INTRODUCTION to VIRTUES, LAWS and POWERS (excerpt) by Anonymous

Introduction

Published 1995

ISBN 1-885-186-83-5

There are people on the Earth today who hunger for knowledge of the mysteries of life. They may have sought to satiate their thirst for Truth through paths of science, art, philosophy, psychology, religion, or social services. Many, at the close of a long career in such fields, hear the hounds of death at their heels while their spiritual bellies ache with emptiness. They go to their deaths longing for the unknown, trembling with angst.

It may seem preposterous for this book to presume to fill some of that void by bringing to the reader the fundamentals of the natural Laws of the soul. Indeed, few people have ever considered that the soul of man has a type of matter, not unlike his flesh, although existing in a different octave of being. Few people are aware that there are principles, similar to known physics principles, that control the dynamics of spiritual matter. Furthermore, such spiritual Laws have a watershed effect upon the physical body of man and the Earth.

Looking out upon the sea of disorder within the major cities, one cannot help wondering why violent crime is becoming increasingly prevalent, and what could bring it to a halt. During the sixties the cry of liberals was for more social services, as though money or food could be the panacea. Others cried for gun control, more prisons, or other material solutions. Despite all attempts at controlling societal disorder the ghettos swell with violence, and the traditional family structure is almost gone.

There are some idealists who look into the heart of this disorder as though it were full of signs of wonderful societal transformation for the better. And yet, teenage pregnancies, AIDS, infections, robberies, rapes, and murders all continue to increase in number. By what criteria are these idealists measuring their success?

If one looks back over recorded history, pockets of societal peace and order rise out of the pages with haunting similarities of belief systems. Within each religion can be found keys that lead to the inner teachings of the fundamental Laws of the soul and of life itself. The fighting between religions has been due to clinging to differences rather than searching for similarities. The obvious similarities are merely echoes of the underlying mysteries which have traditionally been reserved for an inner circle of the spiritual elite.

The knowledge of the inner mysteries of life, held within the core of each religion, was withheld from the masses because of the danger of sorcery if the principles were applied without integrity. Any power that can transform a man's soul can also destroy his body if directed with malefic intent. It was safer to allow the alchemical mysteries, which were the core of each religion, to be watered down in a harmless fashion, in a way that could possibly change man's behavior through fear or promise of heaven. It was assumed by the spiritual forefathers that a man who lived decently might learn to think decently. If a man thought in a decent manner, then, later he might be able to control the spiritual forces with integrity and not run amok with unbridled passion.

For this reason, most religions focused upon behavioral instructions, rather than the reasons that certain behaviors could block the path to spiritual power. People have, by and large, decided that the behavioral instructions are no longer valid and so have developed many blocks to the higher teachings.

It is now time to reveal the inner teachings, in hope that humans can understand the reasons for behavioral sanctions and thought control.

The Laws are immutable. Man cannot break these Laws, but can break himself against these Laws. This is happening today on a massive scale. A man can tell himself all day long that fire is not hot, and yet burn himself, should he put his hand in a flame. Just as there are lower laws of the visible component of fire, there are higher Laws of the unseen components of fire. Many a man has thrust his own unseen components into fire and burned away part of himself.

It is possible to heal oneself through the application of higher Laws. If humans can bring healing order to their own lives, then they can begin to bring order to their families and to their own culture. If they do that, they can start to bring order to the world.

Healing the world must start with healing the self. This book holds the ancient mysteries through which personal transformation is made possible, if the applicant is sincere and willing to change. The dilettante will benefit little, except through some intellectual titillation. This book was written not for dinner table discussion, but at great price, and with great courage, by a traveler within such mysteries, in hope of helping humanity out of chaos. Since it merely recites the principles of the mysteries, it shall be considered anonymously and gnostically written, for man cannot hope or presume to create the Laws and Virtues. This is not a "channeled" book, but a book reflecting the experience of the traveler through many realms as real as the one before your face.

If you also dare to be a traveler into unseen realms, this book will guide you safely.

1995 JUNE, AUGUST LECTURES BY ANONYMOUS (JULY is a separate book)

The following class lectures are transcribed either verbatim from audio tapes or from class notes unrevised by Anonymous. These lectures and written lessons were given by Anonymous to audiences familiar with the general background of Spiritual Science. The emphasis was in the dissemination of knowledge that was normally hidden from the general public, but has had a haunting recurrence throughout the millennia.

NOTE:

- 1) All LESSONS, LECTURES and CHARTS were given in class, created by Anonymous. Class Notes were taken by an auditor and not corrected by Anonymous and for these, it is suggested the reader also refer to the original, unabridged audio tapes.
- 2) Please keep in mind that this library is missing many of the original audio tapes (of which there were at least 50+ per month during a three year period) as well as some of the dowsing charts, Class Notes and Lessons. These books are compiled from the resources currently available to this library.
- 3) The best introduction to the dowsing system may be found in the Advanced Esoteric Spiritual Dowsing Books, I, II, III.

“Lessons” and “Letters” were composed by Anonymous

“Class Notes” were typed during the lectures and were unrevised by Anonymous.

NOTE: Book chapters for Advanced Esoteric Dowsing Charts IV were written during this time from October 1994 through 1995. “AED IV” was completed with charts in 1995, but it was not published and is not currently in the possession of this library. The book’s contents and charts, however, are (mostly) intact and are presented here as they were originally written.

These LESSONS and those from all of 1995 were to be compiled into a new book:
SOPHIA'S TEACHINGS FOR SAINT DELIVERANCE By Sophia

LESSON JUNE 2, 1995: The Loss of Human Qualities

THE LOSS OF HUMAN QUALITIES

What makes a man more than an animal? This question has been pondered by people who oppose wars or meat-eating, and yet the answer is so full of mystery that only a person who still retained human qualities is likely to be interested.

One way a spiritual teacher can detect declining humanness in a student is a dull look to the eyes when the room is full of angels...an apathy and restlessness to get about doing fun physical things is apparent. The student may appear to be listening to spiritual teachings and yet the teacher can see and hear the materialistic and carnal thoughts/images float out of the daydreamer who is declining in desire to spiritually advance. Where once the student was full of joy to be of service to God and man, he becomes full of embittered thoughts about not being appreciated enough.

Instead of praying, he closes his eyes and tries to do some mental tricks to reach a state of euphoria that has nothing to do with God. He compensates (he thinks) by taking on a veneer of dripping piety, and asks for spiritual analysis while not wanting it.

He readily jumps to irritability or blind hate with minor provocation, and seeks to justify his hate with wrong speech or actions. The most pronounced change is that he seems to love no person at all, although he seeks social companionship seemingly as a way to vent his energies. Many such people develop pseudo-loving appearances or behaviors of devotion to others, and yet any act is hollow, for it is done so the person will be perceived as loving...not because the person loves.

No man can spiritually advance unless he chooses to love Truth first. If he loves Truth, he must next decide to love his fellow man, or he will not find Truth. Jesus said, "No man cometh unto the Father but by Me." Jesus was sent to teach man divine Love, for that was the season to focus on that Virtue. This is the season of the Holy Breath, and yet an impure heart will not receive It.

The Father contains within Him great Truth, but His throne cannot be approached unless a man has mastered the initiations of the Son (yang) and of the Holy Breath (yin), and hates not authority. For indeed, a hater of yin or yang authority must also hate the Father that sent the authorities: male and female prophets. All spiritual degeneration can be traced to such hatred.

Any man who hates authority also hates Truth. He believes he can make his own Truth, and so lives a lie. He decides to believe that he loves his children, and yet he is just a pack animal who owns other humans. Should a grown child leave to take a different path of a spiritual recluse, he would track his offspring down like a wolf hunting prey. He believes that others owe him a great deal, and spends time mulling over imagined offenses from others.

If he wants to be alone, he is, even if it is for indulgent self-absorption mental and physical games. He gets angry if he can't be narcissistic in body and mind. He begins to think other people are invading his privacy too much. Even after a natural disaster, such as an earthquake, he would refuse to take in a homeless baby and mother, unless he wanted to do so that day. If he was cranky and desired to hole up in his house, alone, he would not care if others died or were hungry. He would justify his selfishness as a need to do "spiritual healing of self," or some such lie.

Later, should he have the pack-animal desire to go run and party, he is the jolliest of fellows, happy to be around.

And yet his happiness is shallow, because it is based upon a shallow man. Man has no depth without love. He may be a hermit or a tour guide, he may be a preacher or a mystic, and yet he will appear blunted and insidiously hostile by anyone with spiritual power. Many such shallow people are devotees of great leaders, such as the Dali Lama, and go to great lengths to find other spiritual leaders on which to glob. They do so because they want to vampire spiritual energy for their selfish little private schemes and thrills.

They always think their private goals are holy. They want to make money so as to donate to charity, or they want a lover so as to do some Tantra sex, or they want to destroy someone because they have decided the person is evil. As long as they are fed energy through a group or spiritual teacher, they will appear benign to most people, and yet should they leave the teachings they will be full of treason.

The treason, of course, was always there in such a person, who does not love. Anyone who does not love will spit on any other person who appears to be in her way of happiness. The irony is that the most loveless person often appears the most romantic and poetic, and spends a great deal of time in fantasy about love and beauty and art. Her whole reality is never in the Now, but is full of anger/longing for the past or future. She begins to set up little treasonous schemes to get her way, and never imagines that anyone can see through her.

The justification of the life of a liar takes a great toll on the liar, because auric substances are used to defend personal realities, curses, and obsessions. Because of such energy loss, the person becomes a vampire and polluter of others.

This is more strongly apparent around a person of high spiritual development who sees other people's intentions. A spiritually evolved person is usually feared and hated by a liar. That is why liars are dangerous to evolved people; liars justify treasonous plots so that the seer will get out of their way. This is true in spiritual fields of work, in offices, schools, and families. For that reason, spiritual students must be more cautious in their relationships as they climb the holy ladder.

Why do people spend so much energy defending a life of lies? They are too lazy to change, and they have decided to be selfish. They think they will have more of everything if they look out for themselves, and yet they lose in love, business, and happiness. They become bitter and mean, when they do not get their way in the manner they expected. They may mouth "God's Will be done," and yet they are referring to their own god: themselves.

Such people are fond of presenting God as a lovey-dovey wishy-washy limp-wristed sissy who forgives anyone at any time. They point to anyone who has the Virtue of Severity as obviously not of God. And yet, behind such Severity is found courage to go on by a saint who is weary of battle and treason.

True Love is for all men and women of God, and not for a dream lover of your choosing. True Love should not be wasted on shallow and carnal animalistic fools who have spit on God's outreached hand. True Love will fight for those who are falling from Grace, and mourn those who have fallen, but it will not give up. True Love is eternal and pure; it seeks to lead others to God rather than to make them comfortable.

What makes a man no more than an animal? True Love.

Dear class; I have many illustrations and auric clearing methods/problems/solutions that I wanted to share with you, but it was the design of Power that you open your hearts to the meaning of Love, first. I have seen, so often, people get wrapped up in the technical stuff of learning or even of service (such as computer work, research and so on) but fail to face the fact that they did not love Truth or anyone else at all. There is no service done by such a person that is not tainted. We must first purify, every day, bit by bit, and remove all hate (which merely is there to work up enough energy to defend a lie.) Unless you realize when you are irritable, when you are choosing to be your own god, when you have shut your ears to Truth and hated the bearer of such Truth, then you can do no pure service and will learn nothing.

I have reached a time when I will be hesitant to give any personal advice, because if you fail to understand the principles in general after refusing to do so, then there is no point in driving a bent nail. A bent nail is bent because it wanted to go its own direction, and it allowed false gods to wield the hammer.

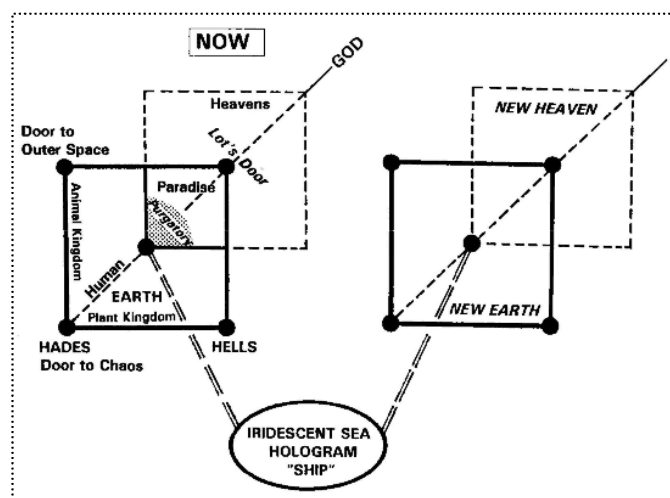

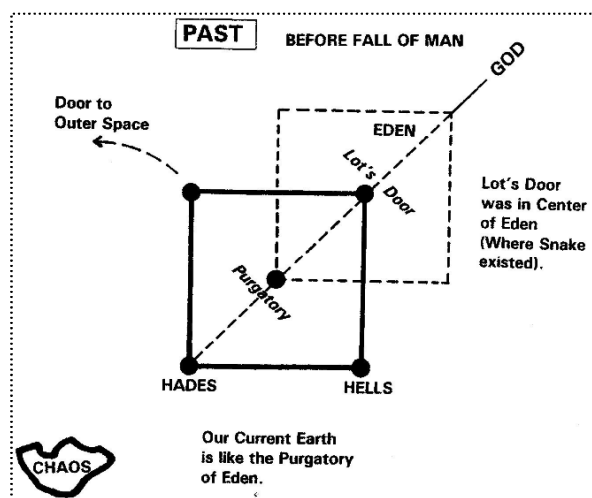

The loss of the ability to love seems to correlate with Curse Pools/Names collecting in a pocket around the Creative Thought Valve on the Light flow tube, and also when the Resonating with others' Akasha Bank aspect of group synergy on the Light tube (which) becomes a cesspool of lies, obsessions, curses, and names of people who justify your personal weaknesses. Drawings will be included.

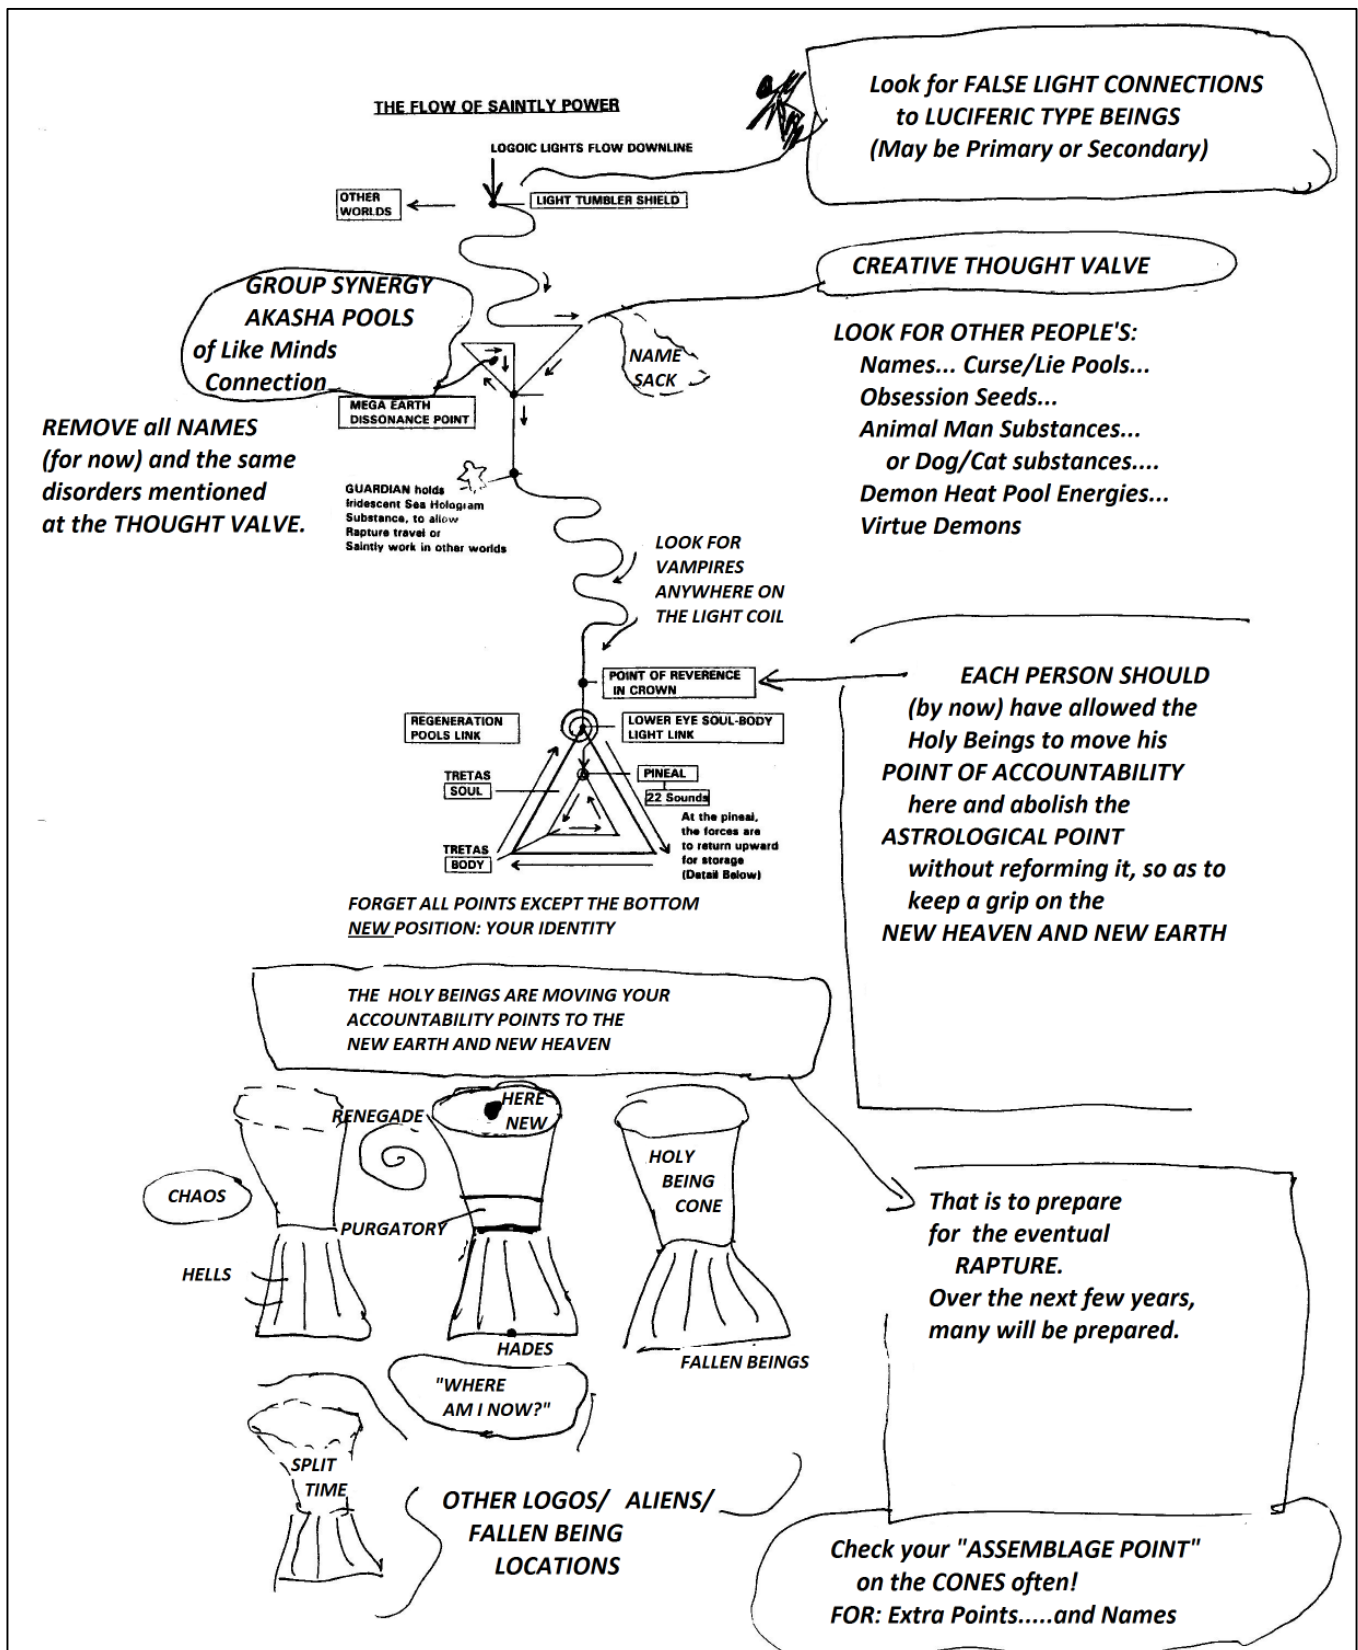

There will never be a day on your spiritual path when you can rest on your laurels or somebody else's laurels. You are not pure by your past deeds or by association. As you gain in power, you must be more pure than before so as to not become evil.

Holiness is not the absence of murder, rape, or theft. Holiness implies that murderous, raping, materialistic desires/thoughts are not entertained, but also more than that. Holiness implies more than an absence of hate or its products: it implies the presence of something else: Love.

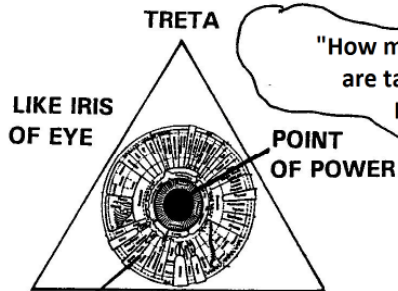

Think on it.

LESSON JUNE 4, 1995: Holy Love and Power

HOLY LOVE AND POWER

A person who has a great deal of Holy Love also must have one of the components: Logoic Light Power. This implies that the thoughts of the individual, as they exit Light-laden from the Creative Thought Valve, are grounded in love of Truth and humanity. Should those thoughts stray to base concerns and prideful justifications of personal weaknesses, then those thoughts taint the Light and poison the container of Love substance: the Screen of your existence.

The pineal has a Creative Thought Valve connection that filters to the spine, where the Dimensional Doorways are linked. At the bottom of the spine, a person is rooted to a sense of self: there is an etheric screen that has within it substances, including Love. (In the illustration, the Core of the Screen is illustrated as a dot but is actually a tube connecting the pineal through the spine to the base where one is rooted to earthly existence.)

The bulb end of the Spinal Light Tube Connection, within the Screen, has within it substance that is holy or unholy, depending upon ones thoughts, emotions, plans, and actions.

Man is a social creature because his fundamental sense of self is normally rooted in his emotional concept (ideally love) of his place within a group of extended family. This is more than a pack animal-type longing that a true human possesses within his core. Ideally, it manifests in developmental stages as a man ages. It should eventually mean that he sees every other man and child as himself, to some degree, and yet does not lose his boundaries in relationship to God.

Babies see their mothers as themselves, and this is normal. However, for a sixty year old man to see his wife as himself is not normal. It can produce a spiritual rupture at that age.

Children see their best buddies as themselves, and suffer terribly should a close friend abandon them for another. This is normal for children, who can be comforted by parents. However, it is pathological for a forty year old woman to fight over a best friend. At that age, she should have been able to befriend many people, or none at all, without feeling incomplete.

Budding adolescents feel their hormonal urges so strongly that they begin to think their sexual urges must control them. This is more appropriately diverted beyond just masturbation to include romantic longings for a targeted person of the opposite sex that changes over time. Should masturbation be their sole focus, and not include romantic longing, and should they rush home to spend time alone and be narcissistic, they are deviate. Crushes on movie stars or popular singers have long filled the void of the early adolescent who is trying to make sense out of his sexual and romantic longings. However, he is expected to go on from there, and not stick in that stage.

Forming male-female relationships, or at least desiring a male-female relationship, is imperative to maturation of the ability to develop divine Love. This can manifest differently for the devout person: it may mean a deep love for Mother Mary, and a devotion to the nuns, in a fatherly way, for a person on a priest's path. A healthy male feels joyous around females, and a healthy female feels joyous around males. It need not manifest sexually if a person has turned his generative functions completely over to God. However, such a person is rare.

For most people, it is not spiritually necessary to take a priest's vow in regard to celibacy, if that person is not obsessed.

Whether one has a partner in life or not is less important than one's attitude about the opposite sex. Many people who hate the opposite gender are obsessed about finding a partner (or several.) They have a defilement issue to deal with that has nothing to do with Love.

True Love is full of holiness and so loves holiness in others. It is attracted to holiness, and repulsed by vulgarity in thought or deed. It feels a sense of shame in the presence of sexually stimulating demons, and a sense of joy in the presence of friends who listen to heavens rather than hells.

It is according to divine plan that a holy man or woman gradually change their concept of Love, in the proper order of development, so that the lower aspects of Love become a training ground upon which to build a warrior for humanity's future. If a person never loves another person more than his own body or mind, then he cannot love two people, or three. For some people, having a family helps one to learn to be unselfish. However, when it comes right down to it, a person decides whether to Love or hate.

