Introduction

Published 1995

There are people on the Earth today who hunger for knowledge of the mysteries of life. They may have sought to satiate their thirst for Truth through paths of science, art, philosophy, psychology, religion, or social services. Many, at the close of a long career in such fields, hear the hounds of death at their heels while their spiritual bellies ache with emptiness. They go to their deaths longing for the unknown, trembling with angst.

It may seem preposterous for this book to presume to fill some of that void by bringing to the reader the fundamentals of the natural Laws of the soul. Indeed, few people have ever considered that the soul of man has a type of matter, not unlike his flesh, although existing in a different octave of being. Few people are aware that there are principles, similar to known physics principles, that control the dynamics of spiritual matter. Furthermore, such spiritual Laws have a watershed effect upon the physical body of man and the Earth.

Looking out upon the sea of disorder within the major cities, one cannot help wondering why violent crime is becoming increasingly prevalent, and what could bring it to a halt. During the sixties the cry of liberals was for more social services, as though money or food could be the panacea. Others cried for gun control, more prisons, or other material solutions. Despite all attempts at controlling societal disorder the ghettos swell with violence, and the traditional family structure is almost gone.

There are some idealists who look into the heart of this disorder as though it were full of signs of wonderful societal transformation for the better. And yet, teenage pregnancies, AIDS, infections, robberies, rapes, and murders all continue to increase in number. By what criteria are these idealists measuring their success?

If one looks back over recorded history, pockets of societal peace and order rise out of the pages with haunting similarities of belief systems. Within each religion can be found keys that lead to the inner teachings of the fundamental Laws of the soul and of life itself. The fighting between religions has been due to clinging to differences rather than searching for similarities. The obvious similarities are merely echoes of the underlying mysteries which have traditionally been reserved for an inner circle of the spiritual elite.

The knowledge of the inner mysteries of life, held within the core of each religion, was withheld from the masses because of the danger of sorcery if the principles were applied without integrity. Any power that can transform a man's soul can also destroy his body if directed with malefic intent. It was safer to allow the alchemical mysteries, which were the core of each religion, to be watered down in a harmless fashion, in a way that could possibly change man's behavior through fear or promise of heaven. It was assumed by the spiritual forefathers that a man who lived decently might learn to think decently. If a man thought in a decent manner, then, later he might be able to control the spiritual forces with integrity and not run amok with unbridled passion.

For this reason, most religions focused upon behavioral instructions, rather than the reasons that certain behaviors could block the path to spiritual power. People have, by and large, decided that the behavioral instructions are no longer valid and so have developed many blocks to the higher teachings.

It is now time to reveal the inner teachings, in hope that humans can understand the reasons for behavioral sanctions and thought control.

The Laws are immutable. Man cannot break these Laws, but can break himself against these Laws. This is happening today on a massive scale. A man can tell himself all day long that fire is not hot, and yet burn himself, should he put his hand in a flame. Just as there are lower laws of the visible component of fire, there are higher Laws of the unseen components of fire. Many a man has thrust his own unseen components into fire and burned away part of himself.

It is possible to heal oneself through the application of higher Laws. If humans can bring healing order to their own lives, then they can begin to bring order to their families and to their own culture. If they do that, they can start to bring order to the world.

Healing the world must start with healing the self. This book holds the ancient mysteries through which personal transformation is made possible, if the applicant is sincere and willing to change. The dilettante will benefit little, except through some intellectual titillation. This book was written not for dinner table discussion, but at great price, and with great courage, by a traveler within such mysteries, in hope of helping humanity out of chaos. Since it merely recites the principles of the mysteries, it shall be considered anonymously and gnostically written, for man cannot hope or presume to create the Laws and Virtues. This is not a “channeled” book, but a book reflecting the experience of the traveler through many realms as real as the one before your face.

If you also dare to be a traveler into unseen realms, this book will guide you safely.

PREFACE

There is an ancient saying, “To increase your ability to perceive, you must increase your necessity.” Whether I have chosen the rather disturbing thesis of this book to tell you of an actual state of crisis on the earth or to increase your necessity to gain in higher perception, is something you must decide.

The path to knowledge requires the traveller to understand many layers of meaning. That there are real pitfalls, dangers, and ways to weed out the unworthy is no secret. As the student begins to fly in other realms he finds that language is often paradoxical, at best, to describe his flight.

Thus, I give the vulnerable reader an “out.” If the scenario pictured in these pages is unbearable for him to entertain, then he may rest assured that it is allegorical in nature. Indeed, you will see many types of “Everyman” and even “Everyanimal” on these pages. However, for the brave soul who desires to learn at the price of safety, who dares to challenge all his simplistic beliefs that have held his trembling hand for so long, I dedicate this book. For it is only courage that can lead us past the monsters that guard the threshold of knowledge to the joy within the sacred chambers.

Once inside those hallowed doors, there is no fear...only love, peace, and desire to be of service to one’s fellow man.

With these thoughts in mind, read this book, and understand on the level that you are prepared.

THE MYSTERY IS REVEALED

Lee sat in the woods and wept. He did not want his children to see their father upset, so he crept off from the farm house into the forest of Oklahoma scrub oak trees and sat upon the piles of autumn leaves.

If they found him there, with tears in his eyes, what was he to say? That he was weeping because he did not know who God is or why humanity exists? Despite his doctorate in theology he had no answers for his children when they asked why one playmate was cruel to another. Indeed, he could not explain his own obscure suffering of the soul when he saw the faces of people in the supermarket that reminded him of beings other than human.

Most of his life he had quietly borne a second sight that gave him more questions than it answered. Since childhood he had been able to see different light emanations surrounding people, animals, and plants. He could see these light patterns fluctuate around people depending on thoughts, music, or words. In adulthood, as a psychological counselor, he could see the carnal thoughtforms of the people who came to him for counseling. He saw the lies they told their mates, and the fears that clouded their decisions. In graveyards, performing funerals, he could see the ghosts of the dead hover around, and even see the pale specters follow some people into their cars. When he prayed, he saw angelic light beings and heard heavenly music with an inner ear.

CHANGES

In the last few years he had noticed subtle changes on the earth and in people. There seemed to be a change in the heartbeat of the planet...an anxious, irregular, faster rhythm was emerging. The cicadas in the woods would be suddenly silent, as though a storm or earthquake were approaching. They would later resume a cautious, irregular song, only to pause again, and again.

Many animals he had observed lately seemed to be mad. The newspapers reported dozens of cases where dogs mauled or even tried to eat children. When driving through Texas, he had observed bats in broad daylight falling onto the highway. Even deer were attacking hikers.

Many of his clients were veteran schoolteachers who reported to him their anguish over the increasingly irrational behavior of their students. When he took his youngest son to a day-care center he was horrified by the faces of the babies. They looked ill and despairing. In the young, who had not learned to mask their fear or anxiety, he saw his suffering mirrored.

Something was causing the planet to be less harmonious. He began to look at people closely with his second sight for clues, to read many obscure books, and to observe nature for any insights.

LIGHT MISSING

It was his second sight that had brought his suffering to the point of hopelessness. He was beginning to see with awful clarity that some people lacked a certain kind of light emanation that was a quality of being human. Some people seemed hauntingly sinister in their emanations and actions. Others seemed to have the same auric emanations as domestic animals. Some...seemed to be almost robotic; as if they were shells of humans in which some other force not of this world had entered. Even more alarming, it seemed their numbers were increasing.

He was beginning to fear for the safety of his children, and all children, because some of these different beings seemed to have agendas that did not include safety for mankind, love or harmony. How was he to continue dishing out traditional theological pabulum? The people who came to him for guidance seemed to be suffering from subconscious anxiety due to the power these different beings possessed to impact their lives.

FEAR

Sometimes at four in the morning he would awaken in a state of full alert. He would feel Something in the house that was ominous. The children would awaken tearful, fighting, full of nightmares and anxiety. What was It in his house that dared to disturb the harmony of his loving home?

He had read much, prayed often, and yet the tension and suspense increased.

So, after many sleepless nights, with great soul force he cried out to the heavens for an answer. Not to stop his own suffering, if that suffering was required for some higher purpose. He asked only to understand the lessons contained within this mystery and to know his role in it.

THE ANSWER

Suddenly, with a great wrenching pain, he felt as though he were splitting in two. With half-closed eyes he could see an image of himself, luminous and opaque, hovering a few feet off the ground. He somehow knew this being was part of himself and yet part of the mystery of God also.

“It is time,” the Being said, “Time for you to understand the mystery of the Logos Angstroms and the mystery of the different species of people.”

Lee was then given teachings through mystical stories and a series of thoughts and pictures. His spirit body traveled to different parts of the world to learn from the teachings of different wise men. He was taken into his own future and shown future work he was to do. He was taken to his own past to observe clues to the mystery that he had overlooked.

The experiences and teachings seemed to take a very long time, as Lee understood time. It was almost as if he was gone for several days with no need for sleep.

RETURNING

However, when he returned to his body and found himself on the pile of autumn leaves, the setting sun was still just above the trees. He looked down at his watch and noted that scarcely a minute had passed since he had uttered his anguished prayers.

And yet, he now understood the mystery and what his part was in that mystery. The implications seemed almost overwhelming.

It was true that a certain sense of peace and love filled him. There was hope, also, rather than the frustration, but it was marred with a nagging sense that he had already completed his life. By viewing his future, he was spared the paralyzing anxiety and fear that had tormented him, but now sadness for those who could not be helped descended upon him.

He felt very old, and a little tired in his soul for what was to befall mankind in the next few years. He had much to do, and would be ridiculed and hated by many people for what he must tell them.

“Courage, man,” he whispered to himself. Having been taught by the Being the importance of controlling his thoughts and feelings, he briskly stood up, straightened his back, and walked back home as if he were a soldier going to war.

For indeed there was a war.

THE TEACHING OF THE KING'S SON

Long ago there was a wise King who knew all the secrets of the world and alchemy. He had seven governors who ruled his kingdom under his direction, and twelve assistants.

One day he was showing his sons how to create gold out of base metal, and animal life out of mineral life.

“The secret is in the balance of destructive forces with constructive forces.” You must tear down the old in some way to build the new. This balance must be maintained or the creation will collapse, or turn into a cancer of some type. If the destructive forces are too strong, there is death. If the constructive forces are not in harmony with the destruction of the substance that is no longer needed, then you build a cancer or an infection that harms life. You cannot construct unless you transmute the old. The same balance of cosmic dust is used, and the tension between construction and destruction must be maintained for physical life to exist. This is the basis for yin-yang, male-female, gravity, and many other mysteries.”

He went on to explain that this is also the basis for seasons, that all creation breathes out and in with cycles of decay and rebuilding.

THOUGHT

He showed his sons how to create elementals with thought, and warned them that thoughts could cause all manner of disorder if they did not follow Cosmic Law. The proper use of emotion, vibrational frequency, and the resulting causes and effects were explained. The maintenance of order on all planes was the challenge before them, he warned.

Since one of the laws of this universe is expansion and change, he showed them how to throw off sparks of lights, casting half of the sparks in a disordered rhythm in order to create the tension necessary for manifestation on the physical plane. The space between the sparks was then filled with the gravity of Large Yin-small yang, or Large Yang-small yin swirling energies like the vortex of a whirlpool.

“Out of these vortices, you can create animals, plants, and forms of lower life than we are. You can never create a being higher than yourself, however. These beings you create are destined to become lighter and more spiritual as the planet matures. You must never get too close to them, though. You have no physical polarity and are a Light Being without the gravity pull that is present in the center of the vortex between genders. If you should get caught in the whirlpools that you create, you will be pulled down into a form that defies your purpose.”

CREATION

The sons enjoyed the study and work before them. For a time they playfully created all manner of beings. They obtained the materials for their work from the seven governors and their twelve assistants.

One of the sons found that he could create an elemental of destruction in a magical way. He would then hold onto the elemental to watch it fly to the new worlds and fulfill the command with which it was programmed. The elementals were a lot like robots and once they were given a command, they continued to fulfill it until they were handed back to the seven governors to dismantle. If they were not dismantled, they kept destroying indefinitely.

By holding onto the flying elemental the son found out many things his father had never told him, because those things had no bearing on his evolution. His father knew that information given to the recipient without a reason to know it could be dangerous.

CARNAL

The son found that he could experience pleasurable sexual and culinary pleasures when he ordered the elemental to connect to an animal. The pleasures in his normal life were very adequate but since he had free will, he felt playful and wanted to experience other things.

Unfortunately, he got caught in the vortex and tension of the animal he was experiencing and could not get loose. He had only crossed into the dimension on the coattails of the elemental and the elemental was now running wild. No one there could take it home to be disassembled. It continued to roam the earth with the robot program of destruction.

The son was then hooked into the animal with a left-hand spiral code from the elemental that had carried him through the dimension. The son cried out loudly in pain, and fainted. From that time on he never remembered his old home or family, but thought of himself as the animal he had attached to. The imprint of the destructive elemental on his soul gave him a program of destruction, exactly like the elemental's. As long as he remains in the created worlds, he will have that program. He cannot die, so between animal-connected lives, he roams the earth. With his program of destruction, he willfully possesses beings on the earth. Since he still retains creative power, all his destructive thoughts become demonic elementals that destroy and defile.

SORROW

The King looked down and saw that his son had made a serious mistake. The reproduction of the destructive elementals was threatening the earth. With great love and concern, he decided to send his other son to clean up the mess. Using a law only he knew, he teleported his son without allowing him to use an elemental as transportation. Since everything in the lower world required polarity and gender, he split his son in two halves, a Yin-yang, and a Yang-yin, female and male.

This pair was given the job of cleaning up all the destructive elementals created by the other son. They were given seven sacred boxes in which to place the elementals in order to carry them to a safe place. The pair was also taught how to balance negation by the active creation of right-hand elementals. In this way, lower angels would be created.

PRECAUTION

"There is only one precaution," the King warned. "At the end of seven seasons, you must return whether your job is completed or not. If you hook into the left-hand destructive spiral like your brother did, then you will be returned to cosmic dust by the force of your cause and effect at the end of the seven seasons."

The Pair asked, "But father, how will we know when we are hooking into the left-hand spiral?"

SIGNS

The King looked at them very sternly. "Wherever there is bloodshed, violence, filth, slander and hate, you will find the left-hand spiral. Wherever there is rejoicing at the suffering of another being, or a desire to humiliate and deface another, then you will find the spiral of destruction."

"When you see disorder in the structures of family, or of countries, and when the recreation or music of mankind partakes of a violent or carnal focus, know that the negative spiral has spread. Whenever you see the worship of gold or any physical thing, or the focus on acquiring things rather than virtues, know then that the negative spiral is near. For anything that causes my sons to forget their true Self and begin to focus on the lower creation of body over spirit pulls him into a counter-clockwise spin."

“There may be times when you have to kill to protect your physical body so that you can finish your work, and that is not a misuse of destructive potential. The desire to balance the Yin and Yang by sexual union is not destructive and is needed to populate the planet. However, with any carnal act, such as eating or sexual expression, you must hold in your mind that you are spirit and not body. The physical functions must be considered secondary at all times. Otherwise you risk being caught in the illusion that the physical IS the world, instead of a lower creation that must be discarded at the end of the seven seasons.

BODIES LIGHTER

“At the beginning of the seventh season, your bodies will get lighter in preparation of returning to this kingdom. You will feel very sensitive to all stimuli, and suffer mentally and physically unless you learn how to function in your lighter bodies. If you block this sensitivity with busy work, mindless recreation or carnal obsessions, you will return to cosmic dust. To return to this kingdom, you must gradually grow lighter and able to function according to the laws of all dimensions and densities. If you fail to learn how to adapt to the use of your spiritual bodies, then you cannot fly home.

“Your spiritual bodies must be trained so they can remember how to fly home without crashing. I will send teachers to remind you of the way home when the time approaches. The tasks they give you will seem meaningless and boring according to the eyes of the animal world. However, the higher laws do seem confusing to those who are half asleep. To enter this lower world you must lose some of your higher vision or you could not bear the experience.

SEVENTH SEASON

“In the seventh season your memories and sight will start to return, so you will feel increasingly out of place as the time approaches for your return. Unless you follow the instructions given you by the teachers sent, you will go mad or lose your sight in order to not suffer the pain of the awakening nerve endings. If you choose to lose your sight, you will become like the animals you have created, or evil.”

THE TASK BEGINS

The Pair went to the lower world and had children. They obeyed their father and went about making the world balanced. Many of the children, however, forgot and married children of the left-hand spiral son. Some of them married animals.

When the beginning of the last season started, all of the descendants of the right-hand Son began to feel somehow alienated and uncomfortable.

Some of them began the difficult task of learning to use their spiritual bodies in the other dimensions and densities. Most people thought they were crazy. However, those Sons got lighter and lighter, and found joy and peace and love. At times, they could almost hear their Father’s voice, calling them from afar.

The Being paused after the story, then added, “We have now entered the seventh season of the earth.”

MYSTERY OF THE SPECIES OF PEOPLE AND DUAL SOULS

Lee was now beginning to understand or to remember, through the many teachings from the thoughts and pictures given by the Being, ancient knowledge of the origin of the different soul types on the earth.

He knew then that there are primarily three types of people on the earth. The first type is animal man, which shares a group soul. The second type is Nephilim man, which is the product of fallen angels called Watchers that hooked into the genetic material of animal man long ago. This was the so-called “fall of man” or “original sin.” The third type is that of a Sun of God, who was sent to the earth to make the earth more holy and to transmute or overcome negation and evil. Suns do not have original sin.

SHARED SOUL

When Nephilim man was created by the spiritual bodies of fallen angels entering the unfortunate animal man, there was no being on earth that had a dual, or shared soul.

Animal man had, and still has, a group soul comprised of many animal men’s spiritual aspects. When a fallen angel hooked into an animal man, then that whole group became defiled. Today, many earthbound spirits are Nephilim that possess animal man or Suns of God. However, the spiritual genetic aspect of a born Nephilim is a left-hand spiral and is not the same as a temporarily possessed animal. The polarity of animal man is neutral or positive, unless he is violated by the Nephilim.

When fallen angels became trapped in the genetic structures of certain animal group souls, they became unable to change spiritual polarity while in the flesh. Between lifetimes they have the option of learning and reversing their defiance to Cosmic Law. A Nephilim’s only holy potential while in flesh is to live a life of harmlessness and not incur karma. Since Nephilim learn by experience but not by love, they are dangerous on subtle levels as well as on physical levels to Suns.

SUNS AND SOULS

In response to the spiritual imbalance on the earth, the spiritual governors of our planet sent the holy Suns to make the earth more constructive and holy instead of so destructive and evil.

The Suns were neither male nor female in spirit. However, in physical manifestation all things must have polarity and gender according to cosmic law. Therefore each soul was divided into a male and a female component, in the lower aura bodies. There is no division of the soul in the highest spiritual bodies. Therefore, one soul inhabits two bodies, a male and a female body. This was symbolized by the story of Adam making Eve out of his rib.

GROUP SOUL

An animal man, in contrast, has in his group soul an equal number of male and female members that are all linked in one large family. Anything that happens to one member is absorbed by the whole group and therefore diffused in impact.

Similarly any trauma to a female Sun is reflected in the mirror side of her male dual soul aspect. It is as if they are like one walnut split into two pieces, but still the same walnut. Since only a male and a female member comprise the soul of a Sun, then the impact of trauma on one half reflecting on the other half is much greater than trauma absorbed by the group soul of an animal man or Nephilim man.

Nephilim have individual angel-type souls intimately linked with defiance to holy order. These fallen angel single souls are hooked into the genetic pattern of some animal group souls. Therefore, there is no dual soul in Nephilim man.

PAST LIFE MEMORIES

The reason that past life regressions or memories are often faulty has to do with soul type. Animal man and Nephilim memories may be reflecting on anything to do with the whole group experience at any time. Many memories are just reflections from other group members or memories from an entity possessing any member of the group. They can also be the memories of the entities on the person doing the past life regression.

A Sun could be remembering his dual soul's experiences. So he may think he was a male or a female in a certain life, when in fact he is both because he is composed of both sides of his soul. Events that occur in the lifetimes of a Sun reflect in both aspects of the dual soul. This is true for all lifetimes, including the current one.

If a Sun's dual soul is hung up on the lower astral plane between lifetimes, then the incarnated half will always be miserable. That is because his other half is in hell.

In serious cases of depression or illness it is wise to see if the dual soul is earthbound and needs to be freed to reincarnate. Failure to do so may cause tremendous suffering for the soul.

POSSESSIONS ON DUAL SOUL

Also if one's dual soul is possessed by human or non-human spirits then the soul light of the other half will grow dim, and he may weaken and die.

To make matters a little more complicated, every Sun and his dual soul belong to a certain soul family as well. That is why he feels such joy when he meets a like-minded person who seems so similar on an aura level.

As a Sun increases in ability to function in other realms, he will easily be able to detect the suffering of the other people who are connected to his soul family. Nevertheless, only the suffering of the dual soul can cause critical obstacles to his health, joy, and progress.

If one half of the soul works very hard to gain enlightenment and also keeps his dual side free of dark forces, then the whole soul will be able to be raised to the frequency of the new heaven and the new earth. Sometimes one side of the soul is unable to gain much conscious awareness during an incarnation, but still benefits from the work of his other half. After the weaker dual's physical death, both aspects unite in joy in the higher worlds.

LESSON OF THE SLAVES AND THE DREAMER

Many years ago a group of people became stranded on a floating barge which they remembered boarding for a holiday trip. The barge floated in a large quiet lake with no wind.

They were able to eat fish and tall grasses and slept in the sun. They caught floating logs and built rooms and additions onto the barge until it became like a large pleasure boat.

Eventually, they forgot about their old home and even doubted that it had ever existed.

Since the scenery was limited and they were bored, they started amusing themselves by focusing on eating, sex, and physical prowess. They made music to arouse the senses by blowing into reeds and created competitive sports.

There was one man they called the Dreamer, because he had visions of the days before they had boarded the barge. He told the people that they could swim and fly, with training. He told them that far away were holy ancestors waiting for them to return to an ancient home. Most people thought Dreamer was crazy.

One day he asked one of the rulers, "Why can't we climb on a log and paddle our legs and move in the water to the mountain over there? We might find our grandparents."

The Ruler laughed at him and said, "Don't you know that the water is full of flesh-eating fish who would kill you? Besides, no one in our memory has ever left the barge and survived."

ESCAPE

The Dreamer in his sleep heard his ancestors calling him into the water. That night he carefully boarded a log and with a stick was able to keep the fish away from him as he slowly paddled to the shore. When he arrived he was a little bloody and exhausted, but he had made it.

On the shore he was made a prisoner of a group of shadowy characters known as the Dog people. It was a world of ice on the mountain they took him to. He had to command the dog sleds very carefully over the mountain path, or the fierce dogs turned on him and bit him ruthlessly. Eventually he learned how to command the sled and control the dogs and stay warm. By studying the landscape and the weaknesses of his captors he was able to silently slip away to the top of that mountain.

When he got to the top of that mountain, he could see in the distance a taller mountain across a jagged gorge. It had beautiful cities of white like the ones he had seen in his dreams.

BIRD PEOPLE

There were other people huddled near fires on top of the smaller mountain with him. Many of them were bleeding from climbing and evading the Dog people. Some had been there for many years, and had formed societies. Unfortunately, there was a ruling class called the Bird People who held cruel power over the others. They were called Bird People because they practiced flying in crude machines they had built.

The Bird People never traveled to the tall mountain, because the holy people there were stronger and did not tolerate the way the Bird People treated the slaves. The Bird People preferred the lower altitude and the power they had at their current location. The slaves were even hypnotized into believing that they were powerful and lucky to be so far above the Barge people and the Dog people. They did not think it possible to get to the higher mountain.

WHITE BIRD

Late one night the Dreamer heard a small white bird near his head singing to him in words he understood. The bird told him where a plane was hidden that would take him to the other mountain.

The Dreamer found the plane. It was amazingly fast, like a stealth plane, and could go through the tiny crevices of the mountain paths, climbing past the evil Bird people. He flew to the holy mountain immediately. As he hovered over the holy place, he was filled with joy. Then he looked back and saw below him the Barge people, the Dog slaves, and the Bird slaves. He was filled with sadness that they were still slaves.

After landing his plane on the holy mountain, he was greeted with love and joy by his relatives. He told them he must go back to help the others.

DANGER

They shook their heads sorrowfully. "If you go back, Dreamer, you must take a very simple single-engine airplane; for some of those people could not bear the speed and frequency of the stealth plane."

Dreamer decided to do so, at great risk. He had to fly the simple plane with a great deal of skill, because he was accustomed to the automatic stealth plane. He knew that if he crashed he might never find the way back home.

He found that as he hovered over the Barge people, they laughed at him or cursed him. "Who do you think you are, to tell us such garbage?" they cried out. He had tried to tell them that unless they stopped eating and copulating long enough to grasp the rope, they would never be free. The slaves just looked at him with misery and said, "Your scheme is too far out. We all know man cannot fly or swim. Reality is what you feel with the flesh and see with the eyes. You are above us and we cannot touch you, so you are not real."

DOG SLAVES REFUSE

He then went to the Dog slaves. Hovering above them, he said, "Come to the top of the mountain and I will land so you can board." They looked at him nervously and said, "At least we have some food and know what to expect here. With you, it would be a world without boundaries as we know it. We can try to cooperate with the dogs enough to survive, although sometimes we miss the barge, where it was warmer. We may go back and try to swim to it."

He then flew to the Bird slaves. The slaves remembered the barge, and the Dog people, and also saw the holy cities sometimes when the fog lifted. Some of them were immersed in the social aspects of life there on the low mountain, and believed it was their place to stay. "After all, are not the mountains ALL holy, if we believe them to be? Are not the Bird rulers sparks of God? If we just focus on the positive, we can be happy here with our work and our thoughts."

FORGOTTEN

The Dreamer was very sad, because the people had forgotten who they were, why they were there, and what their mission was.

His relatives on the holy mountain had told him that the reason people were on the barge so long ago was to rescue some tormented animals who were being unfairly tortured by the Bird people. In fact, the Bird people used to live on the holy mountain but were evicted because they were obsessed with experimenting with animals. The Bird people wanted to feel like animals for fun, and found great sport pretending to be animals. The Law of the holy mountain though was that one could go higher in form, and lighter, but it was forbidden to go to a lower form unless you were doing so to save someone.

ICE COMING

The Dreamer was able to convince a few people to return with him to the holy mountain, but he knew that he would not be allowed to come back for more. He knew that the cycle of the ice would soon fall on the lower mountain, and the sun would be hidden from sight. He knew the river would freeze, and most people would lie down in the cold and go to sleep, while pretending to be warm.

At night, back in his ancient home on the holy mountain, he sang messages to the people enslaved below, hoping the echoes would not obscure the meanings.

Most of them only heard a few small birds in the distance.

JUST LIKE ON EARTH

The Being paused after telling the story. Then he spoke again, "Roaming the earth today are millions of astral and physical Suns who are like the Barge people, undeveloped and unable to see beyond the physical world. There are also many suffering Suns who cooperate with the animal ways of the world like the Dog People, fearing for survival and afraid to dream."

"Even more tragic is the presence of many religious--and metaphysically--minded Suns who have become slaves or sport to the fallen angels. Those suns, like the bird slaves, fail to recognize that there are many beings on the Earth who belong in other dimensional world spaces. They do not realize that some sparks of God are dangerous due to the fact that they belong to the inverse universe of destruction and not to the Earth."

"There are now also Suns on this earth who have earned the right to fly with angels, but who have chosen to return in fragile, weakened vessels in order to rescue those left on the mountain. They are heroes. They cannot help the people who insist on staying near the water or in the ice, only those that dare to climb the mountain with bloody hands. These heroes risk the great Death of Forgetting by coming back."

"When in your heart you feel reverence, joy, love, and perhaps a little awe...around a person, know then that they have come for you."

LESSON ON LOGOS ANGSTROMS

Suns of God differ from other soul types in that they require an increasing amount of Logos Angstroms soul light in order to be fulfilled and healthy. Animal man and Nephilim require only etheric magnetism to be satisfied. The difference between Angstroms and etheric magnetism is as great as the comparison between the sun and an electric light bulb. Angstroms could be considered the Light of our United Higher Selves, while etheric magnetism could be considered the filtered lights of the separated physical bodies of all lower creations.

Some advanced thinkers have assumed that everything is composed of light in varying wave forms. This is not exactly true. Everything is composed of a set amount of a primal substance that is called cosmic dust. Cosmic dust exists in patterns that are in either right-hand swirls or left-hand swirls. The right-hand swirls are concerned with an explosive, outward-moving effect. The left-hand swirls are concerned with an inward, impulsive, destructive effect.

The Law “As Above, So Below” is very far-reaching. There are vast planetary systems that exist in pairs of one right-hand universe to one left-hand universe. The Law of Polarity requires both aspects for material form to exist. In higher forms of life above the material, the Law of Polarity is not required for manifestation to occur.

POLARITY

First Cause, or God, is without polarity. In that sense, there is no opposing force, or evil, in combat with God. Dark forces occur as a byproduct of creation. In order to have an advancing, explosive, creative force, there must also be an implosive force to balance it. For that reason the inverse universes were formed for the purpose of allowing the tension of creation.

Everything and everyone is composed of cosmic dust, which is part of God. In that sense, everything is a spark of God. Our right-hand universe is composed of varying amounts of holy light, called Logos Angstroms, which shine through the geometric patterns of cosmic dust particles that compose matter. The complementary left-hand universe is composed of cosmic dust particles formed into inwardly turning patterns that repel Light. It can be compared to a black hole. In this black hole is a state of spiritual anti-matter. There is no such substance as anti-light. This is because Light partakes of First Cause, which has no polarity. Thus, there is only Light, which has the attributes of God, or the absence of Light, which is the void of holy traits.

The Milky Way has a spiritual right-hand code and its inhabitants are also intended to have spiritual right-hand codes. There are other dimensional world spaces in which the left-hand spiral beings are intended to exist when following Cosmic Law.

EVIL

A common misconception is that evil must exist on Earth in order for good to exist. This is not true. Evil originally existed in the inverse universes separate from the Earth beings. At different times since the creation of the Earth, evil has escaped from its proper positions through seven dimensional doorways. One could say that when dark forces are in the proper place they are not evil. Under Cosmic Law the dimensional doorways between earth’s lifeforms and the Earth’s inverse universes were not intended to be opened. When disorder spilled onto the Earth from the inverse universes, mankind was exposed to evil. This was the act of “Eating from the tree of knowledge of good and evil.”

By the mistakes of high-level beings, such as Lucifer, these seven doorways have been opened at various times, so that beings of the left-hand universe could enter Earth. These beings are not to be confused with nature spirits such as fire elementals. Nature spirits help with the breakdown of physical matter in order to rebuild it, but are not of a spiritual left-hand path.

The beings of the inverse universes are, without exception, harmful to Suns of God and animal man. When these beings possess Suns of God, they deprive the Suns of the Logos Angstroms needed to fulfill their soul's purpose.

DOUBLE FORM

In the truest sense of the word, the beings themselves do not possess the Suns of God. The possessing energy is actually a sort of double form of the inverse universe being. Through this double they can have experiences vicariously via the interdimensional doorways. The dark forces produce multiple double forms which are mirrored patterns of themselves.

When a person is de-possessed by a command or will, this double form either disintegrates or, more commonly, leaves to possess another person. The pattern of the dark force can then be reproduced by the original entity who is watching from the inverse universe. The most reliable available method to stop the production of doubles is by the use of a radionics Earth broadcast. This is most effectively done using three important elements. Without the combined radionic use of these elements, the entity is free to continue producing negative elemental copies which torment the Earth.

