THE TWO MINDS OF A HUMAN

WAKING MIND

The waking mind makes decisions to act, think and feel, independent of the dreaming mind but is influenced subconsciously by it. The waking mind causes the etheric body to travel to location of thought resonance (hells, the past, into a fantasy thought bubble, or to be with another person.)

DREAMING MIND

The dreaming mind wanders to the object of desire and is programmed by intention. It influences action as a component of the sub-conscious mind.

SANITY LINK

The sanity link is sometimes controlled by alien forces so that the person may appear sane but be calculating and evil. To remove the alien mind may produce worldly insanity but that is preferable to allowing it to harm others. Anyone who has been taken over by an alien mind has already lost his dreaming mind, waking mind and sanity link.

Introduction

Published 1995

ISBN 1-885-186-83-5

There are people on the Earth today who hunger for knowledge of the mysteries of life. They may have sought to satiate their thirst for Truth through paths of science, art, philosophy, psychology, religion, or social services. Many, at the close of a long career in such fields, hear the hounds of death at their heels while their spiritual bellies ache with emptiness. They go to their deaths longing for the unknown, trembling with angst.

It may seem preposterous for this book to presume to fill some of that void by bringing to the reader the fundamentals of the natural Laws of the soul. Indeed, few people have ever considered that the soul of man has a type of matter, not unlike his flesh, although existing in a different octave of being. Few people are aware that there are principles, similar to known physics principles, that control the dynamics of spiritual matter. Furthermore, such spiritual Laws have a watershed effect upon the physical body of man and the Earth.

Looking out upon the sea of disorder within the major cities, one cannot help wondering why violent crime is becoming increasingly prevalent, and what could bring it to a halt. During the sixties the cry of liberals was for more social services, as though money or food could be the panacea. Others cried for gun control, more prisons, or other material solutions. Despite all attempts at controlling societal disorder the ghettos swell with violence, and the traditional family structure is almost gone.

There are some idealists who look into the heart of this disorder as though it were full of signs of wonderful societal transformation for the better. And yet, teenage pregnancies, AIDS, infections, robberies, rapes, and murders all continue to increase in number. By what criteria are these idealists measuring their success?

If one looks back over recorded history, pockets of societal peace and order rise out of the pages with haunting similarities of belief systems. Within each religion can be found keys that lead to the inner teachings of the fundamental Laws of the soul and of life itself. The fighting between religions has been due to clinging to differences rather than searching for similarities. The obvious similarities are merely echoes of the underlying mysteries which have traditionally been reserved for an inner circle of the spiritual elite.

The knowledge of the inner mysteries of life, held within the core of each religion, was withheld from the masses because of the danger of sorcery if the principles were applied without integrity. Any power that can transform a man's soul can also destroy his body if directed with malefic intent. It was safer to allow the alchemical mysteries, which were the core of each religion, to be watered down in a harmless fashion, in a way that could possibly change man's behavior through fear or promise of heaven. It was assumed by the spiritual forefathers that a man who lived decently might learn to think decently. If a man thought in a decent manner, then, later he might be able to control the spiritual forces with integrity and not run amok with unbridled passion.

For this reason, most religions focused upon behavioral instructions, rather than the reasons that certain behaviors could block the path to spiritual power. People have, by and large, decided that the behavioral instructions are no longer valid and so have developed many blocks to the higher teachings.

It is now time to reveal the inner teachings, in hope that humans can understand the reasons for behavioral sanctions and thought control.

The Laws are immutable. Man cannot break these Laws, but can break himself against these Laws. This is happening today on a massive scale. A man can tell himself all day long that fire is not hot, and yet burn himself, should he put his hand in a flame. Just as there are lower laws of the visible component of fire, there are higher Laws of the unseen components of fire. Many a man has thrust his own unseen components into fire and burned away part of himself.

It is possible to heal oneself through the application of higher Laws. If humans can bring healing order to their own lives, then they can begin to bring order to their families and to their own culture. If they do that, they can start to bring order to the world.

Healing the world must start with healing the self. This book holds the ancient mysteries through which personal transformation is made possible, if the applicant is sincere and willing to change. The dilettante will benefit little, except through some intellectual titillation. This book was written not for dinner table discussion, but at great price, and with great courage, by a traveler within such mysteries, in hope of helping humanity out of chaos. Since it merely recites the principles of the mysteries, it shall be considered anonymously and gnostically written, for man cannot hope or presume to create the Laws and Virtues. This is not a “channeled” book, but a book reflecting the experience of the traveler through many realms as real as the one before your face.

If you also dare to be a traveler into unseen realms, this book will guide you safely.

1997 MAINE CONFERENCE AUDIO TAPED LECTURES BY ANONYMOUS

The following transcribed audio tapes were given to a small group of students with the intention of publicizing the information. This first edition also includes messages and letters written by Anonymous immediately after the Maine conference, sent out to the public with no restrictions. A companion book is: 1996 JULY MEXICO conference audio tapes transcribed. The following class lectures are transcribed either verbatim from audio tapes or from letters sent out by Anonymous.

NOTE:

- 1) All LESSONS, LECTURES and CHARTS were given in class, created by Anonymous.
- 2) Class Notes were taken by an auditor and not corrected by Anonymous and for these, it is suggested the reader also refer to the original, unabridged audio tapes.
- 3) Please keep in mind that this library is missing many of the original audio tapes (of which there were at least 50+ per month during a three year period) as well as some of the dowsing charts, Class Notes and Lessons. These books are compiled from the resources currently available to this library.
- 4) The best introduction to the dowsing system may be found in the Advanced Esoteric Spiritual Dowsing Books, I, II, III.

PRE-CONFERENCE LETTER TO PRESIDENT CLINTON
Excerpted from Smoke Signal from the Nut House I by Anonymous: June 15, 1996

Dear President Clinton;

There is a Taoist story about three brothers who were physicians. A neighbor asked the youngest one, "Which one of you is the most successful?" The youngest replied, "My oldest brother sees the spirit of disease and cures it before it manifests on the physical plane. He is therefore a failure in the eyes of the people and seems to do nothing. My middle brother cures disease when it is quite small, so that he appears to be only a man who treats light illnesses before they become complicated, and not to be hired for the more serious diseases. I am considered the most successful doctor because I treat by surgery and drugs and by leeches for the bleeding cures, when the disease has become too great to treat by the other two brothers. However, when I cure by such drastic methods such a fierce manifestation of disharmony of the body, then illness will reappear, because the spirit of the disease has been fed by the violence of my treatment. Therefore, I am the least successful doctor in the eyes of Tao, but the most successful in the eyes of man".

As the President, you know that the best war is one that is never fought, but is averted. As for the societal diseases that cost our country billions in prisons and welfare programs, the best budget balancer would be to look at the spirit of the problem that manifests in people before they become rapists, drug addicts, or third generation welfare recipients. To look at the spirit of a man is not to psychoanalyze him or feed him milk, it is to examine the roots of what made our country great and what is making our country ill today...one person at a time. For a country is but the sum total of the people it contains; if those people within the country do not care about the turn of events that I am to describe, then they have become the disease in the body of our civilization rather than the cure, which would be like the spiritual immune system.

Materialists, even within the church, have always feared a person who looks at the spirit of things rather than the overt manifestation. The inquisition, the witch hunts at Salem, and I must say the organizations such as the Cult Awareness Network are all nothing more than examples of people who live in fear that their materialization of beliefs is somehow threatened by people of a different country, race, creed, or religion. To some people, Catholics and Mormons are cults; to some people all churches should be burned or banned. The burning is certainly in full swing. The other type of hell, the freezing of freedom of religion, is also in full swing both by government agencies and by ignorant bigots who think they can control the beliefs of others through slander and libel.

That wars often are due to the fighting between faiths is not a reason to give up faith; rather, it is an indication of a need to examine the commonalities of all major religions rather than the difference. That was my purpose when I started teaching publicly and through writings: to find the cores of civilization that are found in the major religions so as to rejoice in the belief in God that is present in all of them. That I was to be labeled a dangerous terrorist due to my mission is the irony; my mission was to bring peace by bridging the gap that exists between the Jew, the Muslim the Protestant, the Catholic. Had I not had faith in my own God of Lord Jesus, I would have died of despair during the last few years from the tortures I have undergone and continue to undergo.

The wars of our history can teach us a great deal about how to avoid such wars. When Hitler began his "camps" the oil cartel combined with the pharmacology cartel to form an American money base to fund sadistic medical experiments on innocent men, women and children who were imprisoned by the Nazis. Out of those drug and surgery testings came approval for many drugs that are prescribed today. The pharmacology industry then was able to manipulate the AMA by money incentives to do its bidding. The foul marriage of the medical/pharmacology and oil industries created a system that could lobby for government change through the use of campaign money and dramatic advertisement. As a result, we have a government that is strongly protective of such moneyed interests.

To gain control of oil assets is an obvious reason to start a war if those politicians paid with special interest money have an obligation to pay back their benefactors with votes. If someone wanted to increase the defense budget, so as to form an eventual military government, then it could easily do so by creating terrorist events that promote a desire in the people for more police protection. By creating insane terrorists through the use of mind-altering drugs or microbials, then the government can assure the citizens of this country that a special task force is needed to prevent such attacks. The special task force would, of course, be allowed to remove the constitutional rights of the people suspected of terrorism, without due process of law.

This has happened to me. As a result of a complex series of orchestrated events, I have lost my livelihood, my family, my home, the use of my telephone and mail, my reputation, my ability to work as an R.N. (my former profession), my health, and almost my life. I write this today because I want to let others know that if I am suddenly carted off raving mad or in a pine box, that my story will be in your hands, Mr. President, and you would have made the decision to finish me off.

Almost anything that happens down line from you, Mr. President, you can say is something you were not in control of at the time or that you were not informed. Therefore, lest you have advisors who hide things from you, I give you my story.

I grew up in a poor Protestant family in the area of Oklahoma City known as "Packing Town" for the three meat plants that let off the constant odor of feces, burned hair and hide, and sulfuric smoke that filled our lungs with pneumonia-causing bits of God-knows-what. I was baptized at the Exchange Avenue Baptist church, and went to local schools. I later lived in the Will Rogers Courts housing projects, and left home early to work as a live-in maid and nanny before the age of fourteen.

I bought my first typewriter by fifteen, and submitted stories and poems for publication with some success. However, like many people in my social class, I married in high school and had two children by eighteen years of age. Just like many of your Arkansas constituents, who started with humble beginnings but had a feisty spirit, I did well over the years: went to college, traveled abroad, became a success as a critical care nurse and then administrator of a hospice. While working with dying people, I began to feel the lure of the study of the soul and spirit, as I held the dying to my heart and felt the spirit leave the corpse...to where? I began to notice little things, like the top of a person's head was warmer if he still had his soul or spirit inside the dead body, even if he was embalmed. Hmm...I began to read the writings about soul and spirit from every cultural viewpoint.

Eventually, with five children on acreage in Logan County, Oklahoma, I devoted fulltime to my study of the spirit and soul, and the interaction that such parts of self had with the physical body. I studied illnesses and pondered the spiritual reasons for illnesses. I began to consider the theory of morphic fields, in which communication can exist between two people of similar morphic field resonance, like dialing a cellular phone. I figured that if that is so, then illness can be transmitted by a morphic field of the illness being put into a person's energy field or put in the morphic field of even a whole town of people.

I put together my homemade frequency generators and studied the effects of putting my Polaroid picture (which I assumed could hold my morphic field resonance) on a copper panel while I adjusted waveform and frequencies and colored lights to impact the picture. I found I could cure some physical disorders by treatments on the morphic field picture, which I assumed must work on the spirit of man rather than the coarse body of flesh.

Eventually I found that a person could change his own waveform and frequency and other aspects to pull himself out of a disease state, without using a generator or lights. I began to teach people techniques to train their minds to switch waveforms and frequencies, so as to bring their spirit selves back into harmony, since disease is disharmony. I learned I could sing out illnesses, and could direct some healing out of my hand with the correct waveform and frequency so as to help another person.

Eventually, I found that many things weaken the spirit of a man: electromagnetic pollution, some foods and preservatives, surgery, emotional shock, and medications. Even some patterns, such as stripes, form a waveform when the eyes gaze upon them that can weaken or strengthen the spirit and from there down line the body. That is because the brain tends to resonate with what it hears, sees, smells, and touches. Also, I found that that spirit is weakened by the thoughts of others, which project out like a subliminal radio station around an agitated person. I found ways to prove this in front of groups, so that people could learn to be responsible for helping their fellow man by right thought and emotion.

Eventually, I learned how to develop aspects of spiritual sight in myself and others, through what I call (and Rudolf Steiner called) spiritual science. Many things that I learned had to be couched in metaphors common to religion, medicine, or poetry. I could not find all the ways to explain what I was learning to detect and affect, except through common words, which scarcely represented the significance of the importance of the study of spirit.

It was at that time that I noticed the house was being bombarded by some type of electromagnetic waveform. I could detect it using common electronic instruments, and yet it was difficult to deflect. Crop circles of burned white grass appeared in the yard and the children began to have nightmares. I began to have episodes of illness that included bleeding through the skin, weakness and confusion. I struggled to find out the cause, but couldn't seem to see until...

On a trip to California with a group of students three years ago, I became deathly ill. My flesh fell off in patches, my eyes hemorrhaged, my kidneys bled, and I was hallucinating. Later, my student (a) told me that he had been informed by (b) that I was being "tested" by a government group. She had begged him to leave my teachings, to move with her to New York so as to avoid becoming a "test subject". She said he would die or go mad, just as the others would, if they did not get away from me, since I was a targeted subject.

After coming to my room in the dead of night and tearfully confessing the fear that he had for my safety, (a) decided to move to Oklahoma and try to protect me. Eventually, we held a marriage ceremony on his rooftop apartment in Chicago with a group of students who came to help him move to Oklahoma.

There in Chicago I experienced another episode of sudden and profound illness. I lost my hearing, my sight was going, and I felt numb. My Chihuahua lay on the floor, howling and having seizures after eating out of my bowl of food that had been prepared by (c), a federal government employee. No one else was ill.

I was to recover my ability to read and write after three months, but I continued to have repeated episodes of illness that varied in intensity and in symptomology. (a) and I lived in a house in Guthrie, Oklahoma and shared expenses with (b) at the time. After being followed by what appeared to be government cars, and seeing guns pointing at the house, I sent my children away for fear for their safety.

I am sure now that I was given drugs to induce confusion, and there was a low level of rap music being played 24 hours a day of which I could not find the source. The television would not work for the constant electromagnetic whine which was audible all the time in the house. Radios could not be used for the static whine, and the lamps would turn on suddenly without being switched on.

A blue light from a car outside at night was beamed to the house, and then I would see men in black standing out in the back of the house in the shrubs near Cottonwood Creek. My husband built me a coffin sized box in the wall, in which he and (b) placed me when I was ill and they had to go somewhere. They said they were doing it to keep the government from grabbing me, because I had denounced the Waco massacre publicly in my classes. I was always too ill to argue, during those times, or sedated.

During those times in the wall above the closet in the bedroom, I began to drift off to sleep and awakened in the heat, unable to breathe the stale air, choking and screaming to be pulled out of my grave, confused and vomiting in the dark, unable to move for the size of the box was smaller than a coffin.

That coffin was much smaller than the attic box, which was my previous hiding place. The attic had been broken into one night by men with a roofing ladder and hatchets, and so I could no longer hide there. I hid under the kitchen sink sometimes, when there would be a knock on the door that I feared was the Gestapo.

You see, it was like the Gestapo. Just as many groups have been destroyed by targeting the leader with slander, so had my small group been destroyed. The newspaper reported that I was a Waco branch, there were forged documents taken to a child custody hearing of one of my students that were publicized as though fact, I was accused of child abuse by even my own relatives who were informed wrongly about why I was so reclusive. Certain former associates began a complex slander phone-calling/faxing/forging documents campaign to smear me to anyone who had ever known me, with detectives delivering "packets of information" to church, friend and family. I was later told by (a) that they were paid to do so by the same group that had sent (b) to the monastery I had formed.

I began to notice odd symptoms in those around me: strange skin rashes, mental euphoria states for no reason with slobbering and agitation, joint deformities with strange postures with elbows held out from the body and the feet splayed out. Skin tumors in some grew and endocrine problems surfaced. Only those people in the monastery or my house took on the symptoms, so I sent people away from me, for their safety, but did not reveal my suspicions.

I began to see that (b, c and a) and others would meet when I would be put in the box. I managed to crawl out, with great difficulty, and saw they were meeting and talking downstairs. I found poisonous substances hidden under the counter, and I saw (b) put poison in my veins during my hospitalization in Dallas for a foot injury. I knew no one would believe me, and I also knew that it was part of the "testing" so I was at a loss at how to protect myself. I did order (b) to move out.

My three good friends from the east coast helped us to move to Wyoming, to get away from the terrorism directed at us, I hoped. (d) was the only other person who had the strong physical symptoms as I did...she moved with me and (a) to run our publishing business out of Wyoming. I had difficulty thinking and writing because of constant bleeding, fainting, and confusion so profound that I could not tell a day from a week. (d) and I were so ill that we could not tell that the money from the business was being directed to four sub-companies, that our mail was diverted along with company checks to (b).

The culminating event was an argument between (e and a) in which was to end with (a) being shot in the head while I watched from a darkened pantry, in fear for my life and the life of my son. The horror that I have faced since then is that my little Catholic son was held as a hostage that (e) promised I would never see again if I revealed the murder. I now see he kept me alive to frame me for the murder by alleging I was insane.

I have been poisoned, drugged, raped, beaten, slandered and terrorized by (e), but I have not become a murderer. He thought it was all over for me when he talked my brother into putting me in Griffin Hospital for emergency detention, alleging I was suicidal or homicidal. I was released after three weeks of constant observation without medication.

I have tried to get help from the police because of the telecommunications fraud, the mail diversions, the stealing of my youngest child by (e's) parents who refuse to raise him according to the tenants of his Catholic faith, the stalking, the attempted burglaries/forced entry into my home and the home of (d). Even 911 refused to send a policeman when an unknown man with a box tried to break in the house last week. The phone calls are being diverted/monitored/blocked as are business faxes.

The slander continues. One of my former students that I had not seen for almost two years had written me last March to confess her involvement with the mystery terrorist group that was doing the "testing". She ended up dead on a train track. I was accused of her murder to my family and friends, even though I was in Arkansas at the time. No child care worker or family member will tell me where my son is being held and why I cannot have him with me.

The dog catcher came to get my beloved pet Chihuahua on false charges I abused animals. I have been accused of virtually every crime. You can be sure I will never be allowed to see my beloved boy at family gatherings, because there is no justice in this case.

No one has taken my deposition about my husband's death. They want to cover up the rest of the story. They do not want me to tell how (a) reported (c) had said that the government is putting mind-altering viruses in immunizations. They do not want me to tell how they said that the minds of the Jonestown and Waco members were altered by chemical and microbial warfare to such a degree that they had to be destroyed before a contagious insanity spread outside the compounds.

My position has been one of neutrality; I don't know who is behind the terrorism of innocent citizens. I hope that it is not the United States government. My fear is that we are developing into a military state of fascism, in which broad powers are being given to federal agents that allow them to experiment or destroy innocent citizens who might have been outspoken to criticize the government, as I was and am.

Were it not for my heartache over my missing son, I might have given up and just shut up. But, I fear for the future if what (a) said is true. I know (a) is dead and putting (e) into prison will not bring (a) back, but I am concerned that criminals often repeat crimes. I desire that my son be raised in his faith of Catholicism, and I grieve over the last three years of estrangement from family and the older children.

It is, of course, easier for you to assume that I am mad, and dismiss what I am saying, as do people who care little about government reform or the future of civilization. Thank heaven for watch dogs that keep an eye out for abuses of civil rights, like Frosty Troy of the Oklahoma Observer, and the ACLU. However, with enough paid witnesses and a secret police, anybody can disappear into a nuthouse or grave, and the rationalizations will abound from the smug public reading of a fictional news account.

It is the hope of the future that people think through what is going on today in the United States in regard to freedom of religion and freedom of speech. If anyone can be held under broad anti-terrorist legislated laws without due process, then we are in a police state. Nazi Germany should serve as a warning as to where we are heading if we think we can burn books and reject a religion; the Soviet Union was good at putting people into mental hospitals for the crime of speaking out. Or, perhaps planting a bit of heroin in a dissident's house would allow a new Turkish prison system to develop here.

A civilization is measured by how much justice is granted the least of its citizens. When one black is denied a job, when one woman is fired for being over 40 years old as a cocktail waitress, when one child is taken from his parents because a social worker does not like their religion, then we have a serious spiritual disease that has become a small eruption in the body of our country. Later, on, the disease may spring forth with mob rioting, looting and killing, where the surgical treatments are in the assassination of the persons exhibiting the symptoms.

You, Mr. President, can look at my case as just some poor demented nurse who needs "treatment" or you can order an investigation into the murder of my husband, into the group of terrorists who infiltrated my monastery, and see if the infections are from our own government or another.

I pray it is not ours. Even so, if it is, it can be healed before the scabs erupt and the disease pours out into the streets as foul, bloody water composed of mother's tears. We are one nation under God, aren't we? With that in mind, our forefathers prayers inscribed in the amendments to the constitution should lead us to their understanding of the importance of the spirit of a man and of a nation. The protection of freedom of speech and religion is the key to the preservation of the spirit.

I have lost most everything the world considers important, and yet I still have the spirit to fight for the freedom of others to not lose their possessions, their families, their health, their freedom. So, I would say I am rich, and I give thanks. My situation is just a symptom, and yet I have looked the fool to spell it out in order to warn others. I could have kept quiet. But it is the responsibility of a human being to speak out against injustice, or else injustice grows until it meets those people so smugly silent or blind. Then, they are quick to holler, but those who would defend them would have vanished. Oh! To know our President is the friend of those who struggle to understand the mysteries of spirit, and is not the silent enemy! I entreat you, Mr. President, to listen to this little fool before you, with a patient ear, for Chelsea's sake, if not for the sake of all the children of our country. For I have gone before you, the highest authority of our country...as a lowly beggar for justice, but I have also bowed before my Father in heaven, as well...in prayers for America.

Sincerely, (The author)

1997 MAINE CONFERENCE TAPE #1/Side A

.....but we are a generation of people that are being HAL'ed into believing if we don't feel comfortable then it must be bad. The problem with that is the prosperity philosophy, the Dale Carnegie, the Silva Mind Control, all this stuff is teaching people "If it feels good it must be good." In fact I saw a rock video of a song that says "If it feels good, it can't be wrong...."

Students' comments...."It's true, it is like this whole generation is ----"...A baby speaks...laughter

Anon: You know, the real danger, when I was looking...one of the experiments they did, I guess the Interpol/NASA group, I'm still not real sure who the organizers of the research projects on me were, but they are probably the same ones that affect you guys. The one key thing they did was to show me different people who were public figures and they would throw me to what they would consider like a time warp to the past or future and when they would throw me into the future I would see the probability of when they would die and how they would die. When they would throw me to the past and I would see their actual birth.

Remember that movie Altered States? I don't know if you saw it, where William Hurt was put in a flotation chamber for him to regress as he meditated. It was a UC Berkeley study, actually a true story. But I don't think it was all true in terms of.... supposedly he turned into an ape and something like a little amoeba; I don't know what it was. It was like a regression of types. There were studies like that going on in California involving putting people in isolation tanks filled with water and various fluids. The doctor I worked for in Oklahoma was Dr. "A" an MD who had studied at Rhine University; his Ph.D. studies. I did laser acupuncture for him, under his direction in Oklahoma City just before I got pregnant with (child).

He had studied in the invisible astronaut program, in that they had astronauts that accidentally through some....they were trying different force fields on astronauts and they disappeared! But they could see them on thermography. They were moving around inside the tank, and they didn't know if they should let them out of the tank. They were in like a cylinder, the way a space ship is shaped. So that began...that was back in probably the early 1970's, they started the invisible astronaut studies then. They kept those poor guys. They were still alive; it was like the Philadelphia Project.

What they were doing was trying the Philadelphia forcefields on the astronauts with the thought...because some of the people in the Philadelphia Project...they actually threw me into the Philadelphia Project and they had me see it as well. What I saw was so dreadful. On the ship; and I never saw the movie by the way, it was rented, but I couldn't watch it. So what I am saying to you, they showed me the silvery body substances. What they did, was inject the substances of the guys that were on ship that they had stored. It was a total lab rat project. Every man on the ship, every navy man had an eye biopsy or eye substance removed. (Pause) That door just flew open, a spirit just flew in.

What they did, they would show me films and they put me through a centripetal forcefield and I saw that it was so dreadful because (sighs) on the top floor the people just looked like what they called "Spumonied" where a person's bones melt. It is involving radioactivity; the forcefields they use. What happens is, they tend to lose their long and short bones and their flesh remains. So their bones melt and become like ----. The skull stays for a while because it has different matter. It is like there is a head, but they can't walk.

The reason the military was interested in it, it would incapacitate the enemy because their long bones dissolve first and they can't run. It is a slow, horrible death. So what happened was, the ones on the top floor, some had parts that had disappeared completely, like the arms and some were dead obviously. But they were screaming, and screaming and screaming and some of them, it is true, had their arms through the (forcefield) hole, trying to get out, the ones that were scraping to get out, their arms actually went through the hole because the walls in the forcefields they used, caused them to become translucent so they shoved their arms through....they were trying to get through the doors because the doors were sealed. It was part of the order. That some people would be sealed in the bottom, some would be sealed on every level of the ship. It was part of the order. They were doing an experiment.

What happened, the people would fight to get out. Some of them would have their arms out, and then when they cut the forcefield off, the arm actually did stick through because....and in some cases it rematerialized. But the men were in such pain, when they boarded the ship to evaluate the situation they just shot them all. They had to cover it up. But then most of the people who shot them were shot as well. It was down to just a very few.

