CT 99

3rd International
Cognitive Technology Conference

networking minds

Conference Proceedings

San Francisco
August 11–14, 1999

Hosted by:
Media Interface & Network Design Lab
http://mindlab.msu.edu

Day 3: Friday August 13

THEME: AUGMENTING REALITY

9 am   Cognitive Transformation

Teresa Cerrato
Supportive collaborative writing and its cognitive tools

Brad Hokanson & Simon Hooper
Computers as cognitive media: Defining the potential of computers in education

Ann Majchrzak & Ronald Rice, Nelson King, Arvind Malhotra, Sulin Ba Development and Adaptation of Inter-Organizational Virtual Team Using Collaborative Technology

10.30am   Coffee Break

11 am   Co-presence

Kristine Nowak & Frank Biocca
"I Think There Is Someone Else Here With Me!": The Role of the Virtual Body in the Sensation of Co-presence with Other Humans and Artificial Intelligences in Advanced Virtual Environments.

John O'Neill
Implications of Learning by Peripheral Observation for Virtual Environ

12.30pm   Lunch

1.30pm   Keynote Lecture

Ted Nelson
General Schematics and the Technology of Intercomparison

2.30 pm   End of day 3

2.30 pm   Visit to SGI campus at the Silicon Valley and Banquet

- visit to their "Reality Center"

- demonstration of applications associated with "Networked Minds"

- banquet at Stanford University