The first requirement is a world map of the Earth which serves as a witness for the radionic broadcast. Next is a dowsed number which represents the pattern and density of the double. The third requirement is the appropriate dimensional doorway symbol. (See appendix for Radionic Dowsing Manual for complete instructions.)

June 2014 NOTE: This particular method of radionic dowsing has changed. Please refer to "1995 September" by Anonymous for an updated version.

SPIRITUAL DNA

There is a spiritual DNA code similar to the physical spiraling DNA code. Suns have a right-hand spiritual code that requires a great quantity of the Angstroms in order to be in harmony with Higher Self.

Nephilim are physical manifestations of the spiritual anti-matter and do not require or desire this Light. They possess a left-hand spiral DNA code due to the Watchers' decision to go against the Law of spiritual progression by entering animal bodies. By going backwards in evolution, the fallen angels produced a reverse spiritual DNA spiral code. The Nephilim are the mutant offspring of fallen angels who entered animal bodies for carnal experience.

TRAITS

It is fairly easy to detect soul type by observing the primary traits of a person's personality. The primary traits of the right-hand path are creation, divine (not personal) love, holy will, and divine wisdom and intelligence. The primary trait of the left-hand path is destruction, with an emphasis on materialism and physical form rather than on the spiritual aspects of man.

All things in the world are of God because He is the First Cause. However, if Suns mix energies in a disharmonious fashion, then they partake of darkness and are deprived of Angstroms as a result of the Law of Cause and Effect. This occurs because the right-hand universe of Light is composed of only order, whereas the left-hand universe is composed of disorder.

Also, if a Sun fails to fulfill his soul's purpose then he has defied his Higher Self. A Suns' purpose is to be creative and transmute disorder. Refusing to fulfill this purpose is similar to trying to reverse the soul spiral. Spiritual stagnation is de-evolutionary, which is evil for a Sun.

Logos means order and reason. Genesis says “In the beginning was the word.” This should have been translated to “In the beginning was reason and order.” Orderly and reasonable laws rule the world. Cause and Effect is the primary Law. A Sun produces a Cause with every choice he makes. The Effect resulting from that Cause impacts his Angstrom Light level.

MAGNETISM

Animal magnetism, vitality, and energy are not synonymous with Logos Angstroms. Those traits are still part of the physical expression of man, animal, and plant. Animal man and Nephilim man do not require Angstroms to have vitality. They are able to passively absorb vitality from the breakdown of Light Angstroms naturally radiating to the Earth.

A highly-evolved Sun requires a greater quantity of Light to be healthy and comfortable. His world is becoming more spiritual and less physical. His food is “Manna from Heaven,” not only the food of lower evolved creatures. A Sun of God who has plenty of Light Angstroms is better able to pull vitality out of his food, drink and environment. This is because he is able to pull in divine Light and direct it into blessing his food, raising its vitality.

Nephilim partake of the low light needs of animal man. In fact, most Nephilim are very uncomfortable around a strongly brilliant soul light of a Sun of God. The more evil the Nephilim, the more uncomfortable he is around holiness. A Nephilim may seem benign and do no apparent harm, because through many lifetimes he may have learned lessons through karma. However, a Nephilim is a different creature than a Sun, so he has a different soul destiny and needs.

GENETIC

The only time a Nephilim can go on a right-hand path is between lifetimes, by making a choice to no longer incarnate. When that choice is made, he can function in the higher realms in the manner in which he was intended. If he reincarnates, he will be on the left-hand path, by Law.

The danger is when a Sun marries a Nephilim; the Light of the Sun will diminish, in resonance with the Nephilim, until it eventually goes out. A sun is never truly at peace sleeping with a Nephilim, because doing so partakes of bestiality. Also a Nephilim will become hostile if the Sun works to gain Light, because it makes the Nephilim uncomfortable. As a result, to keep peace, usually the Sun dims his light to suit his mate. He may become ill or listless and usually falls into depression, because he is cut off from Higher Self.

INFECTIONS

There are many things that influence the amount of Angstroms that a Sun has at any given time. If he falls below a certain level, he is vulnerable to viruses, bacterial infections, or mental depression.

The ability of beings to accept Angstroms is inhibited by forces that are disharmonious, such as electromagnetic pollution, nuclear waste radiation, unnatural chemical sprays, and other man-made disharmonious mixtures. The spiritually sensitive person is more likely to become ill eating dead food, such as fast foods. Animals, Nephilim, and animal man can thrive on less Light from their food and water than Suns need.

An additional problem is that governments are now experimenting with electromagnetic warfare on a global scale. This sends waves of dangerous energies through the earth, off of satellites, and radionically, which weakens whole cities of people. This is one reason why chronic fatigue syndrome is more prevalent in some areas.

ALIENS

A more recent world-wide phenomenon is the invasion of alien beings. These aliens insert vitality drains in sleeping people, in order to siphon off energy for their own use. This causes profound weakness for a Sun. A Sun with a drain usually has insomnia and deep depression.

An added difficulty for Suns is that they are acutely sensitive to the condition of their dual soul. Dual souls share their light Angstroms, and so a highly possessed dual soul can be a virtual sieve to his other half. This is why spiritual healing often fails.

HEALING

Spiritual healing is done by either magnetic animal energy or soul Angstrom funneling. Magnetic healing may make a Sun feel better temporarily due to the symptom removal. But the cause of low Angstroms must be determined and remedied, for true healing to take place.

An Angstrom level below 600 will cause possession, illness and depression in an average Sun. As a Sun evolves, he requires more Light to stay healthy and happy.

COMFORT

Everyone has a maximum amount of Light with which he is comfortable. If he gets more than that quantity, he may experience anxiety and translate it into fear. This is why an average Sun may be uncomfortable around a holy person. As he increases in purity, he no longer feels fear or uncomfortable around a person with a bright soul Light.

Our earth has been energized with an increasing quantity and frequency of this light over time. One year ago, the standard for the earth was 500,000 Angstroms. Thirty years ago it was 200,000 Angstroms. It is now 800,000 Angstroms and rapidly increasing. A person whose base level of comfort is at 800,000 units is progressing properly regarding his purpose on earth. He would tend to feel spiritually and physical safe if his level dropped as low as 70,000 temporarily due to environmental problems or poor food. However, one entity or a UFO tube can cause his light to drop to 20 or lower. Hate from other people or socializing with people who embrace a carnal and destructive lifestyle can cause him to drop to nearly 0.

PHYSICAL MEASURES

There are radionic methods, amulets, and prayers that can fill a Sun with Angstroms, but, unless he and his dual soul are free of dark forces, he will deteriorate. Ultimately a Sun must partake of the attributes of God (Love, Will, Intelligence) to remain at a high level for long.

Only by tolerating an increasing level of Angstroms will a Sun be able to fulfill his soul's purpose in this seventh cycle, which is to take an active part in making the planet holy.

THE TEACHING EXAMPLE OF THE BLIND MONK AND THE DOGS

Once there was a monk who lived alone in a monastery high on a mountain. He had been there a very long time, and all the other monks had died. He was lonely.

To make matters worse, in his old age he had developed cataracts, and could see only shadows. He managed to work his garden though, and tend to his basic needs. He could no longer read the spiritual books and eventually forgot much of the ancient teachings.

To pass the time, he would think about the ideal world, where all people would be treated with love and respect. He thought about how wonderful it would be if all people were offered a free education and medical care. In this world, society would care for the poor and disabled.

The monk deeply believed in the basic goodness of mankind. He just knew that if a person were given good, loving care from the first day of life, that goodness would be reflected in his later life.

He believed that the only opposite to love was fear. He was convinced fear was what drove people to acts of cruelty. If a person could have his fears removed by adequate mothering, housing, and a secure future, then it seemed that no one would choose to be evil. It made sense that the fear resulting from insanity might be the only other reason someone would have to harm another. He saw that this society would care for its mentally ill members as well.

He knew that if he saw the good in someone, that person would be good, because people tend to become the way that others see them. By affirming their holiness, he was sure they would be holy.

A VISITOR ARRIVES

One day a large dog wandered up the narrow path to the monastery. He was tired and hungry, because he had run away from his cruel master, who was a sorcerer. The sorcerer had found a way to make the dog talk like a human being and forced the dog to perform for money, which the sorcerer kept. The dog was tired of being abused, so he had run away.

He had heard some people talking about the legend that there was a mysterious monk that lived in a haunted monastery. When he saw the monk out sitting on a rock, he was sure this was the place.

The curious dog wandered up to the monk and saw his white, blind eyes. An idea came to the dog.

"Who is there?" asked the monk, happy to have company after all those years. The dog answered, "It is just a poor child, starving and tired, abandoned by his mother near the road." The monk's heart went out to the poor thing. "What is your name, child?" he asked. The dog replied, "Scavenger, because I have always had to dig in trash for bits of food."

At once the monk took the visitor to his quarters, and gave him the best food he had, and the softest bed. "I am so grateful to you sir," the animal said.

And so it came to be that the blind monk took in the dog as if he were his own flesh and blood. However, he could rarely get the dog to work in the garden.

"I am depressed today" or "I hurt my back" were frequent excuses. The monk was sure that all people would choose to work their fair share if they were able. He decided to take care of such a fragile being as Scavenger, assuming that the poor child had such a psychological trauma that he could not help his behavior. "My love will cure him," decided the monk.

SECRETS

In the mystery school associated with the monastery, the monk had been taught the secrets of alchemy. The old monk knew that the transmutation of metals was just the symbol of the refinement of the human to a state of Christ consciousness. He decided to teach the dog, so that the dog could carry on the work of the monastery when the old man died.

When the dog heard that he was to learn how to make gold, he was very happy. Although the monk told him it was only a symbol of higher truth, the dog did not truly understand.

The monk was able to transmute base metal to gold, and did so to show the dog the symbolic steps of refining the soul. The dog, however, saw only the monetary possibilities present in such magical knowledge.

WAITING

He was a loyal dog and decided to stay by the monk's side until the end of the monk's days. He knew the monk would not live very long, and he did not want to hurt him or leave him lonely. He could take the secret of the gold to town after the old man passed away and then no one would be hurt.

The monk and the dog lived together amiably, although the dog was very lazy, and had no real understanding of the ancient teachings he was given. He would chase rabbits in the valleys for sport or food with great energy, but was very tired when it came time to practice the mystery school exercises, which made no sense to him anyway and seemed a waste of time.

FEMALE

The dog found his mind wandering to thoughts of a family. One day he smelled a female dog in heat, somewhere near the mountain. "Kind sir," he told the monk, "I must go to the wilderness to pray, and seek God's will." He did not think the lie mattered because it really just protected the old monk's feelings.

The dog went to the female and they mated. He took her back to the monastery with him and introduced her as his mute sister that his mother had also abandoned. The dog was happy, for now he had a warm home and a wife.

WIFE HAS A BIRD FRIEND

His wife carried upon her back a large black raven who had been her lifelong friend. From the very moment of the female dog's birth, the bird had been her constant companion and advisor.

The bird spoke telepathically to both dogs. "Why don't you go to town and teach others the secret of making gold? People could give you a percentage of the gold in payment. You can be rich and you would be doing a great deal of good in the world. No more hunger, no more poverty."

Scavenger hesitated because he did not want to hurt his faithful monk friend. The black bird argued, "Alright, then you can teach me and your wife alchemy, and we will go into town and teach it to others. First the monk must teach your wife to speak like a human. When we return we can give you part of the profits."

Scavenger could not see how such a scheme would hurt the monk, and so he agreed. He taught them the steps of alchemy, and let them secretly observe the monk when the monk again demonstrated the transmutation of metals to Scavenger. Then at Scavenger's request, the monk used magical means to cause the female dog to speak, thinking he was healing a mute child.

TEACHING CROWDS

The female dog and raven left to go into town, quite happy with their knowledge. They started teaching crowds of paying customers the secrets of alchemy.

Some of the people listening understood the spiritual meanings and were very happy to have such knowledge. They thought that the female dog must be a great prophet and the bird her guardian angel. Those people went on to live holy lives, based on this distorted alchemical formula.

Other people, who wanted only the gold, became angry. When they followed the alchemical procedures as they had been taught, the base metal did not change into gold.

THOUGHTS IMPORTANT

The wife and bird did not know that the monk had to direct his will and thoughts in a very specific way in order to transmute the base metal into gold. They had assumed that the superficial directions and steps of the procedure were all that they needed. The monk had told Scavenger about directing certain thoughts and will, but Scavenger had assumed that was just superstition. How could thoughts influence a chemical reaction? It didn't make sense to him, so he didn't think it was important to tell them that part of the procedure.

The female dog and bird were enraged at Scavenger and at the monk. They returned to the monastery and savagely attacked and killed them both, feeling quite justified in doing so. After all, hadn't they been lied to?

REALITY

After the story, the Being commented. "Many Suns assume that they know what their current reality is and what a perfect reality would be. In truth, they don't understand either one."

"They assume other beings are just like themselves. As a result of this belief they suffer. Much of the tragedies in the prison, welfare, and school systems are brought about by the false concept that all people are motivated in the same way. The Monk believed that the opposite of love is fear. Only in the case of Suns is this true. In the case of animal man, the opposite of love is indifference. In Nephilim, the opposite of love is hate."

Every Sun would be wise to merely wish that every type of beings' souls' most holy needs be met. It is a mistake to think that you should wish for another what you think you need yourself. You do not even know what you need; let alone what another soul type may need. One should always wish that God's will, or divine order, prevail, and seek to understand the Law."

WHO TO TEACH

"Wisdom should lead you to the correct people with whom to share divine truth. Even fools who spread parroted copies of truth to others may be doing some good, by accidentally giving correct information to worthy Suns. However, the potential for harm is great."

"The harm that they do with their distorted concepts of higher truth may come back on the teacher, like the female dog and her bird upon the poor monk. Blindness did not excuse the monk from obeying the Law. Had he incorporated his holy lessons and therefore not been so needy for any companion available, he would have lived in peace."

"He sold his soul for a companion, who was an animal. That animal was benign but easily became a vessel for the evil Nephilim (wife and bird), because he did not understand the reasons for life or for truth."

LONELINESS

“Many people today marry Nephilim or animal man, because they are lonely or blind. The Sun who does so suffers by choosing to live in conflict with divine laws.”

“Many teachers accept any student in an attempt to be democratic and see the spark of God in all creatures. When they teach animal man or Nephilim, they are in great danger. Those beings can turn on them like savage beasts or use the truth for lower gain. Ignorance does not protect one from the Law. By refusing to recognize soul polarity, the teacher is defying Law, and so suffers. Affirmations that attempt to change a tiger into a lily are worthless. Likewise, only a fool would insist that a fish walk upon the ground, since a man can. Each type must be handled differently, according to Law, with love and wisdom.”

DETAILS

“Also, the study of higher truth requires that a student pay attention to detail, listen carefully to nuances, and realize the extreme importance of thoughts and feelings in everything one does. The animal and Nephilim go blindly through life, choosing the carnal and superficial, assuming that the subtle lessons are insignificant. They seldom learn control of thoughts or feelings, and, as a result, cause untold damage on all planes. By glossing over details, they lose the whole value of the teaching and do great harm.”

“As Michelangelo said, ‘Trifles make perfection, and perfection is no trifle’.”

LESSON ON THE FUTURE OF THE PLANET

Throughout human history, the Suns have come to the earth in great numbers and then later would leave. When they leave, civilizations decline.

Whenever there has been a great influx of knowledge of the arts, mathematics, music, the stars, philosophy, and a refinement of culture, the Suns were present in great numbers. In the glory of ancient Egypt and Greece many Suns were incarnated.

Whenever the earth has been shaken by great wars, bloodshed, and primitive behaviors, the Suns mostly had left. In certain locations on the earth, fewer Suns incarnate at different times. During the Russian revolution, the Vietnam War, and other tragic times in history there were many Nephilim and animal men who committed atrocities on innocent civilians. Most animal men would only do such behaviors if possessed or stimulated by blood lust by fallen angels. Even a highly possessed Sun would rarely be willing to defile an innocent child.

THINKERS

In the year 1880, 50 percent of the babies born were Suns. This is the reason many great thinkers were born near that time, and many spiritual mystics. In that year, only six percent were born as Nephilim, while 35 percent were born as animal man. Eight percent were evil alien births.

DRUGS

In 1950, only five percent of the babies born that year were of the Sun soul type. That is one reason the drug culture was so prevalent in the late sixties and seventies, as those children approached adulthood. In that year, 50 percent of the babies born were Nephilim, and eight percent were evil alien types not of this planet. Thirty-seven percent were animal man.

In 1990, 20 percent of the babies born were Suns, while 65 percent were born as Nephilim. Only two percent were alien types, and the rest were born as animal man.

SUNS TO INCREASE

The percentage of Suns will begin to increase, and by the year 1995, 50 percent of the births will be Suns, and 32 percent will be Nephilim. Seven percent will be evil alien beings of two separate varieties. The rest will be animal man.

By the year 2000, 80 percent of the births will be Suns, six percent will be evil alien types, and no Nephilim will be allowed to be born. The rest will be animal man.

Millions of earthbound spirit Nephilim in the year 2000 will be hovering over the cities, trying to possess the Suns and animal man. Unless Suns know how to recognize the torment these beings bring, and learn how to clear the entities from their homes and auras, many Suns will become perverse or insane.

By the year 2010, 90 percent of the babies born will be Suns, and no animals or Nephilim will be allowed to incarnate in human form. There will be five percent evil aliens born. The remaining five percent will be holy beings that could be considered Masters.

LAST YEAR

This influx will be due to the fact that 2010 is the last year that Suns will be born on Earth. These will be the last Suns born who will have the opportunity to fulfill their soul's function on Earth and to learn how to operate on the higher planes.

By the year 2011, 95 percent of the population will be born as Nephilim, and five percent will be a mixture of holy and non-holy beings not of the earth. There will be no Suns or animal man incarnate in that year, or after that on the planet Earth.

The Suns who have learned to function in the higher realms by methods such as holy meditation, thought and emotion control, and dowsing will be able to adapt to "the New Heaven and the New Earth" in a different dimensional space. The Sun whose physical body dies while he is in a state of advanced awareness due to his higher study, service, and discipline will reincarnate in this Garden.

The Sun who rejects the task of learning to spiritualize his life will be returned to cosmic dust and be drawn back into the Creator. He will lose his soul, unless his soul mate has brought enough illumination into the soul matrix for the two of them. Illumination or the steady brilliance of Logos Angstroms, is shared between soul mates (dual souls.)

REINCARNATION

Of all the Suns alive on the Earth at this time (1991), only 20 percent will have another chance to reincarnate. Those Suns under the age of fifty at the current time will only have a 10 percent chance to reincarnate. The Suns who are under the age of 40 years old now will only have a chance of 3 percent to reincarnate. Only one out of 100 under the age of 30 at the current time will have an opportunity to reincarnate.

For most people on the earth, it would be wise to view this incarnation as the last on this planet as we know it.

THE UFO CRISIS

Lee found himself hovering at night above a suburban neighborhood. There was a large disc shaped object nearby. Suddenly, a beam of light shot out of the object into a window of a house. Then, just as suddenly, the object and light were gone.

In his spiritual body Lee was able to go to the window and look in. There on a bed was a teenage boy. With astral sight, Lee could see a small tube of light extending from the boy's head to the outside. That tube seemed to stretch into the night clouds near the full moon.

The Being explained, "This is an example of the energy siphons now being placed on innocent Suns by the negative alien energies with whom the United States government has secretly traded information. By conspiring with these dark forces in order to obtain weaponry information, the government leaders have taken on evil karma."

SYMPTOMS

"This young boy will at first be agitated, hostile, irrational, and anxious. He will drink or take drugs to stop his fear. Then he will get weaker and weaker as this UFO Drain sucks his life and Light out of him. He may get a chronic viral syndrome or chronic candidiasis condition. Through the aura hole, he will suffer from many kinds of possessions that further weaken him."

Lee wondered why the aliens were taking the energy.

"They use the life force and Light for a kind of 'rush' not unlike humans using cocaine. Many people think these are monitors, but those beings don't have any use to monitor most people. The aliens merely want the Sun's life force. This is now happening to people all over the world, except Nephilim. They cannot use the low light of the negative spiral Nephilim and they prefer Suns over animals. For that reason it is a crisis affecting the earth's destiny."

Lee asked why the holy guardians did not block this violation of free will. The Being answered quickly.

"The governments cooperate with the aliens, as do many ignorant UFO channelers. Since many people have invited these dark ones, it would be a violation of the group's free will for higher beings to intervene."

Lee wondered how anybody could discern holy mystical revelation from channeling of ignorant or evil entities.

DISCERNMENT

"It's rather easy" the Being declared. "Strangely enough, even though the Catholic Church has strayed from Jesus' teachings, the mystical symbols the church embraces are often repulsive to those of the left-hand path. Dark forces sometimes will claim that Jesus did not exist, or will try to defile Him in some way. In contrast, the holy masters of all faiths have always revered Jesus."

"Dark forces will emphasize the splendor of love in all forms of expression while ignoring cosmic laws. For example, the Law of Gender is often downplayed as being part of the paternalistic plot of the church. Carnal pleasures are often extolled as an aid to becoming closer to God. The aliens encourage sexual promiscuity because it fits in with their hidden agendas. In contrast, holy beings have usually stressed the importance of identification with spirit rather than with body. Taming the physical passions in order to use that energy to contact Higher Self is emphasized in most holy mystery schools."

"Through the exercise of free will, people have ignorantly invited these negative UFOs. Also out of free will, some Suns have asked for a way out of the resultant suffering. For that reason, the Holy Beings can tell the Suns how to protect themselves. Unfortunately, most Suns are so out of touch with Higher Self that they attribute the effects of these UFO drains to something concrete in their environment. Suns think they would feel better if they had a different job, or spouse, or had more money.”

DEPRESSION

“In their depression and mental pain, they lash out against coworkers or scream at their children. If you look around at your neighbors, you will see an undercurrent of discomfort and fear. That is why they keep so busy, or watch TV every night, to block the uneasy feeling that they really are not in control of their lives. The children with UFO drains will play video war games for hours as if they are hypnotized or autistic. Small children will look anguished, agitated, or hostile.”

“In churches and metaphysical circles, you will see smiles pasted onto suffering, ashen faces. They cling to pat phrases and routines that no longer work. Many give up and turn to alcohol or drugs in desperation. Others go to psychiatrists, or blame their parents for a dysfunctional family. They fill support groups like a bunch of tormented, shell-shocked soldiers who don’t remember the war. Many of them subconsciously are seeing fearful scenes from the probable future.”

INSOMNIA

“They are tired and agitated. Many of them awaken suddenly Sleep is not satisfying. They awaken weak and nervous. Many of these Suns are too advanced toward death to help. Eventually the chakras of the spiritual body are dissolved, and the person is more robot than human till the end of his days. It becomes irrelevant how long his body walks around, for all his Angstroms are gone. His soul Light has gone out. He may then become a vehicle for the Nephilim to enter and take over for its own use. The body may get stronger when the Nephilim enters, and the personality may then feel less pain. At that point he would cease to be a Sun, and become only a zombie used by the dark forces.”

FEAR

Lee remembered the nights he awakened in a state of fear, worried about his children. He remembered his smallest son telling him of seeing a strange light come in the window and shine onto the head of his brother in the pre-dawn hours. Lee knew he had to find out how to remove these drains.

The Being clarified, “The word ‘drain’ is not too exact, for these energies are a type of light beam that enters the cells of a Sun and changes the vibratory pattern. This creates a kind of resonating tone that the dark alien can access, like a computer code, and use as an interdimensional doorway to drain Angstroms.”

“Drains could be compared to a virus hooked into a cell. However, the being who is operating the ‘hook’ is a highly intelligent negative polarity alien.”

“The drains are not even the worse aspect of these alien influences. The goal of these beings is to take over the Earth because their own planet is dying. The invasion is taking place now. There is no time to waste in understanding how to control these beings. There are millions of them living in underground bases throughout the world and on the moon. A little lesson in the history of these beings in relationship with the Earth may be helpful.”

LESSON ON THE ALIEN INVASION OF THE EARTH

The alien invasion of the Earth started in the 1950's after flying saucers were seen over the White House. Subsequently, the United States government obtained both dead and live captive aliens called "greys".

There is a second type of alien associated with the greys who are subservient to the greys. The United States government, and the Chinese government independently began secret negotiations with the aliens to obtain technological information in exchange for UFO landing bases. The intelligence agencies and military began elaborate secret programs to create underground bases for these aliens. They funded the projects with drug money through the CIA sales of drugs to the mafia and through unlisted "defense" budget money.

LIES TOLD

The greys convinced the US government that they have always monitored and assisted our planet. They lied and said they were responsible for the religions and the genetic refinement of the Earth people away from simian characteristics. They coyly claimed to be here only to help with technological advancement, including the creation of disabling new weapons (for peace, of course). They claimed to be the true angels seen by ancients, and to have participated in our planet's destiny by seeding the planet with their own superior genetic material over the ages. These are all lies. In truth, they first came to Earth in 1944 to evaluate it for their own use since their planet is dying.

Bases were set up on the moon and in several locations over the Earth. In the United States, there are bases near Dulce, New Mexico, near Groom Lake, Nevada, and another in southwestern Iowa. Tinker Air Force Base (AFB), Holloman AFB, and Kirkland AFB have nearby secret underground alien quarters. There is a base near Montreal not far from the United States border. China has eight alien bases above and underground.

Ten million aliens now live in the United States and Canada, and forty million live in China. Since they have remote controls in half of China's military elite, the aliens pose a great threat to the safety of other countries. This is why China has been included in many prophecies regarding Armageddon-type planetary dangers. The aliens also have smaller bases in other countries.

GOVERNMENT WORRIED

The United States government is now very worried about the increasing numbers of the arriving aliens, and may be forced to publicly admit their presence within three years. An added problem is that the first AIDS virus was brought to the Earth by the greys. The virus is not lethal to the aliens. When the greys were allowed to experiment with genetic cloning on sheep, monkeys, and humans, the virus changed form and became lethal to most humans. A great deal of genetic experimentation was done to the African population, which facilitated the spread of the AIDS mutated virus.

The US government did experiment with versions of the virus with homosexual populations to test its use for germ warfare. The World Health Organization also had AIDS contaminated immunizations that were used in developing countries. AIDS is also rapidly spreading due to alien embryonic transfers on abducted or sedated women.

In the initial governmental collaboration with the aliens, it was agreed that humans would not be used for food or experiments. Millions of farm animals worldwide have been used both for food and for genetic experimentation since that time. The U.S. government has conducted misinformation campaigns in an attempt to cover up the reason for so many mutilated animals.

The aliens do not have alimentary digestive tracts or reproductive systems as humans do. They absorb nutrients through their skin by immersing in huge vats of solutions with floating animal or human parts. They reproduce by cloning, but are attempting to form a cross-breed race that uses sexual reproduction.

KENNEDY ASSASSINATED

The genetic experimentation with humans began shortly before President John F. Kennedy was assassinated by the CIA. He was assassinated because he planned to order the secret alien operations of the military and CIA to a stop, and to make public the threat of the alien presence. He was viewed as a risk to public safety, because panic would ensue if he made the information public. Since over seven hundred top government officials were being remotely controlled by the aliens through secretly installed brain monitors, it was not a difficult task to order the President's death and the murder of 22 witnesses. Lyndon Baines Johnson was being remotely controlled by the aliens, as was the head of the CIA.

Since that time, the aliens have stepped up a program to genetically infiltrate humanity. There are two methods used. They sometimes inject prepared alien genetic material into an existing embryo of a pregnant woman. They have twelve DNA strands. Only ten percent of such genetically altered babies survive the first year of life, often due to feeding disorders.

The second method involves the laboratory preparation of a combined alien-human genetic mixture, with sixty percent of the genetic material being alien. An embryo is then placed in a sleeping or abducted woman, often replacing the embryo of a pregnant woman. Approximately fifteen percent of these babies live past the first year.

There are currently 600,000 cross-breeds of these two types alive in the United States. Seventy-five percent are under five years of age. Thirty-five percent are less than a year old. The aliens plan on using these bodies for viable vehicles for the consciousness of their species. They realize that only by adapting to the Earth can they survive. They also realize that this means the eventual extermination of humanity as we know it.

PSYCHICS BEING USED

Part of their plan involves convincing humans that the aliens are spiritual guides and here to help humanity evolve to the next stage of development. Through many psychics, they are channeling misinformation. One common lie is that humans are destined to develop twelve DNA strands, as the aliens have. Another lie is that no human can be violated on the Earth due to free will and the Law of Karma. They claim that any abducted human has agreed on a high soul level to help the planet. In fact, many humans are violated because they are ignorant and have failed to listen to the warnings.

One of the early warnings was the Prophecy of Fatima predicting the possible end of the world due to alien invasion. Many people erroneously think that Pope John Paul I was murdered because he planned on revealing the prophecy. Actually, he died of natural causes. Of more concern should be the five hundred people in the United States who have been abducted and used for food and breeding purposes by the aliens with the knowledge of the U.S. government.

Many underground UFO buffs think that numerous people have been killed by the government to suppress the secret information. There have been far fewer killed than supposed. The government is more worried at the present time on how to eliminate the world wide threat to humanity presented by the aliens.

MEDIA USED

A great deal of misinformation has been put forth regarding the presence of so-called "good" aliens. Movies such as "E.T." and "Star Wars" have been efforts by humans, controlled by aliens, to present the invasion in a pleasant light. Less than fifteen percent of the popular UFO channeling information is from a source other than the invaders. They often refer to themselves as "The Christ" or an archangel in order to gain credibility. In the method of classical hypnosis, they will give nine truths and then throw in a lie to fool the public. After listening to nine holy-sounding platitudes about peace and love, it is easy for humans to accept a statement about mankind's "evolution into the twelve-strand DNA of the advanced man." The aliens just want people to allow them to take over the physical forms of the planet.

These aliens also have been instrumental in encouraging sexual promiscuity, because only their half-breeds will be able to survive the AIDS epidemic in large numbers. By encouraging people to focus on their bodies, fewer people learn to function in the higher planes in a way that will stop the invasion.

A form of misinformation put forth by the aliens includes linking them with the White Brotherhood or the Brotherhood of the White Temple. They have no relationship with the secret holy mystery schools on the planet.

Another falsehood put forth by the aliens involves the supposed centuries-old cooperation by the Nordic races with them in genetic breeding. There is no truth to this. The aliens do try to use human genes of tall people, since they themselves are less than five feet tall.

These aliens are relative newcomers on the Earth scene, and are scavengers with many weaknesses. By studying the weaknesses, one can learn how to control them.

WEAKNESSES OF ALIENS

Weaknesses include:

- 1) Inability to understand metaphors or reverse psychology.
- 2) Dependence upon a hierarchy; difficulty acting alone.
- 3) Fear of death and respect for appearance of power or force.
- 4) Inability to love or understand self-less love.
- 5) Suspicion of each other.
- 6) Belief in stupidity of humans.
- 7) They are confused easily with any surprise element.
- 8) Limited number of DNA codes or frequencies due to cloning type reproduction. Radionic broadcasting of the frequencies of those tones in a higher octave upon an Earth witness would cause deadly resonance to occur. This would stop their ability to reproduce on the Earth. Within thirty years, all would die off, including the clone half-breeds. (See chapter on Deadly Resonance and Radionic Dowsing manual in appendix.)
- 9) Most of their violation of humans must be done at night using certain types of light lasers. The presence of a bright light in the area or even on someone's Polaroid picture within a closet will often thwart their attempts to steal life force.
- 10) Since they operate using certain wave forms and frequencies, they can be neutralized in many cases by the radionic use of frequency generators.

