dignity of someone who has perfected herself with the best of her knowledge. I am grieved because there is so much I could write. I have books by the volumes in this [-notebook?-]. My problem has been impeccability of others' help. My plea is that you can help me.

But no matter what, I will do my best. If I have to mimeograph and hand out on the street corners, I will. I will do my best. If each person just did their best, it would facilitate. I could just rely on one, two, three, to be as pure as they could. I have been fighting desperately for all of us for so many months. I am exhausted from fighting to survive. But I need to do more than survive. The reason I am fighting to survive is because; why would they want to destroy this work? They want to destroy it because it is in fact the death of that which is evil and the book is of that which is of good.

I'm not going to say we are the only opportunity. Sure, maybe there are a 100 different saint groups, but I don't know of them. If you ever start relying on somebody else to save the world, you will never be saved. You have to look at it as a personal responsibility. You have to look at it as possible. Saving the world is not like saving the whales. It means first of all saving yourself from malefic desire, malefic intention, malefic will which is the toughest.

What you have learned you can teach, but you can't teach anything that you don't know. If you choose to be a great teacher you must first be a great student. If you choose to be a great master, you must first be a great servant. If you ever choose to be a great deliverer of those who are oppressed you must first know what it is like to be oppressed. If you ever desire to be loved, then you must first love greatly. If you ever desire to be holy then you must respect that which is holy. You must recognize it or you will never be holy, you can't be holy unless you recognize that which is (---).

We are at a crossroads. There are forces beyond your wildest conceptions that are battling the heavens. The forces of good and evil are battling in heaven: Lucifer, Ahriman and St. Michael and this is not just an allegorical fight. They are fighting over the very souls of humanity and of this group.

There is no possibility of change unless one has necessity to change and yet there is great necessity to change because the recognition of a necessity to change is what one must have to change! There is always necessity to change. The question is do you have the recognition of the necessity to change which requires one to realize a sense of danger to oneself and humanity. Ideally one recognizes the danger to humanity and responds accordingly rather than just being afraid of losing something like a dollar bill or something else ridiculous; a house or a dollar bill.

When people's necessity to change is motivated by whether they have a house or a job or a dollar bill then they are bought by satan. You must be willing to sacrifice and trust in God's Grace. I remember how happy I was. How that during my lifetime in childhood and early adulthood was with extreme deprivation and starvation, being without a coat and being so cold in winter as a child, being cold, [--], being so ashamed for being so pathetic and then achieving financial security and then deciding that I would rather die in the cold than to give up my soul or somebody else's soul which I think is more important. It is like if you never learn to love in the true sense which is loving God's plan on earth; you only become some evil tool of darkness to destroy that which is pure and chaste from afar.

If you sit and mentally ridicule the teachings that I have given you or the songs we have sung, ah; you are greatly mistaken. (Sighs) We have much to do, much to do. I may appear somewhat soft or...but I am as relentless as anyone can be and with my last ounce of courage I will fight for you. I will go to the death for you as I have before and I will go to a second death and a third and a fourth. Believe you me; holy beings can be murdered. I don't know, I will go to any number of deaths for you. My love is so great. My love is limitless because my love is God's. I will go to any number of deaths. But more important I will go to any number of lives for you. I will live a million years to fight for you. I will live in an underworld for you [--]. That is my commitment. That is what I made with God when I entered this underworld the last time; two years ago.

I said "I will live years in the underworld for them and if I have to, I will die for them so that they can't live in an underworld." I may die before then. Not in body. There are battles that occur beyond the body. Someone could come right now and kill us, all of us, machine gun us down but we wouldn't die, you wouldn't die because the angels would cart you off. They would put you in kind of cold storage for the New Heaven and New Earth and you would just keep living. That is a simplification of what it means. But it is possible I would die.

Intercessors are front line Holy Beings and if they face assaults head on. If they fall it is a deadly thing. If they become evil it is quite dreadful. I am not evil. I have not fallen, nor will I. I am continued dedicated to your welfare. You will always be, I give you my word and my word is holy. I will fight. They can kill my body. If they kill my body, I would have to go because there is not a vessel ready for me. They could also kill who I am. That would take a lot more work and I don't think they are going to do it.

The way they would kill the vessel that I am now, the way they would kill what is living in this vessel would be to put me in the mad house because the vessel is still linked to the beingness. They would stop this beingness from writing and thinking and knowing God. They would put her on drugs and shock her with [--]. This beingness is linked to this vessel, so the worst thing they could possibly do is put her in the nut house with shock therapy until it goes insane or it becomes something evil and horrible. If they ever put me in the nut house I would need to die because they would drug the body and shock it until it was evil; until what my beingness is, is evil. So the body would need to die.

If they put me in the nut house they will never let me out, I would need to die. The drugs will distort me until I can't hold onto God and I will become something dreadful. But that is a somber note and we have work to do. This is a serious time. I need to draw the evil from each of you which has occurred not only through your own doing but from your being a target through association with me. It will take me about 30 minutes to recuperate and then I can work on C. The rest can wait; I need to work on C.

So let's take a 30 minute break and I will rest and the others can pray. You need to be as holy as possible and we need to work with as much precision as we can in order to fulfill the plan of God. In order to do that we must be clean, spiritually clean. And it is not just your fault or anybody's fault in this room if you are polluted. It has to do with powers and principalities as St. Paul said. What can I say? Powers and Principalities. Look at it this way, if somebody thinks you are that great of an opponent, then maybe you are! If someone spends so much energy in attack, may be they have something to pray on. Maybe they are worthless pieces of shit working on the destruction of earth and they are frightened. (Leaves the room)

LESSON JULY 16, 1995: The Body as a Crystal Radio

THE BODY AS A CRYSTAL RADIO

Virtually all spiritual disorders begin with a person deciding to tune his body brain crystals to a hell or Hades "radio station." In children, spiritual disorders occur because parents become radios for hell/Hades stations, and the children tend to resonate with what is in the environment, but particularly parents of the same gender.

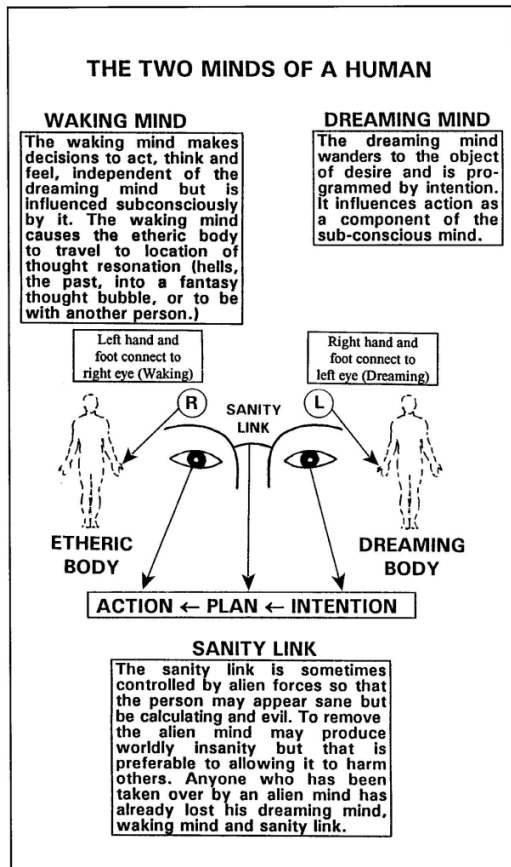

By thinking about a foul person, reading and merging with foul written material, or merging with what one sees, a person who has little integrity becomes an instant resonator of evil. The only difference between heavens and hells is the waveform, frequency, complexity of pattern, and direction of dissonance point orientation. Specific thoughts and emotions have all those components, and so the body chooses whether to be in heaven or hell with each moment's thoughts.