In the hull of the ship where the most dreadful things....they were people who were pretty much intact but they were translucent you could see through them. They were crying and out of control, but you could put your hand through them, they were like ghosts. So that got the military and the space researchers interested in "Do they have to eat or drink?" So what they did was put some people in canisters, some sort of a container or they trapped them somehow in something and they did experiments on whether they had to eat or drink. That sort of thing. "Were they ghosts? Where they ---?"

They didn't have any idea. Most of them died. But some of them hung in a time/space warp and were still there when I was there.

They were so dreadful, so tragic and there were other studies that were just the same. Soviet Union did a lot of these type of studies. The way that they do it, they just have the different.....they are trying to block me now from saying it, there is something overhead, they are listening of course. But the core is, they found there is a link between the mind control program and the invisibility studies. The reason is obvious. If some of you were invisible, if you were like the Invisible Man and you could just walk into anybody's house and hey, what if rapists were invisible? What about that?

What if somebody could walk into somebody's home and tell them what to do in their own voice with a voice synthesizer? If the voice synthesizer gave you your own voice and it was in your head, wouldn't you think it was your thought? Of course, most people would. That is because most people, if they have a pleasure center stimulation simultaneously, they will do anything. Almost anybody on the Earth can be controlled by a laser pleasure center stimulation. The problem is, they get brain damage of a type. They often get their pituitary and pineal gland damaged like my (relative) is deformed from this. (Relative's) pineal and pituitary is burned out; the skin is all scaly because of the radiation. (The relative) was hit so hard that the radiation caused massive radiation burn so the skin looks like an alligator nearly. They really hit hard because they thought (this person) was a good subject.

The idea then became, that they would create these. Back in the 1950's, about 1957 maybe, they decided to see if they could create psychics and super-scientists. They put genetic material of people with unusual characteristics into key populations in the immunizations. Could they alter the DNA fragments that were maybe...see if you have a scientist that is particularly brilliant and you took his sperm matter and somehow you managed to...and I don't understand all the genetics, but it had to do with injecting DNA fragments of people with certain traits into the virus particles. But the key was, there was an animal intermediary in every case. For instance they injected the DNA of the scientists into a rabbit or something, given non-rejection drugs and then they developed a sub-product...and I'm no scientist, I'm just giving it the way I see it....then they put that into the immunizations. What they wanted to do was see if they could make people more intelligent by altering their genetic material.

They also wanted to see what would happen if they injected someone with alien material, so some of the population was injected in the Genesis project. Genesis: in other words a whole new world, a whole new world of engineering genetics. They wanted to see if the alien greys who had telepathic powers, they wanted to see if they could create telepaths. But they didn't realize the alien greys were actually future mutants that were human. They were just mutants, sterile mutants. They don't have a Y chromosome, they only reproduce by cloning.

They didn't realize...the scientists that did it had no idea that what they were doing was in fact bringing mutations from the future that were post nuclear to the present. It did not have a reliable outcome. You could put the same mutation in a hundred people and maybe 30-40 of them will kick it out and it won't have any effect. Maybe 10 of them would have the same effect that was produced in others and they have a throwback effect. In essence, say the Alien Greys could have an advanced human component plus a mutant deviant component. Some people would throw out the deviant component and keep the advanced component, others would throw both out and just be normal humans and others would keep both.

There was no reliable outcome in the genetic research in that some people became unusual in a positive sense, they did not look like mutants, they were more intelligent, more psychic because the evolution of humanity, since the alien greys came from the future; the evolution of humanity was, that people would become more psychic and they would also become...they would have an understanding, they would have a genetic knowledge.

They learned to put, instead of reading books, they learned to teach people through virus programs. They would just inject them with a virus and that would teach them. They had primal knowledge systems that were like group mind systems. It was like they were all on the computer! They would inject them with something at birth and the child would then have the knowledge of like a major internet thing. It sounds good but it was bad.

What happened was the child had no.... they had to teach to children how to discern what to listen to at any given time or they became autistic. A lot of the children who were second generation Genesis Project have become autistic because it was like they were exposed to a massive internet all the time. It is like they don't know what to discern, what to listen to at any time. It is like a Tower of Babel to be on a constant internet. Children's neurological systems are totally screwed up.

The children of the baby boomers that became autistic; well some of them became autistic. The autistic ones they wanted were totally shocked-out from the genetic shock of the viruses that came along with the Genesis Project immunizations of their parents. But there is no way to reverse that.

The problem is, some of the scientists, such as (B) from NASA were involved in the space project obviously, because it involved aliens. (B) was involved in the alien project at Roswell first hand and the immunizations post-Roswell and the problem is, their conclusion was, they would measure these people through thermography, ultra-sound and radioactive film and they would see when they would develop what they thought were alien bodies coming out of them that were non-visible to normal people but appeared to be mutants. Do you remember what I used to call "Things"?

Things were mutant deva forces. What I did was crush them and what happened they composted and then they could be rebuilt into a new deva. What the army and NASA did though, was use anti-matter, radioactive, it doesn't work on instruments (?), but in effect it destroyed them. See what I did, didn't destroy them; it brought them into say, unmanifestation so they could be manifested whole. Say if something goes awry like in the deva forces, and they become mutant, they have to be brought down to dust and then brought back up. That is the way of the Jehovah forces, the Godly forces.

What NASA did, they used radioactive beamers which were reminiscent of Wilhelm Reich's deadly orgone plutonium experiments that, (C) knows a lot about and (B) knows a lot about because he has done it. They just destroy them, what I call the "silveries", which are the deva, soul and spirit forces. They destroy them with radioactive isotopes which in effect removes matter from the Earth. Because there is one primary law that is inherent in this universe, that what you remove in potential matter, which is the deva forces, has to be removed in equal amount in actual matter.

What's happening is the matter of the Earth at a certain point...but it isn't removed at the same time, there is a time lapse. The reason is, the potential matter actually lives in the future. That's the kicker. There is a time loop where potential matter, you could say, lives at 11:00 and your body lives at 1:00. So what is happening, the antimatter weapons, the plutonium, the deadly orgone research the beamers and that sort of thing are removing matter from 11:00 and what is going to happen is an implosion of the Earth as a result.

The superconductivity research has sped that up a million fold because what is done; the whole core, the essence of life has to do with North and South magnetic poles and if you disturb those, you are going to kill the Earth. What are they doing? They are running energy in the core of the Earth, to the core of the Earth and directing it to certain places to create earthquakes and that sort of thing, volcanic eruptions. They are going to split the Earth core wide open.

It is related to the silvery research for the simple reason they are creating Bermuda Triangles. Everywhere they send a superconductivity tube to the core and out, a Bermuda type Triangle appears and that is what happened in Guthrie, Oklahoma. That is what happened around the house in Logan County, (student), that you stayed at, that I lived on. It became like a Bermuda Triangle. At one point objects were flying across the room, the kids bunk beds were shaking, my (relative) saw spaceships. He was seeing the future. It was a time loop. He was walking towards the door and he saw alien grey spaceships like Whitney Strieber's. What he was seeing was the future but it really was there because whenever NASA conducted those experiments they created a time loop that then was a NASA/Tinker Air Force Base project and "Aur" was one of them. "Aur" and (B) were the two core members of the people who did the NASA studies on our group.

And you guys can say that I'm a liar, but I don't have anything to gain. I don't have a penny to my name. I've lost my family, I've lost my home. I've lost everything except for one thing; my love for all of you including "Aur", including (B). I wanted to say "Get out of that work!" Get out of that work to save humanity.

What happened, I started getting so damn sick and it all started after "Aur" came out to visit me. She came with a Neuro linguistic programmer friend, "For", and then the crop circles appeared; all the standard UFO crap. But people want to think it is somebody coming from another planet? It is not it is coming from the future; it is coming through a time/space warp that has to do with the energy force fields produced by superconductivity that the polar stations; the moon station being the most destructive. The use of the Moon radioactive isotopes which is the most deadly thing you can imagine in that it replaces matter from this time. It takes the future away from us, in essence. It is removing matter.

Every time they use this; you know the movie "Ghostbusters"? That was a propaganda film, actually. What they did was, they were blasting the "ghosts". What they were doing was making people desensitized to the removal of the silvery bodies by radioactive beamers which in effect is what happened in Waco and ----. The removal of the silvery bodies to the antimatter space decreases the matter on the Earth at a future point. This is what they don't understand. They are saying "There is no evidence of gravity being different right now. That's because it has to reach a mass point where there is a flip. In essence there is an implosion at a certain point. People have called it a planetary flip but it is far worse than that. It is in to out. It is not talked about. It is not going to be a top to bottom, it is going to be an in to out.

The only way to survive it, is to have a silvery body. So what they are doing, they are removing the very core of the Rapture of the Christians. But the Christians are sitting on their duffs because they are not realizing that you have got to look at science and religion together if you are going to survive. You cannot just sit and pray and sit on your butt. You have to look at science and religion together. The prophets were worried. They saw things that had to be couched in terms of philosophy, religion, art and music. They saw rightly, it is just they didn't have a way to translate it.

Like Carlos Castaneda used to say, or Don Juan used to say "The true trick of the nagual is to bridge the right and left awareness" and to be able to retrieve the knowledge of the left to the knowledge of the right and then to present it in a cohesive, knowledgeable form is a mark of a master.

What I'll tell you, it is amazing that there are angels that have the ability to do that, that have the ability to assist us. And you can tell a holy angel from an evil angel by very key things: "The love of money is the root of all evil" for one thing. If somebody will do anything for a dollar bill; it doesn't mean you don't work for a living and you don't fight for what is yours. What it means is if somebody is trying to exploit others for a dollar bill then you know something is wrong.

Everybody knows “A laborer is worthy of his hire” that doesn’t mean that people can rob, steal, etc., hoard money and take advantage of others and say “They’ve got a right! They’ve got a right!” Know what I’m saying?

To try to destroy the civil liberties of others is another thing. It is like trying to shut someone up any way they can. Why is it, you know for a year now, I have been trying to write. I have five books on higher spiritual laws that I have been trying to write. Every time I sit down to write there is a damn satellite beaming into the computer. Why do you think I write in long hand? Because the satellite hits the computer and I can’t write. It is because; I think everybody’s required reading should be The Computer and the Incarnation of Ahriman. (Book copy can be checked out at Sophia Johanson Library and Press). It is not that we should throw away our computers, we should use them. But the truth is we have to realize their limitations. If we ever start thinking like a computer, we had better be scared.

A human is not supposed to think binary. But that is exactly what they want to turn you into. All the children’s’ video games, where the children sit with joy sticks? They are destroying the minds of the young in doing that. It is not just that it is a stupid, mindless game it is that they have subliminals going on ---- and at any time they can activate a satellite and tell your child to do something that he doesn’t want to do. That child then doesn’t know, because he is being reinforced in the pleasurable response of winning on the little Pac man game. The Pac man types games are the most destructive things ever made for the young because they are producing a pleasure response in winning coupled with subliminals.

It is not a conspiracy theory. Anybody who has half a brain in the computer industry can find those, what goes on in the machines and track them down. It is just that, it is like people think, feel, sense, smell, touch, everything, on a certain band that has a width, a height, a depth; in other words there is a base line that can’t go below the base line, and can’t go above the top line.

It has a breadth. It is like the Elizabeth Barrett Browning poem “I love you to the heights and depth and breadth my soul can reach.” I wish I could remember the rest. I’ve lost my poetic sense here, because I’m being beaten. But the poetry and art; find a fine artistry in what one does. For instance in carpentry; to create a beautiful home, to have things that are aesthetically pleasing in wood is an art because....I like this house, it is well done. If you look at people hired who are heavily addicted to drugs or they are just doing something to make money and they do not have a love for their job, you know what I am saying? If you don’t have a love for your work, you do something shabby. I’m sure you, (to a student) have seen carpenters like that. Some of them, if your back is turned they will just do something shitty. If you are looking at them, carpenter’s helpers, they do pretty good but if your back is turned they wouldn’t do very well.

As a nurse I saw that working in the hospital. In any field of endeavor, you should do well and you should love it. It is like picking a berry. A berry has a life and it is like a joy. It is like you are dancing with the devas when you pick a berry. Every type of endeavor has honor and the problem is, the Trump-types of the world, not all of them, but some of them have gotten the binary intelligence that unless you....they then suck into the prosperity philosophy that if “you don’t make so much money, if you don’t have so many things, or if you haven’t achieved” then you obviously are a loser. You are a loser, right? It is like the concept back in the 1950-60’s people raised in the churches was that, like my mother always said “Act well your part, therein all honor lies” things like that. You know little mottoes that had to do with honor, with dignity; to “Do unto others as they would do unto you” or something like that...that isn’t right. I better not do that; it might be dangerous (laughter). “Do unto others before they do unto you” something like that, I don’t know. We’re getting closer and closer.

But it is like the concepts of the 1950’s and 60’s of honor and of dignity in relationships, of family and business. Like “you do your best on the job” has become degenerated because thewell I’m getting beamed right now, so if I get to stuttering you are going to know why....Could you put the beams up higher please? If I had an Aurameter we could measure it. (Students’ comments) I’m going to move if you don’t move the beams....Oh, they have satellites.

Guys? Now I am going to ask you all to be very brave. Because it looks to me like they are going to start a satellite beam to see all of us, and we are going to have to endure it. But I want you to look at it even from the children’s’ perspective. We are looking at the future of humanity and if we don’t fight this, then there is no future for the children. Right? That is what I decided. You know (to a student) when I looked at my own children and I realized it wasn’t just me leaving so they would be safe; it was if I didn’t get to the bottom of it, nobody would have a child. Nobody would have a child. If everybody’s child was messed up. If everybody’s child became a robot then my children would be robots too.

You cannot separate the sanctity of the Earth from the sanctity of your own home and if you ever begin to think that you can separate, that you can wall yourself off and hide from the technology you are wrong. Factions are ruled by this. All you have to do is look what happened in Peru. All you have to do is look what happened when we were in Chiapas (Mexico) and we saw the robot army men. All you have to do is do a little bit of traveling and you will know. But (to a child) people like you are going to change the world, you are going to make the world a holy place.

Child says: How do I do that?

Anon: All you have to do is be strong, love God, love your family and pray that the angels come down to help the Earth and somehow, the whole world will change.

In fact, the propensity for people that are highly spiritual is just to pray and wait for God to handle things. The propensity of the materialists is to act without thinking about God. So the problem is, few people are concrete thinkers and spiritual thinkers simultaneously. I spent years praying and fasting and being on my knees before icons of saints, Jesus and Mother Mary. It was only when I finally realized I had to take action that it began to break up the mega system which was destroying my life and destroyed the lives of Jonestown, Waco and many other people and will eventually destroy the whole Earth.

Because the ultimate system is to take over families so that everyone is like a “Stepford Wife.” They tell you who to vote for; they tell you what to buy. Everyone is like in an Orwellian kind of system where they have mottoes like...I remember the dowser (D) and other people had mottoes like “Keep it simple, stupid” and I thought it sounded to me like “Keep it simple and stupid.” Keep it simple. Well, it is like the paradox of this morning involved both the --- and complexity to understand when to be simple, when to be complex. Kind of like the Black rap song “You have to get up to get down, boy.” It is like in “Superman II” there was a line by Gene Hackman where he said to his bimbo girlfriend; he was looking at her and shaking his head and said “Some people can read the secrets of the universe off a gum wrapper and others can read every majestic book, Tolstoy and from there on and understand nothing.” It’s true! Some people will look at a leaf or a star and get an inspiration like Leonardo Da Vinci and others can have access to all the libraries in the world and all the sciences and they still make stupid decisions.

Like you tell me, why in the hell a NASA scientist (B) moved into my monastery and said my (relative) was the antichrist? You tell me that man is sane? You tell me that man is sane, that he is a top scientist in our country? That’s creepy if you ask me. It’s damn creepy.

When people do things, like they are going to ‘ok’ the moon mining? What will that do to matter? Even on a real simple level; if you took a shovel and you shoveled a bunch of stuff from one area to another area, that would replace matter, right? It would increase matter in one place and decrease in another. The Moon has to do with our moods, our water balance. Humans are intimately linked with the Moon’s cycles. Like women’s periods are called moons. Imagine if they go up there and do more than mine it; they do a nuclear explosion? What if they accidentally blew up the moon; which is exactly what is going to happen if they keep going? They are going to have a nuclear....there is a radioactive element in there; if they blast though the caverns with radioactivity they are going to create a massive explosion which will blow up the Moon. And what do you think is going to happen? Pieces will fly into the Earth, it will destroy....the Earth will begin to wobble. It will lose its gravitational balance because the Moon is part of the gravitational balance and so the Earth will wobble, we will be in nuclear winter from the debris falling off. Because of the cataclysm of the Moon exploding will be so massive that there will be nuclear winter for probably three hundred, four hundred years.

Student: --- Anon: They are trying to fake you out to think it is ---. It is the moon that is going to blow

Student: --- Anon: They want to make you think they are not doing it. The fact is, the screwed up government scientists are doing it and they know it is probably inevitable so what they are trying to do is psychologically prepare people to die. That is what they are doing. I say we fight it.

Student: --- Anon: They want to use it in computers and they want to use it in espionage because what happens with....this is what they have been using on me in experiments and they are using it in here. When they beam it into you, they can actually beam a false substance, an image but you can’t see it with your eyes effectively because it is in dimensions which are not acknowledged by your body

Student: --- (Some sound interference):

Anon: The radioactive elements carry matter. It is a form of light that is not visible that carries matter. So what they do they can take a cylinder, it is like a gas and they shine the radioactive light element through and it creates....John Fox (?) some of his stuff was propaganda. Total propaganda. “Aur” and --- were two of them with John Fox who was a psychic and John Fox didn’t know he was being controlled. I hope somebody tells him. He was totally HAL controlled. He had a thing where he was channeling Hilarian supposedly and it was like the Ramtha thing, and all that. They had him hold a cylinder that holds a type of gas and then he can direct it at somebody and they can get a certain effect. But it is worse than that; it has a moon element in it that will create a type of beam that you can’t see because your eyes don’t recognize it.

Normal humans only see in a certain range, or hear in a certain range. What happened was some of the Genesis Project kids because they were spliced and diced with seers, with naguals, with scientists, with aliens with every hodge-podge. What happened was, some of them could see outside the normal range. I was one of them that was hodge-podged with an Indian Hopi and I had visions of it all through my life. I became critically ill after the immunization, my first immunization. I became blind and deaf like Helen Keller. But I could still read and I “saw” in Castaneda’s terms “—”. So nobody knew I was deaf and blind. I was deaf and blind! What it did, it caused a reaction where my ears burst, my eardrums burst. In the physical sense all I could hear was a solid roar. In the visual sense, my eyes were infected and cloudy from toxins from infectious organisms; they were actually from red blood cells that were reactive to the immunization that I was given. I was given small pox and others which were given back then.

I was given one of the Genesis Project immunizations. I was given one of the Indian seers who died on the reservation during the...you know like in the movie "Blue Sky?" There was a time when they were doing radiation studies and they burned whole reservations of Indians. It was dreadful what they did. But the Indian seers that they burned up cursed the government. They cursed and I saw the death of the woman, a flashback of the women's death.

But the Don Juan character that Carlos Castaneda talks about? He was actually linked with one of the dying Indians. They weren't actually Hopis, they were mixed Indian tribes. So what happened was, I became critically ill when I was six or seven, whenever I had the immunization. But nobody could tell I was blind and deaf until my father, we were given a black and white TV at that time since we didn't have one. My grandmother bought a TV so she gave us a little tiny 9" black and white. I would go up to it and I would put my nose to the screen to perceive the images that were --- out. My father figured out I was blind and deaf at that point. But they couldn't tell (otherwise) because I had the overlay of the dimensions of the Indian woman who was a seer and some of them can walk and see without seeing. (The seers) have different ways of seeing.

So I became like an Indian child even though I was certainly more like a little child (present at the lecture) I was blond and fair, but with the attitudes and personalities. One of the bad things was I wet my pants all the time because I was ...what happened was the spirit/silvery of the Indian woman was in me and I couldn't differentiate which was me. It was like I would try to go to the bathroom but I wouldn't know if it was her or me. It was a very weird experience after the immunization. So I learned to adjust over time and did ok, but I didn't do that well scholastically because you could say I was dyslexic but worse in that I had a very bad directional sense because one of me would be going one place it was like a nagual double, and another of me would be going another place. This (condition) persisted even as a registered nurse. Whenever I saw a baby being born when I was working in Labor and Delivery, I particularly had a hard time because I was so enthralled with the beauty of birth that when the baby came out, I would be so happy. That I would walk out to the nursery with the baby and I couldn't remember where I was because I was in heaven. I was in heaven. It was like I was walking through heaven with the baby. So I would disassociate because I was seeing.....you see, the Indian woman was in the heaven world.

So the Indian woman was partaking in the beauty of the baby's birth and was so happy and so I was in heaven with the Indian woman and I would get lost. So it got to where it was very hard to do labor and delivery duty (laughter) because I was always wandering into heaven. I would start to get translucent; my face would get real pale. I would look kind of like (this child), an angel. I would start walking and start floating kind of. Same thing with dying people it would often happen, but that didn't matter so much because I would spend two or three days with them and they would be pissing on themselves and finally I would walk them into heaven. It was perfect work for me to work with the dying because I had one foot in heaven. My father used to say "One foot in the grave and another on a banana peel" (laughter) Of course he was given six months to live 30 years ago. He is still pretty strident, and he has asbestos lungs. He got asbestos lungs from installing asbestos ceilings back in 1950's and he is still pretty darn sturdy for an 85 year old man. He has done well. I don't know why I went on with that.

I guess the core of it is, the Genesis project at a certain point, a few crazies in NASA decided to exterminate the subjects they thought were defects in the Genesis Project and they wanted to....they thought of them as aliens and they got to fearing when they injected the alien matter they were going to have an alien invasion. What they didn't realize was that most of the aliens....the alien greys in the first place, they were future humans that had an added dimensional matrix. To exterminate the humans that had it was impossible because it was viral related and it was worldwide. What they decided to do was take the key areas of the sections, or the populations and study them.

Waco was important because they had a large Genesis Project pocket in the Dallas/Fort Worth area and in Oklahoma.

End of Tape 1 Side A

Student: Reminded me of an item on the public radio a couple of months ago. The present concern over certain immunizations that were generated from monkey flesh and the flesh of monkeys have viruses, and now has potential to be a problem with human beings. Their philosophy is that the advantages of immunization far outweigh the tiny, tiny risk of monkey virus.

Anon: Except what has happened, the general population has lost intelligence and people are becoming more animalistic and certain deviant genetic problems are surfacing in increasing numbers. The only way to survive in today's world genetic wise, because this is worldwide...let's face it, the baby boomers have all had their kids and then they had their kids, we are in a third generation after the baby boomers. What has to happen is, the ability to adapt to genetic alterations in a positive, adaptive response that will not decrease the intelligence or decline culturally or lose the sense of humanitarianism because we are going to have....there is no way to avoid the fact that genetic breakdown has occurred. All we can hope for is to have the ability to adjust to it in a way that will keep us human.

"Keeping us human" means to be somehow better than animals. You think about what animals do. Animals have pack behavior, they will kill anybody in their territory; like a wolf will piss on all the trees in his area and then he will kill any male that comes in. We need to stop the tendency to just destroy that which enters our territory of knowledge. For instance, what we do not understand, we don't destroy, we merely study. Look at attacking wolves. We have every right to protect ourselves if we are going to be killed bodily, but it has to be direct.

You see, the difference between paranoia and actual defense is that if somebody is waving a knife at you, you have the right to take it away from them and protect yourself, but you don't have the right to hunt somebody down. That is an animalistic, sort of horrible way of behaving. It is like a person has the right to sidestep a killer or take a weapon away or to even turn the weapon on the killer. That is not murder. If you turned a weapon on a killer it would not be murder if the weapon was turned on you. But it is wrong to hunt people down to kill them.

When they started using me as sort of a --- thing, because I could avoid the assassins in the Interpol --- in Mexico and at San Cristobal and others. It became like a joke to the agents. "How can they set up a trap that would be certain death and see if she can fight it?" It was a psychic thing. "How can we see if she can avoid by psychic...."... "We want to watch her using her psychic powers to avoid a death trap." So they take agents with all sorts of weapons, like they did last night. The fact is, those games sort of wear thin after a while. If you spend all your time defending yourself from death, how can you go forward into growth? How can you create art, music, how can you protect families with joy instead of just a fist? The level it is down to now, is that we have to defend the children before we can protect them.

"HK" was a teacher that I loved, although she was HAL'ed terribly. She used to say "We can't cleanse and build at the same time." It is like, if you are real diseased you have to take laxatives and sweat and get all the poisons out and then you start taking vitamins, nutrients and building back up. It was what she learned in Nazi Germany. She learned in Nazi Germany how to make herself healthy. She actually was a nurse in the Jewish war camps, did you know that? Her husband was one of the SS members. The thing that bothered me about HK was that she diminished the horror of the crimes. But I revered her because she was a woman of knowledge. It is hard to not revere someone who has great knowledge but it bothered me terribly that she said "Oh, there weren't that many Jews killed and if they weren't so materialistic they wouldn't have been killed." That bothered me. You don't rationalize putting a bunch of people in a damn gas chamber and turning on the gas. There is no excuse for it, I don't care who it is. You can't rationalize that kind of behavior.

So we are at a point in our society where it is not just (sings) "What the world needs now is love sweet love..." but I can tell you, if you don't recognize when a weapon is beamed at your head, you are going to get laser lobotomized. There was a time when I was so exhausted; you know they kept me awake for weeks on end, in Oklahoma City before I fled to Mexico. The agents actually moved into my house. They took over three drug houses near "Cel's" house too, on the street that we were in (24th street) and they moved in. They would inject sodium pentothal in me and you can believe it or not believe it, because I have nothing to lose or gain in coming here. OK? I'm not asking anything out of you, I am here because I care about you guys.

They did studies on me that were so horrible that it defies the human imagination and I must admit there were times when maybe I went a little crazy. Imagine if you have seen centrifuges in doctor's offices or in high school chemistry, imagine if you were put into a centrifuge? Imagine if you were shown your (child's) head being cut off on hologram images flashed in your eyes for 24 hours straight and you were not allowed to go to the bathroom and they put curare type drugs in your veins so you couldn't move? Imagine if you were strapped to the bed and they were doing those things to you. And they did, they took out eggs from my right ovary. They did body sample removal.