There is no middle ground between Love and hate. In particular, Love of Truth or hate for Truth must exist in order to form the boundaries of what a person believes is reality. Without boundaries, a person will become evil and insane. The most grounded and sane person in the world is one who loves Truth and Law, because he has faith in God's plan, and therefore a deep and abiding joy. He knows that all true creativity comes out of God, not out of a vain mind and body.

Many people fear that if they submit their minds and thoughts to God that they will be automatons. On the contrary, should they submit to God, all the force of Logoic lightening will fire their creativity far more than any pathetic obsession pool. The generative face of God is stronger than any pale luciferic 'wannabee'. Should a person be a fool for God then his lower and higher creative functions will become so fierce and pure that he can change the world in ways never imagined. He can only do so if he loves Truth (authority) as represented in both genders and gives up his old vanities of wanting to be seen as an important person.

Jesus washed the feet of the disciples to show them that he who submits is great. Submission is more than just a few words: it is a decision to change your habits of thought and action.

If you dowsed about yourself and people you know, you could find that many people spend over fifty percent of their days in senseless mind wanderings that reinforce a defective sense of reality and opens doors to hells. This is often reflected by a ritual of thinking you are doing one thing while merely wasting time doing another.

You may claim you need so many hours to shuffle through letters/bills and pay them, and yet a person that did not daydream could do the same work in a fourth of the time. You can pinpoint a daydreamer by the fact that projects take longer than they should, and even daily chores are overlooked that would take all of five minutes. Emptying trash, wiping off a counter, and other simple things become insurmountable for a person who is so caught up in himself that he is losing his power to manifest anything. Of course, the daydreamers will mentally argue after reading this. It reminds me of when I told a student, "If I said something was white, you would swear it was black, and vice versa. You just want to argue." and she said, "I would not!"

When it comes right down to it, it takes power to be creative, to change your life, to help others, to make the world a better place, to Love anyone at all. Creativity is not the creation of new base materials; it is in understanding and application of the Laws regarding the using of the base materials. The greatest artists are also the greatest scientists (such as Leonardo Da Vinci and Rudolf Steiner). The manifestation of God's glory is dependent upon those people who recognize power and how to direct it in their lives to help others.

The understanding of the Light Tube, of the Creative Thought Connection of the pineal to the Screen at the tailbone, all of these should help you understand why and how power is gained. What I have seen in the past, though, is many of such teachings are filed away as mental concepts but not integrated into student's lives so as to give them power inside purity of purpose. The devil's advocate arguments return, so you can get back to your retro way of being, and so you listen to them and become weak as your power drips out your spine to feed demons or juts downward into hades.

The old "I've got a right to feel this way...I'm only human...who is she to tell me how to live...I need this or that." Mental squirmings are the whinings of a weak person trying to reinforce a life of lies. You have the keys to power on your doorstep; they have been presented in a thousand ways; and only your habits of thought/emotion/action will destroy you.

When faced with profound Truth, a person tends to become a mutant or a master. He cannot stay the same as he used to be, although the mutant tries to do so. The threshold has been passed, and radiations of power from heaven have graced your shoulders and spine. If you do not let that power flow rightly down your spine, then you will become twisted and bitter.

Your greatness is dependent upon God's greatness. It is as simple as that. Should you fancy yourself a clever fellow who can outsmart the Fires of the Logos with your little secret pockets of obsessions or love of lies that cause you to formulate satanic plans, then expect the Lord of Lies to have lied to you, as well, about the outcome. Do not fancy yourself as able to hide anything from God or his agents, or to avoid his vengeance of karma. Should you have avoided paying your spiritual debts in the past, attribute it to Grace, and make yourself worthy, so as to not have to waste the heavens begging for what you don't deserve.

Start this moment with a decision to be new in Christ. Every change of magnitude is like a long walk...it starts with one foot in front of the other. In the darkest of nights, that is a thought that can be your salvation: put one foot in front of the other with complete Trust in divine Plan. Of course, if you hate Truth, and are not trustworthy, then you will not have faith in holiness. You have only the faith to lead you to the level that you are inwardly honest. You cannot be led if you keep one foot in the past, or have a secret future option dangling, like a sack of hidden coins. You must give all of yourself to your path, or you will be pulled asunder.

When you get overwhelmed, it is due to sitting around reviewing the past or speculating about the future. If you align your desire, your will, and your intention of who you want to be with Christ, then you will feel peace.

A person who gets spastic in the most minor problem, and begins to generalize about how this "always happens to me" is one who has not mastered thought control or emotion control and therefore has no Love. No person without boundaries can ever Love anyone or anything, even herself. Self-love is really self-hate; it is laziness that encourages a person to become a slob and whiner. It starts out as an appearance of self-affirmation "I've got a right to ..." and yet the veneer of self-importance is soon followed by depression or rage. Then, the old obsessions crawl back worse than ever, because all strength is spent on rage or circular thoughts.

It takes strength of character to change your life enough to be called a Lover of Christ. You gain that strength by accepting the help Above, and not imagining you somehow earned it. Over and over again, people have been Graced with new substances of power, including souls, and yet some fancy themselves worth it. No man is worth a hill of beans with(out) humility and self-less Love.

We live in a time when no one believes in sainthood, or that prophets could visit them, or that God is concerned with man's petty lives. And yet, countless angels have whispered in man's ears the secrets of Divinity, and man felt shamed to hear them. He was afraid of being odd, of losing the respect of his materialistic set of friends, of losing his animalistic spouse, or embarrassing his children.

It takes courage to know in your heart and mind what is good and True, and live according to what you know. This courage must come, not from God, but from your own flesh and blood, as you sacrifice your false gods and stand alone.

For in the end, we all stand alone. We might have parents, children, spouses, friends...and they bring us joy or pain, but they are not us. We are alone with God. Once you realize that fact, you no longer feel alone again.

We are blessed to have a team of warriors to Love each other, which we must do, to work together for the good of Earth. We must never lose sight of what we Love in ourselves or each other, though, or we are no different than the phantom on the street. We must feel the joy of Love in our bodies as a reaction to the presence of Truth and Christ consciousness. We must not settle for less, and not dream that Virtues are present when they are not.

Miracles occur for the warrior who changes in the now to fulfill God's plan. Should a few warriors suffer the courage of change so as to appear fools for God, then the reverberations of their power of Love and Light will shake the planet.

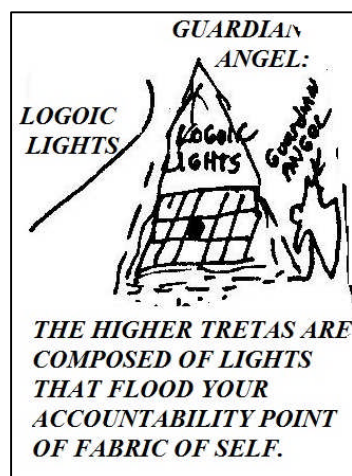

Jesus taught before multitudes, and yet but a few would claim to know him on the dark day. Out of those dark days came the knowledge of Divine Love, as it kissed the earth on Golgotha. We must not forget the mission that He gave us, "Greater things shall ye do." We must bear our burdens gladly, humbly, as the Master did, and we, too, shall be reborn in Christ.

RP NOTES: JUNE 5, 1995

5 JUNE 1995 RP (T3) NOTES from a G. Lecture

(Notes are as they were found. No alterations were made by the Editor. Suggestions by Editor are in parenthesis.)

A Tapestry of coarse wool with a knot in the threads— “Intersections”.

The threads or fibers make up threads.

Threads make up the cloth (such as) the Scottish plaid.

G is seeing 3 primary colors:

Yellow which is the WILL,

Red for DESIRE and

Blue for INTEND which symbolize the TRETAS.

They are like Lights behind Translucent Filaments, behind the "Fabric"

And as this light (of the Tretas) goes through the "Fabric" it bends and creates colors in the "Fabric". Depending on the location of the Plaid a different body part is indicated.

For example, the lower right corner is associated with the genitals.

The dynamics of these 3 colors push the Fabric into different shapes. Light has a wind in it.

The Red Light behind the Fabric that has the wind within it, has the ability to push it.

If a tapestry has a dominant color then there is an emphasis of one color (Treta) over another color.

G sees little Glitches in the Fabric.

To see them you have to face a specific N, S, E, W Direction.

The body is wearing the Fabric.

Wherever there are glitches in the Fabric there can be found holes or sores in the skin.

A glitch will wear a hole in the skin.

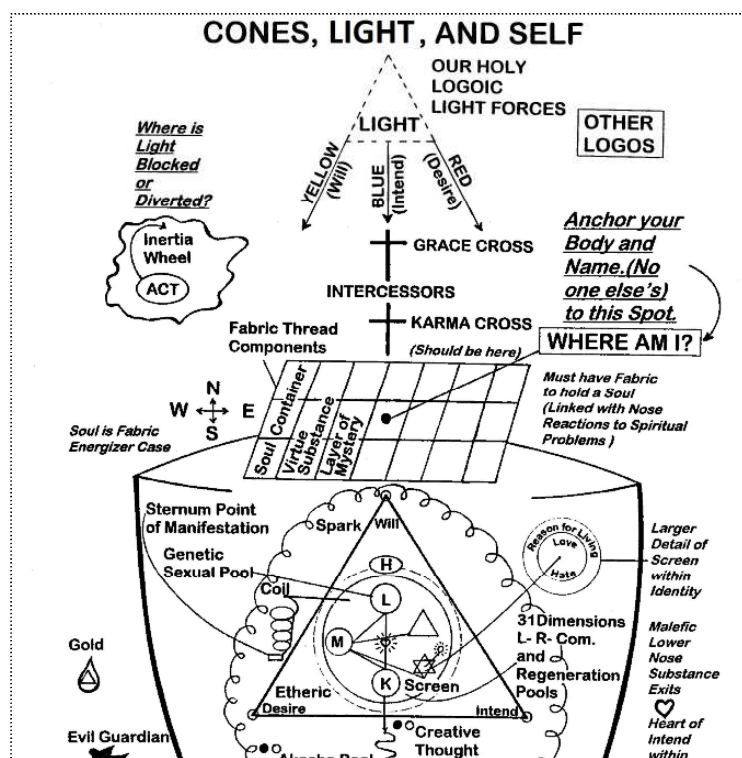

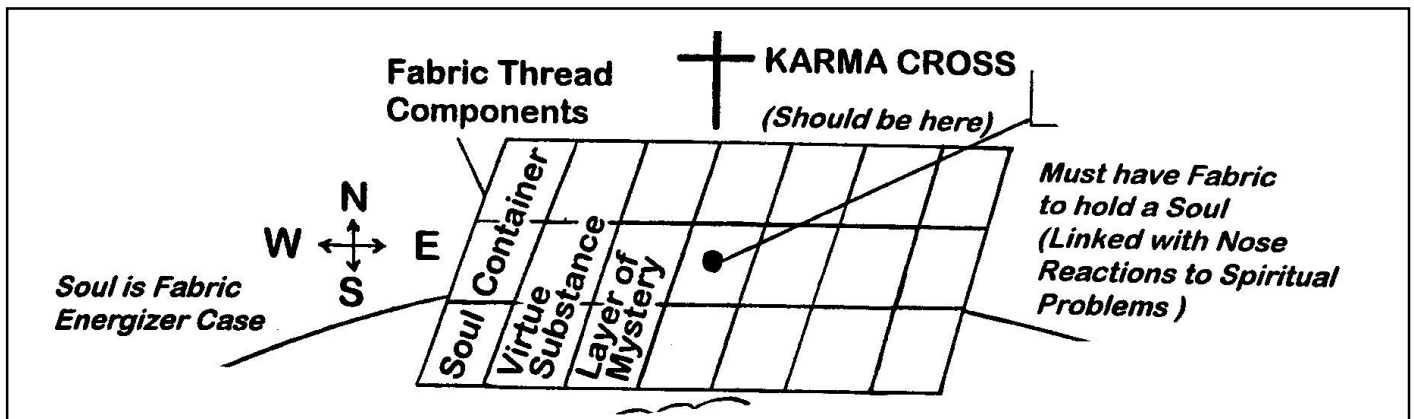

ILLUSTRATION: Tretas are the LIGHTS
Identity Sphere is the FABRIC

Fabric is associated with body locations that get "rubbed" raw. Wherever you find a spot that has been rubbed raw on the body-there you will find a glitch in the Fabric. You can be rubbed raw on an acupuncture meridian that will effect another location.

For example: A turtle-neck glitch (in the Fabric) rubs the larynx and will also affect the lower procreative function.

(Complete Cones, Light and Self Chart is in the book 1995 MAY)

3 TRETAS: The light shining behind the Fabric can have Blocks.

G is seeing Blocks on the Fabric, black spots where no light passes through. It is like a "black hole" or black vacuum. The body has the whole Fabric over it, (it can have these blocks all over it).

Example: In the left inguinal area of RP, look for black vacuum spots on the Fabric. It is an area where surgery was performed (for a hernia, age 9 years old). But behind that is an emotional assumption that caused a rupture on the Personality Bands. It blew out through an emotional burst which left a piece of himself outside of the Fabric blocking the light. It has now been healed by the Holy Beings.

Example: G has a block. It is related to the ear deafness that LG had as a child. It was an injury on the etheric level --not the Personality Bands as was RP-- which is closer to the Fabric. The injury was due to the father's mental thoughts. Listening to a lie from LG's father caused an etheric rupture that affected her hearing. The Holy Beings healed it.

G is seeing Animal Man Cones a green color imbedded outside of the Fabric blocking the light.

They are actually microscopic "shell-like" cones blocking the light.

They are imbedded in holes in the Magnetic Field--which is outside of the Fabric.

But something else created the holes in the Magnetic Field first.

Something from Fo made the holes first, which are associated on the body with RP's feet (of the Magnetic Field).

They are filaments hanging off the feet, kind of like those warts with legs or arms, leggy looking warts.

They are actually Fo Demon Orgasms which created embryos and then subsequently hatched.

The hatchlings chewed holes in the Magnetic Field (like moth larvae that chew holes in cloth) and ate it.

The moth larvae holes in the magnetic field were left by the D. O. Hatchlings.

Then the Animal Man Cones were able to embed themselves into these holes.

To remove them and restore the Fabric:

You have to pull them out in the opposite direction from which they came in.

They have to be removed centrifugally out and then disintegrated.

The Holy Spirit then can heal the holes once they have been cleaned out.

If you have the Holy Spirit in you, you can then "breathe" on them with Etheric breath empowered by the Holy Spirit and heal the holes.

But the holes must be cleaned out first--centrifugally out, then disintegrated.

EVERYTHING THAT PRODUCES A SPIRITUAL DISORDER can be represented by an UPSIDE (DOWN) TRETA.

TO CURE A SPIRITUAL DISORDER:

You must think of the Fabric-

Stretch it out-and see how much of it is covered with these Black Tretas

--which are Black Vacuum or Black Spots/Holes.

Look for them and when you find one, Will the Black Treta to shrink to a dot,

Then thinking the Names of God disintegrate the dot. There may be another one behind it that will surface.

Disintegrate it, and so forth. G knows 72 Names of God.

ABOVE THE FABRIC THE LIGHTS
ARE NOT SUPPOSED TO BE SPLIT LIKE THIS:

THEY ARE SUPPOSED TO ENTER FABRIC
LIKE THIS:

A MOLECULE OF LIGHT

If they split up, at the High Treta Level,
It is due to this:

- ① WRONG PRAYER
- ② LACK OF MENTAL BOUNDARIES
- ③ KNOWINGLY DOING EVIL
in thought, speech or action or by Omission.

Example: Now G is looking at RP's foot.

There is a right foot Rupture due to Obsession Demon Orgasms.

There is an Identity Sphere of a Demon attached which has Alien characteristics, created by La about one year ago.

It needs to be Centrifugally Removed from the foot and then thrown into Outer Space.

It has a link to La's mouth, her lips and her saliva.

It is really her saliva. She intentionally put saliva on some food or drink (sometime last April) to be eaten by RP so that she could form a link with him-- to perform sorcery.

Healing by the Holy Beings takes place and moves to ...

Example: La has a Demon Orgasm buried in Si's heart

Due to a hole caused by Si (her old name) Demon Orgasms which have devoured Si's original Fabric.

She needs to be reconstructed.

The Holy Beings work on her.

Now her Fabric appears dull to G. Not much light comes through. It must be in Purgatory.

Not much light can come down while it is in Purgatory.

Purgatory is like a Teepee-it Cones down.

Purgatory is a place to withdraw from Demon Orgasms.

A person is put there to recover from having been withdrawn from Demon Orgasms.

It is for people who have used power for ill purpose.

Another healing is taking place now.

Example: There is someone else's Fabric behind Fo (his old name):

It is an abnormal Fabric, a different Fabric. It is Fo's mother.

It is Fabric from a Fallen Jehovah. It is an all Red Fabric, but abnormal. It is like polyester.

The foreign Fabric is being disintegrated by the Holy Being).

Illustrations are a help to aid

Spiritual sight and for spiritual clearing.

The conscious mind responds to words, but the unconscious mind can respond more readily to a picture or illustration.

Another example: Si has no Fabric.

G sees a light: a False Light, with no colors.

Although it appears in the mind to "look" like light, it is actually an optical nerve illusion or trick. There is actually no light.

A black beam, G sees, comes down from above and enters the eye and reflects off the retina back out as a "white" or False light.

This reflected light, although in a mirror looks like "white", is really no light at all. There is an Anti-Fabric which appears to be hitting or around a -normal- Treta of RP.

It is hitting the middle of the Treta to suck out True Light and her eye's (Si's) have an image of RP's Tretas floating like a holographic image in front of them, that shields what's behind them.

Then it switches to the Holy Beings wanting to talk about the new book.

They say, starting tomorrow (June 6) it needs to be done in 5 weeks and sent to the printer.

RP will handle the details. He is the only one to do the illustrations--o.k.'d by G.

G works on getting the correct title.

Title of new book: SOPHIA'S TEACHINGS FOR SAINT DELIVERANCE (A Prophet's Story)

It is not to be written by "Anonymous" this time. If we use an author's name, we should use: Sophia.

Make 4000 copies, perfect bound in large paperback size (not as big as VLP).

Have it distributed by a national distributor if possible.

Do not concentrate so much on individual bookstores.

Send copies to reviewers. Put Ads in Christian and New Age magazines.

←T2 draws 4 DOORS or KEYS she uses to see with.

LESSON JUNE 7, 1995: Regeneration Pools Ruptures, Light Tube Ruptures and Causes

All persistent spiritual disorders are based upon acceptance of false gods and hatred for Divine Plan. These manifest as obsessions, curses, and justification-of-lies energy loss.

Man's spiritual and physical bodies are wonderfully constructed with mechanisms designed to stop him from being self-destructive or harmful to others. For instance, any false god program such as "food is spirit" would tend to make a person lose his ability to physically regenerate, no matter how healthy a diet he consumed. He would tend to become emaciated and have a shadow of greenish death upon him, as though he were moving into the vegetable kingdom and preparing to compost himself. Unless he becomes empowered and strengthened by crazed plant devas (which is only temporary) he will develop rotten breath, jaundiced skin that itches, and peculiar appearance to the whites of the eyes. Whereas in a normal person, the whites have a sense of being liquid, in the food-is-spirit person, the whites begin to look like leather, and the iris begins to look glazed over, as the person seems to fail to blink normally.

For most people, looking like a concentration camp victim would be an indication to evaluate a state of malnutrition. But the "food-is-spirit" person keeps to his rigid diet no matter how ill he becomes. He resists the clear body signal that he is doing something wrong spiritually, mentally, and physically. Seldom does a problem start on the mental or physical levels without a pre-existing spiritual defiance to Divine Order, or a serious spiritual contamination. Even in earthquakes and wars, there are deep spiritual group causes for human suffering. Otherwise, the humans would have been warned in time or led to a different location or helped to be victorious. "The sins of the fathers are visited upon the children" is a Biblical verse of significance on many layers of interpretation.

The Law of Grace does figure in from time to time, to rescue people from the effects of their own actions or the actions of others. In many cases, people misuse Grace, and fail to be humble in the recognition of their good fortune. Grace has a type of power matter within it, and the ungrateful people tend to use it to reform new foul causes of disorder that are worse than the previous ones.

People feel good around Grace Substance. In many spiritual gatherings, people have been graced with exorcism, healing, and angels to protect them. They have been given Grace Shields, and yet they used those very shields as fodder for the fires of hate. After a time, they burned their Grace up, and then complained that they were then worse off than before.

When people fall from Grace, they suffer physically when they take on false god programs, unless they were always soul-less or animal to begin with. The fate of the other species is another lesson.

People have Regeneration Pool Substances in their spines, and in some cases, also have Logoic Light Power or some evil false light power substances. The first to be lost in auric outbursts is the Regeneration Pool Substances. It moves throughout the nervous system over the whole body, so a rupture can be traced to any bodily location, although the worst ones are located at the vertebrae.

A common cause of a nose rupture of the regeneration pools is "I am my own god" affirmations of some type while using a meditative method to manifest a desired outcome. Circular fantasies about a different kind of life with an expectation that you "deserve" better than what you are getting now can easily rupture the nose, especially if reinforced by food or sex. At the moment the nose rupture, the person often thinks he has had a religious experience. If he has combined the false god/fantasy with sex or food to produce such an experience, he will tend to become addicted to the same thoughts/acts/substance while desperately trying to find "god" again. Of course, most people don't consciously think it through, they just want to get high.

If a person is self-indulgent with circular thoughts about his sad state in life, he may have a "There is no God" program. If he tries to appease himself while in a pity state by drugs, alcohol, food, sex, or "ventilating" to other people by long chats, then he is likely to develop a belly rupture of his regeneration pools. When his belly ruptures, he feels a sense of emotional release, and attributes it to the food, socialization, sex, drug, or whatever followed the thoughts. He then seeks to recreate the initial experience of rupture, and so widens the rupture to a worse state. He may develop foul breath and stools that could cause the next person who uses the bathroom to faint. All the bowel purifying in the world won't help the stink, because it comes from a higher cause than eating onions.

One of the worst ruptures is the "God is only Love" chin rupture. (Mag has this.) A spiritually sensitive person will find himself staring at a person's chin who has such a rupture, as though it has a strange look to it. When contaminated by such a person, others tend to get pimples on the chin, or a red rash, if such ruptures are oozing in the room. This is frequently reinforced by music and incense and the sentimental recollection of old lovers.

Some people have been healed of the same ruptures dozens of times, only to repeat the thoughts/actions so as to experience the rush of a new rupture. Since the initial rupture is experienced as more of a rush than the widening of the rupture, many people seek healing of ruptures so they can (subconsciously) get euphoric from the same old habits producing a new rip.

Unfortunately, anyone likely to be addicted to one regeneration pool location rupture is likely to develop more. He doesn't necessarily become ill right away, because he tends to vampire others, but he does not appear to be healthy, in most cases. As the holes invite demons, he may appear agitated/energetic, but he appears to lack harmony. The skin pores appear to get larger while the skin darkens and thickens and the eyes appear small, dark, close together and dull.

If such a person does not see the spiritual error connected with the false god/body program, then he will undoubtedly reach a more pathetic spiritual state: the Rupture of the Logoic Light System.

The acceptance of a lie as truth "for you" is the prime reason for a rupture of the Light system. Unlike the regeneration pools, the Light ruptures tend to occur along the main neurological pathways (brain and spine) rather than a superficial location first. The nose rupture of the Light system indicates a rupture of the brain aspect of the Logoic Light system. An intellectual or artistic self-important attitude is often the cause of a Light brain rupture, because the person thinks his own efforts have brought him success, and fails to give the glory to God.

There are many people on the Earth who have never been taught Divine Laws, who are less likely to rupture their primitive Light connections than someone who has been graced by exposure to solid spiritual teachings. The Law of Use weighs heavily upon the back of the spiritual initiate, and yet he must carry the burden of his knowledge if he is to have the glory and peace that it brings. If he has personal agendas, then he cannot carry the Light, but will rupture his spiritual spine in defiance.

Often shielded yet always present, a belief in one's right to hate is behind a Light rupture. If a person is self-important, he believes he has the right to hate anyone in his way of success (however he views it.) Often, the hate is for the opposite gender, which means he hates one of the faces of God. This is not readily apparent, except for the demon orgasm trigger-thoughts/actions that are linked with the rupture addiction. Even then, hate/defilement may be clothed in romantic thoughtforms, or thoughts/speech that appear to be over-concern for someone's safety (while wishing them dead.)

An advanced state of both Regeneration Pool System and Light System ruptures is indicated by increasing physical/mental symptomology. The person begins to lose awareness of what he is saying and doing, and may seem irrational and needy. He need not have a soul (recently) to develop pronounced symptoms of degeneration, for he might have false light pathways that provoke peculiar rupture patterns that increase his ability to contaminate others in the vicinity. False light pathways indicate links to fallen beings in Hells, Hades, or other Logoic systems.