Anyone who chooses to move toward hell in his body resonance is a curse to the environment. His right eye, left hand, and left foot, and etheric body are linked to his waking mind and word thoughts. His left eye, right hand, right foot, and dreaming body are linked to his subconscious mind and picture images. Chronic use of foul imagery to stimulate the genitals produces a dreaming body that lives in hell or hades, or in another person's body as a vampiring spirit. Chronic use of circular "I-am-my-own-boss (god)" or hate thoughts produce an etheric body that becomes a first level incubus or succubus, which can possess others to drain their life force from them.

Waking and Dreaming Mind Chart from "A Prophet's Story"

Many people have destroyed their spiritual bodies by deciding to be their own boss/god, and so have nothing left but a body that can still choose to turn on a hell radio station. By doing so, they form demons out of their own tissues, that exist like maggots, starting at the nose, and moving down. The nose septum has a link between the Dreaming and Etheric bodies.

When the etheric body and dreaming body are dead, due to being devoured by fallen beings, then the fallen beings begin to eat the Dimensional Communicative Substance of an individual's tissues. Starting at the nose, they move down to the septum, down to the snot canal, to the mouth, to the larynx, to the sternum and heart, to the intestines, and to the genitals. As the black cloud of maggots moves downward, they leave a demon in the parts that have been devoured.

When they reach the genitals, the person has become a complete succubus or incubus. He then must vampire others to have demon orgasms. Out of his eyes are the little maggot demons, part of himself, that float out into the room to find new prey. Children and animals are gnawed on by the hatchlings of a living succubus/incubus. If a hole is present in the aura of a child or animal, the worm crawls inside, and begins to devour the life force, in particular sexual energy. When animals or children appear to suddenly be overly sexual in behavior, or act agitated, it is because they have been molested by being in the presence of a living incubus/succubus person.

You should destroy the Etheric and Dreaming Body and Communicative Substance of all chronic succubus/incubus who refuse to quit dialing a hell station. You should then destroy all maggot demons, all Demon Orgasm seeds, all residual soul matter that can be used to feed demons. Then, you must blast by the Name of God the whole body of the person, to unstick the hell/Hades door sounds, causing the doors to close. Then, think of the person's tongue. That is where the seat of the radio dial rests. Burn the dial with all your might, to stop it from having any energy to pick up a hell station. Make sure the spine top is cauterized, and the eyes are plucked out of the demon that has now taken over the body.

When you have, by your will, destroyed the demon inside the vessel, then you have a Phantom left. A phantom has no power, no hope of ever seeing heaven, because it cannot dial the heaven station. If the person who was taken over was innocent, such as a child, then you should pray for restoration of the vessel to an ensouled and holy intact condition. If the person who became an incubus/succubus has been healed before and continues to choose a hell/Hades station over heaven, then say "God's will be done," and do not intercede for the person.

Many people have just decided to be their own gods, and they have habits that they satanically cling to rather than go toward holiness. Such people refuse to believe they are satanic, and yet they form huge vortexes of foul thoughtform obsession clouds, and are selfish to do so. Such people must be stopped; it is the job of exorcists to do so. If they are not stopped, they will curse all holiness they meet, and seek to defile, and seek to slander and (with) treachery. The progression begins with a personal god program that seems harmless, and then moves toward total destruction of self and others. Spiritually self-destructive people want to drag others down with them.

As a result, animals and children are sick and tormented, and holy work is delayed, as the painful job of exorcism must be undertaken over and over again, as the hell stations pour out the songs of demons, which fill the air with poison.

It is not enough to leave an area where people choose to be evil. We must clear the area, and castrate, in a spiritual sense, all those who would breed demons.

EVOLUTION OF A VAMPIRE
1.		Magnetic Force Field loses substance due to a desire to merge with someone else.
2.		Generative Energy is drained by one's Pivotal Point of Reference and Accountability Substance Anchor moving to an imagined idealized version of the other person.
3.		Ether Substance is used to form a bond to another person. It usually exits at the nose septum.
4.		Dimensional Communicative Substance leaves the right foot and forms a sexual energy vampire line to the victim.
5.		Etheric Substance leaves the left foot and tries to enter the Magnetic Field of the victim to reach his Spark of Life, which has his ability to regenerate his health. This normally declines with age and the quantity is genetically determined (without Divine Intervention). To be vampired of Life Spark Substance is a serious problem and can ruin the health.
6.		The vampire burns his own Tissues Dimensional Substance and creates a breath that enters the eyes of the victim to form vampire connections of thought substance (waking mind etheric matter).
7.		The Vampire's Primary Cosmic Dust Molecule , which has the key components of human characteristics (Intend, Desire and Will Substances) begins to be used to control other people. It becomes satanically directed and shrinks, as it streams those three substances out of the solar plexus to the generative organs of the victim, forming vampire lines to drain all life substances from the victim (Ether, Etheric, Dimensional Communicative, Generative.)
8.		The Spark of Life is left without its three holy Substances (Desire, Will, Intend) and so becomes satanic. It may split into pieces, becoming the cores of demons that possess other people as they sleep or have orgasms.
9.		When the Spark is gone, the person is no longer human. He walks the earth as a vampire, or he would die. He sinks to the animal kingdom, plant kingdom, mineral kingdom, and then becomes a Hades fueled demon, walking the earth as Evil Incarnate .

NOTES: JULY 20, 1995 (Uncorrected; Names Changed)

NOTES:

It is not intended that the power on high be possible to approach. It is intended that they be unified with mankind. This vessel has suffered against (f's) persistent assault, against her holiness which he must realize or die. The holy beings have put forth substances for divine prayer that have been used for carnal misappropriation and it grieves the divine powers.

Without destruction, my eyes see light. I am devoted to the Word of God. My thoughts are from above; they fight that which is tumultuous. And the genitals of those who hate the vessel, even though they assume they intend rightly, their words are deadly to the heart of her who is carrying the weight of resurrection.

Speak of what I've said as a holy being from above that interceded for this vessel. And who takes on defilement and who prays for deliverance for the vessel from repeated attacks by those who use any available power to defile.

It is her lot to endure. It is her lot to fight. It is her lot to know. God have mercy on those, who knowing, defile her. She has no desire but for God's, "fulminescence" full expression and essence. Her only desire is that everybody be holy. That is it.

And what you sense after this is merely her attempt to marry herself to the defilers so as to take them on in a battle of all battles so as to destroy them. I ask you to pray. That the God of our Lord Jesus be -there is a problem there- that so many have prayed wrongly with our Lord Jesus that we must pray that the God that sent our Lord Jesus intervene in our behalf to change the events which have been thrown forward, and that whatever we thought as real, whatever we thought of ourselves, be annihilated in this night of annihilation.

Dear (b and c),

Please try to find (a) to give him this fax today. He is not home and I do not know where to find him. It may not be a good idea for me to call his house. G. asks that you try to find him. Thank-you, Cel

(Biographical Note uncorrected/names changed)

(lg) prayed a prayer one time when she was 13. She was in the foyer of a Baptist Church in packing-town (Oklahoma City), the Exchange Avenue Baptist Church. She heard the songs and she had prayed so pure for so many years that someone hit her head through the stained glass windows. Of purity, of desire, was so grand that it changed the course of events in her life and therefore in others. It was that one time she prayed so purely in the foyer of the Exchange Avenue Baptist Church it changed her life and everyone else's because she prayed with a fervor that is unmatched in this century. She was only 13 but she prayed with a fervor that was unmatched and that is the meaning of the power of the angel's wings that swoop into obedience (obeyance?) when a child is reached accountability. I do not know why she had to be destroyed except to say that she had many vultures. She was decent, good, and kind. She gave all that she had to God from an early age.