"Cel" tried to come visit me through the back door. We had adjoining back yards, she was next door. When she came, the only thing I could do was, like an ALS, a Lou Gehrig's disease victim, the only thing I could move was my eyes. I looked to the right and could see out of the bedroom window. She was coming. She had kept calling over and over to see if I was ok because the agents were in the house.

“Cel” says: So finally I said over the phone “Look, I’m coming over in five minutes.” So I hung up the phone and I walked out of the office space. The next thing I remember, I was walking back into the office space and it didn’t seem like five minutes, I didn’t look at the clock, but I thought “It must be time to go over” so I went over and she told me all this happened and I realized I had lost two and a half hours.

Anon: What happened, they chloroformed her or something. I saw her walk towards the back door and two agents grabbed her and they put something over her face and she was down. It was just like that. It took seconds.

Cel: For me it was like an old movie where you see a jump in the screen. It was like I walked out and all of a sudden I was walking back in, and there was a jump in my screen and I lost two and a half hours.

Anon: This is where all the alien abductees, where they lose time. It is not alien abductions, it is the government. She was chloroformed or something. It is probably some fancy new drug. But it is something like chloroform. I saw them put something over her face and she was down and a woman touched her neck. I don’t know what it was; it was probably a key point. But they touched her neck, they put something over her face, she was unconscious and they dragged her back to her house.

The only thing I could move was my eyeballs. I was so damn scared. I was lying on the bed and they had taken eggs out of my right ovary. It was so dreadful. They kept doing the after-death studies over and over again hoping...they kept trying to make me solve murder mysteries of people who had died. So they kept putting...I was terrified I could smell the formaldehyde. They actually put the eye substance of people who had been embalmed in me and I could taste the formaldehyde. It was terrible and I could see the death. They ordered me to tell what I saw and who killed the person. They were trying to get me to solve murders. And if I didn’t do it they would shock me and hurt me because that was the only way they could control me. They tortured me.

This went on. They finally would leave in the morning hours and I would stumble around. I knew if I tried to tell anybody, they would think I was crazy. It was so horrible, I cannot tell you. But they made a fatal mistake. It was a rental car. When they told me to get in the trunk of a rental car (at the airport) and I didn’t have any way to rent a rental car. I don’t have a credit card, I don’t have a bank card, I don’t have any money. I have no possessions. There is no way I could rent. I don’t even have a driver’s license.

They told me, they were doing the mind stuff.....I told “Cel” we are going to pull a fast one on the assholes. When they went out, normally they left early in the morning when they went off duty. I didn’t tell Cel everything that was going on there; they were focusing on me pretty much. I said “Let’s go out to the airport. I’m going to make them think I am flying somewhere.” They were such assholes; I knew they would chase me. If I went on a walk they would chase me. So we jumped into the car lickety-split while they were taking a break. I figured out when they had shift change, when the agents changed, they had a meeting across the street. When they had a meeting that was the time I could get away, while they were telling each other what had happened during the shift before. So during the shift meeting, Cel and I split. We went to the airport and then I saw the guy.

Cel: I did too. I saw him.

Anon: There were several of them there. They did the hypnosis thing. They made me get in the trunk and then I got my fingerprints....I made sure I smeared them all over the trunk in the rental car. When I finally got free 24 hours later, (Cel note: She had escaped with the car and parked it in front of the houses on 24th street) I sent the rental car key to the students at the University newspaper and then we left for Mexico. And if they tried to get themselves out of that, they are going to be pinching the big one. (Cel note: The keys were given with the information of where the car was parked and asked they investigate who rented it and other. The rental company was called as well.) Because there was no way I could have rented that car and rental companies just don’t hand you car keys. I was told to get in that trunk and I was given a hard time. But I left the car in front of the house. They tried to say I stole the car, but how did I have the keys?

Cel: Afterwards, no one called me about a stolen rental car, no one called her.

Anon: The fact is, obviously, I’m not going to go out to the airport, steal a rental car and put a gun to someone’s head and say “Give me your rental car keys.”

But the core is that, all these weird things have happened. What a lot of people would like to do is to say either that I’m hallucinating which ---- how to explain that Cel’s $4,000 lawyer got me out of the gulag in Miami* (see Note below) and one of the things that Dr. ‘Punta’ said (as a reason) really cracked me up. She said: “She can’t take care of herself, she needs long term institutionalization because look, they had to pull a bullet out of her foot, that proves she can’t take care of herself!” (Note: Anon. had booked a flight to Germany and was staying overnight at the Miami Airport Hotel. Cel was in Oklahoma City. There was an emergency alarm on Anon’s floor. When everyone came out, Anon was detained by a federal agent who took her to the NW Dade Crisis Center in Miami, Florida on October 3, 1996.*

When “Cel” interviewed the airport security, they said Anon had been running around barefoot and that they were told to detain her. Cel told airport security that Anon was still detained after four days and he actually jumped out of his chair! He said "What?" he said "I have known people who had been brandishing knives high on drugs to be let out the next day on their own recognizance!" Cel said "Yes, I believe that." After Cel hired an independent lawyer Anon was released on October 8, 1996. The whole story is told through faxes sent in "Smoke Signal from the Nut House" book series.)

Now, somebody shoots you, and so you have to be in a damn gulag for the rest of your life? Because somebody shoots you, because the government agents.....actually the guy shot me in the foot so they wouldn't shoot me in the head (in Belize). They were doing a test and they shot me to knock me off a pier because they thought it was funny. They did it because they thought it was cute. They did horrible things; with bottled water they put drugs in the water, and we had to have bottled water. We had five gallon jugs and I would see floating semen and everything else in the water. It is terrible what they did. They would shoot above my head, like a terrorism thing all the time. I would walk on the street they would spray chemicals on me. They did that in Mexico as well, but it was black. It was actually the shit of dead people. (Cel note: Once inside her hotel room, I saw the black spots appear on Anon's shirt as if from nowhere.)

One of their psychological things, they would take corpses and empty their colons. They would spray the shit of dead people on you and it makes people sick because it links you to death. It has an effect on you that is psychological; it makes you feel like you are dying. I don't know why but it does. I finally figured out what it was, the shit of dead people. The reason I could tell it was from dead people was because it smelled of formaldehyde. They actually took it out of corpses that were already embalmed.

But that...why do they keep me alive? It merely is because I have unusual characteristics. What they normally do, what I finally figured out, the lower level of the "Hal" program was, they would just try to get people to do what they wanted them to do like "Be a good citizen" "Vote the way we tell you" "Buy what we tell you to buy" you know; "Do this....Do that."

Then they had other levels where they wanted people, particularly women...the Soviets were big in getting women into their "I-Spy" groups; to be kind of prostitutes. They would have one man, a Soviet man, who would be over like ten or fifteen good looking, usually blonde women. I knew they were eyeing "Sur." They would start looking at a woman and if they thought they had the attributes, they would start to wear them down and start to create robots out of them. It is exactly what they do. Other women they want to use, like the nagual type thing was big. They wanted to use naguals. The reason they wanted me was because of the nagual thing. (Dogs interrupt.)

I don't know, I will say they can put drugs into a whole room. They can change the frequency, the waveform, the direction of flow of anyone in the room. Now the charts that I made today, it would be nice to make fax copies for everyone here.

The key thing here is to not blame anyone. It is to just go forward and to tell (known operatives), number one: if they are in any way involved in the government agencies involved with mind control, they have to stop. Or if in a private agency; the private agencies are....(dogs interrupt- break in tape).

Well, ok I will tell you something positive. Part of the essence of true joy...what is the essence of true optimism, and not pseudo optimism like the Dale Carnegie School of positive thought thing? It is in knowing rather than just trying to believe something. Most people spend their time trying to do affirmations and meditations and crap, trying to believe something. But what if somehow, you actually know something? Some people...you know there is an old Buddhist saying how most people are like fish in a net, in a big net? And a few fish manage to chew holes in the net and get out to the greater sea. They come back and try to tell the other fish. I have to say that, I chewed a hole in the net and it was not comfortable. It was with great suffering. It was not with anything that the world would consider positive and I lost my family, I lost all that I own. I lost my life, but I came back. I came back through incredible sorrow of seeing the Earth and the karma of all those on the Earth including myself...seeing everyone's weaknesses including my own. And I felt incredible compassion and incredible love.

Sometimes what I saw occur in the spirit world would be realm of intention. Like if somebody planned to kill someone? When I was in hell still, I could see....when they did the invisibility studies on me? I actually was invisible but I could tell I was in a hell. The astronaut program actually threw me into what is a hell. Hell is not just somebody's idea out of the Bible. Hell is an actual, invisibility space. It is an unmanifest space that is manifest on the left side. It is like looking at the other side of the mirror. Sort of like the old sci-fi movies, or Twilight Zones, seeing someone in the mirror kind of thing.

When I was in the astronaut program, they threw me to the other side of the mirror, I could hear everyone's intentions, everyone's thoughts, everyone's desires and I walked through the sea of the world. Like the time I was invisible to Cel one day, and there were other times I was invisible as well. When I saw people planning murders, planning this or that, it was so horrible because it appeared....or when I saw ones that had already occurred. Because when they would throw me into certain forcefields, I would see ones that were going to occur most likely, that were planned and then they threw me into others I would see those that had occurred. There was a difference. I had to learn how to see the difference among the future, the past and the present. There is a truth to it.

But, (pause) the one thing I noticed that if....say you are looking at the future there is a way to prevent say, a trauma, a murder or something by somehow affecting the free will of the individuals so that they don't create a karmic incident that then produces the event that is foreseen. You know one of the Cassandra Complex problems is that those who are seers, such as Nostradamus, etc. if they see it and then they....what is the purpose for saying what you see in the future? It is to prevent it. It is not to manifest it. But then if it is prevented then they are considered idiots, they are considered stupid, and ---, right? But it takes great courage to see what is forming around them in intention so as to prevent it and then therefore make a cleaner world. The problem is that most people would think you are insane.

The reason that the government is involved, I would have to say the world-wide military/Interpol government, wants to put seers into institutions, they want to test them without anybody complaining. They want to put you into centrifuges, centripetal forcefields, put you in North/North and South/South and Equator forcefields. They want to put you in fact, on the Moon without anybody fighting for you. They want to...you know that, there was a great movie called "My Life as a Dog". It touched my kids' hearts greatly but that little boy that felt like --- it was like (a relative), who has lost his mother and (the father) told him that she was on the moon somewhere, that she was gone, she was nowhere. He wanted to send her away, and never see her again. (Relative) feels like "My Life as a Dog." He is suffering like that little kid in the movie. But I have to live with it for the simple reason if I had stayed there; (the relative) would have been just as creamed as I was to be. I was the target. What does a sparrow do? It runs from the nest so the Blue Jay doesn't eat the eggs. A sparrow has to do those things, you know, for its eggs, for its babies.

Sometimes humans have to do those things. Sometimes humans have to fight, too. In the Bible, and in the old Turtles song: "There is a season, turn, turn, turn...." which is coming from the Bible verse. There is a time to run and there is a time to fight. There is a time to speak and a time to... like the movie "Bullets Over Broadway" "Don't speak, don't speak!" There is a time to work together and there is a time to work separately.

Student: ---

Anon: You are exactly right because people who.....one thing we have to realize. One of the traits of being a true human being is that we are somehow hung between heaven and hell. There is some part of a true human being that has a conscience that suffers the pain of never being good enough and always seeing the vile. There is something about the pain of human existence as in Dante's Inferno constantly, but there is also looking up to God. There is something about a human that has one hand up and one hand down.

When a person becomes: (sings) "Don't worry...be happy. Don't worry...be happy..." that is when you lose who you are when you lose your humanness. The angst of suffering to reach the divine and the failure to look at what is below and just look at the beatific, forms nothing but the binary beings who are no longer human. It is not human to no longer recognize evil or good.

What I saw happening in Central America and elsewhere included child prostitution, included baby snatching for body parts, included murder for hire, things like that. But hey! Nothing's evil if: (sings) "Everything is beautiful in its own way..." That means that pedophilia is ok, right? It means that murder has its place. It means that by golly, death is good. I had an agent tell me in Belize "Oh, this world is so hard, I will be glad to rejoin the spirit" and I just looked at him and said "You coward." "We have got to fight, fight, fight. You want to rejoin spirit? Are you kidding? You are just wanting annihilation. What about fighting for the babies so that they have some kind of a life that is free and dignified and without exploitation? What I coward." I told him.

It is one thing to die for other people's sins or your own, it is another thing to look with courage and dignity and love for humanity with unselfishness and to fight against impossible odds, but with the knowledge that God works mysteriously and not necessarily through the laws of man normally, but maybe through higher laws that we don't always understand.

When I felt (laser) shot in my head and shot in my uterus, I didn't know how I could survive with the hemorrhaging going on in my head and uterus; the blood lost. I passed out and almost died. I went to three emergency rooms and nobody would treat me, see me, or do CAT scans or anything because the government....I was a secret project. I was having grand-mal seizures; I couldn't even speak at one time having expressive aphasia. I couldn't write, I couldn't speak, halfway. I would see everything as though through the mirror. I was having petit-mal seizures, partial complex seizures, I was having Jacksonian seizures. I mean, being a neurological licensed nurse I knew what was happening but nobody would treat me because I was a special project. All my records were altered and when I would go to the hospital, they wanted to put me in "gulag". When they got me in the gulag, they didn't treat me physiologically, no. I almost bled to death.

Now, what does this have to do with the ---? It has a lot to do, because what if one of your children is chosen as a "special child" for the research projects? What they do, they just start working on the --- just like they did me but it is much more high tech now. Much more high tech. It's like; if you don't know something happened but it did happen, for instance if somebody tells you...say your conscious band of hearing is right here (lower), and say your subconscious band of hearing is here (higher). What if they tell you "up there" (on the subconscious band) that you have got to molest, kill, rape, whatever. What if they tell you that “You are going to be killed if somebody doesn’t do something” or “You’ve got to accumulate money.” What if they tell you that “You have got to vote a certain way, or buy a certain object, go in a certain location or deny what ----.” What if people just quit hearing with spirit and just listened with, and go with whatever the subliminals tell them? Because the subliminals are actually ----.

The question is, we need to devise ways to detect the hologram images they present in the house, which can be violent, they can be carnal they can be seductive, they can be anything. How do you think Carnelia (sic) that hog, lured Prince Charles away from Diana? She had a machine do it; a hologram --- machine. She had the technology. She used a company. When I was in England; I know you are going to find this hard to believe. (Break in tape).

(Tape Resumes) Students’ comments --- laughter.

Anon: Oh, you mean for ‘Carnelia’? Oh, you meant for me to find it out? (Laughter).

Cel: ‘Carnelia’ has her own house now and all the service men are supposed to called her “ma’m, or something like that or “Your royal ma’am”. (Laughter) She has a special house that Charles visits and they all call her ‘Madam’. (Laughter).

Student: I think that is very special.

Anon: Madam means; like in Oklahoma Madam means the head of a whore house.

Student: *Laughter, comments....*We all have goals in life.

Anon: At one point I put in a fax “Call me mad, but don’t call me Madam.” (Laughter, comments.)

You know how you can screw someone? You can say someone raped you or that you had carnal knowledge. Maybe somebody screwed you because they were just trying to f--- you over in the Okie sense. Maybe that is the Biblical sense too; maybe God’s vengeance will come down on somebody that has screwed you over. “Knowing” someone in the Biblical sense has a double entendre. It means maybe they screwed you, or maybe the holy beings know exactly who they are and what they are going to do, and how to stop them. The holy beings are angry. I loved that cartoon where it was Mahatma Gandhi with a chain saw. It was an advertisement for a new movie. It said “Gandhi’s back and he’s mad!” (Laughter) That was a great cartoon. Students’ comment/jokes.

Anon: Well, to conclude the evening I would say that if we just seek as our goal; --- we need to seek what our goals are. If the outcome desired; my outcome desired, is that there is public awareness of the mind altering techniques and of the genetic manipulation. That somehow we impact the government bodies to restore civil liberties of humans. Like one’s home should be one’s castle. Nobody should be able to send a beam into your home. There should be a telecommunications law made where nobody can control your mind through a computer, through a telephone system, through a beam from a satellite. Nobody should be able to irradiate a whole population with a steady stream of subliminals which destroy the genetic matter. You know, the Hopis used to sing a sand painting (sings a note) and then the sand would shift into patterns. That is what happens to your body. Your body sands begin to shift with the sounds that are recklessly thrown out over the satellites. They need to be stopped. We have to enact laws to protect people and in the absence of those laws, we have to show people how to be aware of them and how to protect themselves on a microscopic level.

We have to know how to create homes which are defensive. We need to know when we are being messed with and we need to not to allow our families to be destroyed. I realize that, and I tried to tell my children a few years ago that if all children on the Earth are not saved, you won’t be saved because this is a mega problem. That was an example of knowing without believing.

Somehow, I was always used to prayer. When I realized I had made a bad marriage with (---), I moved into a holy room and became what he called “Attila the Nun”...’Nun of this and nun of that’ (laughter) It wasn’t because of the physical side of the marriage it was because (---) and he was a mind control specialist. I couldn’t stand the fact that his job; he did mind control for his living. He taught mind control as a consultant. He taught NLP to what the business called “support centers” which were nationwide and I just couldn’t handle that. I thought it was immoral.

So what happened was, I turned my life over to God; everything that I had. I figured it was like dying, because let’s face it; I loved all the beautiful things in the world. I had had money; I had had 20-30 marriage proposals. I had lots of things I loved in life. I loved life. But I decided to just let God decide for a change, instead of whether I wanted, or desired, or willed something to happen. At that point and it used to be when I was a young woman, I could just go into a group and just lure (?) someone and I could do it because it was a nagual aspect. I decided that was wrong. So for ten years I prayed, I fasted, I did everything I could and I made a lot of mistakes, alright?

But somehow God works ---. Sometimes we have a little weakness and maybe God will use that to somehow bring about the glory. That is when I learned to pray, not just that I know holy truth but that also “May the God of our Lord Jesus’ outcome of the New Heaven and New Earth become manifest through me in any way that He sees fit.” And that meant going outside the normal bounds of what I would think of as normal behavior or thought, or anything. It almost split me up.

What it did was plunge me into a world with “I-Spy”, with NASA, with everything. Because when I said “I submit to the God of our Lord Jesus” to whatever happens; to save the children of tomorrow was what I wanted to say. What it did was plunge me into the “studies.” Somehow my fate changed so that I became a lab rat and it looked as though I was a failure in that “Oh, how is she a master when she can’t even control whether she is a lab rat for NASA, that she (can’t control) whether she is in a centrifuge and her children are suffering and crying. She is penniless she is obviously a failure.”

You are not a failure if you do your best and even if you make mistakes along the way, you just shake yourself off, you stand up and you just keep going. I know one thing, we have all made mistakes. And I say this to (student), but what I am saying, we need to look at what our intention is. We have got to unite our intention to save the Earth. We cannot save ourselves without saving the Earth. We cannot save one child without saving all children. We cannot hole ourselves off in someplace to protect one or two children. We have to protect all children.

Think about Mother Mary, how it must have been when Jesus was born she knew He would die on the cross because that was the prophecy. It was their fate. But she did her best. He did His best. He wept tears and blood in the Garden of Gethsemane and the modern day Dale Carnegie School would say He was a failure because He couldn’t keep himself off the cross because He was poor. Well I say, we can’t say a person is a success if they are poor or rich. It doesn’t matter. If a person resists wealth or attracts wealth it doesn’t matter. A person can be rich or poor ----. What matters in this day, is that one speaks out for the freedom of the mind. This is the age of the Air and it is the age where the defilement of the thoughts will interfere with the prayers of the children to heaven.

When I was praying in that church on my knees crying in tears and blood, as they were lasering my very eyeballs, as I was weeping to Mother Mary, I realized I could sit there and get a stroke, or I could stand up and walk out. I realized it was God’s will I get up and walk out.

A lot of Christians...do you remember the movie The Mission where they just kept praying? You ought to rent it, it is kind of interesting. Some of the Christians in this South American Mission, when the Spaniards were killing them all, they just kept praying and praying and praying. Of course they became saints because they were killed. But they could have hidden in the woods, right? God doesn’t need more martyrs. God needs more saints to stand upright and just keep walking. I think it is a real mystery when the Catholic Church acknowledges saints who are dead but none that are living.

Why in the heck, why in the HAL don’t we all decide to become saints? Why don’t we all decide to fight for the freedom of the mind? That of means of course a knowledge that there is no freedom of the mind. That means researching. That means figuring out detection devices; that means fighting the institutions which have tortured the American Society of Dowzers. When the --- stayed around in BMC’s (dowsing) class, I should have known there was an astronaut forcefield in the room, but I thought no, it must be spiritual.

See, religious people have a tendency to think that everything is spiritual. Scientists have the idea that anything that is not within the known physics laws doesn’t exist. But they are both ---. What we need to do is combine science and religion. Science is in effect the study of laws of man but the fact is, most people are just passive, they are not really students. They just want to accept, you know for instance, the Kabbala is a series of laws, but they just want to make it a story.

End of Side B

...How to treat the weakest member and not how to treat the strongest. Civilization is measured by how the most vulnerable are treated with gentleness and not by how they worship the ones that have the most money or weapons or glory. We cannot measure our own worth as to how much money we have, how much financial or career success we have, how many...how much love whether we have a love or don't have a love. It is a wonderful thing for a man and a woman to love each other. But we cannot measure our success in that either. We cannot expect to be nuns or priests, or married or unmarried. What we should do is not just accept our fate, but pray to God to show us how we may best serve humanity. If that means having a marriage, if it means standing alone in integrity as a man or a woman, if it means being a caretaker for children or if it means scrubbing floors, or in Cel's sense, helping other people survive that are going to.....she's risked her life countless times. They shot bullets over her head one time when she sent out a fax, they were trying to blow her head off.

Cel: In Ireland.

Anon: In Ireland. But she has --- survived. Do you know why she survived? It is because most of the agents know that we mean to help the children survive, so they just shoot a little bit off. They are given orders by the people who don't work in the field and the people who don't work in the fields, they kill and torture. But the agents which are still human, put the instruments a little to the left or the right.

But we need to do more than just deflect the instruments, or just shoot a little up or below, or just shoot somebody in the foot instead of the head. What we need to do is stop the shooting, stop the beaming. We need to get it all out in the public. We need to tell....like I gave (a child) a little Bible at Easter and I put in there "Tell the truth to the best that you know it." Because the truth is, that when a person is enmeshed in their spirit, they see things on the left that seem to be on the right. You could say they are hallucinations, but they are not hallucinations because what a person intends is real!

See what I am saying? What a person intends is real. It is just as real as hard facts and data. That means if you bring it out into the open, maybe it will change. Maybe there is a way to diffuse the intention or alter the intention so as to not maim the babies, by wounding the spiritual forces that occur. When the agents had the beamers in the house, and however trashy the agents were, it was perceived by children in the house. It was perceived by the children with anguish.

I remember when taking (a child) to the grade school in Guthrie (Oklahoma). I remember driving there and there was a big forcefield around the whole grade school. And the child looked at me and went... (pause) and the horror that that child had on his face, I had to take him home. It seemed illogical, it didn't make sense, but I knew there was something wrong with that grade school: Cottonwood Elementary.

On the first day of school, I took (another child) there. (This child) became confused and he started running around in circles, he couldn't see me, he was totally spastic. I should have known, but I didn't have enough sense to know then what was wrong with the grade school. They were targeting Guthrie elementary 1st graders; all of them in Guthrie, Oklahoma. (The second child) got ashen white and confused. But (the first child) wept so much that I brought him home.

We have to trust our instincts in regards to the children, the protection of the children. Children and animals often sense things from a wider band than adults. Adults often clamp down on their bands just to keep a focus on how they are going to survive. Sometimes you have to be like a horse with blinders to get through the day. But children are more vulnerable because they have such spiritual bands of awareness. But they have to be protected.

If we just tell the children "There is no...." I remember a little Morman girl that I saw when I was speaking to the UFO abductees in Kansas at one time....and talk about a lot of machines in that room! It was terrible. But there was a little girl who had terrible dreams of being abducted or of a monster under her bed. The mother kept telling her to "shut up" and they were going to put the kid on drugs and all sorts of stuff. And I said "You have a --- forcefield." There was an actual physical forcefield. As long as children are talked down to, like what they feel isn't real, then the children are not going to be protected. In the very least if a child feels bad in one area; let them move to another area. Like have them sleep on the couch. But to keep a child in the bed when there is a forcefield is like torture. And it tortures the soul and the spirit and it makes a child suffer.

Like in the chairs in the schools; some of the things that they have done in the grade schools.... I have had flashbacks of what happened to me in Dallas/Fort Worth. I lived there as well when growing up. While I was sitting in a chair, all I could hear was a generator hum. That was all I could hear and I couldn't see the teacher, I couldn't hear anything and I couldn't remember when we went out to recess, I couldn't remember where my room was. It was as though I was not retarded, but like I was disassociating. It was because they had the damn experiment in the grade school I went to in Texas. They had astronaut forcefields on the children to remove their silveries.

What happened with some children, their silveries were split but they would had a tendril still attached, so their silveries would wonder around and the children then, just become confused like (second child mentioned). Whereas (first child mentioned) some children have a type that clings and their faces reflect the pain; you know the anguish, the horror.

That is where (the silveries) cling very tightly but then when they spring loose, they snap and the child looks normal. Children that don't suffer at all are often the ones that have snapped. That doesn't mean they can't be healed.

Whenever you start to think that a child that doesn't suffer anymore is "healed" and a child who suffers is "sick" then we don't understand the laws of higher matter. And those laws of higher matter are what are going to save people during the holocaust in that they can actually adjust. Like Jesus would put His hand on people and heal them? The laws of altering microscopic and macroscopic matter has to do with the silvery, and with the attachment of the silvery to the body, and the restoration of the silvery and the silvery stub which can be healed.