MUST BE STOPPED

The importance of rapidly stopping their reproduction is of primary concern for all humans on the Earth. They must be stopped because they are also planning experimentation with new waveforms that may cause catastrophe on the planet. They are preparing to disturb the major fault lines in California during a vulnerable planetary configuration in August, 1991. In five years, they plan on trying to dematerialize Mexico City. They are able to produce chronic viral syndromes over whole cities by the use of electromagnetic warfare. There are planetary protectors now trying to stop these plans. The problem is that so many people have invited and allowed this evil to spread that human free will cannot be violated even to save the planet. Holy Beings cannot violate free will, but these evil beings have chosen to violate free will. In many cases, the aliens have managed to get permission from humans to do whatever they desire. The government, channeling psychics, and many New Age fools have invited them in ignorance.

Now all the Earth people need to use free will to get rid of these parasites and request holy assistance before it is too late. Time is running out.

WATCHERS, UFO GENETIC IMPRINTS, AND THE AIDS CONNECTION

Fallen angels, such as the Watchers, exist in the left-hand universe. Technically they do not enter the right-hand Earth world. They form a double imprint of themselves which can sometimes genetically alter the physical DNA code of an affected animal man and even a Sun. By imprinting the evil pattern upon the DNA, the dark force is able to control the affected being throughout his lifetime.

One must be very cautious in regard to doing healing or exorcism on these genetically altered beings. The only safe way to heal these imprints is through a world radionic broadcast that includes blocking the re-entry of the pattern through the interdimensional doorways.

A Nephilim is a genetically altered animal man. It is possible, with a precise world broadcast, to neutralize the specific power of individual fallen angel genetic imprints upon a Nephilim's DNA. If all imprints on a Nephilim were treated, then he would be freed from the robot-like control of the inverse-universe entity. By associating with Nephilim, he could easily receive another type of genetic imprint from dark forces, though. When a treated Nephilim dies, he does not reincarnate as Nephilim. He reincarnates as animal man with missing DNA. Also, during the remainder of his current life, he would most likely receive repeated serious possessions, because Nephilim man has no innate desire for holiness.

SEX

When the fallen angels, or Watchers, had sexual intercourse with animal man, their offspring (Nephilim) developed a mutant genetic code. By going backwards in evolution, the Watchers were pulled into the inverse universe due to the Law of Cause and Effect. The Watchers now cannot physically cross the barrier of the interdimensional doorways. Nonetheless, they control their offspring by DNA pattern, which is like a computer access code for them. When the Watcher's genetic imprint is radionically neutralized, the Nephilim loses a section of his DNA. More accurately, one could say the "aura" or "spirit" of that section of the DNA is then missing. The Watcher cannot "access" that Nephilim's "computer" any longer.

PAST LIFE ENTITIES

Suns did not incur imprints from sexual intercourse with Watchers. Even so, Suns can still have the fallen angel DNA imprint from three sources. A Sun may die while possessed by a fallen angel. This puts a spiritual impression of that dark pattern upon his spiritual DNA. At rebirth, this influences the genetic pattern of his physical DNA. Throughout many lifetimes, a Sun and his dual soul can collect several DNA imprints of dark forces. This phenomena is what some exorcists call "piggy-back entities", or an "etheric cloud". This can reflect upon his physical appearance and health.

The second source of a Sun's fallen angel DNA imprint is due to sexual intercourse with Nephilim. The blending of auras and the inherent creative potential that intercourse represents can actually mutate the Sun's DNA. Even a single sexual encounter with a Nephilim will produce an immediate DNA impression of fallen angel influence. Since each impression carries a distinct pattern, only very specific radionic treatment can neutralize the pattern.

AIDS PATHWAY

The third source is infection from AIDS-related viruses transmitted via sexual intercourse. There are approximately 600 variations of the AIDS viral syndrome which are continuing to mutate. Not all of these infections cause physical death or are detectable by current medical testing methods. Even so, all of these viruses cause a fallen angel genetic alteration in the infected individual.

The AIDS viruses were brought to Earth by alien beings who are controlled by the Watchers. The aliens are offspring of the Watchers, similar to the Earth Nephilim. These UFO Nephilim are carriers of these rapidly mutating viruses, which are benign to their species. Through embryonic transplants on hypnotized victims, the UFO Nephilim are experimenting with using humans as carriers for their species. The transmission of the AIDS virus mutations is a side effect.

TREATMENT

Fortunately the AIDS viral imprints can be radionically treated the same way as the Nephilim genetic code imprints on a world broadcast. Since each one of these mutated forms of AIDS is linked with the Watchers, it can be treated in the same manner as the DNA genetic mutations.

An increasing number of babies in the world are genetically of half UFO alien and half human material. Seventy percent of the experimentation in the United States has been conducted upon Suns' spiritual and physical genetic material. Thirty percent has been conducted using animal man genetic material. Nephilim have deformed genetic material, so they are considered unsuitable for alien use.

Many mixed species babies are ill, irritable, and may not survive childhood. There is no point in trying to heal these babies. If they survive, they would be controlled by alien consciousness. In most cases, the parents and child do not have personal karma as a causative factor for this misfortune. This situation is a side-effect of the materialism of society. As long as man fails to seek understanding of the unseen aspects of his soul, he is open to manipulation in those realms with which he is unacquainted.

Mankind is now suffering from group and planetary karma as a result of his failure to study cosmic law and apply it. The tragedy of the mixed-breed babies can be stopped if mankind chooses to do so. By identifying types of beings that possess fallen angel influence and by understanding how to control their effect upon the Earth, mankind can save the planet.

LESSON ON DIMENSIONS, DENSITIES, AND VIBRATION

The contamination by alien energies present in many people can be removed, but first the healer must understand the concepts of density, dimension, and vibration.

DENSITY

Density refers to the relative closeness of cosmic dust particles to each other. Atoms are made up of cosmic dust particles arranged in different patterns that vibrate at different rates of speed. When they vibrate faster, they are more distant from each other, or lighter.

In order to create a scale for density, one could call an item such as a rock a first density being. Along the same lines, one could then call a plant a second density being. Most infectious organisms would fall into this category. As one approaches animal life, he would be moving into third density. Of course the scale is arbitrary, but if one's mind contains such a concept, it is easier to discern the relative density of non-visible beings and forces. With practice, one can easily detect a higher range of these densities.

To detect beings above third density or in non-visible dimensional spaces requires spiritual sight or a method such as dowsing or muscle testing (kinesiology). It is important right now for Suns to learn these easy methods to tap into universal mind via the subconscious. The subconscious is able to trigger a muscle response, therefore bringing the knowledge to the conscious mind.

DIMENSION

Dimensions refer to the geometric shapes of different patterns of cosmic dust particles through which vibrating Angstroms shine. The Light then bends into angles and curves much like sunlight entering differently shaped prisms. Some prisms allow certain colors to splash on the wall in a rainbow arc, while other prisms may direct a single white beam. Similarly, does the pattern of cosmic dust particles affect the amount of Angstroms filtering through.

All substance of physical or non-physical being (including thoughtforms) can be compared to a group of flashing lights on an electronic circuitry board. The lights represent cosmic dust particles. The rate of vibration of each light would determine its color. As the lights form patterns different shapes emerge (as if upon a television screen). These shapes (or patterns) represent the dimensions.

GEOMETRIC SHAPES

One could compare a dot to one dimension, a line to a second, and a triangle to a third dimension. Other dimensions could be compared to cubes, cylinders or more complex forms. As these forms become more complex with angles and curves, they become invisible. Mankind at this stage of development can only see things in a third dimensional framework. Each geometric shape has a representative mathematical equation.

You could extend the analogy of the circuitry board to a road map of the United States filled with flashing colored lights. The boundaries between states are composed of angles or curves that would be determined by the shade of color and the shape of the light group pattern within the boundaries. Each state represents a dimension filled with certain densities. To move within each state and between the boundaries of each state one must follow the curves and angles of the roads. You can't expect to drive through a mountain. Likewise in interdimensional travel one must resonate with the frequency and pattern of that dimension.

MIXTURE

Another comparison could be made to a liquid mixture composed of different chemicals of varying atomic structure or composition. The different atomic structures represent patterns of vibrating cosmic dust particles. When poured into a glass, the liquid occupies one location (dimensional space), but is composed of items of varying densities. The combination of those separate items produces a pattern that may be harmonious or poisonous to a person drinking the mixture. A chemical equation can be written to describe the mixture in an exact way. That is because the universe is mathematical and harmonic. Everything visible and non-visible is composed of harmonics that can be explained in a mathematical code. This reflects the order of the Law.

The secrets to higher truth are found by the person who is able to function in his fluid astral and mental bodies in a way that accesses the different dimensions. Those fluid bodies can be trained to change their vibratory rate and travel along certain angles and curves that represent the dimension the person desires to access. To get to Vermont, one has to travel the available roads in their defined shapes that go around the mountain curves. Likewise, there is an orderly way to travel in the higher planes.

It is as though the person is learning to use existing computer codes to access certain memory banks. Time can be compared to the direction of electric current through the circuits of the computer. Using certain techniques one can learn to bypass a part of the circuit and send the flow to a different location. In other words, one can direct Light in such a way to experience a different time and space.

TRAVEL

Travel to another time and space is possible because all matter is composed of the same type of cosmic dust particles variably vibrating in different patterns. By changing one's vibrating patterns into a harmonic compatible with a different time/space; one arrives there by a particular aspect of the Law of Resonance.

ELECTROMAGNETIC POWER

This same Law of Vibratory Resonance is the key to understanding many of mankind's sufferings during this cycle. The reckless exposure to vibratory electromagnetic power has caused most people on the earth today to suffer disharmonious patterns created from their bodies' cosmic dust particles. Microwaves, FM and AM radio waves, appliances, and computers all emit damaging patterned waves of disordered light which penetrate bodies and aura fields. This changes the people's normal patterns into ones that are disharmonious. By the Law of Partial Resonance, destructive forces from the higher planes can then access the person because they share the same "computer code" or "formula."

The bombardment of carnal, destructive imagery from the various media, toxic pesticides, and floating negative thoughtforms add to the bulk of disharmonious patterns with which people are assaulted every day. Since all these patterns are like the components of the liquid chemical mixture, there is no clear delineation between one person's disharmony and another person's disharmony. That is why large cities are often so painful for people who are sensitive to sharp, irregular patterns. These people can attempt to resonate with holy ideas, but in most cases are overwhelmed by the patterns of negation in the environment unless they learn a protective and cleansing method such as radionics.

ANGULAR

The more angular the disorder, the further it is from First Cause, or God. Meditation exercises that teach visualization of circles, spheres, and curves are often protective. It is wise not to cling to negative thoughts and feelings because they have an angular quality.

VIBRATION

Everything vibrates at a certain rate of speed. A primary difference between light, sound, and thought can be considered to be the vibratory rate. Some vibrations you can see, feel, taste, or hear, and others you cannot detect by your physical body sensations triggering a brain response. However, the astral and mental auric bodies can detect a vast range of frequencies that are signaled to the subconscious.

If a disorder is detected, the subconscious (like a computer) then scans universal mind through Higher Self, for a resonating category, pattern or name. In the Bible it is mentioned that Adam was given the job of naming the lower creations. This could be interpreted to mean that he was to know the pattern of all things in order to be in control. This category, pattern, or name is needed to create the complementary balancing pattern to heal disorder. The ability to scan for a pattern stems from an ancient memory of when man knew how to consciously balance disharmonious patterns at will. He no longer can do this because he has forgotten how to recognize and send the pattern to the disorder. He still subconsciously scans for the correcting pattern, but he just lets it sit in his subconscious without using it.

PATTERNS

The universe is composed of vibrating particles of varying geometric patterns that constitute all things and beings. Every being or energy in the world is a pattern of cosmic dust particles that is either harmonious or disharmonious to the beings nearby. A harmonious series of beings is like a song composed of notes that follow each other in a way that pleases the ear.

One must access the subconscious mind in order to locate the energy pattern that will balance specific disorders. Entities and UFO drains are also geometric shapes and patterns that can be neutralized by the proper pattern. The neutralizing pattern would be much like the same song as the disorder's, but sung in a reverse order of notes. It could be compared to a chemical acid solution needed to balance an alkaline solution to the point of a neutral pH. Or, one could create what is called a deadly resonance pattern to dissolve the disharmony. This will be covered in a later lesson.

Theoretically one could translate the appropriate pattern into a musical composition, a series of colors, a series of geometric shapes, or a mathematical equation.

SOUND

The difficulty of using sound as a balancing pattern is that humans have a very limited auditory range. A complex pattern may need frequencies that the voice or musical instrument cannot make. However, the use of electrical frequency generators that produce different waveforms can be very effective in creating an appropriate vibratory pattern when wired to a speaker.

By dowsing, it is quite simple to determine the appropriate waveform, frequency, and length of treatment needed to neutralize the disharmonious patterns of a dark force, UFO tube, or infectious disease. The treatment can be done using only the affected person's polaroid picture placed upon the speaker and still be effective.

Absentee healing or exorcism may seem enigmatic to those versed in known physics because it employs higher laws that are unknown to most men. One could compare the emanation from a person's picture to a spiritual DNA code, in other words, their pattern.

COLOR

As with the limitations of man's ability to hear certain sounds, mankind is also limited in his visual color perception range. In some cases, shining a colored slide onto a picture is helpful for healing physical illness or emotional imbalance. Some colors tend to repel the light laser used by UFO aliens to implant the astral drains. However, the use of color will not remove dark forces in most cases or produce permanent healing.

Related to the use of color is the use of gemstones and other programmable substances used for healing. Colored gemstones have certain innate properties that make them valuable for healing purposes even when they are not specifically programmed. An example is the humble reddish garnet that is quite helpful to repel electromagnetic pollution. Also, crystals can be mentally programmed with a pattern that is helpful to treat or prevent certain disharmonies in the auric field.

The ability of substances to be beneficially programmed with a healing or protective pattern is the basis for amulets, holy water, anointing oil, blessed salt, and religious icons. Salt crystals hold a pattern easily, as does water. Some substances hold patterns much longer than others.

An example is wooden furniture. Many old beds, dining tables, and dressers contain the imprints from suicides, marital infidelities, or mental depression. Entities are attracted to the patterns of destruction found in old houses or furniture.

BLESSING

A very strong and balanced Sun can put healing force into a crystal or liquid that will harmonize a disordered condition. This is also what the blessing of food accomplishes. The blessing of foods in containers with the labels still on them does little good, because the external pattern (the label) will usually be disharmonious thus canceling out the blessing. Even clothing patterns can exert a negative influence on a Sun. Wallpaper, pictures, and objects in the home all exert a keynote into the area that is either helpful or disharmonious to the residents.

Anyone who has an entity possession is unlikely to be able to bless or energize substances. Dark forces interfere with the aura energy centers (chakras) that transmit the blessing energy. Dark forces are angular patterns that block the passage of Light into or out of the chakras. Blessings are a focusing of Holy Light, and can only be successfully performed by a person whose chakras are clear enough for Light to shine through. Chakra vitality also depends on physical and mental health.

UNAVAILABLE

All of the above mentioned balancing methods rely on factors that may be unavailable. Electrical generators would fail if an earthquake caused a blackout. A gemstone may not be available. The person may be ill and unable to WILL a healing pattern into crystal or gemstone. Recent earth vibrations changes have caused many people to "wobble" in a manner that blocks their ability to direct will in an effective way.

For those reasons the secret of numbers and their power has been revealed. All of mathematics is nothing but the mystery of the creation of life hidden beneath symbols. Within those symbols is the answer to much of the suffering of mankind at this crucial time in the history of the planet.

LESSON ON HEALING WITH SYMBOLS VS. THE USE OF WILL

A common mental block is when the student thinks he does not need physical measures to help balance or heal him. He assumes he is above radionic dowsing, or wearing a blessed gemstone, or having an icon in his home. An even larger block is to assume these physical measures are forms of idolatry. Nothing is further from the truth. Physical objects and written symbols form batteries and funnels for the healing power of Logos Angstroms. Physical objects in most cases must be programmed with a strong will, but radionic healing with numbers takes much less energy. The conservation of energy is becoming increasingly important for Suns in this current cycle.

Some people smugly claim that such tools as dowsing are not needed, and that people can mentally remove dark forces or do all healing by thought alone. Invariably such people claim to send all entities into a generic “light” and they assume that that’s the end of the matter. There are at this time on the earth very few people capable of sustaining a willed healing pattern in their minds for the required intensity and duration to affect a healing. Most people don’t even understand what the “light” means.

In order to send something into the Light, one has to have conquered the lower self to such a degree that he approaches a state of Christ consciousness. The composition of Light Angstroms contains the virtues of the Tree of Life: will power, love, wisdom, devotion, strength, harmony, justice, mercy, beauty, order, and rhythm. One has to have earned the virtues of Light before he can direct it.

HOLY WILL

In the recent past many people could at times successfully remove spiritual interference by will and visualization. It is much more difficult now because of many factors associated with the current earth cycle. At this time the ability to clear some types of spiritual interference by one’s will requires a rare ability to strongly control thoughts and emotions in order to focus enough energy to affect a healing.

A person given to depression, circular thinking, or irritation is not likely to be a successful healer or exorcist. Even a person of great self-control would not make a satisfactory healer or exorcist unless he had considerable soul progression from many lifetimes of holy study and loving service to humanity. However, the use of radionic removal with geometric codes does not require great spiritual progression and can successfully be taught to many people.

DENIAL

There are some earthly teachers that will tell you to not recognize any dark force or illness. They tell their students that this gives the dark force or the illness more power. In the past, there were some cases in which that teaching was valid. There are some kinds of dark forces and illnesses that do fade away or leave if a person ignores them. Unfortunately, these teachers suggest the same treatment for types of negation that will not leave, but grow stronger while feeding off of one’s life force. These same teachers must think Jesus was a fool, since a large part of His ministry was physical healing and removal of different dark forces using various methods.

JESUS

Regarding one dark force that His disciples could not remove despite using the sacred Word, Jesus said that “This kind comes out only by prayer and fasting.” He did not tell them to ignore the entity. In this cycle there are new dark forces, such as the aliens that syphon life force, that will take your Light and Life from you if you ignore them. Many of these can produce profound illness such as cancer.

The time is coming when the use of one’s will, which is partly dependent upon health, will not remove all of the kinds of negation that will be faced. Even Suns of great spiritual development will cry out to the angels and find no relief, if they fail to learn to adjust their methods to the problems of the current times.

We are entering times of great struggle on all dimensions and densities. It is now time to learn and to practice the method of clearing negation with numbers while it is still fairly easy. Soon dowsing will require more attunement than it does now. The person who gives up and tries to ignore the disharmonies in his home will fail to progress. He will not be able to function in the other realms adequately to spiritually survive the coming years.

TRAINING METHOD

Dowsing number ratios is actually a training method which some day you will not need. However, by using this method and working to attain virtues, you are learning to connect lower and higher minds faster and faster until the day you approach Christ consciousness. Then you will not need a method such as dowsing.

Regular dowsing produces a type of meditative state which includes full awareness of the environment. Dowsing is a much faster spiritual development method than many of the Eastern methods. Most Americans have a hard time with even a fairly quick method of attunement to Higher Self and prefer to assume they are already in a state of enlightenment, rather than undergo any frustration.

Dowsing works because of small muscle movements signaled by the operator’s subconscious mind. It is the same phenomena as muscle testing (Kinesiology). Dowsing has no relationship to channeling or communicating with spirits. All dowsing does is bring the person’s subconscious knowledge into the arena of the conscious mind by signals. Since the subconscious mind is in contact with the superconscious mind, dowsing makes it possible for the average person who is not in any trance to contact the part of himself that is closest to God. This is no small feat.

ENERGY CONSERVED

The most efficient method for healing or clearing negative patterns or dark forces at this time involves the use of radionic dowsing of numerical ratios with angelic script characters. By this method, the energy of the healer is conserved and the negative pattern can be kept from doing harm to the healer.

Numbers represent angelic energies and powers. Mathematics was first taught in the mystery schools to represent the secrets of creation and to shield the knowledge from the unworthy. It was assumed by the ancient masters that a person who was worthy would understand sacred geometry while appearing to be doing concrete mathematics. The numbers from zero to ten represent angelic forces associated with the creation of the universe.

ANGELIC SCRIPT

Numbers represent geometric shape and density of non-visible energies. A very powerful additional healing tool is the use of the angelic script.

The angelic script has been used for centuries by mystery schools. There are several variations. Despite the name, the script was not given to mankind by angels. The script was brought to earth by the unseen Master Guardians through their human students who were mystics.

CONSTELLATIONS

Some people have compared the various scripts to the constellations, but that is very inexact. The constellations have their shapes due to the powers that the symbols represent. The symbolic shapes are keys to the understanding of dimensional world spaces.

Just as many teenage girls can drive cars without being mechanics, so can humans benefit from the use of these powerful symbols without completely understanding them. As mentioned earlier, one's subconscious is able to tap into universal mind through the Higher Self. The universal mind is like a vast computer that has stored all knowledge from all time. It is the Book of Life. Therefore, each person in their deepest self understands all mysteries of life and merely needs to remember. The symbols could be compared to the computer access codes to universal mind's computer data banks.

The shape of the angelic script figures triggers ancient memories of higher knowledge. When used with numbers in a program of daily dowsing, tremendous spiritual advancement can occur in a virtuous person.

RADIONICS LESSON: ENTERING DIMENSIONAL SPACES WITH ANGELIC SCRIPT

There are seven dimensional spaces with which mankind need to be concerned at this point in his destiny. From the doorways of these seven dimensional world spaces come most of the harmful UFO aliens and all of the fallen angels that torment man. Nephilim that are not incarnated, but attempt to possess living people, can be traced to one of these spaces. Many of the energies that produce cancers, viral disorders, and mental disorders can be traced to one of these dimensional spaces.

These seven dimensional spaces exist in the right-hand universe to which Earth belongs, with a mirrored set of spaces that exist in the left-hand universe. When harmful beings cross over into the right-hand side, they do so by means of an artificial double that can only be dissolved by the Law of Deadly Resonance. The originating being would then still exist in the left-hand world.

Doorways of these dimensional spaces can be found on vortices of the planetary grid system. The grid system looks somewhat like a graph paper pattern placed over the Earth. At certain intersections of lines, the Earth has points similar to acupuncture meridian points. On those acupuncture points exist spots, such as the locations of some pyramids, that contain interdimensional doorways.

DOORWAYS

Pyramids, Stonehenge, and other sites have been used for the attainment of knowledge from the other dimensions, due to the doorways present at those points. There can be dangers at those points, as shown by the disappearance of many people over the doorway of the Bermuda Triangle. There are inverse (left-hand) universe doorways as well as right-hand universe doorways at these ancient sites.

It is safer to avoid physically experimenting with these sites in the effort to attain knowledge. The use of symbols representative of the doorways can facilitate learning about the dimensional spaces without danger. Otherwise, harmful entities from the left-hand universe can possess a person traveling to such sites.

The use of dimensional symbols is helpful for binding up the products of the dark forces that exist in those dimensions. The combination of three “letters” of angelic script compose the symbol for each doorway. There is also a mathematical symbol for each dimension.

These symbols do not represent all dimensions. They merely represent the ones required to bind up disharmonies originating from the inverse universes. They are labeled in correct order and must be arranged properly on the sacred 360 degree scale for radionic use.

The dimension labeled as “One” would be the least complexly formed geometric space of the seven that are important to mankind. The most complexly formed space would be the seventh dimensional space. The entities associated with a certain space are not necessarily more negative than those of another space. They are just different.

ILLNESS AND ENTITY BLUEPRINTS

Some entities are more common during certain times of the lunar cycle or with different planetary influences. Certain months of the year are more favorable to some types of spiritual contamination.

The spiritual “clouds” of many cancers, infections, and mental illnesses are due to the imprints of dark forces emanating from these spaces. It is possible to block a great deal of illness by understanding the radionic application of these symbols. For instance, many cancers originate from a spiritual blueprint from the fourth space. AIDS blueprints can commonly be found in the fifth and first spaces. Each blueprint is associated with a dark force pattern from the inverse universe of destruction.

It is not proper or possible to send such entities “into the light”. They belong in their own dimensional spaces and exist without light. Most exorcists just shove them off of one person onto someone new, or try to “bind them in hell” which is an overly general locational term.

It is not a difficult matter to place the harmful potential of these beings back into the proper dimensional spaces through the use of radionics. With radionics, one is able to locate the exact harmonic frequency that will resonate with the being in such a way as to bind him from doing harm.

RADIONICS

By radionics, the being is dissolved in the right-hand universe but can continue to exist in the left-hand universe. The lesson on deadly resonance which will follow explains the phenomena.

By the Law of Resonance, his artificial “double” sent to our right-hand dimensional space is dissolved, while the real being is unharmed at his home far away. It is as though a raging lion in the middle of New York City was returned to the wilds of Africa.

Each symbol for the seven vital interdimensional doorways is intimately linked with each of the others at exact positions within their own circles and within the larger circle. (See Radionic Dowsing Manual in this book for illustration and instructions.

The combined use of angelic script, numbers, six-pointed stars, and magnets can form a powerful radionic system to return the dark forces to the inverse universe with minimal energy loss for the healer.

MAGNETS

Magnets are helpful when used in radionic broadcasts unless one decides to use the earth’s magnetic field as a magnet. Usually daily adjustment of the rotation of the broadcast is needed if the earth’s magnetic field is used. Also, the electromagnetic pollution around offices and homes may interfere with the broadcast unless magnets are used radionically.

The use of doughnut-shaped magnets causes a type of vortex energy between them that approximates a microcosm of the Earth’s magnetic field. It is as though one creates a “mini-universe” with a focus on a specific harmonic of healing to the being represented by the witness within the vortex.

SOLOMON

The six-pointed star has been used historically for the binding up of dark forces. It was used by King Solomon to bind up destructive elementals and so is called “Solomon’s Seal.”

HOPE FOR THE PLANET

If even a few dozen people over the planet systematically gathered the disharmonious energies by these methods, the destiny of the planet Earth could be changed and much human suffering alleviated. Every person who daily binds up the disharmonies in his own auric field can spare the world untold misery.

LESSON ON SLEEP AND SOUL PROGRESSION

In order for a person to be comfortable and proficient in different types of spiritual healing or clearing methods, he must learn how to become conscious in certain states of sleep and meditation.

One fear that many people have of meditation and of the death experience is that they will meet what is called “The Guardian on the Threshold” who will frighten or harm them.

GUARDIANS

The so-called “Guardians on the Threshold” of the astral plane and at death are nothing more than accumulated auric disorder that must be cut through in order to get to the other dimensions. The more harmonious the person, the less frightening are the beings he meets in sleep, meditation, and death. However, if he is married to a very disharmonious person, such as a Nephilim, he must also cut through that person’s disorder. In most cases he cannot cut through the disorder of a Nephilim and so is unable to learn in the other dimensions. It is almost impossible to safely sleep with or meditate near a Nephilim.

The holy guides and guardians are repulsed by the continual presence of any strong disharmonious energies. They will eventually leave a Sun who persists in disharmonious habits and relationships.

Travel to other dimensions is very important for a developing Sun. The majority of his education is given on the astral planes by holy Guides while the student sleeps. When new types of alien energies appear, the attuned Sun will be shown by the holy Guides how to clear the negation. This will be so only if he has acted upon the previous knowledge that has been given to him earlier while in sleep or waking. The Guides cannot waste energy on those who ignore information from holy sources.

BLOCKS

Concepts difficult to understand or appreciate because of physical, mental, or emotional blocks are readily understood by the subconscious during sleep. Most people do not remember these astral teachings, but they later get tremendous insights and knowledge for which they have no explanation.

ILLNESS

Any dark force in the house will keep the astral body from separating from the physical-etheric body. The etheric body is responsible for regenerating cells in the body. It can only do so when the astral travel occurs. Failure to astral travel produces physical illness and stops the soul’s progress.

If a person has a very damaged astral body, and yet the etheric body is strong, then cancers or infections can result because the check-and-balance system is disturbed. When people are emotionally unstable, the astral body weakens progressively or temporarily will overpower the etheric body during emotional outbursts. Then, physical weakness occurs. Glands may be underactive. Since the astral body is needed for digestion, often gastrointestinal problems occur.

Eating before going to bed keeps the astral body attached to the physical-etheric body to aid digestion. For that reason, no astral travel or physical healing can occur. During times of great spiritual work, fasting is common in order to save astral energy commonly used by food digestion. Juices or simple carbohydrates do not require the tremendous amount of energy to digest that fats and meats require.

FUTURE DOWSING

Since time and space have different meanings in these realms, it is relatively easy to learn to dowse disharmonies that will appear in the future. For instance, before going to bed one could dowse clearing ratios for any disharmonious energy that may float into the auric field before the next morning at eight o'clock. Since the UFO tubes are placed during the night while people sleep, it is possible to thwart the installation of a tube by mentally scanning the future for any disharmonies before retiring for the night.

Since one can only dowse a probable future, it is possible to receive some negative energy if something changes. For example, if someone changes their plans and visits a person who is highly disharmonious, then the probably future changed and contamination could result.

Any person who is unable to rest well and dream vividly most likely has an entity in his auric field. It is vital for all Suns to stay clear of dark forces. This will enable them to physically heal at night, receive astral lessons, and be able to adapt to the difficult times ahead.

LESSON ON ASSUMPTIONS: FLIGHT TO TIBET

The Holy Being told Lee that his mental habits and assumptions were interfering with his ability to comprehend the gravity of the spiritual lessons given thus far. Perhaps observing a human teacher would make the process easier.

Lee suddenly found himself observing the interaction between a master and his students in a Tibetan monastery.

A young American who had recently travelled to Tibet asked the holy man, "Sir, can you teach me how to be enlightened? I have travelled the world over and seen many false paths. I hear you are a good man. Will you explain to me how I can go about being taken up in the Rapture when it occurs? Also, who is the next avatar and how may I meet him?"

The wise man looked at him while his disciples gathered around to hear the venerable sage's answer. "The Rapture will happen soon, so you must rush home to greet the master who is to show you the way."

With great joy the young man rushed to catch the next plane back to the United States.

CONFUSED

The holy man's students were baffled. "What, wise one, was the lesson for the young man, that we may learn also?" They, by experience, were aware that the master may have been teaching the young American in a subtle and non-literal manner.

The holy one looked sternly at them. "There was no hope for that man but to despair of external paths. He thought that he knew what he needed to learn. The first rule of a student of truth is to never assume that you know what it is you need to learn or the manner in which knowledge will come. The American could have reached enlightenment with several teachers with whom he has consulted in the past. His fixation on the superficial trappings or symbols of the Way of his teachers kept him from being able to look past the symbol. Only despair will teach such a fool."

"He who thinks he knows what he needs to learn and the manner in which he is to learn will never progress. Only by the removal of assumptions and preconceived ideas can a person begin to learn higher truth. The best lesson may be your greatest suffering, and your finest teacher may appear to be your vilest enemy."

"The person who calmly accepts what befalls him and yet continues to put forth good causes into the world is wise. He knows that what appears a tragedy may contain a hidden blessing. He also knows that many worldly blessings can become curses. Many of the old fairy tales about the three wishes had this truth hidden within them. The moral was to be careful what you asked for, because you may get it."