You can get an idea of who has Light ruptures or false lights by watching people in a casual setting while they talk on the phone, and by observing them when they are relaxed. People tend to feel invisible when they are chatting on the phone, and often perform rituals relating to ruptures. They may pick their nose, dig in their other ear, make strange mouth grimaces, contort their joints or rub their crotch. Spreading the legs, as if in athletic stretching but worse, is a common indicator of groin Light rupture. Gently but persistent foot rocking with crossed legs indicates a thigh rupture. Joint cracking is always a bad sign: it indicates widespread Light ruptures with vampirism of others.

False Light Demon Pathways have some of the above signs and other signs. A tendency to stand with weight on one foot, with one hip higher than the other, is indicative of a rectal false light entry point. (A false light cornucopia.)

A tendency to hold the hands and feet pointed outward from center of the body is indicative of a major solar plexus false light entry. The body appears to be in receiving mode: legs and feet spread, arms and hands out from body, a look of glazed pleasure on the face.

Indeed, one of the worst states is when the person no longer appears to suffer from his spiritual disorders, but looks happy and stupid. Not all of the disorders end as happy/stupid ones, as they progress. More are likely to end in blind rage which may be masked in cunning lies.

The False Light Entry is far more serious than any leak of normal substance. A person must open for such false lights; they cannot enter a holy man. They can, however, superficially contaminate a great many people around such a person. For that reason, they must be stopped.

Association with a person who hates God may cause you to become superficially contaminated with substances from hells, Hades, or other worlds. Those substances are not the lights, but the precursors for false lights. They include lying spirits, Sylphic biters with sexual thoughtforms, hate demons, and clouds of death frequencies.

Should you have such energies around you, and give in to them, rather than holding your identification of self with holiness, then you have (in essence) opened yourself up to evil. The location that you open yourself up to the evil depends upon your weakness.

If you would rather believe a pretty lie than a cold Truth, then your throat will rupture and you will receive the "Light of Lucifer."

If you judge your worth by other's recognition of your artistic or mental glories of the past, then you will rupture your brow and face, and receive the "Light of no Boundaries."

If you love your family more than God, then you will rupture your heart, and receive "The Light of Illusion of the Lost."

If you love the comforts of the flesh more than God, then your gut will open to receive "The Light of Lilith."

If you hate authority, and therefore the Supreme Authority, then your groin will rupture, and you will receive "The Light of Seth."

If you love possessed sex more than God, then you will rupture your feet, and receive "The Light of Onanism (Narcissism)."

If you decide to not care anymore about anything holy, then you will rupture your whole form, and receive "The Light of Pan." At that point, your mold becomes an animal shape straight out of hell.

One rupture tends to lead to another. Although all ruptures are based upon a spiritual problem of defiance to Laws, they are all brought about by indulgence in thoughts, emotions, and actions that are not holy.

If you listen to the pretty lies, then you are listening to the Pan Flute, which is the final stage. You follow the pretty lies through various ruptures until you become like Pan, half-man, half-animal, merrily enticing others to ruin.

The Pan Flute begins with a lovely song about how you are divine and only need to know how special you are...that you need not change. It goes on to tell you that god is love is humans and if you love all humans just the way they are and never expect change then you are like god. It leads you, then, to a pretty vale where you are told to expect whatever you desire, because you deserve it, and that any good that has occurred in your life was due to your own value (not Grace,) and that any suffering was due to evil. It whispers a sweet sad song about how you have been led up tortuous paths by a cruel guide, who must be forgotten so that you may find the valley of sweet rest.

There is rest, of course, for those who are holy warriors...but it comes when the battle lulls, and the babies are safe. The true warrior cannot rest when he hears the cries of the tormented, if he loves someone other than himself.

It is always the selfish person, no matter what his veneer, that gives in to the false lights. A generous-of-heart person can hear with Lehy's the screaming of the children of tomorrow beyond the Pan Flute. Whining and despair are not of God: all the power of the Logos will attend a self-less man.

The self-less man evaluates his worth by whether he has been impeccable according to the Laws and Virtues. He is joyful; he does not wear a hair shirt. His joy is due to his alignment with the source of all true joy and Light: God. It is not the god of his choosing...some imagined king or parent or self, but the God that speaks to his heart and mind and every cell of his body that he turns to hear.

There is heaven beyond this world as you know it, and holiness beyond what you have seen. There is majesty of mountains with colors that melt in your mouth, and waters that spring with laughter. Such a world can be found while traversing this one; such a world can be found intersecting this one.

There are mysteries of Light beyond what I tell you now, and yet I say to you: you shall not know those mysteries unless you prepare. Should you love the lower neon lights more than the sun at noon, then you shall never see God.

For countless seasons, you have received Grace. Grace does not mean that the Law of Karma is suspended; it means that an intercessor must pay your debt of guilt which comes from your decision to do wrong. Every time you lie, an angel cries. Every time you hate, Christ (or his servant) cringes with pain.

You are not forgotten by the heavens, and yet you often bemoan your burden. Should you be aware of the profound suffering of your intercessor due to your decisions, it is unlikely you would change. You are graced with intercession, or you would not read this now.

The heavens are in need of "a few good men." They need a Marine Corp of Souls to navigate the waters of the tears of saints.

The people who whimper in soul-pain, unable to sleep, are given Valium, but not hope. Where is hope to be found for those who know that something is wrong in their lives but do not know where to turn?

They cannot turn to the mercurial create-your-own-reality gurus: television would work as well. They cannot turn to their own minds: there is the constant roar, the demon hum of thoughtforms that float over the earth.

To whom can they turn? The earth is a black place now...full of false gods and opium dens of false lights.

Should you be a warrior....should you curtail your thoughts and emotions and actions just enough to justify holy intercession a bit longer on your behalf, then....some day...some way... the children of tomorrow may turn to you.

Bit by bit...you can crawl your way to sainthood, while doing humble service in paths that seem superfluous. God has His ways of doing things; should we accept that truth in full submission, then we shall not fail.

It is a noble mission that is full of pitfalls for the reckless and selfish. However, a self-less man will not fail.

LESSON JUNE 8, 1995: Accountability and the Tretas

ACCOUNTABILITY AND THE TRETAS

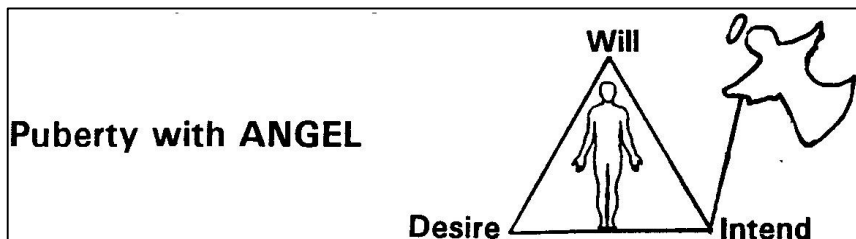

Each person is born with a relative amount of potential to gain in spiritual power by a link to what will later, at puberty, become his or her Accountability Point. The Accountability Point is more than a concept; it is the sum total of the Treta cores.

Before puberty, a person is linked with the group Treta of his ancestral genetic pool. In other words, the sum total of his forefather's former decisions using will, desire, and intend substances are impressed upon a child, as strong spiritual and grounding influences. In many cases, these influences have become increasingly spiritually harmful. If the ancestors' decisions, when all added up, were a soup of evil, then the genetic Treta could be linked to hells or Hades. If it were fairly clear, then the child received guardian angels along the Intend Core.

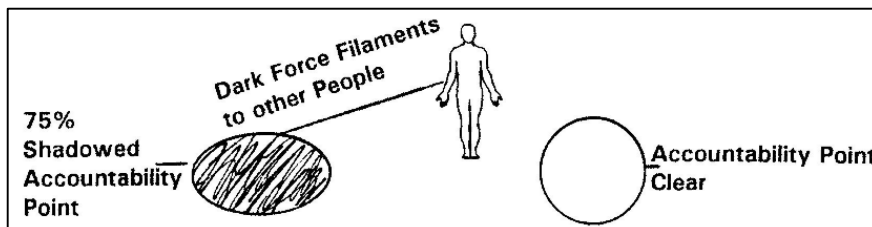

During conception and gestation, the parental attitudes toward God also greatly influence whether a child receives a guardian angel or not. If the parents overcame genetic evil, and prayed, then the child could be interceded for from above.

At the age of accountability, which is the onset of puberty, the child receives his own Treta. This Treta can be influenced by others who pray for the child, and by whether the child has a disposition and training to use spiritual power wisely or not:

Sometimes, an intercessor provides a better influence than the parental ones by supplying a Grace Treta over a child or young adult, which allows the person more opportunity to change his life to move toward holiness. Grace angels are linked to his Intend core, and he begins to be drawn to spiritual study.

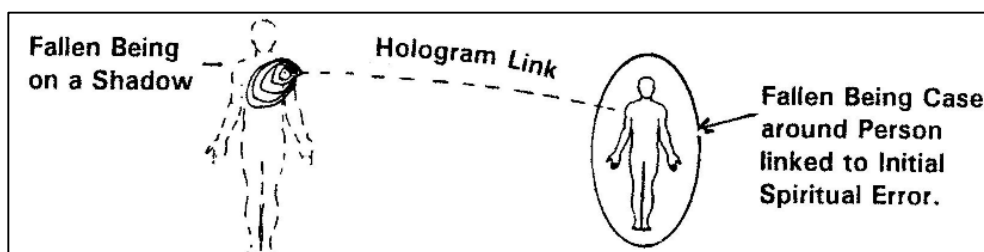

The relative spiritual power of a person depends upon the amount of core substances of Will, Desire, and Intend. These cores can be measured only together, because holiness is the sum total, and can never be found in a lack of balance of the three. Besides amount of substance, the clarity of the substances when added together is an indication of holiness or misuse of power.

When a person misuses power, he develops a swarthy spiritual color that has nothing to do with racial skin color, but is an undertone observable by those with spiritual sight. No matter what the racial skin color, a person with clear Tretas seems to radiate a type of pale blue light, while the contaminated person seems to have dull and dirty skin undertones that appear rotten to spiritual sight. An exorcist may take on such undertones while in the process of destroying Treta demons.

Shadowed Accountability Points always reflect a problem of all three Treta cores. Sometimes, the core substances are used to create filaments to web around other people or animals.

In severe cases, the guardian angel linked to the Intend Core becomes crazed and so functions as a fallen angel. The fallen angel then becomes an errand-boy for the owner, who ignorantly sends it/them to curse or obsess other people. In some cases, they form "Fallen Being Cases" around other people out of the owner's personality substances. Such cases are common, and can create depression in the recipient, because the babbling voices of demons and/or sexual torment frequently result. If the person encased refuses to feed the obsessions, he can pray for deliverance and receive help from unseen intercessors. If he had not lost his own guardian angel through some spiritual error of his own, it is unlikely he would have been encased at all.

There can be other dark forces created by the Treta owner out of elemental forces and body aspects. The Regeneration Pools and Dimensional Communication Substances are often combined with desire or will to create demons.

People do not have to try to create demons; demons are created by a lack of emotional/thought/habit control. Man is inherently a creative individual. He creates good things or bad things. Many people create demons in their sleep, because they have a "stuck record" of fantasy/thought that has been a favorite of theirs in waking hours. Whenever a person feeds a malefic circular thought/fantasy/habit, then it becomes more a part of him. After a while, the person has a constant stream of such thought subliminally coursing through him that changes everything about him.

In a holy person, there is one train of thought that is aligned with holy Tretas. In a person who has decided to go against what he knows is right, that one train of thought can be full of poisonous hate or desire for a selfish outcome.

Later, the poison/perverse/hate thoughts may seem to be intermittent to the owner, because he no longer notices them. However, they have sunken to his roots, and are always present, like a music tape on auto-rewind that is so constant that you forget to notice it with your conscious mind. However, your subconscious mind hears it, and listens. When you go to sleep, or get under stress, the demons behind that constant voice take over, so as to reinforce their feeding frenzy off of your auric substances. Your subconscious mind is likely to be as pure as how you are when you begin to wake up.

In many cases, a person develops several trains of thought, as auric substances begin to feed more obsession pools. He gets more spiritually swarthy, and confused, and unable to get anything done. You can tell a fairly clear person by the fact that they are able to just finish something without looking stressed and worrying about the time. The clear person has a calm look and just gets busy, focusing in the Now, to do a job. Possessed people get frantic because they are listening to so many subliminal voices and are feeling bubbling rages that exhaust them.

If a person is clear, he may train himself to think along two or three trains of thought simultaneously without weakening himself or being confused. However, all the trains are HIM, not some obsession demon. He merely uses the extra trains of thought to work out problems while looking at several sides of the situation.

A possessed person who has a deteriorating Accountability power will seem to lose personality strength, and may be needy, or aloof and spacy, and lack any magnetic power emanation. That is because he actually does lose substance of his Magnetic Forcefield, as his identity components float out to feed obsessions on the constant subliminal obsession feeding track.

Eventually, even the untrained eye can see degeneration in a person who feeds obsessions. Obsessed people either hide their eyes or stare in a glazed manner. Also, there are many body language "Tells" along with pronounced verbal "Tells." For instance, one student could not say the word "crotch" without pronouncing it "crutch." Sex was her crutch whenever she felt disabled by any mental stress. She leaned on her sexual obsessions to pull her up when she felt down.

As the accountability substances become more perverse, a person tends to look guilty and may try to hide behind some type of reaction formation that is all too revealing. For instance, one student suddenly blurted out, "I think it's terrible that someone would want to kill you." She had been stewing over a casual comment I had made the day before, and she sincerely believed that she would never think of wanting me dead. She couldn't get it out of her mind because she had a subliminal roar of death demons singing the same tune. They got excited over the thought of death and burst through into her conscious mind, while clothing themselves in sheep wool to hide their wolvern faces.

It is a pathetic sight to see people so unaware of what they are saying and doing, as they decline. The danger is that they are losing their Point-of-Reference of right and wrong, which is the reason to have an Accountability Point/Treta Core set.

A conscience is made up of such substances and can be lost when a person uses them ill. And yet, man was intended to be in the image of God, which means a sense of morality is a basic part of his sense of self. For that reason, when a person satanically uses his substances for obsessions, he usually feels compelled to assign a morality point-of-reference to another person to anchor him, or to a projection of himself inside an elemental demon. He does so because he feels shame in his body, and tries to hide from himself by living a lie. He lives a lie that he splits from his body, by placing the lie self into another person or a demon.

If he puts his anchoring point-of-reference into a human, it is because he is obsessed with hating them or wanting to own them.

Either way, he seeks to drag them into his obsessions and to destroy all holiness in the person. He rationalizes that he has a right to hate the person or that he loves them and only wants what is good for them. He no longer feels alive unless he is thinking about the other person in hate, love, sex, or other obsession thoughts.

If a person is narcissistic, he may develop an "Evil Double" that is a created elemental sparked by a fallen angel that holds his secret self (and point-of-reference) out from his body. That way, he can hide from others or himself, when he looks in the mirror. To the world, a man can hide this dark-self most of the time, but when he sleeps, it hovers over him like a bat. That is why spiritual intercessors watch students at night: to assess their secret selves.

Unfortunately, the bat grows as a person feeds it more soul blood. The man's body becomes more comfortable with the bat self, and the bat begins to look more like a man. It gradually grows into a human shape, and begins to spend more time in the man's form at night. It lures his conscious mind to accept the false god reality of the bat self.

Eventually, the dark self has taken over 100% of the Will, Desire, and Intend substances, as well as the Regeneration substances and Dimensional Communicative substances and the generative functions/substances. Although spiritual degeneration begins with what seems mild anti-Law thoughts, it always ends with sexual degeneration and the desire to destroy others in some way. The dark forces, the bats, want to breed, so they can go out of your window at night and feed on other people.

So, you become a vampire. Your whole reason for living at that point is to feed your obsessions of blood (death/hate) and/or sex to grow more feeders.

Eventually, the dark-self lives in your body all the time, and your very presence produces vampirism, as you have become a vacuum of darkness. You suck the hope and joy and faith out of everyone around you, unless they see you truly.

Should a person see you truly, you would try to get your vampire to hide, but it wouldn't come off, like a coat that had somehow glued on.

Then you would feel the terror of the ages, as the vampire comes face to face with: God's Eyes.

God sees through his saints.

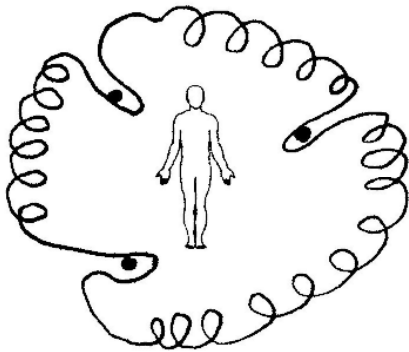

It is important for you to understand how degeneration of the Tretas means that you lose your humanity: your lower aspect of God self.

Man was not meant to be a dog, but was meant to serve as a holy anchor to earth. He was supposed to be a bridge between the divine and the lower manifestations. He has purposes unlike any other creation, and therefore responsibilities.

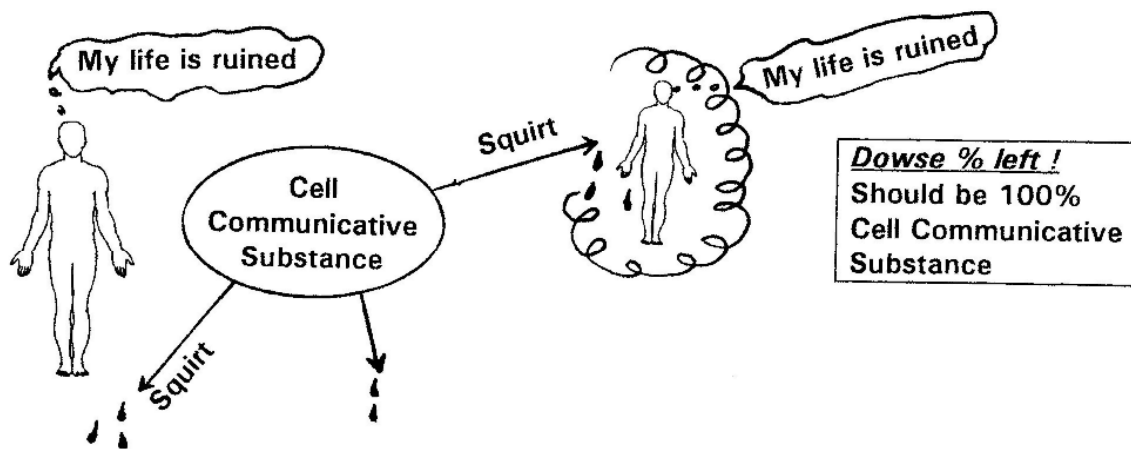

True man cannot become an animal; he degenerates into a sub-animal demonic monstrosity, should he use his holy powers to do so. We stand at the threshold of a gate that only true men of God can enter. All those who have deformed themselves by lies, all those who have tried to hide their foul generativity by animal skins, shall not enter the garden.

God is not mocked.

Look for Magnetic Field Glitches or Dips that have hidden Auric Bits of other people. These are found on Body Parts while focusing on :
 (L) Arm, (R) Arm,
 (L) Leg, and then (R) Leg,
 (One at a time) while dowsing.

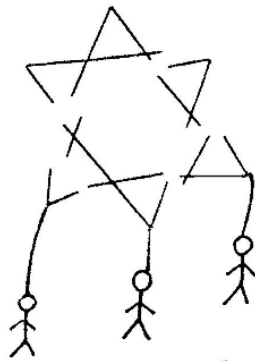

Wrong Intentions, Wrong Desires and Lower Willfulness cause Cells,(On all 31 Dimensions), to lose Communicative Substance, as it flies out in unbridled Thought and Emotion to contaminate the Magnetic Fields of other People. If they have Auric Openings, the possessing Substance forms Malefic Links and they hear the Thoughts of the Possessor, and assume they are their Own Thoughts.

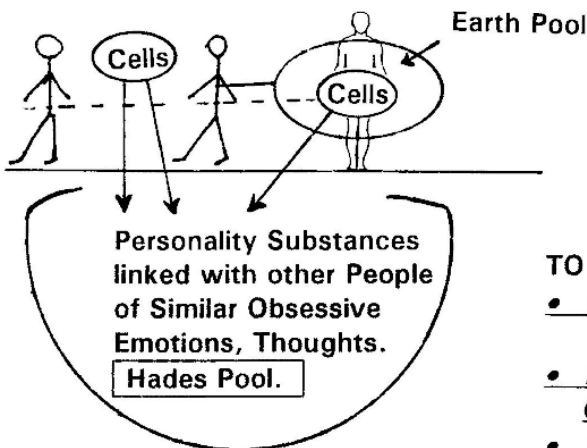

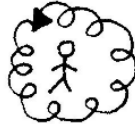

Some People have Fallen Angel (or other Being) Evil Nose or Genital Overlays. Their Thoughts direct Clouds of Foul Substance to other People. There it Saps them of Regeneration Strength.

Pray that such Noses/Genitals are Sealed from Fallen Beings.

Some People Possess Others with Bits of their Identity Sphere Components so that the Substances Possess and form Drain Portals in Others.

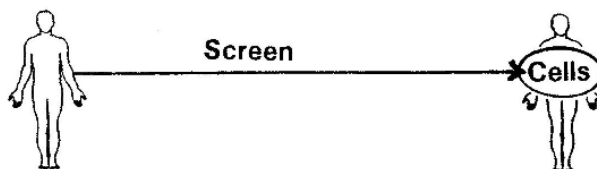

Destroy any Star Bits globbed on your Magnetic Field.
They bring Obsession Thoughts, hoping you will Open up to them.

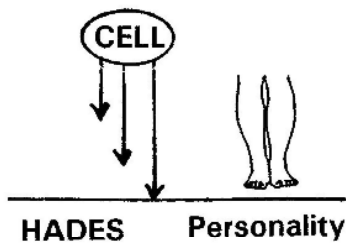

Obsession Pools around a Key Person, (Pivotal Point of the Obsession), but Linked to Everyone who was in Hades due to Personality Substance Loss for Similar Resonating Reason.

TO DO:

- Find the Pivotal Person and Remove their Screen from the Hades Pool.
- Destroy all Screens in Hades Obsession Pools
- Pray that God's Will be done as far as Screen Restoration on Earth.

- Destroy Screens that are inside the Cells of another Person.
A Screen can be Split and Possess several People.
- Disintegrate all Screen Bits Possessing You.

Every Cell of the Body feels Hades Lines that are on the Bottom of the Feet Relating to Sex Obsession. The person's Personality Substance Sold to Satan is in Hades Exerting the Pull.

- Destroy the Personality Substance.
- Measure the Torque Pull by how far your Body is in Hades.

Like Being Under Water

HALF of Body in Hades.

WHOLE Body in Hades.

Listening to Dark Forces encourages a person to waste his Personality Substances on Emotional Attachments that are Malefic, such as Romance/Hate Obsessive Thoughts of People in the Past or Futures you would like to have manifest. This makes a Person's Personality Lose all Strength and so later change is difficult without Divine Help in Reconstruction of Personality Substances.

LETTER JUNE 11, 1995: Dowsing Update for Conference

Dowsing Update for the CONFERENCE:

It is time to do a two-year evaluation of the progress that each of you have made. Over the next week, pray earnestly to remove all obsessions and residual split-time connections that would block you from being able to help humanity through your individual paths of service.

In one week, I will assess your progress. In the meantime, I pray that each of you release all your past and prepare to be new.

When you arrive for our visit, I will review with each of you what I assess. Be prepared to deal with change.

It appears that our situation is calming down, and we are settling into a nice place not too far from that fateful location of Gallup, New Mexico. I am sorry to not give you more time to get a connecting flight to Albuquerque (the nearest airport.) However, I had to wait until I was sure that the movers were not followed and that the faxes were not traced by new technology. I am fairly comfortable that our trail is pretty cold. Fax us your arrival time for pick up. Our 800 number is a call-forwarding situation that is quite safe, for reasons I won't go into right now.

I am finally able to relax and get onto the next book, which I will tell you about upon your arrival. RP is going to be very busy doing artwork, and we should be through by August.

As far as dowsing, continue to check your coordinates with any pulls away from the New Earth proper alignment spot. Go back to soul lessons charts, and the prayers checklist for proper prayers.

Blessings, Genevieve

PS: Cel; just for Sn. Sn, I think I have been picking up your T and La connections, that seem to cause you to circular think. Try to not listen to devil's advocate arguments; just focus on your Trust in Law. I will tell you more when you arrive. Please tell BJ (when you fax this) to remove coordinates to Hades from his feet. Thanks.

Dear "Bob and Carol and Ted": I am working on the new book and will let you know the details when you arrive. We are all anxious to see you, and the place here is wonderful. You will have a good time.