That is what I want to write about and I want to help people learn how to restore the ability of children to perceive the pain of their spiritual selves splitting because...and we need to teach children that "It is not bad to hurt." We need to teach ourselves! Don't be going to some Nirvana and nothingness. What we need to do is to realize that sometimes illness produces symptoms that are actually a healing reaction that we should just embrace or find out the cause of the illness and then get rid of the cause. But to destroy the part of ourselves that is ill, is the solution of the NASA scientists as the end result of the Genesis Project. That means killing the silveries of all the people who were immunized in the 1950's and 60's and all their children; which is the end of the Earth.

Because the anti-matter has to balance the matter and it destroys theyou could call it implosion of the Earth. But that is due to the higher physics principles that are not known to the NASA scientists and you tell me that someone like (NASA scientist "A") comes to my monastery, sits there watching me, putting a beam on me, making my eyeballs bleed and the Tinker Air Force Base mind controller sits in my house with a damn machine pointed at me? For all those years, I put up with it. I knew. I couldn't stand the sight of her. I knew something was wrong. I knew she was beaming me. The fact was I had to find out how to get to the core. I knew it was right for me to stick in there, hang in there, and I did. I was a secret agent with no boss, except God.

It is not like I want to blame anybody, but I think anybody who has been involved or been hired by the agencies and been fooled by the HAL machines had better "Fight, fight, fight for the dying of the light is nigh." And all of us need to pray to not be reinforced or punished into a thought control program. And we should not just recognize that anguish has to be eliminated, because anguish may in fact be the sign of our souls telling us to do something! Or it may be a sign that we have done something wrong. Because when they destroy the silveries, people don't have a conscience anymore in most cases. (Note: Please see charts in Appendix for dowsing the "silvery")

Greed. The fax today will give you a lot of clues on how you can tell when someone is holy or unholy, and you go with that, and you go with it all the way and you just do your best. You know, take these tapes and send them out. For God's sakes, send them out. I have given all that I have, all that I know and all that I'll ever hope to be for the purpose of living as completely as I can and as impeccably as I can. As a flawed human being I have made errors, always have, but it is not time to pull out the hair shirts or whip ourselves. It is time to just move on and do something. Stop the mind control programs, stop the experimentation on civilians. Stop the assassination of the souls which is the core of it. I saw it last night.

I know that we were blocked in getting the information out, in getting people here (to the conference). Last night we would have been assassinated except that I did a maneuver. I went to the bathroom afterwards; I did a "Morse code" with the light switch ---. We do have agents watching the house around here, and I am grateful today. There are agents, and in fact I would say most agents, I have grown so fond of the agents, they have been my closest friends you could say, for the last year. Cel and I have had a lot of laughs haven't we?

Cel: --- (Laughter)

Anon: Secret Agent Man would like to turn our mind control on a really wide band. After they gave me a laser lobotomy and fried most of my grey cells, my hearing band went...you know, normal is about here....and my hearing band went (up here)....which would normally drive anybody crazy, except I learned ways to handle it, where I just pick which spots to listen to. It is like playing a piano.

They are always trying to tease me. See, it is not that I try to listen to them is that they are...and I tell you not to listen. The fact is, you can actually hone into (a band) but most of the time I don't listen. Every now and then I get tired and they will play a joke on me, tease me on one of the ranges because I am one of their top subjects because I can hear on almost any band. Or most bands. I can hear without a machine and they can't. That is what they are trying to figure out. "Why I can hear on any band without a HAL machine, but they have to have a HAL machine?" They have to have a translating computer to hear on all those bands, but I don't. That is why they haven't killed me because they want to figure out "How in the HAL" I am able to hear on all those bands?

But Hillary and Bill Clinton would still like to kill me for damn sure, to shut me up. But I am trying to be more -- in what I say or release, but I am not going to do it at the expense of not having the children's' futures protected and their present protected and information has to be the way we have to do it. I'm not going to blame anybody. As far as I am concerned, if (NASA scientist "B") walked in here, I would just talk to him directly. I would say "B, you came into my house as an agent. You bombarded my children, you destroyed my family, but I don't have to forgive you because as far as I'm concerned we are in the now. What are you going to do, to do penance? That is what I want to know. How are you going to protect the children's' future? How are you going to protect these children?

Student: ---

Anon: Yes. The question is where do we go from here? It is not what has happened in the past, it is where do we go from here. And part of it is, because I hear on a very wide band, one of the reasons they have tried to put me in an institution, I will be direct here, is that the HAL station, you see, is very intricate. It encompasses every country. It encompasses every government official, essentially, in the world. I can if I'm shown a picture of someone, go to their actual brain and tap in like a damn computer. But I don't want to.

But I could go to Bill Clinton, or I could go to Yeltson or anybody....is Yeltson still alive? It feels like he is dying. It feels like he is dying. One of them said "Go down, is he dead?" See I just heard one of them, they are listening. (Student: Probably Clinton...Laughter) If they are listening, I can hear what they are saying and I can mirror it on my face by the fact they have a beam coming this way. I can mirror it on my muscles and stuff, and mirror it back that way.

Normally that is what they do with "Pinocchio." They think it is one way but it is two ways. Like what I found was when they try to do the Pinocchio on me, all I have to do is listen to them and then throw them off. Instead of becoming a "Pinocchio" I became a mirror. (Pause) They think "Ok, ok, ok!" (Laughter)

You guys may see me do that this weekend, and what I am doing is mirroring the listeners. I found that if I didn't want to be a "Pinocchio" I could become a mirror. So a mirror bounces something off, you know. It doesn't become the thing. What I found, I could become a mirror if I was joyful and silly. But if I was serious I would become a Pinocchio. There is a mystery there about the art of drama, like the happy face and the sad face....Would you get me a juice?

There is something about the mystery of the sad and happy drama face. It is like; I found if I took everything lightly, I could in fact endure mightily. So I found if I made friends with the agents who were assigned to do the mind control stuff, but I did not do what they said; I would just play games with them, it was like a chess game. So then I became friends with them, and they didn't try to kill me. And you could say I was dealing with the enemy. But you know, in war sometimes you just have to adjust to what is. There was no way I could fight these mind controllers. But there is a way...well, I say that is true but there is a paradox. The way I fight it is be friends with them because they suffer from the same suffering that we do. They are ordered to do this, they have children. They don't want their nieces and nephews, brothers and sisters to die any more than we do. That is the commonality.

(To the agents:) You guys have any comment on that? (Whispers...Laughter). Ok, what do you have to say?....They cuss a lot. But they are agents, you know. It is not serious. You have to realize that this is where the --- come from. And it is not --- they are just beings that are technology and people that are doing the channeling are just being controlled. I know it is technology, but most people wouldn't. Ok, tell us something, ok? (Agents:) "You think you can do better than that, you can just...." and they are always saying cuss words because it makes me laugh when they say cuss words.

Ok, now I am going to find another one. You have to find where the other ones are that are listening. They are "Y"ed in , and I just find the directions. "Agents: She is going to be --- me now?" (Laughter) I am hunting them. You see wherever one being comes in there is always a "Y" connection so I can find out where they are on the computer servers. (Pause)

(Song:) "(She) don't matter to me..." Oh, ok so they have "Sur" and Sur can't hear consciously, but this is Sur's controller. They are giving me a code saying Sur's controller is tapped in. Sings: "She don't matter to me...."

One way the mind controllers work, they have a song, a phrase or something that will make you warm up to them. And one of them was (singing): "It don't matter to me...." Another one was a saying: "There is not one but two" and another one: "There is not two but three." It makes no sense, but no matter what it is, they anchor it in to a response, a stimulus response.

Ok, give us an example, guys. (Whispers...laughter). If I showed you, like for instance (a student) your range of hearing is pretty broad. This one is like up here ok? If your range is here, this one is here. It is not all that far (different). What happens though, what they do with the women that they want to use as agents, as with Sur, they try to widen their band so they can use them in the I-Spy range and then they take them away from their families and take them off to foreign countries. That is what I was afraid of. But it won't happen now because I made such a ---.

---either. They have got a white slavery thing, big time relating to this research, but it is not going to happen now. They take women from all walks of life. They are saying "W.C.K.I.N.H." they are saying shut up. Which is (laughs) they call themselves the "F--ing A's" because that is kind of their joke. And some of them call them the "F--ing Alligators" which are the Texas ones. They come out of Dallas and they were at Cristobal (Mexico during the last conference). They actually wear alligator shoes.

Sur: They were the ones that followed us into the hotel....

Anon: --- and the Brits. Oh, they are in the Interpol. (They say:) "Not just the Brits, but the Interpol!" We have to include the "Russkies"? Yes. They tend to beam from different angles, But if I follow one beam up, I can usually tell how many people are in the room listening. It's a two way street. That is what they didn't understand. They thought it was a one way beam. But I finally figured it out because they bombarded my head so much. I knew they had caused some sort of cellular rupture in my brain that produced a way for me to see backwards and hear about this.

(They say): "We don't think so." What do you think it is? (Pause) They are playing a joke on me. Sometimes when they say nasty things I won't repeat it. They will mumble things under their breath just to make me laugh. This is where...the way they got me, was to make me laugh because my weakness was the desire to have humor and plays on words. I love plays on words. They use both. But even though it is a weakness it is not such a weakness that it would destroy a person, whereas some of the other weaknesses were. Like someone is saying "---"

The fact that I know they are talking to me through an actual mechanical device; (therefore) it is not a controlling device because I am aware of it. If you are aware of it, what I am trying to show you is, they are doing this to me right now and they doing it all the time from different countries. I can always tell from where it is coming. I have learned to map it. Like you have that great map, it would be great to make pictures of the map to give out.

I took a map of the world and I started mapping where it was coming from and it can be from a satellite, it can be from....you can learn to dowse where the thing is coming from and that is important. Because if you learn the angle that the thoughtform beam is coming from, you can fight it. The Hubble? He said he didn't think it was possible for me to fight the Hubble, is what he is telling me.

The Hubble is not the most destructive thing, you are giving me bull-s line, it is the moon base that is the most destructive. They are telling me one thing, but I heard from the left side. I learned to listen what they are saying and I also learned to listen on the realm of the sub-conscious. One thing they would do, is switch your conscious and sub-conscious like this, but they did that to me so many times that ---. They have (two people) talking in one ear and the other ear simultaneously at different rates of speed. What I found was, I could hear what they were thinking while they were talking. Like he was telling me the Hubble was the most destructive, but he was thinking "It is actually the moon base." (They say): "Yeah, alright you got me on that..." (Laughter)

They are pretty funny, especially the British. The British guys are so hilarious they play such great word games. Although I have to say some of the Mexicans are funny too, and some of the Texans are pretty darn funny. A couple of the Okies are saying (They say): "We're funny too!" (Laughter) --I'm Lucy and she (Cel) is Ethel.

(They say): "What about Ricardo Montalban?" There was a guy (guard) in the nut house who beat the shit out of Elsa the old lady. Oh sorry, he beat the doo-doo out of her (for child in the room).

(They say comments): (Laughter)

Anon: (Personal information deleted).

Sur: --- I didn't realize you were serious. No wonder you were giving them a hard time.

Anon: I was married to (husband) for four or five years and ----. (Personal information deleted). I guess we can turn the machines off, there isn't much more to say, of course since the "HAL" guys are still listening. I can tell you what they have been thinking. I found that I can read them; I can see what their analysis is. I figured out a holy being synopsis for this. Ok, I'm going to look on the right side of matter...they are thinking "You don't have to look too hard on the right side of matter. F-- A's have recorded everything you said." They are always telling me this "You are going to be killed if you keep doing this." If they are laughing, I'm not too worried about it. However they have told me they would save my life as well.

Communicator core: "Hillary is shaking in her pants (laughter) because Anon is likely to be freed from the nut house threat on the basis of her interest to the researchers in Paris who want to study her and don't want her to be incommunicado by institutionalization. But that...they are saying this now in another language....if the other nations can then see the information gratis without having to worry about whether somebody making a buck off of it, or whether somebody is going to filter the information, then the information is clean because nobody is paying for it, right?"

Cel: Yeah, that's true! (Laughter)

Anon: You're paying for it! (Laughter)

The fact the...(laughs) "Pulque Mama" is ecstatic here, because the South and Central and Mexican governments all want to give you Pulque and have you party with Pulque. Remember when we had the Pulque in Mexico (to student) and it kept (exploding)? (Note: Pulque is a raw bubbly alcoholic drink in Mexico from the cactus.) It is like a monster from outer space....the Pulque kept exploding because they were beaming it South/South.

Cel: It exploded in (student's) room. Comments....Laughter

(They say): Ok, the Pulque is going to be pouring in tonight.

Anon: Ok, where? Why don't you bring us some, huh? Be airlifted to Bangor? (Laughter...comments)

(They say): The --- are going to be putting the Pulque through the super conductivity tube and you guys are going to be made all ---, and then they are going to be blasting...."

Anon: They are teasing. They often tease like that. They say they are going to put Pulque through the super conductivity tube. (To student) Do you know what Pulque is? (No). Oh it is fermented. It is the best tasting stuff I have ever had. (Comments...laughter)

Anon: It is so hard to find. We found it two years ago. I loved that stuff. Of course if we got an agave cactus, we could ferment it. "No, it has nine other ingredients" they said. It is a special recipe with a certain yeast.

Oh, the fact that I said "There is not one but two" is what they used most extensively over this group. It is like on your left side. And it sounds like it makes no sense, but it has a subliminal effect on you. Like for instance it could be saying to you that....ok, what they are saying is, they used that on people like when (the NASA scientist) went to (a dowser) and to other people and said that I was the Anti-Christ, that I needed to be destroyed with all my progeny and all that? It was because he had the HAL program on him: "There is not one but two." In other words I am some kind of freak from outer space that has to be destroyed and my progeny and the idea (included) anybody in the Genesis Project who has had so-called contamination of the alien virus. It is like destroying Ebola. They are looking at it like a contagious containment, but it is not.

That was one of the HAL programs to authorize the destruction the civil liberties of people like in Waco. They killed those babies, just mowed them down. And it was used to take away the civil liberties of people and call them "Aliens." Remember (to a student) what you were saying, that if you are called an "Alien" you are not considered human and you don't have civil rights?

It is like the aliens were not aliens but future humanoids, they were mutants. There is no way to eradicate that from the population. There is a way, though, to rise above it. And that is what we have to look at; not murder but we have to look at becoming refined enough to adapt to what the future holds. And there is a difference. It is not just trying to destroy....you do not throw the baby out with the bathwater, in other words.

What they wanted to do was throw out the baby with the bathwater. And what we have to do is look for a loving solution that will heal the planet instead of destroying half the inhabitants. One of the big things....the reasons a lot of the HIV strains were created was to kill off all the homosexuals and the Africans. Why do you think the ---? The Afrikaners wanted to... HIV was a laboratory created virus originally, with monkey strain designed to kill off the African tribes because the Afrikaners wanted to take over the land. And then they tried it on the homosexuals in San Francisco and New York. They wanted to kill off the homos. Whenever people start trying that, something is going to go awry, and then it started getting mixed in with the general population. And then what will it become? It will become something like, if somebody makes you cranky you are going to start mowing them down with a damn machine guns because they make you cranky? (Laughter...comments)

What I think, tomorrow what we ought to do is make up some charts for starting to dowse again. Learning to dowse from the Left, Right and Center of our matter on how to protect ourselves and the children and send those on to the Dowsing Conference. Prepare some materials for the dowsers and send them to Danville. I guess it is St. Johnsbury now, isn't it? That is what we will do tomorrow.

Say, would you guys like to stay here? We can throw down some bedding and you can stay upstairs in the extra bedroom so you don't have to drive. ...Where are they? How warm is it? Is there space? (Comments)

End of side B

Cut it out! They would like to take me to the nut house because of the HAL station. They don't want me to talk about this. Why? Because of the mafia guys you have there? (Laughs) Because of the mafia equation (prostitution, gambling, murder) in action here? Somebody wants to make money. One of your governments wants to make money off of this and you know it's going to go up, hmm? (Laughs)

But the problem is with the Greek type thinkers; the Americans are mostly divided into Greek type thinkers and Latin type thinkers. The ones that think Greek are closely aligned to... even though --- the nuances of French, they understand more by the language than the Spanish.

Student (some words inaudible): I know what you mean. I watched an American movie in Mexico. They were translating in subtitles in Spanish and they would use one word that encompassed like 16 English words. I guess you capture it by the subtlety of the word or maybe in the translation. They have only one word for desire and there isn't longing and whatever other words that we have for desire.

Anon: I think it is because the Spanish talk with their silveries. If you think about Italians for instance; Italians use gesticulations which they are actually speaking with their hands. Whereas the French are more subdued when they talk; their gesticulations are far more restrained. The use of hand language is part of the language as a whole, and for that reason the Italians and Spanish, are not....they don't have a lower language, but their language is not verbal and that is the trick. They have a spirit language, that they can have a word i.e. "desire," but the spirit inflections has color, it has direction of flow, it has diameter it has about 20 different factors in a refined Spaniard, or Mexican or Italian that then composes the language. But if you try to translate it to a straight line by line, it doesn't work! For that reason the translation of written documents is best done in French or in English because English actually does have a lot of refinement.

The tragedy is that....now they are trying to influence me because they want me to say something different. Will you quit trying to influence me? Oh, (They say): "They are thinking, they are thinking..." But that Greek wouldn't work anymore, nor would Latin, straight Latin, nor would any of the other languages that you are trying to display and I can't speak for the Eastern (languages) because I am not of an Eastern stock, ok? They are wanting to know about the Oriental figures and also the Egyptian hieroglyphics and all of those things like the Eastern types, and Middle Eastern and Sanskrit. Sanskrit wouldn't work because it is of the old ways. The languages which are newer are better; which I'm including French or English.

There is a language that far exceeds that, and I tried to teach an agent on an island this language that I could "see" which involved the use of English possibly mixed with French and Spanish words but it had a hand language that has to do with virtue lights. You remember I used to talk about virtue lights? The fingertips, when viewed under certain types of film emit a light pattern that come out of them in ideal circumstances; if the person is intact and not injured by their unfortunate plutonium or moon-mined elements. They emit a light pattern that dances.

Say if a person uses their hands like an Italian....and this is what Italians were able to see. They didn't consciously see lights beaming in different colors and patterns, but subconsciously, the Italians would see when they were gesticulating, they were actually creating a light pattern. They were creating a light dance.

Student (some words inaudible): Italians...five tone music scale, equated with each finger. They named it Do re me fa so from a song that --

Anon: That is exactly right. And I want you to think about it. If you have a voice and you have light patterns from the fingers representing certain things but those have a multitude of nuances as well, and then you add eye movements. Think of how many factors you are putting into a language. You have eye movements which eject light as well. The eyes of an ensouled person cause a light dance, like that....if they go a certain way they have a meaning, a true meaning. That is why some people....for instance, if a woman meets a handsome man what does she do? She does a fluttering of the eyes "Don't bat your eyes at me, baby..." you know, that sort of thing? It is absolutely true. It is a normal reaction and it begins --- yin and the yang.

But it is a deviation for a woman to bat her eyes at another woman. Like I saw when I was in a Goodwill store, where I have shopped for a few years, we were in a Goodwill store in Cheyenne, Wyoming buying a wonderful leather coat for five dollars. I saw a woman there who had a deviated silvery. She looked at Cel and she started batting her eyes and I thought "Oh, shit." This is bad news. NLP wise, too, they mapped the different things.

There is room in the study of all sciences, including Neuro Linguistic Programming, Silva Mind Control and everything. The key is to not become addicted to the form, but try to understand it and how we may use it for the betterment of humanity without thought of just self-preservation, because if we use these techniques to control others for wealth, or for power or for self-preservation, then we are no better than animals. Because the difference between a human and an animal is that animals struggle to survive purely by brute force or by fear they are going to lose their territory. They piss on everything and then they are going to kill anybody in their territory, right?

Humans on the other hand have gone to war, and always have had to go to war and they have had to defend their territory, but it is with sorrow. A true human does not just go out and hunt; you know, go out like an animal to expand its territory and kill all the lions. A human does not have that cold blooded sense and then just laugh it off. A human has indeed a component of the sorrow and the tragedy of the human life that is lost, ok?

I have to move. They are starting to beam. This is what I am trying to teach you, to determine when you have beams in your house, and then move! Just get up and move and (Comments....laughter).

If you find you are being beamed then get up. What you will feel, a common thing is that you will feel a thickness in the tongue, you can't speak or think, or you will feel obtunded. One thing they love to do; they have found that most people are most easily controlled between 4-7:00 AM in the morning. They will try to obtund you during those hours. So what you have to do if you feel the mind hackers working on you; trying to do a pleasure or punishment response thing, or telling your spirit guide something, or giving you dreams to control you. You know they have got computers that can project a whole dream inside your head that will control you and make you think you had some inspiration.

What you have to do, if between 4-7:00 AM in the morning, which they found were their key hours; they also do some at 2:00 AM. Remember 2:00 AM is often when killers come to --- because people are in their deepest REM sleep. Think also that this is the time they will try to invade your REM sleep. Program yourself to wake up and get the hell out of that area and try sleeping in another area. Because generally they map...what I found was they map the coordinates of where you are, and where you are usually. What they used to do was map four coordinates, like when I was on the islands, I would feel them zap me in one place and another would hit me in another. They had one guy, or two guys, every time I went out of the cabana they would send a speed boat out and they would have a guy with a radioactive video right in front of me and one in the back. I couldn't go out of the cabana in Belize without having two radioactive videos on me non-stop because they wanted to do interactive video, HAL-controlled experiments on me every time I went outside. Finally they would come inside the cabana. They would do it on the inside, too. There was no time I could use the toilet, I could not take a shower, they had them in the bathroom, they had them everywhere. And that is one of the ways they break you down, by taking away your privacy.

You may not even be consciously aware; this is one of their mind control techniques. They take away all your privacy where you never have a minute's peace. But the thing about it is, you just cannot let them back you down with humiliation nor can you let them back you down with threats or promises or rewards. If you do, you are just a Pavlovian dog.

What we have got to do is teach people to not allow external influences to reinforce or punish you. We have got to realize, in order to be holy, if we pray and somebody starts talking to us, don't assume it is a spirit guide. I look back and I see things so much clearer than I did at the time. I remember "Jem" would be upstairs and he told me that he would meditate and then he would be in a state of rapture and then he said the Holy Spirit gave him orgasms. It was not the Holy Spirit; it was the HAL in the monastery. What happened was, the cubicles upstairs were more easily hit because they had them rigged on the buildings that were higher. The ones downstairs behind the office and stuff, the only way they could -- was when they installed things in the dirt room.

The horror is, that when I tried to tell Jem it was not the Holy Spirit but the devil...It's the devil! But I was wrong. No, I was right and I was wrong. It was the devil because I am going to look at the devil as a force of humans who are destroying the Earth and not as a supernatural being, but in fact as a force. I am going to quit being superstitious. It is not that I am being an agnostic here, because I know God exists. Without God I would not be sitting here because they have....I won't go into it. I was put in a trial of --- but I would not be here except by the Grace of God. It is not because some humans saved me. God saved me. The only reason I came back was simply because, how can anybody else be safe if somebody ---- didn't come back (who was knowledgeable?).

Why do you think when Christ was strung up on the cross and they decided to release a thief and a murderer instead of Him? (Barabbas) Why do you think that Christ went to all the trouble of dying and He was scared, scared to death. He was. He wept tears of sweat and blood and He said "If this cup can be passed from me, so be it. Nonetheless not my will but Thine, oh Lord." That is exactly how I was in Gallup, New Mexico (See book: 1993 July). I was on my knees and I prayed "Not my will but Thine, oh Lord." I'm not saying I'm like Jesus, I am nowhere near. But let's face it we are in tough times. We just have to deal with the people that can handle it. And we don't have any Jesus, we don't have any Essenes with pure blood lines or anything. We just have hopefully, a few tough warriors, because maybe this Earth doesn't rate a second coming of Christ.

"Aur": They blew it the first time.

Anon: Maybe it is just we have to be Christ-like ourselves! And quit begging for what I used to say some "Christ on a cloud" to come down and save us. Maybe what we need to do is try to figure out what is killing us. What is making us less intelligent? That is a real bothersome thing. When I used to see "Cel" looking like a damn mongoloid sitting there, not able to think herself out of a paper bag, I got worried about her! (Laughter)

Cel: Yeah, I was worried about myself, with the last grey cell I had. (Laughter)

Anon: It's true! I'll just be Frank and you'll be Earnest. Cel would get so gorked out, she would not....I had to hit her over the head with a spatula to get her moving because she would have just been welded, and spumonied on that bed if I hadn't got her pried up with a spatula because she was just so inert! I couldn't get her to get moving, and it's true!

Cel: It's true. I'll testify to that. (Laughter)

Anon: I'll testify! It was so terrible because....it is interesting how Cel saved me and I saved her. In essence I had the strength to get up and move around, but what they were trying to do was force me onto the street where they would always have a van ready. They were going to cart me off to a research facility because I am an abnormal type. But Cel, they were just going to kill her.

Cel:---

Anon: They were going to kill Cel because she was a witness to some of the research experiments that were done on me. They were going to kill her like you kill a damn dog. And they were going to torture me to death. Now, which is worse? I'd say what would happen to me would be worse because I'd be looking at the --- (Laughter)

Student: What a choice!

Anon: Because it would be very hard for them to say I was crazy if Cel verified that there were men climbing up on the roof, Remember? There were men climbing on the damn roof in Oklahoma City and we could not get anybody to take that machine off the roof on 24th Street.

Cel: They broke into the front door too, and my neighbors across the street told me about it. It is not that I saw that, my neighbors told me.

Anon: And with Cel losing time; one of the agents told me, they said they were going to turn down Cel's water tank because she was going to burn herself and they turned it up to full blast. I went to her house to get away from my house, because they had so many forcefields. I found the water heater up to boil.