"Even in the case of apparent sorrows such as the birth of a deformed child, the Law is at work. On some level that soul needed a lesson or to correct some wrong. In some cases it is against the soul's purpose to physically heal such a child. In the world's eyes, this is quite cruel. That is because the major elements of society are overly concerned with the physical body at the expense of the soul body."

"Your soul will continue to send you into lessons through the device known as Karma. If you learn your lessons well and live congruently with your soul, then you live in grace rather than suffer pain from the Law of Karma."

DEATH

“There are many religions that claim Jesus or some other holy being died for our sins, and so Karma is no longer needed. They claim our sins were paid for on the cross. Jesus was sent to earth in order to teach the Way, and His death was just to fulfill prophecy. In a Being as holy as Jesus, the physical body means little, and death is a meaningless word. Jesus came to show us that there is no death. Sadly, most of His followers distorted His messages and worshipped His death instead of His Way.”

“Most people are so afraid to question their assumptions about everything they have been taught that they find it easier to argue or debate than to listen and learn. The young American was a prime example. He could never have accepted the definition for the Rapture symbol. He wants to be lifted up into the clouds like a helpless baby. He could not have accepted the truth, that he must learn how to fly with his higher bodies in order to be saved in the Rapture. He was looking for the Second Coming of Christ so that the Holy Being could take care of him. He didn’t want to become as Christ. For those reasons he was not a worthy student.”

“Only those students who look beneath the symbols into the heart of the mystery reach enlightenment.”

OCCULT

Lee then reflected on how he had sought an answer to all his questions about his own soul growth within the confines of his secure religious framework. Anything outside those walls gave him anxiety, and he assumed many things were evil that were merely unfamiliar. The word “occult,” which merely implies secret or hidden knowledge was used by his church to condemn any eastern or mystical approach to God. Lee now saw the error in such shallow thinking.

KNOWING VS. BELIEVING

Lee now had the experience of “knowing” rather than “thinking” or even “believing”. He realized that throughout his life he had been an intellectual observer of truth, yet never allowed himself to give up mental habits and parental programming. To consider other spiritual options felt a bit like the first time he ever tried to swim as a child. There was no solid ground beneath him that he could see, and he had to keep struggling to keep above water. He kept grasping for something familiar and solid. He later realized, if he had relaxed, he could have floated effortlessly.

LESSONS FROM THE PAST

The Holy Being appeared. "Remember, Lee, in your youth the pitfalls of a lack of differentiation of species of people." Then the visions of the past began.

There was a time in Lee's youth when he saw with great clarity the spark of God in all creation, but did not differentiate wisely in his interactions with those sparks.

With great love he had prayed for the healing of even evil people, who later went on to do great harm. He assumed that it was always holy to pray for the sick. He was able to see in great flashes many negative consequences as a result of his lack of judgment.

Lee recalled his work with a prisoner's rights group, and how he had lobbied for the release of a man who claimed to have had a spiritual conversion while in prison.

MURDER

While robbing a house after his release, the man killed a young boy. If Lee had been able to see the man's soul type, he would have seen a Nephilim left-hand spiral. He would have known that the man would have continued to harm others unless he learned through suffering, because it is impossible for a Nephilim to learn through a spiritual revelation. If the man had acknowledged the stupidity of his crimes based on the result of his own suffering while incarcerated, then he may have been rehabilitated enough to live a neutral life without danger to others.

DEMOCRACY

The Being pointed out, "Be aware that your desire for a democratic world may block your ability to understand that democracy is impossible in the spiritual hierarchy. Also, your life-long tendency to look after the underdog, or to debate every point as the devil's advocate, has blocked your ability to see the wisdom in the actions of highly advanced beings. Perhaps it would be helpful to review a specific incident in your past."

Next Lee found himself back in time to his childhood frame home. He could see himself as a small boy, standing in a field. Then an old memory was replayed.

CHILDHOOD MEMORY

As a small child he had found a rabid kitten convulsing on the ground. His heart went out to its suffering, so he ran to get his father to somehow save the kitten.

They lived out in the country with no available humane society for animals. Lee's father took one look at the kitten and shook his head sadly. He went into the house, took his bottle of prize Bourbon, and came back to pour it into the suffering cat's mouth. Then he proceeded to stop the brains out of the tormented animal. With his shoes bloody, he went over to a tree, vomited and wept.

Lee was too young to understand that the cat could have bitten and harmed someone, and had to be killed to release it from its suffering. He was angry at his father, just as a student is often angry at a teacher who may need to behave a certain way to teach the student an important lesson.

The Being remarked, "Sometimes a teacher, or the Higher Self, must behave to the student of truth in a way that may appear cruel. Sometimes the Higher Self of both student and teacher agree on the difficult pain of a lesson without either one consciously knowing the reason for the situation. Only later is the reason revealed."

INTUITION

Lee remembered a time that he had forbidden one of his children to go on a trip, although he wasn't sure why his intuition advised him to do so. The child was very angry, until he heard later that the bus had crashed, killing one child. Perhaps some of his own frustrations in life were due to a similar protective mechanism from Higher Self.

Indeed, even Lee's sixth sense seemed to spring from events in his childhood that had seemed like tragedies at the time.

Lee recalled a time when he was four years old, lying on his little bed, delirious with fever. He recalled seeing angels hovering over him, and many spirits of people standing around his bed, debating whether he was ready to be taken to the world of the dead.

A mighty light engulfed him, and the other spirits faded away. He felt peace, and awakened in his half-dark room.

He couldn't hear and could barely see, but he could then read most thoughts. There was a steady humming in his ears, and there seemed to be a veil over his eyes, so that he could barely make out the shapes of the people in front of him.

DEAF

His parents were happy the fever was gone, but were simple farm people who never went to doctors. They assumed Lee was healed and had no reason to suspect his deafness and partial blindness because he could read their thoughts. There was no television, and Lee spent his playtime in the woods, sometimes sitting inside hollow trees, sensing the spirits of the trees. He would wander the woods with his siblings, and sense his way, like a deer or a bird.

However, when he started school, there were problems. So many children emanated disorder that his "radar" became confused. The energy fields of all the children and teachers swirled around Lee. So many thoughts in so large a group sounded like a hundred radios tuned to different stations.

He often got lost after recess, and would wander into the wrong room and sit down, to the derision of the students. He could not remember where the bathroom was, because the myriad thoughts threw off his ability to navigate. As a result, he wet his pants almost daily. The children ridiculed him.

RETARDED?

The frustrated teacher decided that Lee was retarded, and a hopeless daydreamer who refused to listen to instructions. Sometimes she had to call his name twice before he could focus on picking up her thoughts and answering. He couldn't read out loud very well.

When his father finally realized that Lee was deaf, both of his parents were devastated. When they took him to the county health department for treatment and discovered his partial blindness, it was almost more than they could bear. They were sure he must be a half-wit and would be a burden on them.

However, his hearing partially returned when his infected and scarred eardrums began to slowly heal.

Eventually his parents were able to get him some glasses. However, Lee seldom wore them because he could not see astrally while wearing them.

BUILDING BLOCKS

As Lee reviewed those early painful years, he knew that all the experiences were building blocks for the service he was to perform for humanity later in his life. In fact, his soul's purpose could not have been fulfilled without the spiritual sensitivity that he developed when his physical senses failed.

Lee was beginning to see that humans seldom know the reason for any experience, nor what is good for them or bad for them.

HOW TO KNOW

Interrupting Lee's thoughts, the Being interjected, "The key to understanding the requirements of the Higher Self is in the conscious mind's ability to tap into the subconscious mind. Since the subconscious mind is closest to the Higher Mind, it can access information easily. The problem then is to find a way for the conscious mind to access the subconscious mind rapidly and consistently. The fastest way to learn to consistently access the subconscious is by some form of muscle testing or by dowsing."

"By dowsing, one can easily determine the lesson at hand in order to move through it as painlessly as possible."

"Perhaps you would learn some of these lessons more readily from a human teacher."

COLORADO LESSONS ON LOVE, WILL, AND INTELLIGENCE

Lee next found himself observing a teacher who was instructing a group of students in Colorado. The teacher was a gentleman of Middle-Eastern descent who appeared to be close to seventy years old. He was teaching in a small, almost empty house. The session was on will, emotion, and divine intelligence.

“The ability of the student to absorb and tolerate a high level of holy light energy is dependent upon his degree and quality of love, will, and intelligence. Holy Light partakes of those traits, so only a resonating person can tolerate Light.”

“A strong will that is placed under the service of Higher Self is of absolute necessity for the study of truth. It is by will that one is able to do healing and direct one’s behaviors for learning and service to others.”

“The will of the lower self, though, is very destructive, for it is concerned with vanity and emotion. A person whose feelings are easily wounded is not able to will his emotions under the control of the Higher Self. He wastes a great deal of energy.”

DISCOURAGEMENT

“The desire for holy knowledge in order to be of service is the only reason to study higher truth. If a student is easily discouraged then his lower will is in control. The purpose of higher truth is not to make you feel loved, healthy, or happy. It is to help you fulfill your soul’s purpose, which is to spiritualize the planet.”

“One time a student said to me, ‘If you love me unconditionally and look at the bright side of me, I will flower and do well. If you don’t give me any positive strokes, I get too discouraged, and think you don’t love me or regard me as worthy.’ That student really wanted a friend or wife. He did not want to learn higher truth in order to serve humanity.”

LOVE

“The love that comes from the Higher Self is quite impersonal. Intense personal love can be a real impediment to the proper use of divine power. Personal love can be a form of training for holy love, but must become secondary to a love for each person’s Higher Self.”

“This does not mean that one should not use judgment in personal relationships. In an attempt to be impersonal and non-judgmental, I used to try to heal and clear all people who came to me for help. As a result, I received severe aura damage because I hooked into people who had chosen evil lifestyles.”

“This ability to love all creatures, though, is a requirement to higher knowledge.” Had I not loved each person I cared for, I would not have been worthy to receive the knowledge I have today. An unloving person would misuse and misrepresent the truth of the species of men. He would use it for separation and not to help each type follow their most holy path.

DIVINE INTELLIGENCE

“Divine Intelligence does not come from the ability to reason with the lower mind, but the lower mind is a factor.”

“Students who say, ‘I can’t understand what you mean, but I FEEL the truth of it’ do not do a great deal of good in the world. The rational, lower mind must be put into service of the higher mind and balanced with love and will.”

“‘I don’t like to read, so just give me Cliff’s notes of The Secret Doctrine,’ is a statement I have heard from a poor student. Reading involves the student’s ability to perceive symbols, which is vital to higher understanding.”

BOOKS

“When I suggested the writings of Rudolf Steiner to someone, I was taken aback with the response. ‘I know all that stuff,’ the woman said. It would require several lifetimes to fully appreciate Steiner’s contributions and nuances of meaning.”

“Once a person saw a book with ancient symbols on the cover sitting in my office. ‘I get bad vibes when I look at that book. It must have evil information,’ he said. This reflected an uncontrolled emotional response upon seeing a neutral symbol that has been used for good and occasionally for evil for centuries. Some people feel the same programmed hate for Christian symbols because they are emotional about childhood negative experiences. This is a serious pitfall and block to the sincere student, for he loses the ability to look past the symbol.”

FEAR

“The ability to control feelings and allow higher mind to guide oneself is vital to holy study. Fear of secret knowledge blocks true learning. Often the fear is not even from the student, but from an entity in his auric field. A person motivated by fear cannot act with divine intelligence.”

“Many people feel uncomfortable around books on exorcism or around an exorcist if they are possessed or oppressed. Often they assume the book or person is evil since they feel fear. The ability to analyze why you have an emotional reaction is necessary to growth. The emotions, then, must be under the control of divine will.”

“Lower psychological analysis is often worthless for Suns, though, because it uses only lower mind. Meditation, prayer, clearing oneself and then dowsing over a list of possible causes is a more accurate method of self-discovery.”

DENIAL IS USELESS

“Higher intelligence requires that a person continue to seek out learning opportunities and remember the lessons already received.”

“Once I visited a former student. I was concerned because he was swarming with entities, even though I had taught him methods of removal years before. Tactfully, I tried to explain some of the new aspects of clearing techniques I had found effective.”

“He looked quite miserable, but insisted, ‘I just walk in a state of prayer now and don’t have to clear myself anymore. Dowsing and external methods are not needed when you are open in your crown chakra and in a state of grace.’”

"I looked at him sadly. Mother Theresa and the Dalai Lama may not need any clearing methods, but this man sure did. I said nothing more and soon left, realizing that this Sun of God was lost for now because he was too lazy and proud to realize how ignorant he was. He was lacking in holy will and holy intelligence."

ERRORS

Lee realized many of his own errors of reasoning in the teachings of this wise teacher. Yet, he couldn't understand why the Being didn't just tell him all these lessons instead of taking him to observe human teachers.

The Being explained that Lee needed to observe different methods of teaching involving different personalities in order to understand the importance of details and symbols.

The teacher continued the lesson along those lines. "Once a student came to me and complained, 'I am troubled because you do not teach in the manner of my former teachers. I have to feel that your teachings are congruent with all the ancient teachers and with the mystery school I belong to.'"

"That student lacked higher intelligence, which is the part of the mind that can see below a symbol. He could not progress because he was looking for differences instead of similarities of the teachings. Methods, appearances of teachers, and specifics of teaching all vary because they are symbols of non-physical truth. All interpretations of higher law are by their very nature flawed and imperfect because our language has no words for the most holy truth.

PARADOX

"Ironically, though, the student who observes nuances, differences, similarities, and details in an open manner is the best student. The worst student is one that is just trying to support his previous belief system. The student who assumes that there are many paths to truth, and looks for the nuances of each path while comparing similarities, will progress rapidly. Such a student has divine intelligence."

"If he also possesses impersonal love and focused will, then he will rapidly reach enlightenment."

CLASSIFICATIONS

Lee was shown scenes from several years into his future. He could see himself observing symptoms of different spiritual traumas and attempting to define a classification system. It was obvious that Lee was to be a spiritual healer and also a spiritual researcher.

By "tuning into" the client, Lee would be able to blend consciousness in order to assess the sensations and thoughts. How did this spiritual trauma make him feel emotionally? What were his involuntary thoughts? Did his sense of smell and taste get affected? Did he change facial color, grow pale, or livid? Did he crave food, sex, or feel rage or sorrow? Did he feel despair? It was obvious that he had to detect nuances to learn about the higher realms. He could see that each spiritual possession or trauma reflected a definite symptom pattern upon the body, mind, and emotions of the afflicted person.

RISK FACTOR

The teacher continued, "Indeed, the ability to stand outside of oneself and observe the nuances of sensory impact is a key factor in spiritual discernment. It is clear, though, that the succumbing to the forces of spiritual negation is to be avoided. One must endeavor to discover the presence of spiritual imbalance, and remove the cause if possible. Finding the risk factor is a good learning experience."

TRUTH SIMPLE?

“People who use metaphysical or Biblical one-liners to discourage spiritual research never do well as students,” explained the teacher. The statement, ‘Real truth is simple-,’ is an example. It is true that when one experiences a great truth, one is overcome by the simplicity of the truth. However, to really ‘know’ the truth requires often years of struggle to understand the preparatory lessons. There is no McDonalds of higher truth. If you want a McHoly, there are many shallow teachers around to feed you affirmations, so that you can assume you are already perfect. Self-hypnosis is not enlightenment.”

Lee was confused, because he had always assumed that affirmations were helpful to create a positive future.

AFFIRMATIONS

The teacher explained, “The proper use of affirmations can be a valuable tool when used at the right time and in the correct situation. To affirm that you are a holy spark of God is correct. If you are living a life of addiction, sexual obsession, or violence, then you will get no benefit from the affirmation. In fact, some people use affirmations as a drug to cover up the pain of being cut off from Higher Self due to entities or personal action.”

“Just like the student, miserable and possessed, who said ‘I walk in a state of prayer,’ many people think it is faster to assume they are enlightened than to go about becoming enlightened. Enlightenment has somewhat of a technical aspect to it, in that one has to be able to notice and memorize details and be able to use that knowledge in different settings. Discipline and an open mind are necessary for one to progress.”

“A person clinging to habit or assumptions is unlikely to progress. For that reason it is often helpful to change one’s schedule, take trips, or even to experience a traumatic event. Such things shake the person out of his cocoon into a state of heightened awareness. He is no longer hypnotized by familiar faces or places or actions. He sees all things as new.”

THE PATH AND THE GOAL ARE ONE

“The irony of the Way of Truth, is that the path and goal are truly one state. Time and space are not as we think they are. To see yourself as a master while struggling to become one with all your will, love, and intelligence is not a contradiction. To love the process of evolution, to enjoy the learning, to appreciate the struggles of your fellow man, are all aspects of a Sun’s holiness. Therefore, assume and affirm that you are a master in the making. Nothing can offend or harm you in any way because that is of the lower self, and you rest in the knowledge that your Higher Self is becoming manifest. Repeatedly identify with your holiness, while struggling with lower self to follow suit.”

“Most truth rests in paradox.”

TRAINING TO FLY

Lee was beginning to be aware that there was a lot to do to help the fellow Suns on the planet adapt to the higher frequencies and stay strong despite the darkness and challenge on every side.

It was obvious that a desire to learn higher truth and to be of service were basic traits needed. Holy guides were more likely to use their energies helping a person of strength, love, and intelligence who could focus his mind and energies with self-control.

The first step had to be learning to tap into the subconscious because it was connected to higher mind. Prayer, lucid dreaming, meditation, and dowsing were all helpful in this regard. However, it was impossible to meditate safely without detecting and clearing all dark forces from the auric field.

If someone meditates deeply and leaves his body, he may be open to total possession by an entity that currently oppressed his auric field. Most people could not reach a true meditative state when a dark force is nearby, anyway, because dark forces block the connection between subconscious and higher mind.

FUTURE

Indeed, in the future he was to see many cases of severe possession as a result of people entering altered states while oppressed or while using hallucinogenic drugs.

Even in Suns with few risk factors, Lee was to see many possessions on clients in the future. Lee couldn't understand why the holy guardians did not give the Suns an easy way to protect themselves against the dark forces and disharmonies in the world. He wondered if there could be an amulet, or radionic device, or certain mantra or prayer that would completely protect the auric field of the innocent children of Suns, who may be too young to learn methods of clearing through dowsing.

It seemed so cruel for the Suns to have such increased perception of the painful disharmonies without a way to block the suffering or protect their own auras from contamination.

THE REASON

"If the Suns do not learn to transmute the relatively dense disharmonious energies on the lower astral plane, how can they learn to transmute the more difficult energies they will face later?" the Being rhetorically asked Lee.

"The first task for a Sun must be for him to master his own created elementals from negative thoughts and feelings. This is no small matter, as some metaphysically-minded people think. Some think a thoughtform is benign, and that it is no big infraction for a person to be angry at another. If they viewed it as the creation of pit bull dogs, set loose on a child's day care center, they would be more accurate."

"If the holy guides protected a Sun from his own pit bull thoughts and the ones of others, then he would never learn from the pain of being bitten, to not set the killer dogs loose in the world. However, a dangerous assumption by many metaphysical students is that all dark forces are products of thoughts from humans. This is untrue and dangerous. There exist in other dimensions many evil forces not of man's creation. Mankind can find ways to be protected from these forces, though."

Lee recalled many nights of seemingly fruitless prayer to the holy angels during his search for understanding and release from spiritual pain.

SAINT MICHAEL

Sensing Lee's confusion, the Being told him, "Suns must realize that their job is to create angels and not to beg favors from angels. Only when a Sun has done his best to alleviate disharmony does he have the right to ask for any further help from the archangels such as Saint Michael, Saint Gabriel, and Saint Raphael."

"Angels do exist and are very powerful. But they are not little babies flying in white gowns. Angels are the forces of creative power from the right hand of First Cause which radiate along the lines of force (or emanations) from God."

"Angels can appear in human form, but seldom do. They are composed of orderly light combinations that have what may be called a face of God, or virtue, associated with each one. That is why the attainment of certain virtues is necessary for a person to summon or create holy angelic beings to his presence."

Lee wondered about the use of visualization in regard to spiritual protection.

PROTECTION

The Being laughed sharply. "For a disharmonious person to say he is 'surrounding himself with light' for protection is totally worthless. The ability to collect light Angstroms is completely dependent upon that person's harmony on the physical, mental, and spiritual realms. Since there is no spiritual void, the absence of the collection of light Angstroms draws evil to the aura."

"It would be quite cruel for the Holy Guides to spare mankind the training they need in the higher realms by protecting them from exposure to darkness. To sit in the safety of a mountaintop monastery while your brother in the city below cries out in agony would be quite selfish. Most evil is based on selfishness."

RECOGNIZE DISORDER

"Suns came to the earth so that in this seventh season they could start the painful process of transmuting disorder into order to balance the earth's darkness. This task requires the ability to feel the disorder, recognize it, and take those disordered lights and reorganize them into a series of harmonious lights."

"Why does mankind think the world was given knowledge such as the mystery of numbers? The numbers system is based on the combinations of angelic lights emanating from God. That is why it is so powerful to use those symbols to clear disorder. All creation is the combination of lights upon geometric shapes of cosmic dust. To understand God you must learn to manipulate these lights."

"Before Suns came to earth, they knew how to manipulate the lights gracefully. They could dance through the heavens, creating harmonies of joy and order. It is now time for them to relearn those skills."

The task seemed almost overwhelming to Lee.

ERASE PAIN

In a softer tone, the Being added, "Most Suns who start to do radionic clearing methods will do so to erase their own suffering by transmuting the dark forces in their own auric fields. If the holy guides removed their suffering, then the Suns would tend to not practice their dowsing, and would not be able to help others, or be able to learn nuances of the higher light combinations."

"For many years Suns have been asleep and have thought they are not different from the animal man or Nephilim. For most, only the pain of becoming aware of disharmonious light combinations will cause them to fulfill the function of their souls. The tragic problem is that so many Suns have covered their pain by drugs, alcohol, or work addiction to the point that they have burned out the spiritual nerve endings."

"The Sun who is able to feel the pain of his own soul's disharmony with the Earth is quite fortunate. For he is not of this lower world."

NEPHILIM SLIME IMPRINT AND DEMONIC TRAUMA

The Being told Lee that he needed to know how to identify different types of spiritual traumas in order to help suffering Suns. To speed up his learning, the Being would take Lee forward in time to client cases that he would see in the future.

“One of the most difficult problems for Suns of God is trauma from exposure to demons or in particular Nephilim-associated demons,” the Being began.

Lee instantly felt a wave of confusion over the difference between demons from fallen angels and Nephilim-associated demons. Without a pause, the Being answered the unspoken question.

“Nephilim are linked with the fall of angels long ago who hooked into animal man for carnal experience. By that fall into animal, they forgot most of their powerful creative secrets due to the blurred identities. Nephilim who attend mystery schools can be very dangerous, but most Nephilim are only moderately evil in overt actions. Their thoughts, however, create demons related to the destructive, obsessive, or carnal focus at the time. These casually created demons cause much suffering, but are not as dangerous as a Nephilim sorcerer’s trained demon.”

“On the other hand, there exist in the inverse universes fallen angels who have never hooked into animal man. These fallen angels therefore recall many secrets of the higher realms. They are able to produce demons of great power to do their bidding. Normally these beings only torment or attack holy Suns who have a great purpose to serve, or those humans that invite them by Satanism or perversity. In other words, they are attracted to a similar vibration or they are violent against a holy person who may inhibit the amount of evil these fallen angels can do on the Earth. These have slipped doubles of themselves through the interdimensional doorways on the Earth grid system for many reasons.”

HARMONICS

Lee couldn’t help but wonder if anyone could control the products of such intelligent evil beings.

“Fear not!” laughed the Being. “These dark forces are no match for Suns who understand the power of harmonics. Through the use of radionic techniques, in particular, the dark forces are safely bound in the inverse universes. There are many angels and Guides assigned to the task of helping Suns overcome such negation. The problem is that few people acknowledge the presence of holy or non-holy unseen beings, and so, cannot be helped.”

Getting back to the subject of Nephilim-related demonic trauma, the Being’s tone became very solemn.

“By all indications the afflicted person will have no appearance of possession or oppression. You may dowse that the subject has no entities, and yet he feels subjectively uneasy. “The subject may appear sad, withdrawn, irritable, and listless. His color is often pale and death-like. His Angstroms may even be near acceptable if the demonic energy is in his house and not attached to his aura. The key to diagnosis is a recent history of being in association with a Nephilim or seeing a Nephilim-inspired movie or book.”

FUTURE MEMORY

Lee was brought to a future “memory” of himself attempting a major depossession of a young man. He could see himself as though on a movie screen, and yet also experience the future thoughts and feelings simultaneously.

In this experience, Lee radionically exorcised a depressed young man with a method he had learned from the Being. Despite every indicator showing the man as being clear of dark forces, his depression did not completely leave. This puzzled Lee. The young man scheduled another appointment and left.

When the client left, Lee felt such sorrow and angst that he was almost driven to despair. Repeatedly, he would check himself for dark forces but find none. Yet for days Lee experienced grief from some unknown energy. It gradually lessened and eventually departed.

The closest description of the feeling was one of being wounded by some cosmic sorrow without words. After that incident, Lee was to have the same experience numerous times and see the same phenomena on many other people. Invariably, the afflicted person would have merged energies with Nephilim or a demonically possessed animal.

“Many people today are the walking wounded due to this problem,” the Being commented. “It is a serious threat to physical health, because sleep patterns are disturbed. When this slime is present in the environment, the person cannot astral travel safely. Health of the body requires the astral body to separate from the etheric body at night by proper astral travel. If it does not, then the person cannot rebuild his strength or make new cells to replace the ones that die off. He awakens, agitated, full of aches and pains. He may take alcohol or drugs to induce sleep without benefit. Low glandular function is common.

FEET ON SAND

“This phenomenon could be compared to the imprint of feet on wet sand. The imprint pattern of evil can sink into the aura of the person or his home and cut into it like angular-shaped cookie cutters cutting into dough. In comparison, holy energies tend to be rounded, globular, lighter, and are never harmful to a Sun’s auric field.”

MARRIAGE

“The most critical cases are where a person lives in the same house with Nephilim or possessed animal. Usually the Sun in that situation will weaken and die unless he hardens off and dims his light to resonate with the darkness. If a Sun is married to an animal, he can keep the dark forces out of the house radionically and do fairly well. If he lives with Nephilim there is no way to protect himself.”

Lee wondered how people could begin to protect themselves in a world so full of Nephilim. The Beings replied, “It is important to recognize the symptoms of the dark force imprint on the aura so that you can go about avoiding it in the future and treating the trauma that is present.”

“Visiting family and old friends are common places you get slimed. Ten years ago, you could be around a bunch of Nephilim and even have a good time if they were not particularly evil. Not all Nephilim appear or act evil. Many of them are almost neutral in spiritual polarity. Some may even think they are do-gooders because they donate to charity or belong to boards of non-profit organizations.”

MOTIVATION IS CLUE

“The real clue to a person’s soul type is his underlying motivation in life. Is it to have fun, to look important, to be rich or famous? Then he may very well be a Nephilim or at the least an animal man. What does he do in his leisure? Read pornography or Stephen King novels? Nephilim are very much into fear and sexual excess. Does he take drugs or drink to excess and eat like a pig? Nephilim and animals commonly overindulge. So do possessed Suns.” The Being paused and brought another future memory into Lee’s awareness.

MONEY

One of the worst cases of Nephilim slime that Lee was to face in his future was when he was to encounter trauma from indirectly dealing with a banker obsessed with money.

Lee was shown with astral sight the presence of eighty-five demoniacs from the banker as they followed one of Lee’s future clients home after a financial consultation at the bank. Lee observed himself appearing frustrated because the client was so profoundly suicidal.

New dark forces were apparent every time Lee would check the man. It was like a bottomless pit. In hooking into the energy, Lee felt agitation, anger, and despair. It took him quite a while to find the “frequency” to dowse, because it was so high.

The Being explained, “These type dowse as very high density negative polarity energies because this type of contamination has a vibratory energy that attracts doubles of demons of Ahriman.”

“Ahrimanic dark forces are very high up in the spiritual hierarchy and are concerned with materialism or excessive belief in science. These often have to be picked off bit by bit for days, by the use of radionic healing numerical ratios. These are also found on people who pride themselves in intellectualism rather than being humble in service to mankind. That type of person likes to debate, ridicule, and argue with holy teachers in an attempt to defile or humiliate them.”

“There is also the ‘slime’ aspect that must be washed off in other ways. Getting one’s house clean and orderly with all trash and laundry out of the way is the first step. One may feel so hopeless, that one can’t imagine moving around, though. Taking a hot shower, listening to wholesome music, taking a walk in the country are all steps that help break up the trauma of looking evil in the face.”

SERENITY

“The most vital thing is to maintain perfect serenity in one’s thoughts and emotions, “The Being continued. “Remember that despair is never of God and is always associated with the dark forces. Look at any hopeless feeling from a clinical, objective perspective. ‘Hum...I must have an entity or Nephilim slime with this feeling,’ is a good way to think. Then WILL to do something about it. If one gets depressed and starts looking for logical reasons, one can destroy relationships. You may confront people about imaginary wrongs. You may tell somebody something for their own good that is hurtful and unjust. “

“It is wise to just be quiet and get to work on the healing of the real problem: a demonic imprint on the aura.”

“One should not immerse oneself in television. Indeed, one can get more slime from movies and news. As a Sun progresses, he may get trauma from reading a newspaper or seeing a newscast showing a violent criminal’s face.” The Being paused again to show Lee another future incident he would face.

EMPATHY

Lee could see a future television news report in which a local man was murdered in front of his family by a robber. Lee empathized so strongly that he drew the slime and associated demons from the victim's house.

Lee then dowsed numbers to break it up but absentmindedly left the ratios on the table without completing the radionic broadcast. That night the demons tormented him astrally with replays of the victim's death until Lee figured out his mistake. He then bound them up from the world, in a way taught by the Being.

As you develop spiritually, your astral sensitivity is greater and you must know when to pull in your aura from other influences," the Being warned.

"Even then, you still will have times that you are weaker and more vulnerable. Try to avoid crowds in those cases. Remember that electromagnetic pollution from computers or florescent lighting will weaken one to spiritual trauma," the Being cautioned.

SLEEP

"Avoid sleeping in a house that you cannot clear of dark forces. If a Nephilim lives there, it is impossible to clear it of evil. The depression and trauma that results from such exposure are due to looking into the path of destruction, or hell. A Sun is only joyous looking into the creative, holy order of the right-hand path."

"Often, after a severe trauma from such an evil imprint, a Sun may need to rest and be in a place of quiet with little stimulation for several days. Avoidance of all media is helpful. Loud music, TV, and radio are very weakening to the Sun who feels soul wounded."

"Since our earth is changing so rapidly toward a higher frequency, you have no choice but to learn how to manage these spiritual problems unless you want to be in a spiritual coma or suffer constantly."

Lee could see that there was much more to learn.

"Perhaps viewing other client cases from your future work as a spiritual counselor and teacher would speed your education," the Being suggested.

THE CASE OF THE MEDICINE MAN'S SON

Lee was shown a scene from the future where he was visited by a Native American medicine man.

The elderly man had for many years used peyote and even marijuana and other herbs as part of his tribal rituals. He lived on a reservation and had kept the native ways.