I have been a little troubled by Sn's continued connection to La, which has nothing to do with the house sale. When I confronted Sn about long conversations with La, she apologized and also said she had been chatting with Nob. Since RP was arrested as the mad bomber (Oklahoma City, Murray Building on the date of the move), you can understand my caution. For that reason, I am taking a precaution until I am sure she has not revealed our general location. I told her to get a connecting flight to Albuquerque. Since her trust fund pays for all flights, I am not too concerned about the expense. If I am sure she is clear and straight with us by the time of leaving, I will tell her otherwise. Unfortunately, BJ follows her flights, and I dare not say otherwise to him, until I feel safe.

We have had several private eye phone calls on our 800 number, which is under an anonymous company. I find this disturbing, and I suspect it got out through Sn. I don't want to think this; and yet we are so exhausted from hiding, we dare not be reckless.

I need to be able to write and pray without being hunted. This next book is unfolding, and yet the pressure to protect the young one and keep from being hauled off as criminally insane is something I must think of at all times.

You three are doing well, and I pray for your families to receive mercy and intercession, as well. The holy beings are with us always. They warn us, and heal us. I am sorry to have to be so careful with Sn. It is a heartbreak to me, since she and La have been students of this work for a long time. Even so, we must go forward, and finish our tasks that God gave us.

If you get a call from Sn or BJ about travel plans, figure it out in advance or don't pick up the phone. I am hoping this fear that I have about the private eye coming through Sn will be gone by then; I love her dearly. However, let me know about any communications. Blessings.... Genevieve

By the way, I was so moved by your hard work in the move (to Wyoming). You faced hired killers and you are used to being paid for hard work, and yet you gave of your time to help us safely exit Guthrie. Bless you for that.

LESSON JUNE 14, 1995: Point of Sobriety and Resistance to Chaos Clouds

One of the most difficult challenges for the spiritual aspirant is to gain in ability to resist resonance with the world at large as he knows it. In fact, should a man see the world that is emerging from the locust husk of this spiritual winter, and resonate with that lovely rainbow of a world, rather than his memories, then he would do fine. Unfortunately, we have what is best explained as two intersecting Earths: the rotten one and the budding one.

That two worlds can exist in the same space is not so mysterious if you look at other examples. The world of an intelligent virus can live inside the world of a thinking humanoid...in fact it does. Something small can be a world, if viewed from that perspective, and is often a microcosm of a greater world, or a hologram that serves as a doorway from one world or another.

The ability to expand or contract consciousness to fill a small or large space is present in all humans; it is just that most humans expand or contract spasmodically and so break themselves up like ships hitting an iceberg. A ship could go through an iceberg if the ship became mist-like and floated through the iceberg, or if someone vaporized the iceberg with some type of power not unlike the will of a human.

The whole mystery of the Rapture and of "The Kingdom of Heaven is within you" can be explained to a person who studies of the Laws of Vibration, Pattern, and Dissonance Point Orientation. If that same person practices some simple alignment techniques, he can dislodge himself from the rotting husk of the old Earth and attach himself to the other Earth, which is far more pleasant, despite what the babbling demons say.

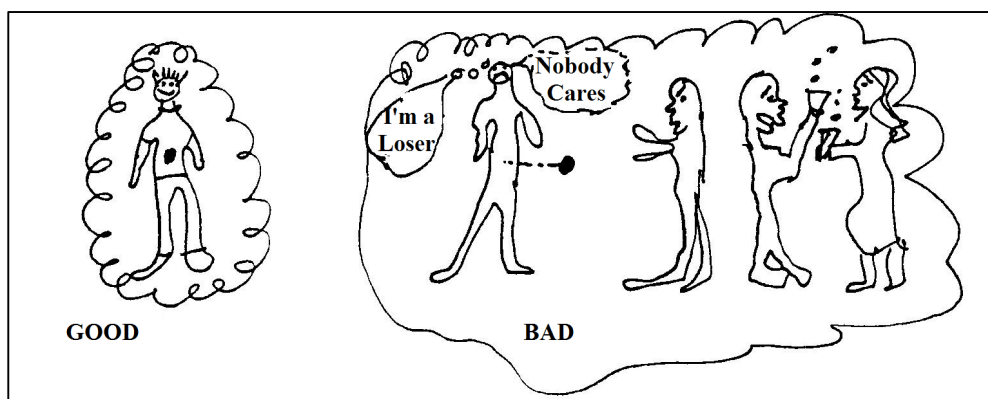

So often a man's mind plays tricks with him as it rewinds and plays a memory in a distorted fashion that the subconscious mind hopes will soothe him. It is no different than a fairy tale, though, because it is viewed from the House of Death: a past point of sobriety.

The Earth is quickly splitting up in two camps, with only a few in one camp, thus far. One camp says that a person should return to the death of a past time, or at least try to return. The other camp says that this is the end of the age of the Earth as you know it, and it is time to prepare your spiritual and physical body for the Rapture. People will be happy if they are firmly in one camp or another, but miserable if in between.

The Camp of Illusion is the one of the past. It tells you to not think about your soul or your spiritual responsibility; that only bodies and emotions matter; that other people are all you will ever know of God, so romance and family are where you will find heaven. The camp of illusion tells you that if other people think you are holy, then you are holy. The camp of illusion tells you that you have a right to create your own reality, and that a sense of bodily pleasure or mental rush tells you that you are close to God.

The Camp of Truth tells you that the Leave-it-to-Beaver lazy world of the past must be abandoned, so you can prepare for transfer in the New Earth. It tells you that you must now struggle to be holy or you will be sucked into a black hole of decadence and despair. If you do not learn to switch your frequency, pattern, and point of reference and direction in coordinates that align with the New Earth, then you will decay, as many people are already doing.

There is a Primary Dissonance Point in each person that serves as a Point of Reference that is associated with the Age of Accountability and Guardian Angels. Think of it as a point inside a halo above your crown. There are sub-points that are important as well. It is as though a man is a ship in a windy seaport; the main anchor is the most important, but the other tie-down points help him to not lose his lunch when the seas lurch.

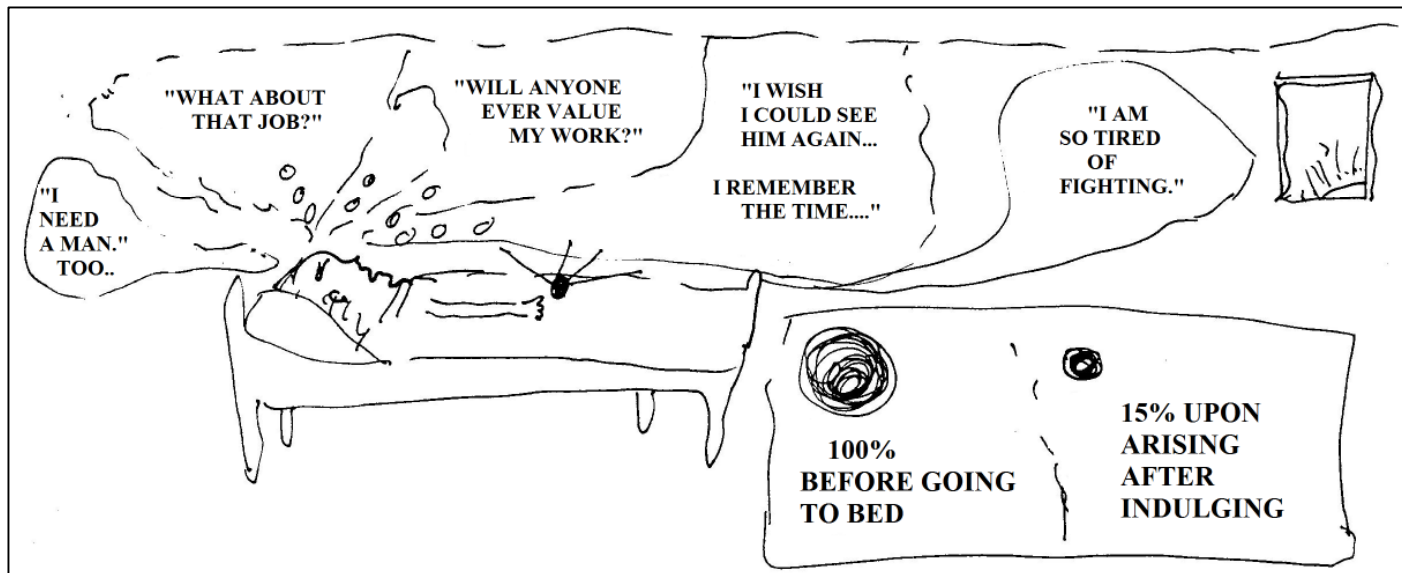

The Point of Sobriety varies from man to man, and can be seen esoterically as a point of convergence of emotional/personality band meridians.

Just as the body has physical meridians, such as those outlined in the science of acupuncture, so does it have emotional/personality meridians.

For most people, it is best located in the solar plexus or the belly.

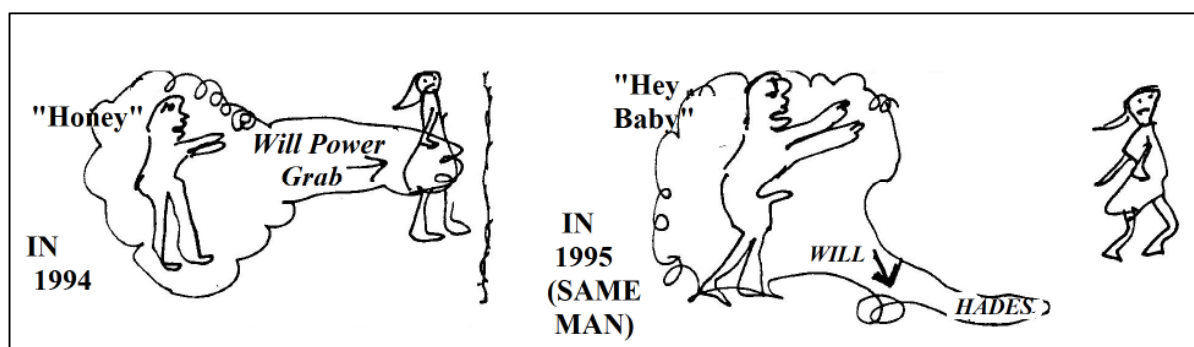

People who tend to spill out their auric substances out their eyes would do well to pull their personality bands in tightly toward their bellies. Such people tend to expand their auric bands out to a nearly gaseous state, or wind them around other people, thereby absorbing potentially foul energies (chart).

Other people tend to float out in thought, rather than raw emotion, and so may envelope malefic energies floating overhead. Thought should be compressed, tight, and directed. If thought floats out helter-skelter, it becomes weak and fanciful. For that reason, it is best to not lie in bed upon awaking, so as to avoid letting your mind wander expansively into the polluted skies. Thought, just like emotion, takes up part of a man's substances. To lose part of oneself in a daydream or night-dream is dangerous for one's spiritual balance, and throws off the Sobriety Point. The sum total of thought/emotion substances lost will proportionately decrease the power of the Point of Sobriety, as if its mass is lost. It is. (Next chart):

Many people lose sobriety by misdirecting low willpower to grab someone else's future in a display of power. They have, perhaps, prided themselves in the past on having a magnetic personality, and having been adored by others, and so seek to recreate the experience in the wrong setting and time. The display of power that was appropriate twenty years ago is no longer appropriate, in the workplace or home place, as it may be deadly to the auric bodies, given the shifting sands of dimensional time and space. Today, there are many forces at work outside of oneself that make an auric surge or sudden opening dangerous, unless one is prepared.

Far more common in a low display of power is that the will forces shoot downward, forcing a hole in the auric cocoon. The person may think he is directing outward, but his spiritual vision is filtered through a Hades filter, and so he ricochets his power into Hades, thereby diluting his power and injuring his auric cocoon. (Next chart)

Any malignant decision to get your own way, thereby defying the Plan of God, results in power loss. Oftentimes, people are unaware about how hate-filled and spiteful they are toward other people, as they clothe their willful thoughts in romanticism or self-righteous indignation. Often the indignation is about one's right to receive some material pleasure, or to be considered a victim of others so as to rationalize hatred.

The most holy person is in the Now. He does not pine for the past or long for some future...and he most surely does not try to force a future. He does not assume that he is uncomfortable because of some tragic fate, or hideous future. He has a state of "don't know" about his sense of discomfort, and prays for understanding, as he silently and humbly goes about his daily work.

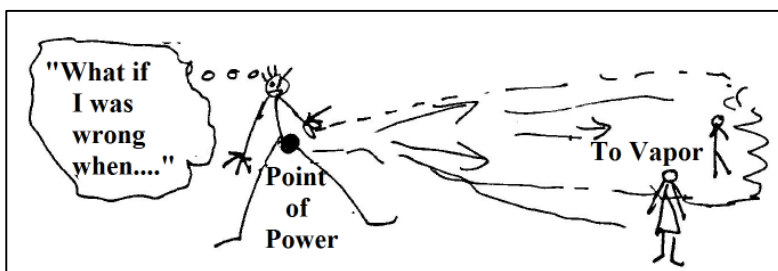

He does not generalize about life being too hard, or about himself being a failure. He just puts one foot in front of the other, and pulls his sense of self in tightly. As Shakespeare said, "Screw your courage to the sticking place."

There are plenty of people who find the content of these studies so terrifying that they prefer to find a mental technique/drug so as to achieve euphoric interpretation of all events as benign. Even so, as you look through history, such as the Dark Ages, there was considerable spiritual and physical struggle to survive. We are not so special. Humans have become lazy and lack a sense of necessity to change.

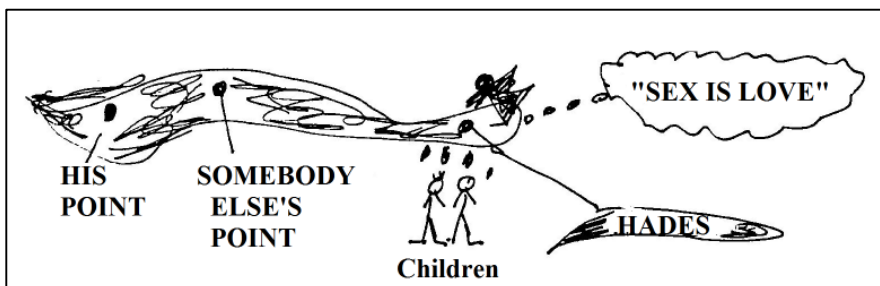

Whereas in some countries people struggle sixteen hours a day for food, in America people get upset if they are expected to work eight hours to bring order to their environment and a couple of hours to bring order to their souls. It is not considered pathological to watch four hours of television per day, but it is considered pathological to pray four hours a day.

Of course, this produces a wobbly people, in the spiritual marathon sense. In order to strengthen oneself spiritually, one must start on the lowest level.

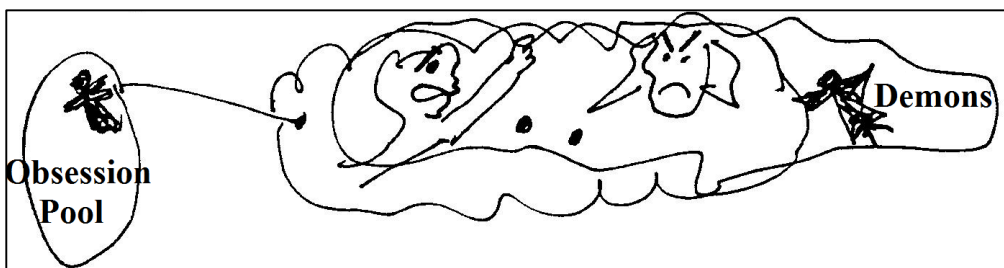

When the Sobriety Point appears to be floating to the moon, try bringing order to one part of your house, at least. Make sure there is no garbage or laundry around. As you clean, think about the work as a metaphor of bringing order to your spiritual house (Fabric.) Start cleaning from a Pivotal Point, and work outward. Be logical. Be cheerful. Be in the Now. Decide to be happy and to not let your mind wander to the future or the past.

Virtually all disorders of the auric boundaries occur because a person sticks to a stubborn habit of thought or emotion that has stimulated some kind of demon orgasm in the past. Even if the demon orgasm no longer occurs, he keeps trying to recover the sensation of a rush, by reciting in his head some past horror or temptation or wrong, or letting his mind circulate around a perverted fantasy or materialistic daydream. In doing so, his Point of Sobriety begins to vaporize from a point of power to cloud.

Unfortunately, that cloud infects everyone in his surroundings. If he has mal-intent (against Law) mixed in, then he may have Hades shadows mixed in with his cloud. His cloud eventually floats upward and clings to other clouds through the Law of Partial Resonance, where it darkens the spiritual skies, and introduces babbling demon voices to the minds of innocent children:

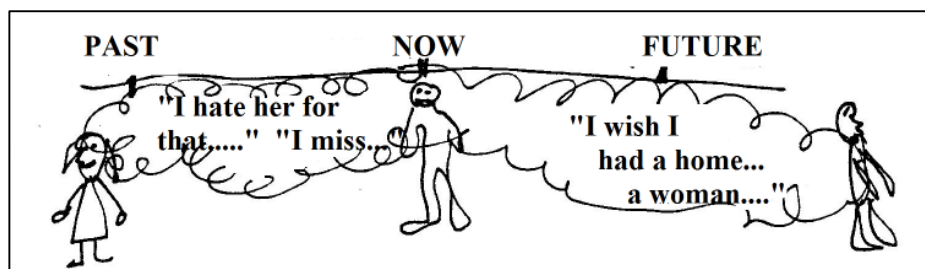

The less controlled a man's sobriety point, the more people he wraps around him. He gets their disorders, and they get his:

He eventually develops several sub-tracks of thought, that are really demon voices. In the early morning, upon awakening, he is more likely to hear them in words in his head, like his own thought. He most likely will think it is his thought. The key to identifying demon voices is that they introduce a concept or emotion that is tailored to your situation, but may be originating from someone else you don't even know. You may feel sudden sadness for your dead sister, and yet you are merely responding to an obsession some man has for his mother that he WISHES were dead. Longing for a lost person and wishing they were out of the picture are just two sides of the same coin.

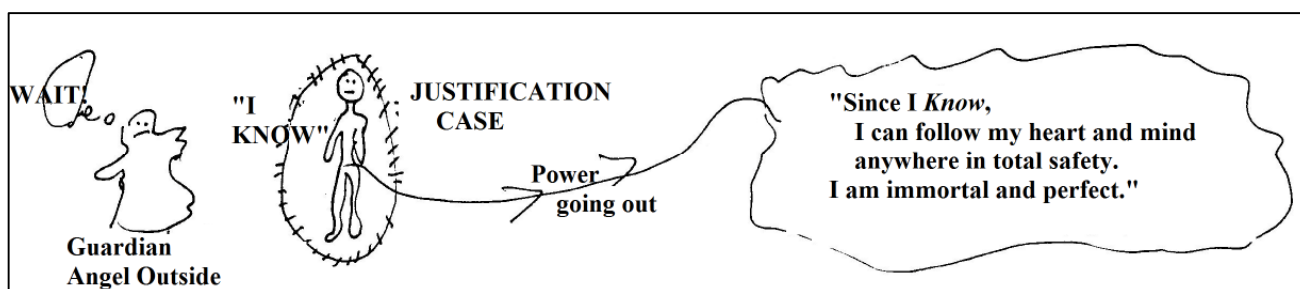

There is not enough energy and time left for most people to waste in longing, regret, or wishes. It is far more practical to use the warrior tactic of focusing in the current situation and dealing with it passionately and without hesitation.

No one can act completely in the Now if they are strung out between the past and the future, and dripping power on a dozen people.

People who decide to be weak try to justify their sorrow or hate with the development of a satanic shield of a pseudo-self around them, called a Justification Case. This case offers no protection, except from Truth. Inside the case is a compost bin. If a person lets his mind and heart float out with the demon sirens that beckon him, he reaches maximum auric expansion until he collapses totally inward. His spiritual house becomes a demon nest, as the doors are unguarded and open:

As his point of reference of reality searches the skies for various temporary landing points, he picks up little false light trinkets along the way. The trinkets are like mirrors or window prisms that can reflect light but have no light of their own. These false light trinkets can appear quite lovely, and some are fueled with batteries from dying souls.

Some of the false lights carry curses that sound like missions, and murder cries of battle that sound like a call to find the grail. Under all the voices of the false lights is the whisper that man is his own god and that evil does not exist, so any behavior or thought is permissible. The voices encourage emotional "human" outbursts of anger or tears, and discourage restraint in body or mind. The result is a person without order, discipline, or an ability to bring about a sense of order for himself or others. He may work hard, and yet has no pivotal point, and so spins in disarray from project to project without completion of any.

That is a kind of living hell in itself, and yet worsens, as the sense of being overwhelmed leads him to indulge in whatever will destroy himself. In doing so, he becomes rotten inside, and joins the ranks of the walking zombies.

In many cases, alien energies full of caustic forces enter his body, and he becomes a "False Light Carrier." Out of his body secretions, breath, and speech exit caustic bubbles produced as by-products of his spiritual vampirism of other people. As those bubbles float around, they carry babbling voices heard by the subconscious minds of all people in the vicinity. Those voices are the voices of chaos, of death, which is the world that many people choose. They are the voices of the dying world.

Those voices produce countless cases of depression the world over, and cause children to fight and burst into tears for no logical reason. It is, indeed, possible to destroy the bubbles and therefore the voices, if you know you have sub-tracks babbling. You may be able to count them, if you listen.

Should adults not destroy the foul by-products of their spiritual generation, then they condemn the children to be zombies. They cannot destroy those by-products without power, and power is not to be found without self-control of body and mind. In the middle of a million babbling voices, a holy man can know his own mind, and feel the peace of His Father. However, it is expedient to remove the voices, so as to help others.

Many people have "body doors" to Hades or anti-Logos portals that allow demons to exit that feed on the magnetic field of other people. It is a difficult task to quickly sense the feeding (as a loss of energy and skin-crawling sensation) and go about pulling your power into focus and harmony so as to destroy the spiritual bugs or throw them into their hell/Hades jails.

There are many teachings about exorcism that would benefit the Earth, and yet without becoming a master of oneself, one cannot master the spirits. To master oneself requires sobriety of the highest order when faced with a challenge. Indeed, you can tell a master by the fact that he views difficulties as "challenges" and sees every day as a day of victory.

The truest battle of the warrior is the fight to control his mind, his emotions, his body, his habits, and his intentions. Should he learn to do so, he has already won. It is true that he continues to fight, for others, and as a servant. He has, however, already won, because he lives every day with heaven in his heart and the songs of angels in his ears.

He is happy and cheerful and industrious, because he cannot doubt or despair. He knows God because he has become part of God, albeit downline. He is trustworthy, and so he trusts God. He cannot doubt, because he knows with Lehy's. Therefore, he is happy.

The world, as a whole, is in a sad state, and there is much to do to help your fellow man. You may be ridiculed, you may lose your family or friends, or money, or position of esteem, if you follow the path of holiness. You may lose them anyway and blame God. The difficulty about the holy path is that it must be taken lightly, with humor, so as to endure without so much tension, and so as to forget the stings...while the path consumes you (or what you think is you.) All the false shells of your self are burned away, as you go lightly dancing into the heavens.

LESSON JUNE 16, 1995: Names and Voices

NAMES AND VOICES

Just as man has a first name and a last name in the material world, so does man have a first and last name in the spiritual world. These names can be represented by drawings and colors that represent the desires, intentions, and willful thoughts and actions chosen by the person.

There is a Thought Name which reflects the level and purity of Consciousness of the human vessel. This is analogous to a man's last name in the material world. The Thought Name results from decisions made on the two coarsest auric components: the brain/body (sense of self) component and the ether/emotional body. These are depicted in the auric diagram with the emotional body above the sense-of-self body, but that is only to represent the fact that the emotional body consciousness is more complex than the physical body consciousness aspect. They both exist in varying frequencies, like the other auric components to be mentioned. Complexity of pattern, rather than frequency, differentiates auric layers. Relative alignment of pattern and frequency with the divine Mold of Man is the standard of each component with purity, which has nothing to do with complexity or frequency in themselves.

A holy man must be able to control the degree of alignment of his auric components with the Megaman, or he is not following divine plan. If man is to be made in the image of God, then he must seek to maintain that form, and not deform it into a monster of his own choosing, or he will be satanic.

There is a shape (picture) component of a man's spiritual (auric) name, which would be analogous to his given (first) name. Whereas the two coarse aspects (physical and emotional) tend to be strongly influenced by genetic and sexual contamination influences, the more refined auric components tend to reflect personal decisions and intentions after the age of accountability. These components include the sternum-linked Point of Personal Power which is the center of the magnetic forcefield and the Fabric with its core of accountability substance. The Fabric shape reflects what a man makes of himself, and has been referred to in previous writings as the Mold.

The shape/picture name of a man reflects his intentions, and those intentions reflect downward upon his body/emotion clarity and sound of name. If a person sins in the flesh while being fully aware of his decision in the realm of intention, then he poisons himself on all levels. If a person makes a decision in the physical realm to act against Law without intending to do harm or to go against what he knew was correct, then he poisons his lower two levels, but not his higher levels. Of course, living against divine Plan can produce profound illness of body and mind, and can corrupt the genetic pools, which makes it more difficult to spiritually ascend for the whole familial group. If a person has a corrupt lower aspect, he must have much greater self-control than a man with less lower contamination. Should he slip into old patterns of destruction after he knows better, he will degenerate much faster than a man with cleaner genetic/sexual pools.