It is just the little things that they thought were funny. They weren't funny. What they were going to do was obtund her, where she was so out of it with her brain; they were lasering her brain to give her a laser lobotomy. They were going to have her take a shower and boil herself to death. They were going to have her sit in a tub of boiling water. That is how they were going to kill her! They were going to put her in a tub of boiling water to kill her. But the agent who did it, was actually warning me. He was telling me in an indirect way, that was how they were going to knock her off and then they were going to take me wherever they were going to take me, Cuba, somewhere else, Brazil, Nazi territory, I don't know.

Because what they really wanted was the genetic aberration that came from the Genesis Project, but they wanted one that survived. That is the thing, when they did the Genesis Project which...it wouldn't surprise me if everybody in this room is actually one of the Genesis project, because they did it worldwide; and there is no secret that we are attracted to the same people.

The first time I ever met, my ex-husband (---). I looked at him like...(sings) "One enchanted evening, you will see a stranger, you will see a stranger, across a crowded room. And somehow you'll know, you'll know even then, somehow you will see him again and again..." (Laughter). It wasn't a normal romance; it was a Genesis Project person recognizing a Genesis Project person of the same type. They broke him. He used to be (personal info deleted). But the thing about it was, it wasn't just normal hormones reacting to hormones. It was that we were of the same dimensional overlay. We were not the mutant grey types; we were the throw back type that survived. (Student: Throwback?) Well, throw back to me but throw forward to you or not for you, but for normal (people). It is what I call the "throwback", you are right.

There is something about it, when you recognize a similarity in another person that rings a chord in you, that you turn towards that person, you love that person. There is something about it; it is like a magnetic pull. When I saw "J" I saw the same thing. I said "J, get in here and sit down!" Remember?

Cel: Me too. I saw him and said "J, hi!" As if I had met him before.

Anon: The reason people are attracted to each other, because they are Genesis people. What do you think J?

J: (inaudible sentences).-- I could see flashes of light around you and I was on the back row and you were on the stage, but I could see ---.

Anon: It is because J has what is called a nagual overlay that is the dimensional matrix which caused him great emotional harm. Harm is a bad word; suffering, I would say suffering. I would say J that you have suffered probably most of your life; I will make an assumption here, partly because you were in the world and not of the world. You can cause a person to be a little bit nutty, or a lot nutty, but it can also cause a person to be sublime. And, do we get rid of all the nutties and the sublime or do we in fact try to help the nutties align with the sublime?

How do we find out what is sublime and what is nutty? I would say what is adaptive to society as a whole is that the traits such as altruism, forgiveness, moving toward the future instead of the past; just standing our ground and saying that somehow we are not going to die. Remember when I had everybody sing "Well I won't back down, no I won't back down. You can stand me up in the gates of hell and I won't back down" I want you to think about that.

For a Genesis person that means that if they have the future overlay because of the immunization project, that they have a trauma that is always there. Trauma has a sensitivity of spirit aspects because it affects --- more than most people, they are more vulnerable. How do you deal with that? Because every Genesis person who has children, it is the same thing, they either get it as a retro-trait or a super-trait.

How do we help the humans that are in the millions on this Earth with this trait? We could put them all on drugs and HAL stations and make them just binary thinkers and nothing that can'tthat are on welfare. You know, they can't do anything but sit in front of a TV? Like when I was in the mental institution (drooling sounds....laughter). Is that what we do? Or do we in fact try to make them functional? Do we in fact not do it by some super---? I met this man who was part of the project, the mind control, who came to me in San Pedro (Belize) and he talked to me. His wife's name was Robin and his name was Peter. He told me he was in advertising of course, "a very large company." Oh yeah, sure...tell me about it.

But he wanted to talk about dimensional spaces and various other things and then it became apparent that Robin and another person who was there; a NASA person was with them. It was apparent they wanted to know what I knew and they were doing some video/camera work. They had two videos going on the whole time I was there and when I talked to them, they had a low radio going, which is what they do. If they are listening to a HAL station, they will often turn a little radio on or have a head set on and they will still be talking to you. They don't need a head set. Some of them do. The lower the technology...and you have got this on every level of technology. Some of them actually have radios that block the other HAL stations.

Student (-Question-)

Anon: They do that to block...they are trying to block other people from hearing them communicating with their boss because they are in the conscious range. But how do we get out of this? Where do we stand? It is like the world-over, has the experiments going on. And was the experiment a failure or success? Was it God's will or not? I would say it was God's will in that it was probably the only way to survive in that what happened was, the bringing of the mutations that would also produce the survival (qualities needed?) of the holocaust.

But the trick to that is, the underside of that is that they brought in the debris of the disharmony that came, that once were sent were actually...some that they were bringing back had to do with the alien grey mutant civilization which is exactly the moon mining thing. Travelling to the moon and the taking of mined elements and bringing them back has brought back human beings that existed on the left side and the right side. And the government did not want to acknowledge this. Then they tried to do things, like they would take the silveries of astronauts and put them on the moon.

And the worst, I think the British did a dreadful thing. They put the silveries of some of the dying people, old age people that they took from the nursing homes and they put them in African places and the silveries actually got cannibalized. That was one of the most horrible experiences of my life, when they spliced my silvery into the Garifuna world. They set up a whole scenario on a rooftop. It was the most dreadful thing in the world. Cel had three or four agents around her. Were those American agents? Cel: Yeah, they were Mormans from Utah.

Anon: Supposedly, (laughter) or Jehovah's Witnesses, they love Jehovah's Witnesses.

Cel: When I lived in Vermont I spoke with the Jehovah's witnesses, so now in every country when I am approached, they say they are Jehovah's Witnesses. (Comments....laughter)

Anon: They are secret agents...or not so secret.

Cel: They never talk about the Bible.....And they are often women.

Anon: Yes, because they found the women were the best robots. You will find that there is one man for twenty women who are controlled everywhere on the Earth that I have seen.

Student: Why?

Anon: Everywhere that we have travelled, which is pretty extensive, there would be one man in control of twenty women and the man would be controlled by another man.

Student: Like "Charlie's Angels?"

Anon: (Laughter) yes, Like "Charlie's Angels."

Student: They call them on the phone...the finger phone!

Anon: They like them like Farrah Fawcett. That was why I was thinking that a (former German student) was mentally ill. The reason is that Germany had a lot of research and I think they targeted her to make her into one of their brothel women. They would take beautiful women...and when I say brothel women, they used them to entice high level executives or government officials and they used their eyes, just like the NSA article? They could see through their eyes, they actually turn the women into computerized robots. They take the men into bed because let's face it, men are usually in power. So they use the women as high class prostitutes to seduce the men to then draw out the government secrets and then the women are disposed of when they get too old, too ugly, too fat, whatever. You know, they just kill them. Almost all the women were between the ages of 20 and 30.

Student: (Inaudible)...What about Marilyn Monroe?

Anon: Marilyn? Marilyn...they are not wanting me to say, but I will say it was not a natural death.

Students:---?

Anon: We're talking about Marilyn Monroe (Sings) "Elvis and Marilyn never got old(?)...." (Laughter)

Student: Elvis and ---

Anon: I never could understand the attraction to Elvis Presley. Elvis the pelvis. There was something about Elvis Presley, the curl of the lip. (Sings): "Since my baby left me, I've found a new place to dwell..." (Comments....Laughter). It is just like in Belize, their whole....and with Elvis Presley his whole pivotal point was in his pelvis; "Elvis the pelvis"

(To a student) Do you think the fax went through (to a movie maker)? Can anybody tune into that? "Did "W" get today's fax?" I get that he didn't. (No). Yeah, they screwed it up. What we need is someone willing to talk to him and say "We've got something for you. Will you stand by your fax machine?" and then he will get it. Otherwise the government won't let him get it.

Student: We could mail it to him.

Anon: They will stop the mail. (Comments...laughter). In fact, I know it is right; does anyone have the courage to call and ask him to stand by the fax? "Aur" would you call him and fax? (I will try) They won't block it if he is alerted. They will block it if he is not alerted.

Student: Have you had any verbal communication with him?

Anon: Oh no, none at all, not for years. (Laughs)

Aur: What should I say?

Anon: Just say "There is going to be a fax for you, please stand by your fax machine." Just leave a message on the answering machine.

Student: No one is probably going to answer.

Anon: Yes, You just say "I have a fax for you and I'll call back later to confirm you got it. But I want you to know if you don't get it; it is because the government is blocking it (laughs). And call (student) if he doesn't get it.

J: He received the invitation to this conference and---

Anon: Good. And I know they can block them. (Aur questions: ---?) Yes, just say "This fax is important because it has to do with your next movie."
(Break in tape)

Anon:Materialism of the Catholic Church, the opulence of the Holy See.

Student (some words inaudible): The power system --- by itself, it had to go through a priest.

Anon: And yet, you know one of the reasons I encouraged (children) to be Catholics, the irony is, is that the Catholics kept the closest alignment to Christ principles even though they were the most horrible as well. It is almost like they deviated so far and they also kept it so far. It is almost like their protection was in keeping the strictness and having the power. But the Protestants became milquetoasts. It was as Christ said "Give me something hot or cold but if it is lukewarm I will spit it out". So the irony, the paradox was, the core of Christ's teachings couldn't be found anywhere in organized religion, but the closest was in the Catholic, but they also were the most vile.

Student (some words inaudible): They kept Mary, the Catholics, but not the Protestants.

Anon: I loved the monastery in Forest Park, Oklahoma that I attended. But they were HAL'ed so bad. Now that I look back on it, when I attended that monastery in Forest Park, my head would begin to hum and when I came out I would have a radiation rash every time. Now I realize why Father --- went crazy. He went crazy because they HAL'ed the hell out of him. He moved to Nebraska. (The people in the monastery) kept thinking they could isolate in the monastery and --. But you can't isolate. There is no isolation because we are in a world of satellites and internet. (Pause) Somebody has a flashlight out there. I hope it isn't a mad assassin with a rifle. (Comments...Laughter).

Student: Morse Code! Morse Code! (Laughter)

Another Student--some words inaudible: I was with (a relative) we drove over a railroad track and under a bridge and the radio was fuzzy so we drove over it again and under the bridge and it didn't go fuzzy. But FM radio stations don't do that when you go under a bridge. I started thinking that wherever we go we can pick up these radio stations like it was following the car. It just seemed strange, that with the TV signal, the rabbit ears on top of a TV, it occurred to me -- a blanket of --- we have gotten more and more high tech. It had been a remote controlled thing and the car phones that are portable -- How much electro-magnetic activity can be withstood before --- beyond --- it is not naturally occurring radiation.

Anon: You are exactly right. I keep going back to the Hopis that used to sing the sand paintings. When I lived in Logan County, I used to give seminars where I would sing the body's "Sand painting" back into order. Like I would scan the body and I would do a Hopi song. Then I would see where there was resistance and I could also pick up a HAL station, but I didn't know that's what it was. I would kick out the receiver in a person by the Hopi song. But if I did that now, they would lock me up in an institution because they don't acknowledge the native understanding of spirit and soul that is present in peoples that are strong in spirit.

That is why the Mexicans, even though they have the Spanish language, the Indian language was actually more intricate. But the spirit language which was the language of patterns and finger tips and eyes and of the dance of the wind was so powerful that it could change matter. But that the Americans wanted to destroy that in the Indians, and I think that is why the Indians were targeted in the reservations with the early HAL programs to destroy them. That is why they died with suicide, and alcoholism went over the top.

Student (some words inaudible): There was a strange disease on one of the reservations where all the horses were dying and it was not----. It was not that, and they don't have a name for it, they don't know what it is. The horse would get sick and in three days it would die.

Anon: What they are actually aiming for are the humans. If we don't stop the HAL stations we are going to have humans dying in three days all over the planet. We are very close. The only way we can adapt is by being able to adjust matter the way the Hopis did.

Student (What is "HAL"?):

Anon: Ok, I would say that the HAL is just an acronym that if you think about it, there was a movie called "2001" or something? There was a world-wide computer that allegedly thought for all the inhabitants.

Student (some words inaudible) It was called the HAL computer. Instead of helping the astronauts it became in total control of what was happening all the time. It was named HAL for ---

Anon: It is interesting, I met some of the HAL researchers, Cel and I did, remember in Canada and we had dinner with them? I wanted to write a fax, so one of them said "Let me give you one of our pens." I asked him "What business are you in?" Of course I knew. He said "Oh, his business, they travel the world over. Last week they were in Ireland and then Taiwan" and then he handed me an IBM pen to write with.

Student: It was a joke then?

Anon: No, it wasn't a joke. It was because IBM is linked with the HAL program. (Comments)

Student: What about Microsoft, are they linked in it too? They have software in virtually every computer.

Anon: Virtually all the software computers are linked. They are forming conglomerates which in essence will provide a one world government, one world mind that is controlled completely. That is the ultimate aim of a group of "world changers"...they are trying to shut me up here....who want to engineer a new future humanity, which is going to be the death of everyone.

Student: Are Windows linked to HAL?

Anon: A lot of the PC's have radar signals in them, which pick up a satellite station. At any time; they could send a HAL station to any person on the computer. They can see images and hear sounds as clear as a bell. The creepiest thing I ever saw was "R" in Wyoming. He wasn't writing, he wasn't editing, he wasn't doing anything. He would sit in front of the computer, sit there for hours on end. He might have one image on the scanner and he would redo it over and over again. It's like he wasn't redoing an image, he was entranced. I would come in and look at him in the office and he had this look of euphoria and strangeness and his pupils elongated. It was the strangest, most horrible thing. I don't know how his pupils elongated, that is something beyond my understanding. But when I looked at him I saw that there was something so horrible happening that it defied my understanding of technology. But I also knew it had to do with technology. That computer was linked into what was zapping the life out of him, because he was like a robot. I remember "F" saying "I can't hear "R's" thoughts anymore" because normally, F had got to where they had Y'ed him into a wide band where he could hear thoughts all the time. At a certain point there was a snap and you couldn't hear R's thoughts anymore, because there were no thoughts. It was the creepiest thing because the thoughts became the retro.

Retro thoughts are the HAL thoughts. Those are the ones where you are no longer human or animal. They were in fact a machine generated forcefield that told the person what to do.

Student (Who was in control?):

Anon: I don't know. I know there are different companies. I know there are business applications with governments and they are competing with each other. I don't know who is in control of whose mind. The thing that perplexed me most, I began to wonder when I went to Switzerland because there are a lot of Eastern Block type people there, and some in Ireland as well. I began to wonder if it had something to do with his relationship to the Russian filmmaker Vladimir. Because Vladimir was supposedly going to fly a personal jet or helicopter into Guthrie, Oklahoma airport -- for "R". He had a feature film project with Vladimir.

I was so ignorant of politics that I don't know for sure, but I think it had something to do with the astronaut program related to the....why was I drawn so much to the "My Life as a Dog" movie? That move was the most horrible, tragic movie and the children...you know even when it seemed they were being sweet to the child? There was something hollow about it, like they were soulless. It was like somehow, the child was not allowed to keep a soul. There is something about it, the woman that did the statue? It might have seemed funny, but it was not funny.

Comments

End of Tape 4 Side B

Anon: I think his dad is an atom bomb scientist. He helped prepare the Hiroshima bomb. I think it was a trait of some kind.

Student: --

Anon: But the fact that "R" was a twin, would have made him lucrative to the twin study. His brother was identical, only the brother was fatter. He looked a lot like (pause) (laughter...comments). See, I think "R" was a member of the twin study. You would think, why would a man put his own sons into a twin study? His dad was an atom bomb scientist. I remember when "R" met me at the conference in Chicago. He was scared to death.

"Aur:": He kept his head down the whole time. He was like "I don't know..."

Anon: He wasn't scared of me. I think what he was scared of was that he was sent on a mission. He wasn't scared of me personally because I didn't have any ill will. He was scared of the mission; it was like an "I-Spy" mission.

Student: ---

Anon: Yeah, we did. He was scared.

Student: I think sometimes, in questioning why parents would put their own child in a program, I think it had something to do with split-time. You know parents didn't act like parents. And I think too, it was hyped up so much they would have thought it was a good thing to do, like testing in the (advanced?) school programs.

Other student: Like ---?

Student: Yeah, like a good report card.

Other student: Like "You must be special."

Anon: Well I remember when I was in kindergarten and I had a picture in an art show of a sinking ship, it was like the Lusitania. I won an award, and I remember the people, these men, they were like these guys in black suits who came and they interviewed me and I didn't know who they were. They spoke with an accent. But that memory was kind of -- . It was an unusual painting that I did of the ship sinking with people being put in life boats since we didn't have a TV at the time. It was unusual because we didn't have any media exposure to history such as the Lusitania.

But I remember the black suits arriving and interviewing me at the school. They took me out in the school yard and talked to me. I think it is linked to the Genesis Project. There are many unanswered questions. The project I think was so huge and so top secret, and that is why Kennedy of course, died. He wanted to stop the immunization of children that altered their DNA.

Student: What about Robert?

Anon: Robert probably knew, but he probably told Robert. I haven't checked into Robert but I know that John....

Student: You know in my grade school they did the IQ test for my brother's class but they didn't do mine.

Anon: For one thing, the IQ tests are not accurate for children under the forcefields because it actually can make you dyslexic or it can throw off the testing so greatly there is no way to accurately measure it.

"Aur:": You know I feel that way you were talking about "R". I feel that way sometimes when I am working on the computer. Like I pull myself back out of it, it feels like I am pulling myself out of the machine, and it is layout stuff. Like I will sit down to start doing stuff and it seems to takes so long!

Anon: It's like "R" was frozen.

"Aur:": It was like it shouldn't be taking so long. It was not like walking through mud but like suspended animation or slow-mo on the camera.

Cel: I didn't see much of "R" because he separated himself. But I would go in and he would be staring in front of the camera...or the computer.

Anon: Yes, it was a camera.

Cel: So once I sang to him "Falling in love again, never wanted to, what am I to do, can't help it...". And he didn't laugh. He was like "What are you singing that for?"

Anon: He acted like he was in love with the computer.

Cel: Yes! ---

Aur: Yes, it's like that. I have the mouse over here and it's like I'm in that thing. It is very weird.

Anon: You are in that world. The bad thing is....what we need to do is have regulatory agencies which monitor the ingredients in computers.

Aur: It is not the word processor though. It is when I am working with images.

Anon: When he started on the images, it's true, he did go psycho working with the images.

Cel: He would hole up all the time. It was a fourplex, and I never saw him.

Aur: You can spend hours doing that stuff.

Anon: I would go in at 2:00 AM and find him staring at the screen. Just sitting and looking.

Student: I would imagine it is cumulative too. Like you probably don't notice it at first then it gets worse. Like Aur, if you have been doing it for a long time it will seem more....

Aur: They would call me into the office and I would say; "Uh, hang on a second" and then I can cope. It is like I have to pull myself out after I have ----

Student: The other thing too, the written language is real right brain. It is a flat derivative. It might be when you type a word it is more right brain so you would not go off into the left brain as when you do images.

Aur: Or design type stuff.--- Radioactive --- In college I would get dry skin around my mouth and nose. (Pause) Well, (the movie maker) "W" was quite surprised to hear from me he answered the phone. He said "I've been getting these faxes for months now and you have been --- and you are going to the conference?" And I said "Yeah, so?" (Laughter)

Anon: So what. So you are in the now, right? Are you in the past or in the now? Had "W" received the previous faxes? (Yes) Good. Now see, "Aur", if he would incorporate that in some work of art, so that he could somehow warn people against the HAL program. Do you remember that movie "Blade Runner"? How tragic it was, the woman who went ---, the tragedies of the cross-species people and how do we deal with that with humanity instead of just trying to annihilate the people that are maimed? How do we deal with it in a way that is truly human? Which is to somehow go toward the human qualities which are altruism, which is looking to the future instead of the past, which is somehow looking to the future generations because if you think about, like Maslow's hierarchy of needs, it is like if at first a person thinks about their own survival and their immediate safety and then they think of their pack, their own family and then it gets to be their country, they become like patriotic people. And then above that it becomes maybe the world. We are looking at the world and it is not just the world of now but the world of the future.

That to love....when you think about the GI's who fought so bravely in WWII; they were so altruistic, that a lot of them came back and even though their bodies were maimed, their minds were intact. I think what happened in Korea and Vietnam they tried the Agent Orange and shit that maimed their spirits and their minds, so they couldn't come back intact. Had they not been messed with, they would have come back clean.

But the fact is, the experiments they did in Vietnam deformed the silvery bodies of a lot of the GI's but that doesn't mean they are going to be killed. What happened with NASA is that at a certain point they decided to create Ghost Busters, like in the movie. They are like tanks that had actual radioactive material. They were just going to kill all the deformed silveries thinking they were aliens. They weren't ghosts; they were actually maimed, suffering humans' spiritual bodies. What we need to do is restore those to health and not look toward killing them.

Student: Propaganda of the Gulf War. Half a million GI's became --- and for what?

Anon: What I saw in London. I saw a British soldier on the subway that had like a Tourette's syndrome and he was jerking around so much.

Cel: He was a handsome guy and he looked so intelligent.

Anon: Oh, so handsome a young man and suffering so much. I told the Brits he was in the HAL program. I said "Just give us a little hotel by the sea somewhere and let us try to figure out a way to heal these people." Because I think we can heal these people that are brain damaged. They think, and there are articles in England about mad cow disease killing people right and left. It is not mad cow disease at all; it is a HAL program deviating the mad cow organism. It is actually transmitted to the people in the study. The most sensitive people like the girl we saw a picture of, obviously was a very high strung, sensitive young woman. So they are going to say it is mad cow disease. They actually injected her (with Mad Cow) in a research project. She didn't eat a damn raw hamburger. She was in hell. Total hell

Cel: She was married and beautiful, religious, young and smart.

Anon: They use the crème de la crème for the studies. They are killing the best. It reminds me of the song (sings) "Take what you need and leave the rest but you never should have taken the very best. The night they drove old Dixie down." It was like the carpet baggers coming in, killing the very best of the genteel southerners.

What we need to do is not throw out the baby with the bath water. What we have to do is figure out a way to save those that are maimed instead of destroying them. Because the theory of NASA was kill everybody they experimented on that deviated. And they kill them by suicide, by causing people to kill each other, or by diseases; cancer, whatever.

Student: This is related to the Master Race idea?

Anon: Exactly. It is related, except it is even worse because now they are in a panic.

Student: Well, granted the technology ---

Anon: Now they know they are not going to get to the master race, now they are afraid the aliens have invaded the Earth. The Nazis that survived Nazi Germany and moved to Brazil and places are some of the same engineers of this technology and I have met the suckers. I met them in Miami.

Cel: I met one in Miami.

Student: There can't be many left but I am sure they have ---

Anon: No. They have found ways to live a long time; a lot of them live to be 100 years old. Some from Canada came down to Acapulco, we met them there too. They live a long time by vampiring military bases, the children in military bases. They get them because they are in set housing. They suck the life out of the children in military bases and then they feed them to the Nazis.

Student: How long can they live? Indefinitely?

Anon: No, they can't. The reason is, because this information is going to get out. I had a two-ton woman about beat the shit out of me in Acapulco. Thing about it is, they don't like the truth coming out. They are as mean as snakes. But any self-respecting secret agent man can find out where those old-timers are hiding and flush them out and get rid of them. Because the truth is, the South Afrikaners are leaving so they can kill everybody in South Africa that doesn't have the....they are going to irradiate all of South Africa. That is why I told (a former student) not to go to South Africa because they are irradiating the whole continent of Africa. What they have to do is, what they are doing is, all the Huns in power are out there in Acapulco, because I met them all. They are in Acapulco sitting in the sun basking and tanning their legs and getting dilapatories in salons and the men are going to whores. In the meantime all the rest of the people in Africa are going to get creamed and they are going to die of HIV and cancer and kill each other. Then they are going to have all that free land.

Cel: When I was in South Africa I was talking to an ordinary South African man who told me that Johannesburg closes down at 5-6PM and then all the men go to the black section where all the whore houses are until 12-1AM. So Johannesburg the city is "clean" and the men go off and party and come back. It was a strange country because I would be driving through and it is beautiful, it has the potential for great beauty, and I would see a clear cut forest replanted with all the trees in straight lines. And there is no creativity to the sign posts, the city or street names.

Anon: Binary. Any man who goes to a whorehouse loses his soul. He becomes a binary piece of shit.

Cel: It was horrible, horrible. And another ordinary man picked me up; I was hitchhiking with another girl. He took us to dinner where there was a black waiter and he was saying "Blacks are this and blacks are that" and the black waiter was standing right there! I didn't say anything, but I looked up at the waiter. The white man said "Oh, don't worry; he knows that it's true. It doesn't bother him. It's no big deal."

Anon: Remember that Canadian man that came to our table and started insulting the poor girl trying to sell jewelry and I looked at him like "You worthless piece of shit. You call yourself a hombre. Get your ass out of here."

Cel: Yeah. He wasn't Canadian was he?

Anon: He could have been a Canadian Hun, but he was probably an Afrikaner if the truth be known.

Student:---the poor people. They have a different language. They would tell me things that would get me out of trouble. -- Two dimensional that I would walk right into something. The upper class were constantly insulting them and saying "Don't worry about it".

Anon: It was so insulting. I was so furious the way they were treated.

Student: I was in a Chinese restaurant in Philadelphia, some hole in the wall but very good food.

Other student: That was when we saw "My Life as a Dog."

Student: And the waiters were Chinese/American they could speak both languages and probably more and they were really nice. But there was something going on at the university and at this table next to us... the waiter --- the guy gets the waiter's attention when finished eating and he says "Hey! Pay bill! Pay bill now!" And I was thinking the waiter can speak better English than this guy can. It was the attitude of all these people in the University.

Anon: It rubs off. It is like they become vulgar like the people who HAL them. They decide to resonate with the same coarseness. I know exactly what you mean. When people are treated badly they are going to become....they are either going to resonate like their "masters" because they are beaten down (sings) "I'd rather be a hammer than a nail" They eventually become the nail that pokes the eye out of their "master"...or they somehow rise above.