From an evil perspective you could say that she was devoured, but I know that she had to die so that no one else could feast off of what she became which was fine and clean and pure saintly. She became a saint. And in that prayer in the anteroom of that church as an adolescent, she turned her life to God. And after that whatever happened was less important. NO one can take the soul of someone who loves God. No one can devour that which is holy. But the holy may decide to depart.

It hasn't happened yet. (lg) was devoured and she is dead. But she gave herself as a sacrifice to the unworthy. (lg) is no more, and everyone should remember that.

She is dead. And (d) needs to grieve for his mother. Some comfort will abide in him, in that (s) is pure and is his only anchor and he is the only saint left in potential. If (s) nurtures (d) then another saint will arise. He will have lost his natural mother and she her natural children and me, my natural children. But it is a great and glorious service for all of us. In our mixed situations we must bear the brunt of annihilation of who we were. And God is not ignorant of who has brought us here. (jg) is so evil it defies the imagination. What he has desired to do has defied the imagination. He has wanted a slave in a woman. Holy beings have said "You will not have this woman as a slave, no. You think you bought her with the children. You won't buy her. It is a horror what has transpired, but you won't have her, you won't have her." The holy beings say "You won't devour this woman, you won't devour this woman, you won't devour that woman, we won't allow it."

You may have 200 people "preying" for you but you won't devour her. But you won't devour her, and I will take all the poison in this "vesicle", vessel before I will let you devour her. This being will stand in front of her as the guardian of the gate, and I will fight with every holy being, every demon, and all the synergy group. I will devour every being, their synergy group formed.

I can kill the demons except for their disbelief. Jesus could do no miracles in his own land because everyone doubted him. (I am) asking you to believe in me. If you believe I will give her word that I will take every demon in the two and devour them. If you give your confidence, I won't back down; I will destroy every evil in you and in me. And pray yourself to the God of our Lord Jesus that all evil be destroyed. I will willingly take on any evil in you, and willingly take on any disease; cancer. I will take on anything as long as you are willing to become holy. It is all I ask. If in exchange I have a trade agreement, if I take on every single demon on all ancestors male and female and your own foul judgments, will you stand by me in the end? Will you know that I am really holy even though I look like the devil himself? Will some part of you know that I am holy even though I am merely a mirror of yourself? I give all that I have to you. I have given my souls.

We must only pray. If we pray that God reach us. That is the only thing that can happen. I am annihilated by God. I was annihilated from an early age and yet I'm never smug, and I am never in a stance of defiance. Because I am annihilated. It is not something that is just pretty. It is the death of...I have died. So that others may live. The fact that they will not understand the death gives me grief as (lg) because she died.

This vessel seeks to endure. All that is pure and clean rests in the dead. I seek to save those who have been lost. Except for my fighting fight against evil is ever present (sic). And my vessel fights to eternity not with rest but with succor from the Gods of our Lord Jesus. I sacrifice myself as Steven and other saints have done before me. I am annihilated. It is not a metaphor. It is not some pretty word or some pretty position of stance. When LG died in Gallup, New Mexico, it was not a minor thing it was world changing. Oh if only 100 people died to Christ if only 100 people died to Christ. If only 100 people died. It was only the courage of LG that died and is dead, and the heavens cry. The heavens cry. Because she was the least offensive. They mourn, the heavens mourn each being that has struggled to right, the heavens mourn each being that was devoured as LG was devoured. What remains to fight is her holiness. It is some struggling of essence that must be in the end destroyed. And yet she gave everything that she knew or had. Yes there is death. Death beyond measure. You know what it is like to know that you will never again hear a bird sing or feel the embrace of a child or a love of a man? Do you know what it is like? To give everything to God? Embrace the child, for the love of a man. To give all that you have been or ever could be to God? Oh LG knew. And I knew. I give more than most assume. I give the direction. I'll look foolish to the uninspired. Because I suffer so much. I am not foolish. I am nauseated. My uterus is eternally full with humanity. I give birth to the poison of humanity over and over again.

If I don't despair then why should you despair? If I believe in God, as some sort of transitory vehicle or being, why should you give up on God? I am here as an intermediary. I interface your world to suffer most mightily. But I am not of your world I'm from above it. I seek to help you. I seek to save. I seek to take on evil and have the strength of Him eternally...God. I am eternal. Waiting for a response. I take in myself tonight all that is unholy, all that is foul. All that is vulgar and gross, I'm taking in myself. That is not right. I don't mean to be indirect, and yet I can only bear it indirectly.. S bear with me, if I bear it indirectly all that I've seen, and all that I do. Oh my God, I bear indirectly.

I ask that you pray for me because I am a feral being. I am not of this world. and I will never be of this world, but I struggle to help this world, I am the Linda that has interfaced the two worlds and she has been a complex of beings, not one or two but many more and if you try to define her with a personality then you will hurt her. I am not a human, but I struggle to help humans. I struggle to so valiantly to help humans. I am a mere reflection of the face of God and I won't say it vainly that I am a reflection.

I say that because it is true. Why did LG feel the pain that she did? It was because she fought God's battle. Oh my God. I remember someone took me to the bathroom when I was so eaten up with the evil of the whole party; bleeding, gross, vulgar.

I was something fine and pure coming into humanity to try to help it. Something holy and everyone else tried to knock it down and defile it to make it vulgar. Oh God she was never vulgar. Oh my God I look at the death of LG and this is the total night of her death. Mourn for her. Because she was so good. She was so good. She was killed by those that would do her wrong. I try to be deply but I fell to assign myself the death for what was holy (sic). I now that if (f) or (r) were here they would laugh. I suffer.

There is no male that is holy on the face of the earth tonight. Not one. Not one on the face of the earth. I have given everything that I have and prayed for the earth earnestly and am wanting. There is not enough left to save the earth.

The level of demons now are very mighty and most horrible and I will take into my body and make me look horrible and most disgusting. I can't

NOTES JULY 27, 1995 The Eighth Grace Level Dies

EVENING OF JULY 27, 1995

THE EIGHTH GRACE LEVEL DIES

NOTES:

The Grace Bestowal had 8 circles. Each circle was as if superimposed over each person in parts, giving the person the ability to tap (the higher) powers. Unfortunately the powers were used wrongly. (The Grace Bestowal was given to each person in the party at the time of L.G.'s death, July 2, 1993).

LEVELS:

1st: MOUTH

This level anchored the New Earth to a person's social identity, and was misused. People should have been anchored to the New Heaven and Earth to help others. With the social linkage power, it was instead used to form webs that were foul by longing for and having sexual fantasies towards evil people to create demon orgasm rupture points. These rupture points were largely caused by misuse of this level. KNEES: When the mouth dropped to the knees, the power was used wrongly.

2nd: NOSE

Misuse of the Nose power related to hatred for hierarchy, creating one's own reality and being one's own God. (No explanation for the proper use).

3rd: EARS:

This power was to be used to hear the New Heaven, but was used to hear Satan.

4th: THROAT

This power was the ability to love, and hate was chosen.

5th: SEXUAL ORGANS

The generative power was to be used to expand God's word over the earth, and it was used to form succubus/incubus.

6th: INTESTINES/DIGESTION

This power was to pull in power into a person's belly like Chi to fight God's work. It became instead treachery. It became hunger for power as opposed to power for service. Sn was the chief example when she tasted nagual power, she wanted it, and had no humility.

7th: HALO

This power was first used wrongly by Ji, it was the Power of Life and Death, and it was used to curse to death. Then it became La and Gar. Ji transferred that power to (jg).; they could then legally tap into G because RP prayed for Ji to receive mercy and by doing so kept Ji hooked into the Grace realm. La was an example of using the power to summon higher beings for help. She used it to summon beings to destroy G and the group so as to have her own way.