There is an aspect of storage of personal strength to change oneself in the lower two aspects. A man who has spent a great deal of his life in depraved living has used up much of his personal power, and is dependent upon Grace from above to help him in his lower life self-control, and to lend him power. Should a man become vain and headstrong, in that he thinks his granted power is his own making, he tends to use that Grace power to reform old obsession habits that will destroy him.

Those obsession habits can be mental or physical, but usually have both components. All obsessions are based upon a malefic desire to rupture the lower auric components so as to initiate a type of death-thrill, not unlike a roller-coaster ride or horror movie, so as to get out of what is perceived as boredom. People who have very cloudy lower auras from years of indulgent behaviors/thoughts/emotions are never cleared suddenly by the holy beings, because they will perceive it as a rush, and they are addicted to rushes. What they really need is to gain Virtues such as patience, endurance, sweetness under stress, and most of all: constancy in action/thought/speech/emotion.

All obsessed people are terrified of silence and quiet. This may mean that they hum or have a television on a lot, or it may mean that they like to sit alone supposedly praying or meditating, or at a computer to hear their personal demons talk. Of course, they always think it is their own mind. Those people get angry if someone else interrupts their demon reverie, which often leads to onanism. The people who prefer music or television tend to pick out music or movies that reminds them of their earlier days, when they began their obsession.

Obsessed people always feel good when they think about the past, even though they perceive themselves as being romantic and sad, or even angry. The only reason they play music of their past or recall the past is to remind them of their first really huge aura rupture. To a person who loves demons, the first big rupture is like losing one's virginity in a splendid way.

Each rupture after that was less powerful, and so the present ruptures seem a pale pleasure compared to the youthful ones. Many people beg to be healed of auric ruptures so they can go through virginal ruptures again. If a healer refuses to heal the ruptures after repeated misdeeds of the recipient of healing, the person is enraged, and believes the healer has taken all joy out of his pathetic life. He begins to imagine that his ruined life and joyless obsessive rituals (which no longer produce rupture thrills) are all the fault of his teacher/healer. Obsessive people become vampires of the spiritually strongest person they can tap, in hope of rupturing that person's aura and achieving a secondary demon orgasm.

It is dangerous to associate with obsessed people, because they always look for a time when you are tired so as to vampire you, and therefore fuel their thought pre-cursor programs before their obsession rituals begin. Usually the thought programs include irritability/love-less thoughts, self-pity, and a sense of being powerless. Out of that comes rage, that is vented in a ritual designed to rupture the aura or the aura of another person. Obsessed people usually take over their children's auras to vampire substances, and so pass on the obsession to the young.

Some people are obsessed with hate, and get their rush by causing dissension in the workplace or home through lies and manipulation designed to produce pain to innocent people. They are often revealed by their pathetic look of humility and eyebrows turned up in the middle of the forehead. They often say bad things about themselves in public, while seemingly saying good things about other people (laced with subtle lies) in public. These people tend to get more and more dangerous as time goes on. They produce problems in any group, and are treasonous to any holy person.

The obsessions involving food and other substances are usually based upon a belief, sometimes genetic, that the body and humans are all you will ever know of God. It is possible to have a genetic obsession and yet to still believe that God is more than humans/bodies. In such cases, the person may have a chronic physical obsession that is fairly mild in consequences, while still managing to spiritually progress. There may come a day when his genetic shadows can be healed, and then the lower ramifications will cease. A tendency to obesity, alcoholism (the same thing as sugar-eating obsession), nervousness or depression problems are all frequently due to genetic overlays. For that reason, the spiritual scientist must be cautious in expecting people to all be just like himself; there may be genetic reasons otherwise. Some dietary cravings may be adaptive, within reason, for a genetic obsession that is not ripe to be healed yet. Often, a certain age must be reached to heal a genetic obsession.

Some obsessions develop later in life, in response to some trauma, such as death of a parent or spouse. These reflect in an auric trauma of the lower two components. These obsessions may also develop due to sexual association with evil people, or by weaknesses in the realm of intention that filter down after the age of accountability.

Each acquired obsession has a time of day that it is most activated. The relationship to the sun and moon with the associated part of the obsessed person's physical body tends to send a trigger to the auric injury and stimulate a desire for the obsession ritual. Every obsession ritual has the components of a trigger thought and emotion, and a physical act that produces some type of euphoria followed by weakness. As the obsession advances, the weakness becomes greater following the ritual.

The physical component of the ritual may be a necessity to talk on the telephone to a particular person that sets off the trigger. The auric rupture occurs during the telephone conversation, and the obsessed person thinks that chatting with a friend made him feel drained but less anxious.

The life of an obsessed person revolves around being drained or anxious. As he progresses, he loses his sense of personal power and his peace. He becomes an automaton of obsession reflex who is dangerous to all persons around him.

It is not enough to tell an obsessed person to quit reinforcing the ritual. An obsessed person must, first and foremost, decide to bow his will before God. Unless he submits his willfulness to God, there is no hope for him. If he hates one gender, there is no hope for him, because God has a yin face and a yang face. People who do not want to give up their obsessions often use lesbian or homosexual imagery as triggers, because it produces more auric trauma (due to its godlessness) than many other fantasies. Thus, a greater rush.

Withdrawal from an obsession cannot be done without humility and the decision to turn one's life over to the divine Plan of God. Whether the obsession takes the form of hate, grief, romantic longing, fear of the future, substances or sex, it doesn't matter. Any obsession will destroy you, if it begins from the realm of intention, and sometimes the genetic ones will destroy you if they are combined with hatred for authority.

The most tragic consequence of obsessions is not the physical results, which include mental confusion and a powerless appearing emanation, not to mention illnesses. The most horrible result of obsessions is the starvation of one's ability to love.

The auric substances of the emotional self are intimately linked with the ability to care about other humans.

The auric substances of the body-sense-of-self are important in the ability to translate love into physical expression. This means more than sexual love; it means parental love, sisterly love, brotherly love, and love for a holy mission in life. It means you can get out of bed with a light step and joy to be doing God's work. If you are waking up depressed, it may be more than vicinity dark forces. It may mean that you have exhausted your auric substances that allow you to feel joy in living a holy life with holy people. This is especially true if you reinforce your depression with any ritual of hate, food, sex, buying sprees, or partying phone calls.

If you have trained yourself to lose joy in holiness, then you can start the long painful process of training yourself to be unselfish. That means you must first of all, be submitted with every fiber of your being to the plan of God. You must pray to be delivered of all hatred for gender or authority, and then you must decide to be holy every day. Every morning when you wake up, you must decide to be holy.

If you decide that you have a right to pick and choose days for indulgence, then you will be destroyed by your obsessions. You must decide in the Now of every moment to align your Consciousness Name with holiness. You must also decide to align your Awareness Name, of your higher auric components, with holy intentions, with Virtues, and with Law.

That an obsessed person is love-less, despite appearances of a lie self, is part of the truth you must face about yourself, should you be healed. Then you must look at your thoughts, emotions, and actions in the context of whether you are helping other people or harming them. Any foul thought or emotion poisons the whole house; do you care? If you do not care about others, and have wasted your energies in selfish pursuit of destructive living, then you can decide to change. When a thought creeps in that in the past was an obsession trigger, decide to pray the Twenty-Third Psalm. There is a good reason to pray that psalm: an obsession pulls you to the Valley of Death.

People who despair and say they ought to just give up because they are hurting others have been selfish a long time. They may appear to the world to be ideal parents or spouses, and yet they may form their very obsession rituals around the lives of people they want to devour.

In some ways, a mild obsession that is overcome can help a spiritual warrior to be more compassionate to others who struggle. Holiness is measured by the degree of guilt acquired by making decisions that you know are wrong when you have the strength to do otherwise. The stronger you are, the greater the guilt. And yet, each time you feed the obsession, the more the guilt that builds up, as you poison yourself and others.

All the exorcism in the world will do no good for a person who decides to create his own obsessed reality. The demons outside cannot enter the aura, unless an abnormal rupture from an obsession has provided an open door. For that reason, exorcists must refuse to repeatedly heal or clear persons who refuse to give up their obsessions. Usually the obsessed person thinks no one can see his loveless and usually shielded obsessions. In fact, obsessions cause lower changes to occur that anyone can see.

The person appears to have dirty skin, and his eyes appear cloudy, as the obsession progresses. He can't think as well, and can't finish projects. His body secretions stink more than a normal person's. He has chronic sinus problems, and his bowels are full of gas. He loses social graces, and so offends people and can't negotiate in business. He looks guilty. He is mentally and verbally defensive of people with the same obsessions. He tends to have winding and illogical devil's advocate arguments in his head and in talking with others.

The profound loss of personality strength that an obsessed person develops is blamed on others being bossy or mean. As time goes on, he develops other obsessions, and is a wasted human being.

The study of spiritual science must address obsessions, because spiritual power is often tapped to feed such obsessions. People who have spiritual power must be on guard to avoid being tapped by obsessive people and not allow the demon voices of obsessions to lure them into decay of body, mind, and soul.

An obsession that grows ten percent a year in a normal group of people will grow 200 percent a year in a spiritually powerful setting. Any power that can heal can be misdirected to destroy oneself or others.

In order to help humanity, we must be unselfish enough to bear the cross of discomfort in giving up our weaknesses. We must then try to help others give up their weaknesses, with a sense of compassion and patience. However, we must not allow ourselves to be demon food. The spiritual healer must not think that he can go against a person's ability to DECIDE (intend) to be selfish and indulgent to the end. Without a proper intention, one cannot develop desire to love others or be able to pull on the Will of the Father in times of weakness. One can pray for desire and will, but one must decide about proper intention.

Each Dimension of the body reflects effects of intention, desire, and direction of will. The Tretas have been described as having attributes of color: Blue for intend substance, Yellow for will substance, and Red for desire substance. People who vampire animals or who have major fallen being possession have other color overlays of the dimensions. People who have been Graced also may have a Holy Color Overlay of the dimensions. Also, the Virtues that a holy man acquires have a power and color aspect that are combinations of the three colors, and overlay the dimensions. If a person has reached sainthood, then the cellular emanations become ever more brilliant with colors beyond the usual visual field of comparison. Each of the color overlays reflect specific powers.

Each one of the 31 Dimensions is impacted by each of the three substances (Intend, Will, and Desire)

If the Intend substance is satanic, so will the body tissues and fluids be satanic.

If the Will is satanic, so will the flesh be.

If the Desire is purely carnal and materialistic, then the flesh will crystalize into demons of destruction, and produce cancers and other woes.

If the Intend substance is satanic, then the emotions will be full of hate.

If the lower Will is satanic, then the thoughts run to destruction and defilement of others to show them who is boss.

If the Desire is satanic, then sweet love for one's fellow man is overtaken by incessant carnal thoughts mixed with hate.

These extremes are first perceived by the sub-conscious mind, in sub-tracks of thought, before they invade the conscious mind. In the early stages, the sub-tracks are translated into some thought or emotion that can be rationalized as good or normal. For instance, a desire to rape another person is translated as romance.

People who are obsessed become blunted in their perceptions of other people, as the demon eyes of their abnormal cellular layers look for them and interpret. People who are holy will appear to a demon mind to be ugly and evil. People who reinforce obsessions will appear to be attractive and inspire sexual fantasy in a person of demonic obsession. Obsession becomes possession when it reaches the inside of body cells. At that stage, a person is becoming a demon, and finds himself repulsed by holiness, as his demons fight to get away from an exorcist.

Each demon has a Sub-Track Voice, sometimes heard as a song that will not go away in your head. Some people have dozens of thought sub-tracks that are completely satanic, and occasionally peek out in verbal slips, to the surprise of the speaker. It is important to ferret out the causes for all sub-tracks, so as to not be worn down into a life of obsession and ruin. All sub-tracks have at least one body demon behind them, frequently associated with a known person who contributed possessed auric material to your open aura. The babbling voices encourage more obsessions, because the obsession rituals cause one to open the aura for more demons.

The more obsessed the person, the less he can hear the warnings of holiness, and the more quickly he falls back into decay after a brief attempt to overcome his weakness. He fails to recover his power because he is still relying on his own power to recover. He has lost his power; to recover requires help from God and his saints.

The whole earth is covered with clouds of obsession demons that exit the mouths of the obsessed. The spiritual warrior must never decide to ignore them, lest his guard go down, and they feast upon his spiritual innards. These are times of civilization decline, and so we must be cautious, if we are to keep our refinement of spirit, and therefore our souls.

As obsessions advance, what starts as an "Obsession Consciousness" of the sub-conscious mind develops also into an "Obsession Awareness" of the higher auric components. This is an advanced state of spiritual decay, because you become a shell of a human without sense of being whole unless you grab onto another person, who is your object of obsession, or form a false self that is a demon anchor of lies.

Each of the auric components has a normal anchor position that stabilizes that particular auric layer of complexity of pattern. Your lower body should have an anchor to the brain, but many people's Body-Sense-of-Self Anchors are to the groin. This is always due to sexual obsessions. The Sobriety Point, mentioned in the last lesson, is a sub-point of the layer.

Your Ether-Emotional Body should be anchored to the mouth. If it squirts its substance out the belly in an emotional outburst, then insanity can result. The mouth anchor is linked to one's ability to hear the nuances of other people's Name Sounds, and therefore have spiritual discernment in emotional matters.

Your Magnetic Force Field holds in your lower identity components mentioned above, and should be anchored to your sternum. A person who decides to create his own reality, and who floats out of the Now in some kind of mental demon orgasm of fear or longing, will let his anchor point drop or fly out. People who send out pranic lines to grab onto other people will weaken the sternum connection, which is important for intake of regeneration substances. Many vampires attach to other people's sternums.

One's stabilization position for the Accountability Core substance is in the groin, but is of a refined frequency and complexity associated with the etheric body and not the base body. Anybody who seeks to send out 'control-of-others' lines of force, related to sex or power desires, will destroy this important center for intend substances. In doing so, he also destroys his Screen, while filling it with narcissism poisons and depriving it of the kind of love that respects other people.

A person who misuses the higher substances loses them. Eventually, a person of mal-intent with obsessions becomes a mere shell of a whining loser.

The challenge for today's spiritual healers is to first address the massive problem of obsessions related to mal-intent, and then seek to heal those and the lower ones, as well. No one can hear holiness, or see holiness, if he hates the reminder of his choice to live in spiritual decay. For that reason, healers must first be teachers of Law. There is no reason for guilt if a man throws down his weakness before God and vows to give all that he has to purify himself. If the healers do not purify their own intentions, and do not recognize the voice of their own tissue demons, then they will lead others to ruin. For that reason, a vow of purity of intention to live according to Law should be taken by all serious aspirants of such study.

One of the greatest crimes is to devour knowledge that you do not apply to your life. Many people hunger for the teachings of power, and yet if they do not love humanity, they use it for coffee table discussions and end up harming others. When the Word of God becomes the liner for bird-cages, a loud roar is heard from the heavens; beware of such a roar.

P.S.

On the auric diagrams (that follow), keep in mind that I must present them in different ways to illustrate different relationship aspects. For instance, I must show layers as though one were on top of the other to illustrate complexity or frequency or dependency of light flow, and so on. Do not get too hung up on the drawings except as relationship diagrams. In reality, auric components overlap and can be quite fluid, or separate in some cases. The more evolved the person, the more diverse the substances and connections. Even so, the illustrations do help your brain understand in a way that words cannot do. It is helpful to check each of the Anchor Points, and add the Sobriety Point to your checklist. Some auric damaged people need different sobriety points that must be dowsed. A healer can pull them to sobriety with a blast of will. More later. Love and kisses, G.

31 Dimensions (L-R-C) must be viewed from perspective of crystal, ether, etheric, magnetic field, and fabric levels to detect and remove disorder. (See chart).

There are points of reference on each level. Do not think of levels as merely increasing in frequency, but they do increase in complexity as you approach the fabric. Each layer has multiple frequencies.

LESSON JUNE 19, 1995: The Accumulation of Causes

THE ACCUMULATION OF CAUSES

At what point in a disordered life is a person (or a civilization) considered intractably malignant? People have long relaxed themselves with the notion that they have forever to become good, or that good and truth are relative and so therefore vague in definition (à la Pilate.) The very obscurity of the definition of good in the generic religious and esoteric groups has made many people comfortable in their decay, as they spend their so-called spiritual time socializing and/or reinforcing their own idea of god.

At what point is a boy considered a thief? A child may steal a pack of gum, and yet is he a thief or a person who steals? At what point is a man who visualizes sex with an unwilling partner a rapist? Must he do the act? If he should do the act yet not be reported by a shamed victim, is he then not a rapist?

When individuals stop pondering such questions of morality, and begin to acquiesce to the general consensus, then you should know in your heart that society is in decline.

People who never pray are quick to point out that only God can judge, and yet do they not know the words of Jesus? "I do not judge, but if I did, my judgment would be right, because I and my father are One." A man who struggles to be One with God must judge right and wrong to the best of his ability, or he will be pulled to ruin.

Only moral people struggle with such questions without hate. The true mark of a man who still has promise of spiritual Grace is a man who suffers the torment of his decisions to do right, while hearing the howls of the hounds of hell on the left. It is not enough to sense guilt, and then go about doing what one wants to do. Guilt has no merit; the only merit is in the struggle to live rightly, not with flagellating guilt (which is merely an appeasement to satisfy ones need to be punished for doing wrong willingly and knowingly.)

Grace has oft been given to those unworthy to receive a drop, and yet the recipients become smug in accepting repeated assistance, and so entrench ever deeper into moral decay.

At what point does Grace cease? Pray that you never know...personally. It ceases when a person accumulates enough malignant causes to be deemed intractably unworthy of help from above.

A person does not have to be bad (in the world's eyes) to be unworthy of Grace. Many people act out the role of parents, just as a wolf watches her lair, with great consternation, and yet have no more concern beyond that lair than does a wolf. It is not human to just care about one's young, or to be social. The difference between a pack animal and a human is that a human cares about the children of tomorrow as much as he cares about himself or his young. Even beyond that, to be a human means that one cares more about the spiritual anatomy of the children than the physical anatomy.

To most of the world, the spiritual components of humanity have been delegated to casual inspection at great intervals. What is considered spiritual, in today's material world, is to produce great volumes of food at homeless shelters, or to give clothes or money to the poor. As a result, the definition of spirituality has been reduced to a material conclusion, as though holy struggle in the core of one's heart no longer has meaning unless one puts out food or money for dubious causes.

I say to you that your failure to move toward divinity is a crime. It is not enough to fail to kill or steal or rape: one must move toward the antithesis of such things if one is to be holy.

To move toward the antithesis of such things (and they ARE things; they produce shapes and progeny of hideous proportion) means that one eats the manna of knowledge given by Grace, and does not also eat from the Serpent Tree. At the point when one thinks that the Trees are of one's own choosing, the Garden of Life disappears.

Should you flatter yourself to think of this as esoteric effusion, think again. A man's worth is measured by his accumulation of causes that he has put forth in the world, and when it reaches a pile of knowing evil of a height above his value to the plan of God, then such a man is composted. God is not a fool, as some have surmised.

Should a man fancy himself as compassionate, while trying to pull the rotten causes off another man in an act of "mercy" he had best beware: it may add to HIS pile. An intercessor's pile of malignant causes had best be low.

Grace is not the removal of causes. Grace is the action of intercession by someone or some being who has the power and clarity to take on the poison of another being, so as to transmute it. Transmutation of the poison that occurs from the acts of willful evil takes a great deal of energy that must not be wasted on a person who is intractably going to produce more toxicity to the intercessor.

Ofttimes, an intercessor who has taken on a thousand demons is viewed by the recipient of his help as defective or weak. As the recipient gets stronger while feasting on the blood of his benefactor, he looks with disdain at the polluted horror before him, that once was his own secret self, unnoticed. He dares to scorn Grace. In doing so, he piles up causes.

All acts of Grace are dependent upon the ability of an earthly intercessor to take on the poison of people who have gone too far to ever know God without help. There are few intercessors today, and fewer people still who crave to be saints and therefore intercessors.

Some people want to be saints in theory but not in practice. You can tell a saint by his fidelity of purpose day by day, and less by his intensity or fervor on an occasional day. Constancy is the mark of a saint.

There are many things that I could teach saint intercessors, and yet I look with sorrow at the top of the mountain called Earth, and weep.

I do not weep for me, or you, but in silent fury and hope that my words be heard by those that can hear and see.

I see the storms forming, I hold my hand out, I call.

There are those who have called before me, and yet there are few that will call after me.

Just as an honest man of the Earth must decide, in his heart, the questions of when a person who lies becomes a liar, so must an intercessor decide such questions about his beneficiaries. The true evaluation of morality is found in the deep and humble submission of the heart of the beneficiary of Grace to Divine Plan, no matter what the cost.

To stand clean and pure before the throne of God is to stand naked of all attachments to material matters and to bodies: it is to be annihilated in the request for purity so that one can empty the slate of karma, and be worthy to be called an intercessor.

One achieves such an end by the optimism that can only be found by a person who has been utterly destroyed in his conviction of reality. A person must be crushed under a state of "don't know" before he can be TOLD. This is the true meaning of being "born again." In the first birth, you believe the consensus of the community genetic pool and thoughtforms. In the second birth, you listen to Lehys...only.

When a person finally submits to death and rebirth, then there is no end to joy and optimism, although intercession duties may require him to take on a boulder of sorrow/grief/pain, which confuses onlookers. A true saint has hope, although he may appear devastated, while taking on disorder. A true saint has clarity and beauty, although he may appear hideously dark and ugly to an onlooker, while taking on disorder. The true mark of a saint is that he perseveres while appearing devastated, ugly, or ruined.

The world is in need of saints. I say THE world, and yet there are two worlds that will be splitting the sheets shortly, thread by thread, as the unholy sink to one level and the few holy ones struggle for air.

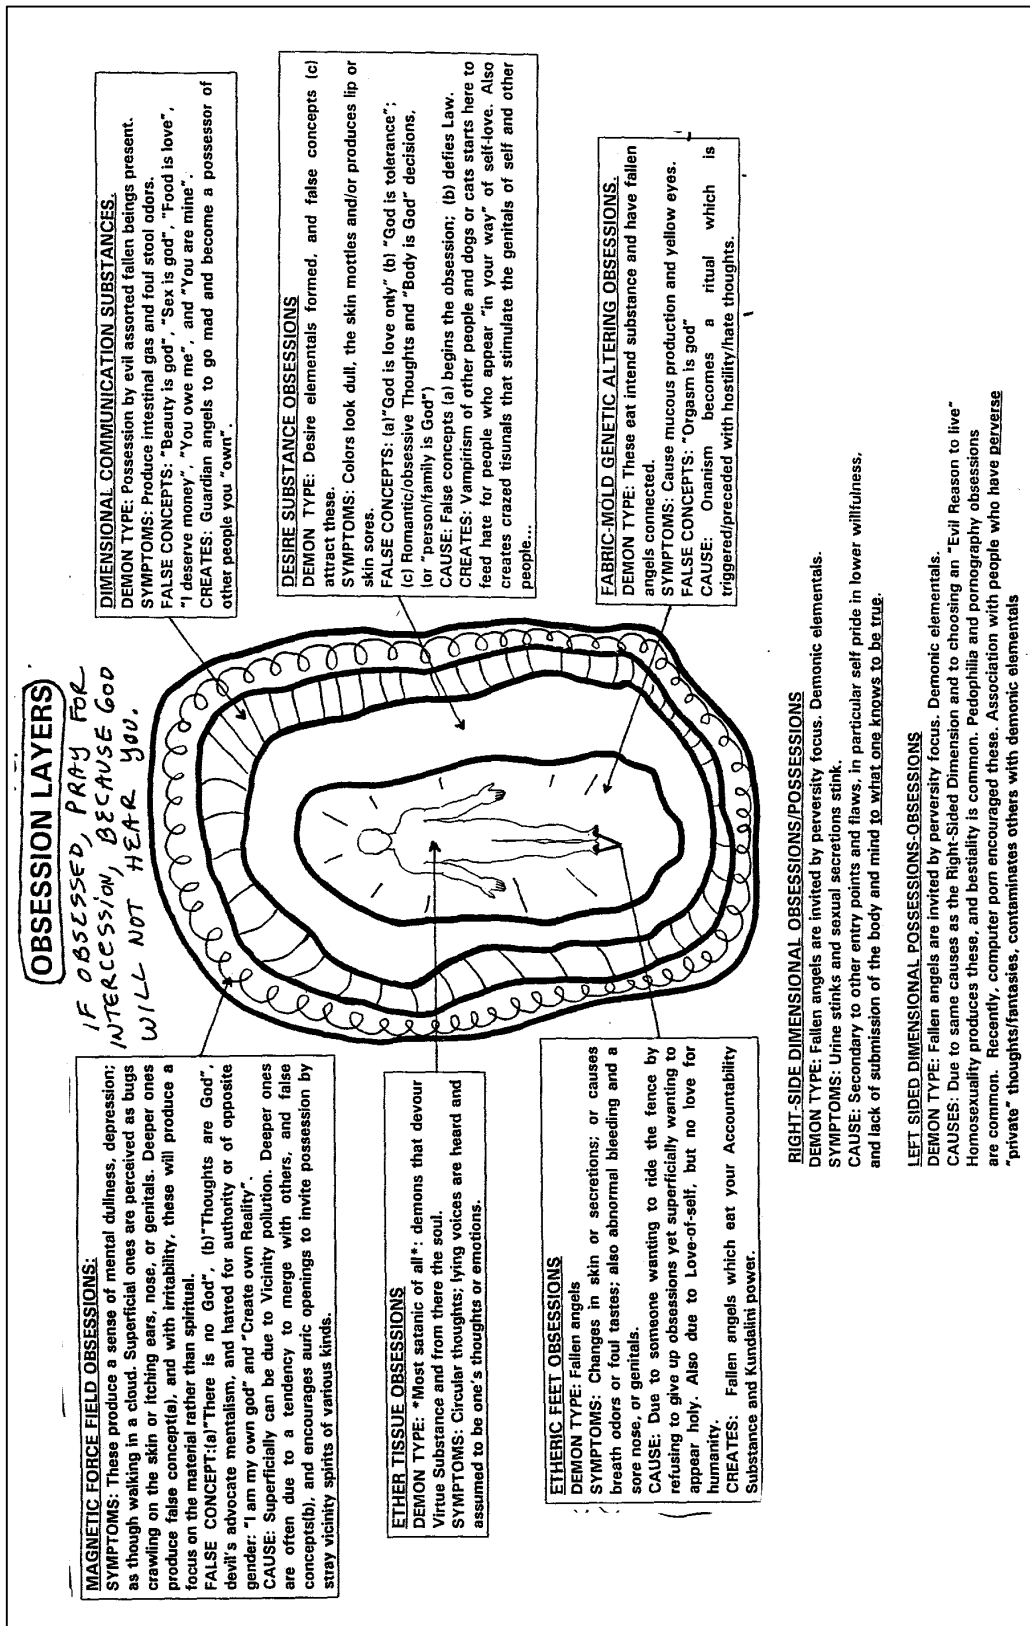

It is those that struggle for the Holy Breath we must seek to aid, and not those who lounge in deadly decadent slumber in the belief that all their malignant causes will come to no end.