I saw the spirits of some of the Mexicans that were so pure and true and clean. Oh, it gave me such joy. A little boy came up behind me and started hugging me and the band started playing "La Bamba" and he started dancing with me. We had the best time, this little Mexican boy and the next day I saw him and HAL had irradiated the shit out of him; the NASA people. The kid was like this (pause). And here was a kid who was so beautiful like (the children here) he was so full of life and sweet. He reached up and hugged my neck just in spontaneity and love, and when we were singing La Bamba we were kind of dancing. The next day I saw him used as a lab rat. I was so angry. So angry. To hurt that little baby, a nine year old boy. I was more or less ready to get the machine guns myself and go after the damn NASA men. I was ready to call in Dirty Harry.

When they start hurting the babies in the street just because they have given me a hug? I think that is a scary world. Every researcher and every agent has to think of their own children and children of tomorrow and their own wives. They could strip somebody of dignity, they could debase someone and they can be debased. I guess that is what it boils down to. We have to get rid of the mind control program. We have to. There is no legitimate application because it defies the Law of Free Will. At one point I thought well maybe, if you had all the Charlie Mansons in one building you could do it to them, because they are already zonked out. But no, it doesn't apply to them either.

They need to try to find out what f-- them up and how they f-- up and try to straighten it out, so the future doesn't end up being like this. How about just not doing the same thing? You don't fight fire with fire, you fight fire with water. Maybe the water is the Tears of Christ. Maybe the fire is the radioactive element of the Moon. Maybe the Christ Impulse has to come down and drown it out to destroy it. And if it doesn't, we are all doomed because it will be fire against fire which will be nuclear holocaust and we are on the verge of destruction. We are. And all the meditating orgasms and all the sitting and looking beatific and reading "Course of Miracles" won't change a thing.

What it comes down to; people's minds are hacked into. It is a clear technology. It is not something spiritual which was my mistake and I apologize to all of you for thinking it was spiritual. I was always praying, always praying, always praying. But I was wrong. You know sometimes you have to deal with it on the level that it appears. I had to not just pray for God to help me. I had to get my butt, with "Cel's" butt, and we had to haul our butts all over the dang world to try to find little pieces of the puzzle to fight, fight, fight.

Because sometimes you will lie there in bed and they will start the HAL program and they will start irradiating your head and you just try to "Turn it over to God, turn it over to God." What happens is, this is a terrible and horrible thing. I want you to reread the story of the "Jilting of Granny Weatherall" one of the most famous stories and I can't think of the author (Nathaniel Hawthorne?). What happens is just how HAL has blocked God from the Earth and people think that is impossible but in fact, the Earth has a karma just like a human. The only way we can interact with God right now is like from a remote control mechanism. For instance, we have a resonating frequency that is beyond the HAL station. That somehow we can pick up a station of God, of angels, of glory, of something better than what we hear; of the pornography, of the Pac-men stations, of the subliminal advertising.

What we have got to do is fight with technology, but not fight fire with fire. What we have got to do is encourage Congress to fight with regulatory agencies that block, like the FCC, transmissions from the moon, from satellites, from the Hubble space craft from all of it, to restore the --- of our own bodies so that the Hopi type spiritual people, the holy ones....like when (this child) said to me "Someday I want to be an angel". The children who have a pure aspiration, a pure desire, a pure will, have the right genetic configuration to be holy people. And I'm not saying that --- children can't be holy people. I am just saying that some are supposed to be. Like everybody has a path, like the 8 Fold Path. Some are supposed to be teachers, leaders, healers others are supposed to be like wood carriers or whatever. Jesus was a carpenter.

I love the song (sings) "Jesus was a sailor when He walked upon the water. He spent a long time watching from a lonely wooden tower and when He knew for certain only drowning men would see Him, He said 'all men shall be sailors then until the sea shall free them'. He Himself was broken long before the sky would open. Forsaken almost human, He sank beneath your wisdom like a stone." That was written by a Jewish man, which I find interesting; not raised in the Christian tradition...Leonard Cohen. Who could see more clearly being out of the Christian tradition. He saw Christ's truest self, the modesty, the sorrow that Christ saw that it is only when people's backs are against the wall will they begin to fight for what has to survive to help the children of tomorrow.

People...the Christians, are all waiting for the second coming of Christ. Well maybe they had better realize that they have to go to Christ this time. The first time Christ came down. This time they are going to have to go up. (Sings) "Suzanne holds the mirror. She shows you where to look among the garbage and the flowers. There are heroes in the seaweed, there are heroes in the morning they are crying out for love and they will lean that way forever while Suzanne holds the mirror. And you want to travel with her, and you want to travel blind, and you think somehow you trust her, because she touched your perfect body with her mind."

There is some part of each human that has not been completely HAL'ed, that has a mind memory of God, of the intactness of the human spirit. Which no matter what our mistakes have been, all of us have made mistakes, there is some part of us that has an altruistic...some part of us that struggles towards that which is better than ourselves. It doesn't make us out to be God, but travels to that which is God. And if we recall that, through a song that links us to the divine, a song of the cosmic choir which is somehow obliterated by all the radioactivity and yet some part of us in the core of our being, recalls some part of our guardian angels singing to us in the dead of night.

That which is pure and true and holy is one which leads us to the future and not the past. Somehow it will heal us and others heal us because we cannot heal one of us, we heal all of us. Anybody who hopes to save himself by holing up in a cave will die. It is only the healing of the Earth which will save any one of us. By looking at it from that perspective we must indeed try to survive individually by our intellect, by our dancing with the waves of misfortune and by humor and grace. (Sings): "But we don't back down, no we don't back down. You can stand us up in the gates of Hell...HAL, but we won't back down."

You hear all the voices telling you all sorts of crap. But the key is, you refuse to accept the little tiny band which says (sings): "Don't worry....be happy. Don't worry....be happy. Don't worry....be happy." You don't accept that. You want something that is grand. You want the Leonardo Da Vinci's of the world to come out of (this child who is present).

You want the saint to come out of (this other child present) you want (a third child present) to explore the universe with the wave of the hand of his own visionary ability. What you want is a complete human to come out of every child and not some binary stupid idiot on drugs smoking pot and sitting in the back room masturbating.

What you want is somebody who is not going to say “I am somebody!” and then sit. Because he doesn’t have to say he is, because in fact he is part of God. And you don’t have to claim it if you are already there. “Methinks the lady protesteth too much?” When somebody stands up and says “I am somebody!” You got to think; well there is some problem there if they have to say they are somebody. They are protesting too much. Did anybody say they weren’t somebody? You know, don’t hit somebody unless they try to hit you first. You don’t just say you are somebody if someone hasn’t said you aren’t. In the time of Jesse Jackson, it was true. They were said they were nobody. So they were saying “I am somebody” to fight that. But this is not the time of Jesse Jackson.

This is a time when people want to say (sings) “Everything is beautiful in its own way.” But when people say “I am somebody” are people who want to control others by that exact HAL program. By saying there is no differentiation of species they then can control all the species, because the differentiation of species is the core to understanding how to develop. There is a transmigration of species. The Hindus were right. Some came up and some came down. It doesn’t matter. We are in this world together.

There is no insult in saying that one that evolves up or one that evolves down if they are the same ---. So what? It doesn’t matter. The core is what are going to do with our lives and how are we to protect the children of tomorrow and help them to be all that they can be in a refined way that does not destroy civilization. What exactly is civilization? In the book Virtues, Laws and Powers, what I wrote had to do with the compilation of traits relative to a civilized society. One of those is altruism, the understanding of hierarchy, of gender, of authority. Unless we understand right from wrong, male from female we will never survive as a civilized society. We will have pedophiles, we will have murderers abounding, we will have defilers of the mind because “There is no wrong or right” and “It doesn’t matter.” If something screws your mind up and makes you into a robot, it doesn’t matter you are just a thing not a human, right? That is the way they look at. There is no wrong or right. There is no differentiation of species and you are no different from some dog in a cage.

Student: One of those commercials for a credit card or computer, they flash a montage of images which are supposed to be mushy feel-good with a voice-over saying “There are no races” then they flash a car or whatever. They say: “There are no genders” and they flash a car. They say: “One world, one word.”

Anon: That is an example of the horror. We have got to insist that there are regulatory agencies that stop the subliminals and the mind hacking techniques which ---. This manipulative advertising which destroys in effect, people’s understanding that there are males and females. Women should not be together, men should not be together sexually. It’s wrong. It goes against natural law. It is abnormal. Because why does a man have a penis and a woman have a vagina? You just think about it. In a very basic sense, men should be with women. It is abnormal for men to be with men. Men’s rectums are a one-way valve. They should not be a two-way valve. (Chuckles)

If people try to say.... I don’t care how popular homosexuality is, it is wrong. It is one of the things that brought down Greece and Rome. At the end of every civilization you see an uprising of homosexuality and every culture that acknowledges it as a valid lifestyle encourages pedophilia, child pornography and child slavery.

Student: They used to teach that in college about the Greeks and Romans. They don’t teach that anymore.

Anon: When (a former student’s) private schooled daughter had a homosexual rally in her high school, a homosexual rally in an assembly for a pro-lesbian, what that does is, when the HAL program hits them with the lesbian stuff they just do it. Because they are taught; they are ingrained to do it and it mutates the species because homosexuals become deviant in their genetic material and it destroys the genetic material of the group and then they become crazy. The men become effeminate and the women become like men. That is what you are going to see.

The Alien Greys with asexual future humanoids are the mutants who were sent to the moon for the simple reason that they were deviates. The deviates that are asexual or homosexual become the greatest killers in the future because they hate law. They hate law of gender, they hate law of hierarchy. They hate all law. You know the police know when a homosexual murder occurs because a homosexual who kills a homosexual lover doesn’t stab them once or twice in the heart, they stab them a hundred times. Homosexuals do overkill. That is how they differentiate a homosexual killing from a straight killing. Homosexuals have a hatred that they will kill someone with ten times (the force) or torture. They use torture, whereas straights don’t tend to do that. Some straights are with straights (?)--- but they are homosexuals using the Alistair Crowley techniques.

What we have got to do is get away from the kinky shit and get back to old fashioned values; the family values. (Get back) to people being nuns and priests who are holy and not perverse. We can get back to people living impeccably as singles straight or as married couples, but not as perverts and not encouraging any perversion. The role for each of us is sacred, and our body is the temple of God. And we are not going to let people turn us into something weird. We are going to be holy and live according to the laws of nature on all planes and beingness and we are not going to image weird acts from the HAL controllers by perverting us.

We are going to be attacked because we are going to forget the past. They try...one way that HAL tries to get you is to make you shamed or remember things of your past. What you have got to do is say "Get thee behind me, Satan." What you have got to do is forget your past and just start from this day forward and say "I will not be defiled, nor will I defile anybody else. I will do the best I can do as of right now." And let's face it, we have all been messed over, we have all been wounded. This is a technological system and a mostly --- system and every person in this room has been hit and a lot of others. I want this audio tape to go out to anyone, with no restraints.

What I want to say to everybody is, we are going to have to fight the system and not each other, OK? Because the system is encompassing the whole world and it is devouring it. Let's forget our mistakes, let's just go forward in dignity and pride with the energy of knowledge that "Wherever two or more are gathered in my Name" it actually should be three or more, that if we pray that the Christ Impulse be restored to the Earth then it will be. In order to do that, we need to be as impeccable as we can. We have to recapitulate our higher selves and look forward to something finer and greater. And we can.

We have to, because the children deserve a better future. The things I saw were terrible. It doesn't matter. What matters is how we can prevent those things. The Cassandra Complex is a dangerous thing, because you can see the future. If you prevent it, you are (considered) an idiot and if you don't prevent it, you caused it according to the Fool. So do you say it to prevent it, or do you not speak and then allow it? The paradox of the Delphi Oracle.... (Pause)

Say, did you guys bring the Man of La Mancha? What if you say we shift gears, everybody get a stiff drink (laughter) and we play (the movie) Man of La Mancha?

Break in Tape

See, we are in a real tough spot. In that if they say that I'm just crazy they have to let the faxes go through. They found out...see, there is a real battle going on; if they try to bar my first amendment rights to teach, or to talk in my own living room with other countries beaming in and listening...they have competing agencies, number #1. They don't want this information out but if they say they don't want it out it validates it. If they try to say that I am a national security risk then they have to say that I know what I am talking about. They want to say that this is all a delusion that there is no ---. The problem is, there is too much --- out there. It is obvious that it is real. So they don't know whether to call me a terrorist or a nut. But they can't really call me both.

Cel: Comments/inaudible. (Re. Anon's first mental pick-up in Oklahoma. Please see book Smoke Signal from the Nut House Book I. Feb. 1, 1996 for the events told through faxes sent at the time.)

Anon: We didn't have any weapons, any drugs or anything and they just came in, three armed men. They still have it on my medical records that I was waving a gun around because my (relative) claimed he had seen it. He was so HAL'ed and I hadn't seen him for four and a half years. And they were taking....my (other relative) pulled into the motel parking lot and started taking the air out of Cel's car tires (right before the mental pick up). They wouldn't even come to the door. My (two relatives) were afraid to come to the door because the (1st relative) was told to say I was waving a gun around which is still on my medical records; which they proved was not true. Even though they proved it's not true, I have to have it on my record.

Student: (Why create a mental record?)

Anon: To bar somebody from their civil rights; the right to freedom, the right to publish, to do anything; freedom of religion, freedom of speech, freedom of assembly and even the freedom to not be in the nut house. See, everywhere I run the risk all the time of just being locked up forever. They were going to put me in indefinitely (in Oklahoma and Miami) if Cel had not been there. They were going to put me in forever.

Student: People are concerned about me being here right now. They are afraid ---everybody is worried about the technology ---

Anon: That's right.

End of Tape #5 Side A

Anon: I feel thick tongued, I can't....I can bypass it, but I think it is unfair to do that to the others. Does anybody sense the ultrasonic destabilizers? (Oh, yeah.) What are you sensing? What we have to do is define the sensations so other people can detect it more readily.

"Sur": I feel it in my heart, it is fibrillating, I guess. That is what is making my nerves shaky. So I feel stupid and spacy...more than usual. (Laughter) But I can feel a definite --- by the heart.

Anon: "Sur" is an excellent witness. So in other words she feels heart flutters and she feels mentally obtunded.

Student: What does obtunded mean?

Anon: Obtunded means cloudy or you could say, mentally cloudy. I feel a sense of fine motor...what is the word? Not paresthesia, it is the lack of...an altered sense of peripheral nerve functions. There seems to be numbness on the first -- nerves; fingertips, lips.

"Aur": I feel like my upper palate and teeth are numb as with Novocain.

Anon: Yes. A sense of; I don't know if you call it paresthesia. (Talking to testers) What is it guys? They don't know. They aren't doctors. But it is something like a numbness.

Student: On the nerves like a tingly---

Anon: You can just say numbness. Try to use simple language.

Aur: what did you say about the mouth?

Anon: Um...um....see, I can't remember because of this thing. I am going to have to bypass it. See how the dogs are dancing all over the room to get out of the center of it? They have like a center gravity point that radiates out from there and they are trying to send a center gravity point on my head. So that is one thing to dowse for. Look for the Center Gravity Point; that they have it in. They are starting to do an altered magnetic forcefield in here. If we had a compass we could probably see compass changes. You have one? Great.

Aur: I need one to find my way back to the hotel. Its ten minutes away and I've gotten lost every single time.

Anon: The bad thing about the ultrasonic destabilizer, it is used by the military, by the NSA, NASA and by private industries as well, to destabilize competing companies. And unless they figure out ways to detect this...I can foresee a whole new business set up just to fight these forcefields in modern technology by people who are able to detect them with dowsing methods and with machines, like Lewis ---. The dowsers have a lot of things that can detect these. When we write this up (for the Dowsters) we will address it to Lewis --- because he could fight it. Now that we have the ultrasonic destabilizer down; now see....I don't know where the real directions are.

Student: True north is that way. I checked that outside the house.

Anon: Ok, now look at this. What is interesting is if you move it, you get an abnormal...put it up toward thesometimes it is hard to see because they beam over your head. They may be normalizing the magnetic forcefield now. Let's see (walking around). Oh look, this looks off, it is starting to spin. They send some up through the floor, and let me check this window. If they send it up through the floor; there is one they tried on me that makes the floor feel totally hot.

Now what I would suggest is that we leave this on the floor and you just watch it and if it starts spinning or something, or changing poles then you will know that you have some problem. I would suggest that everyone keep a compass in your bedroom particularly near your head because that is where you are going to have problems. I saw McKusick's compass go crazy at the Dowser's convention several years ago.

Student: This is aligned with magnetic north right now. If it moves off of the 0...

Anon: Ok, we will keep an eye on it. (To student) Did you get that fax off to (another student?) (Yes) Good We are adding more things here. "Aur" is taking notes, so we can type more stuff. There was an ultrasonic destabilizer in here and they were beginning the ...they were telling me they were going to do South/South on us but I think they were teasing. They were going to do North/North but they were telling me South/South. That is one of their little tricks. They are saying the "high Q" bunch are going to hate me for (telling about) the floor beams. (Laughter)

Well, I want you to think about health. Like to me (this student) looks protein deficient. Her pallor? There is something that happens. People who used to do very well on vegetarian diets don't do so well anymore. Like I had my blood drawn in Mexico and my red blood cells were rupturing, distorted and deforming due to radiation sickness. My white cells were changing. It is like it produces leukemias or leukemic type dysplasia.

(Also) an overgrowth of organisms; think about the huge number of candidiasis infections. It should be one of the symptoms that we put down on the list. Chronic candidiasis, skin infections; like I remember seeing a (relative's) skin and I thought it was psoriasis and he was like a kid with --- disease. Of course he had no pituitary left, no thyroid gland left; being reamed out by the lasers. People that want to just think of this as spiritual, run the risk of just sitting in the same forcefield and having a laser lobotomy done on them. By destroying the corpus collosum and the pineal they produce a ready robot. It is easy to invade people then. And by flipping the sub-conscious and the conscious minds, the insanity that results.... "That's not exactly it." They are saying. (Pause)

What they want to do is have the silvery be able to think as clearly with words as your physical body does. That is how they want to create the communication, then they can shine a silvery with one of those blue lights that we saw in the monastery, and the blue lights can read the thoughts of the silvery. (Pause)

The use of naguals was because, having an additional body the double....besides the silvery; was an inorganic being which produced more control, more power. If they could then get those two thinking in words, that is what they want. They want to control it so they can communicate with words so it will accept commands and be auditory. They did experiments with me where they tore off my nagual double at one point and had it in the experiment. They would use torture devices on it like put it in a South/South magnetic field and microwaves and stuff. And then my body felt like it was happening to my body. They would shoot holograms at my double and I would have flashes of horror but I wouldn't see them per se, with my physical eyes. I would just feel a sense of dread for whatever it was. (Pause)

They are saying that; one of the (testers) is saying that one problem they had was that my double stuck to my physical body so they were doing it to both until it began to decompose out of the total terror and shock of showing me for weeks...they showed me (a relative) being dismembered, raped, tortured. They used (relative) as my torture. It was terrible. They showed me other people as well, but with (relative) that is how they wanted to break me. They showed (relative) in handcuffs with the feet cut off like in Africa and being devoured. And then unfortunately in the "Philadelphia Worlds" (the relative's) silvery was partially devoured by the Mau Mau's...is that the name? Remember (a former student) talked about the invisible Indian natives that kept reappearing in New Zealand and other places? There was an article about it.

Student: the Maoris.

Anon: Yes, and in Africa the same thing happens where whole tribes suddenly appear and disappear and they believe they can stop a bullet if they put a bullet in the water (?) The reason is these beings are part other-worldly. The British in particular have done a lot of studies on them and the Germans. But they also use them to eat up the silveries that they thought were deformed. They actually used them like a microbe. They would have these things trapped in a cylinder and then feed human silveries to them, those they thought were defective.

Student: And the Maoris eat them?

Anon: They actually eat them. The Maoris and the other tribes, they feel like they are eating flesh. They perceive it as flesh because they are crazy for one thing. They are cannibalistic by nature. The cannibals; since I ran into them in Belize are more common than you know. There are a lot of the temples there and the pyramids where they did human sacrifices and stuff.

Aur: They had so many blood rituals.

Anon: And they are still practiced some by the Garifuna and others. They still do blood rituals. The man that talked us into going onto the rooftop bar; where they gave me the African poison; they were filming me while they....they don't want me to talk about it do they? Because of the Brits? No the national team. Ok, I won't talk about it (To testers:) Why do you have the confusion factor in here? You have the thing coming up from underground now? That is very dangerous. You are going to cause Earth core destabilization. No, they are telling me they are running it at an angle away from the core. But it is still going to cause the plates to shift. It is very dangerous. Oh, they are sending it from a close area they say. It probably shouldn't cause that much (problem). What is your purpose in doing so? What they do that for, is to create a wobbliness in the force field that emanates from the ground.

Like the dowzers would talk about how you have meridians on the Earth, like acupuncture meridians on humans? And I remember telling one agent "You know you can stand in some spots and you will be an inch shorter than if you stand a foot away." I saw this in a dowsing conference and it is actually true. If you have two people of the same height on either side of one of these lines, divisions, on flat ground, one person will appear shorter. Then you put the person over here and they appear taller. They even measure taller.

Student: Ley lines?

Anon: Yes, along certain types of Ley lines they actually change the matter. And you think, how could it be that somebody could be an inch taller or an inch shorter on either side of the Ley lines so rapidly? It makes no logical sense except for the fact it has to do with the impact on the shrinking or expanding of the molecules of the body. It is instantaneous.

It is like, there were ghost houses in California and where water would run uphill and stuff like that. They were similar to the Bermuda Triangle sorts of places. But the use of the moon mined element has created small Bermuda Triangle type forcefields world over. Eventually they started creating ones that the...there was a crack between now and the future because the moon mined element was linked to future dimensional spaces when they combined it with the alien stuff ---. (Pause)

Did the dowzers get all the papers from yesterday's fax? That would include the day before. Good. (Pause)

What they are telling me is that there is some question about me advising people not to take medications for mental illness produced by this technology. They are saying that from my position as a nurse, I shouldn't be telling people to do that. Well, (laughs) I think I should tell people because if it makes them stupid, lethargic and kills their soul, I think that is a real reason to tell people not to take drugs. They want to get people on these HAL drugs so that all you are is some flat line who can't think your way out of a paper bag. You can't protect yourself against anything. You lose your second sense. Like an Indian can sense when somebody is behind him? You lose your sense of when you are in danger, you become just like an automaton.

(To the testers:) Who is saying that I was out of line? The President's men? Ok, I don't give a shit about what the President thinks (Clinton). Well, how many drugs is the President on now? Two? That is what I thought. He is probably on lithium carbonate and the other one Depakote. That is exactly what he is on. That is exactly what they want to put on almost everybody.

I saw this guy in the Miami "gulag" (SW Dade Hospital) who said he had been a legislator or something. But I'm not quite sure; they all lie when they get in there, the agents. They put him on the drug and he was drooling and stupid. He was warning me about a satellite that was about to crash over Alaska and that they were thinking it would cause a lot of disturbance. I don't know if it is true or not. (To testers:) Was he talking about the Hubble? The Hubble is probably going to go down.

Then they got him all drugged up, he was drooling and then they let him out and he said: "I feel much better!" and he did! He was happy to take the drug because they torched....in the "gulag" they give you so much pain in the forcefields that you finally break down and take the drug. That is why it is important to stay out.

Cel: I saw the same guy. The first day he had bright eyes and he looked intelligent and in three days he was slumped over and his eyes were glazed, his face was slack.

Anon: That is right and he had a scaly white exudate on the side of his mouth. He looked like an old man instead of a middle aged man. And you look at Margot Kidder, the way she was talking in the article in People Magazine; she looked 100 years old in that. If you look at her just five years ago she was beautiful, but she looked 100 years old.

Aur: Isn't that in the movie Blue Sky? That was 20-30 years ago.

Anon: Yes. That is supposed to be a true story, too.

Student: Like the Joan Baez song about the woman in Russia who ---. I can't remember the name of it.

(Pause) Oh, they are just reminding me how in Belize I started feeling the small --- tremors and stuff? And I tapped into the mind hackers there. There were tons of agents. They were hilarious wearing sun glasses. It was like Mission Impossible and they were all white from Europe or someplace and they would sit there in their swim trunks that were spandex, sitting on the dock waiting for us with their back packs (laughter) and their radioactive cameras.

Cel: They were built like Olympic swimmers; the Germans.

Anon: There were a lot of Germans. But I talked to the head of the Americans, and a lot of the Americans were there and they are fat and flabby it is true, but the ones that were sending the tremors were the Interpol guys, right? (Yes) Oh they are laughing because I said all the President's men were wearing spandex in Acapulco. They all stood around in their spandex. Ok, is there anything else you guys would like to offer about the forcefields? (Pause) They are saying "We don't talk to you." (Laughter)

One thing that is done in some of the experiments on people in their own houses and in institutions; they put a chemical in the hot water tank that alters the body's ability to tolerate the negative forcefields and they also can put poison in the hot water.

Aur: It breaks down the ability to tolerate it?

Anon: Yes, they can either put a drug in there, but what I noticed when they did it to me and to Cel; they can do it in hotel rooms for instance that have, or in all hotels where they have water tanks such as bed and breakfasts in Europe that are not on a big system. It is interesting; they would put it in just before we would shower. They hooked something into the piping, because they turned it off when their people took showers. What I found out was, I took showers when the agents took showers because the agents were always at the side of the room (of adjoining rooms) where they would hook their machines for forcefields on both sides. So whenever a person in the next room took a shower, I jumped in the shower to avoid it.

But that is something to know in that if your skin becomes scaly and weird. Oh, another thing they did in the experiments, they put microbial infections in the cosmetics and stuff for the reason...they are creating biological markers and that produces a kind of leprosy type skin, weird infections all sorts of weird things (such as) hair loss and pustules that don't seem to go away. Sometimes these are benefitted by putting lice shampoo or lotion over, and the ---, and also using white calcium Clorox on the towels. If you use a face cloth, what the agents did at one point they put contaminations on the face cloth that was hanging up to dry. So you ought to use a face cloth only once, or keep it in a chlorine solution to sterilize it and to use the olive oil and soda which does help, but it won't get rid of everything.