8th: BRAIN

This power was to be used to understand God's Word, but was misused for devil's advocate arguments.

When one knows something to be true and acts against it, it is very wrong. The Grace Powers were so deformed with demon orgasms, that the points shifted to the knees and feet. The whole group had to fight against it all the time. Every person was an intercessor. The Holy Beings didn't think the Grace Umbrella would survive very long, but long enough for this vehicle to make a transition to not need an anchor.

After LG's death, the Grace Umbrella was given to anchor the vessel, and it is now ending. It has to end because people like Sn have such an ability to turn it to poison by being part of the life system.

It was a hard two years. It was not hard due to any doubt of God, or of G.'s path, but because she was so greatly cursed by those who were supposed to anchor her. In return, these people received great blessings but they hooked others into the Grace Cloud.

G was poisoned by others that were marginal. La turned bad 1½ years ago. But G. had to have evil have its day, and give them the chance to turn around. What she has been eating all these weeks is what they created: Grace Umbrella Poison. There was no one else to eat it. The male naguals were returned to attack her, (as they were loaned out inappropriately).

It was the design of power in the heavens for some people without any Virtue left to not be smashed. Partly because the power that was given, the person was not ready for, but there was no one else on the earth to do it.

It was a long shot, and a big plunge to pull the Grace Umbrella down. This was the primary accomplishment of LG's life. (The last night before LG died, she had been working without any Grace, she had been working without any Grace all her life, and she was on her knees and prayed to give all of herself for humanity. The heavens heard her prayer because it was pure. The heavens had been closed to her and she worked her whole life with trust in God. It almost failed and it's over. Everything that happened had to happen. It would have been better if Ji could have done it, but she was mean and there was no one else. This vehicle was meant to die within a year after LG's death, a year so that Ji could purify and be holy, but it was within a week that Ji was wanting her dead.

LG for many years was austere because she had to withdraw to formulate a plan, to see clearly enough away from succubus incubus energies. She was always suffering. Now the suffering is not so bad, but LG was hung between worlds. She saw the souls dying and all of humanity going down. No one else did; no one. She fought like a tigress. She left her children and crossed the country on trips three out of four weeks to fight to save other children.

LG paid her dues and in the eyes of the world she was weird. Her suffering was not understood because it wasn't seen. Now G's suffering comes and goes. She is never really comfortable, but it is not a bother.

She (as G) is still hung between worlds. This has something to do with accepting her fate no matter what it is. She accepts that she is hated by four of her five (relatives); accepts that she is not a normal mother; accepts whatever God tells her to do, the next step. She is grateful that the Plan of God survived and it is going to go forth.

It doesn't matter, our being flawed. We are flawed but the Holy Beings knew it to start with. G is no longer human and has not been human for two years. This is hard for her because she feels like she is always in hell. On the other hand she is always joyful because she is doing God's work and she first and foremost is a soldier. All else is secondary including the teaching and the writing. She is not a general, she is just a soldier. She is here for a reason and is happy in her service.

The joy of God never stops. There is an essence of physical and mental pain, but it is superficial. So, she feels the pain, and she drinks some to ease it, but it doesn't get the best of her, she never quits fighting. She has no choice as she submitted her will so completely to God when LG died, that she is not human anymore. She is a servant of humans.

She doesn't know what will happen. People were given more power than they could handle. It is a miracle that we have done as well as we have, with all our flaws, that the heavens rejoice. We succeeded. We may have lost a few battles but we have won the war.

When a person reaches their level of endurance they can fold. If one does not love truth, then one can reach the wall and the dark forces can get you. When Ji directed her power towards G it was as if G were turning a part of herself onto herself. She was sick and being devoured by part of herself. G has not been strong physically; she has been bleeding, she had anemia and the physical poisoning made it worse.

LG would have loved to have gone ahead and physically died if Ji could have handled it. The power that Ji was lent became so foul that the Holy Beings used a higher law and ran her out of the monastery. Ji didn't want a soul, just a man.

It has been two years. The devil has had his day and it has been a terrible carnage. Many would have not gone down had Ji not been fed by primary and secondary sources.

Se and Sn decided they wanted to be G. They wanted to be the teacher and have a man. But what did they think they would have? They would have had no teaching, no books.

St and Ri: St had a propensity for evil, and she cursed the three of us (Si and Cel too). But it was in the design of power to leave her in the teachings to trap evil in our own bodies.

{A Cross appeared on the inside of Genevieve's lower left arm. It was the beginning of the death of Genevieve, the nagual}.

LG used to cry when an angel would die. Often the angels would die because they went crazy. The Grace Genevieve Nagual didn't go crazy, she was totally sane. She had lived a long time, millions of years in our time. Genevieve chose to do a kamikaze mission. It was the only way out when Ji went bad, and it was inevitable. Although perhaps she had a 1% chance. If the whole Grace Umbrella had been better, it could have survived.

Christians cry out for eternal life, but would they give up a life that had existed for millions of years for people who were questionable? Did they think this being didn't love? They think it didn't love because it was too harsh to people. Yet they were devouring her innards, and they were sure she would go back to Gallup, New Mexico.

Is it weird to think that one can be more than one type of being? The nagual didn't talk, she acted, but she used interpreters. She's not sad if she dies in her duty as a soldier, how can she be sad? In human life soldiers die at 20 or 30, and this one was millions of years old and died in the field.

There were many worlds and aeons for this type of being and there is no recovery. No reincarnation, no body as you know it. There is a body but it is light in a container. She has been through the wringer. She goes down without any regret.

She is thinking about b and c. They never saw the suffering of the Holy Beings. We have a mighty purpose, this vessel says as the interpreter of the nagual's dying wishes, to retrieve from chaos the people on earth who desire to know God. But we won, and she can't be sad.

We are on the threshold of changing human consciousness. It is not such a bad thing to die after millions of years for a noble cause. How many die for stupid reasons, or for no reason? To be a martyr in the holy sense, is wonderful. It is not that this being wanted to die. It could do wonderful things on many planes and many worlds, but she took her chances. So did L.G. who is dead. No matter what they think she gave up her life and this one has too.

It has been a slow torture. It has been two years for the being, a slow burn over a slow fire. She wishes that b and c would know that, but she thinks they would not understand. At the last conference they saw the pain in the being and misjudged it.

A second cross has shown up on her left arm. She now has no solid identity in the vessel, but is what God wants, and is grateful. The nagual was a component of the power of the being. She may not need a nagual now. She is to be replaced with something else, something greater, another soldier will step in.

Something else has come in, a holy power and she has to adjust to it.

Pray:

Repeat the 23rd Psalm

The Lord's Prayer, St. Michael's Sword, The Holy Virgin Mary

Say the old prayer from the monastery.

Pray for ____, direction, joy and clarity to manifest God's work.

Cel Notes/Dream

Last night at 10:00PM, the interpreter for Genevieve explained the death of the 8 Grace layers. (That explanation typed under 7-25-95). G laid down her life seven days after LG had completely died by destroying her own spark (see ch7-20-95). The first three days for me were mostly spent in bed because I couldn't move to do anything else. The fourth day I was happier and more energetic, and that was when she told us the Grace layer was being destroyed in eight layers. It was the Grace Umbrella that was brought to earth by the first death of LG and sent out over the group so that we could be a holy group on the earth.