Unfortunately, he decided in his later years to go live with a son in Nevada. The son was very much into the white man's habits of drinking, partying, and gambling. They lived in a small house near a gambling casino, on a back street.

The old man built a sweat lodge in the back yard according to custom. His son's Indian and white friends would come over often and ask to be led through the old ceremonies.

After much pressure, the old man decided to conduct a sacred sweat ceremony with a group of young people who were present, to please his son.

What he did not realize was that those young people were so unbalanced from their lifestyles that it was dangerous to enter into ritual with them.

Each person took peyote buttons as part of the ritual. His son became wild and psychotic, and all of the father's medicine could not cure him. The son seemed to get worse daily.

HELP SOUGHT

When the father came to Lee, he brought his son's picture. Lee was then able to determine several types of entities in the young man's auric field. Some of them were high level dark forces of a demoniac nature.

The father said that his son seemed evil. The son would order dogs into the road to be run over by cars. He thought it was great sport to see them suffer. Also, he was attempting to hypnotize women to seduce them. If they managed to refuse him, he retaliated by astrally "raping" them in a manner that they remembered as a defiling nightmare.

The son was able to summon demons to do his bidding. The father could sense the presence of evil throughout the house, and objects often flew across the room.

The father was afraid for his life. Could Lee help?

THE REASON

Lee pointed out that in this earth cycle almost any drug weakens the aura field to dark forces. Hallucinogenics are very dangerous now, more so than at any time in the past. Even aspirin and Tylenol weaken the aura so that possession can occur.

The planetary frequency is increasing, so the bodies of people born before 1991 are operating with the older earth frequencies. This disparity of frequency can cause aura wobble. Added to that is the problem of electromagnetic warfare being waged between countries, which weakens the aura more.

In the son's case, there was no hope. The son enjoyed the power he had obtained over people, and was able to impress white people with his magical abilities, so they saw him as a great Indian medicine man who could teach them. Since he had no desire to be healed, Lee could not help him.

Lee advised the father to move away from his son and also to personally stop using all peyote, marijuana, alcohol, even tobacco.

TOBACCO

The old Indian protested that tobacco use was cultural and used for many rituals. Lee was able to show him by muscle testing techniques that the tobacco was weakening to him.

Lee explained that the proper intake of oxygen had an effect of repelling many dark forces. Any condition that reduced the circulating oxygen in the bloodstream caused a corresponding aura weakness.

The old man shook his head and said he could not change the ways of his people.

CHANGE

Lee told him that the Law of Change is immutable, and that all people must adapt to the new world of this seventh season, or be returned to cosmic dust. Wisdom requires that a person use the laws of the particular plane that are in the current planetary focus. The laws of the physical plane are now being more strongly impacted by the laws of the higher planes.

An example is the ability of the body to derive energy from foods. In this seventh season, Suns require more life force in the foods than do other types of people. They could eat bleached Wonder bread back in 1950 without getting ill. Now many Suns were experiencing chronic fatigue syndromes due to eating lifeless foods. Since Suns' bodies are moving to a more spiritual state of a higher frequency, they require more spiritual food.

This meant that fresh fruits and vegetables instead of a lot of heavy meats would be required for Suns to be healthy. Raw foods are now more important to the diet. The days of a big steak, salad, rolls, and cocktails was over for Suns if they wanted to adjust to the new frequencies.

In other words, if something doesn't work, try something different. Just because a food, habit, or ritual has been around for many years does not mean that it will work in a world with many new problems relating to the current earth cycle.

WASTED

Lee soon found his words were wasted, because the old man could not face a world of such change. The old Indian looked very tired as he left Lee's office.

One difficult lesson for Lee was to only put his energies into helping people who were willing to give up assumptions or habits in order to be healed.

DEMONS OF WAR

Without warning, Lee next found himself standing in the middle of a Soviet Union roadblock during a riot by students against communist rule. He saw the government tanks move in, and the mob of students with their signs, standing in a straight line, refusing to leave the street. Next to Lee stood a white haired woman of late middle age, who appeared American, taking a picture.

It was as though the next few minutes were in slow motion, and every second Lee was drawn to observe, not the students, but the American woman. She turned to a student near her left, and animatedly discussed the dangerous situation in broken Russian.

The tanks then proceeded to roll over several students, while the soldiers released machine gun fire to those on the street. Lee started to panic, then remembered he was not in a physical body.

His attention was again drawn to the American woman. Her face was frozen in horror as the student next to her fell in a bloody heap. And then a curious thing happened.

INTO HER CHEST

Lee could see the astral forms of laughing, groaning, and screaming demons; rising up like a mist and spreading out in clusters of hideously formed creatures from the piles of slaughtered and wounded students. One of those demons floated over to the American woman and glided into her chest.

The woman's face changed at once. She looked ten years older, ashen, barely alive. Lee watched her turn and hobble away, too weak to run from the government soldiers.

BACK IN THE STATES

Next Lee found himself observing the same woman at a later time in a mental ward of an American hospital. She had the same dazed look of horror and death that she possessed in Russia.

Orderlies came and escorted the woman to a room for electro-convulsive (shock) therapy. A smiling, blond younger woman who appeared to be a nurse helped the patient onto a padded table, and tied her in restraints. The older woman offered no resistance. An intravenous solution was hung on a pole, and an attached needle placed into the patient's arm. Then a medication was given through a port in the tube.

The patient appeared to be asleep, and didn't move while the nurse attached scalp electrodes. In a few minutes a young doctor arrived to administer shock therapy. The electroshock caused the patient to convulse violently for a few seconds.

NURSE ATTACKED

As she convulsed, Lee saw the astral form of the demon rise suddenly to the top of the ceiling. Within seconds, like a ghostly diving bird, it plunged into the chest of the young nurse.

The nurse for a moment appeared dizzy, then listless. Her color grew ashen, and she looked much older than she had appeared a few seconds earlier.

The patient, however, appeared much younger, and much more serene, while sleeping on the hard table. Her facial color developed a rosy hue and her breathing became deep and regular. As her eyes slowly opened, her gaze fell upon the nurse.

Her eyes began to widen in horror, because she, like Lee, had astral vision. She saw the hideous face of the demon grinning, superimposed like a veil over the nurse's heart.

BLOODSHED

The Holy Being interrupted Lee's shocked silence. "These types of dark forces are very common during the bloodshed of war. Whenever there has been a massacre, these demons are born and travel the world, seeking to reproduce the slaughter."

"When Japan invaded China during World War II, many of these demons fed on the savagery of the troops, as the soldiers slaughtered babies in front of their mothers. Vietnam and Cambodia are still full of these evil forces, who torment the victims into further killing. Over many refugees in the United States, these demons hover. Most Vietnamese fight these spirits and do not do their bidding, but suffer beyond words."

"Many people do not realize that when God created man in His own image, that meant that man was creative beyond his wildest dreams. Every thought, word, and action continues to reproduce itself in astral forms, and impacts the world."

CREATIVE

"In the case of violence, this is also true, unless the person who committed the violence is animal man. Animal man is not creative in the sense that Suns or Nephilim are. He does not have the same power with his thoughts to create such hideous forms as you saw in Russia or to create angels. This is because he lacks a clearly defined aura body which is required for creation of spirits. That is also why animal man does not make a healer of any worth. Animal man is easily possessed, as well, and thus can do great evil and feed war demons more blood. When animal man is possessed, he can be a conduit for terrible spirits if he becomes angry at a Sun."

"People who rejoice in violent, satanic books, television shows, or movies feed those demons of destruction," the Being warned.

"Horror movies offer a carnal rush that releases endorphins into the brain. These endorphins are similar to morphine, and are addicting. Demons of destruction are always present when a horror movie is being watched. They attach themselves to people in the room."

"Not all demons of destruction cause the same symptoms. Many exist to feed off of tormented earthbound spirits. Perhaps another example is in order," the Being briskly noted.

THE CASE OF THE VIETNAMESE HELL

Lee next found himself in a Veteran's hospital psychiatric day room. Several men sat in the worn chairs, smoking cigarettes, with eyes that were dazed and empty.

As Lee's astral vision was drawn upwards, he experienced anxious dread. There, above the heads of the men, were faint images of screaming people. There were babies, children, women, and Vietnamese soldiers, all screaming endlessly, in a state of unfathomable horror. Among them were the faces of laughing monsters. All of these visions were connected by silvery cords to the heads of the men below.

"Now watch," the Holy Being advised, as He floated up to the group of spirits. With a willed thought of externalized visualization, the Being created a doorway. Beyond it stood what appeared to be several nurses and Buddhist Monks. The being had created those images with his will. Lee then watched as the Being floated to one of the screaming babies, while the demon nearby retreated, as if burned. The Being picked up the baby gently, and carried it to the doorway, where he handed it to a nurse. Then He went back for another baby, and then a child. The Beings' appearance then changed to that of a Vietnamese doctor, who then ushered women, men, and children through the doorway. Eventually the screaming stopped, while the demons gyrated wildly above the men, as if confused.

ANGELS

With a strong thought, the Being created a group of angels who then grasped the silver cords that had been attached to the men, while singing a most heavenly song. Eventually the angels, demons, and cords faded from view.

The men's countenances appeared markedly different. They sat up straighter, looked surprised, and gazed at each other quizzically. Their features softened, became younger, and serene.

Lee felt a deep sadness for the soldiers, and also for the earthbound civilians who had seemed to be in hell before the Being rescued them. He wondered where the earthbounds went after the Being had sent them beyond the created doorway.

INTERDIMENSIONAL

The Being explained, "When mentally creating the door, one must keep in mind that it is an interdimensional doorway. One's subconscious mind understands where the earthbound spirits are sent, and only needs a command by the conscious mind in the form of a visual outline. The subconscious will finish the healing by virtue of its relationship with divine mind."

"Beyond the doorway are helpers assigned to the task of transition beyond death. Earthbound Suns will be sent to what will appear to them as a hospital, or other rest station they can accept without fear. In time, they will heal and be able to review their lives to learn lessons, and then reincarnate. This will take years in the higher planes but only three days in your time, usually."

"Nephilim earthbounds will be taken to what could be perceived as hell to a Sun. They will be forced to review the harm they have done during their last incarnation. They will be encouraged to live only in the higher planes and to reverse their polarity to one of holiness. However, with a great thrust of will, Nephilim often descend again to the earth and force their way into the body of a baby that has not been claimed by a Sun soul."

REINCARNATION

“During certain cycles of the planet, many babies may not be claimed by Sun souls for reasons known to the Higher Mind. Suns incarnate often in large groups, and subsequently only a few per year may incarnate several years later. Whenever a large group of Suns reach adulthood, society advances. Unfortunately, when civilization declines, it is because Nephilim have been in control of many of the bodies. That is the current world situation.”

“When the babies are a higher percentage of Suns, the earthbound Nephilim hover over the earth, looking for an animal man or a weak Sun to possess. Possession causes sudden depression for a Sun, when he feels cut off from God. Anxiety and insomnia torment him, and many marriages break up at this time.”

“Hospital workers or funeral home employees are prime targets, and often turn to drugs or alcohol to block the resulting anxiety and insomnia. Only Suns feel severe pain when possessed. Other soul types find it easier to work in places of severe spiritual imbalance. Abortion clinics, in particular, usually become intolerable for a Sun employee.”

“Even visitors to such places may get severe possessions. Perhaps a visual example would be of benefit,” the Being suggested.

THE CASE OF THE ABORTED BABIES

Lee quickly was transported astrally to an operating room in an abortion clinic. He observed that a young woman was on the table, feet in stirrups, legs spread. She appeared asleep as the loud suction machine started to whirl.

“What’s the gestation on this one?” the thin, bespeckled young doctor asked the nurse. “Twelve weeks by ultrasound,” a rather tired, obese female assistant answered.

Through the clear tubing, Lee could see a small foot and leg slide to the suction canister. Followed were clumps of unrecognizable matter, then an arm with hand attached.

Startled, Lee found his attention drawn to the space above the surgical table. A blue, wispy image of a human face appeared with the anguished non-verbal message of “Stop!” This face pulsed up and down with the rhythm of the movement of the suction catheter.

When the physician crushed and removed the tiny head, Lee noticed that the image above the table seemed to be connected to the top of the head. The image retained the same anguished look, as if mouthing the words, “stop it” over and over. As the remains were removed to the corner of the room, the image remained.

ANOTHER CASE

Feeling somewhat shaky, Lee went out into the hall. His vision was drawn to a teenage girl who was being led into another abortion suite. Her face was streaked with tears of pain. Knowing that he was to observe her, he watched from the corner as she was given general anesthetic. She had been given a medication to induce labor during the 24th week of pregnancy.

Later, as the physician delivered the small, bluish baby, Lee noticed a hovering soul. The baby took a few, shallow gasps, and was placed into a stainless steel pan until it died.

“Do not mark in the records a live birth, or we’ll have all sorts of nuts on our backs,” exclaimed the irritable physician.

Meanwhile, the blue-grey soul hovered, astral eyes sorrowful and silent. The soul seemed to cling to the mother’s abdomen like a child clutching for safety.

OTHER SPIRITS

In the upper corners of the room were faint images of groups of screaming faces, and demons, just like the Vietnamese group. They had astral cords connected to the doctor and his assistant.

With a shrill laugh, one demon cast another cord down, as if it were a fishing line, and hooked it into the sleeping teenager. The demon floated over her like a helium balloon, while sucking her life force through the straw-like, hollow cord.

Lee watched her face grow pale, as if near death.

The Being appeared at Lee’s side. Lee felt nauseated.

“Abortion clinics are full of the demons who feast on blood and mass death. Since some of the fetuses have souls, they often get traumatized by identifying with the pain of the humanoid creature they have already entered. This horror traps them in the lower astral hell with the destructive demons, until someone helps them to the other side, where they can be healed.”

The Holy Being then created a mental doorway. Images of mothers came through the door, picked up a baby each, and carried them through the door. In some cases the soul had identified with the pieces of the suctioned fetuses, and could only accept being picked up as if in pieces and placed into a basket by the mother figure. They were then carried through the doorway.

After all the babies were gone, the Being willed angels into the space to sing a holy song to raise the tone of the place. Gradually, the demons, angels, and cords all faded.

MANY ENSOULED

“Approximately 15 percent of souls enter at conception, and another 10 percent will enter by the end of three months gestation. A full 45 percent are ensouled by the end of 6 months. At the end of 9 months, 80 percent have ensouled, and 95 percent have by the time of delivery. If the baby is to live, it will have a soul at least within three days after delivery.”

“In the case of ensouled abortions, 50 percent of the souls of Nephilim or Sun types cling to the mother after the abortion, often for years. Animal man abortions do not have this problem. An earthbound Sun or Nephilim may enter a later live birth, or possess the next baby born of the same mother. Another 25 percent of the souls will possess someone else in the area, or hover around, earthbound and traumatized. Twenty five percent are soon able to return for healing in the higher planes.

“Depression feelings after abortion are due to multiple possessions, not necessarily possession by the spirit of the patient’s aborted baby. The woman who chose to abort may not have had a fetus with a soul yet, but still get possessed by the wandering spirits of crying babies. Often dozens of screaming and crying souls are hovering over a person who merely went with someone to have an abortion.”

“The attendants and doctors are mostly Nephilim and animal, because a Sun would find the work increasingly more devastating, as the possessions pile up.”

“There are several ways to neutralize demons associated with such places. One can cause a deadly resonating tone, or bring in a stronger, overpowering energy, such as the created angels you observed. There are more principles you need to learn regarding these realms,” the Being solemnly noted.

LESSON ON DEADLY RESONANCE AND EXORCISM

To neutralize demonic patterns or other disharmonies, it is helpful to understand the power of a resonating frequency. A physical example could be the energy released when an opera singer shatters a crystal goblet with a certain sung note. By resonating exactly with a harmonic of the crystal, she is able to destroy its form.

The Biblical story of the walls of Jericho falling down after the invaders marched in step around the town was based on this principle. The counter-clockwise direction of marching, the tempo and intensity of unified step caused a resonating tremor in the walls until they fell.

Modern military officers command soldiers to 'break step' when crossing a weak bridge. They know that the power of resonating rhythm of a company of marching soldiers could cause the bridge to collapse.

There are many modern secret military devices based on this concept to weaken an enemy or a whole country. That is one reason whole cities have outbreaks of chronic fatigue syndrome or cancers.

IMMUNITY

Since a human has many different frequencies in operation, a military device would focus on the most common frequencies of a population's immune cells or brain cells. What the governments have failed to fully realize, is that all life forms are based on the actions of waveforms upon primal substance. By electromagnetic warfare, governments are foolishly creating mutants of viruses, bacteria, and other life forms by such experimentation. They could accidentally destroy mankind by stupidly creating deadly viruses.

HOMEOPATHY

Homeopathy is based on the tenant, "Like Cures Like." This is a similar concept to deadly resonance. By introducing the same pattern as the disease but in a higher octave, one can "shatter" the disease state by the deadly harmonic produced.

RADIONICS

Some forms of radionic healing methods are based on this principle. By creating a pattern or harmonic that is identical to the disharmony, one creates the resonating destruction of the disharmony.

Since radionics work on the aura bodies, it is more effective on beings other than animal man. Animal man would "share" the frequency with a soul group and receive diluted benefits.

Lest one feel sorry for the demonic pattern or other disharmony being dissolved, it is important to remember the purpose of a Sun soul. Transmutation of disharmony into harmony is the task of Suns. If a Sun wisely uses this Law of Deadly Resonance to remove demonic patterns, he is doing well with his soul. Also, beings on the left-hand destructive use a type of robotic double when they cross over into the right-dimensional spaces from the left-dimensional spaces. Only the robot form of the demon is destroyed into primal dust and electromagnetic energy.

DESTINY

Left-hand beings and their creations belong only in the inverse universe. The destiny of planet Earth depends upon Suns learning how to neutralize the disorder brought by counter-clockwise spiral beings. Understanding the aspects of resonance will help Suns protect themselves from physical, mental, and spiritual imbalances.

PARTIAL RESONANCE AND ATTRACTION

An ironic twist to the Law has to do with partial resonance producing an attraction. “Like attracts like.” “What you think about you become” and other partial aspects of this law are often quoted by people. Other people think opposites attract. This reflects the confusion most people have regarding Cosmic Laws. They seldom know when to use the correct law in the correct plane in the correct way.

In the Laws of Gender and Polarity, opposites do attract in a magnetic way. These Laws are primarily applied in the physical-etheric planes. An exception is when an advancing student of truth and holiness comes under attack by dark forces who attempt to stop his progress. The more holy the person, the stronger the dark force will be who tries to block good work. At a certain stage of development, the holy person no longer is tormented by the evil beings, because he understands how to control them.

In contrast, in the astral and mental planes, a thought or feeling will tend to resonate with like waveforms. A person who is of a certain spiritual development will tend to seek out similar vibratory people. Support groups offer pleasure to people who resonate on a similar tone. The key is that the tone is similar but not exactly the same.

DUAL SOULS

One reason that dual souls may be very unhappy if married to each other, is that they tend to resonate on exactly the same tone. This can cause illness or a wearing down of the emotional state over a prolonged close physical exposure. Some couples tend to destroy each other on many levels due to this discomfort from the Law of Deadly Resonance.

The happiest marriages are ones in which the couple are close to the same tone but are not exactly the same tone. Then they attract but do not destroy each other, due to the Law of Partial Resonance.

LAW OF VIBRATION

The other primary Law used in transmuting disharmony is the Law of Vibration. By bringing in a very powerful vibrational frequency of a different pattern, one is able to cause the disharmony to the overpowered and neutralized by its own inability to resist resonating with the stronger power.

An analogy could be a room full of clocks. If a very loud and large grandfather pendulum clock is placed in a room full of smaller pendulum clocks, the others will begin to swing in rhythm with the grandfather clock. They become overwhelmed with the strength of the pattern of the loudest clock.

If one looks at the golden anniversary pictures of couples in the newspaper, one can see this law demonstrated. Couples tend to look more and more alike the longer they are married.

Exorcism or healing work using the Law of Vibration requires more energy and a higher soul progression than does use of resonance law. The visualization and creation of angelic beings in order to drive out demons would fall under this category. For many people, it is more psychologically pleasing to do the visualization than it would be to do radionics. Nonetheless, radionics is often more effective than visualization.

The advanced healer will use the correct Law in each case, and not stick to habits or biases.

EMOTIONAL FIRE

The ability to visualize and to concentrate a thought while directing one's will is very important in vibrational exorcism. Will must be directed with a sense of controlled emotional fire. A person who can practice calling up sensations of love or anger at will for practice, like an actor, is often very good at clearing spirits. The person who cannot overcome circular thinking, or gets angry easily, or holds a grudge is worthless as an exorcist.

SUMMON FORCE

Unless a person can summon the stored energy from unused will and emotion with intelligent direction toward the purpose of healing, he is of little use in higher work. A spastic, irregular astral body full of lower fears and anxieties makes a person unfit for higher work.

The key to controlling the emotional astral body is in pulling the energy up to the brow for use by the mental body. The control of thoughts will always control the emotions.

The control of thoughts must be practiced constantly with the knowledge that every thought creates demons or angels. Irritable thoughts shoot out like knives into the auras of people in the room. Likewise, a person who can't control depressed thoughts will be eaten alive by dark forces if he attempts an exorcism.

A common tool of all dark forces is to introduce thoughts of worthlessness to the exorcist in an attempt to stop his work. The exorcist will be hit in any weak spot by thoughts that attempt to lower his joy and self-esteem.

FAILURES

Any old failure will come to his attention, any physical defect or personal sorrow. He will feel as though life has no meaning, because the dark force thoughts seem to be his own. He will suspect his wife is unfaithful, or his boss plotting to fire him, because the dark force introduces the ideas. He will feel rage because the dark forces give him thoughts of being humiliated or slighted in some way by some innocent family member or co-worker.

A rule of thumb is that any thought of despair, hate, or shame is from a dark force. The negative thoughts that float through the exorcist's head should be allowed to float right out the other side, without any clinging on the part of the exorcist.

Dreams are often invaded by the dark forces in order to discourage a potential exorcist from his path. He will be shown himself in carnal situations of a disgusting nature that may lead him to believe he is a pervert. As the exorcist begins to be aware of his dreams while they are occurring, he can stop the images in his sleep and go to a more holy astral plane to learn from masters.

Before going to sleep, the exorcist should will himself to be conscious in his dream life. By lucid dreaming, a person gains ability to function in the higher realms.

It is the job of all Suns to mature enough to function in this most worthy task of exorcism. Besides helping one's fellow man, one is gaining valuable experience on how to maneuver in the other dimensions.

LEAVE BODY

The ability to function on different planes at the same time is a sign of a highly evolved person. Often such a person may "leave his body" to do healing somewhere in the world, and yet still be washing dishes or driving a car. He may feel a bit tired as "the virtue goes out of him", as Jesus put it.

Other times, he may be in astral classes receiving higher training by masters on the other planes, while walking around in body. Usually he will not consciously be aware of it, but may feel detached.

Such a person can be dowsed or muscle tested with the statement, "I am not in my body," and discover it is true. Eventually, as he becomes more aware of subtle body messages, he will know at once when he leaves his body and often the reason why.

This is the destiny of all advanced Suns. Without this ability to freely operate on the higher planes, they cannot fulfill the purpose of their souls.

THE CRISIS OF THE WALKING DEAD

Lee was shown many future scenes of when he was to be counseling suffering people for problems associated with earthbound human spirit possession.

Lee could not understand why there were so many earthbound spirits attached to so many people. He could see that it would be quite easy to dowse the presence of earthbounds because they were so vibrationally similar to the people on the planet.

Dozens of times when people would come for counseling he would silently remove the earthbound humans. Unfailingly, people would experience considerable symptom improvement.

Some of the earthbound humans were so addicted to substances that Lee would visualize the substance on the other side of a thought-created doorway so they would be tempted to go to the dimension of healing. Sometimes he would visualize an open bar, pretty women, or even cigarettes being smoked. Sometimes he visualized stacks of money. Whatever he visualized was being created on a higher plane and became visible to the entities present.

BABIES POSSESSED

No matter what public place he was to go, he was to be uncomfortably aware of a great many of these spirits. It just seemed so unfair that even babies became possessed. He requested to be taught more about these earthbound beings by the Being. In response, he was sent to the lower astral worlds to observe the earthbound people who live, often for many years, in the world of the dead.

ASTRAL TRAVEL

He felt his dreaming astral body float to the realm of the earthbound spirits. There seemed to be cities formed by thoughts. He could see hundreds of humans with anxious faces. As he approached them, he could easily detect each soul type by its aura emanations.

Lee seemed to be walking in a large, dirty city. Around him roamed gangs of violent beings, and even monsters created by thoughts.

Lee was suddenly alarmed by a gang of very evil Nephilim earthbounds coming his way. He remembered the training he had received by his holy Being. In an instant he shot out a strongly willed thoughtform of a fierce storm that blew the men so strongly they fell down.

DOGS

Apparently the Nephilim men know how to control energy on this plane, for they quickly retaliated by sending an astral pack of dogs to attack Lee. Keeping calm, Lee shot out his will in the shape of a steel wall to block the dogs.

It was obvious that this strange warfare could go on for a long time, since the Nephilim seemed to enjoy the battle. In the distance, Lee could see an earthbound Sun trying to hide from another pack of Nephilim in a created alley. The screaming Sun did not seem to know how to use his will and visualization skills for protection. He truly seemed in a hellish existence. Lee sent a strong visualization of protective policemen to help the man. As Lee concentrated on that willed thought, more Nephilim moved in at Lee from behind, as if to rob him.

"I'd better get out of here," Lee decided. The world of the earthbound spirits seemed to be quite horrible. He mentally requested to return to a safer place near the Being.

RETURNING

On returning, he asked his Being why there were so many Nephilim earthbounds. With a solemn tone, the Being explained.

“Approximately 70 percent of all earthbounds are Nephilim because those Nephilim, through many lifetimes, have chosen a life of destruction and carnal addiction. In order for a Nephilim to be healed, he would have to give up all love for worldly things and accept his karma in the higher planes. Later he could be returned to function as a holy angel. He cannot do that while near the earth. By connecting his angel soul to the group soul vibration of animal man, he became as worldly as the animal but more dangerous. When the group soul of the animal that he originally inhabited is gone for some reason, he walks the earth as a fallen angel, trying to torment Suns and animal man to a life of carnal destruction.”

“When he possesses another type of being, the possessed being takes on luciferic characteristics. This is why many children get involved with drugs or alcohol and become sexually obsessed.”

“However, if a possessed Sun resists and remains pure in body, and mind, then the spirit will eventually depart for some other victim who is an easy mark. Animal men are the easiest to possess, because they easily resonate with the carnal vibrations.”

Lee wondered if there were animal earthbounds.

ANIMALS CANNOT BE EARTHBOUND

“Animals cannot be earthbound because they do not have defined astral bodies and because they share a group soul. They freely float back into the group awareness when one of them dies. It is like a drop of water returning to the ocean. The animals that people see in the astral planes and their so called heaven-world are coming from thought-forms of people.”

THE FALL OF MAN EXPLAINED

Lee was still somewhat confused as to the relationship of Nephilim and Watchers.

The Being clarified, “In order for the Watchers to descend into animal man, the Watchers had to split into a set of artificial polarities. They did this by creating a double in the right-hand universe that mated with animals. They were able to vicariously experience this by observing from the left-hand universe. The right- and Left-hand universes exist beneath the normal angelic world, which has no polarity or gender. Once the Watchers engaged in this pursuit, they became trapped because their genetic pattern in the animal man held them by the Law of Partial Resonance in magnetic attraction down in the polarized lower worlds.”

“The double, which is the Nephilim, by merging with the animal genetic material, altered his own genetic pattern, and that of the Watchers, reflecting animal characteristics. This why Watchers and Nephilim are not as intelligent as fallen angels who have never entered animal man. The Watchers have diluted their genetic pool whereas the more dangerous fallen angels have not.”

Suns were expressly created for the purpose of controlling the Watchers and their negative by-products. In the spiritual hierarchy, Suns are placed above the fallen angels.”

Lee asked the being why a Sun could become an earthbound spirit. He wondered if there were specific risk factors.

“Anything that increases a person’s binding focus to flesh automatically decreases his ability to adapt to the higher spiritual frequencies required to do his soul’s work. Every time someone reads or watches a movie of a carnal or violent nature, a thought-form demon is created that potentially will bind that human to an earthbound state. In large cities, there are millions of these evil beings hovering over the population. These form an evil grid of negative energy, like a black cloud,” the Being answered.

“Suns that are earthbound can be helped easily, because there is a deep memory of the need to be holy. An earthbound dual soul is a great source of suffering for the living half, because the earthbound dual is in a form of hell. Often the spiritual work of the living Sun is halted until some kind being liberates the earthbound Sun.”

Lee felt so helpless to stem the tide of darkness on the earth.

“It is the job of the Suns of God to create lower angels to balance the negation on the planet. It is also the job of the Suns to help other Suns and animals to heal from the torment caused by the actions of the fallen angels. Every thought, word, and action of a Sun is creative, for he is like his Father in heaven. It is a very serious responsibility.”

The weight of Lee’s knowledge and the tasks before him made him feel very weary. The Being gently chided him, “You have much more to learn in order to do the work. Do not waste energy on reviewing your fears. Now I will show you a future client from whom you will learn the many causes of confused sexual identification and the resulting spiritual implications.”

THE CASE OF THE HERNIATED SOUL

Lee was taken forward in time to a counseling session he was to have with a woman and her seven year old adopted daughter.

It was a difficult situation. The daughter was exhibiting repeated symptoms of possession. She used foul language, smeared excrement on the walls, and tortured small animals. She was sexually precocious in behavior.

The mother was exhausted from dealing with the child. In the past, Lee had depossessed the house and the daughter. The symptoms would leave only to return at a later time.

RISK FACTORS

It was time to consider what the risk factors were. What was drawing these dark forces to the little girl?

After taking a careful history of the family, Lee decided it was the mother's field of employment that had drawn them to the family. She was a counselor to AIDS patients at a local mental health center.

Although she had been raised as a Catholic, she did not believe in imposing her values on the clients at the center, nor did she in any way judge their behaviors. She viewed her role as that of support person and grief counselor. She viewed homosexuality as a lifestyle choice.

The mother had a very strong aura field. Her daughter's, in contrast, was very fragile. The little girl had been adopted by her parents three years earlier after a history of sexual and physical abuse in a foster home. She had been abandoned as a young child by her natural parents.

Lee was certain that the mother brought dark forces home from work with her, which then attached to the child at the area of aura weakness, which was the pelvis.

WHAT TO DO?

Lee told the mother that the child would not recover unless the mother learned to clear herself of dark forces before leaving work or quit her job. Defensively, the mother argued that there was no reason her clients would have any more dark forces than any other group. Lee knew otherwise.

WHY HOMOSEXUALITY?

Lee explained that there were several causes of homosexual orientation.

Causes included:

- 1) Dual soul herniation.
- 2) Genetic defect.
- 3) Hormone imbalance due to estrogen-laced animal feeds and pesticides affecting the child during the fetal or infancy period.
- 4) Possession by opposite sex earthbound human entity or by homosexual earthbound human entity.
- 5) Possession by Luciferic dark forces, which encourage disordered sexual behavior.
- 6) Possession by Nephilim soul types, which are frequently bisexual or have few limitations on sexual expression.
- 7) Nephilim soul types may easily choose a homosexual or bisexual lifestyle.

In the case of a herniated soul, it is a tragic scenario. Normally, one Sun soul is shared between a set of male and female bodies, who are soul mates.