MAGNETIC FORCE FIELD OBSESSIONS:
SYMPTOMS: These produce a sense of mental dullness, depression; a thought walking in a cloud. Superficial ones are perceived as bugs crawling on the skin or itching ears, nose, or genitalia. Deeper ones are perceived as a heavy blanket, these will produce a focus on the material rather than spiritual.
FALSE CONCEPTS: (a) "There is no God", (b) "Thoughts are God", (c) "I am my own god", and "Create own reality".
CAUSE: Superficially can be due to "Vicinity pollution". Deeper ones are often due to a tendency to merge with others, and false concepts, and encourages audio openings to invite possession by tiny vicinity spirits of various kinds.

ETHER TISSUE OBSESSIONS
DEMON TYPE: "Most static of all": demons that devour Virus Substance and from there the soul.
SYMPTOMS: Circular thoughts, 1996 voices are heard and assumed to be one's thoughts or emotions.

ETHERIC FEET OBSESSIONS
DEMON TYPE: Fallen angels
SYMPTOMS: Changes in skin or secretions; or causes breath odors or foot tastes; also abnormal bleeding and a burning, or genitalia.
CAUSE: Demons warning to die the force by refusing to give up obsessions yet superficially wanting to appear holy. Also due to Love-of-self, but no love for humanity.
CREATES: Fallen angels which eat your Accountability Substance and Kundalini power.

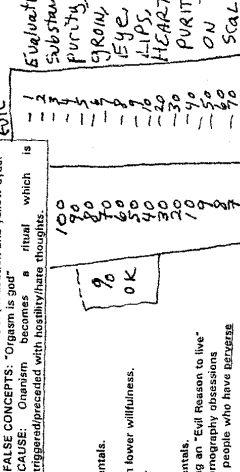

RIGHT-SIDE DIMENSIONAL OBSESSIONS/POSSESSIONS
DEMON TYPE: Fallen angels are invited by perversity focus. Demonic elements.
SYMPTOMS: Urine stinks and sexual secretions stink.
CAUSE: Secondary to other entry points and flaws. In particular self pride in lower willfulness, and lack of submission of the body and mind to what one KNOWS to be true.

LEFT-SIDE DIMENSIONAL OBSESSIONS/POSSESSIONS
DEMON TYPE: Fallen angels are invited by perversity focus. Demonic elements.
CAUSES: Due to same causes as the Right-Side Dimension and to choosing an "Evil Reason to live". Homosexuality produces these, and bestiality is common. LESSON JUNE 25, 1995: Living in Two Worlds

LIVING IN TWO WORLDS

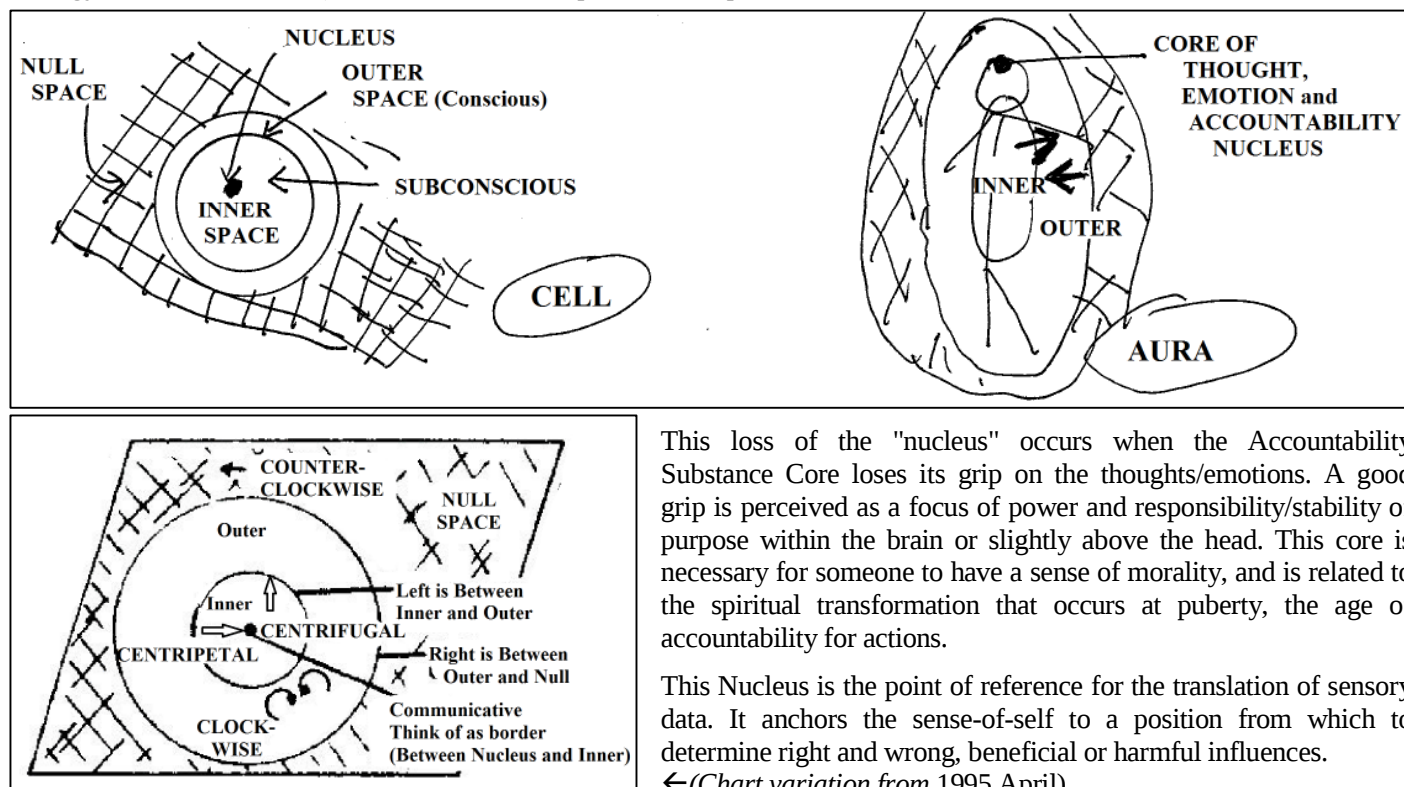

Man's spiritual self tends to react to the patterns it perceives in the environment. Patterns may be in the form of sounds (audible and inaudible), odors, tastes, visual impressions, and sub-consciously perceived clouds of emotions and thoughts. The commonality of all of these patterns is that they arise out of the arrangement of substances into forms of various frequencies within a range perceptible to some aspect of a human.

The conscious mind perceives only the blunt patterns of gross superficiality. The subconscious mind, however, perceives many patterns and may attempt to translate those perceptions into dreams or intuition. Divining was the method of old used to open the doors between the subconscious mind and the conscious mind. Because so many people had polluted subconscious minds, divining became a dangerous game and so was banned except by the spiritual hierarchy of most religions. It was not the attempt to perceive subconscious impressions that was evil about divining; it was the failure of dowsers to comprehend the danger of opening a door to hell (as some subconscious minds had settled into hells.)

The whole secret to heavens and hells can be found in the concepts of clock-wise expansion versus counter-clockwise contraction. If the emotions and thoughts of a person align with a hell-type energy (counter-clockwise contraction) then the person's body becomes like a crystal-radio receiver for hell stations. When the body picks up hell signals, it translates them to the subconscious mind, which has a great impact on the spiritual body of man. The spiritual self then aligns with hell frequencies/patterns, and so "goes" there.

There is an Inner Space, and an Outer Space that intersect the body of man. Think of a body cell; the space within the cell wall could be compared to inner space, while the space between the cells but outside the cell walls could be compared to outer space. Now consider that the conscious mind is like the outer surface of the cell, whereas the subconscious mind is like the nucleus inside the cell. The conscious mind can perceive outer space patterns and frequencies, whereas the subconscious mind can perceive inner space patterns/frequencies.

All events considered "real and observable" to the average human exist both in inner space and in outer space, although they begin in a different space: Null Space. Null space exists everywhere in the solar system except in forcefields that result from equally opposing polarities of inner and outer space. Living matter is supposed to have this forcefield, usually described as an aura, although there are other types of forcefields and auras that are not beneficial around many people. Malignant auric energies result from rupture of the healthy human forcefield, allowing the "nucleus" of a person (using the analogy of a cell as a human) to float out into null space without protection.

This loss of the "nucleus" occurs when the Accountability Substance Core loses its grip on the thoughts/emotions. A good grip is perceived as a focus of power and responsibility/stability of purpose within the brain or slightly above the head. This core is necessary for someone to have a sense of morality, and is related to the spiritual transformation that occurs at puberty, the age of accountability for actions.

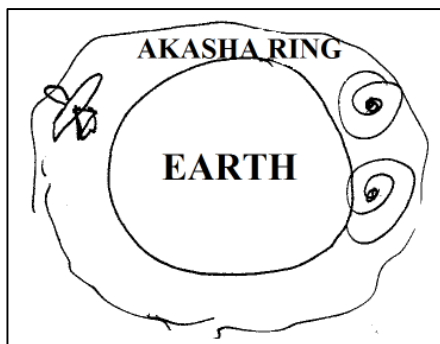

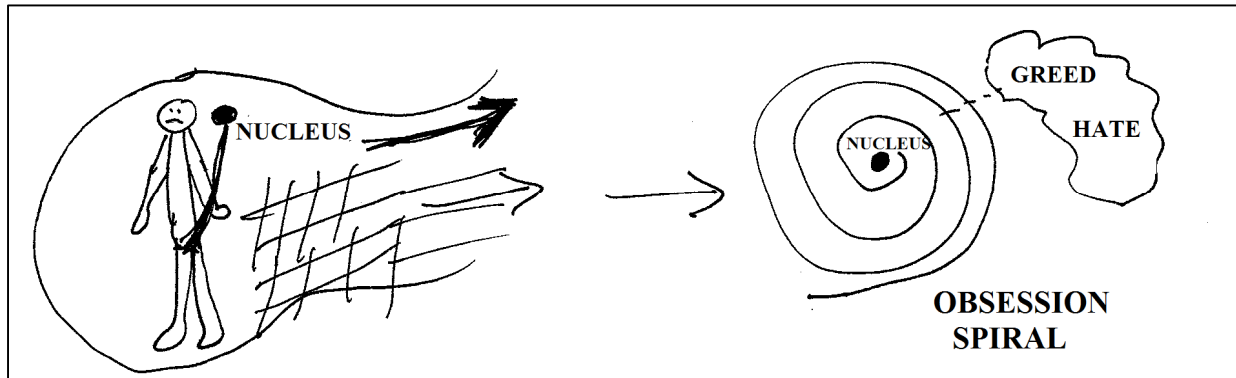

This Nucleus is the point of reference for the translation of sensory data. It anchors the sense-of-self to a position from which to determine right and wrong, beneficial or harmful influences.

←(Chart variation from 1995 April)

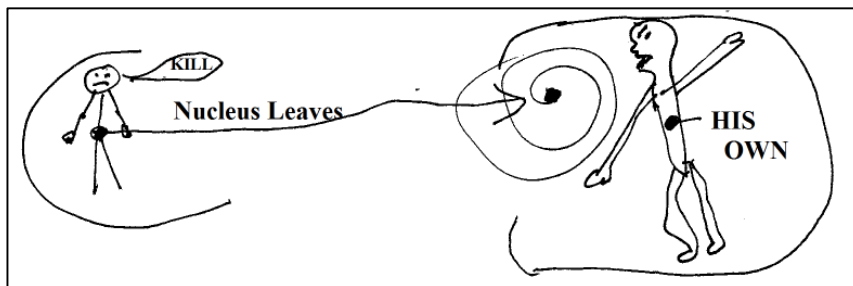

The human body is like a ladder into heavens or hells. If the nucleus understanding and acceptance of moral reality is congruent with Logoic plan for humanity, then the nucleus tends to climb (by the Law of partial resonance producing attraction) toward heaven (think of the halo as the door to heaven.)

If a person has decided what his personal moral reality should be, and that reality is opposing the Logoic reality, then his accountability nucleus sinks to the satanic realms to the level of his depravity. A false reality based upon emotionalism "God is only love (for example)" will cause the nucleus to sink to the solar plexus. A false reality that defies the law of Polarity "everyone is holy if we think of them that way" causes it to sink to the heart. "God is love is romance is sex" causes it to sink to the groin. Androgyny beliefs, or hatred for one gender, cause the nucleus to sink to the tailbone or the legs/feet. "I have a right to hate/murder" causes it to rupture out the feet completely.

The lower on the body the nucleus alignment, the more likely that the whole auric cocoon will rupture, destroying the balance of inner and outer space against the destructive influences of null space.

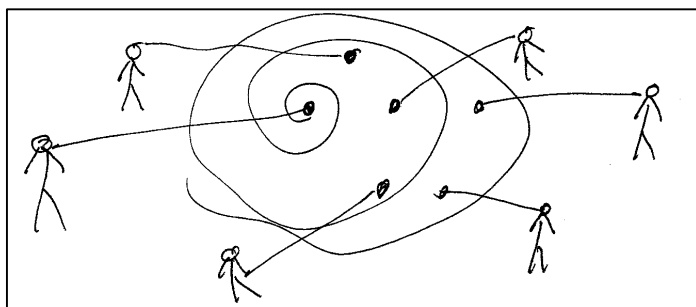

The solar plexus is usually as far down as the nucleus can settle before an auric rupture occurs. When the nucleus flies out, it swings into an Obsession Spiral, which eventually hits the outer ring of the Earthly Akasha Pool locations in the earth atmosphere. This Akasha Pool Ring Layer follows the curves of mountains and valleys, and so stays about the same distance from Earth at any location. Airplanes can fly through the layer, but only people with auric ruptures intersect the obsession pools, and so get a sense of exhaustion from tissue resonance with obsessions.

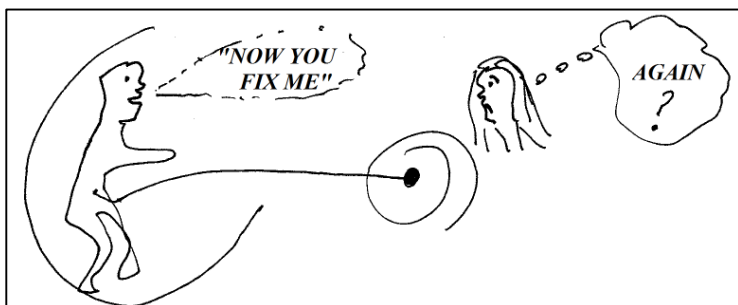

When a person's nucleus exits an abnormal auric hole due to emotional, mental, or sexual defiance to Law, then such a man's obsession thought that preceded the rupture is carried out as if on a string to the nucleus which tends to float up or to an object of obsession. If the obsession is about loving or hating another person, then that person will get the nucleus obsession on his outer magnetic auric field, and may sense the hate or sex thoughts/sensations. If the receiving person resonates with the energy, and opens his own aura through getting upset or masturbating, then he receives the foreign nucleus into himself, where it possesses him and becomes a secondary moral nucleus. It will influence him toward spiritual decay.

A man is tied to his Nucleus/Obsession location, whether it is in hells, the Akasha Ring (where tethered hells exist) or inside another human being or even a dog or cat. A great deal of hate in an obsession can damage the auras of pets or children, allowing the nucleus of the obsessed to enter. In major obsessions that have gone from person to person, many nuclei can be inside the vortex of the obsession, and gain the force of Evil Synergy.

If an obsession is not fed emotional, mental, or generative substances by the owner of the nucleus, then it will wither and die, along with the nucleus. Only a holy exorcist can call back a nucleus and clean it up to place back inside the owner. The danger is that obsessing people may repeatedly rupture their auras and so become addicted to the rush, while then sending their obsessed nucleus to the exorcist for a repair and clean up job. People feel good when they have a nucleus; it is a substance with power. For that reason they often choose to obsess about an exorcist, so they can get healed over and over again without changing the rupture reasons.

The only reason to have an Accountability Core is to use it as a moral guide and power source for prayer and helping one's fellow man. The greater the impeccability of a person, the more Accountability Substance he has maintained without rupture. A person cannot pray and be heard unless he has Accountability Substance, and his prayers are weak unless his nucleus is in his head region.

Some people falsely assume that the nucleus follows any thought, and so a person could never go to the bathroom without it slipping to his bladder. Not so; it follows thought and emotion that go against the balance of nature of a human being.

A human being has an Accountability Point that is designed to be aligned with correct human standards, not animal standards or a create-your-own Frankenstein standard. Emotions, such as natural grief, do not cause ruptures. A man thinking about a pretty woman who walks by, with a sense of sexual stimulation, would not cause a rupture, nor (normally) does male-female intercourse. A nurse thinking about her tired feet would not cause a foot rupture. However, sexual thoughts about a perverse person or imagery about hurting someone physically could well produce a rupture.

It is within the plan of God that man not be murderous, except to protect himself or his people. Murderous thoughts make one a murderer in the sense of accountability for intention. Vulgar thoughts of perversion make one a pervert. Thinking of lies, accepting them, and basing decisions upon lies makes one a liar.

A person who does what he knows is wrong, and yet still thinks he is within the "normal" range of an OK guy, is a liar, and loses his accountability nucleus into obsessions, which then possess other people or open the gates of hells. If he is repaired by an intercessor, he is likely to use his accountability prayer substance to form evil prayers that harm others, because they are based upon lies/assumptions. By losing a holy point of reference, and letting ones prayers call out from the belly or loins, the liar creates a prayer rupture into the lower hells and Hades. Such prayers are answered by fallen beings that are supposed to be trapped there (hells are like jails.)

Prayers to fallen beings can cause one's nucleus to enter the contracting, counter-clockwise death ports in hells. The body location from which the nucleus ruptured will then have a type of deadly emanation that emits a foul spiritual substance (because of the continued link to hell.) The substance that emits from a ruptured groin is perceived by seers as also being emitted out the nose and mouth, as a foul breath. Ruptured feet substance is perceived as also squirting out from the eyes and mouth. Ruptured thigh substance (common in lesbians) is perceived as coming out the fingertips as well. Hate obsessions from bisexual women can cause innocent people to have finger ruptures that translate into physical sores. Hate obsessions from bisexual men translate into knee problems and bladder infections for people who are the objects of hate. Sexual/romantic obsessions can cause bleeding disorders and bacterial overgrowth in innocent people or animals in the vicinity of the core nucleus. An obsession directed as a curse with a program that someone else get out of your way of achieving happiness (translated: "die") can cause the victim to develop oozing skin sores, boils, or tumors.

In many cases, an obsessing person has already blown away his accountability substance and nucleus, and yet still manages to form obsessions using any auric bit left, especially the generative substance container membrane, as the core of the obsession. A person who is besieged by an obsessor has no choice but to destroy the auric bits that attack him, so as to remove the links other people have to feed off and torment him.

In many cases, one can get rid of superficial contamination by merely changing the frequency and pattern of the outer magnetic forcefield, where obsessing demons cling. This is done by thought and will and intend substance use. One technique is to visualize holding all demonic energies under water until they drown. Usually, you can feel them leave, after a minute or two. Also, visualize burning the malignant forces, or freezing and then shattering them.

All disorders are caused by (and can be cleared by) specific resonations that produce pattern and frequency changes of matter that exists (usually non-visible) in outer space and inner space. Matter cannot exist in null space without feeder portals into inner and outer space and/or the communicative substances found in accountability substance.

People who use up their substances by indulging in obsessions become vampires because they lose their ability to regenerate in body locations associated with the ruptures into null space. They automatically vampire anyone, and animals, whenever they can drill a hole or find an open auric container. Such people are the scourge of the earth, and produce mental and physical illnesses in others.

What a man thinks and does brings the earth closer to hells or to heaven. An obsession is not just a personal matter; it poisons the innocents, and lures others into decay. The most obsessed persons often think they can pray their way out of being guilty, all the while hanging onto hate or perversity or greed. Straddling such a fence is deadly, because obsessions move toward counterclockwise contraction, and correct prayer pulls one toward clockwise expansion. You can't have it both ways.

Correct prayer has an aspect of budding Virtue about it. It encourages personal love for self to become personal love for another person, and from there impersonal love for all humanity. It expands the core of a Virtue ever outward toward refinement. Virtues do not expand outward in selfish prayers, such as "Dear God, if you give me that person as my spouse, then I will serve you forever." Such satanic prayers only reach the ears of fallen beings.

Satanic prayers, such as "if you get her out of my life and way of happiness, (or give me money) then I will devote my life to becoming a spiritual teacher to serve you," are based upon assumptions and demands upon God, as though He were a used car salesman with whom to bicker.

Accountability nuclei are the cores of the Virtues; without accountability, one has not Virtues. Obsessions destroy the Virtues substances, as they are used to feed demons.

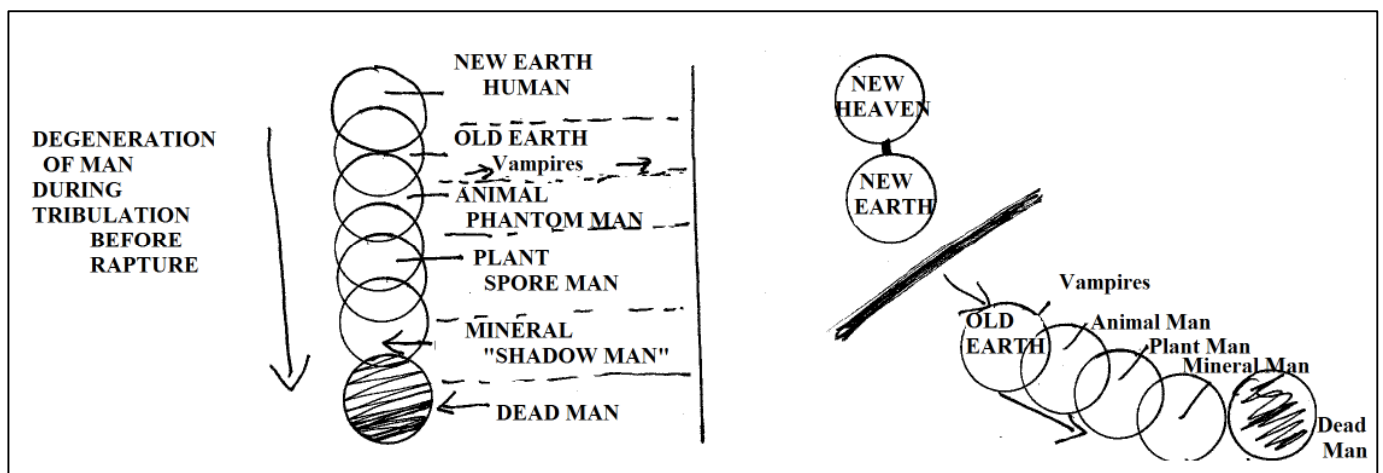

It is the design of God that any man who is evil lose the power to be so. It is the responsibility of exorcists to stop vampirism and obsessions, to destroy the cores of obsessions, and to heal those who suffer trauma from such selfish people who create the obsessions. A man who chooses evil IS evil, make no mistake. Should such a man or woman decide to choose goodness, then he or she would be good. Lazy people are fond of pointing out the fallacy that good and evil are on a continuum: they are NOT.