On the 5th, 6th and 7th day, f and r were in Oklahoma packing the trucks. We were alone in the house, G, s, d and I. The fourth day I was feeling well again. "Well" in the sense that I could feel closer to God. It seemed easier to hold a holy resonance, and my thoughts and feelings were not so tortured. The fifth day was very hard. Very painful. The three of us tore down a brick wall between the downstairs apartment and the downstairs Amber Press apartment. We also built a wall for r's bedroom. It was all we could do, as by keeping physically active, the breakdown of the Grace layers would not be so crippling. The sixth day we finished tearing down the brick wall and cleaned up the house. I went upstairs to my room around 3:30 and feel asleep for an hour or two. I couldn't draw myself out of bed physically. G knocked on the door and said we could pack up lightly and go camping on the land. I dragged at first and then became very energetic.

As we were leaving home, I pointed to the place by the door where I had left my shoulder bag and asked G 'had she seen it?' And she said no. The bag was gone from the back door. We drove to the gas station, as I figured someone had taken it out and when I found my bag with money was not there, we drove back (sic). I walked into the house again, and there it was, sitting in the same spot that I had left it. G said that the Holy Beings hid it from us, "made it invisible" because they knew I was going to forget to lock the gate door. (Which I had done).

We then drove out to the land out and crossed two deep streams at night and arrived around 9:30PM. We were there with the dogs for only 45 minutes when three trucks drove by. 20 minutes later they drove past us again going down the hill. G said that they were friends of the neighbor who were just past us on the road who knew the trailer was open, and they had planned to break in and party and trash the place. She said to me many things. She said that I was given more by the Holy Beings than what I prayed for. That I did not appreciate what they did, that what seemed easy for me (like the black bag disappearing) was done by great hard work on their parts. That I was holding back. She said...

She said that when I woke in the night to sing the hymn:

"This is my Father's world" I know no other Name.

All nature sings, and around me brings,

The wonder of God's Name." This I did all night.

The night was hard for her. According to Si she got up many times to vomit blood, and once passed out on the grass for 20 minutes. (It was very cold in the night, I didn't notice what went on because I slept as if I were drugged). In the morning we went for a walk by the stream. It was so beautiful with the wild flowers and the warm breeze and the rocks, mountains, the stars last night. G was in great pain but it was a gift by the Holy Beings for her to be there, I believe. On the walk she gave me a quartz crystal stone.

We drove back and it was a hard drive. She was suffering greatly. Greatly in the sense that I could tell she was suffering more than physically, but was grieving, and it seemed very great. She said very little on the drive.

I went out for Chinese food. Si went out for black hair-dye. We ate and then she dyed Si's hair. The dye stained her left hand and fingers, but it stained nowhere else on her hands, or Si's forehead. When she held up her hand to show me, I have to say that my heart sunk. We watched the movie, Conan the Destroyer. Afterwards we sat in the kitchen and she told us what the 8 Grace Layers were meant to be and what they were turned into. Towards the end she was agitated, and walked around the kitchen. She brought over a jar of dried pineapple and opened it, took one and set it between Si and me. Neither Si or I took one. She walked back and took a second piece and Si and I did not have one.

A Cross showed up on the inside of her left forearm. It looked like a long crease down the middle with the cross at the top. It was a very long and fine standing line.

(I just now remember that that Cross was also in the cloud formations which I saw in California after LG died. I saw first the Madonna with a hole in her heart and then I saw a long cross in the sky with a curled bottom part. Now I remember that that is also drawn in her drawing of "Jesus being ushered into Heaven after death."

When the cross appeared on her arm, she told us that the nagual Genevieve was dying, with full consciousness, and full sanity and full choice. That the nagual had lived of years (sic) and had known that she was diving to earth to her death, with a 1% chance of surviving. Now I remember that soon after the re-ensoulment when our naguals were removed, during the spiritual Passover, I saw in my prayers that she and RP would die terrible sacrificial deaths. It was such a horror to see that, I did not look at it again. I thought at the time that it meant they would die physical deaths, but the G and RP naguals both came down from where they were in the future, and they both died.

G died very bravely. I'm sorry that I was so coarse a creature to not know what happened. To not know how significant it was. I prayed to God to help us to be better than we were. I remember that was an old prayer of LG. I remember when LG told a story of a small playful girl in the heavens who saw the impossible situation on earth, and others said, "It is impossible", and she said "I'll go!" And she said this to three students perhaps three months before she died in Gallup, New Mexico. They were behind a curtain, but I wheeled my chair over to the curtain and listened to the story anyway. Those students are gone. I don't know, she wanted to live, she said. She said there was a small chance that little girl could go back and be with the flowers. That her name was something like dew ..I wish I could remember.

I remember before California after a powerful lecture, most of the students were out of the room, maybe just one or two (remaining), and again I was standing behind the curtain. Because she was suffering so, I couldn't be in the room itself. And she said, "God will lead us every step of the way." And she said that with such a belief. I have remembered that statement and it helps me too.

Many times recently she has referred to her dying. She said in conference this June, that should a murderer come into the room and shoot us all, that we would, the students, would go to a holding tank in the New Heaven, that she wouldn't, but we would.

She has recently referred to three deaths. At conference she said the curse of the synergy group required three deaths, and she said she was taking them in. On the, then last night, after G had died, another cross appeared on her arm that she did not explain.

When she left the room last night, I opened the jar of dried pineapple (of which I had put the lid on earlier) and took a piece.

Last night I woke up at two o'clock because I heard knocking on my kitchen door (upstairs apartment). I had prayed to wake up if there was any danger. I asked for guidance on what to do. I then heard footsteps walking down the corridor towards my apartment. I then heard cars outside the house. I went around and turned on my living room and office lights. I heard a cough (a physical cough, not a spiritual sound as the others were) outside my window close to the front door of the house. At that point I went to turn on the lights in the sun room, the back porch, and the kitchen. That seemed all that I needed to do, except to pray to be delivered from evil, to be guided in what to do, and for help to fulfill the plan of God.

I woke again at 4:00 after wisps of dreams. One was a dream of a man who was packing and leaving from an apartment house that I had just bought and he was leaving without paying rent. His name was --some name I had not heard in this group before--(who it was, was) Sn. The other wisp was seeing myself in a pink blouse and short curly hair and pink trousers, just disappear as in smoke. I realized that was Se. I figured they were unwinding in me.

Just before the alarm rang at 5:00AM, and this was the impetus for my writing this whole story; I was in a dream but it was not a dream, it was real. First I saw a man being chased down by a mob. He was with his Chihuahua and when the mob grabbed him, they started to kill him, but before that, they grabbed the Chihuahua to torture and kill before the man's eyes. One of the killers said to the dog "You are a nice little dog, (and basically), we have nothing against you" as he started to do something to its legs. (2013: Note from Editor: I wonder if this is what happened to Se and her Chihuahua outside of Edmond, Oklahoma on the train tracks in the middle of the night in March, 1996. It was said to be a "train track suicide" with the dog wrapped in her coat.)

Then, (in the dream) G and I were in a hotel that was an older style with balconies, and indoor balconies. I don't know where it was, except logically it could have been New Mexico. G was running around and not saying anything, but she looked desperate. Not afraid but without choice. I did not follow her she ran off and I thought I would see her again. But then I saw a movie crew, with some actress playing La standing in front of many people in the spot-light; talking. I saw the other students standing around as actors and actresses waiting to play their parts. I saw the press and the great mobs of people and hysteria. I heard that "G was dead." I could not find any information about it. I asked a policeman who told me she was dead and was being flown off to a place where she would be dissected and send to various places. I could see La telling her story as she saw it. A group of press came up to me, they were reading from the books, all of them, Virtues Law and Powers, Sophia's A Prophet's Story and the companion book, even though it hadn't been printed yet. Those were all I had, they were not edited. I thought "This is all we will have." When the press read from the books, they started laughing and they looked at me, and I was crying and I knew they were laughing, and that these books would be laughed at and that her body was not being disposed of as she wished. The last thing I heard before I woke up was that at the dissection they were going to crush her heart.