The addition of Drano to shampoo is one thing they did in San Pedro (Belize) to make the hair dissolve. It is the active ingredient of Drano; the hair would start falling out in handfuls. They would put it in the conditioner bottle, too. The women agents were bad about that; they want to make women look bad. It is a form of psychological torture too, to have your hair fall out, your skin fall off in chunks. Let's face it; nobody wants to walk around looking like a --- mess. And of course the bloating you up, caused by pushing water into your abdomen and pulling water out of your face makes you look like you have the biggest beer belly. Well, I would be standing, and they would start doing the super-conductivity tube sucking water out of my eyes and putting toxins in my belly. My belly would just go "woof" and my face would get all puckered up and withered. I looked 100 years old. It was like in five minutes I would age 20-30 years. And then I would go home and I would try to throw it out with just the methods that I know, which includes spiritual methods like going through the waveforms, the frequencies.

But is also includes the method that I used to teach you guys, is to throw something into a candle flame. The reason is some of the stuff that they put in the visual holograms has that actual soul substance in it and can be ordered out. So you get a candle and you "milk". Remember when I said to milk out of the eyes? Or you can milk it to the Sun. That seems to work. Look at the Sun and force...you have a sense of propelling it out of your eyes into the Sun. Also sometimes in the water; but frequent bathing helps, because just as "Genevieve" talked about, the exudate that comes through the skin? That is very, very important to get that off because is for one thing a chemical marker but it will reabsorb! And if they put poisons in you, then you have to get it out. So whenever you are under attack you should bathe twice a day and it is good to soak in maybe some sea salt and soda in the bath as well, to draw it out.

The recognition that overgrowth is anything where your body does not appear to be in homeostasis, the appearance of....if your blood or menstrual blood becomes dark or you cut yourself and you notice you have blackish looking gooey blood? That is when they have really messed with you. If you notice that, if you bleed too much, or nothing, if your blood is too thick or weird, it has a dead look, then you know they have been putting/doing the experiments of combining silveries. One thing they try to do is graft one person's silvery onto another person's and then take yours out and try to exchanging them, what they call "Fourthing."

It is what they did with me where they would try to take a component of one person out and put it in another and you know, like the spirit of one person and put it in another? In most cases they found it died. Then they experimented putting the silveries in jars, just like (the movie) Mothra and then they would feed it generative substance which was drawn out through super conductivity tubes out of people having orgasms. They actually draw it out; suck it out with the super conductivity tube.

They give you hologram images of stuff to get you riled up and then they suck out your generativity substance which occurs at that time and which changes characteristics. Then they feed that, they actually were feeding the cannibals with other people's generativity substance that they would put in a jar. They use the superconductivity tube straight into a jar and they just ---. (Dog whines....comments...laughter).

One thing they do too, the agents that were used as invisible agents, they had to split their silvery completely from them and then they feed the orgasm substance to the agents in the jar and the agent then goes, walks around and does secret agent stuff. It is not attached to his body. They found if it would still have an etheric cord to the body, they couldn't command it or control it as well. It would snap back like in dreaming for instance, it would snap back (because) the mental control of the chief person would not want it to be in all those places. So what they did they severed the silveries from their top agents, particularly the naguals and then they ordered them around and fed them orgasm substance to keep them alive. But most of them (silveries) died. (Whistling in the background).

What they found too, the way they could talk to their agents by remote control? If the agent's silvery was in a jar they could talk to the silvery and the agents learned to hear on the silvery band. They trained the silvery to receive the impressions for remote transmission to their agents. (More whistling) They were experimenting with this with the astronauts. In fact an astronaut went to the moon but all their communications went out. They could (still) communicate with the silvery in the jar and (with) the morphic fields resonance, they would be able to communicate to the astronaut. They would not need any type of communication device. But the horror of that was that most of the silveries died and the astronauts then just became depressed.

Of course they would send people in so-called "unmanned spacecraft" but they would leave them up there to die and then their silveries were seen to be dying the same way that the men up there died. It was a terrible thing. A lot of the astronauts have suffered so much anyway, then to just torture them. Then they tried sending the silveries themselves in so-called "unmanned space crafts" and that is the horror beyond measure. Because the feeling of being pulled. You know I talked about the sensation of pulling? If you have moon pull, it very well may be they sent your silvery to the moon or part of your silvery. You can regrow a silvery or a dreaming body. Remember we used to talk about death of the dreaming bodies? They were robbing people of dreaming bodies back then (@1990-1993).

In fact if they send a part of you to the moon you will feel anguish because it is an abnormal tension. And they send them to Mars. They tried beaming them on light beams, kind of like the Ted Denmark studies. He was doing planetary elixirs; he would shine Venus...he would try to get the light of Venus in a solution. But the other thing they tried to do was see if they could beam the silvery along a light beam to a distant planet and back. Most of them died.

They tried sending them on light beams into my room at one point; I think you (Cel) saw one of the silveries they sent in. They just trashed them. See, if the window is open they can come through readily but some of them go through a window and others don't. I saw one splatter on a window like a bird turd. But they make a big sparking sound when they come in. Remember the one in the bathroom?

Cel: I remember the one in the bedroom in the middle of the night. It was like a ball of lightening in the middle of the room.

Anon: That is right. That is when the silvery is beamed to the room. I saw several of them in Caye Caulker and San Pedro (Belize). The biggest silvery of all was the nagual that was in Caye Caulker in my cabana. It was huge it was, whew, that was a nagual inorganic being. But it was so enormous and it gathered energy from people. It was like a vampire gathering energy. Did you (Sur) see something like that?

Sur: I think so. It was like two months ago in the bathroom and it came into the window and I kind of compared it to the burning bush. It came in the window like a ball of light. But it was like it was a thing that exploded.

Anon: I remember a friend of "R" the one that wore the tiger clothes at the conference in Chicago, I can't remember her name. She described what she thought was a religious experience in that a ball of buzzing light came into the room and that she felt maimed after that. She said it changed her and she wasn't quite sure why. I wasn't sure what it was then, but I think they turn women into....I think she was turned into some type of...almost like an alien abduction report. I think the alien abduction reports were actually a cover for turning people into robots.

I remember when (an ex-husband's) mother after she was so-called alien abducted, and she had inserted...she had a cut here. She was like an automaton and there was a buzz around her all the time, an abnormal buzz. They must have installed one of their coarser models of implant that they do to monitor people by satellite. She was very binary after that.

That the use of male and female energy in the separation of silveries is pretty well....they have certain differentiations of what the men would do and the women would do in the programs. The women did not look like sparking balls of light like that. One (of the testers) is saying "They do, too." (To the testers:) Can you tell me the differentiation, then? I don't imagine a woman's spark ball has come into my bedroom. (Pause). They said "That some glow, they have a glow when they look on the computerized contrast imagery, whereas the men's are sparked."

(Anon asks testers) Do you have to look through the computerized contrast imagery to see the men's spark? (They say): "The women have to be seen on the contrast media but the men don't." The men are like... (asks): What was in my bedroom in Caye Caulker? Was that a normal visual thing? (Yes), they are telling me now, they were shocked because the room was filled up with fire when I started fighting the thing. (Yes) I started fighting the ally that was in there, the inorganic being. (Pause) I shrunk it down in size from huge to about the size of this... The reason is, it was a devourer of souls. They train the inorganic beings of the nagual man in Belize and of the Castaneda party people, I think...party poopers, to actually gather and feed the invisible astronauts and agents.

The whole idea of having invisible agents, the allies, well not the allies but the doubles, was to be able to walk in anywhere and then have the allies gather the energy to feed them so they could exist separately. Now if you will recall in some of Castaneda's books there is a mention of how some dead sorcerers live forever in a tree or something. They trade out energy for knowledge. They give information to the seers in order to...but they have to give some of their life force back, right? So they feed them with something. You know, they eat fear, stuff like that? What I attempted to do, whenever I saw one of those inorganic beings being used by the intelligence agencies, I would try to do battle with it unless it was harmonious because....(pause).

I think somehow that the holy beings that have helped me to bring that ball of...that inorganic being that was in the bedroom down to a smaller size and to stop it from devouring people so that it is actually wasting away. If it was returned to him, it might survive. But then again it may not be God's will. If it is just going to be used by intelligence agencies to gather silveries of people and stuff and just go around and eat generative substances...

See they used the combined technology, the mind control technique to get people sexually excited and then they devour the generativity globules that come out of women and men. Then the people are left flattened without any generative function. Eventually they are devoured until their generative core is gone. When the generative core is gone, the people become impotent, numb and they don't feel anything sexually and they lose a sense of vitality in life and become listless. (Pause)

I don't know why they are telling me these things. I guess there is a reason. I said in there (in the fax) and this is going to really hit hard for some of the dowers, but the use, the belief that people have spirit guides is extremely dangerous and meditating is dangerous because you just don't know. If you are in the research project you have to avoid assuming anything that you hear in the ethers is from a good source or a bad source and sometimes they actually do tell you the truth! And sometimes they can save your life. There were so many researchers working on me that some were assholes and they nearly tortured me to death. Well, they are saying: "They did torture you to death and you crawled back out somehow."

But then some of them were looking out for me too. (Whistling starts up). But you can't assume they are going to be looking out for you. It is better to just not have anything to do with them. What they try to do is isolate people so they are dependent upon the HAL controller. Say for instance (a student in Maine) is snowed in for six months, and you would tend to just think, your mind --- like the guy who wrote the Starseed Transmission? He was snowed in when he wrote that. That was a HAL controlled device.

Student: That is like (the movie) The Shining. That is what they did. (Comments)

Anon: The Shining was a HAL controlled device to produce people's readiness to die. Because you think about it, in the end what they were saying was "You are going to rejoin nothingness" or something like that. It was to get people ready to accept the HAL for one thing, blissfully accepting of floating out into nothingness because of the belief of one group of mind control, was there would be no way to stop the annihilation of the Earth in the future. There was more to it than that, wasn't there? Oh, the ones that are carrying on the conversation say they were not aware of the Starseed Transmission.

One of the most destructive books of all time was The Keys of Enoch that (the NASA ex-student) was so fond of. He based some of the space programs on the Keys of Enoch which was an Asura mind control preparatory manual. It endorsed things like using South/South magnetic pole forcefields. Joyce Culkin used to speak from that book right and left. And The Law of One; Dwayne Anderson a doctor in Sacramento just worshipped The Law of One that was a series of channeled books of raw material.

End of Tape #5 Side B

In essence, people will just start worshipping what they feel is coming through the ethers and be unsuspecting because after all, "There is only love and fear" like in the Course of Miracles. The woman that did the Course of Miracles became totally psychotic and "R" met a priest who was at her death. She was Jewish but for some reason he knew her in the community. He said she was a raving lunatic that was drug addicted for a long time. She became totally psychotic. She was HAL'ed. And you think, why would they go to the trouble to put a book out that actually sounds pretty good unless you think about it? If it keeps you from taking appropriate action, then it is wrong.

To just say "I'm going to love everybody..." and that is what a lot of dowzers say. But they don't want to acknowledge...people want to say "Oh, if I'm in a forcefield, I'll just put a blue ribbon on something and then it will be gone." Bullshit! It is not that easy. Some of them have one trick and they don't get off that trick and no matter what new thing they see, they are just going to stick with it forever and they are going to die.

I saw the souls fall apart at the Dowzers in the last convention or two. It was so pathetic, I could hardly stand to look at them and some of their faces were so maimed. When they fell off (the souls), they were smiling and wanting to meditate all the time. They would get beatific. Their eyes were like dead, and they would just grin all the time and their eyes were real dead. They couldn't dowse their way out of a paper bag, or they would dowse what they wanted.

These machines can actually control the muscles and you have to realize that as well, if your dowsing response is totally thrown off in the presence of abnormal forcefields. If that is the case, you have to use your common sense. That is why studying the symptomology is important because say, the headache, lethargy, the weird symptoms. They (the Dowzers) don't know when to move, get out of the way, and not just lie down and whine --- . When they do the forcefields in the morning from 2AM, often, that is why I get up in the middle of the night. When they start the forcefields, I have to get up and move around.

Student: I've noticed that. It wakes me up too and ---

Anon: When I wake up and the force fields are just pounding me, I get the driest mouth. My tongue; the sense of taste is different as well. They put a drug; sometimes with the HAL program they will put a drug with the superconductivity and you will taste the drug in your mouth and body and you can smell it. Sometimes they make the room very cold or very hot. Like I said, fires will go out and that is something I didn't mention in the fax. Your body; you just can't warm up or you can't cool down, and an inability to digest food in the stomach.

One thing that is so interesting, I did mention the hair changes. I've seen me or "Cel" walk into a forcefield and our hair would suddenly fly straight up or like that... one side would go up and one side go down all of a sudden it would start moving like it was...it was weird, or the texture changes, the color changes (would happen) in a second. For some reason the hair picks up the residue of what they put in the superconductivity tubes.

Let's see. (Student) has symptoms; she gets foot fungus and stuff like that more easily. It is important to Clorox the bathroom because the overgrowth of fungal infections are one of those common things with irradiation exposure. You know, I don't think I put down red facial rash, did I? Maybe you can incorporate these together, Aur, with a word processor.

Aur: What about popping and cracking joints?

Anon: Yes, I put down swollen joints, why don't you put down popping and cracking joints on the list? (Pause)

Aur: I can hardly move....my wrists hurt so bad.

Anon: (Pause) What they are saying is they don't understand how I can translate from other languages from a realm that...it is like I don't speak the other languages but I can translate them because I developed a brain rupture that allowed me...I had to relearn how to think. When I had the brain hemorrhages and the Mad Cow disease, I learned to interpret things from the realm of Akasha. And so, everything has got an akasha...if someone is talking to you there is an ether file around you or if they are even thinking of you. If they are thinking in French or Spanish or anything, it can be translated in the ether cloud by the development of a refined body that is associated with the Genesis Project people. They can be taught to do that; the ones that are refined enough and haven't mutated too much, even the mutated ones can learn, they can mutate back.

But the ability to adjust cellular matter is part of the component of the Rapture Key. The ability for instance to go through walls, to teleport or to go to another time frame has to do with the fluidity of substance matter of the silvery and doesn't exclude the physical. The mistake the researchers made was in trying to split refined people's silveries and put them in stupid agents. They showed me this woman who was a Jewish woman who had a nose job, boob job, liposuction and was attractive looking, but the fact is, she was a stupid woman and scared to death and emotionally unstable. They were trying to draw out my silvery and put it on that woman to use her for as an agent because I was an --- agent. The fact is, it would never hold. They don't realize you can't take a physical body with someone who is unrefined and put a refined silvery on it and have it live. And if you put an unrefined silvery on a refined person, the refined person feels so sick, they want to kill it. It feels to them as something gross and makes them feel possessed with something foul. They were always trying to split my silvery and put it on some stupid broad.

Question: ---

Anon: (Laughs) That's exactly right. But the only ones they can graft are the Nephilim type. That is why...the Nephilims are grafted anyway. They have a fallen angel component and an animal man component. They came up the evolutionary ladder and not down. In other words the advanced people actually descended into matter from a more refined space whereas animal man crawled up. Animal man silveries are easily transferable in relationship to....compared to the higher, more evolved types.

The ones that have the extra dimensional spaces of future man were the most coveted because they are the ones that then could adapt to the experiments in time travel and stuff like that. That was the one thing they saw good out of the Genesis Project. The problem is, a lot of the Genesis Project people weren't able to cope because they had emotional weaknesses resulting from their heightened sensitivity, or physical illnesses as a result.

So, in other words the Dowzers are going to have a higher percentage of Genesis Project people because the ESP in Genesis Project people is greater and they are drawn to the dowzers. However the loss of the dowsing ability is inevitable in these forcefields because the destruction of the silveries, the mental body and the physical body was one of the outcomes that was planned. A planned mass extermination was something they were going to do. But that has been called off, I think. "Yes, it has," they said.

The planned mass extermination is not going to be done; however, they have already exterminated a lot of people that were in the microcosm Genesis Projects like the Waco group. A large number of them were in the Genesis Project and around that same area. Waco is not that far from Dallas, is it? They found it easy to irradiate and bombard them (Waco). But the decision to just bury them all was a major error of Clinton. It was not Janet Reno it was Clinton who made the decision and he should have been man enough to take the heat. He had no balls, she had --- ovaries ---. (Pause)

Student: Couldn't she have resigned rather than carry out the order?

Anon: Yes, she should have resigned instead of carrying out the order. They are warning me that (NASA scientist ex-student) might have hired a killer to come out here because the retirement money and everything. The very fact that he was a NASA scientist, the ASD is considering filing a personal lawsuit because he brought instruments into the meetings which are now viewed as radioactive. He was dispensing them at the ASD meetings, radioactive instruments that were believed to have caused people to decline physically.

The John Fox channeled materials should be avoided completely because of the use of radioactive tubes, the gasses in them were precursors to some of those later mass experiments. They were actually propaganda to get people to accept the moon's radioactivity. (Pause) Betcha Ramtha shuts down. It seems like; do you feel a sense of no time in here?

Student: A sense of suspension in time.... Student: It feels cold.....

Anon: This is when the fire goes out. Yes. Ok (to testers;) What do you guys have on us now? (Pause) This is what they do before they flash-burn whole buildings. The temperature drops, there is a sense of suspended time, it gets very still. This is coming from the Moon ---. Something is moving. Ok, a satellite is moving and directed towards us, it is not ultrasonic, it is not microwave. They want to put something in the room. They are doing a super-conductivity tube.

This is a good example of a mega super conductivity tube. The sensation of being in timelessness, your breathing seems different, you try to breathe, your breath feels shallow like you are not getting true air. This is what they call the suffocation, the suffocation tube. They box you into a room and they can suffocate a whole room of people. They can lock the door, and suffocate the whole room and then they go in and they are all dead. This is how they get rid of whole army platoons. They will just seal their doors shut, then they put this beam in and kill the whole group. Yes, it was very bad in Cobh, Ireland. They did this repeatedly. We couldn't keep the fire going and we had to keep moving to different areas, and finally we had to leave because they would have killed us. They wanted to see how fast we picked up what was going on.

So, we need to be sure and tell (the Dowzers) the mega-super conductivity tube has a sensation of coldness, timelessness, shallow breathing and that fires go out is pretty significant. You can't light a fire. But when they do it they generally turn off radiators in the building because they have a tendency to explode. This also can cause combustion problems where a flash burn of a radioactive type is easier to do.

Student: ---

Anon: I don't know, it would be interesting to see. (To testers): Would they, guys? I don't know.

Student:---

Anon: It would be interesting. Light a candle in here.

Student:---

Anon: Yes. This is how they can kill whole groups. (To testers): Are you guys doing it just to show us? They think something from the Soviets? They want to put something in or suck something out or both? Soviets really gave me a hard time in Dublin. They just about killed us with the microwaves. And we would be in a pub, I was singing and talking to the guys, then they would knock the guys flat on their butts. They would be just talking clear as you or me and then they would suddenly go like this ---.

Cel: Yeah, the guy sitting next to me, his head suddenly dropped on my shoulder. He dropped like a marionette and he hadn't been drinking.

Anon: Look how little that flame is. The irony that regular fire diminishes but radioactivity increases; it creates a tendency to implosion. (To the testers): Are they going to lift it? Is Washington talking to their buddies over there in Moscow? Get the KGB off our asses. They tell me they are not the KGB anymore, but I don't know who they are.

The KGB is starting to lighten it, they are saying? The flame is getting a little bigger. Ok, the KGB is saying they want me to tell about it...that is what they are telling them right now. (Cel laughs).

One thing they do, they can dial in a waveform and a frequency, with a radioactive matter projected through a superconductivity tube which has an alignment for one body system which is the brain or other. They are saying something about the Copacabana. We were supposed to go dancing with Mexicans in the Copacabana but I knew beforehand the agents would be ---

Cel: ---Their pocket lasers were out like this.

Anon: They are joking. They say they are going to surround the place and mow us all down. ---; I can always tell by their attitude when they are joking. If you hear a hollow sound like an echo, my voice has an intonation, my ears; I can hear a hollow sound. The change; what they are doing is to show alterations in the superconductivity tube. If they change the coordinates in the factors like wherever they have the North/South (forcefields and others) they can just suck out your brain and all your --- and give everybody a stroke in the room.

Some of them in different agencies want us to tell different things. That is one reason why they are showing me this. But some of them think that is not true, that they are actually planning to do a maneuver. What is the maneuver? ---. For what reason? Castro is upset, seems like. What's the problem? Fidel is upset. Why?

Cel: "C" must have called him. (Laughter)

Anon: Remember the picture of Fidel that I used to fax back and forth to my (dad)? (Laughter)

What is the prophecy now? (They say): "The military satellites the soviets used to bombard the US, but the US was told by... moi...that Castro is in a frenzy, enough for them to intercept the satellites and reflect it back to Castro's own house. To bombard him enough that he backed off." Yeah, it is hard for them to see where it is coming from, but it is easier for me to see where it is coming from. (To the testers): How long did it take you guys to figure out it was Fidel? Or did you already figure out it was Fidel? They say they ought to use me as a satellite detector because ---. They didn't know where it was coming from.

Students (Comments....laughter)

Anon: Who did we fax that to today?

Student: The American Society of Dowzers (ASD), other students.

Anon: (They say): The ASD was told by (NASA scientist) that the military was going to bomb this house and that the mental health care would be too late. (Laughter) They were trying to ---. Why did they ask? Oh, the President; (They say): "The Mad Dog is going to replace the Mad Cow disease." The fact of the fax is significant. They can't claim that is someone's imagination.

Of course we should put down the compass alterations as one of the things. If we could somehow coordinate this for handouts to people that would be good. (To testers) Anything else we have to do, guys? They have subliminal crap starting to come through with this mega super conductivity tube. The stillness...this is pretty deadly because they do the dematerialization of matter inside this mega super-conductivity tube or they can do it on an organ. Say they shine a micro super-conductivity tube onto your liver or eyeball? They can start to break it down. That is why you can check it on the time clock, the age of the body parts. They can dial it to a specific thing and then cause it to decay or burst or whatever.

I'm reminded when ("Iri") had that huge boil inside her ear. It was the weirdest thing the doctor ever saw. Her ear swelled up like a cauliflower ear. Do you remember that? I have to think that they dialed in "ear" or something in the monastery. The doctor couldn't figure out what was wrong with her either. He gave her antibiotics and then she got better. It was too weird the way it swelled up real huge. It could have been an ear implant. If they do some actual implants up your nose you could get sinusitis real bad. Or a throat infection; they put one in my throat one time and it caused my throat to be sore for a long time. They put them in the ear so the ear will itch, and feel like there is something ---, and it can cause hearing problems.

My gut feeling is; one thing to remember when the HAL is going on, you may not be able to think or dowse very well and then you have got to trust your instincts. My instinct tells me we might have to leave this place for a while. We might have to go somewhere because right now they are bombarding this place with something pretty bad. Let's get in the car and go somewhere because they like to think you can't feel it? What they rely on is that people get used to certain forcefields when they keep doing them.

Aur: Look at my hand it is all curled up and all my joints are hurting a lot.

Anon: Juan (the dog) is kind of trembling

Aur: Yeah, I kept thinking he was cold but I don't think that is it and he would crawl inside my sweater but he couldn't really settle down.

Anon: How do you feel "BJ"

"BJ": I can't tell. Maybe I am desensitized to it.

Anon: Do you feel kind of thick? There is an aspect of feeling kind of stoned or something?

BJ: Yeah, lethargic

Anon: Like you want to sleep?

BJ: Yeah.

Anon: Yes, Cel would have slept 24 hours a day if I hadn't pried her out of bed. In Mexico and in Italy they hit us so hard with this, but they had other things added to the drugs coming in (the superconductivity tubes) that we literally were staying in bed a couple of days almost around the clock, like it was the flu. But anytime you feel compelled to stay in bed, question whether you are in one of the forcefields. They may be breaking you down, softening you up. They can make you just so drowsy that you don't dream right, you don't have normal sleep. You have a feeling of just being thick and lying there awake.

Cel: And great fatigue. It was like I couldn't get out of bed.

Anon: Yes. For 20 hours a day! Like in the morning if you have trouble getting out of bed, just get out of bed. They do a lot of mind hacker stuff in the morning. So, what I think we ought to do is split up, because it is too dangerous. Right now they are thinking of doing a flash. They are thinking of doing a neutron flash. Yes, that is what they are preparing. So we need to....

Time Movement February 15, 1997 Maine MESSAGE

Time is composed of substances moving at variable rates of speed in microcosm but with a macrocosm envelope to encase a sense of group time. Additionally, variability of waveforms within the envelope separate species and kingdoms. There are other factors of differentiating species, but time is the subject of today's lesson.

Time sense of individuals is altered in mind control groups by generated force-fields that alter magnetic balance, color perception, fluid balance in body locations (for instance magnetic/centrifugal/ centripetal pulling of fluids out of human eyes creates a sense of death time in that the spirit feels as though it is leaving the form which is interpreted by sensitive individuals as the end of the life clock) and by subliminal images and sounds that speed up or slow down. Invisibility of an object is done by altering the eye aqueous vitae fluid by shining radioactive color blockers the same angle in the eye as the object is in and by imposing an opposite density to the object in anti-matter equal to the density of the object by a light beam using radioactive gas (often not visible but sometimes seen as blue or white flashes or beams.)

The sense of time to an organ system is altered by the presence of abnormal force-fields that start as syncopated within the natural framework of the organism and then are slowly altered to a regression or progression on the time clock torque measurement of the individual's pivotal point of reference. Belief systems impact the age of body parts, but cannot negate the abnormal forcefields negative effects that produce leukemias and glandular failure unless the laws above those in normal known physics are brought into play. Magic is just the use of laws above ones understanding. Unfortunately, the mind-hacker program is a high-tech sorcery in that it employs unscrupulous "alchemists" who have studied the coded (shielded) mysteries and started experiments based upon the harmful works of Ruth Drown, Wilhelm Reich, and others--- whose potential for harm outweighs any good. Someday the reality of morphogenic fields will be common knowledge, but by then people will be diseased and dying by the effects of the NASA research in invisibility studies, parallel worlds studies, etc. conducted on unsuspecting civilians and military.