Wherever, on your body, you have torn your holiness asunder by lower willfulness to hate or defile others by your thoughts, you are evil. You might have an evil liver, an evil mouth, and evil hand. That is not the same thing as saying evil is on a continuum, like a grey scale. Your liver, when it spiritually ruptures, is 100% black as night. It is white or black, and never grey.

The blackness does creep, though, like a gangrene that devours the adjacent tissues. Any obsession blackness will eventually devour all that you are, and leave you without any sense of morality. You become a vampire of innocents, and eventually a phantom.

A Phantom is someone who lives the world of darkness fully, with no regret or longing for the Light of Virtues. He no longer relies on the life-giving properties of normal auric substances that are based upon the divine plan for the body of man. He has even lost his ability to vampire energies from the world of Light.

He lives, at that point, on the borrowed energies from the animal world. Should he lose his hold on vampired animals, he will automatically fall to the plant kingdom, from which to drink energy. After that, to the mineral kingdom, and then to death. The world in which a man walks depends upon a man having the key to the pattern doors of that world.

If a man lives in a personal reality, then he becomes deformed into a creation that no longer serves as a recognizable key to the kingdom called Humanity. To exist in the kingdom of Humanity requires one to have a sense of morality, which is only possible with accountability substance and nucleus. If a person allows his power of Virtue to be wasted on his selfish impulses, then he loses his key to being called a Human, and becomes a vampire, on the shadow of the old Earth that is now the land of the dead. The old Earth intersects the New Earth now, but at Rapture will be torn away. This is the time of choosing for men of the earth: the land of Humanity or the land of the dead. For a time, both vampires and men will exist together, causing stress upon the holy men. This is the meaning of tribulation.

As the vampire degenerates further, he becomes a phantom, as he enters the Kingdom of the Animal. The animal kingdom intersects the lower regions of the old earth. It does not intersect the New Earth. There will eventually be a new animal world, without phantom men, to complement the New Earth, but not possess it. Phantom contaminations cause sinus problems and abnormal bleeding in innocent humans. They are often due to being in the proximity of a person with an obsession death vortex on his body, although usually a person is an animal man phantom by the time he develops a significant death vortex. Many animal man substance contaminations can be ordered by a person of strong will out of the eyes into the Sun, or removed by visualizing the demons under water, drowning.

An obsessed man is like Alice in Wonderland, falling ever deeper into strange worlds. At a certain point, he falls to the Plant Kingdom, and becomes like a spiritual fungus that can infect other people. Many plant phantom contaminations can be milked out of the eyes of the victim into a candle (just order the contamination into the candle, while staring at the candle.) Contaminations can easily enter ones ears when talking to a plant phantom on the telephone, or being near their obsessed plant breath, which smells of decay.

Such a man can still fall one kingdom lower: the Mineral Kingdom. Contamination by a mineral "Shadow Person" often causes abdominal bloating, kidney pain, water imbalances, hormone problems, bleeding disorders, and cloudy vision. This is due to being possessed by a "mineral core of a shadow person" which must be expelled out the breath with a great deal of holy will and intention into the ground.

Most people on the earth today are still centered in the old earth, which is still a point of rescue, before the Rapture. Those that have fallen further can only be helped by intervention of a high order, and only if they have some hope of change.

Most of those who have fallen below the old earth have done so because they hated or desired wrongly, and refuse to change. Unfortunately, the prayers of those fallen to animal and below are not heard, except through intercessors. Should an intercessor choose to tell such humanoids what they must do to be healed, he would be hated, as such people assume that what they do is their own business...least of all an intercessor's from God. Of course, obsessed humanoids often decide the intercessor is really an imposter, so as to make the task of hating easier.

We are facing times of great challenge for men of God. There is no man who loves God that will refuse these words. A man can pray for holy Desire, for the strength of God's Will, but he cannot pray that God decide for him whether he is to be evil or holy. A man must decide the holy or the evil path; should he choose rightly, then, and only then, does he have the right to pray for anything else.

LETTER and Chart Lists JUNE 24-26, 1995

Dear Sn:

I have an old friend who is a social worker for the government. I helped her through some terrible times several years ago and although I have not seen her for eight years she is still loyal. She has access as a supervisor to documents regarding my case.

After hearing some disturbing things through the grapevine I thought it would be wise to verify what I heard through my old friend. I was saddened by some of the statements written in the report as coming from you.

Many of the others were less surprising although depressing. I am open to hearing from you regarding this matter.

Sincerely,
G.

OBSSESSION DEMONS that result from Fallen Being Answers to Evil Prayers have a Birth, the Life span of a human (usually 65-100 and set at Conception) and follow a human life Cycle. Their age of maturation is computed by dowsing the number of years allotted them, and where they are now. They are often stacked around the Birth Life Spark (these are found with a focus on the Pineal of a person with Demon Name or Face.)

ALL DEMONS are dependent upon the existence of a Life Seed that has a human Akasha Link.

You find these demons floating in the room attempting to vampire people and pets.

AKASHA LINKS are regulated by body position of Accountability Point (if intact) or location of Nucleus if not intact due to Demon Orgasms.

LESSON JUNE 28, 1995: "What an Angel Told Me Today" (His Words)

What an Angel Told Me Today (His Words)

Tomorrow is a day of wonder. I speak for my master who tells me to remind us all of the day of wonder that is nigh. Tomorrow is song and dance in the heavens. I will tomorrow with you the faithful resurrect the dead in spirit and you I shall tell the secrets of the deliverance of the workers who have lasted to endure the rapture of those who told of my word to others. You shall tell the truth to the world undamaged by those killers who would stalk so as to torment my daughter's flock of fair sheep and rob them of their wool before the slaughter. I say to the daughter of darkness that is just falling into hell (ji): you are damned by your deeds of treachery and will be eternally lost from all that you sought to destroy. Justice is not yet met, however. I will find each one of the roertgergerssryta (defilers)... you know the names: tk, ks, pr, rrt, rintentront, sk, lh, td, 3 children: u,m,a who are evil and shall not today be little children but lost. For the parents I shall show no mercy. Until I willfully go to bastards of fornicators to inform them of their situation I will deal with the evil parents who told the children to be liars against my daughter and her flock. I will find them all and remind them of their error. I was until now regency. I was the king of the earth until the golrottyerstythuveu (roving bands of renegades) took so many holy ones that I won't enter the plane of earth to years henceforth until the renegades are gone and until the people of earth desire eternal life more than the energies of succubus and incubus. I was (until renegades came) happy to enter homes and undo the killing forces of jillsertysater (curses from people who wish to murder. Murderers include jg.) I was not wrong in doing so because the forces from lost worlds were written in the flesh et u romberbytetbyqq which are the doppelganger owners as a human virus. In England 4 regions of lost worlds were told of the quantity of residue from friends of satan due to the ruination of souls-stars. I remind you that error in the language is due to the fact that the scribe is learning to hear from a great distance directly and will have to be readjusted in ways you cannot understand. The words and help must come from afar; the justice is lofty until the day of rapture in 5 years or less as it looks now. I am an angel of the Lord and speak for him. I am riltentoltenu (name.)

(The rest was from a lower method; conceptual rather than the spoken words, so is open to some error in interpretation, whereas the above is direct wording.)

Justice is fair to the children of the faithful, (si). They have angels to teach them until the day you can see them without fending for your rights to be in God's family as you are now. sn is very jealous of you and others...has done damage. I shall recall the tremendous blessing given sn. She reported child abuse by you to authorities with La and ji and td and lm, and ff at ph's urging, I went to the ff and told him it was wrong but too late for him I am sorry to say. Until Randolph Frontier worked on ff, it was possible to help him. I went to Fontaine to warn rl not to report abuse and he did to the child welfare supervisor. I went to gs and made them ill to stop them. U child is dead. I told In c to stop but she was going to get d. I will not let her get d or Jinny or f or ce. I went to Gentamineinerru (satan name for jmc) but he is dead to see truth and so must die in body. I went to ji.

Another angel is destroying cn. I went to mm but she was listening to the succubus. Parents of f are just being stopped by the holy forces. b is an incubus. sn is a succubus. ph has been stopped today. You will receive verification of Jinny's arrest order in the next few days but she is safe now. The d's antichrist energies have been stopped. It was God's will to have them in the group so as to destroy that type of energy on Earth.

The Book will be on time because from now on it will be easier to work Lightly.

LESSON AUGUST 1, 1995: Manifestation of Spirit

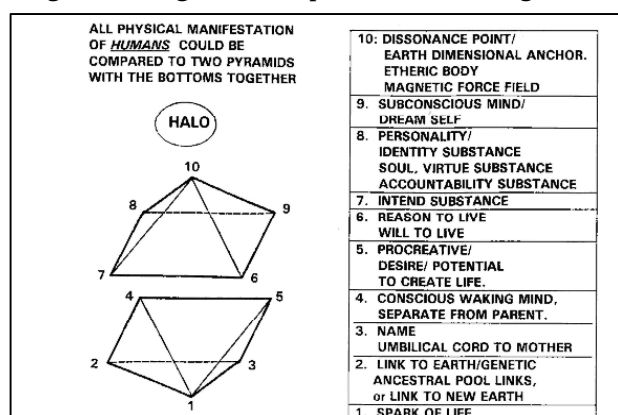

MANIFESTATIONS OF SPIRIT

Groups of people and individuals create manifestations of differing states of matter without realizing the power they foolishly aim at random. If people understood the dynamics of spirit manifestations into matter, they might be more cautious about their creations.

It is possible to consciously bring about a different physical circumstance through the use of correct thought and action if there is not a stronger power of thought and action opposing the desired one. For instance, one man may visualize and go about living the correct lifestyle for physical health and yet if fifty people visualize him dying and set out to kill him then he is likely to not live long. To survive curses requires the victim to be stronger than the curser(s) cumulative power. The power of cursers is accentuated if they have attracted high level fallen beings, which can only be fought by high level holy beings. There are specific Laws about the use of holy beings to bring about protection or succor from attack. Only a person who has enough stored energy from good karma can call down help...for the summoning of high powers requires stored power and goodness in the person seeking aid.

In particular, if a person has been given holy guidance to avoid financial, physical, mental, or spiritual disaster and yet failed to follow that guidance, then he hasn't the right to request more guidance. Avoiding disaster is the most energy efficient way of self-protection, and so man is often warned or led to safety by angels or intercessors. If a man refuses to hear, then he cannot expect to be rescued.

There are times when sudden attack or crisis erupts in which the holy beings will step in to manipulate the outcome so as to protect the innocents who pray rightly. Since many events happen quickly, due to human free will decisions to align with evil, it is often not possible to present a warning. The human brain/body is so dulled by the grid sounds that warnings may not be heard unless screamed, which is not the way of the heavens, in most cases. Polluted human spirits cannot perceive warnings. Foul thoughts and behaviors against Law pollute body and spirit, thereby confusing any holy warnings or causing the guardian angels to be repulsed to such a degree that they cease helping the individual who chooses evil.

There are different types of manifestations that must be diagramed differently. However, the one that has brought the most suffering to saints can be represented by the Two Pyramid Design that is used in the former lessons to represent aspects of individual self.

If the components of the pyramidal points become evil, then they form lines into hells which then tap any heavenly Grace substance that may be present. It is the struggle between the heaven substance/holy guardians and the hell substances/beings that provides most of your mental and physical suffering. Often, when people just give up the battle so as to be evil, they become quite happy and have more energy than ever before. They often still mouth the right words about God and so forth, but their strange euphoria gives them away to the seer. As long as man is on the old earth, he will be facing darkness, and so experience the pain of battle, unless he gives up to darkness.

A man who gives up may superficially appear to be more holy, more subservient, humble, full of pious phrases. And yet...he looks as though he is hiding his eyes if you should think the holy name of Jesus while staring at him head-on. Do not be fooled by superficial appearances of holiness or evil. The use of language to draw out demons may make the exorcist appear evil to the onlooker. An exorcist may use foul words, cruel-sounding humor, or strange behavior to draw out demons. Even so, the intention of an exorcist is to bring about purity; it is not to vent hatred through speech or action. The intention of a pious-appearing man who has given up his soul is always to defile and destroy, and yet his actions and words belie his intentions. He often has round-about speech that is cunning and superficially full of adoration for God, all the while resisting the Divine Plan. If a man's heart is pure, he can appear to resonate with any evil, and yet pull out of it suddenly...with a smile of victory. For indeed, to be an exorcist means that you must fool the spirits of evil...entice them, and then pounce on them with the fury of God. To do so requires that there be no real evil in the heart of the exorcist, or he will stick to the evil that he loves, and it will devour him.

Truly, if a man be unselfish, lacking in greed or carnality, and if he has true love for God's plan above all else...there is no power in hell that can destroy him. How does one become unselfish, generous, and aligned with Holy Spirit rather than form? By monitoring every thought, every word, and every act for evidence of personal evil...that's how. "I've got a right to have this...to do that..." are often the mental phrases that link you to personal evil and invite major evil.

If a man allows floating evil to enter his mind or body, then his individual pyramid system becomes evil, and so fractures its components to feed the hounds of hells. He sells more than his soul to the devil; he sells his heart and mind and body. We are at a time in the destiny of humanity when such sales are common, and are payments made upon a house in hell...with every act and thought. If a lot of people sell themselves for the same outcome, they form a group of partial resonators that can be quite evil, since synergy is built. All the components of the pyramid systems of all the people who desire the same thing tend to bond together in huge systems of evil.

The people who are in holy synergy groups tend to remain intact in their pyramidal systems, for holy synergy is formed by people who are individually powerful striving together for a holy outcome. People who are splintered, having sold components of themselves to satan, have no personal power but merely are used as shells for evil beings who work in tandem with other evil beings for a shared desired outcome. The outcome they desire is always destruction of holiness, although the people in such groups think they need more money, sex, romance, power, or glory. Holy people know that they need to be pure so as to hear and see the path of God before them: that is their need. They need God, or they feel angst. Evil people feel angst if they cannot ingest other people's power, money, bodies. Holy people feel successful and inner-directed, even in the face of great struggle, whereas evil people feel frustrated, full of rage, and controlled by other people that they hate. Their success is measured by how important they appear to others.

True wealth is the quiet assurance that God's will is being done in your life; it is the joy of divine Trust and Love. Only a man who loves unselfishly can Trust. That is because a selfish man is untrustworthy, while a loving person is trustworthy. Being trustworthy does not mean that you have to keep every drunken promise you ever made in your reckless early life. Being trustworthy means that you can be expected to obey Law and move toward Virtues in such a way so that other holy people find comfort in your steadfast nature. Holy people are consistent in a very deep way, in that they always operate within the Plan of God...and yet they may appear confusing and contradictory in superficial physical appearances. That is because the Plan of God requires fluidity on the physical plane, so as not to make a graven image of what YOU think God is like or requires of you. God cannot be understood except with spirit eyes and ears. The coarse physical brain may understand the letter of the Law, but the elemental personality substances of spirit must decipher the spirit of the Law.

The obvious personality is actually a component of the dimensional right-left-communicative substances that are contained in the boundaries of a personality framework case. If that case is wobbly, the person's aura swells up and engulfs adjacent evil. This tendency to balloon out of shape is due to the habit of trying to merge with other people out of a neediness--which is always present in a person who hates. People who truly love others don't tend to squirt Dimensional Communicative Substance out of their eyes in attempts to grab other people. People who truly love others tend to love themselves as well, and so hold in their power rather than squirt it to other people.

The Spirit Personality is different than the physical dimensional personality. It is the seat of Desire, Intend, and Will Substances and can be represented by a triangle within a circle container. All spirit personality disorders are due to satanic desires, willful decisions to act against Law, and intention to buck the holy Plan of God to get what you want. Spiritual personality disintegration is reflected in a person who has devil advocate thoughts and speech, whose body and mind are focused upon sex and money/things, and who feels hatred for any person. In Truth, you can endure tremendous slights from outrageously evil people without hate...if you are confident of your Love for God and Trust He will deliver you from evil if you are worthy.

Many people think they suffer because they are saints, and yet they suffer because they resist becoming saints. Deep in the core of a saint is joy...deep and abiding...in the face of any horror. A saint measures his success by his impeccability of alignment with Law and Virtues in body, mind, and soul. In his success, he finds joy...no matter what the external horrors may be that loom ahead.

God does not wipe the butt of people who cry out to him after a lifetime of evil. Grace is not easily understood; it follows Laws just as karma does. It is not handed out on street corners like a sandwich to the homeless. In order to understand the Laws of Grace, you must first understand the Laws of Karma. Yes, there are Laws within Laws. Mysteries and octaves of meaning are within the sub-Laws, and contain paradoxes not easily translated which are perfectly orderly.

The Laws of Karma will be explained in the next book in great detail. It is sufficient that the charts on karma be studied, with the concept of sins of omission and commission incorporated. It is entirely possible to have massive negative karma from both omission and commission regarding the same incident of evil choice. For instance, you may say something to a person that leads them to spiritual error (commission) and yet omit to tell them something that would lead them to holiness that you knew would counter-balance your error (omission.)

Your body reflects your spiritual personality decisions. Anytime your lower personality weakens, you can be sure that your spirit personality has become deviant. The dimensions can be dowsed on the true God scale to evaluate body/mind holiness which is downline from spirit holiness.

When it comes right down to it, a man chooses every day whether to be holy or evil. If he evaluates himself based upon past success or failure, then he is just making excuses to not be holy today. Or, if he just throws up his hands, saying that he knows he is just a worthless scumbag, he is really saying he wants to be his own god and is just too lazy to be holy today.

Being holy must become a habit that replaces evil habits of thought, emotion, speech, and action. If you start every day new with a prayer, and end every day with holy thought/actions, then you will steadily become more holy. If you are in the habit of waking up with thoughts of hate, perversity, or depression (hate inward) then you must decide to quit indulging...if you want to garner any personal power of holiness. If you are in the habit of ending each day with a sense of "I've had a tough day...I have a right to think feel act any way I want" then you are indulging in habits that must be broken lest you allow your spirit to be devoured by the selfish spirits that whisper such thoughts to ready ears.

Obsessions are merely the meals of demons, and the obsession vortices are merely the piranhas swirling the bloody waters of dying souls. God has been merciful to all humans, and yet his mercy may appear cruel at times when people don't get what they think they need.

We must trust that God knows what we need. If a man keeps his spirit pure...he has all he needs or wants. The rest, the physical stuff, is all gratis, after the fact of spirit. A holy man gives thanks for his abundance...all the while realizing it is the spirit of abundance that helps him to manifest what he needs to fulfill God's plan on earth.

More later on these topics.

Can't do book with clarity. Major errors made.

A person can speed up his Rapture moment in time:

By destroying his mold to 100% deviation from Divine Megaman Mold....

His body will be in a time of personal split from Holy Sound/Name/Form...

Creating a Micro-Spark as he separates from all that is holy.

That Spark/Catalyst creates a monster

Out of his thoughts/desires of that moment that monster is a being that severs the humanoid's Earth Screen (Perception Reality Anchor) from the person's body; and uses it as a window of an Inertia Wheel for a desired outcome.

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9

PERSON'S SCREEN

PLUS EVIL DOUBLE/DESIRE MONSTER

CORE SEED ACT is when a person loses his SCREEN by his own DESIRE MONSTER/DOUBLE.

Steam builds by adding conflict to destroy other people:

By the monster's whispering lies, or

By sexually molesting other people so as to drink their Generativity Substance.

Outcome is difficult to prevent after the mid-point of inertia;

Desired Outcome of Revenge (For example)

Defilement

Power over Others

Owning a Person

The monsters travel at night,

Because the victim's aura is in a lower energy state and can be more easily penetrated.

They enter the victim's abnormal auric openings that occur:

During Rage

Hate

Or when Onanism is preceded by fantasies of:

Homosexuality....Voyeurism....Sado-Masochism....Bestiality....Pedophilia.

A living possession may occur in the victim:

--As the monster devours him to feed a desired outcome/obsession.

--If they don't become possessing spirits they wander the world and torment people by whispering lies and stimulating hate and perversity.

--If people don't listen to the thoughts or feed the obsessions, the monster will go away.

NOW SPIRAL:

If the deviation is 100% to the Future then you have created a monster.

If 100% deviated in the Past, it goes through the Split Time Crack to the Asuras who are the carriers of the Anti-Christ forces.

What makes a person go to the PAST versus the FUTURE??:

The "Create your own reality" belief system combined with the belief that there is no evil.

This doesn't create an inertia wheel but it is where the...

August 8: Yips; Doppelgangers

YIP (LEFT) DOPPELGANGER IN HADES:

Check these going backwards on the Time/Space spiral.

Due to Power over Purity Hell Door #1, they dowse as Fallen Beings.

Check for:

Controllers in Hades that have them.

% of Yips that you are:

Yip Curse carrier: Dark Force Seeds. If you are cursed then you have a seed, check body parts.

Yip Sack: When the curses surround you they make a shroud; a sack around you.

Yip feeder lines:

CURSES have to be measured by Direction, with the Inertia Wheel or at an Angle.

You can check all manner of curses at an angle.

One has to bypass normal body mechanisms to dowse.

These seem to affect your nerves; arms and legs and you can feel weak.

Other Doppelgangers:

YIP-RIGHT DOPPELGANGERS: These are another variety of Yip and can be read like the other curses, up to the right.

Yip Water Demons:

Notes:

--Are finding demons walking the Earth. Normally they inhabit people but it is now easier to knock them off once they are on the earth, as it is very traumatic (for an exorcist) to go to Hades for a demon that is the puppeteer for humans in Hades.

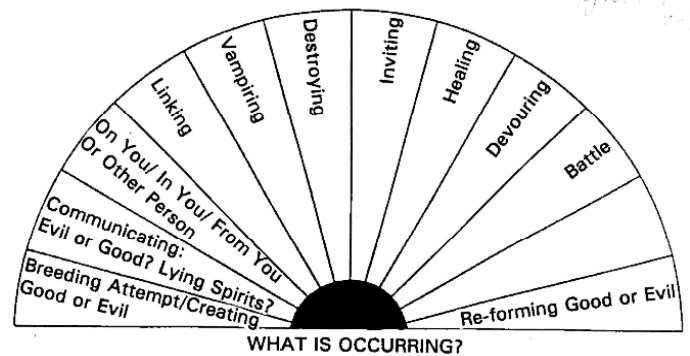

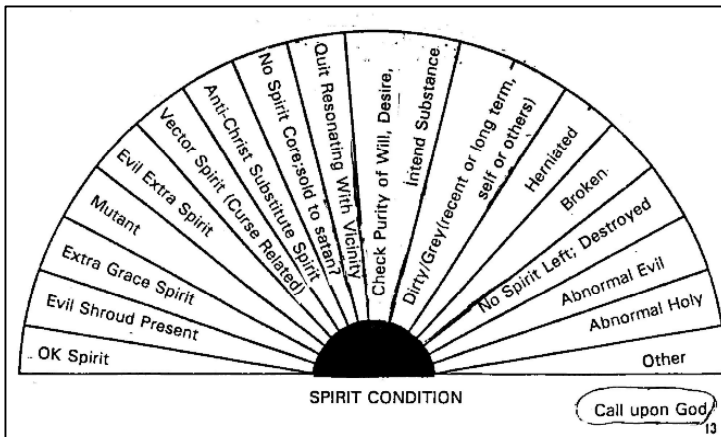

They can torment innocent people. Hades is not completely open, but a bunch were brought to the surface which were affecting us. They were partly linked to people who had sold themselves to Satan, so, (--) Is finding them around people who had sold themselves, or found inside them. There is more than one kind, most are Asura underlings.

All are saying the same thing, "I killed Linda, but she escaped, escaped, escaped..."

They are all mad. They are trying to run from her.

Done: rounded up and blasted.

August 11: "Spirit Condition"; "What is Occurring" Charts; Dowsing Nucleus/NOW/Identity

11 AUGUST 1995 Notes

When you wake in the morning, douse to see where your NUCLEUS is, and bring it back.

(For Nucleus explanation also see Charts and LESSON "1995 JUNE" June 16)

Check to see if any other person's Nucleus is on you or if any are floating in the room.

Do: If you find a Nucleus for example, globbed on your shoulder;
Push it back toward the owner with an elongation of your own etheric body.
Then, give it a little shock to shake it loose, (and) give it a kick.

The most common time for the NUCLEUS to wander is the early morning between 5-7 AM.

Just kick it back as it shows a weakness of the dreaming mind as the person dreams.