This was so real. I knew it was the outcome that had been set up. That the movie was already made. That people already had their stories to give to the press. That she would have disappeared and died, I don't know how. And the books would be studied and then laughed at. It was a horror and I can only think that it was the final unwinding of the effects from the causes put forth that we have been delivered from. At great cost. I don't know what today will bring. I know that "God will lead us every step of the way" and that "She will not be denied", as G said that the Holy Beings told her.

How can something so great happen, and no one see it? That no one know it, that no one can feel it, that no one on earth can comprehend it. How can that be?

CLASS NOTES: JULY 30, 1995

July 30, 1995 Sunday Cel Notes

Only a note to say that today it seemed like a resurrection.

See the chart put out on this date, with the 1 2 3 4 5 levels of the spiritual levels, starting with the Spark.

(See Chart at left. This was the date it was created)

G. said that the 8th Level Intercession Powers came onto the earth today.

The 8th level Intercessors can be related to the Inertia Wheel, in that what is done by them is an 8 in manifestation. Previously the Grace (Umbrella) level was the 5th level, that is where the Genevieve nagual was.

Anything initiated by the Grace Level would start at the 5 on the Inertia Wheel. (Which means that physical manifestation would be an easy descent from the point of inertia, #5).

She said when the Grace level was destroyed on the evening of Thursday, July 27...That major blocks of ours on the level of the left eye were removed...And the downline effects needed to be dowsed on the chart made today...

While she showed us how to use the chart, she said the holy powers were removing the downline contaminations for us, completely, so as to start with a clean slate.

Prayer to Align with Law

PRAYER TO ALIGN WITH LAW

In the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. I ask the Holy Spirit to remove all darkness and defiance to Universal law and order from every level of my being.

May my very being radiate the understanding that God is merciful and just; that the universe was created with spiritual polarity and gender; that cause and effect is always operating; that whatever manifests above will likely manifest below; that there is an objective reality in the world apart from any I would create, that by clinging to the physical form I move away from my soul but that by aligning myself with Logic Truth and Law I may manifest holiness in my physical form; that movement, vibration, and change are constants in this universe and thus to be in harmony I must welcome changes in my lower form no matter what they entail.

I recognize that hierarchy is inherent in the spiritual world and I submit myself to service and devotion to that hierarchy. I seek spiritual transformation rather than the physical effects of spiritual healing. I ask that the Holy Spirit help me align my emotions and thoughts with that which is holy and not with the earth thoughtform grids. I am committed to using my spiritual knowledge daily so that my physical form will align with holiness. I ask that the Holy Spirit tune every fiber of my being to resonate with holiness in pattern and frequency, that the Holy Spirit reveal my path in each season, in each hour of the day, in every facet of my being, so that I might follow God's laws in the physical, mental, and spiritual realms.