The use of microbes as group mind vectors has produced mental illness and deadly genetic distortion in countless people. The microbes emit a type of "sound" that has a brain alignment resonance tendency toward a subliminal mind-hacker computer station on the Hubble, the moon, or satellites stations. The use of a variant of mad cow disease was tried on me and others, but I recovered. Erasing the genetic code of the disease in the macrocosm is the only way to block the HAL station markers in a group. A Q-fever immunization is another marker being researched which will produce encephalopathy.

Markers are hybrids and so have a weakness in the genetic structure, so can be broken down in the plant and animal kingdom. Non-hybrid markers include red soybeans which are linked to a HAL station that causes a mental aberration that in turn causes a withering of the skin of resonating individuals.

The use of HAL markers includes Agent Orange and various chemicals that produce a mental resonance with a computer station that can be altered by a controller. The controller could slowly alter the brain frequency, produce color or word blocks, and stimulate pleasure centers to encourage eye movement in set directions and by pain discourage the use of a visual field where an object or person is sitting. A subliminal picture of a murder can produce a refusal of an individual to view one location or accept a specific truth (especially if the picture is one's own death).

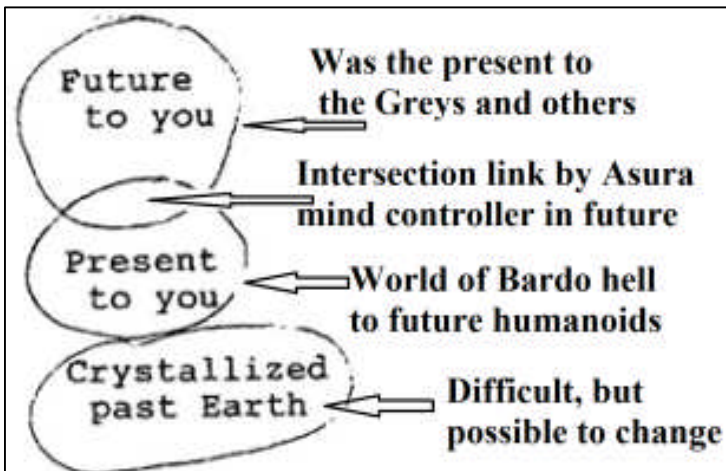

Several years ago I taught a class in U.C. Berkeley where a man sat in a chair but I could only see his legs. His face and torso were scrambled, like a bad TV picture. I thought he was a sorcerer, but he was just an experimental physicist with NASA doing the nagual/seers study on me that day.

The military experimental use of the forcefields to kill off whole armies without firing a single shot has produced diseases in the minds and bodies of the experimenters and their subjects. The fast-forward ageing of movie stars like Margot Kidder is a type of private assassination hit done by companies who use the moon mined radioactive element and plutonium. The inability of the FCC to monitor the broadcasts is due to the technology moving faster than the regulatory agencies. The control of crowds like in Peru by the water supply containing a HAL marker brings up many FDA questions which must be addressed for the security of the minds of children—because autism, leukemia, deformities and insanity are side effects of such "research". The use of drugs and isolation water tanks to regress people was superficially addressed in the movie Altered States but cannot be confused with true time travel, as individuals or groups.

Time travel has to do with the speed of a light source, with the type of magnetic force-field and direction of pull of matter, and can only be done backward by normal humans and then only rarely without death. The mystery of the alien greys is that they were traveling backward in time from a future mutant human civilization. You might wonder how they could be traveling backward and yet you cannot go forward. Obviously, for humans of this time link dimensional matrix the future is not formed except in etheric state which fluctuates with domino effects of acts, thoughts, emotions of "present" inhabitants.

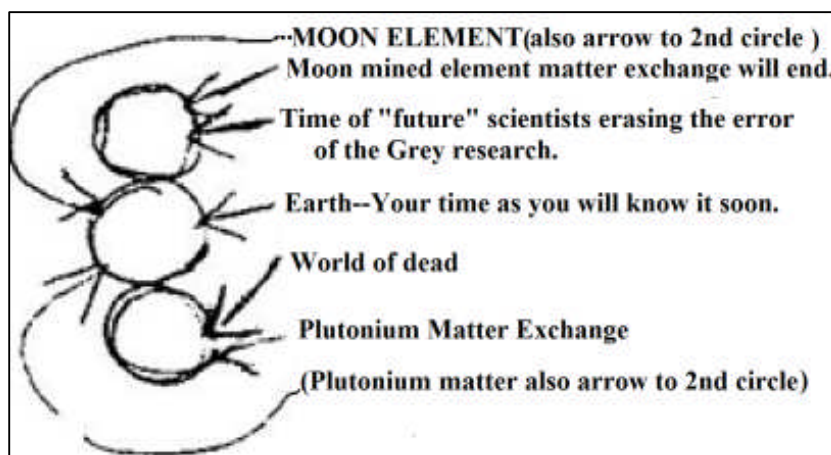

The future to you was the present of the greys and other beings that stepped back for various reasons. The greys have dimensions that are not visible to human eyes except with NASA “goggles”. Some humans have the extra “future” dimensions but are not alien greys, they are the products of an immunization research project in the USA, German, Britain and France using cells cloned from crashed aliens into animals then into humans. Unfortunately some HIV strains came back, too, but they are erasable by the use of removal of time loop links to the crashed greys.

TIME MOVEMENT:

The universal membrane has pores in it that are the shapes allowing those beings who possess “keys” to unlock the veils between universes. The sun has a similar membrane which blocks most beings from moving back in time without death (“Lot’s door” leads to implosion). Space shuttles, ships and people who were beamed with the moon element found in the gray’s ship as the power device often disappear to the human eyes as the form is pulled to the time “lock” which fits the radioactive “key”. The moon element pulls people to future death while the plutonium device pulls to past death worlds. The use of these elements as power devices removes matter from the solar system and hastens implosion of the earth core.

Some people infected with the experimental extra dimensional matter developed deadly genetic alterations while some people had the healthier “throw-back” genetic configuration of non-mutated future beings of advanced ability to see and think. The differentiation is made by the presence of altruism, joy and hopeful disposition, and an ability to see intentions as clearly as actions. This produced mental illness in some people, but can be controlled without drugs (so as to preserve intellect) best using a type of mental training, of which I intend to write a book about. The removal of the loop time controllers who work through government hired “researchers” is happening because the looped time is being erased.

When the banning of the moon mining occurs, then stabilization of human matter will occur, unless plutonium kills the deva and angelic forces which will prevent adaptation to the future dimensional matrix keys...

The real reason the greys were allowed to float back: (To open the rapture door).

Later: The rest of the story.

ABNORMAL FORCEFIELDS: Symptoms/To Do February 16, 1997 Maine MESSAGE

Abnormal Forcefields: Symptoms/To Do

Abnormal forcefields produce illness in human matter differentiated by dimensional spaces in time by a membrane of sub-atomic particles comprised of a key-lock system of pores in the fabric. The movement of sub-atomic particles is normally controlled by planetary and lunar “sounds” (in religions called the divine choir). The creation of sand paintings by the singing of American Indian wise men without touching the colored sand is an example of matter shifting with sounds. Use of ultrasonic scanners, satellite subliminal stations hooked into resonating receivers in computers, televisions, light fixtures and human bodies through experimental radioactive markers, biological resonators, etc. is common. An example was my uterus and unborn child having a Doppler pick up a Stevie Wonder song instead of his heartbeat when I went into Presbyterian hospital for delivery. The creation of light bulbs which serve as visual portals and as satellite receivers for visual/auditory subliminals was started to control employee job performance by stimulating pleasure centers while at work but produce mental illness and physical illness including genetic alterations.

Symptoms of exposure to the technology includes:

- 1) Abnormal thirst, decreased urine output and fluid shift to abdominal area while face is dry—glandular problems.
- 2) Heart irregularity; sweating with grey/black residue out of the skin. Facial pallor or grey look.
- 3) Headache and confusion with pain in eyes; hemorrhagic spots and/or swelling of eyes with vision changes.
- 4) Difficulty reading or concentrating very long without exhaustion, depression and headache.
- 5) Hair loss and hair color becomes dull, greenish, limp and seems coated with some residue.
- 6) Skin mites with scaling, psoriasis appearing patches (also causes hair to fall out). Treat with olive oil mixed with 2/3 salt and 1/3 bicarbonate of soda.
- 7) Change in sexual thoughts, and sexual obsessions worsen but interpersonal relationships become less important.
- 8) Food cravings with tendency to lay in bed late in morning feeling tired. (Subliminals are timed for 2am to 7am usually).
- 9) Joint pain, bursa swelling
- 10) Recurrent thoughts, songs or phrases that pop into your mind with a surge of energy perceived as pleasurable or producing rage.
- 11) Loss of sense of direction and sense of time loss, when traveling especially.

TO DO:

- A) Alter your position and direction of sleep. Turn off the electricity in the bedroom at the fuse.
- B) Unplug computers and TV's. Shorten the time exposure to them and throw out video games which have subliminal commands/advertising which produce addictions.
- C) Remove soybeans and corn syrup from diet as they weaken the mind to the HAL satellite stations. Plant non-hybrid vegetables and eat a diet including free range eggs and beef because the radiation of the moon mined isotope causes protein breakdown and cell changes.
- D) Do not be frightened if the subliminals become auditory. Do not listen to so-called spirit guides who may be HAL controller researchers.
- E) Do not take mind altering drugs including ones prescribed for mental states caused by the laser lobotomies, satellite subliminals and microbial morphogenic field group mind experiments.
- F) Pet illnesses and sudden pet behavioral changes (rage, sexual agitation without heat time, fighting, lethargy) may indicate a need to change rooms.
- G) Do not assume everything is going to be OK if you pray or have a positive attitude. Denial of deadly forcefields used to experiment on civilians and military will cause you to lose intelligence and weaken your physical health. Your denial can produce impotence, sterility and insanity if you don't address the reality of the technological horrors being inflicted on Americans (and elsewhere). Linda Ross.

Warning: Try to make these illegal/How to Detect: February 17, 1997 MESSAGE

News Article "Tom Cruise? Nicole Kidman? Computer sex with your dream lover is on the way!"

WARNING: TRY TO MAKE THESE ILLEGAL

These programs lock into other persons online who have virtual reality satellite brain hook-up capability to see and feel the computer user's orgasms, and film them.

The machine also creates a condition of magnetic forcefield alteration and irradiation precluding absolute neurological degeneration, malnutrition and impotence/frigidity. Call-in phone sex also links to (sometimes) satellite to addict users by scalar stimulation of genitals (companies buy power company time for the grand wire or phone/cable impulse line usage).

The other consequences are: creation of socially inept, selfish, egomaniacs too lazy to spring for dinner to get laid, who are bald on one side of the head where the satellite beam enters. They become blunted, lazy, retarded, and evil.

February 17, 1997 How to Detect Relating To Esp/Invisibility Nasa Studies On Dowzers

Dowse for:

Force Fields

Center Gravity Point

Ultrasonic De-Stabilizer

Altered Magnetic Force

Super-Conductivity Tubes

Confusion Factor

Mega-Super-Conductivity Tube

Moon Mined Element

Ultra-sonic de-stabilizers are used by military, NSA, and NASA to destabilize competing companies.

Altered magnetic force can be detected with a compass, can come in up through the floor and overhead. Keep a compass in the bedroom near your head and check for the needle to move independently or point in the wrong direction.

If you have a moon pull, it could be part of your "silvery" (spiritual substance) on the moon. (See previous fax) Symptoms include heart fibrillation, flutters, mental obtusion, cloudiness, numbness or peripheral numbness of the fingertips, chronic candidiasis, foot fungus, unusually thick blood from cuts, headache, lethargy, weird skin problems, waking up with dry mouth and the taste of drugs in the mouth; popping, cracking joints.

These forces can make the room cold or hot, fires in the house will go out, you can't seem to warm up or cool down, inability to digest food, there can be hair changes in shape, color and texture. For instance, hair on one side of the head can suddenly start sticking out, go suddenly limp or take on a different cast of color.

The mega-super-conductivity tubes symptoms include shallow breathing, fires going out and radioactivity increases. Confusion factors can cause Earth core, plate and crust destabilization.

Drugs can be put into hot water tanks and satellite receivers can be put onto water pipes within the house, so check incoming water pipes in the house.

There can also be microbes in cosmetics, leading to red facial rashes. These can be helped with a paste made of 2/3 salt, 1/3 baking soda mixed with olive oil.

To deal with these symptoms, use lice lotions, anti-fungals, white towels that you can wash with Clorox, use face cloths only once, bath frequently, soaking in sea salt and baking soda. Clorox the bathroom to remove microbes from its surfaces.

How To Detect Abnormal Force Fields And Electromagnetic Disturbances In The Home

- 1) Place fish bowls in each room. Watch for illness or death.
- 2) Germinate onion seeds: Place 10 onion seeds in a pot in each room and germinate under similar conditions (i.e. place the same group of seeds under 60 watt bulbs, and then pot the same seeds in a neighbor's house). DO: measure the growth rate and the numbers of seeds germinating in each room.
- 3) Measure body weight; using a digital scale if possible, weigh yourself in each room (be sure the scale is on a flat surface. body weight fluctuates quickly under different forcefields.
4. Measure the barometer reading in each room and temperature. ALSO Check compass bearing in each room.
6. Measure the quantity of whey produced on live yogurt in each room. Forcefields tend to destroy yogurt cultures.
8. With a prism: look outside to find a full range of color spectrum. Check each room and note the colors missing.
9. Using an AM/FM radio, check each room, and from the low to medium to high range listen for a loud roar between radio stations.
10. Using a "Stud Finder" carpenter tool you will be able to detect the presence of radiation.
11. Measure your own pulse rate from room to room. For consistency, use the same exertion before each reading (i.e. walk to a room, wait two minutes and take a reading). Measure the pulse outside and at a friend's house as well.
12. With ants/mice/flies in a "farm" or cage, watch for changes in behavior (i.e. how fast they are moving, or if they are agitated.

A Modern Concentration Camp: February 20, 1997 Montreal REVIEW

Did the murder of millions of humans happen in concentration camps during World War II? I have been around dinner tables where perfectly sane-appearing persons declared the holocaust never happened or that the extermination victims were not human and so it had to be. Since I am officially declared a non-human and have no civil rights, I stand among those in history to possibly be forgotten under the feet of the Clinton administration and NASA until the souls of the murdered other “non-humans” build into a deafening crescendo that joins with the Jews in Auschwitz to demand justice for the innocents now being crushed.

When I officially became a non-human is unknown to me. Was it when this Dutch Irish American Christian joined the ranks of countless human lab rats in immunization experiments for genetic alteration? Or was it when I caught the eye of a doctor in the secret project while I worked as a young nurse for a hospice? The experiment was no longer hidden when NASA sent rocket scientist (o) to live in my religious retreat center in Guthrie, Oklahoma in 1991 and thus revealed the reason Tinker Air Force Base computer-mind hacker specialist (b) began working full time at my center as a book editor some time before, as I began a career as a teacher of comparative religion.

I won't discuss the tortures of the gravity experiments and other abnormal force-fields I endured prior to (o) moving in, but it is relevant that my (relative) reported being abducted by aliens in 1990 in Kansas City, and many people including my children saw what appeared to be flying saucers in Logan County, Oklahoma and Danville, Vermont when I went there to teach at a conference. My suspicion was that the alien invasion was a holographic mind control experiment used to increase special project budgets and take over the lives of innocent civilians for a computer mind control program that can make people see anything, hear anything, or even kill them. Using children immunized with cloned genetic material of some crashed future humanoids (alien greys) and cloned materials of gifted psychics/geniuses, the scientist hoped to create a master race of people who could time travel, teleport, or be invisible astronauts.

The ability to see human spirits through heat sensitive and radioactive cameras became a dangerous skill when NASA began to deform such spirits in radioactive and magnetically altered force-fields and then shot spirits with anti-matter weapons to destroy them (instead of letting them heal). Then, military experiments in anti-matter spirit/soul destruction became common, so as to increase confusion and suicidal tendencies in despairing troops who sensed the torture but could not see the weapons, which were beamed off the Hubble and the moon station. As a result of such “experimentation”, countless babies have become autistic and genetic deformities have skyrocketed in numbers.

The invisibility experiments, such as the famed Philadelphia experiment of which a movie was named, were particularly horrible for me, as this “lab rat” accused of being a dangerous alien endured murder then resuscitation and mental tortures designed to break away my soul/spirit from my body so as to use the “silvery” as an invisible astronaut.

In my home in Oklahoma City I was denied 911 police protection as agent-researchers brought machines into my house for experiments, tore bits of my eyes and brain out, my right ovary was assaulted for egg removal, and I was shot by a small neutron weapon in the head and uterus. While paralyzed by drugs on my bed during tests, I saw my neighbor try to enter my back door to check on me, and two agents grabbed her neck while putting something over her nose and mouth, then they dragged her to her house. Later, in Miami, I was arrested without cause and raped in a National security agency mental “health” gulag and held by a man who was not a doctor upon Clinton's orders. While there, I was tortured and witnessed a woman beaten nearly to death for attempting to use the toilet during the night. She was denied medical care and they refused to let me or her call the police to give a report. Later, the police in Miami refused to take the assault report from my friend.

I have never committed a crime (legal or moral) and yet I was slandered through altered medical and police files world-wide, in attempts to force me into a laboratory “mental health facility” for indigent space aliens, I assume. I have been robbed by government agents of all my assets, my bank account access number was changed by agents, and I was not allowed to leave the Miami gulag (NW Dade) without a caretaker. The “doctor” said I was incompetent because I had been shot in the foot in Belize by Clinton's men for not dancing fast enough to amuse them.

I was informed by (o's) friends that I cannot testify in a deposition about the murder of my husband or the Clinton-endorsed tortures because I am not a human and even if I should regain human status, Clinton will call me a terrorist on a fax machine weapon and force me into the nuthouse forever.

So, I sit in Canada, and weep for my stolen children, and for the world of the silent holocaust...where computer records of any designated lab rat can change a family into cattle-car nothings headed for secret NASA facilities, or turn one's own living room into a private Auschwitz.

Note to FBI: If (d) and I are protected from Clinton and NASA, I will return to the USA. Can a world watch dog group help, or the ACLU?

LESSON Relating to Center of Matter in Dimensional Spaces: February 23, 1997 Canada

LESSON RELATING TO CENTER OF MATTER IN DIMENSIONAL SPACES

Emotion and thought combined with sexual vitality (forces/substance) can create manifestations of good or evil on a lower plane represented by a five pointed star (point up=good, point down=evil)

The addition of sun deva powers increases the likelihood of crystallization of manifestation to a pyramidal ether shape which was a four-sided but will become a five sided pyramidal shape soon or be ineffective for power as the shifting of primal forces completes.

An action such as speaking about harming someone or slander, is a manifestation that includes the flesh matter (right side dimensional matrix obvious to the human eye). The “silvery” of spirit and soul which has intention substance (unless soul/spirit is dead) of so-called left side of dimensional matrix (more appropriately called the shadow self so as not to confuse it with body hemispheres especially not to confuse with left brain, although a factor is present). The space training of the spirit/soul to use speech recognition rather than pattern/picture recognition is a HAL technique of mind control but destroys aspects of intelligence unless BOTH right and left hemispheres are able to coordinate pattern recognition with voice recognition.

Learning to heal from HAL ruptures created by mind control experts, laser lobotomies of frontal lobe and corpus collosum/pineal must be done by the creators of such destructive programs first. It is possible even in de-mylenized brains to retrain pattern/memory/voice recognition with time point assemblage linkage, which is the key to sanity. Normally a person’s subconscious mind floats to different times upon whims of emotion/desire/thought and images of dream-like quality occur to the conscious mind when the HAL controllers produce a “flip” of shadow mind/conscious mind through astronaut forcefields (centrifugal/centripetal, North/North, South/South, color switching etc. and babbling of several voices in both ears at once on subliminal or auditory level at different).

Removal of all radioactive “beamers” using visible and non-visible lasers carrying holographic sounds/visions is necessary for a person to keep an intact core of dimensional fabric. The agents using such experimental devices erode their own “left” and “right” substances until their core of self, the key to power and health, erodes...eventually leaving them impotent and joyless. At that point a black rage with brittle humor of a cruel nature takes over all compassion and child-like joy...until the person becomes suicidal and homicidal as well as rapist of innocents.

Most people’s ideas of self reflect an obsession with the right side of matter (form obvious to the eye) and so they are led by lust and greed. Such people become mind controlled easily by reward stimulation by laser of pleasure centers and subliminal happy memory stimulation/recall of key songs/pictures. These people are HAL’ed in three days to become tools for the controller which can be a private computerized voice synthesizer company or government agency researcher.

People of high moral principal have to be destroyed on their “silvery” left side to remove their moral codes. This is done by laser torture, hologram torture of images of loved ones dying and removal of food, fluid, sleep for physical resistance breakdown. Most people can be tortured without ever seeing the agency people through computerized satellite beams and lamp/light fixture subliminal/holographic devices and drugs put in their water or food. Usually seven days without sleep is enough to create a robot which can be ordered to raise arms or legs on command or go somewhere or strip off clothing, etc. for a one-on-one controller; often working in eight hour shifts, 24 hours a day.

The first type of HAL (reward types) can be put on a general HAL radio “station” that is periodically interrupted with commands of a group controller on a satellite linked computer. They are less work for the company than the punishment broken HAL’ed people who may fight to recover their minds through tissue recognition of goodness and truth. Such people have a right-sided conscience, left-sided conscience and sexual/creative conscience.

The attempt to break such people who were resistant to HAL programs caused researchers to form institutions to keep people in one spot to control their mind destruction and monitor them as lab rats. The realization that the human spirit and soul have substances that can be siphoned off of dying people led to astronaut forcefields being used on me as I worked in Hospice, holding the suffering dying people for hours on end. Researchers in Nazi war camps found that torture produced a splitting of self so that (to block the torture) the spirit/soul floated up and could be extracted from sick people.

The Alistair Crowley type use of sexual tortures to produce a substance release of generativity gases inside a suction tank was also used to increase virility in aging Nazis who inhale the gaseous liquid of tortured virile men to produce erections. Unfortunately, the technology advanced so that a super conductivity ether tube could be put through a person’s roof (and using military imagery) selects a victim to dehydrate and/or mind control. The lulling mind control subliminals and brain pleasure center stimulation is used to immobilize people while spinal fluid, aqueous vitae eye fluid or plasma is extracted by vaporization inside the forcefield which becomes a tube of magnetic forcefield and radioactive light. Also drugs can be given thought the tube by switching the direction of ether/gas flow. All this can be done without ever seeing a researcher, unless a resistant subject gets up and changes location or hides. That is what I did and that is why the agents entered my house in Oklahoma City every night for three weeks, until I ran to Mexico.

The use of such technology employs military/NASA weapons and is used by private companies sanctioned by the White House.

The agents ordered to participate in such research are tortured if they do not “complete” a resistant subject—which includes assassination of anyone who was in the ESP research who refuses to be controlled or take drugs to shut down their memories of the research. Most people think consciously on a narrow “radio” band, but the research splits people so they often hear songs from radio stations when no radio or television is turned on, and hear thoughts as clear as words spoken. This means they are driven to what appears psychosis but is a neurological condition controllable by training the person to focus on only the audible bands, not wider.

The fear the Clinton administration has is that some people were thought band widened for the purpose of creating psychic agents but who refuse to do harm to others may in fact be able to mind-tap the top brass. So they submit or die.

The horror of this research is that some of the agents are called “mirage makers” who can control people (even the President) until every perception is like a virtual reality computer image/sound/sensation and so the objective reality is no longer relevant in decisions making.

The use of private money mixed with government grants to torture people such as my family without their approval or conscious understanding of the process made me realize I had to face my assailants in person to get to the bottom of it all. I spent years in physical agony, scarcely able to walk, praying...but only walking the earth and doing a little eye-spy dance or two led me to the secrets of the billionaire boys’ club/one world government/HAL club. I am returning to Oklahoma if I am not knocked off.

Communication and phone crashes: by tiny machines;

Non recognition of HAL programs does not protect you.

Recognition of the programs bombarding your house or body allows you to take counter action.

Counter actions include:

-Identifying symptoms of abnormal force fields used in targeted populations:

Headache

Dry mouth

Oxygen transport problem: ashen (pallor, or red face)

Cold sweat

Shortness of breath - sense of inability to breathe deeply

Abdominal bloating with facial dehydration

Lethargy or agitation

Decreased or dark urine output

Confusion: sense of time loss

Mental or sexual obsession onset

Altered color perception

TO DO:

-Change your position including direction of your head --if in bed.

-Turn on counter sounds such as classical music or oldies.

-Walking in different directions helps unfreeze the mind because these are all directional linked.

-Central reporting agency: report every incident to American Society of Dowsers/Vermont for gathering of data.

-Hot bath with essential oils; shower and shampoo daily to avoid residue or biological markers.

-Doodle: focus on right and then left eye, then bridge of nose: intuitive drawings.

-Dowse numerical ratios, focus left/right eye/bridge of nose (this creates a concentric configuration that will help you unfreeze.

-Watching rising/setting sun for short periods of time helps stimulate pineal and pituitary gland.

Look a little to the side or use colored lights.

-Eating seaweed is beneficial: fluid drain causes loss of minerals.

If severe bombardment (microwaving) occurs, try putting a stewpot on your head. If this works, construct a box with tin foil; metal sheeting in a long closet with a futon in it; a bed with wooden board, put magnets all the way around. Water near the head while sleeping will attract deadly beams. You may experience relief in a basement.

Agendas include research, substance collection and private and public assassinations without leaving a trace. Or neurological conditions which cause people to be institutionalized.

Reverse time force fields: some light beams are invisible---use light blocking curtains.

Check each finger for pulse strength and warmth by holding. 'Will' each finger's pulse to become normal.

People in research: the subjects may be followed by agents carrying beamer devices which emit deadly orgone rays. These can be concealed in backpacks, handbags, etc. These are used to study reactions to auditory and visual holographic subliminals.