Each person could be considered like the sun in his universe with a dozen people circulating as planets around him. His dual soul is normally a person occupying a planet very near the center.

In the herniated soul, though, the dual soul is in the center where the sun should be, and the Sun is on the periphery where the dual should be. It is as if the earth were where the Sun is now, and vice versa. In other words, the soul is revolving around the position in which he should rightfully be. Since the dual soul is the opposite sex, this causes a high level gender confusion.

The primary cause of this abnormality is radiation fallout or electromagnetic pollution affecting the fertilized egg at or soon after conception. Approximately 18 percent of homosexuals have this condition. Electric blankets, heating pads, and waterbeds are conducive to this condition if used by parents.

The soul itself is still whole. However, the meridians connecting the dual souls are damaged, and inverted. In the next incarnation the soul can be correctly balanced between its halves. This type of disorder only occurs in Suns.

GENETIC

In the case of genetic homosexuality, there is a chromosome abnormality causing the person to have an imbalanced glandular function or the physical structure of the opposite sex. In some cases, both sexual organs are present. This could occur if the parents damaged the egg or sperm by use of drugs, alcohol, or many environmental pollutants or radiation. Animals, Nephilim, and Suns can have this condition. Less than 10 percent fall into this category.

If hormone imbalance is present in a normal genetic structure, appropriate hormone therapy can reverse the tendency to homosexuality if begun early enough in life. Hormone imbalance can occur due to many environmental assaults on the glands in the body. Any soul type can have this problem. Fewer than 8 percent fall into this category.

POSSESSION

The remainder of homosexuals falls under the categories of possessed or Nephilim soul type. If a young child is possessed by an earthbound of the opposite sex, he may have thoughts regarding sexual behavior with his same sex that are not his own thoughts. He will assume the thoughts are his. A molested child is much more open to possession because of the resulting aura weakness over the pelvic and base chakras. Many earthbound spirits are tied to the earth by their sexual addiction, and so the possessed victim experiences the sexual addiction.

Seventy percent of earthbounds are Nephilim. If a person is possessed by a homosexual Nephilim earthbound, he will be tormented into believing that he, too, is homosexual.

In the case of homosexuals that are born as Nephilim, there is no hope of changing orientation. Homosexual Nephilim have no desire to follow the cosmic law of Gender, and often are violent in their sexual practices. They often are sadomasochistic in their desire to humiliate and deface sexual partners. Those are fallen angel traits of the left-hand path.

Luciferic possession of a Sun or animal man will produce similar symptoms but can be treated if the victim desires to be helped.

THE TRAGIC LIE

The sad problem with trying to help the troubled homosexual client is the public acceptance of the Nephilim lie. The lie says that any sexual practice is a personal choice.

The possessed person is without choice, just like the molested child whose aura injury invites dark forces. The spiritual grid of perverted thoughtforms and associated luciferic demoniacs that surround a promiscuous homosexual invariably poison the spiritual atmosphere for anyone nearby. By the Law of Partial Resonance, hordes of similar energies flood the whole area. Any child or sensitive Sun in the area will become overwhelmed and contaminated in some way by such a strong influence. The spiritual consequences leave many people without choices.

The genetic homosexual and the herniated soul homosexual are blameless, but, by sexually relating to the other types, are hopelessly slimed with negation. They do not realize that by having sexual relations with a Nephilim they stop their souls' growth. Many homosexual men quickly become promiscuous, prowling bars or public toilets for several sexual encounters in one night. They become possessed of many spirits whenever they enter the homosexual subculture that exists in most large cities.

The genetic homosexual or herniated soul homosexual cannot grow spiritually while he remains immersed in the homosexual subculture, because the majority of the sexual relations he will experience will be of a defiling nature and linked with fallen angel influence.

It is possible, but rare, for a monogamous homosexual relationship between Suns to have a gentle and holy quality. Only in 1 percent of active homosexuals is the soul's progression continued in that lifetime.

The only way for a homosexual to live within cosmic law is to live a celibate life. He can be encouraged to use his creative forces for higher purpose. All of his need for love can be transmuted into impersonal love for others, and to service. Such a person is a true hero and to be admired greatly.

REJECTION

After Lee told the woman the reasons the homosexual clients brought so many dark forces upon her family, she became angry.

"How can you expect me to tell my clients to not have sex? They would think I was crazy. It is a normal thing for people to have a sexual relationship, and to need tenderness and affection from each other. They are dying and so need more love than most people. I DO advise them to wear a condom."

Lee could have told her that the condom would not stop AIDS for two reasons. One reason is that the virus is smaller than the pores of the latex. The second reason was that AIDS is largely due to a vibrational frequency of certain dark forces common in homosexual circles or drug circles.

Lee could have told her that the highest form of love was sacrificial service to God and man, and not sexual in the least. He could have told her that the greatest joy, tenderness, and sense of belonging arise when a human lives according to the desires of his soul instead of the desires of his body.

HER MOTIVATION

Lee could have told her many things but he did not. He knew that she came to see him in order to have another counselor give her an excuse to commit her daughter to a mental hospital or to suggest that she try to cancel the child's adoption. He knew that she did not want to deal with her daughter at all.

He realized, with a sinking heart, that the mother was a herniated soul type, who had been struggling with her own sexuality. She had come to accept homosexuality as a viable choice, before she came to see Lee. Because she was a Sun, she wanted to be of service in her job. It was unbearable for her to consider that homosexuals might best be celibate, after she had gone through so much psychological self-analysis to reach self-acceptance for a lesbian lifestyle. She had finally reached a state of peace in accepting homosexuality as normal, when she made the mistake (as she saw it) of coming to see Lee.

As she stormed out of his office, Lee sat in silence. He pondered the difficult path a Sun must walk to get back home, and how much more difficult it was for a herniated soul type Sun. He felt great love and tenderness for the mother, her daughter, and all the others who falter on the path.

THE CASE OF THE DUAL SOUL DEMON IMPRINT

In another future “memory,” Lee could see that he would be teaching spiritual classes on the information he was now learning.

In this “memory” a young woman named Vicki attended Lee’s spiritual classes. She tried very hard to keep her large family clear of negation and dark forces. For several months her family steadily improved in the amount of joy and harmony in the home, which reflected her hard work to keep her family growing spiritually.

One day she came to class and appeared tired and depressed. Lee checked her and her family and cleared dark forces off of her and the children. Soon after, they appeared to brighten up spiritually and felt subjectively better. Still, there was something wrong. Lee was puzzled.

The next week when they came for classes they had more dark forces on them. Lee assumed it was due to weakening of their auras from several factors. There was a lunar “wobble” in progress, a storm system was moving in, there had been mild earthquakes, and another war had started involving American troops. He knew that all of those things impacted the auras of this family and could cause an increase of entity problems.

That week he also cleared the dual souls of the family, assuming the light loss from their other halves may be causing aura weaknesses. The family once again felt better and was cheerfully laughing when they left to go home.

SLEEPLESS

However, that night Vicki could not sleep. She got out of bed and dowsed clearing numbers for herself and the family. Still she could not sleep. This continued for two more nights before she called Lee in desperation. She was so exhausted by then that she could no longer dowse with any accuracy.

He cleared the family and their dual souls and then checked to see if any dark forces were in the house but not hooked into the family. What he finally found was there was a “memory” of fallen angel influence, like the negative of a picture, clouding the aura of the house. He was able to dowse seventy-five or more ratios to break up the dark energies in the house.

What was interesting to Lee in this case, was that the energies present were not currently attached to the auras of the family or their dual souls. However, he discovered that those dark forces were ones that the dual soul had been exposed to or associated with in the last few weeks.

Vicki confirmed that she had not regularly cleared the dual souls of the children, because she did not recognize it as being very important.

He concluded that the spiritual imbalance was an imprint of previous dual soul entities that had accumulated in the house and later caused the dark feeling and weakness on the family.

SYMPTOMS

The key symptoms of this energy were hopelessness, despair, frustration, and low self-esteem. This syndrome was very close to direct Nephilim slime that Lee had observed in other cases.

In direct Nephilim slime, the victim has been around or talking to a particularly evil Nephilim recently. When he returns home he feels depressed and hopeless. His Light Angstrom reading becomes very low, unlike indirect Nephilim slime, where it may remain high despite the symptom of despair.

The confusing factor in Vicki’s case was that her light Angstrom reading was high, but she felt cut off from God, even when clear of dark forces. That is because she was in the vicinity of a very strong evil memory/reflection from her family’s dual souls.

HOLY EMANATION

The only way to keep this from happening, Lee explained to her, was to keep her family's dual souls clear, and to purify the home by a holy emanation that was stronger than the dark one.

The use of icons, prayers, and burning candles in which a prayer has been willed into the flame are all helpful to create elementals of protection for the home. He explained that every thought a Sun makes will create a demon or an angel on some level. These elementals then cling to a house. The thoughts of the dual soul are also imprinted on one's home, and must be cleared out by a holy vibration. The patterns of evil and carnal thoughtforms attract dark forces into the home.

The key thing to remember when investigating phenomena like the indirect slime, is to not assume anything, Lee found. Try to look for details of feelings, thoughts, and behaviors of those people in the house.

DESPAIR

Remember that despair is never of God, and is always associated with a dark force of some kind. Insomnia is always a symptom of a dark force in the area, because the astral body will not separate from the etheric if there is danger of possession, except in cases of constant possessions. When a person is always severely possessed, he sleeps a dull, depressed sleep without any feeling of being restored. He awakens depressed.

In every case of depression Lee later investigated there was a possession of some kind. Grief over loss of a loved one is not a true depression, so should not be included.

So, in this case, Lee discovered that even a reflected memory of evil is trauma to a Sun of God.

WALK-INS AND HOLY MESSENGERS

Lee was beginning to see that the implications of the different soul types upon Earth's destiny were great indeed. He wondered if one soul type ever left a body to be replaced completely by another type. He had read books about people known as "walk-ins" and wondered how that phenomena fit in with the species of beings already identified.

The Being wasted no time in giving him examples of such phenomena. "In 50 percent of the cases where a soul has left a body and another steps in, the new soul is Nephilim. In 30 percent of the cases, an animal man group soul will activate the body. In the remaining cases, Sun souls replace other Sun souls that leave."

"Those 20 percent represented by Suns are usually holy, highly evolved beings. They usually try to enter the bodies of young adults, so that they can be of use in this difficult seventh cycle. Most people who think that they are walk-ins are merely possessed, though."

Lee wondered if holy masters ever became walk-ins. The Being paused, as though hesitant, before he began to speak in a halting and pained tone.

HOLY MESSENGER DESCENDS

"There is a rare exception where a Holy Guardian or Messenger of the Logos decides to enter the body of a Sun who volunteers his soul matrix and body. The Guardian, or Messenger, as he would be more appropriately termed, descends in order to share higher knowledge to help Suns prepare for the difficult times ahead."

"Holy beings such as these do not have a lower aura aspect (including identity within a dual soul matrix). The density of their world space requires a much lighter, fluid consciousness than is possible for a person with a dual soul. For a Messenger to descend requires that he take over the soul matrix of an existing Sun. For the good of mankind, a loving, sacrificial soul allows a Holy Messenger to take over the soul matrix to allow an incarnation that would not otherwise be possible."

Lee could not understand why a new soul was not prepared, so that the existing soul would not be disturbed.

"There are no new sun souls. All Sun souls were created in the same moment. When a being has evolved beyond the Earth plane, his lower bodies (including personality and dual soul matrix) dissolve and form higher bodies suited for current development. This occurs in advanced Suns."

HIERARCHY

"In these type of Guardians, though, this is not the case. These Messengers are from the planetary hierarchy of guides of non-human origin of soul. They were created for the purpose of assisting other type beings in the fulfillment of God's Will, or Divine Law. They have always existed in a much lighter density than mankind. If mankind could be said to be moving from third to fourth density, one could say these beings exist on sixth and seventh densities."

"One could compare a Sun's Earth life to one of larvae existence compared to a Sun's later life of being a butterfly. The Guides and Messengers have accepted the task of aiding the butterflies out of their cocoons."

It sounded as though they were Guardian Angels to Lee. He asked the Being if that was so. The Being nodded. "There are two types of guardian angels, though. These belong to the group that were never human and are of a higher vibrational frequency than the other guardians, who were once human. This higher group operates under the direction of the Logos, or the planetary God and his seven governors."

LOGOS

“This is the God whom most major religions intend to worship as the one true God. At times, major religions have confused destructive beings with the true God. This is apparent by some of the brutal examples in the Old Testament of the Bible, and in other than Christian scripture. The true God is one of love and wisdom. These Messengers share His love and desire for harmony.”

“Jesus was the most evolved messenger who ever volunteered to help mankind by entering flesh. People seldom realize that his sacrifice was not dying on the cross, but was in the suffering of entering a human form.”

“Under the direction of the Logos, twelve of these Messenger Guide beings have come into Sun soul matrix bodies during the last ten years. Eight are still in body. Within the next year all of these eight will be able to recall the descension experience and their purpose on Earth.”

GRIEF

“The Messenger who enters a body often goes through a period of illness, depression, or grief because of the profound vibrational difference from his heavenly home. He also takes on the karma of the departing soul, and the suffering of the soul mate. He retains any genetic problems present in the body.”

“His biggest problem is that he must struggle to remember all of the teachings and mysteries. When he first enters the body and soul matrix of a human, he is like an astronaut who has gone through warp speed. He feels confused at first.”

“He is using a vehicle and language that are crude and distorted in comparison to his usual light body. His physical brain is like an antique typewriter compared to the best computer available, to which he had been previously accustomed.”

DROWNING MAN

“He is, while on Earth, like a man trying to hold his breath under water. He suffers pain, anxiety, loss of memory, a sense of suffocation, and alienation. His nervous system is pushed to the limit by the vibratory disharmony of his High Self incarnate. As a result, he experiences physical, mental, and spiritual pain as long as he is on the Earth.”

“He may only be able to endure a stay of a few months, or a few years, before he must return to a tolerable frequency. During time on Earth, he must be able to translate his higher knowledge into a form his lower brain can accept. Then he must use his knowledge to help the Earth, by teaching, healing, or exorcism.”

“Like a drowning man, he eventually runs out of air, and must float up. At that point, the soul he has inhabited will most likely be burned out by the intensity of the Light and returned to cosmic dust. If not, it may be entered by another Messenger who will continue the work.”

SHOCK

“Usually the shock of entry into a human body will delay the memories of the teachings for several years. Normally the Messenger will enter the body at night as the previous identity gently allows its own obliteration in order to give the Messenger a matrix suitable for Earth. It is rare for death to have appeared to occur.”

“The Messenger will enter a child or a young adult of intelligence and sensitivity so that he will be more likely able to complete his mission.”

Lee sat in silence, pondering the tremendous gift these beings give to mankind by descending. He thought of the great love of a soul to allow its own identity to be obliterated in order to help the Earth.

MEMORY

With a tingling sensation upon the back of his neck, Lee sensed the beginning of a memory forming. As if veils were being removed from his eyes, the childhood memory unfolded before him.

That night in his early childhood, as he lay upon his sick bed, he had seen the Being. The personality and recollections of the person he now knew as himself were separate at that time. They belonged to a child who had agreed before his birth to donate his own soul force to help the Earth.

He recalled the child that left that night, sacrificing his very soul so that another being could help lead his brothers back home. Tears spilled from Lee's eyes with love experienced anew with the thought of such a gift.

And the Being...was his Self with all the knowledge from the Higher Place. With this limited brain of a human, he had to externalize his Real Self in order to understand the mystery. It had taken many years for Lee to adjust to the Earth in such a way as to be able to translate the mysteries into symbols compatible with the human mind. He was beginning to remember now why he was on Earth.

With a silent shudder of amazement, he knew he had never been a human being. He was a Messenger. He was the Being.

Lee's human body and personality felt a wave of fear. What did this mean to his children? His wife? His friends? Alienation fell upon him as a knot of terror grew inside.

The Voice of the Being resounded within him. "Those loved by this soul are greatly blessed. They will have their paths illuminated and their suffering eased by angels every day of their lives. They will know no hunger, and when they die, they will rest in the arms of saints. They are blessed indeed."

An ancient song of harmony and peace echoed within him.

THE CASE OF THE DEAD TWIN

Lee was to find out in the future that walk-ins of a dangerous nature were far more common than holy ones. He was shown a future client case illustrating a Nephilim walk-in.

Late in the 1960's, the young woman gave birth to two identical twin daughters in a Catholic hospital in the Midwest. They were born early in the morning after a difficult and painful labor.

She named one Anne and one Lorie, in hopes they would not be overly concerned with acting like twins and blurring identities as they grew older. She did not need to fear that problem, for something much worse had occurred.

The pediatrician came to her room a few days after the birth and told her that the slightly smaller twin, Anne, had stopped breathing and her heart had stopped during the night. Not to worry, he told her, because they resuscitated the baby within two minutes so no brain damage occurred, and she was given oxygen and cardiac massage the entire time she was "dead." Neurological tests were normal.

NOT HER BABY?

When Anne, the baby who had "died", was handed to her, she felt a wave of horror cross over her. Although this baby had the same body as little Anne, she did not "feel" like the same baby. It was as if the soul had left, and another soul had stepped in. The one that stepped in felt somehow sinister.

The minute Anne's "Mother" took her in her arms, the baby started to cry as if in pain. Nothing the mother could do would stop the crying. The baby finally would stop only if left alone in a crib.

The other twin, Lorie, appeared, acted, and felt like her mother's child. She ate, slept, and cried the normal amount. She would smile when held in her mother's arms and rocked.

THINGS GET WORSE

Anne had to be force fed in order to survive, and would spit out her food in her mother's face. She would take a propped bottle better than a held one. She was often ill and on many medications.

Lorie developed into a cheerful, loving baby, of good health. The twins began to look more and more different.

One of Anne's first sentences was, "I hate you," to her mother. As the twins approached school age, her mother took them to rounds of psychologists, neurologists, and pediatricians in an attempt to understand how to deal with her unusual daughter Anne.

Lorie tested near genius on tests, while Anne was so difficult to test; it was hard for the specialists to assess her mental skills. The specialists insisted that Anne be kept in a regular classroom so she would not feel inferior to her identical twin.

SCHOOL YEARS A NIGHTMARE

Despite the fact that Anne was able to pass each grade from year to year, her social skills were poor. She seemed to lack empathy for anyone. She would lie, cheat, and steal.

She defecated in her underwear for years, and hid her soiled pants in different rooms. She ate with her hands instead of using silverware.

By the age of nine, she was trying to take sleeping pills to get high. She hid medications stolen from other relatives' houses in a small bag in her room. She started to drink alcohol.

By the age of ten, she had a crawlspace under the house with a lamp and blankets. Her mother accidentally discovered it one day when checking leaking plumbing. Anne had hidden pornographic magazines in the crawlspace to read. She had painted vulgar words on all the boards above her blankets. She had hidden alcohol and drugs down there.

Her mother could not understand how her daughter could be so coarse. Lorie, Anne's twin, was a model daughter in every way. It was frightening to think of the future with this child.

TEENAGE WITCHCRAFT

By the time Anne was thirteen, she was out of control, sexually promiscuous, buying drugs with stolen money, and stealing her parents' car. Her mother checked her into a mental health facility for yet another evaluation.

Anne became the model patient and brilliantly convinced the psychiatrist that her mother abused her. She painted herself a victim of parents who tortured her.

Her mother was afraid. She knew in her heart that this child wanted her dead.

Soon Anne was buying books on witchcraft in order to punish people she thought had harmed her. She did voodoo on her mother's image repeatedly.

ADULTHOOD NO BETTER

Anne moved into her elderly grandmother's home. She avoided work, and screamed at the old woman to cook for her. After draining the life savings of her elderly grandmother, she forged hot checks to cover her alcoholic lifestyle.

Anne's mother and twin had suffered greatly. They tried to avoid contact with Lorie, yet felt guilty for doing so. When they associated with her even on holidays, she was abusive and physically violent.

The mother felt confused, guilty, and unsure of how to react to Anne. She was deeply depressed when she came to Lee for help.

LEE ADVISES HER

Lee knew after he studied the pictures of the twins what had happened. The emanations coming from Anne were of the Nephilim variety. Lorie and her mother were Suns.

He told her that Anne was not her daughter. Her daughter was dead. A rather evil Nephilim had taken over the body. He advised her to avoid contact with Anne, for she was a strongly negative polarity being.

With tears filling her eyes, the mother grieved for the baby who had died so many years before. Anger for the years of confusion washed over her, but there was also relief. She didn't understand what a Nephilim was, but she knew in her heart that Anne was not her daughter, and had known this for many years.

As her sorrowed form left his office, Lee fell silent in thought.

He knew that, to the world, he would be considered cruel and irrational. He knew that the mother would tell others what he had told her, and that he would be ridiculed. He also knew that this poor woman could now get on with her life without guilt or fear.

He smiled softly. It was worth the price.

THE CASE OF THE FALLEN ANGEL INFLUENCE ON AN ANIMAL MAN

A very painful future “memory” case was next brought before Lee to review. It involved the possession of an animal man by fallen angel influence.

Lee was to learn that fallen angel influence can be much worse than Nephilim possession or slime, because fallen angels are intelligent and extremely evil, whereas Nephilim are usually ignorant and vary in the amount of evil present.

The first time that Ed came to see Lee for counseling, Lee was quite amused and charmed. Overweight, effeminate, with full lips and an exaggerated manner, this blond forty year old male was quite entertaining.

He seemed quite benign and almost ridiculous. Active in the metaphysical community, he was well known to do “readings” and “cures” by laying his hands on one’s head and chanting in an unknown language.

ANXIETY ATTACKS

He had come to see Lee because of chronic anxiety attacks. Lee enjoyed his visits due to their comedic value, but something underneath the surface stirred a sense of discomfort.

Once Ed told Lee of how an angel had appeared to him on a trip to Sedona, Arizona. The angel had told Ed that he was chosen to be a person of spiritual power. Since then, he claimed, he was able to levitate, at times, and could shoot electrical currents through his hands.

This was troublesome to Lee, because it was obvious that the man was physically, mentally, and spiritually disordered. Ed’s body was sick. He had spent time in a mental hospital. He was very impulsive and highly sexual, yet feminine. He ate to excess and was flamboyant and needy of approval. He was a recovering alcoholic and drug addict.

Why, Lee asked himself, would an angel appear to such a disordered person?

The question Lee forgot to ask was, “What kind of angel would appear to such a disordered person?”

He soon received an answer.

VIOLATED

Within a few months, another young man came to Lee for help. He was slightly mentally retarded, about 19 years old, and suffering mentally to the point of suicide.

After being on drugs in high school, he decided to join AA. He was paired up with Ed as a sponsor. He was told by Ed that spiritual healing was the answer. Ed hypnotized the young man and violated him sexually.

ANOTHER PROBLEM

A month later another young man came to Lee for help. Ed had convinced him to go off of his insulin (he was a brittle diabetic) so he could be “healed”. With the young man’s mind confused and in ketoacidosis, he was convinced that Ed could show him the way to power. Ed caused him to levitate and told him that the sure way to gain more power was to sexually “love” Ed.

Lee was then convinced that the angel that had appeared to Ed was of the fallen type.

Fallen angels commonly cause the possessed to be sexually perverted, and focused on the carnal. Victims become obsessed with sex, food, drugs, or power. Psychic phenomena are common and the temperature of the room may change suddenly. Lee had observed all of this in Ed’s case.

TRAUMA

When Lee recognized the problem, he placed a large crucifix in the room when Ed visited. Ed began to sweat profusely and soon left the room to smoke on the porch. Lee had observed in other cases that fallen angel possessed people are often visibly repulsed by any symbol of Jesus, because His holy memory reflects such a bright level of Angstroms.

Lee's large Labrador dog began to growl and bark at Ed in a menacing manner, as he often did toward seriously possessed people. In a peculiar rage, Ed came back into the room and walked toward Lee. Opening his arms he said, "You need my power, so I will give you some." He then forcefully placed his huge arms around Lee's shoulders and with a great deal of intensity began to growl demoniacally. Lee knew there was danger of receiving severe fallen angel imprinting with such an action. Quickly, Lee closed off his aura and thought of the name of Jesus. Lee had often observed that severely possessed people will frequently retreat if an exorcist merely thinks the name of such a holy being.

Suddenly, Ed stopped growling and backed away, appearing agitated and confused. Mumbling some excuse, he soon left Lee's office.

HOSTILITY LINGERED

The trauma of his presence lingered. Lee became aware of great hostility from him from afar. Lee started getting bizarre, threatening phone calls with the sounds of guttural voices on his answering machine.

Lee had episodes of hearing what is termed "the demonic roar" inside his head. He knew by experience that the painful sound was related to fallen angel attack.

Lee began to recognize in himself definite effects of trauma from exposure to Ed, particularly when doing healing work on Ed's victims.

WISE?

In reviewing the case, Lee wondered if it was wise to try to heal the trauma of the victims, since he absorbed so much of the suffering into his own aura. His Being instantly responded.

"It is only wise to use that much soul force on a Sun of God, because they have the potential to stay clear and to help others. Animal man and Nephilim man are so easily possessed that it is usually futile to clear them, unless innocent Sun children are in danger. If a Sun is poorly evolved and has very bad habits, it is often a waste of time to clear them, for they may have blown this lifetime and need to reincarnate to have any hope of awakening to their true nature. By dowsing the soul type and dowsing whether it is God's will to intervene, you are on the safe side. It is very foolish to lose your health by temporarily easing the symptoms of a Nephilim."

After that time, Lee was to see many cases of trauma associated with exposure to a person possessed of fallen angel influence. Violent or perverted sex, pornography, violence and drugs all indicate the presence of fallen angel presence. Nephilim and animal man are more likely to be open to the fallen angel influence, because they tend to be more carnal.

DANGERS

For that reason, His Being gave further teaching on the implications of healing and interacting with Nephilim versus animal man or Suns.

Fallen angel possessed people of all soul types are repulsed by holy symbols and by advanced, holy Suns. Likewise, Nephilim often feel repulsion to a bright soul light on a Sun of God. Animals and Animal man, however, often feel drawn to a bright Sun. All species of men, however, often mistake the strong Angstrom emanations as sexual energy, and may feel sexually attracted on a low level to a Sun with a high angstrom level.

Unusual phenomena such as levitation, talking in bizarre voices, and sudden room temperature changes are only associated with severe fallen angel influence upon any soul type.

The healer who undertakes the exorcism of fallen angel influence needs to be protected by putting the same healing ratios on his own picture as he does on the client's picture.

Suns must gain in their ability to tolerate increasing light Angstroms by increasing their own virtues. Only then will they be safe to perform exorcisms. Part of these virtues involve understanding how to interact with different types of beings of different densities and dimensions.

CRIME AGAINST NATURE

If the Sun continues to become stronger, more impersonally loving, and able to function in the higher realms, he is fulfilling his natural function. Control of spirits is a vital part of his higher education.

For a possessed Sun to complain, "Why would God let me suffer so?" is pointless because Suns agreed on a very high level of awareness to transmute disorder on all planes. Any suffering is only the result of worldly attachments. Attachments to lower life cause fear and pain, while being operational on the higher planes removes all fear and pain. It is only during the transitions of the learning process that the sensation of discomfort is felt. Even an attachment to comfort or a fear of pain can be a serious impediment to a Sun's progress.

THE CASE OF THE PRIEST WHO BURNED

In his training, Lee was to review the case of a young Louisiana priest who failed to realize the dangers of exorcism upon a person with ties to the inverse universe.

In the half-dark of a Louisiana hotel room a young priest sat by the bedside of a handcuffed man and read prayers of exorcism out of a small black book.

The man on the bed looked almost dead, but occasionally he would pull his restrained hands and feet with great strength away from the bed, as he cursed the priest. His eyes bulged from their sockets, as though being pushed from behind, and his tongue moved rhythmically and snake-like in and out of his mouth. In the corner sat the parish sheriff in silent fear, next to his burly assistant officer.

Normally, there would have been another priest in the room, but the young priest, named John, decided to call this an “emergency deliverance,” to bypass the time-consuming rules of the church. Father John had never done an exorcism and was quite interested, intellectually, in this situation.

HELP REQUESTED

John was assigned to a small, poor church filled with Cajuns who all believed strongly in the reality of spirits. Father John’s housekeeper was a small, scared bird of a woman, named Alice, who seldom spoke. One night she came to John’s room, crying, because her brother was in the jail. The sheriff had picked her brother up because he was babbling, killing chickens with his bare hands, and threatening to kill his sister.

Her brother, Russell, had no prior history of mental illness. He had been to visit a buddy a few hours before he was found and had behaved normally then. The local osteopath came to the jail, took a blood sample, and examined Russell. There was no evidence of alcohol or drugs.

Alice was sure her brother was possessed by an evil spirit, because a local witch had cursed Russell because he had run over her dog. Afterward, the witch had threatened to send a demon to kill Russell.

DELIVERANCE

The priest persuaded the sheriff to take Russell to a nearby hotel, so an immediate deliverance could be done. It was late and Father John did not want to call the closest priest, who was 50 miles away, especially since he was bending the church rules to help his housekeeper’s brother.

Deep in his heart, Father John wondered if evil spirits really existed beyond someone’s mind. John was a great believer in positive thinking and of creating one’s own reality. He had joined the priesthood because he was a loner who never wanted marriage or family, and had a deep desire to understand the mysteries of God. His desire for service to mankind, coupled with the sense of belonging to a group, motivated his decision to join the priesthood. On one level, he believed that God was merely the goodness present in all humans, ready to be awakened by the right method. Evil seemed to be only ignorance.

MENTAL ILLNESS?

Father John suspected that Russell’s Cajun Catholic upbringing had influenced Russell to believe that he was possessed after the witch had cursed him. Father John reasoned that the quickest method to cure the mental illness was to do the actual exorcism rites, thereby giving Russell the belief that he had been cured. Since Alice shared Russell’s beliefs, she would feel better, too. That was important to John, for he felt great tenderness for the little scared half-witted girl.

So, John began the prayers, while the sheriff sat nearby like a frozen sphinx, in case violence ensued. The sheriff was an old family friend of Alice's and Russell's parents. He hated to just cart Russell off to Charity Hospital if Father John could do the job tonight. A little fear crept through him, though, for he was Cajun, too, and had a respect for witches and spirits.

SECRETS

Russell's face changed abruptly, to one of cunning and smiles. He sneeringly spoke, "Why, Father John, there are no angels; it's all in our heads. Let's just call it a night. After all, you just joined the priesthood to avoid women. Now, isn't that right?" Russell continued in the silky voice, bringing out secrets from Father John's past, his doubts and fears, and personal sorrows that no one could have known.

Father John was starting to get uneasy and embarrassed. He continued the exorcism prayers. The verbal attacks escalated. As the night wore on, John was beginning to feel confused, and alone. There was a peculiar roar inside his head. A strange, rotten smell began to fill the room. John became nauseated and afraid.

He left the room and stood in the bathroom with tears in his eyes. In his gut, he was beginning to realize the reality of the evil that inhabited Russell. Perhaps there are truly holy spirits of angelic beings, as well, reasoned the weary man. He could hear Russell saying vulgar, vile sexual insults through the door. John did not want to be a victim, and he was scared.

PRAYERS

John fell to his knees in the bathroom and bowed his head. He prayed earnestly for help from God to do the exorcism. Then, wiping his eyes, he returned to Russell's bedside.