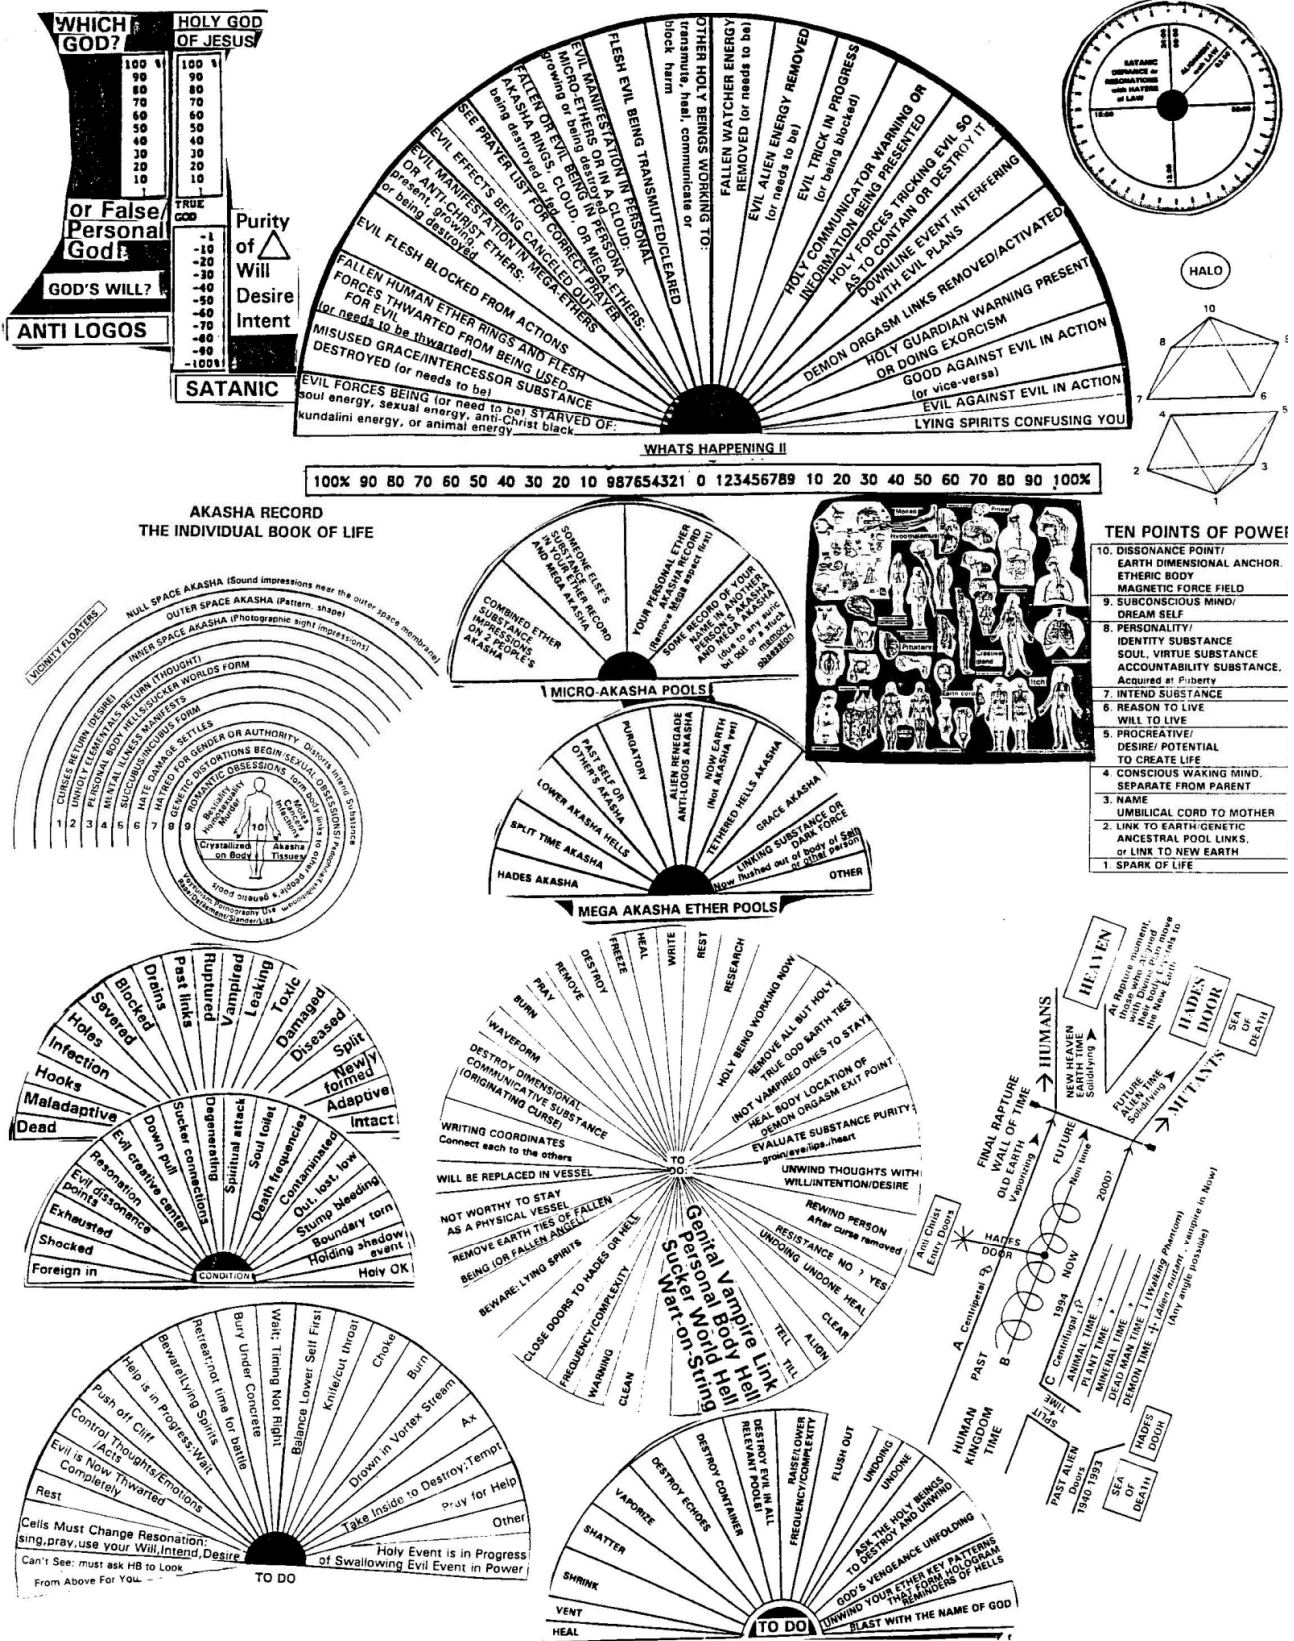

I ask that the Holy Spirit fill me with the wisdom and intelligence of God, with divine love and with the will and power to fulfill the plan of God. Give me unwavering strength so that my work in the world reveals the beauty and harmony of the Divine Plan. Give me guidance, sound judgment, holy desire, sobriety, joy, and the ability to reason so that I may fully ascend to the higher virtues and multiply the glory of God on the face of the earth. Grant that I remain rooted in the New Heaven and New Earth from which I draw strength so that all my virtues shall flower. I vow to tread the path of right understanding, right thought, right speech, right action, right livelihood, right effort, right mindfulness and right concentration. I pray that my lower and higher selves unite so they might engender ever increasing circles of holiness around me.