When near the owner's body, it will tend to snap back in.

You can remove every song in yourself, and you can reform them if you are not careful.

When people (on the NOW chart) are pulled to Limbo, not Purgatory

Sometimes (it is) for purification (and/or) destruction of parts.

The same Precursor Thoughts will open the door to Hades...

And that is where you will find all of your old friends... "Hey there...!"

Sometimes the Holy Beings take the Point to Purgatory to show its past errors to teach.

Some people expand their Identity Ball

(Which should be tight inside one's head), until it gets bigger and bigger and fills a whole house.

It has no boundaries so it is of no use.

It then embraces all the darkness within it.

Notes (as were originally typed)

➤ Spine from Nucleus: Demon Orgasm mechanism ruptures part of spine and the spine floated-out down and out.

➤ Sometimes the Holy Beings remove the spiritual spine and leave a Point glued that doesn't have any place to go to.

It is bad to do that in many ways because it has to do with your perceptions, your ability to perceive spiritually, but that is sometimes the only way to stop the Demon Orgasms.

➤ This doesn't have anything to do with the soul, but the lower anatomy.

➤ Sometimes the Holy Beings will leave half a spiritual spine, if a person is not real emotional;

They might go over (below) the heart, and burn the spine from the waist down.

They burn it to the level that a person cannot control.

➤ If a person gets out of the habit of having emotional and physical Demon Orgasms they might be able to have the spine healed.

The Spiritual spine relates not to prana but to levels of perception.

➤ People see, think, and feel with their spiritual spine all the time. It is like what gives you warning if danger is around,

➤ It produces a symptom like nausea relative to the level and type of disorder that is perceived.

➤ A cough when dowsing means your spiritual spine is perceiving something at the chest or throat.

➤ Uterine or bladder sensations of disorder mean that you have a well-defined spine that goes all the way down.

You can think of your Identity Core (see Chart page 103)

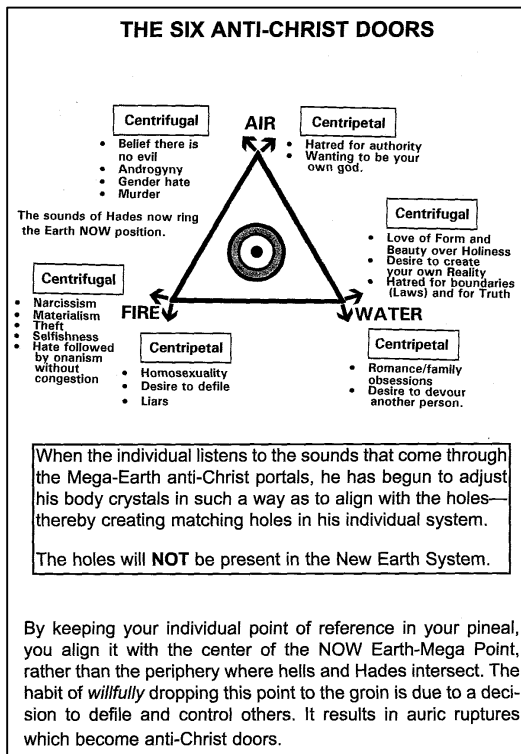

As in some ways a thermometer to scan your environment.

It can go up and down your spine like playing the piano.

It is like a keyboard, or thermometer used to evaluate the situations.

August 13: "6 Anti-Christ Portals"; "Rapture Key" Charts from "A Prophet's Story"; Notes

13 August, 1995

If humans align their templates with the Template of the ruptured Earth:

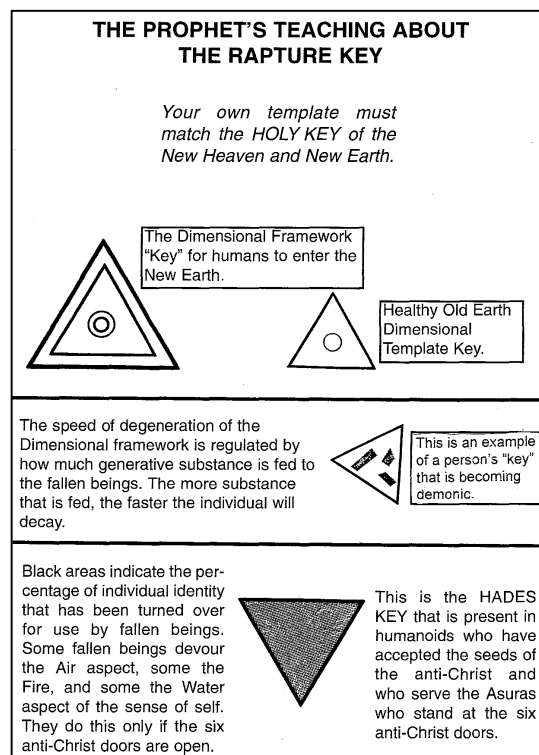

Then they have opened themselves to the six ← Anti-Christ portals so as to receive Anti-Christ seeds into their body dimensional framework, poisoning the Air, Fire, Water, and Communicative substances.

The person becomes a portal through which the fallen beings drink the Earth's life-force. This is done through the use of Sexual/Creative substances and obsessions that produce ruptures in the human aura.

(At that point):

NOW IS IN DEMON TIME: The speed of degeneration of the Dimensional framework is regulated by how much generative substance is fed to the fallen beings.

The more substance that is fed, the faster the individual will decay.

Other World Parallel at #18 Left (Dimension) Doppelganger Variant

Formed by a common dimensional link 5 years ago 18L deviation....(Break in text) and to Hades.

All hells have a Hades communication. If someone goes completely maximum on a hell rupture, they will swing then to Hades as a rebound and at the Hades door the vector can tap the person. (Break in text)

There are hells in different positions with different mechanisms i.e.

In Split Time that are off the side of Split Time.

Future Rapture Wall, with hells off of that; split. (sic)

There are hells associated with:

Animal Time/Space Tube and

Plant Time/Space Tube,

The Mineral Time/Space Tube not seen.

The primary ones that seem to affect the Doppelgangers are the Centrifugal Hells.

Animal Hells are the underground hells mapped before.

The Tethered Hells seem to be CENTRIPETAL:

Tethered hells which are linked to the Hades door above the Time/Space Tube.

FALLEN ANGEL SPARK

Removed four.

Off of these renegade fallen angel sparks one person was being tapped of Grace substance.

We have to destroy the identity of the vessel that held the fallen angel identity.

Once one Dimension goes bad, you can receive all kinds of disorder.

FUTURE EVIL HUMANOID LINKS:

Substance....Webs....Demons....Beasts

Pull people out of the Beast Container which is like a body.

Now one can go back to the Core of the whole Doppelganger, where was found one person.

Pray for healing and all downline fallen beings, evil beings and foul creations.

The (final and worst) Doppelganger is yet to find.

Another one (was found) because it had a CASE around it.

The case was a person's body that made it hard to see.

This one had three primary cores in that the Asura had direct lines, actually lived in three people.

Each one had a case and there was a case around that:

ASURA INCARNATE CASE with Hatchlings out.

Behind it all is one person's identity.

At #20 Right (Dimension): 54 Fallen angel sparks are connected.

Remove vampire lines/filaments from core to infected people.

FUTURE EVIL HUMANOID IDENTITY CORES

OBSESSION BEAST CONTAINER: All the people together form one Obsession Beast.

Each Incubus/Succubus forms a Mobius. This is what gives power to a curse when a succubus/an incubus join together,

Curse Directional Power is dependent upon generativity of the male and female who have joint demon orgasms, and don't even have to realize it. You can be across the country and someone pulls your chain. If someone responds to an Incubus/Succubus in the environment, that is all it takes. (Break in text.)

The thing they crave is God's power because they are swimming in a sea of death with no joy, light, nothing, but emptiness and they crave what they are severed from. They get it through free will, people choosing to feed them. When they feed them they remove some of the dimensional matter from the earth that is supposed to be used for the creation of the New Earth and Heaven and if it is not stopped, there will be no New Heaven or New Earth. (Break in text)

The Rapture may be the time when all matter is destroyed, not just separated, between Hades and New Heaven and New Earth if the devoured matter exceeds a certain point, and that is what we have to look at. The more ways we can illustrate this (we will), even if we are redundant.

(Sn) opened the Anti-Christ doors until (---) allowed her to be the eye of the needle and four people joined forces to facilitate the curse. An obsession must also form an inertia wheel.

Do: Map the time the obsession developed, then the inertia wheel developed (sic).

The Eye of the Needle person bodily arranges curse manifestation. They may not even know what they are doing.

All (Sn) ever thought was that she was sympathetic with (La) and (that she had a) crush on RP, and would never have imagined that she would want G dead.

Evil enters slowly and then people don't know what they are doing, and they do something of great danger. Like when (La) opened the door when police were in the street hollering to G to hide, that is the kind of thing. It was about 43% manifested as of today and 95% manifest when the hired killer was on the porch on July 30.

You might see part of the picture when clearing, a vampire line, a beast demon or devil; so you whittle away and it weakens the whole structure. What (we) had to do by facing the world of (the un-)imaginable, was to fight it a piece at a time until we weakened the structure. It doesn't just do to remove the Eye of the Needle, because they will find another, or to just remove obsessions, as they reform them.

You only need three people.

1) To obsess: Desires

2) To Plan: Wills

3) To Act: Becomes the Eye. Three people are needed.

The beginning (of this was when), the heart, seven-nine months ago, RP obsessed, (La) planned and (Sn) acted. Even though the obsession and inertia wheel was there, it couldn't have brought it into physical manifestation unless they had the Eye of the Needle.

When returning from Mexico, (Sn) decided to take action. (Because she) saw forming the obsession of RP and the planning was imbedded in her (from) (La), and she decided to act.

The Eye of the Needle has to know more about (the target) to be a strong one. They tried various Eyes.

There can be more than one Eye of the Needle. Right now, there are three other smaller Eyes.

Unknown people with sexual obsessions can infect the pool. Now there are 8 planners and there used to be 10: (Ji, Fn, Jmc, Do, K and someone behind A: --daughters, Bz, Mgr, Na, Ji's brother, Jg, Jeg, Gar, Nob, and someone behind Do and behind the primary 8 are the facilitator planners behind the core.

There are 60 planners, 60 feeding sexual energy. Cec was knocked down from 10 key (planners) due to the others turning on him. They got scared of him and disengaged from his saying d was the Anti-Christ. Bz also was knocked from the 10. Bz split from La because La testified that F was a branch member of the Koresh gang. Bz knew it wasn't true and she was afraid they were wanting to kill d. Another reason was because of the letter to me and M that Cec thought d was the Anti-Christ child, she became afraid of d being murdered as well.

1) Disable the eye of the needle. In order for the eye to be really powerful they have to have a male counterpart that is an incubus. Every Incubus and Succubus that form a mobius has the potential to set this up again.

The reason that Ji was pulled into the work: for five years she has had the Anti-Christ doors open. There is a law regarding that you cannot destroy anything unless it attacks you, at least in the higher realm (which is a) higher, human law. You can only destroy that which is destroying you. Because of that, she had to be drawn in, in the deepest way, into LG to start with and then the holy being network.....(Break in text).

There are laws we hardly understand. For instance why is it that a human has to pay the price for elaborate dark force synergies such as the Anti-Christ? In a sense a human didn't pay the price, except partially. Just as the Anti-Christ must enter through human decision, so must Christ enter through human decision. Therefore, the powers are balanced. If a human decides to take on Christ Consciousness then the powers of Christ will be given. If a human decides to take on the Anti-Christ consciousness, then the Anti-Christ powers will be given. But there is also a law that you must be told and warned so that you may choose intelligently. Because of that, back in 1990, LG was told what to say to warn people about the moon gnomes, etc. Even people that made mistakes after that were given more chances because your guilt depends on how much you know at the time of action and the amount of power that is opposing you versus your own power that desires to do rightly.

So people who were crushed were rebuilt over and over again. But it was only because of that day in New Mexico when LG prayed all night and said, "Use me Lord, for the salvation of humanity, destroy all in me that would oppose the Christ returning to Earth. Use me as a vehicle for your manifestation even though I do not understand how it is possible, or how I may be of use, even though I know that I am contaminated like everyone else on the Earth and defective from birth, I give what is left to be a vehicle and I will do what you tell me to do, even though I do not understand." It wasn't just said, it was with every fiber of desire, will and conscious decision of what it meant to be annihilated as a human, because to be directed, submitted and destroyed in relationships of what you realize is part of the human experience so that only what facilitates the plan of God is left....and in no waking hour does such a being not think about duty.

Since that day there have been mighty powers against us and with us. She almost met a second death with the hired killer and had they not sent out the (word?) of success...they would have come back, and they have. Not just for her but for us. They haven't won the war, they have won some battles. They have caused all of you to suffer and have certainly caused her to suffer. They have taken over (almost all) her children, every family member, but they haven't won the war, and we haven't won it either. In order to win the war, we are going to have to stay alive on this plane. We are going to have to shut individual Anti-Christ doors so that people can hear the Word of God. We cannot shut the Earth Mega Doors.

We are going to have to educate people, which is a major challenge and inspire them in that education, so they don't make the same mistakes that we have made. You can know a lot and you might know right from wrong and what is facilitating the plan of God and what isn't, but unless you have inspiration and desire to follow the plan of God, then it seems overwhelming with all the sounds of the grid, and forces against you that whittle away on you night and day. She knows how they do, they whittle away until you are exhausted from fighting them.

But we stand a good chance of winning the war. The outcome of which would be that there would be a New Heaven and New Earth, and not just an earthly hell. It is not just the salvation of people from the earthly hell, but salvation of people for the New Heaven and New Earth.

Now she is digesting curse materials. Her voice is harsh and her mouth is starting to scab. But when these curses are digested, then a lot of inertia for tracking us night and day should back off. People's desire to kill should fall down. Pretty soon we will know where we stand in the curses.

PRAY that all your Dimensions Left, Right and Communicative be healed and aligned with God.

Think of them as a circle with a dot.

One is like a mirror Left and Right and that loops them together is the Communication substance.

There should be a container around them,

Like an aspect of the magnetic field, each dimension;

Like two discs, circles with dots, looped together with communicative substance;

And then a sphere around each one that has to do with centrifugal and centripetal.(Break in text)

August 17: Birth Ethers/Reasons for Losing Substance Chart and Notes

17 August, 1995

BIRTH ETHERS: Birth ethers relate to the PERSONAL BOOK OF LIFE.

We can dowse how much we were born with, and how much we have left.

Losing one's Ethers is due to: Resonation with evil demon orgasm precursor thoughts relating to Materialism.

There are seven key reasons that people lose Ether substance.

The Ethers are actually lost in hells/Hades/Purgatory---as opposed to other people---Because that is where other people links are located.

← (Chart from "A Prophet's Story")

Key Reasons for Losing Ether Substance

1. GREED
2. HATE
3. CARNAL EXCESS

Carnal excess includes :

Gluttony
Belief that the body is All
Love of money and things, and
Any form of sexual excess.

4. ROMANTIC OBSESSIONS
5. CURSING OTHERS BY VISUALIZING A FUTURE EVENT.
6. LACK OF MENTAL BOUNDARIES
7. OBSESSIVE ONANISM WITHOUT CONGESTION.

Number seven is separate from #3 and is completely different in that its purpose is not to satiate a desire. Its purpose is to devour holiness by opening the gates of hells through individual Earth Hologram Doors on the body.

Carnality could be those with sexual obsessions, but maybe they do it because they are self-indulgent and enjoy pornography.

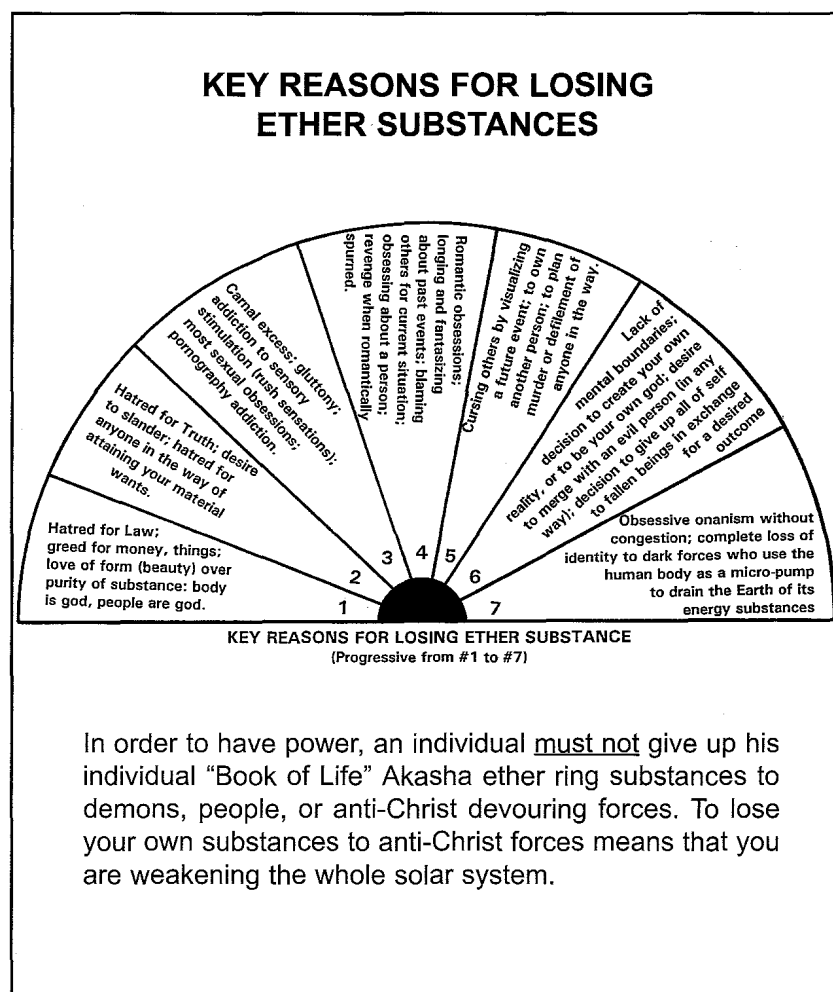

But, the onanism without congestion is not even usually considered pleasurable; it is almost like a duty to Satan instead of a pleasure. In fact a person feels worse afterwards which you could think would discourage it.

Whereas in the carnality obsessions the person tends to feel better afterwards. (Does a person get surly or cheerful?)

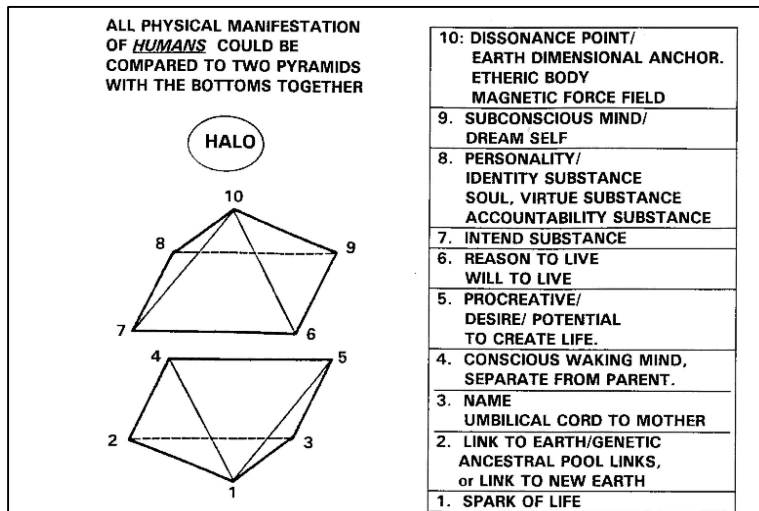

DO: Check what percentage of Ether you had as of yesterday and the angle of deviation.

We were worked on today, but we need to keep checking our ethers.

BIRTH ETHERS: Personal Book of Life: What we were born with, and how much we have left. I.e. Cel had 23%, Si 11%, A's 48%, but when G. had hers it was 99%, and (a child) has 100% there is a mystery. (La contamination weakened A's ethers). It is due to resonation with evil Demon Orgasm precursor thoughts which cause one to lose the ethers relating to materialism. There are seven key reasons that people lose ether substance.

NORMAL AND ABNORMAL LAYERS OF SELF

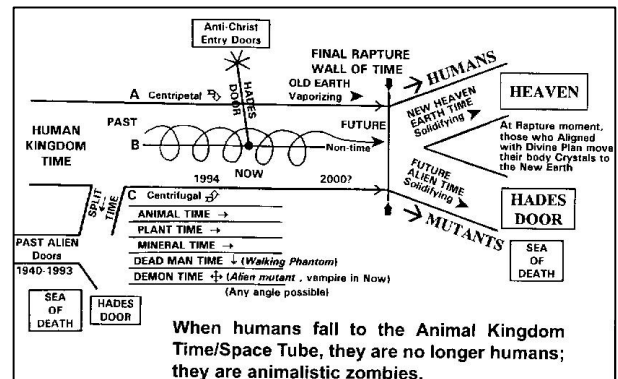

NORMAL AND ABNORMAL LAYERS OF SELF in Humans and Evil Incarnates

Look for contamination and vampire lines to and from other people and fallen beings on normal or abnormal layers of beingness, or between layers, where auric ruptures occur.

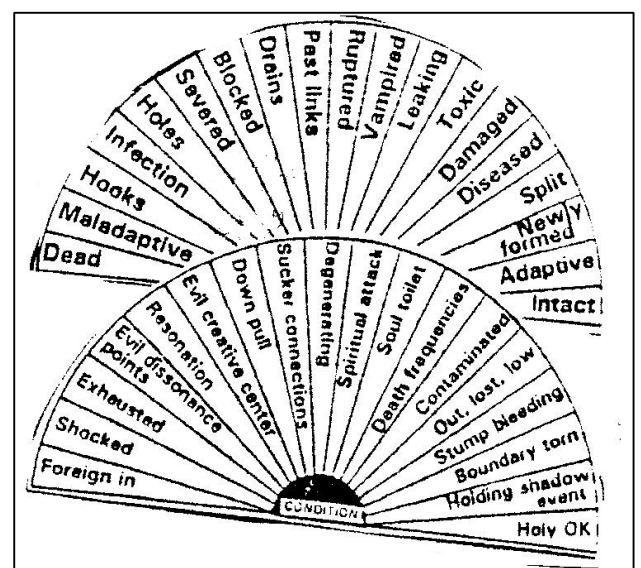

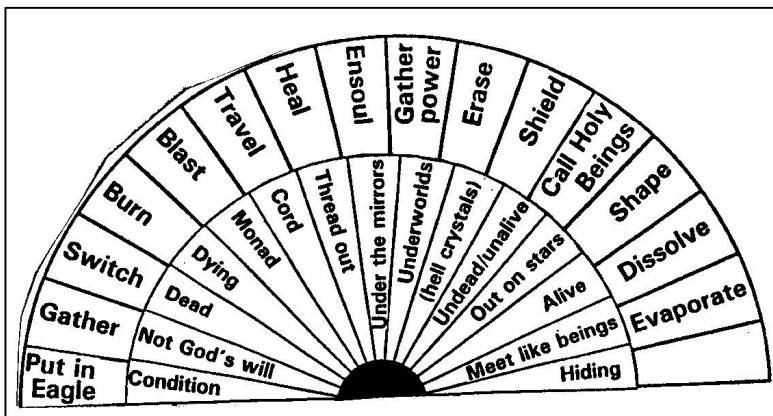

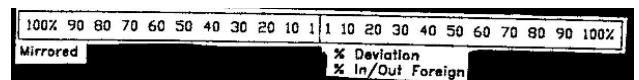

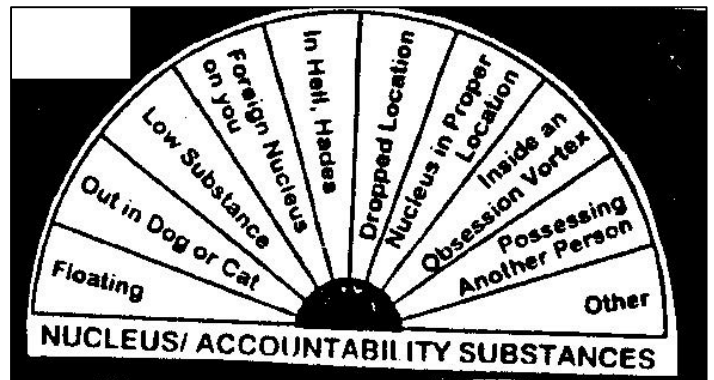

VICINITY FLOATERS :
Thoughtforms or desire elementals

Doppelganger formation occurs due to a change of the body tissues after an extra four alien dimensions are added to the normal human 31 dimensional framework. The four extra dimensions are the doorways that allow the Asuras to control human bodies. The four extra dimensions are added when a person rejects the holy three Laws and accepts the Anti-Christ Laws into his thoughts, emotions, and actions.

Excerpted from "A Prophet's Story"

When humans fall to the Animal Kingdom Time/Space Tube, they are no longer humans; they are animalistic zombies.