A painful love for the suffering of mankind, Russell included, filled Father John's heart. With great will and anger at the evil that had taken over this man, Father John ordered the spirit out of the man, In Jesus' name. He poured all the soul energy he had into the command, all the pain and thwarted love from his whole life, into this man's healing. It was as if primal rage had been accumulating his whole life, and that he now refused to be a pawn in the cosmos any longer.

REBUKED

Like the force of a wild lion attacking its prey, Father John rebuked the dark force. The normally quiet, submissive intellectual priest felt as though a great wind was lashing out from him directed to the dark force.

Suddenly the room grew quiet. The man on the bed was now Russell, merely sleeping. The chill in the air had vanished. It was done.

Father John had vanished. In a flash he had burned, without heat.

Only ashes remained of his physical form, as his astral body screamed in the awful hell of the inverse universe.

HEALER'S MISTAKE

The Holy Being broke Lee's stunned silence. "What the priest did in the extreme is being done all the time by healers the world over to a lesser degree. He hooked into the negative left-hand spiral of a born Nephilim in order to heal him. With all his force, the priest pushed his right-hand spiral soul energy into the Nephilim's very essence. By doing that, he unwound his own spiral, causing disintegration."

"In most cases, instant death does not occur. Usually the priest or healer will feel quite traumatized, and wastes away gradually and dies. The amount of damage is proportional to the amount of love and will put into the healing."

CHAKRAS

"The chakras are usually partially (or completely in the case of death) blown out (like tires). The healer may become insane, and develop physical weakness associated with the area of the blown chakras. If he is injured in this manner, and continues to try to do healing, he will die quickly."

"His only hope is to cease all healing work until the chakras heal astrally. This may take months or years. The chakras may never heal. On the site of weakness he may attract negative spirit leeches, which are similar to nature spirits, that rhythmically suck his life out the aura hole, like a nursing kitten. They can be removed by radionic methods or by will."

UNFAIR?

Lee thought it seemed so unfair that someone with so great a love would not have been helped by holy powers in such a case.

His Being explained, "Ignorance of the Law does not spare one from the effects of the Law. If a man goes swimming in the Amazon, the flesh-eating fish will attack him, whether he knows they are there or not."

"It is not the job of unseen masters or angels to spare mankind from the effects of the causes he puts forth. Holy Beings are dedicated to the order and law of Universal Mind, as man should be. When a man lives according to Law, he is happy and safe."

"In the case of the priest, he attempted to defy Law. First, he did not tune into guidance from his Higher Self as to whether it was congruent with his soul's purpose to do the exorcism. He ASSUMED it was a holy thing to do. By prayer and meditation, or by dowsing, he could have found out that it was very wrong to attempt an exorcism on Russell."

SACRIFICIAL

"Many people have ingrained attitudes and thought habits that lead them around by the nose. Attachment to the idea of being loving or sacrificial can keep a person from balancing love with wisdom. It is the person's lower self, his pride at being unselfish, that often leads him into stupid and dangerous situations."

"Many people have such pride in their jobs that they kill themselves trying to show others how valuable or holy they are. Many nurses, doctors, and clergy block the soul's expression by assuming what they need to do for service."

"Anytime a person assumes they know what is congruent with their life's path, they are destined for sorrow. Most people just ignorantly plunge ahead, not ever stopping to wonder why they are in a state of suffering or loss. They always assume it has to do with bad luck, which does not exist. Every sorrow a person experiences is due to causes put forth in this life or a previous life personally or as the results of group karma."

"Even severe tragedies, such as the alien genetic experiments on humans, are due to karma. Karma can result from apathy, laziness, and failure to study or apply cosmic law. Therein lies sins of omission. The only exception is when an evolved soul requests some form of suffering to learn something more clearly, or chooses to take on the karma of a loved one."

SAINTS

“As far as Saints are concerned, it is no real sacrifice for holy beings to do service and give up attachment to the physical body. Father John was not a saint, however. Where there is no attachment, there can be no loss. Where there is no loss, there can be no fear.”

“Another law the priest broke himself against was the Law of Polarity. His subconscious mind could have told him that Russell had a polarity of soul that was the opposite of his own. John’s subconscious mind could have told him that it was therefore not wise to do the exorcism. Remember that the ignorance of the law does not spare one the results of the law. All John had to do was to dowse whether it was God’s will to do the exorcism, or to pray and ask for guidance.”

FALLEN ANGEL LIES

“A primary fallen angel lie that John believed was that man creates his own reality. This false assumption implies there is no objective reality. It assumes that there is no order in the universe, that there is no good or bad, and that each person is free to act as he chooses, without consequence. In reality, Cosmic Law and Order are immutable. Man can destroy himself trying to prove otherwise.”

“Only by living within the flow of cosmic will and order can mankind find peace and harmony.”

“By creating small disordered worlds according to his lower self’s whims, mankind dilutes his power. It is prudent to locate the operating Law in every situation in order to live congruently with one’s soul, and thus gain Light and power.”

“‘To create one’s own reality’ is synonymous with ‘defy Higher Self for lower purpose.’ It is a microcosm of the fall of man. It is the lie of Lucifer.”

GOD’S WILL

“God’s will is always orderly and in line with Law. The wise person seeks to discover the Law at work in all situations. To live congruently with Law is to be congruent with Higher Self. If a person learns a method to ask his subconscious whether an action is God’s will (such as dowsing) he will suffer less because he will be living congruently with Higher Self. One has to contact Higher Self through the subconscious mind, since it alone is connected to Higher Mind.”

“Many people are doomed to make major life errors, like the priest, unless they learn to detect the will of Higher Self through such methods as dowsing or prayerful meditation. Only then will they live in the flow of the Law.”

THE CASE OF THE WATERBED LEECHES

In reviewing future clients' cases, Lee was able to learn the importance of seemingly insignificant details upon one's spiritual and physical balance.

In one case, Lee was visited by a depressed and lonely young man named Frank. The man was thin, angular, pale and weak. He had trouble sleeping, and had experienced anxiety attacks at his job as a stockbroker.

The most striking detail observable through astral sight was that the man was swarming with odd, black, twitching leeches of another dimension. Upon taking a history from Frank, Lee concluded that the leeches were coming out of Frank's waterbed at night and attaching to his astral body. Frank had been sleeping on a waterbed without changing the water for three years.

LIKE ROACHES

Lee explained, "This type of entity is a carry-over from primitive times before mankind was on the earth. It has continued to live past the time of its benefit to the planet, much like cockroaches have continued to live. On our earth today, there are many astral and physical plants and animals that are related to the elementals of destruction. Many of them, at one time, had a function that benefited the evolution of the planet, much like microbes in the soil help break down the compost. These entities no longer serve a positive function."

"These entities exist relating to air, earth, fire, and water energies. The type that is draining your life force is linked with stagnant water. You must get rid of your water bed or you will progressively weaken to illness and other more serious possessions."

MICROWAVE

"Another serious problem is electromagnetic pollution. Most people today are profoundly weakened by microwave towers, electrical lines, florescent lights, computers, and appliance radiation. To add to this problem by sleeping on a heated water bed or to use an electric blanket is suicidal."

"Sixty percent of all aura weakness is due to electromagnetic pollution. Twenty percent is due to dead food and poisoning, such as silver amalgam tooth fillings and aluminum-based deodorants. The rest is due to poor thought and emotional control. When the aura weakens, then a person is subject to chronic fatigue syndrome and many entity problems. He becomes more miserable as he grows older. When chronic illness and entities are present, the incidence of divorce and child abuse increases."

DISTRUSTFUL

Frank looked at Lee suspiciously. "I have to have a waterbed because it eases my back pain. Can't I just change the water and turn off the heater at night?" Lee shook his head. "You are so ill and depleted now; it is not safe to try. The leeches grow back very quickly in the water. I will remove them so that you will feel the difference temporarily, but I won't help you again unless you get rid of your waterbed."

Lee could easily remove the leeches with will, and sent them into an old pond nearby. To remove the residue, he placed a numerical ratio over Frank's picture.

Frank acknowledged feeling much better, though he appeared quite surprised. He told Lee he would give the advice some serious thought.

“Since your work requires using a computer, it is doubly serious to have a waterbed. The more risk factors you have, the weaker you will become.” Lee warned him.

MIND CONTROL

In the past, Frank had taken certain mind control classes. He had trouble believing that he could not block, by visualization and affirmations, negative electromagnetic influence upon himself.

Lee frowned. “It is contrary to cosmic law for a person to live disharmoniously in the physical plane and expect a higher cause to rescue him from the effects of the lower causes put forth.”

“The Law of Use states that man must use the knowledge that is given him or suffer by reason of his conflict with natural law. Ignorance of the law does not spare a man from the results of his actions, either.”

“This is why I will not clear your entities again, unless you remove the risk factors. This includes the removal of the pornographic magazines beside your bed. Those magazines draw many sex-addicted Nephilim earthbound spirits to your aura by their specific carnal frequency.”

PLAYBOYS

Frank blushed slightly, and protested, “It is normal to enjoy looking at pictures of pretty women, and the articles are very well written on many non-sexual subjects.” Frank had not expected Lee to know about his Playboy collection.

Lee looked sternly at Frank. “You and I both know that those magazines carry letters and pictures that are concerned with homosexuality, bestiality, group sex, and many other topics that encourage sexual addiction. Yes there is such a thing as sexual addiction.”

“The most common reasons for a Son of God to fail to progress include obsession with any appetite, including food, drugs, alcohol, and sex. All earthbound spirits are addicted to one or more of those vibrations, and after physical death they search the earth for someone who will feed them. The person who feeds them usually becomes earthbound, also. When one is on the lower astral planes as an earthbound spirit then one is in hell. Do you want that?”

Frank looked startled, then thoughtful. “I’ll think about it,” he conceded.

As he walked out the door, Lee sighed. He knew that the chances were very slim that the man would take the advice.

CRY FOR HELP

Several days later, there was an urgent request over the answering machine from Frank. His symptoms were all back and seemed much worse. Could Lee help?

Lee sat and listened to Frank’s voice, but did not pick up the telephone. Lee astrally “saw” the waterbed still there, and the stack of Playboys next to it. He saw Frank’s suffering, and all the leeches pulsating and twitching. He “saw” the Nephilim earthbounds lying on the waterbed, reveling in the carnal thoughtforms programmed into the water. The Lee turned off the mental pictures, as if turning the television off, and got back to work writing a letter to one of his students.

He didn’t waste time.

THE CASE OF THE STUDENT THREE YEARS TOO SOON

Lee saw himself several years in the future. He was pleased to see that he appeared nimble, alert, and happy.

In his wooded retreat center, he spent his time with students, some of whom had arrived, without warning, from far away. A few lived in cabins in the woods near him, and helped him in the secret work he did to heal the planet.

One day a young woman appeared at his door with a small suitcase, and asked if she could study with him, for she had heard from a former student about the benefits. Lee asked her what she desired as a result of the studies.

The woman, whose name was Katrina, said that she was very miserable, and saw spirits, and could not sleep. She wanted to not suffer.

BOYFRIEND

Lee looked at her deeply and could “see” that the woman’s live-in boyfriend was a Nephilim, although she was a Sun. He gently asked, “Do you live with family?” She looked embarrassed, and said, “I am engaged to be married next month.”

Saddened, Lee told her, “I cannot help you now, but I will be able to help you later. There are reasons I cannot tell you for my refusal to help you now. I know your discomfort, and while you are here I will give you respite from your pain of seeing so much disharmony in the astral planes. In three years, there will be a very dramatic occurrence in your life. I can say no more on the specifics. At that time, I will be able to teach you how to remove all negation from your home so you will be able to sleep peacefully. In the meantime, you may visit here from time to time in order to rest from your pain.”

DISCERNMENT

Katrina appeared perturbed, but quietly nodded. Lee’s assistant, Laura, escorted the depressed woman to a small cabin reserved for visitors.

When Laura returned, she smiled, and commented, “I am sure there must be a reason to not teach her something so basic as spiritual discernment and exorcism.” Lee’s eyes looked into the distance, through a window, toward the gnarled oaks outside. He appeared grieved.

“Katrina is a Sun with a very bright soul light, except for the dimming effect of her diet and oppressions. Unfortunately, she is to marry a Nephilim, and would not be able to accept the truth at this time. If I told her the truth, she would turn away from holy study in denial and anger, because she is very infatuated with the dynamic magnetism of this very clever Nephilim in her home. He could convince her I was the devil himself, and she would be lost as a Sun.”

PLANETARY INFLUENCES

“If I let her feel the increasing pain of his associated evil, she will find it intolerable within three years. Our planetary influences are such that in three years a Sun will no longer be able to bear the presence of a Nephilim, and vice versa, unless the Sun snuffs out soul light, and keeps a low Angstrom level by bad diet, entities, and carnal living.”

“I will be able to give her holy books to read and a holy amulet that will repel some entities that would possess her, but not remove entities from the environment. In that way she will have some protection, and hopefully not be lost to darkness. Also, by keeping her glowing a little brighter, her Nephilim friend will become disgusted with her, which is good. It is important for me to allow her to sense negation in her home, though, or she would not seek truth later on.”

INFORMATION WITHHELD

“Only a foolish mother would feed a new baby a steak, because he would be in danger of choking. Likewise, a wise teacher feeds the information to the student that can be used at the time, in a manner that will not overly frighten him or repel him from a holy path. Some fools would consider such an approach as manipulation, because they believe in a simplistic code that operates only on the physical realm. The way a teacher must deal with complex issues of the soul may appear to the carnal mind as unfair, or inconsistent with previous teaching. A teacher must use his ability to spiritually ‘know’ rather than ‘think’ of the situation at hand.”

“To the purely emotional fundamentalist Christian, it would appear as cruel sorcery to give Katrina an amulet to speed up the demise of her marriage. To the zealots of the world, it would appear that I should insist she not marry the man, and be very direct in my approach. They would think my behavior was deceptive.”

“However, communication occurs on many levels. On one level, she knows her situation, but by free will chooses to not act on her knowledge. Therefore, I can reinforce her little subconscious spark of holy truth and fan the flame just enough so that it will not go out.”

CROSSROADS

“The danger in waiting is that her soul may be lost because of the fallen angel DNA imprints from sexual relations with a Nephilim. Every soul has a crossroads where it must choose the left path or the right. If at that key time they choose wrongly, they lose their soul to the inverse universe of darkness. Only the Holy Guides know when that point is reached, and they depart in sorrow.”

“The purpose of a holy teacher is to help the student fulfill his soul’s purpose, which is my intention with Katrina. If I used the same method with everyone I would just be reflecting my own biases and personality. Since I ‘know’ by spiritual sight what the probable outcomes are, I must direct her on a path to her goal that is visible to her at this time. To give her information that would block her from ever reaching her goal would be evil, and a waste of energy.”

CONFUSED

Laura looked confused. “Why then did you tell that fellow, Aaron, about his son being a Nephilim? He just got angry and left, and has since said hostile things about you in the spiritual communities.”

Lee smiled. “That fool was a Sun almost completely extinguished. There was only slight hope that Aaron would ever do any good. However, since he was a Sun, I had a certain obligation. His son was planning on killing him in a satanic ritual. Aaron found a hit list of intended sacrifice victims in the boy’s room. He merely wanted me to clear dark forces off the boy, which would have been a waste of time since the boy was Nephilim.

SURVIVAL

"In the next year, the boy will attempt to end his father's life, but Aaron will survive. At that time there will be some hope that Aaron will remember my words, and feel a bit of desire to know more about species of people, even if it will be just to understand his own familial grief."

"This is the last physical lifetime on this planet for the Suns. There is no time to waste. If there had been absolutely no chance of the father later living through the murder attempt and being able to receive higher training, I would have said nothing. I don't enjoy the fact that his dark thoughts about me are polluting the planet. It was just a price I had to pay for a gamble on a Sun's soul light."

FINAL EARTH CYCLE

Laura looked thoughtful. "Could you tell me more about the planetary influences over the next few years?" she asked.

Lee sighed. "Just as we humans need to be aware of the seasons and our daily and monthly body rhythms, it is also important to be aware of our planet's cycles. We have entered a different cosmic cycle, which means the subtle rays influences are changing, affecting our lives in many ways."

"Many people are not truly aware of the powerful planetary influences that affect us even on a monthly basis. Many wars are fought due to the strong impact of Mars at the time. The Aquarian influence helped foster the sexual promiscuity and perversity present today everywhere. Even entities more easily attach to Suns during malevolent planetary and lunar influences."

"The planetary influences are combinations of rays influences, or attributes of God, that can be misused. An example is Mars war-like energy. One can use it for physical squabbles or to give one impetus to struggle toward holiness, against all odds."

Back in Atlantean times everyone could see spirits, and knew which were demonic or holy guides. It was natural to speak through thoughtforms. The planetary influences at that time were very similar to the ones we are beginning to see."

"We have now entered into a time when people will become more aware of the other dimensions and densities, particularly the lower astral planes."

"An example is Katrina. Suns will become more miserable around dark forces and Nephilim, but not know why. Many will go insane. This is not cruel fate, but the result of their failure to listen to the teachers who have come to prepare them for their graduation into a higher density body."

PREPARATION

"Only those Suns who prepare themselves by training the mind, will, and desire bodies can tolerate the increasing earth frequencies. Suns are like astronauts that must be prepared for a different gravity and be given stress tests prior to lift off."

"The Law of Rhythm is immutable. The swinging pendulum has now swung as far from center possible dependent upon the length of the string. At that second it pauses before returning to the center, Suns will be taken to the "new heaven and new earth" as the Bible calls it...if they can tolerate the force field. Our work is to prepare them. This is the meaning of the Rapture."

Lee fell into silence, and listened as the cold rain began to fall on the metal roof. He gazed out the window into the starless night. The memory of his ancient home stirred within him. He heard, in his heart, Katrina weeping into her pillow for herself and for the fate of her unborn child.

"Courage, friend, courage," he whispered hoarsely, as he stiffly stood up to leave the room, like an old soldier returning to battle. He wondered wearily if he meant the reassurance for Katrina, for Laura, or for himself. He was very tired.

EPILOGUE: EIGHT YEARS LATER

It had been a difficult day. Lee had just said goodbye to another group of students after a two-week seminar at the retreat center. After the sixteen hour days of teaching and advising the energetic Suns, Lee felt exhaustion creeping up on him.

Preparing for bed, Lee smiled in the memory of their enthusiasm and joy. It was the final class.

Before drifting into sleep, Lee gazed longingly out his window at the starlit December sky. The cool beauty of the constellations soothed his exhausted nervous system.

Over the years, he had become increasingly more sensitive to all stimuli. It had been necessary for his work, so he accepted the resulting physical pain with grace. With a sigh of weariness, he calmly noted that his Earth tasks were completed.

Many of the Suns of the Earth were now aware of their mission. Many were able to function with agility in other lights and transform them into symphonies of harmonics with each exhalation of spirit. With astral eyes, Lee could see thousands of brilliant Suns, surrounded by the planets of their loved ones, illuminating the darkness of the Earth.

With a fond smile, Lee noted that most of them did not understand the magnitude of the glory that soon awaited them. Gazing sleepily into the future, he saw each Sun spring free from the Earth to form individual new worlds in the heavens. Each Sun became a holy sun surrounded by circulating new planets of both material and astral quality. From each planet echoed songs of virtue and joy in colorful symphonies of harmony. Lee felt the rainbows of love, wisdom, and power spill over him as the heavenly light harmonics resounded within his very soul. Every cell in his human form began to resonate with the Suns of the Future. Every cell became a perfect microcosm of every Holy Sun that ever went forth to multiply in harmony and perfect love.

With joy unspeakable he entered the Light.

APPENDIX

RADIONIC DOWSING MANUAL

By (a 1991 assistant) with Anonymous

INTRODUCTION

(A 1991) ASSISTANT BEGINS :

A word of warning here - this may look like an overwhelming amount of information. It may seem like there are so many things to do and so many factors to take into consideration. Start slowly. As you build your skills and experience with dowsing, you will be able to explore new areas of dowsing which can enrich your life.

Read the entire appendix through once. Even if you do not fully comprehend every aspect or know how to implement things immediately, you are still learning. Your mind is exposed to the information and can start working on it subconsciously.

After you have read all of the appendix, go back and select the area you would most like to start dowsing. Entity removal is a good place to start, because the presence of dark forces will often interfere with dowsing results.

Next, using the included dowsing charts, you will readily learn to detect the physical and mental imbalances in your life. Later, you may enjoy dowsing the practical applications of other healing methods such as herbal medicine, homeopathic medicine and Bach Flower remedies.

As you gain in physical, mental and spiritual balance, your intuition and improved connection to your higher self will lead you to your next avenue for exploration.

Pendulum Dowsing

There are many ways to dowse with and without devices. Since devices (such as the pendulum) magnify subtle muscle movements of the dowsing response, it is easier to learn while using one. This appendix will address itself to dowsing with a pendulum device.

A pendulum is an object suspended and allowed to swing freely. Your pendulum can be simple or complex, from a needle hanging on a thread to an elaborate device like a chamber pendulum. If you don't have a pendulum and want to start dowsing right away, make one from a needle and thread, or tie a slightly heavy object to the end of a light string, or use a favorite pendant at the end of a necklace. Any type of pendulum will work; some are just more comfortable to use for longer periods of time.

To purchase pendulums or other dowsing devices and to get information on other areas to explore with dowsing, write to the American Society of Dowsters (ASD) whose address is at the end of the appendix. Attend a dowsing conference and see for yourself the array of dowsing devices and topics under investigation. It is quite fascinating.

The Pendulum Response

Your mind is like a computer and it obeys the "programs" you put into it. In dowsing, one programs the mind to cause muscles to subtly move the pendulum in response to a question. Muscles move the pendulum due to subconscious signals sent from the higher self.

For accurate answers, you must set aside the rational mind and any assumptions regarding a probable answer. You should be calm, breathing slowly and deeply, and your mind should be relatively free of internal dialogue. Of course, there will be some dialogue because you must ask questions. But there should be no "racing thoughts" or repetitive scenarios you just can't shut off.

It is a good idea to make up beforehand a list of questions to ask, using your rational, analytical left-brain aspect. Then by sitting down to dowse, you engage your creative, intuitive right-brain aspect. Dowsing is a whole-brain exercise.

When dowsing, it is best to set aside your personal, lower-self preferences and to seek the answers your higher self provides. When asking a question, incorporate the phrase "God's will be done" somewhere in the question - and mean it when you say it! Otherwise, the lower mind often will provoke poor dowsing results due to emotional attachment to a specific answer.

Dowsing Charts

When you make a list of possible answers to a question, you have a dowsing chart! You can point with one finger and ask your pendulum for a yes or no regarding the answer. Or you can turn the list on its side and ask your pendulum to swing over the correct response. This is a good way to answer a question you ask only once or occasionally; like: "Overall which brand of a certain food is most strengthening for me?"

If you have questions to be answered repeatedly, then it is easier to make a clear, readable chart to use every day. There are charts in this appendix for nearly every question you could ask related to the material in this book. But if it's not here, feel free to create your own.

The charts in this book are set up in primarily two formats. One format is a list of possible answers. You ask: "Which of these is affecting me?" and you program your pendulum to swing over the primary or most important one. Then you ask again for the next one which is affecting you. If none of the items apply to you, program your pendulum to stay still. In other words, you have a "dead" pendulum.

The other format of charts has to do with yes/no and polarity. Positive polarity and a "yes" answer are always to the right. That will be to your right as you are sitting there dowsing. Negative polarity and a "no" answer are always to the left.

There are a couple of other charts not in these formats, but they are somewhat unique and will be explained within their topic.

How to Start Dowsing

Dowsing is easier to learn for some people than for others. This is important to remember. Everyone can learn to dowse. It may require a little more persistence for some people. Daily practice is the fastest way to learn. Don't forget, you are training new muscle responses, and this will entail a period of adjustment.

You can develop a personal routine to prepare yourself to dowse. Any relaxation techniques you know would be helpful. Sitting quietly, without thinking, and taking slow, deep breaths for 5 minutes can be calming. Rid yourself of distractions. Turn off the radio, television and telephone. Send the kids out to play for a half an hour. As you gain in skill, these external events will impact you less, but you will always dowse better in a quiet atmosphere. And if you are doing intense, "heavy" dowsing, the fewer internal and external distractions and interruptions, the better your dowsing will be and the more good you will do.

So you are calm, relaxed and clear-headed. You have your list of questions ready and there are no interruptions likely. You are seated with your arms and legs uncrossed, your pendulum in hand and your charts spread before you. Now what?

The Basics

Place the chart for your first question in front of you on the table and center it with your body. In other words, the stuff on the left of the semi-circle will be in front of the left side of your body, and the right will be in front of the right side.

Hold the string or chain part of your pendulum, using the thumb and forefinger and middle finger of your dominant hand. Suspend the hanging object just above the start point of your dowsing chart (the black semi-circle on the charts in this book.) You may rest your elbows on the table and support the forearm of your dowsing hand with your other hand.

Now - ask your question. Say it out loud! Expect your pendulum to swing toward the correct answer. Do not try to move the pendulum in a direction. You are asking your higher self to answer your question by having your body make tiny, imperceptible movements causing your pendulum to swing.

You may need to wait up to 60 seconds for a response, keeping your question in mind. Remain calm and relaxed, breathing regularly. If there is slight movement, "program" your mind to increase the movement for a more clear and correct answer. If there is no movement, ask your question again and wait. If there is still no response, move on to the next question and come back to the previous one at a later time. It is a good idea to ask your question aloud, because it can be difficult to hold only one thought clearly and succinctly. Also if you persist and still get no response, you may start your pendulum swinging slightly in a "neutral" position. Program it to swing toward the correct answer.

Use these instructions as a guideline to establish a pattern for your dowsing. You may find that you dowse better holding your pendulum with only your thumb and forefinger. In a very short time your pendulum will swing to your correct answer and you will know when your dowsing is accurate. Don't get discouraged - keep trying!

Wording your Questions

There are several things to take into consideration regarding the wording of your questions. Any ambiguity in the wording of a question throws doubt upon the answer. Don't waste time on trivial questions. If it's cloudy outside and you ask if the sun is shining, you could get any response. The sun is shining somewhere and it is not shining on your yard, but it is shining on the clouds over your yard. Could you answer that question with a yes or no? You can see for yourself that it is cloudy outside. Why waste valuable time in contact with your higher self asking silly questions which you can answer yourself through your own powers of observation?

Dowsing the Unseen

Dowsing is really for detecting the unseen aspect of things. This does not only apply to entities. You may be dowsing which vegetable to buy at the store. One type may have been sprayed with a pesticide which would weaken you considerably. You cannot detect this with your own powers of observation, but your higher self can tell you which to purchase for your optimal health. It is difficult to get a correct response on something about which you are emotional. If you want to know if your spouse is having an affair, it is unlikely you will know the truth from your pendulum. It is very hard for most people to accept answers in a detached manner when dowsing questions about their personal relationships.

Dowsing opens a pathway to higher self. The beginning dowser is forging a thin trail through the thickest wilds to his higher self and God. The more times you walk that trail by dowsing, the wider it gets. Eventually you carve out a super-highway to your higher self. Spiritual dowsing is one of the fastest, surest methods available to connect you to your higher self.

Dowsing Interferences

There are a number of interferences that can inhibit the dowsing response. The first and foremost cause of dowsing interference is entities in your aura. How to dowse for entities and remove them is covered in the next section. But there are several things that you can address before you even start dowsing.

Physical Interferences - External

There are obvious physical components to dowsing. Holding the pendulum, asking the question, and awaiting the muscular response are all parts of the process. An important goal is to balance elements in your environment so that they do not interfere with your dowsing.

In your external environment, electromagnetic pollution is a major cause of interference. All appliances, computers, stereos, clock radios, etc. produce this pollution unless they are unplugged. Even your wall outlets emit electromagnetic radiation. Take these things into consideration when planning your dowsing area and adjust accordingly. You should dowse the optimal direction to face while dowsing and the best location for your table and chair. These can change with planetary changes, so be sure to recheck periodically. The ASD has information available, at dowsing conferences and from their extensive booklist, on how to further block the effects of electromagnetic radiation.

Other External Interferences

There are external interferences about which you can do little. Storms, solar flares and earthquakes can cause dowsing interference. The more you practice, however, the less noticeable the interference will be. Often, holding a magnet or a crystal in the left hand will make it easier to dowse during storms or earthquakes.

Another major cause of interference, that is subtle but has a profound impact, is objects in your home. Things have a vibrational aspect and they create shapes in the astral realm. If your television is pouring violent, carnal images into your home all day, some aspects of these vibrations are absorbed. Likewise with music. Some types create more angular shapes than others. The more rounded and circular the shapes, the more congruent with holiness they are.

Even pictures and books emit vibrations. If there are pornographic magazines, some part of them is being incorporated into the atmosphere of the home. The provocative celebrity posters so many teenagers have in their rooms cause carnal vibrations to permeate your home.

You have the right to a wholesome environment in your own home. It can be difficult, but it is well worth the effort to clean up the vibrational aspects of your home. As your dowsing improves, you can dowse whether an object's influence is beneficial or harmful to residents.

Your aura can also become saturated with over-exposure to a single color. Dowse the colors you should wear each day.

Waterbeds are one other cause for concern. The electromagnetic pollution radiated in temperature control of the water is an obvious consideration. Less obvious is the fact that stagnant (still) water attracts and breeds water elementals and leeches that may weaken your auric field.

Physical Interference - Internal

Your internal environment is modifiable to some extent as well. You have the final say-so over what you ingest and over much of what you inhale. Your will to improve your internal environment strengthens as your expertise in entity removal improves. Resisting an undesirable habit is a poor use of will. Moving toward the solution is a more efficient use of will.

By putting forth the thought-form "I won't engage in that behavior", you are summoning the behavior to you by visualizing the negative behavior. It is more effective to make a positive, constructive statement regarding your behavior. For example, "I choose to move toward eating foods that promote my health and well-being." You then create that in the ethers. Something must be created etherically before it physically manifests.

You are using the physical body as a dowsing instrument. The more balanced it is, the better your dowsing will be.

ANONYMOUS CONTINUES:

Drugs and Alcohol

Drugs and alcohol will block an effective dowsing response. It is not only their effect on the physical plane that is a concern. They can open the chakras prematurely and even damage them on the astral body. Tobacco "calcifies" the aura and restricts its expansion and "breathability" (rather like the lungs in the physical body). These effects can leave the individual with permanent damage to the astral body, resulting in repeated possessions. The occasional small glass of wine or beer does not interfere with the chakras, but should be avoided for several hours prior to dowsing.

Proper elimination of physical toxins is important for accurate dowsing. The toxins and pollutants to which we are exposed in our food and air are collected in the tissues of the body. Many dowsers have found that a saline laxative (Epsom salts) helps the body to flush out and excrete these poisons. Usually, two tablespoons of Epsom salts dissolved in water or orange juice is the correct dose. The frequency of detoxifying through Epsom salts or other method should be dowsed. The intake of plenty of water when one takes a saline laxative is helpful. The lower intestines will pull fluid in through the intestinal walls, clearing out the diverticula in the process. Because of this there must be a great deal of water available. It is helpful to repopulate the beneficial intestinal flora by eating yogurt with live cultures or taking acidophilus capsules the next day.

Since mercury and cadmium poisoning from silver amalgam tooth fillings is a primary cause of poor dowsing and ill health, some people find they feel better and dowse better after having fillings replaced with hard plastic. Avoidance of aluminum canned drinks and aluminum deodorants also seem to improve the dowsing response. High levels of aluminum accumulated in the brain tissue have been linked with Alzheimer's Disease.