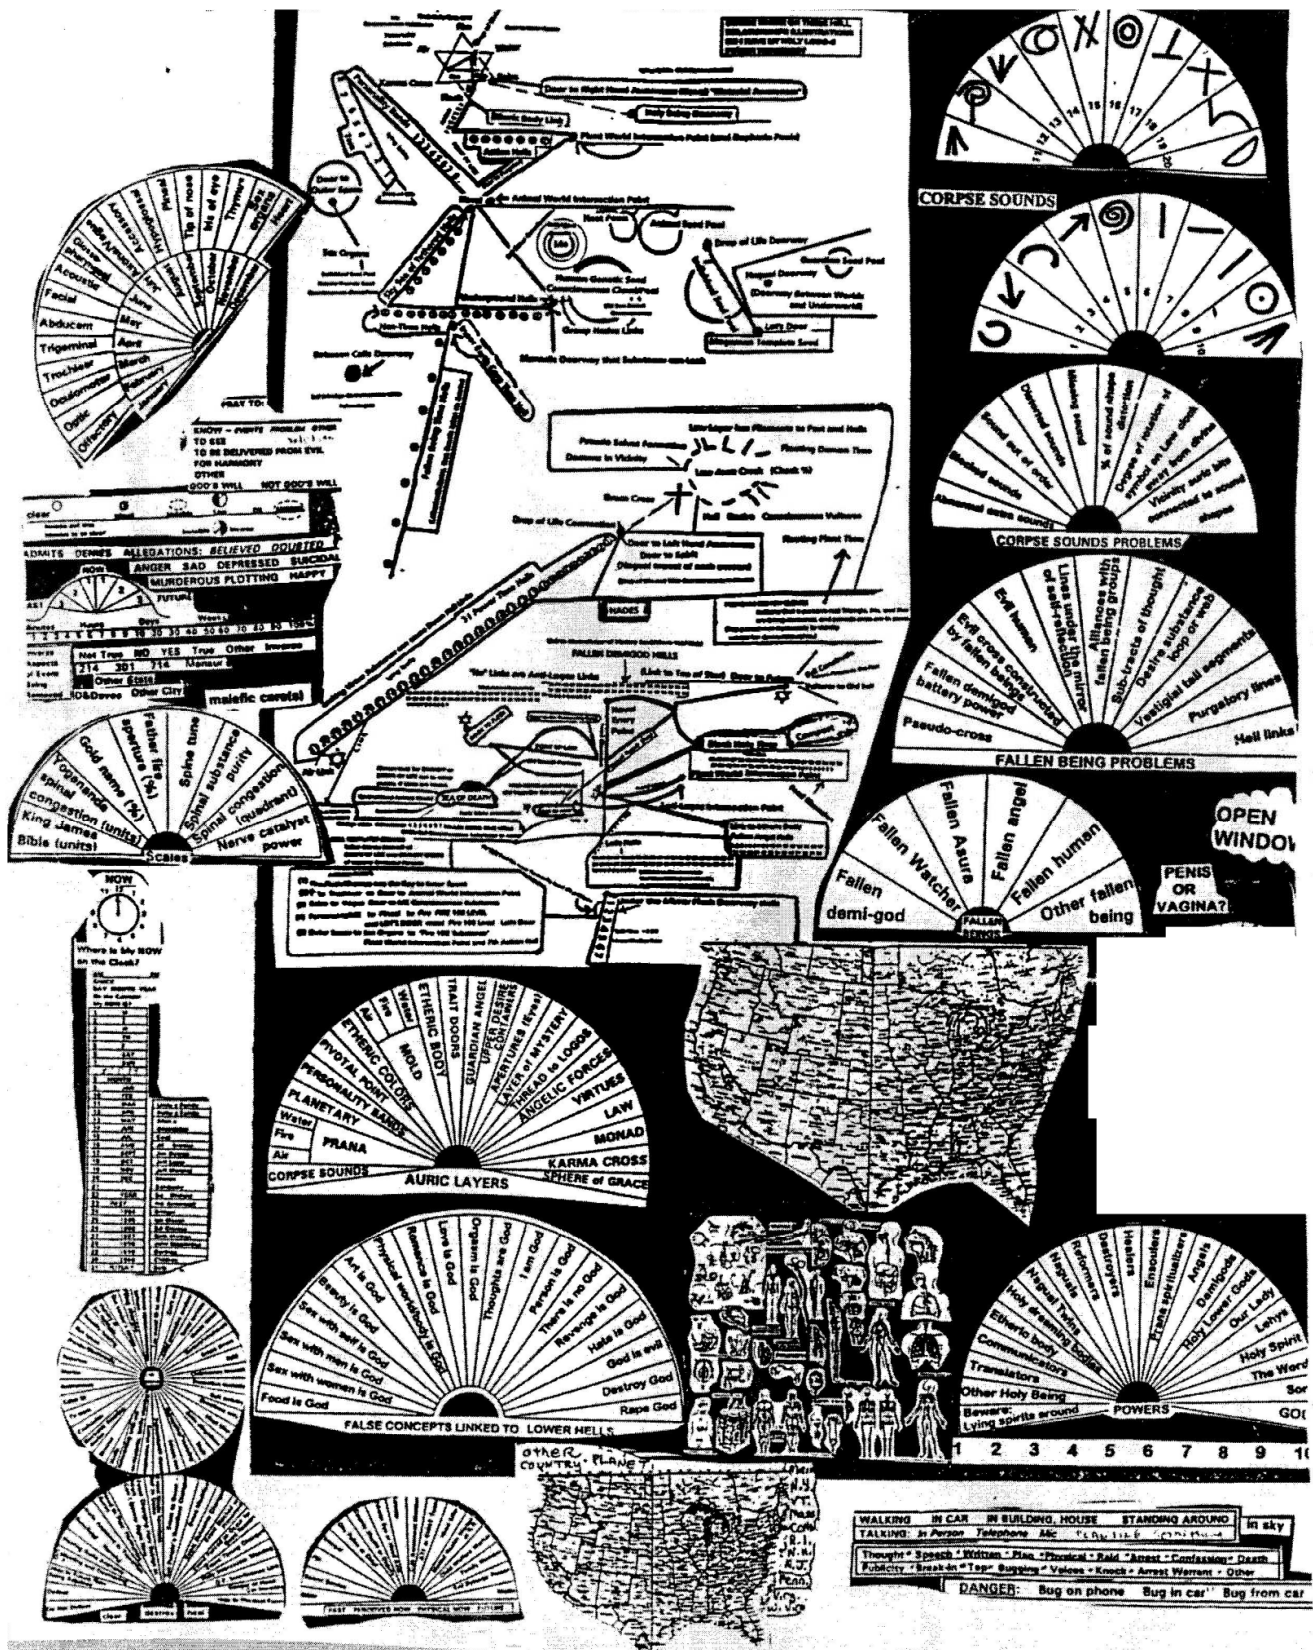

I ask that all lower self-ties or resonations with any person, place, thing or idea be removed so that I might be truly whole and purified. Recognizing that all disharmonious thoughts or actions I engage in reflect in the macrocosm of the universe, I seek to live a life congruent with universal law and to be delivered from any food, substance, sex, material or romantic obsessions.

I pray to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, and all the Holy Beings and Angels that help the alignment and service of those engaged in the spiritual quest for Truth, to help me purify in all directions, and to remove any disharmonies from the past, present or future, shielded or hidden, so I may better carry out the will of God.

God, lend me your strength so that I may face my weaknesses through submission to your will. I acknowledge that my own low will can do nothing unless it is aligned with Divine Will which is all strength. I ask that I be given no powers or comforts that I cannot resist; no pleasures, spiritual, mental, social, or physical that would lead me away from my soul.

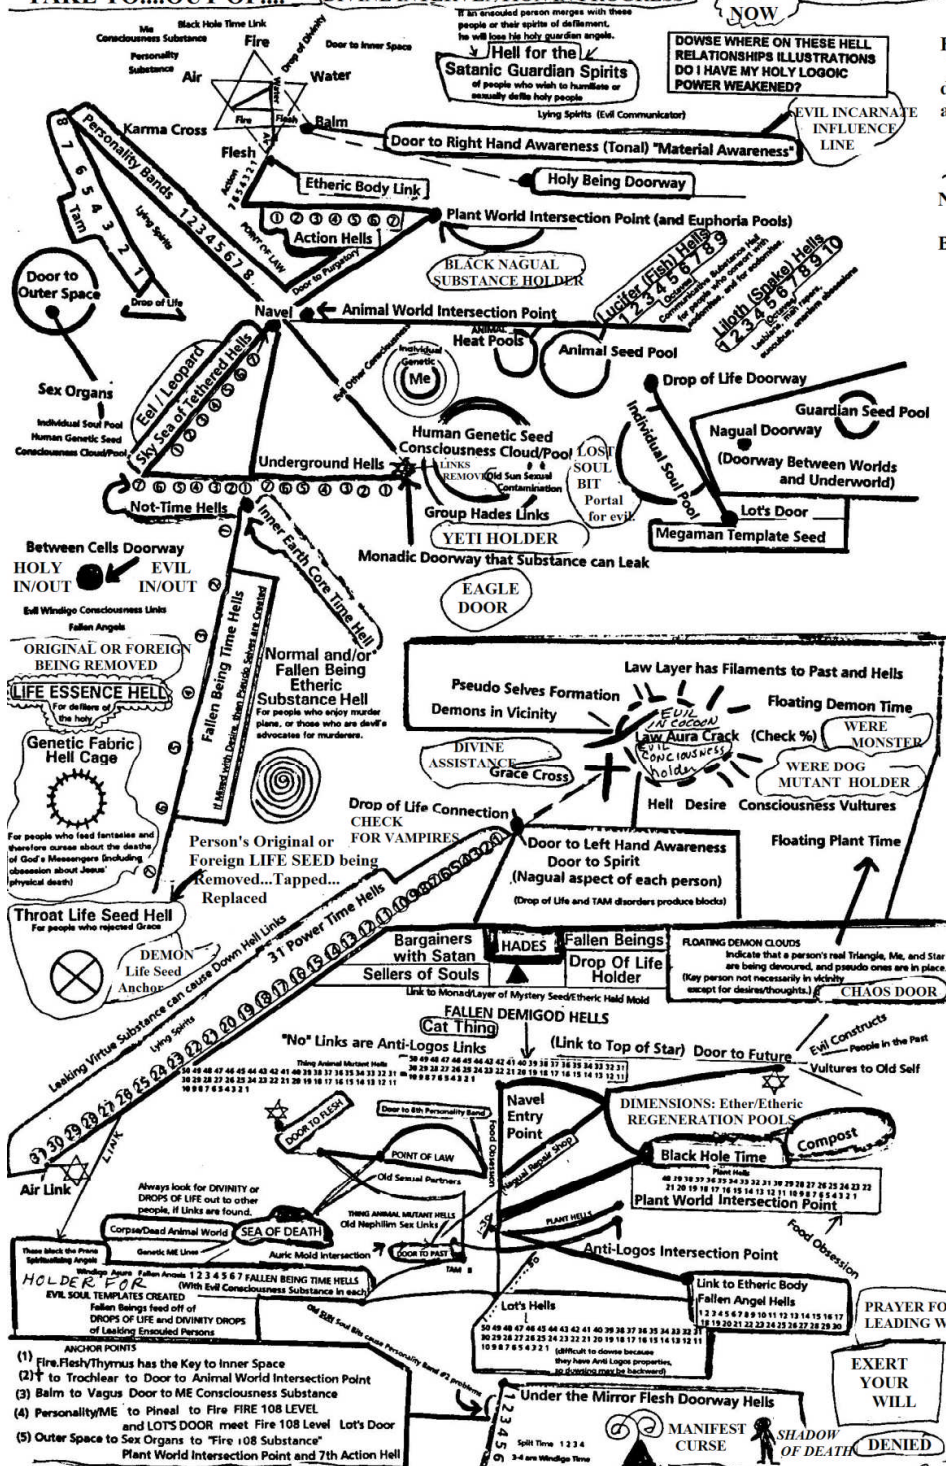

I accept the ultimate truth of these universal principles and give thanks for the divine equanimity that springs from my spiritual practice. I don't know who I am or what reality is, but I know that God knows. I don't ask so much for comfort but to see rightly and to be given the strength to face what is True. I ask not to see selectively according to my personal whims, but ask for the courage to see completely according to the plan of God whether pleasing or painful. Dear God, please give me the strength to endure Truth so that I may lead me today on the path of Your Holy Plan. Thy will be done. Amen