Poor dowsing during a full moon is usually due to intestinal worms. Some dowsers have reported improved dowsing after taking pet wormers in dowsed amounts. Symptoms of worm toxicity include back pain, bloating, skin rashes or pimples, insomnia, and mental irritation.

Dowsing is also affected by your levels of potassium, sodium, calcium, oxygen, blood sugar and pH. Amino acids and vitamin levels affect your brain neuro-transmitters. If something checks out as too low, you may need to correct the imbalance.

Your metabolic pH is very important to your dowsing ability. Most westerners are alkaline. A balanced pH is 7.4 - anything higher is alkaline. To bring your pH back into balance, oral intake of vinegar is the best tonic. Dowse your metabolic pH and if it is high (alkaline), dowse the number of teaspoons of vinegar needed to bring it into balance. You can take it straight or dilute it in a glass of water.

Of course you will want to dowse your compatibility to your foods and vitamins. After you have been dowsing a while, you may want to explore alternatives to the medications that you are using. Usually, if a person takes in proper nutrients and eliminates toxins often, he is able to remain in a state of health without a lot of medications that weaken the kidneys and liver. Many medications, even antibiotics, can cause severe damage to the vital body organs body if over-used. Sinus medications, aspirin, and Tylenol can be very dangerous if used to excess. They often block the dowsing response also.

Mental Interferences

One of the most interesting and challenging areas of dowsing is in the area of mental interferences. Most of us are not aware of the source of our own thoughts. Entities, particularly earthbound spirits, can float the most vile and disgusting thoughts through your mind. It can be such a relief to know that those are not your thoughts. In fact, it is a sure way to tell when you have something "on board". Obsessive, circular thoughts about anything that you "just can't stop thinking about" are often not of your own origin. If you have a thought that is in any way violent, carnal, perverted or repulsive, it is a good idea to check for entities.

Naturally you can't blame all of your thought habits on entities. Each of us has thought patterns and habits that will need some correction. If you have a history of obsessive carnal behavior, there are thoughtforms that accompany that behavior. It will take some time to break those habits and stop feeding energy to those thoughtforms. You can dowse radionics ratios to help break up and dissolve those thoughtforms. But you must work to cease those behaviors in the physical, astral and mental realms as well, or you will be re-creating what you are trying to stop.

Emotional Control

One of the most prevalent pitfalls to dowsing is lack of emotional control. Our society tells us to "express your feelings." Divine love, joy, and warmth and caring for others are beautiful expressions of our connection to God. Flying into a blind rage and angrily berating someone damages your aura and those of all around you. It also releases energy that feeds entities and keeps them clinging to you. Irritability has this effect also. Going on a crying jag or descending into gloom produces much the same effects. When you find yourself emotionally out of balance, it is an opportune time to check for entities. Our natural state is serenity and joy, anything else indicates a disharmony somewhere.

Importance of Being Clear of Entities

When you begin dowsing it is recommended that you clear yourself of entities at least once a day. A morning and evening routine of clearing will help assure you of freedom from entity possession and its attendant problems.

If you don't clear yourself of entities before dowsing other subjects, you often will not dowse correctly. Entities cut you off from your higher self, so you dowse wrong answers. On some things, this may not be so important. What you have for lunch will have less bearing on your life than whether you get married or change careers. If you want an answer congruent with higher self, you had better be clear of entities first.

The Role of Prayer

Daily dowsing with clearing of the auric field can be a ritual that helps you in all areas of your life. A ritual is just a series of repeated acts. Daily brushing of your teeth is a ritual. (I hope!) An oft-repeated ritual gains in power especially for the individual practicing it. Perhaps you can see this for yourself if you've ever tried to stop a negative habit, such as overeating or gossiping.

A strengthening way to begin your spiritual clearing ritual is with a prayer that has been used in holy rituals for many years by many people. Such a prayer is strongly imprinted on the Akasha records (Book of Life) to invoke protective and healing angelic beings. Every major religion has songs or prayers that invoke protective energies. Christian examples would be the Lord's Prayer and St. Michael's Sword prayer. When said with emotion and will, these prayers can be very beneficial. (A check list for clearing, a copy of the prayers, and all charts referred to are to be found at the end of the appendix). Even if you write out your own prayer in your own words, and say the prayer daily, it will become more powerful over time.

Are you Clear of Dark Forces?

Inevitably you will ask yourself, "How do I know that I am clear of entity possession or oppression?" There are several techniques you can use to determine if you are clear.

Generally, your overall sense of well-being is a good indicator. A sense of joy and lightness about the world and life are also clues. Lightness does not mean being an airhead. Of course you are aware of terrible things in the world, but you have an underlying sense of hope and purpose as your foundation.

Checking Light Angstroms

For a more concrete idea of your state, there are other methods of checking. You can check your level of light angstroms on the light angstroms chart.

This is for a general reading. Ask for the first digit of your light angstroms level and the number of zeroes that follow it. The 'Reason for Light Loss' chart will indicate causes for a low reading and what you can do to bring it up. If the reason for a low reading is intake of a negative substance, you may have to just wait for those effects to wear off through the natural assimilation processes of the body.

The average Sun of God should have a light angstroms level of at least 70,000 for spiritual and physical health. Anything less than that will weaken him to illness and possession. Anything higher is usually good. Be careful of devices and symbols that raise your ability to absorb more angstroms. You may have to increase your tolerance to higher angstroms slowly in increments. Dowse for yourself the number of hours (or minutes) that is the optimum exposure for you each day.

Checking Polarity

Another way to check for entities affecting you is to use the Polarity chart with the positive and negative numbers on it. Entities are of a negative polarity. Ask “What is the polarity of the most negative 1st density entity in my auric field or affecting my auric field?” Then check for the next density level. Lastly ask for the polarity of any negative of any density, just for good measure.

Your pendulum will swing to the positive side if you are clear of dark force influence. The positive side indicates that there may be elementals present, but that they are there for your benefit and protection. There will even be angels present. The more holy work you do, the more the holy beings will be likely to help you.

Earthbound Spirits

Removal of earthbounds is an excellent exercise in visualization. If you practice visualization skills, you will become more clairvoyant.

Check for the number of spirits by asking your pendulum “How many earthbound spirits are, directly or indirectly, adversely affecting me?” Dowse over the “Numbers Chart” for the number of earthbound spirits. If there are more than ten, mentally add a zero to each number on the chart.

Then check on the “Earthbound Entities” chart for the type you should remove first. This is where your creativity and imagination come into play. You are creating a scenario that will entice them to cross the threshold into the light for healing and release from their earthbound plight.

For old or sick ones, a nurse and a wheelchair taking them to their loved ones and the doctor’s appointment just inside the hospital doorway is usually sufficient. Narcotics addicts will go to their pusher who has free samples or into the pharmacy. Alcoholics (and a whole lot of the others) will go to a bar with a good party going on and free drinks, food and cigarettes. Babies and children may need to be picked up by their mother or father and carried over the threshold. Angry criminals will sometimes go to a girlie bar or you can have the police load them into a paddy wagon.

You are not lying to them. Your strongly willed thoughts create that scenario for them in the astral plane. They fill in the details with their perceptions (a loved one’s face) and go where they can get healing. You may have to get rough with some of the tougher ones or create special scenarios for the stragglers and frightened ones. Be sure to close the door after they are across, and also program in your mind that these are one-way doorways - they cannot come back once they cross.

Astral Shells

Astral shells are fragments of the astral body, sometimes left after a violent death. Explosions and car wrecks are the most common precipitating factors. You can blow them with a big breath through a doorway - like leaves. Pick up any remaining, place them in boxes with their missing components and send them into the light.

When checking if you are clear of earthbound spirits and astral shells always ask “How many earthbound spirits (or astral shells) are in my auric field?” One’s first impulse upon hearing the question “Are there any earthbound spirits in my aura?” is to say “No!” It is easier for them to lie to a yes/no question than on other types of questions. By clearing earthbound spirits and astral shells first, entities that are tormenting them often leave thereby reducing the number remaining in your auric field.

Creation of a Radionic Exorcism Device And Dimensional Dowsing Instructions

After clearing oneself of earthbound spirits and astral shells, one is better able to dowse specific ratios for other types of spiritual disharmony. Your dual soul must also be clear of earthbound spirits and astral shells as well.

A powerful type of radionic clearing involves the preparation of a microcosm of our planetary grid system with the interdimensional doorways. The symbols used are very powerful, and so careful attention to the details of the instructions for the creation of the device is advised. The beauty of the device is that it also serves as an automatic exorcism radionic box for elimination of superficial doubles of inverse-universe dark forces.

2014 PUBLISHER'S NOTE: Some or all of the following specific Automatic Clearing methods might have become invalid in 1993 and are included for historical reference since aspects of these methods may become operant at a later date which the reader can dowse. Also, the explanations as to how these methods work are current. Please see the book "1995 September" by Anonymous for an update on a similar Ratio Dowsing System.

Preparing the Container

With this manual are included two different size diagrams that can be used to make two different sizes of the radionic exorcism device. They contain the seven sets of symbols of angelic script with associated numerical symbols that together represent the dimensional space and the radionic ratio representation of each dimension. These seven sets of symbols are located inside a large circle in very exact positions relating to dimensional doorways on the Earth grid system. The top of the diagram must face west. The location for magnetic north is marked on the outside of the diagram. In the center is a representation of the Earth continents. This diagram should not be altered.

Make a copy of this diagram from either of the two sizes. The larger size may be easier for you to use. The stars provided with the book will fit within the dimensional symbols of both sizes given, as they must. Trim the copy of the diagram so that it will fit in a light-proof, round, plastic container. The outer circle of the diagram must remain intact, with all the stars fitting within its borders.

The container you use should be plastic. It should be round, like a Tupperware cake plate and cover. Its interior should be white. You can tape plain white paper or glue white felt inside of it. The exterior should be black. You can glue or tape black material around the outside of the box. Black felt with adhesive on it is available at craft shops. Painting the container black is another option. You can also place the box in a dark place, if the exterior is not black. Entities travel on light waves, so the container should be light impermeable. If it is not light blocking, some of the dark forces can break loose and wander around your house. As soon as the dark force pattern is placed in the dark again, those entities will be neutralized once again. You are not in danger in any way.

Automatic Exorcism

If you place your Polaroid picture in the center of the container for thirty minutes before you clear yourself of non-human dark forces, you will often find that eighty percent or more of the aura entities will have dissolved. Since prolonged exposure to one's picture in the container can make you dizzy, it is wise to limit radionic use to thirty minutes.

The reason one may feel a little confused or woozy when dowsing or dealing with the angelic script, is that your brain is exercising in realms it had mostly forgotten. You are learning to fly in other dimensions by this practice, but you might feel a little sea sick till you gain ability. When your picture is in the center of the dimensional symbols in a circle, you will be slipping in and out of the dimensions on a subconscious level. It is not harmful, but in excess, can make you dizzy.

The nice thing about the automatic clearing methods is that they reduce the time needed to spiritually clear yourself, and work when you are ill or having problems dowsing for some other reason. It is very helpful before family gatherings to clear a group of people. It is important, though, to always try to get the producer of the entities bound up by dowsing ratios and putting them on the world broadcast, as you will be taught. The doubles, which torment most people, will be dissolved in the box, however, by just putting your picture in the center.

Alien UFO contamination is less likely to clear by the automatic methods, and must be handled separately.

Another Automatic Clearing Method

One other radionic clearing technique that is automatic, is the use of these symbols: GWLRX
inside a triangle.(See Chart Section). 8078

A yellow magic marker or highlighter pen should be used to color the inside of the triangle. Place the triangle face up on top of one's Polaroid picture which has been taped on top of a doughnut-shaped magnet. Set this device under an incandescent lamp for no more than thirty minutes. After thirty minutes, take the triangle design off of your picture. You will find that this procedure will remove some types of entities that the other radionic device is not designed to remove.

After you have cleared earthbound spirits and astral shells and placed your picture through the automatic clearing methods, you will often find that there are no dark forces left. If possible, it is a good idea to dowse the "boss" number of the dark force, because the originating entity can duplicate the dissolved entities' patterns from the inverse universe. Some types of dark forces, such as self-created and others-created elementals must be cleared with ratios. These may need to be broadcast on the world diagram (See "Publisher's Note") as well as the individual's picture.

Occasionally, you may need a balancing ratio that is not to go on the world broadcast, or you may need it on the world broadcast and on your picture, also. This is sometimes the case in hex energies from someone who may be holding a grudge against you.

Some physical healing ratios would only apply to the person needing healing. In 80% of viral disorders, there will be a dark force imprint present that requires a world broadcast of the healing pattern. These can be from past lives. In all cases of herpes, AIDS, and chronic viral syndrome, a dark force genetic alteration or imprinting has been made on the infected individual.

UFO alien contamination also causes genetic imprinting. These imprints and genetic alterations require a world broadcast to neutralize the producing entity. Since aliens are clones, one ratio being broadcast may neutralize up to two thousand entities. Usually an individual broadcast for an affected person is not then needed. To heal these conditions, the question could be phrased, "What is the healing ratio for any negative genetic imprint or contamination, present or past life, affecting this person?"

Procedure

The angelic script symbols representing the seven dimensional spaces are like a prefix to the radionic ratios you dowse. The numerical ratios represent the density and pattern of the disharmony that belongs in that dimensional space. The fanned dowsing charts of the dimensional symbols and the numerical dowsing chart should be placed in front of you so that both can be seen simultaneously.

By writing a correctly dowsed ratio inside a Star of David with the appropriate dimensional symbol on it, you can dissolve the entity doubles, if the rest of the procedure is followed.

The correct question to ask is, “What is the clearing ratio for the most negative energy, originating from these seven dimensions, that is directly or indirectly affecting my auric field?” Allow your gaze to fall on the seven dimensional symbols, then place your pendulum over the numerical chart and expect to be able to dowse the correct pattern. Just write the number on scratch paper for now. After the dimension is determined, the ratio can be written inside the Star of David.

The pattern dowsed may be very unusual and appear to not make sense. You may dowse a dash, then a number, then an over-line, then another number. This would indicate you need to draw a line over the last number. If you dowse an over-line at the end of the ratio, it indicates that the whole ratio should be over-lined. The use of the underline is exactly the same way. In other words, don’t be surprised at an unusual combination of symbols.

Dowsing the Dimension

After you have dowsed the correct ratio, it is time to dowse the dimension to which the dark force belongs (See also “1995 September for advanced Dimension Charts). Place your pendulum at the bottom of the angelic script dowsing chart, and ask the question. “From which dimension did this negative energy originate?” Your pendulum should swing to one of the dimensional doorway symbols. You then would know that the correct “address” for this entity would be the combination of the dimensional symbol, and the ratio, placed inside the appropriate six-pointed star and a circle. After you dowse the first ratio, go back and ask the same questions in the same order to locate any other disharmonious energies.

For your convenience, prepared stars with the seven different dimensional symbols printed on them are provided with this training manual. Each page of Stars of David has a different dimensional space symbol inside the Star. Make copies of these pages so you can cut out the Stars as you need them.

Having the prepared stars with symbols on them makes it easy for you. All you have to do is write in the ratio under the symbol, and then place the star aligned with its same dimensional symbol in the container you have prepared. Just tape the clearing ratios on top of its same dimensional symbol within the radionic circle diagram that is provided with this manual.

To double check for any others, lightly touch the first dimensional symbol with the left hand and ask, “What is the clearing ratio for any negative energy, originating from this dimension, that is directly or indirectly affecting my auric field?” By being more specific about which dimension you are addressing, you can dowse the remaining energies that are affecting you. Then, when it appears there are no others from the first dimensional space, ask the same question of the second dimensional space, and so on, until all seven dimensions have been checked.

Always check your dual soul’s clearing ratios and any ratios for dark forces in your home. Since time and space have little meaning in these dimensional realms, you may be able to dowse any ratios needed for several hours in advance. Merely ask, “What is the clearing ratio for the most negative energy that will adversely affect me, directly or indirectly, by midnight? By 2:00 AM? By 4:00 AM?” (and so on until morning.) Your ability to dowse in advance will improve with practice. Then, dowse for the appropriate dimensional symbol with which to pair the negative energies. Remember to dowse for future earthbound spirits because they can also be cleared in advance.

Grid System and Magnets

Radionics usually involve the use of a magnetic field. In this application you are using the Earth as the radionic broadcast's magnetic field. The Earth is a large magnet in itself, containing both poles. There is a great significance in the direction that one aligns the radionic diagram. The dimensions exist in a certain connection with the Earth grid system, and your diagram is representative of the interdimensional doorways on a miniature grid system. When the very top of the diagram is placed at magnetic west, the grid is correctly aligned. Otherwise, the radionic results will be variable.

Due to the alignment, it is not possible to travel with the radionics device unless a special adjustment is made. Over each dimensional symbol, place two attracting doughnut-shaped magnets with a dimensional symbol between them. All the magnets should be stackable; in other words, the poles are identically placed on each dimensional symbol. If you have a compass, place the north pole of the magnets face up from the diagram. Tape the magnets to the container. When you have dowsed clearing ratios, tape them on top of the appropriate magnets. This magnetic broadcast can be taken on trips without so much worry over the alignment of the diagram. When you arrive at your destination, align the diagram with its top toward the west.

As you continue to dowse ratios, the container may get rather crowded. Considering that it is preventing the creation of some types of demonic doubles on the Earth, it is still a very important object. There is a way to maintain its effectiveness in binding up negation from the Earth, without having to keep track of it for years. The container can be buried with the same magnetic orientation (top of diagram to the west). Care must be taken in doing this, so that the container does not deteriorate. Wrap the container tightly in plastic and use a strong tape, like duct tape, to seal it completely. Bury it in a hole that is at least two feet deep. Try to be sure the location is unlikely to be disturbed in the future. Dowsing the best location is a good idea. Check, when dowsing, if the area will be safe for the next fifteen years.

Personal Healing Magnetic Broadcasts

Sometimes you may need a healing or balancing ratio that is not dowsed as beneficial for the world broadcast. Someone who has a lot of illnesses may need several personal ratios dowsed. Sometimes these will include the dimensional symbols, and other times only the ratio will be needed. Simply asking and dowsing for a yes or no response should give you an indication of the appropriate action for healing needed.

For personal radionic healing, a witness is required of the person needing healing. A hair sample or Polaroid are excellent witnesses. Place the witness between two doughnut-shaped magnets that are attracting each other.

Dowse any ratios needed and write them in separate Stars of David. When you dowse that you don't need any more ratios, spread the ratio cards out on the table in front of you. The order that you stack the ratio cards on your witness is important.

Now ask your pendulum to swing toward the ratio card you should place on your witness first. Then ask for the one that you should put on top of that one and so on, until they are in an ordered stack.

Then put the ordered stack, face up, upon your witness between the attracting magnets. Check every day if one or more of the healing ratios should be removed. When you check a stack of cards, ask "Would I still benefit from having this ratio on my picture?" for each card. If any are removed, then you will need to dowse the new order of the ratio cards.

The same principles apply to depossessing another person as to yourself. You need a witness, two magnets and the ratios you have dowsed.

Function Generator Radionic Broadcast

Since electromagnetic radionics uses higher physics laws that are poorly understood, the traditional scientific and medical communities scorn the use of such tools. It is currently illegal to sell such radionic research devices. When located, they are often several thousands of dollars.

An inexpensive research/treatment device can be made from a forty dollar function generator, a thirteen dollar 12-Volt power supply, and a two dollar speaker. One can be made even more cheaply if you locate used materials. The above prices are from American Design Components (telephone 1-800-776-3700).

The key design is to just hook the power supply to the generator and then to a speaker. Since all diseases and entities are composed of a waveform, it is possible to neutralize disharmonious waves with a dowsed rate and waveform. The above mentioned frequency generator has a sine wave, square wave, triangle, and saw tooth wave in the frequency range of 8 Hz to 200 KHz.

Over a chart made for the purpose, one would dowse the waveform, the frequency rate, and the length of treatment.

It is not difficult to create a traditional radionic well with copper sheeting or a piezo disc, but for most people with no electronics background, it is easiest to hook up the speaker. In many cases, the speaker will be more effective than a typical copper well.

The speaker has a magnetic field. When attached to the variably dowsed frequencies and waveforms, the speaker will emit a scalar-type radionics effect over the aura of a person whose Polaroid picture is placed upon the center top of the speaker.

This type of radionics can be dangerous if left on for too long on a waveform or frequency that is disharmonious for the treated individual. You should not do this type of radionics on other people unless you have verbal consent and they understand the procedure. It is illegal to do treatments on other people for medical problems.

Often entities will jump off the person's aura into the room when the machine is turned on. It is a good idea to put the interdimensional circle diagram on top of the speaker during the treatment. Also, cover all of this with black cloth for a few minutes. That way many entities will be pulled back into their own dimensions and entity doubles will be dissolved.

Many alien-caused illnesses depressions, and even cancers can be treated successfully with such a method.

Color Radionics

When a person is free of entities, sometimes it is helpful to dowse whether a colored lights should be shined upon the person's picture during the treatment. In craft shops you can locate scraps of stained glass supplies. Also, Edmond Scientific Company sells a whole book of small colored gels for approximately six dollars. Just place the gel on top of the picture and clip an incandescent lamp overhead.

Colors can be very effective in radionic healing. Red causes energy to increase, but in excess can cause agitation. Indigo helps one to sleep, but may make it hard to get up the next day. There are many books on color therapy. The easiest thing is merely to dowse over the color chart for the correct color and then dowse how long to treat. A simple Christmas light or appliance timer can be purchased inexpensively and set up to stop the light treatment at the desired time.

Record Player or Cassette Player Radionics

Another simple radionic tool is a common record player turntable. The correct ratio written in a circle (or Star if that dowses as correct) can be placed over someone's picture and put upon the turntable on the 33 setting. Dowse whether light should be used, or color, or gemstones, etc. As the turntable circles, it becomes like a Tibetan prayer wheel. Dowse how long to leave the turntable on.

Some people have purchased over the years products known as Earth frequency generators for personal use. Ed Skilling has made a variety of these devices. They can easily be wired to a speaker and used radionically. The lack of variability in waveform or frequency can limit healing potential.

Even the common tape recorder can be a powerful radionic device if it has an auto-rewind capability. Powerful prayers, mantras, and healing commands can be recorded on both sides of the tape. A person's picture, or the picture of a house, can be placed on the speaker. Since it will automatically rewind, one can produce a strong radionic effect. In severely possessed locations, the recording of Saint Michael's Sword prayer will often remove the worst dark forces present. The pictures of the house should be placed inside the interdimensional diagram upon the speaker and covered with a black cloth. This protects the exorcist and dissolves many doubles.

Candles as Radionics Devices

Believe it or not, the burning of a simple alter candle can produce a strong radionic effect if used by a person with strong will. The idea is to WILL a continuous healing emanation into the candle flame for as long as it burns. Since Catholic bookstores sell 6-day candles for approximately two dollars, it is a financially reasonable method. Before going to bed, you can WILL a wall of protection around you for as long as the candle burns. Your subconscious mind will handle the details as you sleep, because it is programmed to be safe as long as the candle burns.

Many items, such as flowers and perfume oils, have a vibratory pattern that can be healing or protective to the wearer. Rose oil, in particular, is spiritually protective. The dowsing student can experience a lot of joy by dowsing over a collection of different flowers for specific radionic properties. Likewise, wearing the same fragrance on a daily basis can be a type of possible negative radionic treatment.

As you experiment with radionic dowsing, you will discover higher levels of abstract knowledge that you had no idea existed. It is great fun, but also a great responsibility. The balance between experimentation and helping one's fellow man in a safe manner must always be maintained. By asking God's will be done in all you do, you will not go wrong.

Clearing Alien Energies

Clearing alien energies may take a variety of methods. There are some cases that cannot be healed by any radionic method.

There are many babies being born that are the product of UFO alien experimentation. Many of these babies are ill, but should not be saved by radionic methods. If they lived, they would be controlled by evil forces throughout life.

There have been seven different species of aliens that have caused genetic imprint problems for Suns. Some of these imprints can be healed with an appropriately dowsed numerical frequency placed upon the world broadcast. The same frequency may help many people, such as those that heal viral disorders. Other type of imprints must be removed by the radionic use of a variable frequency/waveform generator upon a person's picture or other appropriate witness. Usually, the treatments should be done inside a light-repelling container. It is not difficult to dowse the correct method for the specific imprint, although several layers of imprints may need to be treated differently in stages. You may be able to heal one imprint one week, and then another imprint in a month. A healing crisis may be precipitated, causing the affected person to feel upset temporarily.

The correct question could be phrased, “What is the first healing ratio for any UFO alien genetic imprint or contamination, present or past life, affecting this person?” Remember that prior to any dowsing session, one should ask that only Divine Will be done. Program your pendulum to not reveal any ratios that would not be in God’s Will to broadcast.

The Importance of the Dual Soul

One of the most important things for a Son of God to do is to clear his dual soul of dark force influence. You can never be truly joyous and connected to God and your higher self if your dual soul is earthbound or possessed by dark forces.

The nature of the connection between dual souls is so permeable, that any suffering of one is felt by the other. If your dual soul is possessed, it feels like you are possessed. You may not really know why you were depressed for several years sometime in the past. Your dual soul may have died and been earthbound during that time.

It is very important that you check the status of your dual soul after you clear yourself the first time. If your dual soul is earthbound, you will need to send it on for healing. You should also check on when it will reincarnate. This could be a very short time, because time in the higher realms is not the same as we understand it to be on the physical plane.

Once your dual soul is back in a body, it will need to be cleared when you clear yourself. You do not need to know who your dual soul is to clear it of earthbound spirits and entities. Your connection to your dual soul is so strong and open, that you have only to refer to it when you are asking for ratios for yourself. Ask “How many earthbound spirits are affecting my dual soul?” and “Which of these entities is affecting my dual soul’s auric field?” just like you would for yourself.

Your Connection to Others

As your attunement increases, you may feel the distress of loved ones and not be sure of its source. The “Person Influenced By” chart can help you to determine who may need your help. It is a good idea to make a chart of the people who are in your life. You can then dowse the source of suffering quickly. You may need to dowse a healing ratio for that person or depose them.

Other Charts

There are other charts in this book to help you determine exactly what you can do to bring yourself better into harmony and balance. Placing copies of these charts in a portfolio notebook makes dowsing easy to do on a daily basis. There are several charts that list possible causes for feelings of disharmony. These will generally point you to another chart with a specific list of causes.

Before you attempt to dowse answers or to depose someone else you should always make sure it is God’s will. The “Question to Higher Self” chart has a list of possible answers. Ask “Is it God’s will that I attempt any healing or depose of this person?” If you receive a “no” answer be sure it is God’s will that you know the reason why not. You may not need to know at this time or there may be layers to the reason that will only be revealed in time. There may be a karmic reason for their suffering. The person may also be a Nephilim and would damage your aura if you tried to heal them. By asking for God’s will in all things in our lives, we remain congruent with our soul’s higher purpose.

Free Will

Also, asking personal questions or doing unasked-for healing on another person can be a violation of their free will. Unless you are sure that their higher self approves, you are in danger of doing evil, even if your intention is good.

Dowsing can change your life and open many new doorways of higher knowledge. With practice on the charts on a daily basis, you will become closer and closer to your most intuitive, holy self. You will have undreamed of opportunities to help relieve suffering in the world by using the radionic exorcism methods. You can help heal the Earth.

Every time you dowse any disharmony, and implement a solution, such as radionics, you are performing the highest function of a dowser and as a human being. Also, you will uncover incredible mysteries of the universe along the way.

Saint Michael's Sword

“Our Father, which art in Heaven, hallowed by Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on Earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, now and always, and unto the ages of ages. Amen.” (Do the sign of the Cross.)

“Saint Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil, may God rebuke him we humbly pray. And do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and all evil spirits who wander through the world for the ruin of souls. For who is like unto God? Who is like unto God? Who is like unto God?” (Do the sign of the Cross.)

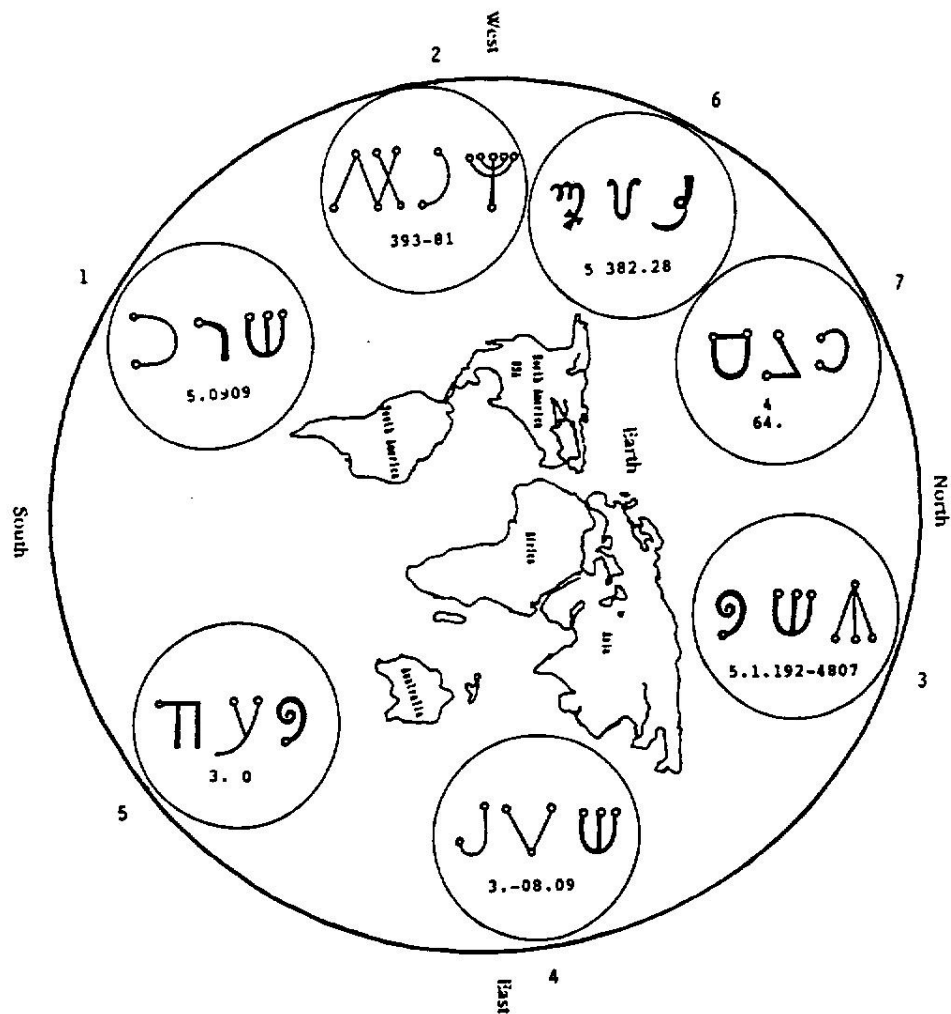

“O glorious Virgin Mary, majestic Queen of Heaven and Mistress of the Angels, thou was given by God the power and commission to crush the head of Satan. Therefore we humbly beseech thee, send forth the legions of heaven, that under thy command they may seek out all evil spirits, engage them everywhere in battle, curb their insolence and hurl them back into the pits of hell. O Mother of God, have mercy upon us, send forth thy holy angels to defend us and drive far from us the cruel foe. For who is like unto God? Who is like unto God? Who is like unto God? Amen” (Do the Sign of the Cross).
